«Do you not know that Allah knows all that is in the heavens and on earth?» Nothing is hidden from Him of either visible or hidden matters, what has already happened and what is yet to come. Allah has inscribed in a record that knowledge which encompasses all that is in heaven and on earth; that record is al-Lawḥ al-Maḥfūdh, and that knowledge was inscribed when Allah created the Pen and:

«He said to it: Write. It said: What should I write? He said: Write what will happen until the Day of Resurrection.» (A sound hadith recorded by Abu Dâwood)

«verily that is easy for Allah»; it is easy for Him even if your imagination cannot grasp it, for it is easy for Allah (ﷻ) to encompass all things with His knowledge and to inscribe that in a record in such a way that events will unfold exactly as written in that record.

﴿وَيَعْبُدُونَ مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ مَا لَمْ يَنْزِلْ بِهِ سُلْطَانٌ وَمَا لَيْسَ لَهُم بِهِ عِلْمٌ وَمَا لِلظَّالِمِينَ
مِن نَّصِيرٍ ﴿٧١﴾ وَإِذَا نُتِلَىٰ عَلَيْهِمُ آيَاتُنَا بَيِّنَاتٍ تَعْرِفُ فِي وُجُوهِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
الْمُنْكَرَ يَكَادُونَ يَسْطُونَ بِالَّذِينَ يَتْلُونَ عَلَيْهِمُ آيَاتِنَا قُلْ أَفَأُنَبِّئُكُم
بَشَرٍ مِّن ذَٰلِكُمُ النَّارُ وَعَدَهَا اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَبِئْسَ الْمَصِيرُ ﴿٧٢﴾﴾ (سورة الحج:

(٧٢-٧١)

- 22:71. Yet they worship, besides Allah, that for which no authority has been sent down to them and that of which they have no knowledge. For the wrongdoers there will be no helpers.
- 22:72. When Our clear revelations are recited to them, you will notice repugnance in the faces of those who disbelieve. They can barely restrain themselves from assaulting those who recite Our revelations to them. Say [O Muhammad]: Shall I tell you of something worse than what you feel at present? It is the fire, which Allah has promised to those who disbelieve – a hapless journey's end.

Here Allah describes the true nature of the polytheists who regard others as equal to Him, and tells us that they are in the worst condition, for they have no basis for what they do (of equating others to Him). They have no knowledge to support that; rather it is blind imitation of what they learned from their misguided forefathers.

A person may have no knowledge of what he does although, at the same time, there is proof for what he does, of which he has no knowledge. But in this case, Allah tells us that He has not sent down any authority for that. In other words, there is no proof to support it or permit it; rather what has been sent down is definitive proof that it is invalid and false.

Then Allah warns the wrongdoers among them who stubbornly reject the truth:

«For the wrongdoers there will be no helpers» to protect them from the punishment of Allah when it befalls them. Do these people – who have no knowledge of what they are following – have any intention of following the signs and guidance that have come to them? Or are they content with what they are following of falsehood?

Allah refers to that when He says:

«When Our clear revelations» that are the great revelations of Allah that make truth distinct from falsehood «are recited to them», they pay no attention to them and make no effort to understand them. Rather «you will notice repugnance in the faces of those who disbelieve». Because of their hatred and resentment, you see their faces frowning and displeased.

«They can barely restrain themselves from assaulting those who recite Our revelations to them» that is, they can barely restrain themselves from attacking them in order to kill them or beat them severely, because of the severity of their resentment and animosity towards them and towards the truth. This attitude of the disbelievers is the worst of attitudes, and its evil is the greatest of evils, but there is something that is even worse than that, namely the state which they will ultimately reach. Hence Allah says:

«Say [O Muhammad]: Shall I tell you of something worse than what you feel at present? It is the fire, which Allah has promised to those who disbelieve – a hapless journey's end». Its evil is immense and its hardship and pain will constantly increase.

يَتَأْتِيهَا النَّاسُ ضُرْبَ مَثَلٍ فَاغْتَوَعُوا لَهُمْ إِنَّكَ الْذَّيْبُ تَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ
لَنْ يَخْلُقُوا ذُبَابًا وَلَوْ اجْتَمَعُوا لَهُ وَإِنْ يَسْلُبْهُمُ الذُّبَابُ شَيْئًا لَا يَسْتَفِيدُوا مِنْهُ

ضَعُفَ الطَّالِبِ وَالْمَطْلُوبِ ﴿٧٣﴾ مَا قَدَرُوا اللَّهَ حَقَّ قَدْرِهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَقَوِيٌّ
عَزِيزٌ ﴿٧٤﴾ (سورة الحج: ٧٣-٧٤)

22:73. O people, an example is being presented, so listen to it: those on whom you call besides Allah can never create even a fly, even if they all came together to do that. And if the fly snatches something away from them, they cannot recover it from it. How weak are both the pursuer and the pursued!

22:74. They have not given due recognition to Allah. Verily Allah is indeed Strong, Almighty.

This is an example that Allah gives of the abhorrent nature of idol worship, highlighting the fact that those who worship them have no sense, for all the idols are weak. He says:

«O people» – this is addressed to both believers and disbelievers; the believers increase in knowledge and insight, whilst proof is established against the disbelievers.

«an example is being presented» that is, listen attentively and understand what it implies. You should not receive it heedlessly or listen inattentively; rather you should listen properly and pay attention. This is the example given:

«those on whom you call besides Allah» that is, everything that is called upon besides Allah

«can never create even a fly» which is the most insignificant and ignoble of created beings. They are not able to create even this feeble creature, so it is more unlikely that they could create anything greater than that.

«even if they all came together to do that» and, what is more, «if the fly snatches something away from them, they cannot recover it from it» – this is the utmost helplessness.

«How weak are both the pursuer» namely the one that is worshipped besides Allah

﴿and the pursued﴾ namely the fly. Both of them are weak, and even weaker than both of them is the one who gets attached to this weak entity and gives it the same status as the Lord of the worlds.

Such a one has not given due recognition to Allah, as he has regarded that which is lacking and incapable in all aspects as equal to the One Who is self-sufficient and most strong in all aspects. He has regarded that which has no power to bring benefit or ward off harm from itself or from anyone else, and has no power to cause death, give life or resurrect, as equal to the One Who brings benefits and wards off harm, Who gives and withholds, the ultimate Sovereign Who controls him in all ways.

﴿Verily Allah is indeed Strong, Almighty﴾ that is, He is perfect in strength and perfect in might, and because of the perfect nature of His strength and might, the forelocks of all creatures are in His Hand and nothing moves or halts except by His will. Whatever Allah wills happens, and whatever He does not will does not happen. By His perfect strength, He keeps a firm hold on the heavens and the earth, lest they fall apart. By His perfect strength, He will resurrect all people, the first and the last of them, with a single trumpet blast. By His perfect strength, He destroyed the tyrants and stubborn nations with something that is very easy for Him, and some of His punishment.

﴿اللَّهُ يَصْطَفِي مِنَ الْمَلَائِكَةِ رُسُلًا وَمِنَ النَّاسِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ سَمِيعٌ بَصِيرٌ
يَعْلَمُ مَا بَيْنَ أَيْدِيهِمْ وَمَا خَلْفَهُمْ وَإِلَى اللَّهِ تُرْجَعُ الْأُمُورُ﴾ (سورة الحج: ٧٥)

(٧٦-٧٥)

22:75. Allah chooses messengers from among the angels and from among humankind. Verily Allah is All-Hearing, All-Seeing.

22:76. He knows what was before them and what will be after them, and it is to Allah that all things will return.

Having explained His perfect nature and the weakness of the idols, and that He alone is deserving of worship, Allah (ﷻ) now speaks of the Messengers, and how they differ from other people, because of their distinct virtues.

﴿Allah chooses messengers from among the angels and from among humankind﴾ that is, He selects messengers from among the angels and messengers from among humankind, to be the best of their type, as they combine all noble characteristics and are the most deserving of being chosen. The Messengers can only be from among the very best of humankind, for the One Who chose and selected them is not unaware of the reality of things, and it is not the case that He knows some things and not others. Rather the One Who chooses them is the All-Hearing, All-Seeing, Whose knowledge, hearing and vision encompass all things. His choice of them is based on His knowledge that they are qualified for that and that they are fit to receive revelation, as He says elsewhere:

﴿...Allah knows best where to place His message...﴾ (al-An'ām 6: 124)

﴿and it is to Allah that all things will return﴾ that is, He sends the Messengers, who call people to Allah, then some of the people respond and some reject the call. This is the role of the Messengers. As for the requital for those deeds, it is up to Allah, and He will judge on the basis of His grace and justice.

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا ارْكَعُوا وَاسْجُدُوا وَاعْبُدُوا رَبَّكُمْ وَافْعَلُوا الْخَيْرَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُفْلِحُونَ ﴿٧٦﴾ وَجَاهِدُوا فِي اللَّهِ حَقَّ جِهَادِهِ هُوَ اجْتَبَاكُمْ وَمَا

جَعَلَ عَلَيْكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ مِنْ حَرَجٍ مِلَّةَ أَبِيكُمْ إِبْرَاهِيمَ هُوَ سَمَنُكُمُ الْمُسْلِمِينَ مِنْ قَبْلُ
وَفِي هَذَا لِيَكُونَ الرَّسُولُ شَهِيدًا عَلَيْكُمْ وَتَكُونُوا شُهَدَاءَ عَلَى النَّاسِ فَأَقِيمُوا الصَّلَاةَ
وَاءَاتُوا الزَّكَاةَ وَاعْتَصِمُوا بِاللَّهِ هُوَ مَوْلَاكُمْ فَنِعْمَ الْمَوْلَى وَنِعْمَ النَّصِيرُ ﴿٧٨﴾ (سورة الحج: ٧٧-٧٨)

- 22:77. O you who believe, bow and prostrate, and worship your Lord, and do good, so that you may prosper.
- 22:78. Strive in the cause of Allah as you ought to strive. He has chosen you and has not imposed any hardship on you in religion, the religion of your father Ibrâheem. It is He [Allah] Who named you Muslims, both before and in this [Qur'an], so that the Messenger might be a witness over you and you might be witnesses over humankind. So establish prayer, give zakâh, and hold fast to Allah, for He is your Protector, an excellent Protector and an excellent Helper!

Here Allah (ﷻ) enjoins His believing slaves to pray, and mentions in particular bowing and prostration, because of the virtue of these deeds and because they are an essential part of the prayer and of worshipping Him which brings comfort and consolation to one who is grieved. His Lordship and generosity towards His slaves require them to devote their worship to Him alone and make it incumbent upon them to do good deeds in general.

Allah (ﷻ) has made prosperity and success dependent upon these things, as He says: ﴿so that you may prosper﴾ that is, so that you may attain what you seek and be saved from what you fear. There is no way to prosper and succeed except by being sincere in worship of the Creator alone and striving to be of benefit to His slaves. Whoever is enabled to do that will attain a high level of happiness, success and prosperity.

﴿Strive in the cause of Allah as you ought to strive﴾ – striving means doing one's utmost to attain the desired goal. Striving in the cause of Allah as one ought to strive means complying in full with the commands of Allah, and calling people to His path by all possible means, such as offering sincere advice, teaching, fighting, disciplining, rebuking, exhorting, and so on.

﴿He has chosen you﴾ that is, He has selected you, O Muslims, from among humankind, and has chosen and approved of Islam for you, and He has chosen for you the best of Books and the best of Messengers. So respond to this immense blessing by striving as you should.

Because some people may imagine that the phrase ﴿Strive in the cause of Allah as you ought to strive﴾ may imply imposition of a duty that is beyond their ability to fulfil, or is too difficult to carry out, Allah dispels this notion by saying:

﴿and has not imposed any hardship on you in religion﴾ that is, He has not imposed any difficulty; rather He has made it very easy and straightforward. Firstly, He never enjoins or makes binding anything but that which is easy to carry out and is not burdensome or too hard. If there is some reason to reduce the burden, He reduces some of what He has enjoined, waiving it in full or in part.

An important principle is based on this verse, which is that if a command becomes too difficult, it becomes a cause for the scholars to review the matter and issue a fatwa to make it easier, and necessity makes prohibited things permissible. Based on that, there are many minor rulings that are well known in the books of the scholars.

﴿the religion of your father Ibrâheem﴾ that is, the religion and commands mentioned are the religion of your father Ibrâheem, in which he persisted, so adhere to it and cling to it.

﴿It is He [Allah] Who named you Muslims, both before﴾ that is, in the previous Books, which are well known.

«and in this [Qur'an]» so this name of yours is well known, past and present.

«so that the Messenger might be a witness over you», to your deeds, both good and bad

«and you might be witnesses over humankind», because you are the best community ever brought forth for (the benefit of) humankind (3: 110), a moderate, fair and exemplary community; you testify that the Messengers indeed conveyed the message to their nations, and you testify that the nations did indeed receive the message conveyed by their Messengers, as Allah has told you in His Book.

«So establish prayer», with all its essential parts, fulfilling its conditions and performing it properly.

«give zakâh» as you are obliged to, giving it to those who are entitled to it, out of gratitude to Allah for what He has bestowed upon you.

«and hold fast to Allah» that is, seek His help and put your trust in Him, and do not trust in your own power and strength

«for He is your Protector» Who is taking care of your affairs and managing them well, disposing of your affairs in your best interests.

«an excellent Protector» that is, the best protector for the one who takes Him as an ally, so He helps him to attain what he is seeking

«and an excellent Helper» to the one who seeks His help, so He wards off from him what he fears.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat al-Hajj.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

23.

Soorat al-Mu'minoon

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿قَدْ أَفْلَحَ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ ۝١ الَّذِينَ هُمْ فِي صَلَاتِهِمْ خَاشِعُونَ ۝٢ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ عَنِ اللَّغْوِ
مُعْرِضُونَ ۝٣ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ لِلزَّكَاةِ فَاعِلُونَ ۝٤ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ لِفُرُوجِهِمْ حَافِظُونَ
۝٥ إِلَّا عَلَىٰ أَزْوَاجِهِمْ أَوْ مَا مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُهُمْ فَإِنَّهُمْ غَيْرُ مَلُومِينَ ۝٦ فَمَنِ
ابْتَغَىٰ وَرَاءَ ذَلِكَ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْعَادُونَ ۝٧ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ لِأَمْتِنَتِهِمْ وَعَهْدِهِمْ رَاعُونَ
۝٨ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ عَلَىٰ صَلَاتِهِمْ يُحَافِظُونَ ۝٩ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْوَارِثُونَ ۝١٠ الَّذِينَ
يَرِثُونَ الْفِرْدَوْسَ هُمْ فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ ۝١١﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ١-١١)

- 23:1. The believers have indeed attained true success, 23:2. Those who humble themselves in their prayers,
23:3. who turn away from all that is vain,
23:4. who are active in giving zakâh,
23:5. and who restrain their carnal desires, 23:6. except with their wives or any slave women they may own, for then they are free of blame.

23:7. But whoever seeks anything beyond that, such are the transgressors.

23:8. Those who are faithful to their trusts and pledges,

23:9. and who are diligent in their prayers,

23:10. such will be the heirs

23:11. who will inherit paradise; they will abide therein forever.

Here Allah praises and commends His believing slaves, highlighting their success and bliss, and the means by which they attain that. This implicitly urges us to acquire the same characteristics and encourages us to do so. So the individual should take stock of himself and others, measuring against these standards; thus he will know what he and others have of faith, and the level and extent of that faith.

«The believers have indeed attained true success» that is, they are victorious, blessed and successful, for they have attained everything that one may seek. Among the perfect attributes of the believers who believe in Allah and in the Messengers is the fact that they «humble themselves in their prayers».

Humble focus in prayer means presence of mind before Allah (ﷻ), bearing in mind how close He is. Thus the believer's heart is comforted, his mind is put at rest, his movements become still and he is not distracted, as he stands humbly before his Lord, focusing on everything that he says and does in his prayer, from beginning to end. Thus he dispels devilish whispers and bad thoughts. This is the essence and purpose of prayer, and this is what will be written down in the individual's record.

With regard to prayer in which there is no humility and focus of mind, even though it may be valid and rewardable, the reward for it will be commensurate with the person's level of focus and understanding of what he says.

«who turn away from all that is vain», which is words in which there is nothing good and no benefit. They turn away from it out of dislike for it, and so as to protect themselves and rise above it; if they pass by (people engaged in) idle talk, they pass by with dignity (25: 72). As they turn away from all that is vain, it is even more apt that they should turn away from that which is prohibited.

If a person can rein in his tongue and keep it under control – speaking only of that which is good – then he will be in control of all his affairs, as the Prophet (ﷺ) said to Mu‘adh ibn Jabal (raḍiya Allāhu ‘anhu – may Allah be pleased with him) when he gave him advice: «The Prophet (ﷺ) said: Shall I not tell you of the basis of all of that? I said: Yes, O Messenger of Allah. He took hold of his own tongue and said: Restrain this.» (A sound hadith recorded by Ibn Mājah)

One of the praiseworthy characteristics of the believers is that they restrain their tongues and refrain from vain talk and saying that which is prohibited.

«who are active in giving zakâh» that is, they give zakâh on their wealth of all types, thus purifying themselves by giving up bad attitudes and bad deeds. So they do well in worshipping the Creator and in focusing humbly in their prayer, and they do good to His creation by giving zakâh.

«and who restrain their carnal desires» and refrain from zinâ (unlawful sexual relationships). Part of restraining their carnal desires is avoiding anything that leads to that which is unlawful, such as looking, touching and so on. So they restrain their carnal desires and refrain from illicit relationships with anyone except «their wives or any slave women they may own, for then they are free of blame» if they have intimate relations with them, because Allah (ﷻ) has permitted that.

«But whoever seeks anything beyond that» that is, beyond the wife or the female slave

﴿such are the transgressors﴾ who have gone beyond what Allah has permitted to that which He has prohibited, and have the audacity to transgress the limits set by Allah.

The general meaning of this verse indicates that mut'ah marriage (temporary marriage) is prohibited, and the woman in such a marriage is not a wife in a true sense, with the intention of permanent marriage, nor is she a slave. Tahleel marriage<sup>25</sup> is prohibited for the same reason.

The words ﴿or any slave women they may own﴾ indicate that in order for it to be permissible to have intimate relations with a slave woman, it is stipulated that one should own her entirely. If a man has a part-share in ownership of a slave woman, it is not permissible to have intimate relations with her, because he does not fully own her; rather she belongs to him and to someone else. Just as it is not permissible for two husbands to share a free woman, it is not permissible for two masters to share a slave woman.

﴿Those who are faithful to their trusts and pledges﴾ that is, they are faithful to them, knowing the terms thereof and adhering to them, and they are keen to fulfil the conditions and implement what they promised. This is general in meaning and applies to all trusts that have to do with the rights of Allah and those that have to do with the rights of people. Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Verily, We offered the Trust to the heavens, the earth, and the mountains, yet they refused to undertake it and were afraid of it. But man undertook it...﴾ (al-Ahzāb 33: 72)

<sup>25</sup> Tahleel marriage: after a third talāq, a woman cannot go back to her husband unless she has married another man, in a genuine marriage, then been divorced by him:

﴿And if he divorces her [the third time], she will not be lawful for him again until she has married another husband...﴾ (al-Baqarah 2: 230)

Tahleel marriage is a marriage for the purpose of making her permissible for her first husband by marrying her, consummating the marriage, and then divorcing her; it is haram, and it does not make the woman permissible for her first husband.

Everything that Allah has enjoined upon His slave is a trust, and the slave must adhere to it by complying with it fully. This also includes things that are entrusted to people, such as property or wealth, secrets and so on. The individual must pay attention to both and must fulfil both types of trusts.

﴿Verily, Allah commands you to render back trusts to those to whom they are due...﴾ (an-Nisā' 4: 58)

The same applies to pledges, including pledges between people and their Lord, and pledges that people make amongst themselves. They must be faithful to them and fulfil them, and it is forbidden to be heedless and negligent with regard to them.

﴿and who are diligent in their prayers﴾ that is, they persist in offering them on time, in the prescribed manner, fulfilling their conditions and doing all the essential parts thereof. Allah praises them for their humble focus and diligence in prayer, because they cannot be in good shape unless they do both. Whoever persists in praying without humbling themselves, or humbles himself without being diligent in prayer, is falling short.

﴿such﴾ that is, those who are described in these terms ﴿will be the heirs who will inherit paradise﴾. The word translated here as ﴿paradise﴾ (firdaws) refers to the highest part of paradise, the middle and best of it, because they attained the best of praiseworthy attributes. Or it may be that what is meant is all of paradise, so that this includes all the believers of varying levels, each according to his situation.

﴿they will abide therein forever﴾ and will never leave it, nor will they want to move from it, because it contains the most perfect, best and most complete delights, without anything to spoil their joy or undermine their happiness.

﴿وَلَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ سُلَالَةٍ مِنْ طِينٍ﴾ (١٢) ثُمَّ جَعَلْنَاهُ نُطْفَةً فِي قَرَارٍ مَكِينٍ ﴿١٣﴾ ثُمَّ خَلَقْنَا النُّطْفَةَ عَلَقَةً فَخَلَقْنَا الْعَلَقَةَ مُضْغَةً فَخَلَقْنَا الْمُضْغَةَ عِظْمًا فَكَسَوْنَا الْعِظْمَ لَحْمًا ثُمَّ أَنْشَأْنَاهُ خَلْقًا آخَرَ ۚ فَتَبَارَكَ اللَّهُ أَحْسَنُ الْخَالِقِينَ ﴿١٤﴾ ثُمَّ إِنَّكُمْ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ لَمَيِّتُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ ثُمَّ إِنَّكُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ تُبْعَثُونَ ﴿١٦﴾ (سورة)

(المؤمنون: ١٢-١٦)

- 23:12. Indeed We created man from the finest extract of clay, 23:13. Then We placed him as a drop of semen in a safe repository.<sup>26</sup>
 23:14. Then We made the drop of semen into a clinging clot, then We made the clinging clot into a lump of flesh, then We made the lump of flesh into bones, and clothed the bones with flesh, and then We brought it forth as another creation.<sup>27</sup> So blessed be Allah, the best of creators.
 23:15. Then after that you will surely die,
 23:16. then on the Day of Resurrection you will surely be raised up.

In this passage Allah mentions the stages through which the human being passes, from the beginning of his creation until his ultimate destiny. He mentions the initial creation of the father of humankind, Adam (ﷺ), and tells us that He created him ﴿from the finest extract of clay﴾ that is, the clay was extracted and taken from all over the earth, hence Adam's descendants vary according to what type of land they were collected from. Therefore some of them are good, some <sup>26</sup> v. 12 refers to the creation of Adam (ﷺ) and the following verse refers to the creation of his offspring.

<sup>27</sup> This may refer to when the soul is breathed into the developing foetus, or it may refer to the different stages of human development throughout life. (al-Baghawi) are bad, and some are somewhere in between; some are easy-going, some are harsh and some are somewhere in between.

﴿Then We placed him﴾ that is, the human being ﴿as a drop of semen﴾ proceeding from between the backbone and the ribs (86: 7), which then settles ﴿in a safe repository﴾, namely the uterus, where it is protected from harm.

﴿Then We made the drop of semen﴾ that had settled (in the uterus) before that ﴿into a clinging clot﴾ that is, red blood, forty days after the drop of semen was placed in the safe repository.

﴿then We made the clinging clot﴾ after forty days ﴿into a lump of flesh﴾ that is, a small piece of flesh, the size of a mouthful of food.

﴿then We made the lump of flesh﴾ which was soft ﴿into bones﴾ which were hard.

﴿and clothed the bones with flesh﴾ that is, We made the flesh like a cover for the bones, as We made the bones a framework for the flesh. That is in the third forty-day period.

﴿and then We brought it forth as another creation﴾ into which the soul is breathed, so it goes from being inanimate to being an animate, living being.

﴿So blessed be Allah﴾ that is, exalted and glorified be He, the One Who does abundant good, ﴿the best of creators﴾:

﴿Who created all things well and initiated the creation of man from clay, then He made his offspring from the extract of an insignificant fluid. Then He fashioned him and breathed into him the soul which He created for him. He gave you hearing, sight and intellect; little it is that you give thanks.﴾ (as-Sajdah 32: 7-9)

He has created all things well and man is one of the best of His creations; indeed he is the best of all, as Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Verily We have created man in the best of conditions.﴾ (at-Teen 95: 4)

Hence the elite of humankind are the best and most perfect of creatures.

«Then after that», after being created and after your souls have been breathed into you, «you will surely die» in one of your stages of your journey.

«then on the Day of Resurrection you will surely be raised up», then you will be requited for your deeds, both good and bad. Allah (ﷻ) says:

«Does man think that he will be left unchecked? Was he not a drop of semen emitted, then he became a clinging clot, then [Allah] formed him and fashioned him, and made from him two genders, male and female? Is not He Who has done that able to bring the dead to life?»
(al-Qiyamah 75: 36-40)

﴿وَلَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا فَوْقَكُمْ سَبْعَ طَرَائِقَ وَمَا كُنَّا عَنِ الْخَلْقِ غَفِيلِينَ ﴿١٧﴾ وَأَنْزَلْنَا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً بِقَدَرٍ فَأَسْكَنَّاهُ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَإِنَّا عَلَى ذَهَابٍ بِهِ لَقَادِرُونَ ﴿١٨﴾ فَأَنْشَأْنَا لَكُمْ بِهِ جَنَّاتٍ مِنْ نَخِيلٍ وَأَعْنَابٍ لَكُمْ فِيهَا فَوَاكِهُ كَثِيرَةٌ وَمِنْهَا تَأْكُلُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ وَشَجَرَةً تَخْرُجُ مِنْ طُورِ سَيْنَاءَ تَنْبُتُ بِالدَّهْنِ وَصِبْغٍ لِلْأَكْلِينَ ﴿٢٠﴾﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ١٧-٢٠)

- 23:17. We have created above you seven heavens [one over the other], and We have never been negligent towards Our creation.
- 23:18. We send down water from the sky in due measure and We cause it to remain on the earth; and verily, We are able to take it away.
- 23:19. And by means of this water We bring forth for you gardens of date palms and vines, in which you have many fruits and from them you eat.
- 23:20. And We bring forth a tree [the olive] which grows on Mount Sinai, producing oil and a condiment for all to eat.

Having mentioned the creation of man, Allah (ﷻ) now tells us of his place of dwelling and how plentiful are the blessings of all kinds that He bestows:

﴿We have created above you﴾ as a canopy for the earth and serving the interests of people

﴿seven heavens﴾ that is, seven heavens, one above the other, adorned with the stars, the sun and the moon. And He has placed therein that which serves people's interests.

﴿and We have never been negligent towards Our creation﴾ – just as Our creation encompasses all created beings, Our knowledge also encompasses all that We have created. So We do not neglect any created being or forget it; We do not create anything and then forsake it. We do not neglect the heaven so that it falls upon the earth, and We do not forget the tiniest creature in the depths of the sea or the remotest wilderness. There is no creature but We send its provision to it.

﴿There is no creature that lives on the earth but its sustenance is guaranteed by Allah. He knows its dwelling place and its resting place...﴾ (Hood 11: 6)

Allah (ﷻ) often mentions together His act of creation and His Knowledge, as in the verses in which He says:

﴿How could He Who created not know His own creation, when He alone is the Knower of subtleties, the All-Aware?﴾ (al-Mulk 67: 14)

﴿...He is the Creator of all, the All-Knowing.﴾ (Yâ Seen 36: 81)

That is because the creation of all created things is the strongest rational evidence for the knowledge and wisdom of their Creator.

﴿We send down water from the sky in due measure﴾ as provision for you and your livestock, as much as will suffice you. He does not give less, so that it is not enough for the earth and trees, for that would not serve the purpose. And He does not make it excessive so that it could destroy people's houses, and plants and trees would not be able to survive. Rather He sends it down when it is needed, then He diverts it when it could cause harm if it persisted.

﴿and We cause it to remain on the earth﴾ that is, We send it down to the earth, then it settles there and by the power of the One Who sent it down, all kinds of plants are brought forth. He also causes it to settle and be stored in the ground, readily available; it does not go so deep that no one could reach it.

﴿and verily, We are able to take it away﴾ either by not sending it down in the first place, or by sending it down then letting it disappear into the ground so that not one could reach it, or by causing it not to achieve the purpose intended by it. This is Allah's warning to His slaves that they should show gratitude to Him for His blessings, and they should think, if they were to lose these blessings, what harm would result from that. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Say: What do you think, if your water were to disappear under the ground, then who could bring you accessible water?﴾ (al-Mulk 67: 30)

﴿And by means of this water We bring forth for you gardens of date palms and vines﴾. Allah (ﷻ) singles out these two plants for mention, even though other kinds of plants also grow by means of it, because of their virtue and benefits that make them superior to other plants. Hence He mentions others in general terms: ﴿in which﴾ that is, in those gardens ﴿you have many fruits and from them you eat﴾, such as figs, citrons, pomegranates, apples, and so on.

﴿And We bring forth a tree [the olive] which grows on Mount Sinai﴾ this refers to the olive tree. It is singled out for mention because the place where it grows is in greater Syria, and because of its benefits, some of which He mentions here: ﴿producing oil and a condiment for all to eat﴾ that is, it produces oil which is used for lamps and as a condiment that is eaten. And it has other benefits also.

﴿وَلَا لَكُمْ فِي الْأَنْعَامِ لَعِبْرَةٌ لِّتُفَكِّرُمْ مِمَّا فِي بُطُونِهَا وَلَكُمْ فِيهَا مَنَافِعُ كَثِيرَةٌ وَمِنْهَا تَأْكُلُونَ
﴿٢١﴾ وَعَلَيْهَا وَعَلَى الْفُلْكِ تُحْمَلُونَ ﴿٢٢﴾﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ٢١-٢٢)

23:21. And verily in livestock animals too there is a lesson for you. We give you to drink of that [milk] which is in their bellies; you have many other benefits from them, and of their [meat] you eat.

23:22. And on them, and on ships, you are carried.

That is, among other blessings that He has bestowed upon you, He has made to be of service to you the livestock animals, namely camels, cattle and sheep. In them there is a lesson for those who reflect, and there are benefits for those who avail themselves thereof.

﴿We give you to drink of that [milk] which is in their bellies﴾, which is produced alongside faeces and blood: pure milk, palatable to those who drink it (16: 66).

﴿you have many other benefits from them﴾, namely their wool and hair; He has given you dwellings made from the skins of livestock, which you find light to handle when you travel and when you halt (16: 80)

﴿and of their [meat] you eat﴾, which is the best food, their meat and fat.

﴿And on them, and on ships, you are carried﴾ that is, He has made them like ships for you on land, on which you and your goods are carried to lands that you could not (otherwise) reach without great hardship (16: 7). And He has also made for you ships which carry you and your goods, whether few or many, across the sea.

The One Who bestowed these blessings and favours of all kinds, and has been very generous towards you, is the One Who deserves all gratitude and all praise, and deserves that you should strive hard to worship Him and not use His blessings to disobey Him.

﴿وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا نُوحًا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِ فَقَالَ يَتَقَوَّمُوا عِبَادُوا اللَّهَ مَا لَكُمْ مِنْ إِلَهٍ غَيْرُهُ أَفَلَا تَتَّقُونَ ٢٣﴾ فَقَالَ الْمَلَأُوا الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ قَوْمِهِ مَا هَذَا إِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِثْلُكُمْ يُرِيدُ أَنْ يَفْضَلَ عَلَيْكُمْ وَلَوْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ لَأَنْزَلَ مَلَائِكَةً مَا سَمِعْنَا بِهَذَا فِي آبَائِنَا الْأَوَّلِينَ ٢٤﴾ إِنَّ هُوَ إِلَّا رَجُلٌ بِهِ جَنَّةٌ فَرَتَّبُوا بِهِ، حَتَّىٰ جِئَ ٢٥﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ انصُرْنِي بِمَا كَذَّبُون ٢٦﴾ فَأَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْهِ أَنْ اصْنَعْ الْفُلَ بِأَعْيُنِنَا وَوَحِّينَا فَإِذَا جَاءَ أَمْرُنَا وَفَارَ التَّنُّورُ فَاسْلُكْ فِيهَا مِنْ كُلِّ زَوْجَيْنِ اثْنَيْنِ وَأَهْلَكَ إِلَّا مَنْ سَبَقَ عَلَيْهِ الْقَوْلُ مِنْهُمْ وَلَا تَخْطِئْنِي فِي الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا إِنَّهُمْ مُغْرَقُونَ ٢٧﴾ فَإِذَا اسْتَوَيْتَ أَنْتَ وَمَنْ مَعَكَ عَلَى الْفُلِكِ فَقُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي نَجَّيْنَا مِنَ الْقَوْمِ الظَّالِمِينَ ٢٨﴾ وَقُلْ رَبِّ أَنْزِلْنِي مُنزَلًا مُبَارَكًا وَأَنْتَ خَيْرُ الْمُنْزِلِينَ ٢٩﴾ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ وَإِنْ كُنَّا لَمُبْتَلِينَ ٣٠﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ٢٣-٣٠)

23:23. Indeed We sent Nooh to his people. He said: O my people, worship Allah; you have no god but He. Will you not then fear Him?

23:24. But the chieftains of his people who disbelieved said: This one is no more than a man like yourselves who wants to make himself superior to you. If Allah had so willed, He could have sent down angels [as messengers]. We have never heard of such a thing from our forefathers.

23:25. He is no more than a man in whom there is madness. So bear with him for a while.

23:26. Nooh said: My Lord, help me, for they have rejected me.

23:27. So We inspired him: Build the ark under Our supervision and in accordance with Our inspiration. Then, when Our command comes and water gushes up out of the earth, let on board a pair from every species, and your family, except those against whom the sentence has already been passed. And do not plead with Me concerning those who did wrong, for they will surely be drowned.

23:28. Once you and those who are with you are settled on board the ark, say: Praise be to Allah, Who has saved us from the people who are given to wrongdoing.

23:29. And say: My Lord, cause me to land at a blessed landing-place, for You are the Best of those who bring to land.

23:30. Surely in that there are signs; for, verily, We always put [man] to the test.

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the message of His slave and Messenger Nooh (عليه السلام), who was the first Messenger whom He sent to the people of this earth. He sent him to his people, who used to worship idols, and he instructed them to worship Allah alone, saying:

﴿O my people, worship Allah﴾ that is, devote your worship to Him alone, because worship is not valid unless it is sincerely devoted to Him alone.

﴿you have no god but He﴾ this is a declaration of the invalidity of the divinity of anything other than Allah, and is an affirmation of the divinity of Allah (ﷻ), for He alone is the Creator and Provider, Who is perfect in all ways; all others are the opposite of that.

﴿Will you not then fear Him?﴾ And give up what you are doing of worshipping idols and statues that were made in the image of righteous people, and they worshipped them alongside Allah.

He continued doing that, calling them in private and in public, night and day, for one thousand less fifty years, but they only increased in stubbornness and aversion.

﴿But the chieftains of his people who disbelieved﴾ that is, the nobles and leaders

﴿said﴾ by way of objecting to their Prophet Nooh (ؑ) and warning others against following him:

﴿This one is no more than a man like yourselves who wants to make himself superior to you﴾ that is, he is only a human being like you; his aim in claiming prophethood is to prove his superiority over you, so that he will be followed; otherwise, what makes him superior to you when he is just like you? This objection continued to be raised among those who reject the Messengers.

But Allah gave a sufficient response on the lips of His Messengers, as in the passage in which He says:

﴿...They said: You are but human beings like ourselves! You want to turn us away from that which our forefathers used to worship; then bring us some clear proof. Their Messengers said to them: Indeed, we are but human beings like yourselves, but Allah bestows His favour upon whomever He wills of His slaves...﴾ (Ibrâheem 14: 10-11)

They stated that this was the blessing and favour of Allah, and they had no right to put restrictions on Allah or object to Him for bestowing His favour on them.

In this case, the people of Nooh said: ﴿If Allah had so willed, He could have sent down angels [as messengers]﴾. They used the concept of the divine will to raise objections on a false basis. Although Allah could have sent down angels as messengers if He had so willed, He is Most Wise, Most Merciful, and His wisdom and mercy dictate that the Messenger should be human, because humans cannot be directly addressed by angels, and an angel could only have appeared to them in the form of a man, in which case they would have become confused and raised the same objections again.

﴿We have never heard of such a thing﴾ namely the sending of a Messenger ﴿from our forefathers﴾. What proof is there in the fact that they never heard of the sending of a Messenger to their forefathers? For they do not have full knowledge of what happened in the past, so they should not make that ignorance the basis of their argument. Even if we assume that no Messenger was sent to their forefathers, either their forefathers were guided, so there was no need for a Messenger at that time, or they were not guided, so let them praise their Lord and give thanks to Him for singling them out for a blessing that did not come to their forefathers, and they were never aware of it. They should not let the fact that a blessing did not reach others be a cause of ingratitude for a favour bestowed upon them.

﴿He is no more than a man in whom there is madness. So bear with him﴾ and wait ﴿for a while﴾, until death comes to him.

The arguments they gave to justify their rejection of their Prophet are indicative of their extreme ingratitude and stubbornness, and demonstrate that they were extremely ignorant and misguided. These specious arguments do not justify their rejection in any way, as we have mentioned; rather they were self-contradictory and flimsy in and of themselves.

By saying ﴿This one is no more than a man like yourselves who wants to make himself superior to you﴾ (23: 24), they affirmed that he was a man of rational thinking who was scheming against them in order to put himself above them and become their leader, and – moreover – there was a need to warn against him so that no one would be deceived by him.

How could that be in harmony with their other argument against him, when they said: ﴿He is no more than a man in whom there is madness﴾ (23: 25)? Can this be anything other than the specious argument of one who is misguided and confused? All he is trying to do is find any justification for his aversion to the truth, without knowing what he is talking about! But Allah insists on exposing and disgracing those who oppose Him and His Messengers.

When Nooh realised that his call was only increasing them in aversion, he said: ﴿My Lord, help me, for they have rejected me﴾. He asked his Lord for help against them out of anger for the sake of Allah, as they neglected His command and rejected His Messenger. Nooh said:

﴿...My Lord, do not leave on earth a single living soul from among the disbelievers. For if You leave them, they will mislead Your slaves and will beget none but wicked disbelievers.﴾ (Nooh 71: 26-27)

And Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Indeed, Nooh called upon Us, and how excellent was Our response!﴾ (as-Saffat 37: 75)

﴿So We inspired him﴾ when We answered him, telling him of a means to save himself before the punishment came.

﴿Build the ark﴾ that is, the ship ﴿under Our supervision and in accordance with Our inspiration﴾ that is, in accordance with Our instructions to you and with Our help, for you are under Our care and supervision, as We see you and hear you.

﴿Then, when Our command comes﴾ to send the flood with which they were to be punished,

﴿and water gushes up out of the earth﴾ that is, when springs burst forth from the earth

﴿let on board a pair from every species﴾ that is, take on board the ark a male and female of every animal, so as to maintain the offspring of all animals that were created on earth by divine wisdom.

﴿and your family﴾ that is, take them on board too,

﴿except those against whom the sentence has already been passed﴾, such as his son.

﴿And do not plead with Me concerning those who did wrong﴾ that is, do not pray to Me to save them, for it has already been willed and decreed that they will be drowned.

﴿Once you and those who are with you are settled on board the ark﴾ that is, when you have embarked and it has sailed with you on the waves, then praise Allah for saving you and keeping you safe.

﴿say: Praise be to Allah, Who has saved us from the people who are given to wrongdoing﴾. Allah taught Nooh and those who were with him to say these words in thanksgiving to Him, praising Him for saving them from the evildoers and from following their path and sharing their punishment.

﴿And say: My Lord, cause me to land at a blessed landing-place, for You are the Best of those who bring to land﴾ that is, there is another blessing that is yet to come, so pray to Allah for it, namely that Allah should make it easy for you to land at a blessed landing-place. And Allah answered his supplication, as He tells us elsewhere:

﴿...and the decree was fulfilled. The ark came to rest on Mount al-Judi and it was said: Away with the wicked people!... It was said: O Nooh, disembark with safety granted by Us, and with blessings upon you and some of the communities [who will spring from] those who are with you...﴾ (Hood 11: 44-48)

﴿Surely in that﴾ that is, in this story ﴿there are signs﴾ which indicate that Allah alone is deserving of worship, and that His Messenger Nooh was truthful and his people were liars. This is indicative of Allah's mercy towards His slaves, as He carried them in the loins of their father Nooh, in the ark, when He drowned the people of the earth.

The ark is also one of the signs of Allah. He tells us elsewhere:

﴿Verily, We have left it as a sign; is there then any who will pay heed?﴾ (al-Qamar 54: 15)

Hence signs are mentioned in the plural, because this refers to a number of signs and indications, ﴿for, verily, We always put [man] to the test﴾.

﴿فَرَأَيْنَاهُمْ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ يَنْتَحِبُونَ﴾ (٢٣) ﴿فَرَأَيْنَاهُمْ يَتَقَرَّبُونَ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ﴾ (٢٤) ﴿فَرَأَيْنَاهُمْ يَتَقَرَّبُونَ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ﴾ (٢٥) ﴿فَرَأَيْنَاهُمْ يَتَقَرَّبُونَ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ﴾ (٢٦) ﴿فَرَأَيْنَاهُمْ يَتَقَرَّبُونَ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ﴾ (٢٧) ﴿فَرَأَيْنَاهُمْ يَتَقَرَّبُونَ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ﴾ (٢٨) ﴿فَرَأَيْنَاهُمْ يَتَقَرَّبُونَ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ﴾ (٢٩) ﴿فَرَأَيْنَاهُمْ يَتَقَرَّبُونَ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ﴾ (٣٠)

فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا مَا هَذَا إِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِثْلُكُمْ يَأْكُلُ مِمَّا تَأْكُلُونَ مِنْهُ وَيَشْرَبُ مِمَّا تَشْرَبُونَ ﴿٣١﴾ وَلَئِنْ أَطَعْتُمْ بَشَرًا مِثْلَكُمْ إِنَّكُمْ إِذَا لَخَسِرُونَ ﴿٣٢﴾ أَعِدُّكُمْ أَنْفُسَكُمْ إِذَا مِتُّمْ وَكُنْتُمْ تُرَابًا وَعِظْمًا أَنْفُسَكُمْ تَخْرُجُونَ ﴿٣٣﴾ هَيَّاتَ هَيَّاتَ لِمَا تَوَعَّدُونَ ﴿٣٤﴾ إِنَّ هِيَ إِلَّا حَيَاتُنَا الدُّنْيَا نَمُوتُ وَنَحْيَا وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمَبْعُوثِينَ ﴿٣٥﴾ إِنَّ هُوَ إِلَّا رَجُلٌ افْتَرَى عَلَى اللَّهِ كَذِبًا وَمَا نَحْنُ لَهُ بِمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٣٦﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ انصُرْنِي بِمَا كَذَّبُونِ ﴿٣٧﴾ قَالَ عَمَّا قَلِيلٍ لَيُصْبِحُنَّ نَادِيَيْنِ ﴿٣٨﴾ فَأَخَذَتُهُمُ الصَّبِيحَةُ بِالْحَقِّ فَنَجَّلْنَاهُمْ غَسَاكًا فَبُعْدًا لِلْقَوْمِ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٤١﴾

(سورة المؤمنون: ٣١-٤١)

- 23:31. Then We raised up after them another nation.
- 23:32. We sent to them a Messenger from among themselves, [who said]: O my people, worship Allah; you have no god but He. Will you not then fear Him?
- 23:33. But the chieftains of his people who disbelieved and denied the meeting in the hereafter, and upon whom We had conferred ease and comfort in the life of this world, said: This one is no more than a man like yourselves who eats what you eat, and drinks what you drink.
- 23:34. If you obey a man like yourselves, then indeed you will be losers.
- 23:35. Does he promise you that when you have died and become dust and bones, you will be brought forth [alive, from your graves]?
- 23:36. Far-fetched, utterly far-fetched is what you are promised.
- 23:37. There is nothing beyond our life in this world; we die and we live,<sup>28</sup> and we will not be resurrected.
- 23:38. He is no more than a man who fabricated lies against Allah; we will never believe in him.
- 23:39. [Their Prophet] said: My Lord, help me, for they have rejected me.

<sup>28</sup> That is, one generation dies and is succeeded by another. (al-Kash-shāf)

23:40. Allah said: Before long they will surely come to regret it.

23:41. So the blast overtook them in all justice and We made them like refuse swept away by a torrent. So away with the wicked people!

Having mentioned Nūḥ and his people, and how He destroyed them, Allah now says:

﴿Then We raised up after them another nation﴾. What appears to be the case is that they were Thamood, the people of Ṣāliḥ (ﷺ), because this story is similar to theirs.

﴿We sent to them a Messenger from among themselves﴾, one of their own people whose lineage, position and honesty they knew well, so that it would be easier for them to follow him, if he was one of them, and they would be less likely to resent him. He proclaimed the same message to them as all the Messengers proclaimed to their nations, calling them to ﴿worship Allah; you have no god but He﴾. All the Messengers brought this message, and it is the first thing to which they called their nations, instructing them to worship Allah and telling them that He alone is deserving of that, and forbidding them to worship anything other than Him, and telling them that doing so is wrong and invalid. Hence he (the Messenger who was sent to that nation) said: ﴿Will you not then fear Him?﴾ That is, fear your Lord and avoid these images and idols.

﴿But the chieftains of his people who disbelieved and denied the meeting in the hereafter, and upon whom We had conferred ease and comfort in the life of this world﴾ that is, the leaders, who combined disbelief and stubbornness with denial of the resurrection and requital, and whose life of ease in this world had made them arrogant, said, in opposition to their Prophet, rejecting his message and warning others against him:

﴿This one is no more than a man like yourselves﴾ that is, of the same type as you

«who eats what you eat, and drinks what you drink», so what makes him superior to you? Why was an angel not sent who does not eat or drink?

«If you obey a man like yourselves, then indeed you will be losers» that is, if you follow him and make him your leader, when he is just like you, then you will prove that you are people who have no intelligence and you will regret what you have done. This is very odd, because the losers who will feel true regret are those who do not follow him and do not submit to him, whilst the ignorant and most foolish are those who are too arrogant to submit to a human being whom Allah chose for His revelation and blessed with His message, but they sank to the level of worshipping trees and rocks.

This is like the verse in which Allah tells us that they said:

«They said: What! Are we to follow a single human from among ourselves? Then we would surely have fallen into error and madness! Has the message been sent to him alone, out of all of us? Nay, he is an insolent liar.» (al-Qamar 54: 24-25)

When they denied and rejected his message, they denied the teachings he brought about the resurrection after death and requital for deeds, and they said:

«Does he promise you that when you have died and become dust and bones, you will be brought forth [alive, from your graves]? Far-fetched, utterly far-fetched is what you are promised» that is, what he promises you of resurrection after you have disintegrated and become dust and bones is very unlikely. But their view was flawed, because they thought that, according to their own abilities, it was not possible (to be resurrected). They compared the ability of the Creator to their own ability; exalted be Allah far above that. They denied His power to bring the dead back to life, and they thought of Him as lacking in power, but they forgot that He created them the first time, and that for the One Who created them from nothing, recreating them after they have disintegrated is easier, although both are easy for Him. Why did they not deny their initial creation, and why did they stubbornly reject that which is visible and tangible (their own existence)?

There is further proof, which is that the One Who gives life to an earth that is dead will revive the dead, for He has power over all things. Even more proof is to be found in His response to those who denied the resurrection, as He said:

﴿But they deem it strange that a warner has come to them from among themselves, and the disbelievers say: This is a strange thing indeed! What! When we have died and have turned into dust [will we be brought back to life]? That is farfetched indeed!﴾ (Qâf 50: 2- 3)

Allah said in response to them:

﴿Indeed, We know what the earth consumes of them; with Us is a record that preserves everything.﴾ (Qâf 50: 4)

﴿There is nothing beyond our life in this world; we die and we live﴾ that is, some people die and some people live
 ﴿and we will not be resurrected﴾. ﴿He is no more than a man in whom there is madness﴾ (23: 25), and that is why he brought what he brought, of proclaiming the oneness of Allah and affirming the resurrection. ﴿So bear with him for a while﴾ (23: 25) that is, forget about punishing him by killing him or otherwise, out of respect for him, and because he is insane and is not to be brought to task for what he says. In other words, according to their false claim, there is no reason to argue with him concerning the validity of what he has brought, because they already believed that it was false. Now the issue was whether they should punish him or not. According to their claim, their so-called mature thinking dictated that they should let him be and not punish him, even though they had good reason to do so (according to their claim). Is there any worse stubbornness and disbelief than this?

Because their disbelief was so firmly entrenched, and the warning was to no avail, their Prophet prayed against them and said: ﴿My Lord, help me, for they have rejected me» that is, by destroying them and disgracing them in this world, before the hereafter. «Allah said», in response to his supplication: «Before long they will surely come to regret it».

«So the blast overtook them in all justice» – there was no injustice or unfairness; rather it was justified because of their wrongdoing. The blast overtook them and destroyed them all.

«and We made them like refuse swept away by a torrent» that is, like dry stubble and refuse swept away by a torrent, that is cast up on the sides of the wadis. Elsewhere Allah says:

«Verily, We sent against them a single blast, and they became like dry sticks...» (al-Qamar 54: 31)

«So away with the wicked people!» That is, in addition to their punishment, they will be cast far away, cursed and condemned by all people.

«Neither heaven nor earth wept for them, nor were they given respite.» (ad-Dukhan 44: 29)

﴿ثُمَّ أَنشَأْنَا مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ قُرُونًا آخَرِينَ﴾ (٤٢) مَا تَسْبِقُ مِنْ أُمَّةٍ أَجَلَهَا وَمَا يَسْتَعِجِرُونَ ﴿٤٣﴾ ثُمَّ أَرْسَلْنَا رُسُلَنَا تَتْرًا كُلٌّ مَا جَاءَ أُمَّةً رُسُلُهَا كَذَّبُوهُ فَأَتَيْنَا بَعْضَهُمْ بَعْضًا وَجَعَلْنَاهُمْ أَحَادِيثَ فَبَعْدًا لِقَوْمٍ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٤٤﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ٤٢-٤٤)

23:42. Then We raised up after them other nations.

23:43. No nation can bring its appointed time forward, nor can they delay it.

23:44. Then We sent Our Messengers in succession; every time there came to a nation their Messenger, they rejected him. So We caused them to follow one another [to destruction], and made them into cautionary tales. So away with the disbelieving people!

That is, then after these stubborn disbelievers We raised up other nations, each nation at a particular time, for an appointed term that could not be brought forward or put back. And We sent to them Messengers, one after another, so that they might believe and turn to Allah.

But disbelief and rejection of the message continued to be the customary attitude of the wicked, disbelieving and sinful nations. Every time its Messenger came to a nation, they rejected him, even though each Messenger brought signs that would be sufficient basis for humans to believe. In fact the very message and teachings of the Messengers prove that what they brought is true.

﴿So We caused them to follow one another [to destruction]﴾, and none of them remained; their dwellings stood empty after they were gone

﴿and made them into cautionary tales﴾ that those who came after them told about them, and they became lessons to the pious and punishment to the disbelievers; their disgrace was accompanied by their punishment.

﴿So away with the disbelieving people!﴾ How wretched and unfortunate they are and what great losers they are!

﴿ثُمَّ أَرْسَلْنَا مُوسَىٰ وَأَخَاهُ هَارُونَ بِآيَاتِنَا وَسُلْطَانٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٤٥﴾ إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ وَمَلَئِهِ
فَاسْتَكْبَرُوا وَكَانُوا قَوْمًا عَالِينَ ﴿٤٦﴾ فَقَالُوا أَنْتُمْ لِبَشَرٍ مِّثْلَنَا وَقَوْمُهُمَا لَنَا عَبِيدُونَ
﴿٤٧﴾ فَكَذَّبُوهُمَا فَكَانُوا مِنَ الْمُهْلَكِينَ ﴿٤٨﴾ وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْكِتَابَ لَعَلَّهُمْ
يَهْتَدُونَ ﴿٤٩﴾﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ٤٥-٤٩)

- 23:45. Then We sent Moosâ and his brother Hâroon with Our clear signs and compelling proofs
- 23:46. To Pharaoh and his chiefs. But they showed arrogance and were haughty people.
- 23:47. They said: Should we believe in two men like ourselves, when their people are subject to us?
- 23:48. So they rejected them both, and were among those who were destroyed.
- 23:49. We gave Moosâ the Book so that they might be guided.

A long time ago, I (as-Sa'di) heard one of the scholars whose name I do not remember saying that after sending Moosâ and sending down the Torah, Allah stopped punishing the nations with eradication, and He prescribed jihad as a way to deal with stubborn deniers. I do not know from where he took this opinion, but when I reflected upon these verses, along with the verses in Soorat al-Qaşaş, I realised how he reached that conclusion. As for these verses, Allah referred to the doomed nations who followed the path that led to their destruction, then He tells us that He sent Moosâ after them, and He sent down to him the Torah which contained guidance for people. This cannot be refuted by the suggestion that Pharaoh was punished by drowning, because that was before the revelation of the Torah. As for the verses in Soorat al-Qaşaş, they are very clear; when Allah mentioned the destruction of Pharaoh, He said:

﴿We gave Moosâ the Book after We had destroyed the previous nations, as enlightenment for humankind, and as guidance and mercy, so that they might pay heed.﴾ (al-Qaşaş 28: 43)

This clearly indicates that He gave him the Book (the Torah) after the destruction of the transgressing nations, and Allah tells us that He sent it down as enlightenment for humankind, and as a guidance and mercy.

The same point is made in Soorah Yoonus, where Allah tells us:
 ﴿Then after him, [that is, after Nooh] We sent Messengers to their [own] peoples; they came to them with clear signs, but they would not believe what they had already rejected beforehand. Thus do We seal up the hearts of the transgressors. Then after them We sent Moosâ and Hâroon...﴾ (Yoonus 10: 74-75)

And Allah knows best.

﴿Then We sent Moosâ﴾ ibn 'Imrân, the one who whom the Most Gracious spoke directly (kaleem ar-Rahmân)

﴿and his brother Hâroon﴾ when he asked his Lord to make him his partner, and He answered his request.

﴿with Our clear signs﴾ that point to their sincerity and the truthfulness of that which they brought

﴿and compelling proofs﴾ that is, clear evidence that was so powerful that it could overwhelm and impact people's hearts because of its strength. Thus the hearts of the believers submitted to it and clear proof was established against the stubborn. This is like the verse in Soorat al-Isrâ' in which Allah says:

﴿We gave Moosâ nine clear signs [and told him]: Ask for [the release of] the Children of Israel. When he came to them. Pharaoh said to him: O Moosâ, indeed I think you are bewitched. Moosâ said: You know full well that none but the Lord of the heavens and the earth has sent down these [signs] as clear evidence. Verily, O Pharaoh, I think that you are doomed!﴾ (al-Isrâ' 17: 101-102)

﴿We gave Moosâ nine clear signs﴾; hence the leader of the stubborn recognised the truth but stubbornly rejected it. ﴿[and told him]: Ask for [the release of] the Children of Israel﴾ by means of these clear signs. But ﴿Pharaoh said to him: O Moosâ, indeed I think you are bewitched﴾. So Moosâ said to him: ﴿You know full well that none but the Lord of the heavens and the earth has sent down these [signs] as clear evidence. Verily, O Pharaoh, I think that you are doomed!﴾. And Allah says:

﴿They rejected the signs, although in their hearts they were certain that they were true, out of wickedness and arrogance...﴾ (an-Naml 27: 14)

Allah says here: ﴿Then We sent Moosâ and his brother Hâroon with Our clear signs and compelling proofs to Pharaoh and his chiefs﴾, such as Hâmân and other leaders

﴿But they showed arrogance﴾ that is, they were too arrogant to believe in Allah and they showed arrogance towards His Prophets.

﴿and were haughty people﴾ that is, their character was haughty and they oppressed people and caused mischief in the land, hence they behaved in an arrogant manner, which was not surprising in their case.

﴿They said﴾ out of arrogance and pride, warning the weak-minded and trying to present an argument in order to mislead: ﴿Should we believe in two men like ourselves...?﴾. This is exactly what those who came before them said; they had a similar mentality in terms of disbelief, so their words and deeds were similar, and they denied the blessing of the message that Allah had bestowed upon them by sending the message to them.

﴿when their people﴾ namely the Israelites ﴿are subject to us﴾ that is, they are enslaved and forced to do heavy labour for us. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿And [remember] when We delivered you from the people of Pharaoh, who were subjecting you to grievous torment, slaughtering your sons and letting your womenfolk live; in that was a great trial from your Lord.﴾ (al-A'râf 7: 141)

– so how can we follow them after having been followed? How can these people become leaders over us?

Their argument was similar to what the people of Nooh said:

﴿...Should we believe in you when only the lowest people follow you?﴾ (ash-Shu'arâ' 26: 111)

﴿... We do not see you as anything but a human being like ourselves. Nor do we see that any follow you but the lowest among us, those who are rash and undiscerning...﴾ (Hood 11: 27)

But it is well known that this argument is not fit to ward off the truth, and it is merely stubborn denial. Hence Allah says: ﴿So they rejected them both, and were among those who were destroyed﴾ by drowning in the sea, whilst the Israelites were looking on.

﴿We gave Moosâ the Book﴾ – after Allah destroyed Pharaoh and saved the Israelites along with Moosâ, he was able to lead them on the basis of the teachings he received from Allah and to practise the rituals of His religion openly. Allah promised to send down the Torah to him over forty nights, so he went to meet his Lord as ordained. Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿And We inscribed for him in the Tablets all manner of admonition and an explanation of all things...﴾ (al-A'râf 7: 145)

Hence He says here: ﴿so that they might be guided﴾ that is, by knowing the details of the commands and prohibitions, reward and punishment, and so that they might know their Lord by His names and attributes.

﴿وَجَعَلْنَاهُنَّ مُزَمِّجَاتٍ وَمُزْمَجَاتٍ وَأَبَاطُوهُنَّ إِلَى الْكِبَرِ فَذَاتِ قَرَارٍ وَمَعِينٍ﴾ (سورة

المؤمنون: ٥٠)

23:50. And We made the son of Maryam and his mother to be a sign; We caused them to dwell on high ground, on a plateau with flowing streams.

That is, We blessed 'Eesâ ibn Maryam, and We caused him and his mother to be among the wondrous signs of Allah, as she conceived him and bore him without a father, he spoke in the cradle as an infant, and Allah caused other miracles to happen at his hands.

﴿We caused them to dwell on high ground﴾ that is, in an elevated place. This – and Allah knows best – was at the time of giving birth. ﴿on a plateau with flowing streams﴾ that is, with flowing water, based on the fact that Allah says elsewhere:

﴿...for your Lord has provided a stream close at hand.﴾ (Maryam 19: 24)

– that is, beneath the place where you are, because it is high. The word translated here as a ﴿stream﴾ refers to a spring of water.

﴿Shake the trunk of the palm tree towards you; it will drop fresh ripe dates upon you. Eat and drink, and be content...﴾ (Maryam 19: 25-26)

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الرُّسُلُ كُلُوا مِنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ وَاعْمَلُوا صَالِحًا إِنِّي بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٥١﴾ وَإِنَّ هَذِهِ أُمَّتُكُمْ أُمَّةً وَاحِدَةً وَأَنَا رَبُّكُمْ فَاتَّقُونِ ﴿٥٢﴾ فَتَقَطَّعُوا أَمْرَهُم بَيْنَهُمْ زُبُرًا كُلُّ حِزْبٍ بِمَا لَدَيْهِمْ فَرِحُونَ ﴿٥٣﴾ فَذَرَهُمْ فِي عُتْرَتِهِمْ حَتَّىٰ حِينٍ ﴿٥٤﴾ أَيْحَسِبُونَ أَنَّمَا نُنَادُهُمْ بِهِ مِن مَّالٍ وَبَنِينَ ﴿٥٥﴾ نُسَاجُ لَهُمْ فِي الْخَيْرَاتِ بَلْ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ﴿٥٦﴾﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ٥١-٥٦)

23:51. O Messengers, eat of that which is wholesome and do righteous deeds, for I am well aware of all that you do.

23:52. Verily this religion of yours is one religion, and I am your Lord, so fear Me alone.

23:53. But people divided into sects, each group rejoicing in what it has.

23:54. So leave them in their confusion for a while.

23:55. Do they think, because We grant them wealth and sons, 23:56. that We hasten to them all that is good? Nay, they do not understand.

This is a command from Allah (ﷻ) to His Messengers to eat wholesome food, which is goodly and permissible provision, and to show gratitude to Allah by doing righteous deeds that are good for their physical and spiritual well-being in this world and the hereafter. Here He tells them that He is well aware of all that they do, for every deed they do and every effort they make is known to Him, and He will requite them for it in full, with the best reward. This indicates that all the Messengers were all agreed on the permissibility of wholesome food and the prohibition on that which is bad, and they were all agreed on promoting righteous deeds of all types, even though what is enjoined may vary at different times.

Hence the Prophets and their teachings are agreed on those righteous deeds that are appropriate at all times, such as the command to affirm the oneness of Allah, to devote worship solely to Him, to love Him, to fear His punishment and to hope for His reward, as well as righteousness, truthfulness, fulfilling covenants, upholding ties of kinship, honouring parents, showing kindness to the weak, poor and orphans, being kind and compassionate towards people, and other righteous deeds. Hence the scholars, those who had knowledge of the previous scriptures and wise men at the time when Allah sent Muhammad (ﷺ) found as evidence for the truth of his prophethood the type of deeds that he enjoined and forbade, as happened in the case of Heraclius and others. Because he enjoined the same as the Prophets who came before him had enjoined, and he forbade the same as they had forbidden, this proved that he was one of them, unlike liars and charlatans who inevitably enjoined evil and forbade good.

Hence Allah (ﷻ) said to the Messengers: ﴿Verily this religion of yours is one religion﴾ that is, your community – O Messengers – is one community, agreed upon one religion, and your Lord is One. ﴿so fear Me alone﴾ by complying with My commands and refraining from that which I have prohibited.

Allah enjoined upon the believers the same as He enjoined upon the Messengers, because they follow their example. Allah says:

﴿O you who believe! Eat of the good things that We have provided for you, and be grateful to Allah, if it is Him you worship.﴾ (al-Baqarah 2: 172)

What is required of all those who follow the Prophets and others is to comply with that and act upon it, but the wrongdoers and fabricators insisted on disobedience, hence Allah says:

﴿But people divided into sects﴾ that is, those who claimed to be followers of the Prophets divided their religion into sects, ﴿each group rejoicing in what it has﴾ that is, rejoicing in what it had of knowledge and religion, claiming that they were right and everyone else was wrong, even though those who were right among them were those who followed the path of the Messengers, by eating wholesome and lawful food and doing righteous deeds, whilst all others were wrong.

﴿So leave them in their confusion﴾ that is, in the midst of their ignorance of the truth and their claims to be right

﴿for a while﴾ that is, until the punishment befalls them, for no exhortation or rebuke will benefit them. How could it benefit one who claims to be following the truth and hoping to call others to his path.

﴿Do they think, because We grant them wealth and sons, that We hasten to them all that is good?﴾ That is, do they think that the fact that We give them abundance of wealth and children indicates that they are good and blessed people, and that they will have the best in this world and the hereafter, and that this is only the first portion for them? That is not the case.

﴿Nay, they do not understand﴾ rather We give them respite and a reprieve, and We provide them with blessings so as to increase them in sin and so that their punishment will be stored up for them in the hereafter, and so that they may rejoice in what they are given:

﴿...until, when they were rejoicing in what they had been given, We seized them suddenly...﴾ (al-An'ām 6: 44)

﴿إِنَّ الَّذِينَ هُمْ مِنْ خَشْيَةِ رَبِّهِمْ تُشْفِقُونَ ۝ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ يَأْتِيَتْ رَبِّهِمْ يَقُولُونَ ۝ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ لَا يُشْرِكُونَ ۝ وَالَّذِينَ يُؤْتُونَ مَا آتَوْا وَقُلُوبُهُمْ وَجِلَةٌ أَنَّهُمْ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ رَاجِعُونَ ۝ أُولَٰئِكَ يُسْرِعُونَ فِي الْحَزَنِ وَلَهُمْ لَهَا سَعِيدُونَ ۝ وَلَا تَكُلْفُ نَفْسًا إِلَّا وُسْعَهَا وَلَدَيْنَا كِتَابٌ يَبْطِئُ بِالْحَقِّ وَهُمْ لَا يُظْلَمُونَ﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ٥٧-٦٢)

- 23:57. Verily those who are filled with reverent awe of their Lord, 23:58. And who believe in the revelations of their Lord,
 23:59. And who do not ascribe partners to their Lord,
 23:60. And who give what they give [of charity], their hearts filled with apprehension, knowing that they will return to their Lord, 23:61. Those are the ones who hasten to do good deeds, and they are foremost in attaining them.
 23:62. We do not place on any soul a burden greater than it can bear. We have a record [of their deeds] that speaks the truth, and they will not be wronged.

Having mentioned those who combined bad deeds with feeling secure, and claimed that the fact that He had given them worldly abundance was indicative of their goodness and virtue, Allah (ﷻ) mentions those who combined doing good with fear of Him:

﴿Verily those who are filled with reverent awe of their Lord﴾ that is, they are apprehensive and their hearts are filled with awe due to fear of their Lord, that He will judge them on the basis of justice; in that case there will be no good deeds left to their credit, and they think negatively of themselves, that they have not carried out their duties towards Allah (ﷻ) in a proper manner, and they are afraid of losing their faith. Because of the knowledge that they have of their Lord and what He deserves of glorification and honour, their fear and worry dictate that they should refrain from that which causes them to fear sin and falling short in obligatory duties.

﴿And who believe in the revelations of their Lord﴾ that is, when His revelations are recited to them, it increases them in faith. They also ponder and reflect upon the verses of the Qur'an, and thus the meanings of the Qur'an become clear to them, as do its majestic nature and harmony; its lack of contradiction; what it calls to of knowing Allah, fearing Him and putting one's hope in Him; and what it says about requital. That will increase them in faith in ways that cannot be expressed in words.

They also reflect upon the signs in the universe, as Allah says elsewhere:

﴿Verily, in the creation of the heavens and the earth, and the alternation of the night and the day, there are indeed signs for people of understanding.﴾ (Āl 'Imrān 3: 190)

﴿And who do not ascribe partners to their Lord﴾ that is, they do not openly ascribe partners to Him, by taking anything other than Allah as an object of worship, calling upon it and putting their hopes in it, and they do not ascribe partners to Him in hidden or subtle ways, such as showing off and the like. Rather they are sincerely devoted to Allah alone in their words and deeds, and in all situations.

﴿And who give what they give [of charity]﴾ that is, they give of themselves what they are instructed to give, giving whatever they are able to of prayer, zakāh, Hajj, charity and so on. But at the same time, ﴿their hearts [are] filled with apprehension﴾ that is, they fear that when their deeds are presented to Him and they stand before Him, they will not save them from the punishment of Allah, because they know their Lord and are aware of what He deserves of all kinds of worship.

﴿Those are the ones who hasten to do good deeds﴾ that is, in the arena of competing to do good deeds, their main concern is that which will bring them closer to Allah, and they are focused on that which could save them from His punishment. Whatever good deed they hear of or have the opportunity to do, they hasten to make the most of it and do that good deed. They look at the close friends and chosen ones of Allah who are ahead of them and on their right and left, hastening to do all that is good and striving to draw close to their Lord, and they try to compete with them. As the one who is racing and competing with others may go ahead because of his efforts and striving, or he may not do so because of his shortcomings, Allah (ﷻ) tells us that these people are among the category who will be foremost, as He says: ﴿and they are foremost in attaining them﴾ that is, good deeds. They will attain the pinnacle, for they competed with the first rank. Moreover, it was already decreed by Allah that they would be among those who are blessed and those who are foremost.

Because Allah mentioned their hastening to do good and their being foremost in that regard, some people may imagine that what is required of them and others is something that is too difficult and hard, He tells us that He does not place ﴿on any soul a burden greater than it can bear﴾ that is, the burden is only as much as a person can bear, and there will still be some strength left over; it is not something that will exhaust all his strength. This is by His mercy and wisdom, so as to make the path to Him easy and so that there will always be people who are racing on that path to Him.

﴿We have a record [of their deeds] that speaks the truth﴾ which is the first Book in which all things are written, and it reflects exactly all that takes place. Hence it is true.

﴿and they will not be wronged﴾ that is, nothing will be detracted from their good deeds and nothing will be added to their punishment or sins.

﴿بَلْ قُلُوبُهُمْ فِي غَمَرٍ مِّنْ هَذَا وَلَهُمْ أَعْمَلٌ مِّنْ دُونِ ذَلِكَ هُمْ لَهَا عَمِلُونَ ﴿١٣﴾ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا أَخَذْنَا مُتَرَفِّهِم بِالْعَذَابِ إِذَا هُمْ يَخْتَصِرُونَ ﴿١٤﴾ لَا يَخْتَصِرُوا الْيَوْمَ إِنَّا كُنَّا لَا أَنْصَرُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ فَذَٰلَ﴾

كَانَتْ ءَايَاتِي تُنْزَلُ عَلَيْكُمْ فَكُنْتُمْ عَلَىٰ أَغْفِيكُمْ نَنْكُصُونَ ﴿٦٦﴾ مُسْتَكْبِرِينَ بِهِ سَامِرًا تَهْجُرُونَ ﴿٦٧﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ٦٣-٦٧)

- 23:63. But their hearts are utterly heedless of this [the Qur'an]; and they have, besides that, other [evil] deeds which they will continue to do
- 23:64. Until, when We seize the affluent amongst them with punishment, they will cry for help.
- 23:65. [It will be said to them:] Do not cry for help today, for you will receive no help from Us.
- 23:66. My revelations were recited to you, but you used to turn on your heels
- 23:67. Out of pride [in being the custodians of the Sacred Mosque], talking nonsense far into the night [about the Qur'an].

Here Allah tells us that the hearts of the disbelievers are utterly heedless, because they are steeped in ignorance, wrongdoing, negligence and aversion that prevent them from reaching out to this Qur'an. Therefore they are not guided by it and nothing of it reaches their hearts.

﴿When you recite the Qur'an, We place between you and those who do not believe in the hereafter a hidden barrier,<sup>29</sup> and We have placed covers on their hearts so that they will not understand it, and deafness in their ears...﴾ (al-Isrā' 17: 45-46)

Because their hearts are utterly heedless of it, their actions are commensurate with their state of stubbornness and disbelief, which will result in their punishment.

﴿and﴾ but ﴿they have, besides that﴾ that is, besides these deeds

<sup>29</sup> That is so that they will not understand it, as a punishment for their (stubborn) disbelief. (at-Tabari)

﴿other [evil] deeds which they will continue to do﴾ that is, they should not find it strange that the punishment has not yet befallen them, because Allah is giving them respite so that they may finish doing all the deeds that they are meant to do according to the divine decree. When they have done that and completed them all, they will move on in the worst state to face the wrath and punishment of Allah.

﴿Until, when We seize the affluent amongst them﴾ that is, those who live a life of ease and are only used to a life of affluence, luxury and enjoyment, and have not experienced hardship; when We seize them ﴿with punishment﴾, and they feel its touch,

﴿they will cry for help﴾ that is, they will scream in pain, because something has befallen them other than what they are used to. They will cry for help, but it will be said to them:

﴿Do not cry for help today, for you will receive no help from Us﴾ – because no help or support will come to them from Allah, they will not be able to help themselves and no one else will be able to help them.

It is as if it will be said to them: What is it that has brought you to this state? ﴿My revelations were recited to you﴾ so that you might believe in them and accept them, but you did not do that; rather ﴿you used to turn on your heels﴾ that is, you went backwards. By following the Qur'an they could have advanced, but by turning away from it they went backwards and became the lowest of the low.

﴿Out of pride [in being the custodians of the Sacred Mosque], talking nonsense far into the night [about the Qur'an]﴾. The commentators said that what is meant is that they were proud of it, and the pronoun (rendered here as ﴿[in being the custodians of the Sacred Mosque]﴾) refers to the Kaaba or the Haram. In other words, they felt proud before people because of that, and they said: We are the people of the sanctuary, therefore we are better than others and of higher status than them.

﴿talking nonsense far into the night﴾ that is, gathering and talking by night around the Kaaba. Talking nonsense refers to saying bad things about this Qur'an. The way in which the disbelievers responded to the Qur'an was by turning away from it and telling one another to do that.

﴿Those who disbelieved said: Do not listen to this Qur'an; make noise when it is recited, so that you may drown it out.﴾ (Fussilat 41: 26)

And Allah said concerning them:

﴿Do you then wonder at this discourse [the Qur'an] and laugh [at it], and not weep, while you remain heedless?﴾ (an-Najm 53: 59-61)

﴿Or do they say: He has made it [the Qur'an] up himself?...﴾ (at-Toor 52: 33)

As they had all these bad manners and attitudes, it is no wonder that they deserved the punishment, and when they fell into that they had no one to support them or save them, and they were rebuked at that point because of these bad deeds.

﴿أَفَلَمْ يَذْكُرُوا الْقَوْلَ أَمْ جَاءَهُمْ مَا لَمْ يَأْتِ آبَاءَهُمُ الْأَوَّلِينَ﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ٦٨)

23:68. Have they not pondered the words [of Allah], or is it that there has come to them that which did not come to their forefathers?

﴿Have they not pondered the words [of Allah]﴾ that is, have they not reflected on the Qur'an and pondered its meanings? In other words, if they had pondered it, that would have led them to faith and would have prevented them from disbelieving. But the calamity that befell them was due to their turning away. This indicates that reflecting upon the Qur'an leads to all that is good and protects against all that is evil, and what prevented them from reflecting upon it was the fact that there were locks upon their hearts.

﴿or is it that there has come to them that which did not come to their forefathers?﴾ that is, or is what prevented them from believing the fact that there came to them a Messenger and Book that had not come to their forefathers, so they were content to follow the path of their misguided forefathers, and they objected to anything that differed from that? Therefore they and others like them among the disbelievers said, as Allah tells us:

﴿Likewise, We never sent any warner before you to a city but its affluent ones said: We found our forefathers following a certain path, and we are following in their footsteps.﴾ (az-Zukhruf 43: 23)

The warner responded to them by saying:

﴿...Even if I bring you better guidance than that which you found your forefathers following?...﴾ (az-Zukhruf 43: 24)

Will you follow it even if your aim is to follow the truth? And the answer exposed their real thinking, as they said:

﴿...Verily, We disbelieve in that with which you have been sent﴾ (az-Zukhruf 43: 24)

﴿أَمْ لَمْ يَعْرِفُوا رَسُولَهُمْ فَهُمْ لَهُم مِّنْكَرُونَ﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ٦٩)

23:69. Or is it that they do not know their Messenger well enough,<sup>30</sup> so they reject him?

That is, is what prevented them from following the truth the fact that their Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ) was not known to them, therefore they denied him and said: We do not know him, we do not know how sincere he is, so let us wait and see how he is, and ask those who know him about him? But that was not the case, for they knew the Messenger (ﷺ) very well indeed; young and old alike knew that he had all good characteristics, and they knew him to be sincere and honest, to the extent that before his mission began they used to call him al-Ameen (the trustworthy one). So why did they not believe him when he brought them the truth with all honesty and sincerity?

<sup>30</sup> On the contrary, the disbelievers of Quraysh knew him very well, as he had grown up in their midst, and his good character, honesty and sincerity were so well known to them that they called him al-Ameen (the trustworthy one).

﴿أَمْ يَقُولُونَ بِهِ جِنَّةٌ بَلْ جَاءَهُم بِالْحَقِّ وَكَثُرُوا لِلْحَقِّ كِرَهُونَ﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ٧٠)

23:70. Or do they say that there is madness in him? Rather he has brought them the truth, but most of them are averse to the truth.

﴿Or do they say that there is madness in him?﴾ that is, do they say that he is insane, and this is why he said what he said? For if a person is insane, no one listens to him and his words do not count, because he murmurs nonsense and foolish words.

Allah said, refuting this suggestion on their part:

﴿Rather he has brought them the truth﴾ that is, he has brought them that which is confirmed and based on truthfulness and justice, in which there is no difference or contradiction. So how could there be madness in the one who brought it?! Could he be anything but a person who is at the highest level of perfection in terms of knowledge, rational thinking, and good manners and attitude? Rather the reality is that what prevented them from believing was that ﴿he has brought them the truth, but most of them are averse to the truth﴾. The greatest truth that he brought them was the command to devote worship solely to Allah and to abandon everything else that is worshipped besides Allah. It is well known that they were averse to that and found it strange, so the fact that the Messenger (ﷺ) brought the truth when they were averse to the truth in the first place is what made them deny the truth. It was not because they doubted or rejected the Messenger (ﷺ) himself. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿...It is not you they disbelieve; rather it is the revelations of Allah that the wrongdoers deny.﴾ (al-An'ām 6: 33)

If it is asked: why was not the truth in accordance with their whims and desires, so that they might believe and hasten to submit? The answer is given in the following verse:

﴿وَلَوْ أَتَبَعَ الْحَقُّ أَهْوَاءَهُمْ لَفَسَدَتِ السَّمَوَاتُ وَالْأَرْضُ وَمَنْ فِيهِنَّ بَلْ أَتَيْنَهُمْ بِذِكْرِهِمْ فَهُمْ عَنْ ذِكْرِهِمْ مُعْرِضُونَ﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ٧١)

23:71. If the truth had been in accordance with their desires, the heavens and the earth, and all those who are therein, would have been brought to ruin. In fact We have given them that which would bring them honour [that is, the Qur'an], but they turn away from that which would bring them honour.

﴿If the truth had been in accordance with their desires, the heavens and the earth, and all those who are therein, would have been brought to ruin﴾ the reason being that their whims and desires are based on wrongdoing, disbelief, mischief, and bad manners and deeds. Therefore if the truth had followed their whims and desires, the heavens and the earth would have been brought to ruin because of the corruption of conduct and control that would be based on oppression and injustice. Therefore the heavens and the earth can only be kept in good order on the basis of truth and justice.

﴿In fact We have given them that which would bring them honour﴾ namely this Qur'an, which motivates them to do all that is good, and in which is their pride and honour if they adhere to it, and through it they could become leaders of humankind.

﴿but they turn away from that which would bring them honour﴾ because they are doomed and are not guided;

﴿... They have forgotten Allah, so He has forgotten them...﴾ (at-Tawbah 9: 67) – and they:

﴿... forgot Allah, so He caused them to forget themselves...﴾ (al-Hashr 59: 19)

The Qur'an and the one who brought it are the greatest blessing that Allah bestowed upon them, but their only response was to reject it and turn away. Can there be any deprivation worse than this? Can there be anything beyond that but the utmost loss?

﴿أَمْ تَسْأَلُهُمْ خَرْجًا فَخَرَّاجُ رَبِّكَ خَيْرٌ وَهُوَ خَيْرُ الرَّازِقِينَ﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ٧٢)

23:72. Or is it that you ask them for some recompense? But the recompense of your Lord is better, and He is the best of providers.

That is, are they being prevented from following you, O Muhammad (ﷺ), by your asking them for payment if they respond:

﴿...recompense which they find too burdensome?﴾ (al-Qalam 68: 46)

– and they find it burdensome to follow you, because of what you would take from them of recompense and payment? That is not the case; ﴿But the recompense of your Lord is better, and He is the best of providers﴾. This is like what the Prophets said to their nations:

﴿O my people, no recompense do I ask of you for this...﴾ (Hood 11: 51)

– and:

﴿...my reward is with Allah alone...﴾ (Hood 11: 29)

In other words, they were not calling people to Allah in hopes of what they could get of their wealth; rather it was out of sincerity towards them and a desire to guide them to that which was in their best interests. In fact the Messengers were more sincere to people than their own selves. May Allah grant them the best of rewards on behalf of their nations and enable us to follow their example in all our affairs.

﴿وَإِنَّكَ لَتَدْعُوهُمْ إِلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ﴾ (٧٣) وَإِنَّ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ عَنِ الصِّرَاطِ لَنُكَوِّنُ ﴿٧٤﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ٧٣-٧٤)

23:73. Surely you [O Muhammad] are calling them to a straight path.

23:74. But indeed those who do not believe in the hereafter are deviating from that path.

In these verses Allah mentions every means that may lead to faith and He mentions obstacles to faith; He highlights how corrupt the obstacles are, one after another. Among the obstacles, He mentions the fact that their hearts are utterly heedless of this (the Qur'an) (23: 63); they did not ponder the words of Allah (23: 68); they followed in the footsteps of their forefathers; and they said that there was madness in their Messenger (ﷺ), as we have discussed above.

Among the things that would lead them to faith, Allah mentioned: reflecting upon the Qur'an; accepting the blessings of Allah with appreciation; acknowledging the sublime attributes, sincerity and honesty of the Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ), and that he was not asking for any reward, rather his efforts were for their benefit and in their interests, and that what he called them to is the straight path which is easy to follow because it is straight and leads to the goal in the shortest way, and he called them to a religion of ease that is based on pure monotheism. What is meant is: you, O Muhammad (ﷺ), are calling them to the straight path, which requires the one who seeks the truth to follow you, because what you are calling them to is something that is in harmony with rational thinking and common sense, and through that path they may attain all their interests. What other path will they follow if they do not follow you? They do not have any other alternative that could suffice them so that they would not need to follow you, because they ﴿are deviating from that path﴾, drifting away from the path that leads to Allah and to His paradise; what they are following is nothing but misguidance and ignorance.

The same applies to everyone who goes against the truth; he will inevitably deviate in all his affairs. Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿But if they do not respond to you, then know that they only follow their own desires, and who is more astray than one who follows his own desires, without any guidance from Allah?...﴾ (al-Qaṣaṣ 28: 50)

﴿وَلَوْ رَحَّمْنَاهُمْ وَكَشَفْنَا مَا بِهِمْ مِنْ ضُرٍّ لَلَجُّوا فِي طُغْيَانِهِمْ يَعْمَهُونَ ۖ﴾ (٧٥) وَلَقَدْ أَخَذْنَاهُمْ بِالْعَذَابِ فَمَا اسْتَكَانُوا لِرَبِّهِمْ وَمَا يَنْضَعُونَ ۖ ﴿٧٦﴾ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا فَتَحْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ بَابًا ذَا عَذَابٍ شَدِيدٍ إِذَا هُمْ فِيهِ مُبْلِسُونَ ﴿٧٧﴾﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ٧٥-٧٧)

23:75. If We showed them mercy and relieved their misfortunes, they would persist in their transgression, wandering blindly in their misguidance.

23:76. We have already seized them with punishment, but they did not humble themselves before their Lord, nor did they beseech Him.

23:77. Until, when We open upon them a gate of severe punishment, they will be plunged into utter despair.

This highlights the extent of their foolishness and stubbornness: if harm befalls them, they call upon Allah, asking Him to grant them relief so that they may believe, or He may test them so that they may come back to Him, then if He grants them relief, they persist in their transgression, wandering blindly in their misguidance; that is, they wander blindly in their disbelief.

Similarly, Allah mentioned their state when they board ships: they call upon Him, professing sincere devotion to Him alone, and they forget those whom they ascribed as partners to Him. But when He delivers them, they spread mischief throughout the land by ascribing partners to Allah and otherwise (10: 22-23).

﴿We have already seized them with punishment﴾. The commentators said that what is meant here is the hunger and famine that they experienced for seven years. Allah tested them thereby so that they might turn back to Him in humble submission. But it was to no avail; not one of them benefited from it.

﴿but they did not humble themselves before their Lord﴾ that is, they did not submit to Him

﴿nor did they beseech Him﴾ or acknowledge their need of Him; rather they went through that then they recovered, as if nothing had happened to them, and they continued in their misguidance and disbelief. But ahead of them is a punishment that cannot be warded off, as Allah says:

﴿Until, when We open upon them a gate of severe punishment﴾ such as their being killed on the day of Badr

﴿they will be plunged into utter despair﴾ that is, they will give up hope of all good and will find themselves surrounded by all ills and all causes that lead to that. So let them pay heed, before there befalls them the severe punishment of Allah that cannot be warded off, unlike worldly punishments that may cease, such as those with which Allah disciplines His slaves.

Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿Corruption and disorder have appeared on land and sea<sup>31</sup> because of what people's hands have earned. Thus Allah causes them to taste the consequences of some of what they have done, so that they may turn in repentance.﴾ (ar-Room 30: 41)

﴿وَهُوَ الَّذِي أَنشَأَ لَكُمُ السَّمْعَ وَالْأَبْصَرَ وَالْأَفْئِدَةَ ۚ قَلِيلًا مَّا تَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٧٨﴾ وَهُوَ الَّذِي ذَرَأَكُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَإِلَيْهِ تُحْشَرُونَ ﴿٧٩﴾ وَهُوَ الَّذِي يُحْيِي وَيُمِيتُ وَلَهُ اخْتِلَافُ اللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ ۚ أَفَلَا تَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٨٠﴾﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ٧٨-٨٠)

23:78. It is He Who has given you hearing, sight and intellect; little it is that you give thanks.

23:79. And it is He Who has created you on the earth, and unto Him you will be gathered.

23:80. It is He Who gives life and causes death, and He controls the alternation of night and day. Will you not then understand?

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the blessings that He has bestowed upon His slaves, which should prompt them to give thanks to Him and fulfil their duties towards Him.

﴿It is He Who has given you hearing﴾ so that you may understand what you hear, and benefit with regard to your religious and worldly affairs.

﴿sight﴾ so that you may understand what you see, and benefit from it when you go about your business.

﴿and intellect﴾ that is, reason by means of which you understand things, and by means of which you are distinguished from the animals.

<sup>31</sup> This refers to the widespread occurrence of troubles such as drought, fires and floods, poor yield of crops, decline of fish stocks, market stagnation and difficulty in earning a living. That is because of people's sins, including neglect and abuse of the natural environment.

If you did not have hearing, sight and intellect, and you were deaf, blind and dumb, what would your condition be? What would you miss out on of essentials and luxuries?

Will you not then give thanks to the One Who has bestowed these blessings upon you, and affirm His oneness and obey Him? Little is it that you give thanks, even though the blessings come to you continuously.

﴿And it is He﴾, may He be exalted, ﴿Who has created you on the earth﴾ and He has caused you to spread throughout the earth, in all directions, and has given you the power to bring forth benefits from the earth; He has made it sufficient for your livelihood and dwelling.

﴿and unto Him you will be gathered﴾ after your death, and He will requite you for what you did on earth of good and evil, and the earth on which you dwelt will speak of what happened.

﴿And it is He﴾ alone, may He be exalted, ﴿Who gives life and causes death﴾ that is, the One Who has control over life and death is Allah alone.

﴿and He controls the alternation of night and day﴾ so if He willed, He could make the day everlasting, then what god other than Allah could bring the night so that you could rest therein? And if He willed, He could make the night everlasting, then what god other than Allah could bring you light? Will you not then see?

﴿By His mercy He has made for you night and day, so that you may rest therein and seek His bounty, and so that you may give thanks.﴾
(al-Qaṣaṣ 28: 73)

Hence Allah says here: ﴿Will you not then understand?﴾ And realise that the fact that He alone bestowed upon you all these blessings, hearing, sight and intellect, He alone caused you to spread out on earth, He alone gives life and causes death, and He alone controls night and day, dictates that you should devote your worship to Him alone, with no partner or associate, and you should refrain from worshipping those that cannot bring benefit or ward off harm, and have no control over anything at all; in fact they are incapable in all ways, so if you had any common sense, you would not do that.

﴿بَلْ قَالُوا مِثْلَ مَا قَالَ الْأَوَّلُونَ﴾ ﴿٨١﴾ قَالُوا أَإِذَا مِتْنَا وَكُنَّا تُرَابًا وَعِظْمًا أَوَلْنَا لَمَعُونُونا ﴿٨٢﴾ لَقَدْ وَعِدْنَا نَحْنُ وَآبَاؤُنَا هَذَا مِنْ قَبْلُ إِنْ هَذَا إِلَّا أَسْطِيرُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿٨٣﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ٨١-٨٣)

- 23:81. On the contrary, they say the like of what the earlier peoples said.
- 23:82. They said: What! When we have died and have turned into dust and bones, will we really be raised up?
- 23:83. We and our forefathers have been promised this before; it is nothing but tales of the ancients.

That is, rather these disbelievers all follow the same path as their predecessors who disbelieved in the resurrection and thought it highly unlikely, and said: ﴿What! When we have died and have turned into dust and bones, will we really be raised up?﴾ That is, this is something that cannot be imagined and is incomprehensible – according to their claim.

﴿We and our forefathers have been promised this before﴾ that is, we are still being promised that the resurrection will happen, we and our fathers before us, but we have not seen it and it has not happened yet.

﴿it is nothing but tales of the ancients﴾ that is, it is nothing more than their stories and nightly entertainment that they used to talk about to pass the time, otherwise it has no reality. Thus they disbelieved when Allah had shown them signs greater than the resurrection, for example:

﴿Indeed, the creation of the heavens and the earth is a greater matter than the creation [or recreation] of humankind...﴾ (Ghâfir 40: 57)

﴿Producing arguments against Us and forgetting his own creation. He says: Who can give life to bones that have crumbled to dust?﴾ (Yâ Seen 36: 78)

﴿...You see the earth dry and barren, but when We send down rain upon it, it stirs and swells, and brings forth beautiful plants of every kind.﴾ (al-Hajj 22: 5)

﴿قُلْ لِّمَنِ الْأَرْضُ وَمَنْ فِيهَا إِن كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٨٤﴾ سَيَقُولُونَ لِلَّهِ قُلْ أَفَلَا تَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٨٥﴾ قُلْ مَنْ رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ السَّبْعِ وَرَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيمِ ﴿٨٦﴾ سَيَقُولُونَ لِلَّهِ قُلْ أَفَلَا نُنْقِزُ ﴿٨٧﴾ قُلْ مَنْ يَدْعُو مَلَكَتُ رَبِّي وَهُوَ يَجِيرُ وَلَا يُجَارُ عَلَيْهِ إِن كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٨٨﴾ سَيَقُولُونَ لِلَّهِ قُلْ فَأَنَّى تُسْحَرُونَ ﴿٨٩﴾﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ٨٤-٨٩)

- 23:84. Say [O Muhammad]: To whom does the earth and all that is on it belong, if you know [the answer]?
- 23:85. They will say: To Allah. Say: Will you not then pay heed?
- 23:86. Say: Who is the Lord of the seven heavens and the Lord of the Mighty Throne?
- 23:87. They will say: [They belong] to Allah. Say: Will you not then fear Him?
- 23:88. Say: In Whose Hand is the dominion over all things, and He protects, while against Him there is no protection,<sup>32</sup> if you know [the answer]?

<sup>32</sup> Allah may offer protection to whomever He wills against harm intended by others, but no one can offer protection against any harm or punishment that Allah may decree against a person. (at-Tabari)

23:89. They will say: In Allah's [Hand]. Say: Then how can you be so deluded?

---

That is, say to these people who disbelieve in the resurrection and regard others as equal to Allah, using as evidence against them that which they themselves affirm and acknowledge – of the oneness of Allah's Lordship and that Allah alone is the Lord – to prove what they denied of the oneness of Allah's divinity and that He alone is deserving of worship. Thus He uses as evidence that which they affirm and accept about the creation of these mighty created entities, in order to prove that which they deny of His ability to raise the dead, which is easier than the creation of these mighty entities.

﴿To whom does the earth and all that is on it belong﴾ that is, who is the Creator of the earth and everything on it of animals, plants, inanimate objects, seas, rivers and mountains? Who is the Sovereign thereof, who is in control of it? If you ask them about that, they will inevitably say that it belongs to Allah. So if they affirm that, then say to them:

﴿Will you not then pay heed?﴾ That is, will you not think of that of which Allah reminded you, which is known to you and is firmly based on your common sense, but may be absent from your mind when you are heedless on occasion?

In fact, if you think and ponder, you will realise that the Sovereign of all that is the only One Who deserves to be worshipped, and attributing divinity to one who is controlled (by Allah) is one of the most obvious of falsehoods.

Then He moves on to something that is greater than that, as He says:

﴿Say: Who is the Lord of the seven heavens﴾ and all that they contain of stars and planets

﴿and the Lord of the Mighty Throne﴾ which is the highest, vastest and greatest of all created things. Who is it that created it, controls it and manages it in various ways?

﴿They will say: [They belong] to Allah﴾ that is, they will affirm that Allah is the Lord of all that.

So say to them, when they affirm that: ﴿Will you not then fear Him?﴾ and avoid worshipping incapable created things, and fear the Almighty Lord Who is perfect in might and great in authority?

Here we see gentle words, as Allah says ﴿Will you not then pay heed?﴾ (23: 85) and ﴿Will you not then fear Him?﴾ (23: 87). This is exhortation by using gentle words in order to appeal to the heart, as is quite clear.

Then He moves on to their affirmation of that which is more general than all of the above, as He says:

﴿Say: In Whose Hand is the dominion over all things﴾ that is, the sovereignty of all things, in both the upper and lower realms, all that we can see and all that we cannot see?

﴿and He protects﴾ His slaves from evil, warding off hardship from them and guarding them against that which would harm them

﴿while against Him there is no protection﴾ that is, no one can protect anyone against Allah or ward off harm that Allah wills. Indeed, no one can intercede with Him except by His leave.

﴿They will say: In Allah's [Hand]﴾ that is, they will affirm that Allah is the Sovereign of all things, the Protector against Whom there is no protection.

﴿Say﴾ to them, when they affirm that, so as to establish binding proof against them:

﴿Then how can you be so deluded?﴾ That is, have you lost your minds, as you worship that which you know has no sovereignty over you and has no share of dominion, and is incapable in all aspects, and you failed to devote your worship solely to the Almighty, omnipotent Sovereign Who controls all things? The minds that led you to this conclusion can only be deluded, and they have undoubtedly been deceived by the Shayṭān, who made that fair-seeming to them by turning the facts upside down; thus their minds became deluded.

﴿بَلْ آتَيْنَهُم بِالْحَقِّ وَإِنَّهُمْ لَكَاذِبُونَ ﴿٩٠﴾ مَا اتَّخَذَ اللَّهُ مِنْ وَلَدٍ وَمَا كَانَ مَعَهُ مِنْ إِلَهٍ إِذَا لَذَهَبَ كُلُّ إِلَهٍ بِمَا خَلَقَ وَلَعَلَّ بَعْضُهُمْ عَلَى بَعْضٍ سُبْحَنَ اللَّهُ عَمَّا يُصِفُونَ ﴿٩١﴾ عَلِيمُ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ فَتَعَلَّى عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٩٢﴾﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ٩٠-٩٢)

(٩٢)

- 23:90. In fact We have brought them the truth, but they are indeed liars.
- 23:91. Allah has never begotten a son, nor is there any god besides Him. [In that case,] each god would have taken full control of what he had created, and each would have rushed to gain supremacy over the others. Glory be to Allah and [exalted be He] far above what they ascribe [to Him].
- 23:92. Knower of the unseen and the seen; exalted be He far above the partners they ascribe to Him!

Here Allah says: Rather We have brought the truth to these deniers of truth, truth that is based on truthful news and fairness in commands and prohibitions. So what is the matter with them, that they do not acknowledge it, when it is most deserving of being followed? They have no other alternative to that except lies and wrongdoing, hence Allah says: ﴿but they are indeed liars. Allah has never begotten a son, nor is there any god besides Him﴾. We know that this is a lie on the basis of what Allah and His Messengers have told us, and on the basis of sound reasoning. Therefore Allah (ﷻ) pointed out, on the basis of rational evidence, that it is impossible for there to be two gods, as He says: ﴿[In that case]﴾, if there were other gods besides Him, ﴿each god would have taken full control of what he had created» that is, each of the two gods would have taken control of his own creation, independently of the other, and he would have tried to resist and stand up to the other gods.

«and each would have rushed to gain supremacy over the others», then the one who gained the upper hand would have become the supreme god, otherwise if they continued to resist one another without any gaining the upper hand, then the universe could not have come into existence and it cannot be imagined that it would have existed with such precise order that astounds the mind. Think for example of the sun, moon, planets and stars; you will realise that since they were created they are moving according to one system and one order, and all of that is subjugated to the power of Allah and controlled and directed on the basis of wisdom to serve all people's interests; that is not limited to the interests of some and not others. You will never find any problems or contradictions or resistance in the least of their movements. So could it be imagined that all of that is the work of two gods or two lords? «Glory be to Allah and [exalted be He] far above what they ascribe [to Him]». The way it is run implies and indicates that its controller is One God, perfect in His names and attributes. All created things are in need of His care as their Lord and His divine help. As they cannot exist or continue to exist without His care as their Lord, and their well-being cannot be sound and cannot be maintained except by worshipping and obeying Him alone, Allah points out the greatness of His attributes by referring to one of them, namely His all-encompassing knowledge, as He says:

«Knower of the unseen» that is, that which is hidden from our eyes and our knowledge of what must exist, what cannot exist and what may exist.

«and the seen» which is what we can see of that.

«of the unseen and the seen; exalted be He far above the partners they» namely those who have no knowledge except what Allah has told them «ascribe to Him».

﴿قُلْ رَبِّ إِمَّا تُرِيدُنِي مَا يُوعَدُونَ ﴿٩٣﴾ رَبِّ فَلَا تَجْعَلْنِي فِي الْقَوْمِ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٩٤﴾ وَإِنَّا عَلَىٰ أَنْ نُرِيكَ مَا نَعِدُهُمْ لَقَادِرُونَ ﴿٩٥﴾﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ٩٣-٩٥)

- 23:93. Say: O my Lord, if You show me that which they are warned of, 23:94. My Lord, then do not include me among the people who are given to wrongdoing.
 23:95. We are surely able to show you that of which We have warned them.

Allah established strong proof against the disbelievers, but they did not pay any attention to it and did not submit to it; therefore the punishment became inevitable and they were warned of its coming, and Allah instructed His Messenger (ﷺ) to say: «O my Lord, if You show me that which they are warned of» that is, whenever You show me their punishment and You cause me to be present at that time, «My Lord, then do not include me among the people who are given to wrongdoing» that is, protect me from these sins that they have been committing that incur Your punishment, and protect me also from the punishment that befalls them, because when the general punishment comes, it includes both the sinner and others.

Allah says, regarding the closeness of their punishment: «We are surely able to show you that of which We have warned them» but if We delay it, that is for some reason, otherwise We have the power to inflict it upon them at any time.

﴿ادْفَعْ بِالَّتِي هِيَ أَحْسَنُ السَّيِّئَةِ نَحْنُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا يَصِفُونَ ﴿٩٦﴾ وَقُلْ رَبِّ أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ هَمَزَاتِ الشَّيْطَانِ ﴿٩٧﴾ وَأَعُوذُ بِكَ رَبِّ أَنْ يَحْضُرُونِ ﴿٩٨﴾﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ٩٦-٩٨)

- 23:96. Repel evil with that which is better; We know best what they allege.
- 23:97. And say: My Lord, I seek refuge with You from the goading of the devils.
- 23:98. And I seek refuge with You, my Lord, lest they come near me.

This is part of the good manners and attitude that Allah enjoined upon His Messenger (ﷺ), as He said:

﴿Repel evil with that which is better﴾ that is, when your enemies mistreat you, in word or deed, do not respond with bad treatment, even though it is permissible to react to an offender with an equal offence; rather ward off mistreatment by being kind to them, for that is generosity on your part to the wrongdoer.

The good that is achieved thereby is that his mistreatment towards you will be reduced immediately and in the future, and it is more effective in bringing the wrongdoer back to his senses and is more likely to make him regret it and cause him to repent from what he has done.

It will also cause the one who forgives to attain the description of being a doer of good, by means of which he will suppress his enemy the Shayṭān. Thus he will be entitled to reward from his Lord, as Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿...but whoever forgives and reconciles, his reward is with Allah...﴾
(ash-Shoorâ 42: 40)

– and:

﴿...Repel evil with that which is good, whereupon he between whom and you there was ill feeling will become like a close friend. But none can attain that except those who are patient, and none can attain it except one who is blessed with a great share of good and righteousness.﴾ (Fuṣṣilat 41: 34-35)

«We know best what they allege» that is, what they say of words that imply disbelief and rejection of the truth. Our knowledge encompasses all of that, but We have been forbearing and have given them respite, and We have shown patience towards them, but they are committing wrong against Us and are denying Us, so you – O Muhammad (ﷺ) – should bear with patience what they say, and respond to them with kindness. This is what is expected of the pious slave in response to humans who mistreat them.

As for devils who mistreat people, kindness is of no benefit in this case, for the Shayṭān only calls his party to be the inhabitants of the blazing fire. So what is expected (of humans) in response to him is to follow the instructions given by Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ).

«And say: My Lord, I seek refuge with You» that is, I seek protection in Your strength and power, and I acknowledge that I have no power or strength of my own,

«from the goading of the devils. And I seek refuge with You, my Lord, lest they come near me» that is, I seek refuge with You from the evil that may befall me because of their attempts to harm me, and their goading and their touch; and I seek refuge with You from the evil that results from their coming near and from their whispers. This is seeking refuge with Allah from all evil and its origin, which includes seeking refuge from all the temptations of the Shayṭān, and from his touch and whispers. If Allah grants His slave refuge from this evil and answers his prayer, he will be safe from all evil and will be enabled to do all good.

﴿حَقَّ إِذَا جَاءَ أَحَدَهُمُ الْمَوْتُ قَالَ رَبِّ ارْجِعُونِ ۚ لَعَلِّي أَعْمَلُ صَالِحًا فِيمَا تَرَكْتُ ۚ كَلَّا إِنَّهَا كَلِمَةٌ هُوَ قَائِلُهَا وَمِنْ وَرَائِهِمْ بَرْزَخٌ إِلَى يَوْمِ يُبْعَثُونَ ۚ﴾ (سورة المؤمنون:

- 23:99. Until, when death comes to one of them, he says: My Lord, send me back, 23:100. so that I may do the righteous deeds that I have failed to do. Nay, it is but a word he says. And behind them is a barrier, until the day they are resurrected.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about what happens to one of the negligent wrongdoers when he is dying: in that situation, when he sees his fate and realises the abhorrent nature of his deeds, he is filled with regret, so he asks to go back to this world, not to enjoy its physical joys and indulge in its pleasures, rather he says: ﴿so that I may do the righteous deeds that I have failed to do﴾, for I neglected my duty to Allah.

﴿Nay﴾ there is no going back and no respite, for Allah has decreed that they will not go back

﴿it﴾ that is, his statement that he wishes to go back to this world
 ﴿is but a word he says﴾ that is, it is mere words that will not benefit the one who says them or bring him anything but regret and sorrow. Moreover, he is not sincere in that, for even if he were sent back, he would surely go back to that which was forbidden to him (cf. 6: 28).

﴿And behind them is a barrier, until the day they are resurrected﴾. It is a barrier between two things, between this world and the hereafter. During that period between death and the resurrection, those who obeyed Allah will enjoy bliss and those who disobeyed Him will be punished, so make preparations for that and be ready for it.

﴿فَإِذَا نُفِخَ فِي الصُّورِ فَلَا أَنْسَابَ بَيْنَهُمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ وَلَا يَتَسَاءَلُونَ﴾ (١٠٠) ﴿فَمَنْ ثَقُلَتْ مَوَازِينُهُ، فَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ﴾ (١٠١) ﴿وَمَنْ خَفَّتْ مَوَازِينُهُ، فَأُولَئِكَ الَّذِينَ خَسِرُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ فِي جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدُونَ﴾ (١٠٢) ﴿تَلْفَحُ وُجُوهُهُمُ النَّارَ وَهُمْ فِيهَا كَالِحُونَ﴾ (١٠٣)

أَلَمْ تَكُنْ مَاتِبِقَى ثَنَلَى عَلى كُفُوكُم مَّا تُكذِّبُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ قَالُوا رَبَّنَا غَلَبَتْ عَلَيْنَا شِقْوَتُنَا
وَكُنَّا قَوْمًا ضَالِّينَ ﴿١٦﴾ رَبَّنَا أَخْرِجْنَا مِنْهَا فَإِنْ عُدْنَا فَإِنَّا ظَالِمُونَ ﴿١٧﴾ قَالَ
أَخْشُوا فِيهَا وَلَا تَكَلِّمُونِ ﴿١٨﴾ إِنَّهُ كَانَ فَرِيقٌ مِّنْ عِبَادِى يَقُولُونَ رَبَّنَا آمَنَّا فَاغْفِرْ
لَنَا وَارْحَمْنَا وَأَنْتَ خَيْرُ الرَّاحِمِينَ ﴿١٩﴾ فَاتَّخَذْتُمُوهُمْ سَخِرَاءَ حَتَّىٰ أَنْسَوَكُم ذِكْرِي وَكُنْتُمْ
مِنْهُمْ تَضْحَكُونَ ﴿٢٠﴾ إِنِّى جَزَيْتُهُمُ الْيَوْمَ بِمَا صَبَرُوا أَنَّهُمْ هُمُ الْفَاسِقُونَ ﴿٢١﴾ قُلْ
لَكُمْ لَيْسَتْ فِى الْأَرْضِ عِدَّةٌ سِنِينَ ﴿٢٢﴾ قَالُوا لَيْنَا يَوْمًا أَوْ بَعْضُ يَوْمٍ فَسَلِّ الْعَادِينَ
﴿٢٣﴾ قُلْ إِنْ لَيْسَتْ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا لَّوْ أَن كُمْ كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾ ﴿سورة المؤمنون: ١٠١-١١٤﴾

(١١٤)

- 23:101. Then when the Trumpet is blown, there will be no ties of kinship between them on that day, nor will they ask after one another.
- 23:102. Then those whose good deeds weigh heavily in the balance will be the successful ones.
- 23:103. And those whose good deeds weigh lightly in the balance are the ones who will lose their own souls; in hell they will abide forever.
- 23:104. The fire will burn their faces, and they will grin therein, with shrivelled lips.
- 23:105. [It will be said to them:] Were not My revelations recited to you, but you used to reject them?
- 23:106. They will say: Our Lord, our misfortune<sup>33</sup> overwhelmed us, and we were people who went astray.
- 23:107. Our Lord, deliver us from this. Then if we return [to evil], we will indeed be wrongdoers.
- 23:108. Allah will say: Away with you! Be humiliated therein and do not speak to Me.

<sup>33</sup> What is meant is that they were controlled by their whims and desires, which led to them being overwhelmed by that misfortune. (al-Qurtubi)

- 23:109. Among My slaves there were some who said: Our Lord, we believe, so forgive us and have mercy upon us, for You are the Most Merciful of those who show mercy.
- 23:110. But you treated them with ridicule, so much so that [ridicule of them] made you forget all remembrance of Me, and you used to laugh at them.
- 23:111. I have rewarded them this day for their patience and steadfastness; verily it is they who have triumphed.
- 23:112. Allah will say: How many years did you remain on earth?
- 23:113. They will say: We remained there for a day, or part of a day. But ask those who keep count.
- 23:114. Allah will say: You only remained there for a short while, if you had but known.

---

Here Allah tells us of the horrors of the Day of Resurrection, and what will happen on that day of disturbing and alarming events. When the Trumpet is blown for the resurrection, all people will be gathered for an appointed day, and there will befall them such terror that it will cause them to forget the ties of kinship which are the strongest ties between people, so it is more likely that other ties will be utterly forgotten. No one will ask anyone else about his situation, because each one will be preoccupied only with his own self, for he will not know whether he will be granted salvation after which there will be no misery, or he will be doomed after which there will be no happiness. Allah (ﷻ) tells us that on that day:

﴿...a man will flee from his own brother, and from his mother and his father, and from his wife and his children. Every one of them, on that day, will have too many concerns of his own to care about anyone else.﴾ (Abasa 80: 34-37)

On the Day of Resurrection, there will be some stages during which the hardship will become very intense and will have a great impact, such as when the Balance is set up to differentiate between people's deeds, and their deeds will be examined on the basis of justice, to measure what is in a person's favour and what is against him. Even the smallest particles of good and evil will show up in that reckoning.

﴿Then those whose good deeds weigh heavily in the balance﴾ so that their good deeds outweigh their bad deeds, ﴿will be the successful ones﴾, for they will be saved from the fire and will deserve paradise, and they will be praised and commended.

﴿And those whose good deeds weigh lightly in the balance﴾ so that their bad deeds outweigh their good deeds, and they are overwhelmed by their sins,

﴿are the ones who will lose their own souls﴾; in comparison to this loss, any other loss is easy to bear. But this loss will be difficult to bear, for nothing can help them to withstand and recover from this loss, for it is eternal loss and everlasting doom. They will lose their own souls, that could have attained eternal happiness, but they missed out on this everlasting bliss in nearness to the Most Generous Lord. ﴿in hell they will abide forever﴾ and will never emerge from it. This warning is addressed, as we have mentioned above, to those whose bad deeds overwhelm their good deeds. This can only be applicable to the disbeliever. Based on that, he will not be taken to task in the sense of weighing between his good deeds and bad deeds, because the disbelievers have no good deeds to their credit. Rather their deeds will be counted and listed, then they will be shown to them and they will be made to admit them and will be disgraced thereby. As for the one who is basically a believer, but has done so many bad deeds that they outweigh his good deeds, even if he enters hell, he will not abide therein forever, as is indicated by the texts of the Qur'an and Sunnah.

Then Allah (ﷻ) mentions the bad fate of the disbelievers:

﴿The fire will burn their faces﴾ and overwhelm them on all sides, until it touches all parts of their bodies and the flames will burn their faces. ﴿and they will grin therein﴾ that is, they will grimace, and their lips will shrink from the intensity and gravity of the situation with which they are faced.

It will be said to them, by way of rebuke and blame: ﴿Were not My revelations recited to you﴾ and were you not called to believe in them, and were they not presented to you so that you might reflect? ﴿but you used to reject them﴾ wrongfully and stubbornly, even though they were clear revelations that pointed out truth and falsehood, and explained who was in the right and who was in the wrong.

At that point they will admit their wrongdoing, at the time when admitting it will be of no benefit.

﴿They will say: Our Lord, our misfortune<sup>34</sup> overwhelmed us﴾ that is, the misfortune that resulted from wrongdoing, turning away from the truth and turning to that which is harmful, forsaking that which is beneficial, overwhelmed us.

﴿and we were people who went astray﴾ in their deeds, even though they knew that they were doing wrong. In other words: we acted in this world like one who is lost, misguided and foolish. This is like another verse which tells us that they will say:

﴿...If only we had listened or understood, we would not be among the inhabitants of the raging fire.﴾ (al-Mulk 67: 10)

﴿Our Lord, deliver us from this. Then if we return [to evil], we will indeed be wrongdoers﴾ but they will be lying when they make this promise, for they are as Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿...And even if they were sent back, they would surely go back to that which was forbidden to them...﴾ (al-An'ām 6: 28)

Allah (ﷻ) has left them no argument, and has left no excuse for them; He causes them to live in this world long enough to be reminded and understand the reminder, and for the evildoer to be deterred. So Allah will say, in response to their request:

﴿Be humiliated therein and do not speak to Me﴾. These words – we ask Him to keep us safe and sound – are the worst rebuke that the evildoers may hear in terms of shame, censure, humiliation and loss, for it will cause them to despair of all good and will bring tidings of all ills. These words and wrath from the Most Merciful Lord will be harder for them to bear and more effective in causing them pain than the torments of hell.

<sup>34</sup> What is meant is that they were controlled by their whims and desires, which led to them being overwhelmed by that misfortune. (al-Qurtūbi)

Then Allah mentions that which brought the punishment upon them and deprived them of mercy:

﴿Among My slaves there were some who said: Our Lord, we believe, so forgive us and have mercy upon us, for You are the Most Merciful of those who show mercy﴾, so they combined faith which leads to righteous deeds, calling upon their Lord to forgive them and bestow mercy upon them, seeking to draw close to Him by calling upon Him as their Lord, expressing gratitude to Him for blessing them with faith, and speaking of the vastness of His mercy and kindness. This is indicative of their submission, humility and humbleness before their Lord, and their fear of His punishment and their hope for His mercy.

These are the leaders of humankind and the best of them, ﴿But you﴾, O base disbelievers who were lacking in reason and wisdom, ﴿treated them with ridicule﴾ and mocked them and looked down on them to such an extent that you were distracted by that foolish behaviour.

﴿so much so that [ridicule of them] made you forget all remembrance of Me, and you used to laugh at them﴾. This is what made them forget the reminder; they were distracted by the ridicule of them. Their forgetting of the reminder encouraged them to ridicule them, so that the one exacerbated the other. Can there be anything worse than this audacity?

﴿I have rewarded them this day for their patience and steadfastness﴾ in obeying Me and in putting up with your annoyances, until they came to Me.

﴿verily it is they who have triumphed﴾ by attaining eternal bliss and salvation from hell. This is like the verse in which Allah says:

﴿But on that day those who believed will laugh at the disbelievers.﴾

(al-Mutaffifeen 83: 34)

﴿Allah will say﴾ to the disbelievers, by way of blame, for they were foolish because, within this short time, they committed every evil that led to them incurring His wrath and punishment, and they did not do what the believers did of good deeds that led to them attaining eternal happiness and the pleasure of their Lord: ﴿How many years did you remain on earth? They will say: We remained there for a day, or part of a day﴾. Their saying this is based on the fact that they will regard their stay on earth as having been very short. This is what it implies, but their words will not tell the exact length of their stay, or specify it. Hence they will say: ﴿But ask those who keep count﴾.

In their case, they will be very distracted with something else, namely the tremendous punishment, from knowing the exact number of years. So Allah will say to them: ﴿You only remained there for a short while﴾ whether you know the number or not, ﴿if you had but known﴾.

﴿أَفَحَسِبْتُمْ أَنَّمَا خَلَقْنَاكُمْ عَبَثًا وَأَنَّكُمْ إِلَيْنَا لَا تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿١١٥﴾ فَتَعَالَى اللَّهُ الْمَلِكُ
الْحَقُّ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْكَرِيمِ ﴿١١٦﴾﴾ (سورة المؤمنون: ١١٥-١١٦)

23:115. Did you think that We created you without purpose, and that you would not be brought back to Us?

23:116. So exalted be Allah, the True Sovereign; there is no god but He, Lord of the magnificent Throne.

﴿Did you think﴾, O people, ﴿that We created you without purpose﴾ that is, in vain, so that you might eat, drink, have fun, and enjoy the pleasures of this world, and We would leave you alone without any commands or prohibitions, reward or punishment? Hence He says:

﴿and that you would not be brought back to Us﴾ – and did this never cross your minds?

﴿So exalted be Allah, the True Sovereign; there is no god but He, Lord of the magnificent Throne﴾ for He is truly the Sovereign of all creation and He is truthful in His promise and warning, and He is the One Who is worthy of worship, because of the perfect attributes He possesses ﴿Lord of the magnificent Throne﴾ so it is more appropriate that He should be the Lord of everything beneath it, and that He would not create you in vain.

﴿وَمَنْ يَدْعُ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ لَا بُرْهَانَ لَهُ بِهِ فَإِنَّمَا حِسَابُهُ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِ إِنَّهُ لَا يُفْلِحُ الْكَافِرُونَ ﴿١١٧﴾ وَقُلْ رَبِّ اغْفِرْ وَارْحَمْ وَأَنْتَ خَيْرُ الرَّاحِمِينَ ﴿١١٨﴾﴾ (سورة المؤمنون:

(١١٨-١١٧)

23:117. Whoever calls upon any other god besides Allah, for which he has no proof, his reckoning will only be with his Lord. Verily the disbelievers will never prosper.

23:118. So say: My Lord, forgive and have mercy, for You are the best of those who show mercy.

That is, whoever calls upon other gods besides Allah, without having any proof or evidence to support what he believes – for everyone who calls upon anything other than Allah has no proof for that; in fact the evidence all points to the falseness of his way, but he turns away from that proof wrongfully and stubbornly – will come to his Lord, and He will requite him for his deeds, and he will not attain anything of success, because he is a disbeliever, and ﴿Verily the disbelievers will never prosper», because their disbelief is an obstacle to success.

«So say», calling upon your Lord, with sincere devotion to Him alone,

«My Lord, forgive» us so that we may be safe from harm, and have mercy on us, so that by Your mercy we may attain all that is good.

«for You are the best of those who show mercy». Whoever shows mercy to people, Allah is better for them than him, for He is more merciful towards His slave than a mother towards her child, and He is more merciful towards him than he is to himself.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat al-Mu'minoon.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

24.

Soorat an-Noor

(Madani)

---

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿سُورَةُ أَنْزَلْنَاهَا وَفَرَضْنَاهَا وَأَنْزَلْنَا فِيهَا آيَاتٍ يَنْتَظِرُ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَذَكَّرُونَ﴾ (سورة النور: ١)

24:1. [This is] a soorah that We have sent down and ordained; in it We have sent down clear signs so that you may pay heed.

---

That is, this is «a soorah» of great importance
«that We have sent down» as a mercy from Us to Our slaves, and We have protected it from every devil
«and ordained» that is, We have ordained in it what We ordained of limits, testimony and so on.
«in it We have sent down clear signs» that is, important rulings, commands, rebukes and great wisdom
«so that you may pay heed» when We explain to you and teach you that which you did not know.

Then Allah begins to explain the rulings referred to:

﴿الزَّانِيَةُ وَالزَّانِي فَاجْلِدُوا كُلَّ وَاحِدٍ مِّنْهُمَا مِائَةَ جَلْدَةٍ وَلَا تَأْخُذْكُم بِهِمَا رَأْفَةٌ فِي دِينِ اللَّهِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ وَلَشَهِدَ عَذَابُهُمَا طَائِفَةٌ مِّنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ﴾ (سورة النور: ٢)

24:2. As for the woman and the man who commit fornication, flog each of them with a hundred lashes. Do not let pity for them deter you from obedience to Allah [in carrying out the punishment He has prescribed], if you believe in Allah and the Last Day; and let a group of the believers witness their punishment.

This ruling applies to men and women who are virgins and commit fornication; they are each to be flogged with a hundred lashes. As for the fornicators who were previously married,<sup>35</sup> the well-known, ṣaḥeeḥ Sunnah indicates that the ḥadd punishment in this case is stoning. Allah (ﷻ) has forbidden us to let pity for them deter us from obedience to Him and prevent us from carrying out the ḥadd punishment on them, whether that is natural pity or is because the person is a relative or friend and so on. Faith should lead one not to have that pity which could prevent one from carrying out the command of Allah. True mercy and compassion is in carrying out the ḥadd punishment on him that has been prescribed by Allah. Even though one may feel sorry for him because of what is decreed for him, in another way one should not feel sorry for him.

Allah (ﷻ) also commands us that the punishment of the fornicators should be witnessed by a group of the believers, so that it will become widely known and thus disgrace the fornicators and deter others from doing this deed. They should watch the ḥadd punishment as it is carried out, because witnessing the rulings actually being carried out deepens one's knowledge of them and helps one to understand them better; that is also more likely to lead to accuracy in counting the number of lashes, to make sure that the number is not more or less than it should be. And Allah knows best.

<sup>35</sup> It refers to anyone who has ever been married and consummated the marriage, whether the marriage still stands or has ended through divorce or death of the spouse. (Translator)

﴿الزَّانِي لَا يَنْكِحُ إِلَّا زَانِيَةً أَوْ مُشْرِكَةً وَالزَّانِيَةُ لَا يَنْكِحُهَا إِلَّا زَانٍ أَوْ مُشْرِكٌ وَحُرِّمَ ذَلِكَ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ﴾ (سورة النور: ٣)

24:3. A man who fornicates may only marry a woman who fornicates or who is a polytheist, and a woman who fornicates may only marry a man who fornicates or who is a polytheist. Such marriages are forbidden to the believers.

This highlights the abhorrent nature of fornication, for it tarnishes the honour of the one who does it and that of the one with whom he does it, in a manner that is not shared by other sins. So Allah tells us that no woman would marry a fornicator except one who commits the same deed, so that they will be a match for one another, or a female polytheist who does not believe in the resurrection or requital, and does not adhere to the commands of Allah.

By the same token, no man would marry a woman who commits fornication except a fornicator or a polytheist.

﴿Such marriages are forbidden to the believers﴾ that is, Allah has prohibited them to marry fornicators. What this verse means is that if a person – man or woman – characteristically commits fornication, and does not repent from it, the one who wants to marry such a person, despite the fact that Allah has forbidden that, must either not be adhering to the rulings of Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), and such a person can only be a polytheist; or he or she is adhering to the rulings of Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), but goes ahead with this marriage despite being aware of the other person's fornication. In that case, the marriage is fornication and the individual is a fornicator and is immoral, for if he truly believed in Allah, he would not do that. This clearly indicates that it is prohibited to marry a woman who fornicates unless she repents, and it is prohibited to marry a man who fornicates unless he repents. That is because the connection between a husband and wife is the strongest form of companionship and bonds between people.

Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿[Allah will command:] Gather together those who did wrong, and others of their ilk ...﴾ (as-Saffāt 37: 22)

– that is, their spouses. Allah has forbidden that because of what it leads to of great evil, for it reflects a lack of protective jealousy and leads to the attribution to the husband of children who are not his; moreover, the fornicator or adulterer will be unable to keep his wife chaste because he is distracted by other women. Any one of these reasons on its own is sufficient to make it prohibited. This indicates that the fornicator or adulterer is not a believer, as the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

«The fornicator is not a believer at the time when he is committing fornication.» (Bukhari)

Even if he is not a polytheist, he cannot be given the praiseworthy description of being a believer in general terms.

﴿وَالَّذِينَ يَزْمُونَ السُّعْمَنَاتِ ثُمَّ لَمْ يَأْتُوا بِأَرْبَعَةِ شَهَدَاءَ فَأَجْلَدُوهُمْ ثَمَانِينَ جَلْدَةً وَلَا يَقْبَلُوا لَهُمْ شَهَادَةً أَبَدًا وَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْفَاسِقُونَ ﴿٥٤﴾﴾ إِلَّا الَّذِينَ تَابُوا مِنْ بَعْدِ ذَلِكَ وَأَصْلَحُوا فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿٥٥﴾﴾ (سورة النور: ٥-٤)

- 24:4. As for those who make accusations against chaste women but do not produce four witnesses, flog them with eighty lashes and never afterwards accept their testimony, for it is they who are the wicked transgressors,
- 24:5. Except those who repent after that and mend their ways, for verily Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

Having highlighted the seriousness of the crime of fornication and adultery, by decreeing that the one who commits this crime should be flogged, or stoned if he or she was previously married, and stated that it is not permissible to marry such a person or mix with him or her in such a way that one cannot be safe from his or her evil, Allah (ﷻ) here highlights the seriousness of violating a person's honour by accusing him or her of fornication or adultery, as He says:

﴿As for those who make accusations against chaste women﴾ that is, women who are free (not slaves) and chaste. This also applies to men, for there is no differentiation between the genders in this regard. What is meant by making accusations is accusations of fornication or adultery, based on the context.

﴿but do not produce four witnesses﴾ that is, men of good character who will testify to that in clear terms.

﴿flog them with eighty lashes﴾ with a whip of moderate thickness, so as to cause pain but not to the point of causing harm, because the aim is discipline, not injury. This verse affirms the hadd punishment for slander, but that is on condition that the person who is accused is, as Allah (ﷻ) says, a chaste believer. As for slandering or accusing one who is not chaste, that deserves a disciplinary punishment (ta'zeer).

﴿and never afterwards accept their testimony﴾ that is, there is a further punishment in this case, which is that the testimony of the one who made that accusation is not to be accepted, even if he has been punished, unless he repents, as we shall see below.

﴿for it is they who are the wicked transgressors﴾ that is, they have gone beyond the bounds of obedience to Allah, and their evil has increased, because of this violation of that which Allah has made sacred and this violation of the honour of his brother, because he gave people the opportunity to repeat what he said, thus undermining the bond of brotherhood that Allah has created among the believers, and he loved to see indecency spread among the believers. This indicates that slander or making false accusations is a major sin.

«Except those who repent after that and mend their ways, for verily Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful». Repentance, in this situation, means that the one who made that accusation admits that he was lying. It is obligatory for him to state that he was lying, even if he was certain that it had happened, because he failed to produce four witnesses. If the slanderer repents and mends his ways, then his bad deeds are turned into good deeds, and he is no longer to be described as a wicked transgressor. Similarly, his testimony may be accepted in the future, according to the correct scholarly view, for Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful; He forgives all sins for the one who repents and turns back to Him.

The slanderer is only to be flogged for not producing four witnesses if he is not the husband of the woman he accused. If he is the husband, then what is to be done (a procedure called li'ân) is described in the following passage:

﴿وَالَّذِينَ يَرْمُونَ أَزْوَاجَهُمْ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُمْ شُهَدَاءُ إِلَّا أَنْفُسُهُمْ فَشَهَدَةُ أَحَدِهِمْ أَرْبَعُ شَهَدَاتٍ بِاللَّهِ إِنَّهُ لَمِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ﴿٦﴾ وَالْخَامِسَةُ أَنَّ لَعْنَتَ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِ إِنْ كَانَ مِنَ الْكَاذِبِينَ ﴿٧﴾ وَيَدْرَأُ عَنْهَا الْعَذَابَ أَنْ تَشْهَدَ أَرْبَعُ شَهَدَاتٍ بِاللَّهِ إِنَّهُ لَمِنَ الْكَاذِبِينَ ﴿٨﴾ وَالْخَامِسَةَ أَنَّ غَضَبَ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهَا إِنْ كَانَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ﴿٩﴾ وَلَوْلَا فَضْلُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَتُهُ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ تَوَّابٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿١٠﴾﴾ (سورة النور: ٦-١٠)

- 24:6. As for those who make accusations against their wives but have no witnesses except themselves, such a person should testify four times by Allah that he is telling the truth,
- 24:7. And the fifth [oath] should be invoking the curse of Allah upon himself if he is telling a lie.
- 24:8. But it will avert the punishment from her if she testifies four times by Allah that he is telling a lie,
- 24:9. And the fifth [oath] should be invoking the wrath of Allah upon herself if he is telling the truth.
- 24:10. Were it not for the grace and mercy of Allah towards you, and that He is Accepting of repentance, Most Wise, [He would have hastened to punish you].

The reason why the husband's testimony against his wife does not incur the ḥadd punishment is because usually the husband does not accuse his wife, when tarnishing her reputation would also tarnish his, unless he is telling the truth, and because he has the right to do that, for fear of a child being attributed to him who is not his child, as well as other reasons that are absent in regular cases of a person making accusations against a stranger. Hence Allah says:

«As for those who make accusations against their wives» that is, wives who are free women and not slaves
 «but have no witnesses» to support the accusation «except themselves», as they do not have any witnesses to testify to what they are accusing their wives of,
 «such a person should testify four times by Allah that he is telling the truth». It is called testimony, because it takes the place of witnesses, when the husband says: I call upon Allah to bear witness that I am telling the truth with regard to what I have accused her of.

«And the fifth [oath] should be invoking the curse of Allah upon himself if he is telling a lie» that is, the fifth time he should add to his testimony something to confirm his previous words, by invoking upon himself the divine curse if he is lying. When he has completed this procedure of li'ân, the ḥadd punishment for making a false accusation is waived from him.

The apparent meaning of these verses suggests that if he mentions the alleged adulterer by name, he is not to be subjected to flogging because it is connected to the case of his wife. But is the ḥadd punishment to be carried out against her on the basis of the husband's li'ân if she refuses to swear an similar oath, or is she to be imprisoned? There are two scholarly views; the view that is supported by the evidence is that she is to be subjected to the ḥadd punishment, based on the fact that Allah says: ﴿But it will avert the punishment from her if she testifies four times by Allah that he is telling a lie...﴾. Were it not that the ḥadd punishment becomes due because of his li'ân, then her li'ân would not ward it off. This also indicates that the punishment may be averted from her if she responds to her husband's testimony with similar testimony of her own.

﴿if she testifies four times by Allah that he is telling a lie﴾ and the fifth time, to confirm that, she adds an oath invoking divine wrath upon herself if she is lying. Once the li'ân procedure between them has been completed, they become permanently separated, and the child concerning whom the dispute arose is not to be attributed to the man. The apparent meaning of this passage indicates that this wording is required, from both the man and the woman, in the event of li'ân, and it must be done in this order, and nothing of that should be omitted or altered. Li'ân is only for the husband, if he is accusing his wife; the converse does not apply. Once li'ân has been done, it does not matter if the child resembles the husband or not, just as, if a child resembles the alleged adulterer, he is still to be attributed to the husband (if no li'ân has taken place). Rather resemblance is to be taken into account when there is no other factor to indicate either way.

﴿Were it not for the grace and mercy of Allah towards you, and that He is Accepting of repentance, Most Wise﴾ – the completion of this sentence is omitted, but is indicated by the context: He would have caused to befall the partner who was lying that which he or she had invoked upon himself or herself. But by His grace and mercy, this ruling was decreed especially for spouses, because there was a need for it, but He has highlighted to you the abhorrent nature of fornication and adultery, and the abhorrent nature of false accusations and He has prescribed repentance from these major sins and others.

إِنَّ الَّذِينَ جَاءُوا بِالْإِفْكِ عُصْبَةٌ مِنْكُمْ لَا تَحْسَبُوهُ شَرًّا لَكُمْ بَلْ هُوَ خَيْرٌ لَكُمْ لِكُلِّ امْرِئٍ مِنْهُمْ مَا اكْتَسَبَ مِنَ الْإِفْكِ وَالَّذِي تَوَلَّى كِبْرَهُ مِنْهُمْ لَهُ عَذَابٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴿١١﴾ وَلَوْلَا إِذْ سَمِعْتُمُوهُ ظَنَّ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتُ بِأَنفُسِهِمْ خَيْرًا وَقَالُوا هَذَا إِفْكٌ مُبِينٌ ﴿١٢﴾ لَوْلَا جَاءُوا عَلَيْهِ بِأَرْبَعَةِ شُهَدَاءَ فَإِذْ لَمْ يَأْتُوا بِالشَّهَدَاءِ فَأَوَّلَتْكَ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ هُمُ الْكَاذِبُونَ ﴿١٣﴾ وَلَوْلَا فَضْلُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَتُهُ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ لَمَسَّكُمْ فِي مَا أَفَضْتُمْ فِيهِ عَذَابٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴿١٤﴾ إِذْ تَلَقَّوْنَهُ بِالسِّتْرِ وَتَقُولُونَ بِأَفْوَاهِكُمْ مَا لَيْسَ لَكُمْ بِهِ عِلْمٌ وَتَحْسَبُونَهُ هِينًا وَهُوَ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ عَظِيمٌ ﴿١٥﴾ وَلَوْلَا إِذْ سَمِعْتُمُوهُ قُلْتُمْ مَا يَكُونُ لَنَا أَنْ نَتَكَلَّمَ بِهَذَا سُبْحَنَكَ هَذَا مُبْتَنًى عَظِيمٌ ﴿١٦﴾ يَعِظُكُمُ اللَّهُ أَنْ تَعُودُوا لِمِثْلِهِ أَبَدًا إِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٧﴾ وَبَيَّنَّ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ الْآيَاتِ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿١٨﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُحِبُّونَ أَنْ تَشِيعَ الْفَاحِشَةُ فِي الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ وَأَنْتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ وَلَوْلَا فَضْلُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَتُهُ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ رَءُوفٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿٢٠﴾ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لَا تَتَّبِعُوا خُطُوبَ الشَّيْطَانِ وَمَنْ يَتَّبِعْ خُطُوبَ الشَّيْطَانِ فَإِنَّهُ يَأْمُرُ بِالْفَحْشَاءِ وَالْمُنْكَرِ وَلَوْلَا فَضْلُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَتُهُ مَا زَكَا مِنْكُمْ مِنْ أَحَدٍ أَبَدًا وَلَكِنَّ اللَّهَ يُزَكِّي مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَاللَّهُ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٢١﴾ وَلَا يَأْتِلْ أُولُوا الْفَضْلِ مِنْكُمْ وَالسَّعَةِ أَنْ يُؤْتُوا أُولَى الْقُرْبَى

وَالْمَسْكِينِ وَالْمُهْجِرِينَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَلِيَعْلَمُوا وَلِيَنْصَفَحُوا أَلَا تُحِبُّونَ أَنْ يَغْفِرَ اللَّهُ
 لَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿٢٢﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَزْمُونَ الْمُحْسَنَاتِ الْغَافِلَاتِ الْمُؤْمِنَاتِ لَعُنُوا فِي
 الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴿٢٣﴾ يَوْمَ نَشْهَدُ عَلَيْهِمْ أَلْسِنَتُهُمْ وَأَيْدِيهِمْ وَأَرْجُلُهُمْ
 بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾ يَوْمَئِذٍ يُوفِيهِمُ اللَّهُ دِينَهُمُ الْحَقَّ وَيَعْلَمُونَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْحَقُّ الْمُبِينُ
 ﴿٢٥﴾ أَلَمْ يَكُنْ لِلْخَيْثُورِ وَالْخَيْثُورِ لِلْخَيْثُورِ وَالطَّيِّبَتِ لِلطَّيِّبِينَ وَالطَّيِّبُونَ
 لِلطَّيِّبَتِ أُولَئِكَ مُبَرَّءُونَ مِمَّا يَقُولُونَ لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةٌ وَرِزْقٌ كَرِيمٌ ﴿٢٦﴾ ﴿سورة

النور: ١١-٢٦﴾

- 24:11. Verily those who propagated the slander were a group among you. Do not think that it was bad for you; rather it is good for you. Each man among them bears [responsibility for] his share in the sin, and as for the one among them who played the major role, for him there will be a grievous punishment.
- 24:12. Why, when you heard it, did the believing men and women not think the best of one another and say: This is obviously a lie?
- 24:13. Why did they not bring four witnesses to prove it? As they did not bring the witnesses, they are the liars before Allah.
- 24:14. Were it not for the grace and mercy of Allah towards you in this world and the hereafter, a grievous penalty would have overtaken you, because of the talk you indulged in,
- 24:15. When you were propagating it with your tongues and saying with your mouths that of which you had no knowledge. You regarded [your talking about it] as a trivial matter, whereas with Allah it was a grievous offence.
- 24:16. Why, when you heard it, did you not say: It is not right for us to speak of this. Glory be to You [O Allah]!<sup>36</sup> This is a monstrous slander!?

<sup>36</sup> This is an expression of amazement, shock or surprise, as one would usually say, when seeing or hearing something that is amazing, strange or shocking, "subhān Allāh (glory be to Allah)!"

- 24:17. Allah admonishes you never to repeat such conduct, if you are [truly] believers.
- 24:18. And Allah explains the revelations to you, for Allah is All-Knowing, Most Wise.
- 24:19. Verily those who like to see indecency spread among the believers will have a painful punishment in this world and the hereafter; Allah knows, and you do not know.
- 24:20. Were it not for the grace and mercy of Allah towards you, and that He is Most Compassionate, Most Merciful, [He would have hastened to punish you].
- 24:21. O you who believe, do not follow the footsteps of the Shayṭān; whoever follows the footsteps of the Shayṭān, he only enjoys indecency and wickedness. Were it not for the grace and mercy of Allah towards you, not one of you would ever have been purified. But Allah purifies whomever He wills, and Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing.
- 24:22. Let not those among you who are people of virtue and wealth swear to cease giving [aid] to their kinsfolk, the needy and those who have migrated in Allah's cause. Rather let them pardon and overlook. Do you not like for Allah to forgive you? For Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.
- 24:23. Verily those who make accusations against chaste women who are innocent at heart and believers are cursed in this world and the hereafter, and theirs will be a grievous punishment
- 24:24. On the day when their own tongues, hands and feet will testify against them regarding what they used to do.
- 24:25. On that day, Allah will give them in full their due recompense and they will know that Allah is indeed the Truth Who makes manifest [the true nature of all things].
- 24:26. Evil men are for evil women and evil women are for evil men; good words describe good people, and good people are described by good words.<sup>37</sup> Those [good people] are innocent of all that [the slanderers] say; they will have forgiveness and a generous provision.

In the previous verses Allah mentioned the seriousness of false accusations of adultery in general terms; it is as if that was an introduction to this story, which happened to the noblest of women, the Mother of the Believers ‘Ā’ishah (raḍiya Allāhu ‘anhā – may Allah be pleased with her). These verses were revealed concerning the well-known story of the slander (al-ifk) which is proven in the books of Ṣaḥeeḥ, the Sunans and the Musnads (books of Hadith).

In brief, the Prophet (ﷺ) went out on one of his military campaigns, and took his wife, ‘Ā’ishah aṣ-Ṣiddeeqah bint (Abi Bakr) aṣ-Ṣiddeeq (raḍiya Allāhu ‘anhuma – may Allah be pleased with both of them) with him. Her necklace broke, so she stayed behind to look for it, and they moved on with her camel and howdah, not realising that she was not there. The army moved on, and she came back to the place where they had been camping; she knew that once they realised that she was missing, they would come back for her, but they continued on their way. In the meantime, Ṣafwān ibn al-Mu‘aṭṭal as-Sulami (رضي الله عنه), who was one of the best of the Ṣaḥābah, had lagged behind the army, and had stopped at the end of the night to sleep. He now came along and he saw ‘Ā’ishah (رضي الله عنها) and recognised her, so he made his camel kneel down and she mounted it, without him speaking to her or her speaking to him. Then he came, leading the camel, after the army had halted at noon time. When some of the hypocrites who were accompanying the Prophet (ﷺ) on that journey saw Ṣafwān arriving with her in that state, they began to spread rumours, and the rumours spread far and wide, and people's tongues wagged until even some believers were deceived and began to narrate what they had heard, and the revelations stopped coming to the Messenger (ﷺ) for a long time.

<sup>37</sup> This translation of the meanings is in accordance with the view of the majority of commentators. However, this verse may also mean: “Evil men are for evil women and evil women are for evil men; good women are for good men and good men are for good women”, which indicates that ‘Ā’ishah (رضي الله عنها), as she was married to the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), could not have been anything but good.

News of what was happening reached 'Ā'ishah sometime after that, and she was very upset by it. Then Allah (ﷻ) sent down revelation confirming her innocence in these verses, in which He admonished the believers, highlighted how serious the matter was, and gave some important instructions.

﴿Verily those who propagated the slander﴾ that is, the abhorrent lie, which was an accusation against the Mother of the Believers ﴿were a group among you﴾ that is, they were a group who belonged to you, O believers, some of whom were sincere believers, but they were deceived by the rumours of the hypocrites, and some of them were themselves hypocrites.

﴿Do not think that it was bad for you; rather it is good for you﴾ because of the outcome of the matter, namely the declaration of the innocence and chastity of the Mother of the Believers, and the mention of her in the highest terms; that praise went even further, to include all of the wives of the Prophet (ﷺ); and because of what this incident led to of the revelation of some verses that people needed, which will remain applicable until the Day of Resurrection. All of this was great goodness that, were it not for the rumours spread by those who initiated the slander, would not have been achieved. If Allah wills something, He creates a cause for it. Therefore these words are addressed in general terms to all the believers, as Allah told them that impugning one another is like impugning their own selves. Hence the verse implies that the believers, in their mutual love, compassion, mercy and unity are like a single body, and the believers as a whole are like a structure, parts of which support other parts. Just as any individual would hate his honour to be impugned, he should hate for anyone to impugn the honour of his fellow believer, who is like himself. Unless a person reaches this level, he is lacking in faith and in sincerity towards his brother.

﴿Each man among them bears [responsibility for] his share in the sin﴾ this is a warning to those who produced this slander that they will be punished for what they said of such things. And in fact the Prophet (ﷺ) carried out the ḥadd punishment on some of them. ﴿and as for the one among them who played the major role﴾ namely the evil hypocrite ‘Abdullâh ibn Ubayy ibn Salool (may Allah curse him)

﴿for him there will be a grievous punishment﴾ namely eternity in the lowest level of hell.

Then Allah advises His slaves as to what they should do if they hear such talk:

﴿Why, when you heard it, did the believing men and women not think the best of one another﴾ that is, the believers should think well of one another, which means assuming that they are innocent of what they are accused of, because what they have of certain faith should ward off any false accusations made against them.

﴿and say﴾ because of that positive thinking of one another

﴿This is obviously a lie﴾ that is, a fabrication, one of the most abhorrent and most obviously mendacious of things. This is the way of thinking that is required when the believer hears such things about his fellow believer; he should state his innocence verbally and tell the one who says that: You are lying.

﴿Why did they not bring four witnesses to prove it?﴾ That is, why did those who made this accusation not bring four witnesses of good character to testify to it?

﴿As they did not bring the witnesses, they are the liars before Allah﴾. Even if they are certain of that, according to the rulings of Allah they are liars, because Allah has forbidden them to speak of that unless they can produce four witnesses. Hence Allah says: ﴿As they did not bring the witnesses, they are the liars before Allah». All of this serves to emphasise the sanctity of the Muslim's honour, as it is not permissible to make an accusation against him without having the required number of witnesses to confirm it.

«Were it not for the grace and mercy of Allah towards you in this world and the hereafter», as His kindness encompasses you in both realms, in both your religious and worldly affairs, «a grievous penalty would have overtaken you, because of the talk you indulged in» with regard to the slander, because you deserve that as a result of what you said. But by Allah's grace and mercy towards you, He prescribed repentance for you and made the punishment a means of purification.

«When you were propagating it with your tongues» that is, spreading it and passing it to one another, whispering the gossip when it was a false story, «and saying with your mouths that of which you had no knowledge». There are two forbidden matters here: speaking on the basis of falsehood and speaking without knowledge «You regarded [your talking about it] as a trivial matter», therefore some of the believers did that, who later repented and purified themselves «whereas with Allah it was a grievous offence». This is an emphatic rebuke against indulging in some sins because one thinks that they are trivial. But what a person thinks will not avail him anything and will not reduce the punishment for that sin; rather it makes him get carried away in sin and makes it easy for him to do it again.

«Why, when you heard it» that is, why – O believers – when you heard what the people of the slander said «did you not say», denouncing it and regarding it as a serious matter, «It is not right for us to speak of this» that is, we should not speak of this, and it is not appropriate for us to speak of this obvious lie, because the believer's faith prevents him from committing abhorrent deeds

﴿This is a monstrous slander﴾ that is, a monstrous lie.

﴿Allah admonishes you never to repeat such conduct﴾ that is, accusing the believers of immorality; Allah admonishes you and advises you not to repeat that, and what a beautiful admonition and advice from our Lord. Therefore we should accept it and submit to it, and give thanks to Him for what He has explained to us.

﴿...How excellent is the exhortation Allah gives you!...﴾ (an-Nisā' 4: 58)

﴿if you are [truly] believers﴾. This indicates that sincere faith prevents a person from committing prohibited actions.

﴿And Allah explains the revelations to you﴾ that contain the explanation of rulings, admonition, rebukes, encouragement and warnings. He explains them to you clearly,

﴿for Allah is All-Knowing﴾ that is, His knowledge is perfect and His wisdom is all-encompassing, and by His knowledge and wisdom He has taught you what He taught you, and that is in your best interests at all times.

﴿Verily those who like to see indecency﴾ that is, abhorrent and grievous things ﴿spread among the believers will have a painful punishment in this world and the hereafter﴾ that is, a punishment that will hurt them emotionally and physically, because of their insincerity towards their Muslim brothers and their loving bad things for them, and their audacity in impugning their honour. If this warning is for merely liking indecency to be spread, and finding it exciting, then how about that which is worse than that, of showing that and transmitting it? It is the same whether the immoral act is actually committed or not.

All of this is by the mercy of Allah towards His believing slaves, and in order to protect their honour, as He protected their lives and wealth. Allah enjoined them to have a sincere relationship with one another, and instructed them that one of them should love for his brother what he loves for himself, and hate for his brother what he hates for himself.

﴿Allah knows, and you do not know﴾ therefore He has taught you and explained to you that of which you are not aware.

﴿Were it not for the grace and mercy of Allah towards you﴾ that encompass you on all sides, ﴿and that He is Most Compassionate, Most Merciful﴾, He would not have explained these rulings to you and would not have exhorted you, and He would not have given respite to those who go against His commands. But by His grace and mercy, which are His constant attributes, this matter resulted in some goodness for you in this world and in the hereafter, that is more than you can count or enumerate.

Having forbidden this sin in particular, Allah then forbids sins in general terms, as He says:

﴿O you who believe, do not follow the footsteps of the Shayṭān﴾ that is, his ways and whispers. The footsteps of the Shayṭān include all the sins having to do with the heart (beliefs and intentions), tongue (words) and body (physical actions).

By His wisdom, Allah (ﷻ) has explained the ruling, which is the prohibition on following the footsteps of the Shayṭān, and the wisdom behind the ruling, by highlighting the evil of the prohibited deed, which dictates that one should stay away from it:

﴿whoever follows the footsteps of the Shayṭān, he﴾ namely the Shayṭān ﴿only enjoins indecency﴾ that is, major sins that are regarded by common sense and religious teachings as indecent, even though there may be some inclination towards them

﴿and wickedness﴾ – this refers to something that is denounced on the basis of reason and no one would approve of it. The sins that are described as being the footsteps of the Shayṭān do not go beyond that. Allah has forbidden them to His slaves as a favour from Him, so they should give thanks to Him and remember Him, because this is protection for them against being contaminated with abhorrent and evil deeds.

By His kindness towards them, He has forbidden these sins to them, as He has forbidden them to consume lethal poison and the like.

﴿Were it not for the grace and mercy of Allah towards you, not one of you would ever have been purified﴾ that is, they would never have been purified from following the footsteps of the Shayṭān, because the Shayṭān and his troops strive hard to call people to sins and make them appear fair-seeming, and the nafs is inclined towards evil and prompts one to do it. Man by nature is prone to shortcomings in all aspects, and faith is not strong, so if man were to be left (without help) under the influence of these factors, no one would be purified by cleansing himself of sins and bad deeds, and by starting to do good deeds. Purification requires cleansing oneself and doing good deeds. But Allah's grace and mercy dictate that some of you should be cleansed and purified. One of the supplications of the Prophet (ﷺ) was:

«O Allah, grant my soul piety and purify it, for You are the best to purify it, You are its Guardian and its Lord.» (Muslim)

Hence Allah says:

﴿But Allah purifies whomever He wills﴾, who He knows is fit for that; hence He says: ﴿and Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing﴾.

﴿Let not those among you who are people of virtue and wealth swear to cease giving [aid] to their kinsfolk, the needy and those who have migrated in Allah's cause. Rather let them pardon and overlook﴾.

One of those who were involved in spreading the slander was Miṣṭah ibn Athāthah, who was a relative of Abu Bakr aṣ-Ṣiddeeq. Miṣṭah was a poor man, one of those who had migrated in Allah's cause. Abu Bakr swore that he would no longer spend on him, because of what he had said. But then this verse was revealed, forbidding them to swear that they would no longer spend on them, and urging him to pardon and overlook, promising the forgiveness of Allah, if he forgave his relative:

«Do you not like for Allah to forgive you? For Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful»; if you are forgiving towards His slaves, by pardoning and overlooking, then Allah will treat you likewise. When Abu Bakr heard this verse, he said: Nay, by Allah I like that Allah should forgive me. And he resumed spending on Mistaḥ.

This verse indicates that it is prescribed to spend on relatives, and one should not stop doing so, or stop showing kindness towards them, because of a sin that a person may commit. It is encouraged to pardon and overlook, no matter what sins a person may commit.

Then comes a stern warning against making accusations against chaste women:

«Verily those who make accusations against chaste women» that is, women who refrain from immoral acts

«who are innocent at heart» and such things never cross their minds «and believers are cursed in this world and the hereafter» the curse can only be because of a major sin. It is highlighted that the curse is ongoing and will impact them in both realms

«and theirs will be a grievous punishment». This is in addition to the curse; Allah will cast them far away from His mercy and will send against them His mighty vengeance.

That punishment will come on the Day of Resurrection, «On the day when their own tongues, hands and feet will testify against them regarding what they used to do». Each of their physical faculties will testify against them, regarding what they did. They will be caused to speak by the One Who will cause everything to speak, so it will not be possible to deny anything. He is just towards His slaves, for He will cause the witnesses to be from their own selves.

«On that day, Allah will give them in full their due recompense» that is, He will requite them for their deeds, giving the due recompense that is based on justice and fairness, and they will find their recompense in full, with nothing missing.

﴿...They will say: Woe to us! What sort of record is this, that leaves no deed, small or great, unaccounted for? They will find all they did recorded there, and your Lord will not wrong anyone.﴾ (al-Kahf 18: 49)

They will realise, in that great place of standing, that Allah is the Truth Who makes manifest all things.

His sublime attributes are true, His deeds are true, worship of Him is true, the meeting with Him is true, His promise, His warning, His religious decree and His judgement are all true, and His Messengers are true, so there is nothing true except that which is with Allah and from Allah.

﴿Evil men are for evil women and evil women are for evil men﴾ that is, everything that is evil of men, women, words and deeds is befitting for the one who is evil, for it is in harmony with him and is similar to him. And everything that is good of men, women, words and deeds is befitting for the one who is good, for it is in harmony with him and is similar to him.

This is general in meaning, and nothing is excluded from that. One of the most important implications of that is the fact that nothing is suitable for the Prophets – especially the Messengers of strong will among them, and especially our Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), who is the best of all good people in absolute terms – except the best of women.

Casting aspersions upon ‘Ā’ishah (رضي الله عنها) with regard to this matter is casting aspersions upon the Prophet (ﷺ); he was the intended target of the slander fabricated by the hypocrites. From the mere fact that she was the wife of the Messenger (ﷺ), it is known that she could not be anything but good and pure, innocent of this reprehensible action.

So how about when she is more than that? For she was the ṣiddeeqah of women (that is, one who was strong and true in faith), the best, most knowledgeable and most pure of women, the beloved of the Messenger of the Lord of the worlds; revelation never came down to him when he was under the cover of any of his other wives, apart from her.

Then Allah states that clearly, in such a way that no evildoer would have any justification for saying anything bad about her, and that there is no room left for doubt, as He says: «Those [good people] are innocent of all that [the slanderers] say». This refers primarily to 'Ā'ishah (رضي الله عنها), but also to other chaste believing women who are innocent at heart.

«they will have forgiveness» that will cleanse all their sins «and a generous provision» in paradise, coming from the Most Generous Lord.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَدْخُلُوا بُيُوتًا غَيْرَ بُيُوتِكُمْ حَتَّى تَسْتَأْذِنُوا وَتُسَلِّمُوا عَلَى أَهْلِهَا ذَلِكُمْ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٢٧﴾ فَإِنْ لَمْ تَجِدُوا فِيهَا أَحَدًا فَلَا تَدْخُلُوهَا حَتَّى يُؤْذَنَ لَكُمْ وَإِنْ قِيلَ لَكُمْ أَنْزِعُوا فَأَنْزِعُوا هُوَ أَزْكَى لَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٢٨﴾ لَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ جُنَاحٌ أَنْ تَدْخُلُوا بُيُوتًا غَيْرَ مَسْكُونَةٍ فِيهَا مَتَعٌ لَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ مَا تُبْدُونَ وَمَا تَكْتُمُونَ ﴿٢٩﴾﴾ (سورة النور: ٢٧-٢٩)

- 24:27. O you who believe, do not enter houses other than your own until you have asked permission and greeted their occupants; that is better for you, so that you may pay heed.
- 24:28. If you do not find anyone therein, do not enter them until you are given permission. If you are told to go back, then go back; that is more proper for you. And Allah is well aware of all that you do.
- 24:29. There is no sin on you if you enter uninhabited houses, if that serves a useful purpose. And Allah knows what you disclose and what you conceal.

Here Allah instructs His believing slaves not to enter houses other than their own without permission, because that leads to a number of bad consequences, such as the following:

- That to which the Messenger (ﷺ) referred when he said:
«Seeking permission has only been prescribed so that one will not see that which is not appropriate for him to see.» (Bukhari and Muslim)
Not following this ruling properly may lead to one's gaze falling upon private things that he is not meant to see inside other people's houses. A person's house, by covering what is private, inside its walls, is like a garment that covers what is private of his body.
- Entering other people's houses without permission may create suspicion about the one who enters them, and he may be accused of evil deeds such as stealing and so on, because entering houses surreptitiously is suggestive of evil intent. Allah forbids the believers to enter houses other than their own until they seek permission; the word used in the original Arabic suggests that seeking permission creates a sense of assurance, whereas entering without permission may cause alarm.

﴿and greeted their occupants﴾ – the manner in which this is to be done is mentioned in the hadith:

«As-salâmu ‘alaykum (peace be upon you); may I come in?»
(Recorded by Abu Dâwood; al-Albâni graded it as sound)

﴿that﴾ namely seeking permission to enter
﴿is better for you, so that you may pay heed﴾, because it will serve many interests, and because it is part of the noble characteristics that are required of the Muslim.

If he is given permission, then he may enter, but ﴿If you do not find anyone therein, do not enter them until you are given permission. If you are told to go back, then go back﴾ that is, do not refuse to go back, and do not get angry about it, because the owner of the house is not depriving you of a right that you must have. Rather he has the choice: if he wishes he may give you permission to enter, or he may refuse. So no one should feel offended or annoyed in that case.

﴿that is more proper for you﴾ that is, it is more effective in protecting you from falling into sin, and it helps you to do more good.

﴿And Allah is well aware of all that you do﴾; He will requite each person for his deeds, whether they were many or few, good or otherwise.

This ruling applies to inhabited houses, whether one is going there for a purpose or not, and to uninhabited houses for which one has no need to enter them.

In the case of houses that are not inhabited, but they contain the belongings of the person who needs to enter the house, but there is no one present whose permission he may seek to enter – which applies to rented accommodation and so on – Allah has mentioned them in the following verse:

﴿There is no sin on you﴾ that is, there is no blame on you. In contrast, entering the houses mentioned above without permission is deemed to be prohibited because it is described as blameworthy.

﴿if you enter uninhabited houses, if that serves a useful purpose﴾. This is an example of the amazing wisdom and prudence of the Qur'an: the words ﴿do not enter houses other than your own﴾ are general in meaning and apply to all houses that do not belong to the individual, but Allah (ﷻ) excluded from that houses that do not belong to him, but he has some interest there, and no one lives there. In that case, blame is waived for the one who enters them.

﴿And Allah knows what you disclose and what you conceal﴾ – He knows your inward and outward condition, and He knows what is in your best interests; therefore He has prescribed for you what you need and cannot do without of laws and teachings.

﴿قُلْ لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ يَغُضُّوا مِنْ أَبْصَارِهِمْ وَيَحْفَظُوا فُرُوجَهُمْ ذَلِكَ أَزْكَى لَكُمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ خَبِيرٌ بِمَا يَصْنَعُونَ﴾ (سورة النور: ٣٠)

24:30. Tell the believing men to avert their gaze [from that which is forbidden] and restrain their carnal desires; that will be more conducive to their purity. Verily Allah is well aware of all that they do.

That is, instruct the believers and tell those who have faith that prevents them from doing that which undermines faith:

﴿to avert their gaze﴾ from looking at nudity, or at non-mahram women or beardless youths, where there is the fear that looking at them may lead to temptation; and tell them to avert their gaze from looking at worldly adornments that may be tempting and cause them to fall into that which is prohibited.

﴿and restrain their carnal desires﴾ from prohibited sexual acts, in the vagina, anus or otherwise, and from allowing others to touch or look at their private parts

﴿that﴾ caution with regard to the gaze and carnal desires

﴿will be more conducive to their purity﴾ that is, it will be purer and better, and more effective in helping them to do righteous deeds. The one who restrains his carnal desires and his gaze will be pure and free of the evil that contaminates those who commit immoral deeds, and it will make his deeds pure, because of giving up the prohibited actions to which the soul may be inclined and may prompt one to do. Whoever gives up something for the sake of Allah, Allah will compensate him with something better than it; whoever averts his gaze (from that which is forbidden), Allah will give him enlightenment. If a person restrains his carnal desires and averts his gaze from that which is forbidden, and that which leads to it, despite the pressure of desire, then he is more likely to refrain from other things. Therefore Allah describes this as hifdh (lit. guarding, translated here as “restraining”) because if a person does not try hard to keep watch over the thing that he is guarding, and take proper measures to guard it, it will not be guarded. The same applies to the gaze and carnal desires: if he does not try hard to guard them and restrain them, they will cause him to fall into troubles and problems.

Think about how Allah gives instructions to restrain their carnal desires completely, because allowing them free reign is not permissible under any circumstances. But with regard to the gaze, He says ﴿to avert their gaze﴾; the wording of the original Arabic suggests that this is only to be done in part, because it is permissible to look in some cases, if there is a need for that, as in the case of one who is giving testimony, or one who wants to propose marriage, and so on. Then Allah reminds them that He is aware of all that they do, so that they will strive hard to protect themselves against that which is prohibited.

﴿وَقُلْ لِلْمُؤْمِنَاتِ يَغْضُضْنَ مِنْ أَبْصَارِهِنَّ وَيَحْفَظْنَ فُرُوجَهُنَّ وَلَا يُبْدِينَ زِينَتَهُنَّ إِلَّا مَا ظَهَرَ مِنْهَا وَلْيَضْرِبْنَ خُمُرَهُنَّ عَلَى جُيُوبِهِنَّ وَلَا يُبْدِينَ زِينَتَهُنَّ إِلَّا لِبُعُولَتِهِنَّ أَوْ آبَائِهِنَّ أَوْ أَبْنَائِهِنَّ أَوْ بُعُولَتِهِنَّ أَوْ إِخْوَانِهِنَّ أَوْ بَنِي إِخْوَانِهِنَّ أَوْ نِسَائِهِنَّ أَوْ مَا مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُهُنَّ أَوِ التَّابِعِينَ غَيْرِ أُولَى الْإِرْبَةِ مِنَ الرِّجَالِ أَوِ الطِّفْلِ الَّذِينَ لَمْ يَظْهَرُوا عَلَى عَوْرَاتِ النِّسَاءِ وَلَا يَضْرِبْنَ بِأَرْجُلِهِنَّ لِيُعْلَمَ مَا يُخْفِينَ مِنْ زِينَتِهِنَّ وَتُوبُوا إِلَى اللَّهِ جَمِيعًا أَيُّهَ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُفْلِحُونَ﴾ (سورة النور: ٣١)

24:31. Tell the believing women to avert their gaze [from that which is forbidden] and restrain their carnal desires, and not to show their adornments except what ordinarily appears thereof.<sup>38</sup> And let them draw [part of] their headcovers over their chests and not show their adornments except to their husbands, their fathers, their husbands' fathers, their sons, their husbands' sons, their brothers, their brothers' sons, their sisters' sons, their [fellow Muslim] women, slaves whom they own, male retainers<sup>39</sup> who are free of physical desire, or small children who still have no awareness of the private aspects of women. Nor let them stamp their feet in order to draw attention to their hidden ornaments. And, O believers, turn all together towards Allah in repentance, so that you may prosper.

Having instructed the believing men to avert their gaze and restrain their carnal desires, Allah now instructs the believing women to do likewise:

﴿Tell the believing women to avert their gaze﴾ and avoid looking at that which they are not supposed to look at, such as looking at men with desire and other kinds of prohibited looking.

﴿and restrain their carnal desires﴾ by not allowing anyone to have intercourse with them, touch them or look at them in prohibited ways.

﴿and not to show their adornments﴾ such as beautiful clothes and jewellery; the entire body comes under the heading of adornment.

Because the outer garment is something that cannot be concealed, Allah says: ﴿except what ordinarily appears thereof﴾ that is, the outer garment that is usually worn, so long as there is nothing in it that could cause temptation.

﴿And let them draw [part of] their headcovers over their chests﴾. This is in order to perfect their covering up. This indicates that the adornment that is prohibited to show includes the entire body, as we have mentioned. Then Allah repeats the prohibition on showing adornment, then makes an exception from that:

<sup>38</sup> ﴿what ordinarily appears thereof﴾: this refers to the outer garments.

<sup>39</sup> This refers to dependants or followers who are attached to a tribe or family.

«except to their husbands, their fathers, their husbands' fathers» – this includes the father himself, and grandfathers, no matter how far the line of ascent reaches

«their sons, their husbands' sons» this includes sons and grandsons, no matter how far the line of descent reaches.

«their brothers, their brothers' sons» this includes both full brothers and half-brothers through the father or mother

«their sisters' sons, their [fellow Muslim] women» that is, it is permissible for women to look at one another in all cases. It may be that what is meant by “their women” is women of the same religion as them, namely other Muslim women. This is quoted as proof by those who say that it is not permissible for a dhimmi (non-Muslim) woman to see a Muslim woman (without hijab).

«slaves whom they own» it is permissible for a slave, if the woman owns him completely, to see his mistress, so long as he belongs to her. If that ownership comes to an end, in full or partially, then it is not permissible for him to see her.

«male retainers who are free of physical desire» that is, those who are dependent on you and are connected to you of men who have no desire, such as one who has an intellectual disability and is not aware of what is going around him, or one who is impotent and has no desire, physical or otherwise. In this case it is not prohibited for these individuals to look at the woman.

«or small children who still have no awareness of the private aspects of women» that is, children below the age of discernment. It is permissible for them to look at non-mahram women. Allah (ﷻ) gives the reason for that, which is that they have no awareness of the private aspects of women. In other words they have no knowledge and no desire yet. This indicates that once the child has reached the age of discernment, women should cover in front of him, because he is now aware of the private aspects of women.

﴿Nor let them stamp their feet in order to draw attention to their hidden ornaments﴾ that is, they should not stamp the ground with their feet so that the jewellery they are wearing, such as anklets and the like, makes a noise by which their adornments may be known, and thus become a means of temptation. From this verse and others is derived the principle of barring the means. If something is permissible in and of itself, but it may lead to something that is prohibited, or there is the fear that that may happen, then it is disallowed. Stamping the feet on the ground is permissible in principle, but if it is a means of making hidden adornment known, then it is disallowed.

Having issued these goodly instructions and this excellent advice, because it is inevitable that there will be some shortcomings on the part of the believers, Allah (ﷻ) enjoins us to repent, as He says:

﴿And, O believers, turn all together towards Allah in repentance﴾, because the believer's faith calls him to repent. Then that is made a condition of attaining prosperity, as Allah says:

﴿so that you may prosper﴾, for there is no way to prosper except by repenting, which means giving up that which Allah hates, both inwardly and outwardly, and focusing on that which He loves, both inwardly and outwardly. This indicates that every believer needs to repent, because here Allah is addressing all the believers together. And He urges them to be sincere in repentance, as He says: ﴿turn all together towards Allah in repentance﴾ that is, not for any other purpose except seeking His pleasure; it should not be for any other purpose such as seeking protection from troubles in this world, or showing off and seeking to enhance one's reputation, or other corrupt purposes.

﴿وَأَنكِحُوا الْأَيْمَىٰ مِنكُمُ وَالصَّالِحِينَ مِن عِبَادِكُمُ وَإِمَائِكُمُ إِن يَكُونُوا فُقَرَاءَ يُغْنِهِمُ اللَّهُ
مِنْ فَضْلِهِ وَاللَّهُ وَاسِعٌ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٣١﴾ وَلِاسْتَغْفِرَ الَّذِينَ لَا يَجِدُونَ نِكَاحًا حَتَّىٰ يُغْنِيَهُمُ اللَّهُ

مِنْ فَضْلِهِ وَالَّذِينَ يَبْتَغُونَ الْكِتَابَ مِمَّا مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُكُمْ فَكَاتِبُوهُمْ إِنْ عَلِمْتُمْ فِيهِمْ خَيْرًا وَعَاقِبُوهُمْ مِنْ مَالِ اللَّهِ الَّذِي آتَيْنَاكُمْ وَلَا تُكْرِهُوا فَتِنَتَكُمْ عَلَى الْبِعَاءِ إِنْ أَرَدْنَ تَحَصُّنًا لِيَبْتِغُوا عَرَضَ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَمَنْ يُكْرِهْنَهُنَّ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ مِنْ بَعْدِ إِكْرِهِهِنَّ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ

﴿سورة النور: ٣٢-٣٣﴾

- 24:32. Arrange marriages for those among you who are single, and those who are righteous and fit for marriage among your male and female slaves. If they are poor, Allah will suffice them from His bounty, for Allah is All-Encompassing, All-Knowing.
- 24:33. Let those who do not have the means to marry keep themselves chaste until Allah suffices them from His bounty. If any of your slaves ask for a deed in writing [to enable them to earn their freedom in return for a certain sum], then write it for them, if you see any good in them,<sup>40</sup> and give them some of the wealth that Allah has given you. Do not force your slave girls into prostitution, if they want to remain chaste, seeking thereby some worldly gain. But if anyone does compel them, verily Allah, after such compulsion, is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

Here Allah (ﷻ) instructs guardians and masters to arrange marriages for the single people under their care. This refers to those who have no spouses, whether they are men, previously married women or virgins. So relatives and guardians of orphans should arrange marriages for those who wish to get married among those on whom they are obliged to spend. If they are enjoined to arrange marriages for those who are under their guardianship, then it is more appropriate that they should be instructed to get married themselves.

﴿and those who are righteous and fit for marriage among your male and female slaves﴾ it may be that what is meant by the word

<sup>40</sup> That is, if you deem them able to earn their own livelihood and not become dependent on others.

ṣāliḥeen (translated here as «righteous and fit for marriage») is being righteous in religious terms, and in the case of male or female slaves who are righteous – which refers to those who are not immoral and do not commit fornication – their master is instructed to arrange marriages for them, as a reward to the slave for being righteous and by way of encouraging him to remain righteous. The fact that it is not permissible for anyone to marry one who is immoral and fornicates confirms what is mentioned at the beginning of the soorah, that it is prohibited to marry a man or woman who fornicates until he or she repents. Righteousness is singled out for mention with regard to slaves – as opposed to those who are free – because fornication is usually more common among slaves. Or it may be that what is meant by ṣāliḥeen is those slaves, male and female, who are fit and capable for marriage and ready to bear the responsibilities thereof.

The latter view is supported by the fact that the master is not obliged to arrange a marriage for his slave before he needs to get married. And it is not unlikely that both meanings are intended. And Allah knows best.

«If they» that is, married people or those who want to get married «are poor, Allah will suffice them from His bounty». So you should not let what you imagine – that if he gets married, he will become poor because of having too many dependents – prevent you from getting married. This offers encouragement to get married, and is a divine promise to the one who gets married that he will become independent of means after having been poor.

«for Allah is All-Encompassing» and His generosity encompasses all

«All-Knowing» – He knows who deserves His grace and bounty in both religious and worldly terms, or in one of them, and who does not deserve that. So He gives to all in accordance with His knowledge and wisdom.

«Let those who do not have the means to marry keep themselves chaste until Allah suffices them from His bounty». This ruling applies to the one who is unable to get married. Allah instructs him to keep himself chaste, refrain from that which is prohibited and to take measures to restrain himself and prevent thoughts crossing his mind that may prompt him to fall into sin. He should also do what the Prophet (ﷺ) instructed, as he said:

«O young men, whoever among you can afford it, let him get married, and whoever cannot, let him fast, for it will be a shield for him.» (Muslim)

«Let those who do not have the means to marry» that is, they are not able to get married, either because they themselves are poor or because their guardians and masters are poor, or because the latter refused to arrange marriages for them, and they do not have the means to force them to do that. This interpretation is better than the interpretation of those who understood it to refer to those who cannot afford the mahr (dowry) for marriage. There are two reservations about the latter interpretation:

- 1- The word mahr is not mentioned in this verse, so we should not assume that this is what is meant.
- 2- Introducing the idea of the mahr would restrict the meaning to free people who can or cannot afford it, and would exclude male and female slaves and those whose marriage is the responsibility of their guardians, as we have mentioned above.

«keep themselves chaste until Allah suffices them from His bounty» – this is a promise to the one who keeps himself chaste that Allah will suffice him and make things easy for him; he is instructed to await relief so that his situation will not become unbearable.

«If any of your slaves ask for a deed in writing [to enable them to earn their freedom in return for a certain sum], then write it for them, if you see any good in them» that is, whoever among your slaves, male or female, seeks a contract of manumission from you in order to purchase his or her freedom, you should respond to this request and write that contract for him or her.

﴿if you see any good in them﴾ that is, in those who are requesting that contract. What is meant by good here is the ability to earn a living, as well as righteousness and religious commitment, because writing such a contract serves two interests: the interest of manumission and freedom (for the slave), and the interest (or benefit) of the money he pays to his master in order to ransom himself (for the master). Perhaps he will work hard and strive, and be able to earn money for his master during the period covered by the contract of manumission that he could not do as a slave, so there will be no harm done to the master's interests by writing this contract; this is in addition to the great benefits that will be attained by the slave. Therefore Allah enjoined masters to draw up contracts in this way, and that is either obligatory, as appears to be the case, or it is recommended, according to the other opinion. Allah enjoined that slaves should be helped in their manumission, because they need that, as they have no wealth of their own. Therefore He said: ﴿and give them some of the wealth that Allah has given you﴾. This includes a command to the master who writes the contract of manumission to give him some of the costs of his manumission or to waive some of the costs, and He also instructed people in general to help them.

Therefore Allah has allocated a share of zakâh to slaves who seek to buy their freedom, and He encourages people to give it, as He says: ﴿and give them some of the wealth that Allah has given you﴾. That is, as the wealth belongs to Allah, what He has given to you is a gift from Allah to you and is a pure blessing, so show kindness to the slaves of Allah as Allah has shown kindness to you.

What this verse means is that if a slave does not seek manumission, then his master is not obliged to initiate that process. If he does not know of any good in him, in the sense that what he knows of him is the opposite of that, either because he knows that he is not able to earn a living and would therefore become dependent upon people and destitute, or he fears that if he is manumitted and becomes free, he would spread mischief, then in such cases the master is not instructed to manumit him; rather he is forbidden to do that because of the reservations mentioned above.

Then Allah (ﷻ) says: «Do not force your slave girls into prostitution, if they want to remain chaste» because it is not possible to imagine them being forced into that unless they want to be chaste. If a slave woman does not want to be chaste, then she is immoral and her master must prevent her from doing that. This prohibition is mentioned because they used to do that during the jāhiliyah (pre-Islamic period of ignorance), when a master would force his slave woman into prostitution in order to take her earnings. Hence Allah says: «seeking thereby some worldly gain». It is not befitting for your slave women to be better and more chaste than you, when you are doing that to them for the sake of worldly gain and some small fleeting gain that is soon gone.

Attaining dignity, purity and decency – regardless of reward or punishment in the hereafter – is better than acquiring some small gain that causes you to become immoral and vile.

Then Allah calls upon those who forced their slave women into prostitution to repent, as He says: «But if anyone does compel them, verily Allah, after such compulsion, is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful», so let him repent to Allah and give up what he did that incurred divine wrath. If he does that, Allah will forgive him his sins and will have mercy on him, as he had mercy on himself and tried to protect himself from punishment, and as he showed mercy towards his slave woman by not forcing her to do that which would harm her.

﴿وَلَقَدْ أَنْزَلْنَا إِلَيْكَ آيَاتٍ مُبِينَاتٍ وَمَثَلًا مِّنَ الَّذِينَ خَلَوْا مِن قَبْلِكَ وَمَوْعِظَةً لِّلْمُتَّقِينَ﴾

﴿سورة النور: ٣٤﴾

24:34. Verily We have sent down to you revelations making things clear, and an account of those [nations] who passed away before you, and an admonition for those who fear Allah.

This highlights the greatness and high status of these verses that are recited to His slaves, so that they may realise their importance and comply with them in the proper manner.

«Verily We have sent down to you revelations making things clear» that is, they are clear in meaning and clarify everything that you need to know of the fundamentals and minor issues of Islam, so that there will be no confusion or ambiguity.

«and» We have also sent down to you «an account of those [nations] who passed away before you» that is, stories of the earlier nations, both righteous and otherwise, and a description of their deeds and what happened to them of ease and hardship, so that you may take it as an example and lesson that whoever does what they did will be requited as they were requited.

«and an admonition for those who fear Allah» that is, and We have sent down to you an admonition for those who fear Allah, containing the promises and warnings, encouragement and deterrent, by which those who fear Allah may be admonished, so that they will refrain from that which Allah hates and do that which Allah loves.

﴿ اللَّهُ نُورُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ مِثْلُ نُورِهِ كَمِشْكُوفٍ فِيهَا مِصْبَاحٌ الْيَصْبَاحُ فِي دُجَاهِهِ الزَّجَاجَةُ كَأَنَّهُ كَوْكَبٌ دُرِّيُّ يُوقَدُ مِنْ شَجَرَةٍ مُبَارَكَةٍ زَيْتُونَةٍ لَا شَرْقِيَّةٍ وَلَا غَرْبِيَّةٍ يَكَادُ زَيْتُهَا يُضِيءُ وَلَوْ لَمْ تَمْسَسْهُ نَارٌ نُورٌ عَلَى نُورٍ يَهْدِي اللَّهُ لِنُورِهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَضْرِبُ اللَّهُ الْأَمْثَلَ لِلنَّاسِ وَاللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ ﴾ (سورة النور: ٣٥)

24:35. Allah is the light of the heavens and the earth. The likeness of His light is that of a niche in which is a lamp; the lamp is in a glass; the glass is like a brightly-shining star. [The lamp is] lit from a blessed tree: an olive, neither of the east nor of the west,<sup>41</sup> whose oil would almost glow [by itself] though no fire touched it. Light upon light; Allah guides to His light whomever He will. Allah sets forth comparisons for people; and Allah has knowledge of all things.

«Allah is the light of the heavens and the earth». This is true in both a literal and metaphorical sense, for Allah (ﷻ) is Himself light and His veil – which, were it not for His kindness, the splendour of His Countenance would have burned everything of His creation as far as He can see – is also light. By that light the Throne, the Footstool, the sun, the moon and all light is illuminated, and by it paradise is illuminated. This is also true in a metaphorical sense. So His Book is light, His law is light, faith and knowledge in the hearts of His Messengers and His believing slaves is light. Were it not for His light, darkness would have accumulated. Therefore every place in which His light is lacking is a place of darkness and constraint.

«The likeness of His light» to which He guides people, which is the light of faith and the Qur'an in the hearts of the believers «is that of a niche in which is a lamp», because the niche concentrates the light of the lamp so that it is not scattered «the lamp is in a glass; the glass» because of its purity and splendour «is like a brightly-shining star» that is, it shines like a star.

That lamp which is in that shining glass is «lit from a blessed tree: an olive» that is, it is lit with olive oil, which shines the brightest when it is lit

<sup>41</sup> This refers to an olive tree in a place that receives sunlight throughout the day, not only when the sun is rising or setting. Olive trees that grow in such locations produce purer and higher-quality oil. (aṭ-Ṭabari; Ibn Katheer; ar-Râzi)

﴿neither of the east﴾ only, so that it does not get any sun at the end of the day

﴿nor of the west﴾ so that it does not get any sun at the beginning of the day. As it is neither of these two, it is in the middle of the earth, like the olive trees of Greater Syria, which get sun at both the beginning and the end of the day, so their oil is of good quality and good taste, and is the purest oil. Hence Allah says:

﴿whose oil﴾, because it is so pure, ﴿would almost glow [by itself] though no fire touched it﴾. So if the fire does touch it, it shines very brightly.

﴿Light upon light﴾ that is, the light of the fire and the light of the oil.

This likeness that Allah gives and applies to the believer, in whose heart is the light of Allah, refers to the natural disposition with which Allah created him. That disposition is likened to the pure oil; it is pure and is receptive to divine teaching and prescribed actions. When knowledge and faith reach his heart, that light will begin to shine in his heart, like the fire in the wick of the lamp. This refers to the heart that is pure and free of bad intentions and misunderstandings of the divine text. If faith reaches that heart, it will be illuminated greatly, because it is pure and free of contamination, like the purity of the shining glass. Thus in that heart are combined the light of sound natural inclinations, the light of faith, the light of knowledge and the purity of proper understanding of faith: light upon light.

Because this comes from the light of Allah (ﷻ), and not everyone is fit to receive it, Allah says:

﴿Allah guides to His light whomever He will﴾ who He knows is pure of heart, so faith will grow in his heart and it will benefit him and have an impact on him.

﴿Allah sets forth comparisons for people﴾ so that they may understand them, out of kindness towards them, and so that the truth may become clear and distinct from falsehood. Comparisons make the intended meanings clear when compared to something physical, so that people may learn those meanings and understand them clearly.

﴿and Allah has knowledge of all things﴾ – His knowledge encompasses all things, so you should realise that when He sets forth comparisons, that is done by One Who knows the reality and details of all things, and that is in the interests of people, so they should strive to ponder and understand them, not turn away and oppose them, for He knows and you do not know.

Because the places where the means of finding the light of faith and the Qur'an are most available are the mosques, Allah mentions them in the context of praise and speaking highly of them, as He says:

﴿فِي بُيُوتٍ أُذِنَ لِلَّهِ أَنْ تَرْفَعَ وَيُذَكِّرَ فِيهَا أَسْمُهُ يُسَبِّحُ لَهُ فِيهَا بِالْغُدُوِّ وَالْآصَالِ
 ٢٦ رِجَالٌ لَا تُلْهِيهِمْ تِجَارَةٌ وَلَا بَيْعٌ عَنْ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ وَإِقَامِ الصَّلَاةِ وَإِيتَاءِ الزَّكَاةِ يَخَافُونَ يَوْمًا
 تَتَقَلَّبُ فِيهِ الْقُلُوبُ وَالْأَبْصَارُ ٢٧﴾ لِيَجْزِيََهُمُ اللَّهُ أَحْسَنَ مَا عَمِلُوا وَيَزِيدَهُم مِّنْ
 فَضْلِهِ ۗ وَاللَّهُ يَرْزُقُ مَن يَشَاءُ بِغَيْرِ حِسَابٍ ﴿٢٨﴾ (سورة النور: ٣٦-٣٨)

- 24:36. [Such lamps are lit] in houses [mosques] which Allah has ordained to be built so that His name may be remembered therein. In them His name is glorified morning and afternoon,
- 24:37. By men who are not distracted by buying or selling from the remembrance of Allah, or from establishing prayer or giving zakâh. They fear a day when hearts will quiver and eyes will stare fixedly.
- 24:38. [Their hope is] that Allah may reward them according to the best of their deeds and give them yet more out of His bounty, for Allah bestows His abundance without measure on whomever He will.

As Allah is worshipped ﴿in houses﴾ of great virtue, which are the dearest of places to him, namely the mosques, He ﴿has ordained﴾ that they ﴿be built so that His name may be remembered therein﴾. These two things summarise the rulings on mosques, which includes building them, constructing them, sweeping them, cleansing them of impurities and dirt, protecting them from insane people and small children who do not know how to clean themselves from impurity, and from disbelievers; mosques are also to be protected from idle talk and the raising of voices in anything other than remembrance of Allah.

﴿so that His name may be remembered therein﴾ this includes all prayers, obligatory and supererogatory, reading Qur'an, tasbeeh (glorifying Allah), tahleel (reciting the phrase lâ ilâha illâ Allâh [there is no god but Allah]), and other kinds of dhikr, acquiring knowledge and teaching, discussing issues of religion, i'tikâf, and other kinds of worship that are done in the mosques. Hence maintenance of the mosques is divided into two categories: maintaining and protecting the structure, and maintaining remembrance of Allah in them by praying and doing other acts of worship. The latter is the nobler of the two categories.

Hence it is prescribed to offer the five daily prayers and Jumu'ah prayer in the mosques, and this is obligatory according to most of the scholars, or recommended according to others.

Then Allah (ﷻ) praises those who stay in the mosques to worship, as He says: ﴿In them His name is glorified﴾ sincerely ﴿morning﴾ at the beginning of the day ﴿and afternoon﴾ at the end of the day. These two times are singled out because of their high status and because it is easier at these times to turn to Allah in worship.

That includes tasbeeh (glorifying Allah) in prayer and otherwise. Therefore it is prescribed to recite the adhkâr and awrâd<sup>42</sup> of the morning and the afternoon at those times.

<sup>42</sup> Awrâd (sing. wird): Remembrance of Allah and glorifying Him in various phrases that are prescribed at different times as a voluntary act, which a Muslim commits to reciting on a daily basis, such as morning and evening.

«By men» that is, at those times they glorify Allah, and what good men they are, for they are not those who give precedence to worldly pleasures or trade, and the distractions of business.

«who are not distracted by buying or selling» – this includes any type of earnings through exchange. These men, even if they do engage in trade, buying and selling – and there is nothing wrong with that – they are not distracted by that and they do not give it precedence over «the remembrance of Allah, or from establishing prayer or giving zakâh». Rather they make obedience and worship of Allah their ultimate desire and goal, and whatever gets in the way of that, they reject it.

Because forsaking worldly matters is very hard for most people, and love of earning by means of various kinds of trade is dear to them, and giving it up is very hard for most of them, and it may not come naturally to them to give precedence to the rights of Allah over that, He mentions that which will motivate them to do it by means of encouragement and warnings:

«They fear a day when hearts will quiver and eyes will stare fixedly» due to severe terror and emotional and physical turmoil. Hence they fear that day, so it becomes easy for them to do righteous deeds and give up that which distracts them from such deeds.

«[Their hope is] that Allah may reward them according to the best of their deeds» what is meant by the best of their deeds is their righteous good deeds, because they are the best of all that they do, as they do both permissible deeds and others. The reward will only be for the good deeds. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

«And Allah will absolve them of the worst of their deeds, and He will surely grant them their reward according to the best of their deeds.»

(az-Zumar 39: 35)

«and give them yet more out of His bounty» – He will give them much more than the reward that is due for their deeds

«for Allah bestows His abundance without measure on whomever He will»; indeed He will give him a reward much greater than his deeds deserve, and indeed much more than he ever hoped for. He will give him without counting or measuring. This is indicative of His great abundance.

﴿وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَعْمَلُهُمْ كَرَابٍ يَغِيظُهُ الظُّلُمَاتُ مَاءً حَقًّا إِذَا جَاءَهُ لَمْ يَجِدْهُ شَيْئًا وَوَجَدَ اللَّهَ عِنْدَهُ فَوَقَّعَهُ حِسَابُهُ وَاللَّهُ سَرِيعُ الْحِسَابِ ﴿٣٩﴾ أَوْ كَظُلُمَاتٍ فِي بَحْرٍ لُجِّي يَنْفَسُهُ مَوْجٌ مِّنْ فَوْقِهِ مَوْجٌ مِّنْ فَوْقِهِ سَحَابٌ ظُلُمَاتٌ بَعْضُهَا فَوْقَ بَعْضٍ إِذَا أَخْرَجَ يَكْدُهُ لَمْ يَكْدِ بِرَنَّهُا وَمَنْ لَمْ يَجْعَلِ اللَّهُ لَهُ نُورًا فَمَا لَهُ مِن نُّورٍ ﴿٤٠﴾﴾ (سورة

النور: ٣٩-٤٠)

24:39. As for the disbelievers, their deeds are like a mirage in a desert plain. The thirsty man thinks it is water until, when he reaches it, he finds it to be nothing. But he finds [the punishment of] Allah waiting, thus Allah will requite him in full, for Allah is swift in reckoning.

24:40. Or [their deeds are] like the depths of darkness in a vast deep ocean, overwhelmed by waves, above which are other waves, above which are clouds; layers of darkness, one above another. If a man stretches out his hand [in this darkness], he can hardly see it. The one to whom Allah gives no light will have no light at all.

These are two likenesses that Allah gives of the deeds of the disbelievers in terms of their falseness and how they will be of no avail to them, and how the doers will feel regret.

﴿As for the disbelievers﴾, who disbelieved in their Lord and rejected His Messengers

﴿their deeds are like a mirage in a desert plain﴾ that is, barren flat land in which there are no trees or plants.

«The thirsty man» whose thirst is so intense that he imagines what others do not imagine «thinks it is water» because of his thirst, but this is a false perception; so he heads towards it to relieve his thirst.
 «until, when he reaches it, he finds it to be nothing» then he regrets it greatly and that only exacerbates his thirst, because his hopes have been dashed.

Thus the deeds of the disbelievers are like a mirage; they are seen, and the ignorant person who has no knowledge of things thinks that they are beneficial deeds, but he is deceived by their outward appearance, and he thinks that they also serve his own whims and desires. He also needs them and is in fact desperate for them, just as the thirsty man needs water, but when he comes to his deeds on the day of requital, he will find them lost and he will not find anything. But in fact they are not lost; rather he will find «[the punishment of] Allah waiting, thus Allah will requite him in full». For nothing is hidden from Him, not even the smallest of deeds; nothing small or great will be missing.

«for Allah is swift in reckoning», so the ignorant should not think that this promise is slow in coming, for it will inevitably come. Allah likens it to a mirage in the desert plain, a place in which there are no trees or plants. This is the likeness of the hearts, in which there is no goodness and no righteousness by means of which they may be purified or blessed. That is because of the impediment, which is disbelief.

The second likeness of the invalidity of the disbelievers' good deeds is «the depths of darkness in a vast deep ocean, overwhelmed by waves, above which are other waves, above which are clouds». This refers to the darkness of the vast deep ocean, above which is the darkness of other layers of waves, and above that is the darkness of huge clouds, then above that is the darkness of the dark night. So this darkness is very intense, such that anyone in that situation, if he ﴿stretches out his hand [in this darkness], he can hardly see it﴾, even though it is so close to him, so how about anything else? This is how the disbelievers are: layers of darkness have accumulated in their hearts: inherent darkness in which there is nothing good, above which is the darkness of disbelief; above that is the darkness of ignorance, and above that is darkness of the deeds which result from that which is mentioned above. Thus they remain confused in the darkness, wandering blindly in their confusion, turning away from the straight path and stumbling along the paths of misguidance. That is because Allah (ﷻ) has forsaken them and has not given them any of His light.

﴿The one to whom Allah gives no light will have no light at all﴾, because he is a wrongdoer and ignorant, and there is nothing in his heart of goodness and light except what its Lord bestows upon it.

It may be that these two likenesses refer to the deeds of all of the disbelievers, and each is applicable to all of them, so two likenesses are given in order to describe the situation from different angles. Or it may be that each likeness refers to a particular group: the first refers to the leaders and the second refers to the followers. And Allah knows best.

﴿الَّذِينَ لَا يَرْجُونَ إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهَ يَسُبِّحُ اللَّهَ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَالْأَطْيَارُ صَفَّاتٍ كُلٌّ قَدْ عَلِمَ صَلَاتَهُ وَتَسْبِيحَهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ بِمَا يَفْعَلُونَ ﴿٤١﴾ وَلِلَّهِ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَإِلَى اللَّهِ الْمَصِيرُ

(سورة النور: ٤١-٤٢) ﴿٤٢﴾

24:41. Do you not see that all who are in the heavens and on earth glorify Allah, as do the birds with wings outspread? Each knows its [own way] of praying and glorifying Him. And Allah has full knowledge of all that they do.

24:42. To Allah belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth, and unto Him is the return [of all].

Here Allah points out to His slaves His greatness, His perfect power and authority, and the need of all created things for Him to take care of them and their need to worship Him:

﴿Do you not see that all who are in the heavens and on earth﴾ both animate beings and inanimate objects

﴿glorify Allah, as do the birds with wings outspread﴾ that is, with their wings outspread in the air.

﴿Each﴾ of these created things ﴿knows its [own way] of praying and glorifying Him﴾ that is, each has its own way of prayer and worship, according to each situation, as is appropriate for it. Allah has inspired it to pray and glorify Him, either through the Messengers, as in the case of the jinn, humans and angels, or by inspiring it directly, as in the case of all other created things. This interpretation is more likely to be correct, based on the fact that Allah says: ﴿And Allah has full knowledge of all that they do﴾ that is, He knows all their deeds, and nothing of that is hidden from Him, and He will requite them for that. Based on that, this verse combines mention of His knowledge of the deeds of creatures for whom there is no requital, which they do on the basis of inspiration from Him, with mention of His knowledge of the deeds of those for whom there is requital, on the basis of those deeds. This verse is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿The seven heavens and the earth, and all those who are therein, glorify Him. There is not a thing that does not glorify Him with praise, but you do not understand their glorification. Verily, He is Forbearing, Oft-Forgiving.﴾ (al-Isrā' 17: 44)

Having highlighted their servitude and need for Him – in the sense of worship and affirming His oneness, Allah now mentions their need for His sovereignty, care and control of their affairs, as He says:

﴿To Allah belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth﴾, for He is the Creator and provider, and He controls them through His religious and universal decree in this realm, and what He will decree of requital in the hereafter. This is based on the fact that He says: ﴿and unto Him is the return [of all]﴾ that is, the ultimate return of all creatures is to Him, and He will requite them for their deeds.

﴿الَّذِينَ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَجْعَلُ السَّحَابَ ثُمَّ يُؤَلِّفُ بَيْنَهُ ثُمَّ يَجْعَلُهُ رُكَّامًا فَتَرَى الْوَدْقَ يَخْرُجُ مِنْ خِلَالِهِ وَيُنَزِّلُ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مِنْ جِبَالٍ فِيهَا مِنْ بَرَدٍ فَيُصِيبُ بِهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَصْرِفُهُ عَنْ مَنْ يَشَاءُ يَكَادُ سَنَا بَرْقِهِ يَذْهَبُ بِالْأَبْصَرِ﴾ (سورة النور: ٤٣-٤٤)

24:43. Do you not see that Allah drives along the clouds, then gathers them together, then piles them into heaps? Then you see the rain coming forth from their midst. He sends down hail from mountains [of clouds] in the sky; He strikes with it whomever He will and He averts it from whomever He will. The brightness of their lightning almost takes away the sight.

24:44. Allah alternates the night and the day. Verily in this there is a lesson for those who have insight.

That is, have you not seen with your own eyes the greatness of Allah's might, and how He ﴿drives along the clouds﴾ in scattered pieces, ﴿then piles them into heaps﴾, gathering the pieces together and piling them up like mountains.

﴿Then you see the rain﴾ coming out of the clouds in scattered crops, to bring about benefit without harm. Then the streams and rivers are filled, and water flows through the wadis, bringing forth every type of beautiful plants.

Sometimes Allah sends down from those clouds hail that destroys whatever it strikes, ﴿He strikes with it whomever He will and He averts it from whomever He will» according to His decree and wisdom, for which He is to be praised.

«The brightness of their lightning» that is, the lightning that emanates from the cloud, because it is so bright, «almost takes away the sight». Is not the One Who creates the clouds and drives them towards His needy slaves, and sends down rain from them in such a way that it brings benefits and does not cause harm, perfect in might, His will is always done, and He is abundant in mercy?

«Allah alternates the night and the day» from hot to cold and from cold to hot, from night to day and from day to night; He causes the days to alternate among His slaves.

«Verily in this there is a lesson for those who have insight» that is, those who have reason with which to understand what they need to understand. Just as one sees physical things with one's eyes, the one who has insight looks at creation, reflects upon it and learns from it the divine wisdom behind its creation, whereas the one who is ignorant looks at it in a heedless manner, just as animals look at it.

﴿وَاللَّهُ خَلَقَ كُلَّ دَابَّةٍ مِنْ مَّاءٍ فَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ يَمْشِي عَلَى بَطْنِهِ وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ يَمْشِي عَلَى رِجْلَيْنِ وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ يَمْشِي عَلَى أَرْبَعٍ يَخْلُقُ اللَّهُ مَا يَشَاءُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَفِيرٌ﴾ (سورة النور: ٤٥)

(٤٥)

24:45. Allah has created every living creature from water. Some of them move on their bellies, some walk on two legs and some walk on four. Allah creates whatever He wills; verily Allah has power over all things.

Here Allah draws the attention of His slaves to what they see, for He has created all creatures that are on the face of the earth

﴿from water﴾ that is, the substance of all of that is water, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿...And We have made from water every living thing...﴾ (al-Anbiyā' 21: 30)

The substance of animals that procreate is the water of the nutfah (drop of semen), when the male fecundates the female. With regard to animals that lay eggs in the ground, they only procreate by means of dampness, such as insects; there are none that procreate without water.

The substance is the same, but the nature of each creature is different in many ways:

﴿Some of them move on their bellies﴾ like snakes and the like
 ﴿some walk on two legs﴾ like humans and many birds
 ﴿and some walk on four﴾ like livestock animals, and so on.

These differences in shape – despite having the same origin – indicates that Allah is able to do all that He wills. Hence He says:

﴿Allah creates whatever He wills﴾ of creatures, with the characteristics that He wants ﴿verily Allah has power over all things﴾. As He sent down rain upon the earth, it is one fecundation and the mother – namely the earth – is one, but the offspring (plants and trees) vary greatly in types and characteristics.

﴿And on earth there are adjoining [yet different] tracts of land, and gardens of grapevines, grains and date palms, growing in clusters from one root or standing alone. They are irrigated with the same water, yet We cause some of them to excel others in taste. Surely in that there are signs for people of understanding.﴾ (ar-Ra'd 13: 4)

﴿لَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا آيَاتٍ مُّبِينَاتٍ وَاللَّهُ يَهْدِي مَنْ يَشَاءُ إِلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ﴾ (سورة

النور: ٤٦)

24:46. Verily We have sent down to you revelations making things clear, and Allah guides whom He will to a path that is straight.

That is, We had mercy on Our slaves, and We sent down to them clear signs that point to the teachings of Islam, praiseworthy manners and attitude, endowed with all that leads to guidance. Thus the issues become clear and guidance becomes distinct from misguidance. So there is no longer any specious argument to cling to and no reason for the slightest confusion for the one who sincerely seeks the truth, because it has been sent down from One Whose knowledge is perfect, Whose mercy is perfect and Whose explanation is perfect, so no one can explain things any more clearly than He.

﴿...and so that [after that] those who chose to perish [by choosing disbelief] might do so after seeing clear evidence, and those who chose to live [by choosing faith] might do so after seeing clear evidence...﴾
(al-Anfāl 8: 42)

﴿and Allah guides whom He will﴾ of those who are destined for paradise

﴿to a path that is straight﴾ that is, a path that is clear and straightforward, and that leads to Him and to His paradise; it can be reached through knowledge of the truth, giving it precedence and acting upon it.

Allah makes His revelations clear to everyone, but He singles out for His guidance whomever He will. This is His grace and bounty, and by His generosity. That is because He is just and He did not want to leave any excuse for anyone. Allah knows best who is deserving of His generosity.

﴿وَيَقُولُونَ ءَامَنَّا بِاللَّهِ وَبِالرَّسُولِ وَأَطَعْنَا ثُمَّ يَتَوَلَّى فَرِيقٌ مِّنْهُمْ مِّنْ بَعْدِ ذَلِكَ وَمَا أُولَئِكَ بِالْمُؤْمِنِينَ﴾ (٤٧) وَإِذَا دُعُوا إِلَى اللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ لِيَحْكُمَ بَيْنَهُمْ إِذَا فَرِيقٌ مِّنْهُمْ مُّعْرِضُونَ

وَلَا يَكُنْ لَهُمُ الْخُفَاةُ إِلَىٰ مُذْعِنِينَ ﴿٤٧﴾ أَفِي قُلُوبِهِم مَّرَضٌ أَمْ ارْتَابُوا أَمْ يَخَافُونَ أَن يَحِيفَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِم وَرَسُولَهُ ۚ بَلْ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الظَّالِمُونَ ﴿٤٨﴾ (سورة النور: ٤٧-٥٠)

- 24:47. They [the hypocrites] say: We believe in Allah and in the Messenger, and we obey. But after that, some of them turn away. Such are not [truly] believers.
- 24:48. When they are called to Allah and His Messenger so that he may judge between them, some of them turn away in aversion.
- 24:49. But if the right is on their side, they come to him willingly.
- 24:50. Is it that there is a disease in their hearts? Or are they full of doubt? Or do they fear that Allah and His Messenger might deal unjustly with them? Nay, it is they who are the wrongdoers.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about the situation of the wrongdoers, those in whose hearts is a disease, weakness of faith, hypocrisy, doubt or lack of knowledge. They speak words and make a show of commitment to faith and obedience to Allah, but then they do not act in accordance with what they say. Some of them turn away significantly from obedience, based on the fact that Allah says here: ﴿some of them turn away﴾. The one who turns away may have the intention of coming back to that from which he turned away, but in this case what is referred to is the one who turns away and does not turn back at all, and does not look at that from which he is turning away. You will find that this is applicable to many of those who claim to believe in Allah and be obedient to Him, but they are weak in faith; you will find that they do not do many acts of worship, especially those that are hard for many people, such as giving zakâh, spending in ways that are obligatory or recommended, jihad in Allah's cause, and so on.

﴿When they are called to Allah and His Messenger so that he may judge between them﴾ that is, if an issue arises between them and someone else where a judgement is required, and they are called to the judgement of Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ),

«some of them turn away in aversion» seeking the rulings of the time of ignorance, and preferring the rulings of man-made laws over the rulings of Sharia, because they know that they are in the wrong and that Sharia only judges on the basis of what really is the case.

«But if the right is on their side, they come to him» that is, they come to the ruling of Sharia

«willingly» but that is not because it is the ruling of Sharia; rather that is because it coincides with their whims and desires. So they are not doing anything praiseworthy in this case, even if they come willingly, because the one who is a slave of Allah in a true sense is the one who follows the truth whether he likes it or not, whether it suits him or not. As for the one who follows Sharia when it coincides with his whims and desires and rejects it when it does not, and gives precedence to his whims and desires over Sharia, he is not a slave of Allah in a true sense.

Allah says, criticising them for turning away from the ruling of Sharia:

«Is it that there is a disease in their hearts» that undermines the healthy state of the heart and removes common sense, so that he becomes like a sick person who turns away from that which will benefit him and turns towards that which will harm him?

«Or are they full of doubt» that has made them anxious about the ruling of Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), so that they accused him of not judging in accordance with the truth?

«Or do they fear that Allah and His Messenger might deal unjustly with them?» That is, are they afraid that an unfair and unjust ruling will be passed against them? Rather that is how they are, «Nay, it is they who are the wrongdoers». As for the ruling of Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), it is based on the utmost justice and is in accordance with wisdom.

«...But who could be better in judgement than Allah, for a people who are certain in faith?» (al-Mâ'idah 5: 50)

These verses indicate that faith is not just words, unless those words are accompanied by action. Therefore the one who turns away from obedience has no faith.

It is obligatory to submit to the ruling of Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) in all cases, and if a person does not submit to that ruling, this is indicative of a disease in his heart and weakness in his faith. It is forbidden to think negatively of the rulings of Sharia or to think that they are contrary to justice and wisdom.

Having described the condition of those who turn away from the rulings of Sharia, Allah now describes the condition of the praiseworthy believers:

﴿إِنَّمَا كَانَ قَوْلَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ إِذَا دُعُوا إِلَى اللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ لِيَحْكُمَ بَيْنَهُمْ أَنْ يَقُولُوا سَمِعْنَا وَأَطَعْنَا وَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ﴾ (٥١) وَمَنْ يُطِيعِ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ وَيَخْشَ اللَّهَ وَيَتَّقْهُ فَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْفَائِزُونَ ﴿٥٢﴾ (سورة النور: ٥١-٥٢)

- 24:51. The only response of the believers, when they are called to Allah and His Messenger so that he may judge between them, is to say: We hear and we obey. It is they who will be the successful ones.
- 24:52. Whoever obeys Allah and His Messenger, and fears Allah, and remains mindful of Him – it is they who will be the triumphant ones.

«The only response of the believers» that is, the true believers whose deeds confirm their faith, when they are called to Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) so that he may judge between them, whether that is in accordance with their whims and desires or otherwise,

«is to say: We hear and we obey» that is, we hear the ruling of Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), we respond to that to which he called us, and we obey him completely, without any reservation.

«It is they who will be the successful ones» it is only they who will be successful, because success means attaining what is sought and being saved from what one fears, and no one will succeed except the one who refers to Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) for judgement, and obeys Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ).

Having mentioned the virtue of obedience with regard to the rulings in particular, Allah now mentions the virtue of obedience in general terms, in all situations:

«Whoever obeys Allah and His Messenger» by believing in what they say and complying with their commands, «and fears Allah» that is, fear accompanied by knowledge, so he refrains from what is forbidden to him and restrains himself from following whims and desires. Hence Allah says, «and remains mindful of Him» by refraining from that which is prohibited, because being mindful of Allah (taqwā) – when it is mentioned in general terms – includes doing what is enjoined and refraining from what is forbidden. When this is mentioned alongside righteousness or obedience – as in this case – it is interpreted as referring to warding off the punishment of Allah by refraining from disobeying Him.

«it is they» namely those who combine obedience to Allah, obedience to His Messenger (ﷺ), fear of Allah and mindfulness of Him

«who will be the triumphant ones» as they will be saved from the punishment, because they avoided the causes that lead to that, and they will attain reward, because they did that which leads to it. So triumph is theirs alone. As for those who were not like that, they will miss out on triumph, according to what they failed to attain of these praiseworthy characteristics.

This verse also refers to the duty that is owed to Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), namely obedience that stems from faith. It also mentions a duty that is owed exclusively to Allah, which is fear of Him and mindfulness of Him. There remains a third duty, that is owed exclusively to the Messenger (ﷺ), which is respect and veneration. These three duties are also mentioned together in Soorat al-Fath, where Allah says:

﴿So that you [O people] may believe in Allah and His Messenger, and support and honour him, and glorify Allah morning and afternoon.﴾
(al-Fath 48: 9)

﴿وَأَقْسَمُوا بِاللَّهِ جَهْدَ أَيْمَانِهِمْ لَئِنْ أَمَرْتَهُمْ لَيَخْرُجُنَّ قُلْ لَا تُفْسِمُوا طَاعَةٌ مَعْرُوفَةٌ إِنَّ اللَّهَ خَبِيرٌ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٥٣﴾ قُلْ أَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا الرَّسُولَ فَإِن تَوَلَّوْا فَإِنَّمَا عَلَيْهِ مَا حُمِّلَ وَعَلَيْكُمْ مَا حُمِّلْتُمْ وَإِن تُطِيعُوهُ تَهْتَدُوا وَمَا عَلَى الرَّسُولِ إِلَّا الْبَلَاغُ الْمُبِينُ ﴿٥٤﴾﴾

(سورة النور: ٥٣-٥٤)

- 24:53. They [the hypocrites] swear their most solemn oaths by Allah that, if you give the command, they will surely march forth. Say [O Muhammad]: Do not swear; [the real nature of your so-called] obedience is known. Verily Allah is well aware of all that you do.
- 24:54. Say [O Muhammad]: Obey Allah and obey the Messenger. But if you turn away, he is only responsible for the duty entrusted to him and you are responsible for the duty entrusted to you. If you obey him, you will be rightly guided. The duty of the Messenger is only to convey the message in the clearest way.

Here Allah tells us about the condition of those who stayed behind and did not go out for jihad with the Messenger (ﷺ); these were the hypocrites and those in whose hearts was a disease and weakness of faith. They swore by Allah that ﴿if you give the command﴾ in the future, ﴿they will surely march forth﴾. But Allah said, refuting what they said:

﴿Say [O Muhammad]: Do not swear﴾ that is, we do not need your oaths or excuses, for Allah has told us about you and the real nature of your obedience is known and is not hidden from us. We are aware of your reluctance and slowness with no excuse, so your apology and oath are pointless. Rather the one who may need to give an excuse and swear an oath is the one whose case is unclear. That is the one whose excuse may benefit him and prove his innocence, but in your case that is not acceptable at all. Rather what is expected and feared in your case is the punishment and vengeance of Allah. Therefore He warned them by saying: ﴿Verily Allah is well aware of all that you do﴾. And He will requite them for that in full.

As for the Messenger (ﷺ), his role is to enjoin them to do what is right and to forbid them to do what is wrong. Hence Allah says:

﴿Say [O Muhammad]: Obey Allah and obey the Messenger﴾ then if they comply, that is because they are fortunate and blessed, ﴿But if you turn away, he is only responsible for the duty entrusted to him﴾ of conveying the message, and he has fulfilled that duty. ﴿you are responsible for the duty entrusted to you﴾ of obedience. But now the situation has become quite clear, and it is obvious that you are misguided and are deserving of punishment. ﴿If you obey him, you will be rightly guided﴾ to the straight path in word and deed, but there is no way for you to be guided except through obedience; without that it is not possible for you to be guided, and in fact it is impossible.

﴿The duty of the Messenger is only to convey the message in the clearest way﴾ that is, to convey it in the clearest manner so that there will be no doubt or confusion left for anyone. And he did indeed do that; he conveyed the message clearly. But the one who will bring you to account and requite you for your deeds is Allah (ﷻ); the Messenger (ﷺ) has no control over that and he has done what was required of him.

﴿وَعَدَ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مِنكُمْ وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ لَيَسْتَخْلِفَنَّهُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ كَمَا
 اسْتَخْلَفَ الَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِمْ وَلَيُمَكِّنَنَّ لَهُمْ دِينَهُمُ الَّذِي ارْتَضَىٰ لَهُمْ وَلَيُبَدِّلَنَّهُم مِّن
 بَعْدِ خَوْفِهِمْ أَمْنًا يَعْبُدُونَنِي لَا يُشْرِكُونَ بِي شَيْئًا وَمَن كَفَرَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ فَأُولَٰئِكَ
 هُمُ الْفَاسِقُونَ ﴿٥٥﴾﴾ (سورة النور: ٥٥)

- 24:55. Allah has promised those among you who believe and do righteous deeds that He will surely make them successors [to power] in the land, as He made those before them successors; that He will surely establish for them their religion that He has chosen for them; and that He will surely cause their [present] state of fear to be replaced by peace and security. [That is because] they worship Me alone and do not associate anything with Me. If any are ungrateful after this, it is they who are the evildoers.

This is one of the true promises of Allah, the interpretation and fulfilment of which was witnessed. He promised to those of this Ummah who believed and did righteous deeds that He would make them successors to power in the land, and they would become people of authority, in charge of its affairs, and that He would establish for them their religion that He had chosen for them, namely the religion of Islam which is superior to all other religions, which He chose for this Ummah because of its virtue and high status, and because He blessed it by enabling them to establish the religion and to implement its teachings and laws, both visible and hidden, with regard to themselves and others, because the followers of all other religions, and all the disbelievers, are to be defeated and humiliated; and He promised to replace their fear – because of which a Muslim could not practise his religion openly without suffering persecution from many of the disbelievers, as the number of Muslims was very few in comparison to others, and all the people of earth at that time had ganged up on them and were scheming against them – with peace and security.

So Allah promised these things to them at the time when this verse was revealed, when they had not yet witnessed being made successors in the land and being given authority, or being able to establish the Islamic religion in complete security, so that they could worship Allah, not ascribing any partner to Him, without fearing anybody but Allah. The early generations of this Ummah had such strong faith and did such righteous deeds that they surpassed others, so Allah gave them power in the land and control over people, and they conquered the east and the west of the earth, and they achieved complete security and power. This is one of the dazzling and wondrous signs of Allah, that will continue until the onset of the Hour. Every time they establish faith and do righteous deeds, they will inevitably find what Allah promised them. The disbelievers and hypocrites only gain power over them and sometimes get the upper hand because of the shortcomings of the Muslims in terms of faith and righteous deeds.

﴿If any are ungrateful after this﴾ that is, after you have been given full power and authority, O Muslims

﴿it is they who are the evildoers﴾ who have drifted away from obedience to Allah and have become corrupt, so they are no longer righteous people and are no longer qualified for anything good, because if a person gives up faith when the religion is prevailing and its enemies have been defeated, and there are no impediments to faith, this is indicative of his corrupt intentions and evil nature, because he has no reason to abandon faith except that.

This verse indicates that Allah gave power to those who came before us and made them successors to power in the land, as Moosâ said to his people:

﴿...It may well be that your Lord will destroy your enemy and make you successors in the land, so that He may see how you will do.﴾
(al-A'râf 7: 129)

And Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿But it was Our will to bestow favour upon those who were oppressed in the land, to make them leaders and cause them to inherit [the land], and to establish them in the land...﴾ (al-Qaşş 28: 5-6)

﴿وَأَقِمُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَآتُوا الزَّكَاةَ وَاطِيعُوا الرُّسُلَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَرْحَمُونَ ﴿٥٦﴾ لَا تَحْسَبَنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مُعْجِزِينَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا لَهُمْ فِي النَّارِ وَلَيْسَ الْمَصِيرُ ﴿٥٧﴾﴾ (سورة النور)

(٥٧-٥٦)

24:56. Establish prayer, give zakâh and obey the Messenger, so that you may be shown mercy.

24:57. Do not think that those who disbelieve can escape [Allah's punishment] on earth. Their abode will be the fire, a hapless journey's end.

Here Allah enjoins establishing prayer with all of its essential parts, conditions and etiquette, both outwardly and inwardly, and the giving of zakâh from the wealth that Allah has entrusted to His slaves and given to them, by giving it to the poor and others whom Allah has designated as recipients of zakâh. These two are the greatest and most virtuous acts of worship, in which are combined the fulfilment of duties towards Allah and towards His creation, in which the individual shows devotion to Allah and shows kindness to people. That is followed by a general command:

﴿and obey the Messenger﴾, by complying with what he enjoins and refraining from what he forbids.

﴿Whoever obeys the Messenger has obeyed Allah...﴾ (an-Nisâ' 4: 80)

﴿so that﴾, if you do this, ﴿you may be shown mercy﴾. Whoever seeks mercy, this is the way to attain it. Whoever hopes to find mercy without establishing prayer, giving zakâh and obeying the Messenger (ﷺ) is indulging in wishful thinking and is lying; his nafs has made him feel content with wishful thinking.

﴿Do not think that those who disbelieve can escape [Allah's punishment] on earth﴾ that is, do not be deceived by what they are given in the life of this world of ease and pleasure. Although Allah gives them respite, He does not forget about them.

﴿We will allow them to enjoy life for a little while, then We will drive them to a harsh punishment.﴾ (Luqmân 31: 24)

Hence Allah says here: ﴿Their abode will be the fire, a hapless journey's end﴾ that is, what a wretched destination is the destination of the disbelievers, for it is a destination of evil, loss and eternal punishment.

﴿يَتَأْتِيهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لِيَسْتَفْزِنَكُمْ الَّذِينَ مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَنُكُمْ وَالَّذِينَ لَمْ يَبْلُغُوا الْحُلُمَ مِنْكُمْ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ مِنْ قَبْلِ صَلَوةِ الْفَجْرِ وَحِينَ تَضَعُونَ ثِيَابَكُمْ مِنَ الظَّهِيرَةِ وَمِنْ بَعْدِ صَلَوةِ الْعِشَاءِ ثَلَاثُ عَوْدَاتٍ لَكُمْ لَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ وَلَا عَلَيْهِمْ جُنَاحٌ بَعْدَھُنَّ طَوَافُوتٌ عَلَيْكُمْ بَعْضُكُمْ عَلَى بَعْضٍ كَذَلِكَ يُبَيِّنُ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ الْآيَاتِ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿٥٨﴾ وَإِذَا بَلَغَ الْأَطْفَالُ مِنْكُمُ الْحُلُمَ فَلْيَسْتَفْزِنُوا كَمَا اسْتَفْزَنَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ كَذَلِكَ يُبَيِّنُ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ ءَايَاتِهِ وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿٥٩﴾﴾ (سورة النور: ٥٨-٥٩)

24:58. O you who believe, let any slaves you may own, and those among you who have not yet reached puberty, ask permission [to enter] at three times: before fajr prayer, when you have undressed [in order to rest] at midday and after 'ishâ' prayer; these are three times of privacy for you. Beyond that there is no blame on either you or them in moving about freely, attending to one another. Thus does Allah make clear to you His revelations, for Allah is All-Knowing, Most Wise.

24:59. And when the children among you reach puberty, let them also ask permission [to enter, at all times], as their elders do. Thus does Allah make clear to you His revelations, for Allah is All-Knowing, Most Wise.

---

Here Allah instructs the believers that their slaves and those among them who have not yet reached puberty should ask permission to enter. He mentions the wisdom behind that, and states that there are three times of privacy when permission to enter must be sought: the time when they go to sleep at night after 'ishâ' prayer; when they wake up before fajr prayer; and during the mid-day siesta. No mention is made of the state of dress in the case of the time after 'ishâ' and the time before fajr, because usually the sleeper at night wears something other than his usual day-time garments. However, with regard to sleeping during the day, because it is usually brief, the individual may sleep in his ordinary, day-time clothes, or he may change his clothes or remove some of his clothes, as mentioned here: ﴿when you have undressed [in order to rest] at midday﴾, which refers to the siesta in the middle of the day; if that is the case, then permission to enter must be sought.

At these three times, slaves and small children, like all others, should not be allowed to enter except with permission. Concerning all other times apart from these three, Allah says:

﴿Beyond that there is no blame on either you or them﴾ that is, they are not like others, because they are always needed, so it would be too difficult for them to have to ask permission every single time. Hence Allah says: ﴿there is no blame on either you or them in moving about freely, attending to one another﴾ that is, coming and going among you, doing their work and attending to your needs.

﴿Thus does Allah make clear to you His revelations﴾, accompanied by an explanation of His wisdom, so as to increase you in conviction and compliance, and so that you may appreciate the mercy and wisdom of the Lawgiver. Hence He says

﴿for Allah is All-Knowing, Most Wise﴾. His knowledge encompasses all that must exist, or that cannot possibly exist, or that may possibly exist, and the wisdom on the basis of which everything is put in the right place. Hence He has given every creature the shape and structure that suits its nature, and He issues each ruling in a manner that suits the wisdom behind it, including these rulings which He explains and highlights their beauty.

﴿And when the children among you reach puberty﴾ by the emission of maniy (semen) either when awake or asleep,

﴿let them also ask permission [to enter, at all times], as their elders do﴾. Their elders are those whom Allah mentions in a previous verse: ﴿O you who believe, do not enter houses other than your own until you have asked permission and greeted their occupants; that is better for you, so that you may pay heed﴾ (24: 27).

﴿Thus does Allah make clear to you His revelations﴾ and He clarifies them, explaining their rulings in detail

﴿for Allah is All-Knowing, Most Wise﴾.

In these two verses we learn many things, including the following:

- Masters of slaves and guardians of small children are instructed to teach their slaves and the children under their guardianship Islamic knowledge and etiquette, because Allah addresses them here by saying: ﴿O you who believe, let any slaves you may own, and those among you who have not yet reached puberty...﴾.

That can only be done by teaching them and disciplining them, hence He says: ﴿Beyond that there is no blame on either you or them﴾.

- It is enjoined to respect that which is private and take precautionary measures to attain that in all ways. With regard to any place or location in which a person's 'awrah may be seen, it is prohibited to bathe, wash one's private parts and so on in that place.
- It is permissible to uncover the 'awrah when needed, such as when going to sleep, when urinating and defecating, and so on.
- The Muslims used to take a nap or siesta during the day, as they used to sleep at night, because Allah addressed them with reference to the habits and customs that existed at the time of revelation.
- In the case of a small child who has not yet reached the age of puberty, it is not permissible to let him see the 'awrah of any other person, just as it is not permissible to let his 'awrah be seen, because Allah only enjoined that they should seek permission to enter because of something that is not permissible.
- It is also not permissible for a slave to see the 'awrah of his master, or for the master to see the 'awrah of his slave, as we mentioned in the case of the small child.
- Preachers, teachers and so on who speak about issues of knowledge should accompany that with mention of the reason and wisdom behind it, and the basis for it. They should not just tell people about rulings with evidence, without explaining why. That is because when Allah stated the ruling under discussion here, He gave reasons for it by saying: ﴿these are three times of privacy for you﴾.
- Small children and slaves are included in these verses as their guardians and masters are also included, because Allah says: ﴿Beyond that there is no blame on either you or them﴾.

- The saliva of a minor is tāhir (pure), even after the occurrence of impurities such as vomiting, because Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿moving about freely﴾. Furthermore, the Prophet (ﷺ) said, when he was asked about cats:
«They are not najis (impure); rather they are among those who move about freely among you.» (A sound hadith recorded by at-Tirmidhi)
- It is permissible for a person to tell the children under his care to do tasks for him, within reason, so long as it is not too difficult for the child, because Allah says: ﴿moving about freely﴾.
- The rulings discussed in the verse all have to do with children below the age of puberty. After they reach the age of puberty, they can only enter after asking permission.
- The sign of reaching puberty is ejaculation; all the Islamic rulings that are connected to reaching puberty come into effect once ejaculation has occurred. This is a matter concerning which there is scholarly consensus; the differences of opinion have to do with whether age or the appearance of pubic hair count as signs of puberty. And Allah knows best.

﴿وَالْقَوَاعِدُ مِنَ النِّسَاءِ الَّتِي لَا يَرْجُونَ نِكَاحًا فَلَيْسَ عَلَيْهِنَّ جُنَاحٌ أَنْ يَضَعْنَ ثِيَابَهُنَّ غَيْرَ مُتَبَرِّجَاتٍ بِزِينَةٍ وَأَنْ يَسْتَعْفِفْنَ خَيْرٌ لَهُنَّ وَاللَّهُ سَمِيعٌ عَلِيمٌ﴾
(سورة النور: ٦٠)

24:60. With regard to elderly women who have no interest in marriage, there is no blame on them if they put aside their outer garments, without aiming to flaunt their adornments. But if they refrain from doing so, that is better for them. And Allah is All-Hearing, All-Knowing.

Elderly women are those who no longer hope for marriage and no longer feel desire.

﴿who have no interest in marriage﴾ that is, they do not want to get married, and they are not sought for marriage, because they have grown old and are no longer desirable, or they have lost their looks. They no longer feel desire and they are no longer desirable.

﴿there is no blame﴾ or sin ﴿on them if they put aside their outer garments﴾ such as the face veil and the like, concerning which Allah says to women: ﴿And let them draw [part of] their headcovers over their chests﴾ (24: 31).

In the case of these women, it is permissible for them to uncover their faces, because there is no fear of such a woman causing temptation to others or being tempted herself. As it is stated that there is no blame on them if they put aside their outer garments, one may think that it is permissible for them to adorn themselves; therefore in order to avoid this misunderstanding, Allah says: ﴿without aiming to flaunt their adornments﴾ that is, without showing their adornments to people, such as beautifying themselves by wearing a fancy outer garment whilst covering the face, or stamping the feet in order to make known what is hidden of adornments, because the mere presence of adornment – even if it is hidden, and even if she is not desirable and there is no possibility of being tempted by her – could cause the one who looks at her to fall into sin.

﴿But if they refrain from doing so, that is better for them﴾ refraining means seeking chastity by taking measures to achieve that, such as getting married and refraining from that which it is feared may lead to temptation.

﴿And Allah is All-Hearing﴾ and hears all voices

﴿All-Knowing﴾: He knows people's intentions and aims, so women should beware of all bad words and bad intentions, and understand that Allah will requite them for that.

﴿لَيْسَ عَلَى الْأَعْمَى حَرَجٌ وَلَا عَلَى الْأَعْرَجِ حَرَجٌ وَلَا عَلَى الْمَرِيضِ حَرَجٌ وَلَا عَلَى أَنْفُسِكُمْ أَنْ تَأْكُلُوا مِنْ بُيُوتِكُمْ أَوْ بُيُوتِ آبَائِكُمْ أَوْ بُيُوتِ أُمَّهَاتِكُمْ أَوْ بُيُوتِ إِخْوَانِكُمْ أَوْ بُيُوتِ أَخَوَاتِكُمْ أَوْ بُيُوتِ أَعْمَامِكُمْ أَوْ بُيُوتِ عَمَّاتِكُمْ أَوْ بُيُوتِ أَخَوَاتِكُمْ أَوْ بُيُوتِ حَلَائِكُمْ أَوْ مَا مَلَكَتْكُمْ مَفَاتِحُهُ أَوْ صَدِيقِكُمْ لَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ جُنَاحٌ أَنْ تَأْكُلُوا جَمِيعًا أَوْ أَشْتَاتًا فَإِذَا دَخَلْتُمْ بُيُوتًا فَسَلِّمُوا عَلَى أَنْفُسِكُمْ تَحِيَّةٌ مِنْ عِنْدِ اللَّهِ مُبَارَكَةٌ طَيِّبَةٌ كَذَلِكَ يَبَيِّنُ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ آيَاتِهِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٦١﴾﴾

(سورة النور: ٦١)

24:61. There is no blame on the blind nor any blame on the lame nor any blame on the sick nor on yourselves if you eat from your own houses, or from the houses of your fathers, or from the houses of your mothers, or from the houses of your brothers, or from the houses of your sisters, or from the houses of your paternal uncles, or from the houses of your paternal aunts, or from the houses of your maternal uncles, or from the houses of your maternal aunts, or from houses of which the keys are in your possession, or the houses of your friends. There is no blame on you if you eat together or separately. But when you enter houses, greet one another with salām, a greeting from Allah, blessed and good. Thus does Allah make clear to you His revelations, so that you may understand.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the blessings that He bestows upon His slaves, and that He has not imposed any hardship on them in religion; rather He has made it very easy:

﴿There is no blame on the blind nor any blame on the lame nor any blame on the sick﴾ that is, there is no blame on these people for not doing duties for one of the reasons mentioned. This refers to jihad and other things that the one who is blind cannot do because he cannot see, and the one who is lame cannot do because his limbs are not sound, and the one who is sick cannot do because he is not in good health. Because of this general meaning, the words are mentioned in general terms and are not restricted, as is the case with the following phrase: «nor on yourselves» that is, there is no blame on yourselves «if you eat from your own houses» that is, the houses of your children. This is in accordance with the hadith that is proven to be sound:

«You and your wealth belong to your father.» (Recorded by Ibn Mājah; al-Albāni graded it as sound)

– another hadith says:

«The best of what you eat is what you earn yourselves, and your children are included in what you earn.» (An authentic hadith recorded by at-Tirmidhi)

The phrase «from your own houses» does not refer to a person's own house, because that would be stating the obvious, and Allah would not state something that is so obvious; moreover, saying that there is nothing wrong with that may give the impression that there is something sinful in the case of those mentioned here, whereas in the case of a person's own house, no one would think such a thing.

«or from the houses of your fathers, or from the houses of your mothers, or from the houses of your brothers, or from the houses of your sisters, or from the houses of your paternal uncles, or from the houses of your paternal aunts, or from the houses of your maternal uncles, or from the houses of your maternal aunts» these cases are quite clear.

«or from houses of which the keys are in your possession» that is, houses which have been entrusted to you and are under your care, or houses that belong to someone who is under your guardianship, and the like. With regard to the interpretation of this phrase as referring to slaves, that is not valid, for two reasons:

Firstly: it is not said concerning a slave that one “owns his keys”; rather one would say “those whom you own” and the like, because the master owns the entire slave, not just his keys.

Secondly: the houses of slaves are no different from a man’s own house, because the slave and all that he owns belong to his master, so there is no reason to say that there is no blame in eating from your slave’s house.

﴿or the houses of your friends﴾. The statement that there is no blame on eating from these houses applies to cases where that is done without express permission. The wisdom behind it is known from the context: the custom with regard to the people mentioned here is usually to tolerate a person’s eating from them, because of close blood ties, complete authority, or close friendship. But if it is known that a person does not allow that or is stingy with regard to food, then it is not permissible to eat from his house, and blame is not lifted in that case, because of the reason mentioned above.

﴿There is no blame on you if you eat together or separately﴾ – all of that is permissible. If the members of a household eat together, or each one of them eats on his own, this verse says that there is no blame, but that does not mean that eating separately is better, because it is preferable to eat together.

﴿But when you enter houses﴾ – this includes both a person’s own house and the houses of others, whether there is anyone in the house or not. When a person enters a house, ﴿greet one another with salâm﴾.

It is prescribed to say salâm when entering houses, with no differentiation between one type of house and another, whereas with regard to asking permission, there are some differences in the rulings as stated above.

Then Allah praises this salâm, saying: ﴿a greeting from Allah, blessed and good﴾ that is, when you say salâm, by saying as-salâmu ‘alaykum wa rahmatullâhi wa barakâtuhu (peace be upon you and the mercy of Allah and His blessings) or as-salāmu ‘alaynā wa ‘alā ‘ibādillāh is-ṣāliheen (peace be upon us and upon the righteous slaves of Allah) when you enter houses, this is ﴿a greeting from Allah﴾. That is, He has prescribed it for you and has made it your greeting ﴿blessed﴾ because it implies attaining mercy, blessing, growth and increase ﴿and good﴾ because it is one of the good words that are beloved by Allah, for it shows kindness, love and affection to the one who is greeted.

Having explained to us these sublime rulings, Allah now says: ﴿Thus does Allah make clear to you His revelations﴾ that point to His rulings and the wisdom behind them ﴿so that you may understand﴾ what He reveals to you regarding the rulings, so that you may understand them and comprehend them, and so that you may be people of reason and mature understanding, for knowing the rulings and understanding them properly increases one in wisdom and causes understanding to grow, because the meaning of these verses and the etiquette they describe are most sublime, and the reward matches the deed. Just as the individual used his reason in order to understand the revelation of his Lord and to reflect upon His revelations to which He called him, He will increase him in understanding.

This passage points to the general holistic principle that “custom and tradition make exceptions to what is stated in general, just as one statement may make specific what is stated in general.” Although in principle it is not allowed to eat the food of another person, Allah made an exception allowing one to eat from the houses of the people mentioned here, because custom and tradition allow that. With regard to issues that depend on permission from the owner of the thing, if it is known that he gave permission, either verbally or according to custom, it is permissible to go ahead and make use of it.

This indicates that the one who is taking care of a person's house and has authority concerning it, such as his wife, sister and the like, may eat from it according to what is customary, and give to the poor on a reasonable basis.

It also indicates that it is permissible to share food, whether people eat together or separately, even if that leads to some of them eating more than others.

﴿إِنَّمَا الْمُؤْمِنُونَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ وَإِذَا كَانُوا مَعَهُ عَلَى أَمْرٍ جَامِعٍ لَمْ يَذْهَبُوا حَتَّى يَسْتَأْذِنُوهُ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَسْتَأْذِنُونَكَ أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ يُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ فَإِذَا أَسْتَأْذَنُوكَ لِبَعْضِ شَأْنِهِمْ فَأَذَنْ لِمَنْ شِئْتَ مِنْهُمْ وَاسْتَغْفِرْ لَهُمْ اللَّهُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿٦٢﴾ لَا تَجْعَلُوا دُعَاءَ الرَّسُولِ بَيْنَكُمْ كَدُعَاءِ بَعْضِكُمْ بَعْضًا قَدْ يَعْلَمُ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ يَتَسَلَّلُونَ مِنْكُمْ لِوَاذًا فَلْيَحْذَرِ الَّذِينَ يُخَالِفُونَ عَنْ أَمْرِهِ أَنْ تُصِيبَهُمْ فِتْنَةٌ أَوْ يُصِيبَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿٦٣﴾ أَلَا إِنَّ اللَّهَ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ قَدْ يَعْلَمُ مَا أَنْتُمْ عَلَيْهِ وَيَوْمَ يُرْجَعُونَ إِلَيْهِ فَيَلْتَمِسُهُمْ بِمَا عَمِلُوا وَاللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٦٤﴾﴾ (سورة النور: ٦٢-٦٤)

- 24:62. The true believers are those who believe in Allah and His Messenger. When they are with him for a matter of communal concern, they do not depart until they have asked his permission. Those who ask your permission [O Muhammad] are those who believe in Allah and His Messenger, so when they ask your permission to attend to some of their own affairs, then give permission to whomever you wish among them and ask Allah's forgiveness for them, for Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.
- 24:63. Do not regard the summons of the Messenger to you as being like your summoning of one another. Allah surely knows those of you who try to slip away surreptitiously. So let those who go against His command beware lest some calamity strikes them or a painful punishment befalls them.

24:64. Verily to Allah belongs all that is in the heavens and on earth. He surely knows your condition [of sincere faith or hypocrisy]. On the day they return to Him, He will inform them about what they used to do. And Allah has knowledge of all things.

Here Allah instructs His believing slaves that when they are with the Messenger (ﷺ) dealing with a matter of communal concern – that is, something that requires all to be present – such as jihad, consultation and similar matters that concern all the believers, what is required is for them all to meet together and not be scattered. So the one who truly believes in Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) should not leave for some reason, or go back to his family, or go to attend to some of his own affairs that would keep him away from them, except with the permission of the Messenger (ﷺ) or his representative after he is gone. Allah has made it a condition of faith that no one should leave without permission, and He praised them for doing that and for their good manners with His Messenger (ﷺ) and those in authority over them. Hence He says: ﴿Those who ask your permission [O Muhammad] are those who believe in Allah and His Messenger﴾. But should he give them permission or not? Two conditions are mentioned for giving permission to them:

- 1- That there should be some personal matter or errand that they want to attend to. As for the one who asks for permission to leave with no excuse, he should not give him permission;
- 2- He should agree to give his consent because there is a good reason to do so, and no harm should result to the one who gives permission.

Allah says: ﴿so when they ask your permission to attend to some of their own affairs, then give permission to whomever you wish among them». If he has good reason to leave and asks for permission to do so, then if there is an interest to be served by his staying and not leaving, such as if he could help by giving his opinion, or because of his courage and the like, then he should not give him permission to leave.

However, even if he asks permission to leave, and is given permission, subject to these two conditions, Allah instructs His Messenger (ﷺ) to pray for forgiveness for him, because perhaps he is falling short by seeking permission to leave. Hence Allah says: ﴿and ask Allah's forgiveness for them, for Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful﴾ – He will forgive their sins and have mercy on them, by allowing them to seek permission to leave even when they have an excuse for doing so.

﴿Do not regard the summons of the Messenger to you as being like your summoning of one another﴾ that is, do not make the Messenger's summoning of you and your summoning of him like your summoning of one another, because if he summons you, it is obligatory for you to respond. It is even obligatory to respond to the Messenger (ﷺ) when one is praying. There is no one whose opinion the Ummah must accept and comply with except the Messenger (ﷺ), because he is infallible and we are commanded to follow him. Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿O you who believe, respond to Allah and His Messenger when he calls you to that which will give you life...﴾ (al-Anfāl 8: 24)

The word translated above as «summons» may also mean 'call', therefore another meaning of this verse is: do not make your calling of the Messenger (ﷺ) like your calling of one another. So do not say, "O Muhammad" or "O Muhammad ibn 'Abdullâh", when you call him, as you do when calling one another. Rather, because of his honour and virtue, and because of his being distinct from others, one should say, "O Messenger of Allah" or "O Prophet of Allah".

«Allah surely knows those of you who try to slip away surreptitiously». Having praised those who believe in Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), who – when they are with him for a matter of communal concern – do not leave until they have asked his permission, Allah now warns those who do not do that and who leave without asking permission, even though you (O Muslims) were unaware of their sneaking away, which is what is meant by the phrase «those of you who try to slip away surreptitiously» – that is, they hide behind something at the time when they slip away, so as to be hidden from view. Allah is aware of them and He will requite them for that in full. Therefore He warns them by saying:

«So let those who go against His command beware» that is, those who leave to attend to some of their own affairs and go against the command of Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ); so how about those who do not leave to attend to some of their own affairs; rather they leave because they are simply going against Allah's command, without any affairs to attend to?

«lest some calamity» that is, something bad «strikes them or a painful punishment befalls them».

«Verily to Allah belongs all that is in the heavens and on earth» in the sense that He owns them and they are His slaves, and He controls them by His decree and His religious rulings.

«He surely knows your condition [of sincere faith or hypocrisy]» that is, His knowledge encompasses all that you do of good and evil, and He knows all your deeds, for He encompasses them with His knowledge, His pen has written it all down, and the noble scribes (the angels) are recording it.

«On the day they return to Him» that is, the Day of Resurrection «He will inform them about what they used to do» that is, He will tell them about all their deeds, small and great, exactly what they did, and He will summon their physical faculties to testify against them, and they will be treated on the basis of grace or justice.

Having mentioned that His knowledge specifically encompasses their deeds, Allah now states that His knowledge goes beyond that, as He says: ﴿And Allah has knowledge of all things﴾.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat an-Noor.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

25.

Soorat al-Furqân

(Makki, according to the majority of scholars)

---

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿تَبَارَكَ الَّذِي نَزَّلَ الْفُرْقَانَ عَلَى عَبْدِهِ لِيَكُونَ لِلْعَالَمِينَ نَذِيرًا﴾ ﴿١﴾ الَّذِي لَهُ مُلْكُ
السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَلَمْ يَتَّخِذْ وَلَدًا وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُ شَرِيكٌ فِي الْمُلْكِ وَخَلَقَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ
فَقَدَرَهُ نَفْدِيرًا ﴿٢﴾ (سورة الفرقان: ١-٢)

- 25:1. Blessed be He Who sent down the criterion [between right and wrong, namely the Qur'an] to His slave, so that it may be a warning to the worlds,
- 25:2. He to Whom belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth. He has never begotten a son, and has no partner in His dominion. He has created all things and determined their design and nature in accordance with a precisely accurate plan.
-

This is a statement of the perfect might and majesty of Allah, that He is One and unique in all aspects, and that His generosity and kindness are abundant.

«Blessed be He» that is, glorified be He, for His attributes are most perfect and His goodness is abundant. One of His greatest favours and blessings is that He has sent down this Qur'an to differentiate between lawful and prohibited, guidance and misguidance, those who are destined for paradise and those who are destined for hell.

«to His slave» namely Muhammad (ﷺ), who reached the highest level of servitude and surpassed all the Messengers

«so that it may be» – this refers to the sending down of the criterion to His slave.

«a warning to the worlds», warning them of the might and vengeance of Allah and explaining to them how to attain His pleasure and avoid His wrath, so that whoever accepts His warning and acts accordingly will be among those who are saved in this world and the hereafter, those who will attain eternal happiness and everlasting glory. Can there be anything greater than this blessing and this grace and kindness? Blessed be the One Whose kindness and blessings include this.

«He to Whom belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth» that is, He alone controls them and all who are in them of His slaves submit to His greatness, humble themselves before His Lordship and are in need of His mercy; «He has never begotten a son, and has no partner in His dominion».

How could He have a son or a partner when He is the Sovereign and all others are slaves, He is the Subduer and all others are subdued, He is Self-Sufficient in all aspects, and all created beings are inherently in need of Him in all aspects?

How could He have a partner in dominion, when the forelocks of all people are in His Hand, so they cannot move or halt, or do anything except by His leave? Exalted be Allah far above that; the one who says such a thing has not given due recognition to Him. Hence He says:

«He has created all things» that is, everything that the upper and lower realms contain, including animate beings, plants and inanimate things.

﴿and determined their design and nature in accordance with a precisely accurate plan﴾ that is, He has given each created thing that which befits it and suits it of attributes, in accordance with what His wisdom dictates, so that no sound reason could imagine any created thing to be any different in its shape and image from what we see now. In fact, there is no location for any part or faculty of any created thing that is better suited to it than where it is now. Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Glorify the name of your Lord, the Most High, Who created and fashioned in due proportion.﴾ (al-A'la 87: 1-2)

– and:

﴿...Our Lord is He Who gave all things their form and nature, then guided them [as to how to function and yield the benefits for which they were created].﴾ (Tā Hā 20: 50)

Having highlighted His perfection in greatness, and His abundant kindness, this dictates that it is He alone Who should be loved, worshipped and venerated, the only One to Whom we should be devoted, with no partner or associate. Therefore it is appropriate to describe as false the worship of anything other than Him.

﴿وَاتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ ءَالِهَةً لَا يَخْلُقُونَ شَيْئًا وَهُمْ يُخْلَقُونَ وَلَا يَمْلِكُونَ لِأَنفُسِهِمْ ضَرًّا وَلَا نَفْعًا وَلَا يَمْلِكُونَ مَوْتًا وَلَا حَيَاةً وَلَا نُشُورًا﴾ (سورة الفرقان: ٣)

- 25:3. They have taken other gods besides Him that can create nothing but are themselves created; they have no power either to harm or benefit themselves, and they have no power to cause death, give life or resurrect.

That is, one of the strangest things, which is most indicative of their foolishness and lack of reason, and indeed is most indicative of their wrongdoing and audacity towards their Lord, is the fact that they have taken as gods these things that are completely helpless, that are unable to create anything and are themselves created; in fact they made some of them with their own hands.

﴿they have no power either to harm or benefit themselves﴾ that is, either to a small extent or a great extent.

﴿and they have no power to cause death, give life or resurrect﴾ that is, to raise up after death. One of the greatest conclusions of rational thinking is that these cannot be gods; this idea is corrupt and the minds of those who worship them – taking them as gods and partners to the Creator of all things, Who created them without having any partner in that, the One in Whose Hand is the power to bring benefit and cause harm, the One Who gives life and causes death – are corrupt. He will resurrect those who are in the graves and will bring them together on the Day of Resurrection, and in the hereafter He has created two abodes for them: an abode of doom, humiliation and punishment, for those who took other gods alongside Him, and an abode of triumph, happiness and eternal bliss, for those who took Him alone as their God.

Having affirmed, with clear and definitive evidence, the soundness of His oneness and the falseness of its opposite, Allah then affirms the soundness of the message and the falseness of the views of those who opposed that message and objected to it:

﴿وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا إِنَّ هَذَا إِلَّا إِفْكُ افْتَرَاهُ وَأَعَانَهُ عَلَيْهِ قَوْمٌ آخَرُونَ فَقَدْ جَاءُوا ظُلْمًا وَزُورًا﴾ (٤) وَقَالُوا اسْتَطِيرُ الْأُولَىٰ كَتَبَهَا فِيهِ تُمْنَىٰ عَلَيْهِ بُكْرَةً وَأَصِيلًا (٥) قُلْ أَنْزَلَهُ الَّذِي يَعْلَمُ السِّرَّ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ إِنَّهُ كَانَ عَفُورًا رَحِيمًا (٦)﴾ (سورة الفرقان: ٤-٦)

- 25:4. The disbelievers say: This [the Qur'an] is nothing but a lie that he has fabricated, with the help of other people. What they say is unjust and false.
- 25:5. And they say: Tales of the ancients that he has written down; they are dictated to him morning and afternoon.
- 25:6. Say: It [the Qur'an] has been sent down by Him Who knows all that is hidden in the heavens and the earth. Verily He is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

That is, as for those who disbelieved in Allah, their disbelief led them to say concerning the Qur'an and the Messenger (ﷺ): This Qur'an is a lie; it was fabricated by Muhammad (ﷺ) and falsely attributed to Allah, and some other people helped him with that.

But Allah refuted their words by stating that this was arrogance on their part, and that they were uttering words of injustice and falsehood, that cannot be accepted by anyone. They were the people who knew the most about the Messenger (ﷺ) and his perfect sincerity, honesty and righteousness; they knew that neither he nor anyone else was able to bring something like the Qur'an, which is the most sublime of words, and they knew that he did not meet anyone who could help him with that. Rather what they suggested was unjust and false.

Among other things, they said concerning him: This that Muhammad (ﷺ) has brought is «Tales of the ancients that he has written down» that is, these are stories and fables of the earlier nations that they transmitted from one to another, then Muhammad (ﷺ) wrote them down as they were dictated to him.

«they are dictated to him morning and afternoon». These words of theirs contained a number of grievous accusations, including the following:

- They accused the Messenger (ﷺ), who was one of the most righteous and sincere of people, of lying and committing a gravely audacious deed.

- They said concerning this Qur'an – which is the truest, greatest and most sublime of speech – that it was a lie and a fabrication.
- This implies that they were able to produce something like it, and suggests that man, who is created and is imperfect in all aspects, could compete with the Creator Who is perfect in all aspects, with regard to one of His attributes, namely His words.
- The character of the Messenger (ﷺ) was well known, and they had the most knowledge of his character and were aware that he could not write or meet someone who would write for him, but they made claims to that effect.

Therefore Allah refuted them by saying: «Say: It [the Qur'an] has been sent down by Him Who knows all that is hidden in the heavens and the earth» that is, it has been sent down by One Whose knowledge encompasses all that is in the heavens and all that is on earth, both unseen and seen, what is known and what is secret. This is like the verse in which Allah says:

«Verily, this [Qur'an] is a revelation from the Lord of the worlds; the faithful Spirit [Jibreel] has brought it down to your heart so that you may be one of the warners.» (ash-Shu'arā' 26: 192-194)

The argument against them here is that the One Who sent it down is the One Whose knowledge encompasses all things, so it is impossible for a created being to make up this Qur'an and say: This is from Allah, if it was not from Him, and to regard it as permissible to fight those who oppose him, and to take their wealth, and to claim that Allah told him to do that, when Allah knows all things, yet He is supporting him against his enemies and giving him control over people and their lands. No one can deny this Qur'an unless he denies the knowledge of Allah, and no group ever said such a thing, apart from the Dahri<sup>43</sup> philosophers who do not believe in the hereafter.

<sup>43</sup> Dahri: The Dahris were a type of heretical philosophers who did not believe in the hereafter; some Dahris even denied the existence of the Creator Himself.

Moreover, referring to the all-encompassing knowledge of Allah will alert them to the importance of pondering the Qur'an and encourage them to do so, for if they ponder it, they will see in it knowledge and rulings of Allah which will definitively prove that it can only be from the Knower of the unseen and the seen. Despite their denial of Allah's oneness and the message of His Prophet (ﷺ), by His grace towards them, Allah does not leave them in the depths of their disbelief and wrongdoing; rather He calls them to repent and turn to Him, and He promises them forgiveness and mercy, if they repent and turn back to Him.

﴿Verily He is Oft-Forgiving﴾ that is, His characteristic is forgiveness, to those who commit sins and bad deeds, if they take the measures that lead to forgiveness, which means giving up sin and repenting therefrom.

﴿Most Merciful﴾ towards them, for He does not hasten to punish them even when they do that which incurs the punishment, and He accepts their repentance after they have committed sin, and He erases what they did before of bad deeds, and He accepts their good deeds, and He accepts the one who returns to Him after having drifted away from Him and begins to follow the path of obedience towards Him.

﴿وَقَالُوا مَا لِي هَذَا الرَّسُولِ يَأْكُلُ الطَّعَامَ وَيَمْشِي فِي الْأَسْوَاقِ ۚ لَوْلَا أُنْزِلَ إِلَيْهِ مَلَكٌ فَيَكُودُ مَعَهُ نَذِيرًا ۝٧﴾ أَوْ يُنْفَخَ إِلَيْهِ كَذِبٌ أَوْ تَكُونُ لَهُ جَنَّةٌ يَأْكُلُ مِنْهَا ۚ وَقَالَ الظَّالِمُونَ إِن تَتَّبِعُونَ إِلَّا رَجُلًا مَسْحُورًا ۝٨﴾ أَنْظِرْ كَيْفَ ضَرَبُوا لَكَ الْأَمْثَلَ فَضَلُّوا فَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ سَبِيلًا ۝٩﴾ تَبَارَكَ الَّذِي إِنْ شَاءَ جَعَلَ لَكَ خَيْرًا مِنْ ذَلِكَ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ وَيَجْعَلُ لَكَ فُصُورًا ۝١٠﴾ بَلْ كَذَّبُوا بِالسَّاعَةِ ۖ وَأَعْتَدْنَا لِمَنْ كَذَّبَ بِالسَّاعَةِ سَعِيرًا ۝١١﴾ إِذَا رَأَوْهُمْ مِنْ مَكَانٍ بَعِيدٍ سَمِعُوا لَهَا تَغِيظًا وَزَفِيرًا ۝١٢﴾ وَإِذَا أُلْقُوا مِنْهَا مَكَانًا ضِيقًا مُقَرَّنِينَ دَعَوْا

هَٰذَا لَكُم مِّنْ ثُبُورًا ﴿١٣﴾ لَا نَدْعُوا الْيَوْمَ ثُبُورًا وَاحِدًا وَادْعُوا ثُبُورًا كَثِيرًا ﴿١٤﴾ (سورة الفرقان: ١٤-٧)

(الفرقان: ١٤-٧)

- 25:7. And they say: What sort of Messenger is this, who eats food and walks about in the marketplaces? Why has an angel not been sent down to him, to be a warner with him?
- 25:8. Or why is not some treasure thrown down to him, or why does he not have a garden from which to eat? The wrongdoers say: [If you were to follow Muhammad] you would be following none but a man who is bewitched.
- 25:9. See what they liken you to! Thus they have gone astray and cannot find a way [to undermine you].
- 25:10. Blessed be He Who, if it were His will, could give you better than that: gardens through which rivers flow, and He could give you palaces.
- 25:11. Rather they deny the Hour,<sup>44</sup> and for those who deny the Hour, We have prepared a raging fire.
- 25:12. When it sees them from afar, they will hear its raging and roaring.
- 25:13. When they are cast into a narrow place therein, bound together in shackles, they will call out [wishing] for death.
- 25:14. [It will be said to them:] Do not call out once [wishing] for death today; rather call out many times.

This is the argument of those who rejected the Messenger (ﷺ), which they used to cast doubts on his message. They objected by asking: why has an angel not been sent, or why does an angel not help him? So they said: ﴿What sort of Messenger is this﴾ that is, what sort of person is this who claims to be a Messenger? They said that by way of ridicule and mockery.

<sup>44</sup> The reason for their disbelief was not that Muhammad (ﷺ) was a human who ate food like them and walked about in the marketplaces; rather it was because they denied the concept of the resurrection, the hereafter and the judgement. (at-Tabari)

﴿who eats food﴾ – for this is a characteristic of human beings; why was an angel not sent, who does not eat food and does not need what humans need?

﴿and walks about in the marketplaces﴾ to buy and sell. This – according to their claim – was not befitting for one who was a Messenger, even though Allah says: ﴿We did not send any Messengers before you [O Muhammad] but they ate food and walked about in the marketplaces﴾ (25: 20).

﴿Why has an angel not been sent down to him﴾ that is, why does an angel not come down with him, to help him and support him?

﴿to be a warner with him﴾ because, according to their claim, he was not strong enough to deliver the message and did not have the ability to fulfil that mission.

﴿Or why is not some treasure﴾ that is, wealth that is accumulated without effort ﴿thrown down to him, or why does he not have a garden from which to eat?﴾ For then he would have no need to walk about in the marketplaces in order to seek provision.

﴿The wrongdoers say﴾ – the reason why they said that was their wrongdoing; it did not stem from doubts or confusion on their part. ﴿[If you were to follow Muhammad] you would be following none but a man who is bewitched﴾. They said this even though they knew that he was wise and mature in his thinking, eloquent in his speech, and free of anything for which he could be criticised.

Because what they said was so strange, Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿See what they liken you to!﴾ That was because they asked why he was not an angel, free of human characteristics; or why he did not have an angel with him, because they thought that he was not able to do what he said; or why was a treasure not sent down to him, or why was he not given a garden, so that he would have no need to walk about in the marketplaces; or they said that he was bewitched.

«Thus they have gone astray and cannot find a way [to undermine you]». They said things that were contradictory, all of which were based on ignorance, misguidance and foolishness, and none of which were sound. In fact there was not the slightest reason in any of it to cause any doubt about the message. Once anyone looks at these arguments and tries to examine them, it will become quite clear to the intelligent person that they are flawed, and there is no need to refute them. Hence Allah (ﷻ) instructed us to look at them, reflect on them, and see whether this argument would give sufficient reason to undermine one's certainty of his being the Messenger (ﷺ).

Hence Allah states that He is able to give you much good in this world, as He says: «Blessed be He Who, if it were His will, could give you better than that» that is, better than what they say. Then He explains that:

«gardens through which rivers flow, and He could give you palaces» that is, lofty and ornate palaces. His power and will do not fall short of that, but – because for Him the life of this world is something insignificant – He gives to His close friends and Messengers whatever of its conveniences His wisdom dictates, and this questioning on the part of their enemies as to why they were not given a great deal of provision is wrongdoing and audacity.

Because these arguments of theirs are known to be flawed, Allah (ﷻ) tells us that they did not say it by way of seeking the truth or looking for proofs; rather they said it by way of stubbornness and wrongdoing, rejecting the truth. They said what was in their hearts, hence Allah says:

«Rather they deny the Hour». If a person is stubborn in his disbelief and has no intention of following the truth, there is no way he can be guided and there is no benefit in arguing with him. Only one thing will work with him, which is for the punishment to befall him. Hence Allah says:

﴿and for those who deny the Hour, We have prepared a raging fire﴾ that is, a great fire that burns intensely and roars and rages against those who are doomed to enter it.

﴿When it sees them from afar﴾ that is, before they reach it and it reaches them

﴿they will hear its raging﴾ against them ﴿and roaring﴾ which will fill them with dread and shatter their hearts. One of them will almost die in fear of it and panic, for its wrath against them stems from the wrath of its Creator, and its flames will increase because of the increase in their disbelief and evil.

﴿When they are cast into a narrow place therein, bound together in shackles﴾ that is, their punishment, when they are in the midst of it, will be a combination of the tight and narrow space and the overcrowding of inhabitants, who will be bound together in chains and shackles. When they reach that dreadful place and think that they have been detained in the worst of places,

﴿they will call out [wishing] for death﴾ that is, they will pray against themselves, calling for death, disgrace and humiliation, and they will realise that they were wrongdoers and transgressors, and that the Creator has been entirely just towards them, as He has caused them to dwell in this abode because of their deeds. But that prayer and call for help will be of no avail, and it will not save them from the punishment of Allah. Rather it will be said to them:

﴿Do not call out once [wishing] for death today; rather call out many times﴾ that is, even if you repeat what you said many, many times, it will not bring you anything but distress, grief and sorrow.

Having highlighted the requital of the wrongdoers, it is appropriate to mention the reward of the pious, those who fear Allah:

﴿قُلْ أَذَلِكَ خَيْرٌ أَمْ جَنَّةُ الْخُلْدِ الَّتِي وُعِدَ الْمُتَّقُونَ كَانَتْ لَهُمْ جَزَاءً وَمَصِيرًا ﴿٥﴾ لَهُمْ فِيهَا مَا يَشَاءُونَ خَالِدِينَ كَذَلِكَ وَعَدَا مَسْئُولًا ﴿٦﴾﴾ (سورة الفرقان: ١٥-١٦)

- 25:15. Say: Is that better, or the garden of eternity which has been promised to those who fear Allah? It will be theirs as a reward and final destination.
- 25:16. There they will have all that they wish for; they will abide therein forever. It is a binding promise given by your Lord, always to be prayed for.

That is, say to them – highlighting the folly of their opinion and their choice of what is harmful over what is beneficial:

﴿Say: Is that﴾ – namely what has been described to you of the punishment

﴿better, or the garden of eternity which has been promised to those who fear Allah?﴾ The provision that helps you to reach it is piety and fear of Allah; whoever fears Allah, Allah has promised this to him.

﴿It will be theirs as a reward﴾ for fearing Him

﴿and final destination﴾ that is, a place of final return, where they will settle and abide forever.

﴿There they will have all that they wish for﴾ that is, whatever they request, wish for and want, of delicious food and drink, fine clothing, beautiful women, lofty palaces, verdant gardens, fruit that is a delight to the eye and a joy to eat because of its beauty and variety, rivers that flow through the gardens of paradise – wherever they want to direct them, they will flow, rivers of water that is not stagnant, rivers of milk in the taste of which there is no change, rivers of wine, delicious to those who drink it, rivers of pure honey – delightful fragrances, ornate dwellings, lovely voices of astounding beauty; brothers will visit one another and they will enjoy meeting with their loved ones.

Even more sublime than all of that is the joy of gazing upon the Countenance of the Most Merciful Lord, hearing His words, being close to Him, earning His pleasure, being safe from His wrath, abiding in this ever-increasing bliss for all eternity.

«It» namely reaching and entering paradise
«is a binding promise given by your Lord, always to be prayed for» – His slaves who fear Him ask Him for it, implicitly and explicitly. Which of the two abodes mentioned is better and to be given precedence? Which of the two types of workers – those who are striving for the abode of doom or those who are striving for the abode of bliss – are more virtuous and mature in thinking, and more deserving of pride, if you understand?

As the truth has become clear and the path has been illuminated, there is no longer any excuse for the negligent to ignore the evidence. We implore You, Who has decreed that there should be people who are doomed to hell and people who are destined for paradise, to make us among those for whom You have decreed paradise, and we seek Your help, O Allah, lest we be among the doomed; we ask You to protect us from that.

﴿وَيَوْمَ يَخْشَرُهُمْ وَيَاجْعِدُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ فَيَقُولُ ءَأَنْتُمْ أَضَلَلْتُمْ عِبَادِي هَؤُلَاءِ أَمْ هُمْ ضَلُّوا السَّبِيلَ ۝١٧﴾ قَالُوا سُبْحَنَكَ مَا كَانَ يَلْبِغِي لَنَا أَنْ نَتَّخِذَ مِنْ دُونِكَ مِنْ أَوْلِيَاءَ وَلَكِنْ مَتَّعْتَهُمْ وَءَابَاءَهُمْ حَتَّى نَسُوا الذِّكْرَ وَكَانُوا قَوْمًا بُورًا ۝١٨﴾ فَقَدْ كَذَّبْتُمْ بِمَا نَقُولُونَ فَمَا تَسْتَطِيعُونَ صَرْفًا وَلَا نَصْرًا وَمَنْ يَظْلِمِ مِنْكُمْ نَذِقْهُ عَذَابًا كَبِيرًا ۝١٩﴾ وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا قَبْلَكَ مِنَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ

إِلَّا إِنَّهُمْ لَيَأْكُلُونَ الطَّعَامَ وَيَمْشُونَ فِي الْأَسْوَاقِ وَجَعَلْنَا بَعْضَكُمْ لِبَعْضٍ
فِتْنَةً أَتَصْبِرُونَ وَكَانَ رَبُّكَ بَصِيرًا ﴿٢٠﴾ (سورة الفرقان: ١٧-٢٠)

- 25:17. On the day when He gathers them together with those whom they worshipped besides Allah, He will ask:<sup>45</sup> Did you lead these slaves of Mine astray, or did they stray from the [right] path by themselves?
- 25:18. They will say: Glory be to You! It was not proper for us to take anyone as an ally besides You [and worship him].<sup>46</sup> But You granted them and their fathers a life of ease until they forgot the message, for they were people devoid of good and doomed.
- 25:19. [Allah will say to the disbelievers:] They [those whom you wrongfully worshipped] have denied what you said, so you cannot avert the punishment nor defend yourselves. Whoever among you does wrong, We will cause him to taste a great punishment.
- 25:20. We did not send any Messengers before you [O Muhammad] but they ate food and walked about in the marketplaces. We have made some of you as a trial for others; will you have patience? For your Lord sees all things.

Here Allah tells us about the state of the polytheists and their so-called partners on the Day of Resurrection, when the so-called partners will disavow them and their deeds will be rendered invalid.

«On the day when He gathers them» namely the polytheist disbelievers <sup>45</sup> This question will be put to those who were wrongfully worshipped, such as the angels, 'Eesâ (ﷺ), Prophets, righteous people, 'saints', idols and so on.

<sup>46</sup> A question is implied here: so how could we have asked anyone else to take us as allies and worship us besides You? (ash-Shawkâni)

﴿together with those whom they worshipped besides Allah, He will ask﴾ that is, Allah will address those who were worshipped, by way of rebuke to those who worshipped them:

﴿Did you lead these slaves of Mine astray, or did they stray from the [right] path by themselves?﴾ That is, did you instruct them to worship you, and did you make that fair-seeming to them, or is this something that they did on their own initiative?

﴿They will say: Glory be to You!﴾ That is, they will declare Him to be far above the partners that the polytheists ascribed to Him, and they will declare themselves innocent of that.

﴿It was not proper for us﴾ that is, it was not appropriate and was not right for us to take anyone besides You as allies, worshipping them and calling upon them. As we need You and we need to worship You, we disavow the worship of anyone other than You, so how could we instruct anyone to worship us? This is something that cannot happen. Or, in other words: Glory be to You, it was not appropriate for us ﴿to take anyone as an ally besides You [and worship him]﴾. This is like what the Messiah ‘Eesâ ibn Maryam (ﷺ) will say:

﴿When Allah says: O ‘Eesâ son of Maryam, did you say to people: Take me and my mother as two gods besides Allah? He [‘Eesâ] will say: Glory be to You! It would not have been proper for me to say that which I had no right [to say]. If I had said it, You would surely have known it. You know all that I know, whereas I do not know what You know. Verily, You alone are the Knower of the unseen. I said nothing to them except that which You commanded me [to say]: Worship Allah, my Lord and your Lord...﴾ (al-Mâ'idah 5: 116-117)

And Allah says:

﴿On the day when He gathers them all together He will say to the angels: Was it you that these people used to worship? They will say: Glory be to You! You are our Close Friend, not they. Rather they used to worship the jinn; most of them believed in them.﴾ (Saba' 34: 40-41)

﴿When humankind are gathered [on the Day of Resurrection], they will become their enemies and will reject their worship of them.﴾
(al-Ahqâf 46: 6)

Having declared their innocence and stated that there is no way they could have called for the worship of anyone other than Allah or misguided them, they will mention the reason why the polytheists went astray. They will say:

﴿But You granted them and their fathers a life of ease﴾ and they indulged in the pleasures of this world and followed their desires ﴿until they forgot the message﴾ and were distracted by worldly pleasures and focusing on their desires, so they cared only for their worldly interests and neglected their religion.

﴿for they were people devoid of good and doomed﴾ that is, they were worthless, with nothing good in them; they were not fit for anything good and they were only fit to be doomed and lost. Thus they will mention the reason that prevented them from following true guidance, which is enjoyment of worldly pleasures which diverted them from guidance. The reason why they were not guided is the fact that there was no good in them. If the reason for guidance is not present but the impediment is present, then whatever evil and corruption you can think of, you will find in them.

When they (those who were worshipped on the basis of falsehood) disavow the polytheists, Allah will say, rebuking those who worshipped others:

﴿They [those whom you wrongfully worshipped] have denied what you said﴾, about them having instructed you to worship them, having been pleased with your deeds and having said that they would intercede for you with your Lord. They have declared those claims to be false and they have become among your greatest enemies, so you deserve the punishment.

﴿so you cannot avert the punishment﴾ for your deeds, or ransom yourselves, or take any other measures

﴿nor defend yourselves﴾ because you are helpless and have no one to support you. This is the ruling on those who were misguided and ignorant, and blindly followed others. As you can see, it is the worst ruling and the worst fate.

As for those among them who were stubborn, who knew the truth but turned away from it, Allah says concerning them:

﴿Whoever among you does wrong﴾ by rejecting the truth, wrongfully and stubbornly,

﴿We will cause him to taste a great punishment﴾ that cannot be estimated.

Then Allah says, responding to the objection of the disbelievers who said: ﴿What sort of Messenger is this, who eats food and walks about in the marketplaces?﴾ (25: 7):

﴿We did not send any Messengers before you [O Muhammad] but they ate food and walked about in the marketplaces﴾. We did not give them bodies that needed no food (21: 8), and We did not make them angels, so you have an example to follow in them.

As for wealth and poverty, these are trials that Allah decrees for a reason, as He says: ﴿We have made some of you as a trial for others﴾. The Messenger (ﷺ) is a trial for those to whom he is sent, a test to see who will obey and who will disobey, and We test the Messengers by giving them the mission of calling people. The rich man is a trial for the poor man, and the poor man is a trial for the rich man – and so on, with all types of people in this world, which is the realm of trials and tests.

The purpose of that test is to see: ﴿will you have patience?﴾ And do what you are supposed to do, in which case your Lord will reward you, or will you fail to be patient and thus deserve the punishment?

﴿For your Lord sees all things﴾ and He knows your circumstances. He selects whoever He knows is fit to convey His message and singles him out for His blessings. He knows your deeds and will requite you for them: if they are good then the consequences will be good, and if they are bad then the consequences will be bad.

25.

Soorat al-Furqân

(continued)

﴿ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ لَا يَرْجُونَ لِقَاءَنَا لَوْلَا أُنْزِلَ عَلَيْنَا الْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ أَوْ نَرَىٰ رَبَّنَا لَقَدْ اَسْتَكْبَرُوا فِيْ اَنْفُسِهِمْ وَعَتَوْا عُتُوًا كَبِيْرًا ﴿٢١﴾ يَوْمَ يَرَوْنَ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةَ لَا بُشْرٰى يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْمُجْرِمِيْنَ وَيَقُوْلُوْنَ حِجْرًا تَحْجُوْرًا ﴿٢٢﴾ وَقَدْ مَنَّ اِلٰى مَا عَمِلُوْا مِنْ عَمَلٍ فَجَعَلْنٰهُ هَبٰكَةً مِّنْشُوْرًا ﴿٢٣﴾ ﴾ (سورة الفرقان: ٢١-٢٣)

- 25:21. Those who do not expect to meet Us say: Why have angels not been sent down to us, or why do we not see our Lord? Indeed they think too highly of themselves and have greatly exceeded all bounds in their arrogance.<sup>1</sup>
- 25:22. On the day when they see the angels, on that day there will be no glad tidings for the evildoers. The [angels] will say: That [glad tidings] is absolutely forbidden for you.
- 25:23. We will look at the [good] deeds they did and We will turn them into scattered floating specks of dust.

That is, those who reject the Messenger (ṣalla Allāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam – blessings and peace be upon him) and deny the promise and warning of Allah (Subhānahu wa Ta‘ālā – Glorified and Exalted is

<sup>1</sup> The meanings of the verses of the Qur’an in this book (with some minor changes to the punctuation) have been translated by the translator. (Editor)

He), those who have no fear in their hearts of the warning and have no hope of meeting the Creator, say:

«Why have angels not been sent down to us, or why do we not see our Lord?» That is, why have no angels come down to testify to your being the Messenger, and to support you in your mission, or come down as messengers on their own, or why do we not see our Lord so that He may speak to us and tell us: This is My Messenger, so follow him? This is an argument against the Messenger (ﷺ) which is flawed; rather it reflects pride, arrogance and stubbornness.

«Indeed they think too highly of themselves» when they made these audacious suggestions. Who are you, O poor and wretched people, to demand to see Allah and claim that the proof of the message depends on that? What arrogance could be greater than this?

«and have greatly exceeded all bounds in their arrogance» that is, they have grown very hard-hearted and become too stubborn to follow the truth; their hearts are harder than rocks or iron, and they will not soften and open to the truth or pay any heed to sincere advisers. Therefore exhortation and reminders were of no avail to them, and they did not follow the truth when the warning came to them. Rather they responded to the most truthful and sincere of people and to the clear signs and revelations of Allah by turning away, rejecting them and opposing them. What arrogance could be greater than this? Therefore their deeds were rendered invalid and they incurred the greatest loss and the utmost deprivation.

«On the day when they see the angels» whose descent they demanded

«on that day there will be no glad tidings for the evildoers». That is because their seeing them, at the time when they are persisting in sin and stubbornness, can be nothing but the harbinger of punishment. That will first occur at the time of death, when the angels come down to them. Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿...If you [O Muhammad] could but see the evildoers when they are in the throes of death and the angels are stretching out their hands [saying]: Give up your souls! Today you will be recompensed with a humiliating punishment, because you used to tell lies against Allah and you arrogantly rejected His revelations.﴾ (al-An'ām 6: 93)

Then in the grave, (the two angels) Munkar and Nakeer will come to them and ask them about their Lord, their Prophet and their religion, and they will not be able to give any answer that will save them. So the angels will bring the punishment to them and take away mercy from them. Then on the Day of Resurrection, the angels will drive them towards the fire and hand them over to the keepers of hell, who will take charge of their punishment and commence it immediately. This is what they suggested and demanded; if they persist in that transgression, they will inevitably see the punishment and experience it, and at that time they will seek protection from the angels and will try to flee from them, but they will have no place to flee.

﴿We will look at the [good] deeds they did﴾ that is, the deeds which they hoped were good and in which they strove hard
 ﴿and We will turn them into scattered floating specks of dust﴾ that is, We will render them invalid and worthless, and they will have lost them and be deprived of their reward, and they will be punished for that. That is because those deeds were not based on faith, and they were done by those who disbelieve in Allah and His Messengers. The good deed that is accepted by Allah is that which is done by a sincere believer who believes in the Messengers and follows them.

﴿أَصْحَابُ الْجَنَّةِ يَوْمَ ذَلِكَ خَيْرٌ مُّسْتَقَرًّا وَأَحْسَنُ مَقِيلًا﴾ (سورة الفرقان: ٢٤)

25:24. On that day the inhabitants of paradise will have a better abode and a better place of rest.

That is, on that terrifying day that is filled with turmoil, ﴿the inhabitants of paradise﴾ who believed in Allah, did righteous deeds and feared their Lord ﴿will have a better abode﴾ than the inhabitants of hell ﴿and a better place of rest﴾ namely their abodes in paradise. Theirs will be a comfortable abode and a place of perfect rest, because it is a place of perfect bliss that is unspoiled by any distress. This is in contrast to the inhabitants of hell, for hell is the worst abode and the worst place of rest.

﴿وَيَوْمَ تَشَقُّ السَّمَاءُ بِالْعَنَمِ وَرِثَ الْمَلَائِكَةُ نَزِيرًا ۖ﴾ (٢٥) الْمَلِكُ يَوْمَئِذٍ الْحَقُّ لِلرَّحْمَنِ
وَكَانَ يَوْمًا عَلَى الْكَافِرِينَ عَسِيرًا ﴿٢٦﴾ وَيَوْمَ يَعْصُ الظَّالِمُ عَلَى يَدَيْهِ يَقُولُ يَلَيِّنِي
أَتَّخَذْتُ مَعَ الرَّسُولِ سَيْبًا ﴿٢٧﴾ يَتَوَلَّى لَيِّنِي لَمْ أَتَّخِذْ فَلَانًا خَلِيلًا ﴿٢٨﴾ لَقَدْ أَضَلَّنِي عَنِ
الذِّكْرِ بَعْدَ إِذْ جَاءَنِي وَكَانَ الشَّيْطَانُ لِلْإِنْسَانِ خَذُولًا ﴿٢٩﴾﴾ (سورة الفرقان:

(٢٩-٢٥)

- 25:25. On the day when the heaven will be rent asunder with clouds and the angels will be sent down in succession, 25:26. On that day true dominion will belong to the Most Gracious, and it will be a difficult day for the disbelievers.
25:27. On that day, the wrongdoer will bite on his hands and say: Would that I had taken a path with the Messenger.
25:28. Alas for me! Would that I had not taken So-and-so as a friend!
25:29. He led me astray from the Reminder [the Qur'an] after it had come to me. And Shayṭān is ever treacherous to man.

Here Allah speaks of the great significance of the Day of Resurrection and all that it will entail of hardship, distress and troubles.

﴿On the day when the heaven will be rent asunder with clouds﴾ – those are the clouds in which Allah will descend from above the heavens; the heavens will be rent asunder and will open up, and the angels of each heaven will descend and stand in ranks, either one rank surrounding all of creation, or the angels of each heaven will form one rank, then the angels of the next heaven will form another rank next to it, and so on.

What is meant is that the angels, even though they are so many and so strong – will descend and surround all of creation in submission to the command of their Lord. Not one of them will speak except by Allah's leave. So what do you think of weak human beings, especially the one who challenged his Sovereign by committing major sins and doing that which incurred His wrath, then he comes to Him with sins from which he never repented, for which the true Sovereign will pass judgement on him, and He will never be unjust and will not wrong him in the slightest. Hence Allah says:

﴿and it will be a difficult day for the disbelievers﴾ because it will be so hard and because of the troubles the disbeliever will go through. This is in contrast to the believer, for it will be easy for him and the burden will be light.

﴿On the day when We gather the pious before the Most Gracious as an honoured delegation, and We drive the evildoers thirsty towards hell.﴾ (Maryam 19: 85-86)

﴿On that day﴾ that is, on the Day of Resurrection, ﴿true dominion will belong to the Most Gracious﴾ and there will not remain for any one even the least resemblance of dominion, as was the case in this world; now all will become equal, kings and subjects, free men and slaves, nobles and others. Something that offers reassurance and comfort to the heart is the fact that Allah connected His dominion to His name ﴿the Most Gracious﴾, Whose grace and mercy encompass all things, by means of which life in this world and the hereafter is maintained, everything that is lacking will be made perfect, and every shortcoming will be removed. The divine names that refer to Allah's mercy outnumber the names that are indicative of His wrath, and His mercy takes precedence and prevails over His wrath, so mercy takes priority.

Allah created the human being weak, but He honoured him in order to perfect His blessing and shower him with His mercy.

(On the Day of Resurrection) they will be brought to stand before Him in humility and they will be motionless with fear before Him, waiting for judgement to be passed among them and waiting to see what will happen to them. But He is more merciful towards them than their parents or even their own selves, so how do you think he will deal with them? No one will be doomed when He is so merciful but one who is destined to be doomed, and no one will be cast out from His mercy except one who is overtaken by his wretchedness and the punishment becomes inevitable for him.

﴿On that day, the wrongdoer﴾ who ascribed partners to Allah and disbelieved and rejected the Messengers

﴿will bite on his hands﴾ in sorrow, regret and anguish

﴿and say: Would that I had taken a path with the Messenger﴾ that is, by believing in him and following him.

﴿Alas for me! Would that I had not taken So-and-so﴾ – this refers to devils, be they human or jinn

﴿as a friend﴾ that is, as a dear and close friend; I took as enemies the most sincere and kindest of people to me and I took as friends the most hostile, from whose friendship I gained nothing but misery, loss, disgrace and doom.

﴿He led me astray from the Reminder [the Qur'an] after it had come to me﴾ when he made fair-seeming to me, by means of tricks and insinuating thoughts, what he was following of misguidance.

﴿And Shayṭān is ever treacherous to man﴾ – he makes falsehood fair-seeming to him and makes the truth appear repulsive; he makes false promises, then he abandons him and disavows him, as he will say to all of his followers, when judgement is passed and Allah has completed humankind's reckoning:

﴿And Shayṭān will say, when the matter is decided: Verily, Allah gave you a true promise; I also gave you promises, but I betrayed you. I had no power over you, except that I called you and you responded to me. So do not blame me; blame yourselves. I cannot help you, nor can you help me. I disavow your erstwhile association of me with Allah...﴾ (Ibrāheem 14: 22)

So each person should think, whilst it is still possible to change his course and take the opportunity to change, before it is too late, and he should take as friends those whose friendship may lead to his bliss; if regarding someone as an enemy will benefit him, whereas he would be harmed by taking him as a friend, then he should regard such people as his enemies. And Allah is the source of strength.

﴿وَقَالَ الرَّسُولُ يَرْبِّ إِنَّ قَوْمِي اتَّخَذُوا هَذَا الْقُرْآنَ مَهْجُورًا ۖ وَكَذَلِكَ جَعَلْنَا لِكُلِّ نَبِيٍّ عَدُوًّا مِنَ الْمُجْرِمِينَ ۚ وَكَفَى بِرَبِّكَ هَادِيًا وَنَصِيرًا﴾ (سورة الفرقان: ٣٠-٣١)

25:30. The Messenger said: O my Lord, my people have taken this Qur'an as a thing to be shunned.

25:31. And similarly We appointed for every Prophet enemies among the evildoers. But your Lord is sufficient as a guide and helper.

﴿The Messenger said﴾, calling upon his Lord and complaining to Him, expressing his sorrow at his people's turning away from the message he brought:

﴿O my Lord, my people﴾ to whom You sent me to guide them and convey Your message to them

«have taken this Qur'an as a thing to be shunned» that is, they have turned away from it, shunned it and ignored it, even though what they should do is submit to its authority, accept its rulings and comply with it.

Allah said, consoling His Messenger (ﷺ) and telling him that there was a precedent for these people and others who had done the same as they were doing:

«And similarly We appointed for every Prophet enemies among the evildoers» that is, among those who were not fit for good; they opposed the Messengers and rejected them, arguing with them on the basis of falsehood.

One of the benefits that result from that is that the truth will prevail over falsehood and will become very clear, because the opposition of falsehood to the truth increases it in clarity, so that the evidence will be further highlighted. What Allah does to the people of truth by honouring them, and what He does to the people of falsehood by punishing them, will also be highlighted. So do not grieve for them, and do not destroy yourself with grief for them.

«But your Lord is sufficient as a guide», so He will help you to achieve the goal and attain that which is in your best interests, both religious and worldly

«and helper» so He will help you against your enemies and ward off all harm from you in both your religious and worldly affairs, so be content with Him and put your trust in Him.

﴿وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَوْلَا نُزِّلَ عَلَيْهِ الْقُرْآنُ جُمْلَةً وَاحِدَةً كَذَلِكَ لِنُثَبِّتَ بِهِ فُؤَادَكَ وَرَتَّلْنَاهُ تَرْتِيلًا ۝ وَلَا يَأْتُونَكَ بِمَثَلٍ إِلَّا جِئْنَاكَ بِالْحَقِّ وَأَحْسَنَ تَفْسِيرًا﴾

(سورة الفرقان: ٣٢-٣٣)

- 25:32. Those who disbelieve say: Why was the Qur'an not sent down to him all at once? [It has been revealed] thus so that We may strengthen your heart thereby, and We have imparted it to you by gradual revelation.
- 25:33. Whenever they come to you [O Muhammad] with an argument, We reveal to you the truth and the best explanation.

These were among the suggestions and demands of the disbelievers that they came up with by themselves, so they said:

«Why was the Qur'an not sent down to him all at once?» That is, as the previous scriptures were sent down. But what was the problem with it being sent down in this manner? In fact, its being sent down in this manner is more perfect and is better. Hence Allah says:

«[It has been revealed] thus» that is, piecemeal

«so that We may strengthen your heart thereby» because every time something of the Qur'an comes down to him, it increases him in reassurance and steadfastness, especially when there are reasons to be anxious. If Qur'an comes down when there is cause for concern, that will be very effective and will make him more steadfast, more so than if it were to come down before that time and he was to be reminded of it when the reason for it occurred.

«and We have imparted it to you by gradual revelation» that is, slowly and gradually. All of this is indicative of Allah's care for His Book the Qur'an and His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ), as He caused the revelation of His Book to address the circumstances of the Messenger (ﷺ) and the religious matters he needed to know. Hence He says:

«Whenever they come to you [O Muhammad] with an argument», opposing the truth and trying to refute your message,

«We reveal to you the truth and the best explanation» that is, We send down to you Qur'an covering all that is needed concerning the truth in all aspects, bringing perfect clarity in its words, for all its meanings are truth; it is not contaminated with falsehood and there is no doubt about it whatsoever. Its words explain things in the clearest manner, giving the best explanation and clarifying the meanings completely.

This verse indicates that the one who speaks of knowledge, whether he is a scholar of Hadith, a teacher or a preacher, should follow the example of his Lord in the way He dealt with His Messengers' affairs. In this manner, the scholar should deal with people's affairs. Every time an incident occurs or there is a special occasion, he should quote what is appropriate of Qur'anic verses and prophetic hadiths, and offer exhortation based on that.

This is also a refutation of those philosopher types who try to make things difficult, such as the Jahamis<sup>2</sup> and others, who think that many of the Qur'anic texts are to be understood in a manner other than what their apparent meanings would suggest, and they say that they have meanings other than what may be understood from them. Therefore – according to their view – the Qur'an does not offer a better explanation than anything else; rather – according to their view – the best explanation is their own explanation in which they distorted the meanings.

﴿الَّذِينَ يُحْشَرُونَ عَلَىٰ وُجُوهِهِمْ إِلَىٰ جَهَنَّمَ أُولَٰئِكَ شَرٌّ مَّكَانًا وَأَضَلُّ سَبِيلًا﴾

﴿سورة الفرقان: ٣٤﴾

25:34. Those who will be driven on their faces to hell – they are in a worse position and are further astray from the right path.

Here Allah tells us about the situation of the polytheists who rejected His Messenger (ﷺ), and the wretched fate they will meet, for they ﴿will be driven on their faces﴾, which will be a terrible and dreadful sight, when the angels of punishment drag them and pull them ﴿to hell﴾ which contains all torments and punishments.

<sup>2</sup> Jahamis: a group who denied the names and attributes of Allah (ﷻ). They are named after their founder al-Jahm ibn Safwān

﴿they﴾ that is, those who are in this state ﴿are in a worse position﴾ than those who believe in Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) ﴿and are further astray from the right path﴾. This comparison does not mean that the other party are also astray, only less so, for the believers are in a good state and will have a good end; in this world they are guided to the straight path and in the hereafter they will reach the gardens of bliss.

﴿وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْكِتَابَ وَجَعَلْنَا مَعَهُ أَخَاهُ هَارُونَ وَزِيرًا ﴿٣٥﴾ فَقُلْنَا أَذْهَبَا إِلَى الْقَوْمِ الَّذِينَ كَذَبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا فَدَمَرْنَاهُمْ تَدْمِيرًا ﴿٣٦﴾ وَقَوْمَ نُوحٍ لَمَّا كَذَبُوا الرُّسُلَ أَغْرَقْنَاهُمْ وَجَعَلْنَاهُمْ لِلنَّاسِ آيَةً ﴿٣٧﴾ وَأَعْتَدْنَا لِلظَّالِمِينَ عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا ﴿٣٨﴾ وَعَادًا وَثَمُودًا وَأَصْحَابَ الرَّسِّ وَقُرُونًا بَيْنَ ذَلِكَ كَثِيرًا ﴿٣٩﴾ وَكُلًّا ضَرَبْنَاهُ لَأَمَثَلٌ ﴿٤٠﴾ وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا عَلَى الْقَرْيَةِ الَّتِي أَمْطَرْنَا مَطَرًا سَوَاءً أَفْكَتُمْ يَكُونُوا يُرْوِنَهَا بَلْ كَانُوا لَا يَرْجُونَ نُشُورًا ﴿٤١﴾﴾ (سورة الفرقان: ٣٥-٤١)

- 25:35. We gave Moosâ the Book and appointed his brother Hâroon to be with him as a helper.
- 25:36. We said: Go, both of you, to the people who have rejected Our signs. Then We destroyed them utterly.
- 25:37. And [We destroyed] the people of Nooh, when they rejected the Messengers; We drowned them and made them a sign for all people. And We have prepared for the wrongdoers a painful punishment.
- 25:38. And [We destroyed] ‘Âd and Thamood, and the people of the well,<sup>3</sup> and many nations between them.

<sup>3</sup> They were idol-worshippers to whom Allah sent His Prophet Shu‘ayb, =

- 25:39. To each of them We gave examples [of how We had dealt with previous nations who disbelieved, as a warning] and each of them We obliterated completely.
- 25:40. They [the disbelievers of Makkah] must surely have passed by the city [Sodom] on which an evil rain poured down. Did they not then see it? But they do not expect to be resurrected.

Here Allah refers to these stories, which He has told in detail elsewhere, so as to warn those addressed against persisting in rejection of their Messengers, lest there befall them what befell these nations who are close to them, and whose stories they know, as the stories were widely known and circulated.

They saw the ruins of some of those nations with their own eyes, such as those of the people of Ṣāliḥ in al-Ḥijr, and the city (Sodom) on which an evil rain poured down (25: 40), a shower of stones of baked clay (15: 74), which they would pass by night and by day during their journeys. Those nations were not worse than they, and the Messengers of those nations were not better than the Messenger (ﷺ) of these people (namely Quraysh).

﴿Are your disbelievers [O Quraysh] better than those, or have you been promised immunity in the [earlier] scriptures?﴾ (al-Qamar 54: 43)

But what prevented these people from believing, despite all that they had seen of signs, was the fact that they did not expect the resurrection to happen, they did not hope to meet their Lord, and they did not fear His punishment. Therefore they persisted in their stubbornness. Otherwise was it not the case that there had come to them signs that would leave no room whatsoever for doubt?

---

= but they rejected his call. Whilst they were around the well, it collapsed and they and their dwellings were swallowed up by the earth. (an-Nasafi; al-Bayḍāwī)

﴿وَلِذَا رَأَوْكَ إِذَا يَنْخِذُونَكَ إِلَّا هُزُؤًا أَهْذًا الَّذِي بِعَثَ اللَّهُ رَسُولًا ﴿٤١﴾ إِنْ كَادَ لَيُضِلَّنَا عَنْ آلِهَتِنَا لَوْلَا أَن صَبَرْنَا عَلَيْهَا وَسَوْفَ يَعْلَمُونَ حِينَ يَرَوْنَ الْعَذَابَ مَنْ أَضَلُّ سَبِيلًا ﴿٤٢﴾ أَرَأَيْتَ مَنْ اتَّخَذَ إِلَهَهُ هَوَاهُ أَفَأَنْتَ تَكُونُ عَلَيْهِ وَكِيلًا ﴿٤٣﴾ أَمْ تَحْسَبُ أَنَّ أَكْثَرَهُمْ يَسْمَعُونَ أَوْ يَعْقِلُونَ إِنْ هُمْ إِلَّا كَالْأَنْعَامِ بَلْ هُمْ أَضَلُّ سَبِيلًا ﴿٤٤﴾﴾ (سورة الفرقان: ٤١-٤٤)

- 25:41. When they see you, they treat you only with ridicule, [saying]: Is this the one whom Allah has sent as a Messenger?
- 25:42. He might almost have turned us away from our gods had we not been steadfast in our devotion to them. But they will come to know, when they see the punishment, who is further astray from the right path.
- 25:43. Have you seen the one who takes his own whims and desires as his god? Can you be his keeper?
- 25:44. Or do you think that most of them listen or understand? They are just like cattle; nay, they are further astray from the right path.

That is, when these people who disbelieve in you – O Muhammad (ﷺ) – and stubbornly reject the signs of Allah, and behave arrogantly in the land see you, they ridicule you and look down on you, and they say, by way of scorn and disrespect:

﴿Is this the one whom Allah has sent as a Messenger?﴾ That is, it is not appropriate and is not right that Allah should send this man as a Messenger. This stems from their extreme wrongdoing and stubbornness, and their turning facts on their heads. These words of theirs may be understood as meaning that the Messenger (ﷺ) – Allah forbid – was insignificant and lowly, and that if the message had come to someone other than him, that would have been more appropriate.

﴿And they said: Why was this Qur'an not sent down to some prominent man from [either of] the two cities [Makkah or Taif]?﴾
(az-Zukhruf 43: 31)

Such words could only come from the most ignorant and misguided of people, or from the most stubborn, who is acting in an ignorant manner with the aim of propagating the falsehood he follows, by seeking to undermine the truth and the one who brought it. Otherwise, anyone who reflects on the life of Muhammad ibn 'Abdullâh (ﷺ) will find him to be the best of people, the most prominent and the foremost in reason, knowledge, rational thinking, dignity, noble characteristics, good conduct, chastity, courage, generosity, and all good qualities. The one who looks down on him and criticises him has combined foolishness, ignorance, misguidance, contradiction, unfairness and transgression such as no one else has combined. It is sufficient ignorance and misguidance that he should criticise the foremost and most noble Messenger (ﷺ).

The reason for their casting aspersions on him and their mockery of him was their rigid adherence to their falsehood and their desire to deceive the weak-minded. Hence they said:

﴿He﴾ that is, this man (the Prophet (ﷺ)) ﴿might almost have turned us away from our gods﴾ by making the gods into One God ﴿had we not been steadfast in our devotion to them﴾, and he might almost have led us astray. They claimed that tawhîd<sup>4</sup> (affirmation of the oneness of Allah) was misguidance, whereas real misguidance was what they were following of ascribing partners to Him. Therefore they urged one another to be steadfast in adhering to it.

﴿The leaders among them left, saying: Carry on as you are, and hold fast to your gods...﴾ (Sâd 38: 6)

<sup>4</sup> Wherever possible, Arabic terms have been translated into English. In cases where we have chosen to retain the Arabic, the transliterated word or phrase is shown in italics the first time it appears in the text. The term is also defined in the glossary found at the end of this book. (Editor)

And here they said: ﴿had we not been steadfast in our devotion to them﴾. Patience and steadfastness are praiseworthy in all circumstances, except in this case, for this was patience and steadfastness in adhering to something that incurs divine wrath and increases the fuel of hell. As for the believers, they are as Allah describes them:

﴿...and exhort one another to hold fast to the truth and exhort one another to hold fast to patience.﴾ (al-'Asr 103: 3)

As they deemed themselves to be guided and regarded the Messenger as misguided, and as it became apparent that there was no hope for them, Allah warned them of the punishment and stated that at that time, ﴿when they see the punishment﴾, they will come to know in a very real sense, ﴿who is further astray from the right path﴾. ﴿On that day, the wrongdoer will bite on his hands and say: Would that I had taken a path with the Messenger﴾ (25: 27).

Is there any misguidance worse than that of one who takes his own whims and desires as his god, so whatever he likes he does? Hence Allah says:

﴿Have you seen the one who takes his own whims and desires as his god?﴾ Do you not feel amazed by his situation and see how misguided he is, whilst he believes that he is a man of high status?

﴿Can you be his keeper?﴾ That is, you are not in control of him and you have no power over him; rather you are no more than a warner and you have done what is required of you, and his reckoning will be with Allah.

Then Allah (ﷻ) comments on their extreme misguidance by noting that He has taken away their power of reasoning and hearing, and He likens them, in their misguidance, to grazing cattle that hear nothing except the sound of shouts and cries. Deaf, dumb, and blind, they do not understand (cf. 2: 171). Indeed, they are more astray than cattle, because the herdsman guides the cattle, so they are guided and they recognise the path that may lead to their doom, so they avoid it, and their fate is better than the fate of these people. Thus it becomes clear that the one who accuses the Messenger (ﷺ) of being misguided is more deserving of that description himself, and that any dumb animal is more guided than him.

﴿أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى رَبِّكَ كَيْفَ مَدَّ الظِّلَّ وَلَوْ شَاءَ لَجَعَلَهُ سَاكِنًا ثُمَّ جَعَلْنَا الشَّمْسُ عَلَيْهِ دَلِيلًا﴾ (سورة الفرقان: ٤٥-٤٦)

25:45. Have you not seen how your Lord extends the shadow? If He willed, He could make it still. Then We have made the sun an indication of it.

25:46. Then We gradually draw it [the shadow] in towards Us [as the sun climbs up].

That is, have you not seen with your own eyes and intellect the perfect might of your Lord and the vastness of His mercy? For He extends the shadow over people. This refers to the time before sunrise. ﴿Then We have made the sun an indication of it﴾ that is, of the shadow; were it not for the sun, the shadow would not be known, for a thing is known by its opposite.

﴿Then We gradually draw it [the shadow] in towards Us [as the sun climbs up]﴾ the higher the sun rises, the more the shadow shrinks, little by little, until it disappears altogether. So the shadow and the sun come one after another for people who see them with their own eyes. What results from that of the alternation of night and day, the alternation of the seasons and many other benefits, is one of the greatest signs of the perfect might of Allah and of His greatness, perfect mercy and care for His slaves, and it highlights the fact that He alone is deserving of worship, praise, love and veneration, for He is the Owner of majesty and honour.

﴿وَهُوَ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمُ اللَّيْلَ لِيَاسَا وَالنَّوْمَ سُبَاتًا وَجَعَلَ النَّهَارَ نُشُورًا﴾ (٤٧)

(سورة الفرقان: ٤٧)

25:47. It is He Who has made the night a covering for you, and sleep for rest; and He has made the day for rising [and going out and about, seeking one's livelihood].

That is, by His mercy and kindness towards you, He has made the night like a garment for you that covers you so that you may settle down, sleep calmly and become still. Were it not for the night, people would not find rest and they would continue moving about, which would be very harmful for them. But if the darkness were to persist, that would also be detrimental to their livelihood and interests, but Allah has made the day for getting up and going about to engage in trade, travel and work, thus achieving that which benefits them and is in their best interests.

﴿وَهُوَ الَّذِي أَرْسَلَ الرِّيحَ بُشْرًا بَيْنَ يَدَيْ رَحْمَتِهِ وَأَنْزَلْنَا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً طَهُورًا﴾ (٤٨)
 ﴿لِنُخْرِجَ بِهِ بَلَدَةً مَيِّتًا وَنُشْقِيَهُ مِمَّا خَلَقْنَا أَنْعَمًا وَنَاسِيَ كَثِيرًا﴾ (٤٩) وَلَقَدْ صَرَّفْنَاهُ بَيْنَهُمْ لِيَذَكَّرُوا فَأَبَى أَكْثَرُ النَّاسِ إِلَّا كُفُورًا ﴿٥٠﴾ (سورة الفرقان: ٤٨-٥٠)

25:48. It is He Who sends the winds as harbingers of His mercy, and We send down pure water from the sky, 25:49. So that We may give life thereby to a dead land, and quench the thirst of countless beasts and men We have created.

25:50. And We have distributed [the rain] among them [in various ways], so that they may pay heed, but most people persist in their ingratitude.

That is, He alone has mercy on His slaves and bestows abundant provision upon them by sending the winds as harbingers of His mercy, namely the rain. With the winds He stirs up the clouds and gathers them together, so that they are formed into pieces, then He fecundates them and makes them ready to give rain by the leave of the One Who is in control of them, so as to give people glad tidings of rain before it comes, so that they can prepare for it before it catches them unawares by coming all at once.

﴿and We send down pure water from the sky﴾ so that they may purify themselves of minor and major impurity, and cleanse themselves of physical dirt. This is one of the blessings of rain, that He sends it down to revive the dead land, so that it brings forth various kinds of plants and trees, from which people and livestock eat.

﴿and quench the thirst of countless beasts and men We have created﴾ that is, We give it to you to drink, you and your livestock. Is not He Who sent the winds as harbingers and caused the winds to perform different tasks, and sent down from the sky pure and blessed water, in which is provision for people and their livestock, the One Who alone is deserving of worship, without associating anything else with Him?

Even though Allah has sent these visible signs and explained them to His slaves, so that they may know Him, give thanks to Him and remember Him, many people still persist in disbelief, because of their corrupt attitude and nature.

﴿وَلَوْ شِئْنَا لَبَعَثْنَا فِي كُلِّ قَرْيَةٍ نَذِيرًا﴾ (٥١) ﴿فَلَا تُطِيعُ الْكَافِرِينَ وَجَهَدْهُمْ﴾
 ﴿بِهِ جِهَادًا كَبِيرًا﴾ (٥٢) (سورة الفرقان: ٥١-٥٢)

25:51. If We had so willed, We could have sent a warner to every city.

25:52. So do not obey the disbelievers, but strive mightily against them herewith [with the Qur'an].

Here Allah tells us how His will is inevitably done, and that if He had so willed, He would have sent to every city a warner, that is a Messenger to warn them, for His will is not incapable of that. But His wisdom and His mercy towards you and others – O Muhammad (ﷺ) – dictated that He should send you to all of them, red and black, Arab and non-Arab, human and jinn.

﴿So do not obey the disbelievers﴾ by omitting anything that was sent to you; rather strive your utmost to convey all that was sent to you.

﴿but strive mightily﴾ that is, do not spare any effort to support the truth and suppress falsehood; even if you see them rejecting you and treating you rudely, still do your utmost and do not despair of them being guided; do not stop conveying the message to them just because it does not suit their whims and desires.

﴿وَهُوَ الَّذِي مَرَجَ الْبَحْرَيْنِ هَذَا عَذْبٌ فُرَاتٌ وَهَذَا مِلْحٌ أُجَاجٌ وَجَعَلَ بَيْنَهُمَا بَرْزَخًا وَحِجْرًا مَحْجُورًا﴾ (سورة الفرقان: ٥٣)

25:53. It is He Who causes the two flowing bodies of water to meet, one fresh and palatable and the other salty and bitter. Yet He has placed a barrier between them, and an impassable boundary.

That is, it is He alone Who causes the two flowing bodies of water to meet, that which is fresh and palatable, namely the rivers that flow on the surface of the earth, and the salty and bitter sea, and He causes each of them to benefit His slaves.

﴿Yet He has placed a barrier between them﴾ that is, a barrier to prevent one of them mixing with the other, which would lead to the loss of the benefits intended by them

﴿and an impassable boundary﴾ that is, a strong barrier.

﴿وَهُوَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ مِنَ الْمَاءِ بَشَرًا فَجَعَلَهُ نَسَبًا وَصِهْرًا ۚ وَكَانَ رَبُّكَ قَدِيرًا﴾ (سورة الفرقان: ٥٤)

25:54. It is He Who has created humans from water, then made them male and female, for your Lord is Omnipotent.

That is, it is Allah alone, with no partner or associate, Who has created the human from insignificant fluid, and from him has produced many offspring, and made them male and female. All of them come from that insignificant fluid. This is indicative of His perfect power and ability, ﴿for your Lord is Omnipotent﴾.

It also indicates that worship of Him is the truth and worship of all others is false, because Allah says:

﴿وَيَعْبُدُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ مَا لَا يَنْفَعُهُمْ وَلَا يَضُرُّهُمْ ۚ وَكَانَ الْكَافِرُ عَلَىٰ رَبِّهِ ظَهِيرًا﴾

(سورة الفرقان: ٥٥)

25:55. They worship, besides Allah, that which has no power either to benefit or harm them; the disbeliever always gives support against his Lord.

That is, they worship idols and the dead who cannot cause any harm or bring any benefit, and they make them rivals to the One Who does have the power to bring benefits and cause harm, and to give and withhold, even though what they should do is follow the guidance of their Lord and defend His religion, but they did the opposite.

﴿the disbeliever always gives support against his Lord﴾ – the disbeliever gives help and support to falsehood, namely the idols and rivals who are enemies of Allah, against their Lord, and he becomes an enemy to his Lord, declaring his enmity and hostility towards Him.

He does this even though his Lord is the One Who created him, grants him provision and blesses him with all kinds of blessings both visible and hidden, and he cannot escape His dominion, authority or control. But Allah never stops bestowing His kindness and generosity, whilst he – in his ignorance – persists in this enmity and rebellion.

﴿وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ إِلَّا مُبَشِّرًا وَنَذِيرًا﴾ (٥٦) قُلْ مَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ أَجْرٍ إِلَّا مَنْ شَاءَ أَنْ يَتَّخِذَ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِ سَبِيلًا ﴿٥٧﴾ وَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى الْحَيِّ الَّذِي لَا يَمُوتُ وَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِهِ وَكَفَىٰ بِهِ بِذُنُوبِ عِبَادِهِ خَبِيرًا ﴿٥٨﴾ الَّذِي خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا فِي سِتَّةِ أَيَّامٍ ثُمَّ اسْتَوَىٰ عَلَى الْعَرْشِ الرَّحْمَنُ فَسَلِّ بِهِ خَبِيرًا ﴿٥٩﴾ وَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمُ اسْجُدُوا لِلرَّحْمَنِ قَالُوا وَمَا الرَّحْمَنُ أَنْسَجِدُ لِمَا تَأْمُرُنَا وَزَادَهُمْ نُفُورًا ﴿٦٠﴾ (سورة الفرقان: ٥٦-٦٠)

25:56. And We have not sent you but as a bearer of glad tidings and a warner.

25:57. Say [O Muhammad]: I do not ask you for any recompense for this, except that anyone who so wishes should take a path to his Lord.

25:58. Put your trust in the Ever-Living Who never dies, and glorify and praise Him. Your Lord is sufficiently aware of the sins of His slaves.

25:59. [It is] He Who created the heavens and the earth, and all that is between them, in six days, and then rose over the Throne [in a manner that befits His Majesty]. He is the Most Gracious; so ask about Him one who is well informed.

25:60. When it is said to them [the disbelievers]: Prostrate to the Most Gracious, they say: What is the Most Gracious? Are we to prostrate to whatever you command us? and it increases them in aversion.

---

Here Allah tells us that He did not send His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ) to be in control of people, He did not make him an angel, and he does not possess the treasuries of things. Rather He sent him ﴿as a bearer of glad tidings﴾, to give glad tidings to those who obeyed Allah of reward in this world and in the hereafter ﴿and a warner﴾ to warn those who disobeyed Allah of punishment in this world and in the hereafter. This requires him to explain how to attain that reward and how to protect oneself from that punishment, by way of commands and prohibitions. Moreover, you – O Muhammad (ﷺ) – do not ask them for any recompense for conveying to them the Qur'an and guidance, such that this would give them an excuse for not following you and lead to them finding burdensome the fee that you ask of them.

﴿except that anyone who so wishes should take a path to his Lord﴾ that is, except that whoever wishes may spend in ways to please his Lord and for His sake. If that is what you want to do, then I will not force you to do it and it is not a recompense that you owe me; rather it is in your own best interests and will help you to follow the path that leads to your Lord.

Then Allah instructed him to put his trust in Him and seek His help:

﴿Put your trust in the Ever-Living﴾ Whose life is absolute and perfect

﴿Who never dies, and glorify and praise Him﴾ that is, worship Him and put your trust in Him in all matters that have to do with you and that have to do with other people.

﴿Your Lord is sufficiently aware of the sins of His slaves﴾ for He knows them and will requite for them. It is not your task to guide them at all, or to keep record of their deeds. All of that is in the Hand of Allah alone.

﴿[It is] He Who created the heavens and the earth, and all that is between them, in six days, and then﴾ after that ﴿rose over the Throne﴾, which is the canopy of creation, the highest, most vast and most beautiful of His creation ﴿[in a manner that befits His Majesty]﴾. ﴿He is the Most Gracious﴾ and He rose over His Throne that encompasses the heavens and the earth, Whose mercy encompasses all things. So He rose above the most vast of His creation with the most encompassing of His attributes.

This verse affirms His creation of all created things, and that He is well aware of their outward and inward aspects, that He is above the Throne and is separate from His creation.

﴿so ask about Him one who is well informed﴾ what is meant here is Allah Himself, for He is the One Who knows His attributes, greatness and majesty, and He has told you of that and explained to you about His greatness that which will make you blessed to know it. Hence some came to know Him and submitted to His majesty.

But the disbelievers were too arrogant to worship Him and they refrained from doing so. Hence Allah says:

﴿When it is said to them [the disbelievers]: Prostrate to the Most Gracious﴾ that is, the One Who alone bestowed all blessings upon you and warded off all harm from you,

﴿they say﴾ in denial and disbelief:

﴿What is the Most Gracious?﴾ They falsely claimed that they do not know the Most Gracious, and this is one of the things that they thought was grounds for their denial and criticism of the Messenger (ﷺ); they said: He forbids us to take other gods alongside Allah, yet he calls upon another god alongside Him and says: O Most Gracious (Yâ Raḥmān), and so on. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Say [O Muhammad]: Call upon Allah, or call upon the Most Gracious [ar-Rahmân].<sup>5</sup> No matter which name you call upon Him by, to Him belong the most beautiful names...﴾ (al-Isrâ' 17: 110)

His names are many because His attributes are many and His perfection is multifaceted; each of His names is indicative of an attribute of perfection.

﴿Are we to prostrate to whatever you command us?﴾ That is, just because you tell us to do that. This attitude was based on their rejection of the Messenger (ﷺ) and their being too arrogant to obey him ﴿and it﴾ namely the call to prostrate to the Most Gracious ﴿increases them in aversion﴾, so that they flee from truth to falsehood and increase in disbelief and wretchedness.

﴿نَبَارَكَ الَّذِي جَعَلَ فِي السَّمَاءِ بُرُوجًا وَجَعَلَ فِيهَا سِرَاجًا وَقَمَرًا مُنِيرًا ۚ وَهُوَ الَّذِي جَعَلَ اللَّيْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ خِلْفَةً لِّمَنۢ أَرَادَ أَن يَذَّكَّرَ أَوْ أَرَادَ شُكُورًا﴾ (سورة الفرقان: ٦١-٦٢)

25:61. Blessed be He Who has placed big stars in the heaven, and has placed therein a lamp [the sun] and a luminous moon.

25:62. It is He Who causes the night and the day to succeed one another, for whoever wishes to reflect or give thanks.

In this soorah, Allah (ﷻ) repeats three times the phrase ﴿Blessed be He﴾, because its meaning, as mentioned above, is that it is <sup>5</sup> The polytheists of Quraysh objected when they heard the Prophet (ﷺ) saying: O Allah, O Most Gracious (Yâ Allâh, yâ Rahmân). They said: Muhammad enjoins us to call upon One God at the time when he is calling upon two! So this verse was revealed to clarify that there is only One God, to Whom belong the most beautiful names and sublime attributes.

indicative of the greatness of the Creator, His many attributes and His abundant kindness and generosity. This soorah points to His greatness, the vastness of His domain, the doing of His will, the all-encompassing nature of His knowledge and might, and the perfect nature of His wisdom. It is indicative of the vastness of His mercy, His great generosity, and His many kindnesses, both spiritual and worldly, which dictate that this beautiful phrase be repeated. Hence Allah says:

﴿Blessed be He Who has placed big stars in the heaven﴾ this refers to the stars in general. They are regarded as being like towers (the word burooj, translated here as ﴿big stars﴾, also means towers) and fortresses that guard cities; the big stars are like towers that are set up to guard the heaven, as missiles are hurled from them at the devils. ﴿and has placed therein a lamp﴾ giving light and heat, namely the sun ﴿and a luminous moon﴾ in which there is light, but no heat. This is one of the signs of His greatness and abundant generosity, because what there is in the heaven of dazzling creation, precise order and immense beauty are indicative of the greatness of their Creator in all His attributes, and what there is in the heaven of benefits for people is indicative of His immense generosity.

﴿It is He Who causes the night and the day to succeed one another﴾ that is, one departs and is replaced by the other, and so on. They never meet and they are never both absent.

﴿for whoever wishes to reflect or give thanks﴾ that is, for whoever wants to reflect upon them and learn lessons, and to take them as evidence for many divine aims and purposes, and to give thanks to Allah for that; and for whoever wants to remember Allah and give thanks to Him, and who has a portion (wird) to recite by night or day, and if he misses reciting his regular portion for one of them, he can catch up in the other. Moreover, people's moods alter and change throughout the hours of the night and day. So they may feel energetic or feel tired, be mindful or be heedless, sometimes under stress and sometimes at ease, sometimes focusing in worship and sometimes distracted. So Allah has caused night and day to come consecutively to people, over and over again, so as to create in them mindfulness, energy and gratitude towards Allah at some times. Because dhikr and acts of worship are to be repeated as night and day are repeated, the more times they are repeated, the more this will renew the individual's energy, after a period of laziness, so he will remember Allah more and show more gratitude. Acts of worship are like irrigation and nourishment for faith; were it not for that, the plant of faith would wither. To Allah be all praise.

Then Allah tells us that part of His great generosity and grace towards His righteous slaves is that He guides them to do righteous deeds by which they attain lofty status in paradise, as He says:

﴿وَعِبَادُ الرَّحْمَنِ الَّذِينَ يَمْشُونَ عَلَى الْأَرْضِ هَوْنًا وَإِذَا خَاطَبَهُمُ الْجَاهِلُونَ قَالُوا سَلَامًا ۝ وَالَّذِينَ يَبِيتُونَ لِرَبِّهِمْ سُجَّدًا وَقِيَامًا ۝ وَالَّذِينَ يَقُولُونَ رَبَّنَا اصْرِفْ عَنَّا عَذَابَ جَهَنَّمَ إِنَّ عَذَابَهَا كَانَ غَرَامًا ۝ إِنَّهَا سَاءَتْ مُسْتَقَرًّا وَمُقَامًا ۝ وَالَّذِينَ إِذَا أَنْفَقُوا لَمْ يُسْرِفُوا وَلَمْ يَقْتُرُوا وَكَانَ بَيْنَ ذَلِكَ قَوَامًا ۝ وَالَّذِينَ لَا يَدْعُونَ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ وَلَا يَقْتُلُونَ النَّفْسَ الَّتِي حَرَّمَ اللَّهُ إِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ وَلَا يَزْنُونَ وَمَنْ يَفْعَلْ ذَلِكَ يَلْقَ أَثَامًا ۝ يُضَاعَفْ لَهُ الْعَذَابُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ وَيَخْلُدْ فِيهِ مُهَانًا ۝ إِلَّا مَنْ تَابَ وَآمَنَ وَعَمِلَ عَمَلًا صَالِحًا فَأُولَٰئِكَ يُبَدِّلُ اللَّهُ سَيِّئَاتِهِمْ حَسَنَاتٍ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ غَفُورًا رَحِيمًا ۝ وَمَنْ تَابَ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَإِنَّهُ يَتُوبُ إِلَى اللَّهِ مَتَابًا ۝ وَالَّذِينَ لَا يَشْهَدُونَ الزُّورَ وَإِذَا مَرُّوا بِاللَّغْوِ مَرُّوا كِرَامًا ۝ وَالَّذِينَ إِذَا ذُكِّرُوا بِآيَاتِ رَبِّهِمْ لَمْ يَخِرُّوا عَلَيْهَا صُمًّا وَعُمْيَانًا ۝ وَالَّذِينَ يَقُولُونَ رَبَّنَا هَبْ لَنَا مِنْ أَزْوَاجِنَا وَذُرِّيَّاتِنَا قُرَّةَ أَعْيُنٍ وَاجْعَلْ لَنَا لِمُنْفِقِينَ إِمَامًا ۝ أُولَٰئِكَ يُجْزَوْنَ الْغُرَّةَ بِمَا صَبَرُوا

وَلَقَدْ فِيهَا حَاجَةٌ وَسَلَامًا ﴿٧٥﴾ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا حَسَنَتْ مُسْتَقَرًّا وَمُقَامًا
 ﴿٧٦﴾ قُلْ مَا يَعْجُزُا يَكُ رَبِّي لَوْلَا دُعَاؤُكُمْ فَقَدْ كَذَّبْتُمْ فَسَوْفَ يَكُونُ لِزَامًا
 ﴿٧٧﴾ (سورة الفرقان: ٦٣-٧٧)

- 25:63. The true slaves of the Most Gracious are those who walk humbly and with dignity on the earth and, when the ignorant address them, they say words of peace;
- 25:64. those who spend the night prostrating and standing before their Lord;
- 25:65. And who say: Our Lord, avert from us the punishment of hell, for verily its punishment is unrelenting.
- 25:66. Indeed, it is an evil halting-place and an evil abode;<sup>6</sup>
- 25:67. And who, when they spend, are neither extravagant nor stingy, but follow a middle path between the [two];
- 25:68. Those who do not call upon any other god besides Allah; and who do not kill, for that is forbidden by Allah, except in the course of justice; and who do not commit fornication or adultery, for whoever does any of these things will receive the punishment.
- 25:69. The punishment will be doubled for them on the Day of Resurrection, and they will abide therein disgraced forever,
- 25:70. Except those who repent and believe, and do righteous deeds; for them Allah will change their evil deeds into good deeds, for Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.
- 25:71. Whoever repents to Allah and does righteous deeds has truly turned to Allah.
- 25:72. Those who will not witness falsehood<sup>7</sup> and, if they pass by [people engaged in] idle talk, they pass by with dignity;

<sup>6</sup> It is a halting-place for the sinners among the believers; they will be brought forth from it after some time and admitted to paradise. However, for the disbelievers, it will be an eternal abode.

<sup>7</sup> What is meant is that they do not attend gatherings where lies are uttered and sins are committed.

- 25:73. Those who, when they are reminded of the revelations of their Lord, do not turn a deaf ear and a blind eye to them;
- 25:74. And those who say: Our Lord, let our spouses and children be a source of joy for us, and make us good examples for those who fear You;
- 25:75. Those are the ones who will be rewarded with high places in paradise for their patience and steadfastness; they will be met therein with greetings and salutations of peace.
- 25:76. They will abide therein forever, an excellent halting-place and an excellent abode.
- 25:77. Say [O Muhammad, to the disbelievers]: My Lord would not concern Himself with you, were it not for your supplication. But you have rejected the call, so it [punishment] is inevitable.

Servitude to Allah is of two types: the first of which is being subject to His Lordship and His control and care. This includes all of humankind, both Muslims and disbelievers, righteous and evildoers; all of them are slaves under His care and control.

﴿There is no one in the heavens or on earth but he will come to the Most Gracious as a slave.﴾ (Maryam 19: 93)

The second type is the servitude of those who are His slaves in the sense that they worship Him alone and are subject to His mercy. This is the servitude of His Prophets and close friends, and this is what is meant here. Hence Allah connected it to His name the Most Gracious, so as to indicate that they only attained this state because of His grace and mercy. So He states that their attributes and characteristics are the best and most perfect of attributes and characteristics, and He describes them as ﴿those who walk humbly and with dignity on the earth﴾ that is, they are humble towards Allah and towards His creation. Thus they are described as dignified, tranquil and humble towards Allah and towards His slaves.

﴿and, when the ignorant address them﴾ in an ignorant manner
 ﴿they say words of peace﴾ that is, they respond to them in such a manner that they are safe from sin and avoid responding to ignorance with ignorance. This is praise for their great forbearing, responding to evil with something better, pardoning the one who is ignorant, and thinking in a mature manner that enabled them to achieve that.

﴿those who spend the night prostrating and standing before their Lord﴾ that is, they pray a great deal at night, showing sincere devotion towards their Lord and humbling themselves before Him. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Who forsake their beds,<sup>8</sup> calling upon their Lord with fear and hope, and spend out of what We have provided for them. No soul knows what is kept hidden in store for them of delight as a reward for what they used to do.﴾ (as-Sajdah 32: 16-17)

﴿And who say: Our Lord, avert from us the punishment of hell﴾ that is, ward it off from us by keeping us away from that which leads to it, and forgiving us for what we did of deeds that may incur the punishment

﴿for verily its punishment is unrelenting﴾ that is, ongoing.

﴿Indeed, it is an evil halting-place and an evil abode﴾ this is a supplication from them by way of beseeching their Lord and expressing how great their need for Him is, for it is not in their power to withstand this punishment. That is so that they may remember the blessings of Allah to them, because diverting hardship will have a great impact and cause great joy, commensurate with the degree of the hardship that was diverted.

﴿And who, when they spend﴾, whether that spending is obligatory or recommended

﴿are neither extravagant﴾ by spending more than is necessary, so that they come under the heading of those who spend to excess

---

<sup>8</sup> This refers to staying awake to offer voluntary prayers during the night.

﴿nor stingy﴾ so that they come under the heading of miserliness, covetousness and neglecting people's rights and dues
 ﴿but﴾ in their spending ﴿follow a middle path﴾ between the extremes of extravagance and miserliness, so they spend on that which is obligatory, such as zakāh, expiation and other obligations, and they spend on what is appropriate, in an appropriate manner, without causing harm to themselves or others. This is part of their just and moderate character.

﴿Those who do not call upon any other god besides Allah﴾; rather they worship Him alone, devoting their worship solely to Him as true monotheists, turning to Him alone and turning away from all others.

﴿and who do not kill, for that is forbidden by Allah﴾ – this refers to killing Muslims and disbelievers who have covenants with the Muslims

﴿except in the course of justice﴾ such as execution of murderers and previously married adulterers, and disbelievers whom it is permissible to kill (in the case of war)

﴿and who do not commit fornication or adultery﴾; rather they restrain their carnal desires:

﴿Except with their wives or any slave women they may own...﴾
 (al-Mu'minoon 23: 6)

﴿for whoever does any of these things﴾ that is, ascribing partners to Allah, killing unlawfully any soul that Allah has forbidden, or committing fornication or adultery, ﴿will receive the punishment﴾.

Then Allah explains that further:

﴿The punishment will be doubled for them on the Day of Resurrection, and they will abide therein﴾ that is, in the punishment, ﴿disgraced forever﴾. The warning of eternal punishment is addressed to the one who does all three; that is confirmed and is inevitable; the same also applies to the one who ascribes partners to Allah. The warning of severe punishment is for each of these three sins, because it is either an ascription of partners to Allah or it is a major sin.

With regard to the murderer and the fornicator or adulterer, he will not be subject to eternal punishment, because the texts of the Qur'an and the Prophet's Sunnah indicate that all the believers will be brought forth from hell, and no believer will abide therein forever, no matter what sins he commits. Allah mentions these three, because these are the worst of major sins. Ascribing partners to Him leads to destruction of religious commitment, murder destroys bodies and adultery destroys honour.

«Except those who repent» from these sins and others, by giving them up immediately, regretting what has been done in the past and firmly resolving not to do that again

«and believe» in Allah, with sound faith, which requires one to give up sin and do acts of obedience

«and do righteous deeds» that are enjoined by the Lawgiver, seeking thereby the pleasure of Allah.

«for them Allah will change their evil deeds into good deeds» that is, He will change their words and deeds, that would have been bad, into good words and deeds. So their ascription of partners to Allah is changed into sound faith, and their disobedience into obedience, and what they committed of bad deeds in the past, then repented sincerely from every one of them, in obedience to Allah, will be turned into good deeds, as is the apparent meaning of the verse.

Concerning that there is a hadith that speaks of the man whom Allah brought to account for some of his sins, and He enumerated them to him, then He replaced each bad deed with a good deed, so he said:

«O Lord, I have some bad deeds that I do not see here.» (A sound hadith recorded by at-Tirmidhi)<sup>9</sup>

---

<sup>9</sup> All hadiths in this text have been checked and verified by IIPH's researchers. It is rare, but it does happen that a hadith is not verifiable within the timeframe of researching and editing the book. In that case, =

And Allah knows best.

«for Allah is Oft-Forgiving» to the one who repents, and He forgives great sins

«Most Merciful» towards His slaves, as He calls them to repent after they challenged Him by committing major sins, then He guided them and enabled them to repent, then He accepted it from them.

«Whoever repents to Allah and does righteous deeds has truly turned to Allah» that is, he should know that his repentance is the most perfect thing he could do, because it is coming back to the path that leads to Allah, which is the essence of a person's happiness and success. So let him be sincere in his repentance, and let him purify it from any contamination of bad intentions.

The point here is to urge the individual to make his repentance perfect and do it in the best manner, so that when he comes to the One to Whom he repented, Allah will give him a reward in full, commensurate with the perfection of his repentance.

«Those who will not witness falsehood» that is, they do not attend when false talk is occurring, namely unlawful words and deeds. So they avoid all gatherings in which there is unlawful talk or unlawful deeds, such as speaking scornfully about the revelations of Allah, arguing on the basis of falsehood, backbiting, spreading malicious gossip, insulting, slander, ridiculing, unlawful music, drinking alcohol, silk furnishings, images and the like. If they do not witness falsehood, it is even more appropriate that they should not say or do anything that constitutes falsehood.

---

= a decision is made by the editorial board as to whether or not to include the hadith. It is IIPH's policy not to include weak hadiths or fabricated (fake) hadiths in our publications. If a weak hadith is included in any text, it is only because the author of the book discusses it as a weak hadith. (Editor)

If they do not witness falsehood, they will not speak falsehood, which includes giving false testimony.

﴿and, if they pass by [people engaged in] idle talk﴾ this refers to talk in which there is nothing good and no benefit, whether spiritual or worldly, such as the speech of fools and the like

﴿they pass by with dignity﴾ that is, they respect themselves too much to indulge in such things, and they regard indulging in it – even if there is no sin involved – as foolishness and contrary to dignity, so they stay away from it in order to preserve their dignity.

The phrase ﴿and, if they pass by [people engaged in] idle talk﴾ indicates that they did not intend to be present or listen to it; rather that happened by coincidence, without any intention on their part. So they honour themselves by keeping away from it.

﴿Those who, when they are reminded of the revelations of their Lord﴾ that they are instructed to listen to attentively and be guided by ﴿do not turn a deaf ear and a blind eye to them﴾ that is, they do not respond by turning away from them and turning a deaf ear to them, or turning away their eyes and hearts from it, as those who do not believe in it do. Rather their reaction to it, when they hear it, is as Allah (ﷻ) describes elsewhere:

﴿Only those believe in Our revelations who, when they are reminded of them, fall down in prostration, and glorify and praise their Lord, and they are not arrogant.﴾ (as-Sajdah 32: 15)

They respond by accepting it, showing their need for it and submitting to it.

You will find that they listen attentively, contemplate the meanings in their hearts, and increase in faith and certainty thereby; they are energised by it and they rejoice greatly in it.

﴿And those who say: Our Lord, let our spouses﴾ – the word translated here as ﴿spouses﴾ may include friends and companions, as well as spouses

﴿and children be a source of joy for us﴾ that is, a delight to us.

If we examine the situation of such people, we will realise that, as they have high ambitions and high status, they will not settle until they see their spouses and children obeying their Lord, having knowledge and acting on the basis thereof. As they pray for their spouses and children to follow the path of righteousness, they are, in a way, praying for themselves because the benefit of that comes back to them. Hence they regard that as a gift to them, as is reflected in the original Arabic, where the phrase translated as ﴿let our spouses and children be a source of joy for us﴾ carries the connotation of a gift that is given. Indeed their supplication will be of benefit to all the Muslims, for if those mentioned are righteous, many more will be righteous because of their connection to them, and they will benefit from them.

﴿and make us good examples for those who fear You﴾ that is, help us to attain that high status, the status of those who are strong and true in faith, and those of the righteous slaves of Allah who are perfect. This is the status of leadership in terms of religion, so that they will be a good example to those who fear Allah in their words and deeds, and they will be people whose example is followed and whose words people trust, so that good people follow them and thus they are guided and guide others. It is well known that supplication to attain something is also supplication for that means without which it cannot be attained. This status – the status of leadership in religion – can only be attained by means of patience and certain faith, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿We made some of them leaders, guiding people by Our command, because they were patient and steadfast, and they believed with certainty in Our revelations.﴾ (as-Sajdah 32: 24)

This requires a great deal of effort and patience in obeying Allah and in refraining from disobedience to Him, accepting His decree even when it is painful, and acquiring perfect knowledge that will bring one to the level of certain faith.

Therefore – because their ambitions and goals were high – the reward matches the nature of the deeds, so Allah will reward them with lofty and high places, as He says:

﴿Those are the ones who will be rewarded with high places in paradise for their patience and steadfastness﴾ that is, lofty places and beautiful dwellings, containing all that one could desire and that could delight the eye, and they will attain that because of their patience and steadfastness, as Allah says elsewhere:

﴿...Angels will enter unto them from every gate [saying]: Peace be upon you because you patiently persevered. How excellent is the ultimate end!﴾ (ar-Ra'd 13: 23-24)

Hence He says here: ﴿they will be met therein with greetings and salutations of peace﴾ from their Lord, and from His noble angels, and from one another, and they will be safe from all that could spoil their joy.

Thus Allah describes them as being dignified, tranquil, humble towards Him and His slaves, well mannered, forbearing, and easy-going; they overlook the ignorant and turn away from them, responding to their bad treatment with good treatment; they pray qiyām (voluntary prayers at night), with complete sincerity; they fear the fire and beseech their Lord to save them from it; they spend what is obligatory and what is encouraged, and are moderate in spending, and if they are moderate in spending – when people usually go to extremes in this matter, either spending too much or too little – then it is more likely that they will be moderate in other matters. They are free of major sins and are described as being sincere in their worship of Allah; they refrain from harming people physically or impugning their honour, and they repent if they do any such thing. They do not attend gatherings in which there are immoral and evil words or deeds, and they do not do such things themselves; they protect themselves from idle talk and bad deeds in which there is no good. This is indicative of their dignity, humanity, perfection and rising above vile words or deeds. They respond to the revelations of Allah by accepting them, understanding their meanings, acting upon them and striving hard to implement their rulings. They call upon Allah (ﷻ) with the most perfect of supplications, from which they and those who are connected to them benefit, as do the Muslims at large, such as praying that their spouses and offspring will be righteous. This implies that they strive to teach them, exhort them and advise them, because the one who is keen to attain something and prays to Allah for it, should take measures to attain it. They pray to Allah to enable them to reach the highest possible level, which is the level of leadership and being strong and true in faith (siddeeq). How sublime are these attributes; how noble are these aims and goals; how pure are these hearts and souls; and how pious are these leaders! Allah bestowed His grace, blessings and mercy upon them so that they were able to attain that status. It is a blessing from Allah to His slaves that He highlighted their attributes, described their manners and ambitions, and mentioned their reward, so that people may long to attain these attributes and strive hard to do so, and ask the One Who blessed and honoured them, Whose grace reaches all times and places, to guide them as He guided these people, and to bestow His special care upon them, as He did for these people.

O Allah, to You be praise, to You we complain, and You are the One Whose help we seek. There is no strength and no power except with You, for we have no power to benefit ourselves or ward off harm from ourselves, and we cannot do even an atom's weight of good unless You make it easy for us; verily we are weak and incapable in all ways.

We bear witness that if you left us to our own devices for even the blink of an eye, You would have left us to our weakness, helplessness and sin. Our Lord, we can only put our trust in Your mercy, by which You created us, granted us provision and bestowed blessings upon us both visible and hidden, and You warded off hardship from us. So have mercy on us, mercy that will suffice us so that we have no need of the mercy of anyone else, for the one who asks of You and puts his hope in You will never be disappointed.

As Allah (ﷻ) encompasses all of these people in His mercy and singles them out to be His slaves, because of their honour and virtue, perhaps someone may wonder why others are not included as being His slaves? The answer is, as Allah tells us, that He would not care for anyone other than these, for were it not for your calling upon Him, with the supplication of worship and the supplication of asking, He would not care about you or love you, as He says: ﴿Say [O Muhammad, to the disbelievers]: My Lord would not concern Himself with you, were it not for your supplication. But you have rejected the call, so it [punishment] is inevitable﴾ that is, punishment is inevitable, and Allah will judge between you and His believing slaves.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat al-Furqân.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

26.

Soorat ash-Shu'arâ'

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿طس﴾ ١ تِلْكَ آيَاتُ الْكِتَابِ الْمُبِينِ ٢ لَعَلَّكَ بِنِعْمَةِ رَبِّكَ لَا يَكُونُوا مُؤْمِنِينَ ٣
إِنْ نَشَأْ نُذِرْ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ آيَةً فَظَلَّتْ أَعْيُنُهُمْ لَهَا خَضِيعِينَ ٤ وَمَا يَأْتِيهِمْ مِنْ ذِكْرٍ مِنْ
الرَّحْمَنِ مُحْدَثٍ إِلَّا كَانُوا عَنْهُ مُعْرِضِينَ ٥ فَقَدْ كَذَّبُوا فَسَيَأْتِيهِمْ أَنْبَاءُ مَا كَانُوا يَسْتَهْزِءُونَ
٦ أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا إِلَى الْأَرْضِ كَمْ أَنْبَأْنَا فِيهَا مِنْ كُلِّ زوجٍ كَرِيمٍ ٧ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً وَمَا كَانَ
أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ ٨ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ٩ ﴿سورة الشعراء: ١-٩﴾

26:1. Tâ'. Seen. Meem.<sup>10</sup>

26:2. These are verses of the clear Book.

26:3. Are you [O Prophet] going to destroy yourself with grief because they do not believe?

<sup>10</sup> Groups of letters (al-huroof al-muqatta'ah) appear at the beginning of several soorahs. The most correct scholarly view states that we are required to believe in them as they appear to be, without delving into their meaning, knowledge of which we should leave to Allah. We believe that they were not revealed in vain, and that there is wisdom behind them of which we are not aware.

- 26:4. If We willed, We could send down to them a sign from heaven, at which their heads would be bowed in submission.
- 26:5. No fresh revelation comes to them from the Most Gracious, but they turn away from it.
- 26:6. Thus they denied [the revelation], but soon they will learn the consequences of their ridicule.
- 26:7. Do they not see the earth, and how much We have caused to grow therein of all kinds of beneficial plants?
- 26:8. Verily in that is a sign, yet most of them will not believe.
- 26:9. Verily your Lord is the Almighty, the Most Merciful.

Here the Creator (ﷻ) highlights the greatness of the verses of the clear Book which points to all divine instructions and Islamic teachings, so that there will be no doubt or confusion left for the one who studies it, with regard to what He related of stories or ordained of rulings, because it is so clear and points to the most sublime meanings, and because the rulings are connected to the wisdom behind them and the reasons for them. The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) warned the people by means of it, and guided them by means of it to the straight path. Hence the pious slaves of Allah are guided by it and those who are doomed turn away from it. Therefore he was very sad when they did not believe, because he was so keen to do good and was so sincere towards them.

Hence Allah (ﷻ) said to him: ﴿Are you [O Prophet] going to destroy yourself with grief﴾ that is, ruin yourself and put yourself through so much distress ﴿because they do not believe﴾. In other words: do not do that, and do not let yourself waste away out of regret for them (cf. 35: 8), for guidance is in the Hand of Allah, and you have done what you were required to do of conveying the message. There is no sign better than this clear Qur'an that We could send down, for it is sufficient for the one who truly seeks guidance. Hence Allah says:

«If We willed, We could send down to them a sign» that is, one of the signs that they demanded

«at which their» namely the disbelievers'

«heads would be bowed in submission». But there is no need for that and there is no interest to be served by it, because at that point faith would be of no benefit; rather the faith that is of benefit is belief in the unseen, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

«What are they waiting for, but for the angels to come to them, or for your Lord to come, or for some of the signs of your Lord to come? On the day when some of the signs of your Lord come, no good will it do to a soul to believe then, if it did not believe before or earn some good through its faith...» (al-An'âm 6: 158)

«No fresh revelation comes to them from the Most Gracious» with commands and prohibitions, reminding them of that which will benefit them or harm them,

«but they turn away from it» completely. As they turned away from fresh revelation, which would usually have a greater impact, it was more likely that they would turn away from any other exhortation. That is because there was nothing good in them, and exhortation was to no avail in their case. Hence Allah says:

«Thus they denied [the revelation]» that is, they denied the truth, and that became second nature to them, never changing

«but soon they will learn the consequences of their ridicule» that is, the punishment will befall them and that which they denied will come upon them. For punishment has become inevitable for them.

Allah says, pointing out the type of reflection that may be of benefit:

«Do they not see the earth, and how much We have caused to grow therein of all kinds of beneficial plants?» That is, all kinds of beautiful plants that are of benefit to people

«Verily in that is a sign» that Allah will revive the dead after their death, as He brings to life the earth after it is dead

﴿yet most of them will not believe﴾. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿But most of humankind will not believe, no matter how eagerly you desire it.﴾ (Yoosuf 12: 103)

﴿Verily your Lord is the Almighty﴾ Who has subjugated all creatures, and to Whom the upper and lower realms have submitted ﴿the Most Merciful﴾ Whose mercy encompasses all things, and Whose generosity reaches all living beings; the Almighty Who destroyed the doomed with various punishments, the Most Merciful to the blessed, as He saved them from all evils and calamities.

﴿وَإِذْ نَادَىٰ رَبُّكَ مُوسَىٰ أَنِ أَنْتَ الْقَوْمَ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿١٠﴾ قَوْمَ فِرْعَوْنَ أَلَا يَنْقُوتَ ﴿١١﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ إِنِّي أَخَافُ أَنْ يُكَذِّبُونِ ﴿١٢﴾ وَيَضِيقُ صَدْرِي وَلَا يَنْطَلِقُ لِسَانِي فَأَرْسِلْ إِلَىٰ هَارُونَ ﴿١٣﴾ وَهُمْ عَلَىٰ ذَنْبٍ فَأَخَافُ أَنْ يَقْتُلُونِ ﴿١٤﴾ قَالَ كَلَّا فَادْهَبَا يَتَّبِعُنَا إِنَّنَا مَعَكُم مُّسْتَعِينُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ فَاتَّبَعَ فِرْعَوْنُ فَقُولَا إِنَّا رَسُولُ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٦﴾ أَنْ أَرْسِلَ مَعَنَا بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ ﴿١٧﴾﴾ (سورة الشعراء: ١٠-١٧)

- 26:10. And [remember] when your Lord called Moosâ [saying]: Go to the people who are given to wrongdoing,
- 26:11. The people of Pharaoh; will they not fear [the punishment of Allah]?
- 26:12. Moosâ said: My Lord, I fear that they will reject me
- 26:13. and I will feel distressed, and my speech will not be clear; so send for Hâroon [to help me].
- 26:14. Moreover, they have a charge against me, and I am afraid they will kill me.
- 26:15. Allah said: By no means! Go, both of you, with Our signs; We will be with you, listening.

- 26:16. Go, both of you, to Pharaoh and say: We are Messengers of the Lord of the worlds, 26:17. [sent with the message]: Let the Children of Israel go with us.

Now Allah (ﷻ) returns to the story of Moosâ ('alayhi as-salâm – peace be upon him), which is repeated in the Qur'an in a way that is not done with other stories, because it contains important wisdom and lessons. In this story Allah tells us how Moosâ dealt with the wrongdoers and the believers, and how he was the bringer of a great law, the bringer of the Torah, which is the best of the divinely revealed Books after the Qur'an. Allah says to us: remember the virtuous state of Moosâ at the time when Allah called him, when He spoke to him directly, and appointed him as His Prophet and Messenger, and said: ﴿Go to the people who are given to wrongdoing﴾, who behave arrogantly in the land, looking down on its people, and their leader claims to be divine.

﴿The people of Pharaoh﴾, and say to them, gently and kindly: will they not fear Allah Who created them and granted them provision, and give up what they are following of disbelief?

Moosâ (ﷺ) said apologetically, explaining to his Lord his weaknesses and asking Him for help in bearing this heavy burden: ﴿My Lord, I fear that they will reject me and I will feel distressed, and my speech will not be clear﴾. And he said:

﴿...My Lord, fill my heart with courage and steadfastness, and make my task easy for me; and remove the impediment from my speech, so that they will understand what I say. And appoint for me a helper from my family, Hâroon, my brother.﴾ (Tâ Hâ 20: 25-30)

﴿so send for Hâroon [to help me]﴾. Allah responded to his request and appointed his brother Hâroon as a Prophet as He had appointed him.

﴿...so send him with me as a helper, to reiterate my words...﴾ (al-Qaṣaṣ 28: 34) – that is, send him with me to help me so that they will believe me.

﴿Moreover, they have a charge against me﴾ that is, with regard to the killing of the Egyptian, ﴿and I am afraid they will kill me﴾.

﴿Allah said: By no means!﴾ that is, they will not be able to kill you, for We will give you both power:

﴿...so that they will not be able to harm you. By virtue of Our signs, you two and those who follow you will be triumphant.﴾ (al-Qaṣas 28: 35)

Hence Pharaoh was not able to kill Moosā, even though Moosā opposed him and stood up to him, and regarded his views as foolish and him and his people as misguided.

﴿Go, both of you, with Our signs﴾ that highlight your truthfulness and the soundness of the message you bring

﴿We will be with you, listening﴾, protecting you and caring for you.

﴿Go, both of you, to Pharaoh and say: We are Messengers of the Lord of the worlds﴾ that is, He has sent us to you so that you may believe in Him and in us, and submit to His worship, and proclaim His oneness.

﴿[sent with the message]: Let the Children of Israel go with us﴾ and stop tormenting them; leave them alone so that they may worship their Lord and practise their religion.

﴿قَالَ أَلَمْ تُرَبِّكَ فِينَا وَلِيدًا وَلَبِثْتَ فِينَا مِنْ عُمُرِكَ سِنِينَ ﴿١٨﴾ وَفَعَلْتَ فَعْلَتَكَ الَّتِي
فَعَلْتَ وَأَنْتَ مِنَ الْكَافِرِينَ ﴿١٩﴾ قَالَ فَعَلْنَاهَا إِذَا وَأَنَا مِنَ الضَّالِّينَ ﴿٢٠﴾ فَفَرَرْتُ
مِنْكُمْ لَمَّا خِفْتُكُمْ فَوَهَبَ لِي رَبِّي حُكْمًا وَجَعَلَنِي مِنَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿٢١﴾ وَتِلْكَ نِعْمَةٌ تَمُنُّهَا عَلَيَّ أَنْ
عَبَدْتُ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ ﴿٢٢﴾﴾ (سورة الشعراء: ١٨-٢٢)

- 26:18. Pharaoh said: Did we not bring you up as a child among us, and did you not spend many years of your life among us?
- 26:19. Yet you did the deed you did [the crime of killing a man]; at that time, you were a disbeliever.
- 26:20. Moosâ said: I did it then, when I was in a state of ignorance.
- 26:21. So I fled from you, as I was afraid of you. But [since then] my Lord has granted me wisdom and made me one of the Messengers.
- 26:22. Is this the favour for which you reproach me, that you have enslaved the Children of Israel?

When they came to Pharaoh and said to him what Allah had instructed them to say, Pharaoh did not believe and he did not relent; rather he began to argue with Moosâ.

﴿Pharaoh said: Did we not bring you up as a child among us﴾ that is, have we not been generous towards you, for we raised you from the time you were an infant in your cradle, and that continued for some time.

﴿and did you not spend many years of your life among us? Yet you did the deed you did﴾ – this refers to Moosâ's killing the Egyptian, when one of his people asked him for help against the one who was his enemy, and:

﴿...Moosâ struck him with his fist and killed him...﴾ (al-Qaṣaṣ 28: 15)

﴿at that time, you were a disbeliever﴾ that is, because you were following the same path as us, a path of disbelief. Thus Pharaoh admitted that he was a disbeliever without realising.

Moosâ said: ﴿I did it then, when I was in a state of ignorance﴾ that is, without being a disbeliever; rather that resulted from misguidance and foolishness, but I asked my Lord for forgiveness and He forgave me.

﴿So I fled from you, as I was afraid of you﴾ when you discussed the issue of killing me. So I fled to Madyan and stayed there for several years, then I came to you, for ﴿[since then] my Lord has granted me wisdom and made me one of the Messengers﴾.

Pharaoh's objection to Moosā was the objection of one who is ignorant or is acting in an ignorant manner, because he thought that he could not be a Messenger on the grounds that he had killed someone. But Moosā explained to him that his killing had been a mistake and that he had not intended to kill, and that the grace of Allah (ﷻ) is not to be withheld from anyone, so why do you want to withhold from me that which Allah bestowed upon me of wisdom and His message? All that is left for you, O Pharaoh, to say is: ﴿Did we not bring you up as a child among us﴾, but when examining the matter it becomes clear that it was not a favour that you did (because it resulted from Pharaoh wanting to slaughter all the male Israelite infants). Therefore Moosā said:

﴿Is this the favour for which you reproach me, that you have enslaved the Children of Israel?﴾ That is, are you reminding me of this favour because you persecuted the Israelites and enslaved them, but you saved me from your enslavement and persecution, and you regarded that as a favour to me? But once you examine the matter, it will become clear that in fact you wronged these good people, and you persecuted them and subjected them to hard labour, at the time when Allah saved me from your harm, and at the time when you were harming my people. So what is this favour of which you are reminding me?

﴿قَالَ فِرْعَوْنُ وَمَا رَبُّ الْعَالَمِينَ ۝ قَالَ رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا إِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُوقِنِينَ ۝ قَالَ لِمَنْ حَوْلَهُ أَلَا تَسْمَعُونَ ۝ قَالَ رَبُّكُمْ وَرَبُّ آبَائِكُمُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ۝ قَالَ إِنَّ رَسُولَكُمْ الَّذِي أُرْسِلَ إِلَيْكُمْ لَمَجْنُونٌ ۝ قَالَ رَبُّ الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا﴾

۞ قَالَ لَئِنْ أَخَذْتُ إِلَهًا غَيْرِي لَأَجْعَلَنَّكَ مِنَ الْمَسْجُونِينَ ﴿٢٦﴾ قَالَ
 أُولَوْ جِئْتُكَ بِشَيْءٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٢٧﴾ قَالَ فَأْتِ بِهِ إِنَّ كُنْتَ مِنَ الصّٰدِقِينَ ﴿٢٨﴾ (سورة الشعراء: ٢٣-٣١)

- 26:23. Pharaoh said: And what is the 'Lord of the worlds'?
- 26:24. Moosâ said: The Lord of the heavens and the earth and all that is between them, if you would but be convinced!
- 26:25. Pharaoh said to those around him: Did you hear [what he said]?
- 26:26. Moosâ said: He is your Lord, and the Lord of your forefathers.
- 26:27. Pharaoh said: Indeed your Messenger who has been sent to you is surely insane!
- 26:28. Moosâ said: He is Lord of the east and the west and all that is between them, if you would but understand!
- 26:29. Pharaoh said: If you take any god other than me, I will surely throw you into prison.
- 26:30. Moosâ said: Even if I bring you clear proof?
- 26:31. Pharaoh said: Bring it then, if you are telling the truth!

﴿Pharaoh said: And what is the 'Lord of the worlds'?﴾ This was a denial on his part of his Lord, wrongfully and arrogantly, despite the fact that he was certain of the soundness of that to which Moosâ was calling him.

﴿Moosâ said: The Lord of the heavens and the earth and all that is between them﴾ that is, the One Who created the upper and lower realms, and He controls and cares for them in all ways, and that includes you to whom I am speaking; how can you deny the Creator of all creation, the Originator of the earth and the heavens? ﴿if you would but be convinced!﴾

But Pharaoh said, expressing his amazement to his people: ﴿Did you hear [what he said]?﴾

﴿Moosâ said: He is your Lord, and the Lord of your forefathers﴾ whether you find it strange or not, and whether you react with arrogance or submit.

But Pharaoh said, stubbornly rejecting the truth and insulting the one who brought it: ﴿Indeed your Messenger who has been sent to you is surely insane!﴾ as he is saying something other than that which we follow, and he is differing from us with regard to our path, because what is rational to him and to people of rational thinking who claim that they were not created, or that the heavens and the earth have existed from eternity, without anyone having created them, and that they themselves were created without a creator – according to the view of such people, worshipping a created being that is lacking in all aspects is rational, whereas affirmation of the Lord and Creator of the upper and lower realms, Who bestows blessings both visible and hidden, and calls people to worship Him alone, is insanity. He made this notion appear fair-seeming to his people, and they were foolish and lacking in reason:

﴿Thus he made fools of his people and they obeyed him. They were indeed a rebellious and wicked people.﴾ (az-Zukhruf 43: 54)

Moosâ (ﷺ) said, responding to Pharaoh's rejection and denial of the Lord of the worlds: ﴿He is Lord of the east and the west and all that is between them﴾, of all creation, ﴿if you would but understand!﴾ I have explained to you in a manner that anyone with the least power of rational thinking would be able to understand. So what is the matter with you, that you ignore what I tell you? In that there is an implicit indication that what you accused Moosâ of, namely insanity, is in fact present in you, for you accused the smartest, most rational and most knowledgeable person of being insane, when in fact you are the insane ones, because you denied the Being Whose existence is the most obvious, namely the Creator of the heavens and the earth and all that is between them. If you deny Him, then what do you affirm?

If you are not aware of Him, then of what are you aware? If you do not believe in Him and His signs, then in what – after Allah and His signs – do you believe? By Allah, those who are indeed insane, who are more like animals, are more rational than you, and the grazing animals are more guided than you.

When Moosâ defeated Pharaoh in argument, and he was not able to present a counter argument, he said, threatening Moosâ on the basis of his power: «If you take any god other than me, I will surely throw you into prison». He claimed – may Allah curse him – that he could misguide Moosâ and force him not to take any god other than him. But it was already established that Moosâ and those who were with him had a strong understanding of their beliefs and knew what they were doing.

So Moosâ said to him: «Even if I bring you clear proof?» That is, clear and obvious signs of the truth of the message I have brought, in the form of extraordinary feats.

«Pharaoh said: Bring it then, if you are telling the truth!»

﴿فَأَلْقَى عَصَاهُ فَإِذَا هِيَ ثُعْبَانٌ مُّبِينٌ ۚ وَنَزَعَ يَدَهُ فَإِذَا هِيَ بَيْضَاءُ لِلنَّظِيرِينَ ۚ قَالَ لِلْمَلَأِ حَوْلَهُ إِنَّ هَذَا لَسَاحِرٌ عَلِيمٌ ۖ يُرِيدُ أَنْ يُخْرِجَكُمْ مِنْ أَرْضِكُمْ بِسِحْرِهِ فَمَاذَا تَأْمُرُونَ ۚ﴾
 ﴿قَالُوا أَرْجِهْ وَأَخَاهُ وَأَتَّبِعْ فِي الْمَدَائِنِ حَاشِرِينَ ۚ يَا أَيُّهَا الْمَلَأُ كُلٌّ لِسِحْرِهِ عَلِيمٌ﴾ (سورة الشعراء: ٣٢-٣٧)

- 26:32. So Moosâ threw down his staff, and suddenly it was a serpent, plain for all to see
- 26:33. And he drew forth his hand, and it appeared shining white to all beholders.
- 26:34. Pharaoh said to the chiefs around him: Verily this is a learned magician!

- 26:35. He wants to drive you out of your land with his magic. What then do you advise?
- 26:36. They said: Let him and his brother wait a while, and send heralds to the cities to gather
- 26:37. and bring to you all the learned magicians.

﴿So Moosā threw down his staff, and suddenly it was a serpent﴾ – the word used in the original Arabic refers to a male snake ﴿plain for all to see﴾ that is, obvious to everyone, not an illusion or something made to look like a snake.

﴿And he drew forth his hand﴾ from his collar ﴿and it appeared shining white to all beholders﴾ that is, it shone brightly, with no defect in it that the onlookers could see.

﴿Pharaoh said to the chiefs around him﴾, objecting to the truth and the one who had brought it:

﴿Verily this is a learned magician! He wants to drive you out of your land with his magic﴾. He tried to confuse them because he knew that they were lacking in intellect, so he told them that this was like what the magicians did, because it was well known among them that magicians could do some amazing feats that ordinary people were unable to do. He scared them by saying that this was his aim: by means of this magic he wanted to be able to expel them from their land, so that they would strive and try hard to expose the one who wanted to expel them from their homes.

﴿What then do you advise?﴾ That is, what should we do?

﴿They said: Let him and his brother wait a while﴾ that is, delay them

﴿and send heralds to the cities to gather and bring to you all the learned magicians﴾ that is, send word to all of your cities that are seats of knowledge and places where magic originates, and send people to gather every skilled magician who is knowledgeable about magic, for a magician is to be opposed with magic of the same nature as his magic.

It is by His kindness that Allah showed His slaves the false argument of Pharaoh, who was ignorant and misguided, and led others astray. When he said that what Moosâ had brought was magic, Allah decreed that they should bring together all the skilled magicians, then hold a gathering in the presence of a large number of people, so that the truth might prevail and the people of knowledge and those who were highly skilled in magic might affirm the soundness of the message that Moosâ had brought, and confirm that the miracles he brought were not magic. Pharaoh did that on the advice of his chiefs; he sent heralds to the cities to gather the magicians, and he strove hard for that purpose.

﴿ فَجَمَعَ السَّحَرَةَ لِمِيقَاتِ يَوْمٍ مَّعْلُومٍ ﴾ (٣٨) وَقِيلَ لِلنَّاسِ هَلْ أَنْتُمْ مُجْتَمِعُونَ ﴿٣٩﴾ لَعَلَّنَا نَبْجِ السَّحَرَةَ إِنْ كَانُوا هُمْ الْغَالِبِينَ ﴿٤٠﴾ فَلَمَّا جَاءَ السَّحَرَةُ قَالُوا لِفِرْعَوْنَ أَإِنَّا لَنَأْجُرُكَ إِنْ كُنَّا نَحْنُ الْغَالِبِينَ ﴿٤١﴾ قَالَ نَعَمْ وَإِنَّكُمْ إِذَا لَئِنَ الْمُرْفِقِينَ ﴿٤٢﴾ قَالَ لَهُمْ مُوسَى أَلْقُوا مَا أَنْتُمْ مُلْقُونَ ﴿٤٣﴾ فَأَلْقَوْا حِبَالَهُمْ وَعِصِيَّهُمْ وَقَالُوا بِعِزَّةِ فِرْعَوْنَ إِنَّا لَنَحْنُ الْغَالِبُونَ ﴿٤٤﴾ فَأَلْفَى مُوسَى عَصَاهُ فَإِذَا هِيَ تَلْقَفُ مَا يَأْفِكُونَ ﴿٤٥﴾ فَأَلْفَى السَّحَرَةُ سَجْدِينَ ﴿٤٦﴾ قَالُوا آمَنَّا بِرَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٤٧﴾ رَبِّ مُوسَى وَهَارُونَ ﴿٤٨﴾ قَالَ ءَامَنْتُمْ لَهُ قَبْلَ أَنْ ءَاذَنَ لَكُمْ إِنَّهُ لَكَبِيرُكُمُ الَّذِي عَلَّمَكُمُ السِّحْرَ فَلَسَوْفَ نَعَالِمُونَ ﴿٤٩﴾ لَأَقْطِعَنَّ أَيْدِيَكُمْ وَأَرْجُلَكُمْ مِنْ خِلَافٍ وَلَا أَصْلَئَكُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٥٠﴾ قَالُوا لَا ضَرَرَ إِيَّا إِلَى رَبِّنَا مُنْقَلِبُونَ ﴿٥١﴾ إِنَّا نَطْمَعُ أَنْ يَغْفِرَ لَنَا رَبُّنَا خَطِيئَتَنَا أَنْ كُنَّا أَوَّلَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٥٢﴾ ﴾ (سورة الشعراء: ٣٨-٥١)

26:38. So the magicians were gathered at the appointed time, on a certain day.

26:39. And it was said to the people: Will you also gather,

- 26:40. So that we may follow the magicians [in their religion], if they are the victors?
- 26:41. When the magicians came, they said to Pharaoh: Will we have a reward if we are the victors?
- 26:42. He said: Yes, and then you will surely be among those who are close to me.
- 26:43. Moosâ said to them: Throw whatever you wish to throw.
- 26:44. So they threw their ropes and sticks, and said: By the might of Pharaoh, it is surely we who will be the victors!
- 26:45. Then Moosâ threw his staff, and thereupon it swallowed up all their deceptions.
- 26:46. So the magicians fell down in prostration.
- 26:47. They said: We believe in the Lord of the worlds,
- 26:48. The Lord of Moosâ and Hâroon.
- 26:49. Pharaoh said: How dare you believe him before I give you permission! He must be your master, who taught you magic! But indeed you will soon know the consequences. I will certainly cut off your hands and feet on opposite sides, then I will certainly crucify you all.
- 26:50. They said: No harm;<sup>11</sup> it is to our Lord that we will surely return.
- 26:51. Verily we hope that our Lord will forgive us our sins, as we are the first of the believers.

---

﴿So the magicians were gathered at the appointed time, on a certain day﴾ that they had agreed upon with Moosâ; it was the day of the festival when people were free and were not working.

﴿And it was said to the people: Will you also gather﴾ that is, the call went out to all the people, telling them to gather on that appointed day.

---

<sup>11</sup> Ultimately it would do them no harm, as they would be rewarded immensely for bearing it with patience.

﴿So that we may follow the magicians [in their religion], if they are the victors?﴾ That is, they said to the people: Gather to watch the magicians defeat Moosâ, for they are skilled in their craft, then we will follow them and venerate them, and we will see the virtue of knowledge of magic. If they had been guided to the truth, they would have said: Perhaps we will follow the one who is in the right, and we will know which is the right way to follow. Therefore the contest only served to establish proof against them.

﴿When the magicians came﴾ to Pharaoh, they said to him: ﴿Will we have a reward if we are the victors﴾ over Moosâ?

﴿He said: Yes﴾, you will have a reward ﴿and then you will surely be among those who are close to me﴾. He promised them a reward and closeness to him so as to encourage them to do all that they could in opposing the message that Moosâ had brought.

When they met at the appointed time, they and Moosâ, and the people of Egypt, Moosâ exhorted and reminded them, saying:

﴿...Woe to you! Do not fabricate lies against Allah, lest He annihilate you with His punishment. Those who fabricate such lies are surely lost and doomed.﴾ (Tâ Hâ 20: 61)

They disputed and argued, then Pharaoh encouraged them, and they encouraged one another.

﴿Moosâ said to them: Throw whatever you wish to throw﴾ that is, whatever you think you want to throw, and he did not set any limits, because he was certain that what they had brought for the purpose of opposing the truth was false.

﴿So they threw their ropes and sticks﴾ and they turned into fast-moving snakes, as they bewitched the people's eyes to see that. ﴿and said: By the might of Pharaoh, it is surely we who will be the victors!﴾. They sought help by the might of a weak slave who was incapable in all aspects, but he behaved arrogantly and had the image of a king who had troops; they were deceived by his pomp, and they could not see the reality of the matter. Or it may be that they were swearing by the might of Pharaoh that they would prevail.

«Then Moosâ threw his staff, and thereupon it swallowed up all their deceptions». It swallowed up all that they had thrown of ropes and sticks, because they were fabrications and lies, and all of that is false and that cannot stand up to the truth or resist it.

When the magicians saw this great sign, they were convinced, because they were aware that this was not magic; rather it was one of the signs of Allah and a great miracle that pointed to the sincerity of Moosâ and the truthfulness of the message he brought.

«So the magicians fell down in prostration» to their Lord, «They said: We believe in the Lord of the worlds, the Lord of Moosâ and Hâroon». Thus falsehood was defeated in that gathering, and the leaders of falsehood acknowledged its invalidity; the truth became apparent and prevailed until all the onlookers saw it with their own eyes. But Pharaoh insisted on stubbornness and misguidance, getting carried away therein, so he said to the magicians:

«How dare you believe him before I give you permission!» – He and his people were astounded by their audacity towards him, and their daring to believe without his permission or instructions.

«He must be your master, who taught you magic!» This was despite the fact that he was the one who had brought the magicians together, and his chiefs were the ones who had advised him to bring them together from all the cities. Pharaoh and his chiefs already knew that the magicians had never met Moosâ or seen him before that, and that they had performed magic that had dazzled the onlookers and filled them with awe. Yet despite that, the chiefs accepted what Pharaoh said, even though they themselves were aware that it was not true. It should come as no surprise that people who think in this manner would not believe in the clear truth and clear signs, because if Pharaoh told them that a thing was different from what it really was, they would believe him.

Then Pharaoh threatened the magicians and said: «I will certainly cut off your hands and feet on opposite sides» that is, the right hand and the left foot, as is done to those who spread mischief in the land, «then I will certainly crucify you all» so that you will be disgraced and humiliated.

But the magicians said, when they had tasted the sweetness of faith: «No harm» that is, we do not care what you threaten us with, «it is to our Lord that we will surely return. Verily we hope that our Lord will forgive us our sins» namely disbelief, magic and so on «as we are the first of the believers» that is, the first among these people to believe in Moosâ. So Allah made them steadfast and gave them patience.

It may be that Pharaoh carried out his threat against them because he had the power to do so, or it may be that Allah protected them from him.

Then Pharaoh and his people persisted in their disbelief, and Moosâ continued to bring clear signs to them; every time a sign came and had a great impact on them, they made promises to Moosâ, claiming that if Allah granted them relief, they would believe in him and let the Israelites go with him, but when Allah granted relief, they broke their promise. Then when Moosâ despaired of them ever believing and the punishment became due for them, and the time came for Allah to save the Israelites from their captivity and give them power in the land, Allah inspired Moosâ:

﴿ وَأَوْحَيْنَا إِلَىٰ مُوسَىٰ أَن أَسْرِ بِعِبَادِي إِنَّكَ مُتَّبَعُونَ ﴿٥٢﴾ فَأَرْسَلَ فِرْعَوْنُ فِي الْمَدَائِنِ خَاشِعِينَ ﴿٥٣﴾ إِنَّ هَؤُلَاءِ لَشِرْذِمَةٌ قَلِيلُونَ ﴿٥٤﴾ وَإِنَّهُمْ لَنَا لَغَايُطُونَ ﴿٥٥﴾ وَإِنَّا لَجَمِيعٌ حَادِرُونَ ﴾

﴿٥٦﴾ فَأَخْرَجْنَاهُمْ مِنْ جَنَّاتٍ وَعُيُونٍ ﴿٥٧﴾ وَكُنُوزٍ وَمَقَامٍ كَرِيمٍ ﴿٥٨﴾ كَذَلِكَ وَأَوْرَثْنَاهَا بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ ﴿٥٩﴾ فَاتَّبَعُوهُمْ مُشْرِقِينَ ﴿٦٠﴾ (سورة الشعراء: ٥٢-٦٠)

- 26:52. We inspired Moosâ: Travel by night with My slaves; you will surely be pursued.
- 26:53. So Pharaoh sent heralds to the cities [to mobilise troops],
- 26:54. saying: These are but a small band,
- 26:55. and they have enraged us,
- 26:56. but we are all well-prepared.
- 26:57. Thus did We cause them to leave their gardens and springs,
- 26:58. And their treasures and fine dwellings.
- 26:59. And so it was; and We caused the Children of Israel to inherit such things.
- 26:60. Then [the Egyptians] caught up with them at sunrise.

﴿Travel by night with My slaves﴾ that is, set out with the Israelites at the beginning of the night, so that they may take their time when leaving

﴿you will surely be pursued﴾ that is, Pharaoh and his troops will come after you.

And it happened as Allah said: when morning came, and all the Israelites had already departed with Moosâ at night, ﴿Pharaoh sent heralds to the cities﴾ to rally his people and urge them to capture the Israelites. He said, encouraging his people:

﴿These﴾ namely the Children of Israel ﴿are but a small band, and they have enraged us﴾, and we want to vent our rage on these slaves who have rebelled against us.

﴿but we are all well-prepared﴾ that is, we have all made preparations against them, and they are enemies of us all, and we have a common interest. So Pharaoh and his troops set out with a huge army after a general mobilisation; not one of them stayed behind except those who had excuses and were prevented from going out because they were incapacitated.

«Thus did We cause them to leave their gardens and springs» that is, the superb gardens of Egypt, with their gushing springs and crops that filled their land, that were cultivated by city dwellers and desert dwellers alike.

«And their treasures and fine dwellings» that would amaze and dazzle the onlookers. They had enjoyed them for a long time and had spent their lives enjoying these pleasures and desires, despite their disbelief, stubbornness, arrogance towards others and immense pride.

«And so it was; and We caused the Children of Israel» who they had made their slaves and subjected them to heavy labour «to inherit such things» namely these gardens, springs, crops and fine residences. Glory be to the One Who gives dominion to whomever He will and takes it away from whomever He will; Who raises high whomever He will by virtue of his obedience to Him, and humiliates whomever He will, by virtue of his disobedience towards Him.

«Then [the Egyptians] caught up with them at sunrise» that is, the people of Pharaoh pursued the people of Moosâ at the time of sunrise, and they chased after them with eagerness, out of rage and anger, and they had the power to do them harm.

﴿فَلَمَّا تَرَاهُ الْجَمْعَانِ قَالِ أَصْحَبُ مُوسَىٰ إِنَّا لَمَذْكُورُونَ ﴿٦١﴾ قَالُوا لَا إِن مَعِيَ رَبِّي سَيَهْدِينِ ﴿٦٢﴾ فَأَوْحَيْنَا إِلَىٰ مُوسَىٰ أَنْ أَضْرِبْ بِعَصَاكَ الْبَحْرَ فَانفَلَقَ فَكَانَ كُلُّ فِرْقٍ كَالطَّوْدِ الْعَظِيمِ ﴿٦٣﴾ وَأَزْلَفْنَا نَمُ الْآخَرِينَ ﴿٦٤﴾ وَأَجْمَعْنَا مُوسَىٰ وَمَنْ مَعَهُ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٦٥﴾ ثُمَّ

أَغْرَقْنَا الْآخَرِينَ ﴿٦٦﴾ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً وَمَا كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٦٧﴾ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهُوَ
الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿٦٨﴾ (سورة الشعراء: ٦١-٦٨)

- 26:61. When the two groups came within sight of one another, the companions of Moosâ said: We are sure to be overtaken.
- 26:62. Moosâ said: No indeed! Verily my Lord is with me and He will guide me.
- 26:63. Then We inspired Moosâ: Strike the sea with your staff. So it parted, and every part became like a huge mountain.<sup>12</sup>
- 26:64. We brought the other group closer to that place.
- 26:65. We saved Moosâ and all those who were with him,
- 26:66. Then We drowned the others.
- 26:67. Verily in that is a sign, yet most of them will not believe.
- 26:68. Verily your Lord is the Almighty, the Most Merciful.

«When the two groups came within sight of one another» that is, when each group saw the other

«the companions of Moosâ said», complaining to Moosâ and despairing: «We are sure to be overtaken».

«Moosâ said», reassuring them and telling them of the true promise of his Lord:

«No indeed!» That is, the matter is not as you say, that you will be overtaken, «Verily my Lord is with me and He will guide me» to that which will save me and you.

«Then We inspired Moosâ: Strike the sea with your staff» – so he struck it, and «it parted» into twelve pathways,

<sup>12</sup> The waters parted, opening up twelve dry passages by which the Israelites could cross, and where the parting waters gathered, in each part the water was drawn up and became like a huge mountain.

﴿and every part became like a huge mountain﴾. And Moosâ and his people entered the sea.

﴿We brought the other group﴾ namely Pharaoh and his people; We brought them closer to that place and caused them to enter the pathway that had been taken by Moosâ and his people.

﴿We saved Moosâ and all those who were with him﴾ – they all came out, and not one of them was left behind.

﴿Then We drowned the others﴾ and not one of them was spared.

﴿Verily in that is a sign﴾ that is, a great sign of the truthfulness of the message brought by Moosâ, and the falseness of the path followed by Pharaoh and his people.

﴿yet most of them will not believe﴾ despite these signs that should lead to faith, because of the corruption in their hearts.

﴿Verily your Lord is the Almighty, the Most Merciful﴾; by His might He destroyed the disbelievers who rejected His Messenger, and by His mercy he saved Moosâ and all those who were with him.

﴿وَأَتْلُ عَلَيْهِمْ نَبَأَ إِبْرَاهِيمَ ۖ إِذْ قَالَ لِأَبِيهِ وَقَوْمِهِ مَا تَعْبُدُونَ ۖ قَالُوا نَعْبُدُ أَصْنَامًا فَنَظَلُّ لَهَا عِزِّينَ ۖ قَالَ هَلْ يَسْمَعُونَكُمْ إِذْ تَدْعُونَ ۖ أَوْ يَنْفَعُونَكُمْ أَوْ يَضُرُّونَ ۖ قَالُوا بَلَىٰ وَجَدْنَا آبَاءَنَا كَذَلِكَ يَفْعَلُونَ﴾ (سورة الشعراء: ٦٩-٧٤)

26:69. Recount to them the story of Ibrâheem,

26:70. When he said to his father and his people: What do you worship?

26:71. They said: We worship idols, and we are constantly devoted to them.

26:72. He said: Do they hear you when you call upon them?

26:73. Or can they benefit you or harm you [in any way]?

26:74. They said: No, but this is what we found our fathers doing.

That is, recount to the people, O Muhammad (ﷺ), the story of Ibrâheem. What is meant here is this particular episode in his life, otherwise there are many stories about him, but one of the most important and significant of them is this story that speaks of his message and his call to his people, and how he argued with them and proved to them that what they were following was false.

«When he said to his father and his people: What do you worship? They said», bragging about their worship: «We worship idols» that we make and carve with our own hands, «and we are constantly devoted to them» that is, we spend much of our time worshipping them. Ibrâheem said to them, explaining why those idols were not deserving of worship:

«Do they hear you when you call upon them» and do they respond to your call, relieve you of distress and remove all that harms you?

«Or can they benefit you or harm you [in any way]?» They admitted that none of that was the case, for they cannot hear any supplication, or bring any benefit, or cause any harm. Hence when Ibrâheem broke the idols, he said:

«...Nay, it was this one, the biggest of them, who did it. So ask them, if they can speak!» (al-Anbiyâ' 21: 63)

– and they said to him:

«...You know full well that these [idols] cannot speak.» (al-Anbiyâ' 21: 65)

– that is, that is a fact concerning them that is well-established, and there is no room for confusion or doubt.

So they resorted to following their misguided forefathers, and said: «but this is what we found our fathers doing», so we followed them in that; we followed their path and adhered to their customs.

﴿ قَالَ أَفَرَأَيْتُمْ مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْبُدُونَ ﴿٧٥﴾ أَنْتُمْ وَأَبَاؤُكُمْ الْأَقْدَمُونَ ﴿٧٦﴾ فَإِنَّهُمْ عَدُوٌّ لِّي إِلَّا رَبَّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٧٧﴾ الَّذِي خَلَقَنِي فَهُوَ يَهْدِينِ ﴿٧٨﴾ وَالَّذِي هُوَ يُطْعِمُنِي وَيَسْقِينِ ﴿٧٩﴾ وَإِذَا مَرِضْتُ فَهُوَ يَشْفِينِ ﴿٨٠﴾ وَالَّذِي يُمِيتُنِي ثُمَّ يُحْيِينِ ﴿٨١﴾ وَالَّذِي أَطْمَعُ أَنْ يَغْفِرَ لِي خَطِيئَتِي يَوْمَ الدِّينِ ﴿٨٢﴾ ﴾ (سورة الشعراء: ٧٥-٨٢)

- 26:75. He said: Then do you see those which you have been worshipping, 26:76. you and your forefathers?
 26:77. Verily they are enemies to me, except the Lord of the worlds, 26:78. Who created me, so He guides me,
 26:79. And it is He Who feeds me and gives me to drink.
 26:80. When I am sick He heals me;
 26:81. and He will cause me to die, and then bring me to life again;
 26:82. and I hope that He will forgive me my sins on the Day of Judgement.

Ibrâheem said to them: You and your fathers are all on the opposing side concerning this matter. ﴿Then do you see those which you have been worshipping, you and your forefathers? Verily they are enemies to me﴾ so let them do me the least harm, and let them scheme against me, for they are not able to do anything.

﴿except the Lord of the worlds, Who created me, so He guides me﴾, for He is the only One Who bestows blessings upon people and guides them to that which is in their best interests in both spiritual and worldly terms; then he singled out for mention some necessities of life, as he said: ﴿And it is He Who feeds me and gives me to drink. When I am sick He heals me; and He will cause me to die, and then bring me to life again; and I hope that He will forgive me my sins on the Day of Judgement﴾.

For He alone is able to do that, so He alone must be singled out for worship and obedience, and these idols should be shunned that do not create, guide, cause sickness, heal, feed, give to drink, cause death, give life, or benefit their worshippers by relieving their distress or forgiving their sins.

This is definitive evidence and clear proof that neither you nor your fathers can refute. This indicates that you are all misguided and have all forsaken the path of right guidance. Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿His people argued with him. He said: Are you arguing with me about Allah, when He has guided me? I do not fear any partner you may ascribe to Him, unless my Lord wills [that harm should reach me]. My Lord encompasses all things in His knowledge. Will you not then pay heed?﴾ (al-An'ām 6: 80)

﴿رَبِّ هَبْ لِي مُكَامًا وَالتَّحِقِّنِي بِالصَّالِحِينَ ﴿٨٣﴾ وَاجْعَلْ لِي لِسَانَ صِدْقٍ فِي الْآخِرِينَ ﴿٨٤﴾ وَاجْعَلْنِي مِنْ وَرَثَةِ جَنَّةِ النَّعِيمِ ﴿٨٥﴾﴾ (سورة الشعراء: ٨٣-٨٥)

26:83. My Lord, grant me knowledge and wisdom, and join me with the righteous, 26:84. and grant me an honourable renown among the later nations.

26:85. Make me one of the inheritors of the garden of bliss.

Then Ibrâheem (ﷺ) called upon his Lord, saying: ﴿My Lord, grant me knowledge and wisdom﴾ that is, a great deal of knowledge, by means of which I may know rulings and what is lawful and what is prohibited, and I may be able to judge between people.

﴿and join me with the righteous﴾ – this refers to his fellow Prophets and Messengers.

﴿and grant me an honourable renown among the later nations﴾ that is, grant that I may be truly praised until the end of time. And Allah answered his prayer: He granted him knowledge and wisdom by virtue of which he became one of the best of the Messengers, and He joined him with his fellow Messengers, and He made him beloved, accepted, venerated and praised among the followers of all religions, at all times.

﴿Make me one of the inheritors of the garden of bliss﴾ that is, one of the people of paradise, to whom Allah gives it as an inheritance. Allah answered his prayer and raised him in status in the gardens of bliss.

﴿وَأَغْفِرْ لِي إِنَّهُ كَانَ مِنَ الضَّالِّينَ﴾ ٨٦ ﴿وَلَا تُخْزِنِي يَوْمَ يُبْعَثُونَ﴾ ٨٧ ﴿يَوْمَ لَا يَنْفَعُ مَالٌ وَلَا بَنُونَ﴾ ٨٨ ﴿إِلَّا مَنْ أَتَى اللَّهَ بِقَلْبٍ سَلِيمٍ﴾ ٨٩ (سورة الشعراء: ٨٦-٨٩)

26:86. Forgive my father, for he is one of those who have gone astray.

26:87. And do not disgrace me on the day when [all creatures] are resurrected, 26:88. the day when neither wealth nor sons will be of any avail,

26:89. but only he who comes to Allah with a pure heart [will be saved].

﴿Forgive my father, for he is one of those who have gone astray﴾. This supplication was because of a promise that Ibrâheem had made to his father:

﴿...I will pray to my Lord to forgive you, for indeed He has always been very kind to me.﴾ (Maryam 19: 47)

But Allah (ﷻ) said:

﴿Ibrâheem's prayer for his father's forgiveness was only because of a promise he had made to him. But when it became clear to him that he was an enemy to Allah, he disavowed him. Verily, Ibrâheem was humble in supplication, forbearing.﴾ (at-Tawbah 9: 114)

﴿And do not disgrace me on the day when [all creatures] are resurrected﴾ that is, by rebuking me for some sins, or punishing me or exposing me because of them. Rather bless me on that day, on which ﴿neither wealth nor sons will be of any avail, but only he who comes to Allah with a pure heart [will be saved]﴾. For this is what will benefit him before You, and this is what will save him from punishment and make him deserve the great reward.

What is meant by the pure heart is that which is free of polytheism, doubt, love of evil, and persisting in innovation and sin. What is implied by being free of these things is that it possesses the opposite, namely sincerity to Allah alone, knowledge, certain faith, love of good and the inclination towards good; this means that what he wants and loves is in accordance with what Allah loves, and his whims and desires are in accordance with the teachings of Allah's religion.

﴿وَأُزْلِفَتِ الْجَنَّةُ لِلْمُتَّقِينَ ﴿٩٠﴾ وَبُرِزَتِ الْجَحِيمُ لِلْغَاوِينَ ﴿٩١﴾ وَقِيلَ لَهُمْ إِنَّمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْبُدُونَ ﴿٩٢﴾ مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ هَلْ يَنْصُرُونَكُمْ أَوْ يَنْصُرُونَ ﴿٩٣﴾ فَكَبَّوْا فِيهَا هُمْ وَالْغَاوُونَ ﴿٩٤﴾ وَخُنُودٌ ﴿٩٥﴾ إِبْلِيسَ أَجْمَعُونَ ﴿٩٦﴾﴾ (سورة الشعراء: ٩٥-٩٠)

26:90. [On that day] paradise will be brought within sight of the righteous, 26:91. And hell will be placed in full view of those who went astray.

26:92. It will be said to them: Where are those whom you used to worship

26:93. besides Allah? Can they help you or even help themselves?

26:94. Then they will be thrown headlong into hell, both they [the false gods] and those who went astray, 26:95. And the followers of Iblees, all together.

Then Allah tells us about the nature of that momentous day, and what will occur on it of reward and punishment:

«paradise will be brought within sight of» that is, it will be brought near to «the righteous», those who feared their Lord, complied with His commands, heeded His prohibitions, and feared His wrath and punishment.

«And hell will be placed in full view of» that is, it will be brought forth, with all the punishments that have been prepared therein for «those who went astray» that is, those who indulged in acts of disobedience towards Allah, transgressed His sacred limits, and rejected His Messengers and the message of truth that they brought.

«It will be said to them: Where are those whom you used to worship besides Allah? Can they help you or even help themselves?» In other words, none of that can happen, and their lies and disgrace will become apparent. Their loss and scandal will become obvious and their regret will become clear, for their efforts will be wasted.

«Then they will be thrown headlong into hell, both they [the false gods] and those who went astray» that is, both those that were worshipped and those who worshipped them.

«And the followers of Iblees, all together» – this refers to the humans and jinn whom he incited to commit sin and gained power over them because of their ascription of partners to Allah and their lack of faith. Thus they became among his promoters who strove to please him; those followers of Iblees are divided among those who call people to obey him, those who respond to the call, and those who imitate them in their ascription of partners to Allah.

﴿قَالُوا وَهُمْ فِيهَا يَخْتَصِمُونَ﴾ ٩٦ تَاللَّهِ إِن كُنَّا لَفِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٩٧﴾ إِذْ نُسَوِّكُمْ بِرَبِّ
 الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٩٨﴾ وَمَا أَضَلَّنَا إِلَّا الْأَلْمُجْرَمُونَ ﴿٩٩﴾ فَمَا لَنَا مِنْ شَافِعِينَ ﴿١٠٠﴾ وَلَا صَدِيقٍ حَمِيمٍ ﴿١٠١﴾
 فَلَوْ أَن لَّنَا كَرَّةٌ فَنَكُونُ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٠٢﴾ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً وَمَا كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُّؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٠٣﴾ وَإِنَّ
 رَبَّكَ لَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿١٠٤﴾ (سورة الشعراء: ٩٦-١٠٤)

- 26:96. And they will say, when they are quarrelling therein:
 26:97. By Allah, we were clearly misguided
 26:98. when we deemed you equal to the Lord of the worlds.
 26:99. No one but the evildoers led us astray.
 26:100. Now we have no one to intercede for us
 26:101. and no caring friend.
 26:102. If only we had one more chance, we would be among the believers.
 26:103. Verily in that is a sign, yet most of them will not believe.
 26:104. Verily your Lord is the Almighty, the Most Merciful.

﴿And they﴾ namely the misguided troops of Iblees
 ﴿will say﴾ to the idols and images that they worshipped:
 ﴿By Allah, we were clearly misguided when we deemed you equal to the Lord of the worlds﴾ in terms of worship and love, fear and hope, and we called upon you as we called upon Him. At that time it will become clear to them that they were misguided, and they will acknowledge that Allah is just in punishing them, and that it is appropriate, for they did not regard them as equal to the Lord of the worlds except in terms of worship; they did not regard them as His equals in terms of creation, based on the fact that they will mention ﴿the Lord of the worlds﴾; they will affirm that Allah is the Lord of all the worlds, including their idols and images.

«No one but the evildoers» namely the leaders who called them to the fire «led us astray» from the path of true guidance and called us to the path of misguidance and rebellion.

«Now» – on that day – «we have no one to intercede for us» and save us from Allah's punishment

«and no caring friend» that is, no sincere friend who can help us in any way, as usually happens in this world.

So they will despair of all good and will lose all hope because of what they did, and they will wish to go back to this world so that they might do righteous deeds: «If only we had one more chance» to go back once more to the previous world,

«we would be among the believers» so that we would be safe from the punishment and we would deserve reward. But there is no way that this could happen; they will have been prevented from what they desire and they will have no chance to redeem themselves.

«Verily in that» which we have mentioned and described to you «is a sign» for you «yet most of them will not believe» despite the sending down of these signs.

﴿كَذَّبَتْ قَوْمُ نُوحٍ الْمُرْسَلِينَ﴾ (١٠٥) إِذْ قَالَ لَهُمْ أَخُوهُمْ نُوحٌ أَلَا تَتَّقُونَ ﴿١٠٦﴾ إِنِّي لَكُمْ رَسُولٌ أَمِينٌ ﴿١٠٧﴾ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا ﴿١٠٨﴾ وَمَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ أَجْرٍ إِنْ أَجْرِيَ إِلَّا عَلَى رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٠٩﴾ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا ﴿١١٠﴾ (سورة الشعراء: ١٠٥-١١٠)

26:105. The people of Nooh rejected the Messengers.

26:106. When their brother Nooh said to them: Will you not fear Allah?

26:107. Verily I am a faithful Messenger to you.

26:108. So fear Allah, and obey me.

26:109. I do not ask you for any recompense for this; my reward is only with the Lord of the worlds.

26:110. So fear Allah, and obey me.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us the story of how the people of Nooh rejected their Messenger Nooh, and how he responded to them and they responded to him, and the outcome for all of them.

«The people of Nooh rejected the Messengers» that is, they rejected all the Messengers. Rejecting Nooh is regarded as being like rejecting all of the Messengers, because they all brought the same message and the same beliefs, so rejecting one of them is like rejecting all that they brought of truth. They rejected him «When their brother» in lineage

«Nooh said to them» – Allah sent the Messengers from the same tribe or clan as that to whom He sent them, lest they be reluctant to submit to him, and because they would know his real character, so they would not need to ask and find out about him. Nooh said to them – addressing them in the kindest manner – as was the way of all the Messengers, may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon them all: «Will you not fear Allah» and give up what you are persisting in of worshipping idols, and devote your worship to Allah alone?

«Verily I am a faithful Messenger to you». The fact that he had been sent as a Messenger to them in particular should have made them accept the message with which he was sent to them and believe in him, and give thanks to Allah (ﷻ) for bestowing the blessing of this noble Messenger exclusively upon them. The fact that he was faithful and trustworthy implied that he would not fabricate lies against Allah, or add anything to or take anything away from His revelation, and that should have made them believe in what he told them and obey what he instructed them to do.

«So fear Allah, and obey me» in what I instruct you to do and forbid you to do. This is what is implied by his being a Messenger to them and by his being faithful and trustworthy. Therefore this sentence opens with the particle fa (translated here as «so»), which indicates the reason for that. The reason why they should do that is mentioned, then Nooh stated that there was no impediment to them doing so, as he said:

«I do not ask you for any recompense for this» so I am not imposing any burden on you

«my reward is only with the Lord of the worlds» and I hope thereby to draw close to Him and attain a great reward. All I hope for with regard to you is that I may be able to give you sincere advice, and that you will follow the straight path.

«So fear Allah, and obey me». He repeated these words because he repeated the call to his people. Nooh stayed among them for a long time, as Allah tells us elsewhere:

«...and he remained among them for a thousand years less fifty...»
(al-'Ankaboot 29: 14)

– and:

«Nooh said: My Lord, I have been calling my people night and day, but my call has only driven them further away.» (Nooh 71: 5-6)

﴿ قَالُوا أَنْزِلْ لَنَا آيَةً ﴾ ١١٢ ﴿ قَالُوا وَمَا عَلَيْنَا بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴾ ١١٣ ﴿ قَالُوا إِنَّا لَا نَنْبِرُ مُبِينٍ ﴾ ١١٤ ﴿ وَمَا أَنَا بِطَارِدِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴾ ١١٥ ﴿ قَالُوا لَيْنَ لَمْ تَنْتَهِ يَنْتُحَ لَتَكُونَنَّ مِنَ الْمَرْجُومِينَ ﴾ ١١٦ ﴿ قَالَ رَبِّ إِنِّي قَوْمٌ كَاذِبُونَ ﴾ ١١٧ ﴿ فَافْتَحْ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَهُمْ فَتْحًا وَنَجِّنِي وَمَنْ مَعِيَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴾ ١١٨ ﴿ فَانجَيْنَاهُ وَمَنْ مَعَهُ ﴾ ١١٩ ﴿ فِي الْفُلِّ الْمَشْحُونِ ﴾ ١٢٠ ﴿ ثُمَّ أَغْرَقْنَا بَعْدَ الْبَاقِينَ ﴾ ١٢١ ﴿ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً وَمَا كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴾ ١٢٢ ﴿ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴾ ١٢٣ ﴿ (سورة الشعراء: ١١١-١٢٢) ﴾

- 26:111. They said: Should we believe in you when only the lowest people follow you?
- 26:112. Nooh said: What knowledge do I have of their doings?<sup>13</sup>
- 26:113. Their reckoning<sup>14</sup> is only with my Lord, if you could but understand.
- 26:114. I will not drive away those who believe;
- 26:115. I am to you but a clear warner.
- 26:116. They said: If you do not desist, O Nooh, you will surely be stoned.
- 26:117. He said: My Lord, my people have rejected me.
- 26:118. So judge decisively between me and them, and save me and the believers who are with me.
- 26:119. So We saved him and those who were with him, in the fully-laden ark.
- 26:120. Then after that We drowned the others.
- 26:121. Verily in that is a sign, yet most of them will not believe.
- 26:122. Verily your Lord is the Almighty, the Most Merciful.

---

They said, rejecting his call and basing their objections on a flawed argument: «Should we believe in you when only the lowest people follow you?» That is, how can we follow you when we see that your followers are none but the lowest of people, the riffraff? Thus it is clear that they were too arrogant to accept the truth and they were ignorant of the real facts. If their aim had been to find out the truth, they would have said, if they had any confusion or doubt about his message: Prove to us the validity of the message that you have brought by means of valid arguments and proofs.

---

<sup>13</sup> The people cast aspersions on the sincerity of Nooh's followers, claiming that they merely sought to improve their social standing and make some other worldly gains by following him, but Nooh rejected this accusation and stated that he only judged them according to what he saw of their outward conduct.

<sup>14</sup> That is, Allah will bring them to account for what is really in their hearts.

If they had truly reflected upon the matter, they would have realised that his followers were in fact the best of people, the people of mature thinking and virtuous attitudes, and that the one who is truly low is the one who has lost his mature thinking, so that he thought that it was appropriate to worship stones, and was content to prostrate to them and call upon them, and he refused to submit to the call of the perfect Messengers.

As soon as one of the two opponents begins speaking words of falsehood, it becomes clear that he has nothing but flawed arguments, regardless of the soundness of his opponent's claim.

When we hear about the people of Nooh, and how they said, rejecting his message: «Should we believe in you when only the lowest people follow you?», basing their argument on a foundation which everyone knows is flawed, we will realise that they were misguided and wrong, even if we did not see the signs of Nooh or hear his great call, which should make us certain that his call was valid and sound.

So Nooh (عليه السلام) said: «What knowledge do I have of their doings? Their reckoning is only with my Lord, if you could but understand» that is, their deeds and their reckoning are only with Allah; all I have to do is convey the message, and you should not worry about them. If what I have brought is the truth, then submit to it, for each one is responsible for his own deeds.

«I will not drive away those who believe» – it seems that they demanded that he should drive them away, out of arrogance and tyranny, before they would believe. But he said: «I will not drive away those who believe» because they do not deserve to be driven away and humiliated; rather they deserve to be honoured in word and deed. This is like the verse in which Allah (جل جلاله) says:

﴿When those who believe in Our revelations come to you, say: Peace be upon you. Your Lord has taken it upon Himself to be merciful...﴾
(al-An'ām 6: 54)

﴿I am to you but a clear warner﴾ I am but a warner who conveys the message from Allah, and I am trying my best to give sincere advice to people, but I do not have any control over the matter, for control belongs only to Allah.

Nooh (ؑ) continued to call them by night and by day, in private and in public, but they only increased in aversion, and ﴿They said: If you do not desist, O Nooh﴾ from calling us to Allah alone, ﴿you will surely be stoned﴾ that is, we will kill you in the worst manner, by stoning, as dogs are killed.

May they be doomed; how ugly was this response to one who was sincere and honest, who cared more for them than they cared for themselves!

No wonder, when their wrongdoing reached such an extent and their rejection grew so intense, their Prophet prayed against them with a supplication that included all of them, and he said:

﴿...My Lord, do not leave on earth a single living soul from among the disbelievers.﴾ (Nooh 71: 26)

﴿He said: My Lord, my people have rejected me. So judge decisively between me and them﴾ that is, destroy the transgressors among us. He knew that they were the transgressors and wrongdoers, hence he said: ﴿and save me and the believers who are with me﴾.

﴿So We saved him and those who were with him, in the fully-laden ark﴾ that is, the ship that was filled with people and animals.

﴿Then after that﴾ that is, after Nooh and the believers who were with him

﴿We drowned the others﴾ that is, all of his people.

﴿Verily in that﴾ that is, in the saving of Nooh and his followers and the destruction of those who disbelieved in him

﴿is a sign﴾ that points to the truthfulness of Our Messengers, and the soundness of the message they brought, and the falseness of that in which their enemies, who rejected them, believed.

﴿Verily your Lord is the Almighty﴾ Who subjugated His enemies by His might, so He drowned them in the flood

﴿the Most Merciful﴾ towards His close friends, for He saved Nooh and the believers who were with him.

﴿كَذَّبَ عَادُ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ۝۱۲۳﴾ إِذْ قَالَ لَهُمُ أَخُوهُمْ هُودٌ أَلَا تَتَّقُونَ ﴿۱۲۴﴾ إِنِّي لَكَ رَسُولٌ أَمِينٌ ﴿۱۲۵﴾ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا ۝۱۲۶﴾ وَمَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ أَجْرٍ إِنْ أَجَرِيَ إِلَّا عَلَى رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿۱۲۷﴾ أَتَبْنُونَ بِكُلِّ رِيعٍ مَائَةٍ تَعْبَثُونَ ﴿۱۲۸﴾ وَتَتَّخِذُونَ مَصَانِعَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَعْلَدُونَ ﴿۱۲۹﴾ وَإِذَا بَطَشْتُمْ بَطَشْتُمْ جَبَارِينَ ﴿۱۳۰﴾ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا ۝۱۳۱﴾ وَأَتَّقُوا الَّذِي أَمَدَّكُمْ بِمَا تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿۱۳۲﴾ أَمَدَّكُمْ بِأَنْعَامٍ وَبَنِينَ ﴿۱۳۳﴾ وَجَنَّاتٍ وَعُيُونٍ ﴿۱۳۴﴾ إِنِّي أَخَافُ عَلَيْكُمْ عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ عَظِيمٍ ﴿۱۳۵﴾ قَالُوا سَوَاءٌ عَلَيْنَا أَوَعَصْتَ أَمْ لَمْ تَكُنْ مِنَ الْوَاعِظِينَ ﴿۱۳۶﴾ هَذَا إِلَّا خُلُقُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿۱۳۷﴾ وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمُعَذِّبِينَ ﴿۱۳۸﴾ فَكَذَّبُوهُ فَأَهْلَكَنَّهُمْ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً وَمَا كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿۱۳۹﴾ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿۱۴۰﴾﴾ (سورة الشعراء: ۱۲۳-۱۴۰)

26:123. The [people of] 'Ād rejected the Messengers.

26:124. When their brother Hood said to them: Will you not fear Allah?

26:125. Verily I am a faithful Messenger to you,

26:126. So fear Allah, and obey me.

26:127. I do not ask you for any recompense for this; my reward is only with the Lord of the worlds.

26:128. Do you build a landmark on every high place for no sound purpose?<sup>15</sup>

<sup>15</sup> Their aim in building those landmarks was to set up stations from which they could harass passing travellers and take their belongings. =

- 26:129. And do you construct magnificent works in the hope of living forever?
- 26:130. And when you strike, do you strike ruthlessly?
- 26:131. So fear Allah, and obey me.
- 26:132. And fear Him Who has bestowed upon you what you know:
- 26:133. He has bestowed upon you livestock and sons,
- 26:134. And gardens and springs.
- 26:135. Verily I fear for you the punishment of a momentous day.
- 26:136. They said: It is the same to us whether you admonish us or not.
- 26:137. This is only the custom of those who came before us,
- 26:138. And we are not going to be punished.
- 26:139. Thus they rejected him, so We destroyed them. Verily in that is a sign, yet most of them will not believe.
- 26:140. Verily your Lord is the Almighty, the Most Merciful.

«The [people of] ‘Ād rejected the Messengers» that is, the tribe called ‘Ād, whose Messenger was Hood, rejected him, and their rejection of him was a rejection of all the other Messengers, because the call is one.

«When their brother» in lineage «Hood said to them», kindly and gently: «Will you not fear Allah» and give up ascribing partners to Him and worshipping gods other than Him?

«Verily I am a faithful Messenger to you» that is, Allah has sent me to you as a mercy to you and out of care for you, and I am trustworthy and honest, as you know. Then he followed that by saying:

«So fear Allah, and obey me» that is, fulfil your duty towards Allah (ﷻ), which is fearing Him, and fulfil your duty towards me, by obeying me in what I enjoin and forbid you to do. This implies that you should follow me and obey me, and there is nothing to prevent you from believing, for I am not asking you for any payment for conveying the message to you and advising you, such that you would find that payment burdensome, for ﴿my reward is only with the Lord of the worlds﴾ Who had been bestowing great favours, bounty and generosity upon them, especially the care that He bestowed upon His close friends and Prophets.

= (ash-Shawkāni)

﴿Do you build a landmark on every high place for no sound purpose?﴾ That is, do you do that in vain, for no benefit that is in your spiritual or worldly interests?

﴿And do you construct magnificent works﴾ namely ponds and reservoirs

﴿in the hope of living forever?﴾ When in fact there is no way anyone can live forever.

﴿And when you strike﴾ people ﴿do you strike ruthlessly﴾, taking their wealth? For Allah (ﷻ) had given them great strength, and what they should have done was to use their strength in obedience to Allah. But they were arrogant and proud, and they said:

﴿...Who is more powerful than us?...﴾ (Fussilat 41: 15)

– and they used their strength to disobey Allah and for vain and foolish purposes. Hence their Prophet told them not to do that.

﴿So fear Allah﴾ and give up your ascription of partners to Him and your insolence

﴿and obey me﴾ as you know that I am the Messenger of Allah to you, and I am honest and sincere.

﴿And fear Him Who has bestowed upon you﴾ that is, given you ﴿what you know﴾ that is, He has given you that which cannot be ignored or denied of livestock,

﴿He has bestowed upon you livestock﴾ namely camels, cattle and sheep

﴿and sons﴾ that is, abundant offspring. He has increased your wealth, and increased your children, especially sons, the better of the two genders.

This is a reminder to them of their blessings, then he reminded them of the coming of the punishment of Allah to which they might be exposed, as he said: ﴿Verily I fear for you the punishment of a momentous day﴾ that is, because of my compassion and care for you, I fear that a severe punishment may befall you, and when it comes it cannot be put back, if you persist in your disbelief and transgression.

But they said, stubbornly rejecting the truth and disbelieving in their Prophet: ﴿It is the same to us whether you admonish us or not﴾ that is, it makes no difference to us. This was the utmost arrogance, for people to reach such a state that when it came to the reminders of Allah – that could melt solid mountains and cause the hearts of wise people to crack – it made no difference whether those reminders were there or not, for people whose wrongdoing had reached an extreme degree, who were utterly doomed and there was no hope of them ever being guided. Hence they said:

﴿This is only the custom of those who came before us﴾ that is, this state of affairs and life of ease, and so on, is something that happened to the earlier generations: sometimes they had a life of ease and sometimes they had a life of poverty. This is how life is; it is not a test or a blessing from Allah (ﷻ), or a trial for His slaves.

﴿And we are not going to be punished﴾ – this was a denial on their part of the resurrection, or else they were going along with their Prophet by way of ridiculing him by saying: Even if we assume that we will be resurrected, as we were showered with blessings in this world, that will continue to be the case when we are resurrected.

﴿Thus they rejected him﴾ that is, rejection became second nature to them, and they could not be deterred from it, ﴿so We destroyed them﴾. ﴿And as for 'Ād, they were destroyed by a furious cold wind which He unleashed against them for seven nights and eight days in succession, so that you would have seen the people lying lifeless as if they were the trunks of fallen palm trees.﴾ (al-Hâqqah 69: 6-7)

﴿Verily in that is a sign﴾ of the truthfulness of Our Prophet Hood (ﷺ) and the soundness of the message he brought, and the falseness of the path of polytheism and tyranny followed by his people.

﴿yet most of them will not believe﴾ despite the signs that should lead to faith.

﴿Verily your Lord is the Almighty﴾, Who destroyed by His might the people of Hood, despite their strength and power

﴿the Most Merciful﴾ towards His Prophet Hood, as He saved him and the believers who were with him.

﴿كَذَّبَتْ ثَمُودُ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ۝۱۴۱﴾ إِذْ قَالَ لَهُمْ أَخُوهُمْ صَالِحٌ ۝۱۴۲ أَلَا تَتَّقُونَ ۝۱۴۳ إِنْ أَنْتُمْ إِلَّا عَجْرٌ ۝۱۴۴ وَمَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ أَجْرٍ ۝۱۴۵ إِنْ أَنْتُمْ إِلَّا عَجْرٌ ۝۱۴۶ فِي جَنَّتٍ وَعُيُونٍ ۝۱۴۷ وَزُرُوعٍ وَنَخْلٍ طَلْعُهَا هَضِيمٌ ۝۱۴۸ وَتَنْحِتُونَ مِنَ الْجِبَالِ بُيُوتًا فَرِهِينَ ۝۱۴۹ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ ۝۱۵۰ وَأَطِيعُوا أَمْرَ الْمُسْرِفِينَ ۝۱۵۱ الَّذِينَ يُفْسِدُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا يُصْلِحُونَ ۝۱۵۲ قَالُوا إِنَّمَا أَنْتَ مِنَ الْمُسَحَّرِينَ ۝۱۵۳ مَا أَنْتَ إِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِثْلُنَا فَأَبِئْ بِإِثْبَاتِ إِثْبَاتِكَ ۝۱۵۴ قَالَهُ هَذِهِ نَاقَةُ لَنَا شَرِبَ وَلَكُمْ شَرِبَ يَوْمٍ مَعْلُومٍ ۝۱۵۵ وَلَا تَمْسُوهَا يُسُوءَ فَيَأْخُذْكُمْ عَذَابٌ يَوْمٍ عَظِيمٍ ۝۱۵۶ فَعَقَرُوهَا فَاصْبَحُوا نَدِيمِينَ ۝۱۵۷ فَأَخَذَهُمُ الْعَذَابُ ۝۱۵۸ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً ۝۱۵۹ وَمَا كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ ۝۱۶۰ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ۝۱۶۱﴾

(سورة الشعراء: ١٤١-١٥٩)

26:141. Thamood rejected the Messengers.

26:142. When their brother Şâliḥ said to them: Will you not fear Allah?

26:143. Verily I am a faithful Messenger to you

- 26:144. So fear Allah, and obey me.
- 26:145. I do not ask you for any recompense for this; my reward is only with the Lord of the worlds.
- 26:146. Will you be left secure [from death and punishment] in the midst of what you have here,
- 26:147. Amidst gardens and springs,
- 26:148. And cornfields and palm trees laden with ripe fruit,
- 26:149. Carving out houses in the mountains with great skill?
- 26:150. So fear Allah, and obey me,
- 26:151. And do not obey the bidding of the transgressors,
- 26:152. Those who spread mischief in the land and do no good at all.
- 26:153. They said: You are but one of those who are bewitched!
- 26:154. You are but a human being like ourselves. So bring us a sign, if you are telling the truth.
- 26:155. Ṣāliḥ said: Here is a she-camel; she will have her share of water and you will have your share, each on an appointed day.
- 26:156. Do not harm her in any way, lest the punishment of a momentous day overtake you.
- 26:157. But they hamstrung her, then they came to regret it.
- 26:158. So the punishment overtook them. Verily in that is a sign, yet most of them will not believe.
- 26:159. Verily your Lord is the Almighty, the Most Merciful.

﴿Thamood﴾ the well-known tribe in the cities of al-Ḥijr ﴿rejected the Messengers﴾. They rejected Ṣāliḥ (ﷺ), who brought the message of the oneness of Allah, to which all the Messengers called people. Therefore their rejection of him was rejection of all the Messengers.

﴿When their brother﴾ in lineage
 ﴿Ṣāliḥ said to them﴾, kindly and gently:
 ﴿Will you not fear Allah﴾ and give up polytheism and sin?

«Verily I am a faithful Messenger to you» from Allah your Lord; He has sent me to you out of kindness and mercy towards you, so accept His mercy and respond to it with submission.

«faithful» – you know my honesty and sincerity, which requires you to believe in me and in the message that I have brought.

«I do not ask you for any recompense for this» so that you might say: What prevents us from following you is the fact that you want to take our wealth

«my reward is only with the Lord of the worlds» that is, I only seek reward from Him.

«Will you be left secure [from death and punishment] in the midst of what you have here, amidst gardens and springs, and cornfields and palm trees laden with ripe fruit» that is, do you think that you will be left with these good things and blessings for no purpose, enjoying delights and physical pleasure like animals, and that you would be left with no purpose, with no commands or prohibitions, using these blessings in acts of disobedience towards Allah?

«Carving out houses in the mountains with great skill» that is, your smartness and skill have reached such a level that you make houses in solid mountains.

«So fear Allah, and obey me, and do not obey the bidding of the transgressors» who overstep the mark,

«Those who spread mischief in the land and do no good at all» that is, those whose characteristic and preoccupation is the spreading of mischief in the land by committing sins and calling people to them, spreading mischief and not doing any good at all. This is the most harmful of all attitudes, because it is pure evil.

It is as if there were some people who had already taken a stance and decided to oppose their Prophet, planning against his call and persisting in the way of misguidance. So Şâlih told the people not to be deceived by them. Perhaps they are the ones of whom Allah said:

«There were in the city nine men who spread mischief in the land and never did anything good.» (an-Naml 27: 48)

But this prohibition and admonition was to no avail, for they said to Šāliḥ: «You are but one of those who are bewitched!». That is, a spell has been put on you, so you are talking nonsense.

«You are but a human being like ourselves»; what makes you better than us so that you call us to follow you?

«So bring us a sign, if you are telling the truth» – this was despite the fact that reflecting on him as an individual and the message that he brought were among the greatest of clear signs that would prove that the message he brought was true. But because of their hardheartedness they demanded specific signs, and in most cases the one who demands signs will not benefit from them, because his demand is based on stubbornness, not on seeking guidance.

So Šāliḥ said: «Here is a she-camel» that came out of solid, smooth rock (in this regard we are following many commentators, and there is no reason not to do so) – you will all see her.

«she will have her share of water and you will have your share, each on an appointed day» that is, she will drink water from the well on one day, and you will drink her milk, then on the next day she will move away, and you can drink from the well.

«Do not harm her in any way», by hamstringing or otherwise, «lest the punishment of a momentous day overtake you». The she-camel came out, and remained with them under those circumstances, but they did not believe, and they persisted in their transgression.

«But they hamstrung her, then they came to regret it. So the punishment overtook them» – that was the blast that came upon them and destroyed them all.

«Verily in that is a sign» of the truthfulness of the message brought by Our Messengers and the falseness of what their opponents said. «yet most of them will not believe. Verily your Lord is the Almighty, the Most Merciful».

كَذَّبَتْ قَوْمُ لُوطٍ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿١٦٠﴾ إِذْ قَالَ لَهُمْ أَخُوهُمْ لُوطُ أَلَا تَتَّقُونَ ﴿١٦١﴾ إِنِّي لَكُمْ رَسُولٌ أَمِينٌ ﴿١٦٢﴾ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا أَمْرِي ﴿١٦٣﴾ وَمَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ أَجْرٍ إِنْ أَجْرِيَ إِلَّا عَلَى رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٦٤﴾ أَنُؤْتُونَ الذَّكَرَانَ مِنَ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٦٥﴾ وَتَذَرُونَ مَا خَلَقَ لَكُمْ رَبُّكُمْ مِنْ أَرْوَاحِكُمْ بَلْ أَنْتُمْ قَوْمٌ عَادُونَ ﴿١٦٦﴾ قَالُوا لَئِنْ لَمْ تَنْتَهِ يَلُوطُ لَتَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُخْرَجِينَ ﴿١٦٧﴾ قَالَ إِنِّي لِعَمَلِكُمْ مِنَ الْقَالِينَ ﴿١٦٨﴾ رَبِّ نَجِّنِي وَأَهْلِي مِمَّا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٦٩﴾ فَجَنَيْنَاهُ وَأَهْلَهُ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿١٧٠﴾ إِلَّا عَجُوزًا فِي الْغَائِيَةِ ﴿١٧١﴾ ثُمَّ دَمَرْنَا الْآخَرِينَ ﴿١٧٢﴾ وَأَمْطَرْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ مَطَرًا فَسَاءَ مَطَرُ الْمُنْذَرِينَ ﴿١٧٣﴾ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً وَمَا كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٧٤﴾ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿١٧٥﴾ (سورة الشعراء: ١٦٠-١٧٥)

- 26:160. The people of Loot rejected the Messengers.
 26:161. When their brother Loot said to them: Will you not fear Allah?
 26:162. Verily I am a faithful Messenger to you,
 26:163. So fear Allah, and obey me.
 26:164. I do not ask you for any recompense for this; my reward is only with the Lord of the worlds.
 26:165. Do you approach with lust the males, of all the people?
 26:166. And ignore that which your Lord has created for you of your wives?<sup>16</sup> You are indeed people who transgress.
 26:167. They said: If you do not desist, O Loot, you will surely be driven away.
 26:168. Loot said: I utterly abhor your deeds.
 26:169. My Lord, save me and my family from [the consequences of] what they do.
 26:170. So We saved him and all his family,

<sup>16</sup> {of your wives}: some commentators suggest that this is a reference to the vagina, in contrast to anal intercourse, which is prohibited even with one's wife.

26:171. Except an old woman who stayed behind.

26:172. Then We destroyed the others

26:173. and We let loose upon them a shower [of stones]. And evil was the shower that fell upon those who had been warned [but did not pay heed].

26:174. Verily in that is a sign, yet most of them will not believe.

26:175. Verily your Lord is the Almighty, the Most Merciful.

---

Loot spoke to his people, and they said the same as others had said before them; they had a similar mentality that was based on disbelief, so their words were similar. In addition to their polytheism, they also committed an unprecedented type of immorality, as they preferred intimacy with men, which was a dirty and abominable action, and they ignored what Allah had created for them of their wives, because of their lust and transgression. Loot kept on telling them not to do that until they said to him:

﴿If you do not desist, O Loot, you will surely be driven away﴾ that is, from the city. When he saw that they were persisting in the sin, he said: ﴿I utterly abhor your deeds﴾ that is, I hate them, I forbid them and I warn against them.

﴿My Lord, save me and my family from [the consequences of] what they do﴾ that is, from the deed and its punishment. Allah answered his prayer, ﴿So We saved him and all his family, except an old woman who stayed behind﴾ that is, she was one of those who remained and was punished; she was his wife.

﴿Then We destroyed the others and We let loose upon them a shower [of stones]﴾ that is, stones of baked clay.

﴿And evil was the shower that fell upon those who had been warned [but did not pay heed]﴾ for it destroyed every last one of them.

﴿Verily in that is a sign, yet most of them will not believe. Verily your Lord is the Almighty, the Most Merciful﴾.

﴿كَذَّبَ أَصْحَابُ لَيْكَةِ الْمُرْسَلِينَ﴾ (١٧٦) إِذْ قَالَ لَهُمُ شُعَيْبٌ أَلَا تَتَّقُونَ ﴿١٧٧﴾ إِنِّي لَكُمْ رَسُولٌ أَمِينٌ ﴿١٧٨﴾ فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا أَمْرِي ﴿١٧٩﴾ وَمَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ أَجْرٍ إِنْ أَجْرِيَ إِلَّا عَلَى رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٨٠﴾ أَوْفُوا الْكَيْلَ وَلَا تَكُونُوا مِنَ الْمُخْسِرِينَ ﴿١٨١﴾ وَزِنُوا بِالْقِسْطِ أَسْتَقِيمَ ﴿١٨٢﴾ وَلَا تَبْخَسُوا النَّاسَ أَشْيَاءَهُمْ وَلَا تَعْنُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ مُفْسِدِينَ ﴿١٨٣﴾ وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ وَالْجِيلَ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿١٨٤﴾ قَالُوا إِنَّمَا أَنْتَ مِنَ الْمُسَحَّرِينَ ﴿١٨٥﴾ وَمَا أَنْتَ إِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِثْلُنَا وَإِنْ نَظُنُّكَ لَمِنَ الْكَاذِبِينَ ﴿١٨٦﴾ فَاسْقِطْ عَلَيْنَا كِسْفًا مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ إِنْ كُنْتَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ﴿١٨٧﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ اعْلَمْ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٨٨﴾ فَكَذَّبُوهُ فَأَخَذَهُمْ عَذَابٌ يَوْمِ الظُّلَّةِ إِنَّهُ كَانَ عَذَابٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴿١٨٩﴾ إِنْ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةٌ وَمَا كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُّؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٩٠﴾ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿١٩١﴾ (سورة الشعراء: ١٧٦-١٩١)

- 26:176. The dwellers of the Wood rejected the Messengers.
 26:177. When Shu'ayb said to them: Will you not fear Allah?
 26:178. Verily I am a faithful Messenger to you,
 26:179. So fear Allah, and obey me.
 26:180. I do not ask you for any recompense for this; my reward is only with the Lord of the worlds.
 26:181. Give full measure and do not be among those who defraud others;
 26:182. and weigh with accurate scales;
 26:183. and do not undermine people's rights and dues, and do not strive to spread mischief in the land.
 26:184. And fear Him Who created you and those who came before you.
 26:185. They said: You are but one of those who are bewitched!
 26:186. You are but a human being like ourselves. We think you are nothing but a liar.

- 26:187. Then cause pieces of the sky to fall upon us,<sup>17</sup> if you are telling the truth.
- 26:188. Shu'ayb said: My Lord knows best what you do.
- 26:189. Thus they rejected him, so they were overtaken by the punishment of the day of the overshadowing cloud,<sup>18</sup> and that was the punishment of a momentous day.
- 26:190. Verily in that is a sign, yet most of them will not believe.
- 26:191. Verily your Lord is the Almighty, the Most Merciful.

The word translated here as «the Wood» refers to gardens in which the branches of the trees are twisted together. The dwellers of the Wood were the people of Madyan, who rejected their Prophet Shu'ayb, who brought the same message as all the other Messengers.

«When Shu'ayb said to them: Will you not fear Allah» and give up that which angers Him and which He hates, namely disbelief and sin?

«Verily I am a faithful Messenger to you» which dictates that you should fear Allah and obey me. In addition to their polytheism, they used to give short weight and measure, so he said to them:

«Give full measure» that is, give the complete amount, «and do not be among those who defraud others» that is, those who detract from people's wealth and steal it by giving short weight and measure.

<sup>17</sup> Shu'ayb (ﷺ) had warned them of Allah's punishment, and they audaciously challenged him to bring a specific punishment upon them, one that came from above. This indeed was their punishment, as Allah tells us in a subsequent verse: «Thus they rejected him, so they were overtaken by the punishment of the day of the overshadowing cloud» (26: 189).

<sup>18</sup> This cloud came at a time of intense heat, so the people rushed to seek shade beneath it, then Allah caused many blasts of thunder to come from it, one after another, and the thunderbolts destroyed the evildoers. (at-Ṭabari; al-Qurṭubi)

﴿and weigh with accurate scales﴾ that is, use scales that give a correct weight.

﴿And fear Him Who created you and those who came before you﴾ that is, the early generations of humankind. As He is the only One Who created you and created those who came before you, without anyone else playing any role in that, so you should worship Him alone and affirm His oneness. Just as He blessed you by bringing you into being and bestowing His blessings upon you, so you should respond by giving thanks to Him.

But they said to him, rejecting him and his message: ﴿You are but one of those who are bewitched﴾; you are talking nonsense like one who has been bewitched, and the best way to react is not to blame him.

﴿You are but a human being like ourselves﴾ and there is nothing special about you to make you superior to us, so that you could call us to follow you. This is like what was said by those who came before them and those who came after them, who objected to the Messengers on the basis of their specious arguments that they are still repeating and basing their rejection on. They are agreed on that because they are agreed on disbelief and they have a similar mentality. The Messengers responded to them by saying:

﴿...Indeed, we are but human beings like yourselves, but Allah bestows His favour upon whomever He wills of His slaves...﴾ (Ibrâheem 14: 11)

﴿We think you are nothing but a liar﴾ – this was audacity and unfairness on their part, and a false statement that they knew was not right. There was not one of the Messengers who came to his people and called them, arguing with them and they with him, but Allah showed at his hands signs by means of which they could become certain of his sincerity and honesty, especially Shu'ayb (ؑ), who was called the “orator of the Prophets” because of his eloquent discussion with his people and his arguing with them in the best manner. His people were certain of his sincerity and that the message that he brought was true, but what they said about thinking that he was a liar was in fact a lie on their part.

﴿Then cause pieces of the sky to fall upon us﴾ that is, pieces of punishment to eradicate us
﴿if you are telling the truth﴾. This is like what their fellow disbelievers said:

﴿And [remember] when they said: O Allah, if this is indeed the truth from You, then rain down upon us stones from the sky or send us a painful punishment.﴾ (al-Anfāl 8: 32)

They demanded some specific signs that would not satisfy the one who demanded them.

﴿Shu'ayb said: My Lord knows best what you do﴾ that is, with regard to sending down punishment or producing the signs you demand, it is not me who brings them down or produces them. All I am required to do is convey the message to you and advise you, and I have done that. Rather the one who brings them is my Lord, Who knows your deeds and your situation, and He will requite you and bring you to account.

﴿Thus they rejected him﴾ that is, rejection and disbelief became second nature to them in such a way that the signs did not benefit them and nothing could work with them except the coming down of the punishment.

﴿so they were overtaken by the punishment of the day of the overshadowing cloud﴾ – a cloud overshadowed them and they gathered beneath it, enjoying its shade that was not really shade. Then the punishment burnt them and they remained beneath it, lifeless, having left behind their dwellings and settling in the abode of misery and punishment.

﴿and that was the punishment of a momentous day﴾. They will have no chance to go back to this world and start anew, and the punishment will not be alleviated even for a short while, and they will be given no respite.

﴿Verily in that is a sign﴾ that points to the truthfulness of Shu'ayb and the soundness of that to which he called people, and of the falseness of his people's rejection of him.

﴿yet most of them will not believe﴾ despite seeing the signs, because there is nothing good in them.

﴿But most of humankind will not believe, no matter how eagerly you desire it.﴾ (Yoosuf 12: 103)

﴿Verily your Lord is the Almighty﴾ Who subjugates all creatures ﴿the Most Merciful﴾; mercy is typical of Him and all goodness in this world and the hereafter is the effect of His mercy, from the moment Allah created the universe until it ends. By His might, He destroyed His enemies when they rejected His Messengers, and by His mercy, He saved His close friends and the believers who followed them.

﴿وَأَنذَرْتُكَ لَنَزِيلِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٩٢﴾ نَزَلَ بِهِ الرُّوحُ الْأَمِينُ ﴿١٩٣﴾ عَلَى قَلْبِكَ لِتَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُنذِرِينَ ﴿١٩٤﴾ بِلِسَانٍ عَرَبِيٍّ مُبِينٍ ﴿١٩٥﴾ وَإِنَّهُ لَفِي زُبُرِ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿١٩٦﴾ أَوَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُمْ آيَةٌ أَن يَعْلَمَهُ عُلَمَوُا بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ ﴿١٩٧﴾ وَلَوْ نَزَّلْنَاهُ عَلَى بَعْضِ الْأَعْجَمِينَ ﴿١٩٨﴾ فَقَرَأَهُ عَلَيْهِمْ مَا كَانُوا بِهِ مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٩٩﴾ كَذَلِكَ سَلَكْنَاهُ فِي قُلُوبِ الْمُجْرِمِينَ ﴿٢٠٠﴾ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِهِ حَتَّى يَرَوُا الْعَذَابَ الْأَلِيمَ ﴿٢٠١﴾ فَيَأْتِيَهُمْ بَغْتَةً وَهُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ﴿٢٠٢﴾ فَيَقُولُوا هَلْ نَحْنُ مُنْظَرُونَ ﴿٢٠٣﴾﴾ (سورة الشعراء: ١٩٢-٢٠٣)

26:192. Verily this [Qur'an] is a revelation from the Lord of the worlds;

26:193. The faithful Spirit has brought it down

26:194. to your heart so that you may be one of the warners,

26:195. in clear Arabic speech.

26:196. Verily it was mentioned in the scriptures of the previous nations.

26:197. Is it not a sign for them that the scholars of the Children of Israel recognise it [to be true]?

- 26:198. If We had sent it down to any of the non-Arabs, 26:199. and he had recited it to them, they still would not have believed in it.
 26:200. Thus We let it [disbelief] enter the hearts of the evildoers.
 26:201. They will not believe in it until they see the painful punishment.
 26:202. It will come upon them suddenly, when they least expect it.
 26:203. Then they will say: Can we be granted some respite?

Having mentioned the stories of the Prophets with their nations, how they called them and how the people responded to them, and how Allah destroyed their enemies and they ultimately prevailed, here Allah mentions this noble Messenger and great chosen Prophet (ﷺ), and what he brought of the Book in which there is guidance for people of intellect.

﴿Verily this [Qur'an] is a revelation from the Lord of the worlds﴾; the One Who sent it down is the Originator of the heavens and the earth, who sustains the entire universe, both the upper and lower realms. As He cared for them by guiding them to that which is in their best interests in worldly terms and their physical well-being, He also cares for them by guiding them to that which leads to well-being in religious terms and in the hereafter. One of the greatest signs of His care for them is the sending down of this noble Book that contains much goodness and abundant blessings. In it there is guidance to what is in people's best interests in this world and the hereafter, and righteous manners and attitudes, that is not found in any other book.

In the words ﴿Verily this [Qur'an] is a revelation from the Lord of the worlds﴾ there is an indication of its greatness and great care for this Book, in that it has come down from Allah and not from anyone else, and it is intended to benefit you and guide you.

﴿The faithful Spirit has brought it down﴾ – the faithful Spirit is Jibreel (عليه السلام), who is the best and strongest of the angels. The word translated here as «faithful» refers to one who has been trusted not to add or subtract anything in it.

«to your heart», O Muhammad (ﷺ), «so that you may be one of the warners», guiding people thereby to the path of right guidance and warning against the path of misguidance.

«in clear Arabic speech» which is the best of languages, the language of those to whom it was sent and who were the original recipients of the call in clear Arabic language.

Think about how these sublime virtues were combined in this noble Book. For it is the best of books, brought down by the best of the angels, to the best of humankind, to the best part of him – namely his heart – to the best nation brought forth for humankind, in the best, most eloquent and richest of languages, namely clear Arabic speech.

«Verily it was mentioned in the scriptures of the previous nations» that is, it was foretold and confirmed in the previous scriptures, and when it was revealed in accordance with what was foretold, that confirmed what was mentioned in the previous Books.

«Rather he has brought the truth and confirmed the [message of the earlier] Messengers.» (as-Sāffāt 37: 37)

«Is it not a sign for them» of its soundness, and that it is from Allah «(that the scholars of the Children of Israel recognise it [to be true])» – knowledge ended up with them and they were the most knowledgeable of people. With regard to anything about which there is confusion, the matter should be referred to people of experience and knowledge, so that their word may be proof against others, just as the magicians who were highly skilled in the area of magic confirmed that the miracles of Moosā were true and were not magic. After that, no attention is to be paid to the words of the ignorant.

«If We had sent it down to any of the non-Arabs» who did not understand Arabic and could not express themselves properly «and he had recited it to them, they still would not have believed in it» for they would have said: We do not understand what he is saying, and we do not know what he is calling us to. So let them praise their Lord that it came to them in the language of the most eloquent of humankind, the most able to express what is meant in the clearest words, and let them hasten to believe in it and respond by submitting and accepting it. But to reject it without any reason to doubt is pure disbelief and stubbornness, and it is something that they inherited from the disbelieving nations. Hence Allah says:

«Thus We let it [disbelief] enter the hearts of the evildoers» that is, We instilled rejection and denial in the hearts of the evildoers, as the thread is introduced into the needle, and it became well entrenched and became second nature to them. That was because of their wrongdoing and evil deeds. Hence Allah says:

«They will not believe in it until they see the painful punishment» for their disbelief.

«It will come upon them suddenly, when they least expect it» that is, it will catch them unawares, when they are not anticipating it and do not realise that it is coming, so that the punishment will be more effective in wreaking vengeance upon them.

«Then» at that moment, «they will say: Can we be granted some respite?» That is, they will ask to be given more time, but in fact it will be too late, and the punishment will come upon them that cannot be lifted or reduced for even a short while.

﴿أَفِعْذَابِنَا يُسْتَعْجَلُونَ﴾ (٢٠٤) ﴿أَفَرَأَيْتَ إِن مَّتَّعْنَاهُمْ سِنِينَ﴾ (٢٠٥) ﴿ثُمَّ جَاءَهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يُوعَدُونَ﴾ (٢٠٦) ﴿مَا أَغْنَىٰ عَنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يُمْتَعُونَ﴾ (٢٠٧) (سورة الشعراء: ٢٠٤-٢٠٧)

26:204. Do they really seek to hasten Our punishment?

26:205. But consider this: if We grant them a life of ease for years, 26:206. Then there comes to them that which they are warned of,

26:207. All the life of ease that they were granted will be of no avail to them.

﴿Do they really seek to hasten Our punishment﴾ which is the immense and painful punishment that cannot be taken lightly or thought of as insignificant. What has deceived them? Do they have the strength to bear it with patience? Or do they have the strength to ward it off or lift it once it befalls them? Or can they escape Us, and do they think that We are not able to punish them?

﴿But consider this: if We grant them a life of ease for years﴾ that is, what you think, if We do not hasten to send down the punishment upon them, and we give them respite for a number of years, during which they enjoy a life of ease in this world,

﴿Then there comes to them that which they are warned of﴾ of punishment

﴿All the life of ease﴾ and the pleasures and desires ﴿that they were granted will be of no avail to them﴾.

In other words, what could help them or benefit them, when those pleasures have ceased and vanished, and the consequences of that have come, and the punishment is doubled and the time is long? The point here is to warn against incurring the punishment and becoming deserving of it. The issue is not whether it is to be hastened or delayed, for that is not important (what matters is avoiding punishment in the first place).

﴿وَمَا أَهْلَكْنَا مِنْ قَرْيَةٍ إِلَّا لَهَا مُنْذِرُونَ ﴿٢٠٨﴾ ذَكَرْنَاهُ وَمَا كُنَّا ظَالِمِينَ ﴿٢٠٩﴾ وَمَا نَنْزِلُكَ إِلَّا الشَّيْطَانُ ﴿٢١٠﴾ وَمَا يَنْبَغِي لَهُمْ وَمَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ ﴿٢١١﴾ إِنَّهُمْ عَنِ السَّمْعِ لَمْعَزُولُونَ ﴿٢١٢﴾﴾

﴿سورة الشعراء: ٢٠٨-٢١٢﴾

- 26:208. We never destroyed any city without first sending Messengers to warn it
- 26:209. by way of reminder, for We are never unjust.
- 26:210. It was not the devils who brought this [Qur'an] down;
- 26:211. It is not appropriate for them to do that, nor is it within their capability.
- 26:212. Indeed they are excluded from hearing it [the Qur'an].

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of His perfect justice in destroying the disbelievers, and that He never sent destruction and punishment upon any city until after He had left them with no excuse, and he had sent warners bringing clear signs and calling them to right guidance, warning them against doom and reminding them of the signs and revelations of Allah, and how He blessed them and how previous nations were destroyed and all these blessings were taken away from them.

﴿by way of reminder﴾ to them, and so as to establish proof against them

﴿for We are never unjust﴾; We do not destroy cities before warning them, or punish them when they are unaware of the warning. This is like the verses in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿...Nor do We punish until We have sent a Messenger [to give warning].﴾ (al-Isrā' 17: 15)

– and:

﴿Messengers sent as bearers of glad tidings and as warners, so that humankind would have no excuse before Allah, after the [coming of the] Messengers...﴾ (an-Nisā' 4: 165)

Having highlighted the perfect and majestic nature of the Qur'an, and declaring it to be above all shortcomings, and having told us that He protected it – at the time of its revelation and after its revelation – from the devils among the jinn and humankind, Allah (ﷻ) says here: ﴿It was not the devils who brought this [Qur'an] down; it is not appropriate﴾ that is, befitting ﴿for them to do that, nor is it within their capability﴾ to do so.

﴿Indeed they are excluded from hearing it [the Qur'an]﴾ – they were kept away from it and the shooting stars were prepared for them to protect it, and it was brought down by Jibreel, the strongest of the angels, whom no devil can approach or come anywhere near his territory. This is like the verse in which Allah says:

﴿Verily, it is We Who have sent down the Reminder [the Qur'an], and verily it is We Who will preserve it.﴾ (al-Hijr 15: 9)

﴿فَلَا تَدْعُ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ فَتَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُعَذِّبِينَ﴾ (٢١٣) وَأَنْذِرْ عَشِيرَتَكَ الْأَقْرَبِينَ
 ﴿وَأَخْفِضْ جَنَاحَكَ لِمَنِ اتَّبَعَكَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ﴾ (٢١٤) فَإِنْ عَصَوْكَ فَقُلْ إِنِّي بَرِيءٌ مِمَّا
 تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢١٥﴾ (سورة الشعراء: ٢١٣-٢١٦)

26:213. Do not call upon any other god alongside Allah, lest you be among those who will be punished.

26:214. And [O Muhammad] warn your nearest kinsfolk, 26:215. And lower your wing [in humility and gentleness] to the believers who follow you.

26:216. Then if they [your kinsfolk] disobey you, say: I am not accountable for what you do.

Here Allah (ﷻ) forbids His Messenger (ﷺ) first of all, and his Ummah by implication, as they follow him, to call upon anyone other than Allah, of all created beings, for that incurs eternal punishment because it is ascribing partners to Him.

﴿...Whoever ascribes partners to Allah, then Allah has forbidden paradise for him, and the fire will be his abode...﴾ (al-Ma'idah 5: 72)

Prohibition of a thing is a command to do its opposite, so the prohibition on ascribing partners to Allah is a command to devote worship to Allah alone, without any partner or associate, out of love, fear, hope and humility, turning towards Him at all times.

Having enjoined him (the Prophet ﷺ) to do that by means of which he will attain perfection for himself, Allah now instructs him to guide others to the path that leads to perfection:

﴿And [O Muhammad] warn your nearest kinsfolk﴾ who are the closest of people to you and are the most deserving of your kindness in both spiritual and worldly terms. This does not cancel out the command to warn all people, because if a person is instructed to be kind to all people, then it is said to him: Be kind to your relatives, this is emphasising the importance of kindness to relatives and highlighting the fact that they have a particular right to that.

The Prophet (ﷺ) complied with this divine command, and he called the clans of Quraysh, addressing them in different ways, reminding them and admonishing them. He left no advice or guidance that he was able to offer but he said it; some of them were guided and some turned away.

﴿And lower your wing [in humility and gentleness] to the believers who follow you﴾ by treating them gently, speaking gentle words to them, being friendly and showing love, a good attitude and perfect kindness towards them. And he indeed did that. Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿It is by the mercy of Allah that you deal gently with them. If you had been harsh or hard-hearted, they would have dispersed from around you. So pardon them, and ask for [Allah's] forgiveness for them; and consult them in matters of importance...﴾ (Âl 'Imrân 3: 159)

This attitude on the part of the Prophet (ﷺ) was the most perfect attitude, by means of which great interests may be served and great harm may be warded off, as anyone can see.

So is it befitting for one who believes in Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), and claims to be following him, to be a burden on the Muslims, ill-mannered, harsh towards them, hard-hearted, rough and foulmouthed, and if he sees any sin or bad manners on their part, he shuns them, resents them and hates them? There is no gentleness in such a person, and no manners or etiquette. Many evils result from the way he deals with people, and many interests are blocked, yet despite that you find him looking down on those who possess attributes like those of the noble Messenger (ﷺ). He accuses them of hypocrisy and compromise, and he thinks of himself as perfect, regarding himself as being of high status and admiring his deeds. Does this result from anything but ignorance and the deceit of the Shayṭān who makes his attitude fair-seeming to him? Hence Allah says to His Messenger (ﷺ):

«Then if they [your kinsfolk] disobey you» with regard to any matter, do not disown them and do not stop dealing with them on the basis of humility and gentleness. Rather what you should disavow is their deeds, so admonish them for that and advise them, and do your utmost to prevent them doing such deeds and urge them to repent.

This is in order to avoid giving the wrong impression to one who may misunderstand and think that the words «And lower your wing [in humility and gentleness] to the believers» implies approving of everything that they do, so long as they are believers. This notion is ward off by this verse. And Allah knows best.

﴿وَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى الْعَزِيزِ الرَّحِيمِ﴾ (٢١٧) الَّذِي يَرْنِكَ حِينَ تَقُومُ ﴿٢١٨﴾ وَتَقَلُّبِكَ فِي السَّجْدِ
 ﴿٢١٩﴾ إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ ﴿٢٢٠﴾ (سورة الشعراء: ٢١٧-٢٢٠)

26:217. And put your trust in the Almighty, the Most Merciful,

26:218. Who sees you when you stand up [to pray],

26:219. And sees your movements among those who prostrate [along with you, in the prayer]

- 26:223. Who listens eagerly [to what the devils say], but most of them are liars.
- 26:224. As for poets, those who are misguided follow them.
- 26:225. Do you not see that they wander aimlessly from one idle pursuit to another,<sup>20</sup>
- 26:226. and that they say that which they do not do,
- 26:227. except those who believe, do righteous deeds, remember Allah much and defend themselves after having been wronged?<sup>21</sup> And those who do wrong will come to know what fate awaits them.

---

This is a response to those who rejected the Messenger (ﷺ) and said that a devil came to him, and those who said that he was a poet.

﴿Shall I tell you upon whom the devils descend?﴾ That is, shall I tell you the true fact concerning which there is no doubt or confusion about those upon whom the devils descend? In other words, this is a description of those people upon whom the devils descend.

﴿They descend upon every evil liar﴾ that is, one who speaks much falsehood and fabricates lies.

﴿evil﴾ that is, in his deeds; he commits a lot of sin. This is the one upon whom the devils descend, for his character matches theirs and they are compatible.

﴿Who listens eagerly [to what the devils say]﴾ that is, what they snatch from heaven

﴿but most of them are liars﴾ that is, most of what they say to him is lies. They may say one thing that is true, and add a hundred lies to it,

---

<sup>20</sup> That is because they follow no moral and ethical guidelines and do not control what they say, and may switch loyalties easily, praising a person one day and condemning him the next; they may also praise or condemn someone who does not deserve that, or speak too highly of themselves.

<sup>21</sup> This refers to responding in verse to poetry composed by the disbelievers against Islam and the Muslims.

so that the truth becomes mixed with falsehood, and what is true will vanish because it is so little, and because the one who receives it has no knowledge. This is the description of the people upon whom the devils descend, and this is the description of what the devils inspire them with.

But with regard to Muhammad (ﷺ), his character is very different, because he is truthful, honest, righteous and wise, the one in whom are combined sincerity of the heart, honest speech and deeds that are free of anything unlawful.

The revelation that comes down to him is from Allah, and it is sent down guarded and protected, and it contains great truth concerning which there can be no doubt at all. So – O people of reason – are he and those people equal? Could anyone confuse them except one who is ignorant and cannot distinguish matters or see the difference between different things?

Having declared him innocent of receiving anything from the devils, Allah also declared him to be innocent of being a poet, as He says:

﴿As for poets﴾ that is, shall I also tell you about the character and usual description of the poets? For ﴿those who are misguided﴾ away from the path of truth, and who follow the path of misguidance and doom, ﴿follow them﴾. So they themselves have gone astray and you will find that they are followed by everyone who has gone astray and is corrupt.

﴿Do you not see that﴾ because of their error and extreme misguidance ﴿they wander aimlessly from one idle pursuit to another﴾ – sometimes they praise people and sometimes they impugn them; sometimes they tell the truth and sometimes they lie; sometimes they compose love poetry and sometimes they lampoon others; sometimes they express joy and sometimes they express sorrow. They are not stable and they switch moods easily.

«and that they say that which they do not do» that is, this is how the poets are: their words and deeds do not match. If you hear the poet composing gentle love poems, you will say that he is lovesick, but his heart is devoid of love. If you hear him praising or condemning someone, you will say: He is speaking the truth, but he is lying. Sometimes they boast of deeds that they never did, or they boast about refraining from things from which they never refrained, or they boast of generosity from which they are far removed, or of courage in which they surpass the boldest warriors, when they are the most cowardly of people. This is how they are, so look and see: does what is mentioned above match the character of the Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ), the wise and righteous one, who is followed by everyone who is wise and rightly guided, who adhered to right guidance and kept away from the path of doom, whose deeds did not contradict one another and whose words did not contradict his deeds? He only enjoined good, and he only forbade evil; he never spoke of anything but he told the truth; he never enjoined anything but he was the first to do it; he never forbade anything but he was the first to refrain from it.

Is his character matched by that of the poets, or do they even come close? Or is he different from them in all aspects? Blessings and peace of Allah be upon this most perfect Messenger (ﷺ), forever and ever. He was not a poet, magician, or madman; nothing befits him but utter perfection.

Having described the poets in such terms, Allah made an exception for those among them who believed in Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), did righteous deeds, remembered Allah much and defended themselves against their polytheist enemies after they wronged them.

In such cases their poetry was counted among their righteous deeds and the effects of their faith, because it contained praise for the believers, defence against the polytheists and disbelievers, striving in defence of the religion of Allah, propagating useful knowledge and encouraging all virtuous characteristics. Hence Allah says:

﴿except those who believe, do righteous deeds, remember Allah much and defend themselves after having been wronged? And those who do wrong will come to know what fate awaits them﴾ when they move to the place of standing and reckoning, when there will be no minor or major deed but it will be listed, and there will be no dues but they will be paid in full. Praise be to Allah, the Lord of the worlds.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat ash-Shu'arā'.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

27.

Soorat an-Naml

(Makki)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

طَسَّ تِلْكَ آيَاتُ الْقُرْآنِ وَكِتَابٍ مُبِينٍ ﴿١﴾ هُدًى وَبُشْرَى لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٢﴾ الَّذِينَ يُقِيمُونَ الصَّلَاةَ وَيُؤْتُونَ الزَّكَاةَ وَهُمْ بِالْآخِرَةِ هُمْ يُوقِنُونَ ﴿٣﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ رَبَّنَا لَهُمْ أَعْمَالُهُمْ فَهُمْ يَعْمَهُونَ ﴿٤﴾ أُولَئِكَ الَّذِينَ لَهُمْ سُوءُ الْعَذَابِ وَهُمْ فِي الْآخِرَةِ هُمْ الْآخَسَرُونَ ﴿٥﴾ وَإِنَّكَ لَتَلْقَى الْقُرْآنَ مِنْ لَدُنْ حَكِيمٍ عَلِيمٍ ﴿٦﴾ ﴿سورة

النمل: (٦-١)

- 27:1. Ṭā'. Seen.<sup>22</sup> These are verses of the Qur'an and the clear Book, 27:2. guidance and glad tidings for the believers,
27:3. those who establish prayer and give zakāh, and who believe with certainty in the hereafter.

<sup>22</sup> Groups of letters (al-ḥuroof al-muqatta'ah) appear at the beginning of several soorahs. The most correct scholarly view states that we are required to believe in them as they appear to be, without delving into their meaning, knowledge of which we should leave to Allah. We believe that they were not revealed in vain, and that there is wisdom behind them of which we are not aware.

-
- 27:4. As for those who do not believe in the hereafter, We have made their deeds fair-seeming to them, so they wander blindly [in their misguidance].
- 27:5. Such are the ones who will have a grievous punishment, and in the hereafter, it is they who will be the greatest losers.
- 27:6. Verily you [O Muhammad] are receiving the Qur'an from One Who is Most Wise, All-Knowing.
-

Here Allah (ﷻ) draws the attention of His slaves to the greatness of the Qur'an:

﴿These are verses of the Qur'an and the clear Book﴾ that is, the most sublime and clear verses, which give the clearest explanation that is indicative of the most sublime aims, best goals, best deeds and purest characteristics. They are verses that speak of truthful stories, beautiful commands, and prohibition of all bad deeds and blameworthy characteristics. They are verses that are as clear as the light of day for people of insight. They are verses that call to faith and call for reaching the level of certainty. They speak of matters of the unseen, past and future, exactly as they happened or will happen. They are verses that call us to know the Almighty Lord by His beautiful names, sublime attributes and perfect deeds. They are verses that tell us of His Messengers and close friends, and describe them so that it is as if we can see them with our own eyes. Yet despite that, many people did not benefit from it and none of the stubborn were guided, so as to protect these verses from those in whom there is nothing good and in whose hearts there is no purity. Rather the only ones who are guided by them are those whom Allah singled out for faith and whose hearts were illuminated and purified by these verses.

Hence He says:

﴿guidance and glad tidings for the believers﴾ that is, it (the Qur'an) guides them to follow the straight path and shows them what they should follow and what they should shun, and it gives them glad tidings of the reward of Allah that results from guidance to this path.

Perhaps it may be said that there are many who claim to believe, so should this be accepted from everyone who claims to be a believer? Or is it essential that there should be evidence? This is true (that there should be evidence), therefore Allah (ﷻ) describes the characteristics of the believers:

﴿those who establish prayer﴾ both obligatory and supererogatory; they perform the prayer with all its outward actions, essential parts, conditions and obligatory parts, and even those that are recommended. They also fulfil all the inward aspects of the prayer, which means performing prayer with humility – which is its very essence – bearing in mind that Allah is near and reflecting upon the words and actions of the prayer.

﴿and give zakâh﴾ as is obligatory, to those who are entitled to it. ﴿and who believe with certainty in the hereafter﴾ that is, their faith has reached the level of certainty, which refers to complete knowledge that has entered the heart and prompts one to act. Their certainty of the hereafter dictates that they should strive fully for it and warns them against the causes that lead to punishment. This is the basis of all good.

﴿As for those who do not believe in the hereafter﴾ and they deny it and reject the one who was sent to confirm it to them, ﴿We have made their deeds fair-seeming to them, so they wander blindly [in their misguidance]﴾. They are confused and give precedence to that which incurs the wrath of Allah over that which earns His pleasure. They have turned facts on their heads, so they see falsehood as truth and truth as falsehood.

﴿Such are the ones who will have a grievous punishment﴾ that is, the most severe and dreadful punishment ﴿and in the hereafter, it is they who will be the greatest losers﴾ – the loss will be theirs alone, because they will have lost themselves and their families on the Day of Resurrection, and they will have lost the faith to which the Messengers called them.

﴿Verily you [O Muhammad] are receiving the Qur'an from One Who is Most Wise, All-Knowing﴾ that is, verily this Qur'an, that is coming down to you and you are receiving it and learning it, is coming down from ﴿One Who is Most Wise﴾ and does what is appropriate, ﴿All-Knowing﴾ – He knows all secrets, and for Him the hidden aspects of things are like the visible aspects. As it is from ﴿One Who is Most Wise, All-Knowing﴾, it is known that all of it is wisdom and is in people's best interests, for who knows better than He what is in their best interests?

﴿إِذْ قَالَ مُوسَىٰ لِأَهْلِهِ إِنِّي آنَسْتُ نَارًا سَتَابِئُكُمْ مِنْهَا بِخَبَرٍ أَوْ بَأْتِيكُمْ بِهِ شِهَابٍ قَبَسَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَصْطَلُونَ ﴿٧﴾ فَلَمَّا جَاءَهَا نُورٌ أَنْ يُورِكَ مِنَ النَّارِ وَمِنْ حَوْلِهَا وَسُبْحَنَ اللَّهُ رَبَّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٨﴾ يَمْوَسَّىٰ إِنَّهُ أَنَا اللَّهُ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٩﴾ وَأَلْقَىٰ عَصَاهُ فَلَمَّا رَآهَا تَهْتَزُّ كَأَنَّهَا جَانٌّ وَلَّى مُدْبِرًا وَلَمْ يُعَقِّبْ يَمْوَسَّىٰ لَا تَخَفْ إِنِّي لَا يَخَافُ لَدَى الْمَرْسُولِ ﴿١٠﴾ إِلَّا مَنْ ظَلَمَ ثُمَّ بَدَّلْ حُسْنًا بَعْدَ سُوءٍ فَإِنِّي عَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ﴿١١﴾ وَأَدْخِلْ يَدَكَ فِي جَيْبِكَ تَخْرُجْ بَيْضًا مِنْ غَيْرِ سُوءٍ فِي سِتْرٍ آيَاتٍ إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ وَقَوْمِهِ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا قَوْمًا فَاسِقِينَ ﴿١٢﴾ فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ مَا أَنْشَأْنَا مَبْصُرَةً قَالُوا هَذَا سِحْرٌ مُبِينٌ ﴿١٣﴾ وَحَذُوا بِهَا وَأَسَيَّقَتْهَا أَنْفُسُهُمْ ظُلْمًا وَعُلُوًّا فَانْظُرْ كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الْمُفْسِدِينَ ﴿١٤﴾﴾ (سورة النمل: ٧-١٤)

27:7. [Remember] when Moosâ said to his family: I see a fire. I will bring you some news from there, or I will bring you a burning brand so that you may warm yourselves.

27:8. But when he came to it, he was called: Blessed is the one who is at the fire and blessed are those who are around it,<sup>23</sup> and glory be to Allah, the Lord of the worlds.

<sup>23</sup> Moosâ was beside the fire, which was the burning bush, and the angels were surrounding him.

- 27:9. O Moosâ, verily I am Allah, the Almighty, the Most Wise.
- 27:10. Throw down your staff. But when he saw it moving as if it was a snake, he turned and fled without a backward glance. [It was said:] O Moosâ, do not be afraid; the Messengers need have no fear in My presence.
- 27:11. But whoever has done wrong, then after that substitutes good for evil, verily I am Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.
- 27:12. Put your hand into your garment; it will come forth shining white, without harm, as one of nine signs to Pharaoh and his people, for they are indeed a rebellious and wicked people.
- 27:13. But when Our clear signs came to them, they said: This is obviously magic.
- 27:14. They rejected the signs, although in their hearts they were certain that they were true, out of wickedness and arrogance. So see what was the fate of those who spread mischief.

That is, remember this beautiful and noble story that speaks of Moosâ ibn 'Imrân, and the beginning of revelation to him, when Allah chose him for His message and spoke to him directly. When he had stayed in Madyan for a number of years, he set out with his family from Madyan, heading towards Egypt, but when he was partway there, he lost his way on a cold, dark night. So he said to his family: ﴿I see a fire﴾ that is, I have spotted a fire from afar
 ﴿I will bring you some news from there﴾ of the road
 ﴿or I will bring you a burning brand so that you may warm yourselves﴾. This indicates that he and his family were lost and very cold.

﴿But when he came to it, he was called: Blessed is the one who is at the fire and blessed are those who are around it﴾ that is, Allah (ﷻ) called him and told him that this was a sacred and blessed place, and part of its blessed nature was that Allah made it the location in which he spoke directly to Moosâ, called him, and appointed him as His Messenger.

﴿and glory be to Allah, the Lord of the worlds﴾ and exalted be He far above being thought to have any shortcoming; rather He is perfect in His attributes and deeds.

﴿O Moosâ, verily I am Allah, the Almighty, the Most Wise﴾ that is, Allah told him that He is Allah Who alone is deserving of worship, with no partner or associate, as He said elsewhere:

﴿Verily, I am Allah; there is no God but Me. So worship Me [alone] and establish prayer to remember Me.﴾ (Tâ Hâ 20: 14)

﴿the Almighty﴾ Who has subjugated all things and to Whom all created beings submit

﴿the Most Wise﴾ in His command and creation. By His wisdom He sent His slave Moosâ ibn 'Imrân, who Allah knew was qualified to convey His message, receive His revelation and be spoken to directly by Him. Because He is so mighty, you should rely on Him and not feel vulnerable because you are alone and you have many enemies, who are strong, for their forelocks are in the Hand of Allah, and all their movements are under His control.

﴿Throw down your staff﴾ so he threw it down

﴿But when he saw it moving as if it was a snake﴾ – the word translated here as ﴿snake﴾ refers to a male snake that moves quickly

﴿he turned and fled without a backward glance﴾ out of fear of the snake that he saw, which was a normal human reaction. But Allah said to him:

﴿O Moosâ, do not be afraid﴾. Elsewhere, Allah tells us that He said: ﴿...come back, and do not be afraid, for you are quite safe.﴾ (al-Qaşş 28: 31)

﴿the Messengers need have no fear in My presence﴾ because all that may cause fear is subject to His will and decree, and is under His control and command. Those whom Allah chooses for His message and revelation should not fear anyone but Allah, especially when they are very close to Him and have been chosen to speak to Him.

﴿But whoever has done wrong, then after that substitutes good for evil﴾ that is, this is the one who may be subject to fear and vulnerability, because of what he has committed of wrongdoing and what he has done of sin. As for the Messengers, what did they have to do with vulnerability and fear? Nevertheless, if a person wrongs himself by disobeying Allah, then he repents and turns to Him, and substitutes good deeds for his bad deeds, and acts of obedience for his acts of disobedience, Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful. So no one should despair of His mercy and forgiveness, for He forgives all sins and He is more merciful towards His slave than a mother to her child.

﴿Put your hand into your garment; it will come forth shining white, without harm﴾ that is, with no leprosy or disease; rather its gleaming whiteness will dazzle the onlookers.

﴿as one of nine signs to Pharaoh and his people﴾ that is, these two signs – the turning of the staff into a moving snake, and the hand coming out of the garment gleaming white – are among nine signs. Go with them and call Pharaoh and his people,

﴿for they are indeed a rebellious and wicked people﴾, who have committed evil by ascribing partners to Allah, rebelling and looking down on the slaves of Allah, and by their arrogant behaviour in the land.

So Moosâ (ﷺ) went to Pharaoh and his chiefs, and he called them to Allah and showed them the signs.

﴿But when Our clear signs came to them﴾ which evidently pointed to the truth and could be seen as clearly as the light of day, ﴿they said: This is obviously magic﴾ but they did not stop at merely saying that it was magic; rather they said that it was obviously magic, that was clear to anyone. This is something very strange, when clear signs and bright light are regarded as being the most obvious charlatanry and magic! Can this be anything but the utmost arrogance and most audacious waffle?

﴿They rejected the signs﴾ and disbelieved and denied the signs of Allah ﴿although in their hearts they were certain that they were true﴾ that is, their rejection was not based on doubt or uncertainty; rather they rejected them despite their certain knowledge that they were true ﴿out of wickedness﴾ and unfairness towards the truth of their Lord and towards themselves
 ﴿and arrogance﴾ towards the truth and towards other people, and they were too arrogant to submit to the Messengers.
 ﴿So see what was the fate of those who spread mischief﴾ for it was the worst fate. Allah destroyed them and drowned them in the sea; He disgraced them and caused the weak and oppressed among His slaves to inherit their dwellings.

﴿وَلَقَدْ ءَاتَيْنَا دَاوُدَ وَسُلَيْمَانَ عِلْمًا وَقَالَا الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي فَضَّلَنَا عَلَى كَثِيرٍ مِّنْ عِبَادِهِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ﴾ ١٥ وَوَرِثَ سُلَيْمَانُ دَاوُدَ وَقَالَ يَتَّابِعُهَا النَّاسُ عَلِمْنَا مِنْهُ أَنَّهَا الطَّيْرُ وَأَوْثِنَا مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ إِنَّ هَذَا لَهُوَ الْفَضْلُ الْعَمِيمُ ﴿١٦﴾ وَخَشَرَ لِسُلَيْمَانَ جُنُودُهُ مِنَ الْجِنِّ وَالْإِنسِ وَالطَّيْرِ فَهُمْ يُوزَعُونَ ﴿١٧﴾ (سورة النمل: ١٥-١٧)

- 27:15. We bestowed knowledge upon Dâwood and Sulaymân, and they both said: Praise be to Allah, Who has favoured us above many of His believing slaves.
- 27:16. Sulaymân succeeded Dâwood. He said: O people, we have been taught the speech of birds and we have been given abundantly; this is indeed a manifest favour.
- 27:17. His armies of jinn, men and birds were assembled before Sulaymân, and marched forth in orderly ranks.

In this Qur'an Allah mentions and highlights His blessings towards Dâwood and his son Sulaymân, whom He blessed with abundant knowledge, as He tells us elsewhere:

﴿And [remember] Dâwood and Sulaymân, when they gave judgement in the case of the field into which some people's sheep had strayed at night and eaten the crops. We were witness to their judgement. We guided Sulaymân to the right verdict, and to each of them We gave wisdom and knowledge...﴾ (al-Anbiyâ' 21: 78-79)

﴿and they both said﴾, in gratitude to their Lord for His great blessings and bestowing knowledge upon them:

﴿Praise be to Allah, Who has favoured us above many of His believing slaves﴾. So they both praised Allah for making them believers and people who were blessed, for they were among the elite.

Undoubtedly the believers are of four degrees: the righteous, above whom are the martyrs, above whom are the strong and true in faith [ṣiddeeqeen], above whom are the Prophets.

Dâwood and Sulaymân were among the elite of the Messengers. Even though they are below the ranks of the five Messengers of strong resolve, they are among the noble and virtuous Messengers whom Allah mentions by way of praise and commendation in His Book. So they praised Allah for having attained this status. This is a sign of a person being blessed: that he is grateful to Allah for His bounty, both spiritual and worldly, and he sees all blessings from his Lord, but he does not boast about them and he is not filled with self-admiration because of them. Rather he sees that this requires him to give a great deal of thanks.

Having praised both of them together, Allah then singles out Sulaymân by mentioning some of the exclusive blessings that were bestowed upon him, because Allah had given him great power and dominion, and he was blessed with things that his father did not have. May the blessings and peace of Allah be upon both of them.

﴿Sulaymân succeeded Dâwood﴾ that is, he inherited his knowledge and prophethood, and he added knowledge of his own to his father's knowledge. Perhaps he learned from his father what he had of knowledge, in addition to what he already had of knowledge at the time of his father, as we have seen above that Allah says:

﴿We guided Sulaymân to the right verdict...﴾ (al-Anbiyâ' 21: 79)

Sulaymân said – in gratitude to Allah and speaking of His favours: ﴿O people, we have been taught the speech of birds﴾. He could understand what the birds said, as when he had a conversation with the hoopoe and the bird spoke back to him, and as he understood the words of the ant to its fellow ants, as we shall see below. This was not granted to anyone except Sulaymân (ﷺ).

﴿and we have been given abundantly﴾ that is, Allah has bestowed upon us many blessings and means of power, authority and might that He did not bestow upon any other human. Hence he called upon his Lord and said:

﴿...and grant me a dominion, the like of which will never be granted to anyone after me...﴾ (Sâd 38: 35)

So Allah subjugated the devils to him, and they did whatever he wanted of works that others were unable to do. And He subjugated the wind for him; it would cover the distance of a month's journey in the morning and a month's journey in the evening (cf. 34: 12).

﴿this﴾ that Allah bestowed upon us, with which He has favoured us and for which He has singled us out, ﴿is indeed a manifest favour﴾ that is, a clear favour. Thus he fully acknowledged the blessings of Allah (ﷻ).

﴿His armies of jinn, men and birds were assembled before Sulaymân, and marched forth in orderly ranks﴾ that is, his huge and varied troops gathered before him, from among the jinn and devils, and from among the birds. They formed orderly ranks and behaved in a very orderly fashion when they marched and halted, and when they moved on. He had made preparations for that and was well equipped. All of these troops were under his control and could not disobey him or rebel against him. Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿...This is Our gift, so give freely or withhold, without [having to render] account.﴾ (Sād 38: 39)

– that is, give without measure. So he set out with this huge army on one of his journeys.

﴿حَتَّىٰ إِذَا أَتَوْا عَلَىٰ وَادِ النَّمْلِ قَالَتْ نَمْلَةٌ يَتَأْتِيهَا النَّمْلُ ادْخُلُوا مَسْكِنَكُمْ لَا يَحْطِمَنَّكُمْ سُلَيْمَانُ وَجُنُودُهُ، وَهُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ﴿١٨﴾ فَلَبَسَ ضَاحِكًا مِّنْ قَوْلِهَا وَقَالَ رَبِّ أَوْزِعْنِي أَنْ أَشْكُرَ نِعْمَتَكَ الَّتِي أَنْعَمْتَ عَلَيَّ وَعَلَىٰ وَالِدَيَّ وَأَنْ أَعْمَلَ صَالِحًا تَرْضَاهُ وَأَدْخِلْنِي بِرَحْمَتِكَ فِي عِبَادِكَ الصَّالِحِينَ ﴿١٩﴾﴾ (سورة النمل: ١٨-١٩)

27:18. And when they came to the valley of the ants, one ant said: O ants, enter your dwellings lest Sulaymān and his armies crush you unwittingly.

27:19. Sulaymān smiled, amused at the ant's words, and he said: O my Lord, inspire me to be constantly grateful for Your blessings that You have bestowed upon me and my parents, and to do righteous deeds with which You will be pleased, and include me, by Your mercy, among Your righteous slaves.

﴿And when they came to the valley of the ants, one ant said﴾, alerting its fellow ants:

﴿O ants, enter your dwellings lest Sulaymān and his armies crush you unwittingly﴾. This ant advised the other ants and made them hear, either by itself, in which case Allah gave the other ants extraordinary powers of hearing, because the alarm that was addressed to all the ants that filled the valley was raised by only one ant – and this would be something most amazing; or that ant told the others around it, and the news was transmitted from one to another until it had reached them all, telling them to be careful and how to take precautions, which was by entering their dwellings.

That ant told them who Sulaymân and his troops were and how great his authority was, and apologised to them on behalf of Sulaymân and his troops, saying: If they crush you, it is not deliberate on their part and they would not realise what happened. Sulaymân (ﷺ) heard what the ant said, so he ﴿smiled, amused at the ant's words﴾. He was amazed by its eloquence and advice, and how well-spoken it was. This is how the Prophets (peace be upon them all) were: they had perfect etiquette and showed amazement when appropriate, but they did not go beyond smiling. In the case of the Messenger (ﷺ), all his laughter was smiling. Laughing out loud is indicative of a lack of dignity and bad manners, but not smiling and not being amazed by what is amazing is indicative of a rough manner and hardheartedness. The Messengers were far above such attitudes.

Sulaymân said, in gratitude to Allah Who had caused him to attain this level of honour:

﴿O my Lord, inspire me﴾ and enable me ﴿to be constantly grateful for Your blessings that You have bestowed upon me and my parents﴾ for the blessing to the parents is a blessing to the child. So he asked his Lord to enable him to be constantly grateful for His blessings both spiritual and worldly, to him and to his parents.

﴿and to do righteous deeds with which You will be pleased﴾ that is, and enable me to do righteous deeds with which You will be pleased because they are in accordance with Your commands and are done sincerely, free from anything that may undermine them or spoil them. ﴿and include me, by Your mercy among Your righteous slaves﴾ and admit me to paradise, for paradise is the lot of the righteous of all levels. This is a story that Allah tells us of how Sulaymân reacted when he heard what the ant said.

Then He mentions another story, describing how Sulaymān talked to the birds:

﴿وَتَقَقَّدَ الطَّيْرَ فَقَالَ مَا لِيَ لَا أَرَى الْهُدُودَ أَمْ كَانَ مِنَ الْغَائِبِينَ
لَأُعَذِّبَنَّهُ عَذَابًا شَدِيدًا أَوْ لَأَذْبَحَنَّهُ أَوْ لِيَأْتِنِي بِسُلْطَانٍ مُبِينٍ﴾ (سورة النمل: ٢٠-٢١)

27:20. He checked on the birds and said: Why do I not see the hoopoe?
Or is he among the absent?

27:21. I will surely punish him severely, or slaughter him, unless he brings me a valid excuse.

﴿He checked on the birds﴾ – this is indicative of his perfect resolve and control, and his good way of managing his troops, and shows how he managed affairs both small and great, by himself, to the extent that he did not neglect this matter, which was checking on the birds and making sure whether they were all present or any of them were missing. This is what is highlighted by this verse. There is nothing valid in the claim of those who say that he checked on the birds to find out where the hoopoe was so that he could tell him whether water was near or far, because it was claimed that the hoopoe could see water beneath a thick layer of earth. There is no evidence to support this view; rather the rational and textual evidence indicates that this notion is false.

With regard to rational evidence, it is known on the basis of custom and experience that these animals were all present and none of them had that extraordinary vision that would enable it to see water beneath a thick layer of earth. If that had been the case, Allah would have mentioned it, because it would have been one of the greatest signs.

As for the textual evidence, if this is what had been meant, the text would have said: "He looked for the hoopoe so that he could search for water, then when he did not find him, he said what he said" or, "He looked for the hoopoe" or, "He searched for him" or similar phrases. Rather he checked on the birds to see which were present and which were absent, and whether they were staying in the positions he had appointed for them. Moreover, Sulaymân (ﷺ) was not in desperate need of water, such that he needed the skill of the hoopoe, because he had the devils and strong jinn at his disposal, who could have dug up water for him, no matter how deep it was. And Allah had subjugated the wind to him; it would cover the distance of a month's journey in the morning and a month's journey in the evening (cf. 34: 12). So why would he need the hoopoe?

These interpretations that are found in some commentaries and are widely narrated and widely known, were transmitted verbatim from the views of the Children of Israel, but those who narrated them did not realise that they are contrary to the sound meanings. They continued to be passed down from earlier narrators to later ones, to the point that they were thought to be true, and thus these corrupt views were included in some tafâseer (commentaries on Qur'an).

But those who are smart and intelligent realise that this clear Arabic Qur'an, in which Allah addresses all of humankind, knowledgeable and ignorant alike, instructs them to reflect upon its meanings and understand them according to the Arabic language which is well understood, of which true Arabs are not ignorant. So if there are views narrated from anyone other than the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), they are to be understood in light of that principle; if they are in harmony with it, then they may be accepted, because the wording of the text indicates that. But if both the wording and the meaning – or one of them – differ from that, then it is to be rejected and deemed false, because we have the well-known original reference text which says something to the contrary, and this is a conclusion that may be reached based on the meaning and indication of the text.

In conclusion, the fact that Sulaymān (ﷺ) checked on the birds and noticed that the hoopoe was absent indicates that he was in full control and was skilled in managing his dominion himself, and he was very smart and alert, as he noticed that this small bird was absent.

﴿and said: Why do I not see the hoopoe? Or is he among the absent?﴾ that is, is the fact that I cannot see him because he is not visible, as he is hidden among these many communities, or is it because he is absent without permission and not on my instructions?

Then he got angry with him and threatened him, saying: ﴿I will surely punish him severely﴾, but not to the point of killing, ﴿or slaughter him, unless he brings me a valid excuse﴾ that is, a clear reason for his absence. This is indicative of his perfect piety and fairness; he did not simply swear to punish or kill him, because that could only be in the case of his having committed a sin or wrongdoing. But there could have been a clear excuse for his absence. Therefore he made this exception, because of his piety and smartness.

﴿فَمَكَتْ غَيْرَ بَعِيدٍ فَقَالَ أَحَطْتُ بِمَا لَمْ تُحِطْ بِهِ، وَجِئْتُكَ مِنْ سَبَإٍ بِنَبَأٍ يَقِينٍ﴾
 ﴿إِنِّي وَجَدْتُ أَمْرًا تَنَالِكُهُمْ وَأُوتِيتُ مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَلَمَّا عَرَّشُ عَظِيمٌ﴾
 وَجَدْتُهَا وَقَوْمَهَا يَسْجُدُونَ لِلشَّمْسِ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ وَزَيْنَ لَهُمُ الشَّيْطَانُ أَعْمَالَهُمْ فَهَدَاهُمْ
 عَنِ السَّبِيلِ فَهُمْ لَا يَهْتَدُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾ أَلَا يَسْجُدُوا لِلَّهِ الَّذِي يُخْرِجُ الْخَبْءَ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ
 وَالْأَرْضِ وَيَعْلَمُ مَا تُخْفُونَ وَمَا تُعْلِنُونَ ﴿٢٥﴾ اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْعَظِيمِ ﴿٢٦﴾
 ﴿سورة النمل: ٢٢-٢٦﴾

27:22. Before long the hoopoe came and said: I have learned about something of which you have no knowledge; I bring you reliable news from Saba'.<sup>24</sup>

<sup>24</sup> Saba': the land of Sheba in Yemen.

- 27:23. I found a woman reigning over them, who has been granted everything [that a ruler is expected to have], and she has a splendid throne.
- 27:24. I found her and her people worshipping the sun instead of Allah. The Shaytân has made their deeds fair-seeming to them and has barred them from the right path, so they are not guided.
- 27:25. Rather they should worship Allah, Who brings forth what is hidden in the heavens and the earth,<sup>25</sup> and Who knows what you conceal and what you disclose.
- 27:26. Allah: there is no god but He, Lord of the magnificent Throne.

«Before long the hoopoe came» this is indicative of the awe in which Sulaymân was held by his troops, and how great his control over them was. Even though this hoopoe who had failed to attend had a good excuse, he could not stay away for long.

«and said» to Sulaymân: «I have learned about something of which you have no knowledge» that is, I have knowledge that you do not have, despite your vast knowledge and high level therein.

«I bring you reliable news» that is, certain news
«from Saba'» this is the name of a well-known tribe in Yemen.

Then he explained what that news was, and said:

«I found a woman reigning over them» namely reigning over the tribe of Saba', and she is a woman «who has been granted everything [that a ruler is expected to have]» that is, everything that kings or rulers usually have of wealth, weapons, troops, fortresses, citadels and so on «and she has a splendid throne» on which she sits; it is huge and magnificent. The size of the throne is indicative of great dominion and power, and of the ruler having a large number of advisers.

«I found her and her people worshipping the sun instead of Allah» that is, they were polytheists who worshipped the sun

<sup>25</sup> «What is hidden in the heavens and the earth» for example, rain in the heavens and the seeds that produce vegetation in the earth.

«The Shayṭān has made their deeds fair-seeming to them» so they thought that what they were following was the truth
 «so they are not guided» because if a person thinks that what he is following is the truth, there is not much hope of him being guided until he changes his beliefs.

Then he said: «Rather they should worship Allah, Who brings forth what is hidden in the heavens and the earth» that is, He knows what is hidden and secret in all regions of the heavens and of the earth, including the tiniest creatures, seeds, and what is hidden in people's hearts. He brings forth what is hidden on earth and in heaven by sending the rain and causing plants to grow, and He will bring forth what is hidden in the earth when the Trumpet is blown and the dead emerge from the earth so that He may requite them for their deeds. And He «knows what you conceal and what you disclose».

«Allah: there is no god but He» that is, no one should worship, turn to, humble himself before or love any but Him, for He is the only one to whom devotion should be shown, because of what He has of perfect attributes and because of the blessings He bestows, which make that pure devotion a must.

«Lord of the magnificent Throne» which is the roof of creation, as vast as the earth and the heavens. The Sovereign, Who is possessed of great authority and might, is the One to Whom we should humble ourselves, prostrate and bow. The hoopoe was spared punishment when he delivered this important news, and Sulaymān was amazed at how it had been hidden from him.

Because of his wisdom and mature thinking, he wanted to verify the news:

﴿ قَالَ سَنَنْظُرُ أَصَدَقْتَ أَمْ كُنتَ مِنَ الْكَاذِبِينَ ﴿٢٧﴾ أَذْهَبَ بِكُنُوزِي هَذَا فَأَلْفَنِي إِلَيْهِمْ ثُمَّ تَوَلَّى عَنْهُمْ فَانْظُرْ مَاذَا يَرْجِعُونَ ﴿٢٨﴾ ﴾ (سورة النمل: ٢٧-٢٨)

- 27:27. Sulaymân said: We shall see whether you are telling the truth or you are a liar.
- 27:28. Take this letter of mine and deliver it to them. Then withdraw from them and observe how they respond.

«Sulaymân said: We shall see whether you are telling the truth or you are a liar. Take this letter of mine» – the text of which we shall see below

«and deliver it to them. Then withdraw from them» that is, move away from them, but not too far
 «and observe how they respond» to you.

﴿قَالَتْ يَا أَيُّهَا الْمَلَأُوْٓءَا فِي الْغَىٰ إِلَىٰ كِتَابٍ كَرِيْمٍ ﴿٢٩﴾ اِنَّهٗ مِنْ سُلَيْمٰنَ وَاِنَّهٗ بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ ﴿٣٠﴾ اَلَا تَعْلَمُوْٓا عَلٰٓى وَاَتُوْنِيْ مُسْلِمِيْنَ ﴿٣١﴾﴾ (سورة النمل: ٢٩-٣١)

- 27:29. She said: O chiefs, an honourable letter has been delivered to me.
- 27:30. It is from Sulaymân, and it starts: In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.
- 27:31. Do not be arrogant towards me, but come to me in submission.

So the hoopoe took the letter and delivered it to them, and she said to her people:

«an honourable letter has been delivered to me» that is, a letter of great importance, from one of the greatest kings of the earth.

Then she highlighted the content of the letter, saying:

«It is from Sulaymân, and it starts: In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. Do not be arrogant towards me, but come to me in submission» that is, do not try to prove your superiority over me; rather submit to my authority and obey my commands, and come to me in submission.

This is very concise, but at the same time it is perfectly clear, because it includes forbidding them to show arrogance towards him or remain as they are, as well as instructions to submit to his authority, obey him, come to him and accept his call to submit. This shows that it is encouraged to begin one's letters by quoting the Basmalah ("In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful") in full and to include the name of the sender in the first line of the letter.

﴿قَالَتْ يَا أَيُّهَا الْمَلَأُ أَفْتُونِي فِي أَمْرِي مَا كُنتُ قَاطِعَةً أَمْرًا حَتَّىٰ تَشْهَدُونِ﴾ (٣٢) ﴿قَالُوا نَحْنُ أَوْلُوا قُوَّةً وَأُولُوا بَأْسٍ شَدِيدٍ وَالْأَمْرُ إِلَيْكِ فَانْظُرِي مَاذَا تَأْمُرِينَ﴾ (٣٣) ﴿قَالَتْ إِنَّ الْمُلُوكَ إِذَا دَخَلُوا قَرْيَةً أَفْسَدُوهَا وَجَعَلُوا أَهْلَهَا أَذِلَّةً وَكَذَلِكَ يَفْعَلُونَ﴾ (٣٤) ﴿وَإِنِّي مُرْسِلَةٌ إِلَيْهِمْ بِهَدِيَّةٍ فَنَاظِرَةٌ بِمَ يَرْجِعُ الْمُرْسَلُونَ﴾ (٣٥) (سورة النمل: ٣٢-٣٥)

- 27:32. She said: O chiefs, advise me regarding this matter with which I am now faced, for I make no decision without your consent.
- 27:33. They said: We are powerful and great warriors, but you are in command. Consider, then, what orders you will give.
- 27:34. She said: Kings, when they invade a city, ravage it and humiliate its prominent leaders. That is what they always do.
- 27:35. But I shall send him a gift, then see with what response the envoys will return.

As a sign of her resolve and wisdom, she gathered together the senior and prominent figures of her kingdom and said:

«O chiefs, advise me regarding this matter with which I am now faced» that is, tell me how we should respond. Should we obey him and submit, or what should we do?

﴿for I make no decision without your consent﴾ that is, I do not make any decision without consulting you.

﴿They said: We are powerful and great warriors﴾ that is, if you reject his call and do not obey him, we are strong and able to fight. It seems that they were inclined towards this view which, if they had followed it, would have led to their destruction. But they did not settle on that; rather they said:

﴿but you are in command﴾ that is, it is your decision, because they were aware of her mature thinking and resolve, and her sincerity towards them

﴿Consider, then﴾ that is, think the matter over and decide ﴿what orders you will give﴾.

She said to them, convinced by what they said and explaining the bad consequences of fighting:

﴿Kings, when they invade a city, ravage it﴾ killing, taking prisoners, plundering its wealth and destroying its buildings

﴿and humiliate its prominent leaders﴾ that is, they make the leaders and noblest people among the lowest. In other words, fighting is not a good idea. Moreover, I am not going to submit before finding out more and sending someone to learn about his situation, and then we will base our decision on that information.

Then she said: ﴿But I shall send him a gift, then see with what response the envoys will return﴾ from him: will he persist in what he says, or will he be swayed by the gift and change his mind? And how is his situation and that of his troops?

﴿فَلَمَّا جَاءَ سُلَيْمَنُ قَالَ أَتَيْدُونَنِي بِمَالٍ فَمَاءَ اتْنَيْنِ ۚ اللَّهُ خَيْرٌ مِمَّا ءَاتَكُم بَلْ أَنْتُمْ بِهَدْيَتِكُمْ
نَفَرَحُونَ ﴿٣٦﴾ أَرْجِعْ إِلَيْهِمْ فَلَنَأَيِّنَهُمْ بِجُنُودٍ لَا قِبَلَ لَهُمْ بِهَا وَلَنُخْرِجَنَّهُمْ مِنْهَا أَذِلَّةً وَهُمْ صَاغِرُونَ

﴿٣٧﴾ (سورة النمل: ٣٦-٣٧)

- 27:36. When [the envoy] came to Sulaymān, he said: Do you seek to appease me with gifts? What Allah has given me is better than what He has given you. Rather it is you who take pleasure in gifts.
- 27:37. Go back to them [with your gift]. We will surely come to them with forces that they cannot resist. We will surely expel them therefrom, abased and humiliated.

So she sent a gift to him with envoys from among the wise men of her people.

«When [the envoy] came to Sulaymān» that is, when the envoys came to him with the gift, he said, denouncing them and expressing anger for their failing to respond and submit to him:

«Do you seek to appease me with gifts? What Allah has given me is better than what He has given you». Your gift does not mean much to me, and I do not take pleasure in it, for Allah has sufficed me and bestowed many blessings upon me.

«Rather it is you who take pleasure in gifts» because of your love for this world and because you have little in your possession compared to what Allah has given me.

Then he gave instructions to the envoy without putting it in writing, because of his mature thinking and because he was sure that he would transmit his words exactly. He said:

«Go back to them [with your gift]. We will surely come to them with forces that they cannot resist. We will surely expel them therefrom, abased and humiliated». So the envoy went back to them and conveyed to them what Sulaymān had said, and they made preparations to go to Sulaymān.

﴿قَالَ يَتْلِيَهَا أَلْمَلُؤُا۟ اِيۡكُمْ يٰۤاَيُّهَا الَّذِيۡنَ يَخۡشَوْنَ رَبَّيۡنَا قَبۡلَ اَنْ يَّاۡتُوۡنَا بِعَرۡشِهٖۡمَا قَبۡلَ اَنْ يَّاۡتُوۡنَا مُسۡلِمِيۡنَ﴾ (٣٦) قَالَ عِفۡرِيۡتٌ مِّنَ الْجِنِّ اَنَاۤ اٰتٰىكَ بِهٖ قَبۡلَ اَنْ تَقُوۡمَ مِنْ مَّقَامِكَ وَاِنِّيۡ عَلَيۡهِ لَقَوِيۡ۟ اٰمِيۡنُ ﴿٣٧﴾ قَالَ الَّذِيۡ عِنۡدُهٗ عَلِمۡ مِنْ

الْكُتُبِ أَنَا أَنِيكَ بِهِ. قَبْلَ أَنْ يَرْتَدَّ إِلَيْكَ طَرْفُكَ فَلَمَّا رَآهُ مُسْتَقِرًّا عِنْدَهُ، قَالَ هَذَا مِنْ فَضْلِ
رَبِّي لِيَلُونِي، أَشْكُرُكُمْ أَكْفَرُ وَمَنْ شَكَرَ فَإِنَّمَا يَشْكُرُ لِنَفْسِهِ، وَمَنْ كَفَرَ فَإِنَّ رَّبِّي غَنِيٌّ كَرِيمٌ
(سورة النمل: ٤١-٣٨)

- 27:38. He said [to his own court]: O chiefs, which of you can bring me her throne before they come to me in submission?
- 27:39. A strong jinni said: I will bring it to you before you rise from your seat. I am surely strong enough and may be trusted.
- 27:40. One who had knowledge of the scripture said: I will bring it to you in the twinkling of an eye. Then when he saw it set before him, Sulaymân said: This is a favour from my Lord, to test whether I will be grateful or ungrateful. Whoever is grateful, his gratitude is to his own benefit, and whoever is ungrateful, then surely Allah is self-sufficient, most generous.
- 27:41. He said: Disguise her throne for her; let us see whether she will discover the truth or she will not recognise it.

Sulaymân knew that they would inevitably come to him, so he said to the jinn and humans who were present with him:

«which of you can bring me her throne before they come to me in submission?» That is, so that it will be permissible for me to dispose of it before they become Muslim, after which their wealth will not be lawful for me.

«A strong jinni said» – the word translated here as «strong jinni» refers to one who is strong and very active and energetic.

«I will bring it to you before you rise from your seat. I am surely strong enough and may be trusted». What appears to be the case is that at that time Sulaymân was in ash-Shâm (Greater Syria), so between him and Saba' there was a distance of four months' travel, two months outward bound and two months on the return journey. But despite that, this strong jinni said: I commit myself to bring it, despite its great size and heavy weight, and despite the distance, before you can rise from your seat. Usually lengthy meetings take up most of the morning, approximately one third of the day; this is the maximum length, although they may be shorter or longer than that.

One of the subjects of this great king had all this power, but there was another who was able to surpass him.

﴿One who had knowledge of the scripture said﴾: he was a righteous and knowledgeable man who was with Sulaymân; his name was Âsîf ibn Barkhiya. He knew the greatest name of Allah which, if He is called upon by it He will respond, and if He is asked by it, He will give. ﴿I will bring it to you in the twinkling of an eye﴾ by calling upon Allah by that name to bring it instantly. He called upon Allah and it was brought. And Allah knows best whether this is what is meant (that he knew the greatest name of Allah) or if he had some knowledge of the Book by means of which he was able to bring something from afar and achieve something that is difficult to achieve.

﴿Then when he﴾ namely Sulaymân ﴿saw it set before him﴾, he praised Allah (ﷻ) for granting him this power and making things easy for him, and he said: ﴿This is a favour from my Lord, to test whether I will be grateful or ungrateful﴾ that is, it is a test or trial for me. He was not deceived by his dominion, authority and power, as usually happens with ignorant kings; rather he knew that this was a test from his Lord, and he was afraid that he would not thank Him for this blessing.

Then he explained that gratitude does not benefit Allah; rather it benefits the one who shows gratitude, as he said:

﴿Whoever is grateful, his gratitude is to his own benefit, and whoever is ungrateful, then surely Allah is self-sufficient, most generous﴾ – He is self-sufficient and has no need of that person's deeds, and He is generous and bountiful, bestowing blessings upon both the grateful and the ungrateful, but gratitude for blessings will bring more blessings, whereas ingratitude will lead to a decrease in blessings.

Then Sulaymân said to those who were with him: ﴿Disguise her throne for her﴾ that is, change it by adding to it or taking away from it, and so on

﴿let us see﴾ and test her smartness

﴿whether she will discover the truth﴾ and thus prove that she is intelligent and alert, and deserves to be a queen

﴿or she will not recognise it﴾.

﴿فَلَمَّا جَاءَتْ قِيلَ أَهَكَذَا عَرْشُكِ ۖ قَالَتْ كَأَنَّهُ هُوَ ۚ وَأُوتِينَا الْعِلْمَ مِنْ قَبْلِهَا وَكُنَّا مُسْلِمِينَ ۚ﴾
 ﴿وَصَدَّهَا مَا كَانَتْ تَعْبُدُ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ إِنَّهَا كَانَتْ مِنْ قَوْمٍ كَافِرِينَ﴾ (سورة النمل: ٤٢-٤٣)

(٤٣)

27:42. So when she arrived, she was asked: Is your throne like this? She said: It is as if it were the same. We had come to know the truth before this [miracle] and we have already submitted [to Allah, in Islam].

27:43. That which she used to worship besides Allah had hindered her [from declaring her faith openly], for she came from a disbelieving people.

﴿So when she arrived﴾ and came to Sulaymân, he showed her her throne; to the best of her knowledge, she had last seen it in her homeland.

﴿she was asked: Is your throne like this?﴾. That is, we know that you have a splendid throne; is it like this throne that we have brought to show you?

﴿She said: It is as if it were the same﴾. This highlights her intelligence and smartness, because she did not say “it is the same”, because there were some changes and alterations to it, but she did not deny it either, because she recognised it. So she uttered some vague words that could mean either thing and would be true in either case. Sulaymân was impressed at how she figured out the reality and how mature her thinking was.

What was meant by her words is: We were given knowledge about the dominion and authority of Sulaymân, and his great power, before this incident (the bringing of her throne), in which we have seen his ability to bring the throne from a great distance. So we submit to him and we have come submitting to his authority.

«That which she used to worship besides Allah had hindered her [from declaring her faith openly]» that is, from becoming Muslim, otherwise she had the smartness and intelligence to recognise the truth and distinguish it from falsehood. But false beliefs take away insight from the heart.

«for she came from a disbelieving people» so she continued to follow their religion, because for one person to have a different religion when he can see that those around him are misguided and wrong, is something very rare. Therefore it is not strange that she had remained a disbeliever until that point.

Later on, Sulaymân wanted to show her his dazzling power and might, so he told her to enter the palace, which was in a high and vast place, and was made of glass, under which rivers flowed.

﴿قِيلَ لَهَا ادْخُلِي الصَّرْحَ فَلَمَّا رَأَتْهُ حَسِبَتْهُ لُجَّةً وَكَشَفَتْ عَنْ سَاقِهَا قَالَتْ إِنَّهُ صَرْحٌ مُّمَرَّدٌ مِنْ قَوَارِيرَ قَالَتْ رَبِّ إِنِّي ظَلَمْتُ نَفْسِي وَأَسْلَمْتُ مَعَ سُلَيْمَانَ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ﴾

(سورة النمل: ٤٤)

27:44. It was said to her: Enter the palace.<sup>26</sup> But when she saw it, she thought that its [floor] was a pool of water, and she [lifted her hem], baring her legs. He said: This is a palace made of smooth glass. She said: O my Lord, verily I have wronged myself [by previously worshipping the sun] and I submit [in Islam] with Sulaymân to the Lord of the worlds.

<sup>26</sup> The entire palace was made of glass, with water flowing beneath its floors.

---

﴿It was said to her: Enter the palace. But when she saw it, she thought that its [floor] was a pool of water﴾ because the glass was transparent, and the water could be seen beneath it, as if it was flowing by itself with nothing in between.

﴿and she [lifted her hem], baring her legs﴾ in order to wade into the water. This was a further example of her smartness and etiquette, for she did not refrain from entering the place that she had been instructed to enter, because she knew that she had only been invited by way of honour, and that Sulaymân's dominion, and the system thereof, was built on the basis of wisdom. She did not have the slightest suspicion in her heart of any harm that could result from stepping into it, after all that she had seen.

When she was about to wade into it, it was said to her: ﴿This is a palace made of smooth glass﴾, so there is no need for you to bare your legs. At that point, having come to Sulaymân and seen what she had seen, she realised that he was indeed a Prophet and Messenger, so she repented and gave up her disbelief.

﴿She said: O my Lord, verily I have wronged myself [by previously worshipping the sun] and I submit [in Islam] with Sulaymân to the Lord of the worlds﴾.

This is what Allah has told us about the story of the Queen of Saba' and what happened between her and Sulaymân. All other details that are connected to this story, and the stories from Jewish sources, have nothing to do with the interpretation of the word of Allah; they come under the heading of things that one cannot be certain of, because there is no proof that it is narrated from the Prophet (ﷺ). Most, if not all, of the reports of this nature are not narrated from him, so we should be diligent and turn away from these reports, and not introduce them into commentaries on the Qur'an. And Allah knows best.

﴿وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَىٰ ثَمُودَ أَخَاهُمْ صَالِحًا أَنِ اعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ فَإِذَا هُمْ فَرِيقَانِ يَخْتَصِمُونَ ﴿٤٥﴾ قَالَ يَتَّبِعُونَ لِأَسْوَءِ الْبَرِيَّةِ قَبْلَ الْحَسَنَةِ لَوْلَا تَسْتَغْفِرُونَ اللَّهَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُرْحَمُونَ ﴿٤٦﴾ قَالُوا أَطِيعْنَا بَكَ وَيَمْنًا مَعَكَ قَالَ طَاعْتَكُمْ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ بَلْ أَنْتُمْ قَوْمٌ مُّفْتَنُونَ ﴿٤٧﴾﴾ (سورة النمل: ٤٥-٤٧)

- 27:45. We sent to Thamood their brother Ṣâliḥ, saying: Worship Allah. Then they divided into two parties [believers and disbelievers] disputing with each other.
- 27:46. He said: O my people, why do you seek to hasten on the evil [divine punishment] rather than the good [divine mercy]? Why do you not seek forgiveness from Allah, so that you may be shown mercy?
- 27:47. They said: We regard you and those who are with you as an evil omen. He said: Your ill fortune is only from Allah [because of your disbelief]; rather you are people who are being tested.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He sent to Thamood, the well-known tribe, their brother in lineage Ṣâliḥ, and he instructed them to worship Allah alone and to give up worshipping the idols and rivals.

﴿Then they divided into two parties [believers and disbelievers] disputing with each other﴾ some of them were believers and some were disbelievers, and the latter were the majority.

﴿He said: O my people, why do you seek to hasten on the evil [divine punishment] rather than the good [divine mercy]?﴾ That is, why do you hasten to do evil deeds and why are you so keen to do them, rather than doing good deeds by means of which your affairs, both spiritual and worldly, will be put right? In fact there is no reason at all for you to commit evil deeds.

«Why do you not seek forgiveness from Allah» by repenting from your polytheism and sins, and praying to Him to forgive you «so that you may be shown mercy» for the mercy of Allah (ﷻ) is close to the doers of good, and the one who repents from sin is one of those who do good.

«They said» to their Prophet Ṣâliḥ, rejecting and objecting to the message:

«We regard you and those who are with you as an evil omen» – they claimed that they did not see any sign of good in Ṣâliḥ's face and that he and the believers with him had become a cause of some harm that befell their worldly interests. So Ṣâliḥ said to them:

«Your ill fortune is only from Allah [because of your disbelief]» that is, it only befell you because of your sins

«rather you are people who are being tested» with ease and hardship, good and bad, to see whether you will give up sin and repent, or not. Thus they persisted in rejecting their Prophet and this is how they responded to him.

﴿وَكَانَ فِي الْمَدِينَةِ تِسْعَةُ رَهْطٍ يُفْسِدُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا يُصْلِحُونَ ﴿١٨﴾﴾ قَالُوا
تَقَاسَمُوا بِاللَّهِ لَنُبَيِّتَنَّهُ وَأَهْلَهُ ثُمَّ لَنَقُولَنَّ لِوَلِيِّهِ مَا شَهِدْنَا مَهْلِكَ أَهْلِهِ
وَلِنَأْتِيَنَّهُ بِكُفْرٍ مَكْرُومٍ ﴿١٩﴾ وَمَكْرُؤًا مَكَرًّا مَكْرُومًا وَهُمْ لَا يُشْعُرُونَ ﴿٢٠﴾
فَانْظُرْ كَيْفَ كَانَتْ عِقَابُهُمْ مَكْرِهِمْ أَنَا دَمَرْنَاهُمْ وَقَوْمَهُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٢١﴾
فَتِلْكَ بُيُوتُهُمْ خَاوِبَةٌ بِمَا ظَلَمُوا إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً لِّقَوْمٍ يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٢٢﴾
وَأَنْجَيْنَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَكَانُوا يَنْقُوتُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾﴾ (سورة النمل: ٤٨-٥٣)

- 27:48. There were in the city nine men who spread mischief in the land and never did anything good.
- 27:49. They said: Let us swear to one another by Allah that we will surely attack him and his family at night, then we will say to his next of kin that we did not witness the slaughter of his people, and we are indeed telling the truth.
- 27:50. They plotted and planned, and We also planned, but they were not aware of it.
- 27:51. So see what was the outcome of their plot: We destroyed them and their entire nation.
- 27:52. Now their houses lie desolate, because of their wrongdoing. Verily in that is a sign for people who have knowledge.
- 27:53. And We saved those who believed and feared Allah.

---

«There were in the city» in which Ṣâliḥ and most of his people lived

«nine men who spread mischief in the land and never did anything good» that is, their aim and goal was to spread mischief in the land, and they had no aim of doing good; rather they took a hostile stance against Ṣâliḥ, reviling his religion and calling their people to do likewise, as Allah (ﷻ) tells us elsewhere that Ṣâliḥ said:

«So fear Allah, and obey me, and do not obey the bidding of the transgressors, those who spread mischief in the land and do no good at all.» (ash-Shu'arâ' 26: 150-152)

This terrible state of affairs continued until, in their enmity, they swore amongst themselves, each one swearing to the other, «we will surely attack him and his family at night» that is, we will come to him and his family at night, and we will surely kill them.

«then we will say to his next of kin» if they come after us and claim that we killed him, we will deny it and will say that we did not do it, and we will swear an oath to the effect that «we are indeed telling the truth», and they unanimously agreed to that.

﴿They plotted and planned﴾ and they resolved to kill Ṣāliḥ and his family, keeping the plot secret even from their own people, for fear of his next of kin

﴿and We also planned﴾ to support Our Prophet Ṣāliḥ (ﷺ), make things easy for him and destroy his people who disbelieved

﴿but they were not aware of it﴾.

﴿So see what was the outcome of their plot﴾ – did they achieve their goal by means of that plot, or did they fail to do so? Hence Allah says:

﴿We destroyed them and their entire nation﴾. We destroyed them and eradicated them utterly. The blast came upon them as a punishment, and every last one of them was destroyed.

﴿Now their houses lie desolate﴾ – their roofs fell in on their walls, and they are devoid of their inhabitants

﴿because of their wrongdoing﴾ that is, these are the consequences of their wrongdoing, ascription of partners to Allah and transgression in the land.

﴿Verily in that is a sign for people who have knowledge﴾ of the facts and they reflect upon how Allah dealt with His close friends and His enemies, thus they learn lessons from that and know that the outcome of wrongdoing is destruction and doom, whereas the outcome of faith and justice is salvation and triumph.

Hence Allah says: ﴿And We saved those who believed and feared Allah﴾ that is, We saved those who believed in Allah, His angels, His Books, His Messengers, the Last Day, and the divine decree, both good and bad, and they avoided ascribing partners to Allah and committing sin, and they obeyed Allah and His Messenger.

﴿وَلَوْ طَا إِذْ قَالَ لِقَوْمِهِ أَتَأْتُونَ الْفَلْحِشَةَ وَأَنْتُمْ تُبْصِرُونَ ٥١﴾
 ﴿لَتَأْتُونَ الرِّجَالَ شَهْوَةً مِنْ دُونِ النِّسَاءِ بَلْ أَنْتُمْ قَوْمٌ يَجْهَلُونَ ٥٢﴾ (سورة النمل: ٥٤-٥٥)

27:54. And [remember] when Loot said to his people: Do you commit this shameful deed, knowing [that it is shameful]?

27:55. Do you approach men with lust instead of women? Verily you are ignorant people!

«And [remember] when Loot said to his people: Do you commit this shameful deed, knowing [that it is shameful]?» That is, remember Our slave and Messenger Loot and the story of his virtue, when he said to his people, calling them to Allah and advising them:

«Do you commit this shameful deed» that is, this repulsive deed that is abhorrent to sound minds and sound human nature, and it is regarded as abhorrent according to the teachings of all religions «knowing [that it is shameful]», yet you stubbornly persist in that, wrongfully on your part and out of audacity towards Allah.

Then he explained what this shameful deed was: «Do you approach men with lust instead of women?» That is, how has it come to this, that your desire is for men and their rear ends which are places of excrement and dirt, and you forsake that which Allah has created for you of wives and the proper place for intimacy, for which people are created with a natural inclination. But you have turned things upside down, and you think of evil as good and good as evil.

«Verily you are ignorant people» who overstep the limits set by Allah and dare to transgress His sacred limits.

﴿فَمَا كَانَ جَوَابَ قَوْمِهِ إِلَّا أَنْ قَالُوا أَخْرِجُوا آلَ لُوطٍ مِنْ قَرْيَتِكُمْ إِنَّهُمْ أَنْاسٌ يَنْطَهُرُونَ﴾ (٥٦) فَأَنْجَيْنَاهُ وَأَهْلَهُ إِلَّا أَمْرَأَتَهُ قَدَرْنَاهَا مِنَ الْغَايِبِينَ ﴿٥٧﴾ وَأَمْطَرْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ مَطَرًا فَسَاءَ مَطَرُ الْمُنْذِرِينَ﴾ (٥٨) (سورة النمل: ٥٦-٥٨)

- 27:56. But the only response his people gave was to say: Drive the family of Loot out of your city, for they are indeed people who want to keep themselves clean and pure!
- 27:57. So We saved him and his family, except his wife; We decreed that she should be one of those who stayed behind.
- 27:58. And We let loose upon them a shower [of stones]. And evil was the shower that fell upon those who had been warned [but did not pay heed].

﴿But the only response his people gave﴾ – their reaction was not acceptance and they were not deterred, nor did they pay heed; rather their response was to oppose him, go against him and threaten their Prophet and Messenger, who was sincere and honest, with banishment from his homeland and expulsion from his city. The only response his people gave ﴿was to say: Drive the family of Loot out of your city﴾.

It is as if it was said: Why are you angry with them, and what is their fault which dictates that they should be driven out? And they said: ﴿for they are indeed people who want to keep themselves clean and pure!﴾. That is, they want to keep away from homosexuality and sodomy. May Allah curse them, for they regarded the best of good deeds as being the same as the worst and most abhorrent of evil deeds, and they did not stop at disobeying their Prophet when he exhorted them; rather they went as far as deciding to expel him and banish him. The punishment is implied in their last statement, for they are the people who said:

﴿...Drive them out of your city, for they are indeed people who want to keep themselves clean and pure!﴾ (al-A'râf 7: 82)

What this implies is: “You are immersing yourselves in evil and filth, which dictates that the punishment will befall your city, and that those who leave it will be saved.”

Hence Allah says: ﴿So We saved him and his family, except his wife; We decreed that she should be one of those who stayed behind﴾. That was when the angels came to him in the form of human guests, and his people heard about them, so they came to him, intending ill towards them, and he shut the door so that they could not get in, and he was very distressed. Then the angels told him what was really happening, and that they had come to save him and bring him out from their midst; they intended to destroy them, and the appointed time for their destruction was dawn. They instructed Loot to leave by night with his family, except his wife, for she would suffer the same fate as the people. So he left with his family at night, and they were saved. The punishment came upon the people at dawn; Allah turned their houses upside down on them, and sent upon them a shower of stones of baked clay, one after another, specifically marked, and kept with your Lord (cf. 11: 82-83).

Hence Allah says here: ﴿And We let loose upon them a shower [of stones]. And evil was the shower that fell upon those who had been warned [but did not pay heed]﴾ that is, evil was the shower that rained down upon them, and how terrible was the punishment, because they had been warned but they were not deterred. Therefore Allah sent upon them this severe punishment.

﴿قُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ وَسَلَامٌ عَلَىٰ عِبَادِهِ الَّذِينَ اصْطَفَىٰ ۗ ءَآلَهُ خَيْرٌ ۖ أَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ ۝٥٩ أَمَنَ
خَلْقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَأَنزَلَ لَكُم مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَأَنبَتْنَا بِهِ حَدَائِقَ ذَاتَ
بَهْجَةٍ ۖ مَا كَان لَكُم أَن تَنبِتُوا شَجَرَهَا ۗ ءَآلَهُ مَعَ اللَّهِ ۚ بَلْ هُمْ قَوْمٌ يَعِدُونَ ۝٦٠
أَمَنَ جَعَلَ الْأَرْضَ قَرَارًا وَجَعَلَ خِلَالَهَا أَنْهَارًا وَجَعَلَ لَهَا رَوَاسِيَ وَجَعَلَ بَيْنَ
الْبَحْرَيْنِ حَاجِزًا ۗ ءَآلَهُ مَعَ اللَّهِ ۚ بَلْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ۝٦١ أَمَنَ يُحِيبُ الْمُضْطَرَّ

إِذَا دَعَاهُ وَيَكْشِفُ السُّوءَ وَيَجْعَلُكُمْ خُلَفَاءَ الْأَرْضِ ۖ أَوَلَمْ مَعَ اللَّهِ قَلِيلًا مَّا
 تَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٦٢﴾ أَمَّنْ يَهْدِيكُمْ فِي ظُلُمَاتِ الْبَرِّ وَالْبَحْرِ وَمَنْ يُرْسِلِ الرِّيحَ
 بُشْرًا بَيْنَ يَدَيْ رَحْمَتِهِ ۖ أَوَلَمْ مَعَ اللَّهِ تَعْلَى اللَّهُ عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٦٣﴾ أَمَّنْ يَدْعُوا
 الْخَلْقَ ثُمَّ يُعِيدُهُمْ وَمَنْ يَرْزُقُكُمْ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ ۖ أَوَلَمْ مَعَ اللَّهِ قُلْ هَاتُوا بُرْهَانَكُمْ إِنْ
 كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿٦٤﴾ (سورة النمل: ٥٩-٦٤)

- 27:59. Say: Praise be to Allah and peace be upon His slaves whom He has chosen.<sup>27</sup> Is Allah better, or those they ascribe as partners to Him?
- 27:60. Is not He [better] Who created the heavens and the earth, and sends down for you water from the sky, with which We cause to grow gardens of delightful beauty? It is not in your power to cause the trees thereof to grow. Can there be another god besides Allah? But they are people who ascribe equals [to Him].
- 27:61. Is not He [better] Who has made the earth a stable place to live in, caused rivers to flow through it, placed therein mountains standing firm, and placed a barrier between two flowing bodies of water? Can there be another god besides Allah? But most of them have no knowledge.
- 27:62. Is not He [better] Who responds to the desperate one when he calls on Him and relieves his suffering, and Who has made you successive generations on earth? Can there be another god besides Allah? Little is it that you pay heed!
- 27:63. Is not He [better] Who guides you through the depths of darkness on land and sea, and Who sends forth the winds as harbingers of His mercy? Can there be another god besides Allah? Exalted be Allah far above the partners they ascribe to Him.
- 27:64. Is not He [better] Who originates creation then repeats it, and Who provides for you from the heaven and the earth? Can there be another god besides Allah? Say: Produce your evidence if you are telling the truth.

<sup>27</sup> This refers to the Prophets and their followers.

﴿Say: Praise be to Allah﴾ Who is deserving of perfect praise because of the perfect nature of His attributes and the beautiful nature of His favours, gifts, justice and wisdom in punishing the disbelievers and wrongdoers. And send salutations of peace upon His slaves whom He chose and selected above the worlds, namely the Prophets and Messengers, those whom Allah has chosen from among all people. That is so as to raise their renown and highlight their high status and their being free of evil and abominations, and because what they said concerning their Lord was free of shortcomings and faults.

﴿Is Allah better, or those they ascribe as partners to Him?﴾ This is a question, the answer to which is already established and well known. In other words, is Allah, the Almighty Lord Who is perfect in His attributes and bountiful towards all of His creation, better – or the idols and images that they worship alongside Him, which are imperfect in all aspects, cannot bring benefit or ward off harm, and cannot do the slightest good for their own selves or for those who worship them? Verily Allah is better than those they ascribe as partners to Him.

Then Allah tells us the details through which it may be known and become clear that He is the only God Who is deserving of worship, and that worship of Him is the truth whereas worship of anything else other than Him is falsehood:

﴿Is not He [better] Who created the heavens and the earth, and sends down for you water from the sky, with which We cause to grow gardens of delightful beauty? It is not in your power to cause the trees thereof to grow. Can there be another god besides Allah? But they are people who ascribe equals [to Him]﴾ that is, Who created the heavens and all that is in them of the sun, moon, stars, and angels? Who created the earth and all that is in it of mountains, seas, rivers, trees and so on?

﴿and sends down for you﴾ that is, for your sake ﴿water from the sky, with which We cause to grow gardens of delightful beauty﴾ that is, they are beautiful to look at, with their many and varied trees, and they bear beautiful fruit.

﴿It is not in your power to cause the trees thereof to grow﴾ that is, were it not for the blessing that Allah bestows upon you by sending down the rain.

﴿Can there be another god besides Allah﴾ who does these things, such that he should be worshipped alongside Him and associated with Him?

﴿But they are people who ascribe equals [to Him]﴾ that is, they regard others as equal to Him even though they know that He alone is the Creator of the upper and lower realms, and is the One Who sends down provision.

﴿Is not He [better] Who has made the earth a stable place to live in, caused rivers to flow through it, placed therein mountains standing firm, and placed a barrier between two flowing bodies of water?
 Can there be another god besides Allah? But most of them have no knowledge﴾. That is, are the idols and images that are lacking in all aspects, that do not do anything or grant provision or anything good, better – or Allah Who ﴿has made the earth a stable place to live in﴾ so that people are able to settle and live on it, cultivate it and build on it, and come and go freely

﴿caused rivers to flow through it﴾ that is, He has caused rivers to flow throughout the earth, from which people benefit in their agriculture, growing trees, drinking their water and giving it to their flocks

﴿placed therein mountains standing firm﴾ that is, mountains that make the earth steady, so that it does not shake, and they act as pegs for it so that it does not become unstable

﴿and placed a barrier between two flowing bodies of water﴾ the salty water and the fresh water; He has placed a barrier between them to prevent the two types of water mixing, which would cause the benefits of each to be lost. Rather He has created a barrier of earth between them, and has created channels for the rivers through the earth, far away from the seas. Thus they yield their benefits.

﴿Can there be another god besides Allah﴾ who does these things, such that he should be worshipped alongside Him and associated with Him? ﴿But most of them have no knowledge﴾, so they ascribe partners to Allah in imitation of their leaders. Otherwise, if they had true knowledge, they would not associate anything with Him.

﴿Is not He [better] Who responds to the desperate one when he calls on Him and relieves his suffering, and Who has made you successive generations on earth? Can there be another god besides Allah? Little is it that you pay heed!﴾

That is, does anyone answer the desperate one who is beset by distress, faces difficulty in attaining what he seeks and is desperate to be saved from what he is going through, except Allah alone? Who can relieve calamity, trouble and suffering except Allah alone? Who makes you successive generations in the earth, enables you to make use of the earth, grants you provision and bestows blessings upon you, so that you succeed those who came before you, as He will cause you to die and will bring other people after you? Can there be any god besides Allah who does these things?

No one does any of that alongside Allah, even by your admission, O polytheists. Hence, when harm befell them, they would call upon Allah, professing sincere devotion to Him alone, because they know that He alone is able to ward off that harm and remove it.

﴿Little is it that you pay heed﴾ that is, little is it that you remember and reflect upon matters by which, if you reflected on them and paid heed to them, you would be guided. But heedlessness has overwhelmed you and you turn away, therefore you never refrained from evil and you were not guided.

﴿Is not He [better] Who guides you through the depths of darkness on land and sea, and Who sends forth the winds as harbingers of His mercy? Can there be another god besides Allah? Exalted be Allah far above the partners they ascribe to Him» that is, Who is it that guides you when you are in the depths of darkness on land or sea, when there is no guide, no visible landmark and no means of deliverance except His guiding you, making the route easy for you and making available to you the means by which you are guided?

«and Who sends forth the winds as harbingers of His mercy» that is, He sends the winds ahead of the rain; He sends the winds to stir up the clouds, then put them together, then collect them, then fecundate them, then the rain comes down. So the people feel cheered by the wind before the rain comes down.

«Can there be another god besides Allah» who did that? Or is it He alone Who does that? Why do you ascribe others as partners to Him, and worship them instead of Him?

«Exalted be Allah far above the partners they ascribe to Him» for He is far greater, far holier and far above their ascription of partners to Him and their regarding others as equal to Him.

«Is not He [better] Who originates creation then repeats it, and Who provides for you from the heaven and the earth? Can there be another god besides Allah? Say: Produce your evidence if you are telling the truth» that is, Who is it that initiates and originates creation, and will repeat creation on the Day of Resurrection? Who provides for you from the heavens and the earth by means of rain and vegetation?

«Can there be another god besides Allah» who does that or is able to do that?

«Say: Produce your evidence» that is, your proof for what you say «if you are telling the truth», otherwise, assuming that you say that the idols have a share in all of that, this is a mere claim, so bring evidence to confirm it; if you cannot, then you should realise that you are people of falsehood, with no evidence or proof. So you should accept the certain proof and definite evidence which indicates that Allah is the only One Who does all of these things, and He is the only One Who deserves that all types of worship should be devoted to Him alone.

﴿قُلْ لَا يَعْلَمُ مَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ الْغَيْبَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَمَا يَشْعُرُونَ أَيَّانَ يُبْعَثُونَ﴾ (٦٥) بَلِ
 أَدْرَكَ عِلْمُهُمْ فِي الْآخِرَةِ بَلْ هُمْ فِي شَكٍّ مِنْهَا بَلْ هُمْ مِنْهَا عَمُونَ ﴿٦٦﴾ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ
 كَفَرُوا إِذْ كُنَّا تَرَاً وَءَابَاؤُنَا إِنَّا لَمُخْرَجُونَ ﴿٦٧﴾ لَقَدْ وَعَدْنَا هَذَا نَحْنُ وَءَابَاؤُنَا مِنْ
 قَبْلُ إِنْ هَذَا إِلَّا أَسَاطِيرُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿٦٨﴾ (سورة النمل: ٦٥-٦٨)

- 27:65. Say: No one in the heavens or on earth knows the unseen except Allah, and they do not know when they will be resurrected.
- 27:66. Rather their knowledge of the hereafter is confused; nay, they are in doubt about it; nay, they are blind to it.
- 27:67. Those who disbelieve say: What! When we have become dust, we and our forefathers, will we be brought forth [alive, from our graves]?
- 27:68. We and our forefathers have been promised this before; it is nothing but tales of the ancients.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He alone knows the unseen in the heavens and on earth. This is like the verses in which He says:

﴿With Him are the keys of the unseen; no one knows them but He. He knows all that is in the land and in the sea. Not a leaf falls but He knows it; there is no grain in the darkest bowels of the earth, nor anything fresh or dry, but it is [inscribed] in a clear record.﴾ (al-An'ām 6: 59)

– and:

﴿Verily, Allah alone has knowledge of the Hour; it is He Who sends down rain and He knows what every womb contains. No soul knows what it will do on the morrow, and no soul knows in what land it will die. Verily, Allah is All-Knowing, All-Aware.﴾ (Luqmān 31: 34)

These matters of the unseen and the like are known only to Allah; no angel who is near to Allah and no Prophet who was sent has any knowledge of them. As He is the only One Who has knowledge of that, and Whose knowledge encompasses all that is in people's hearts and all that is hidden and subtle, so He is the only One Who should be worshipped.

Then Allah (ﷻ) tells us about the lack of knowledge of those who denied the hereafter, moving from one thing to something that is more unknown than it.

﴿and they do not know when they will be resurrected﴾ that is, when they will be raised up and brought forth from their graves, therefore they have not prepared for it.

﴿Rather their knowledge of the hereafter is confused﴾ that is, their knowledge is weak and little, never certain, for they have no knowledge that is clear in their minds. This is the lowest level of knowledge, when it is weak and vague. Indeed they have no knowledge, either strong or weak; rather ﴿they are in doubt about it﴾ – namely the hereafter. It never occurs to them that it may happen, for it is not even a possibility in their minds; rather they deny it and think it unlikely. Hence Allah says:

﴿Those who disbelieve say: What! When we have become dust, we and our forefathers, will we be brought forth [alive, from our graves]?﴾ That is, this is far-fetched and impossible. They compared the power of the One Who is perfect in might with their own weak power.

﴿We and our forefathers have been promised this﴾ that is, the hereafter ﴿before﴾, and it did not come to us, and we never saw anything of it.

﴿it is nothing but tales of the ancients﴾ that is, stories that they told to pass the time, but which have no basis and are not true.

Here Allah tells us about the situation of these disbelievers by telling us that they do not know when the hereafter will come, then He moves on to telling us that their knowledge of the hereafter is weak, then He tells us that they are in doubt concerning it, then He tells us that they are blind to it, then He tells us that they deny it and think it unlikely to happen. Because of these doubts, fear of the hereafter left their hearts; as a result, they had the audacity to disobey Allah and it became easy for them to deny the truth and believe in falsehood, so they indulged in their physical desires and kept away from worshipping Allah. Thus they lost out both in this world and the hereafter.

Then Allah points out the truthfulness of the warning brought by the Messengers:

﴿قُلْ سِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَانظُرُوا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الْمُجْرِمِينَ﴾ (٦٩) وَلَا تَحْزَنْ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا تَكُنْ فِي ضَيْقٍ مِمَّا يَمْكُرُونَ ﴿٧٠﴾ وَيَقُولُونَ مَتَى هَذَا الْوَعْدُ إِن كُنتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿٧١﴾ قُلْ عَسَى أَنْ يَكُونَ رَدِفٌ لَكُمْ بَعْضُ الَّذِي تَسْتَعْجِلُونَ ﴿٧٢﴾ (سورة النمل: ٦٩-٧٢)

27:69. Say: Travel through the land and see what was the fate of the evildoers.

27:70. Do not grieve over them, and do not be distressed because of their plots.

27:71. They say: When will this promise come to pass, if you speak the truth?

27:72. Say: It may be that some of that which you seek to hasten is close at your heels.

﴿Say: Travel through the land and see what was the fate of the evildoers﴾ for you will not find any evildoer who persisted in his evildoing but his fate was the worst of fates, for Allah sent upon him the punishment that matched his evil deeds.

«Do not grieve over them, and do not be distressed because of their plots» that is, do not grieve, O Muhammad (ﷺ), for these disbelievers and their lack of faith, for if you knew what is in them of evil, and that they are not fit for anything good, you would not despair or grieve, and you would not feel distressed or worry about their plots, for their plots will backfire on them.

«...They plot and plan, and Allah also plans; but Allah is the best of planners.» (al-Anfāl 8: 30)

Those who disbelieve in the resurrection and in the truth that the Messenger (ﷺ) brought say, seeking to hasten the punishment: «When will this promise come to pass, if you speak the truth?» They say this out of foolishness and ignorance, because the time when it will happen is something that Allah has already ordained and decreed.

Nevertheless, Allah (ﷻ) says, warning them of that which they sought to hasten: «Say: It may be that some of that which you seek to hasten» of the punishment «is close at your heels» and will soon befall you.

﴿وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَذُو فَضْلٍ عَلَى النَّاسِ وَلَٰكِنَّ أَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٧٣﴾ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَيَعْلَمُ مَا تُكِنُّ صُدُورُهُمْ وَمَا يُعْلِنُونَ ﴿٧٤﴾ وَمِمَّنْ غَابَتْ فِي السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ إِلَّا فِي كِتَابٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٧٥﴾﴾ (سورة النمل: ٧٣-٧٥)

- 27:73. Verily your Lord is most gracious to humankind, but most of them are ungrateful.
- 27:74. Verily your Lord knows what their hearts conceal and what they disclose.
- 27:75. There is nothing hidden in heaven or on earth, but it is [inscribed] in a clear record.

Here Allah highlights His vast generosity and abundant bounty, and urges them to give thanks to Him. Yet despite that, most people turn away and fail to give thanks; they are distracted by the blessings from the Bestower of those blessings.

﴿Verily your Lord knows what their hearts conceal﴾ that is, what is hidden in their hearts
 ﴿and what they disclose﴾, so let them beware of the Knower of all that is hidden and all that is disclosed, and let them remember that He is always watching them.

﴿There is nothing hidden in heaven or on earth﴾ that is, there is nothing concealed or secret in either the upper or lower realm, ﴿but it is [inscribed] in a clear record﴾; that record encompasses all that has happened and will happen until the onset of the Hour. Every incident that occurs, whether it is manifest or hidden, happens in accordance with what is written in al-Lawḥ al-Maḥfoodh.

﴿إِنَّ هَذَا الْقُرْآنَ يَفْصَحُ عَلَى بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ أَكْثَرَ الَّذِي هُمْ فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ﴾ وَإِنَّهُ هُدًى وَرَحْمَةٌ لِّلْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿سورة النمل: ٧٦-٧٧﴾

27:76. Verily this Qur'an explains to the Children of Israel most of that wherein they differ.

27:77. And verily it is a guidance and mercy for the believers.

Here Allah tells us how the Qur'an confirms and supersedes the previous scriptures, and it explains and clarifies that which was ambiguous and unclear therein, and that concerning which the Children of Israel differed. The Qur'an speaks about that in such a way as to remove any confusion and explain the correct view concerning the matters in which they differed. As it is of such a majestic nature and very clear, and it dispels all differences and clarifies everything that is unclear, it is the greatest blessing that Allah has bestowed upon His slaves, but not everyone responds to the blessing with gratitude.

Hence Allah tells us that its benefit, light and guidance are only for the believers:

﴿And verily it is a guidance﴾ that saves one from misguidance and confusion

﴿and mercy﴾ that gives comfort and puts straight their religious and worldly affairs

﴿for the believers﴾ that is, those who believe in it and accept it, reflect on it, and ponder its meanings. They will attain through it guidance to the straight path and mercy that leads to happiness, triumph and success.

﴿إِنَّ رَبَّكَ يَقْضِي بَيْنَهُمْ بِحُكْمِهِ ۚ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْعَلِيمُ﴾ (سورة النمل: ٧٨)

27:78. Verily your Lord will judge between them by His justice, for He is the Almighty, All-Knowing.

That is, Allah (ﷻ) will judge between the disputants and those who differ, with justice and fairness. Even though there are matters concerning which the two disputing parties may be confused, because the evidence is subtle and not clear, or for some other reason, Allah will explain the truth that reflects reality concerning these issues, when He judges concerning them.

﴿for He is the Almighty﴾ Who subjugates all creatures, so they submit to Him

﴿All-Knowing﴾ for He knows all views and what they are based on, and the aims and motives behind them, so He will requite each individual according to what He knows of him.

﴿فَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى اللَّهِ إِنَّكَ عَلَى الْحَقِّ الْمُبِينِ﴾ (٧٩) إِنَّكَ لَا تَسْمِعُ الْمَوْتَى وَلَا تَسْمِعُ الْقُتَمَّ الدُّعَاءَ
 إِذَا وَلَوْا مُدْبِرِينَ ﴿٨٠﴾ وَمَا أَنْتَ بِهَادِي الْعُمْيِ عَنْ ضَلَالَتِهِمْ إِنْ تَسْمِعُ إِلَّا مَنْ يُؤْمِنُ
 بِآيَاتِنَا فَهُمْ مُسْلِمُونَ ﴿٨١﴾ (سورة النمل: ٧٩-٨١)

- 27:79. So put your trust in Allah, for you are on the path of clear truth.
 27:80. Verily you cannot make the dead hear you, nor can you make the deaf hear your call, [especially] if they turn their backs and walk away;
 27:81. Nor can you guide the blind out of their error. You cannot make anyone hear you except those who believe in Our revelations, for they are ready to submit [to the truth].

That is, put your trust in your Lord to attain that which will benefit you and ward off that which may harm you, to convey the message, establish the religion and strive in jihad against your enemies.

﴿for you are on the path of clear truth﴾ and for the one who is on the path of clear truth – calling people to it and supporting it – it is more appropriate that he should put his trust in Allah. For he is striving concerning a matter that is definitely sound and is known to be true, concerning which there is no doubt or confusion. Moreover, it is the truth that is very clear and manifest, with no ambiguity or uncertainty concerning it. If you do what you are charged with and you put your trust in Allah when doing so, you will not be harmed by the fact that some go astray, and you are not responsible for guiding them. Hence Allah says:

﴿Verily you cannot make the dead hear you, nor can you make the deaf hear your call﴾ when you call them, especially ﴿if they turn their backs and walk away﴾, for in that case it is more unlikely that you can make them hear.

﴿Nor can you guide the blind out of their error﴾. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Verily, you [O Muhammad] cannot guide whomever you like, but Allah guides whomever He wills, and He knows best who is rightly guided.﴾ (al-Qasas 28: 56)

﴿You cannot make anyone hear you except those who believe in Our revelations, for they are ready to submit [to the truth]﴾ that is, it is they who will submit to you and will believe in the revelations of Allah, put the teachings into practice and surrender. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Only those who hear will respond; as for the dead, Allah will resurrect them, then to Him they will be brought back.﴾ (al-An'am 6: 36)

﴿وَإِذَا وَقَعَ الْقَوْلُ عَلَيْهِمْ أَخْرَجْنَا لَهُمْ دَابَّةً مِّنَ الْأَرْضِ تُكَلِّمُهُمْ أَنَّ النَّاسَ كَانُوا بِآيَاتِنَا لَا يُوقِنُونَ﴾ (سورة النمل: ٨٢)

27:82. When the time for the fulfilment of the warning<sup>28</sup> comes, We will bring forth to them out of the earth a Beast that will tell them that humankind did not believe in Our signs.

That is, when the time for the fulfilment of the warning comes, which Allah has made inevitable and has ordained its time,

﴿We will bring forth to them out of the earth a Beast﴾ or one of the beasts of the earth, not of the heavens. This Beast ﴿will tell them﴾ that is, it will speak to the people and tell them that the people did not have certain faith in Our signs, the reason being that the people's knowledge and faith in the signs of Allah is becoming weak. Therefore

<sup>28</sup> The warning refers to the punishment of the Day of Resurrection; this verse speaks of one of the portents of that day.

Allah will cause this Beast to emerge as one of His wondrous signs to prove to the people what they were doubting.

This Beast is the famous Beast that will emerge at the end of time, and will be one of the portents of the Hour, as is mentioned in many hadiths. There is no sound evidence to describe it or say what kind of animal it will be; this verse only indicates that Allah will bring it forth to the people and that its speaking will be something extraordinary and will be one of the proofs of the truth of what Allah said in His Book. And Allah knows best.

﴿وَيَوْمَ نَحْشُرُ مِنْ كُلِّ أُمَّةٍ فَوْجًا مِمَّنْ يُكَذِّبُ بِآيَاتِنَا فَهُمْ يُوزَعُونَ ﴿٨٣﴾ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا جَاءُو قَالَ أَكَذَّبْتُم بِآيَاتِي وَلَمْ تُحِطُوا بِهَا عَلِمْنَا أَنَّمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٨٤﴾ وَوَقَعَ الْقَوْلُ عَلَيْهِم بِمَا ظَلَمُوا فَهُمْ لَا يَنْطِقُونَ ﴿٨٥﴾﴾ (سورة النمل: ٨٣-٨٥)

- 27:83. And [remember] the day when We will gather from every nation a multitude of those who rejected Our signs, and they will be assembled [then driven],
- 27:84. Until, when they come [before their Lord at the place of reckoning], He will say: Did you reject My signs even though you did not comprehend them fully? Or what is it that you were doing?
- 27:85. The warning [of punishment] will inevitably be fulfilled concerning them because of their wrongdoing, and they will be unable to speak.<sup>29</sup>

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the situation of the disbelievers on the Day of Resurrection; He will gather them, and will gather from every nation a multitude and a group {of those who rejected Our signs, and they will be assembled [then driven]}. They will be gathered, the first of them and the last of them, so that they may all be questioned, blamed and rebuked.

<sup>29</sup> That is, because they have no excuse to give that may save them from the punishment.

«Until, when they come [before their Lord at the place of reckoning], He will say» to them, rebuking them:

«Did you reject My signs even though you did not comprehend them fully?» That is, what you should have done was not to take a stance until the truth had become clear to you, and you should not have spoken except on the basis of knowledge, so how come you rejected something before you had full knowledge of it?

«Or what is it that you were doing?» That is, He will ask them about their knowledge and their deeds, and He will find that their knowledge was rejection of the truth and their deeds were not done for the sake of Allah and were not in accordance with the Sunnah of their Messenger (ﷺ).

«The warning [of punishment] will inevitably be fulfilled concerning them because of their wrongdoing» that is, the punishment will become due for them because of their wrongdoing in which they persisted and because of the proof that is established against them «and they will be unable to speak» because they will have no argument.

﴿الْقَارِبُونَ أَنَا جَعَلْنَا اللَّيْلَ لَيْسَكُنَا فِيهِ وَالنَّهَارَ مُبْصِرًا إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ

يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٨٦﴾ (سورة النمل: ٨٦)

27:86. Do they not see that We made the night for you to rest in, and the day for you to see? Verily in that there are signs for people who believe.

That is, have they not seen this great sign and immense blessing, which is that Allah has made the night and the day to be of service to them: the night with its darkness, so that they may settle down and rest therein from their labours and prepare to work again, and the day with its light, so that they may go about earning their living and running errands.

﴿Verily in that there are signs for people who believe﴾ that is, signs of the oneness of Allah and His great blessings.

﴿وَيَوْمَ يُنْفَخُ فِي الصُّورِ فَفَزِعَ مَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَنْ فِي الْأَرْضِ إِلَّا مَنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ وَكُلُّ أَتَوُهُ دَخِرِينَ ۝۸۷ وَتَرَى الْجِبَالَ تَحْسَبُهَا جَامِدَةً وَهِيَ تَمُرُّ مَرَّ السَّحَابِ صُغَعَ اللَّهُ الَّذِي أَنْقَضَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ إِنَّهُ خَيْرٌ بِمَا تَفْعَلُونَ ۝۸۸ مَنْ جَاءَ بِالْحَسَنَةِ فَلَهُ خَيْرٌ مِنْهَا وَهُمْ مِنْ فَزَعٍ يَوْمَئِذٍ ءَامِنُونَ ۝۸۹ وَمَنْ جَاءَ بِالسَّيِّئَةِ فَكُبَّتْ وُجُوهُهُمْ فِي النَّارِ هَلْ تُجْزَوْنَ إِلَّا مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ۝۹۰﴾ (سورة النمل: ۸۷-۹۰)

- 27:87. And [remember] the day when the Trumpet will be blown, and all who are in the heavens and on earth will be struck with terror, except whomever Allah wills, and all will come to Him, utterly humbled.
- 27:88. You will see the mountains and think them firmly fixed, but they will be moving like clouds.<sup>30</sup> Such is the work of Allah, Who has perfected all things. Verily He is well aware of all that you do.
- 27:89. Whoever comes [on the Day of Resurrection] having done good will be rewarded with something better than it, and will be safe from the terror of that day.

<sup>30</sup> The commentators are of the view that this verse describes what will happen to the mountains during the cataclysmic events of the Day of Resurrection.

27:90. And whoever comes having done evil will be flung down on their faces in the fire. [It will be said to them:] Will you be requited for anything other than what you used to do?

Here Allah (ﷻ) alerts His slaves to what lies ahead of them on the Day of Resurrection, with all its trials and distress, which cause alarm.

﴿And [remember] the day when the Trumpet will be blown﴾, because of which ﴿all who are in the heavens and on earth will be struck with terror﴾ and filled with alarm, and they will surge like waves against one another (cf. 18: 99), out of fear of what awaits them, ﴿except whomever Allah wills﴾ of those whom He will honour, make steadfast and protect from terror

﴿and all﴾ creatures, when the Trumpet is blown, ﴿will come to Him, utterly humbled﴾. This is like the verse in which Allah says:

﴿There is no one in the heavens or on earth but he will come to the Most Gracious as a slave.﴾ (Maryam 19: 93)

On that day, leaders and followers will be equal in submission and humility before the Sovereign of all dominion.

Because of the terror of that awful day, ﴿You will see the mountains and think them firmly fixed﴾, as if nothing is missing from them and they are still as they always were, but they will have gone through such hardship and terror that they will be crushed and will vanish, becoming like scattered dust. Hence Allah says: ﴿but they will be moving like clouds﴾ because they will be so light, and as the result of that intense fear. That is ﴿the work of Allah, Who has perfected all things. Verily He is well aware of all that you do﴾ and He will requite you in accordance with your deeds.

Then He explains how He will requite them:

﴿Whoever comes [on the Day of Resurrection] having done good﴾ – this includes every good deed, word or belief in the heart

﴿will be rewarded with something better than it, and will be safe from the terror of that day﴾ that is, they will be safe from that which terrified other people (namely hell), even if they were terrified along with them.

﴿And whoever comes having done evil﴾ of any kind ﴿will be flung down on their faces in the fire﴾ that is, they will be thrown face-first into hell and it will be said to them: ﴿Will you be requited for anything other than what you used to do?﴾

﴿إِنَّمَا أُمِرْتُ أَنْ أَعْبُدَ رَبَّ هَذِهِ الْبَلَدَةِ الَّذِي حَرَّمَهَا وَلَهُ كُلُّ شَيْءٍ وَأُمِرْتُ أَنْ
أَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ ﴿٩١﴾ وَأَنْ أَتْلُوَ الْقُرْآنَ فَمَنِ اهْتَدَىٰ فَإِنَّمَا يَهْتَدِي لِنَفْسِهِ وَمَنْ ضَلَّ
فَقُلْ إِنَّمَا أَنَا مِنَ الْمُنذِرِينَ ﴿٩٢﴾ وَقُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ سَيُرِيكُمْ آيَاتِهِ فَتَعْرِفُونَهَا وَمَا رَبُّكَ بِغَافِلٍ
عَمَّا تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٩٣﴾﴾ (سورة النمل: ٩١-٩٣)

27:91. [Say, O Muhammad:] I am commanded only to worship the Lord of this city Who has made it sacred and to Whom all things belong. And I am commanded to be one of those who submit to Allah [in Islam].

27:92. And [I am commanded] to recite the Qur'an. Then whoever is guided, is only guided for [the good of] his own soul; if anyone goes astray, then say: I am only a warner.

27:93. And say: Praise be to Allah. He will show you His signs, then you will acknowledge them. And your Lord is not unaware of what you do.

﴿[Say, O Muhammad:] I am commanded only to worship the Lord of this city﴾ namely Makkah al-Mukarramah, which He made sacred and blessed its people, so they should respond to that with gratitude and acceptance.

﴿and to Whom all things belong﴾ in both the upper and lower realms. Allah mentions that lest anyone think that He is Lord of the Kaaba only.

﴿And I am commanded to be one of those who submit to Allah [in Islam]﴾ that is, one of those who hasten to submit. And the Prophet (ﷺ) did that; he was the first of this Ummah to submit and was foremost in surrendering to Allah.

﴿And [I am commanded] to recite the Qur'an﴾ to you, so that you may be guided by it, follow its teachings, and learn its words and meanings. This is my duty and I have fulfilled it.

﴿Then whoever is guided, is only guided for [the good of] his own soul﴾ that is, it is to his own benefit and he will reap the fruits thereof. ﴿if anyone goes astray, then say: I am only a warner﴾ and I have no control over guidance.

﴿And say: Praise be to Allah﴾ to Whom be all praise in this world and the hereafter, from all of creation, especially the chosen elite, because they are the ones who are more expected to praise and extol their Lord than others, because of their high status and closeness to Him, and because of His great blessings to them.

﴿He will show you His signs, then you will acknowledge them﴾ in such a way that will show you what is true and what is false. So He will inevitably show you His signs, which will give you light in the depths of darkness,

﴿...so that those who chose to perish [by choosing disbelief] might do so after seeing clear evidence, and those who chose to live [by choosing faith] might do so after seeing clear evidence...﴾ (al-Anfāl 8: 42)

﴿And your Lord is not unaware of what you do﴾; rather He knows your deeds and circumstances, and He knows the extent of reward for those deeds. He will judge between you with a judgement for which you will praise Him, so you will have no argument against Him whatsoever.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat an-Naml.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

28. Soorat al-Qaṣaṣ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿طسّم﴾ تِلْكَ آيَاتُ الْكِتَابِ الْمُبِينِ ﴿٢﴾ نَتْلُو عَلَيْكَ مِنْ نَبَأِ مُوسَىٰ وَفِرْعَوْنَ
بِالْحَقِّ لِقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٣﴾ ﴿سورة القصص: ١-٣﴾

28:1. Ṭā'. Seen. Meem.<sup>31</sup>

28:2. These are verses of the clear Book.

28:3. We recount to you some of the story of Moosâ and Pharaoh in truth, for people who believe.

---

«These» verses that deserve to be venerated and respected
«are verses of the clear Book» which explain everything that people need to know about their Lord, His rights, His close friends, and His enemies, and the punishment that He sent against the disbelievers, the reward for deeds and the requital of the doers. This Qur'an explains all that in a very clear manner.

---

<sup>31</sup> Groups of letters (al-ḥuroof al-muqatta'ah) appear at the beginning of several soorahs. The most correct scholarly view states that we are required to believe in them as they appear to be, without delving into their meaning, knowledge of which we should leave to Allah. We believe that they were not revealed in vain, and that there is wisdom behind them of which we are not aware.

Among the things that it explains is the story of Moosâ and Pharaoh, which is repeated in several places, including this soorah.

«We recount to you some of the story of Moosâ and Pharaoh in truth» for their story is indeed amazing and wonderful «for people who believe». It is addressed to them, for they have the faith to focus and reflect on it, which would prompt them to accept it and learn from it, so that they will learn from it and be guided, and it will increase them in faith and certainty, adding goodness to their goodness.

As for others, they will not benefit from it except in the sense that proof will be established against them. Allah has protected the Qur'an from them and created a barrier between them and it, so that they will not understand it.

﴿إِنَّ فِرْعَوْنَ عَلَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَجَعَلَ أَهْلَهَا شِيَعًا يَسْتَضِعُّ طَائِفَةً مِنْهُمْ يُدِيعُ
أَبْنَاءَهُمْ وَيَسْتَحْيِي نِسَاءَهُمْ إِنَّهُ كَانَ مِنَ الْمُفْسِدِينَ﴾ (سورة القصص: ٤)

28:4. Verily Pharaoh behaved arrogantly in the land; he divided its people into factions and oppressed one group among them, slaughtering their sons and letting their womenfolk live. Verily he was one of the mischief-makers.

The beginning of the story is that «Pharaoh behaved arrogantly in the land» because of what he possessed of dominion, authority, troops and might. So he became one of the arrogant, not one of the people of virtue in the land.

«he divided its people into factions» that is, he divided them into various groups, controlling them on the basis of his whims and desires, subjugating them as he wanted by means of his power.

«and oppressed one group among them» namely the Children of Israel, whom Allah had favoured over all others; he should have honoured them and respected them, but he regarded them as insignificant, because he saw that they had no power to protect themselves from what he wanted to do to them. Therefore he did not care about them, and he went so far as to slaughter their sons and let their womenfolk live, for fear that they might increase in numbers and overwhelm him in his own country, and thus gain power.

«Verily he was one of the mischief-makers» those who have no intention of taking care of religious or worldly interests; this was part of his mischief-making in the land.

﴿وَرِيدُ أَنْ تَمَنَّ عَلَى الَّذِينَ اسْتَظْفَرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَتَجْعَلَهُمْ أَيْمَةً وَتَجْعَلَهُمُ الْوَارِثِينَ ۝ وَتُمْكِنَ لَهُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَنَرَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ وَهَامَانَ وَجُنُودَهُمَا مِنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يَحْذَرُونَ﴾ (سورة القصص: ٥-٦)

28:5. But it was Our will to bestow favour upon those who were oppressed in the land, to make them leaders and cause them to inherit [the land],

28:6. And to establish them in the land, and through them to show Pharaoh, Hâmân and their troops, the very thing they feared.

«But it was Our will to bestow favour upon those who were oppressed in the land» by taking away from them the factors that made them weak, and destroying those who were resisting them, causing to fail anyone who opposed them.

﴿to make them leaders﴾ in religion, which could not happen when they were oppressed and weak; rather it was essential to first give them power in the land.

﴿and cause them to inherit [the land]﴾ and thus grant them victory and a good end in this world, before the hereafter

﴿And to establish them in the land﴾. It was Allah's will that all of these things should happen.

Likewise He also wanted ﴿through them﴾, namely this oppressed group, ﴿to show Pharaoh, Hāmān﴾, his adviser, ﴿and their troops﴾, by means of whom they had gained power and control, and they behaved arrogantly and transgressed all bounds

﴿the very thing they feared﴾ which was their expulsion from their land. Hence they strove hard to suppress the Israelites, break their will and kill their children who had the potential to achieve that. Allah willed that all of this should happen, and when He wills a thing, He makes the means thereof available and paves the way for it. This matter was like that: He decreed it and created the means that would lead to it – of which neither His close friends nor His enemies were aware.

﴿وَأَوْحَيْنَا إِلَىٰ أُمِّ مُوسَىٰ أَنْ أَرْضِعِيهِ ۖ فَإِذَا خِفَتْ عَلَيْهِ فَالْقَاهِ فِي الْبَيْتِ وَلَا تَخَافِ ۚ وَلَا تَحْزَنِي ۚ إِنَّا رَأَيْنَاهُ إِلَيْنَا ۖ وَجَاعَلُوهُ مِنَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿٧﴾ ۖ فَالْقَطْعَةُ ۚ أَلِ فِرْعَوْنَ لِيَكُونَ لَهُمْ عَدُوًّا وَحَزَنًا ۚ إِنَّ فِرْعَوْنَ وَهَمَانَ وَجُنُودَهُمَا كَانُوا خَاطِئِينَ﴾

(سورة القصص: ٧-٨) ﴿٨﴾

- 28:7. We inspired the mother of Moosā, saying: Breastfeed him, but when you fear for him, throw him into the river, and do not be afraid or grieve, for We will surely bring him back to you, and We will make him one of Our Messengers.

28:8. The family of Pharaoh picked him up only for him to become an enemy to them and a source of grief. Verily Pharaoh and Hāmān and their troops were wrongdoers.

The beginning of this process was when Allah safeguarded His Messenger Moosā so that the Israelites would be delivered at his hands and because of him. At that time of great fear, when the Egyptians were slaughtering their sons, Allah inspired his mother to breastfeed him and keep him with her.

﴿but when you fear for him﴾ that is, when you sense that there is someone who may take him to them, ﴿throw him into the river﴾ namely the Nile, in a closed box.

﴿and do not be afraid or grieve, for We will surely bring him back to you, and We will make him one of Our Messengers﴾. Thus Allah gave her the glad tidings that He would return him to her, and he would grow up and be safe from their plot, and Allah would make him a Messenger.

This was the greatest of glad tidings, which were given to the mother of Moosā so as to reassure her and calm her fears, for she was afraid for him. She did as she was instructed; she threw him into the river, and Allah caused him to drift until the family of Pharaoh picked him up and were the ones who found him, ﴿only for him to become an enemy to them and a source of grief﴾ that is, so that ultimately, and as a result of them picking him up, he would become an enemy to them and a source of grief, because precautions cannot ward off the divine decree. What they feared from the Israelites was their becoming united and undermining their authority, and Allah ensured that the leader of the Israelites would be raised by them, under their supervision and sponsorship.

Upon reflection, you will find that what happened as a result of that was in the interests of the Children of Israel, and it warded off many serious troubles from them and prevented many transgressions before Moosâ's mission began, because he rose to a senior position in the kingdom.

Naturally he would inevitably stand up for the rights of his own people, because of what he was, namely a man of high ambition who was protective towards his own people. Hence some of these oppressed people, who had reached such a low point of humiliation – some of which Allah has told us about – developed the courage to challenge the oppressors who were acting arrogantly in the land, as we shall see below, because Moosâ was shielding them.

This was the starting point. Allah's way dictates that things should develop gradually, little by little, and not happen all at once.

﴿Verily Pharaoh and Hâmân and their troops were wrongdoers﴾ that is, it was Our will to punish them for their wrongdoing and to plan against them in requital for their plotting and scheming.

﴿وَقَالَتِ امْرَأَتُ فِرْعَوْنَ قُرْتُ عَيْنٍ لِي وَلَكَ لَا تَقْتُلُوهُ عَسَىٰ أَنْ يَنْفَعَنَا أَوْ نَتَّخِذَهُ وَلَدًا وَهُمْ لَا يَسْعُرُونَ﴾ (سورة القصص: ٩)

28:9. Pharaoh's wife said: He may bring joy to you and me. Do not kill him, for perhaps he will be of benefit to us, or we may adopt him as a son. They had no inkling [of what was to happen].

When the family of Pharaoh picked him up, Allah caused Pharaoh's wife to feel compassion towards him. She was the great and virtuous believing woman, Âsiyah bint Muzâḥim.

﴿She said﴾: This child ﴿may bring joy to you and me. Do not kill him﴾ that is, let him live, so that he may bring joy to us and be a source of happiness for us.

﴿for perhaps he will be of benefit to us, or we may adopt him as a son﴾ that is, either he will be a servant who will strive to benefit us, or we will give him a higher status than that, by taking him as a son and loving and honouring him.

Allah (ﷻ) decreed that he should be a source of benefit to the wife of Pharaoh who said these words, for when he became a source of joy to her and she loved him dearly, he continued to be like a loving son towards her, until he grew up and Allah appointed him as a Prophet and Messenger. Then she hastened to submit and believe in him. May Allah be pleased with her and make her pleased.

Allah (ﷻ) tells us that in this discussion about Moosâ, ﴿They had no inkling [of what was to happen]﴾ that is, they were unaware of what had been decreed and decided of how events would unfold. This was by the kindness of Allah (ﷻ), for if they had been aware of that, they would have treated him differently.

﴿وَأَصْبَحَ فُؤَادُ أُمِّ مُوسَىٰ فَدَرِيًّا ۚ إِن كَادَتْ لَتُبْدِي بِهِ لَوْلَا أَن رَّبَطْنَا عَلَىٰ قَلْبِهَا لِتَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٠﴾ وَقَالَتْ لِأُخْتِهِ قُصِّيهِ فَبَصُرَتْ بِهِ عَنْ جُنْبٍ وَهُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ﴿١١﴾ وَحَرَمْنَا عَلَيْهِ الْمَرَاضِعَ مِن قَبْلُ فَقَالَتْ هَلْ أَدُلُّكُمْ عَلَىٰ أَهْلِ بَيْتٍ يَكْفُلُونَهُ لَكُمْ وَهُمْ لَهُ نَاصِحُونَ ﴿١٢﴾ فَرَدَدْنَاهُ إِلَىٰ أُمِّهِ كَىٰ تَقَرَّ عَيْنُهَا وَلَا تَحْزَنَ ۚ وَلَتَعْلَمَنَّ أَن وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ وَلَٰكِنَّ أَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿١٣﴾﴾

(سورة القصص: ١٠-١٣)

- 28:10. Moosâ's mother felt an aching void in her heart. She would have disclosed who he was, had We not strengthened her heart so that she might maintain her faith [in the promise of Allah].
- 28:11. She said to [Moosâ's] sister: Go and find him. And she caught sight of him from a distance, while they did not notice.

- 28:12. We had already ordained that he would refuse all wet-nurses. Then she [his sister] said: Shall I direct you to a household who will bring him up for you and take good care of him?
- 28:13. Thus We restored him to his mother, so that she might be comforted and not grieve, and so that she might know that the promise of Allah is true. Yet most of them do not know.

When Moosâ's mother began to miss him and was very sad, she felt an aching void in her heart because of the anxiety she experienced – as is human nature – even though Allah (ﷻ) had told her not to grieve or be afraid, and He had promised to return him to her.

﴿She would have disclosed who he was, had We not strengthened her heart﴾ and made her steadfast so that she would not disclose who he was.

﴿so that﴾ by means of this patience and steadfastness ﴿she might maintain her faith [in the promise of Allah]﴾. If, when calamity befalls a person, he remains patient and steadfast, his faith increases thereby. This indicates that continuing to panic is a sign of weakness of faith.

﴿She﴾ namely the mother of Moosâ ﴿said to [Moosâ's] sister: Go and find him﴾ that is, go and look for your brother, without letting anyone see you and realise what you are up to. So she went and looked for him,

﴿And she caught sight of him from a distance, while they did not notice﴾ that is, she spotted him from a distance, as if she was simply passing by without wanting anything to do with him.

This was due to her resolve and caution. If she had seen him and come to them deliberately, they would think that it was she who had thrown him into the river, in which case they might have decided to slaughter him, as a punishment to his family.

By Allah's kindness towards Moosâ and his mother, He prevented him from accepting the breast of any woman. They took him out to the marketplace, out of compassion towards him, because perhaps someone was looking for him. His sister came at that point, and said: ﴿Shall I direct you to a household who will bring him up for you and take good care of him?﴾

That was all they wanted, for they loved him dearly, but Allah had caused him to refuse all wet-nurses, and they were afraid that he would die. When his sister said those words to them, highlighting how this household would take good care of him, they hastened to accept and she directed them to that household.

﴿Thus We restored him to his mother﴾ as We had promised her ﴿so that she might be comforted and not grieve﴾, and so that he would grow up with her and she would be reassured and would rejoice in him, and would be paid handsomely for that.

﴿and so that she might know that the promise of Allah is true﴾ for We showed her some of what We had promised her and she saw it with her own eyes, so that she might be reassured and increase in faith, and so that she might know that Allah's promise to protect him and appoint him as a Messenger would be fulfilled.

﴿Yet most of them do not know﴾, so if they go through some difficulties, that undermines their faith, because they do not have complete knowledge that Allah (ﷻ) sends trials and difficulties and creates obstacles on the way to high aims and goals.

So Moosâ (ﷺ) stayed with the family of Pharaoh and was raised as one of the ruling family, using the same means of transportation and wearing the same clothes as them, and his mother was reassured thereby, for it was established that she was his mother through breastfeeding, so there would be no objection to her being close to him or showing compassion towards him.

Think about this divine kindness and how Allah protected His Prophet Moosâ from telling lies in his daily speech (for he could still call her his mother), and how He made things easy for him so that the bond between him and her, which to other people appeared to be based on breastfeeding, was the reason why he could call her his mother. Thus any talk about them as being mother and son was entirely true and appropriate.

﴿وَلَمَّا بَلَغَ أَشُدَّهُ ۖ وَاسْتَوَىٰ ۖ ءَاتَيْنَاهُ حُكْمًا وَعِلْمًا ۚ وَكَذَٰلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿١٤﴾﴾
(سورة القصص: ١٤)

28:14. When he reached his prime and became fully mature, We gave him wisdom and knowledge. Thus do We reward those who do good.

That is, when he reached full strength and became mature and wise, which is typically around the age of forty years, ﴿and became fully mature﴾ that is, when he reached the level of perfection in physical strength, maturity and wisdom ﴿We gave him wisdom and knowledge﴾ that is, wisdom by means of which he could know the rulings of Sharia and judge between people, and a great deal of knowledge. ﴿Thus do We reward those who do good﴾ by worshipping Allah, and treating Allah's creation with kindness. We give them knowledge and wisdom according to their good deeds, and this is indicative of Moosâ's high level of perfection in doing good.

﴿وَدَخَلَ الْمَدِينَةَ عَلَىٰ حِينٍ غَفْلَةٍ مِّنْ أَهْلِهَا فَوَجَدَ فِيهَا رَجُلَيْنِ يَقْتَتِلَانِ هَٰذَا مِنْ شِيعَةِ ۖ وَهَٰذَا مِنْ عَدُوِّهِ ۖ فَاسْتَغْنَتْهُ ٱلَّذِي مِنْ شِيعَتِهِ ۖ عَلَى ٱلَّذِي مِنْ عَدُوِّهِ ۖ فَوَكَرَهُ مُوسَىٰ فَقَضَىٰ عَلَيْهِ ۖ قَالَ هَٰذَا مِنْ عَمَلِ الشَّيْطَانِ ۖ إِنَّهُ عَدُوٌّ مُّضِلٌّ مُّبِينٌ ﴿١٥﴾﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ إِنِّي ظَلَمْتُ نَفْسِي ۖ فَاغْفِرْ لِي ۖ فَغَفَرَ لَهُ ۚ إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْغَفُورُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿١٦﴾﴾ (سورة القصص: ١٥-١٦)

28:15. He entered the city at a time when he would not be noticed by its people, and found two men fighting, one from among his own people and the other from among his enemies. The man from among his own people called him to help him against his enemy, so Moosâ struck him with his fist and killed him. Moosâ said: This is of Shayṭān's doing; verily he is an avowed enemy who seeks to lead man astray.

28:16. He said: My Lord, I have wronged myself, so forgive me. Then He forgave Him, for He is indeed the Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

«He entered the city at a time when he would not be noticed by its people» either because it was the time of the siesta or some other time when people do not go out and about.

«and found two men fighting» that is, disputing and exchanging blows «one from among his own people» namely an Israelite «and the other from among his enemies», the Egyptians.

«The man from among his own people called him to help him against his enemy» because he was well known, and the people were aware that he was an Israelite. The fact that he asked Moosâ for help indicates that Moosâ (ﷺ) had reached a high level of influence in the royal family and was someone who could be feared or in whom hope could be placed.

«so Moosâ struck him with his fist» that is, he punched his enemy in response to the Israelite's request for help «and killed him» with that blow, because he was so strong and powerful.

Moosâ (ﷺ) regretted what he had done, and said: «This is of Shayṭān's doing» that is, it is the result of his making it fair-seeming and of his whispers «verily he is an avowed enemy who seeks to lead man astray». And this is why this happened, because of his clear enmity and his eagerness to lead people astray.

Then he prayed to his Lord for forgiveness, and said: «My Lord, I have wronged myself, so forgive me. Then He forgave Him, for He is indeed the Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful» especially towards those who are humble and hasten to turn to Him and repent, as Moosâ (ﷺ) did.

﴿ قَالَ رَبِّ بِمَا أَنْعَمْتَ عَلَيَّ فَلَنْ أَكُونَ ظَهِيرًا لِلْمُجْرِمِينَ ﴾ ١٧ ﴿ فَاصْبَحَ فِي الْمَدِينَةِ خَائِفًا يَتَرَقَّبُ فَإِذَا الَّذِي آسْتَنْصَرُهُ بِالْأَمْسِ يَسْتَصْرِخُهُ قَالَ لَهُ مُوسَى إِنَّكَ لَغَوِيٌّ مُبِينٌ ﴾ ١٨ ﴿ فَلَمَّا أَنْ أَرَادَ أَنْ يَبْطِشَ بِالَّذِي هُوَ عَدُوٌّ لَهُمَا قَالَ يَمْوَسَّى أَرِيدُ أَنْ نَقْتُلَكَ كَمَا قُتِلَتْ نَفْسًا بِالْأَمْسِ إِنْ تُرِيدُ إِلَّا أَنْ تَكُونَ جَبَّارًا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا تُرِيدُ أَنْ تَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُصْلِحِينَ ﴾ ١٩ ﴿ وَجَاءَ رَجُلٌ مِنْ أَقْصَا الْمَدِينَةِ يَسْعَى قَالَ يَمْوَسَّى إِنَّكَ أَلَمَلَأْتَ بِاتِمْرُونَ بِكَ لِيَقْتُلُوكَ فَاخْرُجْ إِنِّي لَكَ مِنَ النَّاصِحِينَ ﴾ ٢٠ ﴿ فَخَرَجَ مِنْهَا خَائِفًا يَتَرَقَّبُ قَالَ رَبِّ نَجِّنِي مِنَ الْقَوْمِ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴾ ٢١ ﴿ (سورة القصص: ١٧-٢١)

- 28:17. He said: My Lord, because of the blessings that You have bestowed upon me, I shall never lend support to the evildoers.
- 28:18. Morning found him in the city, apprehensive and vigilant, when suddenly the man who had sought his help the previous day called out again to him for help. Moosâ said to him: You are clearly a troublemaker.
- 28:19. Then when he was about to strike the one who was an enemy to them both, he said: O Moosâ, do you intend to kill me as you killed a man yesterday? Your aim is only to become a tyrant in the land; you do not intend to be one of those who put things right!
- 28:20. A man came rushing from the farthest part of the city, and said: O Moosâ, the chiefs are talking about killing you, so leave [immediately]. I am giving you sincere advice.

28:21. So he left [the city], apprehensive and vigilant. He said: O my Lord, save me from the people who are given to wrongdoing.

«He» namely Moosâ (ﷺ) «said: My Lord, because of the blessings that You have bestowed upon me» by enabling me to repent and forgiving me, and many other blessings
«I shall never lend support» or help or aid «to the evildoers» that is, I shall never help anyone in sin.

This was a promise from Moosâ (ﷺ) because of the blessings that Allah had bestowed upon him, never to help any evildoer, as he had done when he killed the Egyptian. This indicates that blessings require a person to do good and refrain from doing evil.

After he had killed the man who was his enemy, «Morning found him in the city, apprehensive and vigilant»: were the family of Pharaoh aware of him or not? He was only afraid because it was known that no Israelite would dare to do such a thing except Moosâ.

Whilst he was in that state, «suddenly the man who had sought his help» against his enemy «the previous day called out again to him for help» against another Egyptian.

«Moosâ said to him», rebuking him for his behaviour,
«You are clearly a troublemaker».

«Then when he» namely Moosâ «was about to strike the one who was an enemy to them both» that is, an enemy to him and to the one who was arguing and shouting for help. The argument between the Egyptian and the Israelite, who called Moosâ to help him, continued until Moosâ wanted to strike the Egyptian. Then the Egyptian said to him, seeking to prevent him killing him: «O Moosâ, do you intend to kill me as you killed a man yesterday? Your aim is only to become a tyrant in the land», because one of the main attributes of those who become tyrants in the land is that they kill people unlawfully.

«you do not intend to be one of those who put things right!» Otherwise, if you wanted to put things right, you would have stood between me and him, without killing anyone. So Moosâ refrained from killing him and he restrained himself because of the admonition and rebuke of the Egyptian.

News of what Moosâ had done in these two incidents spread until it led to Pharaoh and his chiefs discussing the idea of killing Moosâ. So Allah inspired that sincere man who hastened to tell Moosâ of what the chiefs had agreed to do before it was too late.

«A man came rushing from the farthest part of the city» that is, he came running, out of sincerity towards Moosâ and out of fear that they might attack him before he realised.

«and said: O Moosâ, the chiefs are talking about killing you, so leave» the city «[immediately]. I am giving you sincere advice».

So Moosâ followed his advice and «left [the city], apprehensive and vigilant» lest he be killed. He called upon Allah and said: «O my Lord, save me from the people who are given to wrongdoing» for he had repented from his sin and what he had done in anger, without intending to kill. Therefore their threat to kill him was wrongdoing on their part and overstepping the bounds.

﴿وَلَمَّا تَوَجَّهَ تِلْقَاءَ مَدْيَنَ قَالَ عَسَىٰ رَبِّي أَن يَهْدِيَنِي سَوَاءَ السَّبِيلِ ۝٢٢﴾ وَلَمَّا وَرَدَ مَاءَ مَدْيَنَ وَجَدَ عَلَيْهِ أُمَّةً مِنَ النَّاسِ يَسْقُونَ وَوَجَدَ مِنْ دُونِهِمْ امْرَأَتَيْنِ تَذُودَانِ قَالَ مَا خَطْبُكُمَا قَالَتَا لَا نَسْقِي حَتَّىٰ يُصْدِرَ الرِّعَاءُ وَأَبُونَا شَيْخٌ كَبِيرٌ ۝٢٣ فَسَقَىٰ لَهُمَا ثُمَّ تَوَلَّىٰ إِلَى الظِّلِّ فَقَالَ رَبِّ إِنِّي لِمَا أَنزَلْتَ إِلَيَّ مِنْ خَيْرٍ فَقِيرٌ ۝٢٤﴾

(سورة القصص: ٢٢-٢٤)

28:22. As he headed towards Madyan, he said: I hope my Lord will show me the right way [on my journey].

28:23. When he arrived at the well of Madyan, he found there a group of men watering [their flocks], and, further away, he found two women who were holding back [their flock]. He said: What is the matter with you? They said: We cannot water [our flock] until the shepherds move on. And our father is a very old man.

28:24. So he watered [their flock] for them, then he withdrew into the shade and said: O my Lord, I am in need of whatever good You may bestow upon me.

﴿As he headed towards Madyan﴾ which was south of Palestine, where Pharaoh had no authority

﴿he said: I hope my Lord will show me the right way [on my journey]﴾ that is, the straightforward way to reach it, with ease and with no trouble or difficulty. So Allah showed him the right way, and he arrived in Madyan.

﴿When he arrived at the well of Madyan, he found there a group of men watering [their flocks]﴾ – they were people who had a lot of livestock

﴿and, further away﴾ that is, further than that group of men

﴿he found two women who were holding back [their flock]﴾ from the water troughs, because they could not reach it due to the crowd of men, and the men were too mean and ill-mannered to water their flocks for them.

Moosâ said to them: ﴿What is the matter with you?﴾ that is, why are you in this situation?

﴿They said: We cannot water [our flock] until the shepherds move on﴾ that is, usually we cannot water our flocks until the shepherds move on with their flocks, then when there is no one there, we water our flocks

﴿And our father is a very old man﴾ that is, he has no strength to water the flocks, and we have no physical strength ourselves to do it, and we have no menfolk who could push past the shepherds.

Moosâ (ﷺ) felt sorry for them and felt compassion towards them, ﴿So he watered [their flock] for them﴾ without asking for any payment in return; he had no intention except seeking the pleasure of Allah (ﷻ). After he had watered the flocks for them, at a time of intense heat in the middle of the day, as is indicated by the phrase «then he withdrew into the shade», he sat down to rest in the shade after having exerted himself.

«and said» in that situation, seeking provision from his Lord: «O my Lord, I am in need of whatever good You may bestow upon me» that is, I am in need of whatever good You may send to me and make easy for me. Making this implicit request is more eloquent than asking explicitly. And in this situation he continued to call upon his Lord and beseech Him.

﴿فَجَاءَتْهُ إِحْدَاهُمَا تَمْشِي عَلَى اسْتِحْيَاءٍ قَالَتْ إِنَّ أَبِي يَدْعُوكَ لِيَجْزِيَكَ أَجْرَ مَا سَقَيْتَ لَنَا فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُ، وَقَصَّ عَلَيْهِ الْقَصَصَ قَالَ لَا تَخَفْ نَبَوْتُ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٢٥﴾ قَالَتْ إِحْدَاهُمَا يَأْتِيَنَّكَ اسْتِجْرَاهُ إِنَّ خَيْرَ مَنِ اسْتَجَرْتَ، الْقَوِيُّ الْأَمِينُ ﴿٢٦﴾ قَالَ إِنِّي أُرِيدُ أَنْ أُنكِحَكَ إِحْدَى ابْنَتَي هَاتَيْنِ عَلَى أَنْ تَأْجُرَنِي ثَمَنِي حِجَجًا فَإِنْ أَتَمَمْتَ عَشْرًا فَمِنْ عِنْدِكَ وَمَا أُرِيدُ أَنْ أَشُقَّ عَلَيْكَ سَتَجِدُنِي إِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ مِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ ﴿٢٧﴾ قَالَ ذَلِكَ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَكَ أَيَّمَا الْأَجَلَيْنِ قَضَيْتُ فَلَا عُدْوَانَ عَلَيَّ وَاللَّهُ عَلَى مَا نَقُولُ وَكِيلٌ ﴿٢٨﴾﴾ (سورة القصص: ٢٥-٢٨)

- 28:25. Then one of the two women came to him, walking modestly, and said: My father is asking you to come so that he may reward you for watering [our flock] for us. When he came to him and told him his story, he said: Fear not, for [now] you are safe from the wicked people.
- 28:26. One of the two women said: O father, hire him, for the best person whom you can hire is one who is strong and trustworthy.

- 28:27. He said [to Moosâ]: I intend to give you one of these two daughters of mine in marriage, on condition that you work for me for eight years, and if you make it ten, that will be of your own accord. I do not intend to make things difficult for you. You will find me, if Allah so wills, an upright man.
- 28:28. Moosâ said: Let that be the agreement between me and you. Whichever term I fulfil, I will be free from further obligation. And Allah is witness to what we say.

The two women went to their father and told him what had happened, then their father sent one of them to Moosâ. She came, ﴿walking modestly﴾, which is indicative of her noble character and good attitude, for modesty is a virtuous characteristic, especially in women.

This indicates that Moosâ (ﷺ), in what he did for them, was not like a hired worker or servant, in front of whom one would not usually feel shy or behave modestly. Rather he was a man of dignity, and from his good manners and sublime attitude, she saw that which made her behave modestly towards him. She said to him:

﴿My father is asking you to come so that he may reward you for watering [our flock] for us﴾ not by way of trying to show generosity, for it was you who took the initiative in showing kindness to us; rather he wants to return the favour. So Moosâ accepted the invitation.

﴿When he came to him and told him his story﴾ and the reason why he had fled, until he reached this land, the older man said to him, so as to reassure him and comfort him, ﴿Fear not, for [now] you are safe from the wicked people﴾ that is, let your fear be gone, for Allah has saved you from them and enabled you to reach this place where they have no authority.

﴿One of the two women﴾ that is, one of his two daughters ﴿said: O father, hire him﴾ that is, make him your employee so that he may take care of the sheep and water them,

﴿for the best person whom you can hire is one who is strong and trustworthy﴾ that is, Moosâ is the best one you could hire because he combines physical strength and honesty, and the best one to hire is the one who combines physical strength and the ability to do what he was hired to do, with honesty so that he will not betray his master. These two characteristics should be taken into account when hiring anyone to do work, because problems only arise when one or both of these characteristics is lacking. But if they are combined, then the work will be done properly. She only said that because she had seen Moosâ's physical strength and energy when he watered the flocks for them and she had seen his trustworthiness and religious commitment, and how he had shown compassion towards them in a situation in which there was no hope of him benefitting from that; rather his only aim in helping them had been to seek the pleasure of Allah (ﷻ).

﴿He﴾ namely the man of Madyan

﴿said [to Moosâ]: I intend to give you one of these two daughters of mine in marriage, on condition that you work for me for eight years, and if you make it ten, that will be of your own accord﴾ that is, a voluntary action on your part, but it is not obligatory for you
 ﴿I do not intend to make things difficult for you﴾ by imposing ten years on you, and by hiring you I do not wish to impose hard labour on you; rather I am hiring you for easy work in which there is no hardship.

﴿You will find me, if Allah so wills, an upright man﴾. He encouraged him by stating that the work would be easy and that he would treat him well. This indicates that the righteous man should have a good attitude as much as he can, and that what is expected of him with regard to having a good attitude is greater than what is expected of others.

﴿Moosâ said﴾ responding to this request:

﴿Let that be the agreement between me and you﴾ that is, I agree to this condition that you have mentioned, and so it is agreed between me and you.

«Whichever term I fulfil, I will be free from further obligation», whether I fulfil the eight obligatory years or I voluntarily do more than that.

«And Allah is witness to what we say», for He is watching over us and He knows what we have agreed to.

This man, the father of the two women, who dwelt in Madyan, was not Shu'ayb, the well-known Prophet, as is widely believed. There is no evidence for that view. At most it may be said that Shu'ayb (ﷺ) lived in Madyan and this story also took place in Madyan, but what is the connection between the two matters?

Moreover, it is not established that Moosâ lived at the time of Shu'ayb, so how could he have met him personally? If that man was Shu'ayb, then Allah (ﷻ) would have said so and the two women would have mentioned him by name. Furthermore, Allah (ﷻ) destroyed the people of Shu'ayb (ﷺ) for their rejection of him, and there was no one left except those who believed in him. Allah had protected the believers from having that ignorant attitude towards the daughters of their Prophet and keeping them away from the well, barring the way to their flocks, until a stranger came along and showed kindness towards them by watering their flocks. Shu'ayb would not have accepted for Moosâ to tend his sheep and be a servant to him when he was superior to him and of higher status (unless one says that that was before Moosâ's prophethood began, in which case that may be a valid argument. Whatever the case, we cannot accept that this man was Shu'ayb the Prophet, without a sound report from our Prophet (ﷺ) to that effect, and Allah knows best.)

﴿ فَلَمَّا قَضَىٰ مُوسَى الْأَجَلَ وَسَارَ بِأَهْلِهِ ۚ آنَسَ مِنْ جَانِبِ الطُّورِ نَارًا قَالَ لِأَهْلِهِ امْكُثُوا إِنِّي آنَسْتُ نَارًا لَّعَلِّي آتِيكُم مِنْهَا بِخَبَرٍ أَوْ جَذْوَةٍ مِنَ النَّارِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَصْطَلُونَ ﴾ (سورة القصص: ٢٩)

28:29. When Moosâ had fulfilled the term and was travelling with his family, he saw a fire in the direction of the mountain. He said to his family: Wait here, for I can see a fire. Perhaps I can bring you some news from there, or I will bring you a burning ember so that you may warm yourselves.

«When Moosâ had fulfilled the term». It may be that he fulfilled the obligatory term, or that he voluntarily completed the longer term, as would be expected of Moosâ, because of his sincerity. At that point, he longed to go and see his family, his mother, his tribe and his homeland. Since such a long time had passed, he thought that the Egyptians would have forgotten what he had done.

«and was travelling with his family», heading towards Egypt
 «he saw a fire in the direction of the mountain. He said to his family: Wait here, for I can see a fire. Perhaps I can bring you some news from there, or I will bring you a burning ember so that you may warm yourselves» for it was very cold, and they had lost their way.

﴿ فَلَمَّا أَتَاهَا نُودِيَ مِنْ شَاطِئِ الْوَادِ الْأَيْمَنِ فِي الْبُقْعَةِ الْمُبَارَكَةِ مِنَ الشَّجَرَةِ أَنْ يَمُوسَىٰ إِنَّهُ أَنَا اللَّهُ رَبُّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٣٠﴾ وَأَنْ أَلْقِ عَصَاكَ فَلَمَّا رَآهَا تُهْتَزُّ كَانَهَا جَانًّا وَلَىٰ مُدَبِّرًا وَلَمْ يَعْقِبْ يَمُوسَىٰ أَقِيلَ وَلَا تَخَفْ إِنَّكَ مِنَ الْأَمِينِ ﴿٣١﴾ أَسْلَكَ يَدَكَ فِي جَيْبِكَ تَخَرُّجَ يَبْصَاءَ مِنْ غَيْرِ سُوءٍ وَأَضْمَمَ إِلَيْكَ جَنَاحَكَ مِنَ الرَّهْبِ ۖ فَذَانِكَ بُرْهَانَانِ مِنْ رَبِّكَ إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ وَمَلَئِهِ ۚ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا قَوْمًا فَاسِقِينَ ﴾

(سورة القصص: ٣٠-٣٢) ﴿٣١﴾

28:30. But when he came to it, he was called from the right-hand side of the valley, from the bush in the blessed spot, saying: O Moosâ, verily I am Allah, the Lord of the worlds.

- 28:31. Throw down your staff. But when he saw it moving as if it was a snake, he turned and fled without a backward glance. [It was said:] O Moosâ, come back, and do not be afraid, for you are quite safe.
- 28:32. Insert your hand into your garment; it will come forth shining white, without harm. And put your hand under your arm when you feel afraid [so as to still your fear and compose yourself]. These are two proofs from your Lord to Pharaoh and his chiefs, for they are indeed a rebellious and wicked people.

When he came to it, he was called: ﴿O Moosâ, verily I am Allah, the Lord of the worlds﴾. Thus He informed him of His divinity and Lordship, which must have been followed by the command to worship Him alone and devote himself to Him alone, as is clearly mentioned elsewhere:

﴿Verily, I am Allah; there is no God but Me. So worship Me [alone] and establish prayer to remember Me.﴾ (Tâ Hâ 20: 14)

﴿Throw down your staff﴾ so he threw it down

﴿But when he saw it moving﴾ rapidly, presenting a terrifying image ﴿as if it was a snake﴾ the word translated here as ﴿snake﴾ refers to a large male snake

﴿he turned and fled without a backward glance﴾ that is, he was overwhelmed with fear. But Allah said to him:

﴿O Moosâ, come back, and do not be afraid, for you are quite safe﴾. This wording is the most eloquent and most effective in offering reassurance and dispelling fear.

﴿come back﴾ – this phrase is an order to come back, so he had no choice but to comply. But the terrifying thing could still be there, so Allah said: ﴿and do not be afraid﴾. Thus He instructed him to do two things: to come back, and not to be afraid. But there was another possibility, which was that he could come back and not be afraid, but then he might not be protected or safe from harm. Hence Allah said: ﴿for you are quite safe﴾. Thus he was completely protected in all ways. So Moosâ (ﷺ) came back, without fear; rather he was reassured and trusted what his Lord had told him, having increased in faith and certainty. This was a sign that Allah showed him before he went to Pharaoh, so that he might have complete certainty and more courage, and so that he might be stronger and more resilient.

Then He showed him another sign, as He said:

﴿Insert your hand into your garment; it will come forth shining white, without harm﴾. So he inserted his hand into his garment and then brought it forth, as Allah (ﷻ) had instructed him.

﴿And put your hand under your arm when you feel afraid﴾ and press your upper arm to your side, in order to dispel your fear.

﴿These﴾ namely the staff turning into a snake and the hand coming forth shining white, without harm, were two definitive signs from Allah

﴿to Pharaoh and his chiefs, for they are indeed a rebellious and wicked people﴾ for it is not sufficient for the Messenger merely to warn them and give them instructions; rather there should be some clear signs, in the hope that this might benefit them.

﴿ قَالَ رَبِّ إِنِّي قَتَلْتُ مِنْهُمْ نَفْسًا فَأَخَافُ أَنْ يَقْتُلُونِ ﴾ (٣٣) وَأَخِي هَارُونُ هُوَ أَفْصَحُ مِنِّي لِسَانًا فَأَرْسَلْهُ مَعِيَ رِدْءًا يُصَدِّقُنِي ۖ إِنِّي أَخَافُ أَنْ يُكَذِّبُونِ ﴾ (٣٤) قَالَ سَنَشُدُّ عَضُدَكَ بِأَخِيكَ وَنَجْعَلُ لَكُمَا سُلْطٰنًا ۖ فَلَا يَصِلُونَ إِلَيْكُمَا بِآيَاتِنَا ۖ أَنْتُمَا وَمَنِ اتَّبَعَكُمَا الْغٰلِبُونَ ﴾ (٣٥) (سورة القصص: ٣٣-٣٥)

28:33. Moosâ said: My Lord, I killed one of their men, and I fear that they will kill me.

28:34. My brother Hâroon is clearer in speech than I, so send him with me as a helper, to reiterate my words, for I fear that they will reject me.

28:35. Allah said: We will strengthen you through your brother, and give you both power, so that they will not be able to harm you. By virtue of Our signs, you two and those who follow you will be triumphant.

---

﴿Moosâ said﴾, apologising to his Lord and asking Him for help with the task that He had given him, and mentioning the impediment that hindered him, so that his Lord might help him to overcome what he feared:

﴿My Lord, I killed one of their men, and I fear that they will kill me. My brother Hâroon is clearer in speech than I, so send him with me as a helper, to reiterate my words﴾ for that will help to make the truth clearer

﴿for I fear that they will reject me﴾.

Allah answered his request and said: ﴿We will strengthen you through your brother﴾ that is, We will help you by means of him.

Then Allah dispelled his fear of being killed, as He said:

﴿and give you both power﴾ that is, We will give you authority and power, so that your call will be based on proof and divine support, and you will be protected from your enemies

﴿so that they will not be able to harm you﴾. That is because of Our signs and what they point to of truth and the way in which they impact anyone who sees them and examines them. By means of them, you will attain authority and be protected from the harm of your enemies; that will be more effective for you than troops who are great in number and well equipped.

﴿By virtue of Our signs, you two and those who follow you will be triumphant﴾. This was a promise to Moosâ at that time, when he was alone and had returned to his homeland after having been expelled. Matters continued to develop and unfold until Allah fulfilled his promise and gave him power over the people and the land, and he and his followers prevailed.

﴿فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ مُوسَىٰ بِآيَاتِنَا بَيِّنَاتٍ قَالُوا مَا هَذَا إِلَّا سِحْرٌ مُّفْتَرَىٰ وَمَا كُنَّا بِهِدَافِي آبَائِنَا الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿٣٦﴾ وَقَالَ مُوسَىٰ رَبِّي أَعْلَمُ بِمَن جَاءَ بِالْهُدَىٰ مِنْ عِنْدِهِ ۖ وَمَن تَكُونُ لَهُ عَاقِبَةُ الدَّارِ إِنَّهُ لَا يُفْلِحُ الظَّالِمُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾﴾ (سورة القصص: ٣٦-٣٧)

28:36. When Moosâ came to them with Our clear signs, they said: This is nothing but invented magic; we have never heard of such a thing from our forefathers.

28:37. Moosâ said: My Lord knows best who comes with guidance from Him, and whose end will be [best] in the hereafter. Verily the wrongdoers will never prosper.

So Moosâ went with the message of his Lord.

﴿When Moosâ came to them with Our clear signs﴾ which clearly supported what he said to them, with no shortcomings or ambiguity, ﴿they said﴾, wrongfully, arrogantly and stubbornly:

﴿This is nothing but invented magic﴾, as Pharaoh said in that situation in which truth became apparent and prevailed over falsehood, and falsehood diminished, and the leaders who understood the reality of things, submitted to Moosâ:

﴿...He must be your master, who taught you magic!...﴾ (ash-Shu'arâ' 26: 49)

Pharaoh, who was intelligent but was not good at heart, sank to such a level of cunning and treachery, as Allah tells us. This man knew

﴿...that none but the Lord of the heavens and the earth has sent down these [signs] as clear evidence...﴾ (al-Isrâ' 17: 102)

– but he was overtaken by his fate.

﴿we have never heard of such a thing from our forefathers﴾. But they were lying when they said that, because Yoosuf (ﷺ) was sent before Moosâ (ﷺ), as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿Yoosuf came to you before with clear signs, but you never ceased to doubt the message he brought you. Then when he died, you said: Allah will never send [another] Messenger after him. Thus Allah leaves to stray those who transgress and are given to much doubting.﴾
(Ghâfir 40: 34)

﴿Moosâ said﴾ when they claimed that what he brought was magic and misguidance, and that what they were following was true guidance: ﴿My Lord knows best who comes with guidance from Him, and whose end will be [best] in the hereafter﴾ that is, if my meeting with you and my presenting clear signs is of no benefit, and you insist on getting carried away in your misguidance and in your disbelief, then Allah (ﷻ) knows best who is guided and who is not, and whose end will be best in the hereafter, us or you.

﴿Verily the wrongdoers will never prosper﴾ for the best end in the hereafter is for Moosâ and his followers, and these people (the wrongdoers) will be faced with loss, a bad end and doom.

﴿وَقَالَ فِرْعَوْنُ يَتْلُوا آيَاتِهَا أَلَمْ آتِكُم مِّنْ إِلَهِ غَيْرِي فَأَوْقِدْ لِي يَهْمَنُ عَلَى الطِّينِ فَاجْعَل لِّي صَرْحًا لَّعَلِّي أَطْلُعُ إِلَى إِلَهِ مُوسَى وَإِنِّي لَأَظُنُّهُ مِنَ الْكَاذِبِينَ ﴿٢٨﴾ وَاسْتَكَبرَ هُوَ وَجُنُودُهُ فِي الْأَرْضِ يَكْفِرُ الْحَقُّ وَظَنُّوا أَنَّهُمْ إِلَهًا لَا يُرْجَعُونَ ﴿٢٩﴾ فَأَخَذْنَاهُ وَجُنُودَهُ فَنَبَذْنَاهُمْ فِي الْيَمِّ فَاُنظُرْ كَيْفَ كَانَتْ عَاقِبَةُ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٣٠﴾ وَجَعَلْنَاهُمْ أَيْمَةً يَدْعُونَ إِلَى الْكُفْرِ وَيَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ لَا يُنصَرُونَ ﴿٣١﴾ وَأَتَّبَعْنَاهُمْ فِي هَذِهِ الدُّنْيَا لَعْنَةً وَيَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ هُمْ مِنَ الْمَقْبُوحِينَ ﴿٣٢﴾﴾ (سورة القصص: ٣٨-٤٢)

28:38. Pharaoh said: O chiefs, I do not know of any god for you except myself. So, O Hâmân, light me a fire [to bake bricks] of clay, and build me a tower, so that I may climb up and have a look at the God of Moosâ, for verily I think he is a liar.

28:39. He and his troops behaved arrogantly in the land without justification, and thought that they would not be brought back to Us.

28:40. So We seized him and his troops and flung them into the sea. So see what was the fate of the wrongdoers.

28:41. We made them leaders who call people to the fire, and on the Day of Resurrection they will not be helped.

28:42. We caused a curse to overtake them in this world, and on the Day of Resurrection they will be among those who are spurned.

---

﴿Pharaoh said﴾, audaciously challenging his Lord and deceiving his foolish people who were lacking in reason:

﴿O chiefs, I do not know of any god for you except myself﴾ that is, I alone am your god and deserving of your worship; if there was any god other than me, I would have known him. Look at how Pharaoh presented his claim in a very cautious way: he did not say “you have no other god but me”; rather he spoke in a cautious manner and said: ﴿I do not know of any god for you except myself﴾. That is because in their eyes he was the virtuous one who possessed great knowledge; whatever he said was true and whatever he commanded them to do they would obey.

When he said these words, which could be interpreted as meaning that there could possibly be another god besides him, what he wanted was to rule out that possibility. So he said to Hâmân: ﴿light me a fire [to bake bricks] of clay, and build me a tower﴾ that is, a structure, ﴿so that I may climb up and have a look at the God of Moosâ, for verily I think he is a liar﴾, but we will examine this matter and prove what I think, and we will show you that Moosâ is a liar. Look at this great audacity towards Allah, such as no other human ever reached. He disbelieved in Moosâ and claimed to be divine, he denied any knowledge of the true God, and he took measures to reach the God of Moosâ, and all of that was aimed at deceiving the people. But what is amazing about these chiefs who claimed to be senior figures in the kingdom and running its affairs is the way in which this man toyed with their minds and belittled their intelligence. This was because of their evildoing that was deeply entrenched in their character.

Hence their religious concepts became corrupt, which was followed by corruption of their way of thinking. We ask You, O Allah, to make us steadfast in faith and not to let our hearts deviate now after You have guided us, and bestow upon us mercy from Yourself; for You are the Bestower (cf. 3: 8).

﴿He and his troops behaved arrogantly in the land without justification﴾. They were arrogant towards the slaves of Allah and mistreated them harshly, and they were arrogant towards the Messengers of Allah and what they brought of signs. So they rejected the signs and claimed that what they were following was more sublime and better.

﴿and thought that they would not be brought back to Us﴾. Hence they were audacious. Otherwise, if they had known or thought that they would be brought back to Allah, they would not have done what they did.

﴿So We seized him and his troops﴾ when they persisted in stubbornness and transgression

﴿and flung them into the sea. So see what was the fate of the wrongdoers﴾. This was the worst of punishments and they were the greatest losers, for it was a worldly punishment that was ongoing and was connected to the punishment of the hereafter.

﴿We made them leaders who call people to the fire﴾ that is, We made Pharaoh and his chiefs leaders who may be followed to the abode of loss and doom.

﴿and on the Day of Resurrection they will not be helped﴾ against the punishment of Allah, for they will be too weak to ward it off from themselves, and they will have no protector or helper against Allah.

﴿We caused a curse to overtake them in this world﴾ that is, in addition to their punishment and disgrace in this world, We have also caused a curse to overtake them, so they are spoken ill of, resented and criticised. This is something that is obvious, for they are the leaders of those who are cursed in this world, and foremost among them. ﴿and on the Day of Resurrection they will be among those who are spurned﴾, cast far away, for their deeds are abhorrent. Thus there is combined against them the resentment of Allah, the resentment of His creation and the resentment of their own selves.

﴿وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْكِتَابَ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا أَهْلَكْنَا الْقُرُونَ الْأُولَىٰ بَصَائِرَ
لِلنَّاسِ وَهُدًى وَرَحْمَةً لَّعَلَّهُمْ يَتَذَكَّرُونَ﴾ (٤٣) وَمَا كُنْتَ بِجَانِبِ الْغَرْبِيِّ إِذْ قَضَيْنَا
إِلَىٰ مُوسَى الْأَمْرَ وَمَا كُنْتَ مِنَ الشَّاهِدِينَ﴾ (٤٤) (سورة القصص: ٤٣-٤٤)

28:43. We gave Moosâ the Book after We had destroyed the previous nations, as enlightenment for humankind, and as guidance and mercy, so that they might pay heed.

28:44. You were not there on the western side [of the mountain] when We decreed for Moosâ the commission, nor did you witness that event.

﴿We gave Moosâ the Book﴾ namely the Torah ﴿after We had destroyed the previous nations﴾ – the last of those nations who were destroyed en masse were Pharaoh and his troops. This indicates that after the revelation of the Torah, wholesale destruction of nations ceased, and jihad against the disbelievers with the sword was prescribed.

﴿as enlightenment for humankind﴾ that is, the Book of Allah, that He sent down to Moosâ, contains enlightenment for humankind. In other words it contains matters through which they may see what benefits them and what harms them. Thus proof is established against the sinner, but the believer benefits from it, because in his case it is mercy and guidance for him to the straight path. Hence Allah says: ﴿and as guidance and mercy, so that they might pay heed﴾.

When Allah told His Messenger (ﷺ) the story of the unseen past, He pointed out that this news came from a purely divine source; the Messenger (ﷺ) had no way of knowing about it except through revelation. Hence He said:

﴿You were not there on the western side [of the mountain]﴾ at the time when We decreed for Moosâ the commission, ﴿nor did you witness that event﴾, so that it might be said that you came to know this information in that manner.

﴿وَلَكِنَّا أَنشَأْنَا قُرُونًا فَتَطَاوَلَ عَلَيْهِمُ الْعُمُرُ وَمَا كُنْتَ ثَابِتًا فِي أَهْلِ مَدْيَنَ تَتْلُو عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتِنَا وَلَكِنَّا كُنَّا مُرْسِلِينَ ﴿٤٥﴾ وَمَا كُنْتَ بِجَانِبِ الطُّورِ إِذْ نَادَيْنَا وَلَكِنْ رَحْمَةً مِن رَّبِّكَ لِتُنْذِرَ قَوْمًا مَّا أَتَتْهُمْ مِنْ نَذِيرٍ مِّن قَبْلِكَ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٤٦﴾﴾ (سورة القصص: ٤٥-٤٦)

28:45. But We brought forth many nations [after Moosâ], and a long time has gone by since then. And you [O Muhammad] did not dwell among the people of Madyan, learning from them [the story mentioned in] Our revelation; rather it is We Who have sent you as a Messenger [and revealed to you their stories].

28:46. You were not on the side of the mountain when We called [to Moosâ]. But [the revelation is sent to you] as a mercy from your Lord, so that you may warn people to whom no warner was sent before you, in order that they may pay heed.

﴿But We brought forth many nations [after Moosâ], and a long time has gone by since then﴾; knowledge vanished, and Allah's revelations were forgotten. Then We sent you at a time when there was a great need for you and for that which We have taught you and revealed to you.

﴿And you [O Muhammad] did not dwell among the people of Madyan, learning from them [the story mentioned in] Our revelation﴾ teaching them and learning from them, so that you came to know the story of Moosâ in Madyan.

﴿rather it is We Who have sent you as a Messenger [and revealed to you their stories]﴾ that is, the story of Moosâ that you brought is one of the results of Our sending you, and it is revelation that you had no way of knowing without Us sending you and revealing it to you.

﴿You were not on the side of the mountain when We called [to Moosâ]﴾ and commanded him to go to the wrongdoing people and convey to them Our message, showing them Our signs and wonders that We have related to you. The point is that with regard to the events that happened to Moosâ (ﷺ) in these places and that you have narrated as they happened, without adding or subtracting anything, one of two things must be the case:

The first explanation is that you (O Muhammad ﷺ) were present and witnessed them, or you went to the places where they happened, and learned about them from the people there, which does not prove that you are the Messenger of Allah, because matters that one may narrate to others after witnessing them or finding out about them, are commonplace and that is not something that is exclusively for the Prophets. But it is known with certainty that this did not happen, for your friends and enemies alike know that this is not the case.

So the other explanation must be correct, which is that this has come to you from Allah, and is His revelation and message. Thus the truth of your message is proven by means of definitive evidence, and it is known that Allah has sent you as a mercy to His slaves. Hence Allah says: «But [the revelation is sent to you] as a mercy from your Lord, so that you may warn people to whom no warner was sent before you» namely the Arabs and Quraysh. For the divine message was unknown to them, both at the time when the Messenger (ﷺ) was sent and for a long time before that.

«in order that they may pay heed» by learning what is good and doing it, and learning what is bad and refraining from it. If this is what you are, then what they must do is hasten to believe in you and be grateful for this blessing, the worth of which cannot be rightly estimated and for which sufficient thanks can never be given.

The fact that he warned the Arabs does not contradict the fact that he was also sent to others. For he was an Arab, the Qur'an that was sent down to him was Arabic, and the first people he called were the Arabs. So the message was addressed first of all to them, and to others after that. This is like the verses in which Allah says:

«Does it seem strange to people that We have sent revelation to a man from among themselves [saying]: Warn the people...?» (Yoonus 10: 2) – and:

«Say [O Muhammad]: O people, verily I am the Messenger of Allah to you all...» (al-A'raf 7: 158)

﴿وَلَوْلَا أَن تُصِيبَهُمْ مُّصِيبَةٌ بِمَا قَدَّمَتْ أَيْدِيهِمْ فَيَقُولُوا رَبَّنَا لَوْلَا أَرْسَلْتَ إِلَيْنَا رَسُولًا فَنَتَّبِعَ آيَاتِكَ وَنَكُونُ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٤٧﴾ فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمُ الْحَقُّ مِنْ عِنْدِنَا قَالُوا لَوْلَا أُوتِيَ مِثْلَ مَا أُوتِيَ مُوسَىٰ أَوْ لَمَّا يَكْفُرُوا بِمَا أُوتِيَ مُوسَىٰ مِنْ قَبْلُ قَالُوا سِحْرَانِ تَظَاهَرَا وَقَالُوا إِنَّا بِكُلِّ كَافِرٍ ﴿٤٨﴾ قُلْ فَأْتُوا بِكِتَابٍ مِنْ عِنْدِ اللَّهِ هُوَ أَهْدَىٰ مِنْهُمَا أَتَّبَعُهُ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿٤٩﴾ فَإِنْ لَمْ يَسْتَجِيبُوا لَكَ فَاعْلَمْ أَنَّمَا يَتَّبِعُونَ﴾

أَهْوَاءَهُمْ وَمَنْ أَضَلُّ مِمَّنِ اتَّبَعَ هَوَاهُ يَغْيِرْهُدَى مِنَ اللَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ
الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٥٠﴾ (سورة القصص: ٤٧-٥٠)

- 28:47. [We have sent you as a Messenger] lest they say, when a calamity befalls them because of the deeds which their own hands have wrought: Our Lord, why did You not send to us a Messenger so that we might follow Your revelations and be among those who believe?
- 28:48. But when the truth came to them from Us, they said: Why has he not been given the like of that which was given to Moosâ? Did they not reject that which was given to Moosâ before? They say: [These – the Torah and the Qur'an – are] two types of magic, each supporting the other! And they say: We reject both of them.
- 28:49. Say: Then bring a book from Allah that is a better guide than these two so that I may follow it, if you are telling the truth.
- 28:50. But if they do not respond to you, then know that they only follow their own desires, and who is more astray than one who follows his own desires, without any guidance from Allah? Verily Allah does not guide people who are given to wrongdoing.

«[We have sent you as a Messenger] lest they say, when a calamity befalls them because of the deeds which their own hands have wrought» of disbelief and sins

«Our Lord, why did You not send to us a Messenger so that we might follow Your revelations and be among those who believe?» That is, so We have sent you, O Muhammad (ﷺ), so as to leave them with no excuse.

«But when the truth came to them from Us» concerning which there is no doubt, namely the Qur'an which We revealed to you, «they said», rejecting it and objecting to it on the basis of their flawed argument:

﴿Why has he not been given the like of that which was given to Moosâ?﴾ A Book was sent down to him from heaven in one go. In other words, so long as it comes down piecemeal, it cannot be from Allah. What kind of specious argument is this? How can this prove that it is not from Allah because it was sent down piecemeal?

Rather it is indicative of the perfect nature of this Qur'an, and the perfect care of Allah for the one to whom He sent it down, that it was sent down piecemeal, so that Allah might strengthen the heart of His Messenger (ﷺ) thereby, and increase the believers in faith.

﴿Whenever they come to you [O Muhammad] with an argument, We reveal to you the truth and the best explanation.﴾ (al-Furqân 25: 33)

Moreover, their comparison of the Qur'an with the Book of Moosâ was a comparison with something that they did not believe in, so how could they compare it to a book that they rejected and did not believe in? Hence Allah says:

﴿Did they not reject that which was given to Moosâ before? They say: [These – the Torah and the Qur'an – are] two types of magic, each supporting the other!﴾ That is, each supporting the other in their magic and misleading the people

﴿And they say: We reject both of them﴾. Thus it is proven that the people wanted to refute the truth without any proof, they tried to undermine it with a flawed argument and made contradictory statements. This is how every disbeliever is. Hence Allah clearly tells us that they disbelieved in both Books and both Messengers. But did they disbelieve by way of seeking the truth and following something that they had that was better than these two Books, or were they merely following whims and desires?

Then Allah (ﷻ) says, highlighting their flawed argument and challenging them to produce a third book that was more guided:

﴿Say: Then bring a book from Allah that is a better guide than these two﴾ namely the Torah and the Qur'an,

﴿so that I may follow it, if you are telling the truth﴾. But there was no way that they or anyone else could produce something like these two Books, for the world had never received, since the time Allah created it, any book like these two in terms of knowledge, guidance, clarity and mercy for humankind.

It would be perfectly fair for the caller to say: My aim is truth and guidance, and I have brought you this Book which contains that and is in harmony with the Book of Moosâ, so we must all submit to these Books and follow them, because they are guidance and truth, but if you bring me a book from Allah that is more guided than them, I will follow it, otherwise I will not give up guidance and truth of which I am certain for something other than guidance and truth.

﴿But if they do not respond to you﴾ and do not bring a book that is a better guide than these two,

﴿then know that they only follow their own desires﴾ that is, then know that their refusal to follow you is not because they are going to follow some truth that they know or choose some other guidance; rather it is because of merely following their whims and desires.

﴿and who is more astray than one who follows his own desires, without any guidance from Allah?﴾ Such a one is the most misguided of people, because he was offered guidance and the straight path that leads to Allah and to His paradise, but he did not pay any attention to it or accept it; his desire pushed him to follow the paths that lead to doom and misery, so he followed those paths and ignored true guidance.

Can there be anyone who is more misguided than one who is like this? But his wrongdoing, enmity and lack of love for the truth is what dictated that he should persist in his misguidance and not be guided by Allah. Hence Allah says:

﴿Verily Allah does not guide people who are given to wrongdoing﴾ that is, those for whom wrongdoing and stubbornness have become second nature. Guidance came to them but they rejected it, but when whims and desires were offered to them, they followed them, thus closing the gates of guidance to themselves, and opening the gates of misguidance. Hence they are wandering blindly in their misguidance and wrongdoing, and in their misery and doom.

The words «But if they do not respond to you, then know that they only follow their own desires» indicate that anyone who does not respond to the Messenger (ﷺ) and who follows a view contrary to that of the Messenger (ﷺ) is not following true guidance; rather he is following whims and desires.

﴿وَلَقَدْ وَصَّلْنَا لَهُمُ الْقَوْلَ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَذَكَّرُونَ﴾ (سورة القصص: ٥١)

28:51. Now We have caused Our word to reach them in stages, so that they may pay heed.

«Now We have caused Our word to reach them in stages» that is, We have caused it to reach them piecemeal and We have sent it down little by little, out of mercy and kindness towards them «so that they may pay heed» when the revelations come to them repeatedly, and explanations are sent down when they are needed. Thus it is revealed in stages, as a mercy towards them, so why are they objecting to what is in their best interests?

Some lessons that we learn from this wondrous story

- The signs and lessons of Allah (ﷻ), and the stories He tells us of the previous nations, only benefit and enlighten the believers. What the individual learns from these stories will be commensurate with his level of faith. Allah (ﷻ) only tells the stories for the believers' sake; as for others, Allah does not care about them and they will receive no light or guidance from these stories.

- When Allah (ﷻ) wills something, he prepares the means that lead to it and brings it about stage by stage, gradually, not all in one go.
- No matter how weak an oppressed nation becomes, it should not give in to laziness and give up pursuing its rights, or despair of regaining power and reaching a high level, especially if it is oppressed. Allah saved the Children of Israel, who were a weak nation, from the captivity of Pharaoh and his chiefs, and He gave them power and control over their land.
- So long as a nation is subjugated and humiliated, and cannot stand up for its rights or speak for itself, it will not be able to take care of its religious or worldly affairs, and will not be able to play a leading role.
- Allah showed kindness to the mother of Moosâ, and alleviated the calamity for her by giving her glad tidings that Allah would return her son to her and make him one of the Messengers.
- Allah may decree some hardship for His slave, so as to make him attain greater happiness, or to ward off some greater harm, as He decreed that intense grief and worry for the mother of Moosâ, that were the means of bringing her son back to her, reassuring her, comforting her and increasing her joy and happiness.
- Natural fear of people is not contrary to faith and does not diminish it, as we see in the case of the mother of Moosâ and Moosâ himself.
- Faith may increase and decrease, but one of the greatest means of increasing faith and perfecting certainty is having patience in the face of trouble and feeling confident of the help of Allah when calamity strikes, as Allah tells us about the mother of Moosâ: ﴿She would have disclosed who he was, had We not strengthened her heart so that she might maintain her faith [in the promise of Allah]﴾ (28: 10) that is, so that her faith would increase and she would be reassured.

- One of the greatest of Allah's blessings to His slave and one of the greatest ways in which He helps His slave in his affairs is His making him steadfast and strengthening his resolve at the time of fear and overwhelming calamity, thus enabling him to say and do the right thing. This is in contrast to the one who is overwhelmed by worries, fear and panic; he does not think straight and he loses his focus, so he is not able to help himself in that situation.
- Even if a person knows that the divine will and decree and the promise of Allah will inevitably come to pass, he should not neglect to take proper measures as Allah has instructed, and that is not contrary to faith in the promise of Allah. Allah promised the mother of Moosâ that He would return her son to her, yet she took measures to bring him back, and she sent his sister to track him down and find out where he was.
- It is permissible for a woman to go out and attend to her own needs, and to speak to men provided that there is no reason for caution, as the sister of Moosâ and the two daughters of the man of Madyan did.
- It is permissible to receive payment for raising and breastfeeding a child, and to help someone to find a woman who will do that.
- By His mercy towards His weak slave whom He wants to honour, Allah may show him some of His signs and proof, so as to increase him in faith, as Allah returned Moosâ to his mother, so that she would know that the promise of Allah is true.
- Killing a disbeliever who has a covenant with the Muslims or who is regarded as being under a covenant with them on the basis of custom is not permissible. Moosâ regarded his killing of the Egyptian disbeliever as a sin, and he asked Allah to forgive him for it.
- The one who kills people unlawfully is regarded as one of the tyrants who spread mischief in the land.

- The one who kills people unlawfully and claims that he only wants to put things right in the land and deter evildoers is a liar and is spreading mischief, as Allah tells us that the Egyptian said: ﴿...do you intend to kill me as you killed a man yesterday? Your aim is only to become a tyrant in the land; you do not intend to be one of those who put things right!﴾ (28: 19). Allah said this by way of approving of these words, not saying that they were incorrect.
- Telling someone what is being said about him, by way of warning him of some evil that may befall him, is not regarded as spreading malicious gossip. In fact it may be obligatory, as that man came and told Moosâ by way of offering sincere advice and warning him (28: 20).
- If a person fears that he may be killed or harmed if he stays where he is, he should not allow himself to be destroyed or surrender to that. Rather he should leave, as Moosâ did.
- If there are two choices that will lead to harm, but an individual has no alternative but to choose one of them, he should choose the one that leads to lesser harm, as Moosâ did when he had the choice of either remaining in Egypt, but he would be killed, or going to some distant land to which he did not know the route and he had no guide to show him the way except his Lord, but this was more likely to lead to safety than the first option, so Moosâ chose it.
- With regard to one who is researching an issue of knowledge and needs to give a verdict, if he cannot be certain that one of the two views is correct, he should seek the guidance of his Lord and ask Him to guide him to the correct view, after sincerely searching for the truth, for Allah will not disappoint one who is like that. This is what Moosâ did when he set out for Madyan: ﴿As he headed towards Madyan, he said: I hope my Lord will show me the right way [on my journey]﴾ (28: 22).

- Showing mercy to people and being kind to them, whether you know them or not, is one of the characteristics of the Prophets. That kindness includes watering livestock and helping those who are unable to help themselves.
- It is recommended to offer supplication, explaining one's situation and what one needs, even though Allah knows it well, because He loves for His slave to beseech Him and express his humility and need for Him, as Moosâ said: ﴿O my Lord, I am in need of whatever good You may bestow upon me﴾ (28: 24).
- Modesty and shyness, especially in people of dignity and noble character, are praiseworthy characteristics.
- Offering recompense for favours and kindness is an attitude that has existed since the time of the earlier generations.
- If a person does something for the sake of Allah (ﷻ), then receives recompense without having had that in mind from the outset, he is not to be blamed for that. Moosâ accepted recompense for his act of kindness from the man of Madyan, although he had not sought it and had never thought of receiving any recompense.
- It is permissible to hire someone to tend sheep and do similar tasks that may not be well defined and may be worked out on the basis of custom. It is permissible to hire someone in return for benefit, even if that benefit is in the form of marriage.
- A man may offer his daughter in marriage to another man whom he has chosen for her, and there is nothing wrong with that.
- The best worker whom a man may employ is the one who is strong and honest.
- One of the best of good attitudes and manners is to show kindness towards workers and servants, and not impose too much work on them, because Allah tells us that the man of Madyan said: ﴿I do not intend to make things difficult for you. You will find me, if Allah so wills, an upright man﴾ (28: 27).

- It is permissible to make contracts for work and other matters without witnesses, because Moosâ said: ﴿And Allah is witness to what we say﴾ (28: 28).
- Allah caused clear signs and miracles to occur at the hand of Moosâ, such as the snake, his hand turning white without harm, and the protection that Allah granted to Moosâ and Hâroon against Pharaoh and against drowning.
- One of the greatest punishments that may befall a man is to become a leader in evil, and that will be commensurate with the level of his opposition to the revelations and signs of Allah. By the same token, one of the greatest blessings that Allah may bestow upon His slave is to make him a leader in good, so that he is guided and guides others.
- This story offers proof for the message of Muhammad (ﷺ), as this story is narrated in detail, in accordance with what really happened, and in a way that confirms the message of the Messengers and supports the clear truth, without him having been present at any of these events or having visited any of these places. He never read or studied anything about any of these matters, or discussed them with any of the people of knowledge. It is nothing but the message of the Most Gracious, Most Merciful, and revelation that was sent down to him by the Most Generous, the Bestower of blessings, so that he might warn thereby people who were ignorant and who had never been warned before or received any message.

Blessings and peace of Allah be upon the one whose very words indicated that he was the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), and whose instructions and prohibitions signalled to wise people that this message was from Allah. How could it be otherwise, when there was so much evidence to prove the soundness of the message he brought, namely: the earlier and later scriptures; the law he brought; the character of the Prophet (ﷺ) which was based on the best attitude and manners, such as can only be suited to one who is the best of people; and the clear victory granted to his religion and nation, to the extent that his religion reached as far as night and day, and his nation conquered most of the world with the sword and spear, and hearts were won over with knowledge and faith?

But stubborn nations and disbelieving rulers who are standing together against the Ummah are uniting against Islam and plotting against it, scheming to extinguish its light, destroy it and erase it from the face of the earth. But Islam has defeated them and prevailed over them, and is still growing; its signs and proofs become ever more manifest in every age, and new signs emerge which offer lessons to all people, guidance to those who have knowledge, and enlightenment to those who pay heed. Praise be to Allah alone.

﴿الَّذِينَ آتَيْنَهُمُ الْكِتَابَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِ هُمْ بِهِ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٥٢﴾ وَإِذَا يُنزلُ عَلَيْهِمْ قَالُوا ءَأَمْنَاهُ بِهٖ إِنَّهُ الْحَقُّ مِنْ رَبِّنَا إِنَّا كُنَّا مِنْ قَبْلِهِ مُسْلِمِينَ ﴿٥٣﴾ أُولَٰئِكَ يُؤْتَوْنَ أَجْرَهُمْ مَرَّتَيْنِ بِمَا صَبَرُوا وَيَدْرَءُونَ بِالْحَسَنَةِ السَّيِّئَةَ وَمِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ يُنفِقُونَ ﴿٥٤﴾ وَإِذَا سَمِعُوا اللَّغْوَ أَعْرَضُوا عَنْهُ وَقَالُوا لَنَا أَعْمَلُنَا وَلَكُمْ أَعْمَلُكُمْ سَلَامٌ عَلَيْكُمْ لَا نَبْغِي الْجَاهِلِينَ ﴿٥٥﴾﴾ (سورة

الفصص: ٥٢-٥٥)

- 28:52. Those to whom We gave the scripture before are the ones who believe in it [the Qur'an].
- 28:53. When it is recited to them, they say: We believe in it, for it is indeed the truth from our Lord. Verily we had already submitted [to Allah, in Islam] before that.
- 28:54. Such people will be given a twofold reward for their patience and steadfastness; they repel evil with good, and spend out of that which We have provided for them.

28:55. When they hear idle [or offensive] talk, they turn away from it and say: To us our deeds, and to you yours. We wish you peace. We have no desire [to be involved] with the ignorant.

Here Allah (ﷻ) mentions the greatness and truth of the Qur'an and tells us that people who have knowledge of the truth recognise it, believe in it and affirm that it is true.

﴿Those to whom We gave the scripture before﴾ namely the people of the Torah and the Gospel, whose hearts are open to the truth ﴿are the ones who believe in it [the Qur'an]﴾ that is, they believe in the Qur'an and in the one who brought it.

﴿When it is recited to them﴾ they listen and submit, and ﴿they say: We believe in it, for it is indeed the truth from our Lord﴾ because it is in accordance with what the Messengers brought, and is in harmony with what is mentioned in the previous scriptures; it includes true stories (of previous nations), and commands and prohibitions that are in accordance with the utmost wisdom.

These are the people whose testimony is of significance and whose words may be of benefit, for they only say these words on the basis of knowledge and understanding, as they are people of books and scriptures. The rejection and opposition of others to the truth is flawed and they have no sound argument, because they are ignorant or they are acting ignorantly and stubbornly rejecting the truth.

Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿Say: Believe in it, or do not believe. Verily, those who were given knowledge before it,<sup>32</sup> when it is recited to them, fall down on their faces in prostration.﴾ (al-Isrā' 17: 107)

﴿Verily we had already submitted [to Allah, in Islam] before that﴾ – that is why Allah kept us steadfast in that with which He had blessed us of faith, so we believed in this Qur'an; we believed in the first Book and the last Book, whereas others contradicted their belief in the previous Book by rejecting this Book.

<sup>32</sup> Namely the People of the Book (Jews and Christians).

﴿Such people﴾ who believe in both Books
﴿will be given a twofold reward﴾ – a reward for believing the first time and a reward for believing the second time
﴿for their patience and steadfastness﴾ in faith, and their steadfastness in deeds, for their faith was not shaken by doubt and no love of leadership or desire turned them away from faith. Moreover, because of their noble characteristics which result from their sound faith, they ﴿repel evil with good﴾. In other words, their way is to treat everyone kindly, even those who mistreat them in word and deed; they respond with gentle words and kind treatment, because they are aware of the virtue of this noble attitude and they know that no one is guided to that except one who has great good fortune.

﴿When they hear idle [or offensive] talk﴾ from an ignorant person who addresses them in that manner
﴿they turn away from it and say﴾, in the manner of the slaves of the Most Gracious who possess wisdom:
﴿To us our deeds, and to you yours﴾ that is, each will be requited only for the deeds he did, and he will not bear the burden of other people's sins. This implies that they disavow and keep away from the way of the ignorant, and avoid idle talk, falsehood and any talk in which there is no benefit.

﴿We wish you peace﴾ that is, you will not hear anything from us except that which is good, for we will not address you in a manner that matches your ignorance. Even if you accept for yourselves to sink to that level, we put ourselves above that and we protect ourselves from becoming involved in it.

﴿We have no desire [to be involved] with the ignorant﴾ in any way whatsoever.

﴿إِنَّكَ لَا تَهْدِي مَنْ أَحْبَبْتَ وَلَكِنَّ اللَّهَ يَهْدِي مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَهُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِالْمُهْتَدِينَ﴾

﴿٥٦﴾ (سورة القصص: ٥٦)

28:56. Verily, you [O Muhammad] cannot guide whomever you like, but Allah guides whomever He wills, and He knows best who is rightly guided.

Here Allah (ﷻ) is saying: You, O Muhammad (ﷺ) – and others even more so – cannot guide anyone, even if he is among the dearest of people to you. This is something that is beyond the ability of all people, to guide in the sense of making them believe and creating faith in their hearts. Rather that is in the Hand of Allah and He guides whomever He wills, and He knows best who is fit to be guided, so He guides him, and who is not fit to be guided, so He leaves him to go astray.

With regard to the verse in which it is affirmed that the Messenger (ﷺ) guides people –

﴿...Verily, you are indeed calling people to a straight path.﴾ (ash-Shoorā 42: 52)

– that is guidance in the sense of explaining and teaching. The Messenger (ﷺ) explains the straight path and urges people to follow it, and he does his utmost to persuade people to follow it. As for instilling faith in their hearts and enabling them to do righteous deeds, there is no way that he can do that.

Therefore if he had been able to do that, he would have guided the one who had been kind to him, supported him and protected him from his people, namely his paternal uncle Abu Ṭâlib. But he was more kind to his uncle as he called him to Islam and was very sincere towards him, which was greater than what his uncle had done for him, but guidance is in the Hand of Allah (ﷻ).

﴿وَقَالُوا إِن نَّتَّبِعِ الْهُدَىٰ مَعَكَ نُخَطَفْ مِنْ أَرْضِنَا أَوْ لَمْ نُمَكِّنْ لَهُمْ حَرَمًا ءَامِنًا يُجِئُ إِلَيْهِ ثَمَرَاتُ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ رِّزْقًا مِنْ لَدُنَّا وَلَكِنْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٥٧﴾ وَكَمْ أَهْلَكْنَا مِنْ قَرْيَةٍ بَطَرَتْ مَعِيشَتَهَا فَبِئْسَ مَسْكِنُهُمْ لَمْ تَنْصَحْ مِنْ بَعْدِهَا إِلَّا قَلِيلًا وَكُنَّا نَحْنُ الْوَارِثِينَ ﴿٥٨﴾ وَمَا كَانَ رَبُّكَ مُهْلِكَ الْقُرَىٰ حَتَّىٰ يَبْعَثَ فِي أُمْنَاهَا رَسُولًا يُتْلُوا عَلَيْهِمْ ءَايَاتِنَا وَمَا كُنَّا مُهْلِكِي الْقُرَىٰ إِلَّا وَأَهْلُهَا ظَالِمُونَ ﴿٥٩﴾﴾ (سورة القصص: ٥٧-٥٩)

- 28:57. They say: If we were to follow this guidance with you, we would be driven out of our land. Have We not established for them a secure sanctuary, to which fruits of all kinds are brought, as provision from Us? But most of them do not know.
- 28:58. How many a city did We destroy [for their sins] that was unappreciative of its life of ease. There lie their dwellings, which have scarcely been inhabited since their demise. It was We Who were their [sole] inheritors.
- 28:59. Your Lord would never destroy the cities until He had sent to their main city a Messenger who would recite Our revelations to them; nor would We destroy the cities unless their people were evildoers.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that the disbelievers among Quraysh and the people of Makkah said to the Messenger (ﷺ): ﴿If we were to follow this guidance with you, we would be driven out of our land﴾ by means of killing, taking prisoners and plundering, for the people are opposing you and going against you, so if we follow you, we will be exposed to the enmity of all the people, and we have no ability to withstand them.

These words of theirs indicate that they thought negatively of Allah (ﷻ) and thought that He would not support His religion or make His words supreme; rather He would give others power over the followers of His religion, so they would persecute them harshly. They thought that falsehood would prevail over truth.

But Allah said, highlighting to them a blessing that they were enjoying to the exclusion of all others, and pointing out that He had singled them out for this blessing: ﴿Have We not established for them a secure sanctuary, to which fruits of all kinds are brought, as provision from Us?﴾ That is, have We not established that in a secure sanctuary that is frequented and visited by many people, venerated by near and far, so that its people are not disturbed and no one does anything to undermine it?

That was at a time when all the places around them were beset by fear from all directions, and the people of the surrounding areas were not safe and did not feel secure. So they should praise their Lord for this perfect security that no one else enjoyed, and for the abundant provision that came to them from all places, namely fruits, food and other goods, by means of which they were able to earn a living and enjoy a life of ease.

And they should follow this noble Messenger, so that they might enjoy a life of security and ease, and they should beware of rejecting him and becoming insolent as the result of the blessings that have been bestowed upon them, lest their security be turned to fear, and they be faced with humiliation after being in a position of honour, and become poor after having been independent of means. Hence Allah warned them by telling them of what happened to the nations who came before them:

﴿How many a city did We destroy [for their sins] that was unappreciative of its life of ease﴾ that is, those nations were too proud of that life and were distracted by it from believing in the Messengers. Therefore Allah destroyed them, took away the blessing and sent upon them the punishment.

«There lie their dwellings, which have scarcely been inhabited since their demise» because destruction and punishment came upon them many times, and their dwellings were left desolate after they were gone.

«It was We Who were their [sole] inheritors». We caused them to die, then all that they enjoyed of blessings will come back to Us, then We will bring them back to Us and will requite them for their deeds.

But by His wisdom and mercy, He did not punish those nations for their mere disbelief, before establishing proof against them by sending the Messengers to them. Hence He says:

«Your Lord would never destroy the cities» for their disbelief and wrongdoing

«until He had sent to their main city» that is, the chief city to which they had ties and always visited and frequented, and to which all the surrounding cities were connected so that news of the main city was not hidden from them

«a Messenger who would recite Our revelations to them» that pointed to the truth that he brought, and confirmed the message to which he called them, so that near and far would convey his words. This is unlike the situation if the Messengers were sent to distant cities and remote regions, in which case it is very likely that news of such a Prophet would remain hidden and unknown, whereas anything that happens in the main cities is likely to become well known among all people. Moreover, the people in the main cities are less hard-hearted than those who live elsewhere.

«nor would We destroy the cities unless their people were evildoers» who disbelieved and committed sin, and therefore deserved punishment. The point is that Allah does not punish anyone unless it is because of his wrongdoing and after the establishment of proof against him.

﴿وَمَا أُوتِيتُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فَمَتَّعُ الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا وَزَيَّنَّتْهَا وَمَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ خَيْرٌ وَأَبْقَى أَفَلَا تَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٦٠﴾ أَفَمَنْ وَعَدْنَاهُ وَعْدًا حَسَنًا فَهُوَ لَاقِيهِ كَمَنْ مَنَعْنَاهُ مَتَاعَ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا ثُمَّ هُوَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ مِنَ الْمُحْضَرِينَ ﴿٦١﴾﴾ (سورة القصص: ٦٠-٦١)

- 28:60. Whatever you have been given is but the enjoyment of the life of this world and its splendour; but that which is with Allah is better and more lasting. Will you not then understand?
- 28:61. Is one to whom We have given a goodly promise, and he will see it fulfilled, like one to whom We have granted enjoyment of the life of this world, then on the Day of Resurrection he will be among those brought up [for punishment]?

Here Allah urges His slaves to have little interest in this world and not to be deceived by it; rather they should focus on the hereafter and make that their main aim and goal. He tells them that all that people are given of gold, silver, animals, belongings, wives, sons, food, drink and pleasure is but the enjoyment of the life of this world and its splendour. In other words, these things are enjoyed only for a short while and bring brief pleasure, but that enjoyment will be interrupted by a great deal of trouble and strife.

A person may enjoy these adornments for a short time, which gives him a reason for pride and showing off, but they will quickly disappear and all come to an end, and he will not gain anything from that except loss, regret, disappointment and deprivation.

﴿but that which is with Allah﴾ of eternal bliss and sound living ﴿is better and more lasting﴾ that is, it is better in terms of both quality and quantity, and it is eternal and everlasting.

﴿Will you not then understand?﴾ That is, do you not have minds with which to reflect and decide what should be given precedence and which of the two realms is more deserving of being striven for?

This indicates that the more rational a person is, the more he will give precedence to the hereafter over this world, and no one gives precedence to this world unless there is a deficiency in his reasoning. Hence Allah points out the importance of weighing up the fate of the one who gives precedence to this world and the fate of the one who gives precedence to the hereafter:

«Is one to whom We have given a goodly promise, and he will see it fulfilled» that is, is the believer – who strives for the hereafter as he should, for he strives hard, hoping for the goodly reward that his Lord has promised him, namely paradise and all that it contains of immense delights, for he will undoubtedly find what he was promised, because it is a promise from One Who is most generous and is faithful to His promise and does not break His promise to the one who does that which pleases Him and avoids that which angers Him –

«like one to whom We have granted enjoyment of the life of this world» so he is fully engaged in its affairs, eating, drinking and enjoying it in the manner of animals? Such a one has been distracted by his worldly pleasures from the hereafter, and he does not pay attention to the guidance of Allah or follow the Messengers; rather he carries on like that and gains nothing from this world except loss and doom.

«then on the Day of Resurrection he will be among those brought up [for punishment]» that is, he will be brought up for the reckoning, but he will already know that he did not send ahead anything that was good for himself; rather he sent ahead all that will harm him, and now he has been brought to the realm where he will be requited for his deeds. What do you think his end will be? What do you think will happen to him? Let the wise man choose for himself that which is best and is more deserving of being given precedence.

26:220. for verily He is the All-Hearing, All-Knowing.

The greatest help to a person in doing what he is commanded to do is relying on his Lord and seeking His help to enable him to do what is enjoined. Hence Allah (ﷻ) instructs us to put our trust in Him, as He says:

«And put your trust in the Almighty, the Most Merciful» putting one's trust in Him refers to the reliance of the heart on Allah (ﷻ) to bring benefit and ward off harm, whilst trusting in Him and thinking positively of Him, and believing that He will help you to attain what you seek. For He is Almighty, Most Merciful; by His might He is able to bring good and ward off evil from His slave, and by His mercy He does that. Then He points out the importance of seeking divine help and bearing in mind how close Allah is, and attaining the level of ihsân,<sup>19</sup> as He says:

<sup>19</sup> Ihsân is referred to in the well-known hadith in which it was narrated that 'Umar said:

«We were sitting with the Prophet (ﷺ) when a man came to him whose clothes were intensely white and whose hair was intensely black; no signs of travel could be seen upon him, and none of us knew him. He sat down facing the Prophet (ﷺ), with his knees touching his, and he put his hands on his thighs, and said: O Muhammad, what is Islam? He said: To testify that there is no god except Allah, and that I am the Messenger of Allah; to establish regular prayer; to pay zakâh; to fast in Ramadan; and to perform pilgrimage to the House (the Kaaba). He said: You have spoken the truth. We were amazed by him: he asked a question then told him that he had spoken the truth. Then he said: O Muhammad, what is faith? He said: To believe in Allah, His angels, His Messengers, His Books, the Last Day, and the divine decree (al-qadr), both good and bad. He said: You have spoken the truth. We were amazed by him: he asked a question then told him that he had spoken the truth. Then he said: O Muhammad, what is ihsân (right action, goodness, sincerity)? He said: To worship Allah as if you see Him, for even though you cannot see Him, =

﴿Who sees you when you stand up [to pray], and sees your movements among those who prostrate [along with you, in the prayer]﴾ that is, He sees you when you perform this great act of worship, namely the prayer, at the time when you stand and move, bowing and prostrating.

Prayer is singled out for mention because of its virtue and honourable status, because the one who bears in mind, as he is praying, the closeness of his Lord will focus with proper humility and will perform the prayer properly and completely, and will do all of the deeds properly, because prayer will become a source of help for him in all his affairs.

﴿for verily He is the All-Hearing﴾ and hears all voices, of all types ﴿All-Knowing﴾ and His knowledge encompasses all things, outward and inward, unseen and visible.

If a person bears in mind that Allah can see him in all circumstances and hear all that he utters, and He knows what is in his heart of worries, resolve and intentions, this will help him to attain the status of ihsân.

﴿هَلْ أَتَيْتُكُمْ عَلَىٰ مَن تَنَزَّلُ الشَّيَاطِينُ ﴿٢٢١﴾ تَنَزَّلُ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ أَفَّاكٍ أَثِيمٍ ﴿٢٢٢﴾ يُلْقُونَ السَّعَـةَ وَأَكْتَرُهُمْ كَذِبُوكَ ﴿٢٢٣﴾ وَالشُّعْرَاءُ يَتَّبِعُهُمُ الْغَاوُونَ ﴿٢٢٤﴾ أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّهُمْ فِي كُلِّ وَادٍ يَهِيمُونَ ﴿٢٢٥﴾ وَأَنَّهُمْ يَقُولُونَ مَا لَا يَفْعَلُونَ ﴿٢٢٦﴾ إِلَّا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ وَذَكَرُوا اللَّهَ كَثِيرًا وَانْتَصَرُوا مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا ظَلَمُوا وَسَيَعْلَمُ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا أَيَّ مُنْقَلَبٍ يَنْقَلِبُونَ ﴿٢٢٧﴾﴾ (سورة الشعراء: ٢٢١-٢٢٧)

26:221. Shall I tell you upon whom the devils descend?

26:222. They descend upon every evil liar,

= He sees you.» This version was narrated by Ibn Mājah; the hadith was also narrated by Bukhari, Muslim and others.

﴿ وَيَوْمَ يُنَادِيهِمْ فَيَقُولُ أَيْنَ شُرَكَائِيَ الَّذِينَ كُنْتُمْ تَزْعُمُونَ ﴾ ﴿٦٢﴾ قَالَ الَّذِينَ حَقَّ عَلَيْهِمُ
 الْقَوْلُ رَبَّنَا هَؤُلَاءِ الَّذِينَ أَغْوَيْنَا أَغْوَيْنَاهُمْ كَمَا غَوَيْنَا تَبَرَّأْنَا إِلَيْكَ مَا كَانُوا إِنَانَا يَعْبُدُونَ
 ﴿٦٣﴾ وَقِيلَ ادْعُوا شُرَكَاءَكُمْ فَدَعَوْهُمُ فَلَمْ يَسْتَجِيبُوا لَهُمْ وَرَأَوُا الْعَذَابَ لَوْ أَنَّهُمْ كَانُوا يَهْتَدُونَ
 ﴿٦٤﴾ وَيَوْمَ يُنَادِيهِمْ فَيَقُولُ مَاذَا أَجَبْتُمُ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿٦٥﴾ فَعَمِيَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ الْأَنْبَاءُ يَوْمَئِذٍ
 فَهُمْ لَا يَتَسَاءَلُونَ ﴿٦٦﴾ (سورة القصص: ٦٢-٦٦)

- 28:62. On the day when Allah will call to them, saying: Where are My [so-called] partners, as you claimed?,
- 28:63. those against whom the word will be fulfilled<sup>33</sup> will say: Our Lord, these are the ones whom we led astray; we led them astray as we ourselves were led astray.<sup>34</sup> We disavow them before You; it was not us they worshipped.
- 28:64. It will be said [to them]: Call on your [so-called] partners. They will call on them, but they will not respond to them. They will see the punishment [and will wish] that they had been rightly guided.
- 28:65. On that day, Allah will call to them, saying: What was your response to the Messengers?
- 28:66. They will not be able to think of any reply, and they will not even be able to ask one another.

<sup>33</sup> This refers to the promoters and leaders of disbelief and misguidance. The word that will be fulfilled against them is the promise of Allah (ﷻ): ﴿...I will certainly fill hell with jinn and men, all together.﴾ (Hood 11: 119; as-Sajdah 32: 13)

<sup>34</sup> That is, they were not led astray by force; rather it was merely by means of whispers and making falsehood fair-seeming to them, and they went astray willingly.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us what He will ask people about on the Day of Resurrection: He will ask them about the most fundamental matters, about their worship of Allah and their response to His Messengers.

﴿On the day when Allah will call to them﴾ that is, He will call to those who ascribed partners to Him, whom they worshipped and hoped that they would benefit them and ward off harm from them. He will call them in order to show them their helplessness and misguidance. ﴿saying: Where are My [so-called] partners﴾ – for Allah has no partners; rather that was according to their claims and fabrications. Hence He says:

﴿as you claimed?﴾; Where are they themselves, and where are their benefits and protection?

It is well known that at that point it will become clear to them that that which they worshipped and on which they pinned their hopes is false and is of a diminishing nature; all their hopes will come to naught and they will acknowledge that they were misguided and wrong. Hence ﴿those against whom the word will be fulfilled﴾, namely the leaders of disbelief and evil, will admit that they were misled and they misled others. They will say: ﴿Our Lord, these﴾ followers ﴿are the ones whom we led astray; we led them astray as we ourselves were led astray﴾ that is, we are all the same in misguidance and we are all equally deserving of punishment.

﴿We disavow them before You﴾ that is, we disavow their worship and declare ourselves innocent of them and their actions.

﴿it was not us they worshipped﴾; rather they worshipped the devils.

﴿It will be said [to them]: Call on your [so-called] partners﴾, as you hoped that they would benefit you. So they will be instructed to call upon them at that critical time, when every worshipper will call upon that which he worshipped.

﴿They will call on them﴾ and ask them to help them or ward off the punishment of Allah from them in any way

﴿but they will not respond to them﴾. Then those who disbelieved will realise that they were lying and are deserving of punishment.

﴿They will see﴾ with their own eyes ﴿the punishment﴾ that will befall them after they had denied it and did not believe in it.

﴿[and will wish] that they had been rightly guided﴾ that is, then they would not be suffering as they are suffering now, and they would have been guided to the path that leads to paradise. But they were not guided to the straight path in this world, so they will not be guided to the path that leads to paradise in the hereafter.

﴿On that day, Allah will call to them, saying: What was your response to the Messengers?﴾ Did you believe them and follow them, or did you reject them and go against them?

﴿They will not be able to think of any reply, and they will not even be able to ask one another﴾ that is, they will not know how to answer this question and they will not be guided to the right answer.

It is well known that the only answer that could save them is the correct answer, if it were true in their case, which would be to say that they responded to them, believed in them and followed them. But because they know that they rejected them and opposed what they called them to, they will not say anything. Moreover, it will not be possible for them to ask one another and discuss amongst themselves what answer they may give, even if it is a lie.

﴿فَأَمَّا مَنْ تَابَ وَآمَنَ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَعَسَىٰ أَنْ يَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُفْلِحِينَ﴾ (سورة القصص: ٦٧)

(القصص: ٦٧)

28:67. But as for those who repented and believed, and did righteous deeds, they may well be among the successful.

Having mentioned the questioning of people regarding their objects of worship and their response to the Messengers, Allah (ﷻ) now mentions the way in which a person may be saved from His punishment, and that there is no salvation except for the one who repented from ascribing partners to Allah and from sin, and who believed in Allah and worshipped Him, believed in His Messengers, and did righteous deeds, following the Messengers in doing so.

«they» namely those who combine these characteristics «may well be among the successful» who attain the goal and are saved from what they fear. There is no way of attaining success without these things.

﴿وَرَبُّكَ يَخْلُقُ مَا يَشَاءُ وَيَخْتَارُ مَا كَانَ لَهُمُ الْخِيَرَةُ سُبْحَنَ اللَّهِ وَتَعَالَى عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٦٨﴾ وَرَبُّكَ يَعْلَمُ مَا تُكِنُّ صُدُورُهُمْ وَمَا يُعْلِنُونَ ﴿٦٩﴾ وَهُوَ اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ لَهُ الْحَمْدُ فِي الْأُولَى وَالْآخِرَةِ وَلَهُ الْحُكْمُ وَإِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿٧٠﴾﴾ (سورة القصص: ٦٨-٧٠)

(القصص: ٦٨-٧٠)

- 28:68. Your Lord creates whatever He wills and chooses [whomever He wills]; they have no choice in the matter. Glorified and exalted be Allah far above the partners they ascribe to Him!
- 28:69. Your Lord knows what their hearts conceal and what they disclose.
- 28:70. And He is Allah; there is no god but He. To Him be all praise in this world and the hereafter. His is the judgement and to Him you will be brought back.

In these verses it is stated that Allah is the Creator of all creation, all creatures are subject to His will, and He alone chooses whomever and whatever He will of people, commands, times and places; no one has any control or choice in the matter; He is far above all that they ascribe to Him of partners, helpers, supporters, children, spouses and so on, that the polytheists ascribe to Him; and He knows what their hearts conceal and what they disclose.

He alone is deserving of worship and praise in this world and the hereafter, for what He possesses of the attributes of majesty and beauty, and for what He bestows upon His creation of kindness and grace. He is the One Who issues decrees in both realms, in this world by means of His universal decree, that impacts all that He creates, and by means of His religious decree which impacts all laws, commands and prohibitions.

In the hereafter, He will issue decrees of requital. Hence He says: ﴿and to Him you will be brought back﴾ and He will requite each one of you for his deeds, good or bad.

﴿قُلْ أَرَأَيْتُمْ إِنْ جَعَلَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْكُمُ اللَّيْلَ سَرْمَدًا إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ مَنْ إِلَهُ غَيْرُ اللَّهِ يَأْتِيكُم بِضِيَاءٍ أَفَلَا تَسْمَعُونَ ﴿٧١﴾ قُلْ أَرَأَيْتُمْ إِنْ جَعَلَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْكُمُ النَّهَارَ سَرْمَدًا إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ مَنْ إِلَهُ غَيْرُ اللَّهِ يَأْتِيكُم بِلَيْلٍ تَسْكُنُونَ فِيهِ أَفَلَا تُبْصِرُونَ ﴿٧٢﴾ وَمِنْ رَحْمَتِهِ جَعَلَ لَكُمُ اللَّيْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ لِتَسْكُنُوا فِيهِ وَلِتَبْتَغُوا مِنْ فَضْلِهِ وَلَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٧٣﴾﴾ (سورة القصص: ٧١-٧٣)

- 28:71. Say: What do you think, if Allah were to make the night everlasting for you until the Day of Resurrection, what god other than Allah could bring you light? Will you not then listen?
- 28:72. Say: What do you think, if Allah were to make the day everlasting for you until the Day of Resurrection, what god other than Allah could bring you night in which to rest? Will you not then see?
- 28:73. By His mercy He has made for you night and day, so that you may rest therein and seek His bounty, and so that you may give thanks.

This is a reminder from Allah to His slaves of His favour, calling upon them to give thanks to Him and be true slaves to Him, for by His mercy He has given them the day in which to seek of Allah's bounty and go about seeking their provision and livelihood in its light; and He has given them the night in which to calm down and rest, so that their bodies and souls may recover from their toil during the day. This is by His grace and mercy towards His slaves. Can anyone else do any of that? If He were to make ﴿the night everlasting for you until the Day of Resurrection, what god other than Allah could bring you light? Will you not then listen?﴾ Why do you not listen to His exhortation and revelations in such a way that you would understand, accept and follow? And if He were to ﴿make the day everlasting for you until the Day of Resurrection, what god other than Allah could bring you night in which to rest? Will you not then see?﴾ Why do you not see and understand the lesson and understand the verses in such a way that you would become enlightened and follow the straight path?

Allah says with regard to the night, ﴿Will you not then listen?﴾ and with regard to the day ﴿Will you not then see?﴾ because hearing is more effective at night than seeing, and it is the other way round during the day.

In these verses, Allah points out that the individual should reflect on the blessings that Allah has bestowed upon him, try to understand them and compare what he has with what his situation would be if he did not have those blessings. If he compares his situation when he has these blessings and what it would be if he did not have them, he will become more aware of the great blessings that he has, unlike the one who thinks of them as nothing out of the ordinary and thinks that he will always have them, and thus is no longer appreciative of the blessings of Allah, and does not realise his need for these blessings at all times. Such a person will never be grateful or pay heed to the blessings that he is enjoying.

﴿وَيَوْمَ يُنَادِيهِمْ فَيَقُولُ أَيْنَ شُرَكَاءِيَ الَّذِينَ كُنْتُمْ تَزْعُمُونَ﴾ (٧٤) وَنَزَعْنَا مِنْ
كُلِّ أُمَّةٍ شَهِيدًا فَقُلْنَا هَاتُوا بُرْهَانَكُمْ فَعَلِمُوا أَنَّ الْحَقَّ لِلَّهِ وَضَلَّ عَنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا
يَفْتَرُونَ ﴿٧٥﴾ (سورة القصص: ٧٤-٧٥)

- 28:74. On the day when Allah will call to them, saying: Where are My [so-called] partners, as you claimed?,
- 28:75. and We bring forth from every nation a witness, and We say [to the nations]: Bring your proof, then they will know that truth [divinity] belongs to Allah alone, and the [false gods] of their own invention will be lost from them.

That is, on the day when Allah will call to those who ascribed partners to Him, who regarded others as equal to Him, who claimed that He had partners who were deserving of worship and who could bring benefit or cause harm. That will be on the Day of Resurrection, when Allah wants to show how audacious they were and how they lied in their claim, and to prove that they were wrong. So He ﴿will call to them, saying: Where are My [so-called] partners, as you claimed?﴾ That was according to their claim, not as it really was. This is like the verse in which He says:

﴿...Those who call upon their [so-called] partners besides Allah follow nothing but conjecture and they do nothing but lie.﴾ (Yoonus 10: 66)

When they and their gods are brought, Allah will select a witness ﴿from every nation﴾ that disbelieved, to testify concerning what happened in this world of their ascription of partners to Him and other beliefs. These witnesses will be selected or chosen.

In other words: We will select from among the leaders of the liars those who will stand up and argue their case, pleading on behalf of their brothers and those who followed the same path as them. When they are brought forth to be questioned, We will say to them ﴿Bring your proof﴾ that is, your evidence for the soundness of your ascription of partners to Allah; did We instruct you to do that? Did My Messengers command you to do that? Did you find that in any of My scriptures? Is there anyone among them who deserves to be called divine? Can they benefit you, or ward off from you the punishment of Allah, or avail you anything? Let them do that if they are qualified to do so, and let them show you if they have any power.

﴿then﴾ at that point they will realise the falseness and wrongness of what they said, and ﴿they will know that truth [divinity] belongs to Allah alone﴾. The argument will be proven against them and they will have no proof to offer, for the proof of Allah will have utterly refuted them.

﴿and the [false gods] of their own invention will be lost from them﴾ that is, their lies and fabrications will diminish and disappear, and they will realise that Allah has been just towards them, for He does not punish anyone except one who deserves it.

﴿إِنْ قُرُونٌ كَانَتْ مِنْ قَوْمِ مُوسَىٰ فَبَعَثْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ وَعَائِنَهُ مِنَ الْكُفْرِ مَا إِنْ مَفَاحِهِ، لَنَسْنُوهُ بِالْعَصْبَةِ أُولَى الْقُوَّةِ إِذْ قَالَ لَهُ قَوْمُهُ لَا تَفْرَحْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُحِبُّ الْفَرِحِينَ ﴿٧٦﴾ وَابْتَغَ فِيمَا آتَاكَ اللَّهُ الدَّارَ الْآخِرَةَ وَلَا تَنْسَ نَصِيبَكَ مِنَ الدُّنْيَا وَأَحْسِنْ كَمَا أَحْسَنَ اللَّهُ إِلَيْكَ وَلَا تَبْغِ الْفُسَادَ فِي الْأَرْضِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُحِبُّ الْمُفْسِدِينَ ﴿٧٧﴾﴾ قَالَ إِنَّمَا أُوتِيتُهُ عَلَىٰ عِلْمٍ عِنْدِي أَوَلَمْ يَعْلَم أَنَّ اللَّهَ قَدْ أَهْلَكَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِ مِنَ الْقُرُونِ مَنْ هُوَ أَشَدُّ مِنْهُ قُوَّةً وَأَكْثَرُ جَمْعًا وَلَا يُسْأَلُ عَنْ ذُنُوبِهِ الْمُجْرِمُونَ ﴿٧٨﴾﴾ فَخَرَجَ عَلَى قَوْمِهِ فِي زِينَتِهِ قَالَ الَّذِينَ يُرِيدُونَ الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا لِنَافِلَةٍ لِمَا أَتَى قُرُونٌ إِنَّهُ لَذُو حَظٍّ عَظِيمٍ ﴿٧٩﴾﴾ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ وَيَلَكُمْ ثَوَابُ اللَّهِ خَيْرٌ لِمَنْ

ءَامِنٌ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا وَلَا يُلْقَاهَا إِلَّا الصَّابِرُونَ ﴿٨٠﴾ فَخَسَفْنَا بِهِ وَبِدَارِهِ الْأَرْضَ
فَمَا كَانَ لَهُ مِنْ فِئَةٍ يَنْصُرُونَهُ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ وَمَا كَانَ مِنَ الْمُنْتَصِرِينَ ﴿٨١﴾ وَأَصْبَحَ
الَّذِينَ تَمَنَّوْا مَكَانَهُ بِالْأَمْسِ يَقُولُونَ وَيَكَذَّبُ اللَّهُ بِسُطِّ الرِّزْقِ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ مِنْ
عِبَادِهِ وَيَقْدِرُ لَوْ لَا أَنْ مَنَّ اللَّهُ عَلَيْنَا لَخَسَفَ بِنَا وَيَكَانَهُ لَا يَفْلِحُ الْكَافِرُونَ ﴿٨٢﴾ (سورة

القصص: ٧٦-٨٢)

- 28:76. Qâroon was one of the people of Moosâ, but he behaved arrogantly towards them. We had given him such treasures that their very keys would have weighed down a band of strong men. His people said to him: Do not exult, for Allah does not love those who exult [in their riches].
- 28:77. Seek, by means of that which Allah has bestowed on you, the final abode, without forgetting your rightful share in this world. Be good to others, as Allah has been good to you, and do not seek to spread mischief in the land, for verily Allah does not love those who spread mischief.
- 28:78. He said: This has been given to me only because of knowledge that I possess. Did he not know that from among the nations who came before him, Allah had destroyed men who were superior to him in terms of might and accumulation of wealth? The wicked will not be questioned about their sins.
- 28:79. He came out before his people in all his finery. Those who cared only for the life of this world said: Would that we had the like of what Qâroon has been given! He is indeed a man of great good fortune.
- 28:80. But those who were given knowledge said: Woe to you! Allah's reward is better for those who believe and do righteous deeds, but none will attain it except those who are steadfast.
- 28:81. Then We caused the earth to swallow him and his house. He had none to support him against [the punishment of] Allah, nor was he able to save himself.

28:82. Those who had previously wished to be in his place began to say: Indeed it is Allah Who grants abundant provision to whomever He wills among His slaves, or gives it in scant measure. Were it not for Allah's grace towards us, He could have caused the earth to swallow us too. Indeed the disbelievers will never prosper.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us the story of Qâroon, what he did and what happened to him, and the advice and exhortation he received.

﴿Qâroon was one of the people of Moosâ﴾ that is, he was one of the Children of Israel who were favoured above all other nations, and were superior to them at that time. Allah blessed them greatly and their well-being was in accordance with their adherence to the right path, but this Qâroon transgressed and went astray, because of what he was given of immense wealth that made him arrogant.

﴿We had given him such treasures﴾ that is, abundant wealth ﴿that their very keys would have weighed down a band of strong men﴾ – the word translated here as ﴿band﴾ refers to a group of between seven and ten men, or thereabouts. Even the keys to the storehouses of his wealth would be too heavy for a strong group to carry, and if this is how the keys were, then what do you think of the treasures themselves?

﴿His people said to him﴾, advising him and warning him against arrogance and transgression:

﴿Do not exult, for Allah does not love those who exult [in their riches]﴾ that is, do not exult in these great worldly gains or boast about them, and do not let that distract you from the hereafter, for Allah does not love those who exult in it and whose focus is only on loving it.

﴿Seek, by means of that which Allah has bestowed on you, the final abode﴾ that is, you have been granted means of helping yourself advance in the hereafter that had not been granted to other people, namely your wealth, so seek therewith that which is with Allah; give in charity and do not spend it only on fulfilling your own desires and physical pleasures.

﴿without forgetting your rightful share in this world﴾ that is, We are not telling you to give all your wealth in charity and become destitute; rather you should spend for your hereafter and enjoy your share of this world in a manner that does not undermine your religious commitment or harm your well-being in the hereafter.

﴿Be good to others, as Allah has been good to you﴾ by bestowing this wealth upon you

﴿and do not seek to spread mischief in the land﴾ by means of arrogance, disobeying Allah and being distracted by the blessings from the Bestower of those blessings

﴿for verily Allah does not love those who spread mischief﴾; rather He will punish them severely for that.

But Qâroon said – rejecting their advice and showing ingratitude for the blessings of his Lord: ﴿This has been given to me only because of knowledge that I possess﴾ that is, I have only acquired this wealth because of my own efforts and knowledge of ways of making money, and because of my smartness; the phrase in question may also be interpreted as meaning: Allah knows my situation and He knows that I deserve this. So why are you advising me regarding that which Allah (ﷻ) has given to me?

But Allah (ﷻ) says, explaining that His giving is not necessarily indicative of the good condition of the recipient: ﴿Did he not know that from among the nations who came before him, Allah had destroyed men who were superior to him in terms of might and accumulation of wealth?﴾ What was there to prevent the destruction of Qâroon, when it was Our way to destroy others who were like him or greater in terms of wealth, if they did that which incurs destruction?

﴿The wicked will not be questioned about their sins﴾; rather Allah will punish them on the basis of what He knows about them. Even though they try to prove that they are in a good situation and say that they will be saved, their words will not be accepted and that will not ward off the punishment from them, because their sins are not hidden. Therefore their denial is pointless. But Qâroon persisted in his stubbornness and transgression, and in rejecting the advice of his people, exulting in his wealth and filled with self-admiration. He was deceived by what he had been given of wealth.

One day Qâroon ﴿came out before his people in all his finery﴾ that is, looking his best in terms of worldly adornment, as he had a great deal of wealth and he had prepared himself and beautified himself to the greatest extent, and adornment is usually tremendous in the case of such people, as it is a combination of worldly adornment and splendour. All eyes were on him at that moment and his clothing and adornment dazzled the people, who fell into two categories, each according to their aspirations and the focus of their desires.

﴿Those who cared only for the life of this world﴾ that is, those whose ambitions were focused only on this world, which represented their ultimate aim, and they had no desire for anything else ﴿said: Would that we had the like of what Qâroon has been given﴾ of worldly gains, conveniences and adornment ﴿He is indeed a man of great good fortune﴾.

These words could have been true if all that existed was what they aspired to and there was no hereafter beyond this world, for what he had been given was the ultimate in worldly joy, and he was able to get all that he wanted by means of what he had been given. So this was great good fortune, according to their aspirations. But the aspiration of one who has made that (namely great good fortune in worldly terms) his ultimate aim is indeed the lowest and most base ambition, and the one who thinks in that way has no lofty ambition or sublime goal.

﴿But those who were given knowledge﴾, who understood the reality of things and looked at the true nature of this world, whereas the first group only looked at it in a superficial manner,

﴿said: Woe to you﴾, feeling sorry for the first group because of their wishing for themselves what Qâroon had been given, and finding their words odd and objectionable

﴿Allah's reward﴾ in this world, in the pleasure of worshipping Him, loving Him and turning to Him, and in the hereafter, in paradise and what it contains of all that one could desire and all that may bring delight

﴿is better﴾ than what you wish for and desire. This is the reality of the matter, but not everyone who knows that would give precedence to what is sublime over what is base. No one will attain that or be enabled to have this attitude ﴿except those who are steadfast﴾ and devote themselves to obeying Allah, refrain from disobeying Him, and accept His decree even when it is painful, so they are patient in resisting the attractions and temptations of this world, lest they distract them from their Lord and prevent them from fulfilling the purpose for which they were created. These are the ones who give precedence to Allah's reward over fleeting worldly gains.

When Qâroon's parade ended, in which he had shown arrogance and pride, displayed the adornment he possessed, and made a show of his self-admiration, the punishment came upon him suddenly.

﴿Then We caused the earth to swallow him and his house﴾ as a requital that matched his deed, for he had put himself above the slaves of Allah, so Allah brought him to the lowest of the low, him and the things by which he had been deceived, namely his house, furnishings and other possessions.

﴿He had none﴾ that is, he had no group, clan, servants or troops ﴿to support him against [the punishment of] Allah, nor was he able to save himself﴾ that is, the punishment came upon him and he was not helped nor was he able to help himself.

﴿Those who had previously wished to be in his place﴾ that is, those who had wanted worldly gain and had said: ﴿Would that we had the like of what Qâroon has been given» (28: 79) now began to say, feeling sorry, having learned their lesson, and fearing that the punishment might befall them:

«Indeed it is Allah Who grants abundant provision to whomever He wills among His slaves, or gives it in scant measure» that is, He restricts provision for whomever He wills. Now we know that the abundant provision that was granted to Qâroon was not indicative of any good in him, and we were mistaken when we said: «He is indeed a man of great good fortune».

«Were it not for Allah's grace towards us», and His not punishing us for what we said; were it not for His grace and kindness, «He could have caused the earth to swallow us too». So the destruction of Qâroon was a punishment for him and a lesson and admonition for others. Even those who had envied him regretted it and changed their way of thinking.

«Indeed the disbelievers will never prosper» either in this world or in the hereafter.

﴿تِلْكَ الدَّارُ الْآخِرَةُ نَجْعَلُهَا لِلَّذِينَ لَا يُرِيدُونَ عُلُوًّا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا فَسَادًا وَالْعَاقِبَةُ
لِلْمُتَّقِينَ﴾ (سورة القصص: ٨٣)

28:83. That abode of the hereafter We will give to those who do not seek to exalt themselves in the land or spread mischief; and the best outcome is for those who fear Allah.

Having mentioned Qâroon and what he was given of worldly gain, and what happened to him in the end, and that the people of knowledge said: «Allah's reward is better for those who believe and do righteous deeds» (28: 80), Allah (ﷻ) now urges us to seek the hereafter and tells us of the means by which we may attain it:

«That abode of the hereafter» of which Allah told us in His scriptures and of which His Messengers spoke, which contains all delights and from which is ward off all that may spoil it of stress and trouble

«We will give» as an abode and dwelling place

«to those who do not seek to exalt themselves in the land or spread mischief» that is, they have no desire – let alone take any action – to exalt themselves in the land above the slaves of Allah or to act in an arrogant manner towards people or towards the truth

«or spread mischief» – this includes all kinds of sins.

As they have no desire to exalt themselves in the land or spread mischief, this implies that all their thinking and devotion is directed towards Allah alone, and their aim is the abode of the hereafter; their attitude is one of humility towards the slaves of Allah, submission to the truth, and doing righteous deeds.

These people are the pious who fear Allah, and who will have a good end. Hence Allah says: «and the best outcome» that is, prosperity and success that will be steady and ongoing, for those who fear Allah (﴿٨٤﴾). As for others, even if they attain some conveniences and pleasures of this world, that will not last for long and it will soon disappear. As this verse tells us that the best outcome is only for those who fear Allah, it is known that those who seek to exalt themselves in the land and spread mischief will have no share in the hereafter.

﴿مَنْ جَاءَ بِالْحَسَنَةِ فَلَهُ خَيْرٌ مِنْهَا وَمَنْ جَاءَ بِالسَّيِّئَةِ فَلَا يُجْزَى الَّذِينَ عَمِلُوا السَّيِّئَاتِ إِلَّا مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ﴾ (سورة القصص: ٨٤)

28:84. Whoever comes [on the Day of Resurrection] having done good will be rewarded with something better than it, and whoever comes having done evil, those who did evil will be requited only according to their deeds.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about the multiplication of His bounty and the perfect nature of His justice:

﴿Whoever comes [on the Day of Resurrection] having done good﴾ – provided that what he has done is not spoiled by something that could render it invalid, in which case it will not be counted.

The word translated here as ﴿good﴾ is a general term which refers to everything that Allah (ﷻ) and His Messenger have enjoined of words and deeds, visible and hidden, having to do with the rights of Allah and the rights of His slaves.

﴿will be rewarded with something better than it﴾ that is, greater than it. Elsewhere Allah says:

﴿Whoever comes [on the Day of Resurrection] with a good deed will be repaid tenfold...﴾ (al-An'âm 6: 160)

This multiplication of the reward for good deeds is inevitable, and there may be reasons for it to be increased, as Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿...Allah gives manifold increase to whomever He wills. And Allah is All-Encompassing, All-Knowing.﴾ (al-Baqarah 2: 261)

That multiplication will be according to the status of the doer and his deed, how much benefit it brings, and the context and place in which it occurs.

﴿and whoever comes having done evil﴾ which is everything forbidden and prohibited by the Lawgiver

﴿those who did evil will be requited only according to their deeds﴾. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Whoever comes [on the Day of Resurrection] with a good deed will be repaid tenfold, but whoever comes with an evil deed will be recompensed only with the like thereof; and no one will be wronged.﴾ (al-An'âm 6: 160)

﴿إِنَّ الَّذِي فَرَضَ عَلَيْكَ الْقُرْآنَ لَرَادُّكَ إِلَىٰ مَعَادٍ قُلْ رَبِّي أَعْلَمُ مَنْ جَاءَ بِالْهُدَىٰ
وَمَنْ هُوَ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٨٥﴾ وَمَا كُنْتَ تَرْجُو أَنْ يُلْقَىٰ إِلَيْكَ الْكِتَابُ إِلَّا رَحْمَةً
مِّنْ رَبِّكَ فَلَا تَكُونَنَّ ظَهِيرًا لِّلْكَافِرِينَ ﴿٨٦﴾ وَلَا يَصُدُّكَ عَنْ ءَايَاتِ اللَّهِ بَعْدَ إِذْ
أُنزِلَتْ إِلَيْكَ وَادْعُ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ وَلَا تَكُونَنَّ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ ﴿٨٧﴾ وَلَا تَدْعُ مَعَ اللَّهِ
إِلَهًا آخَرَ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ كُلُّ شَيْءٍ هَالِكٌ إِلَّا وَجْهَهُ لَهُ الْحُكْمُ وَإِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿٨٨﴾﴾

(سورة القصص: ٨٥-٨٨)

- 28:85. Verily He Who revealed the Qur'an to you [O Muhammad] will surely bring you back to the place of return. Say: My Lord knows best who has brought true guidance and who is clearly misguided.
- 28:86. You [O Muhammad] were not expecting this Book to be conferred on you; but [it is] a mercy from your Lord. So do not be a helper to the disbelievers.
- 28:87. Do not let them turn you [O Muhammad] away from the revelations of Allah after they have been sent down to you; call people to your Lord, and do not be one of those who ascribe partners to Allah.
- 28:88. Do not call upon any other god alongside Allah; there is no god but He. All will perish but He. His is the judgement and to Him you will be brought back.

﴿Verily He Who revealed the Qur'an to you﴾ that is, with regard to the One Who sent it down, enjoined rulings in it, explained in it what is lawful and what is prohibited, and instructed you to convey it to humankind, and explain all the rulings having to do with those who are accountable, it does not befit His wisdom that life should be no more than the life of this world, without any reward or punishment for people. Rather He will inevitably bring you to the place of return, where He will requite the doers of good for their good deeds and the doers of evil for their disobedience.

You (O Muhammad ﷺ) have already explained guidance to them and shown them the way. If they follow you, then they are fortunate and blessed, but if they insist on disobeying you, criticising the guidance that you have brought, and giving precedence to what they have of falsehood over the truth, then there is no longer any room for argument and there is nothing left but requital for deeds by the Knower of the unseen and the seen, Who will requite the follower of truth and the follower of falsehood. Hence Allah says:

﴿Say: My Lord knows best who has brought true guidance and who is clearly misguided﴾; He knows that His Messenger (ﷺ) is the one who is guided and guides others, and that his enemies are the ones who have gone astray and are leading others astray.

﴿You [O Muhammad] were not expecting this Book to be conferred on you﴾ that is, you were not seeking or hoping for this Book to be sent down to you; you were not prepared for that and you were not looking for it

﴿but [it is] a mercy from your Lord﴾ to you and to other people. He sent you with this Book by means of which He bestowed mercy upon humankind, taught them that which they did not know, purified them and taught them the Book and wisdom, even though before that they had clearly been misguided.

If you know that He sent it down to you as a mercy from Him, you will know that everything that He enjoins and forbids is also mercy and grace from Allah. So your heart should not be troubled by it, and you should not think that what is contrary to it may be more appropriate or more beneficial.

﴿So do not be a helper to the disbelievers﴾ that is, do not help them in that which is part of their disbelief. One aspect of helping them is to say that any part of the book is contrary to wisdom, what is in people's best interests or what is beneficial.

﴿Do not let them turn you [O Muhammad] away from the revelations of Allah after they have been sent down to you﴾; rather you should convey them and put them into practice, and do not pay any attention to their scheming or be diverted from its verses, and do not follow their whims and desires.

﴿call people to your Lord﴾ that is, make calling people to your Lord your ultimate goal, and whatever is contrary to that should be rejected, whether it is showing off, seeking reputation, or going along with the aims of the followers of falsehood, for that will lead to being with them and helping them in their aims. Hence Allah says: ﴿and do not be one of those who ascribe partners to Allah﴾ that is, do not be one of them either in terms of their ascription of partners to Allah or in any of the minor issues thereof, which refers to all kinds of sin.

﴿Do not call upon any other god alongside Allah﴾; rather devote your worship to Allah alone, for ﴿there is no god but He﴾. Therefore no one is deserving of your devotion, love and worship except Allah, the Most Perfect, the Eternal, for ﴿All will perish but He﴾. If everything except Him will perish and vanish, then worship of that which will perish and is false is itself false, because its aim is false and corrupt. ﴿His is the judgement﴾ in this world and the hereafter ﴿and to Him﴾ and no one else ﴿you will be brought back﴾. Because everything other than Allah is false and will perish, and it is Allah alone Who will remain, besides Whom there is no other god, His is the judgement in this world and the hereafter, and to Him all creatures will return, and He will requite them for their deeds. Therefore anyone who has any understanding must worship Allah alone, with no partner or associate, and must strive to do that which will bring him closer to Him, and he must beware of His wrath and punishment, lest he come to his Lord without having repented or given up his sins.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat al-Qaṣaṣ.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

29. Soorat al-'Ankaboot

---

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿۱﴾ أَحَسِبَ النَّاسُ أَنْ يَقُولُوا آمَنَّا وَهُمْ لَا يُفْتَنُونَ ﴿۲﴾ وَلَقَدْ فَتَنَّا
الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ فَلْيَعْلَمَنَّ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ صَدَقُوا وَلْيَعْلَمَنَّ الْكَاذِبِينَ ﴿۳﴾ (سورة العنكبوت)

(۳-۱)

29:1. Alif. Lâ. Meem.<sup>35</sup>

29:2. Do people think that once they say: We believe, they will be left alone and not be tested?

29:3. Indeed We tested those who came before them. For Allah will surely make known those who are sincere and will surely make known those who are liars.

---

<sup>35</sup> Groups of letters (al-ḥuroof al-muqatta'ah) appear at the beginning of several soorahs. The most correct scholarly view states that we are required to believe in them as they appear to be, without delving into their meaning, knowledge of which we should leave to Allah. We believe that they were not revealed in vain, and that there is wisdom behind them of which we are not aware.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the perfect nature of His wisdom, and that His wisdom does not dictate that anyone who says that he is a believer and claims to have faith will be safe from trials and tests, and will not be exposed to that which may cause confusion with regard to their faith and related issues. If that were the case, there would be nothing to distinguish one who is sincere from one who is lying, or the follower of truth from the follower of falsehood. Rather His way with the earlier nations and with this Ummah is to test them by means of ease and hardship, times when one feels energised and times when one feels reluctant, wealth and poverty, causing their enemies to have the upper hand over them at times, and causing them to strive against the enemy in word and deed, and other kinds of tests, all of which may lead to confusion that is indicative of doubts and overwhelming desires on his part.

When faced with doubts, whoever does not waver in his faith and wards off those doubts by means of the truth in which he believes, and when faced with desires that would call him to sin or error, or distract him from that which Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) have enjoined, he still persists in doing as faith dictates, striving against his desires, this is proof of the sincerity and soundness of his faith.

But when faced with specious arguments that impact his heart by stirring up doubts and confusion, and when faced with desires that lead him to commit sin or that distract him from doing obligatory deeds, if a person yields to those pressures, this indicates that his faith is not sound or sincere.

People are of varying degrees in this regard, and only Allah knows the level at which anyone is. We ask Allah (ﷻ) to make us steadfast with the word that stands firm in this world and in the hereafter, and to make our hearts steadfast in adhering to His religion, for tests and trials are like the bellows that eliminate dross and make hearts good.

﴿أَمْ حَسِبَ الَّذِينَ يَعْمَلُونَ السَّيِّئَاتِ أَنْ يَسْفُتُونَا سَاءَ مَا يَحْكُمُونَ﴾ (سورة العنكبوت: ٤)

29:4. Do those who do evil deeds think that they can outwit Us? How ill they judge.

That is, do those whose main concern is doing evil deeds and committing sins think that their deeds will be ignored, and that Allah will not pay any attention to them, or that they can outwit Him, and that is why they did those deeds and it was easy for them to do so?

«How ill they judge» that is, how badly they think, and how unjust is their verdict, because it is an implicit denial of the power and wisdom of Allah, and suggests that they have the power to protect themselves from the punishment of Allah, when in fact they are the weakest and most incapable of all.

﴿مَنْ كَانَ يَرْجُوا لِقَاءَ اللَّهِ فَإِنَّ أَجَلَ اللَّهِ لَآتٍ وَهُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ﴾ (سورة العنكبوت: ٥-٦)

29:5. Whoever hopes to meet his Lord, the time appointed by Allah [for that meeting] is surely coming, and He is All-Hearing, All-Knowing.

29:6. Whoever strives only strives for his own benefit. Verily Allah has no need of the worlds.

That is, O you who love your Lord and long to be near Him and meet Him, and hasten to seek His pleasure, receive the glad tidings that your meeting with the Beloved is at hand and will soon come, for everything that is coming is near at hand. So prepare to meet Him and start your journey towards Him with your heart full of hope, hoping to reach Him. But not everyone who makes a claim will be accepted as having a sound claim, and not everyone who wishes for something will be given what he wishes for. For Allah hears all voices and knows all intentions. Whoever is sincere in that will attain what he hopes for, but whoever is insincere, his claim will not benefit him. Allah knows best who is deserving of His love and who is not.

﴿Whoever strives﴾ against his own self (nafs), against his devil and against his disbelieving enemy
 ﴿only strives for his own benefit﴾ because the benefit of that will come back to him. Allah has no need of people, and He did not ordain commands to them in order to benefit Himself, or ordain prohibitions for them out of miserliness towards them.

It is known that commands and prohibitions require the accountable person to strive and make an effort, because his nafs (self) is reluctant to do good by nature, his devil tells him not to comply, and his disbelieving enemy tries to prevent him from practising his religion as he should. All of these are obstacles that one must strive hard to overcome.

﴿وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ لَنُكَفِّرَنَّ عَنْهُمْ سَيِّئَاتِهِمْ وَلَنَجْزِيَنَّهُمْ أَحْسَنَ الَّذِي
 كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ﴾ (سورة العنكبوت: ٧)

29:7. As for those who believe and do righteous deeds, We will surely expiate their bad deeds and We will surely grant them their reward according to the best of their deeds.

That is, with regard to those whom Allah blesses with faith and righteous deeds, He will expiate their bad deeds, because good deeds erase bad deeds.

﴿and We will surely grant them their reward according to the best of their deeds﴾ namely their good deeds, both obligatory and encouraged. They are the best of a person's deeds, because he also does permissible deeds and others.

﴿وَوَصَّيْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ بِوَالِدَيْهِ حُسْنًا وَإِنْ جَاهَدَاكَ لِتُشْرِكَ بِي مَا لَيْسَ لَكَ بِهِ عِلْمٌ فَلَا تُطِعْهُمَا إِلَىٰ مَرْجِعِكُمْ فَأُنَبِّئُكُم بِمَا كُنتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٨﴾﴾ (سورة العنكبوت: ٨)

29:8. We have enjoined upon man kindness to his parents, but if they endeavour to make you ascribe partners to Me of which you have no knowledge, then do not obey them. To Me you will all return, then I will inform you about what you used to do.

That is, We have enjoined and instructed man to show kindness to his parents, by honouring them and treating them kindly in word and deed, which he must do constantly, and not disobey them or mistreat them in word or deed.

﴿but if they endeavour to make you ascribe partners to Me of which you have no knowledge﴾ – for there is no evidence of the validity of ascribing partners to Allah. This is indicative of the gravity and serious nature of polytheism

﴿then do not obey them. To Me you will all return, then I will inform you about what you used to do﴾ and I will requite you for your deeds. So honour your parents and give precedence to obeying them, but do not give it precedence over obedience to Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), for that takes precedence over all things.

﴿وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ لَنُدْخِلَنَّهُمْ فِي الصَّالِحِينَ ﴿٩﴾﴾ (سورة العنكبوت: ٩)

29:9. As for those who believe and do righteous deeds, We will surely include them among the righteous.

That is, whoever believes in Allah and does righteous deeds, Allah has promised him that He will admit him to paradise among His righteous slaves, namely the Prophets, those who are strong and true in faith, the martyrs and the righteous, each one according to his level and status before Allah. Sound faith and righteous deeds indicate that a person is blessed and that he is one of the people of the Most Gracious, the righteous slaves of Allah (ﷺ).

﴿وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَن يَقُولُ ءَامَنَّا بِاللّٰهِ فَإِذَا أُوذِيَ فِي اللّٰهِ جَعَلَ فِتْنَةَ النَّاسِ كَعَذَابِ اللّٰهِ وَلَئِن جَاءَ نَصْرٌ مِّن رَّبِّكَ لَيَقُولُنَّ إِنَّا كُنَّا مَعَكُمْ أَوَلَيْسَ اللّٰهُ بِأَعْلَمَ بِمَا فِي صُدُورِ الْعَالَمِينَ ۚ وَلَيَعْلَمَنَّ اللّٰهُ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَلَيَعْلَمَنَّ الْمُنَافِقِينَ﴾ (سورة العنكبوت: ١٠-١١)

29:10. There are some people who say: We believe in Allah, but when they are made to suffer in Allah's cause, they equate the persecution of people with the punishment of Allah. But if victory comes from your Lord, they say: We have always been with you! Does not Allah know best all that is in people's hearts?

29:11. Allah will surely make known those who believe and He will surely make known those who are hypocrites.

Having stated that He will inevitably test those who claim to believe, in order to distinguish the sincere from the insincere, Allah (ﷺ) now explains that some people have no patience in bearing such tests, and they are not steadfast in the face of some calamities:

﴿There are some people who say: We believe in Allah, but when they are made to suffer in Allah's cause﴾ by being beaten, or having their wealth taken away, or being subjected to shaming, in order to make them recant their religion and go back to falsehood,

﴿they equate the persecution of people with the punishment of Allah﴾ that is, they make that a deterrent to faith and steadfastness, as suffering will deter a person from the cause thereof.

﴿But if victory comes from your Lord, they say: We have always been with you!﴾ because that is in accordance with their whims and desires. These types of people are among those of whom Allah says:

﴿Among people there are some who worship Allah on the edge [of faith]. If something good comes to them, they are content with it, but if a trial befalls them, they make an about-face, thus forfeiting both this world and the hereafter. That is indeed manifest loss.﴾ (al-Hajj 22: 11)

﴿Does not Allah know best all that is in people's hearts?﴾ for He has told you about this type of people who are as He has described to you, so that you may come to know thereby of His perfect knowledge and vast wisdom.

﴿Allah will surely make known those who believe and He will surely make known those who are hypocrites﴾ therefore He has decreed tests and trials, so that what He already knows about them may be made manifest, then He will requite them for the deeds that they manifest, not simply on the basis of His knowledge alone, because in that case they might argue with Him, saying that if they had been tested, they would have been steadfast.

﴿وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اتَّبِعُوا سَبِيلَنَا وَلْنَحْمِلْ خَطَايَكُمْ وَمَا هُمْ بِحَامِلِينَ مِنْ خَطَايَهُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ إِنَّهُمْ لَكَاذِبُونَ ﴿١٢﴾ وَلِيَحْمِلُوا أَنْفَالَهُمْ وَأَنْفَالًا مَعَ أَنْفَالِهِمْ وَلِيُسْأَلُنَّ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ عَمَّا كَانُوا يَفْعَلُونَ ﴿١٣﴾﴾ (سورة

العنكبوت: ١٢-١٣)

29:12. The disbelievers say to the believers: Follow our path, and we will bear the burden of your sins. But they will never bear any of their sins. They are surely lying.

29:13. They will surely bear their own burdens, and other burdens along with their own, and on the Day of Resurrection they will surely be questioned about the lies they fabricated.

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about the fabrication of lies by the disbelievers and how they call the believers to follow their religion. This is an implicit warning to the believers against being deceived by them and falling into their trap.

﴿The disbelievers say to the believers: Follow our path﴾ and give up your religion, or part of it, and follow us in our religion, and we will give you our guarantee

﴿and we will bear the burden of your sins﴾. But this is something that is not in their power to do. Hence Allah says:

﴿But they will never bear any of their sins﴾, whether few or many. This is impossible, even if the individual agrees to it, so it will not avail anything. Rather that has to do with the dues of Allah, and Allah (ﷻ) has not given power to anyone to decide about any shortfall in what is due to Him. The matter can only be dealt with in accordance with His command, rulings and wisdom, and His ruling is that:

﴿...no bearer of burdens can bear the burden of another...﴾ (al-An'ām 6: 164)

As Allah says: ﴿But they will never bear any of their sins﴾, it may be misunderstood that the disbelievers who promote their disbelief – and others of their ilk who call to falsehood – will not have to carry any burden of sin except their own, excluding the sins that others did, even if they were the cause of that. Hence Allah says, addressing this misunderstanding:

﴿They will surely bear their own burdens﴾ that is, the burden of the sins that they committed

﴿and other burdens along with their own﴾ – this refers to the sins that were committed because of them. For each sin committed by the follower, both the follower and the one whom he followed will have a share of it, the follower because he himself did it and the one whom he followed because he was the cause of his doing it and he called him to do it. By the same token, if the follower does a good deed, he will have the reward for doing it himself, and the one who called him to it will have a reward for being the cause of it.

﴿and on the Day of Resurrection they will surely be questioned about the lies they fabricated﴾ of evil, which they made fair-seeming, and their claim when they said: ﴿and we will bear the burden of your sins﴾ (29: 12).

﴿وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا نُوحًا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِ فَلَبِثَ فِيهِمْ أَلْفَ سَنَةٍ إِلَّا خَمْسِينَ عَامًا فَأَخَذَهُمُ الطُّوفَانُ وَهُمْ ظَالِمُونَ ﴿١٤﴾ فَأَنْجَيْنَاهُ وَأَصْحَابَ الْكَافَّةِ وَجَعَلْنَاهَا آيَةً لِلْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٥﴾﴾ (سورة العنكبوت: ١٤-١٥)

29:14. We sent Nooh to his people and he remained among them for a thousand years less fifty. Then the Flood overtook them in the midst of their evildoing.

29:15. But We saved him and those who were on board the ark, and We made it [the ark] a sign for all people.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of His ruling and wisdom in punishing the disbelieving nations. Allah sent His slave and Messenger Nooh (ﷺ) to his people, to call them to affirm His oneness and worship Allah alone, and to forbid them to worship the rivals and idols.

﴿and he remained among them﴾ as a Prophet, calling them to Allah ﴿for a thousand years less fifty﴾ during which he never spared any effort in calling them, and he never tired of advising them and calling them by night and by day, in private and in public. But they did not pay heed and they did not follow guidance; rather they persisted in their disbelief and transgression, until their Prophet Nooh (ﷺ) prayed against them, even though he was so patient, forbearing and steadfast, and he said:

﴿...My Lord, do not leave on earth a single living soul from among the disbelievers.﴾ (Nooh 71: 26)

﴿Then the Flood﴾ that is, the water that was sent down from the sky in abundance, and gushed forth from the earth ﴿overtook them in the midst of their evildoing﴾ when they were deserving of punishment.

﴿But We saved him and those who were on board the ark﴾ that is, those who had embarked with him, namely his family and those who believed with him

﴿and We made it [the ark]﴾ or the story of Nooh

﴿a sign for all people﴾ so that they may learn a lesson from it, that whoever rejects the Messengers will ultimately be doomed, but Allah will grant the believers relief from all distress and a way out from all hardship.

Allah also made ships in general a sign for all people, from which they may learn of the mercy of their Lord, Who has granted them the means to make ships and benefit from them, and He has made them to carry them and their goods from one place to another, and from one country to another.

﴿وَأَرْسَلْنَا إِذْ قَالَ لِقَوْمِهِ اعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ وَاتَّقُوهُ ذَلِكُمْ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ إِن كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٧١﴾ إِنَّمَا تَعْبُدُونَ مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ أَوْثَانًا وَتَخْلُقُونَ إِفْكًا إِنَّ الَّذِينَ تَعْبُدُونَ مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ لَا يَمْلِكُونَ لَكُمْ رِزْقًا فَابْتَغُوا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ الرِّزْقَ وَاعْبُدُوهُ

وَأَشْكُرُوا لَهُٓ إِلَٰهَ إِلَٰهٍ تَرْجِعُونَ ﴿١٧﴾ وَإِنْ تُكَذِّبُوا فَقَدْ كَذَّبَ أُمَمٌ مِّن قَبْلِكُمْ وَمَا عَلَى الرَّسُولِ إِلَّا الْبَلَّغُ الْمُبِينُ ﴿١٨﴾ أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا كَيْفَ يُبْدِئُ اللَّهُ الْخَلْقَ ثُمَّ يُعِيدُهُ ۚ إِنَّ ذَٰلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ يَسِيرٌ ﴿١٩﴾ قُلْ سِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَانظُرُوا كَيْفَ بَدَأَ الْخَلْقَ ثُمَّ اللَّهُ يُنشِئُ النَّشْأَةَ الْآخِرَةَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ﴿٢٠﴾ يُعَذِّبُ مَن يَشَاءُ وَيَرْحَمُ مَن يَشَاءُ وَإِلَيْهِ تُقْلَبُونَ ﴿٢١﴾ وَمَا أَنْتُمْ بِمُعْجِزِينَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا فِي السَّمَاءِ وَمَا لَكُم مِّن دُونِ اللَّهِ مِن وَلِيٍّ وَلَا نَصِيرٍ ﴿٢٢﴾ وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِآيَاتِنَا اللَّهُ وَلِقَائِهِ أُولَٰئِكَ يَئِسُوا مِن رَّحْمَتِي وَأُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿٢٣﴾ ﴿سورة

العنكبوت: ١٦-٢٣﴾

- 29:16. And [remember] Ibrâheem, when he said to his people: Worship Allah [alone] and fear Him; that is better for you, if only you knew.
- 29:17. Those that you worship besides Allah are mere idols, and you fabricate lies. Verily those whom you worship besides Allah have no power to grant you provision. So seek provision from Allah, worship Him [alone] and be grateful to Him; for to Him you will be brought back.
- 29:18. If you reject [the message], other nations before you did likewise. The duty of the Messenger is only to convey the message in the clearest way.
- 29:19. Do they not see how Allah originates creation? Then He will repeat it.<sup>36</sup> Verily that is easy for Allah.
- 29:20. Say: Travel through the land and see how Allah originated creation. Then Allah will repeat that a second time. Verily Allah has power over all things.
- 29:21. He punishes whomever He will and shows mercy to whomever He will, and to Him you will be returned.

<sup>36</sup> This refers to the Day of Resurrection.

- 29:22. You can never escape [Allah's punishment] on earth or in heaven, and besides Him you have neither protector nor helper.
- 29:23. Those who deny the signs of Allah and the meeting with Him [in the hereafter] – it is they who will have no hope of My mercy and for them there will be a painful punishment.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He sent His close friend Ibrâheem (عليه السلام) to his people, to call them to Allah, so he said to them: ﴿Worship Allah [alone]﴾ that is, affirm His oneness, devote your worship to Him alone, and obey whatever He commands you to do ﴿and fear Him﴾ lest He become angry with you and punish you; that means refraining from acts of disobedience that incur His wrath ﴿that﴾ namely worshipping Allah and fearing Him ﴿is better for you﴾ than not doing so.

There is nothing good whatsoever in failing to worship Allah and fear Him; rather fearing Allah and worshipping Him is best for people, because there is no way to attain His reward in this world and the hereafter except by doing that. All goodness that exists in this world and the hereafter is the outcome of worshipping Allah and fearing Him.

﴿if only you knew﴾ that, so you should understand the reality of things and realise what is more deserving of being given precedence.

Having instructed them to worship Allah and fear Him, Ibrâheem then forbade them to worship idols, and explained to them that the idols were imperfect and were not deserving of worship:

﴿Those that you worship besides Allah are mere idols, and you fabricate lies﴾, for you carve them and make them with your own hands, and you make up names of gods for them and fabricate lies by enjoining worship of them and adhering to that power to grant you provision». It is as if it was said: It has become clear to us that these idols are created and imperfect, and they have no power to bring benefit or cause harm, or to cause death, give life or resurrect, and one who is like that does not deserve even the tiniest speck of worship and devotion. Hearts have a strong inclination to seek an object of worship to be devoted to and ask of it whatever they need. So Ibrâheem said, urging them to turn to the One Who is truly deserving of worship: «So seek provision from Allah» for He is the One Who provides it and decrees it, and He is the One Who answers the call of the one who calls upon Him with regard to his religious and worldly affairs.

﴿Verily those whom you worship besides Allah﴾ because they are imperfect and there is nothing to justify worshipping them, ﴿have no

«worship Him [alone]», with no partner or associate, because He is the Most Perfect, Who brings benefit and causes harm, the only One Who has control over all things

«and be grateful to Him» alone, because everything that reached and still reaches people of blessings is from Him, and everything that was ward off and is still ward off from them of harm is only ward off by Him.

«for to Him you will be brought back» and He will requite you for your deeds and tell you of all that you concealed or disclosed. So beware lest you come to Him when you are ascribing partners to Him, and focus on that which will bring you closer to Him, and He will reward you for that when you come to Him.

«Do they not see how Allah originates creation? Then He will repeat it» on the Day of Resurrection. «Verily that is easy for Allah». This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

«It is He Who originates creation then repeats it, and that is [even] easier for Him...» (ar-Room 30: 27)

«Say» to them, if they have any doubts about the origination of creation:

«Travel through the land» physically, and reflect in your hearts

﴿and see how Allah originated creation﴾ for you will find communities of humans and animals still coming into being gradually; you will find plants and trees, and how they come into being time after time; you will find the clouds and the winds continually being renewed. In fact creation is always beginning and being repeated.

Look at them at the time of their lesser death – that is, sleep – when the night covers them with its darkness and their movements become still and their voices become silent, and in their beds and dens they become like the dead. Then they remain like that all night long, until dawn breaks and they wake up from their sleep and are raised from their lesser death, whereupon they say: “Praise be to Allah Who has brought us back to life after causing us to die, and to Him we will be resurrected.” Hence Allah says:

﴿Then﴾ after repeating that, ﴿Allah will repeat that a second time﴾ – that will be the resurrection after which they will no longer be susceptible to death or sleep; rather it will be eternal life in either paradise or hell.

﴿Verily Allah has power over all things﴾ and nothing is beyond His power. As He was able, by means of His power, to initiate creation, it is more appropriate to say that He has the power to repeat it.

﴿He punishes whomever He will and shows mercy to whomever He will﴾ that is, He alone requites for deeds, rewarding and showing mercy to those who obey Him, and punishing and wreaking vengeance upon those who disobey Him.

﴿and to Him you will be returned﴾ that is, you will be returned to that realm where you will be subjected to punishment or mercy, so seek in this realm that which will be the cause of His mercy, by doing acts of obedience, and keep away from that which will be the cause of His wrath, namely acts of disobedience.

﴿You can never escape [Allah's punishment] on earth or in heaven﴾ that is, O disbelievers who dare to disobey Allah, do not think that you are overlooked or that you can escape Allah on earth or in heaven, and do not be deceived by your power or that which your own souls make fair-seeming to you and deceive you thereby, by suggesting that you will be saved from the punishment of Allah. For you cannot escape Allah in any part of the universe.

﴿and besides Him you have neither protector﴾ to protect you and take care of you so that you attain what is in your religious and worldly interests

﴿nor helper﴾ to help you and ward off harm from you.

﴿Those who deny the signs of Allah and the meeting with Him [in the hereafter] – it is they who will have no hope of My mercy and for them there will be a painful punishment﴾. Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us who are the people who will attain nothing good and will encounter what is bad. They are the ones who disbelieved in Him and His Messengers, and the message that they brought, and they denied the meeting with Allah. They will have nothing but this world, therefore they did what they did of ascribing partners to Allah and committing sin, because there is nothing in their hearts to make them fear the consequences of that. Hence Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿it is they who will have no hope of My mercy﴾, therefore they did not take a single measure to attain mercy. Otherwise, if they had hoped for mercy, they would have striven to attain it. Despairing of the mercy of Allah is one of the gravest of errors, and it is of two types:

- The despair of the disbelievers, who failed to take any measures to approach it
- The despair of the sinners because of their many transgressions; that makes them feel alienated from Allah and overwhelms their hearts, which causes them to lose hope of His mercy.

﴿and for them there will be a painful punishment﴾ that is, an agonising punishment. It is as if these verses are inserted between the words of Ibrâheem (ﷺ) to his people, and their response to him. And Allah knows best about that.

﴿فَمَا كَانَ جَوَابَ قَوْمِهِ إِلَّا أَنْ قَالُوا اقْتُلُوهُ أَوْ حَرِّقُوهُ فَأَنجَاهُ اللَّهُ مِنَ النَّارِ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ﴾ (٢٤) وَقَالَ إِنَّمَا اتَّخَذْتُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ أَوْثِنًا مَوَدَّةَ بَيْنِكُمْ فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا ثُمَّ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ يَكْفُرُ بَعْضُكُم بِبَعْضٍ وَلَيَعْلَنُ بَعْضُكُم بِبَعْضٍ وَمَأْوَاكُمُ النَّارُ وَمَا لَكُمْ مِنْ نَاصِرِينَ ﴿٢٥﴾ (سورة

العنكبوت: ٢٤-٢٥)

- 29:24. But the only response his [Ibrâheem's] people gave was to say: Kill him or burn him. But Allah saved him from the fire. Verily in that are signs for people who believe.
- 29:25. Ibrâheem said: You have only taken idols [for worship] instead of Allah to cement the bonds among you in the life of this world, but on the Day of Resurrection you will disavow one another and curse one another. Your abode will be the fire, and you will have no helpers.

That is, the response of Ibrâheem's people to him, when he called them to his Lord, was not acceptance of his call, following his advice or recognising the blessing that Allah had bestowed upon them by sending him to them. Rather their response to him was the worst of responses.

﴿But the only response his [Ibrâheem's] people gave was to say: Kill him or burn him﴾, which is the worst kind of killing. They were people who had the power to carry out that threat, because they had authority. So they threw him into the fire, ﴿But Allah saved him﴾ from it.

﴿Verily in that are signs for people who believe﴾ and know that what the Messengers brought is true, and they know how kind and sincere the Messengers were, and how false were the words of those who opposed them and went against them. It is as if those who opposed the Messengers had all agreed and enjoined one another to disbelieve and reject the Messengers (because they all responded in the same manner).

﴿Ibrâheem said﴾ to them, among other advice that he gave:

﴿You have only taken idols [for worship] instead of Allah to cement the bonds among you in the life of this world﴾ that is, all that you achieved by that is some worldly bonds that will be severed and will vanish

﴿but on the Day of Resurrection you will disavow one another and curse one another﴾ that is, both the worshippers and their objects of worship will disavow one another.

﴿When humankind are gathered [on the Day of Resurrection], they will become their enemies and will reject their worship of them.﴾

(al-Ahqâf 46: 6)

So how can you be attached to that which you know will disavow and curse its worshippers?

﴿Your abode﴾ that is, the abode of all, both worshippers and objects of worship

﴿will be the fire﴾ and no one will protect them from the punishment of Allah, or ward it off from them.

﴿فَأَمَّنَ لَهُ لُوطٌ وَقَالَ إِنِّي مُهَاجِرٌ إِلَىٰ رَبِّي إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٢٦﴾ وَوَهَبْنَا لَهُ إِسْحَاقَ وَيَعْقُوبَ وَجَعَلْنَا فِي ذُرِّيَّتِهِ النُّبُوَّةَ وَالْكِتَابَ وَآتَيْنَاهُ أَجْرَهُ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَإِنَّهُ فِي الْآخِرَةِ لَمِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ ﴿٢٧﴾﴾ (سورة العنكبوت: ٢٦-٢٧)

29:26. Loot believed in him. Ibrâheem said: I shall migrate [where I have been commanded to] by my Lord. Verily He is the Almighty, Most Wise.

29:27. We bestowed upon him Is-hâq and Ya'qoob, and conferred upon his descendants prophethood and the scriptures. We granted him his reward in this world, and in the hereafter he will be among the righteous.

That is, Ibrâheem (عليه السلام) kept calling his people, and they persisted in their stubbornness, but Loot believed in him, whom Allah appointed as a Prophet and sent him to his people, as we shall see below.

«Ibrâheem said» when he saw that his call to his people was of no avail,

«I shall migrate [where I have been commanded to] by my Lord» that is, I shall leave the land of evil and migrate to the blessed land, namely ash-Shâm (Greater Syria).

«Verily He is the Almighty» that is, the One Who has all power and is able to guide you, but He is «Most Wise», and His wisdom did not dictate that. Ibrâheem left them when they were the same as ever, but Allah does not tell us that He destroyed them with any punishment; rather He tells us that Ibrâheem left them and migrated elsewhere.

With regard to what is mentioned in the Isrâ'eeliyât (stories narrated from Jewish sources), that Allah sent punishment upon his people in the form of mosquitoes which drank their blood and ate their flesh, and destroyed them to the last man, certainty about that would depend on shar'i evidence, of which there is none. If Allah had eradicated them all by means of the punishment, He would have mentioned that as He mentioned the destruction of other disbelieving nations.

Perhaps the reason why they were not destroyed is that Ibrâheem (عليه السلام), who was one of the most compassionate, virtuous, forbearing and noble of all people, did not pray against his people as others did, and therefore there was no wholesale divine punishment because of him.

One of the matters which may indicate that is the fact that he disputed and argued with the angels concerning the destruction of Loot's people, and tried to defend them, although they were not his people. And Allah knows best what really happened.

﴿We bestowed upon him Is-hâq and Ya'qoob﴾ that is, after he migrated to ash-Shâm
 ﴿and conferred upon his descendants prophethood and the scriptures﴾. No Prophet came after him but he was descended from him, and no scripture was revealed to anyone but his descendants, until prophethood ended with Muhammad (ﷺ).

This is one of Ibrâheem's greatest virtues, that guidance, mercy, blessing and prosperity were bestowed upon his descendants, and at their hands people would be guided, believe and become righteous. ﴿We granted him his reward in this world﴾, such as a wife who was extremely beautiful, abundant provision, and children who were a source of joy to him; and knowing, loving and turning to Allah. ﴿and in the hereafter he will be among the righteous﴾. Indeed he and Muhammad (ﷺ) will be among the best of the righteous, and the highest in status. Thus Allah granted him happiness both in this world and in the hereafter.

﴿وَلُوطًا إِذْ قَالَ لِقَوْمِهِ إِنَّكُمْ لَأَنْتَوْنَ الْفَاحِشَةُ مَا سَبَقَكُمْ بِهَا مِنْ أَحَدٍ مِنَ الْعَالَمِينَ ٢٨﴾ أَيْنَكُمْ لَأَنْتَوْنَ الرِّجَالُ وَتَقَطَّعُونَ السَّبِيلَ وَتَأْتُونَ فِي نَادِيَكُمُ الْمُنْكَرَ فَمَا كَانَ جَوَابَ قَوْمِهِ إِلَّا أَنْ قَالُوا أَتَيْنَا بِعَذَابِ اللَّهِ إِنْ كُنْتَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ٢٩﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ أَنْصُرْنِي عَلَى الْقَوْمِ الْمُفْسِدِينَ ٣٠﴾ وَلَمَّا جَاءَتْ رُسُلُنَا إِبْرَاهِيمَ بِالْبُشْرَى قَالُوا إِنَّا مُهْلِكُوا أَهْلَ هَذِهِ الْقَرْيَةِ إِنَّ أَهْلَهَا كَانُوا ظَالِمِينَ ٣١﴾ قَالَ إِنَّ فِيهَا لُوطًا قَالُوا

تَحَبُّبُ أَعْلَمُ مِنْ فِيهَا لَتُنَجِّيَنَّهُ وَأَهْلَهُ إِلَّا أَمْرَانَهُ كَانَتْ مِنَ الْغَيْرِينَ ﴿٣٢﴾
 وَلَمَّا أَنْ جَاءَتْ رُسُلُنَا لُوطًا سِوَىٰ يَهُيْمٍ وَصَافٍ بِهِمْ ذُرْعًا وَقَالُوا لَا تَخَفْ
 وَلَا تَحْزَنْ إِنَّا مُنْجُونَكَ وَأَهْلَكَ إِلَّا أَمْرَانِكَ كَانَتْ مِنَ الْغَيْرِينَ ﴿٣٣﴾ إِنَّا
 مُنْزِلُونَكَ عَلَىٰ أَهْلِ هَذِهِ الْقَرْيَةِ رِجْرًا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ بِمَا كَانُوا يَفْسُقُونَ ﴿٣٤﴾
 وَلَقَدْ تَرَكْنَاهَا آيَةً يَتَذَكَّرُ لِقَوْمٍ يُعْقَلُونَ ﴿٣٥﴾ (سورة العنكبوت: ٢٨-٣٥)

- 29:28. And [remember] Loot, when he said to his people: Verily you commit this shameful deed that no one in the world has ever committed before you.
- 29:29. Do you approach men with lust, waylay travellers on the road, and commit shameful acts in your meeting places? But the only response his people gave was to say: Bring us the punishment of Allah, if you are telling the truth.
- 29:30. He said: O my Lord, help me against those who spread mischief.
- 29:31. When Our messengers [angels] came to Ibrâheem with glad tidings, they said: We are going to destroy the people of this city, for they have indeed been persisting in wickedness.
- 29:32. He said: But Loot is there! They said: We know full well who is there. We will surely save him and his family, except his wife; she is one of those who will stay behind.
- 29:33. When Our messengers came to Loot, he was perturbed by their coming and felt troubled on their account. They said: Fear not nor grieve, for we will surely save you and your family, except your wife; she is one of those who will stay behind.
- 29:34. We are going to bring down on the people of this city a punishment from heaven, because of their defiant disobedience.
- 29:35. Surely the ruins We left of that city are a clear sign for people of understanding.

We have seen above that Loot (ﷺ) believed in Ibrâheem and was one of those who were guided by him. Some say that he was not one of the descendants of Ibrâheem; rather he was his nephew (the son of his brother). If the words ﴿and conferred upon his descendants prophethood and the scriptures﴾ (29: 27) are general in meaning, that does not contradict the fact that Loot was a Prophet and Messenger, even though he was not one of the progeny of Ibrâheem, because the context of the verse is one of praising Ibrâheem. Allah tells us that Loot was guided at the hands of Ibrâheem, and the one who was guided at his hands is of higher standing than those of his progeny who were guided, when taking into consideration the virtue of the guide. And Allah knows best.

Allah sent Loot to his people, who alongside their ascription of partners to Allah had combined immoral deeds with males, banditry and committing shameful acts in their gatherings. Loot advised them to give up these things and explained to them that they were abhorrent in and of themselves and because of what they lead to of severe punishment. But they were not deterred and did not pay heed: ﴿But the only response his people gave was to say: Bring us the punishment of Allah, if you are telling the truth﴾.

So their Prophet despaired of them and realised that they were deserving of punishment; he was very annoyed at their total rejection and prayed against them: ﴿He said: O my Lord, help me against those who spread mischief﴾. Allah responded to his supplication: He sent the angels to destroy them, and they passed by Ibrâheem before that and gave him the glad tidings of Is-hâq and, after Is-hâq, Ya'qoob.

Then Ibrâheem asked them: Where are you going? And they told him that they were going to destroy the people of Loot. Ibrâheem began to argue with them, saying: ﴿But Loot is there!﴾ They said to him: ﴿We know full well who is there. We will surely save him and his family, except his wife; she is one of those who will stay behind﴾. Then they went on their way, and when they came to Loot, he was perturbed by their coming and felt troubled on their account, because he did not know who they were; he thought that they were wayfarers and guests, so he feared that they might be harmed by his people. But they said to him: «Fear not nor grieve», and they told him that they were messengers from Allah: «for we will surely save you and your family, except your wife; she is one of those who will stay behind. We are going to bring down on the people of this city a punishment from heaven, because of their defiant disobedience». They instructed him to leave at night, with his family, then when morning came Allah turned their houses upside down on them and sent upon them a shower of stones of baked clay, one after another, until they destroyed them and they became a tale to be told at night and a lesson.

«Surely the ruins We left of that city are a clear sign for people of understanding» that is, We left a clear trace of the dwellings of the people of Loot for people of understanding to learn lessons from them and benefit thereby. This is like the verses in which Allah (ﷻ) says: «Surely you pass by their ruins by day and by night. Will you not then understand?» (as-Şaffât 37: 137-138)

﴿وَالِى مَدْيَنَ أَخَاهُمْ شُعَيْبًا فَقَالَ يَنْقُومِ اعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ وَارْجُوا الْيَوْمَ الْآخِرَ وَلَا تَعْتَوْا فِي الْأَرْضِ مُفْسِدِينَ ﴿٣٦﴾ فَكَذَّبُوهُ فَأَخَذَتْهُمُ الرَّحْفَةُ فَأَصْبَحُوا فِي دَارِهِمْ جِثْمِينَ ﴿٣٧﴾﴾ (سورة العنكبوت: ٣٦-٣٧)

29:36. To Madyan We sent their brother Shu'ayb. He said: O my people, worship Allah and expect the Last Day, and do not strive to spread mischief in the land.

29:37. But they rejected him. So an earthquake overtook them, and morning found them lying lifeless in their homes.

That is, and We also sent to Madyan, the well-known tribe, «Shu'ayb», to command them to worship Allah alone, with no partner or associate, and to believe in the resurrection, hope for it and strive for it; and to forbid them to spread mischief in the land, cheat in weights and measures, or to strive in banditry. But they rejected him, so the punishment of Allah overtook them, ﴿and morning found them lying lifeless in their homes﴾.

﴿وَعَادًا وَثَمُودًا وَقَدْ تَبَيَّنَ لَكُمْ مِنْ مَسْكِنِهِمْ وَزَيْنَ لَهُمُ الشَّيْطَانُ أَعْمَلَهُمْ فَصَدَّهُمْ عَنِ السَّبِيلِ وَكَانُوا مُسْتَبْصِرِينَ ﴿٣٨﴾ وَقُرُونِ وَفِرْعَوْنَ وَهَمَانَ ۖ وَلَقَدْ جَاءَهُمْ مُوسَىٰ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَاسْتَكْبَرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا كَانُوا سَاقِيْنَ ﴿٣٩﴾ فَكُلًّا أَخَذْنَا بِذُنُوبِهِ ۚ فَمِنْهُمْ مَن أَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِ حَاصِبًا وَمِنْهُمْ مَن أَخَذَتُهُ الصَّيْحَةُ وَمِنْهُمْ مَن خَسَفْنَا بِهِ الْأَرْضَ وَمِنْهُمْ مَن أَغْرَقْنَا وَمَا كَانَ اللَّهُ لِيُظْلِمَهُمْ وَلَكِنْ كَانُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ يَظْلِمُونَ ﴿٤٠﴾﴾

(سورة العنكبوت: ٣٨-٤٠)

- 29:38. And [We also punished] 'Ād and Thamood, as is clear to you from the ruins of their dwellings. The Shayṭān made their deeds fair-seeming to them and barred them from the right path, even though they were intelligent people.
- 29:39. And [We also punished] Qāroon, Pharaoh and Hāmān. Moosā came to them with clear signs, but they showed arrogance in the land. They could not outwit [Us].
- 29:40. Each of them We punished for their sin: against some of them We sent a violent squall of pebbles, some were overtaken by the blast, some We caused the earth to swallow, and some We drowned. It was not Allah Who wronged them, but it was they who wronged themselves.

That is, We did likewise to 'Ād and Thamood. You know their stories, and that is clear to you from some of what you see with your own eyes of their dwellings and ruins that they left behind. Their Messengers came to them with clear signs for those who would pay heed, but they rejected them and argued with them.

﴿The Shayṭān made their deeds fair-seeming to them﴾ so that they thought that they were better than the Messengers who came to them, as did Qāroon, Pharaoh and Hāmān, when Allah sent Moosā ibn 'Imrān to them with clear signs and definitive proof, but they did not submit; they behaved arrogantly in the land towards the slaves of Allah and humiliated them, and towards the truth, which they rejected. But they could not save themselves when the punishment came upon them, and ﴿They could not outwit﴾ Allah. They could not escape; rather they surrendered and submitted to the punishment.

﴿Each of them﴾ that is, these disbelieving nations
 ﴿We punished for their sin﴾ that is, We sent upon them a punishment that was appropriate to their sin.

﴿against some of them We sent a violent squall of pebbles﴾ that is, a strong wind that carried the pebbles, as in the case of the people of 'Ād, when Allah sent against them the devastating wind:

﴿Which He unleashed against them for seven nights and eight days in succession, so that you would have seen the people lying lifeless as if they were the trunks of fallen palm trees.﴾ (al-Hāqqah 69: 7)

﴿some were overtaken by the blast﴾ like the people of Ṣāliḥ
 ﴿some We caused the earth to swallow﴾, like Qāroon
 ﴿and some We drowned﴾ like Pharaoh and Hāmān and their troops.

﴿It was not Allah Who wronged them﴾ that is, it is not appropriate or befitting for Him to wrong them, because of His perfect justice and because He has no need whatsoever of any of His creation.

﴿but it was they who wronged themselves﴾ by depriving their souls of their rights that they were seeking, for they were created to worship Allah alone, but these people directed their souls in a different direction and distracted them with whims and desires and sins. Thus they did their souls serious harm when they thought that they were doing good.

﴿مَثَلُ الَّذِينَ اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ أَوْلِيَاءَ كَمَثَلِ الْعَنْكَبُوتِ اتَّخَذَتْ
بَيْتًا وَإِنَّ أَوْهَرَ الْبُيُوتِ لَبَيْتُ الْعَنْكَبُوتِ لَوْ كَانُوا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٤١﴾ إِنَّ
اللَّهَ يَعْلَمُ مَا يَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٤٢﴾ وَتِلْكَ
الْأَمْثَلُ نُضْرِبُهَا لِلنَّاسِ وَمَا يَعْقِلُهَا إِلَّا الْعَالِمُونَ ﴿٤٣﴾﴾ (سورة العنكبوت):
(٤١-٤٣)

- 29:41. The likeness of those who take protectors other than Allah is that of the spider that makes itself a house. Verily the flimsiest of houses is that of the spider, if only they knew.
- 29:42. Verily Allah knows what things they call upon besides Him, and He is the Almighty, Most Wise.
- 29:43. Such are the comparisons We set forth for humankind, but none understand them except those who have knowledge.

This is a likeness that Allah gives of those who worship others alongside Him, seeking thereby honour, strength and benefit, in order to explain that the outcome will be contrary to that which they seek to achieve. The likeness of such a person is that of the spider which makes a house to protect itself from heat, cold and dangers, but «Verily the flimsiest» that is, the weakest «of houses is that of the spider». The spider is one of the weakest of creatures, and its house is among the weakest of houses, and it only becomes weaker by building it. This is how those people are who take others besides Allah as allies: they are weak and incapable in all ways, and when they take these allies besides Allah, for the purpose of seeking honour and help from them, that only adds to their weakness, because they put their trust in them to achieve many of the goals that they seek to achieve, and they leave it to those allies; they stop striving to achieve it for themselves on the basis that those allies will take care of the matter for them, but the allies let them down, so they do not achieve any result through them and they do not get any help from them.

If they truly understood their situation and that of those whom they take as allies, they would not take them as allies; they would disavow them and take as their protector and ally the Powerful, Most Merciful Lord Who, if His slave takes Him as his protector and puts his trust in Him, He will suffice him and take care of all his needs, both spiritual and worldly, and He will increase him in strength, spiritually and physically.

Having explained how weak the gods of the polytheists were, Allah then went further than that, describing them in a more effective and eloquent manner, by suggesting that they were nothing; rather they were mere names that people fabricated, and ideas that they believed in. All that it takes is for the wise man to think about that and realise that they are false and non-existent. Hence Allah says:

﴿Verily Allah knows what things they call upon besides Him﴾ that is, He knows – for He is the knower of the unseen and the seen – that they are not calling, besides Him, upon anything that exists or upon any real god. This is like the verses in which He says:

﴿They are no more than names you have named, you and your forefathers, for which Allah has not sent down any authority...﴾ (an-Najm 53: 23)

– and:

﴿...Those who call upon their [so-called] partners besides Allah follow nothing but conjecture and they do nothing but lie.﴾ (Yoonus 10: 66)

﴿and He is the Almighty, Most Wise﴾ to Whom belongs all power, by which He has subjugated all creatures

﴿Most Wise﴾, Who does what is appropriate, Who created all things well and Who does all things with precision.

﴿Such are the comparisons We set forth for humankind﴾ that is, for their sake and for their benefit, and to teach them, because they are ways of explaining knowledge; they make abstract ideas become clear by comparing them to something tangible, thus the intended meaning becomes clear because of this comparison. Hence it serves the interests of all people.

﴿but none understand them﴾ in the sense of comprehending them, reflecting upon them and understanding the point of this comparison, ﴿except those who have knowledge﴾ that is, the people of true knowledge, whose knowledge has indeed reached their hearts and who understand what they have learned.

This is praise for the comparisons that He gives, urging people to reflect upon them and understand them. It is also praise for those who understand the comparisons, and it is evidence that such people are indeed people of knowledge. Thus it is known that those who do not understand them do not have knowledge.

The reason for that is that the comparisons that Allah gives in the Qur'an have to do with important issues, sublime goals and noble ideas. Therefore the people of knowledge understand that they are more important than others, because Allah mentions them and urges His slaves to reflect on them and ponder their meanings, and do their utmost to understand them.

As for those who do not understand them, despite their importance, that indicates that they are not people of knowledge, because if they do not understand important issues, it is more likely that they will not understand other matters. Hence most of the likenesses that Allah gives have to do with the fundamentals of religion and other important matters.

﴿ خَلَقَ اللَّهُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ بِالْحَقِّ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً لِّلْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴾ (سورة العنكبوت: ٤٤)

(سورة العنكبوت: ٤٤)

29:44. Allah created the heavens and the earth for a true purpose. Surely in that there is a sign for the believers.

That is, Allah (ﷻ) is the only One Who created the heavens, despite their great height, vastness and beauty, and all that they contain of the sun, moon, stars and angels; and He created the earth and all that it contains of mountains, seas, wilderness, deserts, trees and so on. He created that for a true purpose; in other words, He did not create it in vain or with no purpose and for no benefit. Rather He created that so that His command and law would be established, and so that His blessings upon His slaves would be perfected, so that they may see of His wisdom, might and control that which will show them that He alone is deserving of their worship, love and devotion.

«Surely in that there is a sign for the believers» that points to many issues of faith by which, if the believer reflects upon that, he will increase in faith and certainty.

﴿ أَتْلُ مَا أُوحِيَ إِلَيْكَ مِنَ الْكِتَابِ وَأَقِمِ الصَّلَاةَ إِنَّ الصَّلَاةَ تَنْهَى عَنِ الْفَحْشَاءِ وَالْمُنْكَرِ وَلَذِكْرُ اللَّهِ أَكْبَرُ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ مَا تَصْنَعُونَ ﴾ (سورة العنكبوت: ٤٥)

(سورة العنكبوت: ٤٥)

29:45. Recite what has been revealed to you [O Muhammad] of the Book, and establish prayer, for verily prayer keeps [one] away from obscenity and wickedness. And indeed your remembering

---

Allah is of greater merit [than other acts of worship]. And Allah knows all that you do.

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) instructs us to recite His revelation, which is this great Book. What is meant by reciting it is following it, complying with what it enjoins, avoiding what it prohibits, following its guidance, believing its stories, pondering its meanings, and reciting its phrases. Reciting its words is just part of what is meant.

As this is what is meant by reciting the Book, it is known that establishing the entire religion is included in recitation of the Book. The words «and establish prayer» come under the heading of mentioning a specific part of the whole, because of the virtue and importance of the prayer, and the good effect of the prayer, for «verily prayer keeps [one] away from obscenity and wickedness».

Obscenity is that which is regarded as grave and offensive of sins that one may desire and have the inclination to do. Wickedness refers to everything that is regarded as abhorrent and wrong on the basis of rational thinking and sound human nature.

The reason why prayer keeps one away from obscenity and wickedness is that if a person establishes prayer, fulfilling its essential parts and conditions, and focusing with proper humility, it will illuminate and purify his heart, increase him in faith, strengthen his desire to do good, and reduce or eliminate his desire to do evil. So praying regularly and persisting in praying in that manner will inevitably keep one away from obscenity and wickedness. This is one of the great aims and outcomes of prayer.

There is also another goal of prayer that is greater and more important than that, which is what the prayer involves of remembering Allah in one's heart as well as verbally and physically. Allah (ﷻ) only created humankind to worship Him, and the best act of worship that people may perform is prayer, because in it all his faculties manifest servitude to Him, which is not the case with other acts of worship.

Hence Allah says: «And indeed your remembering Allah is of greater merit [than other acts of worship]».

It may be that when Allah enjoined and praised prayer, He said that remembrance of Him outside of prayer is of greater merit than prayer, as is the view of the majority of commentators. But the first view is more likely to be correct, because prayer is better than remembrance of Allah outside of prayer, and because it – as mentioned above – in and of itself is one of the greatest forms of remembrance of Allah.

«And Allah knows all that you do» of good and evil, and He will requite you for that in full.

﴿وَلَا تُجَادِلُوا أَهْلَ الْكِتَابِ إِلَّا بِالَّتِي هِيَ أَحْسَنُ إِلَّا الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا مِنْهُمْ وَقُولُوا ءَامَنَّا بِالَّذِي أُنْزِلَ إِلَيْنَا وَأُنْزِلَ إِلَيْكُمْ وَإِلَهُنَا وَإِلَهُكُمْ وَاحِدٌ وَنَحْنُ لَهُ مُسْلِمُونَ﴾ (سورة العنكبوت: ٤٦)

29:46. Do not dispute with the People of the Book except in the most courteous manner, unless it be with those of them who transgress [against you]. And say: We believe in that which has been sent down to us, and in that which was sent down to you, for our God and your God is One, and to Him we submit [as Muslims].

Here Allah forbids disputing with the People of the Book if it is not based on proper knowledge of the people with whom one is arguing, or it is not based on some reasonable guidelines, and He instructs us not to dispute with them except in the most courteous manner, with a good attitude, kind and gentle speech, calling them to the truth and presenting it in the best manner, refuting falsehood and presenting it in a bad light, in the most straightforward manner. The aim should not be mere argument and defeating one's opponent, or love of prevailing in argument. Rather the aim should be to explain the truth and guide people.

However, in the case of those among the People of the Book who transgress, if it becomes apparent from the individual's aim and situation that he has no desire to find out about the truth, and he is only arguing for the sake of causing trouble and trying to win the argument, then there is no benefit in disputing with him, because there is no purpose to be served thereby.

﴿And say: We believe in that which has been sent down to us, and in that which was sent down to you, for our God and your God is One﴾ that is, let your argument with the People of the Book be based on belief in what was sent down to you and what was sent down to them, and on belief in your Messenger and their Messenger, and on the fact that God is One. Do not frame your argument with them in such a way that it leads to you criticising any of the divinely-revealed Books or any of the Messengers, as the ignorant do when arguing, criticising everything that they have, whether it is right or wrong. This is unfair and is drifting away from the proper manners and etiquette of debate. What one should do is reject what one's opponent has of falsehood and accept what he has of truth, and not reject the truth just because he said it, even if he is a disbeliever.

Moreover, basing the debate with the People of the Book on these guidelines will compel them to accept the Qur'an and the Messenger (ﷺ) who brought it, because if he speaks of the religious fundamentals on which all the Prophets and Books are agreed, which are established in the minds of both sides, and they both agree on them and believe in them as established facts, and the previous Books and Messengers – including the Qur'an and Muhammad (ﷺ) – explained them, preached them and told the people about them, then this will compel them to believe in all the Books and all the Messengers. This is something that is unique to Islam.

As for the idea that we believe in what it says in one particular Book, but not another Book, when the other Book confirms what is mentioned in the previous Book, this is unfair and wrong, and it results in rejecting all of them, because if a person rejects the Qur'an, which speaks of the same fundamentals and confirms what came before it of the Torah, then he will be rejecting what he claims to believe in.

Moreover, no matter what argument is given to prove the prophethood of any Prophet, a similar or stronger argument would also prove the prophethood of Muhammad (ﷺ), and no matter what specious argument is offered to cast aspersions upon the prophethood of Muhammad (ﷺ), a similar or stronger argument would cast aspersions on the prophethood of others. If an argument is proven to be flawed in the case of anyone else, then it is more so in the case of our Prophet (ﷺ).

﴿and to Him we submit [as Muslims]﴾ that is, We submit and yield to His command. Whoever believes in Him, takes Him as his god, believes in His Books and Messengers, submits to Allah and follows His Messengers, is the one who is blessed, and whoever goes astray from this path is the one who is doomed.

﴿وَكَذَلِكَ أَنزَلْنَا إِلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ ۚ فَالَّذِينَ ءَاتَيْنَهُمُ الْكِتَابَ يُؤْمِنُونَ بِهِ ۚ وَمِنْ هَؤُلَاءِ مَنْ يُؤْمِنُ بِهِ ۚ وَمَا يَجْحَدُ بِآيَاتِنَا إِلَّا الْكَافِرُونَ ﴿٤٧﴾ وَمَا كُنْتَ تَسْمَعُ مِنْ قَبْلِهِ مِنْ كِتَابٍ وَلَا تَخْطُّهُ بِمِصْرَافٍ ۚ إِذَا لَا تَرَىٰ الْأَرْتَابَ الْمُبْتَطُلُونَ ﴿٤٨﴾﴾ (سورة العنكبوت)

(٤٨-٤٧)

29:47. In like manner We have sent down the Book to you. Those to whom We gave the scripture believe in it, and some of these people [the People of the Book] also believe in it. And no one denies Our revelations except the disbelievers.

29:48. You were not able to read any book before this [Qur'an], nor were you able to write anything with your right hand. In that case the followers of falsehood would indeed have had cause to doubt.

﴿In like manner We have sent down the Book to you﴾, O Muhammad (ﷺ), namely this noble Book that foretells every great event, calls to all good characteristics and attitudes, enjoins everything that is perfect, confirms the previous Books, and was foretold by the earlier Prophets.

﴿Those to whom We gave the scripture﴾ and they acknowledge it as it should be acknowledged, and are not affected by jealousy or whims and desires ﴿believe in it﴾ because they are certain that it is true, because of what they see of it being in harmony with what they have of prophecies and what they are distinguished by of knowledge of what is good and bad, true and false.

﴿and some of these people [the People of the Book]﴾ at the time of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ)

﴿also believe in it﴾ with faith based on insight.

﴿And no one denies Our revelations except the disbelievers﴾ who persistently deny the truth and stubbornly reject it. This states that only the disbelievers reject His revelation, because rejection cannot come from one whose aim is to follow the truth. Otherwise, anyone with good intentions will inevitably believe in it, because of what it contains of clear proofs for anyone who has sound reason or who pays heed.

One of the indications that it is sound is the fact that it was brought by this trustworthy Prophet (ﷺ), who was known among his people for his sincerity and honesty, and they were aware of all his comings and goings and all his circumstances. They knew that he was unlettered and could not read or write. The fact that he brought it against this background is one of the clearest of proofs which leaves no room for any doubt that it is from Allah, the Almighty, the Most Praiseworthy. Hence He says:

«You were not able to read any book before this [Qur'an], nor were you able to write anything with your right hand». If that had been the case, «the followers of falsehood would indeed have had cause to doubt» for they would have said that he had learned it from the previous scriptures or had copied it from them.

But a noble Book was revealed to you, with which you challenged the eloquent and bitter enemies to produce something like it, or even a soorah like it, yet they failed utterly and in fact never even thought of meeting the challenge, because they knew how eloquent it was, and that the words of any human could never match it or be in the same style. Therefore Allah says:

﴿بَلْ هُوَ آيَاتٌ بَيِّنَاتٌ فِي صُدُورِ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ وَمَا يُجْحَدُ بِآيَاتِنَا إِلَّا الظَّالِمُونَ﴾ (سورة العنكبوت: ٤٩)

29:49. Rather it [the Qur'an] is clear verses preserved in the hearts of those who have been given knowledge. And no one denies Our revelations except the wrongdoers.

«Rather it [the Qur'an] is clear», not ambiguous «verses preserved in the hearts of those who have been given knowledge» – they are the leaders of people, and the foremost in rational thinking, people of sound reasoning and the perfect ones among them.

Because it is clear verses preserved in the hearts of people such as these, it is proof against others, and the rejection of others does not matter and cannot be anything but wrongdoing. Hence Allah says:

﴿And no one denies Our revelations except the wrongdoers﴾, because no one denies it except one who is ignorant and speaks without knowledge, and does not follow in the footsteps of the people of knowledge or those who are well-versed in it and know its real nature, or he is acting in an ignorant manner, stubbornly rejecting it and going against it even though he knows it is true.

﴿وَقَالُوا لَوْلَا أُنزِلَ عَلَيْهِ آيَاتٌ مِّن رَّبِّهِ ۖ قُلْ إِنَّمَا الْآيَاتُ عِندَ اللَّهِ وَإِنَّمَا أَنَا نَذِيرٌ مُّبِينٌ ﴿٥٠﴾ أَوَلَمْ يَكْفِهِمْ أَنَّا أَنْزَلْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ يُتْلَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ ءَايَاتُ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لِرَحْمَةٍ وَذِكْرَىٰ لِقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٥١﴾ قُلْ كَفَىٰ بِاللَّهِ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَكُمْ شَهِيدًا ۖ يَعْلَمُ مَا فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْأَرْضِ ۗ وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا بِالْبَاطِلِ وَكَفَرُوا بِاللَّهِ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْخٰسِرُونَ ﴿٥٢﴾﴾ (سورة العنكبوت: ٥٠-٥٢)

- 29:50. They say: Why have no signs been sent down to him from his Lord? Say [O Muhammad]: Signs are in the power of Allah alone. I am but a clear warner.
- 29:51. Is it not enough for them that We have sent down to you the Book [Qur'an] which is recited to them? Verily in that is mercy and a reminder for people who believe.
- 29:52. Say: Allah is sufficient between me and you as a witness. He knows all that is in the heavens and on earth. Those who believe in falsehood and disbelieve in Allah, it is they who are the losers.

These wrongdoers, who disbelieved in the Messenger (ﷺ) and what he brought, objected and demanded that specific signs be sent down to him. This is like when they said:

﴿...We will never believe in you until you cause a spring to gush forth from the earth for us.﴾ (al-Isrā' 17: 90)

The choice of specific signs is not up to them or the Messenger (ﷺ); such a demand is trying to interfere with that which is for Allah alone to decide. As that is the case, no one has any say in the matter. Hence Allah says:

﴿Say [O Muhammad]: Signs are in the power of Allah alone﴾ – and He sends them down or withholds them according to His will ﴿I am but a clear warner﴾ and I have no status greater than that.

If the aim is to differentiate between truth and falsehood, then once this aim has been achieved – by any method – demanding specific signs, after it has been achieved by other means, constitutes wrongdoing, transgression and arrogance towards Allah and towards the truth.

Even if it so happened that these signs were to be sent down, and they had the intention in their hearts that they would not believe in the truth except on the basis of those signs, that would not be true faith. Rather it would be something that coincided with their whims and desires, and therefore they believed. They would not have believed because it was the truth; rather it would have been because of those signs. So what benefit could be achieved by sending these signs, assuming that they could have been sent?

Because the aim was to highlight the truth, Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the way that leads to it:

﴿Is it not enough for them﴾, in order to know that you speak the truth and that what you bring is true
 ﴿that We have sent down to you the Book [Qur'an] which is recited to them?﴾ These are concise words in which there are many signs and proofs. As we mentioned above, for the Prophet (ﷺ) to bring this Book on its own, when he was unlettered, was one of the greatest signs of his sincerity and truthfulness.

Then their failure to produce something to match it, and the challenge to them in the Qur'an, is another sign. Moreover, the Qur'an appeared and was presented openly to them and was recited to them, and they were told that it came from Allah; the Messenger (ﷺ) presented it to them openly, at a time when he had few supporters and his opponents and enemies were many, yet he did not conceal it. That did not weaken his resolve; rather he presented it openly before all people and called all people to it, city-dwellers and desert-dwellers alike, saying: This is the word of my Lord.

Is anyone able to present something to match it, or utter words more beautiful than it? Then Allah tells us about the stories of earlier nations and stories of the past, and foretells matters of the future, and everything He said is exactly what happens. Moreover, it takes precedence over previous Books, confirming what is correct and rejecting distortions and alterations that have been introduced. It guides people to the straight path in what it commands and forbids, so it never enjoins anything of which reason might say: Would that it did not enjoin that, and it does not forbid anything of which reason might say: Would that it did not forbid that. Rather it is in accordance with what is just and proper, and is in accordance with the wisdom of those who have deep insight and understanding. Moreover its guidance and rulings are proven to be the best for every situation and every time, to the extent that people's affairs cannot be in a good state except on the basis of it.

All of that offers sufficient evidence for anyone who really wants to believe in what is true and strives to seek truth. May he never be content, the one who is not content with the Qur'an, and may he never be healed, the one who is not healed by the Qur'an. Whoever is guided by it and is content with it, it is good for him. Hence Allah says:

﴿Verily in that is mercy and a reminder for people who believe﴾, because of what they find in it of abundant knowledge, much good, purification of hearts and souls, correction of belief, that which may perfect good manners and attitudes, and ways of understanding inspired by the divine.

«Say: Allah is sufficient between me and you as a witness» – so I call upon Him to bear witness, and if I am lying, may He send upon me a punishment that will become a lesson for you. But if it is the case that He is supporting me, helping me and making things easy for me, then let this great divine testimony suffice you. But if you think in your hearts that His testimony – even though you did not see or hear Him – is not sufficient, then you should realise that «He knows all that is in the heavens and on earth», and part of what He knows is my situation and yours, and what I am telling you. If I am attributing lies to Him – despite the fact that He knows that and is able to punish me – that would be undermining His knowledge, power and wisdom. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

«If he [Muhammad] had falsely attributed something to Us, We would surely have seized him by the right hand, then We would surely have severed his aorta.» (al-Hâqqah 69: 44-46)

«Those who believe in falsehood and disbelieve in Allah, it is they who are the losers» as they have lost out on belief in Allah, His angels, His Books, His Messengers and the Last Day, and they will miss out on eternal bliss, and what they believe in – instead of truth that is sound and correct – is everything false and abhorrent, and instead of bliss they will suffer every painful punishment. Thus they will lose themselves and their families on the Day of Resurrection.

﴿وَسْتَغْلِبُونَكَ بِالْعَذَابِ وَلَوْلَا أَجَلٌ مُّسَمًّى لِّجَاءِ هَؤُلَاءِ الْعَذَابِ وَلِيُؤْنِسَ لَهُمُ الْيَوْمَ ٥١﴾
 ﴿يَسْتَعْجِلُونَكَ بِالْعَذَابِ وَإِنَّ جَهَنَّمَ لَمُحِيطَةٌ بِالْكَافِرِينَ ٥٢﴾ يَوْمَ
 يَفْشَلُهُمُ الْعَذَابُ مِنْ فَوْقِهِمْ وَمِنْ تَحْتِ أَرْجُلِهِمْ وَيَقُولُ ذُوقُوا مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٥٣﴾

(سورة العنكبوت: ٥٣-٥٥)

- 29:53. They ask you to hasten on the punishment. Had there not been an appointed time for it, the punishment would already have come upon them. It will surely come upon them suddenly, when they least expect it.
- 29:54. They ask you to hasten on the punishment, but verily hell will encompass the disbelievers,
- 29:55. on the day when the punishment will overwhelm them from above them and from beneath their feet, and it will be said: Taste [the punishment] for what you used to do!

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about the ignorance of those who disbelieve in the Messenger (ﷺ) and the message he brought. They said, seeking to hasten the punishment and emphasising their disbelief:

﴿...When will this promise come to pass, if you speak the truth?﴾
(Yoonus 10: 48)

﴿Had there not been an appointed time for it﴾ that is, a time decreed for the punishment, that had not yet come
﴿the punishment would already have come upon them﴾ because of their attitude and attempts to outwit Us, and their rejection of the truth. If We were to bring them to account for their ignorance, then what they said would have hastened the punishment. But – despite that – they should not think that it is slow in coming, for it will surely come to them ﴿suddenly, when they least expect it﴾.

And it came to pass as Allah (ﷻ) foretold. When they came to Badr, insolently boasting and thinking that they were able to achieve their goal, Allah humiliated them, killing their senior figures and most of their evil ones. He did not leave any household among them but that calamity struck them. Thus the punishment came upon them from where they did not expect, and it befell them when they did not realise.

Moreover, even if no worldly punishment befell them, there lies ahead of them punishment in the hereafter, from which none of them will be saved, whether punishment was hastened for them in this world or not.

﴿but verily hell will encompass the disbelievers﴾ and there is no way they can escape it or avert it. It will encompass them on all sides, just as their sins, evil deeds and disbelief encompass them. That will be the most severe punishment.

﴿on the day when the punishment will overwhelm them from above them and from beneath their feet, and it will be said: Taste [the punishment] for what you used to do!﴾ The punishment is the consequence of your deeds, and the punishment will envelop you as disbelief and sins enveloped you.

﴿يَعْبَادِي الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِنِّ أَرْضِي وَسِعَةً فَإِنِّي فَأَعْبُدُونِ ۝٥٦﴾ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ ذَاقَةُ الْمَوْتِ ثُمَّ إِلَيْنَا تُرْجَعُونَ ۝٥٧﴾ وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ لَنُبَوِّئَنَّهُمْ مِنَ الْجَنَّةِ غُرَفًا تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا نِعَمَ أَجْرُ الْعَمِلِينَ ۝٥٨﴾ الَّذِينَ صَبَرُوا وَعَلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ يَتَوَكَّلُونَ ۝٥٩﴾ (سورة العنكبوت: ٥٦-٥٩)

29:56. O My slaves who believe, verily My earth is spacious, so worship Me alone.

29:57. Every soul will taste death, then to Us you will be brought back.

29:58. As for those who believe and do righteous deeds, We will surely lodge them in lofty dwellings in paradise, through which rivers flow, to abide therein forever. How excellent a reward for those who work [and strive]!

29:59. [They are those] who patiently persevere and put their trust in their Lord.

﴿O My slaves who believe﴾ in Me and My Messenger (ﷺ)

«verily My earth is spacious, so worship Me alone». If you are unable to worship your Lord in one land, then leave it and travel to another land where worship is for Allah alone, for places where one may worship Allah are vast and spacious. The Lord is One, and death will inevitably befall you, then you will be brought back to your Lord and He will requite those who worshipped Him properly and combined faith with righteous deeds, by causing them to dwell in lofty abodes that contain all that their hearts could desire and all that could delight the eyes, and you will abide therein forever.

«How excellent» those dwellings will be, in gardens of bliss, «reward for those who work [and strive]» for the sake of Allah.

«[They are those] who patiently persevere» in their striving. Patience in worshipping Allah requires doing one's utmost, putting all one's energy into that and intensely fighting the Shayṭān who calls them not to put the required effort into that.

Their trust in Him requires them to rely on Allah and think positively of Him, trusting Him to fulfil what they have resolved to do of good deeds. Allah mentions trust in Him, even though it is part of patience, because it is needed in every deed and in the resolve to refrain from all that one is enjoined to refrain from, and patience is not complete without it.

﴿وَكَايْنٍ مِّنْ دَابَّةٍ لَا تَحْمِلُ رِزْقَهَا اللَّهُ يَرْزُقُهَا وَإِيَّاكُمْ ۚ وَهُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ﴾

﴿٦٠﴾ (سورة العنكبوت: ٦٠)

29:60. How many are the creatures that do not carry [or store] their own provision. It is Allah Who provides for them and for you, and He is All-Hearing, All-Knowing.

That is, the Creator has guaranteed the provision of all creatures, both the strong and the incapable. How many are ﴿the creatures﴾ on earth that are physically weak and lacking in intelligence ﴿that do not carry [or store] their own provision﴾; they do not carry anything and do not keep any provision with them, yet Allah keeps sending them provision at appropriate times.

﴿It is Allah Who provides for them and for you﴾ therefore all of you are dependent upon Allah, Who is in charge of your provision, as He created you and is in control of you.

﴿and He is All-Hearing, All-Knowing﴾ so nothing is hidden from Him and no creature dies for lack of provision because it is hidden from Him. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿There is no creature that lives on the earth but its sustenance is guaranteed by Allah. He knows its dwelling place and its resting place; all is [inscribed] in a clear record.﴾ (Hood 11: 6)

﴿وَلَيْنَ سَأَلْتَهُم مَّنْ خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَسَخَّرَ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ لَيَقُولُنَّ اللَّهُ فَأَنَّى يُؤْفَكُونَ﴾ (٦١) اللَّهُ يَبْسُطُ الرِّزْقَ لِمَن يَشَاءُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ وَيَقْدِرُ لَهُ إِنْ أَرَادَ اللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عِلْمٌ ﴿٦٢﴾ وَلَيْنَ سَأَلْتَهُم مَّنْ نَزَّلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَأَحْيَا بِهِ الْأَرْضَ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَوْتِهَا لَيَقُولُنَّ اللَّهُ قُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ بَلْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْقِلُونَ﴾ (٦٣) (سورة العنكبوت: ٦١-٦٣)

(٦٣)

29:61. If you ask them who created the heavens and the earth, and made the sun and moon to be of service, they will surely say: Allah. Then how could they have gone so far astray?

29:62. Allah grants abundant provision to whomever He wills among His slaves, or gives it in scant measure. Verily Allah has knowledge of all things.

29:63. And if you ask them who sends down water from the sky and gives life thereby to the earth after its death, they will surely say: Allah. Say: Praise be to Allah. But most of them do not understand.

---

These verses establish proof against the polytheists who associate others with Allah in worship, so as to make them adhere to the implications of what they already affirm of the unity of divine Lordship. If you ask them who created the heavens and the earth, and who sends down rain from the sky with which the earth is revived after its death, and in Whose Hand is the control of all things, «they will surely say: Allah» alone, and they will acknowledge that the idols and those whom they worship besides Allah are incapable of doing any of those things.

So their lies and fabrications are very strange indeed, as is the fact that they turn to those who they admitted are helpless and are not fit to control anything. You may conclude that they have no reason and that they are foolish and weak minded. Can you find anyone more lacking in reason and insight than one who comes to a rock or a grave and the like, knowing that it has no power to bring benefit, cause harm, create anything or grant provision, then he shows the utmost devotion to it, directing his worship to it and associating it with the Lord, the Creator and Provider, Who alone grants benefit or causes harm?

Say: praise be to Allah Who has made guidance distinct from misguidance, and has explained the falseness of the path of the polytheists, so that those who are guided may beware of it.

Say: praise be to Allah Who has created the upper and lower realms, and He controls them, grants provision to them and bestows abundance upon whomever He will and gives in scant measure to whomever He will, in accordance with His wisdom and knowledge of what is appropriate for His slaves.

﴿وَمَا هَذِهِ الْحَيَوةُ الدُّنْيَا إِلَّا لَهْوٌ وَلَعِبٌ وَإِنَّ الدَّارَ الْآخِرَةَ لَهِیَ الْحَيَوانُ لَوْ
كَانُوا یَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٦٤﴾ فَإِذَا رَكِبُوا فِی الْفَلَکِ دَعَوْا اللَّهَ مُخْلِصِینَ لَهُ الدِّینَ فَلَمَّا
بَجَّاهُمْ إِلَى الْبَرِّ إِذَا هُمْ یُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٦٥﴾ لَیْكَفُرُوا بِمَا ءَاتَيْنَهُمْ وَلَیَسْتَنَعُوا فَسَوْفَ
یَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٦٦﴾ أَوَلَمْ یَرَوْا أَنَّا جَعَلْنَا حَرَمًا ءَامِنًا وَیُخَفِّطُ النَّاسُ مِنْ حَوْلِهِمْ
أَفِی الْبَاطِلِ یُؤْمِنُونَ وَبِنِعْمَةِ اللَّهِ یَكْفُرُونَ ﴿٦٧﴾ وَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنْ أَفْتَرَى عَلَى اللَّهِ كَذِبًا
أَوْ كَذَّبَ بِالْحَقِّ لَمَّا جَاءَهُ ؕ أَلِیْسَ فِی جَهَنَّمَ مَثْوًى لِّلْكَافِرِینَ ﴿٦٨﴾ وَالَّذِینَ جَاهَدُوا
فِینَا لَنَهْدِیَنَّهُمْ سُبُلَنَا وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَمَعَ الْمُحْسِنِینَ ﴿٦٩﴾﴾ (سورة العنكبوت: ٦٤-٦٩)

- 29:64. The life of this world is nothing but a distraction and play. Verily the life of the hereafter is the only true life, if only they knew.
- 29:65. When they board a ship, they call upon Allah, with sincere devotion to Him alone, but when He has delivered them safely to the shore, they ascribe partners to Him,
- 29:66. showing their ingratitude for what We have given them. Let them take their pleasure now, but they will soon know the consequences.
- 29:67. Do they not see that We have made [Makkah] a secure sanctuary, while people are being snatched away<sup>37</sup> from all around them? Will they then believe in falsehood and show ingratitude for the blessings of Allah?
- 29:68. Who does greater wrong than he who fabricates lies against Allah, or denies the truth when it comes to him? Is there not in hell an abode for the disbelievers?
- 29:69. As for those who strive hard in Our cause, We will surely guide them to Our paths, for verily Allah is with the doers of good.

<sup>37</sup> This refers to being killed or captured in the constant raids that Arab tribes made on one another during the pre-Islamic period; Makkah, however, remained untouched by such violence.

Here Allah (ﷻ) speaks of this world and the hereafter in a manner which implies that one should lose interest in this world and long for the hereafter.

﴿The life of this world is﴾ in reality, ﴿nothing but a distraction and play﴾ which distracts people's hearts and minds, because of what Allah has created in it of adornment, pleasures and desires that attract those whose hearts have turned away from the truth and that look attractive to the eyes of the negligent and give joy to souls whose main pursuit is falsehood. But it quickly passes and comes to an end, and the one who is in love with it will get nothing but sorrow, loss and regret.

The hereafter, on the other hand, is the abode of ﴿life﴾, that is, the perfect life, one of the characteristics of which is that people there will be physically strong, because their bodies and strength will be created for life, and everything will be available there that makes life perfect and brings pleasure and joy and fulfilment of physical desires, by way of food, drink, spouses and so on, such as no eye has seen, no ear has heard, nor has it entered the mind of man.

﴿if only they knew﴾, they would not give precedence to this world over the hereafter, and if only they understood, they would not have lost interest in the abode of the only true life or been distracted by this abode of distraction and play. This indicates that those who have such knowledge must inevitably give precedence to the hereafter over this world, because of what they know about the nature of the two realms.

Then Allah (ﷻ) proves the polytheists to be wrong on the basis that they show sincerity to Allah (ﷻ) alone at times of distress when travelling by sea, when they are tossed about by the waves and fear death. At that time they forsake the rivals and call sincerely upon Allah alone, with no partner or associate. But when the hardship is over and the One on Whom they called sincerely has delivered them safely to the shore, they associate with Him those who could not save them or grant them relief at the time of difficulty. Why do they not show sincerity to Allah at times of both ease and hardship, so that they might truly be believers in Him, deserving of His reward and warding off His punishment?

But this ascription of partners to Allah, after We bestowed blessings upon them by saving them from the sea, reflects the consequences of their ingratitude for what We gave them, for they responded to that blessing with a bad attitude. So let them carry on enjoying this world in the manner of cattle, for they only care about food and fulfilment of their physical desires.

﴿but they will soon know the consequences﴾ when they depart this world for the hereafter, where they will feel deep regret and suffer the painful punishment.

Then Allah reminds them of His secure sanctuary, telling them that they are its people, enjoying its security and abundant provision, whilst the people all around them are being snatched away, filled with fear. Will they not worship the One Who has provided them with food lest they go hungry and saved them from fear?

﴿Will they then believe in falsehood﴾ which is what they follow of ascribing partners to Allah, and false words and deeds ﴿and show ingratitude for the blessings of Allah﴾. What is the matter with them? Have they lost their minds? For they prefer misguidance to guidance, falsehood to truth, doom to bliss, and they are the most misguided of people.

﴿Who does greater wrong than he who fabricates lies against Allah﴾, thus attributing what he follows of misguidance and falsehood to Him,

﴿or denies the truth when it comes to him﴾ at the hands of Allah's Messenger, Muhammad (ﷺ).

But ahead of this stubborn wrongdoer, there lies hell: ﴿Is there not in hell an abode for the disbelievers?﴾ where the score will be settled with them and they will be disgraced; it will be their eternal abode, from which they will never depart.

﴿As for those who strive hard in Our cause﴾ – this refers to those who migrated in Allah’s cause, strove in jihad against their enemies and did their utmost to follow the path that would earn His pleasure ﴿We will surely guide them to Our paths﴾ that is, that paths that lead to Us, because they are doers of good.

﴿for verily Allah is with the doers of good﴾; He gives them help, support and guidance. This indicates that the most likely of people to be in accordance with what is right are the people of jihad, and that whoever does well in doing what he is commanded to do, Allah will help him and make means of guidance available to him; whoever strives hard to seek Islamic knowledge, will attain guidance and divine help to achieve his goals to an extent that goes beyond his efforts. Learning will be made easy for him, because seeking Islamic knowledge comes under the heading of jihad in the cause of Allah; in fact it is one of the two types of jihad, that is not undertaken by any but the elite of humankind, namely verbal jihad against the disbelievers and hypocrites, and jihad in the sense of teaching people about religion and refuting the arguments of those who drift away from the truth, even if they are Muslims.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat al-`Ankaboot.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

30. Soorat ar-Room

---

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿الْعَلَمَ﴾ ۝ غَلِبَتِ الرُّومُ ﴿٢﴾ ۝ فِي أَذَى الْأَرْضِ وَهُمْ مِنْ بَعْدِ غَلِبِهِمْ سَيَغْلِبُونَ ﴿٣﴾ ۝ فِي بَضْعِ سِنِينَ ۖ لِلَّهِ الْأَمْرُ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَمِنْ بَعْدُ ۖ وَيَوْمَئِذٍ يَفْرَحُ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٤﴾ ۝ يَنْصُرُ اللَّهُ يَنْصُرُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿٥﴾ ۝ وَعَدَ اللَّهُ لَا يَخْلِفُ اللَّهُ وَعْدَهُ، وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٦﴾ ۝ يَعْلَمُونَ ظَهْرًا مِنَ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَهُمْ عَنِ الْآخِرَةِ هُمْ غَافِلُونَ ﴿٧﴾ ﴿سورة الروم: ١-٧﴾

30:1. Alif. Lām. Meem.<sup>38</sup>

30:2. The Romans [Byzantines] have been defeated,

30:3. in a nearby land. But they, after their defeat, will be victorious

---

<sup>38</sup> Groups of letters (al-ḥuroof al-muqatta'ah) appear at the beginning of several soorahs. The most correct scholarly view states that we are required to believe in them as they appear to be, without delving into their meaning, knowledge of which we should leave to Allah. We believe that they were not revealed in vain, and that there is wisdom behind them of which we are not aware.

- 30:4. within a few years. The power of decree belongs to Allah both before and after [that victory]. On that day, the believers will rejoice
- 30:5. at the victory granted by Allah. He grants victory to whomever He wills, and He is the Almighty, Most Merciful.
- 30:6. [This is] the promise of Allah. Allah does not break His promise, but most people do not realise.
- 30:7. They only know the superficial realities of the life of this world, but they are oblivious to the hereafter.

---

At that time, the Persians and the Romans (Byzantines) were among the strongest nations on earth, and there were wars and conflicts between them, such as occur between states with equal powers. The Persians were polytheists who worshipped fire, whereas the Romans were People of the Book who claimed to follow the Torah and Gospel, and they were closer to the Muslims than the Persians. So the believers liked for the Romans to prevail and defeat the Persians, whilst the polytheists – who had in common with the Persians polytheistic beliefs – liked for the Persians to defeat the Romans.

The Persians prevailed over the Romans and defeated them, but did not take over their lands except the areas closest to their borders. And the polytheists of Makkah rejoiced at that, whilst the Muslims were saddened by it. But Allah told them and promised them that the Romans would defeat the Persians, ﴿within a few years﴾ that is, eight or nine years, or thereabouts, but no more than ten and no less than three. The Persian defeat of the Romans, then the Roman defeat of the Persians, all happened in accordance with the will and decree of Allah. Hence He said: ﴿The power of decree belongs to Allah both before and after [that victory]﴾. Victory does not occur just because of worldly means; rather it must also be according to the divine will and decree.

«(On that day)» that is, on the day when the Romans prevail over the Persians and defeat them,

«(On that day, the believers will rejoice at the victory granted by Allah. He grants victory to whomever He wills)» that is, they will rejoice at the Romans' victory over the Persians, for even though they are all disbelievers, some evils are less than others, and on that day the polytheists will grieve.

«(and He is the Almighty)» Who is possessed of might that subdues all creation; He grants power to whomever He wills and takes away power from whomever He wills; He honours whomever He wills and He humiliates whomever He wills

«(Most Merciful)» towards His believing slaves, for He has made available to them means by which they may attain bliss and victories such as never cross their minds.

«[This is] the promise of Allah. Allah does not break His promise» – so be certain of that and be sure of it, and know that it will inevitably come to pass.

When these verses which contained this promise were revealed, the Muslims believed in them and the polytheists disbelieved in them, to such an extent that some Muslims and some polytheists placed bets on the exact number of years involved. When the time decreed by Allah came, the Romans defeated the Persians and drove them out of their lands that they had taken over, and the promise of Allah was fulfilled.

This is one of the matters of the unseen which Allah foretold before it happened, and it came to pass at the time stated by Allah, and was witnessed by both Muslims and polytheists.

«(but most people do not realise)» that what Allah promises is true. Hence there are some who disbelieve in the promise of Allah and reject His signs, and these are the ones who do not realise – that is, they do not see things in depth or understand the consequences thereof. Rather «(They only know the superficial realities of the life of this world». So they look at the causes and are certain that some evils happen because the causes thereof are present, and they are certain that some things are not going to happen if they do not see the causes thereof happening. They focus only on the causes, without thinking of the One Who makes these causes available and is in control of them.

«but they are oblivious to the hereafter», for their hearts and their whims and desires are focused on this world and its worthless splendours, so they strive for that and focus all their efforts on it. And they neglect the hereafter, so they do not long for paradise or fear hell, and they do not fear standing before Allah, and the meeting with Him does not cause them any concern. This is a sign of doom and of being oblivious to the hereafter.

It is strange indeed that many of this type of people have a stunningly high level of smartness and intelligence with regard to superficial worldly matters. They have achieved amazing things in the fields of energy, electricity and means of transportation on land and sea and in the air. In that regard they have surpassed others, to the extent that they are filled with self-admiration for their own intelligence, and they regard others as incapable of achieving that which Allah has enabled them to achieve; therefore they look upon them with scorn and contempt. Yet despite that, they are the most unintelligent of people with regard to spiritual well-being, and they are more negligent than others with regard to the hereafter, and have the least knowledge of the ultimate consequences of matters. People with deep insight see them and realise how they are wandering blindly in their ignorance, misguidance and falsehood, for they have forgotten Allah, so He caused them to forget themselves. These are the evildoers.

Moreover, people of insight look at what Allah has granted to these disbelievers and has given them the ability to develop subtle ideas that have to do with this world and its superficialities, but they are deprived of sublime reasoning. Thus they (the people of insight) realise that all matters are in the Hand of Allah and it is He Who decrees concerning

His slaves; it is He Who grants help and guidance, or causes some to fail. So they fear their Lord and ask Him to perfect for them what He has granted them of the light of reason and faith, so that they may reach Him and draw close to Him. As for these achievements (of the disbelievers), if their achievements had been coupled with faith and based on faith, that would have led to sublime refinement and a good life, but because much of it was based on atheism, it only resulted in a decline in ethics and morality, and development of the means of total destruction and annihilation of the planet.

﴿أَوَلَمْ يَتَفَكَّرُوا فِي أَنفُسِهِمْ مَا خَلَقَ اللَّهُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا إِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ وَأَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى وَإِنَّ كَثِيرًا مِّنَ النَّاسِ بِلِقَآئِ رَبِّهِمْ لَكَافِرُونَ ﴿٨﴾ أَوَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرُوا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَنِيبَةُ الَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِمْ كَانُوا أَشَدَّ قُوَّةً وَأَنَارُوا الْأَرْضَ وَعَمَرُوهَا أَكْثَرَ مِمَّا عَمَرُوهَا وَجَاءَتْهُمْ رُسُلُهُم بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَمَا كَانُوا لِيُظِلِّمَهُمْ وَلَكِن كَانُوا أَنفُسَهُمْ يَظْلِمُونَ ﴿٩﴾ ثُمَّ كَانَ عَنِيبَةُ الَّذِينَ آسَؤُوا السُّوءَ أَن كَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ وَكَانُوا بِهَا يَسْتَهْزِئُونَ ﴿١٠﴾﴾ (سورة الروم: ٨-١٠)

- 30:8. Have they not reflected within themselves: Allah has not created the heavens and the earth, and all that is between them, except for a true purpose and for an appointed term? But indeed many people deny the meeting with their Lord.
- 30:9. Have they not travelled in the land and seen what was the fate of those who came before them? They were more powerful than them; they dug the earth<sup>39</sup> and built upon it more than these [people of Makkah] have built. Their Messengers came to them with clear signs. It was not Allah Who wronged them, but it was they who wronged themselves.

<sup>39</sup> This may refer to agriculture or to digging wells and mining, and so on.

30:10. And utterly evil will be the fate of those who did evil, for they rejected the signs of Allah and used to ridicule them.

That is, have these people who reject the Messengers of Allah and denied the meeting with Him ﴿not reflected within themselves﴾, for in their own selves there are signs by which they may know that the One Who created them from nothing will recreate them after that, and that it is not appropriate that the One Who caused them to develop in stages – from a sperm drop, to a clinging clot, to a chewed lump of flesh, to a human being into whom the soul was breathed, to a child, to a young man, to an old man, to a senile man – should leave them aimless and neglected, not given any commands or prohibitions, and not rewarded or punished.

﴿Allah has not created the heavens and the earth, and all that is between them, except for a true purpose﴾ which is to test you and show who among you is best in deed

﴿and for an appointed term﴾ that is, a period that will last until a certain point at which this world will come to an end, then will come the resurrection, when the earth will be changed to another earth and so will the heavens (cf. 14: 48).

﴿But indeed many people deny the meeting with their Lord﴾, therefore they have not prepared to meet Him and they did not believe His Messengers who told them of that. There is no evidence for this disbelief; rather the definitive evidence indicates that the resurrection and requital of deeds will take place. Hence Allah tells them to travel through the land and see the fate of those who rejected their Messengers and disobeyed their commands, among nations who were more powerful than them and who left more traces on the earth, such as huge fortresses and great works, and who planted trees, grew crops and dug channels for irrigation. Their strength and works did not avail them at all when they rejected their Messengers who came to them with clear signs that pointed to the truth and the soundness of the message they brought. When they look at what those nations left behind, they will not find anything but nations that vanished, people who were destroyed, dwellings that were left desolate and bad things that were said about them throughout the generations. This is the first stage of punishment, a foretaste of the punishment in the hereafter, and the beginning thereof.

Allah did not wrong any of these doomed nations by destroying them; rather they wronged themselves and brought about their own destruction.

«And utterly evil will be the fate» that is, the terrible situation «of those who did evil, for they rejected the signs of Allah and used to ridicule them». This is the punishment for their bad deeds and sins.

Moreover, their ridicule and rejection are the cause of the greatest punishment and ultimate vengeance.

﴿اللَّهُ يَبْدَأُ الْخَلْقَ ثُمَّ يُعِيدُهُ ثُمَّ إِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ﴾ (١١) وَيَوْمَ تَقُومُ السَّاعَةُ يُبْلِسُ
الْمُجْرِمُونَ ﴿١٢﴾ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُمْ مِّنْ شُرَكَائِهِمْ شُفَعَاءُ وَكَانُوا بِشُرَكَائِهِمْ
كَافِرِينَ ﴿١٣﴾ وَيَوْمَ تَقُومُ السَّاعَةُ يُنْفِرُونَ ﴿١٤﴾ فَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا
وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ فَهُمْ فِي رَوْحَةٍ يُحْبَرُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ وَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَكَذَّبُوا
بِآيَاتِنَا وَلِقَائِ الْآخِرَةِ فَأُولَٰئِكَ فِي الْعَذَابِ مُحْضَرُونَ ﴿١٦﴾ (سورة الروم: ١١-١٦)

30:11. Allah originates creation then repeats it, then to Him you will be brought back.

30:12. On the day when the Hour begins, the evildoers will be speechless with despair.

30:13. They will have no intercessors among their [so-called] partners [whom they associated with Allah], and they will deny those partners.

- 30:14. On the day when the Hour begins, on that day they will be divided.
- 30:15. As for those who believed and did righteous deeds, they will be honoured and made happy in a garden.
- 30:16. And as for those who disbelieved, and rejected Our signs and denied the meeting in the hereafter, they will be delivered up for punishment.
-

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He alone originates the creation of all creatures, then He will repeat it, then to Him they will be returned after their recreation, so that He may requite them for their deeds. Hence He mentions the requital of the evildoers, then the requital of those who did good:

﴿On the day when the Hour begins﴾ that is, when the people are resurrected to stand before the Lord of the worlds, and they see the Day of Resurrection with their own eyes. On that day, ﴿the evildoers will be speechless with despair﴾ that is, they will despair of all good, because they did not send ahead for that day anything but evil deeds, namely their sins of disbelief, ascription of partners to Allah and acts of disobedience.

Because they sent ahead that which incurs punishment, and they did not mix with it anything of that which brings reward, they will be filled with despair, speechless and helpless, and the (false gods) of their own invention – namely the so-called partners which they claimed would intercede for them – will be lost from them.

Hence Allah says: ﴿They will have no intercessors among their [so-called] partners﴾ whom they worshipped alongside Allah, ﴿and they will deny those partners﴾ that is, these polytheists will disavow those whom they associated with Allah, and those whom they worship will disavow them and will say:

﴿... We disavow them before You; it was not us they worshipped.﴾
(al-Qaṣaṣ 28: 63)

They will trade curses and shun one another, and on that day the people of good and the people of evil will be divided and be separate, just as their deeds were separate in this world.

«As for those who believed and did righteous deeds» that is, they believed in their hearts and confirmed that belief by doing righteous deeds

«they will be honoured and made happy in a garden» in which there are all kinds of plants and desirable things. They will be happy, enjoying delicious food and drink, beautiful companions, servants, melodious voices, delightful sounds, wonderful views, gentle breezes, joy, delight and pleasure, such as cannot be described.

«And as for those who disbelieved» and denied Allah's blessings, responding to them with ingratitude

«and rejected Our signs» which were brought to them by Our Messengers

«and denied the meeting in the hereafter, they will be delivered up for punishment» and hell will encompass them on all sides; their faces will be scalded with hot water which will pierce their bowels. What a great difference there will be between the two groups, so how can those who will enjoy bliss and those who will be punished be equal?

﴿فَسَبِّحْنَا اللَّهَ حِينَ نُمْسُونَ وَحِينَ تُصْبِحُونَ ﴿١٧﴾ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ
وَالْأَرْضِ وَعَشِيًّا وَحِينَ تُظْهِرُونَ ﴿١٨﴾ يُخْرِجُ الْحَيَّ مِنَ الْمَيِّتِ وَيُخْرِجُ الْمَيِّتَ مِنَ الْحَيِّ
وَيُحْيِي الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا وَكَذَلِكَ تُخْرَجُونَ ﴿١٩﴾﴾ (سورة الروم: ١٧-١٩)

30:17. So glorify Allah in the evening and the morning –

30:18. To Him be all praise in the heavens and on earth – [and glorify Him] in the afternoon and when the sun begins to decline.

30:19. He brings forth the living from the dead, and brings forth the dead from the living. He gives life to the earth after its death, and in like manner you will be brought forth [from your graves].

Here Allah tells us that He is above all bad qualities and shortcomings, and He is above any of His creation being like unto Him. He commands His slaves to glorify Him in the evening and in the morning, in the afternoon and in the middle of the day.

These five times are the times of the five daily prayers. Allah commands His slaves to glorify and praise Him at these times, which includes that which is obligatory, such as the five daily prayers that are required at these times, and that which is recommended or encouraged, such as the adhkâr that are to be recited morning and afternoon, and following the obligatory prayers, as well as supererogatory prayers that accompany the obligatory prayers. That is because these times that Allah has chosen for the obligatory prayers are better than other times.

Therefore glorifying and praising Allah, and worshipping Him, at those times is better than at other times. In fact worship, even if it does not include the phrase “Subhân Allâh (glory be to Allah)”, is in fact – if it is done with sincerity – a kind of glorifying Allah in one’s actions, and declaring Him to be above having any partner and denying that any creature is deserving of what He deserves of sincere devotion.

﴿He brings forth the living from the dead﴾ as He brings forth the plant from the dead earth, the corn from the seed, the tree from the seed, the chick from the egg, the believer from the disbeliever, and so on.

﴿and brings forth the dead from the living﴾ as in the opposite of the cases mentioned above.

﴿He gives life to the earth after its death﴾. So He sends down rain at the time when the earth is dead and lifeless, then when He sends down rain upon it, it stirs and swells, and brings forth beautiful plants of every kind (cf. 22: 5).

﴿and in like manner you will be brought forth [from your graves]﴾. This offers definitive evidence and clear proof that the One Who gives life to the earth after its death will give life to the dead.

There is no difference, from a rational point of view, between the two matters, and there is no reason to regard one as unlikely when we can see the other.

﴿وَمِنْ ءَايَاتِهِ أَنْ خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ تُرَابٍ ثُمَّ إِذَا أَنْتُمْ بَشَرٌ تَنْتَشِرُونَ ﴿٢٠﴾ وَمِنْ ءَايَاتِهِ أَنْ خَلَقَ لَكُمْ مِنْ أَنْفُسِكُمْ أَزْوَاجًا لِتَسْكُنُوا إِلَيْهَا وَجَعَلَ بَيْنَكُمْ مَوَدَّةً وَرَحْمَةً إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِقَوْمٍ يَتَفَكَّرُونَ ﴿٢١﴾﴾ (سورة الروم: ٢٠-٢١)

30:20. Among His signs is this: He created you from dust, then – behold! – you became human beings ranging far and wide.

30:21. Among His signs is this: He created for you from among yourselves spouses, so that you might find comfort in them, and He has instilled love and compassion between you. Verily in that there are signs for people who reflect.

This is the beginning of a list of Allah's signs that point to His oneness, His perfect greatness, His will that is always done, His mighty power, the beauty of His creation, and the vastness of His mercy and kindness.

﴿Among His signs is this: He created you from dust﴾ this refers to the creation of the origin of humankind, namely Adam (ﷺ).

﴿then – behold! – you became human beings ranging far and wide﴾ that is, the One Who created you from a single origin and one substance scattered you far and wide throughout the earth. In that there are signs that the One Who created you from this origin and scattered you throughout the earth is the Lord Who is deserving of worship, the Sovereign Who is deserving of praise, the Most Merciful and Most Loving, Who will bring you back by resurrecting you after death.

﴿Among His signs﴾ that point to His mercy and care for His slaves, and His great wisdom and all-encompassing knowledge ﴿is this: He created for you from among yourselves spouses﴾ who feel in harmony with you and you feel in harmony with them, and you are compatible with one another.
 ﴿so that you might find comfort in them, and He has instilled love and compassion between you﴾ because of what results from marriage of love and compassion.

Thus a man will find physical pleasure in his wife, and the benefit of having and raising children, and he will find comfort in his spouse. Usually you will not find between any two people what you find between spouses of love and mercy.

﴿Verily in that there are signs for people who reflect﴾ and use their minds to reflect upon the signs of Allah, and in one thing they find an indication of another.

﴿وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ خَلْقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَاخْتِلَافَ أَلْسِنَتِكُمْ وَالْوَنَظَرَ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّلْعَالَمِينَ﴾ (سورة الروم: ٢٢)

30:22. Among His signs is the creation of the heavens and the earth, and the diversity of your languages and colours. Verily in that there are signs for those who have knowledge.

Those who have knowledge are people who understand and learn lessons, and who reflect upon the signs. There are many such signs, one of which is the creation of the heavens and the earth and all that is in them. That is indicative of the greatness of Allah's authority and the perfect nature of His might, for He brought into being these mighty creations. It is also indicative of His perfect wisdom, because of what they contain of precision; and of the vastness of His knowledge, because the Creator must inevitably know what He has created.

﴿How could He Who created not know His own creation?...﴾ (al-Mulk 67: 14)

It also points to the vastness of His mercy and grace, because of what His creation contains of great benefits, and it indicates that He is the One Who chooses whatever He wills, because of what it contains of variations and distinguishing features. And it highlights the fact that He alone deserves to be worshipped and His oneness affirmed, for He alone creates, so He alone must be worshipped.

Allah draws our attention to all of this rational evidence and instructs us to reflect upon it and learn lessons from it.

﴿and﴾ likewise there is a sign in ﴿the diversity of your languages and colours﴾, of which there is such a great variety, despite having a single origin, and despite the fact that the sounds made by human voices come from the same place. Even though that is the case, you will not find two voices that are similar in all ways, or two colours that are similar in all ways. Rather you will find differences between them so that you can tell them apart. This is indicative of the perfect nature of His might and shows us that His will is always done.

One aspect of His care and mercy towards His slaves is that He has decreed these differences lest things resemble one another too closely, which would lead to confusion and would be detrimental to people's interests.

﴿وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ مَنَامُكُمْ بِاللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ وَابْتِغَاؤُكُمْ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ يَسْمَعُونَ﴾ (سورة الروم: ٢٣)

30:23. Among His signs is your sleep at night and in the daytime, and your seeking of His bounty. Verily in that there are signs for people who listen [attentively].

That is, they listen attentively by way of reflecting upon the meanings and reflecting upon the signs.

This is indicative of Allah's mercy, as He says elsewhere:

﴿By His mercy He has made for you night and day, so that you may rest therein and seek His bounty, and so that you may give thanks.﴾
(al-Qaṣaṣ 28: 73)

It is also indicative of His perfect wisdom, for His wisdom dictates that people should rest sometimes and go about their business sometimes, taking care of their religious and worldly interests. That can only be achieved with the alternation of night and day for them, and the only One Who does that is the only One Who is deserving of worship.

﴿وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ يُرِيكُمْ الْبَرْقَ خَوْفًا وَطَمَعًا وَيُنَزِّلُ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَيُخْجِي بِهِ
الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ يَعْقِلُونَ﴾ (سورة الروم: ٢٤)

30:24. Among His signs, He shows you the lightning, giving rise to both fear and hope, and He sends down water from the sky whereby He gives life to the earth after its death. Verily in that there are signs for people of understanding.

That is, one of His signs is that He sends down to you the rain by means of which the land and the people are revived. Before the rain comes, He shows them its precursors, namely the thunder and lightning which give rise to both fear and hope.

﴿Verily in that there are signs﴾ of the all-encompassing nature of His kindness, the vastness of His knowledge, the perfect nature of His precision, and the greatness of His wisdom. It indicates that He will give life to the dead, just as He gives life to the earth after its death. ﴿for people of understanding﴾ that is, those who have minds with which to understand what they hear, see and remember, and are able to understand what the signs point to.

﴿وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ أَنْ تَقُومَ السَّمَاءُ وَالْأَرْضُ بِأَمْرِهِ ثُمَّ إِذَا دَعَاكُمْ دَعْوَةً مِّنَ الْأَرْضِ إِذَا أَنتُمْ تَخْرُجُونَ ٢٥﴾ وَلَهُ مَن فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ كُلُّ لَّهُ قَنِينٌ ﴿٢٦﴾ وَهُوَ الَّذِي يَبْدَأُ الْخَلْقَ ثُمَّ يُعِيدُهُ وَهُوَ أَهْوَىٰ عَلَيْهِ وَلَهُ الْمَثَلُ الْأَعْلَىٰ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٢٧﴾﴾ (سورة الروم: ٢٥-٢٧)

- 30:25. Among His signs is this: the heaven and the earth are maintained by His command, then when with one call He summons you to come forth from the earth, you will immediately come forth.
- 30:26. To Him belong all those who are in the heavens and on earth; all are subservient unto Him.
- 30:27. It is He Who originates creation then repeats it, and that is [even] easier for Him. To Him belong the most sublime attributes [as confirmed by all those who are] in the heavens and on earth, and He is the Almighty, the Most Wise.

That is, one of the greatest of His signs is the fact that the heavens and earth are maintained and remain stable and steady by His command. Therefore they do not shake, and the sky does not fall upon the earth. His great might, by means of which He sustains the heavens and the earth lest they decline, is also the means by which, when He summons them to come forth from the earth, they will immediately emerge.

«Indeed, the creation of the heavens and the earth is a greater matter than the creation [or recreation] of humankind...» (Ghâfir 40: 57)

«To Him belong all those who are in the heavens and on earth» all are His creation and slaves, and He controls them without anyone else to dispute with Him, help Him or oppose Him. They are all subservient to His majesty, submitting to His perfection.

«It is He Who originates creation then repeats it» that is, repeating creation after they die will be «[even] easier for Him» than their original creation. This is as far as human minds are concerned. So just as you affirm that He is able to originate creation, it is more appropriate that you should affirm that He is able to repeat it, which is easier.

Having mentioned these great signs from which those who are willing may learn lessons, the believers may be exhorted and those who are guided may increase in insight, Allah now mentions an important issue:

«To Him belong the most sublime attributes [as confirmed by all those who are] in the heavens and on earth». This refers to all attributes of perfection, for His is the most perfect degree of every attribute, and with regard to His slaves, the most perfect love and the most perfect subservience to Him is in the hearts of His sincere slaves, and the highest level of veneration is when they remember and worship Him.

Hence when the scholars speak of the divine attributes, they use the analogy of what is most appropriate. So they say: whatever perfect attribute may be found in created beings, the Creator of that attribute is more deserving of possessing it in a manner that no one shares with Him; whatever shortcomings may be found in created beings, it is more appropriate to declare the Creator to be far above them.

«and He is the Almighty, the Most Wise» that is, to Him belong the perfect might and great wisdom. By His might He created all things and issued His commands, and by His wisdom He perfected all that He created and He issued the best laws and decrees.

﴿ ضَرَبَ لَكُمْ مَثَلًا مِّنْ أَنفُسِكُمْ هَلْ لَّكُمْ مِّنْ مَّا مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُكُمْ مِّنْ شُرَكَاءَ فِي مَا رَزَقْنَاكُمْ فَأَنتُمْ فِيهِ سَوَاءٌ تَخَافُونَهُمْ كَخِيفَتِكُمْ أَنفُسَكُمْ كَذَلِكَ نُفَصِّلُ الْآيَاتِ لِقَوْمٍ يَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٢٨﴾ بَلِ اتَّبَعَ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا أَهْوَاءَهُمْ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ فَمَنْ يَهْدِي مَنْ أَضَلَّ اللَّهُ وَمَا لَهُمْ مِّنْ نَّاصِرِينَ ﴿٢٩﴾ ﴾ (سورة الروم: ٢٨-٢٩)

- 30:28. He makes this comparison, drawn from your own lives: do you have partners among those slaves whom you own, who share as equals in the wealth We have bestowed on you, so that you fear them<sup>40</sup> as you fear one another? Thus We explain the revelations in detail for people of understanding.
- 30:29. Nay, the wrongdoers follow their own desires, without any knowledge. But who can guide those whom Allah has caused to go astray? And they will have no helpers.

This is a likeness that Allah gives of the abhorrent nature of polytheism. It is a likeness that is drawn from their own lives, which does not require much effort to understand.

﴿do you have partners among those slaves whom you own, who share as equals in the wealth We have bestowed on you﴾ that is, do any of your slaves share your provision with you in such a way that you think that you and they have equal rights concerning it?

﴿so that you fear them as you fear one another﴾ that is, like free men who are partners in reality, who dread dividing the wealth, and each one takes his own share? That is not the case; none of your slaves is a partner in the wealth that Allah (ﷻ) has bestowed upon you.

<sup>40</sup> What is meant by fearing one another is when two free men have equal shares of some wealth, and one fears that the other may take more than his due share, thus depriving him of his portion of that wealth.

Moreover, you are not the ones who created those slaves or granted them provision, and they are slaves to Allah like you, so how can you accept to ascribe a partner to Allah from among His creation whom you regard as equal to Him and equally worthy of worship, when you do not accept for your slaves to become equal to you?

This is something that is most strange and is most indicative of the foolishness of those who ascribe partners to Allah, and it indicates that what he takes as a god is false and will diminish; it is not equal to Allah and it has no right to be worshipped.

﴿Thus We explain the revelations in detail﴾ by means of comparisons ﴿for people of understanding﴾ who understand and recognise the realities of things. As for those who do not understand, even if the revelations are explained to them and proof is presented to them, they have no rational minds with which to understand what is presented to them. It is people of reason and understanding who should be addressed.

Once it is established, from this comparison, that the one who regards others as partners with Allah whom he worships and puts his trust in is utterly wrong, then it becomes clear that the foundation on which he based this notion is wrong. Rather what led him to adopt this false notion is following his whims and desires. Hence Allah says:

﴿Nay, the wrongdoers follow their own desires, without any knowledge﴾. Those who are lacking in rational thinking went along with their whims and desires, and they adopted an idea that is clearly flawed and contrary to rational thinking and will be rejected by sound human nature, without any knowledge or any proof that led to that idea.

﴿But who can guide those whom Allah has caused to go astray?﴾ That is, do not be surprised by the fact that they are not guided, for Allah (ﷻ) has caused them to go astray because of their wrongdoing, and there is no way to guide those whom Allah has caused to go astray, because no one can oppose Allah or dispute with Him concerning His dominion.

﴿And they will have no helpers﴾ to help them when the decree of punishment comes to pass and their connections with others are severed.

﴿فَاقِمْ وَجْهَكَ لِلدِّينِ حَنِيفًا فِطْرَتَ اللَّهِ الَّتِي فَطَرَ النَّاسَ عَلَيْهَا لَا تَبْدِيلَ لِخَلْقِ اللَّهِ ذَٰلِكَ الدِّينُ الْقَيِّمُ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٣٠﴾
مُنِيبِينَ إِلَيْهِ وَاتَّقُوهُ وَأَقِيمُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَلَا تَكُونُوا مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ ﴿٣١﴾
الَّذِينَ فَرَّقُوا دِينَهُمْ وَكَانُوا شِيعًا كُلُّ حِزْبٍ بِمَا لَدَيْهِمْ فَرِحُونَ ﴿٣٢﴾﴾ (سورة

الروم: ٣٠-٣٢)

- 30:30. Adhere exclusively and sincerely to the true faith of monotheism, the natural disposition that Allah instilled in humankind. There can be no change in what Allah has created. This is the right religion, but most people do not realise.
- 30:31. Turn to Him and fear Him; establish prayer, and do not be among those who ascribe partners to Allah,
- 30:32. those who differed concerning their religion and divided into sects, each group rejoicing in what it has.

Here Allah (ﷻ) enjoins sincere devotion to Him alone in all situations and exclusive adherence to His religion.

﴿Adhere exclusively and sincerely to the true faith of monotheism﴾ that is, turn to and focus on the true religion, which is Islam, eemân (faith) and ihsân,<sup>41</sup> by focusing with all your heart and devoting all your efforts to establishing the outward commands of the faith, such as prayer, zakâh, fasting, Hajj and so on, and its inward commands such as loving Allah, fearing Him, putting one's hopes in Him, and turning to Him, and striving to perfect everything you do, both outwardly and inwardly, with regard to religion, and worshipping Allah as if you can see Him, for if you do not see Him, verily He sees you.

<sup>41</sup> Ihsân is referred to in the well-known hadith in which it was narrated that 'Umar said:

This that We have enjoined upon you is «the natural disposition that Allah instilled in humankind» and has instilled in their minds the inclination to find it beautiful and to find anything else ugly. Allah has instilled in the hearts of all people an inclination towards all the rulings of Islam, both outward and inward, so they are naturally inclined to love truth and give precedence to it. This is the true nature of man.

If anyone does not conform to this principle, it is because of something that happened to his natural disposition and caused it to be changed, as the Prophet (ﷺ) said:

-
- = «We were sitting with the Prophet (ﷺ) when a man came to him whose clothes were intensely white and whose hair was intensely black; no signs of travel could be seen upon him, and none of us knew him. He sat down facing the Prophet (ﷺ), with his knees touching his, and he put his hands on his thighs, and said: O Muhammad, what is Islam? He said: To testify that there is no god except Allah, and that I am the Messenger of Allah; to establish regular prayer; to pay zakâh; to fast in Ramadan; and to perform pilgrimage to the House (the Kaaba). He said: You have spoken the truth. We were amazed by him: he asked a question then told him that he had spoken the truth. Then he said: O Muhammad, what is faith? He said: To believe in Allah, His angels, His Messengers, His Books, the Last Day, and the divine decree (al-qadr), both good and bad. He said: You have spoken the truth. We were amazed by him: he asked a question then told him that he had spoken the truth. Then he said: O Muhammad, what is ihsân (right action, goodness, sincerity)? He said: To worship Allah as if you see Him, for even though you cannot see Him, He sees you.» This version was narrated by Ibn Mâjah; the hadith was also narrated by Bukhari, Muslim and others.

«Every child is born in a state of fitrah (the natural state of man, that is, Islam), then his parents make him into a Jew or a Christian or a Magian.» (Bukhari)

«There can be no change in what Allah has created» that is, no one can change the creation of Allah and alter the nature of any created being and make it something other than what Allah created.

«This» that We have enjoined upon man

«is the right religion» that is, the straight path that leads to Allah and to His paradise. Whoever adheres exclusively and sincerely to the true faith of monotheism is following the straight path in all its prescriptions and details

«but most people do not realise» so they do not recognise the right religion, and if they do recognise it, they do not follow it.

«Turn to Him and fear Him» this is an explanation of what is meant by adhering exclusively and sincerely to the true faith of monotheism. What is meant is turning in the heart and developing emotions that prompt one to do that which pleases Allah (ﷻ), for that will lead to carrying out physically what is in the heart. This includes acts of worship both outward and inward. That cannot be perfected except by refraining from acts of disobedience, both outward and inward. Hence Allah says «and fear Him», which includes doing that which is enjoined and refraining from that which is prohibited.

Among the deeds that are enjoined, Allah singles out prayer, because it calls one to turn to Him and fear Him, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

«...and establish prayer, for verily prayer keeps [one] away from obscenity and wickedness...» (al- 'Ankaboot 29: 45)

This helps one to attain piety or fear of Allah. Then Allah says:

«...And indeed your remembering Allah [in prayer] is of greater merit [than other acts of worship]...» (al- 'Ankaboot 29: 45)

This is encouraging us to turn to Him.

And Allah mentions specifically the essential element of that which is prohibited, with which no good deed is acceptable, namely the ascription of partners to Him: ﴿and do not be among those who ascribe partners to Allah﴾, because ascription of partners to Allah is contrary to the idea of turning to Allah, the essence of which is sincerity to Him alone in all aspects.

Then He describes the nature of those who ascribe partners to Him, criticising and condemning them, as He says: ﴿those who differed concerning their religion﴾ even though the religion is one, and its foundation is devotion of worship to Allah alone. But these polytheists differed concerning it; some of them worship idols and images, some of them worship the sun and moon, some of them worship saints and righteous people; some of them are Jews and some of them are Christians.

Hence Allah says: ﴿and divided into sects﴾ that is, each group came together, bonded and united on the basis of their efforts to support what they have of falsehood, and opposing and fighting others.

﴿each group rejoicing in what it has﴾ of beliefs and ideas that are contrary to what the Messengers taught. They rejoice in it and deem what they have to be the truth and what others have to be false. This is a warning to the Muslims against becoming divided and splitting into groups, each group blindly supporting what it has of truth and falsehood, lest they become like the polytheists in their division. Rather the religion is one, the Messenger (ﷺ) is one and the God is one.

With regard to most matters of religion there is consensus among the scholars and imams, and Allah has created the ties of brotherhood and made them strong among the believers. So why is all of that overlooked or cancelled out, and why is there division and dissent among the Muslims caused by subtle and very minor differences because of which they regard one another as misguided and they become distinct from one another?

Is this anything but the result of the Shayṭān's efforts to achieve one of his greatest aims, by means of which he is scheming against the Muslims? Is the effort to unite the Muslims and overcome the divisions among them that are based on those false principles anything but the best jihad in Allah's cause and the best of deeds that bring one closer to Allah?

As Allah (ﷻ) commanded the believers to turn to Him – and the manner of turning to Him that is enjoined is that which is done voluntarily and should be done in times of both hardship and ease, times of plenty and of constraint – He now goes on to refer to the kind of turning to Him that occurs when one has no choice but to do so, which only happens when people are faced with calamity and distress, then once the calamity is over, they forget all about turning to Him. And that is not good:

﴿وَإِذَا مَسَّ النَّاسَ ضُرٌّ دَعَوْا رَبَّهُمْ مُنِيبِينَ إِلَيْهِ ثُمَّ إِذَا أَذَاهُمْ مِنْهُ رَحْمَةً إِذَا فَرِيقٌ مِنْهُمْ بِرَبِّهِمْ يُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٣٣﴾ لِيَكْفُرُوا بِمَا آتَيْنَاهُمْ فَتَمَتَّعُوا فَسَوْفَ تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٣٤﴾ أَمْ أَنْزَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ سُلْطَانًا فَهُوَ يَتَكَلَّمُ بِمَا كَانُوا بِهِ يُشْرِكُونَ ﴿٣٥﴾﴾ (سورة الروم: ٣٣-٣٥)

- 30:33. When misfortune befalls people, they call upon their Lord [alone], turning to Him in repentance. Then when He grants them relief by His mercy, some of them ascribe partners to their Lord,
- 30:34. showing their ingratitude for what We have given them. Take your pleasure now, but you will soon know the consequences.
- 30:35. Or have We sent down to them any authority which speaks in support of their ascription of partners to Allah?

«When misfortune befalls people» such as sickness, fear of death, and the like

«they call upon their Lord [alone], turning to Him in repentance» and at that moment they forget all that they ascribed as partners to Him, because they know that none can grant relief from misfortune except Allah.

«Then when He grants them relief by His mercy» and heals them from their sickness and delivers them from that which they feared «some of them ascribe partners to their Lord» that is, they cancel out that repentance, and they ascribe as partners to Him those who did not protect them or avail them anything, and cannot make them poor or rich. All of that is ingratitude for what Allah gave them and the blessings that He bestowed upon them, when He saved them and delivered them from hardship, and relieved them of difficulty. Should they not have responded to this immense blessing by giving thanks and remaining devoted to Him alone in all situations?

«Or have We sent down to them any authority» that is, clear proof «which speaks in support of their ascription of partners to Allah» and tells them: be steadfast in your ascription of partners to Him and persist in your doubts, for what you are following is the truth and what the Messengers call you to is falsehood?

Do they have that authority, so that they should adhere strongly to their ascription of partners to Allah? Or is it not the case that the rational and textual evidence, the divinely revealed Books, the noble Messengers and the most prominent of people have emphatically forbidden that and warned against following the path that leads to that, and they ruled that the one who does that is corrupt in his thinking and in his beliefs?

The ascription of partners to Allah by these people, without any proof or evidence, is based only on their own whims and desires and the promptings of the Shayṭān.

﴿وَإِذَا أَذَقْنَا النَّاسَ رَحْمَةً فَرِحُوا بِهَا وَإِنْ تُصِيبْهُمْ سَيْئَةٌ بِمَا قَدَّمَتْ أَيْدِيهِمْ إِذَا هُمْ يَقْنَطُونَ ﴿٣٦﴾ أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَبْسُطُ الرِّزْقَ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَقْدِرُ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾﴾ (سورة الروم: ٣٦-٣٧)

- 30:36. If We bestow upon the people mercy [prosperity], they rejoice in it; but when misfortune befalls them because of the deeds which their own hands have wrought, they fall into despair.
- 30:37. Do they not see that Allah grants abundant provision to whomever He wills, or gives it in scant measure? Verily in that there are signs for people who believe.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about the nature of most people at times of both ease and hardship: if Allah gives them a taste of mercy in the form of good health, wealth, victory and the like, they rejoice inordinately in that, but it is not the rejoicing of gratitude and appreciation for the blessings of Allah.

﴿but when misfortune befalls them﴾ that is, anything that saddens them, which is

﴿because of the deeds which their own hands have wrought﴾ namely acts of disobedience and sin

﴿they fall into despair﴾ and think that poverty, sickness and so on will never end. This is reflective of ignorance on their part and a lack of knowledge.

﴿Do they not see that Allah grants abundant provision to whomever He wills, or gives it in scant measure?﴾ Despairing after knowing that both good and bad come from Allah and provision, whether abundant or otherwise, comes by His decree, is inappropriate. So the wise person does not look only at the causes; rather he looks at the One Who created the causes. Hence Allah says: ﴿Verily in that there are signs for people who believe﴾, for they see Allah's purpose in giving abundantly or withholding for whomever He will, and in that they see the wisdom, mercy and generosity of Allah and how He wants people to turn to Him and ask Him for all kinds of provision.

﴿ فَآتِ ذَا الْقُرْبَىٰ حَقَّهُ وَالْمِسْكِينَ وَابْنَ السَّبِيلِ ذَلِكَ خَيْرٌ لِلَّذِينَ يُرِيدُونَ وَجْهَ اللَّهِ وَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ ﴿٣٨﴾ وَمَا آتَيْتُم مِّن رَّبِّالْيَرَبُّوْا فِي أَمْوَالِ النَّاسِ فَلَا يَرَبُّوْا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ وَمَا آتَيْتُم مِّن زَكَاةٍ تُرِيدُونَ وَجْهَ اللَّهِ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْمُضْعِفُونَ ﴿٣٩﴾ ﴾ (سورة

الروم: ٣٨-٣٩)

- 30:38. Give kinsfolk their due, and those in need, and wayfarers. That is best for those who seek the pleasure of their Lord. It is they who will be successful.
- 30:39. And that which you give of your surplus wealth [as gifts to others], in order that it may increase [your wealth, by expecting to get better gifts in return] from other people's wealth, will bring no increase [in reward] with Allah. But that which you give as charity, seeking the pleasure of Allah [will increase in reward]. It is those [who seek Allah's pleasure in this manner] who will have multiple reward.

That is, give relatives their due – according to how closely they are related, and according to their need – as enjoined or encouraged by the Lawgiver, such as spending on obligatory maintenance, giving charity, giving gifts, showing kindness, greeting with salâm, honouring, overlooking mistakes and overlooking offensive words and deeds. It also includes giving to the one who is in need, who is subdued by his poverty and want, that which will meet his needs for food, water and clothing.

﴿and wayfarers﴾ – the wayfarer is the stranger who is cut off in a foreign land and is most likely to be in a desperate situation because he has no wealth with him and cannot earn anything, unlike the one who is in his own land who, even if he has no wealth, will usually be able to practice his profession, trade or craft and earn enough to meet his needs. Hence Allah has allocated a share of zakâh to those who are in need and to wayfarers.

﴿That﴾ namely giving kinsfolk, the needy and wayfarers their due ﴿is best for those who seek﴾ thereby ﴿the pleasure of their Lord﴾ that is, it will bring about a great deal of good and much reward, because it is one of the best of righteous deeds and an act of charity that benefits others when it is done in the right time and place, and accompanied by sincerity.

If it is not done to seek the pleasure of Allah, then it is not good for the giver, even though it is good and beneficial for the recipient. As Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿There is no good in much of their private conversations, except for one who enjoins charity and good deeds, or seeks to bring about reconciliation between people...﴾ (an-Nisâ' 4: 114)

What this means is that the particular deeds mentioned here are good because they bring some benefit to others, but whoever does that seeking the pleasure of Allah, We will bestow upon them a great reward.

﴿It is they﴾ namely those who do these deeds and others for the sake of Allah ﴿who will be successful﴾, for they will attain the reward of Allah and be saved from His punishment.

Having mentioned the deeds – namely types of spending – that are done in pursuit of His pleasure, Allah now mentions those deeds that are done for the sake of worldly gain:

﴿And that which you give of your surplus wealth [as gifts to others], in order that it may increase [your wealth, by expecting to get better gifts in return] from other people's wealth﴾ that is, whatever you give of your wealth that is surplus to your needs, with the aim of increasing your wealth thereby, in the sense that you give it to those who you hope will recompense you by giving you more, such actions do not lead to reward with Allah, because they do not fulfil the necessary condition, which is sincerity. Such deeds, that are done with the intention of increasing status and showing off to people, bring no reward with Allah.

﴿But that which you give as charity [zakâh]﴾ that is, charity that purifies you from bad manners and attitudes, and purifies your wealth of stinginess, and helps to meet the needs of the recipient ﴿seeking﴾ thereby ﴿the pleasure of Allah [will increase in reward]. It is those [who seek Allah's pleasure in this manner] who will have multiple reward﴾ that is, the reward will be multiplied for them, for what they spend brings reward with Allah and He will multiply the reward for them until it becomes great indeed.

﴿But that which you give as charity [zakâh]﴾ – if charity is given when the giver has dependents who are in desperate need, or he has a debt that he has not yet paid off, but he gives precedence instead to giving charity, that charity is not zakâh (in the sense of charity that purifies the individual and his wealth, as the word zakâh comes from a root meaning purification) for which he may be rewarded, and charity in such cases is invalid according to Islamic teachings and does not fulfil the purpose of self-purification as mentioned elsewhere in the verse in which Allah says, praising such charitable giving:

﴿Who gives his wealth seeking generous reward [with his Lord].﴾
(al-Layl 92: 18)

Merely giving money is not something good in and of itself, unless it is given in that manner, which is giving it for the purpose of self-purification.

﴿اللَّهُ الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ ثُمَّ رَزَقَكُمْ ثُمَّ يُمِيتُكُمْ ثُمَّ يُحْيِيكُمْ هَذَا مِنْ شُرَكَائِكُمْ مَنْ يَفْعَلُ مِنْ ذَلِكَ شَيْئًا سُبْحَنَهُ وَتَعَالَى عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ﴾ (سورة الروم: ٤٠)

30:40. It is Allah Who created you, then He gave you provision, then He will cause you to die, then He will bring you back to life. Is there any among your [so-called] partners who can do any one of these things? Glorified and exalted be Allah far above the partners they ascribe to Him!

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He alone created you and provides for you; He causes you to die and gives you life, and none of the so-called partners upon whom the polytheists call have any share with Allah in any of these matters. So how can they associate with the One Who alone does all of these things, others who have no control over them at all? May He be glorified and sanctified, and exalted far above their so-called partners. That does not harm Him; rather the bad consequences thereof will come to them.

﴿ظَهَرَ الْفَسَادُ فِي الْبَرِّ وَالْبَحْرِ بِمَا كَسَبَتْ أَيْدِي النَّاسِ لِيُذِيقَهُمْ بَعْضَ الَّذِي عَمِلُوا لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُونَ﴾ (سورة الروم: ٤١)

30:41. Corruption and disorder have appeared on land and sea<sup>42</sup> because of what people's hands have earned. Thus Allah causes them to taste the consequences of some of what they have done, so that they may turn in repentance.

<sup>42</sup> This refers to the widespread occurrence of troubles such as drought, fires and floods, poor yield of crops, decline of fish stocks, market stagnation and difficulty in earning a living. That is because of people's sins, including neglect and abuse of the natural environment.

That is, corruption has appeared on land and sea, meaning that their livelihood has declined, with blight damaging the crops, sicknesses and epidemics sweeping over the people, and so on. That is because of what their hands have wrought of corrupt deeds that spread corruption far and wide.

The things mentioned have occurred so that Allah might cause them ﴿to taste the consequences of some of what they have done﴾ that is, so that they might realise that He is the One Who requites people for their deeds, so He gives a foretaste of the requital for their deeds in this world,

﴿so that they may turn in repentance﴾ from their evil deeds, which have resulted in so much corruption and harm, and they may set their affairs straight.

Glory be to the One Who brings about blessings through His trials and tests, and Who bestows grace through His punishment. Otherwise, if He caused them to taste the consequences of all that they have earned, He would not leave any living creature on the face of the earth.

﴿قُلْ سِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَانظُرُوا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلُ كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُشْرِكِينَ﴾ (سورة الروم: ٤٢)

30:42. Say: Travel through the land and see what was the fate of those who came before you; most of them ascribed partners to Him.

The command to travel through the land includes both physical travel and mental or intellectual travel in the sense of pondering the fate of earlier nations.

﴿most of them ascribed partners to Him﴾, and you will find that their fate was the worst of all, namely a punishment that eradicated them all, and criticism and curses from the people who followed them, as well as ongoing disgrace. So beware of doing what they did, lest you meet the same fate, for the justice and wisdom of Allah are applicable in all times and places.

﴿فَأَقْمْ وَجْهَكَ لِلدِّينِ الْقَيِّمِ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يَأْتِيَ يَوْمٌ لَا مَرَدَّ لَهُ مِنْ اللَّهِ يَوْمَئِذٍ يَصَّدَّعُونَ
 (٤٣) مَنْ كَفَرَ فَعَلَيْهِ كُفْرُهُ، وَمَنْ عَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَلَا نَفْسَ لَهُمْ بِمَعْدُونٍ ﴿٤٤﴾ لِيَجْزِيَ الَّذِينَ
 ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ ۚ إِنَّهُ لَا يُحِبُّ الْكَافِرِينَ ﴿٤٥﴾﴾ (سورة الروم: ٤٣-٤٥)

- 30:43. Adhere exclusively and sincerely to the right religion, before there comes from Allah a day which no one can avert. On that day, they [humankind] will be separated.<sup>43</sup>
- 30:44. Whoever disbelieves will suffer the consequences of his disbelief, and whoever does righteous deeds, then it is for themselves that they are preparing [a place in paradise],
- 30:45. so that He may reward those who believe and do righteous deeds, by His grace. Verily He does not love the disbelievers.

That is, focus with your heart, turn with your face and strive with your efforts in order to establish the true religion; comply with its commands and prohibitions with utmost seriousness, carry out its duties both inwardly and outwardly, and hasten to make the most of your time, your life and your youth, ﴿before there comes from Allah a day which no one can avert﴾ namely the Day of Resurrection, for when it comes it cannot be averted and people will not be given any extra time to start doing good deeds. Rather the time for deeds will be over, and there will be nothing left but requital of deeds.

<sup>43</sup> They will be separated into two groups: one will be admitted to paradise and the other to hell.

﴿On that day, they [humankind] will be separated﴾ that is, they will go in different directions on that day and will be separated into different groups, to be shown their deeds.

﴿Whoever﴾ among them ﴿disbelieves will suffer the consequences of his disbelief﴾ and will be punished himself, for no bearer of burdens will bear the burden of another.

﴿and whoever does righteous deeds﴾, which includes duties towards Allah and towards other people, both obligatory and recommended deeds

﴿then it is for themselves﴾ and no one else ﴿that they are preparing [a place in paradise]﴾. They are preparing their dwelling place in the hereafter and are preparing to attain high status and lofty abodes. Nevertheless, the reward will not be limited to the size of their deeds; rather Allah will bestow upon them reward by His unlimited grace and generosity, such that could not be attained by their deeds alone. That is because He loves them, and when Allah loves a person, He bestows upon him precious gifts in abundance and grants him many blessings, both visible and hidden.

This is in contrast to the disbelievers; because Allah despises them and is angry with them, He will punish them, but He will not give them any more than they deserve, in contrast with the reward of the believers. Hence He says: ﴿Verily He does not love the disbelievers﴾.

﴿وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ أَنْ يُرْسِلَ الرِّيحَ مُبَشِّرَاتٍ وَلِيُذِيقَكُمْ مِنْ رَحْمَتِهِ وَلِتَجْرِيَ الْفَلَاحُ بِأَمْرِهِ
وَلِتَبْتَغُوا مِنْ فَضْلِهِ ۚ وَلَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٤٦﴾﴾ (سورة الروم: ٤٦)

30:46. Among His signs is this: He sends forth the winds as harbingers, so that He may let you taste of His mercy, the ships may sail by His command, and you may seek His bounty, in order that you may give thanks.

That is, one of the signs that point to His mercy and the fact that He will resurrect the dead and that He is the only God Who is deserving of worship, the Sovereign Who is worthy of all praise, is that ﴿He sends forth the winds﴾ ahead of the rain, ﴿as harbingers﴾ as the wind stirs up the clouds then gathers them together, so people are cheered before the coming of the rain.

﴿so that He may let you taste of His mercy﴾ for by His mercy He sends the rain to you, so as to revive the land and people, and give them a foretaste of His mercy so that they may know that it is His mercy that may save people and grant them provision, thus you may be motivated to do a lot of righteous deeds, by means of which the treasure of His mercy may be opened up for you.

﴿the ships may sail﴾ on the sea ﴿by His command﴾ and decree, ﴿and you may seek His bounty﴾ by going about seeking your livelihood and taking care of your interests ﴿in order that you may give thanks﴾ to the One Who has caused the means to be available to you and has made things easy for you. This is the purpose of blessings, so that you may respond by giving thanks to Allah, so that Allah (ﷻ) may give you more and continue to bestow His blessings upon you.

As for responding to blessings with ingratitude and disobedience, this is the attitude of those who repay Allah's blessings with ingratitude (cf. 14: 28). His blessing is a test, and ingratitude increases the likelihood of the blessing being taken away and bestowed elsewhere.

﴿وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ رُسُلًا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِمْ فَجَاءَهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَأَنقَمْنَا مِنَ الَّذِينَ أَجْرُمُوا
وَكَانَ حَقًّا عَلَيْنَا نَصْرُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ﴾ (سورة الروم: ٤٧)

30:47. Indeed We sent Messengers before you [O Muhammad] to their own peoples and they came to them with clear signs. Then We exacted retribution upon the evildoers, for it was incumbent upon Us to help the believers.

«Indeed We sent Messengers before you [O Muhammad]» to the previous nations, Messengers who were sent «to their own peoples» when they denied the oneness of Allah and rejected the truth. So their Messengers came to them, calling them to affirm the oneness of Allah and devote their worship to Him alone, and to accept the truth and reject that which they were following of disbelief and misguidance. They brought clear proof and evidence to that effect, but the people did not believe and they did not give up their misguidance and arrogance.

«Then We exacted retribution upon the evildoers» and We granted victory to the believers, the followers of the Messengers «for it was incumbent upon Us to help the believers» that is, that was necessary, and We made it one of their due rights which We promised to them, so it inevitably came to pass.

If you, O disbelievers in Muhammad (ﷺ), continue to disbelieve, the punishment will befall you and We will grant victory (to the believers) over you.

﴿اللَّهُ الَّذِي يُرْسِلُ الرِّيحَ فَتُثِيرُ سَحَابًا فَيَبْسُطُهُ فِي السَّمَاءِ كَيْفَ يَشَاءُ وَيَجْعَلُهُ كِسْفًا
فَتَرَى الْوَدْقَ يَخْرُجُ مِنْ خِلَالِهِ ۖ فَإِذَا أَصَابَ بِهِ ۖ مِنْ يَسَاءٍ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ ۖ إِذَا هُمْ يَسْتَبْشِرُونَ

﴿١٨﴾ وَإِنْ كَانُوا مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يُنْزَلَ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ قَبْلِهِ لَمُبْلِسِينَ ﴿١٩﴾ فَأَنْظِرْ إِلَى آثَرِ رَحْمَتِ اللَّهِ كَيْفَ يُحْيِي الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا إِنَّ ذَلِكَ لَمُنْجِي الْمَوْتَى وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ﴿٢٠﴾ (سورة الروم: ٤٨-٥٠)

- 30:48. It is Allah Who sends forth the winds to stir up clouds, then He spreads them in the sky as He wills, or He causes them to break up. Then you see the rain coming forth from their midst, and when He makes it fall upon whomever He wills of His slaves, they rejoice,
- 30:49. even though before it was sent down to them, before that [sending of the wind and stirring up of the cloud], they had lost all hope.
- 30:50. Look then at the effects of Allah's mercy, how He gives life to the earth after its death; verily it is He [the Giver of life to the dead earth] Who will give life to the dead, for He has power over all things.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of His perfect might and complete blessings, for He «sends forth the winds to stir up clouds» from the earth «then He spreads them in the sky as He wills» that is, in whatever manner He wants, «or He causes them to break up» that is, He causes the vast cloud to break up into thick clouds, piled on top of one another.

«Then you see the rain coming forth from their midst» in small scattered drops, not all coming in one go, because that would lead to destruction of crops.

«and when He makes it» namely that rain «fall upon whomever He wills of His slaves, they rejoice» giving one another the glad tidings of its arrival, because of their great need for it. Hence Allah says:

«Even though before it was sent down to them, before that [sending of the wind and stirring up of the cloud], they had lost all hope» that is, they had despaired utterly, because of the delay in the arrival of the rain. In other words, when rain comes in such circumstances, it has a great impact upon them and they rejoice more.

﴿Look then at the effects of Allah's mercy, how He gives life to the earth after its death﴾ and it stirs and swells, and brings forth beautiful plants of every kind (cf. 22: 5).

﴿verily it is He [the Giver of life to the dead earth] Who will give life to the dead, for He has power over all things﴾ for nothing is beyond His power, even though it is beyond the power of people and is beyond their comprehension and understanding.

﴿وَلَيْنَ أَرْسَلْنَا رِيحًا فَرَأَوْهُ مُصْفَرًّا لَّظَلُّوا مِنْ بَعْدِهِ يَكْفُرُونَ ٥١﴾ فَإِنَّكَ لَا تَسْمِعُ
الْمَوْتَى وَلَا تَسْمِعُ الضُّمَّةَ الدُّعَاءَ إِذَا وَلَّوْا مُدْبِرِينَ ٥٢ وَمَا أَنْتَ بِهَادٍ الْعُمَى عَنْ ضَلَالَتِهِمْ
إِنْ تَسْمِعُ إِلَّا مَنْ يُؤْمِنُ بِآيَاتِنَا فَهُمْ مُسْلِمُونَ ٥٣﴾ (سورة الروم: ٥١-٥٣)

- 30:51. But if We send a [damaging] wind and they see [their crops] turn yellow, they become ungrateful thereafter.
- 30:52. Verily you cannot make the dead hear you, nor can you make the deaf hear your call, [especially] if they turn their backs and walk away.
- 30:53. Nor can you guide the blind out of their error. You cannot make anyone hear you except those who believe in Our revelations, for they are ready to submit [to the truth].

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us how people are: despite these blessings that are bestowed upon them, with the revival of the earth after its death, and Allah's bestowing mercy upon them, if We sent upon these plants that grew after the rain, and upon their crops, a damaging wind that destroyed all of them or some of them,

﴿and they see [their crops] turn yellow﴾, having been spoiled and ruined,

﴿they become ungrateful thereafter﴾, and they forget the past blessings and quickly become ungrateful.

No exhortation or rebuke could benefit them, for ﴿Verily you cannot make the dead hear you, nor can you make the deaf hear your call, [especially] if they turn their backs and walk away﴾. All impediments are present in their case that prevent them from listening in a way that could benefit them, just as all these impediments mentioned here prevent them from hearing the physical sound.

﴿Nor can you guide the blind out of their error﴾ because it is not possible for them to see, so they have no aptitude for seeing things. ﴿You cannot make anyone hear you except those who believe in Our revelations, for they are ready to submit [to the truth]﴾. These are the ones who will benefit from hearing right guidance and are the ones who will truly believe in Our revelations, comply with Our commands and submit to Us, because they have a strong motive to accept advice and exhortation and are ready to believe in every revelation from Allah and to do whatever they are able to do of complying with the commands and prohibitions of Allah.

﴿اللَّهُ الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ ضَعْفٍ ثُمَّ جَعَلَ مِنْ بَعْدِ ضَعْفٍ قُوَّةً ثُمَّ جَعَلَ مِنْ بَعْدِ قُوَّةٍ ضَعْفًا وَشَيْبَةً يَخْلُقُ مَا يَشَاءُ وَهُوَ الْعَلِيمُ الْقَدِيرُ﴾ (سورة الروم: ٥٤)

30:54. It is Allah Who created you in a state of weakness, then after weakness He gave you strength, then after strength, weakness and grey hair. He creates as He wills, and He is the All-Knowing, Omnipotent.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the vastness of His knowledge, the greatness of His might and the perfect nature of His wisdom, and the beginning of the creation of human beings in a state of weakness. This refers to the first stage of their creation, from a sperm drop to a clinging clot, to a chewed lump of flesh, until they become living beings in the wombs, then the human being is born as an infant, very weak, with no strength or ability. Then Allah increases his strength little by little, until he reaches the pinnacle of his physical strength and all his faculties, hidden and apparent, reached their peak. Then he moves on from this stage, and returns to weakness, grey hair and old age.

﴿He creates as He wills﴾ according to His wisdom. By His wisdom, he shows man his weakness and that his strength is preceded by weakness and followed by weakness, and weakness is inherent in him. Were it not for the help of Allah, he could not have reached any level of power or ability, and if his strength continued to increase, he would transgress, overstep the limits and become arrogant.

People should understand the perfect might of Allah which is constant and ongoing, by means of which He creates things and controls them, and He never grows weary or weak, and never falls short in any way.

﴿وَيَوْمَ تَقُومُ السَّاعَةُ يُقْسِمُ الْمُجْرِمُونَ مَا لَبِثُوا غَيْرَ سَاعَةٍ كَذَلِكَ كَانُوا يُؤْفَكُونَ ﴿٥٥﴾ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ وَالْإِيمَانَ لَقَدْ لَبِثْتُمْ فِي كِتَابِ اللَّهِ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْبَعْثِ فَهَذَا يَوْمُ الْبَعْثِ وَلَكِنَّكُمْ كُنتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٥٦﴾ فَيَوْمَئِذٍ لَا يَنْفَعُ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا مَعْذِرَتُهُمْ وَلَا هُمْ يُسْتَعْتَبُونَ ﴿٥٧﴾﴾ (سورة الروم: ٥٥-٥٧)

30:55. On the day when the Hour begins, the evildoers will swear that they had not remained [in this world] for longer than an hour. Thus they were ever diverted [from the truth]!

- 30:56. Those who were given knowledge and faith will say: You remained, according to the decree of Allah, until the Day of Resurrection, and this is the Day of Resurrection, but you did not know.
- 30:57. On that day, no excuse will benefit those who did wrong, nor will they be allowed to make amends.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about the Day of Resurrection and how quickly it will come. When the Hour begins, ﴿the evildoers will swear﴾ by Allah ﴿that they had not remained [in this world] for longer than an hour﴾. This is the excuse they will give in the hope that it will benefit them, because they feel that the duration of this world was very short.

Because their words are false and have no real meaning to them, Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿Thus they were ever diverted [from the truth]﴾ that is, in this world they were constantly diverted from the truth and always told lies. In this world they rejected the truth that was brought by the Messengers and in the hereafter they will deny something tangible, which is their lengthy stay in this world. This reflects their bad attitude, for each person will be resurrected as he died.

﴿Those who were given knowledge and faith﴾ that is, those whom Allah blessed with these favours, which became part of their nature, namely knowledge of the truth and faith that leads to giving precedence to the truth. As they had knowledge of the truth and gave precedence to it, what must result from that is that their words must match reality.

Hence they will say what is correct: ﴿You remained, according to the decree of Allah﴾ that is, according to the decree that Allah ordained for you, subject to His rulings:

﴿until the Day of Resurrection﴾ that is, you lived long enough for anyone to pay heed to the reminder, reflect upon it and learn lessons from it, until the Resurrection came and you found yourself in this situation.

﴿and this is the Day of Resurrection, but you did not know﴾, therefore you deviated in the previous world and denied the true length of your stay, and you denied that you lived long enough to have been able to repent. So you remained in a state of ignorance, disbelief and loss.

﴿On that day, no excuse will benefit those who did wrong﴾ for if they tell lies and claim that no proof was established against them, or that they did not have the chance to believe, their lies will be exposed by the testimony of the people of knowledge and faith, and by the testimony of their own skin, hands and feet. If they seek to be excused and be given another chance, saying that they will never go back to what they were told not to do, they will not be given that opportunity, because the time for excuses has ended and their excuses will not be accepted, ﴿nor will they be allowed to make amends﴾.

﴿وَلَقَدْ صَرَبْنَا لِلنَّاسِ فِي هَذَا الْقُرْآنِ مِنْ كُلِّ مَثَلٍ وَلَئِنْ جِئْتَهُمْ بِآيَةٍ لَيَقُولَنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا إِنْ أَنْتُمْ إِلَّا مُبْطِلُونَ ﴿٥٨﴾ كَذَلِكَ يَطْبَعُ اللَّهُ عَلَى قُلُوبِ الَّذِينَ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٥٩﴾ فَأَصْبِرْ إِنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ وَلَا يَسْتَخِفَّنكَ الَّذِينَ لَا يُوقِنُونَ

(سورة الروم: ٥٨-٦٠) ﴿٦٠﴾

30:58. Verily We have presented to humankind, in this Qur'an, every kind of example. But if you [O Muhammad] were to come to them with a sign, those who disbelieve would surely say [to the believers]: You follow nothing but falsehood.

30:59. Thus does Allah seal the hearts of those who have no knowledge.

30:60. So be patient, for verily the promise of Allah is true; do not let those who lack certainty of faith discourage you.

﴿Verily We have presented﴾ because We care, We are merciful and kind, and We educate in the best way ﴿to humankind, in this Qur'an, every kind of example﴾ in order to clarify realities and so that things will be known and proof will be established. This is general in meaning and applies to all the examples that Allah gives, so that ideas may be clarified by means of tangible examples, and by telling that which will come to pass and explaining its true nature as if it has already happened. An example of that is seen here, where Allah (ﷻ) tells us what will happen on the Day of Resurrection, what the situation of the sinners will be on that day, how regretful they will be, and how no excuse will be accepted from them, nor will they be able to make amends.

But the wrongdoers and disbelievers insist on opposing the clear truth, hence Allah says:

﴿But if you [O Muhammad] were to come to them with a sign﴾ that is, with any sign that points to the truth of the message you have brought, ﴿those who disbelieve would surely say [to the believers]: You follow nothing but falsehood﴾ that is, they will say that the truth is false.

This stems from their disbelief and audacity, and is because Allah has placed a seal on their hearts, and because of their extreme ignorance. Hence Allah says:

﴿Thus does Allah seal the hearts of those who have no knowledge﴾, so nothing good enters their hearts and they do not understand things as they really are; rather they see truth as falsehood and falsehood as truth.

﴿So be patient﴾ in adhering to what is enjoined upon you and in calling them to Allah, and even if you see them turning away, that should not make you give up.

﴿for verily the promise of Allah is true﴾ that is, there is no doubt concerning it. This is something that should help one to be patient, for if he knows that his effort will not be wasted and he will in fact find it rewarded in full, what he encounters of hardship will become insignificant, and it will become easier for him to bear every difficulty. ﴿do not let those who lack certainty of faith discourage you﴾ that is, their faith is weak and their certainty is lacking, therefore they are lacking in reason and patience. So beware lest they discourage you, for if you are not cautious and do not take precautions, they will discourage you and cause you to not be steadfast in adhering to the commands and prohibitions, and your own inclinations may help them in that, because one may be inclined to be like them and be in agreement with them. This indicates that if a believer has certain faith and a mature outlook, it will be easy for him to remain steadfast, but whoever is lacking in certainty will have an immature outlook.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat ar-Room.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

31. Soorat Luqmân

---

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿١﴾ تِلْكَ آيَاتُ الْكِتَابِ الْحَكِيمِ ﴿٢﴾ هُدًى وَرَحْمَةً لِّلْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿٣﴾ الَّذِينَ
يُقِيمُونَ الصَّلَاةَ وَيُؤْتُونَ الزَّكَاةَ وَهُمْ بِالْآخِرَةِ هُمْ يُوقِنُونَ ﴿٤﴾ أُولَٰئِكَ عَلَىٰ هُدًى مِّن
رَّبِّهِمْ وَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ ﴿٥﴾ (سورة لقمان: ١-٥)

31:1. Alif. Lām. Meem.<sup>44</sup>

31:2. These are the verses of the Book of wisdom,

31:3. guidance and mercy for those who do good,

31:4. those who establish prayer and give zakâh, and who believe with certainty in the hereafter.

---

<sup>44</sup> Groups of letters (al-ḥuroof al-muqatta'ah) appear at the beginning of several soorahs. The most correct scholarly view states that we are required to believe in them as they appear to be, without delving into their meaning, knowledge of which we should leave to Allah. We believe that they were not revealed in vain, and that there is wisdom behind them of which we are not aware.

31:5. It is they who are following guidance from their Lord and it is they who will prosper.

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) refers to respect and veneration for the verses of the Book of wisdom, for its verses are precise and come from One Who is Most Wise, All-Aware. One aspect of its being wise and precise is that the wording of its verses is most sublime, eloquent, clear, precise in meaning and beautiful. Another aspect of its being wise and precise is that it is protected from changes, alterations, additions, omission and distortion. Moreover, everything in it of stories of the past and future, and matters of the unseen, are all in accordance with reality, and reality is in accordance with it. None of the divinely revealed Books differs with it and no Prophet differed concerning it. There has never been and never will be any knowledge based on the science of sound reasoning that will contradict any of these verses.

Another aspect of it being wise and precise is that it never enjoins anything but that thing serves a clear interest, and it never forbids anything but it is bad and harmful. It often connects a command to the wisdom behind it and the benefits it brings, and it connects a prohibition to the reason behind it, mentioning the harm it causes.

It combines encouragement, warning and clear exhortation, by means of which people with good inclinations will be guided and will follow that exhortation and apply it, which will strengthen their resolve to implement it.

You will find that the meanings of its verses are repeated, such as the stories and rulings that it contains. All of it is in harmony and in agreement, and there are no contradictions or discrepancies in it. The more the one with understanding reflects upon it and ponders it, the more amazed he will be at the level of harmony and agreement, and he will become certain, beyond any doubt, that it is a revelation from One Who is Most Wise, Most Praiseworthy.

But, although it is wise and precise, and it calls to every noble characteristic and forbids every ignoble characteristic, most people are deprived of being guided by it, and they turn away from believing in it and acting upon it, except those whom Allah (ﷻ) guides and protects from misguidance. They are the ones who do good by worshipping their Lord and showing kindness to others.

Indeed it is ﴿guidance﴾ for them; it guides them to the straight path and warns them against the paths that lead to hell. ﴿and mercy﴾ for them, by means of which they may attain happiness in this world and the hereafter, much good, great reward and joy; and misguidance and misery may be warded off from them.

Then Allah describes those who do good as being people of sound knowledge, which is certain faith that requires one to strive and fear the punishment of Allah, so they refrain from disobeying Him. And He describes them as people who take action, singling out two good deeds for mention: prayer which involves devotion, conversing with Allah (ﷻ) and other actions of the heart, words and physical movements, and which helps them to do all kinds of good deeds; and zakâh which purifies the giver of bad characteristics, benefits his Muslim brethren and meets his needs, and by means of it a person demonstrates clearly that he gives precedence to love of Allah over love of wealth, and that he gives away what he loves of wealth for the sake of that which is dearer to him, which is attaining the pleasure of Allah.

﴿It is they﴾ namely those who do good, combining proper knowledge with action ﴿who are following guidance﴾ the word translated here as ﴿guidance﴾ appears in the indefinite form, which indicates that it is great. This guidance comes to them ﴿from their Lord﴾ Who always cares for them, bestows different kinds of blessings on them and wards off harm from them.

This guidance that was sent to them is part of Allah's special care for His close friends, and it is the highest level of care.

«and it is they who will prosper» – for it is they who will attain the pleasure of their Lord and His reward in this world and the hereafter, and they will be safe from His wrath and punishment, because they follow the path of success, to which there is no other path.

Having mentioned those who are guided by the Qur'an and are focused on it, Allah (ﷻ) now mentions those who turn away from it and pay no attention to it, stating that they will be punished for that, because by focusing on all kinds of frivolous talk, they have shunned the most sublime of words and the best of speech, replacing it with the lowest and ugliest of speech. Therefore Allah says:

﴿وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَن يَشْتَرِي لَهْوَ الْحَدِيثِ لِيُضِلَّ عَن سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ وَيَتَّخِذَهَا هُزُوًا أُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مُّهِينٌ ﴿٦﴾ وَإِذَا نُتِلَىٰ عَلَيْهِ ءَايَاتُنَا وَلَّى مُسْتَكْبِرًا كَأَن لَّمْ يَسْمَعْهَا كَأَن فِي أُذُنِهِ وَقْرٌ فَنَسَخْنَاهُ بِعَذَابٍ آٰلِيمٍ ﴿٧﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ لَهُمْ جَنَّاتُ النَّعِيمِ ﴿٨﴾ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا وَعَدَ اللَّهُ حَقًّا وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٩﴾﴾ (سورة لقمان: ٦-٩)

31:6. But among people are some who resort to frivolous talk<sup>45</sup> in order to mislead others from the path of Allah without knowledge and to make a mockery of it. For such there will be a humiliating punishment.

<sup>45</sup> This verse was revealed concerning an-Nadr ibn al-Hârith, who acquired books of tales from the Persians. He would narrate these stories to Quraysh and say: If Muhammad is telling you the stories of 'Âd and Thamood, I am telling you the stories of Rostam, Esfandiyar and Chosroes. Frivolous talk refers to spending one's time listening to baseless tales and stories, jokes and idle talk; it may also include singing and music, according to many commentators.

- 31:7. When Our verses are recited to such a person, he turns away arrogantly, as if he did not hear them, as if there were deafness in his ears. So give him the tidings of a painful punishment.
- 31:8. But for those who believe and do righteous deeds, there will be gardens of delight,
- 31:9. to abide therein forever. [This is] a true promise from Allah, and He is the Almighty, Most Wise.

«But among people are some» who are deprived and left to their own devices. They «resort to» that is, they choose and prefer «frivolous talk» that is, talk that distracts people's minds and prevents them from attaining sublime goals. This includes all kinds of prohibited speech and all kinds of idle talk, falsehood and nonsense that encourages disbelief, evildoing and sin; as well as the talk of those who oppose the truth and argue on the basis of falsehood in order to undermine the truth; backbiting, malicious gossip, lying, reviling, insulting, singing and musical instruments of the Shayṭān, and foolish talk in which there is no benefit in either religious or worldly terms.

This type of people choose idle talk over guidance «in order to mislead others from the path of Allah without knowledge» that is, after going astray by their actions, they lead others astray, because misguidance of others stems from being misguided themselves.

This frivolous talk misguides others by distracting them from beneficial talk, beneficial deeds, clear truth and the straight path.

Such a person cannot achieve that unless he criticises guidance and truth, makes a mockery of the verses of Allah, and ridicules them and the one who brought them. If he combines praise and promotion of falsehood with casting aspersions upon the truth and ridiculing it and its followers, he will lead astray those who have no knowledge and are deceived by what he tells them of arguments and statements in which that misguided person can see no flaws and does not know what he is really talking about.

﴿For such there will be a humiliating punishment﴾ for going astray, leading others astray, ridiculing the revelations of Allah and rejecting the clear truth.

﴿When Our verses are recited to such a person﴾ so that he may believe in them and submit to them

﴿he turns away arrogantly﴾ that is, he turns away, rejecting them, because he is too arrogant to believe in them; they do not enter his heart or have any impact on it. Rather he turns away ﴿as if he did not hear them﴾ and indeed ﴿as if there were deafness in his ears﴾, such that no sound could reach his ears. There is no way that such a person can be guided.

﴿So give him the tidings﴾ that is, tidings that will fill his heart with grief and distress, and will reflect on his appearance, making him look gloomy and dusty

﴿of a painful punishment﴾, which will cause both psychological and physical pain, and no one can estimate how painful or how great it will be. These are the tidings to be given to the evildoers, and what bad tidings they are.

As for the tidings that will be given to those who do good, Allah says:

﴿But for those who believe and do righteous deeds﴾ thus combining inward worship in the sense of faith and outward worship in the sense of complying with Islamic teachings in their conduct, and doing righteous deeds,

﴿there will be gardens of delight﴾. This is glad tidings to them for their righteous deeds.

﴿to abide therein forever﴾ in gardens that will be filled with delights psychological, spiritual and physical.

﴿[This is] a true promise from Allah﴾ that cannot be broken, changed or altered

﴿and He is the Almighty, Most Wise﴾ – He is perfect in might and perfect in wisdom. By His might and wisdom He guides some and forsakes others, according to what His knowledge and wisdom dictate.

﴿ خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ بِغَيْرِ عَمَدٍ تَرَوْنَهَا ۚ وَالْأَرْضَ رَوَىٰ أَنْ تُعِيدَ بِكُمْ ۚ وَبَثَّ فِيهَا مِنْ كُلِّ دَابَّةٍ ۚ وَأَنْزَلْنَا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَأَنْبَتْنَا فِيهَا مِنْ كُلِّ زَوْجٍ كَرِيمٍ ﴿١٠﴾ هَذَا خَلْقُ اللَّهِ فَأَرُونِي مَاذَا خَلَقَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ دُونِهِ ۚ بَلِ الظَّالِمُونَ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُبِينٍ ﴿١١﴾ ﴾ (سورة لقمان)

لقمان: ١٠-١١)

- 31:10. He created the heavens without any pillars that you can see; He set on the earth mountains standing firm, lest it shake with you; and He scattered throughout [the earth] creatures of all kinds. We send down rain from the sky and cause to grow therein all kinds of beneficial plants.
- 31:11. This is Allah's creation; so show Me what others [whom you worship] besides Him have created. Nay, the wrongdoers are clearly misguided.

Here Allah (ﷻ) highlights to His slaves some of the signs of His might and some of the wonders of His precise creation and blessings, which are signs of His mercy.

﴿He created the heavens﴾ that is, the seven heavens, in all their greatness, vastness, profundity and great height
 ﴿without any pillars that you can see﴾ that is, they have no pillars, for if they did have pillars they would be visible. Rather they only remain firm and stable by the might of Allah (ﷻ).

﴿He set on the earth mountains standing firm﴾ that is, great mountains which He has set in various regions and parts of the earth, ﴿lest it shake with you﴾. Were it not for the mountains standing firm, the earth would shake and it would not be stable for its inhabitants to settle on it.

﴿and He scattered throughout [the earth] creatures of all kinds﴾ that is, He scattered throughout the vast earth all kinds of creatures that are made to be of service to the sons of Adam, to serve their interests and benefit them. As He scattered them throughout the earth, He knew that there should be provision to sustain these creatures so He sends down from the sky blessed water,

﴿and cause[s] to grow therein all kinds of beneficial plants﴾ that are beautiful to behold and are beneficial and blessed. So the creatures that are scattered throughout the earth graze on them and animals turn to them for food and shelter.

﴿This﴾ namely the creation of the upper and lower realms, inanimate objects and animate beings, and the provision of sustenance to them

﴿is Allah's creation﴾ that is, created by Him alone, with no partner; everyone acknowledges that, even you, O polytheists.

﴿so show Me what others [whom you worship] besides Him have created﴾ that is, those whom you describe as partners of Allah, and you call upon them and worship them, which would imply that they should have a creation like His and grant provision like His. If they have any of that, then show it to me in order to prove your claim that they deserve to be worshipped.

But it is well known that they are not able to show him anything that these so-called “partners” have created, because they acknowledge that all the things mentioned here were created by Allah alone, and there is nothing else known other than what is mentioned here. Thus it is established that they are unable to prove anything that their gods created, for which they would deserve to be worshipped.

In fact they worship them without knowledge or understanding; rather it is based on ignorance and misguidance. Hence Allah says: ﴿Nay, the wrongdoers are clearly misguided﴾ that is, they are obviously misguided, because they worshipped that which has no power to bring benefit or cause harm, or to cause death, give life or resurrect, and they failed to show sincere devotion to the Creator, the Provider, the Sovereign of all things.

﴿وَلَقَدْ ءَاتَيْنَا لُقْمَانَ الْحِكْمَةَ أَنِ اشْكُرْ لِلَّهِ وَمَن يَشْكُرْ فَإِنَّمَا يَشْكُرُ لِنَفْسِهِ ۖ وَمَن كَفَرَ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ غَنِيٌّ حَمِيدٌ ﴿١٢﴾ وَلَئِذَا قَالَ لُقْمَانُ لِابْنِهِ ۖ وَهُوَ يَعِظُهُ ۖ يَبْنَىٰ لَا تُشْرِكْ بِاللَّهِ ۖ إِنَّ الشِّرْكَ لَظُلْمٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴿١٣﴾ وَوَصَّيْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ بِوَالِدَيْهِ حَمَلَتْهُ أُمُّهُ ۖ وَهَنَا عَلَىٰ وَهْنٍ ۖ وَفَصَّلَهُ ۖ فِي عَامَيْنِ أَنِ اشْكُرْ لِي وَلِوَالِدَيْكَ إِلَىٰ الْمَصِيرِ ﴿١٤﴾ وَإِنْ جَاهَدَاكَ عَلَىٰ أَن تُشْرِكَ بِي مَا لَيْسَ لَكَ بِهِ عِلْمٌ فَلَا تُطِعْهُمَا ۖ وَصَاحِبْهُمَا فِي الدُّنْيَا مَعْرُوفًا ۖ وَاتَّبِعْ سَبِيلَ مَنْ أَنَابَ ۖ إِلَىٰ ثُمَّ إِلَىٰ مَرْجِعِكُمْ فَأُنَبِّتُكُم بِمَا كُنتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ يَبْنَىٰ إِنَّهَا إِنْ تَكُ مِثْقَالَ حَبَّةٍ مِّنْ خَرْدَلٍ فَتَكُنْ فِي صَخْرَةٍ أَوْ فِي السَّمُوتِ أَوْ فِي الْأَرْضِ يَأْتِ بِهَا اللَّهُ ۖ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَطِيفٌ خَبِيرٌ ﴿١٦﴾ يَبْنَىٰ أَقِمِ الصَّلَاةَ ۖ وَأْمُرْ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ ۖ وَانْهَ عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ ۖ وَأَصِرْ عَلَىٰ مَا أَصَابَكَ ۖ إِنَّ ذَٰلِكَ مِنْ عَزَمِ الْأُمُورِ ﴿١٧﴾ وَلَا تَصْغُرْ خَدَكَ لِلنَّاسِ وَلَا تَمْشِ فِي الْأَرْضِ مَرَحًا ۖ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُحِبُّ كُلَّ مُخْتَالٍ فَخُورٍ ﴿١٨﴾ وَأَقْصِدْ فِي مَشْيِكَ ۖ وَأَغْضُضْ مِن صَوْتِكَ ۖ إِنَّ أَنْكَرَ الْأَصْوَاتِ لَصَوْتُ الْحَمِيرِ ﴿١٩﴾﴾ (سورة لقمان: ١٢-١٩)

- 31:12. Indeed We granted wisdom to Luqmân, [saying]: Be grateful to Allah. Whoever is grateful, his gratitude is to his own benefit, and whoever is ungrateful, then surely Allah is Self-Sufficient, Worthy of all praise.
- 31:13. And [remember] when Luqmân said to his son as he was advising him: O my son, do not associate anything in worship with Allah, for associating others in worship with Him is indeed grievous wrongdoing.
- 31:14. We have enjoined upon man kindness to his parents. In travail upon travail his mother bears him, and his weaning takes place within two years. Be grateful to Me and to your parents. Unto Me is the return [of all].

- 31:15. But if they endeavour to make you ascribe partners to Me of which you have no knowledge, then do not obey them. But keep company with them in this world kindly, and follow the way of those who turn to Me. Then to Me you will all return, and I will inform you about what you used to do.
- 31:16. [Luqmân said:] O my son, even if [a deed] is the weight of a grain of mustard seed, and it is hidden in a rock, or in the heavens, or in the earth, Allah will bring it forth. Verily Allah is the Knower of subtleties, the All-Aware.
- 31:17. O my son, establish prayer, enjoin what is right and forbid what is wrong; be patient and steadfast in the face of whatever befalls you; that is something that must be adhered to, [as it is enjoined by Allah].
- 31:18. Do not turn your face away from people [in contempt], and do not walk on the earth with insolence. Verily Allah does not love anyone who is conceited and boastful.
- 31:19. Be moderate in your gait and lower your voice; verily the most hideous of sounds is the voice [braying] of the donkey.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the blessing of wisdom that He bestowed upon His virtuous slave Luqmân, which refers to attaining proper knowledge concerning the truth and understanding the wisdom behind different issues of knowledge. That is knowledge of rulings and learning the subtle reasons behind them and how precise and proper they are. A man may be knowledgeable without being wise. Wisdom is based on knowledge and also on actions. Hence wisdom is described as being beneficial knowledge and righteous deeds.

Having bestowed this great blessing upon him, Allah instructed him to give thanks for what He had given him, so that He might bless it for him and increase him in virtue. He told him that the benefit of gratitude comes back to the grateful, but if a person is ungrateful and does not give thanks to Allah, the negative consequences of that will come back to him. Allah has no need of such a person, and He is praiseworthy in all that He decrees and ordains for the one who goes against His command. Among His essential attributes, He has no need of anyone and He is praiseworthy for all His perfect attributes and praiseworthy for all His beautiful actions. Each of these two attributes is an attribute of perfection, and adding one of them to the other is perfection upon perfection.

The commentators differed as to whether Luqmân was a Prophet or a righteous slave. Allah (ﷻ) only tells us that He gave him wisdom and told us something about his exhortation of his son which is indicative of his wisdom, namely the foundations and main pillars of wisdom.

﴿And [remember] when Luqmân said to his son as he was advising him﴾, or he said some words to him, exhorting him with commands and prohibitions, encouragement and warnings. He instructed him to show sincere devotion to Allah alone, and forbade him to ascribe partners to Him, explaining to him the reason for that by saying: ﴿for associating others in worship with Him is indeed grievous wrongdoing﴾. The reason why it is grievous is that there is nothing more horrendous or abhorrent than one who regards that which was created from dust as equal to the Sovereign of all things, and he regards the one who has no control over anything as equal to the One Who has control over all things, and he regards one who is lacking in all ways as equal to the perfect Lord Who is self-sufficient in all respects, and he regards the one who does not bestow even an atom's weight of blessings as equal to the One Who bestows every single blessing that is bestowed upon humankind in terms of their spiritual and worldly affairs, and Who wards off evil from them. Can there be any wrongdoing more grievous than this?

Is there any wrongdoing greater than that of one whom Allah created to worship Him and affirm His oneness, yet he decides to degrade his noble soul and bring it down to the lowest of ranks by making it a worshipper of that which has no value, thus wronging himself greatly?

Having enjoined fulfilment of His rights by refraining from ascribing partners to Him, which means adhering to affirmation of His oneness, Allah (ﷻ) then enjoined fulfilment of the rights of parents:

﴿We have enjoined upon man kindness to his parents﴾ that is, We have commanded him and given him instructions to that effect, and We will question him as to how he did that and whether he complied or not. We said to him:

﴿Be grateful to Me﴾ by worshipping Me, fulfilling My rights and not using My blessings to disobey Me

﴿and to your parents﴾ by showing kindness to them, speaking gently to them, behaving nicely with them, being humble towards them, honouring them, respecting them, taking care of them, and avoiding mistreating them in any way, in word or deed.

We gave him this advice and We told him that ﴿Unto Me is the return [of all]﴾ that is, you – O humankind – will all return to the One Who instructed you and enjoined these duties upon you, and He will ask you: did you fulfil them, so that He might reward you immensely? Or did you neglect them, so that He might punish you severely?

Then He tells us the reason why parents are to be honoured, which has to do with the mother:

﴿In travail upon travail his mother bears him﴾ that is, in hardship upon hardship; she continues to go through hardship, from the time when he is a sperm drop, faced with cravings, sickness, weakness, heaviness and changing moods, which is followed by the severe pain of childbirth.

Then ﴿his weaning takes place within two years﴾ and throughout these two years he enjoys the care of his mother. Is it not appropriate that in the case of the one who bears all this hardship because of her child, yet loves him dearly, the child is emphatically enjoined and instructed to show the highest level of kindness to that person?

«But if they» namely your parents «endeavour to make you ascribe partners to Me of which you have no knowledge, then do not obey them» and do not think that this comes under the heading of kind treatment of them, because the rights of Allah take precedence over the rights of anyone else, and:

«There is no obedience to any created being if it involves disobedience towards the Creator.» (Recorded by at-Tabrayzi; al-Albâni graded it as sound)

Allah did not say “But if they endeavour to make you ascribe partners to Me of which you have no knowledge, then treat them badly or be defiant towards them.” Rather He said «then do not obey them» that is, by ascribing partners to Allah. As for honouring them and treating them kindly, one should persist in that. Hence Allah says: «But keep company with them in this world kindly» that is, keep them company in a kind way. As for following them, when they are in a state of disbelief and disobedience, do not follow them.

«and follow the way of those who turn to Me» namely those who believe in Allah, His angels, His Books and His Messengers, those who submit to their Lord and turn to Him.

Following their path means behaving like them in turning to Allah, meaning that all one's emotions and will are focused on Allah, which is then followed by physically taking action to do that which pleases Allah and brings one closer to him.

«Then to Me you will all return» both those who obey Allah and those who disobey Him, those who turn to Him and those who do not «and I will inform you about what you used to do» for nothing is hidden from Allah of their deeds.

«[Luqmân said:] O my son, even if [a deed] is the weight of a grain of mustard seed» which is the smallest and most insignificant of things

﴿and it is hidden in a rock﴾ that is, in the middle of it ﴿or in the heavens, or in the earth﴾ in any direction whatsoever, ﴿Allah will bring it forth﴾ because of His vast knowledge, perfect awareness and perfect might. Hence He says:

﴿Verily Allah is the Knower of subtleties, the All-Aware﴾ that is, He is subtle in His knowledge and awareness, to the extent that He is aware of all that is hidden and secret, and all that is hidden on land and in the sea.

The point of mentioning this is to urge people to remember that Allah is always watching and to do acts of obedience as much as possible; and to warn against doing evil deeds, small or great.

﴿O my son, establish prayer﴾ prayer is encouraged and singled out for mention because it is the greatest of physical acts of worship ﴿enjoin what is right and forbid what is wrong﴾ – this requires one to have knowledge of what is right, so that he may enjoin it, and to have knowledge of what is wrong, so that he may forbid it. That without which one cannot enjoin what is right and forbid what is wrong is also enjoined, such as kindness and patience. That is stated clearly in the words: ﴿be patient and steadfast in the face of whatever befalls you﴾ (31: 17). He should do what he enjoins others to do and refrain from what he forbids them to do. Thus he will be striving to perfect himself by doing good and refraining from evil, and will be striving to perfect others by enjoining what is right and forbidding what is wrong.

Because Allah knew that man would inevitably be faced with troubles if he enjoins what is right and forbids what is wrong, and that doing this is difficult for people, He enjoined them to be patient and steadfast in doing it:

﴿be patient and steadfast in the face of whatever befalls you; that﴾ which Luqmân advised his son to do ﴿is something that must be adhered to, [as it is enjoined by Allah]﴾ that is, it is one of the things that must be adhered to and paid attention to, and no one is able to attain that except people of strong resolve.

﴿Do not turn your face away from people [in contempt]﴾ that is, do not frown at people out of arrogance towards them, looking down on them.

﴿and do not walk on the earth with insolence﴾ that is, with arrogance, feeling proud because of the blessings that have been bestowed upon you whilst forgetting the Bestower, and being filled with self-admiration.

﴿Verily Allah does not love anyone who is conceited﴾ in the way he thinks of himself and carries himself ﴿and boastful﴾ in his speech.

﴿Be moderate in your gait﴾ that is, walk humbly and modestly, not in the manner of one who is insolent and arrogant, or in the manner of one who is weak and exhausted.

﴿and lower your voice﴾ out of good manners towards people and towards Allah

﴿verily the most hideous of sounds﴾ that is, the ugliest and most abhorrent

﴿is the voice [braying] of the donkey﴾. If there was any benefit in raising the voice, the donkey – which is known for being ignoble and stupid – would not have been singled out for mention.

This advice which Luqmān gave to his son represents the main points of wisdom and implies those that were not mentioned. Each piece of advice is mentioned with a reason that motivates one to comply with it.

This supports what we have mentioned about the meaning of wisdom, which is that it means knowing the rulings, understanding the reasons behind them, and knowing when and how to implement them.

Luqmān enjoined on his son the foundation of religion, namely the affirmation of the oneness of Allah; he forbade him to ascribe partners to Allah and explained why he should avoid doing that. He instructed him to honour his parents, and explained the reason for doing so. He instructed him to give thanks to Allah and to his parents, then he highlighted that the injunction to honour them and comply with their instructions is only applicable so long as they do not enjoin sin, yet he should still not mistreat them or turn against them if they do tell him to commit sin. Rather he should treat them kindly even if he does not obey them when they endeavour to make him ascribe partners to Allah. He instructed him to remember that Allah is always watching, and reminded him to fear the time when he will stand before Him, for Allah will not leave any deed, small or great, good or bad, but He will bring it.

He forbade him to be arrogant and instructed him to be humble; He forbade him to be insolent, boastful or conceited; He instructed him to show humility in the way he moves and talks, and forbade him to do the opposite of that.

He instructed him to enjoin what is right and forbid what is wrong, to establish prayer and to be steadfast and patient, for by means of prayer and patience, everything is made easy, as Allah (ﷻ) says. So it is no wonder that the one who gave these instructions must be a man who was blessed with wisdom and was well known for that. Hence one of the blessings that Allah bestows upon him and upon all His slaves is that He told them the story of his wisdom, so that he might be a good example to them.

﴿الَّذِينَ تَرَوْنَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ سَخَّرَ لَكُمْ مَّا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَأَسْبَغَ عَلَيْكُمْ نِعَمَهُ ظَهَرَ وَبَاطِنًا وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَن يُجَادِلُ فِي اللَّهِ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ وَلَا هُدًى وَلَا كِتَابٍ مُّنِيرٍ ﴿٢٠﴾ وَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمُ اتَّبِعُوا مَا أَنزَلَ اللَّهُ قَالُوا بَلْ نَنبَغُ مَا وَجَدْنَا عَلَيْهِ آبَاءَنَا أَوَلَوْ كَانَ الشَّيْطَانُ يَدْعُوهُمْ إِلَىٰ عَذَابِ السَّعِيرِ ﴿٢١﴾﴾ (سورة لقمان: ٢٠-٢١)

- 31:20. Do you not see that Allah has made all that is in the heavens and on earth to be of service to you, and He has showered you with His blessings, both apparent and hidden? Yet among people there are some who dispute about Allah without knowledge, without guidance and without any clear revealed text.
- 31:21. When it is said to them: Follow what Allah has revealed, they say: Nay, we will follow the ways of our forefathers. [Would they do that] even if Shayṭān is calling them to the punishment of the raging fire?

Here Allah (ﷻ) reminds His slaves of his blessings and calls upon them to give thanks for it and acknowledge it, and not to be heedless about it.

﴿Do you not see﴾ that is, do you not witness and see with your own eyes, and think of it in your hearts
 ﴿that Allah has made all that is in the heavens﴾ of the sun, moon, and stars, which He has made to be of service and benefit to people
 ﴿and on earth﴾ of animals, trees, crops, rivers, metals and the like – as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿It is He Who has created for you all things that are on earth...﴾
(al-Baqarah 2: 29)

﴿to be of service to you, and He has showered you with His blessings﴾ that is, He has bestowed His blessings upon you in abundance

﴿His blessings﴾ both visible and hidden, those of which we are aware and those which are hidden from us, worldly blessings and spiritual blessings, granting good things and warding off harm. So your job is to give thanks for these blessings by loving the Bestower, submitting to Him and using them to help you obey Him, not using any of them to disobey Him.

﴿Yet﴾ even though these blessings keep coming, one after another,

«among people there are some» who do not give thanks for them; rather they are ungrateful for them and they disbelieve in the One Who bestows them; they deny the truth that He revealed in His Books and with which He sent His Messengers. So they «dispute about Allah» that is, they dispute on the basis of falsehood, trying to undermine the truth, and on that basis they reject what the Messenger (ﷺ) brought of the command to worship Allah alone. The one who argues in this manner has no understanding, so his argument is not based on knowledge, such that he might be left to carry on and his words might be tolerated

«without guidance» that people could follow «and without any clear revealed text» that explains the truth, so that his argument is not based on any rational foundation or religious texts, and it is not based on following those who are guided. Rather his argument about Allah is based on imitating forefathers who were not guided and who in fact misguided others.

Hence Allah says:

«When it is said to them: Follow what Allah has revealed» at the hands of His Messengers, for it is the truth, and clear proof is presented to them,

«they say», objecting to that:

«Nay, we will follow the ways of our forefathers» and we will not give up what we found our forefathers following for the words of anyone, no matter who he is.

Allah (ﷻ) said, refuting them and their forefathers: «[Would they do that] even if Shayṭān is calling them to the punishment of the raging fire?» And their forefathers responded to the Shayṭān, following him and becoming his students, and thus they became confused.

Does that dictate that they should follow them and walk their path? Rather that should make them too scared to follow their path, and highlight their misguidance and the misguidance of those who followed them.

The call of the Shayṭān to their forefathers and to them was not based on love or friendship towards them; rather it was based on enmity towards them and on deceiving them. In fact, his followers are among his enemies over whom he was able to gain control, and he was very satisfied when the punishment of the raging fire became inevitable for them as a result of their accepting his call.

وَمَنْ يُسْلِمْ وَجْهَهُ إِلَى اللَّهِ وَهُوَ مُحْسِنٌ فَقَدْ اسْتَمْسَكَ بِالْعُرْوَةِ الْوُثْقَىٰ وَإِلَى اللَّهِ عَاقِبَةُ الْأُمُورِ ﴿٢٢﴾ وَمَنْ كَفَرَ فَلَا يَحْزَنكَ كُفْرُهُ ۖ إِلَيْنَا مَرْجِعُهُمْ فَنُنَبِّئُهُمْ بِمَا عَمِلُوا ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ ﴿٢٣﴾ نَمْنَعُهُمْ قَلِيلًا ثُمَّ نَضْطَرُّهُمْ إِلَىٰ عَذَابٍ غَلِيظٍ ﴿٢٤﴾ (سورة لقمان: ٢٢-٢٤)

- 31:22. Whoever submits himself [completely] to Allah and is a doer of good has grasped the most trustworthy hand-hold. Allah decides the outcome of all matters.
- 31:23. Whoever disbelieves, do not let his disbelief sadden you. To Us they will return, and We will inform them about what they used to do. Verily Allah knows well what is in [their] hearts.
- 31:24. We will allow them to enjoy life for a little while, then We will drive them to a harsh punishment.

«Whoever submits himself [completely] to Allah» that is, he humbles himself before Him and submits to Him by doing what is prescribed by Islamic teaching, with sincere devotion to Him alone «and is a doer of good» in that submission, in the sense that his good deeds are in accordance with Islam, following the Messenger (ﷺ). Or it may be that what is meant is: whoever submits himself (completely) to Allah by doing all acts of worship, and he does them well so that he worships Allah as if he sees Him, and if he does not see Him, Allah sees him; or: whoever submits himself (completely) to Allah by fulfilling his duties towards Him, and does good in the sense that he is kind towards the slaves of Allah and fulfils his duties towards them.

These meanings are all interconnected and there is no real difference between them, for they all point towards carrying out all the duties enjoined by Islam and doing all Islamic duties in an acceptable and perfect manner. Whoever does that has surrendered to Allah and ﴿has grasped the most trustworthy hand-hold﴾ that is, the hand-hold by which, whoever grasps it will attain certainty and be saved and delivered from doom, and will attain all good.

Whoever does not submit himself (completely) to Allah and do good has not grasped the most trustworthy hand-hold, and if he has not grasped the most trustworthy hand-hold, there can be nothing but doom and destruction.

﴿Allah decides the outcome of all matters﴾ that is, all matters will return to Him in the end, then He will pass judgement among His slaves and will requite them in accordance with their deeds and where those deeds led them to. So let them prepare for that.

﴿Whoever disbelieves, do not let his disbelief sadden you﴾, because you (O Muhammad ﷺ) have done what you were obliged to do of calling them and conveying the message. If they are not guided, your reward is still due from Allah and there is no point in grieving for anyone's not being guided, for if there had been any good in him, Allah would have guided him.

Do not grieve also for their showing enmity towards you, opposing you and persisting in their misguidance and disbelief.

For verily ﴿To Us they will return, and We will inform them about what they used to do﴾ of disbelief, enmity and striving to extinguish the light of Allah and harm His Messengers.

﴿Verily Allah knows well what is in [their] hearts﴾ which is not spoken of, so how about that which is said openly and seen by people?

﴿We will allow them to enjoy life for a little while﴾ in this world, so that they may increase in sin and their punishment may become greater

﴿then We will drive them to a harsh punishment﴾ that is, a punishment that will reach the highest degree of grievousness and will be terrifying, immense, severe and painful.

﴿وَلَيِّنْ سَأَلَتَهُمْ مَنْ خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ لَيَقُولُنَّ اللَّهُ ۚ قُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ ۚ بَلْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٢٥﴾ لِلَّهِ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْغَنِيُّ الْحَمِيدُ ﴿٢٦﴾ وَلَوْ أَنَّ مَا فِي الْأَرْضِ مِنْ شَجَرَةٍ أَقْلَمٌ وَالْبَحْرُ يَمُدُّهُ مِنْ بَعْدِهِ سَبْعَةُ أَنْجَارٍ مَا نَفَذْتُ كَلِمَتُ اللَّهِ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَزِيزٌ حَكِيمٌ ﴿٢٧﴾ مَا خَلَقَكُمْ وَلَا يَعْسُكُمْ إِلَّا كَنَفْسٍ وَاحِدَةٍ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ سَمِيعٌ بَصِيرٌ ﴿٢٨﴾﴾ (سورة لقمان: ٢٥-٢٨)

- 31:25. If you ask them who created the heavens and the earth, they will surely say: Allah. Say: Praise be to Allah. But most of them do not understand.
- 31:26. To Allah belongs all that is in the heavens and on earth. Verily Allah is Self-Sufficient, Worthy of all praise.
- 31:27. If all the trees on earth were pens, and the sea [was ink], replenished by seven more seas, the words of Allah would still not be exhausted. Verily Allah is Almighty, Most Wise.
- 31:28. The creation and resurrection of all of you are [for Allah, as easy] as [the creation and the resurrection of] a single soul. Verily Allah is All-Hearing, All-Seeing.

That is, if you ask these polytheists who reject the truth ﴿who created the heavens and the earth﴾, they will realise that the idols never created any of that, and they will hasten to say that it is Allah alone Who created them.

So ﴿Say﴾ to them, making them follow through with that idea, and presenting an argument based on what they accepted (that Allah is the Creator of all things) to prove that they were wrong with regard to what they denied (namely the oneness of Allah and His being the only One Who is deserving of worship):

﴿Praise be to Allah﴾ Who has made the light shine clearly and has shown evidence against you from your own selves. For if they understood, they would affirm that the One Who is the only Creator and Controller is the only One Who deserves to be worshipped and to be acknowledged as the only God. But ﴿most of them do not understand﴾; therefore they ascribed others as partners to Him and were content with the contradictions in their beliefs, in a manner that reflects confusion and doubt, not in a manner that reflects understanding.

Then Allah mentions in these two verses examples of how all-encompassing His attributes are, so as to call His slaves to know Him, love Him and devote their worship to Him alone.

Allah tells us that His dominion includes everything, and all that is in the heavens and on earth – which includes both the upper and lower realms – belongs to Him and He controls all of that in accordance with His divine will and decree, and in accordance with His religious commands and prohibitions, and in accordance with His rulings on reward and punishment.

All of them are slaves under His control, and they have no share in dominion. He possesses all things and He does not need what any of His creatures need.

﴿I seek no provision from them, nor do I want them to feed Me.﴾
(adh-Dhāriyāt 51: 57)

The deeds of the Prophets, the strong and true in faith, the martyrs and the righteous do not benefit Allah in the slightest; rather they only benefit the doers, and Allah has no need of them or their deeds. Part of His possessing everything is that He gives them what they need in this world and the hereafter.

Then Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He is worthy of all praise, and that praiseworthiness is one of His essential attributes; He cannot be but praiseworthy in all ways, thus He is praiseworthy in His essence, and He is praiseworthy in His attributes. For each of His attributes, He deserves the most perfect praise, because they are attributes of greatness and perfection. He is to be praised for everything that He does and creates, and for everything that He enjoins and forbids. He is to be praised for everything that He has decreed for people and for every judgement that He passes between people, in this world and the hereafter.

Then He tells us of the vastness and greatness of His words, in a manner that deeply penetrates the heart, dazzles the mind, and instils wonder, and makes people of reason and understanding contemplate the depths of its meanings:

﴿If all the trees on earth were pens﴾ with which to write ﴿and the sea [was ink], replenished by seven more seas﴾ of ink, as an additional supply, those pens would break and that ink would run out, yet ﴿the words of Allah﴾ (ﷻ) would not be exhausted.

This is not an exaggeration that has no basis in reality; rather because Allah (ﷻ) knows that human minds are unable to fully comprehend some of His attributes, and He knows that for His slaves, knowing Him is the greatest blessing that He may bestow upon them and the best virtue they could attain, but it is not possible for them to fully understand the divine attributes as they really are – although that which cannot be attained in full should not be forsaken altogether – He pointed out to them this example so as to illuminate their hearts, put their minds at ease and enable them to grasp an idea by means of which they may gain some understanding of what they cannot grasp in full. Hence they may say what the best of them, the one who had the greatest knowledge of his Lord, said:

«We cannot praise You enough; You are as You have praised Yourself.»
(Muslim)

Otherwise the matter is much greater than that.

This likeness is by way of simplifying the concept so that people may have some understanding of it, although it cannot be fully grasped. Otherwise even if the trees and seas were many times more than what is mentioned, it can be imagined that they would run out and be exhausted, because they are created things. But when it comes to the words of Allah (ﷻ), it cannot be imagined that they would run out; rather rational and textual evidence indicates that they will never run out and never cease, for everything has an end except the Creator and His attributes.

If one tries to imagine the facts about Allah (ﷻ) that state that He is the First and the Last, whatever one can imagine of times of the past, no matter how far into the past he may go in his imagination, Allah (ﷻ) existed before that, from eternity. And no matter how far into the future he may go in his imagination, Allah (ﷻ) will exist after that, unto eternity, without end.

At all times – past, present and future – Allah has been, is and always will be speaking, saying and doing whatever He wills. When He wills something, nothing can stand in the way of His words and actions. If the mind can understand the above, we will understand that the likeness that Allah gives of His words here is only to give people an idea about them; otherwise, the matter is far greater than that.

Then Allah mentions the majestic nature of His might and the perfect nature of His wisdom:

﴿Verily Allah is Almighty, Most Wise﴾ that is, all might belongs to Him, and whatever power exists in the upper and lower realms comes from Him, and He gave it to His creation. There is no power and no strength except with Him. By His might He subjugated all of creation, and He controls them. By His wisdom, He created all things and He initiated creation on the basis of wisdom, making the ultimate aims and goals behind creation based on wisdom. His commands and prohibitions are also based on wisdom, and His ultimate aim and goal is wisdom. Hence He is the Most Wise in all that He creates and commands.

Then He tells us of the greatness and perfect nature of His power, and that no mind can imagine it:

﴿The creation and resurrection of all of you are [for Allah, as easy] as [the creation and the resurrection of] a single soul﴾. This is something that astounds people, that the creation of all of humankind – with their great numbers, and their resurrection after death in a single moment, after they had been scattered – is like the creation of a single soul. So there is no reason to think that the resurrection and requital for deeds is unlikely to happen, except for ignorance of the greatness and immense power of Allah.

Then He tells us how He hears all sounds and sees all things: ﴿Verily Allah is All-Hearing, All-Seeing﴾.

﴿أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يُولِجُ اللَّيْلَ فِي النَّهَارِ وَيُولِجُ النَّهَارَ فِي اللَّيْلِ وَسَخَّرَ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ كُلٌّ يَجْرِي إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرٌ﴾ (٣٠) ﴿ذَٰلِكَ بِأَنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْحَقُّ وَأَنَّ مَا يَدْعُونَ مِن دُونِهِ الْبَاطِلُ وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْعَلِيُّ الْكَبِيرُ﴾ (٣١) (سورة لقمان: ٢٩-٣٠)

- 31:29. Do you not see that Allah causes the night to encroach upon the day, and the day to encroach upon the night; that He has made the sun and moon to be of service, each running its course for an appointed time; and that Allah is well aware of all that you do?
- 31:30. That is because Allah is the Truth, and those they call upon besides Him are sheer falsehood. Verily Allah is the Most High, the Most Great.

This also points to the fact that Allah alone is in control and managing the affairs of creation, and by means of the vastness of His control He causes the night to encroach upon the day, and the day to encroach upon the night, meaning that one of them infringes upon the other, so when one of them comes, the other one departs.

He has made the sun and moon to be of service, both of them running the course set for them, according to a system that has not faltered since they were created, so that there may be a great deal of benefit for people, and their interests may be served in their religious and worldly affairs, because of which they may contemplate and pay heed.

﴿each﴾ of them (the sun and moon)
﴿running its course for an appointed time﴾ – when that time ends, they will stop running and will lose their positions. That will be on the Day of Resurrection, when the sun will be folded up and the moon will become dark, the world will end and the hereafter will begin.

﴿and that Allah is well aware of all that you do﴾ of good and evil, for nothing is hidden from Him, and He will requite you for those deeds, rewarding those who were obedient and punishing those who were disobedient.

﴿That﴾ which has been explained to you of His greatness and attributes

﴿is because Allah is the Truth﴾ in His essence and His attributes. His religion is true, His Messengers are true, His promise is true, His warning is true, and worship of Him alone is true.

﴿and those they call upon besides Him are sheer falsehood﴾ in their essence and attributes. If Allah had not created them, they would not exist, and if He had not sustained them they would not have survived. If it is false, then worship of it is even more false.

﴿Verily Allah is the Most High﴾ in His essence, above all of His creation. His attributes are so sublime that they cannot be compared with the attributes of any of His creation; He is above His creation, so He subdued them ﴿the Most Great﴾ to Whom belongs all greatness in His essence and attributes, and He is held in the highest esteem by the inhabitants of both heaven and earth.

﴿الَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ الْفُلَاقَ تَجْرِي فِي الْبَحْرِ بِنِعْمَتِ اللَّهِ لِيُرِيَكُمْ مِنْ آيَاتِهِ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِكُلِّ صَبَّارٍ شَكُورٍ ﴿٣١﴾ وَإِذَا غَشِيَهُمْ مَوَاجٌ كَازِلَةٌ دَعَوْا اللَّهَ مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ فَلَمَّا نَجَّاهُمْ إِلَى الْبَرِّ فَمِنْهُمْ مُقْنَصِدٌ وَمَا يَجْحَدُ بِآيَاتِنَا إِلَّا كُلُّ خَتَّارٍ كَفُورٍ ﴿٣٢﴾﴾

(سورة لقمان: ٣١-٣٢)

- 31:31. Do you not see that the ships sail on the sea by the grace of Allah, so that He may show you some of His signs? Surely in that there are signs for every steadfastly patient and deeply thankful person.
- 31:32. When waves loom over them like the canopy [of clouds], they call upon Allah, with sincere devotion to Him alone, but when He has delivered them safely to the shore, some of them become lukewarm. But no one rejects Our signs except the perfidious and the ungrateful.

That is, do you not see that one of the signs of His power, mercy and care for His slaves is that He has made the sea to be of service to them, and the ships sail on it by His command and decree, and by His kindness and favour?

﴿so that He may show you some of His signs﴾ because in His signs there is a great deal of benefit and much to contemplate.

﴿Surely in that there are signs for every steadfastly patient and deeply thankful person﴾ for they are the ones who benefit from the signs; they are steadfastly patient in bearing hardship and deeply thankful at times of ease. They are steadfastly patient in obeying Allah and refraining from disobedience, and in accepting His decree; and they are deeply thankful to Allah for all blessings, both spiritual and worldly.

Allah (ﷻ) mentions the situation of people when they travel by sea, when waves loom over them like the canopy (of clouds), and how they call upon Allah, with sincere devotion to Him alone.

﴿but when He has delivered them safely to the shore﴾, people are divided into two groups:

One group becomes lukewarm – that is, they do not give proper thanks to Allah; rather they commit sin and wrong themselves.

Another group is ungrateful for the blessing of Allah and denies that blessing. Hence Allah says: ﴿But no one rejects Our signs except the perfidious﴾ that is, betrayers. Part of their betrayal is that they promised their Lord: If You save us from the sea and its hardship, we will be among the grateful. But they betrayed that promise and did not fulfil it ﴿and the ungrateful﴾ who do not give thanks for the blessings of Allah. Is it befitting for those whom Allah saved from this hardship to do anything but give proper thanks for the blessings of Allah?

﴿يَتَأْتِيهَا النَّاسُ أَنْتَقُوا رَبَّكُمْ وَأَخْشَوْا يَوْمًا لَا يَجْزِي وَالِدٌ عَنْ وَلَدِهِ وَلَا مَوْلُودٌ هُوَ جَارٍ
عَنْ وَالِدِهِ شَيْئًا إِنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ فَلَا تَغُرَّنَّكُمُ الْحَيَاةُ الدُّنْيَا وَلَا يَغُرَّنَّكُمْ
بِاللَّهِ الْغُرُورُ﴾ (سورة لقمان: ٣٣)

31:33. O humankind, fear your Lord and dread a day when no father will avail his child and no child will avail his father at all. Verily the promise of Allah is true, so do not let the life of this world deceive you, or let any deceiver deceive you concerning Allah.

Here Allah (ﷻ) instructs people to fear Him, which means complying with His commands and refraining from what He forbids. He also reminds them to fear the Day of Resurrection, that difficult day when no one will care for anyone except himself, and ﴿no father will avail his child and no child will avail his father at all﴾. No one will be able to increase his good deeds or decrease his bad deeds; everyone's deeds will have been decided and the requital for those deeds will become due.

Allah draws our attention to this momentous day so as to give the individual strength and make it easier for him to fear Allah and comply with His commands. By His mercy towards His slaves, Allah instructs them to fear Him, which will lead to bliss, and He promises reward for that; and He warns of the punishment, motivating them through exhortation and admonition. To You be all praise, O Lord of the worlds.

﴿Verily the promise of Allah is true﴾ so do not doubt it and do not act like one who does not believe. Hence Allah says: ﴿so do not let the life of this world deceive you﴾ with its adornments and attractions, and what it contains of temptations and trials. ﴿or let any deceiver deceive you concerning Allah﴾ – this refers to the Shayṭān, who keeps trying to deceive man and never slackens in his efforts at any time. Allah has rights over His slaves, and He has set an appointed time for them when He will requite them for their deeds, whether they fulfilled their duty towards Him or fell short.

This is a matter to which one must pay attention, and keep it in mind at all times, basing all his affairs on that.

One of the greatest obstacles and hindrances that he faces is this tempting world, and the Shayṭān who whispers to him and tries to mislead him. Allah has forbidden His slaves to be deceived by this world or to be deceived by the deceivers concerning Allah.

﴿[Shayṭān] makes promises to them and fills them with false hopes; but Shayṭān makes promises to them only in order to deceive them.﴾
(an-Nisā' 4: 120)

﴿إِنَّ اللَّهَ عِنْدَهُ عِلْمُ السَّاعَةِ وَيُنَزِّلُ الْغَيْثَ وَيَعْلَمُ مَا فِي الْأَرْحَامِ وَمَا تَدْرِي نَفْسٌ
مَّاذَا تَكْسِبُ غَدًا وَمَا تَدْرِي نَفْسٌ بِأَيِّ أَرْضٍ تَمُوتُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمٌ خَبِيرٌ﴾
(سورة لقمان: ٣٤)

31:34. Verily Allah alone has knowledge of the Hour; it is He Who sends down rain and He knows what every womb contains. No soul knows what it will do on the morrow, and no soul knows in what land it will die. Verily Allah is All-Knowing, All-Aware.

It is established that the knowledge of Allah (ﷻ) encompasses both the unseen and the seen, the visible and the hidden. Allah (ﷻ) may inform His slaves about many unseen matters, but these five things are things of which knowledge is withheld from all creatures, and they are not known to any Prophet who was sent or any angel who is close to Allah, let alone other creatures.

﴿Verily Allah alone has knowledge of the Hour﴾ that is, He alone knows when it will begin, as He says elsewhere:

﴿They ask you about the Hour: when will it come to pass? Say: The knowledge thereof is with my Lord [alone]. None but He can disclose when its time will come. It will weigh heavily on the heavens and the earth; it will not come upon you but suddenly...﴾ (al-A'raf 7: 187)

﴿(it is He Who sends down rain)﴾ that is, He is the only One Who sends it down, and knows the time when it will come down.

﴿(and He knows what every womb contains)﴾ for He is the One Who created what is in the womb; He knows what it is, and whether it is male or female. Hence the angel who is appointed over the womb asks his Lord: Is it male or female? And Allah decrees whatever He wills.

﴿No soul knows what it will do on the morrow﴾ in either spiritual or worldly terms.

﴿and no soul knows in what land it will die﴾; rather it is Allah alone Who has knowledge of all these things.

Having singled out these things for mention, Allah (ﷻ) then highlights the fact that He knows all things, as He says:

﴿Verily Allah is All-Knowing, All-Aware﴾ and His knowledge encompasses all things, visible and hidden, subtle matters and what is in people's hearts. By His perfect wisdom, He has withheld knowledge of these five things from His slaves, because that serves some interests, as is clear to anyone who reflects and ponders the matter.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat Luqmān.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

32. Soorat as-Sajdah

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَنْزَلَ عَلَىكَ الْكِتَابَ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهِ مِنْ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١﴾ أَمْ يَقُولُونَ
أَفْتَرَيْنَاهُ بَلْ هُوَ الْحَقُّ مِنْ رَبِّكَ لِنُنْذِرَ قَوْمًا مَّا أَتَتْهُمْ مِنْ نَذِيرٍ مِنْ قَبْلِكَ لَعَلَّهُمْ
يَهْتَدُونَ ﴿٢﴾ (سورة السجدة: ١-٣)

32:1. Alif. Lãm. Meem.<sup>46</sup>

32:2. The revelation of the Book, concerning which there is no doubt, is from the Lord of the worlds.

32:3. Or do they say: He has fabricated it? Nay, it is the truth from your Lord, so that you may warn people to whom no warner was sent before you, in order that they may be guided.

---

<sup>46</sup> Groups of letters (al-ḥuroof al-muqatta‘ah) appear at the beginning of several soorahs. The most correct scholarly view states that we are required to believe in them as they appear to be, without delving into their meaning, knowledge of which we should leave to Allah. We believe that they were not revealed in vain, and that there is wisdom behind them of which we are not aware.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that this noble Book has been sent down from the Lord of the worlds, Who cares for them and showers them with His blessings.

One of the greatest means through which Allah educated, cared for and guided people is this Book, in which is all that could put their affairs straight and perfect their manners. It is the Book concerning which there are no doubts, ambiguity or confusion. Yet despite that, the disbelievers said of the Messenger (ﷺ), wrongfully: Muhammad has fabricated it and made it up by himself. This is the greatest audacity in rejecting the words of Allah and accusing Muhammad (ﷺ) of the greatest of lies, assuming that a human is able to produce words like the words of the Creator. Each one of these things is a major offence.

Allah says – refuting those who claimed that he had fabricated it: ﴿Nay, it is the truth﴾ which falsehood cannot reach from before it or behind it – it is a revelation from One Who is Most Wise, Praiseworthy (cf. 41: 42).

﴿from your Lord﴾ Who sent it down as a mercy to His slaves ﴿so that you may warn people to whom no warner was sent before you﴾ that is, they are in a state of need for the sending of the Messenger (ﷺ) and the revelation of the Book, because there has been no warner before; rather they were wandering blindly in their ignorance and misguidance. So We have sent down the Book to you, ﴿in order that they may be guided﴾ away from their misguidance, and they may come to know the truth and give it precedence.

All the things that Allah mentions here are contrary to their lies about the Qur'an, and require them to have strong faith in it and believe that it is indeed ﴿from the Lord of the worlds﴾ and that it is ﴿the truth﴾, for the truth is to be accepted in all cases, and that ﴿there is no doubt﴾ concerning it in any way whatsoever. There is nothing in it to make one doubt, no story that does not speak of exactly what happened, and nothing of which the meaning is unclear and confusing. They are in need of the message, and in the Qur'an there is guidance to all that is good.

﴿اللَّهُ الَّذِي خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا فِي سِتَّةِ أَيَّامٍ ثُمَّ اسْتَوَىٰ عَلَى الْعَرْشِ
مَا لَكُمْ مِنْ دُونِهِ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ وَلَا شَفِيعٍ أَفَلَا تَتَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٤﴾ يُدِيرُ الْأَمْرَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ إِلَى
الْأَرْضِ ثُمَّ يَعْرُجُ إِلَيْهِ فِي يَوْمٍ كَانَ مِقْدَارُهُ أَلْفَ سَنَةٍ مِمَّا تَعُدُّونَ ﴿٥﴾ ذَلِكَ عَلِيمُ
الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿٦﴾ الَّذِي أَحْسَنَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ خَلْقَهُ وَبَدَأَ خَلْقَ
الْإِنْسَانِ مِنْ طِينٍ ﴿٧﴾ ثُمَّ جَعَلَ نَسْلَهُ مِنْ سُلَالَةٍ مِّنْ مَّاءٍ مَّهِينٍ ﴿٨﴾ ثُمَّ سَوَّاهُ وَنَفَخَ
فِيهِ مِنْ رُّوحِهِ ۖ وَجَعَلَ لَكُمُ السَّمْعَ وَالْأَبْصَارَ وَالْأَفْئِدَةَ ۚ قَلِيلًا مَّا تَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٩﴾﴾

(سورة السجدة: ٤-٩)

- 32:4. It is Allah Who created the heavens and the earth, and all that is between them, in six days, and then rose over the Throne [in a manner that befits His Majesty]. You have no protector or intercessor to deliver you from His [punishment]. Will you not then pay heed?
- 32:5. He governs all things from heaven to earth, then everything will ascend to Him<sup>47</sup> on a day the length of which is one thousand years by your reckoning.
- 32:6. Such is the Knower of the unseen and the seen, the Almighty, the Most Merciful,
- 32:7. Who created all things well and initiated the creation of man from clay,
- 32:8. Then He made his offspring from the extract of an insignificant fluid.
- 32:9. Then He fashioned him and breathed into him the soul which He created for him. He gave you hearing, sight and intellect; little it is that you give thanks.

<sup>47</sup> That is, all things will return to Allah on the Day of Resurrection and He will judge between people. (Ibn 'Ashoor, at-Tahreer wat-Tanweer).

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the perfect nature of His might by referring to the fact that He created ﴿the heavens and the earth, and all that is between them, in six days﴾, the first of which was Sunday and the last was Friday, even though He was able to create them in an instant, but He is Most Kind, Most Wise.

﴿and then rose over the Throne﴾ which is the roof of creation; He rose over it in a manner that befits His Majesty.

﴿You have no protector﴾ who can protect you and care for you
﴿or intercessor﴾ who can intercede for you, if He decides to punish you

﴿to deliver you from His [punishment]﴾.

﴿Will you not then pay heed﴾ and realise that the Creator of the earth and the heavens, Who rose over the mighty Throne, the only One Who is controlling you and in charge of you, and to whom all intercession belongs, is the only one who deserves all kinds of worship?

﴿He governs all things﴾ and decrees what is to happen and what is permissible, for He is the only One Who controls all things; all these decrees come down from the omnipotent Sovereign,

﴿from heaven to earth﴾, and by means of them He will bless some and doom others, make some rich and others poor, honour some and humiliate others, raise some in status and lower others, and send down provision.

﴿then everything will ascend to Him on a day the length of which is one thousand years by your reckoning﴾.

﴿Such﴾ – namely the One Who created all these mighty things, Who rose over the mighty Throne and Who alone is in control of His dominion,

﴿is the Knower of the unseen and the seen, the Almighty, the Most Merciful﴾. By virtue of his vast knowledge, the perfect nature of His might and His all-encompassing mercy, He created it and instilled in it all kinds of benefits, and He never wearies of controlling it and running its affairs.

«Who created all things well» that is, everything that Allah has created, He has created it well, giving it a specific shape and form that befits it and is in harmony with the purpose of its creation. This is general in meaning and applies to all creation.

Then He singles out the human being, because of his honour and virtue, and says: «and initiated the creation of man from clay» – this refers to the creation of Adam (ﷺ), the father of humanity.

«Then He made his offspring» namely the progeny of Adam; He caused them to originate from «the extract of an insignificant fluid» namely the sperm drop, which is regarded as dirty and insignificant.

«Then He fashioned him» with his flesh, bones, sinews and veins; He created him well and placed every faculty and body part in the best and most appropriate place, and no other place could be better «and breathed into him the soul which He created for him» by sending to him the angel who breathed the soul into him, and by Allah's leave he became animate after having been inanimate.

«He gave you hearing [and] sight» that is, He kept giving you benefits and all that you need, gradually, until He gave you hearing and sight «and intellect; little it is that you give thanks» to the One Who created you and fashioned you.

﴿وَقَالُوا أَإِذَا ضَلَلْنَا فِي الْأَرْضِ أَإِنَّا لَفِي خَلْقٍ جَدِيدٍ ۚ بَلْ هُمْ بِلِقَاءِ رَبِّهِمْ كَافِرُونَ ﴿١٠﴾ قُلْ يَتُوبُ إِلَيْكُمْ مَلِكُ الْمَوْتِ الَّذِي وُكِّلَ بِكُمْ ثُمَّ إِلَيْنَا تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿١١﴾﴾ (سورة السجدة: ١٠-١١)

(١١-١٠)

32:10. They say: What! When we have been [buried and] lost in the earth, will we then be created anew? In fact, they deny the meeting with their Lord.

32:11. Say [O Muhammad]: The Angel of Death, who has been given charge of you, will take your souls [in death], then to your Lord you will be brought back.

---

That is, those who disbelieve in the resurrection say, by way of finding it far-fetched:

﴿What! When we have been [buried and] lost in the earth﴾ that is, when we have disintegrated and our remains have scattered and dispersed to places unknown,

﴿will we then be created anew?﴾ That is, will we be resurrected anew? They claimed that this was a most far-fetched notion, and that was because they compared the power of the Creator with their own power.

These words of theirs do not reflect an attitude of seeking the truth; rather it is the result of wrongdoing, stubbornness, disbelief in the meeting with their Lord, and denial. Hence Allah says:

﴿In fact, they deny the meeting with their Lord﴾ so it is quite clear what the basis and aim of the statement are. Otherwise, if their aim had been to find out the truth, the Qur'an could have given them definitive proof of the resurrection that would make the issue as clear as the light of day.

It is sufficient for them that they know that they were created from nothing, so repeating their creation is easier than originating it. Another proof is the dead earth: Allah sends down rain to it and revives it after its death, and brings forth plants from scattered seeds.

﴿Say [O Muhammad]: The Angel of Death, who has been given charge of you﴾ that is, Allah has appointed him to take people's souls, and he has helpers, ﴿will take your souls [in death], then to your Lord you will be brought back﴾, then He will requite you for your deeds. But you denied the resurrection, so wait and see what Allah will do to you.

﴿وَلَوْ تَرَىٰ إِذِ الْمَجْرُومُونَ تَاكُسُوا رُءُوسِهِمْ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ رَبَّنَا أَبْصَرْنَا وَسَمِعْنَا فَارْجِعْنَا نَعْمَلْ صَالِحًا إِنَّا مُوقِنُونَ ﴿١٢﴾ وَلَوْ شِئْنَا لَآتَيْنَا كُلَّ نَفْسٍ هُدًىهَا وَلَكِنْ حَقَّ الْقَوْلُ مِنِّي لَأَمْلَأَنَّ جَهَنَّمَ مِنَ الْجِنَّةِ وَالنَّاسِ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿١٣﴾ فَذُوقُوا بِمَا نَسِيتُمْ لِقَاءَ يَوْمِكُمْ هَٰذَا إِنَّا نَسِينَاكُمْ وَذُوقُوا عَذَابَ الْخُلْدِ بِمَا كُنتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٤﴾﴾ (سورة السجدة: ١٢-١٤)

- 32:12. If only you could see when the evildoers hang their heads before their Lord, [and say]: Our Lord, We have seen and we have heard. Send us back [to the world]; we will do righteous deeds, for now we believe with certainty.
- 32:13. If We had so willed, We could have given every soul its guidance, but My decree will be fulfilled: I will certainly fill hell with jinn and men, all together.
- 32:14. So taste the consequences of your forgetting the meeting of this day of yours. We, too, will forget you, so taste the eternal punishment for what you used to do.

Having mentioned how they will be brought back to Him on the Day of Resurrection, and how they will be when they stand before Him, Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿If only you could see when the evildoers﴾ who persisted in grave sins; that is, you would see something terrible and alarming: people who are losers, who will ask but receive no response, because the time for respite is over.

﴿hang their heads before their Lord﴾ humbled and humiliated, acknowledging their wrongdoing, and asking to go back, saying:

﴿Our Lord, We have seen and we have heard﴾ that is, the matter has become clear to us, for we have seen with our own eyes and we have become certain.

﴿Send us back [to the world]; we will do righteous deeds, for now we believe with certainty﴾ that is, now we are certain of that in which we used to disbelieve.

All of this happens by the will and decree of Allah, as He did not protect them from disbelief and sin. Hence He says: ﴿If We had so willed, We could have given every soul its guidance﴾ that is, We would have guided all people, and We would have united them in following true guidance, for Our will is able to do that. But wisdom dictated that they should not all be guided. Hence Allah says:

﴿but My decree will be fulfilled﴾ that is, it is inevitable and confirmed, and cannot be changed.

﴿I will certainly fill hell with jinn and men, all together﴾. This is a promise that will inevitably come to pass and cannot be avoided, so the means and causes that lead to that – namely disbelief and sin – must be decreed.

﴿So taste the consequences of your forgetting the meeting of this day of yours﴾ that is, this will be said to the evildoers who are overwhelmed by humiliation and will ask to go back to this world so that they might make up for what they failed to do. But the time for going back will be over, and there will be nothing left but the punishment. So taste the painful punishment for your forgetting the meeting of this day of yours. This forgetting was the result of heedlessness; in other words, because you turned away and failed to strive for that day, it is as if you would never come to it or encounter it.

﴿We, too, will forget you﴾ that is, We will leave you to suffer the punishment, a requital that matches your deeds. Just as you forgot, you will be forgotten.

﴿so taste the eternal punishment﴾ that is, the never-ending punishment, for if the punishment had an end and a set term, that would give some hope of relief. But the punishment of hell – may Allah protect us from it – has no respite and no end.

﴿for what you used to do﴾ of disbelief, evildoing and sin.

﴿ إِنَّمَا يُؤْمِنُ بِآيَاتِنَا الَّذِينَ إِذَا ذُكِّرُوا بِهَا خَرُّوا سُجَّدًا وَسَبَّحُوا بِحَمْدِ رَبِّهِمْ وَهُمْ لَا يَسْتَكْبِرُونَ ﴾ ﴿١٥﴾ نَتَجَافَى جُنُوبَهُمْ عَنِ الْمَضَاجِعِ يَدْعُونَ رَبَّهُمْ خَوْفًا وَطَمَعًا وَمِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ يُنفِقُونَ ﴿١٦﴾ فَلَا تَعْلَمُ نَفْسٌ مَّا أُخْفِيَ لَهُمْ مِنْ قُرَّةِ أَعْيُنٍ جَزَاءً بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٧﴾ (سورة السجدة: ١٥-١٧)

- 32:15. Only those believe in Our revelations who, when they are reminded of them, fall down in prostration, and glorify and praise their Lord, and they are not arrogant;
- 32:16. who forsake their beds,<sup>48</sup> calling upon their Lord with fear and hope, and spend out of what We have provided for them.
- 32:17. No soul knows what is kept hidden in store for them of delight as a reward for what they used to do.

Having mentioned those who rejected His revelations and what He has prepared for them of punishment, Allah (ﷻ) now mentions those who believe in them and describes them and what He has prepared for them of reward:

﴿Only those believe in Our revelations﴾ that is, belief in a true sense, on the part of those who show signs of faith.

They are those who, ﴿when they are reminded of﴾ the revelations of their Lord, and the verses of the Qur'an were recited to them, and advice came to them on the lips of the Messengers of Allah, and they were called to pay heed, they would hear the message, accept it and submit to it, and they would ﴿fall down in prostration﴾ that is, they would submit and have the joy of knowing Allah.

﴿and glorify and praise their Lord, and they are not arrogant﴾; they are not arrogant either in their hearts or in their actions. Therefore they do not refrain from submitting and acting in a humble manner towards the revelations, for they accept them and submit to them, they feel at ease with them and surrender to them, thereby attaining the pleasure of the Most Merciful Lord, and being guided to the straight path.

<sup>48</sup> This refers to staying awake to offer voluntary prayers during the night.

﴿who forsake their beds﴾ that is, they leave their beds and keep away from the comfort thereof for the sake of something that is more enjoyable and dearer to them, namely prayer at night, conversing with Allah (ﷻ).

Hence Allah says: ﴿calling upon their Lord﴾ that is, in order to attain that which will benefit them in spiritual and worldly terms, and to ward off that which will harm them ﴿with fear and hope﴾ that is, combining these two qualities, namely fear of their good deeds being rejected and hope that those deeds will be accepted; fearing the punishment of Allah and hoping for His reward.

﴿and spend out of what We have provided for them﴾ of sustenance, whether it be small or great. Allah does not mention how much they spend, or who the recipients are, so as to indicate that this is general in application. It includes both obligatory spending, such as zakâh, expiations, and spending on wives and relatives; spending that is encouraged, such as spending on various charitable causes; and spending money in order to be kind to others in general, whether one is showing kindness to rich or poor, relatives or strangers. But the reward varies according to the extent of the benefit. This refers to their deeds.

As for the requital for their deeds, Allah says: ﴿No soul knows﴾ – this includes all souls and indicates that no soul at all knows ﴿what is kept hidden in store for them of delight﴾ namely much good, abundant blessings, joy, happiness and pleasure, as Allah has told us on the lips of His Messenger (ﷺ):

«I have prepared for My righteous slaves that which no eye has seen, no ear has heard, nor has it ever crossed the mind of any man.»
(Bukhari and Muslim)

Just as they pray at night and call upon Him, and conceal their good deeds, Allah will reward them in a manner that matches their deeds; therefore He has concealed their reward. Hence He says: «as a reward for what they used to do».

﴿ أَفَمَنْ كَانَ مُؤْمِنًا كَمَنْ كَانَ فَاسِقًا لَا يَسْتَوُونَ ﴾ ۝ ۱۸ أَمَّا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ فَلَهُمْ جَنَّاتُ الْمَأْوَىٰ نُزُلًا بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ۝ ۱۹ وَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ فَسَقُوا فَمَأْوَاهُمُ النَّارُ كُلَّمَا أَرَادُوا أَنْ يَخْرُجُوا مِنْهَا أُعِيدُوا فِيهَا وَقِيلَ لَهُمْ ذُوقُوا عَذَابَ النَّارِ الَّتِي كُنتُمْ بِهِ تُكَذِّبُونَ ﴾ (سورة السجدة: ۱۸-۲۰)

- 32:18. Is one who is a believer like one who is an evildoer? They are not equal.
- 32:19. As for those who believe and do righteous deeds, for them there will be gardens to dwell in, as a recompense for what they used to do.
- 32:20. As for those who rebel and disobey, their abode will be the fire; every time they want to escape from it, they will be driven back into it and it will be said to them: Taste the punishment of the fire which you used to deny!

Here Allah (ﷻ) draws our attention to the established principle that two different things cannot be equal, and that His wisdom dictates that they should not be equal.

«Is one who is a believer» whose heart is filled with faith and he has complied fully with Allah's laws, and his faith has left an impact on his behaviour and attitude, such as refraining from that which incurs the wrath of Allah and deeds that are detrimental to faith, «like one who is an evildoer» whose heart is ruined and devoid of faith, so he has no religious deterrent and therefore he hastens to commit all kinds of sins as a result of ignorance and wrongdoing, and he turns away from obedience to Allah because of his evildoing. Can these two people be equal?

﴿They are not equal﴾ from either a rational or Islamic point of view, just as night and day, light and darkness, cannot be equal. Thus their recompense in the hereafter will not be the same.

﴿As for those who believe and do righteous deeds﴾, both obligatory and supererogatory,

﴿for them there will be gardens to dwell in﴾ that is, gardens in which they will find all kinds of joy and pleasure; they will find happiness, bliss, delight, pleasure, eternal life and the sublime joy of being close to the Sovereign and gazing upon His Countenance and hearing His words.

﴿as a recompense for what they used to do﴾ – for their good deeds, by virtue of what Allah bestowed upon them of His grace, is what enabled them to reach those lofty places that cannot be attained by means of money or by means of troops, servants and children, or even by means of sacrificing lives. Rather they cannot be approached by means of anything at all except faith and righteous deeds.

﴿As for those who rebel and disobey, their abode will be the fire﴾ that is, their eternal abode will be the fire in which are combined all kinds of punishment and wretchedness that will never cease or give them respite for even a moment.

﴿every time they want to escape from it, they will be driven back into it﴾ that is, every time they want to emerge from it, because the pain has reached such a high degree, they will be driven back into it. Hence they will lose any hope of relief and will become extremely distressed.

﴿and it will be said to them: Taste the punishment of the fire which you used to deny!﴾ This is the punishment of the fire, which will be their abode. As for the punishment that comes before that, it is a precursor to it; this is the punishment of al-barzakh (the period between death and resurrection), which is mentioned in the following verse:

﴿وَلَنُذِيقَنَّهُمْ مِنَ الْعَذَابِ الْأَدْنَىٰ دُونَ الْعَذَابِ الْأَكْبَرِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُونَ﴾
(سورة السجدة: ٢١)

32:21. We will surely cause them to taste something of the lesser punishment before the greater punishment, so that they may turn in repentance.

That is, We will cause the evildoers and disbelievers to taste some of the lesser punishment, which is the punishment of al-barzakh. We will cause them to taste a little of it before they die, either by killing and the like, as happened to the polytheists who were slain at Badr, or at the time of death, as mentioned in the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿...If you [O Muhammad] could but see the evildoers when they are in the throes of death and the angels are stretching out their hands [saying]: Give up your souls! Today you will be recompensed with a humiliating punishment...﴾ (al-An'ām 6: 93)

Then the lesser punishment will continue in al-barzakh.

This verse is among the evidence which proves and clearly indicates that there will be punishment in the grave, because Allah says: ﴿We will surely cause them to taste something of the lesser punishment﴾ that is, some of it and part of it. This indicates that there is a lesser punishment before the greater punishment, which is the punishment of hell.

As this taste in this world of the lesser punishment may not be immediately followed by death, Allah tells (ﷻ) them that He will cause them to taste it in the hope that they might turn back and repent from their sins, as He says elsewhere:

﴿Corruption and disorder have appeared on land and sea<sup>49</sup> because of what people's hands have earned. Thus Allah causes them to taste the consequences of some of what they have done, so that they may turn in repentance.﴾ (ar-Room 30: 41)

﴿وَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنْ ذُكِّرَ بِآيَاتِ رَبِّهِ ثُمَّ أَعْرَضَ عَنْهَا إِنَّا مِنَ الْمُجْرِمِينَ مُنْقِمُونَ﴾
(سورة السجدة: ٢٢)

32:22. And who does greater wrong than one who is reminded of the revelations of his Lord, but turns away from them? Verily We will exact retribution upon the evildoers.

That is, no one does greater wrong or commits a worse transgression than one who is reminded of the revelations of his Lord, which his Lord caused to reach him and wants to teach him and perfect His blessings to him at the hands of His Messengers, so that these revelations may instruct him, remind him of what is in his best interests, both spiritual and worldly, and forbid him to do that which is detrimental to his interests both spiritual and worldly, to which he should respond by believing, submitting and giving thanks, – but this wrongdoer responded with the opposite of what he should have done, so he did not believe in them and follow them; rather he turned away from them and ignored them. This is one of the worst of evildoers who deserves the most severe retribution. Hence Allah says: «Verily We will exact retribution upon the evildoers».

<sup>49</sup> This refers to the widespread occurrence of troubles such as drought, fires and floods, poor yield of crops, decline of fish stocks, market stagnation and difficulty in earning a living. That is because of people's sins, including neglect and abuse of the natural environment.

﴿وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْكِتَابَ فَلَا تَكُنْ فِي مِرْيَةٍ مِنْ لِقَائِهِ وَجَعَلْنَاهُ هُدًى لِبَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ ﴿٢٣﴾ وَجَعَلْنَا مِنْهُمْ آيَمَةً يَهْدُونَ يَا مَعْرُوفُ لِمَا صَبَرُوا وَكَانُوا بِآيَاتِنَا يُوقِنُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ هُوَ يَفْصِلُ بَيْنَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ فِيمَا كَانُوا فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ ﴿٢٥﴾﴾ (سورة السجدة: ٢٣-٢٥)

- 32:23. We gave Moosâ the Book, so do not be in doubt concerning the receiving of it; and We made it a guide for the Children of Israel.
- 32:24. We made some of them leaders, guiding people by Our command, because they were patient and steadfast, and they believed with certainty in Our revelations.
- 32:25. Verily it is your Lord Who will judge between them on the Day of Resurrection concerning that wherein they differed.

Having mentioned His revelation by means of which He reminded His slaves – namely the Qur'an which He sent down to Muhammad (ﷺ) – Allah (ﷻ) states that it is nothing new among the divinely-revealed scriptures, and the one who brought it is nothing extraordinary among the Messengers.

For Allah gave to Moosâ the Book – namely the Torah – which confirms the Qur'an. Thus it is proven that they are both true, and the proof of both is established,

«so do not be in doubt concerning the receiving of it» because there is abundant proof and evidence concerning it, and therefore there is no room for doubt.

«and We made it» namely the Book that We gave to Moosâ

«a guide for the Children of Israel» by means of which they were guided with regard to the fundamental and minor issues of their religion, and the laws that were appropriate to the Children of Israel at that time.

With regard to this noble Qur'an, Allah has made it a guide for all people, because it is guidance for humankind with regard to their religious and worldly affairs until the Day of Resurrection, because of its perfect and sublime nature:

«And verily it [this Qur'an] is in the Mother of the Book [al-Lawḥ al-Maḥfūdh], with Us, sublime and full of wisdom.» (az-Zukhruf 43: 4)

«We made some of them» that is, some of the Children of Israel «leaders, guiding people by Our command» that is, scholars of the law, teaching the path of guidance; they were themselves guided and they guided others by means of that guidance. The Book which was revealed to them was guidance, and those among them who believed in it fell into two categories: leaders who guided by Allah's command and followers who were guided by them.

The first category was of the highest status after that of the Prophets and Messengers; theirs was the status of the strong and true in faith (ṣiddeeq). They only attained that status by being patient in learning, teaching and calling people to Allah, and putting up with persecution in the course thereof, and by refraining from indulging in sin and giving free rein to whims and desires.

«and they believed with certainty in Our revelations» that is, their belief in the revelations of Allah reached the level of certainty, which is perfect knowledge that leads to action. They only attained the level of certainty because they acquired knowledge in the proper manner and based their understanding of various issues on strong evidence.

They continued to learn about different issues of religion, basing that knowledge on a great deal of evidence, until they reached that level of certainty. Positions of leadership in religion may be attained by means of patience and certainty.

There are some issues concerning which the Children of Israel differed; some of them reached the right conclusion and some of them got it wrong, deliberately or otherwise. Allah (ﷻ) will judge between them on the Day of Resurrection concerning that wherein they differed. Moreover, this Qur'an tells the Children of Israel about some of the matters concerning which they differed. With regard to the differences of opinion that arose among them, if the Qur'an confirmed one of the two views concerning a matter, that view is the truth and anything contrary to it is false.

﴿أَوَلَمْ يَهْدِ لَهُمْ كَمْ أَهْلَكْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ مِنَ الْقُرُونِ يَمْشُونَ فِي مَسْكِنِهِمْ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ أَفَلَا يَسْمَعُونَ ﴿٢٦﴾ أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّا نَسُوقُ الْمَاءَ إِلَى الْأَرْضِ الْجُرُزِ فَنُخْرِجُ بِهِ زَرْعًا تَأْكُلُ مِنْهُ أَنْعُمُهُمْ وَأَنْفُسُهُمْ أَفَلَا يُبْصِرُونَ ﴿٢٧﴾﴾ (سورة السجدة:

(٢٧-٢٦)

- 32:26. Has it not become clear to them how many nations We destroyed before them, in whose dwelling places they now walk about? Surely in that there are signs; will they not then listen?
- 32:27. Do they not see that We send water to barren land and We bring forth thereby crops of which their livestock and they themselves eat? Will they not then see?

That is, is it not clear to those who reject the Messenger (ﷺ) who guides them to the truth ﴿how many nations We destroyed before them﴾ who followed the same path as them, ﴿in whose dwelling places they now walk about﴾ and they see them with their own eyes, such as the people of Hood and Ṣāliḥ, and the people of Looṭ?

﴿Surely in that there are signs﴾ from which it may be concluded that the Messengers who came to them were true, and that the path that they followed of polytheism and evil was false, and that whoever does the same as they did will meet the same fate as others of their ilk, and that Allah (ﷻ) will requite His slaves and will resurrect them on the Day of Judgement?

﴿will they not then listen﴾ to the revelations of Allah, and understand them and benefit from them? If they listened properly and understood properly, they would not persist on the path that will surely lead them to doom.

﴿Do they not see﴾ with their own eyes Our blessings and perfect wisdom? For ﴿We send water to barren land﴾ in which there is no vegetation, then Allah sends water which was not there before, either from the clouds or from rivers,

﴿and We bring forth thereby crops﴾ that is, plants of various kinds ﴿of which their livestock and they themselves eat﴾ so food is provided for both animals and humans.

﴿Will they not then see﴾ that blessing by means of which Allah revives the land and the people, so that they might contemplate and be guided by that insight to the straight path.

But they are mostly blind and heedless, so they do not see and understand as they should, rather they look at it in a heedless manner and regard it as something unremarkable, and thus they are not guided to goodness.

﴿وَيَقُولُونَ مَتَىٰ هَذَا الْفَتْحُ إِن كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ﴾ (٣٨) قَدْ يَوْمَ الْفَتْحِ لَا يَنْفَعُ
الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا إِيْمَانُهُمْ وَلَا هُمْ يُنْظَرُونَ (٣٩) فَأَعْرِضْ عَنْهُمْ وَانظُرْ إِلَيْهِمْ
فَتَنْظُرُونَ (٤٠) (سورة السجدة: ٢٨-٣٠)

32:28. They say: When will this judgement come, if you are telling the truth?

32:29. Say [O Muhammad]: On the Day of Judgement, no good will it do to the disbelievers to believe then, nor will they be given any respite.

32:30. So turn away from them and wait; verily they too are waiting.

That is, the evildoers seek to hasten the punishment which they are promised, by way of disbelief, out of ignorance and stubbornness on their part.

﴿They say: When will this judgement﴾ that will decide between us and you, by punishing us, according to your claim ﴿come, if you﴾ – O Messenger – ﴿are telling the truth﴾ in your claim?

﴿Say [O Muhammad]: On the Day of Judgement﴾, on which your punishment will come, nothing will avail you at all. If it was the case that when that day comes, you could be given respite so that you might rectify your situation once you have certain faith, then there could be a point in asking when that day will happen. But when the Day of Judgement comes, the matter will have been settled and there will be no room for tests.

So ﴿no good will it do to the disbelievers to believe then﴾ because that would be faith by compulsion.

﴿nor will they be given any respite﴾ that is, there will be no postponement or delay so that they might rectify the situation.

﴿So turn away from them﴾, because their words reflect such a level of ignorance, and their seeking to hasten the punishment has reached such a degree

﴿and wait﴾ and see what is going to befall them, for it is inevitable, but it has an appointed time which, when it comes, cannot be brought forward or put back.

﴿verily they too are waiting﴾ for some misfortune to befall you, but the best end is for those who fear Allah.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat as-Sajdah.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

33.

Soorat al-Aḥzâb

(The Army)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ اتَّقِ اللَّهَ وَلَا تُطِعِ الْكَافِرِينَ وَالْمُنَافِقِينَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ عَلِيمًا
حَكِيمًا ﴿١﴾ وَأَتَّبِعْ مَا يُوْحَىٰ إِلَيْكَ مِنْ رَبِّكَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرًا
﴿٢﴾ وَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى اللَّهِ وَكَفَىٰ بِاللَّهِ وَكِيلًا ﴿٣﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ١-٣)

- 33:1. O Prophet, fear Allah and do not yield to the disbelievers and hypocrites. Verily Allah is All-Knowing, Most Wise.
- 33:2. Follow that which is revealed to you from your Lord. Verily Allah is well aware of all that you do.
- 33:3. Put your trust in Allah, for sufficient is Allah as a disposer of affairs.

That is, O you whom Allah has blessed with prophethood, chosen to receive His revelation and favoured above all creation, give thanks for the blessing that your Lord has bestowed upon you by fearing Him, which is more appropriate for you to do than others, for what is expected of you is that you should attain more than anyone else. So comply with His commands and prohibitions, convey His message, deliver His revelation to His slaves and be sincere towards all people.

Nothing should prevent you from doing that and nothing should deter you from it. So do not yield to any disbeliever who shows enmity towards Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), or to any hypocrite who is concealing his rejection and disbelief, and making a show of the opposite.

These are the real enemies, so do not obey them in some matters that undermine piety and are contrary to it, and do not follow their whims and desires lest they lead you astray from the right path.

Rather ﴿Follow that which is revealed to you from your Lord﴾ for it is guidance and mercy, and hope by doing so for the reward of your Lord, for He is well aware of what they are doing and He will requite them according to what he knows of them, whether good or evil.

If it occurs to you that if you do not yield to their misguided whims and desires, you will suffer some harm from them, or that your efforts to guide people may be undermined, then ward off that notion from your mind and resort to that which will avert such thoughts, namely putting your trust in Allah, by relying on your Lord in the manner of one who has no power to cause harm or benefit himself, or to cause death, give life or resurrect, trusting Him to protect you from their evil and to establish the religion that has been enjoined upon you, and trusting Him to bring that about no matter what the case.

﴿for sufficient is Allah as a disposer of affairs﴾ – therefore matters are to be referred to Him and left to Him, so He will direct them in a way that is in the best interests of the individual, because He knows what is in the best interests of His slave, whereas the individual may not know, and He is able to bring it about in a way that the individual cannot. Allah is more merciful towards His slave than he himself or his parents are, and He is more kind than anyone else, especially in the case of the chosen ones among His slaves, who He has constantly been taking care of and bestowing blessings upon them, both visible and hidden, especially when He has commanded him to leave his affairs to Him and promised to take care of him.

When a person has put his trust in Allah in that manner, then do not ask about how every endeavour becomes easy, every difficult task becomes smooth, every calamity becomes bearable, every stressful situation is alleviated, all needs are met, blessings come down, trouble is ward off and evils are averted. Then you will see how the weak slave who delegated all his affairs to his master will be able to achieve many things that a group of people could not achieve, for Allah will make easy for him that which is too difficult for the toughest and strongest of men to do. And it is Allah Whose help we seek.

﴿ مَا جَعَلَ اللَّهُ لِرَجُلٍ مِّن قَلْبَيْنِ فِي جَوْفِهِ ۚ وَمَا جَعَلَ أَزْوَاجَكُمُ اللَّائِي تُظَاهِرُونَ مِنْهُنَّ أُمَّهَاتِكُمْ ۚ وَمَا جَعَلَ أَدْعِيَاءَكُمْ أَبْنَاءَكُمْ ۚ ذَٰلِكُمْ قَوْلُكُمْ بِأَفْوَاهِكُمْ ۚ وَاللَّهُ يَقُولُ الْحَقَّ وَهُوَ يَهْدِي السَّبِيلَ ۚ ﴿٤﴾ أَدْعَوْهُمْ لِأُبَّائِهِمْ هُوَ أَقْسَطُ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ ۚ فَإِن لَّمْ تَعْلَمُوا ءَابَاءَهُمْ فَلِإَخْوَانِكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ وَمَوْلَايَكُمْ وَلَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ جُنَاحٌ فِيمَا أَخْطَأْتُم بِهِ ۚ وَلَٰكِن مَّا تَعَمَّدَتْ قُلُوبُكُمْ ۚ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ غَفُورًا رَّحِيمًا ۝ ﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٤-٥)

33:4. Allah has not made for any man two hearts inside him;<sup>50</sup> nor has He made your wives whom you divorce by dhihār<sup>51</sup> your

<sup>50</sup> What is meant is that there cannot coexist in a person's heart faith and disbelief, guidance and misguidance, repentance and persistence in sin, nor does anyone possess two hearts, one for faith and one for disbelief. (al-Qurtūbi) The verse then goes on to state that, likewise, the wife divorced by dhihār does not become a mother to her husband, for no man can have two mothers, and no man can be the son of two men, his natural father and his adoptive father. (ash-Shawkāni) mothers; nor has He made your adopted sons your sons [in reality]. These are mere words that you utter. But Allah speaks the truth and He guides to the [right] path.

<sup>51</sup> Dhihār is the unlawful act of saying to one's spouse by way of divorce: "You are as impermissible for me [to enjoy intimately] as my mother" – and similar statements.

- 33:5. Call them [adopted sons] after their [real] fathers; that is more appropriate before Allah. If you do not know who their fathers are, then they are your brothers in faith and your allies. There is no sin on you if you make a mistake in that regard, but [you are accountable] for what your hearts deliberately intend. And Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

Here Allah (ﷻ) rebukes His slaves for saying things that have no basis in reality, for He did not decree them to be as they describe them, and such words are lies and fabrications that may lead to evil consequences. This is a general principle that is applicable to all kinds of speech and speaking of things that are not real.

But He singles out the things mentioned because they happen and there is a great need for discussion and explanation of them. Hence He says:

﴿Allah has not made for any man two hearts inside him﴾. This does not happen, so beware of saying of anyone that he has two hearts inside him, for then you would be telling lies about what Allah has created.

﴿nor has He made your wives whom you divorce by dhihâr that is, by saying to one's wife, "You are to me like my mother's back (dhahr ummi)" or "like my mother". Allah has not made them your mothers﴾, for your mother is the one who gave birth to you, and is the woman who has the most sanctity in relation to you and is the most prohibited for you in marriage, whereas your wife is the most permissible of women for you. So how can you liken something to its opposite?

This is not permissible, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿As for those among you who divorce their wives by likening them to their mothers, they are not their mothers; none can be their mothers except those who gave them birth. Verily, they utter words that are abhorrent and false...» (al-Mujādilah 58: 2)

«nor has He made your adopted sons your sons [in reality]». The adopted son is someone whom a man named after himself when he was not his real son, or who was named after a man because he had adopted him, as was the practice during the pre-Islamic period and the beginning of Islam.

But Allah (ﷻ) wanted to put a stop to this practice and abolish it, but before doing so He highlighted its abhorrent nature, because it is invalid and is a lie, and anything that is invalid and a lie is not to be found in the laws of Allah and His slaves should not do such things.

So Allah (ﷻ) tells us: Allah has not made adopted sons whom you claim as your own or who are attributed to you your real sons, for your real sons are those whom you fathered and who come from you. As for these adopted sons, they were fathered by others, and Allah has not made the one like the other.

«These» namely the things that you say about the adopted son, describing him as the son of the one who claimed him as his son, or saying that his father is So-and-so (the man who adopted him), «are mere words that you utter» that is, words that have no basis in reality and are of no significance.

«But Allah speaks the truth» that is, that which is certain and true. Therefore He instructs you to follow Him in His word and His law, for His word is true and His law is true, and false words and deeds cannot be attributed to Him in any way whatsoever, for they are not part of His guidance, as He only guides to the straight path and the ways of truth.

Although that occurred by His will, His will includes everything that happens, both good and bad.

Then He clearly states that they must give up this false practice, which includes false words: and He says ﴿Call them [adopted sons] after their [real] fathers﴾ who fathered them in a real sense.

﴿that is more appropriate﴾ that is, more just, more fair and more proper ﴿before Allah﴾.

﴿If you do not know who their fathers are﴾ that is, who their real fathers are

﴿then they are your brothers in faith and your allies﴾ that is, they are your brothers in the religion of Allah, and your allies in that regard, so call them true brothers and allies in faith; it is essential to stop attributing them to their adoptive fathers, for doing so is wrong.

As for calling them after their real fathers, if their fathers are known then they must be called after them, but if they are not known, then we should limit it to calling them according to what is known about them, which is that they are brothers in faith and allies. So do not think that if you do not know who their fathers are, that it is an excuse to call them after those who adopted them, because that is not appropriate and the problem cannot be resolved in that manner.

﴿There is no sin on you if you make a mistake in that regard﴾ that is, there is to be no blame if, by a slip of the tongue, someone calls a man after the one who adopted him, if it was widely believed that a particular man was his father so they called him after that man, when in reality he was not his father. There is no blame on you for doing that, if it is a mistake.

﴿but [you are accountable] for what your hearts deliberately intend﴾ of saying things that are not permissible.

﴿And Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful﴾ – for He forgave you and showed mercy towards you, as He did not punish you for what is in the past, and He overlooks your mistakes in that regard and has mercy on you, as He has explained to you the rulings that are appropriate with regard to your religious and worldly affairs. To Him be praise.

﴿الَّتِي أَوْلَىٰ بِالْمُؤْمِنِينَ مِنْ أَنْفُسِهِمْ وَأَزْوَاجُهُ أُمَّهَاتُهُمْ وَأُولُوا الْأَرْحَامِ بَعْضُهُمْ أَوْلَىٰ بِبَعْضٍ فِي كِتَابِ اللَّهِ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُهَاجِرِينَ إِلَّا أَنْ تَفْعَلُوا إِلَىٰ أَوْلِيَائِكُمْ مَعْرُوفًا كَانَ ذَٰلِكَ فِي الْكِتَابِ مَسْطُورًا﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٦)

- 33:6. The Prophet has a greater claim over the believers [and is closer to them] than their own selves,<sup>52</sup> and his wives are their mothers. And kindred by blood are nearer to one another [regarding inheritance], according to the decree ordained by Allah, than fellow believers and emigrants,<sup>53</sup> except that you may show kindness [by making bequests] to close friends or allies. That is written in the Book [of our decrees].<sup>54</sup>

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells the believers something by which they may recognise the true status of the Messenger (ﷺ) and interact with him accordingly.

﴿The Prophet has a greater claim over the believers [and is closer to them] than their own selves﴾. The closest of things to any person is his own self, but the Messenger (ﷺ) is closer to him than his own self, because he showed them sincerity, compassion and kindness that proved him to be the most merciful and kindest of all people. Thus they owe the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) more than they owe anyone else, for not the slightest good reached them and not the slightest harm was ward off from them but it was because of him.

<sup>52</sup> That is, the believers should give precedence to what the Prophet (ﷺ) decrees over what anyone else decrees and whatever they themselves desire, and they should love him more than they love themselves.

<sup>53</sup> In the earliest days, Muslims would inherit from one another on the basis of Hijrah (migration) and faith, not on the basis of blood ties, then revelation came to abrogate that ruling and restrict inheritance to those related by blood.

<sup>54</sup> That is, al-Lawḥ al-Maḥfūdh.

Therefore it became a must on them, in the event of a conflict between what they or any of the people want and what the Messenger (ﷺ) wants, that precedence must be given to what the Messenger (ﷺ) wants, and the word of the Messenger (ﷺ) should not be contradicted by the view of anyone, no matter who he is. They should be ready to sacrifice themselves, their wealth and their children to protect him, and give precedence to loving him over loving others; they should not speak until he speaks or put themselves forward before him.

The Prophet (ﷺ) is a father to the believers, as is understood from the recitation of some of his Companions; he takes care of them as a father takes care of his children.

One of the consequences of his being a father to them is that his wives are their mothers; that is, in terms of sanctity, respect and honour, not in terms of it being permissible to be alone with them or regarding them as maḥrams. It is as if this was an introduction to what follows of the story of Zayd ibn Ḥārithah (raḍīya Allāhu 'anhu – may Allah be pleased with him), who was previously known as Zayd ibn Muhammad, until Allah revealed the words:

﴿Muhammad is not the father of any man among you...﴾ (al-Aḥzāb 33: 40)

Thus He severed the father-son connection between them.

In this verse, Allah tells us that all the believers are the children of the Messenger (ﷺ), so there is no superiority of any of them over another. Even if the claim of adoption is ended, the bond of faith is not severed, so there is no need to grieve or be sad.

The fact that the wives of the Messengers are mothers of the believers means that it is not permissible for anyone to marry them after he dies, as Allah clearly states:

«...It is not proper for you to cause annoyance to the Messenger of Allah or to ever marry his wives after he is gone...» (al-Ahzâb 33: 53)

«And kindred by blood» that is, relatives, whether close or distant «are nearer to one another [regarding inheritance], according to the decree ordained by Allah» that is, according to His ruling. So they inherit from one another and should honour one another, for they are more entitled to alliance and support. Adopted sons used to inherit on the basis of adoption instead of blood relatives, but Allah put an end to that, and ordained that inheritance should be for blood relatives, out of kindness and on the basis of wisdom. If the matter had continued as it was, it would have led to a great deal of corruption, evil and trickery to deprive blood relatives of inheritance.

«than fellow believers and emigrants» – whether the relatives are believers who migrated or did not migrate, blood relatives take precedence with regard to inheritance.

This verse offers proof that relatives may be in charge of and have authority over the affairs of their relatives, as in the case of marriage, property and other matters.

«except that you may show kindness [by making bequests] to close friends or allies» that is, they have no allocated share of inheritance; rather this is the matter of choice: if you wish you may give them something and show them kindness on your part.

«That» namely the rulings mentioned above «is written in the Book [of our decrees]» that is, it has been written, ordained and decreed by Allah, so it must be implemented.

﴿وَإِذْ أَخَذْنَا مِنَ النَّبِيِّينَ مِيثَاقَهُمْ وَمِنْكَ وَمِنْ نُوحٍ وَإِبْرَاهِيمَ وَمُوسَىٰ وَعِيسَىٰ ابْنِ مَرْيَمَ ۚ وَأَخَذْنَا مِنْهُم مِّيثَاقًا غَلِيظًا ۖ﴾ لَيْسَ لِلصَّادِقِينَ عَنْ صِدْقِهِمْ وَأَعَدَّ لِلْكَافِرِينَ

عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا ﴿٨﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٧-٨)

33:7. And [remember] when We took their covenant from the Prophets, and from you [O Muhammad], from Nooh, Ibrâheem, Moosâ and 'Eesâ ibn Maryam; We took from them a solemn covenant.

33:8. For Allah will question the truthful about their sincerity; and He has prepared for the disbelievers a painful punishment.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He took a covenant from the Prophets in general, and from the Messengers of strong will – who are the five mentioned here – in particular. That was a solemn covenant and a binding pledge to support the religion of Allah and strive in His cause. This is the path that was followed by the earlier Prophets, until the series of Prophets ended with the leader and the best of them, namely Muhammad (ﷺ). And Allah commands people to follow their example.

Allah will question the Prophets and their followers about this solemn covenant: did they fulfil it and were they true to it, so that He might reward them with paradise, or did they disbelieve, in which case He will inflict upon them the painful punishment? Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Among the believers are men who have been true to their covenant with Allah...﴾ (al-Ahzâb 33: 23)

﴿يَتَّيِبُهُمُ اللَّهُ وَيَجْعَلُ لَهُمْ مَخْرَجًا وَيَرْزُقُهُمْ مِنْ تَحْتِ الْأَرْضِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمِنْ فَوْقِهَا وَمِنْ أَسْفَلِ مِنْكُمْ وَإِذْ زَاغَتِ الْأَبْصَارُ وَبَلَغَتِ الْقُلُوبُ الْحَنَاجِرَ وَتَظُنُّونَ بِاللَّهِ الظُّنُونًا ۚ هُنَالِكَ ابْتُلِيَ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ وَزُلْزِلُوا زِلْزَالًا شَدِيدًا ۝﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ١١)

- 33:9. O you who believe, remember the favour that Allah bestowed upon you, when [enemy] troops came against you, but We sent against them a strong wind and forces that you could not see. And Allah sees well all that you do.
- 33:10. That was when they came upon you from above you and from below you, your eyes stared fixedly with horror, and your hearts came up into your throats [out of fear], and you began to entertain various thoughts about Allah.
- 33:11. In that situation the believers were tested and severely shaken.

Here Allah reminds His believing slaves of His blessings to them, and urges them to give thanks for it, for the troops of the people of Makkah and the Hejaz came to them from above them, and the people of Najd came to them from beneath them, and they resolved to eradicate the Messenger (ﷺ) and his Companions. That was during the Battle of al-Khandaq (the Trench), when the disbelievers were supported by the groups of Jews who lived around Madinah; they came with huge numbers of troops.

The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) dug a trench around Madinah, and the pressure on the Muslims grew intense, to the point that until their hearts were in their mouths and some of them began to entertain all sorts of negative thoughts, because of what they saw of the measures being taken against them and the calamities intensifying. The siege of Madinah went on for a long time, and the situation was as Allah describes:

﴿your eyes stared fixedly with horror, and your hearts came up into your throats [out of fear], and you began to entertain various thoughts about Allah﴾ that is, you thought negative thoughts, that Allah would not grant victory to His religion or perfect His word.

﴿In that situation the believers were tested﴾ by this great turmoil ﴿and severely shaken﴾ by fear, anxiety and hunger, so as to highlight the level of faith and increase their certainty. Thus – praise be to Allah – the high level of their faith and certainty became apparent, by means of which they surpassed the earlier and later nations.

When the turmoil intensified and hardship grew worse, their faith became certain. ﴿When the believers saw the confederates, they said: This is what Allah and his Messenger had promised us, and the promise of Allah and His Messenger is true. And it only increased them in faith and submission﴾ (33: 22).

The hypocrisy of the hypocrites, which they had been concealing, also became apparent:

﴿وَإِذْ يَقُولُ الْمُنَافِقُونَ وَالَّذِينَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ مَرَضٌ مَّا وَعَدَنَا اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ إِلَّا غُرُورًا﴾

(سورة الأحزاب: ١٢)

33:12. And [remember] when the hypocrites and those in whose hearts is a disease said: Allah and His Messenger made promises to us only in order to deceive us!

This is the usual way of the hypocrite at times of hardship and trials. His faith is not steadfast, and he looks at passing events and reaches the wrong conclusion in an immature manner.

﴿وَإِذْ قَالَتْ طَائِفَةٌ مِّنْهُمْ يَا أَهْلَ يَثْرِبَ لَا مُقَامَ لَكُمْ فَارْجِعُوا وَيَسْتَأْذِنُ فَرِيقٌ مِّنْهُمُ النَّبِيَّ يَقُولُونَ إِنَّ بُيُوتَنَا عَوْرَةٌ وَمَا هِيَ بِعَوْرَةٍ إِن يُرِيدُونَ إِلَّا فِرَارًا﴾

(سورة الأحزاب: ١٣)

33:13. And [remember] when a group among them said: O people of Yathrib, you cannot withstand [the enemy onslaught], so go back. Another group asked the Prophet's permission to leave, saying: Our houses are exposed, although they were not exposed; they only wanted to flee.

﴿And [remember] when a group among them﴾ namely the hypocrites, after they panicked and grew impatient, and tried to discourage others too. They were not steadfast themselves, and they did not spare other people from their evil. This group said:

﴿O people of Yathrib﴾, meaning, O people of Madinah. They only used the old name of the city, which may indicate that religious commitment and bonds of faith had no value in their hearts, and what made them do that was the fear they felt in their hearts.

﴿O people of Yathrib, you cannot withstand [the enemy onslaught]﴾ that is, you had better leave the positions to which you came outside Madinah. They had camped near the trench, outside the city.

﴿so go back﴾ to Madinah. This group tried to discourage people from engaging in jihad and told them that they had no strength to fight the enemy, and that they should refrain from fighting. This was the worst of the groups and was the group that caused the most harm.

There was another group which was less evil than them; they acted in a cowardly manner and panicked, and they withdrew from the ranks, giving false excuses. They are the ones of whom Allah said:

﴿Another group asked the Prophet's permission to leave, saying: Our houses are exposed﴾ that is, they are in danger and we fear that the enemy may attack them whilst we are away, so give us permission to go back to them and guard them. But they were lying when they said that.

﴿although they were not exposed﴾ that is, their only aim was ﴿to flee﴾ but they used these words as a means and as an excuse. These people were lacking in faith and were unable to be steadfast at times of turmoil and calamity.

﴿وَلَوْ دَخَلَتْ عَلَيْهِمْ مِّنْ أَقْطَارِهَا ثُمَّ سَأَلُوا الْفِتْنَةَ لَآتَوَّاهَا وَمَا تَلَبَّثُوا فِيهَا إِلَّا بَسِيرًا﴾
(سورة الأحزاب: ١٤)

33:14. If the city had been stormed from all directions and they had been incited [by the enemy] to apostatise and rebel, they would have done so with very little hesitation.

That is, if the disbelievers had entered the city from all directions and taken control of it – Allah forbid – then these people were asked «to apostatise and rebel», that is, to turn away from their religion and go back to the religion of the invaders, «they would have done so with very little hesitation» that is, they would have hastened to do so.

In other words, they did not have any strong or solid commitment to religion; rather as soon as the enemy gained the upper hand and gave them what they wanted, they would go along with them in their disbelief. This is how they were.

﴿وَلَقَدْ كَانُوا عَاهِدُوا اللَّهَ مِن قَبْلُ لَا يُؤَلُّونَ الْأَدْبَرَ وَكَانَ عَهْدُ اللَّهِ مَسْئُولًا﴾
(سورة الأحزاب: ١٥)

33:15. Yet before that they had made a covenant with Allah that they would not turn and flee, and a covenant with Allah will [surely] be asked about.

Yet that was at a time when «they had made a covenant with Allah that they would not turn and flee, and a covenant with Allah will [surely] be asked about». He will ask them about that covenant, and He will find that they broke it, so how do they think their Lord will deal with them?

﴿قُلْ لَنْ يَنْفَعَكُمْ الْفِرَارُ إِنْ فَرَرْتُمْ مِنَ الْمَوْتِ أَوِ الْقَتْلِ وَإِذَا لَا تُمْنَعُونَ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا

﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ١٦) ﴿١٦﴾

33:16. Say [O Muhammad]: Fleeing will not benefit you. If you manage to escape death or slaughter, you will only be left to enjoy life for a little while.

﴿Say [O Muhammad]﴾ to them, criticising their flight and telling them that it will not avail them in any way:

﴿Fleeing will not benefit you. If you manage to escape death or slaughter﴾, even if you remain in your homes, those for whom death is decreed will go forth to the place of their death.

Taking proper measures of protection may benefit a person, if that is not contrary to the divine will and decree, but when the divine will and decree come to pass, then any measures will be to no avail, and every means one thinks could save him will not do so.

﴿If﴾ when you flee, you manage to save yourself from death and slaughter, and enjoy life, ﴿you will only be left to enjoy life for a little while﴾ – this is a temporary type of pleasure that is not worth fleeing for and abandoning the command of Allah, thus missing out on eternal bliss in an abode of eternal delight.

﴿قُلْ مَنْ ذَا الَّذِي يَعْصِمُكُمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ إِنْ أَرَادَ بِكُمْ سُوءًا أَوْ أَرَادَ بِكُمْ رَحْمَةً وَلَا يَجِدُونَ لَهُمْ

مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ وَلِيًّا وَلَا نَصِيرًا﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ١٧) ﴿١٧﴾

33:17. Say: Who is there that can protect you from Allah if it be His will to harm you or if it be His will to show you mercy? And they will not find for themselves, besides Allah, any protector or helper.

Then Allah confirms that means and measures will not avail a person at all, if Allah intends ill for him:

﴿Say: Who is there that can protect you from Allah if it be His will to harm you or if it be His will to show you mercy?﴾ For He is the One Who gives and withholds, causes harm or grants benefit; no one brings good except He and no one wards off evil except He.

﴿And they will not find for themselves, besides Allah, any protector﴾ to protect them and bring them benefit

﴿or helper﴾ to help them and ward off harm from them.

So they should comply with the commands of the One in Whose Hand alone is control of all their affairs, Whose will is always done and Whose decree is always carried out, for no ally or helper can benefit a person if he abandons his alliance with Allah and is deprived of His support.

﴿ قَدْ يَعْلَمُ اللَّهُ الْمَعْرُوفِينَ مِنْكُمْ وَالْقَائِلِينَ لِإِخْوَانِهِمْ هَلُمْ إِلَيْنَا وَلَا يَأْتُونَ الْبَأْسَ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا ﴾ (١٨) أَشْحَةً عَلَيْكُمْ فَإِذَا جَاءَ الْخَوْفُ رَأَيْتَهُمْ يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَيْكَ تَدُورُ أَعْيُنُهُمْ كَالَّذِي يُغْشَى عَلَيْهِ مِنَ الْمَوْتِ فَإِذَا ذَهَبَ الْخَوْفُ سَلَفُوكُمْ بِالسِّنَةِ حِدَادٍ أَشْحَةً عَلَى الْخَيْرِ أُولَئِكَ لَمْ يُؤْمِنُوا فَأَحْبَطَ اللَّهُ أَعْمَلَهُمْ وَكَانَ ذَلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ يَسِيرًا ﴾ (١٩) (سورة الأحزاب):

(١٩-١٨)

- 33:18. Verily Allah knows those among you who discourage others and those who say to their brothers: Come and join us,<sup>55</sup> and they do not take part in the fighting except a little,
- 33:19. begrudging you any help. Then when danger threatens, you see them looking to you, their eyes rolling like one who is overshadowed by death. Yet when the danger has passed, they lash out at you with sharp tongues, begrudging you all that is good. Such people have not truly believed, so Allah will cause their deeds to come to nothing. That is easy for Allah.

Then Allah (ﷻ) warns those who discourage others and try to weaken their resolve, as He says:

﴿Verily Allah knows those among you who discourage others﴾ from going out, among those who have not yet gone out ﴿and those who say to their brothers﴾ who have gone out: ﴿Come and join us﴾ that is, come back; this is like what they said previously: ﴿O people of Yathrib, you cannot withstand [the enemy onslaught], so go back﴾ (33: 13).

In addition to their discouragement and attempts to weaken the people's resolve, ﴿they do not take part in the fighting﴾ that is, they do not take part in the jihad themselves, ﴿except a little﴾. They are the keenest of people to stay behind, because they have no motive to fight, such as faith and patience, and because they have reasons to be cowardly, namely hypocrisy and lack of faith.

﴿begrudging you any help﴾ whether that is physical help, by joining the fight, or financial help, by spending on the cause. So they do not engage in jihad with their wealth or with their own selves.

<sup>55</sup> This refers to when the hypocrites sought to discourage others from joining the Prophet (ﷺ) in the defence of Madinah when Quraysh wanted to attack the city. They were leaving the defensive positions and calling on others to join them in doing so.

«Then when danger threatens, you see them looking to you» like one who is overshadowed by death, because of their extreme cowardice which has shaken them to the core and the anxiety which has stunned them and their fear that they may be forced to do that which they dislike, namely fighting.

«Yet when the danger has passed» and they have become safe and secure,

«they lash out at you with sharp tongues» that is, they address you, speaking harshly to you, and start making claims that are not true, and when you hear them you think that they are courageous and daring «begrudging you all that is good» and reluctant to do anything good that is expected of them. This is the worst thing a person can do, to be reluctant to do as he is instructed and to be stingy with his wealth and not spend it in the proper manner, stingy in terms of physical effort and refusing to engage with the enemies of Allah or call people to the path of Allah, and stingy by refusing to benefit others by means of their position, knowledge, advice or opinion.

«Such people have not truly believed» – and because of their lack of faith, Allah causes their deeds to come to nothing. «That is easy for Allah».

As for the true believers, Allah protects them from this stingy attitude and enables them to do as they are commanded, by offering their physical effort in fighting in His cause, to make His word supreme, and by offering their wealth in good causes, and by using their status and knowledge to benefit others.

﴿يَحْسَبُونَ الْأَحْزَابَ لَمْ يَذْهَبُوا وَإِنْ يَأْتِ الْأَحْزَابُ يَوَدُّوا لَوْ أَنَّهُمْ بَادُوا فِي الْأَعْرَابِ يَسْأَلُونَ عَنْ أَنْبَائِكُمْ وَلَوْ كَانُوا فِيكُمْ مَا قُتِلُوا إِلَّا قَلِيلًا﴾

(سورة الأحزاب: ٢٠)

33:20. They think that the confederates have not yet withdrawn; if the confederates did come again, they would wish that they were in the desert with the Bedouin, asking for news of you [from a safe distance], and if they remained among you, they would fight but little.

«They think that the confederates have not yet withdrawn» that is, the hypocrites think that these confederates who came together to fight the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) and his Companions will not leave until they eradicate the Muslims. But they were disappointed and their calculations proved to be wrong.

«if the confederates did come again, they would wish that they were in the desert with the Bedouin, asking for news of you [from a safe distance]» that is, if the confederates came back a second time, like the first time, these hypocrites would wish that they were not in Madinah or anywhere near it, and that they were with the Bedouin in the desert, seeking news of you and asking about you, trying to find out what happened to you.

Away with them, let them perish! For they are not people who one should care whether they are present or not.

«and if they remained among you, they would fight but little». So do not pay any attention to them and do not feel sorry to lose them.

﴿لَقَدْ كَانَ لَكُمْ فِي رَسُولِ اللَّهِ أُسْوَةٌ حَسَنَةٌ لِّمَن كَانَ يَرْجُوا اللَّهَ وَالْيَوْمَ الْآخِرَ وَذَكَرَ اللَّهَ
كَثِيرًا﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٢١)

33:21. Verily in the Messenger of Allah you have a good example for those who look with hope to Allah and the Last Day, and remember Allah much.

«Verily in the Messenger of Allah you have a good example» for he himself was present in the battlefield, and he himself took up a position, ready to fight, for he was the perfect leader and courageous hero. So how can you be so reluctant to join the fight when the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) himself was involved in it? Therefore you must follow his example in this matter and others.

The scholars of uṣool quote this verse to prove that the Messenger's deeds constitute evidence for shar'i rulings and that in principle his Ummah is subject to the same rulings as him, unless there is clear evidence to prove that some rulings are applicable to him alone.

Examples are of two types: good examples and bad examples.

The good example is to be found in the Messenger (ﷺ), because the one who follows his example will be on the path that leads to the blessings of Allah, which is the straight path.

As for following the example of others in matters that are contrary to his teachings, that is following bad examples, such as the words of the disbelievers when the Messengers called them to follow their example and they said:

«...We found our forefathers following a certain path, and we are following in their footsteps.» (az-Zukhruf 43: 22)

This good example is only followed by those who are guided and enabled to follow it, those who look with hope to Allah and the Last Day, because what they have of faith, fear of Allah, hope for His reward and fear of His punishment motivates them to follow the example of the Messenger (ﷺ).

﴿وَلَمَّا رَأَى الْمُؤْمِنُونَ الْأَحْزَابَ قَالُوا هَذَا مَا وَعَدَنَا اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ وَصَدَقَ اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ ۚ وَمَا زَادَهُمْ إِلَّا إِيمَانًا وَتَسْلِيمًا﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٢٢)

33:22. When the believers saw the confederates, they said: This is what Allah and his Messenger had promised us, and the promise of Allah and His Messenger is true. And it only increased them in faith and submission.

Having mentioned the attitude of the hypocrites at times of fear, Allah (ﷻ) now mentions the attitude of the believers, as He says:

«When the believers saw the confederates» who had come together and taken up their positions (outside Madinah), and fear was at its peak,

«they said: This is what Allah and his Messenger had promised us» when He said:

«Or do you think that you will enter paradise without such [trials] as came to those who passed away before you? They encountered suffering and adversity, and were so shaken in spirit that even the Messenger and the believers who were with him said: When will the help of Allah come? Verily, the help of Allah is [always] near.»

(al-Baqarah 2: 214)

«and the promise of Allah and His Messenger is true» for we have seen what He foretold.

«And it» namely this matter «only increased them in faith» in their hearts «and submission» in terms of their physical actions and surrender to the command of Allah.

«مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ رِجَالٌ صَدَقُوا مَا عَاهَدُوا اللَّهَ عَلَيْهِ فَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ قَضَىٰ نَحْبَهُ وَمِنْهُمْ مَّنْ يَنْتَظِرُ وَمَا بَدَّلُوا تَبْدِيلًا» (سورة الأحزاب: ٢٣)

33:23. Among the believers are men who have been true to their covenant with Allah. Some of them have fulfilled their pledge and others are still waiting, and they have never wavered in the least.

Having mentioned that the hypocrites gave their promise to Allah not to turn and flee, but they broke that promise, Allah now tells us how the believers fulfilled it:

﴿Among the believers are men who have been true to their covenant with Allah﴾ that is, they fulfilled their covenant perfectly and completely, offering their souls in pursuit of His pleasure and in obedience to Him.

﴿Some of them have fulfilled their pledge﴾ that is, their wish and goal, by carrying out their duty, and they were killed in Allah's cause, or they died having fulfilled their duties without falling short in any way, ﴿and others are still waiting﴾ to carry out their duties in full, for they are already engaged in carrying out their duties and fulfilling their covenant, but they have not yet completed it. These people are hoping to complete it and striving hard to attain that.

﴿and they have never wavered in the least﴾ as others did; rather they are still adhering to the pledge and have never faltered or changed. These are real men, and others only appear outwardly to be men, as they have fallen short in terms of manly characteristics.

﴿لِيَجْزِيَ اللَّهُ الصَّادِقِينَ بِصِدْقِهِمْ وَيُعَذِّبَ الْمُنَافِقِينَ إِنْ شَاءَ أَوْ يَتُوبَ عَلَيْهِمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ غَفُورًا رَحِيمًا﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٢٤)

33:24. [Such trials are ordained] so that Allah may reward those who are sincere for their sincerity and punish the hypocrites, if He so wills, or turn to them in mercy [and guide them to repentance]. Verily Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

«[Such trials are ordained] so that Allah may reward those who are sincere for their sincerity» that is, because of their sincerity in word and deed, and their doing things for the sake of Allah, and being the same both outwardly and inwardly. Allah (ﷻ) tells us elsewhere that He will say:

«...This is the day when the truthful will benefit from their truthfulness; theirs will be gardens through which rivers flow, to abide therein forever. Allah is pleased with them and they are pleased with Him. And that is the supreme triumph.» (al-Mâ'idah 5: 119)

In other words: We ordained these turmoils, trials and calamities in order to differentiate the sincere from the insincere. Then Allah will reward the sincere for their sincerity, and He will «punish the hypocrites» who changed their attitude and their actions at times of turmoil, and did not fulfil the pledge that they had made to Allah.

«if He so will» that is, if it is His will to punish them, because it was not His will to guide them. Rather he knew that there was nothing good in them, therefore He did not guide them

«or turn to them in mercy» by guiding them to repent and turn back to Him. This is more likely to be the case, because Allah is the Most Generous. Hence the verse ends with two divine names that are indicative of forgiveness, grace and kindness, as He says: «Verily Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful» – He forgives the sins of those who transgressed against themselves, even if they commit many sins, if they turn to Him in repentance, and He is «Most Merciful» to them, as He enables them to repent, then He accepts that repentance from them and conceals the sins they committed.

﴿وَرَدَّ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِغَيْظِهِمْ لَمَنَّا لَوَ أَخِيرًا وَكَفَى اللَّهُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ الْقِتَالَ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ فَوِيَّاعًا رَازِمًا﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٢٥)

33:25. Allah turned back the disbelievers in their fury, without any gain; thus Allah spared the believers from fighting. Allah is Strong, Almighty.

«Allah turned back the disbelievers in their fury, without any gain» that is, He turned them back empty-handed, and they were not able to achieve their goal (of defeating the Muslims) despite all their rage and fury, even though they had the capability to do that and were certain that they would have the upper hand. They were deceived by their large numbers and were very proud of the confederacy that they had put together; they exulted in their numbers and equipment.

But Allah sent against them a mighty wind, which was the east wind, and it shook their camp, brought down their tents, overturned their cooking pots, caused a great deal of disturbance and struck fear into their hearts. So they left disappointed. This was the help that Allah granted to His believing slaves.

«thus Allah spared the believers from fighting» by means of what He made available to them of ordinary measures and extraordinary divine help.

«Allah is Strong, Almighty», and no one opposes Him but he is defeated; no one seeks His help but he becomes victorious. Nothing is beyond Him if He wills it, and power and might are of no avail to those who possess them if Allah does not help them by His power and might.

﴿وَأَنْزَلَ الَّذِينَ ظَاهَرُوهُمْ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ مِنْ صَيَاصِيهِمْ وَقَذَفَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمُ
الرَّعْبَ فَرِيقًا تَقْتُلُونَ وَتَأْسِرُونَ فَرِيقًا﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٢٦)

33:26. He brought down from their fortresses those among the People of the Book<sup>56</sup> who had supported them, and cast terror into their hearts, so that some of them you killed and others you took captive.

﴿He brought down from their fortresses those among the People of the Book﴾ namely the Jews
 ﴿who had supported them﴾ that is, helped them. They were defeated and were subject to the rule of Islam.
 ﴿and cast terror into their hearts﴾ so that they had no strength to fight; rather they surrendered and submitted, and were humiliated
 ﴿so that some of them you killed﴾ namely the men of fighting age
 ﴿and others you took captive﴾ this refers to the rest of them, women and children.

﴿وَأَوْثَقَكُمْ أَرْضَهُمْ وَيَدَيْرَهُمْ وَأَمْوَالَهُمْ وَأَرْضًا لَّمْ تَطْشُوهَا وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرًا﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٢٧)

33:27. He caused you to inherit their land, their houses and their possessions, and a land on which you had not yet set foot. And Allah has power over all things.

﴿He caused you to inherit﴾ that is, He granted to you as booty
 ﴿their land, their houses and their possessions, and a land on which you had not yet set foot﴾ that is, land which, because it was so dear to its owners, you had not yet set foot, then Allah made you victorious and caused them to be defeated, and He granted you their wealth as booty, and you killed some of them and took others captive.

<sup>56</sup> This refers to the tribe of Banu Quraydhah who switched sides when the confederates besieged Madinah, breaking their covenant with the Muslims and supporting their enemies against them.

﴿And Allah has power over all things﴾ – nothing is beyond Him and by His might He decrees for you what He decrees.

This group of the People of the Book was the Jewish tribe of Banu Quraydhah, who lived in a town not far from Madinah. When the Prophet (ﷺ) migrated to Madinah, he made a treaty with them, that he would not fight them and they would not fight him, and they would continue to follow their religion, and nothing would change for them.

But when, on the Day of al-Khandaq, they saw the confederates who had united against the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), and how numerous they were in comparison to the small numbers of the Muslims, they thought that they would eradicate the Messenger (ﷺ) and the believers. This idea was reinforced by the lies of some of their leaders, so they broke the treaty that they had with the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), and took the side of the polytheists in the fight against him.

When Allah defeated the polytheists, the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) focused on fighting these Jews. So he besieged them in their fortresses until they agreed to accept the verdict of Sa'd ibn Mu'adh (رضي الله عنه). His verdict was that their fighting men were to be killed, their women and children were to be taken captive, and their wealth was to be seized as booty.

Thus Allah completed His favour upon His Messenger (ﷺ) and the believers, and showered them with abundant blessings, and gave them the joy of seeing their enemies humiliated, with some of them killed and others taken captive. For Allah is constantly kind to His believing slaves.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ قُلْ لِّأَزْوَاجِكَ إِن كُنْتُنَّ تُحِدْنَ الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا وَزِينَتَهَا فَتَعَالَيْنَ أُمَتِّعْكُنَّ وَأُسَرِّحْكُنَّ سَرَاحًا جَمِيلًا ﴿٢٨﴾ وَإِن كُنْتُنَّ تُرِدْنَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ وَالْأَرْضَ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ أَعَدَّ لِلْمُحْسِنَاتِ مِنْكُنَّ أَجْرًا عَظِيمًا ﴿٢٩﴾﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٢٨-٢٩)

33:28. O Prophet, say to your wives: If you seek the life of this world and its splendour, then come, I will give you a gift [as compensation] and let you go in an amicable manner.

33:29. But if you seek Allah and His Messenger, and the final abode, then verily Allah has prepared for those among you who do good an immense reward.

When the wives of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) began to make demands on him with regard to maintenance and clothing, they asked for something that he was not able to do all the time, but they all persisted in their demands, which caused him some distress, to the extent that he kept away from them for a month.

Allah wanted to make things easier for His Messenger (ﷺ) and to raise his wives in status, and remove from them anything that could detract from their reward. Therefore He instructed His Messenger (ﷺ) to give them the choice, as He said:

«O Prophet, say to your wives: If you seek the life of this world and its splendour» that is, if you have no desire other than that and your happiness is connected to having its splendour, and your anger is connected to that not being available, then I have no need of you if you are like that.

«then come, I will give you a gift [as compensation]» that is, I will give you something of what I possess of worldly goods

«and let you go in an amicable manner» that is, I will separate from you without argument or trading insults; rather I will do so in an easy manner and willingly, before the problem escalates to an inappropriate level.

«But if you seek Allah and His Messenger, and the final abode» that is, if these are your goal and ultimate aim, and if you prefer Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) and paradise, and you do not worry about whether you have plenty or little in this world, or if you have ease or hardship, and you are content with whatever the Messenger of Allah

(ﷺ) can give you, and you do not make demands on him and put pressure on him,

«then verily Allah has prepared for those among you who do good an immense reward» – the reward is connected to their being among those who do good, because the promise of reward is connected to doing good, not to being the wives of the Messenger (ﷺ). Simply being his wives is not enough; rather nothing is to any avail without doing good. So the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) gave them the choice, and they all chose Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), and the final abode, and not one of them differed. May Allah be pleased with them all.

From the giving of this choice to his wives, we learn the following:

- Allah cared for His Messenger (ﷺ) and came to his aid, because Allah did not want him to be in this difficult situation with a lot of worldly demands from his wives.
- Allah wanted to keep him away from any wife who preferred this world to Allah, His Messenger (ﷺ) and the final abode, and to prevent him from staying with such a wife.
- Allah wanted to save his wives from sin and from being exposed to the wrath of Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ). Therefore He protected them, by giving them this choice, from expressing discontent towards the Messenger (ﷺ), which would lead to him becoming displeased, for that would incur the wrath of Allah, and that would in turn lead to His punishment.
- This was a demonstration of their high status and high ambition, because Allah, His Messenger (ﷺ) and the final abode were their goal, not this world and its transient gains.
- Offering this choice prepared them to attain the most sublime levels in paradise, and to be his wives both in this world and the hereafter.
- It demonstrated that there was compatibility between him and them, because he was the most perfect of people, and Allah wanted his wives to be perfect, good and obedient.

﴿...good women are for good men and good men are for good women...﴾ (an-Noor 24: 26)

- This choice would bring about contentment, by means of which one would feel at ease and comfortable, and it would take away stinginess and discontent that would lead to anxiety, grief and worry.
- This choice of theirs was a means of increasing and multiplying their reward, and enabling them to reach a status that no other women could attain. Hence Allah said:

﴿يُنِسَاءَ النَّبِيِّ مَن يَأْتِ مِنْكُنَّ بِفَاحِشَةٍ مُّبِينَةٍ يُضَعَّفُ لَهَا الْعَذَابُ ضِعْفَيْنِ
وَكَانَ ذَلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ يَسِيرًا﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٣٠)

33:30. O wives of the Prophet, if any of you were to be guilty of manifestly immoral conduct, the punishment would be doubled for her, and that is easy for Allah.

When they chose Allah, His Messenger (ﷺ) and the final abode, Allah mentioned that they would have a multiple reward, and that their burden of sin would be multiplied if they were to commit sin, so as to make them more cautious and more grateful to Allah (ﷻ). Therefore He ordained that if any of them were to be guilty of manifestly immoral conduct, she would receive a double punishment.

---

33.

Soorat al-Aḥzâb

(continued)

---

﴿وَمَنْ يَقْنُتْ مِنْكُنْ لِلَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ، وَتَعْمَلْ صَالِحًا نُفْثَ بِهَا أَجْرَهَا مَرَّتَيْنِ وَأَعْتَدْنَا لَهَا رِزْقًا كَرِيمًا﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٣١)

33:31. But whoever among you is devoutly obedient to Allah and His Messenger, and does righteous deeds, We will give her a double reward, and We have prepared for her a generous provision.<sup>1</sup>

---

﴿But whoever among you﴾ this is addressed to the wives of the Prophet (ṣalla Allāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam – blessings and peace be upon him)

﴿is devoutly obedient to Allah and His Messenger, and does righteous deeds﴾ whether they are few or many,

﴿We will give her a double reward﴾ that is, twice as much as is given to anyone else,

﴿and We have prepared for her a generous provision﴾ namely paradise. They were devoutly obedient to Allah (Subḥānahu wa Ta‘ālā – Glorified and Exalted is He) and His Messenger (ﷺ), and they did righteous deeds, thus the extent of their reward is known.

---

<sup>1</sup> The meanings of the verses of the Qur’an in this book (with some minor changes to the punctuation) have been translated by the translator. (Editor)

﴿يٰۤاَيُّهَا النِّبِيُّ لَسْتَنَ كَاَحَدٍ مِّنَ النِّسَاءِ ۚ اِنْ اَتَقَيْتُنَّ فَلَا تَخْضَعْنَ بِالْقَوْلِ فَيَطْمَعَ الَّذِي فِي قَلْبِهِ مَرَضٌ وَقُلْنَ قَوْلًا مَّعْرُوفًا ﴿٣٢﴾ وَقَرْنَ فِي بُيُوتِكُنَّ وَلَا تَبَرَّجْنَ تَبَرُّجَ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ الْأُولَىٰ ۚ وَأَقِمْنَ الصَّلَاةَ وَآتِينَ الزَّكَاةَ وَأَطِعْنَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ ۚ إِنَّمَا يُرِيدُ اللَّهُ لِيُذْهِبَ عَنْكُمُ الرِّجْسَ أَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ وَيُطَهِّرَكُمْ تَطْهِيرًا ﴿٣٣﴾ وَاذْكُرْنَ مَا يُتْلَىٰ فِي بُيُوتِكُنَّ مِنْ آيَاتِ اللَّهِ وَالْحِكْمَةِ ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ لَطِيفًا خَبِيرًا ﴿٣٤﴾﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٣٢-٣٤)

- 33:32. O wives of the Prophet, you are not like other women, provided that you fear Allah. So do not speak too softly, lest one in whose heart is a disease should be moved with desire; but speak in an appropriate manner.
- 33:33. Stay in your homes and do not flaunt your charms as was done during the former [times of] ignorance;<sup>2</sup> establish prayer and give zakāh;<sup>3</sup> and obey Allah and His Messenger. Allah only wants to keep all that is loathsome away from you, O members of the [Prophet's] household, and to purify you thoroughly.
- 33:34. And remember what is recited in your homes of the revelations of Allah and wisdom. Verily Allah is Knower of subtleties, All-Aware.

﴿O wives of the Prophet﴾ – this is addressed to all of them

<sup>2</sup> Jāhiliyah (the times of ignorance): this refers to the period before Islam.

<sup>3</sup> Wherever possible, Arabic terms have been translated into English. In cases where we have chosen to retain the Arabic, the transliterated word or phrase is shown in italics the first time it appears in the text. The term is also defined in the glossary found at the end of this book. (Editor)

﴿you are not like other women, provided that you fear Allah﴾; by doing so, you will surpass all other women and no other woman will be able to catch up with you. So strive to perfect your fear of Allah by all possible means and achieve all the goals thereof.

Hence Allah instructed them to avoid all means that could lead to what is prohibited, as He said:

﴿So do not speak too softly﴾ that is, when addressing men, or, knowing that they can hear you, by making your voice soft or speaking in a gentle manner which may cause ﴿one in whose heart is a disease﴾ – namely the disease of desire for fornication – to be moved with desire, for such a person is always ready and watching out for the slightest move that could stir desire, because his heart is not sound. The sound heart has no desire for that which Allah has prohibited and can hardly be moved or stirred to desire even when there is a reason for that, because it is free of sickness.

This is in contrast to the one who is sick at heart, who cannot cope with that which the sound-hearted person can cope with, and he cannot be patient like him. If there is the slightest reason that calls him to that which is prohibited, he will respond to it and will not refrain from it.

This indicates that the means come under the same rulings as the ends. Speaking softly and gently is basically permissible, but if it is a means that leads to something prohibited, then it is not allowed. Therefore when addressing men, women should not make their voices soft.

Because Allah forbade women to speak softly, it may be thought that they are instructed to make their voices harsh. In order to ward off this notion, Allah says: ﴿but speak in an appropriate manner﴾ that is, one that is not harsh or rough, just as it is not soft and alluring.

Think about how Allah says ﴿do not speak too softly﴾, and He did not say “do not speak softly”, because what is prohibited is soft speech that is alluring to men, in such a manner that anyone who hears it may be moved with desire. This is different from speaking in a gentle manner in which there is no alluring softness; rather it has the quality of being confident and firm when dealing with an opponent. No one would be moved with desire when hearing this. Hence Allah praised His Messenger (ﷺ) for his gentleness, as He said:

﴿It is by the mercy of Allah that you deal gently with them...﴾ (Āl 'Imrân 3: 159)

And He said to Moosâ ('alayhi as-salâm – peace be upon him) and Hâroon:

﴿Go, both of you, to Pharaoh, for he has indeed transgressed all bounds. But speak to him gently, so that perhaps he may pay heed or fear Allah.﴾ (Tâ Hâ 20: 43-44)

The fact that Allah says ﴿lest one in whose heart is a disease should be moved with desire﴾ in conjunction with the command to restrain carnal desires, and praise for men and women who do so, as well as the prohibition on approaching or coming near unlawful sex, indicates that if a person sees such an inclination in himself, and realises that he is tempted to commit prohibited deeds when he sees or hears the words of someone to whom he is attracted, and finds himself motivated to do that which is forbidden, he should remember that this is a disease. Therefore he should strive to combat this disease, put an end to evil thoughts that may lead to trouble, strive to overcome this serious malady, and ask Allah to protect him and guide him. This is all included in the command to restrain carnal desires.

﴿Stay in your homes﴾ that is, remain there because that is safer and more protecting for you

﴿and do not flaunt your charms as was done during the former [times of] ignorance﴾ that is, do not go out often, wearing adornment or perfume, as was the custom among the people of the former times of ignorance, who had no knowledge or religious commitment. All of this is aimed at warding off evil and that which leads to it.

Having enjoined them to fear Him in general terms and to fear Him with regard to issues that pertain to women in particular, Allah also enjoins them to obey Him, especially in terms of prayer and zakāh, which are deeds that everyone needs to do, for they are the greatest acts of worship and the noblest acts of obedience. Prayer involves sincerity and devotion to Allah, and zakāh involves kindness to His slaves.

Then Allah enjoins obedience in general terms, as He says: ﴿and obey Allah and His Messenger﴾. Obedience to Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) involves everything that is enjoined, whether it is obligatory or recommended.

﴿Allah only wants﴾ by ordaining these commands and prohibitions for you

﴿to keep all that is loathsome﴾ that is, evil and bad

﴿away from you, O members of the [Prophet's] household, and to purify you thoroughly﴾ so that you will be pure and purified.

In other words: praise your Lord and give thanks to Him for these commands and prohibitions of which He has told you, for they are in your best interests and are purely for your benefit. Allah would never want to cause you any hardship or difficulty; rather the aim is to purify your souls and your conduct and attitude, to make your deeds good and to increase your reward thereby.

Having commanded them to strive in His way, by means of the commands and prohibitions, Allah now tells them to seek knowledge and explains to them the way to attain that:

﴿And remember what is recited in your homes of the revelations of Allah and wisdom﴾ what is meant by the revelations of Allah is the Qur'an, and what is meant by wisdom is the subtle meanings thereof, or the Sunnah of His Messenger (ﷺ). Allah commanded them to remember these things, which includes remembering the words, reciting them, remembering the meanings, reflecting upon them and pondering them, deriving rulings and wisdom from them, acting in accordance with them, and interpreting them correctly.

﴿Verily Allah is Knower of subtleties, All-Aware﴾ – He is aware of the subtleties and hidden meanings of things, what is hidden in people's hearts, what is hidden in the heavens and on earth, and deeds that are done both openly and in secret.

His knowledge and awareness mean that He urges them to be sincere and to keep doing deeds in secret that Allah will reward.

One of the meanings of the divine name al-Lateef (translated here as ﴿Knower of subtleties﴾) is that He guides His slave to do good and protects him from evil in very subtle ways of which he is not aware, and He sends to him provision that he does not expect, and guides him to take measures that are difficult but will be the path by which he will attain the highest levels.

﴿إِنَّ الْمُسْلِمِينَ وَالْمُسْلِمَاتِ وَالْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ وَالْقَانِتِينَ وَالْقَانِتَاتِ
وَالصَّادِقِينَ وَالصَّادِقَاتِ وَالصَّابِرِينَ وَالصَّابِرَاتِ وَالْخَاشِعِينَ وَالْخَاشِعَاتِ
وَالْمُتَصَدِّقِينَ وَالْمُتَصَدِّقَاتِ وَالصَّائِمِينَ وَالصَّائِمَاتِ وَالْحَافِظِينَ فُرُوجَهُمْ
وَالْحَافِظَاتِ وَالذَّاكِرِينَ اللَّهَ كَثِيرًا وَالذَّاكِرَاتِ أَعَدَّ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةً
وَأَجْرًا عَظِيمًا﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٣٥)

- 33:35. For Muslim men and Muslim women, believing men and believing women, obedient men and obedient women, truthful men and truthful women, patient men and patient women, humble men and humble women, charitable men and charitable women, men who fast and women who fast, men who restrain their carnal desires and women who do likewise, men who remember Allah much and women who do likewise – for them Allah has prepared forgiveness and an immense reward.

Having mentioned the reward of the wives of the Messenger (ﷺ), and their punishment if they do not comply, and stating that they are not like other women, Allah (ﷻ) now speaks of other women.

Because the rulings on men and women are the same, Allah says:
 ﴿For Muslim men and Muslim women﴾ that is, with regard to visible actions and rulings, if they comply with them
 ﴿believing men and believing women﴾ this refers to inward actions, namely beliefs and deeds of the heart
 ﴿obedient men and obedient women﴾ who are obedient to Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ)
 ﴿truthful men and truthful women﴾ who are true in their words and deeds ﴿patient men and patient women﴾ who are patient in bearing hardship and calamity
 ﴿humble men and humble women﴾ who are humble in all circumstances, especially in worship, and especially in prayer ﴿charitable men and charitable women﴾ who give in charity, both obligatory and voluntary
 ﴿men who fast and women who fast﴾ which includes both obligatory and supererogatory fasts
 ﴿men who restrain their carnal desires and women who do likewise﴾, refraining from zinā (unlawful sex) and that which leads to it
 ﴿men who remember Allah much and women who do likewise﴾ that is, they remember Him at most times, especially at times when specific dhikr is to be recited, such as in the morning and afternoon, and following the obligatory prayers.

﴿– for them﴾ that is, for these people who are described in these glowing terms as possessing these noble characteristics, which include beliefs, deeds of the heart, physical deeds, spoken words, and doing acts that may benefit oneself or others, as well as doing good deeds and refraining from evil deeds, for the one who does these things has established the religion in the fullest sense, both outwardly and inwardly, and has attained Islam, eemân (faith) and ihsân.<sup>4</sup>

﴿Allah has prepared forgiveness﴾ – Allah will reward them for their deeds with forgiveness of their sins, because good deeds erase bad deeds

﴿and an immense reward﴾ that cannot be estimated except by the One Who gives it, of that which no eye has seen, no ear has heard, nor has it ever crossed the mind of man. We ask Allah to make us among them.

﴿وَمَا كَانَ لِمُؤْمِنٍ وَلَا مُؤْمِنَةٍ إِذَا قَضَى اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ أَمْرًا أَنْ يَكُونَ لَهُمُ الْخِيَرَةُ مِنْ أَمْرِهِمْ
وَمَنْ يَعْصِ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ فَقَدْ ضَلَّ ضَلَالًا مُبِينًا﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٣٦)

<sup>4</sup> Ihsân is referred to in the well-known hadith in which it was narrated that 'Umar (radhiya Allāhu 'anhu – may Allah be pleased with him) said: «We were sitting with the Prophet (ﷺ) when a man came to him whose clothes were intensely white and whose hair was intensely black; no signs of travel could be seen upon him, and none of us knew him. He sat down facing the Prophet (ﷺ), with his knees touching his, and he put his hands on his thighs, and said: O Muhammad, what is Islam? He said: To testify that there is no god except Allah, and that I am the Messenger of Allah; to establish regular prayer; to pay zakâh; to fast in Ramadan; and to perform pilgrimage to the House (the Kaaba). He said: You have spoken the truth. We were amazed by him: he asked a question then told him that he had spoken the truth. Then he said: O Muhammad, what is faith? He said: To believe in Allah, His angels, His Messengers, His Books, the Last Day, and the divine decree (al-qadr), both good and bad. He said: You have spoken the truth. We were amazed by him; he asked a question then told him that he had spoken the truth. Then he said: O Muhammad, what is ihsân (right action, goodness, sincerity)? He said: To worship Allah as if you see Him, for even though you cannot see Him, He sees you.» This version was narrated by Ibn Mâjah; the hadith was also narrated by Bukhari, Muslim and others.

33:36. It is not fitting for any believing man or believing woman, when Allah and His Messenger have decided concerning a matter, to have any choice in that matter. Whoever disobeys Allah and His Messenger has clearly gone astray.

That is, it is not appropriate or right for one who is a believer to do anything but hasten to do that which pleases Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), to shun that which angers Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), and to comply with their commands and heed their prohibitions.

It is not befitting for the believing man or the believing woman, «when Allah and His Messenger have decided concerning a matter» and have made it obligatory and binding, «to have any choice in that matter» that is, the choice of whether to comply or not. Rather the believing man and the believing woman know that the Messenger (ﷺ) is closer to them than their own selves, and they do not let some of their own whims and desires prevent them from obeying the command of Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ).

«Whoever disobeys Allah and His Messenger has clearly gone astray» because he has forsaken the straight path that leads to Allah and His paradise, and has chosen instead some other path that leads to the painful punishment. Allah mentions, first of all, the reason why the believer should not object to the command of Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), namely faith, then He mentions that which should prevent him from doing that, namely fear of being misguided which is connected to punishment and vengeance.

﴿وَإِذْ تَقُولُ لِلَّذِي أَنْعَمَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَأَنْعَمْتَ عَلَيْهِ أَمْسِكْ عَلَيْكَ زَوْجَكَ وَاتَّقِ اللَّهَ وَتُخْفِي فِي نَفْسِكَ مَا اللَّهُ مُبْدِيهِ وَتَخْشَى النَّاسَ وَاللَّهُ أَحَقُّ أَنْ تَخْشَهُ فَلَمَّا قَضَىٰ

زَيْدٌ مِّنْهَا وَطَرًا زَوَّجْتَهَا لَكِنِّي لَا يَكُونُ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ حَرَجٌ فِي أَزْوَاجِ أَدْعِيَائِهِمْ
إِذَا قَضَوْا مِنْهُنَّ وَطَرًا وَكَانَ أَمْرُ اللَّهِ مَفْعُولًا ﴿٣٧﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٣٧)

33:37. And [remember] when you [O Muhammad] said to him on whom Allah had conferred favour [of faith] and you [too] had conferred favour [of manumission]:<sup>5</sup> Keep your wife and fear Allah. You concealed in your heart that which Allah was going to disclose. You feared [the criticism of] the people but it was more fitting that you should fear Allah. When Zayd had completed the necessary formalities of divorce from her [and her 'iddah had ended], We gave her to you in marriage, so that there would not be any restrictions on the believers with regard to marrying the ex-wives of their adopted sons after they have completed the necessary formalities of divorce from them [and their 'iddah has ended]. And the decree of Allah is bound to be fulfilled.

The reason for revelation of these verses was that Allah wanted to prescribe a law that was applicable to all believers, which was that adopted sons do not come under the same rulings as real sons in all ways, and that there was no blame on those who had adopted them if they married their ex-wives.

This was something that was commonly practised and could not be abolished except through a major event. So Allah wanted this law to be demonstrated by His Messenger (ﷺ) in word and deed. When Allah wills something, He ordains a cause for it.

<sup>5</sup> This refers to Zayd ibn Hârithah (رضي الله عنه). He was the adopted son of the Prophet (ﷺ) and had been known as Zayd ibn Muhammad, until revelation came down abolishing the notion of adoption and emphasising the importance of calling people after their real fathers. Allah's decree that the Prophet (ﷺ) should marry the ex-wife of his adopted son put an end to the notion of adoption and what resulted from it of the taboo on marrying the ex-wife of an adopted son.

Zayd ibn Ḥārithah was formerly called Zayd ibn Muhammad, because the Prophet (ﷺ) had adopted him, so he was called after him, until the words:

﴿Call them [adopted sons] after their [real] fathers...﴾ (al-Aḥzāb 33: 5) – were revealed, after which he was called Zayd ibn Ḥārithah.

He was married to Zaynab bint Jaḥsh (raḍiya Allāhu ‘anhā – may Allah be pleased with her), the daughter of the paternal aunt of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ). It had occurred to the Messenger (ﷺ) that if Zayd divorced her, he would marry her, then Allah decreed that there should be some problem between her and Zayd that caused Zayd ibn Ḥārithah to come to the Prophet (ﷺ) and ask his permission to divorce her.

﴿And [remember] when you [O Muhammad] said to him on whom Allah had conferred favour [of faith]﴾ by guiding him to Islam
 ﴿and you [too] had conferred favour [of manumission]﴾ by setting him free. When he came to consult you about divorcing her, you said to him – advising him and telling him of that which was in his best interests, even though you wished that you could marry her –
 ﴿Keep your wife﴾ that is, do not divorce her, and be patient with her attitude towards you,
 ﴿and fear Allah﴾ with regard to your affairs in general and with regard to your wife in particular, for fearing Allah encourages and enjoins one to be patient.

﴿You concealed in your heart that which Allah was going to disclose﴾ – what he concealed was the fact that if Zayd divorced her, he would marry her.

﴿You feared [the criticism of] the people﴾ and that is why you did not disclose what was in your heart

﴿but it was more fitting that you should fear Allah﴾ and not pay attention to people.

«When Zayd had completed the necessary formalities of divorce from her [and her 'iddah had ended], We gave her to you in marriage» – We only did that to serve a great purpose, which was: «so that there would not be any restrictions on the believers with regard to marrying the ex-wives of their adopted sons» because they would have seen you marry the ex-wife of Zayd ibn Hâarithah, who had previously been called your son.

Because the words «so that there would not be any restrictions on the believers with regard to marrying the ex-wives of their adopted sons» are general in meaning and are applicable to all situations, but there may be some cases in which that is not permissible – which is before the necessary formalities of divorce have been completed – these general terms are restricted by the following phrase: «after they have completed the necessary formalities of divorce from them [and their 'iddah has ended]. And the decree of Allah is bound to be fulfilled» that is, it must inevitably come to pass and no one can stand in its way.

We learn a number of things from these verses which mention this story, including the following:

- Allah praised Zayd ibn Hâarithah on two counts. Firstly, Allah mentioned him by name in the Qur'an, and He did not mention any other Ṣaḥābi by name. Secondly, Allah told him that He had conferred favour upon him, namely the blessing of Islam and faith. This is testimony from Allah that he was a Muslim and a believer, both outwardly and inwardly. Otherwise there is no point in singling him out for favour, were it not that what is meant is a particular favour or blessing.
- The one who is manumitted owes it to the one who manumitted him.
- It is permissible to marry the ex-wife of one's adopted son, as is clearly stated here.

- Practical teaching is more effective than verbal teaching, especially if it is also accompanied by words, for that is light upon light.
- Having love in one's heart for someone other than one's wife or concubine, so long as it is not accompanied by any prohibited action, is not a sin, even if it is accompanied by wishes for the husband to divorce her so that one may marry her, without making any effort to cause separation between them, or being the cause of trouble, because Allah stated that the Messenger (ﷺ) was concealing that in his heart.
- The Messenger (ﷺ) conveyed the message clearly and did not omit anything of that which was revealed to him but he conveyed it, even this matter in which there was a rebuke to him. This indicates that he is indeed the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), who did not say anything but that which was revealed to him, and that his aim was not self-aggrandizement.
- The one whose advice is sought is in a position of trust, and he is obliged – if he is consulted about any matter – to give advice on the basis of what he knows is in the best interests of the person who is asking him for advice, even if it is contrary to his own desires. He should give precedence to the interests of the person seeking advice over his own whims and desires, and even if it is contrary to those whims and desires.
- Good advice to the one who seeks advice with regard to divorcing his wife includes advising him to keep her as much as possible, because that is better than separation.
- It is essential to give precedence to fear of Allah over fear of people, for that is more appropriate and is better.
- We also learn of the virtue of Zaynab (رضي الله عنها), the Mother of the Believers, because Allah ordained her marriage to His Messenger (ﷺ) without any proposal or witnesses. Therefore she used to boast of that to the other wives of the Messenger of Allah (ﷻ), saying: Your families gave you in marriage, but Allah gave me in marriage from above seven heavens.

- If a woman has a husband, it is not permissible to marry her or to plan or take measures to do so, until her husband has completed divorce proceedings with her. Divorce proceedings are not complete until the 'iddah is over, because before the 'iddah ends, she is still married.

﴿ مَا كَانَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ مِنْ حَرَجٍ فِيمَا فَرَضَ اللَّهُ لَهُ سُنَّةَ اللَّهِ فِي الَّذِينَ خَلَوْا مِنْ قَبْلُ وَكَانَ أَمْرُ اللَّهِ قَدَرًا مَقْدُورًا ﴾ (٣٨) الَّذِيكَ يَلْفُونَ رِسَالَتِ اللَّهِ وَيَحْشَوْنَهُ، وَلَا يَخْشَوْنَ أَحَدًا إِلَّا اللَّهَ وَكَفَى بِاللَّهِ حَسِيبًا ﴿٣٩﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٣٨-٣٩)

- 33:38. There is no blame on the Prophet with regard to what Allah has made lawful for him. Such was the way of Allah with those [Prophets] who came before. And the command of Allah is a decree determined.
- 33:39. [This is Allah's way] with those who convey the messages of Allah and who fear Him, and they do not fear anyone except Allah. And Allah is sufficient in taking account.

This is warding off criticism of the Messenger (ﷺ) for having numerous wives, and explains that this is criticism that is baseless.

﴿There is no blame﴾ that is, sin

﴿on the Prophet with regard to what Allah has made lawful for him﴾ that is, what Allah has allowed him of wives. This is something that Allah had permitted to the Prophets before him, hence He says:

﴿Such was the way of Allah with those [Prophets] who came before. And the command of Allah is a decree determined﴾ that is, it will inevitably come to pass.

Then Allah states who those were who came before him, and that this was their way and practice. They were «those who convey the messages of Allah», so they recite to people the revelations of Allah and His proofs and evidence, and they call them to Allah «and who fear Him» alone, with no partner or associate «and they do not fear anyone except Allah».

If this was the way of the infallible Prophets who fulfilled their role in the most perfect manner, which was to call people to Allah, fearing Him alone, which requires doing everything that is enjoined and refraining from everything that is prohibited, this indicates that there is nothing to criticise the Prophet (ﷺ) about.

«And Allah is sufficient in taking account» of His slaves, for He is watching their deeds. From this it is known that marriage is part of the way of the Messengers.

﴿ مَا كَانَ مُحَمَّدٌ أَبَا أَحَدٍ مِّن رِّجَالِكُمْ وَلَٰكِن رَّسُولَ اللَّهِ وَخَاتَمَ النَّبِيِّينَ ۚ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمًا ۝٤٠ ﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٤٠)

33:40. Muhammad is not the father of any man among you, but he is the Messenger of Allah and the last of the Prophets. Allah has knowledge of all things.

That is, the Messenger «Muhammad» (ﷺ) «is not the father of any man among you», O Ummah. Annulling the connection of Zayd ibn Hâarithah with him is included in that.

Because this is general in meaning and applies to all situations, if we take the verse as it appears to be, it would mean that the Prophet (ﷺ) is not the father of any man, whether by blood or by adoption. However, it was previously established that the Messenger (ﷺ) is a father to all the believers, and his wives (radiya Allāhu 'anhunna – may Allah be pleased with all of them) are their mothers. Therefore, in order to avoid anyone thinking that there could be some contradiction because of the general meaning of this statement, Allah says: ﴿but he is the Messenger of Allah and the last of the Prophets﴾ that is, this is his position, which is the position of one who must be obeyed and followed, one through whose teachings people are guided, one who is believed in, and precedence must be given to love of him over love of anyone else; he is the one who is sincere towards the believers, and because of his sincerity and love towards them, it is as if he were a father to them.

﴿Allah has knowledge of all things﴾ that is, His knowledge encompasses all things and He knows with whom to place His message and who is fit to receive His favour and who is not.

﴿يَتَأْتِيهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا اذْكُرُوا اللَّهَ ذِكْرًا كَثِيرًا ۝۴۱ وَسَبِّحُوْهُ بُكْرَةً وَّاَصِيْلًا ۝۴۲ هُوَ الَّذِي يُصَلِّيْ عَلَيْكُمْ وَمَلَائِكَتُهٗ لِيُخْرِجَكُم مِّنَ الظُّلُمٰتِ اِلَى النُّوْرِ ۚ وَكَانَ بِالْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ رَحِيْمًا ۝۴۳ تَحِيَّتُهُمْ يَوْمَ يَلْقَوْنَهٗ سَلٰمٌ وَّاَعَدَ لَهُمْ اَجْرًا كَرِيْمًا ۝۴۴﴾ (سورة

الأحزاب: ٤١-٤٤)

- 33:41. O you who believe, remember Allah with much remembrance, 33:42. And glorify Him morning and afternoon.
 33:43. For it is He Who sends blessings upon you, and His angels [ask Him to bless you and forgive you], so that He may bring you forth from the depths of darkness into the light. And He is Most Merciful to the believers.
 33:44. Their greeting on the day they meet Him will be: Peace, and He has prepared for them a generous reward.

Here Allah (ﷻ) instructs the believers to remember Him with much remembrance, such as tahleel, tahmeed, tasbeeh, takbeer,<sup>6</sup> and other words that bring one closer to Allah. The minimum of that is regularly reciting the dhikr for morning and afternoon, following the five obligatory prayers, and on various occasions when there are reasons to recite dhikr.

One should persist in doing that at all times and in all situations, by virtue of which the doer may advance without much effort, for that will motivate him to love and know Allah, and it will help him to do good and will restrain his tongue from evil speech.

﴿And glorify Him morning and afternoon﴾ that is, at the beginning and end of the day, because these are virtuous times and it is easy to do this at those times.

﴿For it is He Who sends blessings upon you, and His angels [ask Him to bless you and forgive you], so that He may bring you forth from the depths of darkness into the light. And He is Most Merciful to the believers﴾ that is, by His mercy and kindness towards the believers, by means of His blessings and praise for them, and the prayer and supplication of His angels, He brings them forth from the dark depths of sin and ignorance to the light of faith, guidance, knowledge and good deeds. This is the greatest blessing that He bestows upon His obedient slaves, which should make them be grateful and remember Allah a great deal, for He has shown kindness and mercy to them, and He causes the bearers of His Throne, the best of the angels, and those who are around the Throne, to glorify and praise their Lord and pray for forgiveness for those who believe, so they say:

﴿...Our Lord, You encompass all things in Your mercy and knowledge, so forgive those who repent and follow Your path, and protect them

<sup>6</sup> Tahleel: saying “lâ ilâha illâ Allâh (There is no god but Allah).”

Tahmeed: saying “alḥamdulillâh (praise be to Allah).”

Tasbeeh: saying “subḥân Allâh (glory be to Allah).”

Takbeer: saying “Allâhu akbar (Allah is Most Great).”

from the punishment of the blazing fire. Our Lord, and admit them to gardens of perpetual abode which You have promised them, and [admit] the righteous among their forebears, their spouses and their offspring. Verily, You are the Almighty, the Most Wise. And protect them from the evil consequences [of their sins], for whomever You protect from evil consequences on that day, You will indeed have bestowed mercy upon him, and that is the supreme triumph. ﴿(Ghāfir 40: 7-9)

This is the mercy and blessing that He bestows upon them in this world.

As for His mercy towards them in the hereafter, it is the greatest of mercy and the best reward, namely attaining the pleasure and greeting of their Lord, listening to His noble words, gazing upon His beautiful Countenance, and attaining immense rewards of which no one knows the extent except those to whom He gives them. Hence He says: ﴿Their greeting on the day they meet Him will be: Peace, and He has prepared for them a generous reward﴾.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ شَهِيدًا وَمُبَشِّرًا وَنَذِيرًا ﴿٤٥﴾ وَدَاعِيًا إِلَى اللَّهِ بِإِذْنِهِ
وَسِرَاجًا مُنِيرًا ﴿٤٦﴾ وَيَشِيرَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ بِأَنَّ لَهُم مِّنَ اللَّهِ فَضْلًا كَبِيرًا ﴿٤٧﴾ وَلَا تُطِيعِ
الْكُفْرِينَ وَالْمُنَافِقِينَ وَدَعْ أَذُنَهُمْ وَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى اللَّهِ وَكَفَى بِاللَّهِ وَكِيلًا ﴿٤٨﴾﴾
(سورة الأحزاب: ٤٥-٤٨)

- 33:45. O Prophet, verily We have sent you as a witness, a bearer of glad tidings and a warner, 33:46. as one who calls people to Allah by His leave, and as a lamp spreading light.
33:47. And give glad tidings to the believers that they will have great bounty from Allah.

33:48. Do not yield to the disbelievers and hypocrites, and pay no heed to their hurtful talk. Put your trust in Allah, for sufficient is Allah as a disposer of affairs.

These descriptions that Allah gives of His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ) reflect the purpose of his mission and its fundamental essence which was unique to that message. There are five points to note:

Firstly, he was sent as «a witness» to testify concerning his Ummah and what they did of good and evil, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

«...that you might be witnesses over humankind, and the Messenger might be a witness over you...» (al-Baqarah 2: 143)

– and:

«How will it be when We bring a witness from every nation and bring you [O Muhammad] as a witness against them?» (an-Nisâ 4: 41)

Therefore he is a just and acceptable witness.

Secondly and thirdly, he is «a bearer of glad tidings and a warner», which requires a definition of the recipients of those glad tidings and warnings, what those tidings and warnings are about, and the deeds expected of people in that context.

The recipients of the glad tidings are the pious believers who combine faith and righteous deeds with refraining from sin. Glad tidings are for them in the life of this world, of all kinds of reward, both worldly and spiritual. As a result of their faith and piety or fear of Allah, in the hereafter they will enjoy eternal bliss.

All of that requires an explanation of the deeds and piety that are needed in order to attain that reward, and different types of reward.

The recipients of the warning are the evildoers and wrongdoers, people of wickedness and ignorance. They are given the warning in this world of worldly and religious punishments that result from ignorance and wrongdoing. In the hereafter they will have a severe and lengthy punishment.

The details of all the above are to be found in what the Prophet (ﷺ) brought of the Qur'an and Sunnah.

Fourthly, he is «one who calls people to Allah» that is, Allah sent him to call people to their Lord, show them the way to paradise, and enjoin them to worship Him, which is the purpose for which they were created. This requires him to adhere to that to which he is calling them and to describe in detail the message to which he is calling them, by teaching them about their Lord and His divine attributes; declaring Him to be far above that which is not befitting to His majesty; describing all types of servitude to Him; calling people to Allah by the most effective means; giving each one who has a right his due; and being sincere in calling them to Allah alone, not to himself or seeking any kind of self-aggrandizement, as might be the inclination of many people. All of that was by Allah's leave, and by His will and decree.

Fifthly, he is «a lamp spreading light» which implies that all people are in the depths of darkness, without any light and without any knowledge to help them in their ignorance, until Allah sent this noble Prophet (ﷺ), by means of whom He illuminated that darkness, granted knowledge to ignorant people, and guided those who were lost to the straight path.

Thus the way became clear to righteous people, and they marched behind that leader from whom they learned about good and evil, who is blessed and who is doomed, and through the light that they received from him they came to know Who is worthy of worship, learning about Him through His praiseworthy attributes, perfect deeds and wise rulings.

«And give glad tidings to the believers that they will have great bounty from Allah» – here Allah mentions the recipients of the glad tidings, namely the believers. When faith is mentioned on its own, it also includes righteous deeds.

The subject of the glad tidings is the great bounty, namely immense abundance which is so great that no one would be able to estimate it. That includes victory in this world, guidance, forgiveness of sins, relief of distress, abundant and increasing provision, granting of blessings, and attaining the pleasure and reward of their Lord and being safe from His wrath and punishment.

This motivates people to strive, by telling them of the reward that Allah will bestow upon them for their good deeds, and it helps them to follow the straight path. This is part of the wisdom of Islam; another aspect of its wisdom is that in the context of warning, mention is made of the punishments implied by that warning; this helps one to refrain from that which Allah has forbidden.

Because there are some people who are prepared to oppose the Prophets and their followers who call people to Allah – namely the hypocrites, who make an outward pretence of being believers when inwardly they are disbelievers and evildoers, and the disbelievers who disbelieve both inwardly and outwardly – Allah forbade His Messenger (ﷺ) to obey them and warned him against doing that, as He said:

﴿Do not yield to the disbelievers and hypocrites﴾ that is, in any matter that is opposed to the way of Allah.

That does not mean actively harming them; rather what is meant is that he should not obey them or yield to them

﴿and pay no heed to their hurtful talk﴾, for this may soften their hearts and encourage them to accept Islam, and it may put a stop to much of the harm that they do to Islam and to its followers.

﴿Put your trust in Allah﴾ to grant you the upper hand and cause your enemy to fail

﴿for sufficient is Allah as a disposer of affairs﴾. Important matters are to be delegated to Him, so that He will take care of them and make it easy for His slave to achieve what he wants.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِذَا نَكَحْتُمُ الْمُؤْمِنَاتِ ثُمَّ طَلَقْتُمُوهُنَّ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ تَمْسُوهُنَّ
فَمَا لَكُمْ عَلَيْهِنَّ مِنْ عِدَّةٍ تَعْتَدُونَهَا فَمَعَهُنَّ وَسِرَّوَهُنَّ سَرَاحًا جَمِيلًا﴾ (سورة

الأحزاب: ٤٩)

33:49. O you who believe, if you marry believing women and then divorce them before the marriage is consummated, you have no reason to ask them to observe any waiting period ['iddah] for you. So give them a gift [as compensation], and let them go in an amicable manner.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells the believers that if they marry believing women, then divorce them before consummating the marriage, those women do not have to observe the 'iddah, and the men have no reason to ask them to do so. Allah commands their husbands to give them a gift in this case, so as to console them for leaving them, and so that the separation may be amicable, without any dispute, trading of insults or making demands on one another, and the like.

This verse is quoted as evidence to support the view that divorce can only occur after marriage. If a man divorces a woman before marrying her, or makes divorce conditional upon marrying her, it does not count, because Allah says: ﴿if you marry believing women and then divorce them﴾. So it is ordained that divorce can only come after marriage, which indicates that if it is done before marriage, it does not count.

As divorce is a complete separation, which means that the spouses become completely prohibited to one another, it cannot occur before marriage. Therefore it is more appropriate to say that divorce by means of dhihâr,<sup>7</sup> eelâ<sup>8</sup> and the like also cannot be done before marriage. This is the correct scholarly view.

This verse also indicates that divorce is permissible, because Allah speaks of when the believers do that, without blaming them or rebuking them for it, even though the verse begins by addressing the believers. It also indicates that it is permissible to issue a divorce before consummating the marriage, as Allah says elsewhere:

﴿There is no blame on you if you divorce women before the marriage is consummated...﴾ (al-Baqarah 2: 236)

And it indicates that if a woman is divorced before consummation of the marriage, she is not required to observe ‘iddah; rather as soon as she is divorced, it is permissible for her to marry someone else, because there is no impediment to doing so. But after consummation of the marriage, she is required to observe ‘iddah in the event of divorce.

But does the word translated here as “consummation” refer specifically to intercourse, as is agreed upon? Or is being alone together to be regarded in the same way, even if no intercourse takes place? The latter was stated in fatwas issued by the Rightly-Guided Caliphs, and this is the correct view. If the husband has been alone

<sup>7</sup> Dhihâr is the unlawful act of saying to one’s spouse: “You are as impermissible for me [to enjoy intimately] as my mother” – and similar statements.

<sup>8</sup> Eelâ is an oath of abstinence, as referred to in the verse:

﴿For those who take an oath of abstinence from their wives, there should be a [maximum] waiting period of four months; if they then go back [to their normal relationship], Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.﴾ (al-Baqarah 2: 226) with the wife, even if no intercourse took place, she must observe 'iddah in the event of divorce.

Moreover, the woman who is divorced before consummation of the marriage is to be given a gift, from one who is well off according to his means, and from one who is poor according to his means, but this applies if he did not specify a mahr (dowry) for her. If he did specify her dowry, then if he divorces her before consummation of the marriage, she is to be given half of the mahr, in which case there is no need for a gift.

However, the one who divorces his wife before or after consummation of the marriage must do so amicably, and each partner should speak well of the other and not do otherwise, because that would lead to a great deal of evil, such as each of them reviling the other to a great extent.

Furthermore, the 'iddah is the right of the husband, because Allah says: ﴿you have no reason to ask them to observe any waiting period ['iddah] for you﴾, which indicates that if he divorces her after consummation of the marriage, he has the right to ask her to observe 'iddah. But the woman whose marriage ends with the death of her husband must observe 'iddah in all cases, because Allah says, ﴿and then divorce them...﴾. However, apart from the woman whose marriage was not consummated, those whose marriages end by death or divorce must observe 'iddah.

﴿يَتَأْتِيهَا النَّبِيُّ إِنَّا أَحْلَلْنَا لَكَ أَزْوَاجَ الَّذِينَ آمَنَتْ أَجُورُهُنَّ وَمَا مَلَكَتْ يَمِينُكَ
مِمَّا أَفَاءَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْكَ وَبَنَاتِ عَمِّكَ وَبَنَاتِ عَمَّتِكَ وَبَنَاتِ خَالَكَ وَبَنَاتِ خَالَتِكَ
الَّتِي هَاجَرَ مَعَكَ وَامْرَأَةً مُؤْمِنَةً إِنْ وَهَبَتْ نَفْسَهَا لِلنَّبِيِّ إِنْ أَرَادَ النَّبِيُّ أَنْ يَسْتَنْكِحَهَا
خَالِصَةً لَكَ مِنْ دُونِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ قَدْ عَلِمْنَا مَا فَرَضْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ فِي أَزْوَاجِهِمْ وَمَا

مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُهُمْ لِكَيْلَا يَكُونَ عَلَيْكَ حَرَجٌ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ غَفُورًا رَحِيمًا
 ﴿٥٠﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٥٠)

33:50. O Prophet, We have made lawful for you your wives whose dowries you have paid; any slave women you may own from among the captives of war whom Allah has bestowed upon you; daughters of your paternal uncles, daughters of your paternal aunts, daughters of your maternal uncles, and daughters of your maternal aunts who migrated [to Madinah] with you; and a believing woman if she offers herself to the Prophet [for marriage, without a dowry], and the Prophet wishes to marry her – that is exclusively for you [O Muhammad], not for the rest of the believers. We know what We have stipulated for them with regard to their marriages [to free women] and with regard to any slave women they may own, so that there may be no constraint upon you. And Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

Here Allah (ﷻ) reminds His Messenger (ﷺ) of His favour with regard to what He has permitted to him, both of things that he has in common with the believers and things that are for him alone:

﴿O Prophet, We have made lawful for you your wives whose dowries you have paid﴾. This is something that he has in common with the believers, because in like manner Allah has made lawful for them their wives to whom they have given their dowries.

Likewise, We have made lawful for you ﴿any slave women you may own from among the captives of war whom Allah has bestowed upon you﴾ among the booty seized from the disbelievers, such as their slaves and free individuals who were captured, whether they had husbands or did not. This is something else that was common to both him and to the believers.

Another category that was common to both him and to the believers was: ﴿daughters of your paternal uncles, daughters of your paternal aunts, daughters of your maternal uncles, and daughters of your maternal aunts» the words translated here as «paternal uncles», «paternal aunts», «maternal uncles» and «maternal aunts» also include those that are described in English as great-uncles and great-aunts (so what is meant is that the daughters of great-uncles and great-aunts are also permissible for marriage). These are the only women who are permissible.

From this meaning it is understood that all relatives other than these are not permissible, as was explained in Soorat an-Nisâ'. Therefore no female relatives are permissible in marriage except these four. All others, descendants and ascendants, and descendants of one's mother and father, no matter how far the line of descent reaches, and descendants of one's grandparents, are not permissible.

«who migrated [to Madinah] with you» this limits permissibility to those women who migrated with the Messenger (ﷺ), which is the correct interpretation of this verse.

«and» We have made permissible for you «a believing woman if she offers herself to the Prophet [for marriage, without a dowry]» simply by virtue of her offering herself, if «the Prophet wishes to marry her» that is, it is subject to his choice.

«that is exclusively for you [O Muhammad], not for the rest of the believers» that is, it is permissible for you to marry a woman who offers herself in marriage. As for the believers, it is not permissible for them to marry a woman just because she offers herself to them in marriage.

«We know what We have stipulated for them with regard to their marriages [to free women] and with regard to any slave women they may own» that is, We know what is required of the believers, what is permissible for them and what is not permissible for them of wives and slave women, and We have taught them that and explained the rulings concerning that.

Whatever is mentioned in this verse that appears to be contrary to that is only for you (O Prophet ﷺ), because Allah has made it addressed to the Messenger (ﷺ) only, as He said: ﴿O Prophet, We have made lawful for you...﴾

The phrase ﴿that is exclusively for you [O Muhammad], not for the rest of the believers﴾ means: We have permitted to you, O Prophet (ﷺ), what we have not permitted to them, and We have given you more leeway than We have given to others, ﴿so that there may be no constraint upon you﴾. This is part of the great care that Allah showed to His Messenger (ﷺ).

﴿And Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful﴾ that is, He has always been forgiving and merciful, bestowing upon His slaves His forgiveness, mercy, generosity and kindness as dictated by His wisdom, when they take the appropriate measures that lead to forgiveness.

﴿ تَرْجِي مَنْ تَشَاءُ مِنْهُمْ وَتُقَوِّ إِلَيْكَ مَنْ تَشَاءُ وَمِنْ أَنْفَعْتِ يَمَّنْ عَرَلْتَ فَلَا جُنَاحَ عَلَيْكَ ذَلِكَ أَدْنَىٰ أَنْ تَقْرَءَ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا يَحْزَنَ وَبِرِضَاكَ بِمَا آتَيْنَهُنَّ كُلُّهُنَّ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ مَا فِي قُلُوبِكُمْ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَلِيمًا حَلِيمًا ﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٥١)

33:51. You [O Muhammad] may defer [the turn of] any of them that you wish, and you may share your time with any of them that you wish, and there is no blame on you if you share your time with one of those whose [turn] you had set aside. That will make it more likely that they will be content and not distressed, and that they will all be satisfied with what you give them.<sup>9</sup> Allah knows best what is in your hearts, and Allah is All-Knowing, Most Forbearing.

<sup>9</sup> In this verse Allah tells His Prophet (ﷺ) that he is not obliged to share his time equally among his wives; the fact that he continued to share his time equally among them, even though he was not obliged to do so, =

This is one way in which Allah made things easy for His Messenger (ﷺ) and bestowed His mercy upon him, as He permitted him not to divide his time equally among his wives, in the sense that doing so was no longer obligatory for him, and if he did do that, it would be a voluntary act of kindness on his part. Despite that, the Prophet (ﷺ) still tried to treat them equally in all ways, and he said:

«O Allah, this is how I am sharing out that which is under my control (time and spending on their maintenance), so do not blame me for that which is not under my control (love and inclination towards some more than others).» (An acceptable hadith recorded by Abu Dâwood)<sup>10</sup>

Here Allah says: «You [O Muhammad] may defer [the turn of] any of them that you wish» that is, you may postpone the turn of any of your wives that you wish, and not spend time with her or stay overnight with her,

«and you may share your time with any of them that you wish» that is, you may spend the night with her.

«and there is no blame on you if you share your time with one of those whose [turn] you had set aside» – what is meant is: the choice is up to you in all cases.

---

= would be appreciated by his wives and they would therefore feel content. (ar-Râzi)

<sup>10</sup> All hadiths in this text have been checked and verified by IIPH's researchers. It is rare, but it does happen that a hadith is not verifiable within the timeframe of researching and editing the book. In that case, a decision is made by the editorial board as to whether or not to include the hadith. It is IIPH's policy not to include weak hadiths or fabricated (fake) hadiths in our publications. If a weak hadith is included in any text, it is only because the author of the book discusses it as a weak hadith. (Editor)

Many of the commentators said that this applies only to those who offered themselves to him in marriage: he had the option to defer the turn of any of them that he wished, and to share his time with any of them that he wished. In other words, he could accept any woman who offered herself in marriage to him, or he could reject any of them if he wished. And Allah knows best

Then Allah explains the wisdom behind that, as He said:
 ﴿That﴾ namely giving you leeway in this matter, leaving it for you to decide, and counting whatever you do with regard to sharing your time among them as voluntary kindness,
 ﴿will make it more likely that they will be content and not distressed, and that they will all be satisfied with what you give them﴾, because they will know that you have not omitted something obligatory and you have not neglected the binding dues of others.

﴿Allah knows best what is in your hearts﴾ that is, He knows what feelings go through people's minds when giving other people their dues, both obligatory and recommended, and when there is a conflict between dues; therefore He has prescribed this leeway for you, O Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), so that you may reassure your wives.

﴿and Allah is All-Knowing, Most Forbearing﴾ that is, His knowledge is abundant and His forbearing is immense. By His knowledge He has prescribed for you what is in your best interests and brings the greatest reward, and by His forbearance He does not punish you for what you do and what your hearts persist in of evil.

﴿لَا يَحِلُّ لَكَ الْنِسَاءُ مِنْ بَعْدُ وَلَا أَنْ تَبَدَّلَ بِهِنَّ مِنْ أَزْوَاجٍ وَلَوْ أَعْجَبَكَ حُسْنُهُنَّ إِلَّا مَا مَلَكَتْ يَمِينُكَ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ رَقِيبًا ۝٥٢﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٥٢)

33:52. It is not lawful for you to take any [more] wives henceforth, or to replace [your current wives] with others,<sup>11</sup> even though their beauty pleases you, except any slave women you may own. And Allah is always watching over all things.

Here Allah shows His appreciation to the wives of His Messenger (ﷺ), as they had chosen Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ) and the final abode. Therefore He had mercy on them and restricted His Messenger (ﷺ) to them (in the sense that he was not permitted to take any more wives). Hence He said:

﴿It is not lawful for you to take any [more] wives henceforth﴾ in addition to your current wives

﴿or to replace [your current wives] with others﴾ that is, by divorcing some of them and taking other wives in their stead.

By means of this verse, they became safe from having more co-wives and from divorce, because Allah decreed that they would be his wives in this world and the hereafter, and there would be no separation between him and them.

﴿even though their beauty pleases you﴾ that is, the beauty of other women, for they are not permissible for you

﴿except any slave women you may own﴾ that is, captives seized in war. That is permissible for you, for the resentment that wives may feel towards concubines is less than that which they may feel towards co-wives.

﴿And Allah is always watching over all things﴾ that is, He is watching all things and knows how things will develop, and He is controlling matters in the best and most precise way.

<sup>11</sup> This is by way of honouring the wives of the Prophet (ﷺ), who had been given the choice between the life of this world, and Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ), and the final abode (in 33: 28-29), and had chosen Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ).

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لَا تَدْخُلُوا بُيُوتَ النَّبِيِّ إِلَّا أَن يُؤْذَنَ لَكُمْ إِلَى طَعَامٍ غَيْرَ
نَظَرٍ إِنَّهُ وَلَكِنَّ إِذَا دُعِيتُمْ فَادْخُلُوا إِذَا طَعِمْتُمْ فَانْتَشِرُوا وَلَا مُسْتَقْسِنِينَ لِحَدِيثٍ
إِنَّ ذَٰلِكُمْ كَانَ يُؤْذَى النَّبِيَّ فَيَسْتَحْيَ مِنْكُمْ وَاللَّهُ لَا يَسْتَحْيَ مِنْ الْحَقِّ وَإِذَا
سَأَلْتُمُوهُنَّ مَتَاعًا فَسْأَلُوهُنَّ مِنْ وَرَاءِ حِجَابٍ ذَٰلِكُمْ أَطْهَرُ لِقُلُوبِكُمْ وَقُلُوبِهِنَّ
وَمَا كَانَ لَكُمْ أَنْ تُؤْذُوا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ وَلَا أَنْ تَنْكِحُوا أَزْوَاجَهُ مِنْ بَعْدِهِ أَبَدًا
إِنَّ ذَٰلِكُمْ كَانَ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ عَظِيمًا ﴿٥٣﴾ إِنْ تَبَدُّوا شَيْئًا أَوْ خَفَوْهُ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ بِكُلِّ
شَيْءٍ عَلِيمًا ﴿٥٤﴾﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٥٣-٥٤)

33:53. O you who believe, do not enter the houses of the Prophet, unless you are given permission [and are invited] to come for a meal; and do not enter in hopes of getting a meal and waiting for it to be prepared.<sup>12</sup> But if you are invited, then enter, and when you have eaten, then disperse, without lingering for conversation. Such [behaviour] causes annoyance to the Prophet; he is too shy to ask you to leave, but Allah is not too shy [to tell you] the truth. And when you ask them [his wives] for anything, ask them from behind a screen; that is more pure for your hearts and for theirs. It is not proper for you to cause annoyance to the Messenger of Allah or to ever marry his wives after he is gone, for that would be a grievous offence before Allah.

33:54. Whether you disclose something or conceal it, verily Allah has knowledge of all things.

Here Allah (ﷻ) instructs His believing slaves to observe proper etiquette with the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) when entering his houses:

<sup>12</sup> There were some people who would enter the Prophet's houses at mealtimes, hoping for a meal without being invited.

﴿O you who believe, do not enter the houses of the Prophet, unless you are given permission [and are invited] to come for a meal﴾ that is, do not enter his houses without permission, or enter for the purpose of finding food. Moreover do not enter his houses ﴿in hopes of getting a meal﴾ that is, expecting a meal and waiting until it is cooked.

What is meant is: you should not enter the houses of the Prophet (ﷺ) except under two conditions: that permission is given to you to enter, and that you should stay only as long as is necessary. Hence Allah says:

﴿But if you are invited, then enter, and when you have eaten, then disperse, without lingering for conversation﴾ that is, before and after the meal.

Then Allah explains the wisdom and benefit behind this prohibition: ﴿Such [behaviour]﴾ that is, your lingering for longer than is necessary ﴿causes annoyance to the Prophet﴾ that is, it is imposing on him and making things hard for him when you detain him from going to check on his family and look after them, and it distracts him from doing so. ﴿he is too shy to ask you to leave﴾ as is the usual practice, because people – especially people of dignity – feel too shy to tell people to leave their homes.

﴿but Allah is not too shy [to tell you] the truth﴾.

When there is a clear instruction in Islamic teaching, even though one may think it better to refrain from complying with it out of shyness or to follow prevailing social etiquette, the right thing to do is to have the resolve to comply with the teachings and be certain that whatever is contrary to it is not in fact part of proper etiquette at all. Allah (ﷻ) is not too shy to enjoin what is good for you and what is kindest to His Messenger (ﷺ), no matter what it is.

Thus He taught them the proper manner of entering the Prophet's houses. With regard to the proper etiquette when addressing his wives, then either there is a need to talk to them or there is not. If there is no need to talk to them, they should not do that and the proper etiquette is to refrain from doing it. If there is a need to do that, such as if they need to ask them for something like household vessels and so on, then they should ask them «from behind a screen», that is, there should be something to screen them from view, because there is no need to see them.

So looking at them was prohibited in all situations, and the ruling on speaking to them depended on whether there was a need to do so or not, as explained above.

Then Allah mentions the wisdom behind that: «that is more pure for your hearts and for theirs» because it is more appropriate, so as to avoid anything that could give rise to suspicion. The more one keeps away from things that could lead to evil, the safer it is and the purer it is for one's heart.

Therefore, among the Islamic guidelines that Allah often explains in detail is the principle that all means that may cause evil or lead to it are prohibited, and it is prescribed to keep away from them by all possible means.

Then comes a comprehensive phrase which reflects a general principle:

«It is not proper for you» O believers; it is not befitting and is not appropriate for you, and in fact it is most abhorrent «for you to cause annoyance to the Messenger of Allah» that is, in word or deed, with regard to anything that is connected to him «or to ever marry his wives after he is gone». This is one of the things that would cause annoyance to him, because he is in a great and honourable position, and marrying his wives after he is gone would undermine that position.

Moreover, they are his wives in this world and the hereafter, and the bond of marriage between them continues after his death. Therefore it is not permissible for anyone of his Ummah to marry his wives after he is gone.

﴿for that would be a grievous offence before Allah﴾. This Ummah complied with this command and avoided that which Allah (ﷻ) had forbidden. Praise and thanks be to Allah.

Then Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿Whether you disclose something﴾ and show it openly ﴿or conceal it, verily Allah has knowledge of all things﴾. He knows what is in your hearts and what you disclose, and He will requite you accordingly.

﴿لَا جُنَاحَ عَلَيْهِنَّ فِيءِ آبَائِهِنَّ وَلَا أَبْنَائِهِنَّ وَلَا إِخْوَانِهِنَّ وَلَا أَخَوَاتِهِنَّ وَلَا نِسَائِهِنَّ وَلَا مَا مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُهُنَّ وَأَتَّقِينَ اللَّهَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ شَهِيدًا﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٥٥)

33:55. There is no blame [on the Prophet's wives, if they are seen unveiled] by their fathers, their sons, their brothers, their brothers' sons, their sisters' sons, their [fellow Muslim] women, or slaves whom they own. And [O wives of the Prophet] fear Allah, for verily Allah is witness to all things.

Because his wives are not to be asked for anything except from behind a screen, and because the wording is general in meaning and includes everyone, there was a need to state who is exempted from the ruling, namely the mahrams who are mentioned here, and that ﴿There is no blame [on the Prophet's wives]﴾ if they do not observe hijab in front of these relatives.

No mention is made here of paternal uncles and maternal uncles, because there is no need for them to observe hijab in front of those of whom they are aunts, namely the sons of their brothers and sisters, even though they are senior to them. Therefore it is more appropriate that they should not have to observe hijab in front of their paternal uncles and maternal uncles. The wording of the other verse clearly mentions the paternal uncle and maternal uncle, and it is in the light of that that we may understand this verse.

﴿their [fellow Muslim] women﴾ that is, there is no blame on them if they do not observe hijab in front of their fellow Muslim women. This excludes non-Muslim women. It may be that what is meant is women in general, so a woman does not have to observe hijab in front of another woman.

﴿or slaves whom they own﴾ so long as the slave is entirely her property (and ownership is not shared with anyone else).

Having stated that there is no blame on them for not observing hijab in these cases, Allah stipulates that in this situation and others it is necessary to fear Allah, and that there should be no reservations on the basis of Islamic teaching with regard to that matter. Hence Allah says:

﴿And [O wives of the Prophet], fear Allah﴾ in all circumstances
 ﴿for verily Allah is witness to all things﴾ that is, He witnesses all deeds that people do, both visible and hidden; He hears what they say and sees what they do, then He will requite them for that in full.

﴿إِنَّ اللَّهَ وَمَلَائِكَتَهُ يُصَلُّونَ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا صَلُّوا عَلَيْهِ وَسَلِّمُوا تَسْلِيمًا﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٥٦)

33:56. Verily Allah and His angels send blessings upon the Prophet. O you who believe, send blessings upon him and salute him with the salutation of peace.

Here Allah (ﷻ) highlights the perfection and high status of the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), and his lofty renown, before Allah and before His creation, and tells us that «Verily Allah and His angels send blessings upon the Prophet» that is, Allah praises him before the angels and those on high, because He loves him, and the angels who are close to Allah praise him and pray for him, beseeching Allah.

«O you who believe, send blessings upon him and salute him with the salutation of peace», following the example of Allah and His angels, as a reward to him for some of the rights that he has over them, so as to perfect their faith and show respect, love and honour for him, and as a means of increasing their good deeds and expiating their bad deeds.

The best wording for sending blessings upon the Prophet (ﷺ) is that which he taught to his Companions:

«O Allah, send prayers upon Muhammad and upon the family of Muhammad, as You sent prayers upon the family of Ibrâheem; You are indeed Worthy of Praise, Full of Glory. And send blessings upon Muhammad and upon the family of Muhammad as You sent blessings upon the family of Ibrâheem; You are indeed Worthy of Praise, Full of Glory.» (Bukhari)

This command to send blessings and salutations upon the Prophet (ﷺ) is prescribed at all times, and many of the scholars regarded it as obligatory in the prayer.

﴿إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُؤْذُونَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ لَعَنَهُمُ اللَّهُ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ وَأَعَدَّ لَهُمْ عَذَابًا مُهِينًا
وَالَّذِينَ يُؤْذُونَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ بَغْيٍ مَا كَتَبْنَا فَقَدْ أَحْتَمَلُوا
بِهْتِنًا وَإِنَّمَا تُحْيِيهَا﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٥٧-٥٨)

- 33:57. Those who offend Allah and His Messenger, Allah has cursed them in this world and in the hereafter, and He has prepared for them a humiliating punishment.

33:58. Those who malign believing men and believing women without them having done anything wrong will bear the guilt of slander and manifest sin.

Having commanded people to venerate His Messenger (ﷺ), and send blessings and salutations upon him, Allah (ﷻ) now forbids them to offend him, and warns against doing that:

«Those who offend Allah and His Messenger» – this includes all kinds of offence, in word or in deed, such as reviling, insulting, criticising him or his religion, or doing anything that will cause offence to him. «Allah has cursed them in this world» that is, He has cast them far away from His mercy, and part of the curse on them in this world is capital punishment for the one who reviles the Messenger (ﷺ) or says something offensive about him.

«and in the hereafter, and He has prepared for them a humiliating punishment» namely requital for their offence, by being subjected to the painful punishment. Offending the Messenger (ﷺ) is not like offending anyone else, because no one can truly believe in Allah unless he believes in His Messenger (ﷺ), who is entitled to veneration, which is one of the requirements of faith, and the level of veneration to which he is entitled is unlike any other, although offending the believers is also a grave sin. Hence Allah says concerning that:

«Those who malign believing men and believing women without them having done anything wrong» that is, without any offence on their part that would dictate that they be maligned,

«will bear the guilt of slander» because they have maligned them with no cause

«and manifest sin» because they have transgressed against them and violated the sanctity that Allah commanded should be respected. Hence reviling individual believers is deserving of a disciplinary punishment, according to the situation and the virtue of the believer in question. The disciplinary punishment for one who reviles the

Ṣaḥābah is more severe, and the disciplinary punishment for one who reviles the scholars and people of religious commitment is more severe than that of one who reviles others.

يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ قُلْ لِّأَزْوَاجِكَ وَبَنَاتِكَ وَنِسَاءِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ يُدْنِينَ عَلَيْهِنَّ مِنْ جَلْبَابِهِنَّ
ذَلِكَ أَتَى أَنْ يَعْرِفْنَ فَلَا يُؤْذِينَ ۖ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ غَفُورًا رَحِيمًا ﴿٥٩﴾ لَّيْنٌ لِّمَنْ يَنْتَه
الْمُنْفِقُونَ وَالَّذِينَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ مَّرَضٌ وَالْمُرْجِفُونَ فِي الْمَدِينَةِ لَنُغْرِيَنَّكَ بِهِمْ
ثُمَّ لَا يَجَاوِرُونَكَ فِيهَا إِلَّا قَلِيلًا ﴿٦٠﴾ مَلْعُونِينَ أَيْنَمَا ثَقِفُوا أَخِذُوا وَقُتِلُوا
تَفْتِيلًا ﴿٦١﴾ سُنَّةَ اللَّهِ فِي الَّذِينَ خَلَوْا مِنْ قَبْلُ وَلَنْ تَجِدَ لِسُنَّةِ اللَّهِ تَبْدِيلًا
(سورة الأحزاب: ٥٩-٦٢)

- 33:59. O Prophet, tell your wives and daughters, and the believing women, to put on their jalābeeb<sup>13</sup> [when they go out]; this will make it more likely that they will be recognised [as chaste women] and will not be harassed. And Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.
- 33:60. If the hypocrites, those in whose hearts is a disease and the rumour-mongers in Madinah do not desist, We will surely instruct you to take action against them. Then they will not remain with you in the city for much longer.
- 33:61. They are cursed; wherever they are found, they should be captured and killed outright.<sup>14</sup>

<sup>13</sup> Jalābeeb (sing. jilbāb): the jilbāb is an outer garment that covers the entire body from the top of the head. According to the commentators, that includes covering the face, leaving the eyes – or one eye – uncovered so the woman can see where she is going.

<sup>14</sup> This refers to the hypocrites mentioned in the previous verse, and applies so long as they persist in their hypocrisy and in spreading rumours in order to cause turmoil and harm to the Muslims.

33:62. Such was the way of Allah with those who came before. And you will find no change in the way of Allah.

﴿O Prophet, tell your wives and daughters, and the believing women...﴾ This verse is the one that is known as the verse of hijab, in which Allah instructs His Prophet (ﷺ) to instruct women in general to observe hijab, starting with his wives and daughters, because the instruction is more emphatic in their case than that of other women, and because the one who instructs others to do something should start with his family before anyone else, as in the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿O you who believe, guard yourselves and your families against a fire whose fuel is men and stones...﴾ (at-Tahreem 66: 6)

﴿to put on their jalâbeeb [when they go out]﴾ the jilbâb (singular of jalâbeeb) is an outer garment that is worn over the head cover, upper garment and so on; women should cover their faces and chests.

Then Allah mentions the wisdom behind that: ﴿this will make it more likely that they will be recognised [as chaste women] and will not be harassed﴾ – this indicates that they could be harassed if they did not observe hijab, because if they did not observe hijab, it may be thought that they were not chaste, so men in whose hearts is a disease could harass them. Moreover, people might look down on them and assume that they were slave women, and anyone with evil intent might think little of them. Hijab deters those who have evil intentions towards them.

﴿And Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful﴾ as He has forgiven you for what you did in the past, and He has bestowed mercy upon you by explaining the rulings to you, clarifying what is lawful and what is prohibited. So these rulings block the means of evil on the part of women.

As for the evildoers (who spread false rumours), Allah threatens them by saying:

﴿If the hypocrites, those in whose hearts is a disease﴾ namely the disease of doubt and desire

﴿and the rumour-mongers in Madinah﴾ that is, those who spread rumours in order to make the Muslims afraid of the enemy, and who speak of the large numbers and strength of the enemy and the weakness of the Muslims

﴿do not desist﴾ – no mention is made of the evil deed from which they should desist; therefore this includes whatever thoughts they had in their minds that were calling to evil, whether that was slandering Islam and its followers, scaring the Muslims, undermining their resolve, speaking ill of the believing women and accusing them of immorality, or other sins that are committed by such people.

﴿We will surely instruct you to take action against them﴾ that is, We will instruct you to punish them and fight them, and We will give you power over them. Then if We do that, they will not have the power to stand up to you, and they will have no strength and no protection. Hence Allah says:

﴿Then they will not remain with you in the city for much longer﴾ that is, they will not remain with you in Madinah for much longer, for you will kill them or banish them.

This indicates that banishing evildoers, who may cause harm by staying among the Muslims, is more effective in putting an end to their evil and protecting the Muslims from it. Moreover, ﴿They are cursed; wherever they are found, they should be captured and killed outright﴾ that is, they should be banished wherever they are found, and they should not feel secure or settled; they should fear that they may be killed, detained or punished.

﴿Such was the way of Allah with those who came before﴾ – those who persist in sin and have the audacity to cause offence, and do not desist, are to be punished severely

﴿And you will find no change in the way of Allah﴾; rather this is the usual way of Allah (ﷻ), which is connected to cause and effect.

﴿يَسْأَلُكَ النَّاسُ عَنِ السَّاعَةِ ۖ قُلْ إِنَّمَا عِلْمُهَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ ۖ وَمَا يُدْرِيكَ لَعَلَّ السَّاعَةَ تَكُونُ قَرِيبًا ۝٦٣﴾ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَعَنَ الْكَافِرِينَ وَأَعَدَّ لَهُمْ سَعِيرًا ۝٦٤ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا أَبَدًا ۖ لَا يَجِدُونَ وِلَايًا وَلَا نَصِيرًا ۝٦٥ يَوْمَ تُقَلَّبُ وُجُوهُهُمْ فِي النَّارِ يَقُولُونَ يَا لَيْتَنَّا اطَّعْنَا اللَّهَ وَاطَّعْنَا الرَّسُولَ ۝٦٦ وَقَالُوا رَبَّنَا إِنَّا أَطَعْنَا سَادَتَنَا وَكِبَرَاءَنَا فَأَضَلُّونَا السَّبِيلَ ۝٦٧ رَبَّنَا آتِهِمْ ضِعْفَيْنِ مِنَ الْعَذَابِ وَالْعَنَهُمُ لَعْنًا كَبِيرًا ۝٦٨﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٦٣-٦٨)

- 33:63. The people ask you about the Hour. Say: The knowledge thereof is with Allah [alone]. How could you know? The Hour may well be near at hand.
- 33:64. Verily Allah has cursed the disbelievers and has prepared for them a raging fire.
- 33:65. They will abide therein forever, and they will not find any protector or helper.
- 33:66. On the day when their faces are turned over in the fire, they will say: Would that we had obeyed Allah and obeyed the Messenger!
- 33:67. They will say: Our Lord, we obeyed our leaders and elders, and they led us astray from the [right] path.
- 33:68. Our Lord, give them a double punishment and curse them with a mighty curse.

That is, people ask you about the Hour because they want to hasten it, and some of them do that because they do not believe that it will occur and they are trying to frustrate the one who is telling them about it.

﴿Say﴾ to them: ﴿The knowledge thereof is with Allah [alone]﴾; no one knows it except Allah, and neither I nor anyone else has any knowledge of it, yet despite that you should not think that it is slow in coming.

﴿How could you know? The Hour may well be near at hand﴾. There is no benefit in knowing whether its coming will be sooner or later; what matters is loss and gain, doom or bliss, and whether a person deserves punishment or reward. This is what I can tell you about the Hour, and what I can say about who deserves what.

Then Allah describes the one who deserves punishment and the punishment itself, because the description given is applicable to these people who disbelieve in the Hour:

﴿Verily Allah has cursed the disbelievers﴾ that is, those for whom disbelief has become second nature and they persist in disbelieving in Allah and His Messengers, and what they brought from Allah. So He has cast them far away from His mercy in this world and the hereafter, and that is sufficient punishment.

﴿and has prepared for them a raging fire﴾ that is, a fire that will burn their bodies, and the torment will reach their insides. They will abide in that severe punishment forever; they will never emerge from it and it will never be reduced for them even for a short while.

﴿and they will not find any protector﴾ to ward off the punishment from them

﴿or helper﴾ to give them what they seek.

Rather the protector and helper will have abandoned them, and they will be encompassed by the punishment of the fire which will be most severe indeed. Hence Allah says:

﴿On the day when their faces are turned over in the fire﴾ so that they may taste its heat, which will be extremely difficult for them, and they will express regret for what they did in the past,

﴿they will say: Would that we had obeyed Allah and obeyed the Messenger!﴾ Then we would have been safe from this punishment and – like those who obeyed Allah – we would have deserved a generous reward. But it will be too late for such wishes and that will not avail them anything except loss, regret, grief, distress and pain.

﴿They will say: Our Lord, we obeyed our leaders and elders﴾ and we imitated them in their misguidance, ﴿and they led us astray from the [right] path﴾. This is like the verse in which Allah says:

﴿On that day, the wrongdoer will bite on his hands and say: Would that I had taken a path with the Messenger. Alas for me! Would that I had not taken So-and-so as a friend! He led me astray from the Reminder [the Qur'an] after it had come to me...﴾ (al-Furqân 25: 27-29)

When they realise that they and their leaders all deserve the punishment, they will want to wreak vengeance on those who misled them, so they will say: ﴿Our Lord, give them a double punishment and curse them with a mighty curse﴾. But Allah will say: Each will have a double punishment, for you all shared in disbelief and sin, so you will share in the punishment. However, the punishment will vary from one to another, according to their degree of sin.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَكُونُوا كَالَّذِينَ آذَوْا مُوسَىٰ فَبَرَّاهُ اللَّهُ مِمَّا قَالُوا وَكَانَ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ وَجْهًا ﴿٦٩﴾﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٦٩)

33:69. O you who believe, do not be like those who maligned Moosâ, but Allah showed him to be free of what they said. Indeed he was highly honoured before Allah.

Here Allah (ﷻ) warns His believing slaves against maligning their Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ), the noble, kind and compassionate Prophet (ﷺ), thus responding with the opposite of what they should do, which is to honour and respect him. That is so that they will not resemble those who maligned Moosâ ibn 'Imrân, the one to whom the Most Gracious spoke directly, and Allah declared him innocent of the offensive things they said about him and showed them that he was free of that.

Moosâ (ﷺ) was of such high status that there was no reason to accuse him or malign him, for he was honourable before Allah and close to Him, one of the elite among the Messengers and one of His chosen slaves. But they (the evildoers) were not deterred by what he possessed of virtue from maligning him and saying hurtful things about him. So beware, O believers, lest you resemble them in that.

The maligning referred to here is what the Children of Israel said about Moosâ when they saw that he was very modest and was always careful to keep himself covered. They said that nothing was preventing him from uncovering himself except that he had a scrotal hernia; this was something that was commonly said among them, and Allah wanted to demonstrate that he was free of that. One day Moosâ went to bathe; he took off his garment and put it on a rock, and the rock fled with his garment. Moosâ (ﷺ) chased after it, and it took him past a gathering of the Israelites, so they saw that he was the best and healthiest of Allah's creation, and that he was free of what they had accused him of.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَقُولُوا قَوْلًا سَدِيدًا ۖ يُصْلِحْ لَكُمْ أَعْمَالَكُمْ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ ذُنُوبَكُمْ ۗ وَمَنْ يُطِيعِ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ فَقَدْ فَازَ فَوْزًا عَظِيمًا﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٧٠-٧١)

(٧١)

33:70. O you who believe, fear Allah and say what is appropriate,

33:71. for then He will guide you to do righteous deeds and forgive you your sins. Whoever obeys Allah and His Messenger will surely achieve a great triumph.

Here Allah (ﷻ) instructs the believers to fear Him in all situations, in private and in public, and He specifically mentions and encourages saying what is appropriate. That means saying the right thing and that which is as close as possible to that which is right and proper when one is not certain, such as reciting Qur'an or dhikr, or enjoining what is right and forbidding what is wrong, learning and teaching knowledge, and being very keen to find the correct understanding of various issues, following every path and taking all measures that will help one to achieve that.

Part of saying what is appropriate is speaking in a kind and gentle manner when addressing people, being sincere and advising people to do that which is more appropriate and correct.

Then Allah tells us what will result from fearing Him and saying what is appropriate:

﴿for then He will guide you to do righteous deeds﴾ that is, that will be the reason for your deeds becoming righteous and the way for them to be accepted, because by means of fearing Allah, deeds become acceptable. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿...Verily, Allah only accepts from those who fear Him.﴾ (al-Mā'idah 5: 27)

Therefore a person will be guided thereby to do righteous deeds, and Allah will also make his deeds good, by protecting them from that which could spoil them, and by granting and multiplying the reward for them. By the same token, not fearing Him properly and not saying what is appropriate is a cause of deeds becoming corrupted and not accepted, and it will not lead to the same results.

﴿and﴾ moreover, He will ﴿forgive you your sins﴾ that are the cause of doom. So fearing Allah will cause all of one's affairs to be rectified and become sound, and will ward off all kinds of harm. Hence Allah says: ﴿Whoever obeys Allah and His Messenger will surely achieve a great triumph﴾.

﴿ إِنَّا عَرَضْنَا الْأَمَانَةَ عَلَى السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَالْجِبَالِ فَأَبَيْنَ أَنْ يَحْمِلْنَهَا وَأَشْفَقْنَ مِنْهَا وَحَمَلَهَا الْإِنْسَانُ إِنَّهُ كَانَ ظَلُومًا جَهُولًا ﴾ (٧٢) لِيُعَذِّبَ اللَّهُ الْمُنَافِقِينَ وَالْمُنَافِقَاتِ وَالْمُشْرِكِينَ وَالْمُشْرِكَاتِ وَيَتُوبَ اللَّهُ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ ۗ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ غَفُورًا رَحِيمًا ﴿٧٣﴾ (سورة الأحزاب: ٧٢-٧٣)

- 33:72. Verily We offered the Trust<sup>15</sup> to the heavens, the earth, and the mountains, yet they refused to undertake it and were afraid of it. But man undertook it; verily he has proven to be a wrongdoer and ignorant.
- 33:73. [As a result of that] Allah will punish the hypocrite men and the hypocrite women, and the polytheist men and the polytheist women, and He will turn in mercy to the believing men and the believing women, for Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

Here Allah (ﷻ) emphasises the great importance of the Trust which He has entrusted to those who are accountable. What that means is complying with the commands and heeding the prohibitions, in private and in public. Allah (ﷻ) offered it to mighty creations, namely the heavens and the earth and the mountains, by way of choice, not imposition, saying: If you undertake it and do it properly, you will have the reward, but if you do not do it properly, you will be punished.

«yet they refused to undertake it and were afraid of it» that is, they feared that they would not be able to bear it; that was not out of disobedience towards their Lord or out of a lack of desire for His reward.

Allah offered it to man, according to these conditions, and he accepted it; he took it on despite his wrongdoing and ignorance; he took on this heavy burden. According to the extent to which they fulfil this trust, people are divided into three categories: hypocrites, who pretend to fulfil it and adhere to it outwardly, but do not do so inwardly; polytheists who ignore it both outwardly and inwardly; and believers who fulfil it and adhere to it both outwardly and inwardly.

<sup>15</sup> The Trust (amānah): the commitment to obey Allah, carry out obligatory religious duties, and obey all His other commands.

Allah (ﷻ) tells us about the deeds of these three types of people, and what they will have of reward or punishment, as He says:

﴿[As a result of that] Allah will punish the hypocrite men and the hypocrite women, and the polytheist men and the polytheist women, and He will turn in mercy to the believing men and the believing women, for Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful﴾. To Him be all praise, for He ended this verse with these two divine names which are indicative of the perfect nature of Allah's forgiveness and the abundance of His mercy and grace, even though the verdict for many of them is that they do not deserve forgiveness and mercy, because of their hypocrisy and ascription of partners to Him.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat al-Ahzâb.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

34. Soorat Saba'

(Madani)

---

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي لَهُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ فِي الْآخِرَةِ وَهُوَ الْحَكِيمُ
الْخَبِيرُ﴾ (١) يَعْلَمُ مَا يَلِجُ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا يَخْرُجُ مِنْهَا وَمَا يَنْزِلُ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ وَمَا يَعْرُجُ
فِيهَا وَهُوَ الرَّحِيمُ الْغَفُورُ ﴿٢﴾ (سورة سبأ: ١-٢)

- 34:1. Praise be to Allah to Whom belongs all that is in the heavens and all that is on earth; to Him be praise in the hereafter, and He is the Most Wise, the All-Aware.
- 34:2. He knows all that goes into the earth and all that comes out of it, and all that descends from heaven and all that ascends to it, and He is the Most Merciful, the Oft-Forgiving.
-

﴿Praise be to Allah﴾ – hamd, translated here as «praise», refers to extolling Allah for His praiseworthy attributes and sublime deeds. To Allah be all praise, for all His attributes are praiseworthy, because they are attributes of perfection; His deeds are praiseworthy because they are either based on grace, for which He is to be praised and thanked, or they are based on justice, for which He is to be praised, and the wisdom of which is to be acknowledged and recognised.

Allah praises Himself here, because to Him ﴿belongs all that is in the heavens and all that is on earth﴾; He owns them all and they are subservient to Him; He controls them and disposes of their affairs as He wills.

﴿to Him be praise in the hereafter﴾ because in the hereafter He will be praised and extolled in a manner that He was not praised and extolled in this world.

When Allah judges between all creatures, and people and all creatures see His verdict and recognise the perfect nature of his justice, fairness and wisdom, they will all praise Him for that, even those who are faced with punishment and are doomed to enter hell; their hearts will be filled with praise for Him, and they will acknowledge that the punishment is the outcome of their deeds and that He is just in ruling that they should be punished.

As for His praise in the realm of bliss and reward, this is something that is abundantly reported, and all the evidence – both textual and rational – attests to that. In paradise, they will see the blessings of Allah coming one after another, abundant favours and immense generosity; there will be no wish or desire in the hearts of the people of paradise but they will be given more than they wish for or desire. Indeed they will be given good things that they never thought of or wished for, and that never crossed their minds.

So how much do you think they will praise their Lord when they are in that situation, knowing that in paradise all distractions and obstacles will have vanished that kept people from knowing, loving and praising Allah, and that praising Him will be dearer to its people than all these blessings and will bring greater pleasure than all these delights?

Therefore when they see Allah (ﷻ) and hear His words when He addresses them, that will cause them to forget all blessings; in paradise, dhikr (remembering Allah) will be like breathing for them, and it will be ongoing, at all times.

In addition to that, for the people of paradise in paradise, that which points to the greatness, majesty, beauty and utter perfection of their Lord will be made manifest to them at all times, which will dictate that they should praise Him and extol Him in the most perfect manner.

﴿and He is the Most Wise﴾ in His dominion and control, Most Wise in His commands and prohibitions

﴿the All-Aware﴾ Who sees the secret aspects of all things.

Hence He refers to His knowledge in elaborate detail, as He says: ﴿He knows all that goes into the earth﴾ of rain, seeds and animals ﴿and all that comes out of it﴾ such as all kinds of plants and animals ﴿and all that descends from heaven﴾ such as the angels, provision and decrees

﴿and all that ascends to it﴾ such as the angels, souls and so on.

Having mentioned His creation, His wisdom in controlling them, and His knowledge of their affairs, Allah now mentions His forgiveness and mercy towards them, as He says:

﴿and He is the Most Merciful, the Oft-Forgiving﴾ that is, the One of Whom mercy and forgiveness are typical, the effects of which continue to come down to His slaves at all times, according to the actions they do that are precursors to both.

﴿وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَا تَأْتِينَا السَّاعَةُ قُلْ بَلَىٰ وَرَبِّي لَتَأْتِيَنَّكُمْ عِلْمُ الْغَيْبِ لَا يُعْزِبُ عَنْهُ مِثْقَالُ ذَرَّةٍ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَلَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا أَصْغَرُ مِنْ ذَلِكَ وَلَا أَكْبَرُ إِلَّا فِي كِتَابٍ مُبِينٍ ﴿٢﴾ لِيَجْزِيَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ أُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةٌ وَرِزْقٌ كَرِيمٌ ﴿٣﴾ وَالَّذِينَ سَعَوْا فِي ءَابِنَا مُعْجِزِينَ أُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مِّن رَّجْزِ الْإِيمِ ﴿٥﴾﴾ (سورة سبأ: ٣-٥)

- 34:3. Those who disbelieve say: The Hour will never come upon us. Say [O Muhammad]: Yes indeed, by my Lord, it will surely come upon you. [He is] the Knower of the unseen; not even the weight of a speck of dust, in heaven or on earth, escapes Him, nor is there anything smaller or greater than that, but it is [inscribed] in a clear record,
- 34:4. so that He may reward those who believe and do righteous deeds. They will have forgiveness and a generous provision.
- 34:5. But those who strive against Our revelations, seeking to discredit them, for such there will be a punishment of painful suffering.

Having highlighted His greatness in the way He describes Himself, which makes it imperative to venerate Him and sanctify Him, and to believe in Him, Allah now tells us that among people are some who did not give Him due recognition, and did not venerate Him as He should be venerated; rather they disbelieved in Him and denied His ability to revive the dead and bring about the Hour, and they contradicted the Messengers in that regard.

«Those who disbelieve» in Allah and His Messengers, and what the Messengers brought «say», because of their disbelief

«The Hour will never come upon us» that is, there is nothing but the life of this world; we live and we die. So Allah instructed His Messenger (ﷺ) to refute what they said and show it to be false. He swore an oath, attesting that the resurrection will surely come to them, and He presented proof for that; whoever accepts it must inevitably believe in the resurrection. That proof is the vast and all-encompassing knowledge of Allah (ﷻ).

«[He is] the Knower of the unseen» that is, things that are hidden from our sight and from our knowledge, so how about that which is seen?

Then Allah emphasises the extent of His knowledge:

﴿not even the weight of a speck of dust, in heaven or on earth, escapes Him﴾ that is, nothing is beyond His knowledge; all things, whether as separate entities or component parts, even the smallest particles, namely atoms, are known to Him.

﴿nor is there anything smaller or greater than that, but it is [inscribed] in a clear record﴾ that is, His knowledge encompasses it and His pen has written it and it is included in the clear record, namely al-Lawh al-Mahfoodh.

The One from Whose knowledge not even an atom or anything smaller than that is hidden, at all times, and He knows what the earth consumes of the dead and what remains of their bodies, is surely able to resurrect them. Resurrecting them is no stranger and is not more amazing than this all-encompassing knowledge.

Then Allah tells us of the purpose of the resurrection, as He says:

﴿so that He may reward those who believe﴾, deep down in their hearts, in Allah and His Messengers, with certain faith
﴿and do righteous deeds﴾ in confirmation of their faith.

﴿They will have forgiveness﴾ of their sins, because of their faith and good deeds, by means of which all evil and punishments will be warded off from them.

﴿and a generous provision﴾ for their having done good, by means of which they will attain all that they seek and wish for.

﴿But those who strive against Our revelations, seeking to discredit them﴾ that is, they strive against them because they disbelieve in them and seek to undermine the one who brought them and the One Who sent them down, just as they tried to challenge Him with regard to the resurrection after death.

﴿for such there will be a punishment of painful suffering﴾ that is, it will be painful to them both physically and spiritually.

﴿وَبَرَى الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ الَّذِي أُنْزِلَ إِلَيْكَ مِنْ رَبِّكَ هُوَ الْحَقُّ وَيَهْدِي إِلَى صِرَاطٍ الْعَزِيزِ الْحَمِيدِ﴾ (سورة سبأ: ٦)

34:6. Those who have been given knowledge can see that what has been revealed to you from your Lord [O Muhammad] is the truth and that it guides to the path of the Almighty, the Praiseworthy.

Having mentioned the denial of those who denied the resurrection, and stated that they thought that what was revealed to His Messenger (ﷺ) was not true, Allah (ﷻ) now describes the situation of those among His slaves who are guided, who are the people of knowledge; they see that what Allah revealed to His Messenger (ﷺ) of the Book, and what it contains of stories of the past and news of the future is true, and whatever is contrary to it or contradicts it is false, because they have attained the level of knowledge that gives them certainty.

﴿and﴾ they also see that in what it enjoins and forbids ﴿it guides to the path of the Almighty, the Praiseworthy﴾. That is because they are certain of the truth of what the Qur'an says, for the following reasons:

- Because they know of the sincerity of the one who brought it.
- Because it is in accordance with what really happened and with the previous Books.
- Because of what they see with their own eyes of things that happened exactly as the Qur'an foretold.
- Because of what they see of great signs on the horizons and in their own selves that confirm the truthfulness of the message.
- Because it is in accordance with what is indicated by the names and attributes of Allah (ﷻ).

In its commands and prohibitions they see that it guides to the straight path, enjoining every practice that purifies the soul, brings reward and benefits the doer and others, such as honesty, sincerity, honouring parents, upholding ties of kinship, treating all people kindly, and so on; and it forbids all abhorrent characteristics that are spiritually damaging, nullify reward and bring a burden of sin, such as ascription of partners to Allah, fornication and adultery, usury, and wronging people with regard to their physical well-being, wealth and honour.

This is indicative of the virtue of people of knowledge. The more knowledge a person has and the more he believes in what the Messenger (ﷺ) brought, and the greater his knowledge of the rulings, commands and prohibitions, the more he will be one of the people of knowledge whom Allah has made proof, testifying to the soundness of what the Messenger (ﷺ) brought, and through them Allah will establish proof against the stubborn disbelievers, as we see in this verse and elsewhere.

﴿وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا هَلْ نَدُلُّكُمْ عَلَى رَجُلٍ يُنْبِئُكُمْ إِذَا مُزِقْتُمْ كُلٌّ مِّنْكُمْ إِنَّا لَنُفِئُكُمْ لَهَا جَذِيدٌ ﴿٧﴾ أَفَتَرَىٰ عَلَى اللَّهِ كَذِبًا أَمْ بِهِ جِنَّةٌ بَلِ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ فِي الْعَذَابِ وَالضَّلَالِ الْبَعِيدِ ﴿٨﴾ أَفَلَتُرَوُّوْنَ إِلَىٰ مَا بَيْنَ أَيْدِيهِمْ وَمَا خَلْفَهُمْ مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ ۖ إِن نَّشَاءُ نُخَسِّفْ بِهِمُ الْأَرْضَ أَوْ نُسْقِطْ عَلَيْهِمْ كِسَفًا مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ ۚ إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَةً لِّكُلِّ عَبْدٍ مُّنِيبٍ ﴿٩﴾﴾ (سورة سبأ: ٧-٩)

34:7. Those who disbelieve say: Shall we point out to you a man<sup>16</sup> who will tell you that, when you have disintegrated completely and become scattered [like dust], you will be created anew?

34:8. Does he fabricate lies against Allah, or is there madness in him? Nay, it is those who do not believe in the hereafter who will be subjected to punishment and they are straying far into error.

<sup>16</sup> When visitors to Makkah asked about the Prophet (ﷺ), Quraysh would make comments such as this by way of ridicule and trying to put people off approaching him and listening to his message.

- 34:9. Do they not see what lies before them and what lies behind them of heaven and earth?<sup>17</sup> If We so willed, We could cause the earth to swallow them up, or cause pieces of the sky to fall upon them.<sup>18</sup> Surely in that there is a sign for every slave who turns to Allah in repentance.

«Those who disbelieve say» by way of disbelief, ridicule and finding it unlikely, stating why they find it unlikely. They say to one another:

«Shall we point out to you a man who will tell you that, when you have disintegrated completely and become scattered [like dust], you will be created anew?» They were referring to the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), saying that he was a man who had come up with a very strange idea, such that he had become – according to them – a spectacle to be pointed out to people and something very strange to be mocked, for how could he say “you will be resurrected” after you have disintegrated, and your remains have scattered and disappeared?

In other words, they were saying: does this man who brought this message «fabricate lies against Allah»? Does he have the audacity to do and say a thing, or «is there madness in him»? In which case it is nothing strange, because insanity is of various kinds and anything could be expected of a madman.

<sup>17</sup> In other words: do these disbelievers not realise that wherever they go, if they look around them they will see Allah's earth and heaven encompassing them in all directions? So that should deter them from rejecting His signs lest He order the earth to swallow them or the sky to fall on them in pieces. (at-Ṭabari)

<sup>18</sup> This refers to a punishment coming from above, such as that which was sent upon the dwellers of the Wood (mentioned in Soorat ash-Shu'arā'), to whom Shu'ayb was sent, when they rejected his message and demanded that he cause pieces of the sky to fall upon them (26: 187), and they were overtaken by the punishment of the day of the overshadowing cloud (26: 189).

All of this attitude and behaviour on their part is indicative of their stubbornness and wrongdoing. They knew for sure that he was the most sincere and truthful of Allah's creation, and the most mature in thinking, and because they knew that, they did their utmost to oppose him, making a great deal of effort and spending a great deal of wealth in order to turn people away from him. If he had been a liar and insane, it would not be appropriate for you – O rational yet evil people – to listen to what he says or to pay attention to his call, because it is not appropriate for a rational person to pay attention to anyone who is insane or to take what he says seriously.

Were it not for your stubbornness and wrongdoing, you would have hastened to respond to him and accept his call,

﴿...But neither signs nor warnings are of any avail to people who will not believe.﴾ (Yoonus 10: 101)

Hence Allah (ﷻ) said:

﴿Nay, it is those who do not believe in the hereafter﴾, including those who say these words, ﴿who will be subjected to punishment and they are straying far into error﴾ that is, into great doom and extreme misguidance, that is not even close to what is right and correct.

What doom and misguidance could be worse than their denial that Allah is able to bring about resurrection, their rejection and ridicule of His Messenger (ﷺ) who brought this message, and their certainty that what they are following is the truth, on the basis of which they see truth as falsehood, and falsehood and misguidance as truth and guidance.

Then Allah draws their attention to the rational evidence which indicates that the resurrection is not unlikely, even if they deem it so, and that if they were to look at what is in front of them and behind them of the heavens and the earth, they would recognise the might and power of Allah in the creation thereof, which would dazzle their minds, and prominent people of knowledge are astounded by its greatness. The creation of the heavens and the earth, with their greatness and all that they contain of created things, is greater than the resurrection of people from their graves after they die. So what made them reject the idea of the resurrection whilst believing in something greater than it? Indeed that is something that is unseen until now; they have not seen it, and that is why they did not believe in it.

«If We so willed, We could cause the earth to swallow them up, or cause pieces of the sky to fall upon them» that is, as a punishment, because the earth and the sky are under Our control, and if We were to command them to do something, they would not disobey. So beware of persisting in your disbelief, lest We punish you severely.

«Surely in that» that is, in the creation of the heavens and the earth and all that they contain of created things

«there is a sign for every slave who turns to Allah in repentance».

The more a person turns to Allah in repentance, the more he will benefit from the great signs, because the one who repents and turns to his Lord focuses with all his heart and aspirations on his Lord, and turns to Him in all his affairs. Thus he becomes close to his Lord and has no concern or interest except to strive to please Him. So when he looks at created beings, it is in order to reflect and learn, not with heedlessness in a manner that is of no benefit.

﴿ وَلَقَدْ ءَاتَيْنَا دَاوُدَ مِنَّا فَضْلًا يَجْعَالُ آوِي مَعَهُ وَالطَّيْرَ وَأَلَنَّا لَهُ الْحَدِيدَ ۚ أَنِ اعْمَلْ سَفِيفًا وَقَدِّرْ فِي السَّرْدِ ۚ وَاعْمَلُوا صَالِحًا إِنِّي بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ بَصِيرٌ ﴾
 ﴿سورة سبأ: ١٠-١١﴾

34:10. Indeed We bestowed favours upon Dâwood, [saying]: O mountains, echo his [glorification of Allah], and you too, O birds! And We made iron malleable for him, 34:11. [saying]: Make full-length coats of mail, forging links of proper measure.<sup>19</sup> And [O family of Dâwood], do righteous deeds, for verily I see well all that you do.

That is, and We blessed Our slave and Messenger Dâwood (ﷺ), giving Him abundant beneficial knowledge, enabling him to do righteous deeds, and bestowing spiritual and worldly blessings upon him. Among the blessings that Allah bestowed upon him is what He granted him exclusively, such as His issuing commands to inanimate things, such as mountains, as well as animate beings such as birds, to echo his glorification of Allah (and repeat after him his words of glorification and praise). As this was a great blessing that was unique to him, and no one shared it with him, before or since, this motivated him and others to glorify Allah, when they saw those inanimate objects and animate beings reiterating words of glorification of their Lord, praising and magnifying Him.

Another example of the blessings bestowed upon Dâwood (ﷺ), as many of the scholars have stated, was the voice of Dâwood, for Allah (ﷻ) had given him a beautiful voice that surpassed all others. When he recited words of glorification and praise in that melodious and moving voice, everyone who heard it rejoiced in it, both human and jinn, and even birds and mountains, and they glorified and praised their Lord.

Perhaps it was so that he could attain the reward of their glorification of Allah, because he was the cause of it and they were following him in glorifying Allah.

<sup>19</sup> That is, striking a balance, when making the links or rings of mail, between offering adequate protection and being sufficiently light so as not to hamper movement in the battlefield.

Another aspect of Allah's bounty towards him was that He made iron malleable for him, so that he could make full-length coats of mail, and He taught him how to make them, by forging links of proper measure; in other words, he made the links of a certain size, according to a particular design, then he put them together so that they were interlinked. Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿And We taught him the art of making coats of mail for your benefit, to protect you in battle. Will you then be grateful?﴾ (al-Anbiyā' 21: 80)

Having mentioned the favours that He bestowed upon him and his family, Allah instructed them to give thanks to Him, and to do righteous deeds and remember that Allah is always watching, by ensuring that those deeds were done in the proper manner and by protecting them from anything that could spoil them, for He sees all that they do and is constantly watching them, and nothing is hidden from Him.

﴿وَلِسْلَيْمَانَ الرِّيحَ غُدُوها شَهْرٌ وَرَوْاحُها شَهْرٌ وَأَسْلَنَّا لَهُ عَيْنَ الْقَطْرِ وَمِنَ الْجِنِّ مَن يَعْمَلُ بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ بِإِذْنِ رَبِّهِ وَمَن يَزِغْ مِنْهُمْ عَنْ أَمْرِنَا نُذِقْهُ مِنْ عَذَابِ السَّعِيرِ ﴿١٢﴾ يَعْمَلُونَ لَهُ مَا يَشَاءُ مِنْ مَّحْرِبٍ وَتَمَثِيلٍ وَحِفَانٍ كَالْجَوَابِ وَقُدُورٍ رَّاسِيَتٍ أَعْمَلُوا أَلْ دَاوُدَ شُكْرًا وَقَلِيلٌ مِّنْ عِبَادِيَ الشَّاكِرُ ﴿١٣﴾ فَلَمَّا قَضَيْنَا عَلَيْهِ الْمَوْتَ مَا دَلَّهُمْ عَلَى مَوْتِهِ إِلَّا دَابَّةُ الْأَرْضِ تَأْكُلُ مِنسَاتَهُمْ فَلَمَّا خَرَّ تَبَيَّنَتِ الْجِنُّ أَن لَّو كَانُوا يَعْلَمُونَ الْغَيْبَ مَا لَبِثُوا فِي الْعَذَابِ الْمُهِينِ ﴿١٤﴾﴾ (سورة سبأ: ١٢-١٤)

- 34:12. And for Sulaymān [We subjugated] the wind; it would cover the distance of a month's journey in the morning and a month's journey in the evening. We caused a spring of molten brass to flow for him, and there were some of the jinn who worked for him, by his Lord's leave; whoever among them disobeyed Our command, We will cause him to taste the punishment of the raging fire.

- 34:13. They made for him whatever he wanted of lofty structures, images, basins as large as reservoirs, and [cooking] cauldrons fixed [in their places].<sup>20</sup> Strive [in doing righteous deeds], O family of Dâwood, in gratitude. But few of My slaves are grateful.
- 34:14. Then, when We decreed Sulaymân's death, nothing made them aware of his death except a creature of the earth that ate away at his staff. When he fell down, the jinn realised that, if they had truly had knowledge of the unseen, they would not have had to continue their demeaning labour.

Having mentioned His bounty to Dâwood (ﷺ), Allah now tells us of His bounty to his son Sulaymân (ﷺ); Allah subjugated the wind and made it of service to him, so that it would blow by his command and carry him and everything he had with him, and would cover huge distances in a short time, so that it was possible to travel a distance of two months' journey in a single day.

﴿it would cover the distance of a month's journey in the morning﴾ that is, from the beginning of the day until midday
 ﴿and a month's journey in the evening﴾ that is, from midday until the end of the day.

﴿We caused a spring of molten brass to flow for him﴾ that is, We made a spring of molten brass to be of service to him, and We made available to him means of producing vessels and other things from it.

Allah also subjugated the devils and the jinn to him, so that they were not able to disobey his commands; ﴿whoever among them disobeyed Our command, We will cause him to taste the punishment of the raging fire﴾.

---

<sup>20</sup> The basins and cauldrons were for the preparation and serving of a large amount of food.

They made everything that Sulaymân wanted them to make, ﴿of lofty structures, images﴾ that is, images of animals and inanimate objects, because they were skilled in that and were able to do it. They also made for Sulaymân ﴿basins as large as reservoirs﴾ that is, large pools, in which they made food for Sulaymân, because he needed what others did not

﴿and﴾ they made for him ﴿[cooking] cauldrons fixed [in their places]﴾; they could not be moved from their places because they were so big.

Having mentioned the blessings that He bestowed upon them, Allah commanded them to give thanks to Him:

﴿Strive [in doing righteous deeds], O family of Dâwood﴾ this includes Dâwood, his children and his family, because the blessings were bestowed upon all of them, and many of those blessings benefitted all of them.

﴿in gratitude﴾ to Allah for what He had given them.

﴿But few of My slaves are grateful﴾ that is, most of them do not give thanks to Allah for what He bestows upon them of His blessings and what He wards off from them of harm.

Gratitude means acknowledging in one's heart the blessings of Allah (ﷻ), expressing one's need for them when receiving them, using them in obedience to Allah (ﷻ), and refraining from using them in wrongful ways by disobeying Him.

The devils continued working for Sulaymân (ﷺ), building all kinds of structures. They had deceived people by telling them that they had knowledge of the unseen and could see what was hidden. Hence Allah (ﷻ) wanted to show people that the devils were lying, so they continued working and Allah caused Sulaymân (ﷺ) to die when he was leaning on his stick or staff; so when they passed by him as he was leaning on it, they thought he was alive, and they feared him. They continued working like that for an entire year, according to what was said, until a creature of the earth came to his stick and kept eating away at it until it broke and fell, then Sulaymân (ﷺ) fell down; the devils scattered and it became clear to the people that if the jinn «had truly had knowledge of the unseen, they would not have had to continue their demeaning labour», which was this work that was difficult for them. If they had had knowledge of the unseen, they would have known of the death of Sulaymân, which was something they were very keen for, so that they could escape their situation.

﴿لَقَدْ كَانَ لِسَبَإٍ فِي مَسْكِنِهِمْ آيَةٌ جَنَّتَانِ عَنْ يَمِينٍ وَشِمَالٍ كُلُوا مِنْ رِزْقِ رَبِّكُمْ وَاشْكُرُوا لَهُ، بَلَدَةٌ طَيِّبَةٌ وَرَبُّ غَفُورٌ ﴿٥﴾ فَأَعْرَضُوا فَأَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ سَيْلَ الْعَرِمِ وَبَدَّلْنَاهُمْ بِجَنَّتَيْهِمْ جَنَّتَيْنِ ذَوَاتِ أُكُلٍ خَمْطٍ وَأَثَلٍ وَشَيْءٍ مِنْ سِدْرٍ قَلِيلٍ ﴿٦﴾ ذَلِكَ جَزَيْنَهُمْ بِمَا كَفَرُوا وَهَلْ يُجْزَى إِلَّا الْكَفُورُ ﴿٧﴾ وَجَعَلْنَا بَيْنَهُمْ وَبَيْنَ الْقَرَى الَّتِي بَارَكْنَا فِيهَا قُرَى ظَهْرَهُ وَقَدَرْنَا فِيهَا السَّيْرَ سِيرُوا فِيهَا لَيَالِيَ وَأَيَّامًا ءَامِينَ ﴿٨﴾ فَقَالُوا رَبَّنَا بَعْدَ بَيْنِ أَسْفَارِنَا وَظَلَمُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ فَجَعَلْنَاهُمْ أَحَادِيثَ وَمَزَقْنَاهُمْ كُلَّ مَزْقٍ إِنْ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِكُلِّ صَبَّارٍ شَكُورٍ ﴿٩﴾ وَلَقَدْ صَدَقَ عَلَيْهِمْ إِبْلِيسُ ظَنَّهُ فَاتَّبَعُوهُ إِلَّا فَرِيقًا مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٠﴾ وَمَا كَانَ لَهُ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ سُلْطَانٍ إِلَّا لِنَعْلَمَ مَنْ يُوَفِّي بِالْآخِرَةِ مِمَّنْ هُوَ مِنْهَا فِي شَكٍّ وَرَبُّكَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ حَفِیْظٌ ﴿١١﴾﴾ (سورة سبأ: ١٥-٢١)

34:15. There was a sign for [the people of] Saba' in their dwelling place: two gardens, one on the right and one on the left. [It was said to them:] Eat of what your Lord has provided for you, and give thanks to Him; bountiful is your land and oft-forgiving is your Lord.

34:16. But they turned away, so We sent against them a severe flood, and replaced their two gardens with two others yielding bitter fruit, and tamarisks, and a few wild lote-trees.

- 34:17. Thus We punished them for their ingratitude; would We punish any but those who are ungrateful?
- 34:18. Between them and the cities which We had blessed, We placed [a chain of] towns, within sight of one another, and We made the distances between them convenient for the travellers: Travel through them by night and day in safety.
- 34:19. But they said: Our Lord, make the stages of our journeys longer,<sup>21</sup> and they wronged themselves thereby. So We made them into cautionary tales and dispersed them in all directions. Surely in that there are signs for every steadfastly patient and deeply thankful person.
- 34:20. Iblees found his expectations<sup>22</sup> concerning them to be correct, for they all followed him, except for a group of believers.
- 34:21. But he had no authority<sup>23</sup> over them, except [what was given to him] for the purpose that We might distinguish those who believe in the hereafter from those who are in doubt about it. For your Lord watches over all things.

---

Saba' was a well-known tribe near Yemen; their homeland was a region called Ma'rib.

One of the favours and kindnesses that Allah bestowed upon people in general, and the Arabs in particular, was that in the Qur'an, He

---

<sup>21</sup> That was because they grew bored with their life of ease and wanted adventure; this is similar to the attitude of the Israelites, when Allah blessed them with the manna and quails, but they tired of that food and demanded garlic, onions, cucumbers and so on.

<sup>22</sup> That is, he had expected that he would be able to mislead them, as he said:
 ﴿...By Your might, I will certainly mislead them all, except Your chosen [and sincere] slaves among them.﴾ (Sād 38: 82-83)

<sup>23</sup> Iblees has no power to compel people to follow him, or any sound argument to convince them to do so; all he can do is whisper to them and make falsehood attractive and fair-seeming to them.

told the stories of nations who were doomed and punished who had lived in the vicinity of the Arabs, and whose ruins could be seen, and people were familiar with their stories which they told to one another. That made it easier for people to believe these stories and made them more effective as a reminder. Hence Allah said:

«There was a sign for [the people of] Saba' in their dwelling place» that is, the place where they lived. The sign in this case was what Allah had bestowed upon them of blessings and what He had warded off from them of calamities. That required them to worship Allah alone and give thanks to Him.

Then He explained what the sign was: «two gardens, one on the right and one on the left». They had a great valley that received a lot of rainfall, which resulted in abundant streams, springs and so on, and they had built a strong dam in order to collect the water. So when the rains came, they would gather a huge amount of water, which they would distribute to their gardens, which were on the right and the left of that valley. Those two huge gardens yielded fruits and crops that sufficed them and brought them a great deal of joy. Hence Allah commanded them to give thanks for the many blessings that He had bestowed upon them, including the following:

- Those two gardens that provided most of their food.
- Allah made their land bountiful because of its good climate, which was not unhealthy; and because of the bountiful provision that the land produced, Allah promised them, if they showed gratitude to Him, that He would forgive them and have mercy on them. Hence He said: «bountiful is your land and oft-forgiving is your Lord».
- Because Allah knew that for their trade and livelihood they needed to reach a blessed land – what appears to be the case is that it was the outskirts of Sanaa, which was the view of more than one of the early generation, although it was also suggested that it was ash-Shâm (Greater Syria) – He prepared for them the means that helped them to reach that land with ease and safely, with no fear. There was a chain of towns between them and that land, so that they did not need to go to the trouble of carrying provisions and supplies with them as they travelled.

Hence Allah says: ﴿Between them and the cities which We had blessed, We placed [a chain of] towns, within sight of one another, and We made the distances between them convenient for the travellers﴾ that is, distances that they knew well and could plan their journeys accordingly, so that they would not lose their way ﴿Travel through them by night and day in safety﴾ that is, safe and secure during those nights and days, not fearing anything. This was part of the perfect blessing that Allah bestowed upon them, which is that He made them safe from fear.

But they turned away from the Bestower of those blessings and from worshipping Him alone, and they took the blessing for granted and got bored of it, to the extent that they wished that the distances between those towns, between which travelling was so easy, would be longer.

﴿and they wronged themselves thereby﴾ by disbelieving in Allah and being ungrateful for His blessings. Hence Allah (ﷻ) punished them by taking away and destroying the blessing that had made them arrogant. He sent against them a severe flood that destroyed their dam and ruined their gardens.

Hence those gardens that had been filled with beautiful plants and fruit-bearing trees were destroyed and replaced with trees in which there was no benefit. Allah says: ﴿and replaced their two gardens with two others yielding bitter fruit﴾ that is, something that produced little food, that was not sufficient to meet their needs ﴿and tamarisks, and a few wild lote-trees﴾ all of these are well-known trees, which matched their misdeeds.

Just as they replaced gratitude with ingratitude, those blessings were replaced with the things mentioned. Hence Allah says:

﴿Thus We punished them for their ingratitude; would We punish any but those who are ungrateful?﴾ That is, would We requite in the sense of punishing any but those who are ungrateful to Allah and take His blessings for granted?

When that punishment befell them, they scattered in all directions after having been all together, and Allah made them a story that was told and a tale to be told at night. They became an example and a proverb, whereby people would say “They scattered like Saba’”, and everyone would talk about what happened to them.

But no one learned a lesson from them except those whom Allah referred to when He said: ﴿Surely in that there are signs for every steadfastly patient and deeply thankful person﴾, who bears with patience the hardships and difficulties that he endures for the sake of Allah, and does not show discontent; rather he bears it with patience and gratefully acknowledges the blessings of Allah (ﷻ), praising the One Who bestowed them and uses them in obedience to Him.

If such a person hears their story, how they acted and what happened to them, he realises that this punishment was requital for their ingratitude for Allah’s blessings, and that whoever acts like them will meet the same fate. And he will realise that gratitude to Allah (ﷻ) protects the blessing and wards off the punishment; and that the Messengers of Allah told the truth and that the requital is true, as he has seen examples of it in this world.

Then Allah tells us that the people of Saba’ were among those concerning whom Iblees found his expectations to be correct, when he said to his Lord:

﴿...By Your might, I will certainly mislead them all, except Your chosen [and sincere] slaves among them.﴾ (Sād 38: 82-83)

This expectation on the part of Iblees was not certain knowledge, because he did not know the unseen and no news had come to him from Allah that he would mislead them all, with some exceptions.

These people, and others like them, were among those concerning whom he found his expectations to be correct, whom he called and tempted, ﴿for they all followed him, except for a group of believers﴾ who were among those who were not ungrateful for the blessings of Allah; they were not included in those expectations of Iblees.

It may be that the story of Saba' ends with the words ﴿Surely in that there are signs for every steadfastly patient and deeply thankful person﴾, then a new idea begins with the words ﴿Iblees found his expectations concerning them to be correct﴾, referring to humanity as a whole, in which case the verse is general in meaning and refers to everyone who followed Iblees.

Then Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿But he﴾ namely Iblees ﴿had no authority over them﴾ that is, he had no control or power over them to force them to do whatever he wanted. But the divine wisdom decreed that he should have some power and influence over the children of Adam.

﴿except [what was given to him] for the purpose that We might distinguish those who believe in the hereafter from those who are in doubt about it﴾ that is, so that there would be a test and it might be known who is sincere and who is lying, whose faith is real and steadfast in the face of trials and tests, and when devilish specious arguments are put forth, and whose faith is not steadfast and will be shaken by the slightest specious argument and will falter at the merest call to the opposite. Allah (ﷻ) has made this a test by means of which He tries his slaves and distinguishes the bad from the good.

﴿For your Lord watches over all things﴾ – He is watching over His slaves and their deeds, and He takes care of the requital thereof, for He will requite them in full for all that they do.

﴿قُلِ ادْعُوا الَّذِينَ زَعَمْتُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ لَا يَمْلِكُونَ مِنْ ثِقَالِ ذَرْوٍ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَلَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا لَهُمْ فِيهِمَا مِنْ شِرْكٍَ وَمَا لَهُ مِنْهُمْ مِنْ ظَهِيرٍ﴾ (٢٢) وَلَا نَنْفَعُ الشَّفَاعَةُ عِنْدَهُ إِلَّا لِمَنْ أَذِنَ لَهُ. حَتَّىٰ إِذَا فُزِعَ عَنْ قُلُوبِهِمْ قَالُوا مَاذَا قَالَ رَبُّكُمْ قَالُوا الْحَقُّ وَهُوَ الْعَلِيُّ الْكَبِيرُ ﴿٢٣﴾ (سورة سبأ: ٢٢-٢٣)

- 34:22. Say: Call on those whom you claim [to be gods] besides Allah. They do not have even an atom's weight of power in the heavens or on earth, nor have they any share in either of them, nor is any of them a helper to Allah.
- 34:23. No intercession will be of any avail before Him, except for those for whom He permits intercession. [They will wait in fear and trepidation for that permission to be granted] until, when the fear has been lifted from their hearts, they will say: What did your Lord say? They will say: The truth, and He is the Most High, the Most Great.

﴿Say﴾ O Messenger, to those who associate with Allah created beings that cannot bring any benefit or do any harm, giving them compelling proof that those beings are helpless and explaining to them the invalidity of worshipping them:

﴿Call on those whom you claim [to be gods] besides Allah﴾ that is, those whom you claim are partners to Allah, if your calling upon them will be of any benefit, because they are helpless in all aspects and cannot answer your supplication at all.

They do not have the least power, for they ﴿do not have even an atom's weight of power in the heavens or on earth﴾, either independently of Allah or in partnership with Him. Hence He says: ﴿nor have they﴾ namely those so-called gods of yours ﴿any share in either of them﴾ that is, either in the heavens or the earth; they have no share, small or great, and they have no power or share of power.

But there is another argument which says that despite that, they could still be helpers and advisers to the Sovereign, so calling upon them may be of benefit, because – as the Sovereign needs their help – they could meet the needs of those who are connected to them. But Allah (ﷻ) rules out this idea of them being helpers or advisers, as He says:

﴿nor is any of them﴾ that is, these objects of worship

﴿a helper to Allah﴾ (ﷻ), the One, the Subduer; that is, none of them is a supporter or adviser who helps Him in ruling and controlling the affairs of the universe.

So there is nothing left but the idea of intercession, which Allah rules out by saying:

﴿No intercession will be of any avail before Him, except for those for whom He permits intercession﴾. These are the reasons why the polytheists are attached to their rivals and idols, be they humans, trees or anything else. So Allah explained that these reasons are baseless, so as to leave no excuse or argument for believing in the ascription of partners to Him, and so as to rule out this idea completely.

As the polytheist only calls upon and worships something other than Allah because of benefits that he hopes to gain from it, and this hope is what led him to ascribe partners to Allah, if what he calls upon besides Allah has no power to bring benefits or cause harm, and he has no share with the Sovereign, and is not a helper or supporter to the Sovereign, and cannot intercede without the permission of the Sovereign, then this call and this worship constitutes misguidance, according to rational thinking, and it is false and invalid according to religious teaching.

In fact the one who ascribes partners to Allah will get the opposite of what he is seeking, for what he is seeking by this means is benefit.

But Allah highlights the invalidity of his belief and explains that it will be of no benefit. In other verses, He highlights the harm that the object of worship will do to its worshippers, for on the Day of Resurrection they will disavow one another and curse one another, and the destination of all of them will be the fire:

﴿When humankind are gathered [on the Day of Resurrection], they will become their enemies and will reject their worship of them.﴾
(al-Ahqâf 46: 6)

What is truly strange is that the polytheist is too arrogant to submit to the Messengers on the grounds that they are mere humans, yet he accepts to worship and call upon trees and rocks. He is too arrogant to be sincere to the Sovereign, the Most Gracious, the Judge, yet he agrees to worship that which is more likely to do him harm, in obedience to his bitterest enemy, namely the Shayṭān.

﴿[They will wait in fear and trepidation for that permission to be granted] until, when the fear has been lifted from their hearts, they will say: What did your Lord say? [The intercessors] will say: The truth, and He is the Most High, the Most Great.﴾

It may be the case that the pronoun here refers to the polytheists, because the context is speaking of them, and the usual guideline is that the pronoun refers to that which was mentioned most recently.

In that case what is meant is: on the Day of Resurrection, when the fear is removed from the hearts of the polytheists and they are asked, when they regain their senses, about how they were in this world and about their rejection of the truth that was brought by the Messengers, they will affirm that what they followed of disbelief and polytheism was false, and that what Allah said, and what His Messengers said about Him, was the truth. Thus what they used to hide before will become apparent, and they will know that truth (divinity) belongs to Allah alone (cf. 28: 75), and they will acknowledge their sins.

﴿and He is the Most High﴾ in His essence, above all of His creation, and He subdues them; and He is Most High in His status, for to Him belong the most sublime attributes.

﴿the Most Great﴾ in His essence and attributes. Part of His being the Most High is that His ruling supersedes all, and all souls are subjugated to Him, even the souls of the arrogant and of those who ascribe partners to Him.

This meaning is more likely to be correct, and it is what is indicated by the text.

Or it may be the case that the pronoun refers to the angels, meaning that when Allah (ﷻ) spoke the words of revelation, the angels heard it and swooned, and fell down in prostration to Allah. Then the first one to raise his head was Jibreel, to whom Allah speaks and reveals to him whatever He wants to reveal. Then when the angels recover and the fear in their hearts subsides, they ask one another about the word at which they swooned: What did your Lord say? Then they tell one another: He said the truth – either in general terms, because they know that He does not say anything but the truth, or they say: He said such and such – mentioning the words that they heard from Him, which are true.

In this case, the meaning would be: the polytheists worshipped those gods alongside Allah, whose incapability and imperfection We have described to you, for they cannot offer any benefit whatsoever; how could they turn away from devoting their worship sincerely to the Almighty Lord, the Most High, the Most Great, because of Whose greatness and majesty the humility of the noble angels and those of His creation who are near to Him, reaches such a level that they swoon when they hear His words, and they all affirm that Allah speaks nothing but the truth?

So what is wrong with these polytheists that they are too arrogant to worship the One Who is of such high status, Whose dominion and power are so great? Exalted be the Most High, the Most Great, above the ascription of partners, fabrications and lies of the polytheists.

﴿قُلْ مَنْ يَرْزُقُكُمْ مِنَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ ۚ قُلِ اللَّهُ وَإِنَّا أَوْ إِيَّاكُمْ لَعَلَىٰ هُدًى أَوْ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٢٤﴾ قُلْ لَا تُسْأَلُونَ عَمَّا أَجْرَمْنَا وَلَا نُسْأَلُ عَمَّا تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢٥﴾ قُلْ يَجْمَعُ بَيْنَنَا رَبُّنَا ثُمَّ يَفْتَحُ بَيْنَنَا بِالْحَقِّ وَهُوَ الْفَتَّاحُ الْعَلِيمُ ﴿٢٦﴾ قُلْ أَرُونِي الَّذِينَ أَهَقَمْتُمْ بِهِ شُرَكَاءَ ۚ كَلَّا بَلْ هُوَ اللَّهُ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٢٧﴾﴾

(سورة سبأ: ٢٤-٢٧)

- 34:24. Say: Who provides for you from the heaven and the earth? Say: It is Allah; and verily either we or you are rightly guided or clearly misguided.
- 34:25. Say: You will not be questioned about our misdeeds and we will not be questioned about what you do.
- 34:26. Say: Our Lord will gather us all together, then He will judge between us in truth, for He is the All-Knowing Judge.
- 34:27. Say: Show me those whom you have joined with Him as partners. No indeed [there are no such partners at all]! He is Allah [the only God], the Almighty, the Most Wise.

Here Allah (ﷻ) instructs His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) to say to those who ascribe partners to Allah, asking them about the argument for their ascription of partners to Him:

﴿Who provides for you from the heaven and the earth?﴾ They will inevitably say that it is Allah.

But if they do not affirm it, then ﴿Say: It is Allah﴾, for you will not find anyone who will reject this idea. Once it is clear that it is Allah alone Who provides for you from the heavens and the earth, sending down to you the rain and bringing forth plants for you, causing rivers to flow and causing trees to bear fruits for you, and He has given you all kinds of animals for your benefit and provision, then why do you worship besides Him those who do not provide anything for you and do not bring you any benefit?

﴿and verily either we or you are rightly guided or clearly misguided﴾ that is, one of the two groups, either us or you, is guided, following true guidance, or is clearly misguided, sinking in misguidance. These words could be said by one to whom the truth is clear and he is certain of the truth that he is following, and of the falsehood of what his opponent is following.

In other words, we have established, on the basis of clear proof, what we have and what you have, by means of which it is known for certain, beyond any doubt, who is in the right and who is at fault, who is guided and who is misguided, to the extent that there is no need to point out who is in the right or otherwise after that.

If you compare the one who calls to the worship of the Creator of all created beings – Who is controlling them and directing them in all ways, the Bestower of all blessings, Who grants them provision, causes all blessings to reach them and wards off all kinds of trouble from them, to Whom belong all praise and dominion, and all the angels and those below them submit to His majesty, humbling themselves before His greatness, and all intercessors fear Him, for none can intercede with Him except by His leave, the Most High, the Most Great in His essence, attributes and deeds, to Whom belong all perfection, majesty and beauty, all praise and glory – and calls people to strive to draw near to One Who is like that, and to strive sincerely for His sake, and tells people not to worship anything other than Him, with the one who seeks to draw near to idols, statues and graves that do not create anything or grant any provision, that have no control over themselves or over those who worship them, and have no power to bring benefit or cause harm, or to cause death, give life or resurrect, rather they are inanimate, unable to think or hear the supplication of the worshippers, and if they did hear it they would not respond to them, and on the Day of Resurrection they will reject their ascription of them as partners to Allah and will disavow them, and they (the worshippers and their objects of worship) will curse one another, and they have no share in dominion and cannot help them or intercede for them with Allah, so he is calling upon one who is like that, trying to draw as close to him as he can, taking as his enemy and fighting those who devote their worship to Allah alone, rejecting the Messengers of Allah who taught sincerity to Allah alone...

... It will become clear to you which of the two groups is guided and which is misguided, which is blessed and which is doomed, and there will be no need to explain that to you, because describing the situation is clearer than making a statement.

﴿Say﴾ to them: ﴿You will not be questioned about our misdeeds and we will not be questioned about what you do﴾ that is, both we and you have our own deeds. You ﴿will not be questioned﴾ about our misdeeds or sins, if we commit sin, and we ﴿will not be questioned﴾ about your deeds. So let the aim of both us and you be to seek the facts and follow the path of fair-mindedness. Forget about what we used to do, for that should not hinder you from following the truth, for rulings in this world are based on what one sees, and with regard to these rulings, truth should be followed and falsehood should be avoided. As for the deeds, there will be another realm in which the most just of those who judge will judge them and will settle all disputes. Hence Allah says:

﴿Say: Our Lord will gather us all together, then He will judge between us﴾ that is, He will pass judgement between us, by which it will become clear who is sincere and who is lying, who is deserving of reward and who is deserving of punishment, for He is the best of judges.

﴿Say﴾ to them, O Messenger – and whoever follows in his footsteps (in calling people to Allah):

﴿Show me those whom you have joined with Him as partners﴾ that is, where are they? Where is the way to know them? Are they on earth or in heaven? The Knower of the unseen and the seen has told us that no such partner exists:

﴿They worship, besides Allah, that which has no power either to harm or benefit them, and they say: These are our intercessors with Allah. Say: Do you presume to tell Allah of something that He does not know in the heavens or on earth? Glorified and exalted be He far above the partners they ascribe to Him!﴾ (Yoonus 10: 18)

– and:

﴿Verily, to Allah belong all those who are in the heavens and on earth. Those who call upon their [so-called] partners besides Allah follow nothing but conjecture and they do nothing but lie.﴾ (Yoonus 10: 66)

Similarly, the elite of His creation, namely the Prophets and Messengers, do not know of any partner for Him. So, O polytheists, show me those whom you have falsely associated with Allah ﴿as partners﴾.

They cannot answer this question, hence Allah says: ﴿No indeed﴾ that is, Allah has no partner, no rival, no counterpart; rather ﴿He is Allah [the only God]﴾ and none is deserving of devotion and worship except Him.

﴿the Almighty﴾ Who subjugates all things, so everything other than Him is subjugated, subdued and under control.

﴿the Most Wise﴾ Who perfected all that He created, and perfected what He prescribed of rules and regulations. If there was nothing that He prescribed in His wisdom except that He enjoined affirming His oneness and showing devotion to Him alone, and He loves that and has made it the way of salvation, and has forbidden the ascription of partners to Him and taking other gods besides Him, and has made that the path that leads to loss and doom, that would be sufficient proof of His perfect wisdom. So what do you think, when we know that everything that He has enjoined and forbidden is based on wisdom?

﴿وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ إِلَّا كَافَّةً لِّلنَّاسِ بَشِيرًا وَنَذِيرًا وَلَٰكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ﴾ (٢٨) وَيَقُولُونَ مَتَىٰ هَٰذَا الْوَعْدُ إِن كُنتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿٢٩﴾ قُلْ لَّكُمْ مِيعَادُ يَوْمٍ لَا تَسْتَعِجِرُونَ عَنْهُ سَاعَةً وَلَا تَسْتَقْدِمُونَ ﴿٣٠﴾ (سورة سبأ: ٢٨-٣٠)

34:28. We have not sent you [O Muhammad] but as a bearer of glad tidings and a warner to all humankind, but most people do not realise, 34:29. And they say: When will this promise come to pass, if you speak the truth?

34:30. Say: There has been appointed for you a day which you will not be able to delay for a single moment or bring forward.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He only sent His Messenger (ﷺ) to bring glad tidings to all people of the reward of Allah, and to tell them of the deeds that earn this reward and to warn them of the punishment of Allah and to tell them of the deeds that incur His punishment. You (O Prophet ﷺ) have no control over the matter, and whatever the stubborn disbelievers demand from you of signs, it is not your role to produce it; rather the matter is in the Hand of Allah (ﷻ).

﴿but most people do not realise﴾ that is, they have no sound knowledge; rather they are either ignorant or stubborn, so they do not act upon their knowledge and hence it is as if they have no knowledge. As a result of not having knowledge, they decided that they should reject his call, because the Messenger (ﷺ) did not respond to what they demanded of signs.

Among the demands they made was their demand that he should hasten for them the punishment of which he warned them. Hence Allah says:

﴿And they say: When will this promise come to pass, if you speak the truth?﴾ This is unfair on their part, for what connection is there between him being truthful and his saying when it will happen? Can this be anything but rejection of the truth, foolishness and lack of reason? If one who warns about some imminent worldly danger goes to people who know that he is sincere and honest, and they have an enemy that is waiting for an opportunity to attack them and is preparing to do so, and he tells them: I have seen your enemy marching towards you, aiming to attack you and eradicate you, – if some of them were to say: If you are telling the truth, tell us what time they will reach us and where they are now – would the one who says that be regarded as rational, or would he be deemed foolish and crazy?

That is the case when the one who tells that news may be telling the truth or may be lying; perhaps he saw someone else who was not the enemy, or the enemy may lose their resolve and not attack them, or they may have the power to defend themselves. So how about those who disbelieved the most truthful of people, the one who was infallible in what he said, who did not speak on the basis of his own whims and desires, who spoke of the punishment which was certain and cannot be warded off, and no one can help against it? Is not their rejection of what he told them, on the grounds that the warner could not tell them clearly when it would happen, one of the most foolish things to do?

«Say» to them, telling them of the time when it will happen, concerning which there is no doubt: «There has been appointed for you a day which you will not be able to delay for a single moment or bring forward». So beware of that day, and prepare for it.

﴿وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَنْ تُؤْمِنُوا بِهِذَا الْقُرْآنِ وَلَا بِالَّذِي بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ وَلَوْ نَرَىٰ إِذِ الظَّالِمُونَ مَوْقُوفُونَ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ يَرْجِعُ بَعْضُهُمْ إِلَىٰ بَعْضٍ الْقَوْلَ يَقُولُ الَّذِينَ اسْتَضَعِفُوا لِلَّذِينَ اسْتَكْبَرُوا لَوْلَا أَنْتُمْ لَكُنَّا مُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٢٨﴾ قَالَ الَّذِينَ

أَسْتَكْبَرُوا لِلَّذِينَ اسْتَضَعِفُوا أَن تَنْفُصِدَنَّا عَنْ أَلْهُدَىٰ بَعْدَ إِذْ جَاءَكَ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ
تُحْزِمِينَ ﴿٣٣﴾ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ اسْتَضَعِفُوا لِلَّذِينَ اسْتَكْبَرُوا بَلْ مَكْرُ اللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ إِذْ
تَأْمُرُونَنَا أَنْ نَكْفُرَ بِاللَّهِ وَنَجْعَلَ لَهُمْ أَدْنًا ۖ وَأَسْرُوا النَّدَامَةَ لَمَّا رَأَوُا الْعَذَابَ وَجَعَلْنَا الْأَغْلَلَ فِي آعْنَاقِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا ۖ هَلْ يُجْزَوْنَ إِلَّا مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٣٤﴾ (سورة سبأ:

(٣٣-٣١)

- 34:31. Those who disbelieve say: We will never believe in this Qur'an or in any scripture that came before it. If you could but see the wrongdoers when they will be made to stand before their Lord, hurling reproaches at one another. Those who were regarded as weak will say to those who were arrogant: Had it not been for you, we would have been believers.
- 34:32. Those who were arrogant will say to those who were regarded as weak: Was it we who prevented you from following right guidance after it had come to you? Nay, rather you yourselves were given to evil.
- 34:33. Those who were regarded as weak will say to those who were arrogant: Rather it was your efforts to deceive us, by night and by day, for you commanded us to disbelieve in Allah and set up rivals to Him. They will conceal their remorse, when they see the punishment, and We will place iron collars on the necks of those who disbelieved. Should they be requited for anything other than what they used to do?

Having mentioned the time for the punishment of those who seek to hasten the punishment, which will inevitably come on the day appointed for it, here Allah mentions how they will be on that day: If you could see how they will be when they stand before their Lord, when the leaders and those who followed them in disbelief and misguidance are gathered together, you would see something momentous and terrifying, and you would see how they will argue with one another and hurl reproaches at one another.

﴿Those who were regarded as weak﴾ namely the followers
 ﴿will say to those who were arrogant﴾ namely the leaders:
 ﴿Had it not been for you, we would have been believers﴾, but you prevented us from believing and made disbelief fair-seeming to us, so we followed you therein. What they will mean by saying that is that the punishment should be only for the leaders, and not for them.

﴿Those who were arrogant will say to those who were regarded as weak﴾, expressing amazement and stating that they are all equally guilty:

﴿Was it we who prevented you from following right guidance after it had come to you?﴾ That is, by virtue of our power and strength, by means of which we compelled you.

﴿Nay, rather you yourselves were given to evil﴾ that is, you chose to commit evil; you were not compelled to do so. Even though we made it fair-seeming to you, we had no power over you.

﴿Those who were regarded as weak will say to those who were arrogant: Rather it was your efforts to deceive us, by night and by day, for you commanded us to disbelieve in Allah and set up rivals to Him﴾ that is, the reason why you impacted us and misguided us was your efforts to deceive us by night and by day, for you made disbelief attractive to us and called us to it, telling us that it was the truth, and you criticised the truth, made it look bad and claimed that it was falsehood; you kept up your efforts and your scheming against us until you misled us and deceived us.

But this argument between them will not lead to any good outcome; rather they will disavow one another and feel deep regret. Hence
 Allah says:

﴿They will conceal their remorse, when they see the punishment﴾ that is, they will realise that the argument that they tried to use against one another in order to be saved from the punishment is invalid and that they are all wrongdoers who deserve punishment. Hence each one of them will be filled with deep remorse and will wish that he had followed the truth and rejected the falsehood that brought him to this punishment. But each one will keep this regret to himself, for fear of scandal and shame if he admits that he deserves it.

However, at some stage on the Day of Resurrection, and when they are admitted to hell, they will express that regret and remorse openly:

﴿On that day, the wrongdoer will bite on his hands and say: Would that I had taken a path with the Messenger. Alas for me! Would that I had not taken So-and-so as a friend! He led me astray from the Reminder [the Qur'an] after it had come to me...﴾ (al-Furqan 25: 27-29)

﴿And they will say: If only we had listened or understood, we would not be among the inhabitants of the raging fire. Thus they will acknowledge their sin. So away with the inhabitants of the raging fire!﴾ (al-Mulk 67: 10-11)

﴿and We will place iron collars on the necks of those who disbelieved﴾ that is, they will be chained up like a prisoner who is to be humiliated in the place of his detention. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿...But they will come to know [the consequences of their deeds] when, with iron collars and chains around their necks, they are dragged into the scalding water, then they will be burned in the fire.﴾ (Ghafir 40: 70-72)

﴿Should they be required﴾ with that punishment and those heavy chains ﴿for anything other than what they used to do﴾ of disbelief, evil and sin?

﴿وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا فِي قَرْيَةٍ مِّنْ نَّذِيرٍ إِلَّا قَالَ مُتْرَفُوهَا إِنَّا بِمَا أُرْسِلْتُمْ بِهِ كَافِرُونَ ﴿٧١﴾
وَقَالُوا نَحْنُ أَكْثَرُ أَمْوَالًا وَأَوْلَدًا وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمُعَذَّبِينَ ﴿٧٢﴾ قُلْ إِن رَّبِّي يَسْطُرُ الرَّزْقَ
لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَقْدِرُ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٧٣﴾ وَمَا أَمْوَالُكُمْ وَلَا أَوْلَادُكُمْ بِالَّتِي

تَقَرَّبُكُمْ عِنْدَنَا زُلْفَىٰ إِلَّا مَن ءَامَنَ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَأُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ جَزَاءُ الضَّعِيفِ بِمَا عَمِلُوا
وَهُمْ فِي الْغُرُفِ ءَامِنُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾ وَالَّذِينَ يَسْعَوْنَ فِي ءَابِنَاتِنَا مُعْجِزِينَ أُولَٰئِكَ فِي الْعَذَابِ
مُحْضَرُونَ ﴿٣٨﴾ قُلْ إِن رَّبِّي يَبْسُطُ الرِّزْقَ لِمَن يَشَاءُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ وَيَقْدِرُ لَهُ وَمَا
أُنْفَقْتُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فَهُوَ يُخْلِفُهُ وَهُوَ خَيْرُ الرَّازِقِينَ ﴿٣٩﴾ ﴿سورة سبأ: ٣٤-٣٩﴾

- 34:34. We never sent any warner to a city but its affluent ones said: Verily we disbelieve in that with which you have been sent.
- 34:35. They said: We are more abundant in wealth and children, and we are not going to be punished.
- 34:36. Say: Verily my Lord grants abundant provision to whomever He wills, or gives it in scant measure, but most people do not know.
- 34:37. It is not your wealth or your children that bring you nearer to Us; but those who believe and do righteous deeds – it is they who will have a multiple reward for their deeds, and they will dwell secure in the high places in paradise.
- 34:38. But those who strive against Our revelations, seeking to discredit them, it is they who will be delivered up for punishment.
- 34:39. Say: Verily my Lord grants abundant provision to whomever He wills among His slaves, or gives it in scant measure. Whatever you spend, He will compensate for it, for He is the best of providers.

Here Allah (ﷻ) describes the fate of previous nations who disbelieved in the Messengers; it is like the fate that awaits the current audience (namely Quraysh) who disbelieve in their Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ). When Allah sent a Messenger to a city, its affluent inhabitants disbelieved in him and became insolent and arrogant because of their life of ease.

﴿They said: We are more abundant in wealth and children﴾ than those who follow the truth,

﴿and we are not going to be punished﴾ that is: firstly, we will not be resurrected, and even if we are resurrected, then the One Who gave us wealth and children in this world will give us more than that in the hereafter, and we will not be punished.

Allah (ﷻ) responded to them by telling them that abundance of provision or scant measure thereof is not indicative of what they claim, for provision is subject to the will of Allah: if He wills, He gives in abundance to His slave, and if He wills, He gives in scant measure.

It is not wealth and children that bring a person closer to Allah; rather what brings one closer to Him is belief in that which the Messengers brought and righteous deeds which are the outcome of faith. It is they who will have a multiple reward with Allah (ﷻ), for each righteous deed brings a tenfold reward, up to seven hundred fold, up to many times more than that, which no one knows except Allah.

﴿and they will dwell secure in the high places in paradise﴾ that is, in lofty places, where they will dwell, feeling secure and safe from any stresses or troubles that could spoil the pleasures and delights that they are enjoying. They will be safe from having to leave it or feeling any grief whilst they are there.

As for those who strive against Our revelations, seeking to outwit Us and frustrate Our Messengers, and to show Our revelations to be false, ﴿it is they who will be delivered up for punishment﴾.

Then Allah (ﷻ) repeats that He ﴿grants abundant provision to whomever He wills among His slaves, or gives it in scant measure﴾ so that He may follow that by saying: ﴿Whatever you spend﴾ of obligatory or recommended spending, on relatives, neighbours, the poor, orphans and others, ﴿He will compensate for it﴾, so do not think that spending reduces one's provision; rather Allah – Who grants abundant provision to whomever He wills, or gives it in scant measure – has promised to recompense the one who spends,

«for He is the best of providers». So seek provision from Him, and strive and take measures to earn a living as He has enjoined upon you.

﴿وَيَوْمَ يَحْشُرُهُمْ جَمِيعًا ثُمَّ يَقُولُ لِلْمَلَائِكَةِ أَهَؤُلَاءِ إِبْنَاكُمْ كَانُوا يَعْبُدُونَ ﴿٤٠﴾ قَالُوا سُبْحَنَكَ أَنْتَ وَلِئِنَّا مِنْ دُونِهِمْ بَلْ كَانُوا يَعْبُدُونَ الْجِنَّ أَكْثَرُهُمْ بِهِمْ مُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٤١﴾ فَالْيَوْمَ لَا يَمْلِكُ بَعْضُكُمْ لِبَعْضٍ نَفْعًا وَلَا ضَرًّا وَنَقُولُ لِلَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا ذُوقُوا عَذَابَ النَّارِ الَّتِي كُنْتُمْ بِهَا تُكَذِّبُونَ ﴿٤٢﴾﴾ (سورة سبأ: ٤٠-٤٢)

- 34:40. On the day when He gathers them all together He will say to the angels: Was it you that these people used to worship?
- 34:41. They will say: Glory be to You! You are our Close Friend, not they. Rather they used to worship the jinn; most of them believed in them.
- 34:42. [And Allah will say:] So today none of you has the power to benefit or harm another. And We will say to the wrongdoers: Taste the punishment of the fire which you used to deny!

«On the day when He gathers them all together» that is, those who worshipped anything other than Allah and their objects of worship among the angels. Then Allah «will say to the angels», by way of rebuking those who worshipped them:

«Was it you that these people used to worship?» The angels will disavow their worship, and will say:

«Glory be to You!» that is, we declare You to be holy and far above having any partner or rival

«You are our Close Friend, not they» and we are in desperate need of Your protection, so how could we call others to worship us? How could we be fit to be taken as allies and partners besides You?

Rather these polytheists «used to worship the jinn» that is, the devils who instructed them to worship us or to worship others, and they obeyed them in that.

Their obedience to them was their worship of them, because worship is obedience, as Allah (ﷻ) says, addressing all those who take others as gods besides Him:

«Did I not instruct you, O children of Adam, that you should not worship the Shayṭān, for he is to you an avowed enemy, and that you should worship Me, for that is a straight path?» (Yâ Seen 36: 60-61)

«most of them believed in them» that is, they believed in the jinn and submitted to them, because faith is that belief which leads to submitting and following.

When the angels disavow the polytheists, Allah will say to the latter: «So today none of you has the power to benefit or harm another», for the relationship between you is severed and you have nothing to do with one another.

«And We will say to the wrongdoers» who did wrong by disbelieving and committing sin, after We admit them to hell:

«Taste the punishment of the fire which you used to deny!» Today you are seeing it with your own eyes and entering it as a result of your disbelief, and as a punishment for the consequences of that disbelief, as you did not keep away from that which could lead to it.

﴿وَإِذَا نُنَادِي عَلَيْهِمْ أَيْنَ مَا كُنْتُمْ يَقُولُونَ مَا هَذَا إِلَّا رَجُلٌ يُرِيدُ أَنْ يَصُدَّكُمْ عَنْ مَا كَانُوا يَعْبُدُونَ آبَاءَكُمْ وَقَالُوا مَا هَذَا إِلَّا إِنْكَارٌ مِمَّا كُنْتُمْ تَكْفُرُونَ قَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِلْحَقِّ لَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ إِنَّ هَذَا إِلَّا سِحْرٌ مُبِينٌ ﴿٤٣﴾ وَمَا آتَيْنَاهُمْ مِنْ كُتُبٍ يَدْرُسُونَهَا وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَيْهِمْ قَبْلَكَ مِنْ نَذِيرٍ ﴿٤٤﴾ وَكَذَّبَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ وَمَا بَلَّغُوا مَعْشَارَ مَا آتَيْنَاهُمْ فَكَذَّبُوا رُسُلِي فَكَيْفَ كَانَ نَكِيرِ ﴿٤٥﴾﴾ (سورة سبأ: ٤٣-٤٥)

- 34:43. When Our clear revelations are recited to them, they say: This is nothing but a man who wants to turn you away from that which your forefathers used to worship. And they say: This is nothing but a fabricated lie. And those who disbelieve say of the truth when it comes to them: This is obviously nothing but magic!
- 34:44. although We did not give them any scripture that they could study, nor did We send to them any warner before you.
- 34:45. Those who came before them also rejected [the truth]. These people [Quraysh] have not been given even one tenth of what We gave to those [earlier nations], yet when they rejected My Messengers, how great was the change I wrought!<sup>24</sup>

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about the reaction of the polytheists when the clear verses of Allah are recited to them and clear explanations and definitive proofs are presented to them that point to everything that is good and forbid everything that is evil. This is the greatest blessing that has come to them, and it requires them to respond by believing in it, accepting it and submitting to it, but they responded with the opposite of what was required of them, and they rejected the one who brought it to them, saying: ﴿This is nothing but a man who wants to turn you away from that which your forefathers used to worship﴾ that is, this is his aim, when he tells you to be devoted to Allah alone and to give up the customs of your forefathers whom you venerate and in whose footsteps you walk. So they rejected the truth on the basis of the view of misguided people, but they did not bring any proof or even any specious argument to support what they said.

What kind of argument is that, when the Messengers instruct some misguided people to follow the truth, but they claim that their co-religionists who follow the same path are still persisting in that?

<sup>24</sup> As Allah changed the way He had been dealing with them, changing abundance to scarcity and well-being to destruction. (aṭ-Ṭabari)

This is foolishness and rejection of the truth on the basis of the opinions of misguided people. If you think about every case in which truth is rejected, you will see that it is rejected in a similar manner, for it is not rejected except on the basis of the views of misguided people, whether they be polytheists, those who do not believe in the Day of Resurrection, philosophers, Sabians, and heretics who have passed out of the religion of Allah. This is the pattern of everyone who rejects the truth until the Day of Resurrection.

Having cited the deeds of their forefathers as evidence and regarded that as justification for rejecting what the Messengers brought, they then cast aspersions upon the truth by saying: «This is nothing but a fabricated lie» that is, it was fabricated by this man who has brought this message.

«And those who disbelieve say of the truth when it comes to them: This is obviously nothing but magic» and it is obvious to everyone that it is magic. They said that by way of rejecting the truth and so as to deceive the foolish.

Having described the argument by means of which they rejected the truth, and stated that these arguments are flawed and cannot provide any proof, Allah now states that even if anyone wanted to bring proof for their arguments, they do not have any source for such proof: «although We did not give them any scripture that they could study» so that it could serve as a reference book for them «nor did We send to them any warner before you» so that they would have a record of his words and teachings on the basis of which they could reject what you have brought to them. Therefore they have no knowledge and no trace of knowledge.

Then Allah warns them by telling them of what happened to the disbelieving nations who came before them: «Those who came before them also rejected [the truth]. These people [Quraysh]» to whom the message is now addressed

﴿have not been given even one tenth of what We gave to those [earlier nations], yet when they﴾ that is, the earlier nations
 ﴿rejected My Messengers, how great was the change I wrought!﴾
 That is, by way of punishing them.

We know what happened to them of punishment, and that some of them He drowned, and some He destroyed with the devastating wind, the blast, the earthquake, by causing the earth to swallow them up, and by sending against them a violent squall of pebbles from the sky. So beware, O disbelievers, if you persist in disbelief, lest you be overtaken by that which overtook those who came before you, and there befall you what befell them.

﴿قُلْ إِنَّمَا أَعْظُمُكُمْ بِوَحْدَةٍ أَنْ تَقُومُوا لِلَّهِ مَشْنَىٰ وَفَرْدَىٰ ثُمَّ تَنَفَّكُرُوا
 مَا بِصَاحِبِكُمْ مِنْ جِنَّةٍ إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا نَذِيرٌ لَّكُمْ بَيْنَ يَدَيْ عَذَابٍ شَدِيدٍ ﴿٤٦﴾ قُلْ مَا
 سَأَلْتُكُمْ مِنْ أَجْرٍ فَهُوَ لَكُمْ إِنْ أَجْرِيَ إِلَّا عَلَى اللَّهِ وَهُوَ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ شَهِيدٌ ﴿٤٧﴾ قُلْ إِنْ رَبِّي
 يَقْذِفُ بِالْحَقِّ عَلَٰمُ الْغُيُوبِ ﴿٤٨﴾ قُلْ جَاءَ الْحَقُّ وَمَا يُبَدِّلُ الْبَاطِلَ وَمَا يُعِيدُ ﴿٤٩﴾ قُلْ
 إِنْ ضَلَلْتُ فَإِنَّمَا أَضِلُّ عَلَىٰ نَفْسِي وَإِنِ اهْتَدَيْتُ فِيمَا يُوحَىٰ إِلَيَّ رَحْمَةً مِنْ رَبِّي إِنَّهُ سَمِيعٌ قَرِيبٌ
 (سورة سبأ: ٤٦-٥٠)﴾

- 34:46. Say [O Muhammad]: I advise you to do one thing only: take this matter seriously and reflect upon it, in pairs or singly, sincerely seeking the pleasure of Allah. There is no madness in your companion; he is but a warner to you ahead of a severe punishment.
- 34:47. Say: Whatever recompense I might have asked of you is yours; my reward is with Allah alone, and He is Witness over all things.
- 34:48. Say: Verily my Lord hurls the truth [against falsehood], and He is the Knower of the unseen.

- 34:49. Say: The truth has come and falsehood can neither initiate anything, nor restore anything.
- 34:50. Say: If I go astray, it is only to my own detriment, but if I am guided, it is because of what my Lord reveals to me. Verily, He is All-Hearing, Ever Near.

---

That is, «Say», O Messenger (ﷺ), to these stubborn disbelievers who have taken it upon themselves to oppose the truth and reject it, and to criticise the one who brought it:

«I advise you to do one thing only» that is, one thing which I am pointing out to you and advising you to follow, for it is a fair path. I am not calling you to follow my opinion or to reject your own without any justification for doing so. That thing to which I am calling you is: «take this matter seriously and reflect upon it, in pairs or singly, sincerely seeking the pleasure of Allah» that is, take this matter seriously and put some energy into it, with the aim of following what is right and being sincere towards Allah, as a group, discussing and debating the matter, or individually, each person thinking to himself.

If you were to reflect upon the matter, in pairs or singly, seeking the pleasure of Allah, then you would think rationally and things would become clear to you, and you would reflect on the character of your Messenger (ﷺ): is he really insane, with the characteristics of one who is insane in the way he speaks, in the way he looks and in the way he behaves? Or is he a true Prophet (ﷺ), who is warning you against that which will cause you harm and what lies ahead of you of severe punishment?

If they accept this exhortation and put it into practice, then it will become clear to them, more than others, that the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) is not insane, because his attitude is not that of insane people with their choking, trembling and staring; rather his attitude is the best of all attitudes, and he is the most dignified in the way he carries himself, the most perfect in attitude, manners, tranquillity, humility and dignity. He can only be the most mature and wise of men.

Moreover, if they ponder his eloquent words and beautiful speech that fill the heart with reassurance and faith, purify souls, cleanse hearts, make one aspire to sublime attributes, encourage good manners, and deter one from bad manners and attitudes, they will see that when he speaks, people look at him with awe and respect. Could this in any way resemble the mumbo-jumbo of the insane and their errant behaviour?

Anyone who reflects on the Prophet's character and what he was calling people to, for the purpose of finding out whether he was the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) or not, will – whether he thinks by himself or with others – become certain that he was indeed the Messenger of Allah and was truly His Prophet (ﷺ). This is especially true in the case of those to whom these words were initially addressed, namely his contemporaries who knew everything about him from his childhood onwards.

There is also another matter that discourages people from following the one who calls them to the truth, which is the fear that he may take the wealth of those who respond to him and take it as payment for his call. Hence Allah (ﷻ) explained that His Messenger (ﷺ) was far above doing such a thing, as He said:

«Say: Whatever recompense I might have asked of you» for your following the truth

«is yours» that is, I testify in your favour that that reward is yours

«my reward is with Allah alone, and He is Witness over all things» that is, His knowledge encompasses what I call people to, so if I were lying, He would seize me with His punishment. And He is also witness over your deeds, and He is recording them against you, then He will requite you for them.

Having highlighted the proof which is indicative of the soundness of the truth and the invalidity of falsehood, Allah (ﷻ) now states that this is His way and that He «hurls the truth [against falsehood]» and it crushes it, whereupon it perishes (cf. 21: 18), because in the preceding verses He highlighted the truth and refuted thereby the views of the disbelievers, which is a lesson for those who are willing to learn and a sign for those who reflect.

As you can see, the views of the disbelievers were defeated and their lies and stubbornness were clearly exposed; the truth prevailed and shone brightly, and falsehood was proven invalid and suppressed. That was because of the proof presented by «the Knower of the unseen» Who knows what is in their hearts of whispers and specious arguments, and He knows what may oppose that and counter it of proof and evidence.

Thus He announces it to people and explains it to them, hence He says:

«Say: The truth has come» that is, it has appeared and become as clear as day, and its authority has been made manifest
«and falsehood can neither initiate anything, nor restore anything» that is, falsehood has diminished and has been proven to be invalid; its power has vanished, so it neither initiates anything nor restores anything.

When the truth became clear by virtue of the call of the Messenger (ﷺ), and the disbelievers accused him of being misguided, Allah told them of the truth and explained it to them, highlighting their inability to resist it, and informing them that their accusations against him of being misguided could not harm the truth in any way and could not ward off what the Prophet (ﷺ) brought; if he did go astray – which is not possible, but is mentioned for the sake of argument – he would only go astray to his own detriment. In other words, the harm resulting from his being misguided would be limited to himself and would not affect others.

«but if I am guided», that is not from me or by my own strength and power; rather my guidance is «because of what my Lord reveals to me» – that is the cause of my guidance, just as it is the cause of the guidance of others, for my Lord is «All-Hearing» and hears all words and voices «Ever Near» to the one who calls upon Him, asks of Him and worships Him.

﴿لَوْ تَرَىٰ إِذْ فَرَغُوا فَلَا قُوَّةَ وَاتَّخَذُوا مِنْ مَّكَانٍ قَرِيبٍ ﴿٥١﴾ وَقَالُوا ءَامَنَّا بِهِ وَأَنَّىٰ لَهُمُ التَّنَاقُشُ مِنْ مَّكَانٍ بَعِيدٍ ﴿٥٢﴾ وَقَدْ كَفَرُوا بِهِ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَيَقْذِفُونَ بِالْغَيْبِ مِنْ مَّكَانٍ بَعِيدٍ ﴿٥٣﴾ وَجِيلَ بَيْنَهُمْ وَبَيْنَ مَا يَشْتَهُونَ كَمَا فُعِلَ بِأَشْيَاعِهِمْ مِنْ قَبْلُ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا فِي شَكٍّ مُرِيبٍ ﴿٥٤﴾﴾ (سورة سبأ: ٥١-٥٤)

- 34:51. If only you could see them when they are stricken with terror, but there will be no escape, and they will be seized from near at hand.
- 34:52. They will say: Now we believe in [the message]. But how can they reach out for it [faith] from such a distant place,<sup>25</sup>
- 34:53. seeing that they disbelieved in it before, and they made far-fetched conjectures about the unseen?
- 34:54. They will be prevented from attaining what they desire, as was done before with others of their ilk, for they were indeed in grave doubt.

«If only you» O Messenger (ﷺ), and those who follow you, «could see» the state of these disbelievers <sup>25</sup> This refers to what the disbelievers will say in the hereafter, but the time and place for believing is in this world, which at that point will be far away from them, so it will be too late for them to say, “We believe”.

﴿when they are stricken with terror﴾ upon seeing the punishment and what the Messengers told them about, but they disbelieved in it. Then you would see something momentous, a terrifying scene and a horrible sight of intense distress. That will be when the punishment becomes due upon them and they have nowhere to flee and no escape. ﴿and they will be seized from near at hand﴾ that is, not far from the place of punishment; rather they will be seized then thrown into the fire.

﴿They will say﴾ at that point: ﴿Now we believe﴾ in Allah and we believe in that in which we disbelieved.

﴿But how can they reach out for it [faith] from such a distant place﴾ now that they have been prevented from it and it has become something impossible in this situation? If they had believed at the time when it was possible to do so, their faith would have been accepted.

But ﴿they disbelieved in it before, and they made far-fetched conjectures about the unseen﴾, so as to refute the truth. But there was no way they could achieve that, just as there is no way for one who throws something from a great distance to hit his target. By the same token, it is impossible for falsehood to overwhelm the truth or defeat it. Rather falsehood may have the upper hand for a short while, when the followers of the truth are in a state of negligence, but when the people of truth pay attention and resist falsehood, it will be suppressed.

﴿They will be prevented from attaining what they desire﴾ namely physical pleasures, children, wealth, servants and troops, and they will come only with their deeds. They will come singly, as they were created, and they will leave behind all that they had been given of worldly luxuries.

﴿as was done before with others of their ilk﴾ of the earlier nations, when their doom came to them and they were prevented from attaining what they desired.

«for they were indeed in grave doubt» that would lead to uncertainty and anxiety; therefore they did not believe, and if they seek to make amends, they will not be allowed to do so (cf. 41: 24).

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat Saba'.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

35.

Soorat Fâṭir

(Makki)

---

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ فَاطِرِ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ جَاعِلِ الْمَلَائِكَةِ رُسُلًا أُولَى أَجْنَحَةٍ مَّتَنَّى وَتِلْكَ
وَرُبَّعٌ يُزِيدُ فِي الْخَلْقِ مَا يَشَاءُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ﴿١﴾ مَا يَفْتَحُ اللَّهُ لِلنَّاسِ مِنْ رَحْمَةٍ
فَلَا تُعْصِيكُ لَهُمْ وَمَا يُعْصِيكَ فَلَا مُرْسِلَ لَهُ مِنْ بَعْدِهِ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٢﴾ (سورة فاطر:

(٢-١)

- 35:1. Praise be to Allah, the Originator of the heavens and the earth, Who made the angels messengers with wings, two or three or four. He adds to creation whatever He wills. Verily Allah has power over all things.
- 35:2. Whatever Allah opens up for people of His mercy, none can withhold it, and whatever He withholds, none can grant it thereafter. And He is the Almighty, the Most Wise.
-

Here Allah (ﷻ) praises Himself for His creation of the heavens and the earth and all that they contain of created things, because that is indicative of the perfect nature of His might, the vastness of His dominion, the broadness of His mercy, the brilliance of His wisdom and the all-encompassing nature of His knowledge.

Having mentioned creation, Allah now tells us about the angels, that He ﴿made the angels messengers﴾ who execute His decrees and act as go-betweens in conveying His commands to His creation.

The fact that He says that He has made the angels messengers, with no exception, is indicative of the perfect nature of their obedience to their Lord and their compliance with His commands, as Allah (ﷻ) tells us elsewhere that they:

﴿...who do not disobey Allah in whatever He commands them, and they do whatever they are commanded to do.﴾ (at-Tahreem 66: 6)

Because the angels are the ones who have control – by Allah’s leave – over that with which He has entrusted them, He mentions their power to do that, and the speed with which they travel, as He has made them ﴿with wings﴾ by means of which they fly as they rush to carry out what they are commanded to do.

﴿two or three or four﴾ that is, some of them have two wings, and some have three or four, according to what Allah’s wisdom dictates. ﴿He adds to creation whatever He wills﴾ that is, He causes some to have more than others, with regard to their shape, strength, beauty, additional faculties, and quality of voice.

﴿Verily Allah has power over all things﴾ and by His power, He does whatever He wills, and nothing is beyond His power; that includes His causing some of His creation to surpass others.

Then Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He alone has control and gives and withholds as He wills:

﴿Whatever Allah opens up for people of His mercy, none can withhold it, and whatever He withholds﴾ from them of His mercy ﴿none can grant it thereafter﴾ this leads to putting one’s trust in Allah (ﷻ) and feeling one’s need for Him in all ways, so that one does not call upon anyone but Him and does not fear or put hope in anyone but Him.

﴿And He is the Almighty﴾ Who has subdued all things
 ﴿the Most Wise﴾ Who does what is appropriate.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اذْكُرُوا نِعْمَتَ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكُمْ هَلْ مِنْ خَالِقٍ غَيْرِ اللَّهِ يَرْزُقُكُمْ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ
 وَالْأَرْضِ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ فَأَنْتُمْ تُؤْفَكُونَ ﴿٣﴾ وَإِنْ يُكَذِّبُوكَ فَقَدْ كَذَّبَتْ رُسُلٌ مِنْ
 قَبْلِكَ وَإِلَى اللَّهِ تُرْجَعُ الْأُمُورُ ﴿٤﴾﴾ (سورة فاطر: ٣-٤)

- 35:3. O people, remember the favour that Allah bestowed upon you. Is there any creator other than Allah who provides for you from the heaven and the earth? There is no god but He; then how could you have gone so far astray?
- 35:4. If they reject you [O Muhammad], Messengers before you were also rejected; and it is to Allah that all things will return.

Here Allah (ﷻ) instructs people to remember the blessings that He has bestowed upon them. This includes acknowledging them in the heart, praising Him verbally and taking physical action to comply with His commands. Remembering His blessings prompts one to give thanks to Him. Then He draws their attention to the basic foundation of the blessing, which is creation and provision, as He says:

﴿Is there any creator other than Allah who provides for you from the heaven and the earth?﴾

Because it is well known that no one can create and grant provision except Allah, this offers evidence for His divinity and that He alone is to be worshipped. Hence Allah says:

﴿There is no god but He; then how could you have gone so far astray?﴾ that is, how can you be diverted from worship of the Creator and Provider, and instead worship those who are created and are provided for?

﴿If they reject you﴾, O Messenger (ﷺ), then you have an example in the Messengers who came before you, for ﴿Messengers before you were also rejected﴾, but the disbelievers who rejected them were destroyed, and Allah saved the Messengers and their followers. ﴿and it is to Allah that all things will return﴾.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ إِنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ فَلَا تَغُرَّكُمْ الْحَيَاةُ الدُّنْيَا وَلَا يَغُرَّكُمْ بِاللَّهِ الْغُرُورُ ۚ إِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ لَكُمْ عَدُوٌّ فَاتَّخِذُوهُ عَدُوًّا إِنَّمَا يَدْعُوا حِزْبَهُ لِيَكُونُوا مِنْ أَصْحَابِ السَّعِيرِ ۚ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ شَدِيدٌ وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةٌ وَأَجْرٌ كَبِيرٌ﴾ (سورة فاطر: ٥-٧)

- 35:5. O people, verily the promise of Allah is true, so do not let the life of this world deceive you, or let any deceiver deceive you concerning Allah.
- 35:6. Verily the Shayṭān is an enemy to you, so take him as an enemy. He only calls his followers so that they may become inhabitants of the raging fire.
- 35:7. Those who disbelieve will have a severe punishment, but those who believe and do righteous deeds will have forgiveness and a great reward.

﴿O people, verily the promise of Allah﴾ of the resurrection and requital of deeds

﴿is true﴾ that is, there can be no doubt about it. That is supported by textual evidence and rational proof. As His promise is true, you should prepare for it and hasten to fill your precious time with righteous deeds, and do not let anything prevent you from doing so.

﴿so do not let the life of this world deceive you﴾ with its pleasures, desires and other aspirations and goals, for it will distract you from the purpose for which you were created

﴿or let any deceiver deceive you concerning Allah﴾.

The deceiver is ﴿the Shayṭān﴾, who is your true enemy, ﴿so take him as an enemy﴾ and do not neglect to fight him at any moment, for he sees you although you do not see him, and he is always lying in wait for you.

﴿He only calls his followers so that they may become inhabitants of the raging fire﴾ this is his ultimate aim and goal with regard to those who follow him; he seeks to humiliate them utterly by bringing upon them this severe punishment.

Then Allah tells us that people are divided into two categories according to whether they obey the Shayṭān or not, and He mentions the requital of each category:

﴿Those who disbelieve﴾ that is, they reject what the Messengers brought and what the Books indicate

﴿will have a severe punishment﴾ in the fire of hell, where they will abide forever.

﴿but those who believe﴾ with all their hearts in that which Allah calls them to believe in and, on the basis of that faith, ﴿do righteous deeds﴾ by taking physical action

﴿will have forgiveness﴾ of their sins, and as a result troubles and problems will be removed from them,

﴿and a great reward﴾ by means of which they will attain what they seek.

﴿أَفَمَنْ زُيِّنَ لَهُ سُوءُ عَمَلِهِ فَرَآهُ حَسَنًا فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ يُضِلُّ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَهْدِي مَنْ يَشَاءُ فَلَا تَذْهَبْ نَفْسُكَ عَلَيْهِمْ حَسْرَةً إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمٌ بِمَا يَصْنَعُونَ﴾ (سورة فاطر: ٨)

- 35:8. Is one whose evil deeds are made fair-seeming to him, so that he regards them as good, [like one who is rightly guided]? Verily Allah leaves astray whomever He wills and guides whomever

He wills. So do not let yourself waste away in sorrow for them.
Verily Allah knows well all that they do.

«Is one whose evil deeds are made fair-seeming to him» by the Shayṭān

«so that he regards them as good» that is, is he like one who is rightly guided by Allah to the straight path and right religion? Can these two be equal? For the former does bad deeds and regards truth as falsehood and falsehood as truth, whereas the latter does good deeds and regards the truth as true and falsehood as false.

But guidance and misguidance are in the Hand of Allah (ﷻ): «Verily Allah leaves astray whomever He wills and guides whomever He wills. So do not let yourself waste away in sorrow for them» that is, for the misguided whose bad deeds have been made fair-seeming to them, and the Shayṭān barred them from following the truth, for your role is only to convey the message; and their guidance has nothing to do with you at all; it is Allah Who will requite them for their deeds, for «Verily Allah knows well all that they do».

﴿وَاللَّهُ الَّذِي أَرْسَلَ الرِّيحَ فَتُثِيرُ سَحَابًا فَمُغْنِمَهُ إِلَىٰ بَلَدٍ مَّيِّتٍ فَأَحْيَيْنَاهُ الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا ۚ كَذَٰلِكَ النُّشُورُ﴾ (سورة فاطر: ٩)

35:9. It is Allah Who sends forth the winds to stir up clouds, then We drive them to a land that is dead, and He gives life thereby to the earth after its death. Such will be the resurrection.

Here Allah (ﷻ) speaks of His perfect power and immense generosity and tells us that He «sends forth the winds to stir up clouds, then We drive them to a land that is dead», then Allah sends down rain upon it,

﴿and He gives life thereby to the earth after its death﴾. Thus life is restored to the land and to people, and the animals are able to attain their provision and graze on all of these blessings.

﴿Such will be the resurrection﴾, for the One Who gives life to the earth after its death will resurrect the dead from their graves, after they had turned to dust. He will send rain to them, as He sends it to the dead land. He will send it down upon them, and they will come back to life, body and soul, and will emerge from their graves and come to stand before Allah, so that He may judge between them on the basis of divine justice.

﴿مَنْ كَانَ يُرِيدُ الْعِزَّةَ فَلِلَّهِ الْعِزَّةُ جَمِيعًا إِلَيْهِ يَصْعَدُ الْكَلِمُ الطَّيِّبُ وَالْعَمَلُ الصَّالِحُ يَرْفَعُهُ ۚ وَالَّذِينَ يَمْكُرُونَ السَّيِّئَاتِ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ شَدِيدٌ وَمَكْرُ أُولَٰئِكَ هُوَ يُبْزَوْنَ﴾

(سورة فاطر: ١٠)

35:10. Whoever seeks honour, then all honour belongs to Allah. To Him ascend all good words, and righteous deeds exalt them.<sup>26</sup> And those who plan evil deeds will have a severe punishment, and the plans of such people will come to naught.

That is, O you who seek honour, seek it from the One in Whose Hand it is, for honour is in the Hand of Allah and can only be attained by obeying Him. Allah mentions it in the words: ﴿To Him ascend all good words﴾ such as recitation of Qur'an, and words of glorification and praise, proclaiming Allah's oneness, and all good words. Those good words ascend to Allah and are presented to Him, and Allah praises the one who says them before those on high.

<sup>26</sup> Good words will not be accepted and will not ascend to heaven unless they are accompanied by righteous deeds that confirm them.

﴿and righteous deeds﴾ of both the heart and the physical faculties ﴿exalt them﴾.

The righteous deeds lift up the good words, so the lifting up of the good words is commensurate with the level of the individual's good deeds, for it is those deeds that lift up his good words. If a person has no good deeds to his credit, then no words of his will be lifted up to Allah (ﷻ). These are the deeds that will be lifted up to Allah (ﷻ), and Allah will raise the doer of those deeds in status and will honour him.

With regard to bad deeds, they are the opposite: the one who does them wants to attain high status by doing them, and he schemes and plans, but that will backfire on him and will only increase him in humiliation and degradation. Hence Allah says: ﴿And those who plan evil deeds will have a severe punishment﴾ in which he will be greatly humiliated.

﴿and the plans of such people will come to naught﴾ that is, they will diminish and fail, and will not benefit them in the slightest, because they are plans that are based on falsehood and are made for the sake of falsehood.

﴿وَاللَّهُ خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ تُرَابٍ ثُمَّ مِنْ نُطْفَةٍ ثُمَّ جَعَلَكُمْ أَزْوَاجًا وَمَا تَحْمِلُ مِنْ أُنْثَىٰ وَلَا تَضَعُ إِلَّا بِعِلْمِهِ وَمَا يُعَمَّرُ مِنْ مُعَمَّرٍ وَلَا يُنْقَصُ مِنْ عُمُرِهِ إِلَّا فِي كِتَابٍ إِنَّ ذَلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ يَسِيرٌ﴾ (سورة فاطر: ١١)

- 35:11. Allah created you from dust, then from a drop of semen, then He made you pairs [male and female]. No female conceives, or delivers, except with His knowledge. No man lives long or has his life cut short but it is [inscribed] in a record; verily that is easy for Allah.

Here Allah (ﷻ) mentions His human creation and how he passes through these stages, from dust to a drop of semen and the stages that come after that.

﴿then He made you pairs [male and female]﴾ that is He carries on causing you to move from one stage to another, until He causes you to reach a state where you form pairs, males marrying females. The purpose of marriage is to produce offspring and children; although getting married is one of the means of having children, it is still subject to the will and decree of Allah, and His knowledge.

﴿No female conceives, or delivers, except with His knowledge﴾ – the same is true of all the stages of human life, which occur by His knowledge and decree.

﴿No man lives long or has his life cut short﴾ that is, no one lives a long life except with Allah's knowledge, and no man's life is cut short from its potential except that is the result of following the path that cut it short, such as committing zinâ (unlawful sex), disobeying parents, severing ties of kinship and doing other deeds that we have been told are causes of life being cut short.

What is meant is that living a long or short life, whether that was because of a cause or there was no cause, all occurs by Allah's knowledge, and that is affirmed ﴿in a record﴾ that contains all that will happen to a person at every moment of his life, throughout his life.

﴿verily that is easy for Allah﴾ that is, His knowledge encompasses all of this information, and His record encompasses all of it.

These three points of evidence which offer proof of the resurrection are all rational, and Allah draws our attention to them in these verses. They are: the revival of the earth after its death, the fact that the One Who gives it life will also give life to the dead, and the fact that the human being goes through these stages.

So the One Who created man and caused him to go through stage after stage, situation after situation, until he reaches the stage that was decreed for him, is more able to recreate him and bring him back again (after death), and that is easier for Him. The One Whose knowledge encompasses all parts of the upper and lower realms, and all their affairs, both subtle and manifest, what is in people's hearts, the foetuses in the wombs, and who will live a long life and who will not, and has written it all in a record, is the One for Whom all of that is easy, so bringing the dead back to life is even easier for Him. Blessed be the One Who bestows blessings in abundance and draws the attention of His slaves to that which is in their best interests in this world and in the hereafter.

﴿وَمَا يَسْتَوِي الْبَحْرَانِ هَذَا عَذْبٌ فُرَاتٌ سَائِغٌ شَرَابُهُ، وَهَذَا مِلْحٌ أُجَاجٌ وَمِنْ كُلِّ تَاكُلُونَ لَحْمًا طَرِيًّا وَتَسْتَخْرِجُونَ حِلْيَةً تَلْبَسُونَهَا وَتَرَى الْفُلْكَ فِيهِ مَوَازِرَ لَتَبْتَغُوا مِنْ فَضْلِهِ وَلِعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ ﴿١٢﴾ يُولِجُ اللَّيْلُ فِي النَّهَارِ وَيُولِجُ النَّهَارُ فِي اللَّيْلِ وَسَخَّرَ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ كُلٌّ يَجْرِي لِأَجَلٍ مُسَمًّى ذَلِكَ مُسَمًّى لَكُمْ اللَّهُ رَبُّكُمْ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَالَّذِينَ تَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِهِ مَا يَمْلِكُونَ مِنْ قِطْمِيرٍ ﴿١٣﴾ إِنْ تَدْعُوهُمْ لَا يَسْمَعُوا دُعَاءَكُمْ وَلَوْ سَمِعُوا مَا اسْتَجَابُوا لَكُمْ وَيَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ يَكْفُرُونَ بَشْرِكُمْ وَلَا يُنَبِّئُكَ مِثْلُ خَبِيرٍ ﴿١٤﴾﴾ (سورة فاطر: ١٢-١٤)

- 35:12. The two bodies of flowing water are not alike; one is fresh and palatable, pleasant to drink, and the other is salty and bitter. From both you eat succulent meat [fish] and bring forth from it ornaments which you wear. And you see the ships ploughing through the waves so that you may seek the bounty of Allah and so that you may give thanks.
- 35:13. He causes the night to encroach upon the day, and the day to encroach upon the night, and He has made the sun and moon to be of service, each running its course for an appointed time.

Such is Allah your Lord; His is the dominion, whereas those on whom you call besides Him do not own so much as the thin membrane of a date stone.

- 35:14. If you call upon them, they do not hear your call, and even if they heard, they would not respond to you. On the Day of Resurrection they will disavow your having associated them with Allah. And none can inform you like [the One Who is] all-aware.

Here Allah tells us about His might, wisdom and mercy, for He created two bodies of flowing water to serve the interests of all people on earth, but He did not make them the same, because the interests of people dictated that there should be rivers of fresh and palatable water that is pleasant to drink, for the benefit of those who drink it, and those who plant and grow crops, and there should also be seas of water that is salty and bitter, so that it does not corrupt the atmosphere with the stench of animals that die in the sea; moreover it does not flow like rivers, as its saltiness prevents it from changing, and thus its creatures are better and more delicious. Hence Allah says:

﴿From both﴾ that is, from the salty water and the fresh water, ﴿you eat succulent meat﴾ namely the fish that can be caught from the water

﴿and bring forth from it ornaments which you wear﴾ such as pearls, coral and other things that are found in the sea. These serve great interests for people.

Another benefit of the water is that Allah (ﷻ) has made it to be of service in that it carries vessels such as ships and boats. So you see them ploughing through the water and travelling from one region to another, from one place to another, carrying passengers with their luggage and trade goods. Thus a great deal of the bounty and kindness of Allah is attained. Hence He says: ﴿so that you may seek the bounty of Allah and so that you may give thanks﴾.

Another of these blessings is that Allah causes the night to encroach upon the day, and the day upon the night. The more the one comes, the more the other goes; one of them grows longer and the other grows shorter, then they become equal. That serves people's interests with regard to their health and physical well-being, and it also serves the interests of their animals and crops.

Similarly, Allah has caused the sun and moon to be of service with their light and movements, so that people may go about, seeking of His bounty; the effects of the sun and moon cause crops to ripen, and the sun dries up what needs to be dried up, and they bring about other necessities, the absence of which would cause people harm.

﴿each running its course for an appointed time﴾ that is, the sun and moon are each running in its course for as long as Allah wills, then when the time comes and the end of the world approaches, they will stop running, lose their positions and cease to have any effect. The moon will become dark, the sun will be folded up and the stars will be scattered.

Having spoken of these mighty creations and explained the lessons they contain that point to His perfection and kindness, Allah (ﷻ) now says:

﴿Such is Allah your Lord; His is the dominion﴾ that is, the One Who alone created the things mentioned here and made them to be of service is the Lord Who alone is deserving of devotion and worship, to Whom belongs all dominion.

﴿whereas those on whom you call besides Him﴾ of images and idols

﴿do not own so much as the thin membrane of a date stone﴾ that is, they do not own anything, small or great, not even the thin membrane of a date stone, which is the most insignificant of things. Describing specifically something that they do not own indicates a general meaning, which is that they do not own anything else either, so how can they be called upon when they do not own anything in heaven or on earth?

Moreover, ﴿If you call upon them﴾ they do not hear you, because they are either inanimate or are dead or are angels who are preoccupied with obeying their Lord

﴿and even if they heard﴾ – assuming that is the case for argument's sake –

﴿they would not respond to you﴾ because they do not own anything and most of them are not pleased with the worship of those who worship them. Hence Allah says:

﴿On the Day of Resurrection they will disavow your having associated them with Allah﴾ that is: they will disavow you, and will say:

﴿...Glory be to You! You are our Close Friend, not they...﴾ (Saba' 34: 41)

﴿And none can inform you like [the One Who is] all-aware﴾ that is, no one will inform you more truthfully than Allah, the All-Knowing, All-Aware. So you may be certain that with regard to this matter of which He has told you, it is as if you could see it with your own eyes, so do not have any doubt about it.

These verses contain definitive proof and evidence that Allah (ﷻ) is the only One Who is deserving of devotion and worship, and none but He is deserving of any kind of worship. The worship of anything besides Him is false and is based on falsehood, and will not benefit the worshipper in any way.

﴿يَتَأْتِيهَا النَّاسُ أَنْتُمْ الْفُقَرَاءُ إِلَى اللَّهِ وَاللَّهُ هُوَ الْغَنِيُّ الْحَمِيدُ ﴿٥﴾ إِنْ يَشَأْ يُذْهِبْكُمْ وَيَأْتِ بِخَلْقٍ جَدِيدٍ ﴿٦﴾ وَمَا ذَلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ بِعَزِيزٍ ﴿٧﴾ وَلَا تَزِرُ وَازِرَةٌ وِزْرَ أُخْرَىٰ وَإِنْ تَدْعُ مُثْقَلَةٌ إِلَىٰ جَمِلِهَا لَا يَحْمِلُ مِنْهُ شَيْءٌ وَلَوْ كَانَ ذَا قُرْبَىٰ إِنَّمَا تُنذِرُ

الَّذِينَ يَخْشَوْنَ رَبَّهُم بِالْغَيْبِ وَأَقَامُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَمَنْ تَزَكَّى فَإِنَّمَا يَتَزَكَّى لِنَفْسِهِ
وَالِلَّهِ الْمَصِيرُ ﴿١٨﴾ (سورة فاطر: ١٥-١٨)

- 35:15. O people, it is you who are in need of Allah, whereas Allah is Self-Sufficient, Worthy of all praise.
- 35:16. If He so willed, He could destroy you and bring a new creation [in your stead].
- 35:17. And that is not difficult for Allah.
- 35:18. No bearer of burdens can bear the burden of another. If a heavily-laden soul calls another for help to bear its load, nothing of it will be carried, even if he is a close relative. You [O Muhammad] can only warn those who fear their Lord unseen and establish prayer, for whoever purifies himself only does so for his own benefit. And unto Allah is the return [of all].

Here Allah (ﷻ) addresses all people and tells them about their real situation and that they are in need of Allah in all ways.

They are in need of His bringing them into existence; were it not for His bringing them into existence, they would not exist.

They are in need of His giving them physical strength, faculties and senses; were it not for His giving them these things, they would not be able to do any deeds.

They are in need of His providing them with nourishment, provision and blessings, both visible and hidden; were it not for His bestowing His bounty and kindness, and making things easy for them, they would not have attained any provisions or blessings.

They are in need of His warding off harm from them, averting troubles and relieving them of stress and hardship; were it not for His warding off these things from them, relieving them of distress and removing hardship from them, their hardships and calamities would have been ongoing.

They are in need of His taking care of them in all ways.

They need to turn to Him, love Him, worship Him and devote their worship to Him alone. If He does not help them and guide them to do that, they will be doomed and they will become corrupt spiritually, psychologically and in all their affairs.

They are in need of His teaching them what they do not know and guiding them to that which is in their best interests. Were it not for His teaching them, they would not have learned; were it not for His guiding them, their situation would not have been rectified.

They are inherently in need of Him in all ways, whether they realise some of those ways or not.

But the one among them who is guided is the one who constantly realises and is aware of his need for Allah in all his religious and worldly affairs, and he beseeches Him and asks Him not to leave him to his own devices for even the blink of an eye, and asks Him to help him in all his affairs, bearing this in mind at all times. Such a one is more deserving of complete help from his Lord and God, Who is more compassionate towards him than a mother towards her child.

«whereas Allah is Self-Sufficient, Worthy of all praise» that is, He is the One Who is completely self-sufficient in all ways, so He has no need of what His creation needs. That is because of the perfect nature of His attributes, all of which are attributes of perfection and majesty.

One aspect of His being self-sufficient is that He meets all the needs of creation in this world and the hereafter.

«Worthy of all praise» in His essence, in His names because they are most beautiful, in His attributes because they are most sublime, and in His deeds because they are based on generosity, kindness, justice, wisdom and mercy, and He is praiseworthy in His commands and prohibitions. So He is praiseworthy for what He is and what He does, and He is praiseworthy for being self-sufficient.

﴿If He so willed, He could destroy you and bring a new creation [in your stead]﴾. It may be that what is meant is that if He so willed, He could destroy you, O people, and bring other people in your stead who would be more obedient to Allah (ﷻ) than you. This is a threat to them of destruction and annihilation, and is telling them that His will is not incapable of that. Or it may be that what is meant is an affirmation of the resurrection, and that the will of Allah is always done in all cases, including bringing you back after your death, as a new creation, but there is an appointed time for that that has been decreed by Allah, and it cannot be brought forward or put back.

﴿And that is not difficult for Allah﴾ that is, it is not impossible for Him and is not beyond Him.

The latter meaning is supported by what is mentioned in the following verse:

﴿No bearer of burdens can bear the burden of another﴾ that is, on the Day of Resurrection, each person will be requited for his own deeds, and no one will bear the sin of another

﴿If a heavily-laden soul calls another for help to bear its load﴾ that is, if a soul that is burdened with sin seeks the help of another to carry some of its burden,

﴿nothing of it will be carried, even if he is a close relative﴾. No one will carry the burden of a relative, for the hereafter is not like this world in which a person may help his close friend. Rather on the Day of Resurrection, a person will wish that he had some outstanding dues owed by others, even his parents and relatives, (so that he could take some of their good deeds and add them to his own).

﴿You [O Muhammad] can only warn those who fear their Lord unseen and establish prayer﴾ that is, these are the ones who will accept the warning and benefit from it, people who fear Allah unseen, who are the ones who fear Him in private and in public, when with people and when alone. And those who establish prayer are the ones who fulfil all its preconditions, essential parts and obligatory acts in the prescribed manner, with proper focus, because fearing Allah requires a person to comply with the commands for which he fears punishment if he does not do so, and to flee from that for which he fears punishment if he does it. Prayer calls to good and keeps (one) away from obscenity and wickedness (cf. 29: 45).

﴿for whoever purifies himself only does so for his own benefit﴾ that is, whoever purifies himself by ridding himself of faults such as showing off, arrogance, deceit, cheating, trickery, hypocrisy and other bad characteristics, and strives to attain good characteristics such as truthfulness, honesty, humility, gentleness, sincerity towards people, being free of ill feelings such as resentment, envy and other bad characteristics, his purification of himself will benefit him, and none of his efforts will go to waste.

﴿And unto Allah is the return [of all]﴾ and He will requite all people for what they sent on ahead and will bring them to account for all that they did; nothing, small or great, is omitted, but it is kept in a record.

﴿وَمَا يَسْتَوِي الْأَعْمَىٰ وَالْبَصِيرُ ﴿١٩﴾ وَلَا الظُّلُمَاتُ وَلَا النُّورُ ﴿٢٠﴾ وَلَا الظِّلُّ وَلَا
الْحَرُورُ ﴿٢١﴾ وَمَا يَسْتَوِي الْأَحْيَاءُ وَلَا الْأَمْوَاتُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُسْمِعُ مَن يَشَاءُ وَمَا أَنتَ بِمُسْمِعٍ مَّن
فِي الْقُبُورِ ﴿٢٢﴾ إِنَّ أَنتَ إِلَّا نَذِيرٌ ﴿٢٣﴾ إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ بِالْحَقِّ بَشِيرًا وَنَذِيرًا وَإِن مِّن أُمَّةٍ إِلَّا
خَلَا فِيهَا نَذِيرٌ ﴿٢٤﴾﴾ (سورة فاطر: ١٩-٢٤)

35:19. The blind and the seeing are not alike,

35:20. nor are the depths of darkness and the light,

35:21. nor the shade and the sun's heat.

35:22. The living and the dead are not alike. Verily Allah causes to hear whomever He wills, but you cannot cause to hear those who are in the graves.

35:23. You [O Muhammad] are but a warner.

35:24. Verily We have sent you with the truth as a bearer of glad tidings and a warner. There has never been any nation but a warner came to it.

---

Here Allah tells us that opposites are not equal, as Allah's wisdom dictates that this should be so, and people's natural disposition is also inclined to that view.

«The blind» who have lost their vision «and the seeing are not alike, nor are the depths of darkness and the light, nor the shade and the sun's heat. The living and the dead are not alike». As is well established among you, and you have no doubt at all that the things mentioned above are not equal, by the same token you should understand that it is more appropriate that intangible opposites are not equal either.

Therefore the believer and the disbeliever, the one who is guided and the one who has gone astray, the one who has knowledge and the one who is ignorant, the inhabitants of paradise and the inhabitants of hell, those whose hearts are alive and those who are dead at heart, are not equal. The differences between these pairs are great indeed, and only Allah knows how great they are. If you understand the differences, are able to distinguish between things, and it has become clear to you what you should compete to attain and what is the opposite of that, then the man of resolve should choose for himself that which is more appropriate for him and is more deserving of being given precedence.

«Verily Allah causes to hear whomever He wills» – “hearing” here refers to hearing in such a way that one understands and accepts, because Allah (ﷻ) is the One Who guides «but you cannot cause to hear those who are in the graves» namely those who are dead at heart; just as your call cannot benefit those who are in their graves, it cannot benefit those who stubbornly turn away.

Rather your job is to warn and to convey the message with which you were sent, whether it is accepted or not.

Hence Allah says: «You [O Muhammad] are but a warner. Verily We have sent you with the truth» that is, We are only sending you with the truth, because Allah sent you some time after the previous Messengers, after people had lost the path of guidance and knowledge had disappeared, and there was a great need to send you. So Allah sent you as a mercy to the worlds.

Moreover, what we have sent you with of the true religion and the straight path is true and is not false, and what we have sent you with of this great Qur'an, and what it contains of wise exhortation, is sound and true.

«as a bearer of glad tidings» to those who obey you, of reward from Allah in this world and in the hereafter

«and a warner» to those who disobey you, of punishment from Allah in this world and in the hereafter. You are not the first Messenger; you have precedents among the earlier Messengers.

«There has never been any nation» among the past nations «but a warner came to it» establishing against them the proof of Allah, «...so that those who chose to perish [by choosing disbelief] might do so after seeing clear evidence, and those who chose to live [by choosing faith] might do so after seeing clear evidence...» (al-Anfāl 8: 42)

﴿وَأَن يُكَذِّبُوكَ فَقَدْ كَذَّبَ الَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِمْ جَاءَتْهُمْ رُسُلُهُم بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ وَالزُّبُرِ وَبِالْكِتَابِ الْمُنِيرِ ﴿٢٥﴾ ثُمَّ أَخَذْتُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فَكَيْفَ كَانَ نَكِيرِ ﴿٢٦﴾﴾ (سورة فاطر:

(٢٦-٢٥)

- 35:25. If they reject you [O Muhammad], those who came before them did likewise. Their Messengers came to them with clear signs, the scriptures, and the Book of Enlightenment, 35:26. then I punished those who disbelieved, and how great was the change I wrought!<sup>27</sup>

That is, if these polytheists reject you, O Messenger (ﷺ), you are not the first Messenger to be rejected, for «those who came before them did likewise. Their Messengers came to them with clear signs» that pointed to the truth and the soundness of the message they brought,

«the scriptures» that is, written books that contained many rulings, «and the Book of Enlightenment» that is, enlightenment with regard to what it told of true stories and information about the future, and just rulings. So their rejection was not the result of doubts that they had or some flaws in what the Messengers brought; rather it was because of their wrongdoing and stubbornness.

«then I punished those who disbelieved» with different kinds of punishment,
 «and how great was the change I wrought» upon them, for it was the worst kind of change and the worst kind of punishment. So beware of rejecting this noble Messenger (ﷺ), lest there befall you what befall them of painful punishment and utter disgrace.

﴿أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ أَنْزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَأَخْرَجْنَا بِهِ ثَمَرَاتٍ مُتَخَلِّفًا أَلْوَانُهَا وَمِنَ الْجِبَالِ جُدَدٌ بَيَضٌ وَحُمْرٌ مُتَخَلِّفٌ أَلْوَانُهَا وَغَرَابِيبُ سُودٍ ۚ﴾ وَمِمَّا تَرَى فِي النَّاسِ

<sup>27</sup> As Allah changed the way He had been dealing with them, changing abundance to scarcity and well-being to destruction. (aṭ-Ṭabari)

وَالذَّوَابِ وَلَا تَعْتَرِجُ مُخْتَلِفٌ أَلْوَنُهُ كَذَلِكَ إِنَّمَا يَخْشَى اللَّهَ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ الْعُلَمَاءُ
 إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَزِيزٌ غَفُورٌ ﴿٢٨﴾ (سورة فاطر: ٢٧-٢٨)

- 35:27. Do you not see that Allah sends down water from the sky, then We bring forth thereby fruits of various colours? And in the mountains there are tracts of red and white, of various colours, and black intense in hue.
- 35:28. Likewise, people, animals and livestock are of various colours. Among His slaves, only those who have knowledge truly fear Allah. Verily Allah is Almighty, Oft-Forgiving.

Here Allah (ﷻ) mentions His creation of things and their opposites – of which the origin and substance is one, yet there are variations and differences that are visible and well known – so as to demonstrate to people His perfect might and sublime wisdom.

Among these examples are the following:

- Allah (ﷻ) sends down water from the sky, and brings forth thereby various fruits and plants, which is something visible to the onlookers, although the water is one and the land is one.
- With regard to the mountains which Allah has created as pegs for the earth, you will see in a series of mountains, or even in one mountain, various colours; hence you will see tracts of white, tracts of yellow, and tracts of black intense in hue.
- Among the people, animals and livestock there is a variety of colours, types, voices and looks. This is something that is visible to everyone and is witnessed by onlookers. Yet all of them come from one source and one substance.

These variations offer rational evidence for the divine will, which singles out each one to have a particular colour and description; for the might of Allah, as He has created them like that; and for the divine wisdom and mercy, because these variations serve people's interests and bring them benefits, help people to find their way (through the mountains), and enable people to recognise one another, as is well known.

This is also indicative of the vastness of Allah's knowledge, and proves that He will resurrect those who are in their graves. But the heedless one looks at these things and others in a careless manner that does not make him reflect; rather the one who benefits from them is the one who fears Allah (ﷻ) and realises, on the basis of sound thinking, the wisdom behind them.

Hence Allah says: ﴿Among His slaves, only those who have knowledge truly fear Allah﴾. The more a person knows about Allah, the more he will fear Him, and this fear of Allah will make him refrain from sin and prepare to meet the One Whom he fears. This is indicative of the virtue of knowledge, because it prompts one to fear Allah, and those who fear Him are the ones who will be honoured by Him, as He says elsewhere:

﴿...Allah is pleased with them and they are pleased with Him. That is for those who fear their Lord.﴾ (al-Bayyinah 98: 8)

﴿Verily Allah is Almighty﴾, perfect in might, and by His might He created these opposites

﴿Oft-Forgiving﴾ to those who repent from their sins.

﴿إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَتْلُونَ كِتَابَ اللَّهِ وَأَقَامُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَأَنفَقُوا مِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ سِرًّا وَعَلَانِيَةً يَرْجُونَ تِجَارَةً لَّن تَبُورَ ۖ لِيُوفِيَهُمُ أَجُورَهُمْ وَيَزِيدَهُم مِّن فَضْلِهِ ۚ إِنَّهُ غَفُورٌ شَكُورٌ﴾ (سورة فاطر: ٢٩-٣٠)

35:29. Verily those who recite the Book of Allah, establish prayer, and spend from that which We have provided for them, secretly and openly, hope for a deal in which there will never be any loss.

35:30. For He will give them their reward in full, and will give them yet more out of His bounty. Verily He is Oft-Forgiving, Appreciative.

---

﴿Verily those who recite the Book of Allah﴾ that is, follow its commands by complying with them and follow its prohibitions by paying heed to them, and believe in what it tells them about the past and the future, and do not give precedence over it to any opinion that contradicts it, and recite its words by studying its meanings. Then after speaking of recitation of the Qur'an in general terms, Allah now mentions prayer in which there is recitation in this specific situation; prayer is the foundation of the religion, the light of the Muslims, the measure of a person's faith and a visible sign of sincerity in adherence to Islam. And Allah mentions spending on relatives, the poor, orphans and others, by giving zakâh, offering expiations, spending in fulfilment of vows, and giving charity in general. ﴿secretly and openly﴾ at all times.

Those who do that ﴿hope﴾ thereby ﴿for a deal in which there will never be any loss﴾ that is, a deal that will never stagnate or be spoiled; rather it is the best, greatest and highest of deals, namely attaining the pleasure of their Lord and His great reward, and salvation from His wrath and punishment. This proves that they are sincere in their deeds and that there are no bad intentions or evil aims behind it.

And Allah tells us that they will attain what they hope for, as He says: ﴿For He will give them their reward in full﴾ that is, the reward for their deeds, according to how much or how little they did, and how good or otherwise their deeds were.

﴿and will give them yet more out of His bounty﴾ in addition to their reward

﴿Verily He is Oft-Forgiving, Appreciative﴾. He will forgive their bad deeds and will accept from them a little of good deeds.

﴿وَالَّذِي أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ مِنَ الْكِتَابِ هُوَ الْحَقُّ مُصَدِّقًا لِمَا بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ بِعِبَادِهِ لَخَبِيرٌ بَصِيرٌ ٣١﴾ ثُمَّ أَوْرَثْنَا الْكِتَابَ الَّذِينَ اصْطَفَيْنَا مِنْ عِبَادِنَا فَمِنْهُمْ ظَالِمٌ لِنَفْسِهِ وَمِنْهُمْ مُقْتَصِدٌ وَمِنْهُمْ سَابِقٌ بِالْخَيْرَاتِ يُؤْتِنُ اللَّهُ ذَلِكَ هُوَ الْفَضْلُ الْكَبِيرُ ٣٢ جَنَّاتُ عَدْنٍ يَدْخُلُونَهَا يُحَلَّوْنَ فِيهَا مِنْ أَسَاوِرَ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ وَلُؤْلُؤًا وَلِبَاسُهُمْ فِيهَا حَرِيرٌ ٣٣ وَقَالُوا الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَذْهَبَ عَنَّا الْحَزْنَ إِنَّ رَبَّنَا لَغَفُورٌ شَكُورٌ ٣٤ الَّذِي أَلْهَنَّا دَارَ الْمَقَامَةِ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ لَا يَمَسُّنَا فِيهَا نَصَبٌ وَلَا يَمَسُّنَا فِيهَا

لُغُوبٌ ﴿٣٥﴾ (سورة فاطر: ٣١-٣٥)

- 35:31. That which We have revealed to you of the Book [the Qur'an] is the truth, confirming that which came before it. Verily Allah is well aware of His slaves and sees all.
- 35:32. Then We have caused to inherit the Book<sup>28</sup> those whom We chose from among Our slaves. But among them are some who wrong themselves, some who follow a middle course, and some who are, by Allah's leave, foremost in good deeds. That is the great bounty.
- 35:33. Gardens of perpetual abode, which they will enter; they will be adorned therein with bracelets of gold and of pearls, and their garments therein will be of silk.
- 35:34. And they will say: Praise be to Allah Who has taken away all sorrow from us. Verily our Lord is indeed Oft-Forgiving, Appreciative;
- 35:35. Who has, by His grace, caused us to settle in the eternal home, in which no toil or weariness will touch us.

<sup>28</sup> This refers to the Qur'an being inherited by the followers of Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) until the Day of Resurrection.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that the Book that He revealed to His Messenger (ﷺ) «is the truth» because it contains a great deal of truth, as the truth is limited to it, so there should not be any reservations concerning it; you should not find it too much or think little of it, for if it is the truth, then everything that it mentions of the divine, matters of the unseen, and other things reflects what is really the case. So it is not possible that what is intended by its verses could be different from what it appears to mean.

«confirming that which came before it» of previous Books and Messengers, because they foretold it. When it appeared, this confirmed that what the previous Books said about it was true, for they foretold it and it confirmed what they foretold. Therefore no one can believe in the previous scriptures yet disbelieve in the Qur'an, because his disbelief in the Qur'an contradicts and undermines his belief in the previous scriptures, for one of the things they spoke of was foretelling this Qur'an, and what they said about the past and the future is identical to what the Qur'an says.

«Verily Allah is well aware of His slaves and sees all», and He gives to each nation and each individual what is appropriate to the situation. One aspect of that is the fact that previous laws and regulations were only appropriate for their own times. Therefore Allah kept sending Messengers, one after another, until He brought the series of Messengers to an end with Muhammad (ﷺ). He brought this law which is good and appropriate for all people until the Day of Resurrection, and it leads to all that is good at all times.

As this Ummah is the most mature of nations in terms of thinking and reasoning, the gentlest at heart, and the most refined in character, Allah (ﷻ) chose them and He chose for them the religion of Islam, and He caused them to inherit this Book which confirms the scripture that came before it and supersedes it (cf. 5: 48). Hence He says here: «Then We have caused to inherit the Book those whom We chose from among Our slaves», namely this Ummah.

﴿But among them are some who wrong themselves﴾ by committing sin that is less serious than disbelief
 ﴿some who follow a middle course﴾ by limiting themselves to what is obligatory upon them and staying away from what is prohibited
 ﴿and some who are, by Allah's leave, foremost in good deeds﴾ that is, they hasten to do good and strive hard, and thus they surpass others. This refers to those who do what is obligatory, do a lot of supererogatory good deeds, and stay away from that which is prohibited and disliked.

Allah (ﷻ) has chosen all of them to inherit this Book, although they vary in status and are of different types. Hence each of them has a share of this inheritance, even those who wrong themselves, because what they possess of basic faith, knowledge of faith and deeds based on faith is part of that inheritance of the Book.

What is meant by inheritance of the Book is inheritance of knowledge thereof, actions that are based on it, study of its words and understanding of its meanings.

The phrase ﴿by Allah's leave﴾ refers to those who are foremost in good deeds, lest they become arrogant because of their deeds. It is a reminder that they only became foremost in good deeds by the help of Allah (ﷻ), so they should focus on giving thanks to Allah for the blessings that He has bestowed upon them.

﴿That is the great bounty﴾ that is, inheritance of the holy Book, for those whom Allah (ﷻ) chose from among His slaves, is the great bounty, compared to which all other blessings pale into insignificance. The greatest blessing and bounty of all is inheritance of this Book.

Then Allah mentions the reward of those whom He caused to inherit the Book:

﴿Gardens of perpetual abode, which they will enter﴾ that is, gardens containing trees, shade, beautiful gardens, flowing rivers, lofty palaces, adorned abodes, in which they will live forever and ever.

﴿they will be adorned therein with bracelets of gold﴾ this refers to jewellery that is worn on the wrists, according to whatever they like and think is most beautiful. Both men and women will wear such adornment in paradise.

And they will also be adorned with ﴿pearls﴾ on their clothes and bodies,
﴿and their garments therein will be of silk﴾, green garments of fine silk and heavy brocade (cf. 18: 31).

﴿And﴾, after they see all this perfect delight and complete pleasure, ﴿they will say: Praise be to Allah Who has taken away all sorrow from us﴾ – that includes every type of sorrow; they will not be exposed to any sorrow because of a lack in their beauty, food, drink, pleasures, or physical well-being, or because of not staying there forever.

They will be enjoying bliss and will not be able to see how it could be increased or improved in any way, but it will continue to increase with the passage of time, for ever and ever.

﴿Verily our Lord is indeed Oft-Forgiving﴾ as He has forgiven us for our mistakes

﴿Appreciative﴾ as He has accepted from us our good deeds and has multiplied the reward for them, and He has given us of His bounty what our deeds did not deserve and what we could not even wish for. By His forgiveness they will be saved from everything that one may fear or dread, and by His appreciation and grace they will attain everything that one could want and love.

﴿Who has, by His grace﴾ and generosity towards us, and not by virtue of our deeds; were it not for His grace we would not have attained what we have attained.

﴿caused us to settle﴾ that is, He has caused us to settle and take up residence; it is not in the manner of one who is merely passing through

﴿in the eternal home﴾ that is, in which they will abide forever by His grace, in the place where they will want to remain because of its abundant goodness and never ending bliss, with nothing to spoil it.

﴿in which no toil or weariness will touch us﴾ that is, there will be no physical or psychological tiredness due to too much pleasure. This indicates that Allah will give their bodies perfect creation and will prepare for them all that is required in order to have comfort and ease at all times, so that they will always be like that and no toil or weariness, worry or distress, will ever affect them.

This also indicates that they will not sleep in paradise, because the benefit of sleep is to rest and recover from tiredness, but the people of paradise will not need that; furthermore, sleep is a minor death, and the people of paradise will not die. May Allah make us among them by His grace.

﴿وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَهُمْ نَارُ جَهَنَّمَ لَا يُقْضَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ فَيَمُوتُوا وَلَا يُخَفَّفُ عَنْهُمْ مِنْ عَذَابِهَا كَذَٰلِكَ نَجْزِي كُلَّ كَافِرٍ ﴿٣٦﴾ وَهُمْ يَصْطَرِخُونَ فِيهَا رَبَّنَا أَخْرِجْنَا نَعْمَلْ صَالِحًا غَيْرَ الَّذِي كُنَّا نَعْمَلُ ۖ أُولَٰئِكَ نُعَذِّبُهُمْ مَا يُذَكِّرُ فِيهِ مِنْ تَذَكُّرٍ ۖ وَجَاءَكُمْ النَّذِيرُ فَذُوقُوا فَمَا لِلظَّالِمِينَ مِنْ نَصِيرٍ ﴿٣٧﴾﴾ (سورة فاطر: ٣٦-٣٧)

- 35:36. As for those who disbelieve, for them will be the fire of hell. Death will not be decreed for them, so that they might die, nor will its punishment be alleviated for them. Thus do We requite every disbeliever.
- 35:37. There they will cry out loud: Our Lord, bring us out; we will do righteous deeds, different from what we used to do. [Allah will say to them:] Did We not make your lives long enough for anyone who might reflect and pay heed to do so? And, moreover, the warner did come to you. So taste [the punishment]. For the wrongdoers there will be no helpers.

Having mentioned how the people of paradise will be and the bliss that they will enjoy, Allah (ﷻ) now mentions how the people of hell will be, and the torment they will suffer:

﴿As for those who disbelieve﴾ that is, those who rejected the signs that the Messengers brought to them, and denied the meeting with their Lord

﴿for them will be the fire of hell﴾ in which they will be punished most severely and suffer the worst of torments

﴿Death will not be decreed for them, so that they might die﴾ and thus find relief

﴿nor will its punishment be alleviated for them﴾. The severity and intensity of the punishments will be ongoing, at all times.

﴿Thus do We requite every disbeliever. There they will cry out loud﴾ that is, they will scream, shout and call for help, saying:

﴿Our Lord, bring us out; we will do righteous deeds, different from what we used to do﴾ – they will acknowledge their sin and admit that Allah has treated them justly, but they will ask to go back at the wrong time.

Therefore it will be said to them: ﴿Did We not make your lives long enough for anyone who might reflect and pay heed to do so?﴾ That is, during that time, anyone who wanted to pay heed would have been able to do some righteous deeds, for We gave you a life of ease in the former world, We showered you with blessings and provided you with all the means of comfort, and We granted you a long enough life, sent you signs one after another and sent warnings to you, and We tested you with ease and hardship so that you might turn back to Us.

But no warning was to any avail and no exhortation was of any benefit; We delayed your punishment until, when your appointed time came to an end and your lives were over, and you moved to this realm, which is the realm of requital for deeds, you asked to go back!

That will never happen, for now it is too late; the Most Gracious, Most Merciful is angry with you, and the punishment of fire will be intense for you, and the people of paradise have forgotten you. So stay in hell for ever and ever, subject to humiliating punishment. Hence Allah says: ﴿So taste [the punishment]. For the wrongdoers there will be no helpers﴾ to help them and bring them out of it, or to reduce the torment for them.

﴿إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمٌ غَيْبِ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ إِنَّهُ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ﴾ (سورة فاطر: ٣٨)

(سورة فاطر: ٣٨)

35:38. Verily Allah knows all that is unseen in the heavens and on earth; verily He knows well what is in [people's] hearts.

Having mentioned the requital of the inhabitants of both realms, and the deeds of both groups, He now tells us of the vastness of His knowledge and that He sees what is unseen in the heavens and on earth, that which is hidden from the sight and knowledge of people; He is the Knower of all secrets, Who knows what is in people's hearts of good and evil, purity or otherwise. Hence He will give each person what he deserves and a position commensurate with that.

﴿هُوَ الَّذِي جَعَلَكُمْ خَلَائِفَ فِي الْأَرْضِ فَمَنْ كَفَرَ بَعْدَ مَا كَفَرُوا لَا يَزِيدُ الْكَافِرِينَ كُفْرُهُمْ إِلَّا مَقْتًا وَلَا يَزِيدُ الْكَافِرِينَ كُفْرُهُمْ إِلَّا خُسَارًا﴾ (سورة فاطر: ٣٩)

35:39. And it is He Who has made you the successors of others on the earth. Whoever disbelieves will suffer the consequences of his disbelief. Their disbelief only increases the disbelievers in loathsomeness before their Lord; their disbelief only increases the disbelievers in loss.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about the perfect nature of His wisdom and mercy towards His slaves; He ordained in His prior decree that some of them would be made the successors of others on earth and He would send warnings to each nation, to see what they will do. So whoever disbelieves in Allah and in that which His Messengers bring will suffer the consequences of his disbelief and will bear the burden of sin and the punishment thereof. No one can carry that burden for him, and his disbelief will only increase the wrath and anger of Allah towards the disbeliever. What punishment could be greater than the wrath of the most generous Lord?

«their disbelief only increases the disbelievers in loss» that is, they will lose themselves, their families, their good deeds, and their places in paradise. The disbeliever will continue to increase in doom, loss and disgrace before Allah and before His creation, and in deprivation.

﴿قُلْ أَرَأَيْتُمْ شُرَكَاءَكُمُ الَّذِينَ نَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ أَرُونِي مَاذَا خَلَقُوا مِنَ الْأَرْضِ أَمْ لَهُمْ شِرْكٌ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ أَمْ آتَيْنَهُمْ كِتَابًا فَهُمْ عَلَىٰ بَيِّنَةٍ مِنْهُ ۚ بَلْ إِنْ يَعِدُ الظَّالِمُونَ بَعْضُهُمْ بَعْضًا إِلَّا غُرُورًا﴾ (سورة فاطر: ٤٠)

35:40. Say: Tell me about your [so-called] ‘partners’ on whom you call besides Allah. Show me what part of the earth they have created. Or do they have any share in the heavens? Or have We given them a book in which they have clear proof [for ascribing partners to Allah]? Nay, the wrongdoers promise<sup>29</sup> one another nothing but delusions.

<sup>29</sup> The leaders promised their followers that the so-called ‘partners’ would intercede for them with Allah.

Here Allah highlights the helplessness and shortcomings of the gods of the polytheists, and the flawed argument on which their ascription of partners to Allah is based.

﴿Say﴾ to them O Messenger:

﴿Tell me about your [so-called] ‘partners’ on whom you call besides Allah﴾ – do they deserve to be called upon and worshipped?

﴿Show me what part of the earth they have created﴾ – have they created a sea, or have they created a mountain, or have they created an animal, or have they created any inanimate thing? They will affirm that the Creator of all things is Allah (ﷻ). Or do their so-called partners have any share ﴿in the heavens﴾, in the creation and control thereof? They will say that they have no share in that.

If they did not create anything and they do not have any share with the Creator in His creation, then why do you worship them and call upon them, even though you admit that they are incapable? As there is no rational argument to show the soundness of their worship, this indicates that their worship is invalid and not right.

Then Allah discusses whether there is any textual evidence for that, and states that there is no such thing either. Hence He says:

﴿Or have We given them a book﴾ which speaks of that which they ascribe as partners to Allah and enjoins them to ascribe them as partners to Him and to worship idols,

﴿in which they have clear proof [for ascribing partners to Allah]﴾ in that book that was sent down to them, proving the validity of their ascription of partners to Him?

That is not the case; no book was sent down to them before the Qur’an, and no warner came to them before the Messenger of Allah Muhammad (ﷺ). Even if we assume that a book came down to them and a Messenger was sent to them, and they claimed that he commanded them to ascribe partners to Allah, we can be certain that they are lying, because Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿And We did not send before you [O Muhammad] any Messenger but We revealed to him: There is no god but I, so worship Me [alone].﴾
(al-Anbiyā' 21: 25)

So the Messengers and the Books unanimously enjoin devoting worship to Allah (ﷻ) alone,

﴿Although they were enjoined only to worship Allah with sincere devotion to Him, being true in faith to Him alone...﴾ (al-Bayyinah 98: 5)

If it is asked: if the rational and textual evidence proves that ascription of partners to Allah is invalid, then what made the polytheists do that, when there were among them people of sound reasoning who were smart and intelligent? Allah (ﷻ) answers this question by saying: ﴿Nay, the wrongdoers promise one another nothing but delusions﴾ that is, they have no proof for the path that they follow; rather they encouraged one another to follow it by making it fair-seeming to one another, and the later ones followed in the misguided footsteps of the earlier generations; moreover the Shayṭān made false promises to them and made their evil deeds fair-seeming to them. Thus ascription of partners to Allah took root in their hearts and became second nature to them, so it is difficult to remove it and get rid of it, with the result that people persisted in disbelief and invalid ascription of partners to Allah (ﷻ).

﴿إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُمَسِّكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ أَنْ تَزُولَا وَلَئِنْ زَالَتَا إِنْ أَمْسَكَهُمَا مِنْ أَحَدٍ مِنْ بَعْدِهِ إِنَّهُ كَانَ حَلِيمًا غَفُورًا﴾ (سورة فاطر: ٤١)

35:41. Verily Allah sustains the heavens and the earth, lest they decline, and if they were to decline, there is no one who could sustain them other than Him. Verily He is Forbearing, Oft-Forgiving.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about the perfect nature of His power and mercy, and the vastness of His forbearance and forgiveness; He sustains the heavens and the earth lest they decline, for if they were to decline no one could sustain them, because the strength and power of any creature would be unable to sustain them.

But He has decreed that they are to be sustained as they are and remain stable so that people may settle, and so that they may be of benefit and a source of lessons, so that people may learn about the great power and might of the Sovereign, which will fill their hearts with respect, awe, love and veneration for Him, and so that they may know the perfect nature of His forbearance and forgiveness, because He gives respite to the sinners and does not hasten to punish them, even though if He commanded the sky to do so, it would pelt them with stones, and if he gave permission to the earth to do so, it would swallow them up. But His forgiveness, forbearance and kindness encompass them, ﴿Verily He is Forbearing, Oft-Forgiving﴾.

﴿وَأَقْسَمُوا بِاللَّهِ جَهْدَ أَيْمَانِهِمْ لَئِنْ جَاءَهُمْ نَذِيرٌ لَّيَكُونُنَّ أَهْدَىٰ مِنْ إِحْدَى الْأُمَمِ فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ نَذِيرٌ مَّا زَادَهُمْ إِلَّا تَفَوُّرًا ﴿٤٢﴾ اسْتَكْبَارًا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَكْرَ السَّيِّئِ وَلَا يَحِيقُ الْمَكْرُ السَّيِّئُ إِلَّا بِأَهْلِهِ ۚ فَهَلْ يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَّا سُنَّتَ الْأَوَّلِينَ فَلَن تَجِدَ لِسُنَّتِ اللَّهِ تَبْدِيلًا وَلَن تَجِدَ لِسُنَّتِ اللَّهِ تَحْوِيلًا ﴿٤٣﴾﴾ (سورة فاطر: ٤٢-٤٣)

- 35:42. They swore their most solemn oaths by Allah that if a warner came to them, they would be more guided than any other nation. But when a warner did come to them, it only increased them in aversion,
- 35:43. behaving arrogantly in the land and plotting evil, but the plotting of evil affects none but its authors. Are they waiting for anything other than the fate of the earlier peoples? No change will you find in the way of Allah, and no alteration will you find in the way of Allah.<sup>30</sup>

---

---

That is, these people who disbelieve in you, O Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), swear their most solemn oaths ﴿that if a warner came to them, they would be more guided than any other nation﴾ that is, they would be more guided than the Jews and the Christians, the People of the Scriptures; but they did not fulfil this oath and pledge.

﴿But when a warner did come to them﴾ they were not guided, and they did not become more guided than any other nation. They did not persist in the misguidance they had been following; rather ﴿it only increased them in aversion﴾ and in misguidance, transgression and stubbornness.

The oath mentioned was not made for a good purpose or seeking the truth, otherwise they would have been helped to attain that. Rather it stemmed from arrogance in the land towards other people, and towards the truth, and they used elaborate words when they spoke of that with the aim of deceiving and cheating. They also wanted to give the impression that they were people of truth who were keen to seek it, so that some people would be deceived by them and others would follow in their footsteps.

﴿but the plotting of evil﴾ the aim of which is evil and the intention behind which is invalid ﴿affects none but its authors﴾, so their plot backfires on them. In these words and this description of their oath, Allah highlights to His slaves that they were lying and fabricating when they said that. Thus their disgrace became clear and they were exposed to shame, and their evil aims became apparent. Thus their plot backfired on them and Allah thwarted their plans.

---

<sup>30</sup> The way of Allah in punishing evildoers was already established among the previous nations, and will not change.

Hence nothing was left for them except to wait and see what would befall them of punishment, which was Allah's way with regard to earlier generations, and this way does not change. Anyone who follows the path of wrongdoing, stubbornness and arrogance towards other people will meet a similar fate, for Allah will exact retribution and take away the blessings that He had bestowed. So let them watch and wait for a punishment like that which befell the earlier nations.

﴿أَوَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرُوا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ وَكُنُوا أَشَدَّ مِنْهُمْ قُوَّةً
وَمَا كَانَ اللَّهُ لِيُعْجِزَهُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَلَا فِي الْأَرْضِ إِنَّهُ كَانَ عَلِيمًا قَدِيرًا
﴿٤٤﴾ وَلَوْ يَوَازِئُ اللَّهُ النَّاسَ بِمَا كَسَبُوا مَا تَرَكَ عَلَى ظَهْرِهَا مِنْ دَابَّةٍ وَلَكِنْ يُؤَخِّرُهُمْ إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى فَإِذَا جَاءَ أَجْلُهُمْ فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ
بِعِبَادِهِ بَصِيرًا ﴿٤٥﴾﴾ (سورة فاطر: ٤٤-٤٥)

- 35:44. Have they not travelled in the land and seen what was the fate of those who came before them? They were more powerful than them. Allah is not such that anything can escape Him in the heavens or on earth, for verily He is All-Knowing, Omnipotent.
- 35:45. If Allah were to take humankind to task for what they have earned, He would not leave on the face of [the earth] a single living creature, but He gives them respite for an appointed term. Then when their appointed time comes, then verily Allah is well aware of His slaves [and knows who is deserving of punishment or reward].

Here Allah urges people to travel through the land, either physically or by means of contemplation, in order to learn lessons and not merely to look heedlessly. They should think of the fate that befell those who came before them, those who rejected the Messengers; they were wealthier than them, had more children and were more powerful, and they built upon it more than these (people of Makkah) had built (cf. 30: 9). When the punishment overtook them, their power did not benefit them and their wealth and children were of no avail to them before Allah, and what Allah decreed for them came to pass.

﴿Allah is not such that anything can escape Him in the heavens or on earth﴾ because of the perfect nature of His knowledge and power, ﴿for verily He is All-Knowing, Omnipotent﴾.

Then Allah (ﷻ) mentions His perfect forbearance and the lengthy respite He gives to leading sinners and great offenders:

﴿If Allah were to take humankind to task for what they have earned﴾ of sins,

﴿He would not leave on the face of [the earth] a single living creature﴾ that is, the punishment would have reached everywhere and even affected animals, who are not accountable.

﴿but﴾ He gives respite, although He does not forget about them,

﴿He gives them respite for an appointed term. Then when their appointed time comes, then verily Allah is well aware of His slaves [and knows who is deserving of punishment or reward]﴾, then He will requite them according to what he knows about them of good or evil.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat Fāṭir.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

36.

Soorat Yâ Seen

(Makki)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

بِسْمِ ۙ وَالْقُرْآنِ الْحَكِيمِ ۝ إِنْكَ لَئِنَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ۝ عَلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ ۝
نَزِيلَ الْعَزِيزِ الرَّحِيمِ ۝ لِتُنذِرَ قَوْمًا مَّا أُنذِرَ آبَاؤُهُمْ فَهُمْ غَافِلُونَ ۝ لَقَدْ
حَقَّ الْقَوْلُ عَلَى أَكْثَرِهِمْ فَهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ۝ إِنَّا جَعَلْنَا فِي أَنْعَقِهِمْ غَلًّا فَهُمْ إِلَى
الْأَذْقَانِ فَهُمْ مُقْمَحُونَ ۝ وَجَعَلْنَا مِنْ بَيْنِ أَيْدِيهِمْ سَدًّا وَمِنْ خَلْفِهِمْ سَدًّا
فَأَغْشَيْنَاهُمْ فَهُمْ لَا يُبْصِرُونَ ۝ وَسَاءَ عَلَيْهِمْ أَلَّذِي تَنْذَرْتَهُمْ أَنْ لَمْ تُنذِرْهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ۝
إِنَّمَا تُنذِرُ مَنِ اتَّبَعَ الذِّكْرَ وَخَشِيَ الرَّحْمَنََ الْغَيْبَ فَبَشْرَةٌ لِّمَغْفِرَةٍ وَأَجْرٍ
كَرِيمٍ ۝ إِنَّا نَحْنُ الْمُوقِفُ وَنَكْتُبُ مَا قَدَّمُوا وَآثَرَهُمْ وَكُلُّ شَيْءٍ
أَحْصَيْنَاهُ فِي إِمَامٍ مُبِينٍ ۝ (سورة يس: ١-١٢)

36:1. Yâ Seen.<sup>31</sup>

<sup>31</sup> Groups of letters (al-huroof al-muqatta'ah) appear at the beginning of several soorahs. The most correct scholarly view states that we are required to believe in them as they appear to be, without delving into their meaning, knowledge of which we should leave to Allah. We believe that

- 36:2. By the Qur'an, full of wisdom,
 36:3. verily you [O Muhammad] are indeed one of the Messengers,
 36:4. [and you are] on a straight path.
 36:5. [This Qur'an is] a revelation sent down by the Almighty, the Most Merciful, 36:6. So that you may warn a people whose forefathers were not warned, hence they are unaware.
 36:7. The decree [of punishment] is inevitable for most of them, for they will never believe.<sup>32</sup>
 36:8. Verily [it is as if] We have placed iron collars around their necks, right up to their chins, so that their heads are forced up.<sup>33</sup>
 36:9. We have placed a barrier in front of them and a barrier behind them, blocking their vision so that they cannot see.
 36:10. It is the same to them whether you warn them or do not warn them; they will not believe.
 36:11. You can only warn those who follow the Reminder [the Qur'an] and fear the Most Gracious unseen. So give them the glad tidings of forgiveness and a generous reward.
 36:12. Verily it is We Who will give life to the dead. We record what they send forth and what they leave behind,<sup>34</sup> and We keep an account of all things in a clear Book.

---

they were not revealed in vain, and that there is wisdom behind them of which we are not aware.

<sup>32</sup> The punishment is inevitable for those people, as Allah knows that they will die in a state of disbelief. (al-Qurtubi; at-Tabari)

<sup>33</sup> The description of their heads being forced up by the collar indicates that their attitude is one that may be described as stiff-necked: they will not yield and submit to guidance.

<sup>34</sup> What they leave behind: this refers to things that people leave behind that may benefit others, such as a book of knowledge, a waqf (Islamic endowment) or a good precedent; or what they leave behind that may have a negative impact on others, such as books promoting misguidance =

Here Allah swears an oath by the Qur'an, full of wisdom, meaning that it puts everything in its right place, and gives commands and prohibitions for clear reasons in an appropriate context, and it describes the requital for good or evil as is appropriate, in the right context. So its commands and prohibitions, and its criminal code, which dictates requital and punishment, are based on utmost wisdom.

One way in which the wisdom of this Qur'an is manifested is that it mentions together the ruling and the wisdom behind it, thus drawing the attention of rational people to the context and the circumstances that led to the determination of that ruling concerning the matter.

«Verily you [O Muhammad] are indeed one of the Messengers». This is the fact concerning which the oath is sworn, namely the message of Muhammad (ﷺ). In other words, you (O Muhammad [ﷺ]) are one of the Messengers, so you are not without precedent among the Messengers. Moreover, you have brought the same message as the other Messengers brought, in terms of basic religious principles.

Furthermore, anyone who reflects upon the character and description of the Messengers, and understands the difference between them and others, will realise that you are one of the best of the Messengers, because of the perfect qualities and virtuous characteristics that you possess.

The connection between the object by which the oath is sworn, namely the Qur'an full of wisdom, and the thing that is confirmed by the oath, namely the message of the Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ), is not hidden. If there was nothing to confirm his message and no witness to testify to it except this Qur'an full of wisdom, that would have been sufficient evidence and testimony to the validity of the message of Muhammad (ﷺ). Indeed the holy Qur'an is the strongest evidence that has remained down throughout the ages, of the truth of the message of the Messenger (ﷺ). All the evidence of the Qur'an is evidence that supports the message of Muhammad (ﷺ).

---

= and innovation, setting a bad precedent, or devising unjust rules and regulations that continue to be carried out on people.

Then Allah tells us of the greatest characteristic of the Messenger (ﷺ), which supports his message, namely the fact that he is ﴿on a straight path﴾, a moderate path that leads to Allah and to His paradise. That straight path includes deeds, which are righteous deeds that rectify one's condition both spiritually and physically, and lead to the best outcome in this world and the hereafter, and virtuous characteristics that purify one's soul and bring reward. This is the straight path which is the description of the Messenger (ﷺ) and of the religion that he brought. So reflect upon the majestic nature of this noble Qur'an, and how it combines swearing by the most honourable of things to confirm the most honourable thing to which one may swear (namely the truth of the Prophet's message). Allah's words alone are sufficient, but He established clear proof and definitive evidence in this context in order to prove the soundness of the thing He swore this oath to confirm, namely the truth of the message of His Messenger (ﷺ).

This straight path is ﴿a revelation sent down by the Almighty, the Most Merciful﴾. The Book was revealed to describe and call people to the straight path, and was revealed to show the way by which His slaves may reach Him. So He protected it by His might from change and alteration, and by means of it He granted mercy to His slaves that would stay with them until it brings them to the realm of His mercy (namely paradise).

Hence the verse ends with these two divine names, the Almighty, the Most Merciful.

Having sworn to the truth of His message and established proof for it, Allah (ﷻ) now speaks of the great need for it and the necessity thereof.

﴿So that you may warn a people whose forefathers were not warned, hence they are unaware﴾; they had remained without any scriptures and had received no Messengers. They had been overwhelmed by ignorance and were submerged in misguidance, and they had become a laughing stock to all other people because of their foolishness. So Allah sent to them a Messenger from among themselves, to purify them, and to teach them the Book and wisdom, although before that they had been clearly misguided (cf. 3: 164). He came to warn the unlettered Arabs, and all other unlettered nations, and to remind the People of the Book of what they had of previous scriptures. It is a blessing that Allah bestowed upon the Arabs in particular, and upon others in general.

But after you (O Muhammad [ﷺ]) warned these people among whom you were sent, they divided into two categories, the first of which rejected the message he brought and did not pay heed to the warning. They are the ones of whom Allah says:

﴿The decree [of punishment] is inevitable for most of them, for they will never believe﴾ that is, the divine decree, which is inevitable, dictates that they will persist in their disbelief and ascription of partners to Allah; the decree only became inevitable concerning them after the truth was presented to them but they rejected it. Then they were punished by the sealing of their hearts.

Then Allah mentions the impediments that prevented faith from reaching their hearts:

﴿Verily [it is as if] We have placed iron collars around their necks﴾ and these iron collars that are around their necks are immense, reaching up to their chins and pushing their heads upwards
 ﴿so that their heads are forced up﴾ and they cannot lower them.

﴿We have placed a barrier in front of them and a barrier behind them﴾ that is, a barrier that prevents them from believing ﴿blocking their vision so that they cannot see﴾ because they have been overwhelmed by ignorance and doom on all sides, so the warning is of no avail for them.

﴿It is the same to them whether you warn them or do not warn them; they will not believe﴾ – how can a person believe when his heart has been sealed up and he sees truth as false and falsehood as true?

The second category of people are those who pay heed to the warning, whom Allah mentions in the following verse:

﴿You can only warn﴾ that is, the only ones who will benefit from your warning and pay heed to your advice are ﴿those who follow the Reminder [the Qur'an]﴾ that is, those whose aim is to follow the truth and what they are reminded of in the Qur'an

﴿and fear the Most Gracious unseen﴾ that is, it is those who have these two characteristics – good intentions in seeking the truth, and fear of Allah (ﷻ) – who will benefit from your message and will be purified by following your teachings. Whoever attains these two things, ﴿give them the glad tidings of forgiveness﴾ of their sins ﴿and a generous reward﴾ for their righteous deeds and good intentions.

﴿Verily it is We Who will give life to the dead﴾ that is, We will resurrect them after their death in order to requite them for their deeds ﴿We record what they send forth﴾ of good or evil. This refers to the deeds that they do during their lifetimes

﴿and what they leave behind﴾ this refers to their legacy of good or evil, of which they were the cause during their lifetimes and after their deaths, the deeds that resulted from their words, actions and conduct. Every good deed that anyone does because of a person's knowledge, teaching and advice, or because of his enjoining what is right or forbidding what is wrong, or because of knowledge that he taught to seekers of knowledge, or knowledge that he left behind in books from which people benefited during his life and after his death; or any good deed that he did, such as prayer, zakâh, charity or acts of kindness, in which others followed his example; or any mosque that he built or any facilities that he set up from which people benefit, and so on, is among the legacy that he leaves behind, that is recorded for him. The same applies in the case of evil deeds. Hence:

«Whoever sets a good precedent will have the reward thereof and a reward (equal to that of) those who act upon it until the Day of Resurrection; and whoever sets a bad precedent will have the burden of sin thereof and a burden of sin (equal to that of) those who act upon it until the Day of Resurrection.» (Muslim)

This highlights the high status of one who calls people to Allah and guides them to His path by all possible means, and the low status of one who calls people to evil and leads others therein; the latter is one of the worst of people, who is guilty of the worst crime and gravest sin.

«and We keep an account of all things», deeds, intentions and so on,

«in a clear Book» that is, a book that is the mother of all books, on which all other books that are in the hands of the angels are based, namely al-Lawḥ al-Maḥfoodh.

﴿وَأَضْرَبَ لَهُمْ مَثَلًا أَصْحَابَ الْقَرْيَةِ إِذْ جَاءَهَا الْمُرْسَلُونَ ﴿١٣﴾ إِذْ أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَيْهِمُ اثْنَيْنِ فَكَذَّبُوهُمَا فَعَزَّزْنَا بِثَالِثٍ فَقَالُوا إِنَّا إِلَيْكُم مُّرْسَلُونَ ﴿١٤﴾ قَالُوا مَا أَنْتُمْ إِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِّثْلُنَا وَمَا أَنْزَلَ الرَّحْمَنُ مِنْ شَيْءٍ إِنْ أَنْتُمْ إِلَّا تَكْذِبُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ قَالُوا رَبُّنَا يَعْلَمُ إِنَّا إِلَيْكُمْ لَمُرْسَلُونَ ﴿١٦﴾ وَمَا عَلَيْنَا إِلَّا الْبَلَاغُ الْمُبِينُ ﴿١٧﴾ قَالُوا إِنَّا نَطَّيْرُنَا يَكْفُمُ لَيْنَا نَمْرُتُهُمْ لَنَرْجُمَنَّكُمْ وَلَيَمَسَّنَّكُمْ مِنَّا عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿١٨﴾ قَالُوا طَائِفُكُمْ مَعَكُمْ أَيْنَ ذُكِّرْتُمْ بَلْ أَنْتُمْ قَوْمٌ مُّسْرِفُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ وَجَاءَ مِنْ أَقْصَا الْمَدِينَةِ رَجُلٌ يَسْعَى قَالَ يَنْفِقُمْ أَنْتُمْ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿٢٠﴾ اتَّبِعُوا مَنْ لَا يَسْتَلْكُمْ أَجْرًا وَهُمْ مُّهْتَدُونَ ﴿٢١﴾ وَمَا لِي لَا أَعْبُدُ الَّذِي فَطَرَنِي وَإِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿٢٢﴾ أَأَتَّخِذُ مِنْ دُونِهِ إِلَهًا إِنَّ يَوْمَ الَّذِينَ يُرَدُّونَ إِلَى الرَّحْمَنِ بِضُرٍّ لَا تُغْنِي عَنْهُمْ شَفَاعَتُهُمْ شَيْئًا وَلَا يُنْقِذُونِ ﴿٢٣﴾ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٢٤﴾ إِنِّي ءَامَنْتُ بِرَبِّكُمْ فَاسْمَعُونِ ﴿٢٥﴾ قِيلَ ادْخُلِ الْجَنَّةَ

قَالَ يَلَيْتَ قَوْمِي يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٦٧﴾ يٰمَآ غَفَرَ لِي رَبِّي وَجَعَلَنِي مِنَ الْمُكْرَمِينَ ﴿٦٨﴾ (سورة

يس: ١٣-٢٧)

- 36:13. Present to them the example of the people of the city when the Messengers came to it.
- 36:14. When We sent two Messengers to them, they rejected them, so We supported them with a third. They said: Verily we have been sent to you as Messengers.
- 36:15. The people said: You are but human beings like ourselves, and the Most Gracious has not sent down any revelation; you are simply lying.
- 36:16. They said: Our Lord knows that we have been sent to you as Messengers,
- 36:17. and our duty is only to convey the message in the clearest way.
- 36:18. The people said: We regard you as an evil omen. If you do not desist, we will surely stone you, and we will inflict a painful punishment on you.
- 36:19. They said: Your evil omen is with you [because of your disbelief]. [Are you saying this] because you have been admonished? You are indeed a people transgressing beyond all bounds.
- 36:20. A man came rushing from the farthest part of the city, and said: O my people, follow the Messengers.
- 36:21. Follow those who ask no recompense of you and who are rightly guided.
- 36:22. Why should I not worship Him Who created me and to Whom you will be brought back?
- 36:23. Should I take other gods besides Him? If the Most Gracious wills that some adversity should befall me, their intercession will not avail me at all, nor can they deliver me.
- 36:24. In that case I would indeed be clearly misguided.
- 36:25. Verily I believe in your Lord, so hear me.

- 36:26. It was said [to him]:<sup>35</sup> Enter paradise. He said: Would that my people knew 36:27. how my Lord has forgiven me and placed me among the honoured ones.
-

﴿Present to them the example of the people of the city when the Messengers came to it﴾ that is, give an example to these people who reject your message and your call, from which they may learn a lesson, and which may be an exhortation from which they may benefit if Allah so wills. That example is the people of the city and what happened to them of punishment when they rejected the Messengers of Allah. If there was any benefit in identifying the city in question, Allah would have identified it. Discussing that and similar issues comes under the heading of wasting time and effort, and speaking without knowledge. Hence if anyone speaks of such matters, you will find him speculating and saying confusing and contradictory things that do not lead to any conclusion. If you see anyone doing that, you should realise that the path to sound knowledge is to be content with the facts and turn away from discussing that which is of no benefit. Thus the seeker of knowledge will maintain purity of heart and his knowledge will increase. This is in contrast to the ignorant person who thinks that his knowledge will increase by referring to views and ideas that have no basis or proof and are of no benefit, and in fact they only lead to confusion and distraction, and leave one open to accepting doubtful matters.

The point is that Allah mentions this city by way of example to those addressed here (namely Quraysh), ﴿when the Messengers came to it﴾ from Allah, to command them to worship Allah alone and devote their worship solely to Him, and to forbid them to ascribe partners to Him and commit sin,

---

<sup>35</sup> His people killed him and he was admitted to paradise. (ash-Shawkâni)

«When We sent two Messengers to them, they rejected them, so We supported them with a third» that is, We strengthened them with a third, so they became three Messengers, as a sign of Allah's care for the people of that city, and so as to establish clear proof by the coming of Messengers one after another.

«They said» to the people: «Verily we have been sent to you as Messengers».

But the people responded in a manner that is still well known among those who reject the call of the Messengers:

«The people said: You are but human beings like ourselves» that is, what makes you better than us, and why were you chosen to be Messengers instead of us?

The Messengers said to their nations:

«...Indeed, we are but human beings like yourselves, but Allah bestows His favour upon whomever He wills of His slaves...» (Ibrâheem 14: 11)

«and the Most Gracious has not sent down any revelation». In other words, they denied the concept of a message from Allah, then they rejected the ones to whom they were speaking and said: «you are simply lying».

These three Messengers said: «Our Lord knows that we have been sent to you as Messengers»; if we were lying, Allah would have caused us disgrace and would have hastened the punishment to us.

«and our duty is only to convey the message in the clearest way» that is, in the way that will explain the matters that need to be explained; everything apart from that, such as the signs that you demand and swift punishment, is not up to us. Rather what is required of us – which is to convey the message clearly – we have done, and we have explained it to you. If you are guided, then that is your good fortune, but if you are misguided, then it is nothing to do with us.

The people of that city said to their Messengers: «We regard you as an evil omen» that is, we do not think that your coming to us and your contacting us forebodes anything but evil. This is something very strange, to regard those who came to them with the greatest blessing that Allah could bestow upon His slaves, and the greatest honour that He could give them, their need for which surpassed all other needs, as something evil which would exacerbate the bad situation they were already in, and to view it through a lens of superstition. But this is the sign of failure and misguidance that harms a person more than his enemies could.

Then they issued a threat to them by saying: «If you do not desist, we will surely stone you» that is, we will kill you by stoning, which is the worst kind of killing, «and we will inflict a painful punishment on you».

Their Messengers said to them: «Your evil omen is with you» and it was what they had of polytheism and evil that would lead to calamity and punishment befalling them, and blessings and favours being taken away from them

«[Are you saying this] because you have been admonished?» That is, is it because we reminded you of that which is in your best interests and will bring you good fortune that you said to us what you said? «You are indeed a people transgressing beyond all bounds» and overstepping the mark in what you say. But their call to them only increased them in aversion and arrogance.

«A man came rushing from the farthest part of the city», keen to advise his people when he heard what the Messengers called them to, and he believed in it and realised what his people's response to them was. Hence he said to them:

«O my people, follow the Messengers». He instructed them and advised them to follow them, and testified that they were indeed Messengers.

«Follow those who ask no recompense of you» that is, follow those who give you advice that will bring you good, and who do not want your wealth or any recompense for advising you and guiding you, for this makes it incumbent upon you to follow those who are like that.

There is only one argument left, which is the idea that perhaps a Messenger may call people and not ask any recompense for that, but he is not calling to the truth. So he warded off this notion by saying: ﴿and who are rightly guided﴾, because they were only calling to something of which sound reason testifies to its beauty and goodness, and they were not forbidding anything of which sound reason does not testify to its ugliness and badness.

It is as if his people did not accept his advice; rather they began to criticise him for following the Messengers and worshipping Allah alone. Therefore he said: ﴿Why should I not worship Him Who created me and to Whom you will be brought back?﴾ That is, what is there to prevent me from worshipping the One Who is truly deserving of worship, because He is the One Who originated me, created me, grants me provision, and to Him is the return of all creatures, then He will requite them for their deeds? He is the One in Whose Hand are creation and provision, and judgement between people in this world and the hereafter; therefore He is the only One Who deserves to be worshipped, praised and glorified, to the exclusion of those who possess no power to benefit or harm, give or withhold, give life, cause death or resurrect. Hence he said:

﴿Should I take other gods besides Him? If the Most Gracious wills that some adversity should befall me, their intercession will not avail me at all﴾ because no one can intercede with Allah except by His leave, so their intercession will not avail me at all, and they cannot save me from harm if Allah wills it for me.

﴿In that case﴾, if I worship gods that are like that, ﴿I would indeed be clearly misguided﴾. In these words, this man combined advice, testimony to the truth of the Messengers and the path of guidance, the statement that it is essential to worship Allah alone and that worship of all others is false, mentioning the proof for both, the statement that those who worship (false gods) are misguided, and open declaration of his faith, even though he was very afraid that they could kill him. Hence he said:

﴿Verily I believe in your Lord, so hear me﴾. But they killed him when they heard what he said to them.

﴿It was said [to him]﴾ straight away
 ﴿Enter paradise﴾. He said something that was indicative of the level of honour he attained for his affirmation of the oneness of Allah, his devotion, and his sincerity towards his people after his death, as he had been sincere towards them when he was still alive:
 ﴿Would that my people knew how my Lord has forgiven me﴾ and has saved me from all kinds of punishment
 ﴿and placed me among the honoured ones﴾, with all kinds of reward and pleasures. In other words, if knowledge of that reached their hearts, they would not persist in their ascription of partners to Allah.

﴿وَمَا أَنزَلْنَا عَلَىٰ قَوْمِهِ مِن بَعْدِهِ مِن جُنْدٍ مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ وَمَا كُنَّا مُنْزِلِينَ﴾ (٢٨) إِنَّ
 كَانَتْ إِلَّا صَيْحَةً وَاحِدَةً فَإِذَا هُمْ خَمِيدُونَ ﴿٢٩﴾ يَحْضَرُهُ عَلَى الْعِبَادِ مَا يَأْتِيهِمْ مِّن
 رَسُولٍ إِلَّا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِئُونَ ﴿٣٠﴾ (سورة يس: ٢٨-٣٠)

36:28. After his death,<sup>36</sup> We did not send down any troops from heaven against his people, nor did We need to do so;

36:29. It was but a single blast, and immediately they were extinguished.

36:30. Alas for humanity! No Messenger came to them but they ridiculed him.

<sup>36</sup> The person referred to here is the believing man mentioned in Yâ Seen (36: 20) who came rushing from the farthest part of the city to urge his people to respond to the call of the Messengers, but they killed him.

Allah says concerning the punishment of his people:

«After his death, We did not send down any troops from heaven against his people» that is, We did not need to go to the trouble of punishing them by sending down troops from heaven to destroy them «nor did We need to do so». Because of the great might of Allah (ﷻ) and the extreme weakness of human beings, the slightest touch of divine punishment that befalls them is sufficient.

«It» that is, their punishment

«was but a single blast» that is, one sound that was spoken by some of the angels of Allah,

«and immediately they were extinguished». Their hearts were cut off and dropped inside them, and they were disturbed by that blast and became lifeless, with no sound, no movement and no life after all their stubbornness and arrogance, and their responding to the noblest of people with such abhorrent words and mistreatment.

Allah says, lamenting the condition of people: «Alas for humanity! No Messenger came to them but they ridiculed him» that is, how wretched they are, how long their suffering will be, and how ignorant they are, because this is their wretched condition which is the cause of all misery, suffering and punishment!

﴿الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا كَمْ أَهْلَكْنَا قَبْلَهُمْ مِنَ الْقُرُونِ أَنَّهُمْ إِلَيْهِمْ لَا يَرْجِعُونَ ﴿٣١﴾ وَإِنْ كُلُّ لَمَّا جَمِيعٌ لَدَيْنَا مُحْضَرُونَ ﴿٣٢﴾﴾ (سورة يس: ٣١-٣٢)

36:31. Do they not see how many nations We destroyed before them who will never return to them?

36:32. But all of them, without exception, will be brought before Us.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says: Have these people not seen and learned a lesson from those who came before them of disbelieving nations, whom Allah (ﷻ) destroyed and sent His punishment upon them? For all of them have been destroyed and have perished; they never came back to this world and will never come back to it.

Allah will recreate them all and will resurrect them after their death, and they will appear before Him, so that He may judge between them with justice; He does not wrong anyone by as much as the weight of a speck of dust,

﴿...And if there is a good deed Allah will multiply it, and give an immense reward of His own.﴾ (an-Nisā` 4: 40)

﴿وَأَيُّ لَّهُمُ الْأَرْضُ الَّتِي أَحْيَيْنَاهَا وَأَخْرَجْنَا مِنْهَا حَبًّا فَعِنْدَهُ يَأْكُلُونَ ﴿٣٣﴾ وَجَعَلْنَا فِيهَا جَنَّاتٍ مِّنْ نَّخِيلٍ وَأَعْنَابٍ وَفَجَّرْنَا فِيهَا مِنَ الْعُيُونِ ﴿٣٤﴾ لِيَأْكُلُوا مِنْ ثَمَرِهِ وَمَا عَمِلَتْهُ أَيْدِيهِمْ أَفَلَا يَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٣٥﴾ سُبْحَنَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ الْأَزْوَاجَ كُلَّهَا مِمَّا تُنْبِتُ الْأَرْضُ وَمِنْ أَنفُسِهِمْ وَمِمَّا لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٣٦﴾﴾ (سورة يس: ٣٣-٣٦)

- 36:33. There is a sign for them in the dead earth: We give it life and bring forth from it grain, from which they eat.
- 36:34. And We place therein gardens of date palms and vines, and We cause springs to gush forth therein,
- 36:35. so that they may eat the fruits thereof, although it was not their hands that made it. Will they not then be grateful?
- 36:36. Glory be to Him Who created all types of things that the earth produces, and of themselves [different types], and of [other] things of which they have no knowledge.

﴿There is a sign for them﴾ of the resurrection and the standing before Allah (ﷻ) for the requital of their deeds. That sign is ﴿the dead earth﴾: Allah sends the rain down to it and revives it after its death,

﴿and bring forth from it grain, from which they eat﴾, all sorts of crops and all sorts of plants that the livestock eat.

﴿And We place therein﴾ that is, in that dead earth ﴿gardens﴾ in which there are many trees, especially date palms and grapevines, which are the noblest of trees ﴿and We cause springs to gush forth therein﴾ that is, in the earth.

We place those plants, date palms and grapevines in the earth, ﴿so that they may eat the fruits thereof﴾, both staple foods and fruits, to give nourishment and pleasure

﴿although﴾ the fact of the matter is that ﴿it was not their hands that made﴾ those fruits, and they put no effort or work into it; rather that is the creation of the best of creators and the best of providers. Moreover, their hands did not cook them or prepare them; rather Allah created those fruits with no need for cooking or any other preparation, as they may be taken from the trees and eaten immediately.

﴿Will they not then be grateful﴾ to the One Who bestowed these blessings upon them in abundance by His generosity and kindness, to ensure the soundness of their religious and worldly affairs?

Is not the One Who gave life to the earth after its death – causing crops and trees to grow therein and bear these delicious fruits, which emerge from their branches, and causing springs to gush forth from the dry earth – able to give life to the dead? Indeed, He has power over all things.

﴿Glory be to Him Who created all types﴾ and kinds ﴿of things that the earth produces﴾, so He created a variety of types that is too great to list them all

﴿and of themselves [different types]﴾ that is, He created them of different types, male and female, and made their physical shapes, psychological make-up, and outward and inward characteristics different

﴿and of [other] things of which they have no knowledge﴾ that is, other created things of which we have no knowledge, and things that He has not yet created.

Glory be to Him and exalted be He above having any partner, helper, supporter, adviser, spouse, child, equal or anyone like unto Him in His perfect and majestic attributes, and exalted be He above anything He wants being beyond Him.

﴿وَأَيُّ لَّهُمْ أَيْلٌ نَسْلَخُ مِنْهُ النَّهَارَ فَإِذَا هُمْ مُظْلِمُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾ وَالشَّمْسُ تَجْرِي لِمُسْتَقَرٍّ لَهَا ذَلِكَ تَقْدِيرُ الْعَزِيزِ الْعَلِيمِ ﴿٣٨﴾ وَالْقَمَرَ قَدَرْنَاهُ مَنَازِلَ حَتَّىٰ عَادَ كَالْعُرْجُونِ الْقَدِيمِ ﴿٣٩﴾ لَا الشَّمْسُ يَنْبَغِي لَهَا أَنْ تُدْرِكَ الْقَمَرَ وَلَا اللَّيْلُ سَابِقُ النَّهَارِ وَكُلٌّ فِي فَلَكٍ يَسْبَحُونَ ﴿٤٠﴾﴾ (سورة يس: ٣٧-٤٠)

- 36:37. There is a sign for them in the night: We strip the daylight from it, and they are left in darkness.
- 36:38. The sun is rapidly moving towards its destination. That is the decree of the Almighty, All-Knowing.
- 36:39. And for the moon We have ordained phases, until it becomes again like an old date-stalk, dried-up and curved.
- 36:40. The sun cannot catch up with the moon, nor can the night outstrip the day.<sup>37</sup> Each floats in its own orbit.

«There is a sign for them» that Allah's will is always done, of the perfect nature of His might, and that He will give life to the dead after their death,

«in the night: We strip the daylight from it» that is, We take away the great light that covered the land and replace it with darkness

«and they are left in darkness».

<sup>37</sup> The sun cannot catch up with the moon so that it does away with it, resulting in perpetual day with no night, and the night cannot outstrip the day so that it takes away its light, resulting in perpetual night with no day. (at-Tabari)

Similarly, We take away this darkness that covered and enfolded them, hence the sun rises and shines everywhere, and people go about earning their livelihood and taking care of their interests. Hence Allah says: «The sun is rapidly moving towards its destination» that is, it is always moving towards the destination that Allah has ordained for it, and it never goes beyond that or falls short of it; it has no control over itself and it does not resist the decree of Allah (۞).

«That is the decree of the Almighty» Who by His might controls these great creations in the most perfect manner, according to the best system

«the All-Knowing» Who by His knowledge made them serve people's interests and benefit them in their worldly and spiritual affairs.

«And for the moon We have ordained phases» through which it passes; each night it moves to the next phase, step-by-step

«until» it becomes very small and goes back to being «like an old date-stalk, dried-up and curved» because it is so old that it shrank, became smaller and bent. Then after that, little by little, it keeps increasing gradually until its light is complete and it shines brightly.

«Each» namely the sun and the moon, and the night and the day – for each of them Allah has decreed a limit beyond which it cannot go; each of them has a time when it prevails and the other disappears. Hence Allah says: «The sun cannot catch up with the moon» that is, at the time when it prevails, which is the night; so there can be no sun at night.

«nor can the night outstrip the day» and encroach upon it before its time is over

«Each» both the sun and the moon,

«floats in its own orbit» that is, it constantly runs in its own course. All of this offers clear evidence and proof for the greatness of the Creator and the sublime nature of His attributes, especially His might, wisdom and knowledge in this context.

﴿وَأَيُّهُ لَهُمْ أَنَا حَمَلْنَا ذُرِّيَّتَهُمْ فِي الْفُلِّ الْمَشْحُونِ ﴿٤١﴾ وَخَلَقْنَا لَهُمْ مِنْ مِثْلِهِ مَا يَرْكَبُونَ ﴿٤٢﴾ وَإِنْ نَشَاءُ نُغْرِقْهُمْ فَلَا صَرِيحَ لَهُمْ وَلَا هُمْ يُنْقَذُونَ ﴿٤٣﴾ إِلَّا رَحْمَةً مِنَّا وَمَتَاعًا إِلَىٰ حِينٍ ﴿٤٤﴾ وَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمُ اتَّقُوا مَا بَيْنَ أَيْدِيكُمْ وَمَا خَلْفَكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُرْحَمُونَ ﴿٤٥﴾ وَمَا تَأْتِيهِمْ مِنْ آيَةٍ مِنْ آيَاتِ رَبِّهِمْ إِلَّا كَانُوا عَنْهَا مُعْرِضِينَ ﴿٤٦﴾ وَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمُ انْفِقُوا مِمَّا رَزَقَكُمُ اللَّهُ قَالِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا أَنْطَعِمُ مَنْ لَوْ يَشَاءُ اللَّهُ أَطْعَمَهُ إِنْ أَنْتُمْ إِلَّا فِي ضَلَالٍ مُبِينٍ ﴿٤٧﴾ وَيَقُولُونَ مَتَىٰ هَذَا الْوَعْدُ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿٤٨﴾ مَا يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَّا صَيْحَةً وَاحِدَةً تَأْخُذُهُمْ وَهُمْ يَخِصِّمُونَ ﴿٤٩﴾ فَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ تَوْصِيَةً وَلَا إِلَىٰ أَهْلِهِمْ يَرْجِعُونَ ﴿٥٠﴾﴾ (سورة يس: ٤١-٥٠)

- 36:41. And it is a sign for them that We cause their children and womenfolk [and themselves]<sup>38</sup> to be carried in fully-laden ships, 36:42. and We have created for them similar [means of transportation on land] on which they ride.
 36:43. If We so willed, We could drown them, then there would be no one to help them, nor could they be saved, 36:44. unless it be a mercy from Us, leaving them to enjoy life for a while.
 36:45. When it is said to them: Beware of that which is before you [punishment in this world] and that which lies ahead of you [punishment in the hereafter], so that you may be shown mercy, [they pay no heed].
 36:46. No sign ever comes to them from their Lord but they turn away from it.

<sup>38</sup> This sign is a blessing for all people, but children and women are highlighted here because it is a particular blessing for them, as travelling in ships is easier for them than riding camels and horses, or walking, which at the time of revelation were the main means of transportation. (al-Qurtubi)

- 36:47. When it is said to them: Spend of that, which Allah has provided for you, those who disbelieve say to those who believe: Should we feed those whom, if Allah had so willed, He would have fed? You are clearly misguided!
- 36:48. They say: When will this promise come to pass, if you speak the truth?
- 36:49. All they are waiting for is a single blast [of the Trumpet]<sup>39</sup> that will overtake them while they are still disputing.
- 36:50. Then they will not be able to leave any final instructions [concerning their affairs], nor will they be able to return to their families.

That is, there is a sign and proof for them that Allah alone is deserving of worship, because it is He Who bestows blessings and wards off calamities. One of His blessings is that ﴿We cause their children and womenfolk [and themselves] to be carried in fully-laden ships﴾, ﴿and We have created for them similar [means of transportation on land] on which they ride﴾.

Thus Allah causes them to be carried and saves them from drowning by means of what He taught them. Hence He draws their attention to the blessing that He bestowed upon them, as He saved them when He was able to drown them, as He says:

﴿If We so willed, We could drown them, then there would be no one to help them﴾ that is, there would be no one who could come and help them in their distress or relieve them of difficulty ﴿nor could they be saved﴾ from their predicament.

﴿unless it be a mercy from Us, leaving them to enjoy life for a while﴾, as We did not drown them, out of kindness towards them, and We left them to enjoy life for a while, perhaps they might turn back to Allah or make up for what they had failed to do.

---

<sup>39</sup> This will be the first Trumpet blast of the Day of Resurrection, whereupon all those who are alive at that time will die.

﴿When it is said to them: Beware of that which is before you [punishment in this world] and that which lies ahead of you [punishment in the hereafter]﴾ that is, punishment in this world or in al-barzakh<sup>40</sup> and on the Day of Resurrection, ﴿so that you may be shown mercy﴾, they turned away from that and did not pay any attention to it, and they would not do so even if every sign came to them. Hence Allah says:

﴿No sign ever comes to them from their Lord but they turn away from it﴾. The fact that the signs are attributed to their Lord indicates that they were perfect and clear, because there is no sign clearer than the signs of Allah.

One of the ways in which Allah guides His slaves is causing the signs to reach them by means of which they may learn that which will benefit them in both their religious and worldly affairs.

﴿When it is said to them: Spend of that, which Allah has provided for you﴾ that is, spend of the provision which Allah has bestowed upon you and which, if He so willed, He could take away from you, ﴿those who disbelieve say to those who believe﴾ by way of opposing the truth, basing their argument on the concept of the divine will: ﴿Should we feed those whom, if Allah had so willed, He would have fed? You﴾, O believers, ﴿are clearly misguided﴾ when you enjoin us to do that.

This is indicative of their great ignorance, which is abhorrent and wilful ignorance, because the sinner cannot use the divine will as an argument to justify his sin. Although whatever Allah wills happens and what He does not will does not happen, He has given people the ability and strength by means of which they are able to do what He commands and avoid what He forbids, so if they failed to do as they are commanded, that is their choice, and no one compels or forces them to do it.

---

<sup>40</sup> An intermediate state between death and the Day of Resurrection; it is also said to be a 'place' where the souls of the deceased will remain until the blowing of the Trumpet.

«They say» by way of disbelieving and seeking to hasten the Day of Resurrection:

«When will this promise come to pass, if you speak the truth?»

Allah (ﷻ) says: Do not think that it is far-off, for it is near. «All they are waiting for is a single blast [of the Trumpet] that will overtake them» that is, befall them «while they are still disputing» that is, whilst they are distracted from it, and it never crosses their minds whilst they are disputing and arguing with one another, which usually happens when they are heedless.

If the punishment befalls them at a moment of heedlessness, they will not be given any respite, «Then they will not be able to leave any final instructions [concerning their affairs]», great or small, «nor will they be able to return to their families».

﴿وَنُفِخَ فِي الصُّورِ فَإِذَا هُمْ مِنَ الْأَجْدَاثِ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ يَنْسِلُونَ ﴿٥١﴾ قَالُوا يٰوَيْلَنَا مَنْ بَعَثَنَا مِن مَّرْقَدِنَا هٰذَا مَا وَعَدَ الرَّحْمَنُ وَصَدَقَ الْمُرْسَلُونَ ﴿٥٢﴾ إِن كَانَتْ إِلَّا صَيْحَةً وَاحِدَةً فَإِذَا هُمْ جَمِيعٌ لَّدَيْنَا مُحْضَرُونَ ﴿٥٣﴾ قَالِیَوْمَ لَا تُظْلَمُ نَفْسٌ شَيْئًا وَلَا تُجْزَوْنَ إِلَّا مَا كُنتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٥٤﴾﴾ (سورة یس: ٥١-٥٤)

36:51. The Trumpet will be blown [again], and at once from their graves they will rush forth to their Lord.

36:52. They will say: Woe to us! Who has roused us from our resting-place? [It will be said to them:] This is what the Most Gracious promised, and the Messengers spoke the truth.

36:53. It will be but a single blast [of the Trumpet], then immediately they will all be brought before Us.

36:54. This day, no soul will be wronged in the least, and you will not be requited for anything other than what you used to do.

---

The first blast of the Trumpet will be a blast of panic and death, and the blast mentioned here is the blast of Resurrection. When the Trumpet is blown, they will emerge from their tombs and graves and rush forth to their Lord, hastening to stand before Him, and they will not be able to be slow or stay behind.

In that situation, the disbelievers will be filled with sorrow and will express their loss and regret, saying:

﴿Woe to us! Who has roused us from our resting-place?﴾ that is, who has woken us from our graves? It is narrated in some hadiths that the occupants of the graves will have a brief respite from torment just before the Trumpet is blown.

The response will come and it will be said to them: ﴿This is what the Most Gracious promised, and the Messengers spoke the truth﴾ that is, this is what Allah promised you and what the Messengers promised you, and what they said has turned out to be true, as you can see with your own eyes.

Do not think that mention of the divine name the Most Gracious in this context is merely because it is speaking of His promise. Rather that highlights the fact that on that momentous day, they will see of His mercy that which never crossed their minds and no one expected. This is like the verses in which Allah says:

﴿On that day true dominion will belong to the Most Gracious...﴾
(al-Furqân 25: 26)

– and:

﴿...All voices will be stilled before the Most Gracious...﴾ (Tâ Hâ 20: 108)

– and other similar verses, in which the divine name «the Most Gracious» is mentioned in this context.

«It» namely the resurrection from the graves «will be but a single blast» that Isrâfeel will blow on the Trumpet, and all bodies will be restored to life.

«then immediately they will all be brought before Us», the first and the last, human and jinn, to be brought to account for their deeds.

«This day, no soul will be wronged in the least»; nothing will be detracted from its good deeds and nothing will be added to its bad deeds.

«and you will not be required for anything other than what you used to do» of good or evil. Whoever finds good, let him praise Allah for that, and whoever finds anything other than that, let him not blame anyone but himself.

﴿إِنَّ أَصْحَابَ الْجَنَّةِ الْيَوْمَ فِي شُغْلٍ فَكِهِونَ ۝ هُمْ وَأَزْوَاجُهُمْ فِي ظِلِّلٍ عَلَى الْأَرَآئِكِ مُتَكِفُونَ ۝ لَمْ يَمْنَحْ فِيهَا فَكِيهَةً وَهُمْ مَا يُدْعَوْنَ ۝ سَلَامٌ قَوْلًا مِنْ رَبِّ رَحِيمٍ ۝﴾

(سورة يس: ٥٥-٥٨)

36:55. Verily the inhabitants of paradise will, on that day, be busy in their rejoicing, 36:56. they and their spouses reclining on couches in the shade.

36:57. There they will have fruit and all that they ask for.

36:58. Peace! – a word [of salutation] from a Lord Most Merciful.

Having stated that each person will be required only for what he did, Allah (ﷻ) now refers to the requital of both groups, starting with the reward of the people of paradise. He tells us that on that day, they will be «be busy in their rejoicing» that is, their souls will be rejoicing, having all that one may desire, that may delight the eye, and all that anyone could wish for. That will include the joy of being with beautiful spouses, as Allah says: ﴿and their spouses﴾ of the hoor al-'een, ﴿on couches in the shade﴾ that is, they will be reclining on beautiful adorned couches, wearing beautiful adorned garments, in complete comfort, relaxed and secure, enjoying perfect pleasure.

﴿There they will have fruit﴾ in abundance, all types of delicious fruits, grapes, figs, pomegranates and others
﴿and all that they ask for﴾ that is, whatever they request and wish for, they will get.

They will also have ﴿Peace! – a word [of salutation]﴾ coming to them ﴿from a Lord Most Merciful﴾. This refers to the Lord addressing the people of paradise and greeting them. If the Most Merciful Lord gives them a salutation of peace, they will attain perfect peace and well-being in all aspects, and they will receive this salutation, which is such that no salutation is more sublime than it and there is no blessing like it. So what do you think of a salutation from the King of Kings, the Almighty Lord, the Most Kind, the Most Merciful, to the people of His paradise, who have attained His pleasure and He will never be angry with them?

Were it not that Allah (ﷻ) has decreed that they will never die, their hearts might be displaced out of joy, pleasure and happiness. We hope that our Lord will not deprive us of that bliss, and that He will grant us the joy of gazing upon His noble Countenance.

﴿وَأَمْتَرُوا الْيَوْمَ أَيُّهَا الْمَجْرُمُونَ﴾ ﴿٥٩﴾ ﴿أَلَمْ أَعْهَدْ إِلَيْكُمْ يَبْنَىٰءَ آدَمَ أَن لَّا تَعْبُدُوا الشَّيْطَانَ إِنَّهُ لَكُمْ عَدُوٌّ مُّبِينٌ﴾ ﴿٦٠﴾ ﴿وَأَن أَعْبُدُونِي هَذَا صِرَاطٌ مُّسْتَقِيمٌ﴾ ﴿٦١﴾ ﴿وَلَقَدْ أَضَلَّ مِنْكُمْ جِبِلًّا كَثِيرًا أَفَلَمْ تَكُونُوا تَعْقِلُونَ﴾ ﴿٦٢﴾ ﴿هَذِهِ جَهَنَّمُ الَّتِي كُنْتُمْ تُوعَدُونَ﴾

۱۳۰ أَصْلَوْهَا الْيَوْمَ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَكْفُرُونَ ﴿١٣٠﴾ الْيَوْمَ نَخْتِمُ عَلَى أَفْوَاهِهِمْ وَتُكَلِّمُنَا
 أَيْدِيهِمْ وَنَشْهَدُ أَرْجُلُهُمْ بِمَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ ﴿١٣١﴾ وَلَوْ نَشَاءُ لَطَمَسْنَا عَلَى أَعْيُنِهِمْ
 فَاسْتَبَقُوا الصِّرَاطَ فَأَنْتَ يُبْصِرُونَ ﴿١٣٢﴾ وَلَوْ نَشَاءُ لَمَسَخْنَاهُمْ عَلَى مَكَانَتِهِمْ
 فَمَا اسْتَطَاعُوا مُضِيًّا وَلَا يَرْجِعُونَ ﴿١٣٣﴾ (سورة يس: ٥٩-٦٧)

- 36:59. Stand apart [from the believers] this day, O evildoers!
- 36:60. Did I not instruct you, O children of Adam, that you should not worship the Shayṭān, for he is to you an avowed enemy,
- 36:61. and that you should worship Me, for that is a straight path?
- 36:62. He led great numbers of you astray. Could you not then understand?
- 36:63. This is hell, that you were promised.
- 36:64. Burn therein this day for having disbelieved.
- 36:65. Today We will seal up their mouths, and their hands will speak to Us, and their feet will testify to their misdeeds.
- 36:66. If We so willed, we could blind their eyes; then if they were to rush to find their way, how would they be able to see?
- 36:67. If We so willed, We could paralyse them in their places; then they would not be able to go forward or turn back.

Having mentioned the reward of those who feared Him, Allah (ﷻ) now tells us of the requital of the evildoers. It will be said to them on the Day of Resurrection:

«Stand apart [from the believers] this day, O evildoers» that is, be distinct from the believers and be on your own, so that He may rebuke them before the witnesses before they enter hell. He will say to them:

«Did I not instruct you» that is, command you and enjoin you, on the lips of My Messengers, and say to you:

«O children of Adam, that you should not worship the Shayṭān» that is, you should not obey him? This rebuke is a rebuke for all kinds of disbelief and sin, because all of it is obedience to the Shayṭān and worship of him.

﴿for he is to you an avowed enemy﴾, so I warned you against him in the most emphatic terms, told you not to obey him, and informed you of that to which he calls you

﴿and﴾ I instructed you ﴿that you should worship Me﴾, by obeying My commands and refraining from what I forbade.

﴿for that﴾ namely worshipping and obeying Me and disobeying the Shayṭān ﴿is a straight path﴾. Knowledge of the straight path and acting accordingly is based on these two matters.

In other words: you did not pay attention to My instructions, and you did not follow My commands, and you took your enemy as a friend, so he ﴿led great numbers of you astray. Could you not then understand?﴾ that is, you did not have sound rational thinking that would tell you to take your Lord as an ally, Who is your true ally, and would prevent you from taking your worst enemy as an ally. If you had had sound rational thinking, you would not have done that.

As you obeyed the Shayṭān and took the Most Gracious as an enemy, and you disbelieved in the meeting with Him, and now you have come to the abode of requital, and the decree of punishment has become inevitable for you,

﴿This is hell, that you were promised﴾ but you disbelieved in it. So now look at it with your own eyes. At that point they will be filled with alarm and will stare fixedly in horror, and there will be great panic.

That will be completed by the order to take them to the fire, and it will be said to them: ﴿Burn therein this day for having disbelieved﴾ that is, enter it in such a way that you will be burned and overwhelmed by its heat, which will envelop you completely, because of your disbelief in the revelations of Allah and your rejection of the Messengers of Allah.

Then Allah says: describing the terrible fate that will befall them in the abode of wretchedness:

﴿Today We will seal up their mouths﴾ by rendering them unable to speak, so they will not be able to deny what they did of disbelief and rejection of the message.

﴿and their hands will speak to Us, and their feet will testify to their misdeeds﴾ that is, their limbs will testify against them, with regard to what they did, and they will be caused to speak by the One Who causes everything to speak (that is able to speak) (cf. 41: 21).

﴿If We so willed, we could blind their eyes﴾ and make them unable to see, just as We will make them unable to speak

﴿then if they were to rush to find their way﴾ that is, if they were to hasten to find the way to paradise

﴿how would they be able to see﴾ after their vision has been taken away?

﴿If We so willed, We could paralyse them in their places﴾ and take away their ability to move

﴿then they would not be able to go forward or turn back﴾ in order to get away from the fire. What is meant is that the decree of punishment will become inevitable for these disbelievers, and they will have no means of escape from that punishment.

In that situation, there will be nothing but the fire, which will have been brought forth, and no one will be able to be saved except by crossing the ṣirāṭ (a bridge that will be set up over hell), and no one will be able to do that except the believers, who will walk in the light. As for these (disbelievers), they have no promise from Allah of salvation from the fire.

If Allah willed, He could blind their eyes and leave them able to move, so they would not be able to find their way to the ṣirāṭ, even if they rush and hasten to do so. So they will not be able to move forward or backwards. What is meant is that they will not cross it, therefore they will not attain salvation.

﴿وَمَنْ نُعَمِّرْهُ نُنَكِّسْهُ فِي الْخَلْقِ أَفَلَا يَعْقِلُونَ﴾ (سورة يس: ٦٨)

36:68. Whomever We cause to live long, We also cause his strength to decline [as he grows old]. Will they not then understand?

﴿Whomever We cause to live long﴾ among the sons of Adam, ﴿We also cause his strength to decline﴾ that is, he goes back to the state in which he began, which is a state of weakness in both mental and physical terms.

﴿Will they not then understand﴾ that the human being is lacking in all ways, so that they may make the most of their physical strength and mental ability before it is too late, and use it in obedience to their Lord?

﴿وَمَا عَلَّمْنَاهُ الشِّعْرَ وَمَا يَنْبَغِي لَهُ إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا ذِكْرٌ وَقُرْآنٌ مُبِينٌ﴾ (سورة يس: ٦٩-٧٠)
﴿حَيَّا وَيَحْيَى الْقَوْلَ عَلَى الْكَافِرِينَ﴾ (سورة يس: ٧٠-٧١)

36:69. We have not taught him [the Prophet] poetry, nor could he ever have been a poet. Verily it is but a reminder and a clear Qur'an, 36:70. so that he may warn those who are truly alive, and so that the decree [of punishment] may become inevitable for the disbelievers.

Here Allah (ﷻ) declares His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) to be above what the polytheists accused him of, that he was a poet and that what he brought was poetry.

﴿We have not taught him [the Prophet] poetry, nor could he ever have been a poet﴾ that is, it is not appropriate for him to be a poet. This is impossible, because he is wise and rightly guided, whereas poets are misguided, and are followed by the misguided, and because Allah (ﷻ) refuted all the specious arguments that the misguided use against His Messenger (ﷺ).

Thus He refuted the argument that he was able to read and write, and stated that He did not teach him poetry and that that was not appropriate for him.

«Verily it is but a reminder and a clear Qur'an» that is, what he has brought is nothing but a reminder by which people of understanding may be reminded of all religious teachings, which this Book mentions in a comprehensive manner that reminds people of what Allah has instilled in their natural disposition of enjoining everything that is good and forbidding everything that is evil.

«and a clear Qur'an» that is, it explains everything that needs to be explained. Hence what is explained is not specified, so as to indicate that it explains and clarifies all that is true, with evidence both detailed and general, and it clarifies all that is false, with the evidence for it being false.

Allah revealed it thus to His Messenger (ﷺ), «so that he may warn those who are truly alive» that is, spiritually alive and alert. They are the ones who will be purified by this Qur'an and will increase in knowledge and action. For the hearts of such people, the Qur'an is like rain that falls on good, fertile land.

«and so that the decree [of punishment] may become inevitable for the disbelievers» because the proof of Allah is established against them, their arguments are refuted, and no excuse is left for them.

«أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّا خَلَقْنَا لَهُمْ مِمَّا عَمِلَتْ أَيْدِينَا أَنْعَمًا فَهُمْ لَهَا مَالِكُونَ ﴿٧١﴾ وَذَلَّلْنَاهَا لَهُمْ فَمِنْهَا رَكُوبُهُمْ وَمِنْهَا يَأْكُلُونَ ﴿٧٢﴾ وَلَهُمْ فِيهَا مَنَافِعُ وَمَشَارِبُ أَفَلَا يَشْكُرُونَ ﴿٧٣﴾»

(سورة يس: ٧١-٧٣)

- 36:71. Do they not see that We have created for them – among the things that Our Hands have wrought – livestock animals, of which they are masters,
- 36:72. and that We have brought them under their control, so that some of them they have for riding and some they eat,
- 36:73. and they have other benefits from them, and [milk] to drink? Will they not then be grateful?

Here Allah (ﷻ) enjoins people to look at that which He has made to be of service to them, namely livestock animals, of which they are masters, and which are obedient to them in everything that they want of them. He has created many benefits for them, as they carry them and their loads, goods and luggage from one place to another; some of the livestock they eat, and from others they keep warm, as from their wool, fur and hair (He has given them) furnishings and other goods (to serve them) for a time (cf. 16: 80). In them there is adornment and beauty, and other visible benefits.

﴿Will they not then be grateful﴾ to Allah (ﷻ), Who has bestowed these blessings, and devote their worship to Him alone, and not just enjoy these benefits without reflecting and pondering?

﴿وَاتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ آلِهَةً لَّعَلَّهُمْ يُنصَرُونَ﴾ (٧٦) لَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ نَصْرَهُمْ وَهُمْ
لَمْ يَجِدُوا مُمْسِكِينَ ﴿٧٥﴾ (سورة يس: ٧٤-٧٥)

- 36:74. Yet they have taken other gods besides Allah, in the hope that they may be helped.
- 36:75. They cannot help them; rather their worshippers stand like warriors ready to defend them.

This explains the falseness of those that the polytheists took as gods besides Allah (ﷻ), hoping for their help and intercession.

They are utterly incapable: ﴿They cannot help them﴾ and cannot help themselves. If they are not able to help them, then there is no way the people can receive help from them. There are two essential conditions for help: being able to do it and wanting to do it. If (an idol) is able to help, does it want to help its worshipper or not? If it cannot help, then both matters are ruled out.

﴿rather their worshippers stand like warriors ready to defend them﴾.

﴿فَلَا يَحْزُنكَ قَوْلُهُمْ إِنَّا نَعْلَمُ مَا يُسْرُونَ وَمَا يُعْلِنُونَ﴾ (سورة يس: ٧٦)

36:76. Do not let their words grieve you. Verily We know what they conceal and what they disclose.

That is, do not let the words of these disbelievers grieve you, O Messenger (ﷺ). What is meant by their words is what is indicated by the context, which is everything they said in which they cast aspersions on the Messenger (ﷺ) or the message he brought.

In other words: do not be distracted by grieving for them, for ﴿Verily We know what they conceal and what they disclose﴾ and We will requite them according to what we know of them, and their words will not harm you in the slightest.

﴿أَوَلَمْ يَرِ الْإِنْسَانُ أَنَّا خَلَقْنَاهُ مِنْ نُطْفَةٍ فَإِذَا هُوَ خَصِيمٌ مُبِينٌ﴾ (٧٧) وَضَرَبَ لَنَا مَثَلًا وَنَسِيَ خَلْقَهُ، قَالَ مَنْ يُحْيِي الْعِظَامَ وَهِيَ رَمِيمٌ ﴿٧٨﴾ قُلْ يُحْيِيهَا الَّذِي أَنْشَأَهَا

أَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ وَهُوَ بِكُلِّ خَلْقٍ عَلِيمٌ ﴿٧٦﴾ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُم مِّنَ الشَّجَرِ الْأَخْضَرِ نَارًا
فَإِذَا أَنشَأْتُم مِّنْهُ تُوفًى ﴿٧٧﴾ أَوَلَيْسَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ بِقَدِيرٍ عَلَىٰ أَن
يَخْلُقَ مِثْلَهُمْ بَلَىٰ وَهُوَ الْخَلَّاقُ الْعَلِيمُ ﴿٧٨﴾ إِنَّمَا أَمْرُهُ إِذَا أَرَادَ شَيْئًا أَن يَقُولَ لَهُ كُنْ
فَيَكُونُ ﴿٧٩﴾ فَسُبْحَنَ الَّذِي بِيَدِهِ مَلَكُوتُ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَإِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿٨٠﴾ (سورة)

يس: ٧٧-٨٣)

- 36:77. Does man not see that We created him from a drop of semen?
Yet he becomes argumentative, able to express himself,
- 36:78. producing arguments against Us and forgetting his own creation.
He says: Who can give life to bones that have crumbled to dust?
- 36:79. Say: He Who created them in the first place will give life to them, for He has full knowledge of every act of creation.
- 36:80. It is He Who produces fire for you out of the green trees, with which you kindle your fires.
- 36:81. Is not He Who created the heavens and the earth able to create the like of them?<sup>41</sup> Yes indeed, for He is the Creator of all, the All-Knowing.
- 36:82. His way, when He decrees a matter, is merely to say to it, 'Be!'
and it is.
- 36:83. So glory be to the One in Whose Hand is the dominion over all things, and to Him you will be brought back.

These verses mention the specious argument of those who denied the resurrection, and the most perfect response to it in the best and clearest manner. Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿Does man not see﴾ that is, does man, who denies the resurrection and doubts it, not see something that will give him complete certainty that the resurrection will indeed happen, namely the beginning of his own creation

<sup>41</sup> That is, He is able to recreate them (on the Day of Resurrection) exactly as they were in the first creation. (as-Sa'di)

﴿from a drop of semen﴾ after which he passes through stages, one after another, until he becomes a young man, and he becomes mature in thinking and reaches his peak.

﴿Yet he becomes argumentative, able to express himself﴾ after his beginning as a drop of semen. So let him see the difference between the two states, what he was and what he became, and let him realise that the One Who created him from nothing is more able to recreate him after he has disintegrated and been scattered.

﴿producing arguments against Us﴾ that no one should produce, because it is based on comparing the might and power of the Creator with the power of the created being, saying that what is impossible for the created being is also impossible for the Creator.

Then Allah explains this argument further:

﴿He﴾ namely that (argumentative) man ﴿says: Who can give life to bones that have crumbled to dust?﴾ that is, will anyone revive them? This is a question by way of denial; in other words, no one will revive them after they have disintegrated and vanished.

This specious argument, which says that this is very unlikely because it is something that is beyond human capabilities, was produced by this person because of his heedlessness and because he forgot how his own creation began. Had he thought about how he was created, after he had been nothing worth mentioning, then he came into existence, he would not have come up with such an argument.

In response to this view that the resurrection is unlikely, Allah (ﷻ) gave a perfect answer that settles the matter once and for all, as He said: ﴿He Who created them in the first place will give life to them﴾ – as soon as a person thinks of it, he will realise with certainty, beyond any shadow of a doubt, that the One Who created them in the first place is able to create them a second time, and that is easier for His power, if one just thinks about it.

﴿for He has full knowledge of every act of creation﴾ this is a second proof, which is connected to one of the attributes of Allah (ﷻ), for

His knowledge encompasses all created beings, in all circumstances, at all times. He knows what the earth consumes of the bodies of the dead, and what remains, and He knows the unseen and the seen. If a person affirms this great divine knowledge, he will realise that it is easy for the One Who possesses this great knowledge to give life to the dead and bring them forth from their graves.

Then Allah mentions a third proof: ﴿It is He Who produces fire for you out of the green trees, with which you kindle your fires﴾. If He produces fire, which is dry, from the green trees, which are very damp and moist, even though their characteristics are diametrically opposed, then His bringing forth of the dead from their graves is akin to that.

Then He mentions a fourth proof: ﴿Is not He Who created the heavens and the earth﴾ despite their immense vastness ﴿able to create the like of them﴾ that is, is He not able to recreate them?

﴿Yes indeed﴾, He is able to do that, for the creation of the heavens and the earth is greater than the creation of people.

﴿for He is the Creator of all, the All-Knowing﴾. This is the fifth proof. He is the Creator of all, and all created things – earlier and later, small and great – are indicative of His creation and might; it is never too difficult for Him to create anything that He wants to create.

His recreation of the dead is one of the aspects of His being the Creator, hence He says:

﴿His way, when He decrees a matter, is merely to say to it, 'Be!' and it is﴾ that is, immediately, with no impediment.

﴿So glory be to the One in Whose Hand is the dominion over all things﴾ – this is a sixth point of evidence: the Sovereign Who controls all things – and everything that dwells in the upper and lower realms belongs to Him, and all are slaves who are subject to His control – is running their affairs according to His divine decree and the decrees of His Sharia.

Hence recreating them after their death, in order to requite them, is part of His perfect control. Hence He says: ﴿and to Him you will be brought back﴾, without a doubt, because of the abundant and definitive proof and evidence to that effect. So blessed be the One in Whose word there is guidance, healing and light.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat Yâ Seen.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

37.

Soorat aş-Şaffât

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿وَالصَّافَّاتِ صَفًّا ۝١ فَالزَّاجِرَاتِ زَجْرًا ۝٢ فَالتَّالِيَاتِ ذِكْرًا ۝٣ إِنَّ إِلَهَكُمْ لَوَاحِدٌ ۝٤ رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا وَرَبُّ الْمَشْرِقِ ۝٥ إِنَّا زَيْنَا السَّمَاءَ الدُّنْيَا بِرِيَّةٍ الْكَوَاكِبِ ۝٦ وَحِفْظًا مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْطَانٍ مَارِدٍ ۝٧ لَا يَسْمَعُونَ إِلَى الْمَلَأِ الْأَعْلَى وَيُقَدِّفُونَ مِنْ كُلِّ جَانِبٍ ۝٨ دُحُورًا وَهُمْ عَذَابٌ وَأَصِيبٌ ۝٩ إِلَّا مَنْ خَطِفَ الْخَطْفَةَ فَأَتْبَعَهُ شِهَابٌ ثَاقِبٌ ۝١٠ فَاسْتَفِيهِمْ أَهْمُ أَشَدُّ خَلْقًا أَمْ مَنْ خَلَقْنَا إِنَّا خَائِفَتُهُمْ مِنْ طِينٍ لَا رَيْبَ ۝١١﴾

(سورة الصافات: ١-١١)

- 37:1. By those [angels] lined up in rows, 37:2. And by those [angels] who drive [the clouds],
37:3. And by those [angels] who recite Allah's words,
37:4. Verily your God is indeed One, 37:5. Lord of the heavens and the earth and all that is between them, and Lord of every point of sunrise.<sup>42</sup>

<sup>42</sup> The point of sunrise varies throughout the year.

- 37:6. Verily We have adorned the lowest heaven with the beauty of the stars, 37:7. which also serve as a protection against every rebellious devil,
 37:8. so that they cannot eavesdrop on those on high, for they are pelted from all sides
 37:9. to repulse them. And theirs will be a perpetual punishment.
 37:10. But if any of them snatches some words,<sup>43</sup> he will be pursued by a shooting star.
 37:11. So ask them [O Muhammad]: Is it more difficult to create them [again, on the Day of Resurrection] than all the other things We have created? Verily We created them from sticky clay.

This soorah begins with an oath in which Allah (ﷻ) swears by the noble angels, when they worship Him and dispose of people's affairs by His leave, affirming His divinity and Lordship.

﴿By those [angels] lined up in rows﴾ that is, in rows serving their Lord.

﴿And by those [angels] who drive [the clouds]﴾ this also refers to the angels, who drive the clouds by Allah's leave.

﴿And by those [angels] who recite Allah's words﴾.

As they are devoted to their Lord, worshipping and serving Him, and not disobeying Him even for an instant, Allah swears by them, affirming His divinity, as He says:

﴿Verily your God is indeed One﴾ – He has no partner in divinity, so devote your love, fear, hope, and all kinds of worship solely to Him.

﴿Lord of the heavens and the earth and all that is between them, and Lord of every point of sunrise﴾ that is, He is the Creator of these things, Who provides for them and controls them; just as He has no partner in His Lordship over them, so too He has no partner in <sup>43</sup> This refers to the words of the angels, as they discuss what is going to happen on earth, based on the divine decree.

His divinity. Allah (ﷻ) often affirms the oneness of His divinity by affirming the oneness of His Lordship, because it is indicative of it, and the polytheists themselves also affirmed it, so He proves to them the soundness of what they denied on the basis of what they affirm.

Allah singles out for mention the points of sunrise, because that also implies the points of sunset. The word translated here as ‘points of sunrise’ may also refer to the points of rising of the stars that are mentioned in the following verses, hence He says: ﴿Verily We have adorned the lowest heaven with the beauty of the stars, which also serve as a protection against every rebellious devil, so that they cannot eavesdrop on those on high﴾. Here Allah mentions two important benefits of the stars:

- 1- They are adornment for the heaven. Were it not for the stars, the heaven would be a dark place with no light. But He has adorned it in order to illuminate it throughout and make it beautiful, and so that people may navigate by the stars in darkness on land and sea, and there are also other benefits from them.
- 2- They serve to protect the heaven from every rebellious devil, preventing them from reaching the heaven in order to eavesdrop on those on high, namely the angels. When they try to listen, they are pelted with shooting stars ﴿from all sides﴾, so as to repulse them and drive them away so that they cannot listen to what is said by those on high.

﴿And theirs will be a perpetual﴾ that is, ongoing ﴿punishment﴾; it has been prepared for them, because they rebelled and failed to obey their Lord.

Were it not that Allah (ﷻ) makes an exception here, this would indicate that they never hear anything at all, but He says ﴿But if any of them snatches some words﴾ that is, except the one among the rebellious devils who snatches a single word by stealth, ﴿he will be pursued by a shooting star﴾. Sometimes it hits him before he is able to convey that word to his familiars, so the news of heaven is cut off; and sometimes he passes it on before he is hit, but they also tell one hundred lies with that word, that they propagate because of the word that was heard from heaven.

Having described these great creations, Allah says:

﴿So ask them [O Muhammad]﴾ that is, ask those who deny their recreation after death

﴿Is it more difficult to create them [again, on the Day of Resurrection]﴾ that is, is recreating them after their death more difficult,

﴿than all the other things We have created?﴾ They will inevitably affirm that the creation of the heavens and the earth is more difficult than the creation of humankind.

So they have no choice but to affirm and believe in the resurrection. Indeed, if they look at their own selves and reflect upon them, they will realise that their initial creation from sticky clay is more difficult, when they think about it, than their recreation after death. Hence Allah says: ﴿Verily We created them from sticky clay﴾. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Indeed, We created man from dry clay, made from black mud moulded into shape.﴾ (al-Hijr 15: 26)

﴿بَلْ عَجِبْتَ وَيَسْخَرُونَ ۚ وَإِذَا ذُكِّرُوا لَا يَذْكُرُونَ ۚ وَإِذَا رَأَوْا آيَةً يَسْتَسْخَرُونَ ۚ وَقَالُوا إِن هَذَا إِلَّا سِحْرٌ مُّبِينٌ ۚ أَإِذَا مِنَّا وَكُنَّا نُرَابًا وَعِظْمًا إِنَّا لَبُعُوثُونَ ۚ أَوَآبَاؤُنَا الْأَوَّلُونَ ۚ قُلْ نَعَمْ وَأَنْتُمْ دَخِرُونَ ۚ فَإِنَّمَا هِيَ زَجْرَةٌ وَاحِدَةٌ فَإِذَا هُمْ يَنْظُرُونَ ۚ وَقَالُوا لَوْلَا هَذَا يَوْمَ الدِّينِ ۚ هَذَا يَوْمُ الْفَصْلِ الَّذِي كُنْتُمْ بِهِ تُكَذِّبُونَ ۚ﴾ (سورة الصافات: ١٢-٢١)

37:12. Rather you wonder [at their disbelief in the resurrection] whilst they ridicule it,

- 37:13. and when they are reminded, they do not pay heed,
 37:14. and when they see a sign, they resort to ridicule, 37:15. and they say: This is obviously nothing but magic!
 37:16. What! When we have died and have turned into dust and bones, will we really be raised up,
 37:17. and our forefathers, too?
 37:18. Say: Yes, and you will be humiliated.
 37:19. It will be but a single blast [of the Trumpet], and immediately they will be [alive and] looking around.
 37:20. They will say: Woe to us! This is the Day of Judgement!
 37:21. [It will be said:] This is the Day of Decision that you used to deny.

«Rather you wonder» O Messenger – or, O man – at the disbelief of those who disbelieve in the resurrection, after you showed them great signs and clear evidence. It is indeed something astonishing and strange (that there are people who deny the resurrection), because it is something that cannot be denied «whilst» even stranger than their denial is the fact that they «ridicule» the one who is telling them about the resurrection. They were not content merely to deny it; rather they went further and ridiculed the word of truth.

«and» also strange is the fact that «when they are reminded» of what they know on the basis of their natural inclination and rational thinking, and what is instilled in them and what they see around them, «they do not pay heed» to that. If they do not pay heed because of ignorance, this indicates that they are extremely unintelligent, because they were reminded of something that is instilled in them and is well known on the basis of rational thinking, and there can be no doubt about it. And if that is because of wilful ignorance and stubbornness, that is even stranger.

Also strange is the fact that when proof is established for them and they are reminded of the signs to which the smartest people and those who are most mature in thinking would submit, they ridicule them and find them odd.

Also strange is the fact that they said of the truth when it came to them: ﴿This is obviously nothing but magic!﴾. They regarded the most sublime of things, namely the truth, as being like the most base and ignoble of things.

Also strange is the fact that they compared the power of the Lord of earth and heaven with the power of human beings who are lacking in all aspects, and they said, thinking it unlikely and denying it: ﴿What! When we have died and have turned into dust and bones, will we really be raised up, and our forefathers, too?﴾

Because this was all they had to offer, Allah commanded His Messenger (ﷺ) to respond in a way to alarm them, so He said: ﴿Say: Yes﴾ you will be resurrected, you and your forefathers ﴿and you will be humiliated﴾ that is, brought low; it is not beyond Allah's power to resurrect you.

﴿It will be but a single blast﴾ that Isrâfeel will blow on the Trumpet ﴿and immediately they﴾ will be resurrected from their graves and ﴿will be [alive and] looking around﴾. As they were initially created, they will be resurrected: whole in body, barefoot, naked and uncircumcised. In that state they will show their regret, disgrace and loss, and they will call out (wishing) for death (cf. 25: 13).

﴿They will say: Woe to us! This is the Day of Judgement!﴾ They will affirm that which they used to ridicule in this world.

But it will be said to them: ﴿This is the Day of Decision﴾ among people, and between them and their Lord, regarding that concerning which they differed among themselves of rights and duties, and between them and other people.

﴿أَخْشَرُوا الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا وَأَزْوَاجَهُمْ وَمَا كَانُوا يَعْبُدُونَ﴾ (٢٢) مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ فَأَهْدُوهُمْ إِلَى صِرَاطِ
الْحَنِيمِ ﴿٢٣﴾ وَقَفُّوهُمْ إِيَّاهُمْ مَسْئُولُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾ مَا لَكُمْ لَا تَنَاصَرُونَ ﴿٢٥﴾ بَلْ هُمْ الْيَوْمَ مُتَسَائِمُونَ
(سورة الصافات: ٢٢-٢٦)

- 37:22. [Allah will command:] Gather together those who did wrong, and others of their ilk, as well as whatever they used to worship 37:23. besides Allah, and direct them to the path of hell.
37:24. But detain them, for they are to be questioned.
37:25. [Allah will say to them:] What is the matter with you, that you do not help one another?
37:26. Rather on that day they will submit completely.

That is, when they are brought on the Day of Resurrection, and they see with their own eyes that which they disbelieved in and used to ridicule, the command will be issued to take them to the fire, which they used to disbelieve in, and it will be said:

﴿Gather together those who did wrong﴾ that is, they wronged themselves by disbelieving, ascribing partners to Allah and committing sins

﴿and others of their ilk﴾ who did similar deeds. Each person will be joined to others who were like him in misdeeds.

﴿as well as whatever they used to worship besides Allah﴾ such as the idols and rivals that they claimed; gather them all together, ﴿and direct them to the path of hell﴾ that is, drive them violently to hell.

﴿But﴾ after it has become clear to them that their fate is hell and they know that they are among the people who are destined for the realm of doom, it will be said:

﴿detain them﴾ before you take them to hell

﴿for they are to be questioned﴾ about what they used to fabricate in this world, so that their lies and fabrications will be made clear before the witnesses.

Then it will be said to them: ﴿What is the matter with you, that you do not help one another?﴾ That is, what has happened to you today? What has befallen you, so that you do not help one another or support one another, after you used to claim in the previous world that your gods would ward off the punishment from you and help you, and they would intercede for you with Allah? It is as if they will not answer this question, because they will be overcome with humiliation and shame; they will submit to the punishment of the fire and will surrender, having lost all hope, so they will not speak. Hence Allah says: ﴿Rather on that day they will submit completely﴾.

﴿وَأَقْبَلَ بَعْضُهُمْ عَلَى بَعْضٍ يَتَسَاءَلُونَ﴾ (٧) ﴿قَالُوا إِنَّكُمْ كُنْتُمْ تَأْتُونَنَا عَنِ الْيَمِينِ﴾ (٢٨) ﴿قَالُوا بَلْ لَمْ تَكُونُوا مُؤْمِنِينَ﴾ (٢٩) ﴿وَمَا كَانَ لَنَا عَلَيْكُمْ مِنْ سُلْطَانٍ بَلْ كُنْتُمْ قَوْمًا طَٰغِينَ﴾ (٣٠) ﴿فَحَقَّ عَلَيْنَا قَوْلُ رَبِّنَا إِنَّا لَذَٰبِقُونَ﴾ (٣١) ﴿فَأَعْوَبْتَكُمْ إِنَّا كُنَّا غَٰوِينَ﴾ (٣٢) ﴿فَإِنَّهُمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ فِي الْعَذَابِ مُشْتَرِكُونَ﴾ (٣٣) ﴿إِنَّا كَذَٰلِكَ نَفْعَلُ بِالْمُجْرِمِينَ﴾ (٣٤) ﴿إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا إِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ يَسْتَكْبِرُونَ﴾ (٣٥) ﴿وَيَقُولُونَ إِنَّا لَنَارِكُوا إِلَهَئِنَّا لِلشَّاعِرِ نَجْنُومِ﴾ (٣٦) ﴿بَلْ جَاءَ بِالْحَقِّ وَصَدَّقَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ﴾ (٣٧) ﴿إِنَّكُمْ لَذَٰبِقُوا الْعَذَابِ الْآلِيمِ﴾ (٣٨) ﴿وَمَا تَجْزُونَ إِلَّا مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ﴾ (٣٩) ﴿سورة

الصافات: ٢٧-٣٩)

37:27. They will turn upon one another,<sup>44</sup> reproaching one another.

37:28. They [the followers] will say [to the leaders]: You used to prevent us from doing what is right [and good].

37:29. [The leaders] will say [to the followers]: Rather it was you who would not believe,

<sup>44</sup> The misguided disbelievers will turn to their leaders and reproach them

- 37:30. and we had no power over you. Rather it was you who were a people given to transgression.
- 37:31. Now the punishment of our Lord has become inevitable for us; we will surely taste it.
- 37:32. We led you astray, for we ourselves had gone astray.
- 37:33. Verily on that day they will all share in the punishment.
- 37:34. Indeed that is how We will deal with the evildoers,
- 37:35. for when it was said to them: There is no god but Allah they would turn away in arrogance
- 37:36. and say: Are we to abandon our gods for the sake of a mad poet?
- 37:37. Rather he has brought the truth and confirmed the [message of the earlier] Messengers.
- 37:38. You [O disbelievers] will surely taste the painful punishment,
- 37:39. but you will not be requited for anything other than what you used to do.

---

When they are gathered together with others of their ilk and their gods, and taken to the path of hell, and they are detained and questioned but do not answer, they will then turn upon one another, blaming one another for having gone astray and led them astray. The followers will say to the leaders:

﴿You used to prevent us from doing what is right [and good]﴾ that is, you used to prevent us by force and power, so you led us astray. Were it not for you, we would have been believers.

﴿[The leaders] will say﴾ to them:

﴿Rather it was you who would not believe﴾ that is, you continued to ascribe partners to Allah as we did, so what makes you better than us? What right do you have to blame us?

﴿and﴾ in fact ﴿we had no power over you﴾ that is, we did not force you to choose disbelief;

﴿Rather it was you who were a people given to transgression﴾ and you overstepped the mark.

﴿Now the punishment of our Lord has become inevitable for us﴾ that is, for us and for you;
 ﴿we will surely taste it﴾ that is, the punishment, and this is the will and decree of our Lord, that we and you should taste the punishment and share the suffering.

Therefore, ﴿We led you astray, for we ourselves had gone astray﴾ that is, we called you to the path that we were following, which was the path of misguidance, and you responded to our call, so do not blame us; rather blame yourselves.

﴿Verily on that day﴾ namely the Day of Resurrection, ﴿they will all share in the punishment﴾, even though the severity of the punishment will vary according to the extent of their sins. Just as they shared disbelief in this world, they will share the consequences thereof in the hereafter. Hence Allah says: ﴿Indeed that is how We will deal with the evildoers﴾.

Then Allah states that their evil-doing was extreme and went beyond all bounds:

﴿for when it was said to them: There is no god but Allah﴾ and they were called to this message and were instructed to abandon all other gods,
 ﴿they would turn away in arrogance﴾ from the message and from the one who brought it.

﴿and say﴾ objecting to it: ﴿Are we to abandon our gods﴾ whom we and our forefathers have continued to worship,
 ﴿for the sake of﴾ and the words of
 ﴿a mad poet?﴾ They were referring thereby to Muhammad (ﷺ). And they did not stop at turning away from him or simply rejecting him; rather they judged him in the most unfair manner and deemed him to be a mad poet, when they were well aware that he knew nothing of poetry or poets, and his character was not that of a poet; rather he was the most wise of Allah's creation and the most mature in thinking.

Hence Allah (ﷻ) said, refuting their accusation: «Rather he» namely Muhammad (ﷺ) «has brought the truth» that is, his coming is true, and what he has brought of teachings and the Qur'an is true «and confirmed the [message of the earlier] Messengers» that is, his coming confirms what the Messengers foretold concerning him. Were it not for his coming and his message, the Messengers would not have been telling the truth. Therefore he is a sign and a miracle of every Messenger who came before him, because they spoke of him and foretold his coming, and Allah took from them their covenant and pledge that if he came to them, they would surely believe in him and support him, and they took the same promise from their nations. So when he came, the truthfulness of the Messengers who came before him became apparent, and the falsehood of those who disagreed with them became clear. If it had so happened that he did not come, when they had foretold his coming, that would have shed doubts on their truthfulness.

The truthfulness of the Messengers was also confirmed by the fact that he brought that which they brought and called to that to which they called, and he believed in them and confirmed the soundness of their message, their prophethood and their laws.

Because they said earlier (in 37: 31) «we will surely taste it», which may or may not be true, Allah (ﷻ) tells us in decisive terms, that cannot be but true and certain, because it is He Who says it: «You [O disbelievers] will surely taste the painful punishment, but you will not be requited», by being made to taste the painful punishment, «for anything other than what you used to do» – We did not wrong you; rather We have been just towards you.

Because the wording used here is general, and what is meant here is the polytheists, Allah (ﷻ) excluded the believers from that, and said:

﴿إِلَّا عِبَادَ اللَّهِ الْمُخْلَصِينَ﴾ ٤٠ ﴿أُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ رِزْقٌ مَّعْلُومٌ﴾ ٤١ ﴿فَوَكَّهٖ وَهُمْ مَّكْرُمُونَ﴾ ٤٢ ﴿فِي جَنَّاتِ النَّعِيمِ﴾ ٤٣ ﴿عَلَى سُرُرٍ مُّتَقَابِلِينَ﴾ ٤٤ ﴿يُطَافُ عَلَيْهِمْ بِكَأْسٍ مِّنْ مَّعِينٍ﴾ ٤٥ ﴿بَيْضَاءَ لَّدُنَّ لِلشَّرَبِ﴾ ٤٦ ﴿لَا فِيهَا غَوْلٌ وَلَا هُمْ عَنْهَا يُنْزَفُونَ﴾ ٤٧ ﴿وَعِنْدَهُمْ قَاصِرَاتُ الطَّرْفِ عِينٌ﴾ ٤٨ ﴿كَأَنَّهُنَّ بَيْضٌ مَّكْنُونٌ﴾ ٤٩ ﴿﴾ (سورة الصافات: ٤٠-٤٩)

37:40. However, for the chosen [and sincere] slaves of Allah

37:41. there will be provisions that are known [for their beauty and delicious taste],

37:42. fruits of various kinds; and they will be honoured

37:43. in gardens of delight,

37:44. seated on couches facing one another.

37:45. A cup will be passed around among them with wine from a flowing spring, 37:46. white and delicious to those who drink it.

37:47. It will not cause any harm, nor will they be intoxicated by it.

37:48. And with them will be chaste women with big beautiful eyes who restrain their glances,<sup>45</sup>

37:49. as if they are eggs<sup>46</sup> carefully guarded.

﴿However, for the chosen [and sincere] slaves of Allah﴾ they will not taste the painful punishment, because they were sincere to Allah in their deeds. Therefore He chose them and singled them out for His mercy, and showered them with His grace.

﴿there will be provisions that are known﴾ that is, they are not unknown; rather it is an immense provision, the type and quality of which is not unknown, and no one could know its nature.

<sup>45</sup> They are the ḥoor al-‘een, who will be content with their husbands and will not look at other men.

<sup>46</sup> This refers to their colour, as they are fair and unblemished.

Then Allah explains that by saying: ﴿fruits of various kinds﴾ that is, all types of fruits that one would enjoy because of its delicious colour and taste

﴿and they will be honoured﴾ that is, they will not be despised or looked down upon; rather they will be respected, appreciated and dignified.

They will honour one another and the angels will honour them, entering upon them from every gate and congratulating them for having attained this great honour. And they will be honoured by the Most Generous of those who show generosity, Who will bestow upon them all kinds of blessings that will bring joy to their hearts and souls.

﴿in gardens of delight﴾ that is, in gardens that are filled with joy and happiness because of what they contain of all sorts of bliss, such as no eye has seen, no ear has heard, nor has it crossed the mind of man, and they are free of all that could spoil their delights, of any kinds of stresses and troubles.

One of the ways in which they will be honoured by their Lord and will honour one another is that they will be ﴿seated on couches﴾ which are raised seats adorned with all kinds of fine and beautiful cloth. They will be reclining on these couches in a way that reflects comfort, serenity and joy, ﴿facing one another﴾ and their hearts will be free of rancour, their love will not be tainted with any element of hate, and they will be delighted to be together, facing one another in a manner that is indicative of the harmony between their hearts. They will show proper etiquette to one another, not turning their backs on one another; rather the fact that they are described as facing one another is indicative of their perfect joy and perfect etiquette towards one another.

﴿A cup will be passed around among them with wine from a flowing spring﴾ that is, boys who are ready to serve them will go around with delicious drinks, in beautiful cups, filled with nectar scented with musk; these will be cups of wine, but that wine will be different from the wine of this world in all aspects. In colour it is ﴿white﴾ which is one of the best of colours, and in taste it will be ﴿delicious to those who drink it﴾; the one who drinks it will enjoy it whilst drinking it and afterwards.

It will be free of anything that may harm the mind or cause the drinker to lose his mind; he will not become intoxicated by it and it will not lead to any headache or hangover.

Having told us of the food, drink and gatherings of the people of paradise, and the delights, in general terms and in detail, that are included in the phrase ﴿gardens of delight﴾, so that people may know what is there, and thus they will long for it, Allah now speaks of their spouses, saying:

﴿And with them will be chaste women with big beautiful eyes who restrain their glances﴾ that is, with the people of paradise, with big beautiful eyes, reaching the pinnacle of beauty and restraining their glances.

What is meant is either that this beautiful and chaste woman restrains her glance and looks only at her husband, because of her chastity, and she does not look beyond him to anyone else, and because of the perfection and beauty of her husband, which is such that she does not want anyone else in paradise but him; or it may be the phrase translated as ﴿restrain their glances﴾ means that they are so beautiful that the husband looks only at his spouse, and restrains his glance which indicates that his thoughts and love are only for her. Both meanings are possible and both are sound.

All of this is indicative of the beauty of both men and women in paradise and their love for one another, which is such that no one would look at anyone else and they will all be extremely chaste; there will be no envy or resentment or grudges, because of the absence of the causes thereof.

﴿with big beautiful eyes﴾ this refers to the beauty of the eye and its lovely shape

«as if they» namely the ḥoor al-‘een «are eggs carefully guarded» that is, covered. That is because of their beauty and purity, and indicates that their colours are the most beautiful of colours and the most delightful to behold, with no blemishes or dark patches.

﴿فَأَقْبَلَ بَعْضُهُمْ عَلَى بَعْضٍ يَتَسَاءَلُونَ ﴿٥٠﴾ قَالَ قَائِلٌ مِنْهُمْ إِنِّي كَانَ لِي قَرِينٌ ﴿٥١﴾ يَقُولُ
 أَإِنَّكَ لَمِنَ الْمُصْذِقِينَ ﴿٥٢﴾ أَوَدَا مِنَّا وَكُنَّا تَرَابًا وَعِظْلًا أَوْنَا لَمْعِدِينُونَ ﴿٥٣﴾ قَالَ هَلْ أَنْتُمْ
 مُطْلِعُونَ ﴿٥٤﴾ فَأُطْلِعَ قَرَاءَهُ فِي سَوَاءِ الْجَحِيمِ ﴿٥٥﴾ قَالَ تَاللَّهِ إِن كِدْتَ لَتُرْدِينَ ﴿٥٦﴾ وَلَوْلَا
 نِعْمَةُ رَبِّي لَكُنْتُ مِنَ الْمُحْضَرِينَ ﴿٥٧﴾ أَفَمَا نَحْنُ بِمَبْتَلَيْنِ ﴿٥٨﴾ إِلَّا مَوَلَّتْنَا الْأُولَىٰ وَمَا نَحْنُ
 بِمُعَذِّبِينَ ﴿٥٩﴾ إِنَّ هَذَا هُوَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ ﴿٦٠﴾ لِمِثْلِ هَذَا فَلْيَعْمَلِ الْعَامِلُونَ ﴿٦١﴾﴾ (سورة الصفافات: ٥٠-٦١)

- 37:50. They will turn to one another with questions.
 37:51. One of them will say: I had a friend [on earth],
 37:52. who used to say: Are you one of those who believe 37:53. that when we have died and become dust and bones, we will be brought to account?
 37:54. He will say: Shall we look for him [in the fire]?
 37:55. So he will look down and see him in the middle of the blazing fire.
 37:56. He will say: By Allah, you almost brought about my ruin!
 37:57. Were it not for the grace of my Lord, I too would have been there [in hell].
 37:58. Is it then that we are not going to die,
 37:59. except our first death, and that we will not be punished?
 37:60. Surely this is the supreme triumph!
 37:61. For the like of this let all strive, who wish to strive.

Having described their bliss and perfect happiness, with food and drink, beautiful spouses and splendid places to sit, Allah now describes how they will converse with one another and speak of matters of the past, and they will continue talking and asking one another questions, until the conversation leads to one of them saying:

«I had a friend» in the former world who denied the resurrection and criticised me for believing in it, and he «used to say» to me: «Are you one of those who believe that when we have died and become dust and bones, we will be brought to account» that is, required for our deeds?

In other words (this disbelieving friend asked): How can you believe such a far-fetched notion which is very strange, that when we have disintegrated and become dust and bones, we will be resurrected and brought back to life, then we will be brought to account and required for our deeds?

The one who is in paradise will say to his brethren: this is my story and this is what happened between me and my friend; I was and remained a true believer, whilst he did not believe in the resurrection and persisted in denying it until we died, then we were resurrected, and I attained what you see of bliss, which the Messengers told us about, and he has undoubtedly ended up in pain and suffering.

«Shall we look for him [in the fire]» and see what happened to him, for it will increase our joy and happiness with what we are enjoying, when we see that with our own eyes?

What appears to be the case, with regard to what the people of paradise have of joy in being together and in harmony with one another, is that they will respond to what he says and will go with him to look at his friend.

«So he will look down» and will see his friend «in the middle of the blazing fire» that is, in the midst of torment, overwhelmed and surrounded by punishment.

﴿He will say﴾, blaming him for his predicament and expressing gratitude to Allah for His blessing in saving him from his friend's attempt to mislead him:

﴿By Allah, you almost brought about my ruin!﴾ That is, you almost destroyed me because of what you tried to confuse me with of your specious arguments.

﴿Were it not for the grace of my Lord﴾ and His making me steadfast in Islam

﴿I too would have been there [in hell]﴾, suffering the punishment with you.

﴿Is it then that we are not going to die, except our first death, and that we will not be punished?﴾ That is, the believer will say this, overjoyed with the blessing that Allah will bestow upon the people of paradise, of remaining there for ever and being safe from punishment. It is a question in the sense of an affirmation. In other words, he will say to his friend who is now being punished: Do you still claim that we will not die, except our first death, and that there will be no resurrection or punishment after that?

In the phrase ﴿They will turn to one another with questions﴾ (37: 50), the object of the question is not mentioned, but the context is one of joy and happiness, which indicates that they will ask one another about whatever matters will bring them joy, and they will discuss issues concerning which there were disputes and confusion.

It is well known that people of knowledge find joy in raising questions about issues and researching matters, and that joy is greater than the pleasure that other people find in discussing worldly matters. So they will have an abundant share of this kind of joy, and they will attain discovery of some facts in paradise that cannot be expressed.

Having mentioned the bliss of paradise and described it in these beautiful terms, Allah (ﷻ) praises it and makes those who are striving long for it, and He encourages them to strive even harder:

«Surely this is the supreme triumph» by virtue of which they attain all that is good and all that their hearts desire, and everything that concerns them or harms them is warded off thereby. Could there be any greater triumph to be sought, or is this the ultimate, as they have attained the pleasure of the Lord of the earth and the heavens, and have found the joy of being near to Him and knowing Him, seeing Him and listening to His words?

«For the like of this let all strive, who wish to strive» for it is the most deserving of spending that which is most precious, and it is the first thing for which smart and knowledgeable people should strive, and it is the source of the greatest regret if the diligent person lets any time pass without doing righteous deeds that will bring him closer to paradise, so how about if he does deeds that bring him closer to the fire?

﴿أَذْلِكَ خَيْرٌ نَزْلًا أَمْ شَجَرَةُ الزَّقُّومِ﴾ (٦٢) إِنَّا جَعَلْنَاهَا فِتْنَةً لِلظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٦٣﴾ إِنَّهَا شَجَرَةٌ تَخْرُجُ فِي أَصْلِ الْجَحِيمِ ﴿٦٤﴾ طَلْعُهَا كَأَنَّهُ رُءُوسُ الشَّيَاطِينِ ﴿٦٥﴾ فَإِنَّهُمْ لَا يَكُونُونَ مِنْهَا فَمَالًا تَوَدُّ مِنْهَا الْبَطُونَ ﴿٦٦﴾ ثُمَّ إِنَّ لَهُمْ عَلَيْهَا لَشَوَابًا مِّنْ حَمِيمٍ ﴿٦٧﴾ ثُمَّ إِنَّ مَرْجِعَهُمْ لَإِلَى الْجَحِيمِ ﴿٦٨﴾ إِنَّهُمْ أَلفَاءُ آبَاءٍ مُّرضَالَيْنِ ﴿٦٩﴾ فَهُمْ عَلَىٰ ءَاتِرِهِمْ هُمْرُونَ ﴿٧٠﴾ وَلَقَدْ ضَلَّ قَبْلَهُمْ أَكْثَرُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿٧١﴾ وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا فِيهِمْ مُّنْذِرِينَ ﴿٧٢﴾ فَأَنْظَرَكِيْفَ كَانَ عَقِبُهُ الْمُّنْذِرِينَ ﴿٧٣﴾ إِلَّا عِبَادَ اللَّهِ الْمُّخْلِصِينَ ﴿٧٤﴾

(سورة الصافات: ٦٢-٧٤)

37:62. Is that the better dwelling place, or the tree of Zaqqoom?<sup>47</sup>

<sup>47</sup> The contrast here is between paradise and all that it contains of pleasure, joy, delicious food and drink, and so on, and hell with the bitter fruit borne by the infernal tree of Zaqqoom.

- 37:63. Verily We have made it a torment for the wrongdoers.
 37:64. It is a tree that grows from the depths of hell;
 37:65. Its fruits are like the heads of devils.
 37:66. They will surely eat thereof, filling their bellies.
 37:67. Then on top of that they will be given a mixture of filthy, scalding water to drink, 37:68. Then to hell will they return.<sup>48</sup>
 37:69. For they found their fathers going astray
 37:70. and they hastened to follow in their footsteps.
 37:71. Indeed before them many of the earlier peoples went astray
 37:72. even though We sent Messengers to them to warn them.
 37:73. So see what was the fate of those who had been forewarned [but did not pay heed],
 37:74. except the chosen [and sincere] slaves of Allah.

﴿Is that the better dwelling place﴾ that is, is that bliss of the people of paradise, that We have described, better – or the punishment in hell that will involve all kinds of torment? And which of the two foods is better – that which We have described in paradise, or the food of the people of hell? It is ﴿the tree of Zaqqoom. Verily We have made it a torment﴾ that is, a punishment ﴿for the wrongdoers﴾ who wronged themselves by disbelieving and committing sins.

﴿It is a tree that grows from the depths of hell﴾ that is, from the middle of hell. That is where it emerges, and the substance of which it is made is the worst of substances. The vileness of the place where it grows is indicative of how vile and foul this plant is. Hence Allah draws our attention to its vile nature by mentioning where it grows and the way in which He describes its fruits, for they are ﴿like the heads of devils﴾. After that, do not ask about its taste, or what it will do to their insides and their bellies; they will have no other food and they will have no choice but to eat it.

<sup>48</sup> The place where they will drink this filthy, scalding water will be outside hell; they will be taken there to drink it, then they will be brought back into hell.

Hence Allah says: ﴿They will surely eat thereof, filling their bellies﴾. This is the food of the people of hell, and how awful their food will be.

Then Allah mentions their drink: ﴿Then on top of that﴾ that is, after that food, ﴿they will be given a mixture of filthy, scalding water to drink﴾ that is, water that is extremely hot. This is like the verses in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿...If they cry for help, they will be given water like [boiling] dregs of oil that will scald their faces. What a dreadful drink, and what a miserable resting-place!﴾ (al-Kahf 18: 29)

– and:

﴿...and be given scalding water to drink that will tear their intestines﴾ (Muhammad 47: 15)

﴿Then to hell will they return﴾ their abode to which they will return will be hell, so that they may taste its severe punishment and extreme heat. There is nothing more wretched than that.

It is as if it was asked: what brought them to this abode? So Allah says: ﴿For they found their fathers going astray and they hastened to follow in their footsteps﴾ that is, they hastened to follow them in misguidance, and they did not pay any attention to that to which the Messengers called them, or of that of which the Books warned them, or the words of those who offered sincere advice; rather they opposed them by saying:

﴿...We found our forefathers following a certain path, and we are following in their footsteps.﴾ (az-Zukhruf 43: 23)

«Indeed before them many of the earlier peoples went astray» before those who are addressed here, and few of them believed and were guided.

«even though We sent Messengers to them to warn them» against that misguidance.

«So see what was the fate of those who had been forewarned». Their fate was doom, disgrace and shame. So let these people beware of persisting in their misguidance, lest they meet the same fate.

Because those who were warned did not all go astray – rather some of them believed and were sincerely devoted to Allah – Allah states that they were exempted from doom, as He says: «except the chosen [and sincere] slaves of Allah» that is, those whom Allah chose and singled out for His mercy because of their sincerity; their end was good.

Then Allah mentions examples of the fate of disbelieving nations:

﴿وَلَقَدْ نَادَيْنَا نُوْحًا فَلَنِعْمَ الْمُجِيبُوْنَ ۝٧٥ وَنَجَّيْنَاهُ وَأَهْلَهُ مِنَ الْكَرْبِ الْعَظِيْمِ ۝٧٦ وَجَعَلْنَا ذُرِّيَّتَهُ هُمْ الْبَاقِيْنَ ۝٧٧ وَتَرَكْنَا عَلَيْهِ فِي الْآخِرِيْنَ ۝٧٨ سَلَامٌ عَلَىٰ نُوْحٍ فِي الْعَالَمِيْنَ ۝٧٩ اِنَّا كَذٰلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُحْسِنِيْنَ ۝٨٠ اِنَّهُمْ مِنْ عِبَادِنَا الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ۝٨١ ثُمَّ اَعْرَفْنَا الْآخِرِيْنَ ۝٨٢﴾ (سورة الصافات: ٧٥-٨٢)

37:75. Indeed Nooh called upon Us, and how excellent was Our response!

37:76. We saved him and his family from great distress

37:77. and We made his offspring the only survivors.

37:78. We left for him [a favourable mention] among subsequent generations:

37:79. Peace be upon Nooh among all nations.

37:80. Thus do We reward those who do good.

37:81. Verily he was one of Our believing slaves.

37:82. Then We drowned the others.

Here Allah tells us about His slave and Messenger Nooh (ﷺ), the first of the Messengers. When he called his people to Allah for that lengthy period and his call only increased them in aversion, he called upon his Lord and said:

﴿...My Lord, do not leave on earth a single living soul from among the disbelievers.﴾ (Nooh 71: 26)

– and:

﴿...O my Lord, help me against those who spread mischief.﴾ (al-'Ankaboot 29: 30)

Allah answered his prayer and praised Himself, saying: ﴿and how excellent was Our response﴾.

Allah responded in a way that was exactly what Nooh asked for: He saved him and his family from great distress, drowned all the disbelievers and left his offspring to produce future generations. So all people are descended from Nooh (ﷺ). And Allah granted him a favourable mention that would endure until the time of later generations, because he did well in worshipping the Creator and showed kindness to His creation. This is Allah's way with those who do good: He causes them to be mentioned favourably, commensurate with their good deeds.

The words ﴿Verily he was one of Our believing slaves﴾ indicate that faith is the highest status anyone can attain, and that it includes all teachings of religion, both fundamental and minor issues, because Allah praised the elite of His creation for having faith.

﴿ وَاتَّ مِنْ شَيْعَتِهِ لِإِبْرَاهِيمَ ﴿٨٣﴾ إِذْ جَاءَ رَبَّهُ بِقَلْبٍ سَلِيمٍ ﴿٨٤﴾ إِذْ قَالَ لِأَبِيهِ
وَقَوْمِهِ مَاذَا تَعْبُدُونَ ﴿٨٥﴾ أَفَبِكُلِّ إِلَهَةٍ دُونِ اللَّهِ تُرِيدُونَ ﴿٨٦﴾ فَمَا ظَنُّكُمْ بِرَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٨٧﴾
فَنظَرَنظَرَةً فِي النُّجُومِ ﴿٨٨﴾ فَقَالَ إِنِّي سَقِيمٌ ﴿٨٩﴾ فَتَوَلَّوْا عَنْهُ مُدْبِرِينَ ﴿٩٠﴾ فَرَاغَ
إِلَىٰ آلِهِمْ فَقَالَ أَلَا تَأْكُلُونَ ﴿٩١﴾ مَا لَكُمْ لَا تَنْطِقُونَ ﴿٩٢﴾ فَرَاغَ عَلَيْهِمْ صَرْبًا بِالْيَمِينِ ﴿٩٣﴾
فَأَقْبَلُوا إِلَيْهِ يَرِفُونَ ﴿٩٤﴾ قَالَ اتَّعَبُدُونَ مَا تَنْجِيحُونَ ﴿٩٥﴾ وَاللَّهُ خَلَقَكُمْ وَمَا تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٩٦﴾
قَالُوا اتَّبِعْنَا لَهٗ بُيُوتًا فَاَلْقَوْهُ فِي الْجَحِيمِ ﴿٩٧﴾ فَأَرَادُوا بِهِ كَيْدًا فَجَعَلْنَاهُمُ الْأَسْفَلِينَ ﴿٩٨﴾
وَقَالَ إِنِّي ذَاهِبٌ إِلَىٰ رَبِّي سَيِّدِينَ ﴿٩٩﴾ رَبِّ هَبْ لِي مِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ ﴿١٠٠﴾ فَبَشَّرْنَاهُ
بِعِزِّهِ حَلِيمٍ ﴿١٠١﴾ فَمَا بَلَغَ مَعَهُ السَّعَىٰ فَكَالَ يَبْنَىٰ إِنِّي أَرَىٰ فِي الْمَنَامِ أَنِّي أَذْبُهَاقُ
فَأَنْظُرْ مَاذَا تَرَىٰ ﴿١٠٢﴾ قَالَ يَتَابَعْتُ أَفْعَلُ مَا تُؤْمَرُ سَتَجِدُنِي إِن شَاءَ اللَّهُ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ﴿١٠٣﴾
فَلَمَّا أَسْلَمَا وَتَلَّهُ لِلْجَبِينِ ﴿١٠٤﴾ وَنَدَيْنَاهُ أَنْ يَتَّبِعِهِ ﴿١٠٥﴾ قَدْ صَدَّقْتَ الرُّؤْيَا إِنَّا كَذَلِكَ
نَجْزِي الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿١٠٦﴾ إِنَّ هَذَا لَمَوْ أَلْبَلَأُوا الْمِثْلَ ﴿١٠٧﴾ وَقَدَيْنَاهُ بِذَبْحٍ عَظِيمٍ ﴿١٠٨﴾
وَتَرَكْنَا عَلَيْهِ فِي الْآخِرِينَ ﴿١٠٩﴾ سَلَامٌ عَلَىٰ إِبْرَاهِيمَ ﴿١١٠﴾ كَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿١١١﴾ إِنَّهُ
مِنْ عِبَادِنَا الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١١٢﴾ وَبَشَّرْنَاهُ بِإِسْحَاقَ نَبِيًّا مِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ ﴿١١٣﴾ ﴿سورة الصافات:﴾

(١١٢-٨٣)

37:83. Verily among those who followed his way was Ibrâheem, 37:84. for he came to his Lord with a pure heart.

37:85. He said to his father and his people: What are these that you worship?

37:86. Is it falsehood – gods other than Allah – that you seek?

37:87. What, then, do you think of the Lord of the worlds?<sup>49</sup>

<sup>49</sup> That is, what shortcomings do you think He has, so that you worship gods other than Him?

- 37:88. Then he cast a glance at the stars<sup>50</sup>
 37:89. and said: Indeed I am sick.<sup>51</sup>
 37:90. So his people turned away from him and left.
 37:91. Then he turned upon their gods and said: Will you not eat?
 37:92. What is the matter with you that you do not speak?
 37:93. Then he turned upon them, striking them with his right hand,<sup>52</sup>
 37:94. and his people came rushing towards him.
 37:95. He said: Do you worship that which you yourselves carve, 37:96. when it is Allah Who has created you and everything you make?
 37:97. They said: Build a pyre for him and throw him into the blazing fire.
 37:98. They planned to harm him, but We brought them low.
 37:99. He said: I am going to [a land where I may freely worship] my Lord; He will guide me.
 37:100. My Lord, grant me a righteous son.
 37:101. So We gave the glad tidings of a forbearing son.
 37:102. Then when [the son] reached the age where he could help him in his endeavours, Ibrâheem said: O my son, I see in my dream that I must sacrifice you. What do you think? [The son] said: O my father, do as you are commanded. You will find me, if Allah so wills, among the steadfast.
 37:103. So when they had both submitted to the command of Allah, and Ibrâheem had laid his son face down on the ground,

---

<sup>50</sup> That is, he looked up, thinking of an excuse so that he could avoid going out with the people for their festival.

<sup>51</sup> This could refer to physical sickness, or being sick of his people's disbelief and worship of idols. This was a double-entendre by means of which he avoided lying, whilst his people might understand something other than what was actually the case.

<sup>52</sup> What is meant is that he struck them with force, because the right hand is usually stronger than the left.

- 37:104. We called out to him: O Ibrâheem, 37:105. you have already fulfilled the dream. Thus do We reward those who do good,
 37:106. for this was clearly the most difficult of tests.
 37:107. And We ransomed him with a tremendous sacrifice.
 37:108. We left for him [a favourable mention] among subsequent generations:
 37:109. Peace be upon Ibrâheem.
 37:110. Thus do We reward those who do good.
 37:111. Verily he was one of Our believing slaves.
 37:112. We gave him the glad tidings of Is-hâq, a Prophet, one of the righteous.

That is, among the party of Nooh (ﷺ) and those who followed his path of prophethood and conveying the message, calling people to Allah and answering that call, was Ibrâheem al-Khaleel (ﷺ).

﴿for he came to his Lord with a pure heart﴾ that was free of doubt and desires that prevent one from understanding the truth and acting upon it. If a person's heart is pure, he will be safe from all evil and will attain all good.

As a result of being pure, Ibrâheem was free of ill feelings and envy towards people, and other bad attitudes. Hence he sincerely advised others about Allah, starting with his father and his own people: ﴿He said to his father and his people: What are these that you worship?﴾ This was a question by way of denunciation and establishing binding proof.

﴿Is it falsehood – gods other than Allah – that you seek?﴾ That is, do you worship – besides Him – false gods that are not gods at all and are not fit to be worshipped? What do you think the Lord of the worlds will do to you, when you worship others besides Him? This was warning them of the requital for persisting in their ascription of partners to Allah.

(It was as if he was saying): what do you think the Lord of the worlds has of shortcomings, so that you ascribed rivals and partners to Him?

Ibrâheem (عليه السلام) wanted to break the idols and find a way to do so. He took the opportunity of their heedlessness when they went to celebrate one of their festivals. He went out with them, «Then he cast a glance at the stars and said: Indeed I am sick». According to the ṣaḥeeḥ hadith:

«Ibrâheem only lied on three occasions: when he said «Indeed I am sick», when he said:

«...Nay, it was this one, the biggest of them, who did it...» (al-Anbiyâ' 21: 63)

– and when he said of his wife: She is my sister.» (A sound hadith recorded by at-Tirmidhi)

The aim of his staying behind and not going out with them was so that he could carry out his plan concerning their gods.

«So his people turned away from him and left». When he found the opportunity,

«Then he turned upon their gods» that is, he rushed to them, stealthily, «and said» to them, by way of ridiculing them:

«Will you not eat? What is the matter with you that you do not speak?» That is, how can it be appropriate for them to be worshipped when they are more helpless than animals which eat and make sounds? For these are inanimate things that do not eat or speak.

«Then he turned upon them, striking them with his right hand» that is, he began to strike them with force, until he broke them to pieces, except the largest one of them, so that the people would come back to it.

«and his people came rushing» that is, running «towards him», wanting to attack him, after having investigated the matter. They said:

﴿...Who has done this to our gods? He must surely be one of the wrongdoers!﴾ (al-Anbiya' 21: 59)

It was said to them:

﴿...We heard a young man speaking ill of them; he is called Ibrâheem.﴾ (al-Anbiyâ' 21: 60)

He said:

﴿And, by Allah, I have a plan for your idols, after you leave.﴾ (al-Anbiyâ' 21: 57)

So they rebuked him and criticised him, but he said:

﴿...Nay, it was this one, the biggest of them, who did it. So ask them, if they can speak! So they started thinking and said to one another: Surely it is you who are doing wrong. But then they relapsed into their former obstinacy [and said]: You know full well that these [idols] cannot speak. Ibrâheem said: Do you then worship, besides Allah, that which cannot benefit or harm you in any way? Fie on you and on all that you worship besides Allah! Have you then no sense?﴾ (al-Anbiyâ' 21: 63-67)

﴿He said﴾ here: ﴿Do you worship that which you yourselves carve﴾ that is, you make it with your own hands and manufacture it yourselves? How can you worship them, when it is you who make them, and fail to show devotion to Allah alone, when it is He ﴿Who has created you and everything you make? They said: Build a pyre﴾ that is, a tall structure, and light a fire in it, ﴿and throw him into the blazing fire﴾ as a punishment for what he had done of breaking their gods.

﴿They planned to harm him﴾ that is, to kill him in the worst manner

﴿but We brought them low﴾. Allah caused their plan to backfire on them, and He made the fire cool and safe for Ibrâheem.

Because they did this to him, and he established proof against them and left them no excuse, ﴿He said: I am going to [a land where I may freely worship] my Lord» that is, I am migrating for His sake, heading towards the blessed land, the land of ash-Shâm (Greater Syria).

«He will guide me» that is, He will show me what is best for me in both my spiritual and worldly affairs. Elsewhere Allah tells us that Ibrâheem said:

«I will keep away from [and disavow] you and those on whom you call besides Allah, and I will call upon my Lord; perhaps my supplication to my Lord will not remain unanswered.» (Maryam 19: 48)

«My Lord, grant me a righteous son» that was when he despaired of his people and did not see anything good in them; he asked Allah to grant him a righteous son, by means of whom Allah would benefit him during his lifetime and after his death.

Allah answered his prayer, as He says: «So We gave the glad tidings of a forbearing son». This was undoubtedly Ismâ'eel (عليه السلام), because when Allah mentioned the glad tidings of Is-hâq, He mentioned his son Ya'qoob after him:

«...Then We gave her the glad tidings of Is-hâq and, after Is-hâq, of Ya'qoob.» (Hood 11: 71)

This indicates that Is-hâq was not the one who was to be sacrificed.

Allah described Ismâ'eel (عليه السلام) as forbearing, which implies that he was patient, had a good attitude, was big-hearted and was forgiving towards anyone who caused offence.

«Then when [the son] reached the age where he could help him in his endeavours» that is, he reached an age where he was the dearest he could be to his father, for there was no longer any trouble in looking after him and he could now be of benefit to him, Ibrâheem (عليه السلام) said to him:

«I see in my dream that I must sacrifice you» that is, I have seen in my dream that Allah is commanding me to sacrifice you. The dreams of the Prophets are revelation from Allah.

«What do you think?» For the command of Allah (ﷻ) must be fulfilled.

Ismâ'eel said, showing patience, seeking reward with Allah, and showing obedience to his father: «O my father, do as you are commanded» that is, go ahead and do what Allah has commanded you to do.

«You will find me, if Allah so wills, among the steadfast». Ismâ'eel told his father that he had resolved to be patient, and he mentioned the will of Allah (ﷻ) alongside that, because nothing happens except by Allah's will.

«So when they had both submitted to the command of Allah» that is, Ibrâheem and his son Ismâ'eel, when Ibrâheem resolved to kill his son, the apple of his eye, in obedience to the command of his Lord, and for fear of His punishment, and Ismâ'eel resolved to be patient, and regarded this ordeal as nothing, so as to obey his Lord and please his father.

«and Ibrâheem had laid his son face down on the ground» so that he could slaughter him. He made him lie with his face towards the ground, so that he would not have to look at his face at the moment of slaughter.

«We called out to him» at that tense moment, when he was about to do that astounding deed

«O Ibrâheem, you have already fulfilled the dream» that is, you have done what you were instructed to do, and you resolved to do it and took all the measures that were required, and now there is nothing left but to pass the knife over his throat.

«Thus do We reward those who do good» in worshipping Us, giving precedence to seeking Our pleasure over their own whims and desires.

«for this» with which We tested Ibrâheem (ﷺ) «was clearly the most difficult of tests» that is, through which the purity of Ibrâheem (ﷺ), his love for his Lord and the fact that he was indeed the close friend of Allah, were made manifest and became clear. When Allah bestowed Ismâ'eel (عليه السلام) upon Ibrâheem (عليه السلام), he loved him dearly, but he was also the close friend of the Most Gracious (Khaleel ar-Raḥmân), and close friendship is the highest level of love; it is a level of love in which there is no room to love anything else, a level which dictates that one be attached to one's beloved with all of one's heart.

As part of Ibrâheem's heart became attached to his son Ismâ'eel, Allah (ﷻ) wanted to make his entire heart attached to Him and to test how sincere and strong the bond of close friendship was. So He commanded him to slaughter the one whose love had competed with the love of his Lord.

But when Ibrâheem gave precedence to love of Allah over his own desires, and resolved to slaughter his son, all attachment to competitors was removed from his heart, whereupon there was no longer any benefit in slaughtering him. Hence Allah says:

﴿for this was clearly the most difficult of tests. And We ransomed him with a tremendous sacrifice﴾ that is, he was replaced with a great ram, which Ibrâheem slaughtered. It was great in terms of it being the ransom for Ismâ'eel, and in terms of it being one of the sublime acts of worship, and in terms of it being a means of drawing closer to Allah and a precedent to be followed until the Day of Resurrection.

﴿We left for him [a favourable mention] among subsequent generations: Peace be upon Ibrâheem﴾ that is, We left for him a favourable mention among the later generations, as was the case among earlier generations. In every subsequent era, Ibrâheem (عليه السلام) was and is inevitably loved, venerated and praised.

﴿Peace be upon Ibrâheem﴾ this is a salutation to him, as in the verse in which Allah says:

﴿Say: Praise be to Allah and peace be upon His slaves whom He has chosen...﴾ (an-Naml 27: 59)

«Thus do We reward those who do good» in worshipping Allah and in dealing with people; We grant them a way out from hardship and grant them a good end and honourable mention.

«Verily he was one of Our believing slaves» who believed in what Allah enjoined them to believe in, and whose faith reached the level of certainty, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

«Thus We gave Ibrâheem an insight into [Allah's] mighty dominion over the heavens and the earth, so that he might be one of those who have certain faith.» (al-An'âm 6: 75)

«We gave him the glad tidings of Is-hâq, a Prophet, one of the righteous» – this was the second glad tidings of Is-hâq, after whom came Ya'qoob. Allah gave the glad tidings that he would be born and would survive, and his offspring would survive, and that he would be a Prophet, one of the righteous. This was multiple glad tidings.

﴿وَبَارَكْنَا عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَىٰ إِسْحَاقَ وَمِنْ ذُرِّيَّتِهِمَا مُحْسِنٌ وَظَالِمٌ لِّنَفْسِهِ مُبِينٌ﴾

(سورة الصافات: ١١٣)

37:113. We blessed him and Is-hâq, but among their descendants are some who do good and some who clearly wrong themselves.

«We blessed him and Is-hâq» that is, We sent down upon them blessings. The implicit meaning of the word barakah (blessing) is growth and increase in knowledge, good deeds and offspring. From their offspring, Allah brought forth three great nations: the nation of the Arabs, from the offspring of Ismâ'eel; the nation of the Israelites; and the nation of the Romans (and Byzantines) from the offspring of Is-hâq.

﴿but among their descendants are some who do good and some who clearly wrong themselves﴾, that is, there are some who are righteous and some who are evildoers, some who are just and some wrongdoers whose wrongdoing became evident as a result of their disbelief and ascription of partners to Allah. Perhaps these words are aimed at warding off wrong impressions, because the words ﴿We blessed him and Is-hâq﴾ may give the impression that all their offspring are included in that blessing, and that part of the blessing is that all of their offspring should be doers of good. Therefore Allah (ﷻ) tells us that some of them are doers of good and some of them are wrongdoers. And Allah knows best.

﴿وَلَقَدْ مَنَّا عَلَىٰ مُوسَىٰ وَهَارُونَ ﴿١١٤﴾ وَجَعَلْنَاهُمَا قَوْمَهُمَا مِنَ الْكَرْبِ الْعَظِيمِ ﴿١١٥﴾ وَنَصَرْنَاهُم فَكَانُوا هُمُ الْفَائِزِينَ ﴿١١٦﴾ وَءَاتَيْنَاهُمَا الْكِتَابَ الْمُنِيرَ ﴿١١٧﴾ وَهَدَيْنَاهُمَا الصِّرَاطَ الْمُسْتَقِيمَ ﴿١١٨﴾ وَتَرَكْنَا عَلَيْهِمَا فِي الْأَخْيَرِ ﴿١١٩﴾ سَلَامًا عَلَىٰ مُوسَىٰ وَهَارُونَ ﴿١٢٠﴾ إِنَّا كَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿١٢١﴾ إِنَّهُمَا مِنْ عِبَادِنَا الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٢٢﴾﴾ (سورة الصافات: ١١٤-١٢٢)

- 37:114. Indeed We bestowed Our favour upon Moosâ and Hâroon, 37:115. and We saved them and their people from great distress, 37:116. And We helped them, so that they became the victors.
 37:117. We gave them [Moosâ and Hâroon] the clear scripture
 37:118. and guided them to the straight path;
 37:119. And We left for them [a favourable mention] among subsequent generations:
 37:120. Peace be upon Moosâ and Hâroon.
 37:121. Thus do We reward those who do good.
 37:122. Verily they were among Our believing slaves.

Here Allah mentions His favour to two of His slaves and Messengers, namely Moosâ and Hâroon, the two sons of 'Imrân, upon whom He bestowed prophethood and made them His Messengers who called people to Allah (ﷺ); He saved them and their people from their enemy, Pharaoh, and helped them against him, until Allah drowned him whilst they were looking on; and Allah sent down to them the clear scripture, namely the Torah which contained rulings, exhortations and explanation of all things. Allah guided them to the straight path by prescribing to them a religion with sound rulings and teachings that lead people to Allah, and He blessed them by enabling them to follow it.

﴿And We left for them [a favourable mention] among subsequent generations: Peace be upon Moosâ and Hâroon﴾ that is, Allah caused them to be highly spoken of and praised among subsequent generations, so it is more apt that this should have been the case among earlier generations. ﴿Thus do We reward those who do good. Verily they were among Our believing slaves﴾.

﴿وَإِنَّ إِيَّاسَ لَمِنَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿١٢٣﴾ إِذْ قَالَ لِقَوْمِهِ أَأَلَا تَتَّقُونَ ﴿١٢٤﴾ أَتَدْعُونَ بَعْلًا ﴿١٢٥﴾ وَتَذَرُونَ أَحْسَنَ الْخَالِقِينَ ﴿١٢٦﴾ اللَّهَ رَبَّكُمْ وَرَبَّ آبَائِكُمُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿١٢٧﴾ فَآتَاهُمُ الْمِحْضَرُونَ ﴿١٢٨﴾ إِلَّا عِبَادَ اللَّهِ الْمَخْلَصِينَ ﴿١٢٩﴾ وَتَرَكْنَا عَلَيْهِ فِي الْآخِرِينَ ﴿١٣٠﴾ سَلَامٌ عَلَى إِبْرَاهِيمَ ﴿١٣١﴾ إِنَّا كَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿١٣٢﴾ إِنَّهُ مِنْ عِبَادِنَا الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٣٣﴾﴾

(سورة الصافات: ١٢٣-١٣٢)

37:123. Verily Ilyâs was one of the Messengers.

37:124. He said to his people: Will you not fear Allah?

37:125. Do you call upon [the idol] Ba'l and forsake [the worship of] the Best of creators,

- 37:126. Allah, your Lord and the Lord of your forefathers?
 37:127. But they rejected him, so they will surely be brought up [for punishment],
 37:128. except the chosen [and sincere] slaves of Allah.
 37:129. And We left for him [a favourable mention] among subsequent generations:
 37:130. Peace be upon Ilyâs.
 37:131. Thus do We reward those who do good.
 37:132. Verily he was one of Our believing slaves.

Here Allah (ﷻ) praises His slave and Messenger Ilyâs (عليه السلام) for being a Prophet and Messenger, and for calling people to Allah, and tells us that he instructed his people to fear Allah and worship Allah alone, and he forbade them to worship an idol of theirs that was called Ba'l (Baal), and told them not to forsake the worship of Allah Who created humankind and created them well, cared for them in the best manner and bestowed upon them blessings both visible and invisible.

How could you forsake the worship of Allah, Who did all this, for the sake of worshipping an idol that can neither cause harm nor bring benefit, and can neither create nor grant provision; in fact it does not even eat or speak? Can this be anything but the worst misguidance, foolishness and error?

«But they rejected him» and what he called them to, and they did not follow him. Allah said, warning them: «so they will surely be brought up [for punishment]» that is, on the Day of Resurrection. But He did not mention any worldly punishment in their case.

«except the chosen [and sincere] slaves of Allah» that is, those whom Allah chose and blessed them by enabling them to follow their Prophet, so they will not be brought up for punishment; rather they will have a great reward from Allah.

«And We left for him» namely Ilyâs

«[a favourable mention] among subsequent generations», as he was highly spoken of.

«Peace be upon Ilyâs» that is, salutation from Allah and from His slaves to him.

«Thus do We reward those who do good. Verily he was one of Our believing slaves». Allah praised him as He praised his fellow Prophets. May the blessings and peace of Allah be upon them all.

﴿وَأَنَّ لُوطًا لِّمَنِ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ۝ إِذْ بَخَّسَتْهُ وَأَهْلَهُ أَجْمَعِينَ ۝ إِلَّا عَجُوزًا فِي الْغَابِرِينَ ۝ ثُمَّ دَمَرْنَا الْآخَرِينَ ۝ وَإِنَّكُمْ لَتَمُرُّونَ عَلَيْهِمْ مُّصْبِحِينَ ۝ وَبِالْأَيْتِلِ أَفَلَا تَعْقِلُونَ ۝﴾ (سورة الصافات: ١٣٣-١٣٨)

37:133. Verily Loot was one of the Messengers.

37:134. We saved him and all his family,

37:135. except an old woman who stayed behind.

37:136. Then We destroyed the others.

37:137. Surely you pass by their ruins by day

37:138. and by night. Will you not then understand?

This is praise from Allah for His slave and Messenger Loot, because he was a Prophet and Messenger who called his people to Allah and forbade them to ascribe partners to Allah and commit shameful acts. But when they did not stop, Allah saved him and his entire family, so they left by night and were saved, «except an old woman who stayed behind». That is, she was among those who stayed behind and were punished. She was the wife of Loot who did not follow his religion.

«Then We destroyed the others» by turning their houses upside down,

﴿And We turned [their city] upside down and let loose upon them a shower of stones of baked clay.﴾ (al-Hijr 15: 74)

– until they became lifeless and still.

﴿Surely you pass by their ruins﴾ that is, the ruined dwellings of the people of Loot ﴿by day and by night﴾ that is, at those times; you frequently pass by them, so there is no room for doubt.

﴿Will you not then understand﴾ the signs and lessons, and refrain from that which leads to doom?

﴿وَإِنَّ يُونُسَ لَمِنَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ۝١٣٩ إِذْ أَبَقَ إِلَى الْفُلِ الْمَشْحُونِ ۝١٤٠ فَسَاهَمَ فَكَانَ مِنَ الْمُدْحَضِينَ ۝١٤١ فَالْتَمَعَهُ الْحُوتُ وَهُوَ مُلِيمٌ ۝١٤٢ فَلَوْلَا أَنَّهُ كَانَ مِنَ الْمُسَبِّحِينَ ۝١٤٣ لَلِئْتِ فِي بَطْنِهِ إِلَى يَوْمِ يُبْعَثُونَ ۝١٤٤ فَبَدَّلْنَاهُ بِالْعُرَاءِ وَهُوَ سَقِيمٌ ۝١٤٥ وَأَنْبَتْنَا عَلَيْهِ شَجَرَةً مِّنْ يَقْطِينٍ ۝١٤٦ وَأَرْسَلْنَاهُ إِلَى مِائَةِ أَلْفٍ أَوْ يَزِيدُونَ ۝١٤٧ فَتَنَّبَهُمْ إِلَى حِينٍ ۝١٤٨﴾ (سورة الصافات: ١٣٩-١٤٨)

37:139. Verily Yoonus was one of the Messengers.

37:140. He ran away to the fully-laden ship,

37:141. then he drew lots with them<sup>53</sup> and he was one of those who lost.

37:142. Then the fish swallowed him. He had done an act worthy of blame.

37:143. Were it not for the fact that he was one of those who glorified Allah a great deal, 37:144. he would have remained in its belly until the Day of Resurrection.

37:145. But We caused him to be cast up, sick, on the barren shore, <sup>53</sup> When the sea grew rough and the ship was tossed about by the waves, the crew of the ship feared that they would be drowned, so they decided to lighten the load in order to save themselves. They drew lots to determine who should be thrown overboard, and Yoonus lost the draw.

37:146. and We caused a gourd vine to grow for him.

37:147. We sent him as a Messenger to a hundred thousand people or more, 37:148. and they believed, so We allowed them to enjoy life for a while.

---

This is praise from Allah (ﷻ) for His slave and Messenger Yoonus ibn Mattâ, as He praised his fellow Messengers for being Prophets who conveyed the message and called people to Allah.

Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He punished him in this world then saved him from that punishment, because of his faith and righteous deeds.

﴿He ran away﴾ that is, he ran away from his Lord in anger, thinking that We would not punish him (cf. 21: 87) or detain him in the belly of the fish. Allah does not mention the cause of his anger or the sin that he committed, because there is no benefit for us in mentioning that. Rather what benefits us is to tell us that he committed a sin and Allah punished him for it, despite the fact that he was one of the noble Messengers, and that He saved him after that and absolved him of blame, and made available to him the means of well-being.

When he ran away and fled ﴿to the fully-laden ship﴾ that was laden with passengers and goods, and he embarked along with others, the fully-laden ship became too heavy, so they needed to throw some of the passengers overboard. It was as if no one stood out to them, so they cast lots in order to determine who should be thrown into the sea, which was indicative of fairness on the part of the ship's crew. When Allah decrees something, He creates the means to bring it about.

When they drew lots, it was Yoonus who was chosen by this means, ﴿and he was one of those who lost﴾, so he was thrown into the sea. ﴿Then the fish swallowed him﴾. At the time when the fish swallowed him, he ﴿had done an act worthy of blame﴾, which was his inappropriate anger.

﴿Were it not for the fact that he was one of those who glorified Allah a great deal﴾ that is, he had previously done a great deal of worship, glorifying and praising his Lord, which he continued to do in the belly of the fish, as he said:

﴿...There is no god but You. Glory be to You; I have indeed done wrong.﴾ (al-Anbiyā' 21: 87)

﴿he would have remained in its belly until the Day of Resurrection﴾ that is, it would have been his grave. But because of his glorification and worship of Allah, Allah (ﷻ) saved him. Thus does Allah save the believers when hardship befalls them.

﴿But We caused him to be cast up, sick, on the barren shore﴾ that is, the fish cast him out of its belly onto the barren shore, which was land that was empty and devoid of people, in addition to being devoid of trees and shade.

﴿sick﴾ that is, he was ill because of his stay in the belly of the fish, to the extent that he was white like a newly hatched chick.

﴿and We caused a gourd vine to grow for him﴾ to give him shade, because it is cool and gives cool shade, and no flies land on it. This was the effect of divine kindness towards him.

Then Allah bestowed further kindness upon him and granted a great blessing to him, by sending him ﴿as a Messenger to a hundred thousand people or more﴾. What is meant is that they were no more and no less than that. So he called them to Allah (ﷻ).

﴿and they believed﴾, and that was included in his good deeds, because he was the one who called them.

﴿so We allowed them to enjoy life for a while﴾ as Allah averted the punishment from them, even though all the reasons for it to befall them had been present.

Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿There was no city that believed [after seeing the punishment] and benefitted from its faith except the people of Yoonus. When they believed, We removed from them the punishment of disgrace in this world, and allowed them to enjoy life for a while. ﴿Yoonus 10: 98﴾

﴿ فَاسْتَفْتِهِمْ أَلِرَبِّكَ الْبَنَاتُ وَلَهُمُ الْبَنُونَ ﴾ ﴿١٤٩﴾ أَمْ خَلَقْنَا الْمَلَائِكَةَ إِنَاثًا
وَهُمْ شَاهِدُونَ ﴿١٥٠﴾ أَلَا إِنَّهُمْ مِنْ إِفْكِهم يَقُولُونَ ﴿١٥١﴾ وَلِلَّهِ وَاللَّهُ وَلِيَهُمْ لَكَذِبُونَ
﴿١٥٢﴾ أَصْطَفَى الْبَنَاتِ عَلَى الْبَنِينَ ﴿١٥٣﴾ مَا لَكُمْ كَيْفَ تَحْكُمُونَ ﴿١٥٤﴾ أَفَلَا تَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿١٥٥﴾ أَمْ لَكُمْ
سُلْطَانٌ مُبِينٌ ﴿١٥٦﴾ فَأْتُوا بِكِتَابِكُمْ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿١٥٧﴾ ﴿سورة الصافات: ١٤٩-١٥٧﴾

37:149. So ask them: Does your Lord have daughters while they have sons?<sup>54</sup>

37:150. Or did We create the angels as females, whilst they were present and watching?

37:151. Nay, it is one of their fabrications when they say:

37:152. Allah has begotten [offspring]; verily they are lying.

37:153. Would He [really] choose daughters rather than sons?

37:154. What is the matter with you, that you judge as you do?

37:155. Will you not then pay heed?

37:156. Or do you have clear proof?

37:157. Then bring your scripture, if you are telling the truth.

﴿So ask them﴾ that is, ask those who ascribe others with Allah, who worship angels, and claim that they are the daughters of Allah. Thus they combined ascription of partners to Allah with describing Him in a manner that did not befit His Majesty.

﴿Does your Lord have daughters while they have sons?﴾ That is, this is an unfair division, ascribing offspring to Allah, and attributing to

<sup>54</sup> The pagans of Quraysh regarded the angels as daughters of Allah and worshipped them. (at-Tabari)

Him what they regarded as the inferior of the two, namely daughters which they did not want for themselves. This is like the verse in which Allah says:

﴿And they ascribe daughters to Allah – glory be to Him! – but for themselves they choose what they desire [sons].﴾ (an-Nahl 16: 57)

Moreover, they described the angels as daughters of Allah and were certain of that. But Allah (ﷻ) says, confirming that they were lying: ﴿Or did We create the angels as females, whilst they were present and watching﴾ their creation? In other words, that is not the case; they did not witness their creation.

This indicates that they said these words without knowledge; rather this was a fabrication against Allah. Hence He says:

﴿Nay, it is one of their fabrications﴾ that is, it is one of their blatant lies ﴿when they say: Allah has begotten [offspring]; verily they are lying﴾.

﴿Would He [really] choose daughters rather than sons? What is the matter with you, that you judge as you do﴾ in this unfair manner?

﴿Will you not then pay heed﴾ and realise that this is a false and unfair view? If you paid heed, you would not say such a thing.

﴿Or do you have clear proof﴾ to support what you say, from scripture or a Messenger?

All of that is not true, hence Allah says: ﴿Then bring your scripture, if you are telling the truth﴾. Whoever says something, but does not produce sound evidence for it, is deliberately lying, or is speaking about Allah without knowledge.

﴿وَجَعَلُوا بَيْنَهُ وَبَيْنَ الْجَنَّةِ نِجَاسًا ۚ وَقَدْ عَلِمَتِ الْجِنَّةُ إِنَّهُمْ لَمُحْضَرُونَ ﴿١٥٨﴾ سُبْحَنَ اللَّهِ عَمَّا يُصِفُونَ ﴿١٥٩﴾ إِلَّا عِبَادَ اللَّهِ الْمُخْلَصِينَ ﴿١٦٠﴾﴾ (سورة الصافات: ١٥٨-١٦٠)

- 37:158. They claim that there is kinship between Allah and the jinn, but the jinn know that they [those who make this claim] will be brought up for punishment.
- 37:159. Glory be to Allah and [exalted be He] far above what they ascribe [to Him],
- 37:160. except [what] the chosen [and sincere] slaves of Allah [ascribe to Him of perfect attributes].

That is, these polytheists claimed that there was kinship between Allah and the jinn, just as they claimed that the angels were the daughters of Allah and their mothers were from among the jinn. But the jinn knew that they would be brought before Allah, so that He might requite them as humiliated slaves. If there was any kinship between them and Him, they would not be like that.

«Glory be to Allah» the Almighty Sovereign, the Most Perfect and Forbearing, and exalted be He far above what the polytheists ascribe to him of any attribute that stems from their disbelief and ascription of partners to Him.

«except [what] the chosen [and sincere] slaves of Allah [ascribe to Him of perfect attributes]». He did not declare Himself to be far above what His sincere slaves attribute to Him, because they only attribute to Him that which is befitting to His majesty. That is why they are described as sincere.

﴿فَإِنَّكُمْ وَمَا تَعْبُدُونَ ﴿١٦١﴾ مَا أَنْتُمْ عَلَيْهِ بِفَعْلِينَ ﴿١٦٢﴾ إِلَّا مَنْ هُوَ صَالِ الْجَحِيمِ ﴿١٦٣﴾﴾ (سورة

الصفات: ١٦١-١٦٣)

37:161. Verily neither you nor those whom you worship

37:162. can entice anyone away from Allah,

37:163. except those who are destined to burn in hell.

That is, you – O polytheists – and those whom you worship besides Allah cannot entice or mislead anyone except one whom Allah has decreed is one of the people of hell, so the divine decree will inevitably come to pass. What is meant here is a declaration that they and their gods are incapable of misguiding anyone. This highlights the perfect power of Allah (ﷻ). In other words: do not hope to mislead the sincere slaves of Allah.

﴿وَمَا مِنَّا إِلَّا لَهُ مَقَامٌ مَّعْلُومٌ ﴿١٦٤﴾ وَإِنَّا لَنَحْنُ الصَّافُّونَ ﴿١٦٥﴾ وَإِنَّا لَنَحْنُ الْمُسَبِّحُونَ ﴿١٦٦﴾﴾

(سورة الصافات: ١٦٤-١٦٦)

37:164. [The angels say:] There is not one of us but he has an assigned place;

37:165. verily we are those who stand lined up in rows

37:166. and verily we are those who glorify Allah.

This highlights that the angels (peace be upon them) are innocent of what the polytheists attributed to them, and that they are slaves of Allah who do not disobey Him even for an instant. There is not one of them who does not have his assigned place and task that Allah has instructed him to do, and he does not go beyond it. The angels have no control over the matter at all.

﴿verily we are those who stand lined up in rows﴾ in obedience and in service to Allah.

﴿and verily we are those who glorify Allah﴾ and declare Him to be above anything that is not befitting to Him. So how – when this is the case – could they be fit to be partners of Allah? Exalted be Allah far above that.

﴿وَإِنْ كَانُوا يَقُولُونَ ﴿١٦٧﴾ لَوَ أَنَّ عِنْدَنَا ذِكْرًا مِّنَ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿١٦٨﴾ لَكُنَّا عِبَادَ اللَّهِ الْمُخْلَصِينَ ﴿١٦٩﴾ فَكَفَرُوا بِهِ ۖ فَسَوْفَ يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿١٧٠﴾ وَلَقَدْ سَبَقَتْ كَلِمَتُنَا لِعِبَادِنَا الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿١٧١﴾ إِنَّهُمْ لَهُمُ الْمَنْصُورُونَ ﴿١٧٢﴾ وَإِنَّ جُنَدَنَا لَهُمُ الْغَالِبُونَ ﴿١٧٣﴾ فَتَوَلَّ عَنْهُمْ حَتَّى حِينٍ ﴿١٧٤﴾ وَأَبْصِرْهُمْ فَسَوْفَ يُبْصِرُونَ ﴿١٧٥﴾ أَفَعِدَّائِنَا يَسْتَغْجِلُونَ ﴿١٧٦﴾ فَإِذَا نَزَلَ بِسَاحِبِهِمْ فَسَاءَ صَبَاحُ الْمُنْذَرِينَ ﴿١٧٧﴾ وَتَوَلَّ عَنْهُمْ حَتَّى حِينٍ ﴿١٧٨﴾ وَأَبْصِرْ فَسَوْفَ يُبْصِرُونَ ﴿١٧٩﴾ سُبْحَنَ رَبِّكَ رَبِّ الْعِزَّةِ عَمَّا يَصِفُونَ ﴿١٨٠﴾ وَسَلَامٌ عَلَى الْمُرْسَلِينَ ﴿١٨١﴾ وَالْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٨٢﴾﴾ (سورة)

(الصفات: ١٦٧-١٨٢)

- 37:167. Indeed they [the disbelievers] used to say:
 37:168. If only we had a scripture like the previous nations,
 37:169. we would surely have been devoted [and sincere] slaves of Allah.
 37:170. But [now that the Qur'an has come to them] they reject it; so they will come to know [the consequences of their action].
 37:171. Our word has already been given to Our slaves, the Messengers, 37:172. that it is surely they who will helped [against their enemies]
 37:173. And it is surely Our troops who will be the victors.
 37:174. So turn away from them [the disbelievers] for a while.
 37:175. Wait and see [what happens to them]; they too will see.
 37:176. Do they really seek to hasten Our punishment?
 37:177. When it strikes in their midst, evil will be the morning for those who were warned [but did not pay heed].
 37:178. Turn away from them [the disbelievers] for a while.
 37:179. Wait and see [what happens to them]; they too will see.
 37:180. Glory be to your Lord, the Lord of Might and Power, and [exalted be He] far above what they ascribe [to Him].
 37:181. Peace be upon the Messengers,
 37:182. and praise be to Allah, the Lord of the worlds.

Here Allah tells us that these polytheists expressed their wishes and said: If only scriptures had come to us as they came to the earlier nations, we would have devoted our worship to Allah alone, and we would have been devoted and sincere to the truth.

But they were lying when they said that, for the best of scriptures came to them, but they disbelieved in it. Thus it is known that they defiantly rejected the truth.

﴿so they will come to know [the consequences of their action]﴾, namely the punishment when it befalls them. They should not think that they will have the upper hand in this world either; rather the decree of Allah cannot be put back and cannot be contradicted, for He has already decreed that His Messengers and righteous troops will prevail over others and will be granted a mighty victory from their Lord, and will be able to establish their religion. This is glad tidings to anyone who earns the description of being one of the troops of Allah, by being of sound character and fighting those whom he is instructed to fight, that he will prevail and be victorious.

Then Allah instructs His Messenger (ﷺ) to turn away from those who are stubborn and do not accept the truth, for there is nothing left except to wait for the punishment to strike them. Hence He says: ﴿Wait and see [what happens to them]; they too will see﴾ whom the punishment will strike, for it will befall them.

﴿When it strikes in their midst﴾ that is, when it strikes them and strikes near them, ﴿evil will be the morning for those who were warned [but did not pay heed]﴾, because it will be a morning of evil, punishment and eradication. Then Allah repeats the command to turn away from them, and warns them of the coming of the punishment.

Having mentioned in this chapter many of the vile things that they said and attributed to Him, Allah now declares Himself to be far above all that, as He says:

«Glory be to your Lord» and exalted be He «the Lord of Might and Power» that is, Who possesses might and has subdued all things, and exalted be He far above anything bad that they attribute to Him.

«Peace be upon the Messengers» because they are free of sin and flaws, and are sound in what they attribute to the Originator of the earth and the heavens.

«and praise be to Allah, the Lord of the worlds». The word translated here as «praise» appears with the definite article in the original Arabic, to indicate that it includes all kinds of praise that are due to Him because of His great and perfect attributes, the deeds by which He takes care of the worlds and bestows all kinds of blessings, and by which He averts from them all ills, and controls them in all their movements and in all circumstances. All praise is due to Allah (ﷻ), for He is holy and far above all shortcomings. He is praised, loved and venerated for all the perfect attributes that He possesses, and His Messengers are sound and saluted with peace; those who follow them in that will have peace in this world and the hereafter, whereas their enemies are subject to doom and destruction in this world and the hereafter.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat aş-Şaffāt.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿ص﴾ وَالْفَرَامَانَ ذِي الذِّكْرِ ﴿١﴾ بِلِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فِي عِرْقٍ وَشِقَاقٍ ﴿٢﴾ كَرَاهِلْكَامِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ مِنْ قَرْنٍ فَنَادَ وَأَوَّلَاتٍ حِينَ مَنَاصٍ ﴿٣﴾ وَعِجْبًا أَنْ جَاءَهُمْ مُنْذِرٌ مِنْهُمْ وَقَالَ الْكَافِرُونَ هَذَا سَاحِرٌ كَذَّابٌ ﴿٤﴾ أَجْعَلِ الْآيَةَ إِلَّاهَا وَجِدًا إِنَّ هَذَا لَشَيْءٌ عُجَابٌ ﴿٥﴾ وَأُطْلِقَ اللَّامُ مِنْهُمْ أَنْ أَمْسُوا وَأَصْبِرُوا عَلَى إِلَهِكُمْ إِنَّ هَذَا لَشَيْءٌ يُرَادُ ﴿٦﴾ مَا سَمِعْنَا بِهَذَا فِي الْآيَةِ الْآخِرَةِ إِنَّ هَذَا إِلَّا اخْتِلَاقٌ ﴿٧﴾ أَمْ نَزَّلَ عَلَيْهِ الذِّكْرُ مِنْ بَيْنِنَا بَلْ هُمْ فِي شَكٍّ مِنْ ذِكْرِي بَلْ لَمَّا يَدْعُونَ عَذَابٍ ﴿٨﴾ أَمْعِنْدَهُمْ خَزَائِنُ رَحْمَةِ رَبِّكَ الْعَزِيزِ الْوَهَّابِ ﴿٩﴾ أَمْ لَهُمْ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا فَلْيَرْتَقُوا فِي الْأَسْبَابِ ﴿١٠﴾ جُنْدٌ مَا هَئِلَكَ مِنْ الْأَحْزَابِ ﴿١١﴾ ﴿سورة ص: ١-١١﴾

- 38:1. Şâd. By the Qur'an full of reminders, 38:2. yet the disbelievers are steeped in arrogance and stubborn defiance.
38:3. How many nations We destroyed before them; they cried out [for mercy] when it was too late for deliverance.

- 38:4. They deem it strange that a warner has come to them from among themselves, and the disbelievers say: This man is a magician and a liar!
- 38:5. What! Has he made all the gods into one God? This is indeed most strange!
- 38:6. The leaders among them left, saying: Carry on as you are, and hold fast to your gods. There is surely some motive behind it.<sup>55</sup>
- 38:7. We have never heard [the like] of this in the religion we learned from our forefathers. It is nothing but a fabrication.
- 38:8. What! Has the Reminder [the Qur'an] been sent down to him alone, out of all of us? Nay, they are in doubt about My Reminder, for they have not yet tasted My punishment.
- 38:9. Or do they possess the treasures of the bounty of your Lord, the Almighty, the Bestower?
- 38:10. Or is theirs the dominion of the heavens and the earth and all that is between them? Then let them ascend [to heaven] by any means.<sup>56</sup>
- 38:11. They are nothing but troops [of disbelievers] who have gathered against [the Prophet], but they will soon be defeated.<sup>57</sup>

<sup>55</sup> This verse refers to an incident in which the leaders of Quraysh walked out of a discussion with the Prophet (ﷺ) in the house of his paternal uncle Abu Tâlib. They claimed that the Prophet (ﷺ) had ulterior motives in calling them to Islam and wanted to gain power over them, and they were determined not to yield to him.

<sup>56</sup> Because the disbelievers did not think that Muhammad (ﷺ) deserved to receive revelation, Allah challenged them to ascend to heaven, take control of the universe and stop the revelation coming down, or decide who was most deserving of receiving it – if they could. (al-Qurtubi; al-Kash-shâf; ar-Râzi; an-Nasafi)

<sup>57</sup> Here Allah (ﷻ) is reassuring the Prophet (ﷺ) and giving him the glad tidings that the disbelievers will be defeated, which happened to them at the Battle of Badr. (al-Qurtubi; an-Nasafi; ash-Shawkâni; al-Kash-shâf; Tafseer Abus-Su'ood)

This is an explanation from Allah (ﷻ), describing the Qur'an and the attitude of those who reject it towards Him and towards the one who brought it.

«Şâd. By the Qur'an full of reminders» that is, it reminds people of everything that they need to know about the names, attributes and deeds of Allah, and about religious rulings and what will happen with regard to the resurrection and requital. Thus it reminds them of the basic principles and minor issues of their religion.

There is no need here to mention what is confirmed by this oath, because in fact what is referred to in this oath and what is sworn by in it are one and the same, which is this Qur'an that is described in these sublime terms. If the Qur'an is like this, then people's need for it surpasses all other needs, and what they must do is accept it and believe in it, and try to find in it that which will be a reminder to them.

Allah guides whomever He wills to do that; as for those who disbelieve in it and in the One Who sent it down, their attitude towards it is «arrogance and stubborn defiance» that is, arrogance, refusal to believe in it and pride. What is meant by stubborn defiance is defiance in rejecting it and trying to refute it and criticise the one who brought it.

Hence Allah warned them by reminding them of the destruction of previous nations who disbelieved in the Messengers: when doom came upon them, they cried out and sought help to avert the punishment from themselves, but by then «it was too late for deliverance» that is, that was not the time for them to be saved from what they had fallen into, and there was no escape from that which had befallen them. So let these people beware lest, if they persist in their arrogance and stubborn defiance, the same fate befall them as befell those earlier nations.

«They deem it strange that a warner has come to them from among themselves» that is, these disbelievers find strange something that is not strange at all, which is that a warner has come to them from among themselves, so that they would be able to learn from him and so that they would know his character very well, because he is one of them, so they would not be deterred from following him by tribal feelings. This is something for which they should be grateful and they should follow him.

But they reacted in the opposite manner to that which was expected of them, and they expressed amazement by way of rejection. Because of their disbelief and wrongdoing, they said: ﴿This man is a magician and a liar!﴾

What he did wrong – according to their view – was that ﴿he made all the gods into one God﴾. In other words, how could he forbid them to take the so-called partners and rivals as gods, and enjoin them to devote their worship to Allah alone?

﴿This﴾, namely the message he brought, ﴿is indeed most strange﴾ that is, it is extremely strange because it is false and corrupt (according to their view).

﴿The leaders among them left﴾ that is, those whose word was followed, left, urging their people to adhere to what they believed in of ascribing partners to Allah ﴿saying: Carry on as you are, and hold fast to your gods﴾ that is, continue in that way, and strive hard to remain steadfast; persist in worshipping your gods, and do not let anyone deter you or prevent you from doing that.

﴿There is surely some motive behind it﴾ that is, what Muhammad (ﷺ) has brought of the prohibition on worshipping them; it is deliberate and he has an ulterior motive and bad intentions. This was a specious argument that could only be accepted by foolish people, for when a person calls others to something, whether it is true or not, his view is not to be rejected by casting aspersions on his intentions, because his intentions and deeds will affect him only. Rather it is to be refuted by presenting something to counter his arguments and invalidate them by means of proof and evidence. What they meant was: Muhammad (ﷺ) is only calling you to that in order to become a leader among you, and to be respected and followed.

«We have never heard [the like] of this» namely what he is saying «in the religion we learned from our forefathers» that is, we did not see our fathers doing or saying that, and our fathers never saw their fathers doing or saying that; so carry on with the religion that your forefathers followed, for it is true, and this to which Muhammad (ﷺ) is calling you is nothing but fabrications and lies that he has made up.

This is another specious argument, in addition to the first one, as they rejected the truth on the basis of something that does not constitute proof for rejecting any idea at all, namely the argument that what he brought was contrary to that which their misguided forefathers followed. Where do we find (in their argument) any proof to refute the message brought by the Prophet (ﷺ)?

«What! Has the Reminder [the Qur'an] been sent down to him alone, out of all of us?» That is, what makes him better than us, so that the Qur'an was sent down to him and not us, and Allah singled him out for that?

This is yet another specious argument. Where is the proof of that to refute what he said? Were not all the Messengers like this? Allah blessed them with the message and instructed them to call people to Allah.

Because none of these arguments that they produced was fit to refute what the Messenger (ﷺ) brought, Allah tells us where they came from, and that the people were «in doubt about My Reminder». They had no knowledge or clear proof, so they fell into doubt and were content with it, and when the clear truth came to them and they had already decided to persist in their doubt, they produced these arguments to ward off the truth, not as a result of any thorough examination of the issue, but because they had decided to turn away. It is well known that if anyone who has such an attitude and speaks on the basis of doubt and stubbornness, his words are not acceptable and he is not able to undermine the truth in the least, because he has no strong argument. He is the one who is to be blamed and criticised as soon as he starts talking. Therefore Allah warned them of the punishment and said:

﴿for they have not yet tasted My punishment﴾ that is, they have the audacity to say these words because they were enjoying a life of ease in this world, and nothing of the punishment of Allah had struck them. If they had tasted His punishment, they would not have had the audacity to say that.

﴿Or do they possess the treasures of the bounty of your Lord, the Almighty, the Bestower?﴾ So that they can give to whomever they wish and withhold from whomever they wish, because they said, ﴿What! Has the Reminder [the Qur'an] been sent down to him alone, out of all of us?﴾ In other words, the bounty and mercy of Allah (ﷻ) are not under their control, such that they could deny the blessings and gifts of Allah to anyone.

﴿Or is theirs the dominion of the heavens and the earth and all that is between them﴾ so that they are able to do whatever they want? ﴿Then let them ascend [to heaven] by any means﴾ that would enable them to reach the heaven, then cut off and prevent divine mercy from reaching the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ). How can they say such things when they are the most helpless and weakest of Allah's creation? Or is their aim to gang up and amass troops to cooperate in support of falsehood and seek to undermine the truth? For that is the reality of what they really want to do.

But they will not be able to achieve this aim; rather their efforts will be wasted and their troops will be defeated. Hence Allah says: ﴿They are nothing but troops [of disbelievers] who have gathered against [the Prophet], but they will soon be defeated﴾.

﴿كَذَبَتْ قَبْلَهُمْ قَوْمُ نُوحٍ وَعَادٌ وَفِرْعَوْنُ ذُو الْأَوْنَادِ ﴿١٢﴾ وَثَمُودُ وَقَوْمُ لُوطٍ وَأَصْحَابُ لَيْكَةِ
أُولَئِكَ الْأَحْزَابُ ﴿١٣﴾ إِنَّ كُلَّ إِلَّا كَذَبَ الرُّسُلَ فَحَقَّ عِقَابُ ﴿١٤﴾ وَمَا يَنْظُرُ
هَؤُلَاءِ إِلَّا صَيْحَةً وَاحِدَةً مَّا لَهُمْ مِنْ فَوَاقٍ ﴿١٥﴾﴾ (سورة ص: ١٢-١٥)

- 38:12. Before them the people of Nooh rejected [their Prophet], as did 'Âd and the mighty Pharaoh,
- 38:13. and Thamood and the people of Loot, and the dwellers of the Wood – such were the parties [who gathered against their Prophets].
- 38:14. Each of them rejected the Messengers, therefore My punishment became inevitable.
- 38:15. They are only waiting for a single blast [of the Trumpet, on the Day of Resurrection], after which there will be no turning back.

Here Allah (ﷻ) warns them that He will do to them what He did to the nations that came before them, who were stronger than them and gathered more troops to support falsehood.

﴿Before them the people of Nooh rejected [their Prophet], as did 'Âd﴾, the people of Hood
﴿and the mighty Pharaoh﴾ who commanded great troops and immense power.

﴿and Thamood﴾ the people of Sâlih,
﴿and the people of Loot, and the dwellers of the Wood﴾ – the word translated here as the ﴿Wood﴾ refers to a place that is crowded with different types of trees and plants. They were the people of Shu'ayb.
﴿such were the parties [who gathered against their Prophets]﴾ – they gathered together all that they had of power, people and weapons in order to refute the truth, but that did not avail them in the slightest.

«Each of them rejected the Messengers, therefore My punishment became inevitable» for them. So what makes these people (Quraysh) better than others and more pure of heart, so that they will not meet the same fate as others?

So let them await «a single blast [of the Trumpet, on the Day of Resurrection], after which there will be no turning back» that is, there will be no way for them to return or go back; it will destroy them and eradicate them, if they persist in what they are doing.

﴿وَقَالُوا رَبَّنَا عَجِّلْ لَنَا قِطْعَانَا قَبْلَ يَوْمِ الْحِسَابِ﴾ ١٦ أَصْبِرْ عَلَىٰ مَا يَقُولُونَ وَادْكُرْ عَبْدَنَا دَاوُدَ ذَا الْأَيْدِ إِنَّهُ أَوَّابٌ ﴿١٧﴾ إِنَّا سَخَرْنَا الْجِبَالَ مَعَهُ يُسَبِّحْنَ بِالْعُشِيِّ وَالْإِنشِرَاقِ ﴿١٨﴾ وَالطَّيْرَ مَحْشُورَةً كُلٌّ لَّهُ أَوَّابٌ ﴿١٩﴾ وَشَدَدْنَا مُلْكَهُ وَأَيَّنَّا لَهُ الْحِكْمَةَ وَفَضَّلْنَا الْخَطَّابَ ﴿٢٠﴾ (سورة ص: ١٦-٢٠)

- 38:16. They say: Our Lord, hasten for us our share [of the punishment] before the Day of Reckoning.<sup>58</sup>
- 38:17. Bear with patience whatever they say, and remember Our slave Dâwood, the man of endurance [in worship] who constantly turned [to Us].
- 38:18. Verily We compelled the mountains to glorify Allah with him in the afternoon and in the morning,
- 38:19. and the birds, too, who flocked to him; they all would echo his [glorification].
- 38:20. We strengthened him in his kingdom, and granted him wisdom, and sound judgement [and clarity in speech].

<sup>58</sup> They said this by way of ridiculing the Prophet (ﷺ).

«They say: Our Lord, hasten for us our share [of the punishment] before the Day of Reckoning» that is, these disbelievers say, in their ignorance and stubbornness, seeking to hasten the punishment:

«Our Lord, hasten for us our share [of the punishment]» that is, what has been allocated to us of punishment, in this world,

«before the Day of Reckoning». They persisted in this demand, and they claimed: If you, O Muhammad (ﷺ), were speaking the truth, the sign of your truthfulness would be that you would bring the punishment upon us.

Hence Allah said to His Messenger (ﷺ): «Bear with patience whatever they say», as the Messengers before you were also patient and steadfast, for their words will not harm the truth at all and they will not harm you at all; rather they only harm themselves

Having instructed His Messenger (ﷺ) to bear with patience whatever his people said, Allah now instructs him to seek help in being patient by worshipping Allah alone and remembering how true worshippers worshipped Allah, as He says elsewhere:

«So bear patiently what they say, and glorify and praise your Lord before the rising of the sun and before its setting...» (Tā Hâ 20: 130)

One of the greatest worshippers was the Prophet of Allah Dāwood (ﷺ), «the man of endurance [in worship]» that is, he had great stamina in worshipping Allah (ﷻ), in both physical and spiritual terms.

«who constantly turned [to Us]» that is, he turned to Allah in all his affairs, by repenting to Him, loving Him, showing devotion to Him, fearing Him, putting his hope in Him, often beseeching Him and calling upon Him, turning to Him whenever he committed an error, giving it up and repenting sincerely.

Because of his constantly turning to his Lord and worshipping Him, Allah subjugated the mountains to him, so that they would glorify and praise their Lord with him,

﴿in the afternoon and in the morning﴾ that is, at the beginning and end of the day.

﴿and﴾ Allah subjugated ﴿the birds, too, who flocked to him﴾ and gathered with him.

﴿they all﴾ – the mountains and the birds ﴿would echo his [glorification]﴾ in obedience to the words of Allah:

﴿...O mountains, echo his [glorification of Allah], and you too, O birds!...﴾ (Saba' 34: 10)

This is a blessing that Allah bestowed upon him because of his worship.

Then Allah tells us how He blessed him with great dominion:

﴿We strengthened him in his kingdom﴾ that is, We strengthened him with what we gave him of means, and large numbers of troops and equipment, by means of which Allah strengthened him in his kingdom.

Then Allah tells us how He blessed him with knowledge:

﴿and granted him wisdom﴾ that is, prophethood and great knowledge ﴿and sound judgement [and clarity in speech]﴾ that is, when judging disputes among people.

﴿وَهَلْ أَتَاكَ نَبْوُ الْخَصَمِ إِذْ سَوَّرُوا الْمِحْرَابَ ۚ﴾ إِذْ دَخَلُوا عَلَى دَاوُدَ فَفَرَّجَ مِنْهُمْ ۖ قَالُوا لَا تَحْفَظْ خَصَمَانِ بَعْضُ بَعْضًا عَلَى بَعْضٍ فَأَحْكُم بَيْنَنَا بِالْحَقِّ وَلَا تُشْطِطْ وَاهْدِنَا إِلَى سَوَاءِ الصِّرَاطِ ﴿١٦﴾ إِنَّ هَذَا أَخِي لَهُ تِسْعٌ وَتِسْعُونَ نَجْعَةً وَلِي نَجْعَةٌ وَاحِدَةٌ فَقَالَ أَكْفِلْنِيهَا وَعَزَّنِي فِي الْخِطَابِ ﴿١٧﴾ قَالَ لَقَدْ ظَلَمَكَ بِسُؤَالِ نَجْمِكَ إِلَى نَجْمِهِ ۖ وَإِنَّ كَثِيرًا مِنَ الْخُلَطَاءِ لَيَبْغِي بَعْضُهُمْ عَلَى بَعْضٍ إِلَّا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ وَقَلِيلٌ مَا هُمْ ۖ وَظَنَّ دَاوُدُ أَنَّمَا فَتَنَّاهُ فَاسْتَغْفَرَ رَبَّهُ وَخَرَّ رَاكِعًا وَأَنَابَ ﴿١٨﴾ فَغَفَرْنَا لَهُ ۖ ذَٰلِكَ ۖ وَإِنَّ لَهُ عِنْدَنَا لَزُلْفَىٰ وَحُسْنَ مَآبٍ ﴿١٩﴾ يٰدَاوُدُ إِنَّا جَعَلْنَاكَ خَلِيفَةً فِي الْأَرْضِ فَاحْكُم بَيْنَ النَّاسِ بِالْحَقِّ وَلَا

تَنَجَّى الْهَوَىٰ فَبِضْءِكَ عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَصِلُونَ عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ شَدِيدٌ يَمَّا
 سُؤِاَ يَوْمَ الْحِسَابِ ﴿٢٦﴾ (سورة ص: ٢١-٢٦)

- 38:21. Has the story of the disputing parties reached you, when they climbed the wall into his chamber?
- 38:22. When they entered his chamber, Dâwood was startled by them. They said: Do not be afraid; we are two disputants, one of whom has wronged the other. Judge between us in truth and do not be unjust; guide us to the right path.
- 38:23. [One of them said:] This is my brother; he has ninety-nine ewes and I have only one. He said: Let me take care of her, and he has been overbearing towards me in his speech.
- 38:24. Dâwood said: He has certainly wronged you by demanding that your ewe be added to his flock. Indeed many associates [or partners] wrong one another, except those who believe and do righteous deeds – and how few they are. Then Dâwood realised that We were only testing him, so he asked his Lord for forgiveness, fell down in prostration and turned to Allah in repentance.
- 38:25. So We forgave him for that. Verily nearness to Us awaits him [in the hereafter], and a blissful journey's end.
- 38:26. ¶We said:] O Dâwood, verily We have made you a ruler in the land, so judge between the people in truth, and do not follow your desires, lest they lead you astray from the path of Allah. Verily those who go astray from the path of Allah will have a severe punishment because they forgot the Day of Reckoning.

Having told us that He gave His Prophet Dâwood sound judgement when judging disputes among people, for which he was well known, and people would seek him out for that reason, Allah (ﷻ) now tells us the story of two disputants who came to him concerning an issue that Allah made a test for Dâwood and a lesson, because of a mistake that he made. But Allah had mercy on him and forgave him, and

He caused this case to be referred to him. Allah says to His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ):

«Has the story of the disputing parties reached you», for it is a wondrous story.

«when they climbed the wall into his chamber», when Dâwood was there. It was a space in which Dâwood would worship Allah, and the two men entered it without permission and without asking permission, and they did not enter through the door.

Therefore, when they entered upon him in this manner, he was startled and was afraid of them. They said to him: «we are two disputants», so do not be afraid.

«one of us «has wronged the other. Judge between us in truth» that is, justly, and do not side with one of us

«and do not be unjust; guide us to the right path».

The point here is that it became clear to him that the two disputants were seeking a fair and just verdict, and as that was the case, they would tell him their story truthfully. So the Prophet of Allah Dâwood was not offended by their exhortation to be fair, and he did not tell them off for that.

One of them said: «This is my brother» – he stated that he was his brother, either by faith or by blood or by friendship, because in that case there should be no wrongdoing, and wrongdoing on his part would be worse than wrongdoing on the part of anyone else.

«he has ninety-nine ewes», which is a great deal of good, and he should be content with what Allah has given him

«and I have only one», but he covets it

«He said: Let me take care of her» that is, give it to me and let me be in charge of it

«and he has been overbearing towards me in his speech» that is, he has overpowered me with his words, because he kept bothering me until he got the ewe, or almost got it.

When he heard his words – and it is known from the context that this is what really happened, so there is no reason for anyone to object and say: Why did Dâwood pass judgement before listening to what the other party had to say? – Dâwood said:

﴿He has certainly wronged you by demanding that your ewe be added to his flock﴾ and this is the usual way with many associates and close friends.

Then he said: ﴿Indeed many associates [or partners] wrong one another﴾ because wrongdoing is something that is ingrained in people ﴿except those who believe and do righteous deeds﴾ because what they have of faith and righteous deeds prevents them from wronging others ﴿and how few they are﴾. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿...But few of My slaves are grateful.﴾ (Saba' 34: 13)

﴿Then Dâwood realised﴾, when he had passed judgement between them,

﴿that We were only testing him﴾ that is, We tested him by causing this case to be referred to him, so as to alert him to something.

﴿so he asked his Lord for forgiveness﴾ for what he had done ﴿fell down in prostration and turned to Allah in repentance﴾, repenting sincerely and worshipping Allah.

﴿So We forgave him for that﴾ that is, for what he had done, and Allah bestowed all kinds of honours upon him and said:

﴿Verily nearness to Us﴾ that is, high status and closeness to Us ﴿awaits him [in the hereafter], and a blissful journey's end﴾ that is, destination.

With regard to the mistake that Dâwood (ﷺ) made (and for which he sought forgiveness), Allah does not tell us what it was, because there is no need to do so. Therefore trying to find out what it was is unnecessary. Rather what matters in the story that Allah tells us here is His kindness towards him, and that he repented and turned to Him and was raised in status thereby, so that after repenting he was better than he was before.

«[We said:] O Dâwood, verily We have made you a ruler in the land» when you rule concerning their religious and worldly affairs «so judge between the people in truth» that is, with justice, and that is not possible except with the necessary knowledge, knowledge of real-life situations and the ability to carry out just rulings.

«and do not follow your desires» and be biased towards one party because of blood ties or friendship, or love or hatred for the other party «lest they» namely your desires «lead you astray from the path of Allah» and take you beyond the bounds of the straight path.

«Verily those who go astray from the path of Allah», especially those who do so deliberately

«will have a severe punishment because they forgot the Day of Reckoning». If they had remembered it, fear would have been instilled in their hearts, and they would not have gone along with tempting desires.

﴿وَمَا خَلَقْنَا السَّمَاءَ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا بَاطِلًا ۚ ذَلِكَ ظَنُّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا ۖ قَوْلٌ لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنَ النَّارِ ﴿٢٧﴾ أَمْ يَجْعَلُ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ كَالْمُفْسِدِينَ فِي الْأَرْضِ أَمْ يَجْعَلُ الْمُتَّقِينَ كَالْفُجَّارِ ﴿٢٨﴾ كَذَّبَ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ إِلَيْكَ مُبَارَكٌ لِيَدَّبَّرُوا ءَايَاتِهِ ۖ وَلِيَسْتَدْكُرُوا أُولَ الْأَنْبِ

﴿٢٨﴾ (سورة ص: ٢٧-٢٩)

38:27. We have not created the heavens and the earth, and all that is between them, in vain. That is what the disbelievers think. So woe to the disbelievers from the fire!

38:28. Should We equate those who believe and do righteous deeds with those who spread mischief in the land? Or should We equate those who fear Allah with the wicked?<sup>59</sup>

<sup>59</sup> This verse refutes the view of those who did not believe in the hereafter, and thus believed that the end of the believers and the disbelievers would =

38:29. This is a blessed Book that We have sent down to you, so that they may ponder its verses, and so that people of understanding may pay heed.

---

Here Allah tells us of His perfect wisdom in creating the heavens and the earth, and that He did not create them in vain, for no purpose and to serve no interest.

﴿That is what the disbelievers think﴾ of their Lord, as they harbour notions about Allah that are not befitting to His majesty.

﴿So woe to the disbelievers from the fire﴾ for it is what will settle the score with them, and it will overwhelm them completely.

Rather Allah's creation of the heavens and the earth is based on truth and is for the sake of truth. He created them so that people may know the perfect nature of His knowledge, might and all-encompassing authority, and that He alone is deserving of worship, and not those that did not create even an atom in the heavens or on earth; and that the resurrection is true, and Allah will judge between the people of good and the people of evil.

So the one who is ignorant of divine wisdom should not think that Allah will treat them all equally when He judges them. Hence He says: ﴿Should We equate those who believe and do righteous deeds with those who spread mischief in the land? Or should We equate those who fear Allah with the wicked?﴾ This is not befitting to divine wisdom and judgement.

﴿This is a blessed Book that We have sent down to you﴾, in which there is much goodness and abundant knowledge, guidance away from error, healing from disease, light to illuminate the darkness, and every ruling that accountable people may need. It contains definitive evidence for every issue, by means of which it becomes the most majestic book to appear in this world since Allah created it.

---

= be the same (namely death, and nothing beyond that). Here Allah confirms that their ultimate end will not be the same, for the believers will enter paradise whilst the disbelievers will enter hell.

«so that they may ponder its verses» that is, this is the wisdom behind sending it down, so that people may ponder its verses, and thus find knowledge in it and reflect upon its subtle meanings and wisdom, for by pondering and reflecting upon its meanings, thinking about it time after time, its blessings and good may be attained. This indicates that it is encouraged to reflect upon the Qur'an and that doing so is one of the best of deeds, and that recitation which includes reflection is better than rapid recitation that does not achieve this purpose.

«and so that people of understanding may pay heed» that is, so that people of sound mind may learn through reflecting upon all issues of knowledge. This indicates that learning and benefitting from this Book will be commensurate with a person's maturity and understanding.

﴿وَهَبْنَا لِدَاوُدَ سُلَيْمَانَ ۚ نِعَمَ الْعَبْدِ إِنَّهُ أَوَّابٌ ﴿٣٠﴾﴾ إِذْ عَرَضَ عَلَيْهِ بِالْعَنِيِّ
الْقَصِفَتِ الْجِيَادُ ﴿٣١﴾ فَقَالَ إِنِّي أَحْبَبْتُ حُبَّ الْخَيْرِ عَنْ ذِكْرِ رَبِّي حَتَّى تَوَارَتْ
بِالْحِجَابِ ﴿٣٢﴾ رُدُّوهَا عَلَيَّ فَطَفِقَ مَسْحًا بِالسُّوقِ وَالْأَعْنَاقِ ﴿٣٣﴾ وَلَقَدْ فَتَنَّا سُلَيْمَانَ
وَأَلْقَيْنَا عَلَى كُرْسِيِّهِ جَسَدًا ثُمَّ أَنَابَ ﴿٣٤﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ اغْفِرْ لِي وَهَبْ لِي مُلْكًا لَا يَبْغِيَ لِأَحَدٍ
مِّنْ بَعْدِي إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْوَهَّابُ ﴿٣٥﴾ فَسَخَّرْنَا لَهُ الرِّيحَ تَجْرِي بِأَمْرِهِ رُحَاءً حَيْثُ أَصَابَ ﴿٣٦﴾
وَالشَّيَاطِينَ كُلَّ بَنَّاءٍ وَعَوَّاسٍ ﴿٣٧﴾ وَآخَرِينَ مَفْرَرِينَ فِي الْأَصْفَادِ ﴿٣٨﴾ هَذَا عَطَاؤُنَا فَامْنُنْ
أَوْ أَمْسِكْ بِغَيْرِ حِسَابٍ ﴿٣٩﴾ وَإِنَّ لَهُ عِنْدَنَا لَزُلْفَىٰ وَحَسَنَ مَّكَابٍ ﴿٤٠﴾﴾ (سورة ص: ٣٠-٤٠)

38:30. We bestowed upon Dāwūd Sulaymān, a good and faithful slave who constantly turned [to Us]

38:31. One afternoon, noble swift-footed steeds were presented before him.

- 38:32. And he kept saying: I love to love these good things [these horses] because of the command of my Lord,<sup>60</sup> until [the galloping horses] disappeared from sight.
- 38:33. [Then he said:] Bring them back to me, and he began to pass his hands over their legs and necks.
- 38:34. Indeed We tested Sulaymân, and placed on his throne a body, then he turned to Us [in repentance].
- 38:35. He said: My Lord, forgive me and grant me a dominion, the like of which will never be granted to anyone after me, for indeed You are the Bestower.
- 38:36. And We made the wind subject to him; it blew gently at his command, wherever he directed it.
- 38:37. And [We made subject to him] the devils, every kind of builder and diver,
- 38:38. and other [devils], bound together in shackles.
- 38:39. [We said:] This is Our gift, so give freely or withhold, without [having to render] account.
- 38:40. Verily nearness to Us awaits him [in the hereafter], and a blissful journey's end.

---

Having praised Dâwood and mentioned what happened to him and what he did, Allah (ﷻ) now praises his son Sulaymân (ﷺ), as He says:

﴿We bestowed upon Dâwood Sulaymân﴾ that is, We blessed him with him, and made him to be a source of comfort and joy to him. ﴿a good and faithful slave﴾ – this refers to Sulaymân (ﷺ), who possessed characteristics that deserved praise, for he ﴿constantly turned [to Us]﴾ that is, he constantly turned to Allah in all situations, with devotion and love, remembering Him, calling upon Him, humbling himself and striving hard to earn the pleasure of Allah, giving precedence to that over all things.

---

<sup>60</sup> He loved the horses because they were kept and trained for the purpose of fighting in Allah's cause, and they were referred to in the Torah as they are referred to in the Qur'an.

«One afternoon, noble swift-footed steeds were presented before him» the words translated here as «noble swift-footed steeds» refer to fine horses, one of the characteristics of which is that they stand on three feet, with one foot raised, and they are very beautiful and pleasant to look at, especially for those who need them, such as kings. These horses continued to be presented to him until the sunset, and they distracted him from the afternoon prayer and remembrance of Allah.

So he said – regretting what he had done and seeking to draw close to Allah, because they had distracted him, and so as to give precedence to love for Allah over love for anything else: «I love to love these good things [these horses]». The word translated here as «love» also includes the meaning of giving precedence to. In other words, he said: I gave precedence to love of these good things, which refers to wealth in general. In this case what is referred to is the horses. «because of the command of my Lord, until [the galloping horses] disappeared from sight».

«[Then he said:] Bring them back to me», so they were brought back

«and he began to pass his hands over their legs and necks» that is, he started to cut their legs and necks with his sword.<sup>61</sup>

<sup>61</sup> This is the interpretation favoured by as-Sa'di. Aṭ-Ṭabari and others held a different opinion, namely that this could not be right because it would be both cruel and a waste of wealth, neither of which would be appropriate on the part of a Prophet; they suggested that what is meant is either stroking or patting the horses by way of affection, or examining them, as Sulaymān was a skilled horseman. Aṭ-Ṭabari narrated this view from Ibn 'Abbās and regarded it as the correct interpretation of this verse. Here, we have reflected as-Sa'di's view. (Translator)

«Indeed We tested Sulaymân» that is, we tested him and tried him by taking away his dominion and separating him from it, because mistakes are due to human nature, «and placed on his throne a body» – this was a devil which Allah willed and decreed should sit on his throne and have control over Sulaymân's dominion for the duration of this test. Then Sulaymân turned to Allah in repentance.

«He said: My Lord, forgive me and grant me a dominion, the like of which will never be granted to anyone after me, for indeed You are the Bestower». And Allah answered his prayer and forgave him, and restored his dominion to him, and added to it something that was never granted to anyone after him, namely the subjugation of the devils to him, so that they built whatever he wanted and dived for him in the sea, bringing forth pearls and jewels; whoever among them disobeyed him, he chained him with shackles and tied him up.

«[We said:] This is Our gift» so enjoy it and «give freely» to whomever you wish «or withhold» from whomever you wish «without [having to render] account» that is, with no blame on you and no reckoning, because Allah (ﷻ) knew of his perfect justice and good judgement.

You should not think that this was for Sulaymân in this world only, and not in the hereafter; rather he will have much good in the hereafter too. Hence Allah says: «Verily nearness to Us awaits him [in the hereafter], and a blissful journey's end» that is, he is one of those who will be brought close to Allah, and will be honoured in various ways by Him.

Lessons we learn from the story of Dâwood and Sulaymân (peace be upon them both)

- Allah (ﷻ) told his Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) stories of those who came before him, so as to make him steadfast and reassure him; He told him about their worship, great patience and turning to Allah, so that he would long to compete with them and draw close to Allah as they did, and to be patient in bearing the harm of his people. Hence – here – when Allah mentions the harm that his people tried to do to him and what they said about him and his message, He instructed him to be patient and to remember His slave Dâwood, so that he might find comfort in that.

- Allah praises and loves a person to have energy when doing acts of obedience and worship, and to be strong in both physical and mental terms, because if a person is strong, it will result in him doing those acts of obedience properly and doing a great deal of them, which does not happen when a person is weak and has no resolve. The individual should seek means of developing strength and energy, and not become lazy and slow, as that will lead to loss of energy that will weaken one's resolve.
- Turning to Allah in all circumstances is one of the characteristics of the Prophets of Allah and the elite of His creation, as Allah praised Dâwood and Sulaymân for that. So people should follow their example and their guidance.
 ﴿Those [Prophets] are the ones whom Allah guided; let their guidance be an example to follow...﴾ (al-An'âm 6: 90)
- Allah honoured His slave Dâwood (ﷺ) with a beautiful voice, by means of which Allah caused the mountains, that do not hear, and the birds, which cannot understand, to echo him when he raised his voice in praise of Allah, and to glorify Allah with him in the afternoon and in the morning.
- One of the greatest blessings that Allah can bestow upon His slave is to bless him with beneficial knowledge, so that he knows how to judge between people, as Allah blessed His slave Dâwood (ﷺ) with such knowledge.
- Allah demonstrates His care for His Prophets and chosen ones, if they make some mistake, by putting them through tests and trials so that troubles will be dispelled from them and they will become better than they were originally, as happened to Dâwood and Sulaymân (peace be upon them).

- The Prophets (peace be upon them) are protected from error in that which they convey from Allah (ﷻ), because the purpose of their mission cannot be achieved otherwise. However, they may commit some sins, which is something inherent in human nature, but Allah soon causes them to repent, by His kindness.
- Dâwood (ﷺ) usually stayed in his chamber to worship his Lord, hence the two disputants climbed the wall of his chamber, because he was alone in his chamber and no one else could come to him in that place. He did not devote all his time to the people, even though many cases were referred to him for judgement. Rather he allocated some time to be alone with his Lord, and to find comfort in worshipping Him, which helped him to be sincere in all his affairs.
- Etiquette should be followed when entering upon rulers and others, because when the two disputants entered upon Dâwood in an unusual manner, not from the usual door, he was startled by them and was very upset by that, and he did not think that it was appropriate at all.
- The judge should not refuse to issue a verdict on the basis of truth because of bad manners or inappropriate conduct on the part of the disputant.
- Dâwood (ﷺ) was a man of perfect forbearance, as he did not get angry with the two disputants when they came to him without asking permission, even though he was the king; he did not scold them or tell them off.
- It is permissible for one who has been wronged to say to the one who wronged him: "You have wronged me" or "O wrongdoer" or "You transgressed against me", and the like, because they said: ﴿we are two disputants, one of whom has wronged the other﴾ (38: 22).

- The one who is being exhorted and advised, even if he is of high status and very knowledgeable, should not get angry or upset if someone advises or exhorts him. Rather he should hasten to accept the advice and be grateful. The two disputants advised Dâwood and he did not get upset or angry, and that did not deter him from giving a fair verdict; rather he passed a judgement that was completely fair.
- Mixing with relatives and friends, and having a lot of financial worldly dealings with them, may lead to ill feeling among them, and some of them may transgress against others. There is no way to prevent that except by fearing Allah and being patient in all situations, by means of having faith and doing righteous deeds. This is something that is very uncommon among people.
- Seeking forgiveness and doing acts of worship, especially prayer, are among the means of absolving sins, because Allah connected the forgiveness of Dâwood's sin to his prayer for forgiveness and his prostration.
- Allah honoured His slaves Dâwood and Sulaymân by bringing them close to him and granting them a goodly reward, so no one should think that what happened to them undermines their status before Allah (ﷻ). This is how Allah shows kindness to His sincere and devoted slaves: when He forgives them, He removes the traces of their sins and all consequences that result from it. That even includes what people think, because, if they know of some of their sins, they will lose some of the respect they have for them. So Allah removes these effects, and that is not difficult for the Most Generous, Oft-Forgiving.
- Ruling between people is a religious honour that was undertaken by the Messengers of Allah and the elite of His creation. The job of the one who undertakes it is to judge on the basis of truth and avoid the influence of whims and desires. Judging on the basis of truth requires knowledge of shar'î matters, understanding of the issue that is referred for judgement, and knowing how to apply the shar'i rulings to it. The one who is ignorant of either of these matters is not fit to judge, and it is not permissible for him to undertake this task.

- The judge should beware of whims and desires and always be cautious about this matter, because no one is free of it; rather he should strive hard to make the truth his aim and, at the time of judgement, set aside any feelings of love or hate towards any of the disputants.
- Sulaymān (عليه السلام) was one of the virtues of Dāwood, and one of the blessings that Allah bestowed upon him, for one of the greatest blessings that Allah may bestow upon His slave is to grant him a righteous son, and if he is also a scholar, that is light upon light.
- Allah (ﷻ) praised Sulaymān by describing him as: ﴿a good and faithful slave who constantly turned [to Us]﴾ (38: 30).
- Allah bestows abundant blessings and kindnesses upon His slaves; He blesses them by enabling them to do righteous deeds and attain good manners, then He praises them for that, when it is He Who bestowed it upon them by His generosity and kindness.
- Sulaymān gave precedence to love of Allah (ﷻ) over love of all else.
- Everything that distracts a person from Allah is bad and blameworthy, so he should keep away from it and focus on that which is more beneficial.
- We also learn the famous principle: “Whoever gives up something for the sake of Allah, Allah will compensate him with something better than it.” Sulaymān hamstrung the noble swift-footed steeds that are so dear to people, giving precedence to love of Allah, so Allah compensated him with something better than that, by subjugating the soft and gentle wind to him, that blew on his command, and would cover the distance of a month's journey in the morning and a month's journey in the evening (cf. 34: 12); and He subjugated the devils to him who were able to do things that humans could not.

- The subjugation of the devils was not granted to anyone after Sulaymân (ﷺ).
- Sulaymân (ﷺ) was a Prophet-king who did what he wanted, but he did not want anything except what was just. This is in contrast to the Prophet-slave whose will is subject to the command of Allah, so he does not do anything or refrain from anything except by divine command, as in the case of our Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), and that is more perfect.

﴿وَأَذْكُر عَبْدًا أَيُّوبَ إِذْ نَادَىٰ رَبَّهُ أَنِّي مَسَّنِيَ الشَّيْطَانُ بِنُصْبٍ وَعَذَابٍ ۚ ﴿٤١﴾ أَرْكُضْ بِرِجْلِكَ هَذَا مُغْتَسَلٌ بَارِدٌ وَشَرَابٌ ۚ ﴿٤٢﴾ وَوَهَبْنَا لَهُ أَهْلَهُ وَمِثْلَهُم مَّعَهُمْ رَحْمَةً مِنَّا وَذِكْرَىٰ لَأُولَى الْأَلْبَابِ ۚ ﴿٤٣﴾ وَخَذَ بِيَدِكَ ضِغْفَرًا فَأَضْرِبْ بِهِ ۚ وَلَا تَحْنُتْ ۚ إِنَّا وَجَدْنَاهُ صَابِرًا نِّعَمَ الْعَبْدُ إِنَّهُ أَوَّابٌ ۚ ﴿٤٤﴾﴾ (سورة ص: ٤١-٤٤)

- 38:41. Remember Our slave Ayyoob, when he called upon his Lord: Verily the Shaytân has afflicted me with hardship and pain.
- 38:42. [We said to him:] Strike [the ground] with your foot. Here is cool water for you to wash in and drink.
- 38:43. And We restored his family to him and doubled their number, as a mercy from Us and as a reminder to people of understanding.
- 38:44. [We said to him:] And take a bundle of rushes in your hand and strike [your wife, once] with it, and do not break your oath. Truly We found him to be patient and steadfast, a good and faithful slave who constantly turned [to Us].

﴿Remember﴾ in this Book full of reminders
 ﴿Our slave Ayyoob﴾ and mention him in the best terms, speaking highly of him, when harm befell him, but he bore it with patience and did not complain to anyone except his Lord, turning only to Him. ﴿when he called upon his Lord﴾ in supplication, complaining to Him and none other. He said: My Lord, ﴿Verily the Shaytân has afflicted me with hardship and pain﴾ that is, something very hard, tough and painful. The Shaytân had been given the power to harm him physically, so he blew on his skin until it was filled with sores, which then ruptured, making matters even worse; similarly, his family died and his wealth was destroyed.

It was said to him: ﴿Strike [the ground] with your foot﴾ that is, strike the ground with your foot so that there will flow from it a spring of water with which you may wash yourself and from which you may drink, and it will take away the harm and pain from you. He did that, and the harm left him, and Allah (ﷻ) healed him.

﴿And We restored his family to him﴾ – it was said that Allah brought them back to life for him

﴿and doubled their number﴾ in this world, and Allah made him rich and bestowed upon him a great deal of wealth

﴿as a mercy from Us﴾ to Our slave Ayyoob, as he was patient and steadfast, so We granted him reward by Our mercy in this world and the hereafter.

﴿and as a reminder to people of understanding﴾ that is, so that people of understanding might remember the story of Ayyoob and learn a lesson from it, and realise that whoever bears harm with patience, Allah (ﷻ) will reward him in this world and the hereafter, and will answer his supplication when he calls upon Him.

﴿[We said to him:] And take a bundle of rushes in your hand and strike [your wife, once] with it, and do not break your oath﴾. The commentators said: When he was sick, he got angry with his wife for some reason, and swore that if Allah healed him, he would strike her one hundred times. But his wife was a righteous woman who treated him kindly, so when Allah healed him, He showed mercy to her and to him; therefore He told him to strike her once with a bundle of one hundred reeds, thus enabling him to fulfil his oath (without harming her or being unjust towards her).

«Truly We found him» namely Ayyoob «to be patient and steadfast» that is, We tested him with great harm, and he bore it with patience for the sake of Allah ﴿٤٥﴾

«a good and faithful slave» who reached the highest levels of servitude to Allah, at times of both ease and hardship

«who constantly turned [to Us]» that is, he often turned to Allah to help him reach his spiritual and worldly goals, and constantly remembered his Lord, called upon Him, loved Him and showed devotion to Him.

﴿وَأَذْكُرْ عِبْدَنَا إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَإِسْحَاقَ وَيَعْقُوبَ أُولَى الْأَيْدِي وَالْأَبْصَارِ﴾ ﴿٤٦﴾ إِنَّا أَخْلَصْنَاهُمْ بِخَالِصَةٍ ذِكْرَى الدَّارِ ﴿٤٧﴾ وَلَئِنَّهُمْ عِنْدَنَا لَمِنَ الْمُصْطَفَيْنَ الْأَخْيَارِ ﴿٤٨﴾ (سورة ص: ٤٥-٤٧)

(٤٧-٤٥)

38:45. Remember Our slaves Ibrâheem, Is-hâq and Ya'qoob, men of endurance [in worship] and deep insight.

38:46. Verily We chose them by granting them a distinct quality: constantly remembering the hereafter.

38:47. And indeed before Us they are among the chosen and the truly good.

«Remember Our slaves» who were sincere to Us in worship, and speak highly of them.

«Ibrâheem» al-Khaleel (the close friend of Allah), his son «Is-hâq», and his grandson «Ya'qoob».

﴿men of endurance [in worship]﴾ that is, they had great stamina in worshipping Allah (46)

﴿and deep insight﴾ that is, they had deep insight into the religion of Allah, so He described them as possessing beneficial knowledge and doing a great deal of righteous deeds.

﴿Verily We chose them by granting them a distinct quality﴾ that is, a significant and very special quality, which was:

﴿constantly remembering the hereafter﴾. We instilled constant remembering of the hereafter in their hearts and caused them to strive for it at all times. Sincerity towards Allah and remembering that He is always watching was something inherent in them, and We caused them to be a reminder of the hereafter, so that by seeing them, people were reminded of it and learned from them, and they are remembered in the best terms.

﴿And indeed before Us they are among the chosen﴾ whom Allah selected from among the best of His creation

﴿and the truly good﴾ who possess all noble characteristics and do all righteous deeds.

﴿وَأَذْكُرْ إِسْمَاعِيلَ وَالْيَسَعَ وَذَا الْكِفْلِ وَكُلٌّ مِنَ الْأَخْيَارِ﴾ (سورة ص: ٤٨)

38:48. And remember Ismâ'eel and Alyasa' and Dhul-Kifl; each of them was among the truly good.

That is, remember these Prophets in the best of terms and speak highly of them, for each of them was among the elite whom Allah chose from among humankind, and He chose for them and helped them to attain the best of attitudes, deeds, manners, attributes and characteristics.

﴿ هَذَا ذِكْرٌ وَإِنِّ لِلْمُتَّقِينَ لَحُسْنَ مَآبٍ ﴿٤٩﴾ جَنَّتٍ عَدْنٍ مِّنْهُ مَفْنَنَةٌ لَّهُمُ الْأُبُوبُ ﴿٥٠﴾ مُتَكَبِّرِينَ ﴿٥١﴾ فِيهَا يَدْعُونَ فِيهَا بِفَكَهْمٍ كَثِيرٍ وَشَرَابٍ ﴿٥٢﴾ وَعِنْدَهُمْ قَاصِرَاتُ الطَّرْفِ الْأَرْبَاءُ ﴿٥٣﴾ هَذَا مَا تُوعَدُونَ لِيَوْمِ الْحِسَابِ ﴿٥٤﴾ إِنَّ هَذَا لَرْزُقُنَا مَا لَمْ يَنْفَادِ ﴿٥٥﴾ ﴾ (سورة)

ص: ٤٩-٥٤

- 38:49. This is a reminder. Verily the pious will have a blissful journey's end, 38:50. Gardens of perpetual abode, whose gates will be opened to them.
 38:51. Reclining therein on couches, they will call for abundant fruit and drink, 38:52. And with them will be chaste women who restrain their glances,<sup>62</sup> of equal age.
 38:53. This is what you are promised for the Day of Reckoning.
 38:54. Indeed this is Our provision, which will never cease.

﴿This﴾ namely the mention of these elite Prophets and their characteristics

﴿is a reminder﴾ in this Qur'an full of reminders; by remembering their attitude and manners, one may be reminded of, and love to follow, their beautiful attributes, and one may become eager to find out about what Allah blessed them with of sublime characteristics and how Allah caused them to be remembered in the highest terms among people.

One of the types of reminder is mentioning good people; another type is mentioning the requital of both good people and evil people. Hence Allah says:

<sup>62</sup> They are the ḥoor al-'een, who will be content with their husbands and will not look at other men.

﴿Verily the pious﴾ that is, those who fear their Lord by complying with His commands and heeding His prohibitions, both believing men and believing women ﴿will have a blissful journey's end﴾ that is, a good end and place to return to.

Then Allah explains that further: ﴿Gardens of perpetual abode﴾ whose inhabitants would not wish for anything other than that, because they are so perfect and their bliss is so complete. They will never leave them or be expelled from them.

﴿whose gates will be opened to them﴾ that is, the gates of their dwellings and abodes will be opened for them. They will not need to open them themselves; rather they will be served and looked after. This is also indicative of perfect security, for in the gardens of perpetual abode there is nothing that would require closing and locking of gates (or doors).

﴿Reclining therein﴾ on adorned couches and seats
 ﴿they will call for﴾ that is, they will instruct their servants to bring ﴿abundant fruit and drink﴾, whatever their hearts may desire and may delight their eyes. This is indicative of perfect bliss, perfect ease and reassurance, and perfect pleasure.

﴿And with them﴾ will be their wives from al-ḥoor al-'een
 ﴿chaste women who restrain their glances﴾ and look only at their husbands, and their husbands will look only at them, because of the beauty that all will possess, and the love that each will have for the other; they will have no desire for any other companion and will not think of any replacement ﴿of equal age﴾ that is, of the same age, the best age of youth, and the most beautiful and pleasurable.

﴿This is what you are promised﴾, O pious ones who fear Allah
 ﴿for the Day of Reckoning﴾ as a reward for your righteous deeds.

﴿Indeed this is Our provision﴾ that We will bestow upon the people of paradise

«which will never cease» that is, it will never stop; rather it is eternal and ongoing, and will constantly increase.

That is not difficult for the Most Generous Lord, the Most Kind, Most Merciful, Most Munificent, Self-Sufficient, Most Praiseworthy, Knower of subtleties, the Most Gracious, the Sovereign, the Judge, the Majestic, the Beautiful, the Bestower of blessings and immense favours, Whose generosity knows no end and Whose blessings cannot be counted, and no one can comprehend some of His kindness.

﴿ هَذَا وَإِلَٰكُ اللَّظَنِينَ لَشَرِّ مَنَاقِبٍ ۝٥٥ جَهَنَّمَ بَصُلُونَهَا فَنِعْسَ إِلَيْهَا ۝٥٦ هَذَا فَنِدْفُوقُهُ
 حَمِيمٌ وَعَسَاقُ ۝٥٧ وَآخِرُ مَنْ شَكَلَهُ أَزْوَاجٌ ۝٥٨ هَذَا قَوْجٌ مُّقْنَحِمٌ مَّعَكُمْ لَا مَرْجَا
 يَهُمْ إِيَّاهُمْ صَلُّوا النَّارَ ۝٥٩ قَالُوا بَلْ أَنْتُمْ لَا مَرْجَا يَكُمُ أَنْتُمْ قَدْ مَتَمُّوهُ لَنَا فَنِعْسَ الْقَرَارُ
 ۝٦٠ قَالُوا رَبَّنَا مَنْ قَدَّمَ لَنَا هَذَا فَرَدَهُ عَذَابًا ضِعْفًا فِي النَّارِ ۝٦١ وَقَالُوا مَا لَنَا لَا نَرَى
 رَجُلًا كُنَّا نَعُدُّهُمْ مِنَ الْأَشْرَارِ ۝٦٢ أَخَذَتْهُمْ سَخِرِيًّا أَمْ زَاغَتْ عَنْهُمْ الْأَبْصَارُ ۝٦٣ إِنَّ
 ذَلِكَ لَحَقٌّ تَخَاضِعُ أَهْلُ النَّارِ ۝٦٤﴾ (سورة ص: ٥٥-٦٤)

- 38:55. Thus it will be. But verily the transgressors will have a wretched journey's end:
- 38:56. Hell, which they will enter; what a wretched resting-place!
- 38:57. This [is the punishment], so let them taste it: scalding water and pus.
- 38:58. and other similar [punishments], of various kinds.
- 38:59. [Their leaders will say to one another:] Here is a group of people rushing headlong to join you. There is no welcome for them; they will surely enter the fire.
- 38:60. [The followers will say to the leaders:] Nay, rather it is you for whom there is no welcome! It is you who brought this upon us. Indeed this is an evil place to settle in!

- 38:61. They will say: Our Lord, whoever brought this upon us, give them a double punishment in the fire.
- 38:62. And they will say: Why do we not see men whom we used to count among the wicked
- 38:63. and whom we used to ridicule? Have our eyes missed them?
- 38:64. All this will surely come to pass: the inhabitants of the fire will dispute among themselves.

«Thus it will be» that is, the reward of the pious will be as We have described it.

«But verily the transgressors» that is, those who overstep the mark in disbelief and sin

«will have a wretched journey's end» that is, the worst place of return.

Then Allah explains that further, as He says: «Hell» in which all torments are combined, and its heat and cold are severe «which they will enter» that is, they will be subjected therein to a punishment which will encompass them on all sides, with layers of fire above them and beneath them.

«what a wretched resting-place» that is prepared for them as a place to dwell and settle.

«This» resting-place, severe punishment, disgrace, shame and torment, will form the punishment

«so let them taste it: scalding water» that is extremely hot; they will drink it and it will cut their intestines

«and pus» which is the worst possible drink, composed of pus; its taste is bitter and its smell is foul.

«and other similar [punishments], of various kinds» that is, several types of punishment with which they will be punished and humiliated.

When they come to the fire, they will revile one another and say to one another:

«Here is a group of people rushing headlong to join you» in the fire.

«There is no welcome for them; they will surely enter the fire».

The group that is rushing headlong will say: «Nay, rather it is you for whom there is no welcome! It is you who brought this» namely the punishment «upon us» by calling us to it and by tempting and misguiding us; you are the cause of all this.

«Indeed this is an evil place to settle in» that is, a place to settle in for all of them, an utterly evil place.

Then they will pray against those who led them astray, saying: «Our Lord, whoever brought this upon us, give them a double punishment in the fire». Elsewhere Allah tells us:

«...He will say: [It will be] doubled for all, but you do not know.»
(al-A'raf 7: 38)

«And they will say» when they are in the fire:

«Why do we not see men whom we used to count among the wicked» that is, we used to claim that they were among the wicked who deserved the punishment of the fire. But in fact they were the believers. The inhabitants of the fire will notice that they are missing and will wonder why they do not see them in the fire.

«and whom we used to ridicule? Have our eyes missed them?» That is, the fact that we do not see them must be due to one of two reasons:

Either we were mistaken when we regarded them as being among the wicked, and in fact they are among the good; we only said what we said about them by way of mockery and ridicule. This is true, as Allah (ﷻ) tells us elsewhere that He will say to the inhabitants of hell:

«Among My slaves there were some who said: Our Lord, we believe, so forgive us and have mercy upon us, for You are the Most Merciful of those who show mercy. But you treated them with ridicule, so much so that [ridicule of them] made you forget all remembrance of Me, and you used to laugh at them.» (al-Mu'minoon 23: 109-110)

Or perhaps they are with us in the fire, but we cannot see them. It may be that this is what they still believe in their hearts, so the belief that they held in this world and often repeated – that the believers would be in hell – was so well entrenched in their hearts that it became second nature to them, so they entered hell like this and said what they said.

Or it may be that they will say this by way of deceit, as they practised deceit in this world, so they will persist in that deceitful attitude even in hell. Therefore the people of the heights (al-a'raf) will say to the people of hell:

«Are these the ones concerning whom you swore that Allah would never bestow His mercy upon them? [Now] enter paradise; you will have no fear nor will you grieve.» (al-A'raf 7: 49)

Allah says, confirming what He has told us, and He is the most truthful in speech: «All this» that We have told you about «will surely come to pass» and there is no doubt about it whatsoever. «the inhabitants of the fire will dispute among themselves».

﴿قُلْ إِنَّمَا أَنَا مُنذِرٌ وَمَا مِن إِلَهٍ إِلَّا اللَّهُ الْوَاحِدُ الْقَهَّارُ﴾ (٥٦) رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا
 بَيْنَهُمَا الْعَزِيزُ الْغَفُورُ ﴿٥٧﴾ قُلْ هُوَ نَبَوُّ عَظِيمٌ ﴿٥٨﴾ أَنْتُمْ عَنْهُ مُعْرِضُونَ ﴿٥٩﴾ مَا كَانَ لِي مِنْ عِلْمٍ
 بِالْمَلَأِ الْأَعْلَى إِذْ يَخْتَصِمُونَ ﴿٦٠﴾ إِن يُوحَىٰ إِلَيَّ إِلَّا أَنَّمَا أَنَا نَذِيرٌ مُّبِينٌ ﴿٦١﴾ إِذْ قَالَ رَبُّكَ لِلْمَلَأِكَةِ
 إِنِّي خَلَقْتُ بَشَرًا مِّن طِينٍ ﴿٦٢﴾ فَإِذَا سَوَّيْتُهُ وَنَفَخْتُ فِيهِ مِن رُّوحِي فَقَعُوا لَهُ سَاجِدِينَ ﴿٦٣﴾
 فَسَجَدَ الْمَلَأِكَةُ كُلُّهُمْ أَجْمَعُونَ ﴿٦٤﴾ إِلَّا إِبْلِيسَ اسْتَكْبَرَ وَكَانَ مِنَ الْكَافِرِينَ ﴿٦٥﴾
 قَالَ يَا إِبْلِيسُ مَا مَنَعَكَ أَنْ تَسْجُدَ لِمَا خَلَقْتُ بِإِيدِي اسْتَكَبَرْتَ أَمْ كُنْتَ مِنَ الْعَالِينَ ﴿٦٦﴾ قَالَ
 أَنَا خَيْرٌ مِّنْهُ خَلَقْتَنِي مِن نَّارٍ وَخَلَقْتَهُ مِن طِينٍ ﴿٦٧﴾ قَالَ فَاهْجُرْ مِنْهَا فَإِنَّكَ رَجِيمٌ ﴿٦٨﴾ وَإِنْ
 عَلَيْكَ لَعْنَتِي إِلَى يَوْمِ الدِّينِ ﴿٦٩﴾ قَالَ رَبِّ فَأَنْظِرْنِي إِلَى يَوْمِ يُبْعَثُونَ ﴿٧٠﴾ قَالَ فَإِنَّكَ مِنَ

الْمُنْظَرِينَ ﴿٨٥﴾ إِلَيَّ يَوْمَ الْوَقْتِ الْمَعْلُومِ ﴿٨٦﴾ قَالَ فَبِعِزَّتِكَ لَا أُخَوِّسُهُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٨٧﴾
 إِلَّا عِبَادَكَ مِنْهُمْ الْمُخْلِصِينَ ﴿٨٨﴾ قَالَ فَالْحَقُّ وَالْحَقُّ أَقُولُ ﴿٨٩﴾ لَأَمْلَأَنَّ جَهَنَّمَ مِنْكَ
 وَمِمَّنْ يَبْعَكَ مِنْهُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٩٠﴾ قُلْ مَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ أَجْرٍ وَمَا أَنَا مِنَ الْمُتَكَلِّفِينَ ﴿٩١﴾ إِنَّ هُوَ
 إِلَّا ذِكْرٌ لِلْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٩٢﴾ وَلَتَعْلَمَنَّ نَبَأَهُ بَعْدَ حِينٍ ﴿٩٣﴾ (سورة ص: ٦٥-٨٨)

- 38:65. Say [O Muhammad]: I am but a warner, and there is no god but Allah, the One, the Subjugator, 38:66. Lord of the heavens and the earth and all that is between them, the Almighty, the Oft-Forgiving.
 38:67. Say: This is a message of great importance
 38:68. from which you are turning away.
 38:69. I had no knowledge<sup>63</sup> of those on high when they disputed [concerning the creation of Adam].
 38:70. I have only received revelation in order to give you clear warning.
 38:71. [Remember] when your Lord said to the angels: Verily I am going to create a human being from clay.
 38:72. So when I have fashioned him and breathed into him the soul which I created for him, fall down in prostration before him.
 38:73. Thereupon, the angels all fell down in prostration, 38:74. except Iblees; he was arrogant and was one of the disbelievers.
 38:75. Allah said: O Iblees, what prevented you from prostrating to what I created with My own two Hands? Are you too proud, or do you deem yourself superior?
 38:76. He said: I am better than he; You created me from fire and You created him from clay.
 38:77. Allah said: Then get out of here, for you are accursed, 38:78. And verily My curse will be upon you until the Day of Judgement.

<sup>63</sup> Were it not for the revelation, the Prophet (ﷺ) would have known nothing about the dispute among those on high (namely the angels).

- 38:79. Iblees said: O my Lord, grant me respite until the day they are resurrected.
- 38:80. Allah said: You are among those who are granted respite,
- 38:81. Until the day of the time appointed.
- 38:82. Iblees said: By Your might, I will certainly mislead them all,
- 38:83. except Your chosen [and sincere] slaves among them.
- 38:84. Allah said: The truth is, and I speak nothing but the truth:
- 38:85. I will surely fill hell with you and those who follow you, all together.
- 38:86. Say [O Muhammad]: I do not ask you for any recompense for this, nor do I pretend to be what I am not.
- 38:87. It [the Qur'an] is but a reminder to the worlds.
- 38:88. And you will surely come to know its truth after a while.

﴿Say﴾, O Messenger (ﷺ), to the disbelievers, if they demand from you that which is not under your control:

﴿I am but a warner﴾ and that is all I am. As for control, it belongs to Allah (ﷻ). But I convey to you commands and prohibitions; I urge you to do good and I warn you against evil. Whoever is guided, it is to his own benefit, and whoever goes astray, it is to his own detriment.

﴿and there is no god but Allah﴾ that is, there is no one who is deserving of devotion or worship except Allah, ﴿the One, the Subjugator﴾.

This is an affirmation of His divinity, on the basis of definitive proof, namely His oneness and His subjugation of all things. Subjugation is indicative of oneness, because there cannot be two subjugators who are equal in their subjugation. The One Who subjugates all things is the One Who has no equal, and He is the One Who alone deserves to be worshipped, just as He alone is the Subjugator.

He also affirms that on the basis of the oneness of His Lordship, as He says:

«Lord of the heavens and the earth and all that is between them» that is, their Creator Who cares for them and controls them in all ways «the Almighty» to Whom belongs all power, by which He created mighty things «the Oft-Forgiving» Who forgives all sins, minor and major, for those who repent to Him and give up sin.

Such is the One Who alone is deserving of worship, to the exclusion of those who do not create or provide anything, and have no power to cause harm or bring benefit, and have no control over anything and no ability to do anything, and have no power to forgive sins.

«Say» to them, to alert and warn, and to motivate them: «This is a message of great importance» that is, what I am telling you about the resurrection and requital of deeds is a message of great importance; a great deal of attention must be paid to it, and it should not be overlooked.

But «you are turning away» from it as if there is no reckoning or punishment or reward ahead of you.

If you doubt what I say and you are suspicious about what I have told you, then you should note that I am telling you about things of which I have no knowledge and that I have never read about in any book; the fact that I am telling you about it exactly as it is, without any addition or omission, is the greatest testimony to my truthfulness and the clearest evidence of the truth of what I have brought to you. Hence Allah instructed him to say:

«I had no knowledge of those on high» namely the angels «when they disputed [concerning the creation of Adam]», were it not for Allah informing me and revealing it to me. Hence he (was instructed to) say:

«I have only received revelation in order to give you clear warning» – there was no warner who was clearer in his warning than the Prophet (ﷺ).

Then Allah mentions the dispute of those on high:

«[Remember] when your Lord said to the angels» by way of informing them:

«Verily I am going to create a human being from clay» that is, his essential substance will be clay

«So when I have fashioned him» that is, when I have fashioned his body and it is complete,

«and breathed into him the soul which I created for him, fall down in prostration before him». So the noble angels prepared themselves to do that, when his creation was completed and the soul had been breathed into him, in obedience to their Lord and by way of honouring Adam (ﷺ). So when his creation was completed, in body and soul, and Allah tested Adam and the angels with regard to knowledge, and his superiority over them became apparent, Allah instructed them to prostrate to him.

So they all prostrated to him, «except Iblees», who did not prostrate.

«he was arrogant» that is, he was too arrogant to obey his Lord and showed arrogance towards Adam

«and was one of the disbelievers» in the knowledge of Allah (ﷻ).

«Allah said», rebuking Iblees

«O Iblees, what prevented you from prostrating to what I created with My own two Hands?» That is, I honoured him and blessed him, and singled him out for this virtue, to the exclusion of the rest of creation, which dictated that no one should be arrogant towards him.

«Are you too proud» in your refusal

«or do you deem yourself superior?»

Iblees said, expressing opposition to his Lord and going against His commands:

«I am better than he; You created me from fire and You created him from clay» and according to his claim, the element of fire was superior to the element of clay. But this was a false analogy, for the element of fire is the substance of evil, mischief, arrogance, foolishness and indecency, whereas the element of clay is the substance of dignity and humility, it is the source that brings forth all kinds of trees and plants, and it overwhelms and extinguishes fire. Fire requires a substance in order to exist, whereas clay exists by itself. This is the analogy of the leader of the evil people, on the basis of which he opposed the verbal command of Allah. It is obviously false and invalid, so what do you think of the analogy of the students of this leader, on the basis of which they oppose the truth? All of that is even more false and more invalid.

«Allah said» to him:

«Then get out of here» that is, get out of heaven, the place of honour
«for you are accursed» that is, disgraced and outcast (7: 18)

«verily My curse will be upon you» that is, you will continue to be disgraced and outcast

«until the Day of Judgement» that is, always and for ever.

«Iblees said: O my Lord, grant me respite until the day they are resurrected». This was because of his extreme enmity towards Adam and his progeny; he wanted to be able to lead astray whomever Allah decreed that he should lead astray.

«Allah said» in response to his request, and in accordance with the dictates of His wisdom:

«You are among those who are granted respite, until the day of the time appointed».

When Iblees was certain that he had been given respite, he showed his Lord the extent of his evil and his extreme enmity towards his Lord and towards Adam and his progeny. Therefore he said:

«By Your might» that is, by Your greatness and majesty, «I will certainly mislead them all». This was an oath sworn by the might of Allah, that he would mislead them all.

«except Your chosen [and sincere] slaves among them». He knew that Allah would protect them from his schemes.

Or it may be that what is meant is that, instead of swearing an oath, when he realised that he was helpless in all ways and could not mislead anyone except by Allah's leave, he sought divine help, by mentioning Allah's might, so that he could lead the progeny of Adam astray, even though he was truly the enemy of Allah.

So here we are, O our Lord, helpless and falling short, acknowledging all the blessings that You bestow, the descendants of the one whom You honoured and blessed. We seek Your help, by Your great might, power and mercy that encompass all creatures, and Your mercy by means of which You granted what You granted of blessings both religious and worldly, and You averted from us what You averted of harm. We ask You to help us to stand up to him and fight him, and to keep us safe from his evil and his traps. We have great hope that You will respond to our supplication, and we believe in Your promise as You said to us:

﴿Your Lord says: Call upon Me; I will answer your prayer...﴾ (Ghāfir 40: 60)

We call upon You as You have commanded us, so answer us as You have promised us,

﴿...for You never break Your promise.﴾ (Āl 'Imrān 3: 194)

﴿Allah said: The truth is, and I speak nothing but the truth﴾ that is, truth is what I am and truth is what I say:

﴿I will surely fill hell with you and those who follow you, all together﴾.

When the Messenger (ﷺ) had presented proof to the people and highlighted the path of guidance, Allah said to him:

﴿Say [O Muhammad]: I do not ask you for any recompense for this﴾ that is, for my calling you

﴿nor do I pretend to be what I am not﴾ nor do I say things of which I have no knowledge; I only follow what is revealed to me.

﴿It [the Qur'an] is but a reminder to the worlds﴾, by means of which they will be reminded of all that will benefit them and serve their interests, both religious and worldly. So it will be an honour to those who act upon it, and will raise them in status, and it will establish proof to those who stubbornly reject it.

This mighty soorah contains a wise reminder and a message of great importance, and it establishes proof and evidence against those who disbelieve in the Qur'an and oppose it, and who reject the one who brought it. It tells us about the sincere and chosen slaves of Allah, and the requital of both the pious and the transgressors. Therefore at the beginning, it contains an oath that it is full of reminders, and at the end it describes it as a reminder to the worlds.

The idea of reminding (and remembering) is mentioned frequently throughout, such as when Allah says: ﴿remember Our slave﴾ (38: 17, 41); ﴿Remember Our slaves﴾ (38: 45); ﴿as a mercy from Us and as a reminder to people of understanding﴾ (38: 43); and ﴿This is a reminder﴾ (38: 49).

O Allah, teach us of the Qur'an that which we do not know, and remind us of what we have forgotten, whether that forgetting is the result of heedlessness or not implementing it.

﴿And you will surely come to know its truth﴾ that is, the truth of what it foretells
 ﴿after a while﴾, when the punishment befalls them and they have no source of help.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat Şād.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

39.
Soorat az-Zumar
(Makki)

---

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿تَنْزِيلُ الْكِتَابِ مِنَ اللَّهِ الْعَزِيزِ الْحَكِيمِ﴾ ① إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَاهُ إِلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ بِالْحَقِّ
فَاعْبُدِ اللَّهَ مُخْلِصًا لَهُ الدِّينَ ② أَلَا لِلَّهِ الدِّينُ الْخَالِصُ وَالَّذِينَ اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ
أَوْلِيَاءَ مَا نَعْبُدُهُمْ إِلَّا لِيُقَرِّبُونَا إِلَى اللَّهِ زُلْفَىٰ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَحْكُمُ بَيْنَهُمْ فِي مَا هُمْ فِيهِ
يَخْتَلِفُونَ ③ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي مَنْ هُوَ كَاذِبٌ كَفَّارٌ ④ (سورة الزمر: ١-٣)

- 39:1. The revelation of the Book is from Allah, the Almighty, the Most Wise.
- 39:2. Verily We have sent down to you [O Muhammad] the Book with the truth, so worship Allah, with sincere devotion to Him alone.
- 39:3. Verily, sincere devotion is due to Allah alone. As for those who take others besides Him as protectors, [they say]: We only worship them so that they may bring us nearer to Allah. Allah will surely judge between them concerning that wherein they differ. Verily Allah does not guide anyone who persists in lies and disbelief.
-

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the greatness of the Qur'an and the majesty of the One Who spoke it and from Whom it came down. For it came down from Allah, the Almighty, the Most Wise, the One Who is the object of worship and love for humankind. That is because of His greatness and perfection, and His might by which He subjugates all creatures, and everything surrenders to Him; all wisdom is in His creation and His command.

So the Qur'an has come down from One Who is like this; speech is an attribute of the speaker, and the attribute is connected to the one who possesses that attribute. Therefore just as Allah is perfect in all aspects, and there is none like unto Him, so too His word is perfect in all aspects, and there is nothing like it. This alone is sufficient to describe the Qur'an and highlight its sublime nature.

But – moreover – in order to highlight the level of perfection of the Qur'an, Allah mentions the one to whom it was revealed, namely Muhammad (ﷺ), who is the noblest of creation. Thus it is known that it is the noblest of books, and what it contains is the truth. It was sent down with the truth, concerning which there is no doubt, to bring humankind forth from the depths of darkness to the light. It was sent down containing the truth with regard to what it tells of the stories of the past and the future, and what it prescribes of just rulings. Everything it mentions is the greatest type of truth in all respects, and there is nothing beyond the truth except misguidance.

As the Qur'an was sent down from the true God, containing truth to guide humankind, to the best of humankind, the blessing of its sending is immense, and thanks must be given for that. That is to be done by devoting worship to Allah alone. Therefore He says: ﴿so worship Allah, with sincere devotion to Him alone﴾ that is, devote to Allah (ﷻ) alone all your worship, complying outwardly and inwardly with His commands. This refers to Islam, faith and ihsân,<sup>64</sup> which means focusing one's devotion on Allah alone, seeking thereby His pleasure and not focusing on anything else.

---

<sup>64</sup> Ihsân is referred to in the well-known hadith in which it was narrated that 'Umar said: =

«Verily, sincere devotion is due to Allah alone». The command to focus devotion on Him alone is reiterated, so as to highlight the fact that just as all perfection belongs to Him alone, and all favours and blessings come from Him, for He is kind to His slaves in all aspects, so all worship should be devoted to Him alone, with pure intentions, free from any other motives. That is the devotion that Allah will accept from people and that He expects from the best of His creation and that He enjoined upon them, because it means that one's love, fear and hope are entirely focused on Him, and one is totally focused on Him, so that one may attain what one wants.

This level of devotion is what guarantees the well-being of people's hearts, and purifies and cleanses them, not associating anything else with Him in worship. Allah does not accept any deeds that are contaminated with the ascription of partners to Him, for He has no

---

= «We were sitting with the Prophet (ﷺ) when a man came to him whose clothes were intensely white and whose hair was intensely black; no signs of travel could be seen upon him, and none of us knew him. He sat down facing the Prophet (ﷺ), with his knees touching his, and he put his hands on his thighs, and said: O Muhammad, what is Islam? He said: To testify that there is no god except Allah, and that I am the Messenger of Allah; to establish regular prayer; to pay zakāh; to fast in Ramadan; and to perform pilgrimage to the House (the Kaaba). He said: You have spoken the truth. We were amazed by him: he asked a question then told him that he had spoken the truth. Then he said: O Muhammad, what is faith? He said: To believe in Allah, His angels, His Messengers, His Books, the Last Day, and the divine decree (al-qadr), both good and bad. He said: You have spoken the truth. We were amazed by him: he asked a question then told him that he had spoken the truth. Then he said: O Muhammad, what is ihsān (right action, goodness, sincerity)? He said: To worship Allah as if you see Him, for even though you cannot see Him, He sees you.» This version was narrated by Ibn Mājah; the hadith was also narrated by Bukhari, Muslim and others.

need of any partner whatsoever. Ascription of partners to Him corrupts hearts and souls, and is detrimental to one's well-being in this world and the hereafter, for it leads to doom and misery in the worst manner.

Therefore, when Allah commanded people to affirm His oneness and devote their worship sincerely to Him alone, He forbade them to ascribe partners to Him, and condemned those who do so. Hence He said:

﴿As for those who take others besides Him as protectors﴾ that is, by directing their worship and supplication to them, they seek to justify their actions by saying:

﴿We only worship them so that they may bring us nearer to Allah﴾ that is, so that they may take up our needs to Allah and intercede for us with Him; otherwise we know that they do not create or provide anything, and they do not have any control over anything.

In other words, these people turned away from that which Allah had enjoined of devoting worship only to Him, and they committed the greatest of transgressions, namely the ascription of partners to Allah; they compared the One Who has no comparison, the Almighty Sovereign, to human kings, and they claimed – on the basis of their corrupt thinking – that just as human kings cannot be reached except through prominent people, intercessors and advisers, who take the needs of their subjects to them, seek clemency for them and help people to get what they want, then Allah (ﷻ) can only be reached in the same way.

This analogy is one of the most corrupt analogies, for it implicitly regards the Creator and the created being as equal, even though it is established – on the basis of rational thinking, textual evidence and common sense – that there is a vast difference between them. Human kings only need intermediaries between them and their subjects because they do not know the situation of their subjects, so they need people who can tell them about their situation. Moreover, there may be no compassion in their hearts towards those who are in need, which necessitates the presence of people who will plead for clemency for them and ask them to show kindness to them. Kings need intercessors and advisers, but they also fear them, so they meet the needs of those on whose behalf the advisers intercede, out of consideration towards the advisers and to show kindness to them. They are also in need because they may withhold help for fear of losing their wealth.

As for the Lord (ﷻ), Whose knowledge encompasses all things, both visible and hidden, and He does not need anyone to tell him about the situation of His subjects and slaves, He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy, the Most Generous of those who show generosity; He does not need anyone among His creation to make Him show mercy to His slaves. Rather He is more merciful towards them than their own selves and their parents. It is He Who urges them and calls them to that by means of which they may attain His mercy, and He is keen to care for them in ways that they may not want for themselves.

He is free of need and completely self-sufficient; if all of creation, from the first to the last, were to come together in a single plain and ask of Him, and He were to give each one of them what he asked for and wished for, that would not diminish what He owns in the slightest, and it would not detract from what He possesses, except the likeness of what is detracted from the sea when a needle is dipped in it. All the intercessors fear Him, and not one of them can intercede except by His leave, for all intercession belongs to Him.

On the basis of these differences, one may realise how ignorant and foolish are those who ascribe partners to Him, and how audacious they are in transgressing against Him. One may also realise the reason why Allah (ﷻ) does not forgive the ascription of partners to Him, for it is an implicit criticism of Allah (ﷻ). Hence He says – judging between the two parties, those who worship Him alone and those who ascribe partners to Him – and in these words there is an implicit threat to those who ascribe partners to Him:

«Allah will surely judge between them concerning that wherein they differ».

It is known that His judgement is that the sincere believers who worship Him alone will be in the gardens of bliss, but for the one who ascribed partners to Allah, Allah has forbidden paradise to him, and his abode will be the fire.

«Verily Allah does not guide anyone who persists in lies and disbelief» that is, one whose main quality is lies or disbelief, in the sense that exhortations and signs come to him, yet this entrenched quality does not depart from him; Allah shows him the signs, but he denies them, disbelieves them and rejects them.

How can such a one be guided when he has barred the door to himself? His punishment is that Allah places a seal on his heart, so he will not believe.

﴿لَوْ أَرَادَ اللَّهُ أَنْ يَتَّخِذَ وَلَدًا لَاصْطَفَىٰ مِمَّا يَخْلُقُ مَا يَشَاءُ سُبْحَانَهُ هُوَ اللَّهُ
الْوَحِيدُ الْقَهَّارُ ﴿٤﴾﴾ (سورة الزمر: ٤)

- 39:4. If Allah had wanted to take for Himself a son, He could have chosen whomever He wished from among what He has created. Glory be to Him! He is Allah, the One, the Subjugator.

«If Allah had wanted to take for Himself a son» as is claimed by foolish people

«He could have chosen whomever He wished from among what He has created» that is, He could have chosen whomever He wanted from among His creation, and made him like a son, and He would have had no need to take a wife.

«Glory be to Him!» And exalted be He far above what the disbelievers think of Him and what the heretics ascribe to Him.

«He is Allah, the One, the Subjugator» that is, He is One (and unique) in His essence, in His names, in His attributes and in His deeds. Nothing is comparable to Him. If He had a son, that would imply that the son would be like Him in oneness, because he would be part of Him. And He is the Subjugator of all realms, both upper and lower. If He had a son, he would not be subjugated, and he would have some influence on his father and would be similar to his father.

The divine attributes of oneness and subjugation are interconnected; if He is One, He cannot but be the Subjugator, and the Subjugator cannot be but One. This rules out any kind of partnership whatsoever.

﴿خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ بِالْحَقِّ يُكَوِّرُ اللَّيْلَ عَلَى النَّهَارِ وَيُكَوِّرُ النَّهَارَ عَلَى اللَّيْلِ وَسَخَّرَ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ كُلٌّ يَجْرِي لِأَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى ۚ أَلَا هُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْغَفُورُ ۝ خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ نَفْسٍ وَاحِدَةٍ ثُمَّ جَعَلَ مِنْهَا زَوْجَهَا وَأَنزَلَ لَكُمْ مِنْ الْأَنْعَامِ ثَمَنِينَ ۚ أَنْزَلَ لَكُمْ مِنْ أَنْبَاطِكُمْ فِي بُطُونِ أُمَّهَاتِكُمْ خَلَقًا مِنْ بَعْدِ خَلْقٍ فِي ظُلُمَاتٍ ثَلَاثٍ ۚ ذَٰلِكُمْ اللَّهُ رَبُّكُمْ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ ۚ فَآَنَ تُصْرَفُونَ ۝ إِن تَكْفُرُوا فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفِيٌّ عَنْكُمْ وَلَا يَرْضَىٰ لِعِبَادِهِ الْكُفْرَ ۚ وَإِنْ تَشْكُرُوا يَرْضَهُ لَكُمْ ۚ وَلَا تَزِرُ وَازِرَةٌ وِزْرَ أُخْرَىٰ ۚ ثُمَّ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكُمْ مَرْجِعُكُمْ فَيُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ۚ إِنَّهُ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ ۝﴾

(سورة الزمر: ٥-٧)

- 39:5. He created the heavens and the earth for a true purpose. He wraps the night over the day and wraps the day over the night. He has made the sun and moon to be of service, each running its course for an appointed time. Verily He is the Almighty, the Oft-Forgiving.
- 39:6. He created you from a single soul, and created from it its mate, and He bestowed upon you livestock, eight in [four] pairs. He creates you in your mothers' wombs, one stage after another, in three layers of darkness. Such is Allah your Lord. His is the dominion; there is no god but He. So how could you be turned away [from the truth]?

- 39:7. If you disbelieve, verily Allah has no need of you, but He does not approve of disbelief for His slaves. If you give thanks, He approves of that for you. No bearer of burdens can bear the burden of another. Then to your Lord you will [all] return, then He will inform you about what you used to do. Verily He knows well what is in [people's] hearts.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He ﴿created the heavens and the earth for a true purpose﴾ that is, for a wise reason and aim, and in order to issue commands and prohibitions to His slaves, and to reward and punish them.

﴿He wraps the night over the day and wraps the day over the night﴾ that is, He causes each to encroach upon the other and take its place, so they do not come together; rather when one of them comes, the other withdraws.

﴿He has made the sun and moon to be of service﴾ so that they follow a specific system

﴿each﴾ – both the sun and the moon – ﴿running its course for an appointed time﴾ that is, until this world comes to an end and is destroyed. Allah will destroy its means of life, its sun and moon, and He will create people anew so that they may settle in their eternal abode, either paradise or hell.

﴿Verily He is the Almighty﴾ and nothing can stand up to Him; He is the subjugator of all things and nothing is beyond Him; by His might, He brought into being these mighty creations, and subjugated them to run their course by His command.

﴿the Oft-Forgiving﴾ Who forgives the sins of His believing, repentant slaves, as He says elsewhere:

﴿Verily, I am Oft-Forgiving to those who repent and believe, and do righteous deeds, then remain steadfast.﴾ (Tā Hā 20: 82)

He forgives the one who ascribes partners to Him, after he sees His great signs, then repents.

By His might, ﴿He created you from a single soul﴾ even though you are so many and widely spread throughout the earth ﴿and created from it its mate﴾ so that he might find comfort in her and she might find comfort in him; thus the blessing will be perfected. ﴿and He bestowed upon you livestock﴾ as a mercy to you ﴿eight in [four] pairs﴾ – they are mentioned in Soorat al-An'ām: ﴿...eight in [four] pairs: a pair of sheep and a pair of goats... [And likewise] a pair of camels and a pair of cattle...﴾ (al-An'ām 6: 143-144)

Allah singled these out for mention, even though He also bestowed other animals upon His slaves to serve their interests, because of their many benefits, for man meets many of his needs through them, and also because of their honour, as they were singled out for certain purposes and no other animals can serve in their place – such as the udhiyah, hady and 'aqeeqah; the fact that it is obligatory to give zakāh on them; and because they may be given as diyah (blood money).

Having mentioned the creation of our father and mother, Allah now mentions the beginning of creation:

﴿He creates you in your mothers' wombs, one stage after another﴾ when you are at a stage where no human hand has touched you and no eye has seen you, it is He Who cares for you in that tight space ﴿in three layers of darkness﴾ namely the darkness of the abdomen, then the darkness of the uterus, then the darkness of the placenta. ﴿Such﴾ that is, the One Who created the heavens and the earth, and made the sun and moon to be of service, and created you and created the livestock animals for you, ﴿is Allah your Lord﴾ that is, the only One Who is deserving of devotion and worship, Who cares for you and disposes of your affairs.

Just as He is the only One Who created you and cares for you, and has no partner in that, He is the only One Who deserves to be worshipped, with no partner or associate.

Hence He says: ﴿His is the dominion; there is no god but He. So how could you be turned away [from the truth]?﴾ After this statement – the statement that He alone is deserving of devotion – how can you turn to worshipping idols that do not control anything at all?

﴿If you disbelieve, verily Allah has no need of you﴾ and He will not be harmed by your disbelief just as He does not benefit from your obedience; rather His commands and prohibitions are purely a favour and kindness towards you

﴿but He does not approve of disbelief for His slaves﴾ because of His perfect kindness towards them and His knowledge that disbelief will lead them to doom and misery, after which they will never know any bliss; moreover, He created them to worship Him, so this is the purpose for which He created them. Therefore He does not approve of them forsaking the purpose for which He created them.

﴿If you give thanks﴾ to Allah (ﷻ), by affirming His oneness and devoting worship to Him alone,

﴿He approves of that for you﴾ because of His mercy towards you and because He loves to be kind to you, and He loves for you to do that for which He created you.

Just as He is not harmed by your ascription of partners to Him and does not benefit from your good deeds and affirmation of His oneness, so too each one of you has his own deeds, good and evil (and is not affected by the deeds of others): ﴿No bearer of burdens can bear the burden of another﴾.

﴿Then to your Lord you will [all] return﴾ on the Day of Resurrection,

﴿then He will inform you about what you used to do﴾ as He has full knowledge thereof, and it was already decreed and written by His pen, and recorded against you by the noble angels, and witnessed by your own faculties which will testify against you. Then He will requite each of you as he deserves.

﴿Verily He knows well what is in [people's] hearts﴾ and their qualities of righteousness or evil. What is meant here is to highlight the fact that the requital will be based on perfect justice.

﴿وَإِذَا مَسَّ الْإِنْسَانَ ضُرٌّ دَعَا رَبَّهُ مُنِيبًا إِلَيْهِ ثُمَّ إِذَا خَوَلَهُ نِعْمَةٌ مِنْهُ نَسِيَ مَا كَانَ يَدْعُو إِلَيْهِ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَجَعَلَ لِلَّهِ أَنْدَادًا لِيُضِلَّ عَنْ سَبِيلِهِ ۚ قُلْ تَمَتَّعْ بِكُفْرِكَ قَلِيلًا إِنَّكَ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ النَّارِ﴾ (سورة الزمر: ٨)

- 39:8. When misfortune befalls a person, he calls upon his Lord [alone], turning to Him in repentance. Then when He bestows a favour upon him from Himself, he forgets the One on Whom he was calling before, and sets up rivals to Allah, to lead people astray from His path. Say [O Muhammad]: Take pleasure in your disbelief for a little while; verily you will be among the inhabitants of the fire.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of His generosity, kindness and care towards His slave, and the lack of gratitude on the part of the slave. When misfortune – such as sickness, poverty, distress on the sea, and the like – befalls a person, he knows that no one can save him from this predicament except Allah, so he calls upon Him, beseeching Him, turning to Him and asking Him for help to relieve him from what has befallen him, and he persists in that supplication.

﴿Then when He﴾ namely Allah (ﷻ) ﴿bestows a favour upon him from Himself﴾ by relieving him from what he is suffering of harm and distress,

﴿he forgets the One on Whom he was calling before﴾ and he forgets the harm because of which he called upon Allah, and he carries on as if no harm befell him, and persists in his ascription of partners to Allah.

﴿and sets up rivals to Allah, to lead people astray from His path﴾ that is, to mislead himself and mislead others, because leading others astray is based on going astray oneself. This verse refers to what results from being misled in order to refer to the fact that he himself is misled.

﴿Say﴾ to this transgressor, who has repaid Allah's blessings with ingratitude (14: 28):

﴿Take pleasure in your disbelief for a little while; verily you will be among the inhabitants of the fire﴾. Then what you enjoyed will be of no help to you, if your final destination is hell.

﴿But consider this: if We grant them a life of ease for years, then there comes to them that which they are warned of, all the life of ease that they were granted will be of no avail to them.﴾ (ash-Shu'arâ' 26: 205-207)

﴿أَمَّنْ هُوَ قَنِتٌ ءَانَاءَ الْبَلِّ سَاجِدًا وَقَائِمًا يَحْذَرُ الْآخِرَةَ وَيَرْجُوا رَحْمَةَ رَبِّهِ قُلْ هَلْ يَسْتَوِي الَّذِينَ يَعْلَمُونَ وَالَّذِينَ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ إِنَّمَا يَتَذَكَّرُ أُولُو الْأَلْبَابِ﴾ (سورة الزمر: ٩)

39:9. [Can such a disbeliever, who is destined for hell, be better than] one who is constant in worship, spending the night prostrating and standing [in prayer], fearful of the hereafter and hoping for the mercy of his Lord? Say: Are they equal, those who know and those who do not know? It is only people of understanding who will pay heed.

This is a contrast between the one who strives in worship of Allah and one who does not, between one who has knowledge and one who is ignorant. This is something that is well established in people's minds, and it is known for certain that they are different. The one who turns away from obeying his Lord and follows his own whims and desires is not like one who is constant in worship and obeys Allah by doing the best act of worship, namely prayer, at the best of times, which is during the night. Allah describes him as doing a great deal of the best of deeds, then He describes him as having fear and hope. The reason for his fear is punishment in the hereafter for what he did of sins, and the reason for his hope is the mercy of Allah. Thus Allah describes him in terms of both inward and outward acts of obedience.

﴿Say: Are they equal, those who know﴾ their Lord and know what He has prescribed of religious duties, what He has prescribed of requital, and what He has of reasons and wisdom behind what He prescribes

﴿and those who do not know﴾ any of that? The two groups are not equal, just as night and day, light and darkness, water and fire are not equal.

﴿It is only people of understanding﴾ that is, people of clear and smart minds ﴿who will pay heed﴾ when they are reminded, for they are the ones who give precedence to that which is superior over that which is inferior. Therefore they give precedence to knowledge over ignorance, obedience to Allah over disobedience towards Him, because they have minds with which they can see the consequences of their actions. This is in contrast to those who have no understanding or reason, and therefore take their whims and desires as their god.

﴿قُلْ يٰعِبَادِ الَّذِيْنَ ءَامَنُوا اتَّقُوا رَبَّكُمْ لِلَّذِيْنَ أَحْسَنُوا فِيْ هَذِهِ الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةٌ وَأَرْضُ اللَّهِ وَاسِعَةٌ إِنَّمَا يُوَفَّى الصَّابِرُونَ أَجْرَهُمْ بِغَيْرِ حِسَابٍ﴾ (سورة الزمر: ١٠)

39:10. Say: O My slaves who believe, fear your Lord. For those who do good in this world, there will be good [reward]. Allah's earth is spacious. Verily those who are patient and steadfast will be rewarded abundantly, without measure.

That is, call upon the noblest of humankind, namely the believers, giving them the best of instructions, which is the command to fear Allah, reminding them of the reason why they should fear Him, which is because Allah is their Lord, Who bestows blessings upon them, which requires that they should fear Him. Moreover, part of the blessings that Allah has bestowed upon them is faith, which requires them to fear Him. This is like saying: O generous one, give charity, or: O brave one, fight.

Allah tells them of the reward so as to motivate them (to strive hard) in this world:

﴿For those who do good in this world﴾ by worshipping their Lord, ﴿there will be good [reward]﴾ and abundant provision, peace of mind and joy in the heart, as Allah (ﷻ) tells us elsewhere:

﴿Whoever does righteous deeds, male or female, and is a believer, We will surely grant him a good life...﴾ (an-Nahl 16: 97)

﴿Allah's earth is spacious﴾ so if you are prevented from worshipping Him in one land, then migrate to another land where you can worship your Lord and you will be able to establish your religion.

When Allah says ﴿For those who do good in this world, there will be good [reward]﴾, some people may have reason to think, based on this verse, that the text is general in meaning, and that anyone who does good will have good in this world – so what about those who believe in some land and are persecuted and are humiliated, and they do not get that good in this world? Therefore this notion is warded off by the words: ﴿Allah's earth is spacious﴾. In this regard there are glad tidings, as stated by the Prophet (ﷺ) when he said:

«A group of my Ummah will continue to adhere to the truth, prevailing and not harmed by those who forsake them or differ with them, until the decree of Allah comes to pass when they are like that.» (Muslim)

This verse refers to that and is close in meaning to it, for Allah (ﷻ) has told us that His earth is spacious, so whenever you are prevented from worshipping Him in one place, then migrate to somewhere else. This is general in meaning, and is applicable at all times and in all places. Anyone who migrates will inevitably find some Muslim community to whom he may turn and a place where he can practise his religion.

«Verily those who are patient and steadfast will be rewarded abundantly, without measure» this is general in meaning and applies to all types of patience: patience in accepting the decree of Allah, even if it is painful, so they do not complain about it; patience in refraining from sin and not committing it; and patience in obeying Allah, so that they do it. Allah has promised those who are patient their reward without measure, that is, without limit or counting. That is only because of the virtue and high status of patience before Allah, for it helps in all things.

﴿قُلْ إِنِّي أُمِرْتُ أَنْ أَعْبُدَ اللَّهَ مُخْلِصًا لَهُ الدِّينَ ۚ وَأُمِرْتُ لِأَنْ أَكُونَ أَوَّلَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ ۚ قُلْ إِنِّي أَخَافُ إِنْ عَصَيْتُ رَبِّي عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ عَظِيمٍ ۚ قُلْ اللَّهُ أَعْبُدْ مُخْلِصًا لَهُ دِينِي ۚ فَاعْبُدُوا مَا شِئْتُمْ مِنْ دُونِهِ ۚ قُلْ إِنَّ الْخَاسِرِينَ الَّذِينَ خَسِرُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ وَأَهْلِيهِمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ ۚ أَلَا ذَلِكَ هُوَ الْخُسْرَانُ الْمُبِينُ ۚ هُمْ مِنْ قَوْفِهِمْ ظُلَلٌ مِنَ النَّارِ ۚ وَمِنْ تَحْتِهِمْ ظُلَلٌ ۚ ذَلِكَ يُخَوِّفُ اللَّهَ بِهِ عِبَادَهُ ۚ يَعْبُدُونِ ۚ﴾ (سورة الزمر: ١١-١٦)

- 39:11. Say [O Muhammad]: Verily I have been commanded to worship Allah, with sincere devotion to Him alone, 39:12. and I have been commanded to be the first of those who submit to Allah [in Islam].
 39:13. Say: I fear, if I were to disobey my Lord, the punishment of a momentous day.

- 39:14. Say: It is Allah I worship, with sincere devotion to Him alone; 39:15. so worship whatever you wish besides Him. Say: Indeed the real losers will be those who lose their own souls and their families on the Day of Resurrection. That is indeed manifest loss.
 39:16. They will have layers of fire above them and beneath them. Thus Allah instils fear in His slaves: O My slaves, then fear Me!

﴿Say﴾, O Messenger (ﷺ), to the people:

﴿Verily I have been commanded to worship Allah, with sincere devotion to Him alone﴾. This was at the beginning of the soorah, where Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿so worship Allah, with sincere devotion to Him alone﴾ (39: 2).

﴿and I have been commanded to be the first of those who submit to Allah [in Islam]﴾ because I am the one who calls and guides people to their Lord, which dictates that I should be the first one to comply with what I enjoin, and the first one to submit to Allah in Islam. This should be the case on the part of Muhammad (ﷺ) and on the part of those who claim to be his followers: it is essential that they comply visibly and outwardly with the teachings of Islam, and that they be sincere to Allah alone in all their deeds, both visible and hidden.

﴿Say: I fear, if I were to disobey my Lord﴾ with regard to what He has enjoined upon me of sincerity and submission
 ﴿the punishment of a momentous day﴾ in which those who ascribe partners to Him will abide for ever, and those who disobey Him will be punished.

﴿Say: It is Allah I worship, with sincere devotion to Him alone; so worship whatever you wish besides Him﴾. This is like the soorah in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Say: O disbelievers, I do not worship what you worship, nor do you worship what I worship; I will not worship what you worship, nor will you worship what I worship. To you be your religion, and to me my religion.﴾ (al-Kāfiroon 109: 1-6)

﴿Say: Indeed the real losers will be those who lose their own souls﴾ as they will have deprived them of reward and incurred the worst punishment

﴿and their families on the Day of Resurrection﴾ that is, they will be separated from them, and they will grieve for them and feel the pain of heavy loss.

﴿That is indeed manifest loss﴾ and there is no other loss like it, for it is ongoing loss after which there is no gain, and not even sound well-being.

Then Allah tells us of the severity of what they will go through of misery and hardship:

﴿They will have layers of fire above them﴾ that is, pieces of fire like huge clouds

﴿and beneath them﴾.

﴿Thus﴾ that is, by means of this description that Allah gives of the punishment of the people of hell, which is a means by which Allah pushes His slaves towards His mercy, ﴿Allah instils fear in His slaves: O My slaves, then fear Me!﴾ That is, He uses what He has prepared of punishment for those who are doomed as a means of calling His slaves to fear Him, and as a means of deterring them from that which incurs the punishment. Glory be to the One Who shows mercy to His slaves in all things, and has made easy for them the paths that lead to Him, which He urges them to follow and encourages them with everything that souls may desire and with which hearts may feel at ease, and He emphatically warns them against striving for the sake of anything other than Him, and mentions that which may deter them from doing so.

﴿وَالَّذِينَ اجْتَنَبُوا الطَّاغُوتَ أَنْ يَعْبُدُوهَا وَأَنَابُوا إِلَى اللَّهِ لَهُمُ الْبُشْرَىٰ فَبَشِّرْ عِبَادِ ۖ (١٧) الَّذِينَ يَسْمَعُونَ الْكُفْرَ فَيَسْمَعُونَ أَحْسَنَهُ ۖ أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ هَدَيْنَاهُمْ اللَّهُ ۖ وَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْأُولَاءُ﴾ (سورة الزمر: ١٧-١٨)

- 39:17. Those who shun false gods and do not worship them, and turn to Allah [alone], for them are glad tidings – so [O Muhammad] give glad tidings to My slaves,
- 39:18. who listen to what is said, then follow the best of it. They are the ones whom Allah has guided and they are the people of understanding.

Having mentioned the situation of the evildoers, Allah now mentions the situation and reward of those who turn to Him:

﴿Those who shun false gods and do not worship them﴾ what is meant by false gods here is worshipping anything other than Allah, so they shun the worship of them.

﴿and turn to Allah [alone]﴾ by worshipping Him and focusing their devotion only on Him. Thus they drifted away from the worship of idols to the worship of the All-Knowing Sovereign, from ascription of partners to Allah and sin, to affirmation of His oneness and obedience to Him.

﴿for them are glad tidings﴾ the greatness and description of which no one can know except those whom Allah honours with them. This includes glad tidings in the life of this world, in the form of lofty renown, good dreams and divine care, through which they see that He wants to honour them in this world and in the hereafter. And they will have glad tidings in the hereafter, at the time of death, in the grave, and on the Day of Resurrection. And the ultimate glad tidings will be when the Most Generous Lord gives them the glad tidings of His eternal pleasure, care and generosity, and granting them safety and security in paradise.

Having stated that they will have glad tidings, Allah now instructs (His Prophet [ﷺ]) to give them glad tidings, and He mentions the characteristics for which they deserve those glad tidings:

﴿so [O Muhammad] give glad tidings to My slaves, who listen to what is said﴾. This refers to all that is said. They listen to all types of speech that they hear, in order to distinguish between that which should be given precedence and that which should be avoided. It is a sign of their prudence and maturity in thinking that they follow the best of speech. The best of all speech is the words of Allah and the words of His Messenger (ﷺ), as Allah tells us later in this soorah: ﴿Allah has sent down the best of messages: a Book that is consistent within itself...﴾ (39: 23).

In this verse there is a subtle point: having said of these people whom He praised that they listen to what is said then follow the best of it, it is as if it were said: Is there any way to know what is the best of it, so that we may acquire the characteristics of the people of understanding and so that we may know that the one who gives precedence to it is one of the people of understanding? So it was said in response: Yes, the best of it is what Allah mentions here: ﴿Allah has sent down the best of messages: a Book that is consistent within itself...﴾ (39: 23).

﴿who listen to what is said, then follow the best of it. They are the ones whom Allah has guided﴾ to the best of attitudes and deeds ﴿and they are the people of understanding﴾ that is, people with smart minds. Part of their understanding and prudence is that they know what is good and what is not, and they give precedence to that to which precedence should be given over all else. This is a sign of rational thinking; in fact there is no other sign of rational thinking apart from that. The one who does not distinguish between good words and bad words is not one of the people of sound reasoning. As for the one who distinguishes between them, but his whims and desires overwhelm his rational thinking, his rational thinking is subject to his whims and desires, so he does not give precedence to that which is best and therefore he is a man of no understanding.

﴿أَفَمَنْ حَقَّ عَلَيْهِ كَلِمَةُ الْعَذَابِ أَفَأَنْتَ تُنْقِذُ مَنْ فِي النَّارِ ﴿٣٩﴾ لَكِنَّ الَّذِينَ أَنْقَرُوا رَهْمَهُمْ عُرِفُوا مِنْ فَوْقِهَا عُرْفٌ مَبْنِيَّةٌ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ وَعَدَ اللَّهُ لَا يَخْلِفُ اللَّهُ الْمِيعَادَ ﴿٤٠﴾﴾ (سورة الزمر: ١٩-٢٠)

39:19. Can you save one for whom punishment is inevitable, one who is in the fire?

39:20. But for those who fear their Lord there will be lofty dwellings, one above another, built high, beneath which rivers flow. [This is] the promise of Allah; Allah does not break His promise.

That is, can you save one for whom punishment has become inevitable because he persisted in his stubborn misguidance and disbelief? There is no way that you can guide him and you cannot save him from the fire. Rather the ultimate gain and ultimate triumph is for those who fear Allah, for whom He has prepared honour and all kinds of delights, and no one can estimate how great they are.

﴿But for those who fear their Lord there will be lofty dwellings﴾ that is, high and adorned abodes; because of their beauty, splendour and purity, their outside will be visible from the inside, and their inside will be visible from the outside. Because they are so high, they can be seen from afar, like a bright star on the western horizon. Hence Allah says:

﴿one above another, built high﴾, made of gold and silver, and their mortar will be musk.

«beneath which rivers flow» to irrigate the verdant gardens and beautiful trees, which will produce delicious crops and ripe fruits.

«[This is] the promise of Allah; Allah does not break His promise». He has promised this reward to those who fear him, so He will inevitably fulfil His promise. Therefore let them acquire the characteristics and qualities of those who fear Allah, so that He may reward them in full.

﴿أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ أَنْزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَسَلَكَهُ يَنْبِيعَ فِي الْأَرْضِ ثُمَّ يُخْرِجُ بِهِ زَرْعًا مُخْتَلِفًا أَلْوَنُهُ ثُمَّ يَهْبِطُ فَتَذَرُوهُ كُفًّا ثُمَّ يُجْعَلُهُ حُطَامًا إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَذِكْرًا لِأُولِي الْأَلْبَابِ ﴿٢١﴾﴾ (سورة الزمر: ٢١)

39:21. Do you not see that Allah sends down water from the sky, and lets it trickle through the earth to emerge as springs? Then He brings forth by means of it crops of various kinds; then they wither, and you see them turn yellow; then He causes them to crumble. Verily in that is a sign for people of understanding.

Here Allah (ﷻ) reminds the people of understanding of what He sends down from the sky of water, and lets it trickle through the earth to emerge as springs. In other words, He deposits the water so that it will emerge easily as springs.

«Then He brings forth by means of it crops of various kinds» such as wheat, corn, barley, rice and other things
 «then they wither» after they reach their peak, or when they are affected by blight
 «and you see them turn yellow; then He causes them to crumble» and break up.

﴿Verily in that is a sign for people of understanding﴾ by which they remember the care of their Lord and His mercy towards His slaves, for He makes available to them this water and the stores of the earth, according to what serves their interests.

And they are reminded thereby of His perfect might, and that He will bring the dead back to life just as He brings the earth back to life after its death, and they are reminded that the One Who does that is the only one Who is deserving of worship.

O Allah, make us among the people of understanding whom You raise in status and guide by means of what You have given them of sound reason, and to whom You have shown the subtle meanings of Your Book and the beauty of Your verses, that no one before them understood on such a level, for You are the Bestower.

﴿أَفَمَنْ شَرَحَ اللَّهُ صَدْرَهُ، لِلْإِسْلَامِ فَهُوَ عَلَى نُورٍ مِّن رَّبِّهِ ۚ فَوَيْلٌ لِّلْقَاسِيَةِ قُلُوبِهِم مِّن ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ ۚ أُولَٰئِكَ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ﴾ (سورة الزمر: ٢٢)

39:22. Is one whose heart Allah has opened to Islam, so that he follows light from his Lord [like one who is hard-hearted]? Woe to those whose hearts harden upon hearing the reminder of Allah [the Qur'an]. Such people are clearly misguided.

That is, are they equal, the one whose heart Allah has opened to Islam, so he feels at ease with the commands of Allah and he accepts them and acts upon them happily and joyfully, on the basis of understanding – who is the one referred to in the words ﴿so that he follows light from his Lord﴾ – and the one who is not like that? That is based on the fact that Allah says: ﴿Woe to those whose hearts harden upon hearing the reminder of Allah [the Qur'an]﴾ that is, their hearts do not soften upon hearing His Book, they do not pay heed to its verses, and they do not find rest in remembrance of Him; rather their hearts turn away from their Lord and focus on something other than Him. These are the ones to whom the stern warning and severe punishment are directed.

«Such people are clearly misguided» and what misguidance could be worse than the misguidance of one who turns away from his Lord, when all happiness is in turning to Him, and whose heart has grown too hard to remember Him, and instead he focuses on everything that could harm him?

﴿اللَّهُ نَزَلَ أَحْسَنَ الْحَدِيثِ كِتَابًا مُتَشَابِهًا مَثَانٍ تَقْشَعِرُّ مِنْهُ جُلُودُ الَّذِينَ يَخْشَوْنَ رَبَّهُمْ ثُمَّ تَلِينُ جُلُودُهُمْ وَقُلُوبُهُمْ إِلَى ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ ذَلِكَ هُدَى اللَّهِ يَهْدِي بِهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَمَنْ يُضِلِلِ اللَّهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ هَادٍ﴾ (سورة الزمر: ٢٣)

39:23. Allah has sent down the best of messages: a Book that is consistent within itself, wherein is reiteration. The skins of those who fear their Lord tremble with awe thereat [when they hear it], then their skins relax and their hearts soften towards the reminder of Allah [the Qur'an]. Such is the guidance of Allah, with which He guides whomever He will, but whomever Allah has caused to go astray, no one can guide.

Here Allah speaks of His Book that He sent down, telling us that it is «the best of messages» that is, the best of all messages. The best of speech is the word of Allah, and the best of the divinely revealed Books is this Qur'an. As it is the best, thus it is known that its wordings are the most eloquent and clear, and its meanings are the most sublime, because it is the best of messages in its wording and meaning; it is consistent and harmonious in its beauty and is not contradictory in any way whatsoever, to the point that the more a person reflects on it and ponders it, he will see of its harmonious nature – even in some of its ambiguous verses – that which would dazzle those who reflect, and he will be certain that it can only have come from One Who is Most Wise, All-Knowing.

﴿wherein is reiteration﴾ that is, its stories and rulings, and the descriptions of good people and evil people, are repeated, and the names and attributes of Allah are repeated in it. This is a manifestation of its majestic and beautiful nature, for Allah knows how much people need its meanings and ideas to purify their hearts and perfect their character. These meanings and ideas are, for people’s hearts, like water for trees; the less frequently trees are watered, the more they are damaged and they may even be destroyed, but the more frequently they are watered, the better they are and the more beneficial fruit they may bear. In like manner, the heart constantly needs to be reminded of the meanings and ideas in the word of Allah (ﷻ), but if a certain concept were to be mentioned only one time in the entire Qur’an, it would not have a strong impact and would not lead to any results.

Hence in this commentary I have followed the same methodology, emulating the example of that on which it is a commentary. You will not find instructions to go back and check something that has already been discussed; rather every time a concept is mentioned, you will find it explained in full detail, without taking into account previous discussions of similar concepts, even though in some places the idea may be discussed in greater detail than others, pointing to more benefits. Similarly, the reader of the Qur’an should reflect on its meanings and should not omit to reflect on the meanings of all verses, (even if the meaning is repeated), because that is a means of attaining much good and many benefits.

Because the Qur’an is of such a majestic and great nature, it had an impact on the hearts of people of understanding who were guided, as Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿The skins of those who fear their Lord tremble with awe thereat﴾ because of what it contains of verses that instil fear and awe in their hearts

﴿then their skins relax and their hearts soften towards the reminder of Allah﴾ that is, when there is mention of hope and glad tidings for the righteous. Sometimes it encourages them to do good, and sometimes it warns against doing evil.

﴿Such﴾ namely what Allah has mentioned of the impact that the Qur'an has on them

﴿is the guidance of Allah﴾ that is, it is guidance from Him to His slave, and is part of His grace and kindness towards them

﴿with which He guides﴾ by means of that ﴿whomever He will﴾ of His slaves.

It may be that what is meant by the word ﴿Such﴾ is the Qur'an which We have described to you

﴿is the guidance of Allah﴾ and there is no way to reach Allah except through it

﴿with which He guides whomever He will﴾ of His slaves who have good intentions. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿With which Allah guides all who seek His good pleasure to ways of peace and safety...﴾ (al-Mâ'idah 5: 16)

﴿but whomever Allah has caused to go astray, no one can guide﴾ because there is no path that leads to guidance except by the help of Allah and by His making a person turn to His Book. If that does not happen, there is no way to be guided; otherwise there is nothing but obvious misguidance and doom.

﴿أَفَمَنْ يَتَّقِ بِوَجْهِهِ سَوَاءُ الْعَذَابِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ وَقِيلَ لِلظَّالِمِينَ ذُوقُوا مَا كُنتُمْ تَكْسِبُونَ﴾ كَذَّبَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ فَأَنْتَهُمُ الْعَذَابُ مِنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ﴿٢٥﴾

فَإِذَا قَهُمُ اللَّهُ الْحَزَنَى فِي الْحَيَوةِ الدُّنْيَا وَلِعَذَابِ الْآخِرَةِ أَكْبَرُ لَوْ كَانُوا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾ (سورة الزُّمَر: ٢٤-٢٦)

- 39:24. Is one who has nothing except his face to shield him from the terrible punishment on the Day of Resurrection [like one who is saved from that]? And it will be said to the wrongdoers: Taste [the punishment for] what you used to earn.
- 39:25. Those who came before them also disbelieved, so the punishment came upon them from a direction they did not expect.
- 39:26. Thus Allah gave them a taste of disgrace in this world, but the punishment of the hereafter is greater, if only they knew.

That is, are they equal, this one whom Allah has guided and enabled him to follow the path that leads to paradise, and the one who will persist in his misguidance and stubbornness until the Day of Resurrection? On that day, he will be faced with the immense punishment and he will try to shield himself with his face, which is the noblest part of the body, and the least of punishment may have an impact on it. He will try to shield himself with it from the terrible punishment, because his hands and feet will be tied up.

«And it will be said to the wrongdoers» who wronged themselves by disbelieving and sinning, by way of rebuking and chastising them: «Taste [the punishment for] what you used to earn».

«Those who came before them» of the earlier nations «also disbelieved» as these people disbelieved «so the punishment came upon them from a direction they did not expect». It came upon them at a time of heedlessness, at the beginning of the day, or when they were napping.

«Thus» by means of that punishment «Allah gave them a taste of disgrace in this world» and they were exposed to shame and disgrace before Allah and before people.

﴿but the punishment of the hereafter is greater, if only they knew﴾. So let these people beware of persisting in disbelief, lest there befall them the same punishment that befell the earlier people.

﴿وَلَقَدْ ضَرَبْنَا لِلنَّاسِ فِي هَٰذَا الْقُرْآنِ مِن كُلِّ مَثَلٍ لَّعَلَّهُمْ يَتَذَكَّرُونَ﴾ (٢٧) ﴿قُرْآنًا عَرَبِيًّا غَيْرَ ذِي عِوَجٍ لَّعَلَّهُمْ يَتَّقُونَ﴾ (٢٨) ﴿ضَرَبَ اللَّهُ مَثَلًا رَّجُلًا فِيهِ شُرَكَاءُ مُتَشَاكِسُونَ وَرَجُلًا سَلَمًا لِّرَجُلٍ هَلْ يَسْتَوِيَانِ مَثَلًا الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ بَلْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ﴾ (٢٩) ﴿إِنَّكَ مَيِّتٌ وَلَهُمْ مَيِّتُونَ﴾ (٣٠) ﴿ثُمَّ إِنَّكُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ عِنْدَ رَبِّكُمْ تَخْتَصِمُونَ﴾ (٣١) ﴿سُورَةُ الزُّمَرِ: ٢٧-٣١﴾

- 39:27. Verily We have presented to humankind, in this Qur'an, every kind of example, so that they may pay heed.
- 39:28. [It is] an Arabic Qur'an, free of flaws and contradictions, so that they may guard against disbelief.
- 39:29. Allah makes this comparison: a slave belonging to several partners who are at odds with one another, and a slave belonging entirely to one master; Are they equal when compared?<sup>65</sup> Praise be to Allah. But most of them do not understand.
- 39:30. You [O Muhammad] will surely die, and they too will die;
- 39:31. then on the Day of Resurrection, you will all dispute before your Lord.

Allah (ﷻ) gives all kinds of example in the Qur'an: examples of good people and evil people, and examples to explain affirmation of His oneness and of the association of others with Him. Each example highlights and clarifies the reality and nature of things. The wisdom behind that is ﴿so that they may pay heed﴾ when We explain the truth, and thus they may learn and act accordingly.

<sup>65</sup> This is a comparison between the polytheist who believes in many gods and the Muslim who believes in one God, Allah, the Creator.

﴿[It is] an Arabic Qur'an﴾ that is, We have made it an Arabic Qur'an, with clear wording, easy to understand, especially for the Arabs

﴿free of flaws and contradictions﴾ that is, it contains no flaws or shortcomings whatsoever, whether in its wording or in its meanings and ideas. This implies that it is perfectly balanced and straightforward, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿Praise be to Allah Who has sent down the Book to His slave, and has not allowed any crookedness therein, a Book of unerring soundness...﴾ (al-Kahf 18: 1-2)

﴿so that they may guard against disbelief﴾ and fear Allah (ﷻ), as He has made easy for them the path of piety based on sound belief and practices, by means of this straightforward Arabic Qur'an in which Allah gives all kinds of examples.

Then He gives an example or comparison of the association of others with Him and the affirmation of His oneness:

﴿Allah makes this comparison: a slave belonging to several partners who are at odds with one another﴾ that is, his owners are many and do not agree on anything at all, so he cannot find any rest; rather they are at odds and arguing over him, and each one has demands that he wants the slave to do for him, but the others want something else. So what do you think of the situation of this slave whose owners are at odds with one another?

﴿and a slave belonging entirely to one master﴾ that is, he belongs only to him, and he knows what his master wants, so he is in a comfortable position.

﴿Are they﴾ that is, these two slaves ﴿equal when compared?﴾ They are not equal.

Such is the polytheist, who serves several partners who are at odds with one another. He calls upon one, then he calls upon another, and you see that he does not feel settled or at ease, and his heart does not feel any comfort in any situation. In contrast, Allah has saved the monotheist, who is sincere to his Lord alone, from associating anyone with Him, so he is completely at ease and is in a very comfortable situation.

«Are they equal when compared? Praise be to Allah» for showing truth as distinct from falsehood and for guiding the ignorant.

«But most of them do not understand».

«You [O Muhammad] will surely die, and they too will die» that is, you will all inevitably die.

«We did not grant everlasting life to any human being before you [O Muhammad]. So if you die, will they [the disbelievers] live forever?»

(al-Anbiyā' 21: 34)

«then on the Day of Resurrection, you will all dispute before your Lord» with regard to that concerning which you disputed (in this world), and He will judge justly between you and will requite each of you for his deeds;

«...Allah has kept account of it whilst they have forgotten it...»

(al-Mujādilah 58: 6)

﴿فَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنْ كَذَبَ عَلَى اللَّهِ وَكَذَّبَ بِالْحَقِّ إِذْ جَاءَهُ ۖ أَلَيْسَ فِي جَهَنَّمَ مَثْوًى لِّلْكَافِرِينَ ۚ﴾ وَالَّذِي جَاءَ بِالْحَقِّ وَصَدَّقَ بِهِ ۖ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْمُتَّقُونَ ﴿٣٢﴾ لَهُمْ مَا يَشَاءُونَ عِندَ رَبِّهِمْ ۚ ذَٰلِكَ جَزَاءُ الْمُحْسِنِينَ ﴿٣٣﴾ لِيُكَفِّرَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ أَسْوَأَ الَّذِي عَمِلُوا وَيَجْزِيَهُمْ أَجْرَهُم بِأَحْسَنِ الَّذِي كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٣٥﴾﴾ (سورة الزمر: ٣٢-٣٥)

- 39:32. Who does greater wrong than he who tells lies against Allah and rejects the truth when it comes to him? Is there not in hell an abode for the disbelievers?
- 39:33. Those who proclaim the truth and believe in it – it is they who are the righteous.
- 39:34. They will have all that they wish for with their Lord. Such is the reward of those who do good.
- 39:35. And Allah will absolve them of the worst of their deeds, and He will surely grant them their reward according to the best of their deeds.

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) issues a warning, stating that no one does greater or worse wrong

﴿than he who tells lies against Allah﴾ by attributing to Him that which does not befit His Majesty, or by claiming to be a Prophet, or by saying that Allah said such and such, or issued such and such a ruling, when that is not true. This is included in the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Say: My Lord has only forbidden... and saying concerning Allah that of which you have no knowledge.﴾ (al-A'râf 7: 33)

– if one is ignorant, otherwise it is even worse and even more abhorrent.

﴿and rejects the truth when it comes to him﴾ that is, no one does greater wrong than one to whom the truth comes, supported with evidence, but he rejects it. His rejection is great wrongdoing on his part, because he has rejected the truth after it became clear. So if he combines telling lies against Allah with rejecting the truth, then this is wrongdoing upon wrongdoing.

﴿Is there not in hell an abode for the disbelievers?﴾ where scores will be settled with them and all the dues of Allah will be taken from every wrongdoer and disbeliever.

﴿...for associating others in worship with Him is indeed grievous wrongdoing.﴾ (Luqman 31: 13)

Having mentioned the disbelieving liar, and his sin and punishment, Allah now mentions the truthful believer and his reward:

﴿Those who proclaim the truth﴾ in word and deed. This includes the Prophets and those who follow in their footsteps, those who believe in what the Prophet (ﷺ) said, relating from Allah, and the rulings revealed from Him, and are sincere and truthful in all that they do and say.

﴿and believe in it﴾ that is, in the truth, because a person may proclaim the truth but not believe in it, because of his arrogance, or because he looks down on those who speak the truth and proclaim it. So it is essential to mention these two qualities together, namely proclaiming the truth and believing in it. Proclaiming the truth is indicative of knowledge and fair-mindedness, and believing in it is indicative of humility and the absence of arrogance.

﴿it is they﴾ namely those who are enabled to combine these two qualities

﴿who are the righteous﴾. All the characteristics of piety and righteousness boil down to proclaiming the truth and believing in it.

﴿They will have all that they wish for with their Lord﴾ of reward, such as no eye has seen, no ear has heard, nor has it ever crossed the mind of man. Anything that they want and wish for, of all kinds of delights and desirable things, they will attain it and it will be ready and prepared for them.

﴿Such is the reward of those who do good﴾ those who worship Allah as if they see Him, for if they do not see Him, verily He sees them.

﴿those who do good﴾ and treat the slaves of Allah with kindness.

﴿And Allah will absolve them of the worst of their deeds, and He will surely grant them their reward according to the best of their deeds». People's deeds are one of three things: either bad, or good, or neither bad nor good.

The latter category includes things that are permissible and are not subject to either reward or punishment. The bad category includes all sins, and the good category includes all acts of obedience and worship. On the basis of this explanation we may understand the meaning of this verse, and that the words «And Allah will absolve them of the worst of their deeds» indicate that the worst they did was minor sins, because of their doing of good and their fear of Allah.

«and He will surely grant them their reward according to the best of their deeds» that is, because of all their good deeds.

«Verily, Allah does not wrong anyone by as much as the weight of a speck of dust. And if there is a good deed Allah will multiply it, and give an immense reward of His own.» (an-Nisâ' 4: 40)

﴿الَيْسَ اللَّهُ بِكَافٍ عَبْدَهُ وَيُخَوِّفُونَكَ بِالَّذِينَ مِنْ دُونِهِ وَمَنْ يُضِلِلِ اللَّهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ هَادٍ وَمَنْ يَهْدِ اللَّهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ مُضِلٍّ أَلَيْسَ اللَّهُ بِعَزِيزٍ ذِي انْتِقَامٍ﴾
(سورة الزمر: ٣٦-٣٧)

39:36. Is not Allah sufficient for His slave? Yet they try to frighten you with those [whom they worship] besides Him. Whomever Allah has caused to go astray, no one can guide, 39:37. and whomever Allah guides, no one can cause to go astray. Is not Allah Almighty, an Avenger?

«Is not Allah sufficient for His slave?» that is, is it not part of His generosity, kindness and care of His slave who is carrying out his duties as a slave of Allah, complying with His commands and heeding His prohibitions – especially the most perfect of humankind in servitude to his Lord, namely Muhammad (ﷺ) – that Allah will suffice him in all his affairs, both religious and worldly, and will ward off from him anyone who intends ill towards him?

﴿Yet they try to frighten you with those [whom they worship] besides Him﴾ namely the idols and rivals, saying that they will harm you. This stems from their misguidance and error.

﴿Whomever Allah has caused to go astray, no one can guide, and whomever Allah guides, no one can cause to go astray﴾ because it is He in Whose Hand is the power to guide or leave astray; whatever He wills happens and whatever He does not will does not happen.

﴿Is not Allah Almighty﴾ – to Him belongs perfect might by which He subjugates all things. By His might, He suffices His slave and wards off the schemes (of the disbelievers) against him

﴿an Avenger﴾ – whoever disobeys Him, let them beware of incurring His vengeance.

﴿وَلَيْنَ سَأَلْتَهُمْ مَنْ خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ لَيَقُولُنَّ اللَّهُ قُلْ أَفَرَأَيْتُمْ مَا تَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ إِنْ أَرَادَنِيَ اللَّهُ بِضُرٍّ هَلْ هُنَّ كَاشِفَاتُ ضُرِّيهِ أَوْ أَرَادَنِي بِرَحْمَةٍ هَلْ هُنَّ مُمْسِكَتُ رَحْمَتِهِ قُلْ حَسْبِيَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ يَتَوَكَّلُ الْمُتَوَكِّلُونَ﴾ (سورة

الزُّمَرُ: ٣٨)

- 39:38. If you ask them who created the heavens and the earth, they will surely say: Allah. Say: Tell me about those on whom you call besides Allah: if Allah wills that some adversity should befall me, can they relieve that adversity? Or if He wills that mercy should be bestowed on me, could they withhold His mercy? Say: Allah is sufficient for me; in Him let all that trust put their trust.

That is, if you ask these misguided people who are trying to frighten you with those (whom they worship) besides Him, and you establish proof against them that is very clear to them, then ask them ﴿who created the heavens and the earth﴾, they will not say that their gods created anything.

﴿they will surely say: Allah﴾ is the One Who created them alone. ﴿Say﴾ to them, affirming the helplessness of their gods, after the power of Allah has become clear:

﴿Tell me about those on whom you call besides Allah: if Allah wills that some adversity﴾ that is, some harm, no matter what it is ﴿should befall me, can they relieve that adversity﴾ by removing it altogether or reducing it somewhat?

﴿Or if He wills that mercy should be bestowed on me﴾ that would bring me some benefit in my religious and worldly affairs

﴿could they withhold His mercy﴾ and prevent it from reaching me? They will say that they cannot relieve adversity or withhold mercy.

So tell them, after definitive proof has become clear, that Allah alone is deserving of worship, and that He alone is the Creator of all creatures, the only One Who can bestow benefit or cause harm, and all others are incapable in all aspects of creating, benefitting or harming. And ask Him to suffice you and to protect you against their harm.

﴿Say: Allah is sufficient for me; in Him let all that trust put their trust﴾ that is, rely on Him to bring that which is in their best interests and ward off that which is harmful to them. The only One Who could take care of me in the fullest sense is sufficient for me and will suffice me with regard to that which concerns me and that which does not concern me.

﴿قُلْ يَتَقَوَّمُوا أَعْمَلُوا عَلَىٰ مَكَانَتِكُمْ إِنِّي عَنِِلْ فَسَوْفَ تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٣٩﴾﴾
يَأْتِيهِ عَذَابٌ يُخْزِيهِ وَيَحِلُّ عَلَيْهِ عَذَابٌ مُّقِيمٌ ﴿٤٠﴾﴾ (سورة الزمر: ٣٩-٤٠)

- 39:39. Say: O my people, carry on as you are, and so will I. You will come to know
- 39:40. who will receive a punishment that will disgrace him, and upon whom will descend an everlasting punishment.

«Say» to them, O Messenger

«O my people, carry on as you are» that is, carry on in the way you are pleased with for yourselves, of worshipping that which is not deserving of worship at all and has no control over anything.

«and so will I» that is, I will persist on the same path to which I am calling you, the path of devoting worship to Allah (ﷻ) alone.

«You will come to know» who will have the best end, and «who will receive a punishment that will disgrace him» in this world «and upon whom will descend» in the hereafter «an everlasting punishment» that will never leave him and will never cease. This is a serious threat to them, for they know that they are deserving of eternal punishment, but wrongdoing and stubbornness prevented them from believing.

﴿إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ لِلنَّاسِ بِالْحَقِّ فَمَنِ اهْتَدَىٰ فَلِنَفْسِهِ ۖ وَمَنْ ضَلَّٰ فَإِنَّمَا يَضِلُّ عَلَيْهِ ۖ وَمَا أَنْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ بِوَكِيلٍ﴾ (سورة الزمر: ٤١)

- 39:41. Verily We have sent down to you [O Muhammad] the Book with the truth for all humankind. Whoever is guided, it is for his own benefit, and whoever goes astray, it is to his own detriment. And you are not their keeper.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He sent down to His Messenger (ﷺ) the Book that contains the truth in what it tells of the past and future, and in its commands and prohibitions; it contains the essence of guidance and what one needs in order to reach Allah and His paradise. By means of it proof is established against humankind.

«Whoever is guided» by its light and follows its commands, «it is for his own benefit».

«and whoever goes astray» after guidance has become clear to him «it is to his own detriment» and he will not harm Allah in the slightest.

«And you are not their keeper» to record their deeds and bring them to account for them, or to force them to do what you want; rather your role is only to convey to them what you are instructed to convey.

﴿اللَّهُ يَتَوَفَّى الْأَنفُسَ حِينَ مَوْتِهَا وَالَّتِي لَمْ تَمُتْ فِي مَنَامِهَا فِيمِائِكَ أَلَّتِي قَضَىٰ عَلَيْهَا الْمَوْتَ وَيُرْسِلُ الْأُخْرَىٰ إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ يَتَفَكَّرُونَ﴾ (سورة الزمر: ٤٢)

39:42. Allah takes [people's] souls at the time of their death, and [He takes the souls] of the living when they sleep. He keeps the souls of those for whom He has decreed death, and He sends the others back for an appointed term. Surely in that there are signs for people who reflect.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that it is He alone Who controls people's affairs both when they are awake and when they are asleep, when they are alive and when they die.

«Allah takes [people's] souls at the time of their death» – the fact that He attributes this action to Himself does not contradict the fact that He has appointed the Angel of Death and his helpers to do this task, as He says elsewhere:

«Say [O Muhammad]: The Angel of Death, who has been given charge of you, will take your souls [in death]...» (as-Sajdah 32: 11)

﴿...then when death comes to one of you, Our envoys [angels] take his soul, and they never fail in their duty.﴾ (al-An'âm 6: 61)

– because He may attribute things to Himself in the sense that He is the Creator and controller thereof, or He may attribute them to their causes, in the sense that it is His way and wisdom to make a cause for everything.

﴿and [He takes the souls] of the living when they sleep﴾. This is the lesser death. He takes the souls of living when they sleep. Then ﴿He keeps﴾ – of the two categories of souls – ﴿the souls of those for whom He has decreed death﴾. This refers to both those who die when they are awake and those for whom it is decreed that they should die in their sleep.

﴿and He sends the others back for an appointed term﴾ that is, until they have received their allotted provision in full and their appointed time comes to an end.

﴿Surely in that there are signs for people who reflect﴾ upon the perfect nature of Allah's might and His ability to bring the dead back to life.

This verse indicates that the rooh or nafs (the soul) is an independent entity, the essence of which is different from that of the body; it is created and controlled by Allah, when He takes it and either keeps it or sends it back. The souls of the living and the dead meet and converse in al-barzakh, then Allah sends back the souls of the living and keeps the souls of the dead.

﴿أَمْ أَتَّخِذُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ شُفَعَاءَ قُلْ أُولَٰئِكَ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ شَيْئًا وَلَا يَحْفَلُونَ﴾
 ﴿قُلْ لِلَّهِ الشَّفَعَةُ جَمِيعًا لَهُ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ ثُمَّ إِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ﴾
 ﴿سورة الزمر: ٤٣-٤٤﴾

- 39:43. Rather they [the disbelievers] have taken [their false gods] as intercessors without Allah's leave. Say: What, [could they intercede] even though they have no power at all and are devoid of reason?
- 39:44. Say: All intercession belongs to Allah alone [and no one can intercede except by His leave]; to Him belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth, then to Him you will be brought back.
-

Here Allah (ﷻ) denounces those who take intercessors besides Him, feel attached to them, and ask of them and worship them.

﴿Say﴾ to them, highlighting their ignorance and the fact that those intercessors are not deserving of worship at all:

﴿What, [could they intercede] even though they﴾ namely those whom you take as intercessors

﴿have no power at all and are devoid of reason?﴾ That is, they do not possess even an atom's weight of power in the heavens or on earth, and no less and no more than that. Rather they do not possess any power of reasoning, such that they might be deserving of praise, because they are inanimate beings, such as rocks, trees, images and the dead. Can it be said that those who take them as intercessors are rational thinkers, or are they the most misguided and ignorant of people, and the worst in wrongdoing?

﴿Say﴾ to them

﴿All intercession belongs to Allah alone﴾ because the matter all belongs to Allah, and every intercessor fears Him. No one can intercede with Him except by His leave, so if He wants to bestow mercy upon His slave, he grants permission to an intercessor who is dear to Him, allowing him to intercede out of mercy to both him and the one for whom he intercedes.

Then Allah confirms that all intercession belongs to Him alone:

﴿to Him belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth﴾ that is, all that is in them, creatures, deeds and attributes, belong to Him. So what is required is to seek intercession from the One Who has control over it, and to devote worship to Him alone.

﴿then to Him you will be brought back﴾ and He will requite the one who was sincere to Him alone with an abundant reward, and He will requite the one who ascribed partners to Him with a severe punishment.

﴿وَإِذَا ذُكِرَ اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ اشْمَأَزَّتْ قُلُوبُ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ وَإِذَا ذُكِرَ
الَّذِينَ مِنْ دُونِهِ إِذَا هُمْ يَسْتَبْشِرُونَ ﴿٤٥﴾ قُلِ اللَّهُمَّ فَاطِرَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ عَلِيمُ
الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ أَنْتَ تَحْكُمُ بَيْنَ عِبَادِكَ فِي مَا كَانُوا فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ ﴿٤٦﴾﴾ (سورة الزُّمَر: ٤٥-٤٦)

- 39:45. When Allah alone is mentioned, the hearts of those who do not believe in the hereafter shrink with aversion, but when [gods] other than Him are mentioned, they rejoice.
- 39:46. Say: O Allah, Originator of the heavens and the earth, Knower of the unseen and the seen, it is You Who will judge between Your slaves concerning that wherein they differ.

Here Allah (ﷻ) describes the situation of the polytheists and the consequences to which their ascription of partners to Him leads, which is that ﴿When Allah alone is mentioned﴾, with the affirmation of His oneness, and they are commanded to devote their worship to Him alone and to shun all that is worshipped besides Him, their hearts shrink with aversion, and they resent that deeply.

﴿but when [gods] other than Him are mentioned﴾ namely the idols and rivals, and when anyone calls people to worship them and praises them,

﴿they rejoice﴾ at the mention of their objects of worship, because ascription of partners to Allah is in accordance with their whims and desires. This is the worst and most abhorrent of conditions. But their appointed time is the day of requital, when the score will be settled with them, and it will be seen whether their gods upon whom they called besides Allah will benefit them in any way.

Hence Allah says:

﴿Say: O Allah, Originator of the heavens and the earth﴾ that is, the Creator and Controller of them both

﴿Knower of the unseen﴾ that is hidden from our sight and our knowledge

﴿and the seen﴾ that we do see

﴿it is You Who will judge between Your slaves concerning that wherein they differ﴾. One of the greatest differences between them is the difference between those who sincerely affirm the oneness of Allah, who say that what they follow is the truth and that paradise will be theirs in the hereafter, to the exclusion of others, and the polytheists who take the idols and rivals for worship besides Him, regard as equal to Allah that which is not worth anything, show extreme disrespect to Him, rejoice at the mention of their gods whilst their hearts shrink with aversion at mention of Allah, and claim – in addition to all that – that they are following the truth and others are following falsehood, and that paradise will be theirs.

Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Verily, those who believe, those who are Jews, the Sabians, the Christians, the Magians and those who ascribe partners to Allah – Allah will judge between them on the Day of Resurrection. Verily, Allah is Witness over all things.﴾ (al-Hajj 22: 17)

After that, Allah tells us of the judgement between them:

﴿These are two opposing groups who are disputing about their Lord. As for those who disbelieve, garments of fire will be cut out for them, and scalding water will be poured over their heads, which will cause their insides and their skins to melt. They will be lashed with rods of iron. ... Verily, Allah will admit those who believe and do righteous deeds to gardens through which rivers flow. They will be adorned therein with bracelets of gold and of pearls, and their garments therein will be of silk. ﴿al-Hajj 22: 19-23﴾

And Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿It is those who believe and do not mix their faith with wrongdoing who will be truly safe, and it is they who are truly guided.﴾ (al-An'ām 6: 82)

﴿... Whoever ascribes partners to Allah, then Allah has forbidden paradise for him, and the fire will be his abode...﴾ (al-Mā'idah 5: 72)

This verse indicates that He is the Creator of all things and has knowledge of all things, and that He will judge between all His slaves; all creation stemmed from His power, and His knowledge encompasses all things. This indicates that He will judge between His slaves, He will resurrect them, and He has knowledge of all their deeds, both good and evil, and the degree to which they will be requited for those deeds. The fact that He is the Creator indicates that He is all knowing.

﴿How could He Who created not know His own creation?...﴾ (al-Mulk 67: 14)

﴿وَلَوْ أَنَّ لِلَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا مَا فِي الْأَرْضِ جِيعًا وَمِثْلَهُ مَعَهُ، لَافْتَدَوْا بِهِ مِنْ سُوءِ الْعَذَابِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ وَبَدَا لَهُمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ مَا لَمْ يَكُونُوا يَحْتَسِبُونَ ﴿٤٧﴾ وَبَدَا لَهُمْ سَيِّئَاتُ مَا كَسَبُوا وَحَاقَ بِهِمْ مَا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِءُونَ ﴿٤٨﴾﴾ (سورة الزمر: ٤٧-٤٨)

39:47. If the wrongdoers had everything on earth, and as much again with it, they would offer it to ransom themselves from the terrible punishment on the Day of Resurrection. But Allah will show them [of His wrath and punishment] that which they had never anticipated.

- 39:48. The evil consequences of what they have earned will become apparent to them, and the very thing [punishment] they used to ridicule will overwhelm them.

---

After Allah (ﷻ) stated that He will judge between His slaves and mentioned the beliefs of the polytheists and the abhorrent nature thereof, it is as if one would long to know what Allah will do to them on the Day of Resurrection. Therefore Allah tells us that they will have a «terrible punishment» that is, the worst and most awful of punishments, just as they uttered the worst and most awful words of disbelief; and that, hypothetically speaking, if they possessed all that is on earth of gold, silver, pearls, animals, trees, crops and all kinds of vessels and furniture, and as much again with it, and they offered it on the Day of Resurrection to ransom themselves and save themselves from the punishment, it would not be accepted from them and it would not avail them in the slightest before the punishment of Allah. «The day when neither wealth nor sons will be of any avail, but only he who comes to Allah with a pure heart<sup>66</sup> [will be saved].» (ash-Shu'arā' 26: 88-89)

«But Allah will show them [of His wrath and punishment] that which they had never anticipated» that is, that which they never expected, of great wrath and anger, when they were expecting something different.

«The evil consequences of what they have earned will become apparent to them» that is, they will see things that will distress them, because of their misdeeds

---

<sup>66</sup> A pure heart: that is, one that is free from doubt, hypocrisy and association of others with Allah (shirk).

﴿and the very thing [punishment] they used to ridicule will overwhelm them﴾ that is, the punishment will overtake them.

﴿فَإِذَا مَسَّ الْإِنْسَانَ ضُرٌّ دَعَانَا ثُمَّ إِذَا خَوَّلْنَاهُ نِعْمَةً مِنَّا قَالَ إِنَّمَا أُوتِيتُهُ عَلَىٰ عِلْمٍ بَلْ هِيَ فِتْنَةٌ وَلَٰكِنَّا أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٤٩﴾ قَدْ قَالُوا الَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِمْ فَمَا أَغْنَىٰ عَنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ ﴿٥٠﴾ فَأَصَابَهُمْ سَيِّئَاتُ مَا كَسَبُوا وَالَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا مِن هَٰؤُلَاءِ سَيَّئَاتُهُمْ سَيِّئَاتُ مَا كَسَبُوا وَمَا هُمْ بِمُعْجِزِينَ ﴿٥١﴾ أَوَلَمْ يَعْلَمُوا أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَبْسُطُ الرِّزْقَ لِمَن يَشَاءُ وَيَقْدِرُ ۚ إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٥٢﴾﴾ (سورة الزمر: ٤٩-٥٢)

- 39:49. When misfortune befalls a person, he calls upon Us, then when We bestow a favour upon him from Us, he says: This has been given to me only because of knowledge [that I possess]. Rather it is a test, but most of them do not understand.
- 39:50. Those who came before them said the same, but all that they acquired [of wealth] was of no avail to them.
- 39:51. Therefore the evil consequences of what they earned overtook them, and the wrongdoers among these people [Quraish] will also be overtaken by the evil consequences of what they have earned; they can never escape [Allah's punishment].
- 39:52. Do they not know that Allah grants abundant provision to whomever He wills, or gives it in scant measure? Verily in that there are signs for people who believe.

Here Allah tells us about the nature and psychological make-up of man. When misfortune befalls him, such as sickness, hardship or distress,

﴿he calls upon Us﴾ persistently, asking for relief from what has befallen him

﴿then when We bestow a favour upon him from Us﴾ and relieve him of that misfortune and remove that hardship, he goes back to disbelieving in his Lord and denying His favours, and ﴿he says: This has been given to me only because of knowledge [that I possess]﴾ or because of knowledge that I have of how to acquire wealth.

﴿Rather it is a test﴾ by means of which Allah tests His slaves to see who will give thanks and who will be grateful ﴿but most of them do not understand﴾ and therefore they regard the test as a blessing, and they are confused between something that is definitely good and something that may be a cause of good or a source of trouble.

﴿Those who came before them said the same﴾ as what they say, namely ﴿This has been given to me only because of knowledge [that I possess]﴾ (39: 49). This attitude continued to be passed down among the disbelievers who do not recognise the favours of their Lord and do not think that they owe Him anything. They persisted in this attitude until they were destroyed, ﴿all that they acquired [of wealth] was of no avail to them﴾ when the punishment befell them.

﴿Therefore the evil consequences of what they earned overtook them﴾ what is meant by evil consequences here is the punishment ﴿and the wrongdoers among these people [Quraysh] will also be overtaken by the evil consequences of what they have earned﴾ for they are not better than those earlier evildoers and they have not been absolved by the scripture (54: 43).

Having stated that they were deceived by wealth and that they claimed – in their ignorance – that wealth is indicative of the sound well-being of its owner, Allah (ﷻ) now tells them that His provision is not indicative of that, and that He ﴿grants abundant provision to whomever He wills﴾ of His slaves, whether he is righteous or otherwise ﴿or gives it in scant measure﴾ that is, He restricts provision for whomever He wills, whether he is righteous or otherwise. So His provision may be given to anyone, whereas faith and righteous deeds are only granted to the best of people.

﴿Verily in that there are signs for people who believe﴾ that is, in the bestowing or withholding of provision, because those who believe know that this matter is connected to divine wisdom and mercy, and that Allah knows best the condition of His slaves. He may restrict provision to them out of kindness towards them, because if He granted them abundant provision, they would go beyond the bounds and spread injustice in the land. Hence by doing that, He is taking care of their spiritual interests, which are the essence of their happiness and prosperity. And Allah knows best.

﴿قُلْ يَعْبادِيَ الَّذِينَ أَسْرَفُوا عَلَىٰ أَنْفُسِهِمْ لَا تَقْنَطُوا مِن رَّحْمَةِ اللَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَغْفِرُ الذُّنُوبَ جَمِيعًا إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْغَفُورُ الرَّحِيمُ﴾ (٥٣) ﴿وَأَنِيبُوا إِلَىٰ رَبِّكُمْ وَأَسْلُمُوا لَهُ مِن قَبْلِ أَن يَأْتِيَكُمُ الْعَذَابُ ثُمَّ لَا تُنصَرُونَ﴾ (٥٤) ﴿وَأَتَّبِعُوا أَحْسَنَ مَا أُنزِلَ إِلَيْكُم مِّن رَّبِّكُمْ مِن قَبْلِ أَن يَأْتِيَكُمُ الْعَذَابُ بِغَتَّةٍ وَأَنْتُمْ لَا تُشْعُرُونَ﴾ (٥٥) ﴿أَن تَقُولَ نَفْسٌ بِحَسْرَتِي عَلَىٰ مَا فَرَّقْتُ فِي جَنبِ اللَّهِ وَإِن كُنْتُ لَمِنَ السَّخِرِينَ﴾ (٥٦) ﴿أَوْ تَقُولَ لَوْ أَنَّ اللَّهَ هَدَانِي لَكُنْتُ مِنَ الْمُتَّقِينَ﴾ (٥٧) ﴿أَوْ تَقُولَ حِينَ تَرَى الْعَذَابَ لَوْ أَنَّ لِي كَرَّةً فَأَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُحْسِنِينَ﴾ (٥٨) ﴿بَلَىٰ قَدْ جَاءَ تِلْكَ أَيْتِي فَكَذَّبْتَ بِهَا وَاسْتَكْبَرْتَ وَكُنْتَ مِنَ الْكَافِرِينَ﴾ (٥٩) (سورة الزمر: ٥٣-٥٩)

39:53. Say [Allah says]: O My slaves who have transgressed against themselves [by sinning greatly], do not despair of the mercy of Allah, for verily Allah forgives all sins. Verily it is He Who is the Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

- 39:54. Turn to your Lord [in repentance] and submit to Him before the punishment comes upon you, for then you will not be helped.
- 39:55. And follow the best of that which has been revealed to you from your Lord [namely the Qur'an], before the punishment comes upon you suddenly, when you least expect it,
- 39:56. lest anyone should say: Alas! I neglected my duty towards Allah and I was among the mockers;
- 39:57. or he should say: If only Allah had guided me, I would have been among the righteous;
- 39:58. or he should say when he sees the punishment: If only I could have another chance, then I would be among the doers of good.
- 39:59. [Allah will say:] But My signs did come to you, yet you disbelieved in them; you were arrogant and were among the disbelievers.

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells His slaves who have transgressed against themselves (by sinning greatly) of His immense generosity, and He urges them to turn to Him before they are not able to do so.

﴿Say﴾ O Messenger, and those who follow him in calling people to the religion of Allah, and tell people that their Lord says:

﴿O My slaves who have transgressed against themselves [by sinning greatly]﴾ by following what their own selves call them to and striving in doing that which angers the Knower of the unseen

﴿do not despair of the mercy of Allah﴾ that is, do not give up hope thereof, lest your actions lead you to doom and you say: Our sins are so many and our faults have accumulated, and we have no way to rid ourselves of them or relieve ourselves of them, then as a result of that you persist in sinning and accumulating sin until it brings upon you the wrath of the Most Gracious. Rather you should recognise your Lord by His names that are indicative of His generosity and kindness, and understand that He ﴿forgives all sins﴾ including the ascription of partners to Him, murder, fornication, ribâ (usury), wrongdoing and other sins, major and minor ﴿Verily it is He Who is the Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful﴾ that is, forgiveness and mercy are His attributes, and these two attributes are essential and constant; He is always thus and His mercy is continually manifested throughout the universe. His Hands are constantly bestowing bounties throughout the night and day, and He continually bestows blessings and favours upon His slaves, secretly and openly. Giving is dearer to Him than withholding, and divine mercy takes precedence over divine wrath and prevails over it. But there are means of attaining His forgiveness and mercy, and if a person does not take these prescribed measures, then he will have closed to himself the door of mercy and forgiveness. The greatest of these means – in fact the only means – is turning to Allah (ﷻ) alone in sincere repentance, calling upon Him, beseeching Him, showing devotion to Him and worshipping Him. So strive hard to take this important measure and follow this great path.

Hence Allah (ﷻ) enjoins us to turn to Him and to hasten to do so: ﴿Turn to your Lord﴾ with all your heart ﴿and submit to Him﴾ in your physical actions. When turning to Allah is mentioned on its own, it includes physical actions; when it is mentioned in conjunction with submission, as is the case here, then the meaning is as we have mentioned.

The words ﴿Turn to your Lord [in repentance] and submit to Him﴾ are indicative of sincerity, because without sincerity, deeds – whether outward or inward – are of no benefit whatsoever.

﴿before the punishment comes upon you﴾ and cannot be warded off
﴿for then you will not be helped﴾.

It is as if it was asked: what does turning to Allah and submitting mean? What does it entail and what deeds are involved? So Allah (ﷻ) answered by saying:

﴿And follow the best of that which has been revealed to you from your Lord﴾ of what He has enjoined upon you of inward deeds, such as loving Allah, fearing Him, putting one's hopes in Him, showing sincerity towards His slaves, loving good for them and shunning the opposite of that; and what He has enjoined upon you of visible deeds such as prayer, zakâh, fasting, Hajj, charity, all types of acts of kindness, and other things that Allah has enjoined. This is the best of that which has come down to us from our Lord. The one who follows the commands of his Lord with regard to these and similar matters is the one who turns to Allah and submits to Him.

﴿before the punishment comes upon you suddenly, when you least expect it﴾ all of this is urging us to hasten to make the most of the available opportunity.

Then Allah warns them:

﴿lest﴾, if they persist in their heedlessness, there will come to them a day when they will regret it, when regret will be of no benefit

﴿lest anyone should say: Alas! I neglected my duty towards Allah and I was﴾ in the previous world (dunyâ) ﴿among the mockers﴾ who derided the idea of requital, until I saw it with my own eyes.

﴿or he should say: If only Allah had guided me, I would have been among the righteous﴾. "If" in this instance is indicative of wishful thinking. In other words: would that Allah had guided me, then I would have feared Him and been among the righteous, and thus I would have been safe from punishment and would deserve reward. "If" here is not conditional, because if that were the case, the meaning would be that they were using the divine decree as an excuse for their misguidance. But this is a false argument, and on the Day of Resurrection, every false argument will diminish.

﴿or he should say when he sees the punishment﴾ and becomes certain of its inevitability

﴿If only I could have another chance﴾ and could go back to the previous world, ﴿then I would be among the doers of good﴾.

But Allah (ﷻ) says: This is not possible and it is of no use; this is false wishful thinking that has no basis in reality, because even if he were to be sent back, there would be no further warning after the first warning.

﴿[Allah will say:] But My signs did come to you﴾ that pointed to the truth, beyond any shadow of a doubt,
 ﴿yet you disbelieved in them; you were arrogant﴾ and too proud to follow them

﴿and were among the disbelievers﴾. So asking to go back to the previous world is of no use; it is a kind of foolishness.

﴿...And even if they were sent back, they would surely go back to that which was forbidden to them, for they are indeed liars.<sup>67</sup>﴾
 (al-An'âm 6: 28)

﴿وَيَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ تَرَى الَّذِينَ كَذَبُوا عَلَى اللَّهِ وُجُوهُهُم مُّسْوَدَّةٌ أَلَيْسَ فِي جَهَنَّمَ مَثْوًى لِّلْمُتَكَبِّرِينَ﴾ (٦١) وَيُنَجِّي اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا بِمَفَازَتِهِمْ لَا يَمَسُّهُمُ السُّوءُ وَلَا هُمْ يَحْزَنُونَ (٦٠) (سورة الزمر: ٦٠-٦١)

39:60. On the Day of Resurrection you will see those who fabricated lies against Allah, their faces darkened. Is there not in hell an abode for the arrogant?

39:61. But Allah will deliver those who fear Him, for they have attained salvation; no harm will touch them, nor will they grieve.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the disgrace of those who fabricate lies against Him: on the Day of Resurrection their faces will be darkened, like the darkest night, and they will be recognised thereby by the people who are standing on the Day of Resurrection. Truth is bright and clear as day. Just as they tried to darken the face of the truth with lies, Allah will darken their faces as a requital that fits the nature of their deeds.

<sup>67</sup> They will not be serious in their promise to believe; rather they will make this false promise out of fear of punishment, not out of sincere faith.

They will have darkened faces and they will have a severe punishment in hell. Hence Allah says:

﴿Is there not in hell an abode for the arrogant﴾ who are too proud to accept the truth or to worship their Lord, and who fabricate lies against Him? Indeed, by Allah, in hell there is punishment, disgrace and wrath that will have an immense impact on the arrogant, and scores will be settled with them thereby.

Telling lies against Allah includes the lie that He has taken a partner or son or spouse, or saying of Him that which is not befitting to His majesty, or claiming to be a Prophet, or ascribing to Him that which He did not ordain or prescribe.

Having mentioned the state of the arrogant, Allah (ﷻ) now mentions the condition of those who fear Him:

﴿But Allah will deliver those who fear Him, for they have attained salvation﴾ that is because they have the means of salvation, which is fear of Allah (ﷻ), which is what they have in preparation for every calamity and hardship.

﴿no harm﴾ that is, punishment that causes them distress

﴿will touch them, nor will they grieve﴾. Allah tells us that they will not be subjected to the punishment, nor will they fear it. This is the ultimate security.

They will have complete security, which will remain with them until they reach paradise, whereupon they will be safe from all hardship and difficulties, and you will see in their faces the radiance of bliss, and they will say:

﴿...Praise be to Allah Who has taken away all sorrow from us. Verily, our Lord is indeed Oft-Forgiving, Appreciative.﴾ (Fāṭir 35: 34)

﴿اللَّهُ خَلَقَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَكِيلٌ﴾ (٦٢) لَهُ مُقَالِيدُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ *
وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْخَاسِرُونَ ﴿٦٣﴾ (سورة الزمر: ٦٢-٦٣)

39:62. Allah is the Creator of all things, and He is in charge of all things.

39:63. To Him belong the keys of the heavens and the earth; it is those who reject Allah's signs who are the losers.

Here Allah tells us of His greatness and perfection, which leads to the one who disbelieves in Him becoming a loser:

﴿Allah is the Creator of all things﴾ this and similar phrases, which appear frequently in the Qur'an, indicate that all things – apart from Allah and His names and attributes – are created. This is a refutation of all those who say that some created things existed from eternity, such as the philosophers who say that the earth and the heavens existed from eternity, or those who say that souls existed from eternity, and other views that are based on falsehood and implicitly deny the Creator.

The words of Allah are not created things, because speech is an attribute of the speaker and Allah (ﷻ), with His names and attributes, existed from eternity; there was nothing before Him. The use of this and similar verses by the Mutazilites to support their view that the Qur'an is created, is the greatest ignorance. Allah, with His names and attributes, has always existed, from eternity; none of His attributes came into being later on, and He was never without any of His attributes at any time.

This is supported by the fact that Allah tells us that He is the Creator of all realms, upper and lower, and that He is in charge of all things. Being in charge in the fullest sense requires comprehensive and detailed knowledge of that of which He is in charge; complete control over that of which He is in charge so that He can direct it; the ability to care for that of which He is in charge; and wisdom and knowledge of all different ways of directing it, so that He can direct and control it in the most appropriate manner. Therefore the one who is in charge cannot do his job in the perfect manner except by means of what is mentioned above, and any shortfall in that will affect his capability to direct that of which he is in charge.

It is well known and well established that Allah is far above having any shortcomings in any of His attributes. Therefore His telling us that He is in charge of all things indicates that His knowledge encompasses all things and that His power to control and direct all things, and His wisdom by means of which He does all that is appropriate, are complete and perfect.

«To Him belong the keys of the heavens and the earth» that is, He has knowledge of what they contain and He is in control of it. Therefore:

«Whatever Allah opens up for people of His mercy, none can withhold it, and whatever He withholds, none can grant it thereafter. And He is the Almighty, the Most Wise.» (Fâfir 35: 2)

Having highlighted His greatness in a manner that should fill our hearts with awe and respect, Allah (ﷻ) now mentions those who do the opposite, and do not give Him due recognition:

«it is those who reject Allah's signs» that point to certain truth and to the straight path

«who are the losers» for they have lost that through which they could attain spiritual well-being and sincere devotion to Allah, through which tongues are rectified by keeping them busy with remembrance of Allah, through which the physical body may be rectified by keeping it busy with acts of obedience to Allah, and they have replaced that with everything that could corrupt their spiritual and physical well-being; they have lost out on the gardens of bliss and have replaced them with the painful punishment.

﴿قُلْ أَغْفِرَ اللَّهُ تَأْمُرُونِي أَعْبُدُ أَيُّهَا الْجَاهِلُونَ﴾ ۞ وَلَقَدْ أُوحِيَ إِلَيْكَ وَإِلَى الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِكَ لَئِنْ أَشْرَكْتَ لَيَحْبَطَنَّ عَمَلُكَ وَلَتَكُونَنَّ مِنَ الْخَاسِرِينَ ﴿٦٥﴾ بَلِ اللَّهَ فَاعْبُدْ وَكُنْ مِنَ الشَّاكِرِينَ ﴿٦٦﴾ (سورة الزمر: ٦٤-٦٦)

- 39:64. Say [O Muhammad]: Is it someone other than Allah that you tell me to worship, O ignorant ones?
- 39:65. It has already been revealed to you, and to those who came before you, that if you ascribe partners to Allah, all your deeds will surely come to nothing and you will certainly be among the losers.
- 39:66. Nay, but worship Allah [alone] and be among those who are grateful [to Him].

﴿Say﴾ O Messenger (ﷺ), to these people who call you to worship gods other than Allah

﴿Is it someone other than Allah that you tell me to worship, O ignorant ones?﴾ That is, this stems from your ignorance, otherwise if you knew that Allah, Who is perfect in all aspects, the Bestower of all blessings, is the only One Who is deserving of worship, and not those who are lacking in all aspects and cannot bring benefit or cause harm, you would not tell me to do that.

That is because ascribing partners to Allah renders good deeds invalid and corrupts well-being. Hence Allah says:

﴿It has already been revealed to you, and to those who came before you﴾ namely all the Prophets

﴿that if you ascribe partners to Allah, all your deeds will surely come to nothing﴾. This includes all deeds.

According to the message of all the Prophets, ascribing partners to Allah renders all good deeds invalid, as Allah says in Soorat al-An'ām, after listing many of His Prophets and Messengers:

«This is the guidance of Allah, with which He guides whomever He will among His slaves. If they had ascribed partners to Him, all their deeds would have come to nothing.» (al-An'âm 6: 88)

«and you will certainly be among the losers» in this world and in the hereafter, because ascribing partners to Allah renders good deeds invalid and is deserving of punishment.

Then Allah says: «Nay, but worship Allah [alone]». Having stated that the ignorant were telling the Prophet (ﷺ) to ascribe partners to Allah, and having pointed out how abhorrent that is, Allah instructed him to devote his worship to Him alone: «Nay, but worship Allah [alone]» that is, devote your worship to Him alone, with no partner or associate

«and be among those who are grateful [to Him]» for His guidance. Just as Allah is to be thanked for worldly blessings, such as physical good health and well-being, granting provision, and so on, He is also to be thanked and praised for spiritual blessings, such as enabling one to be sincere and to fear Him. In fact it is spiritual blessings that are real blessings. Pondering and realising that they come from Allah and giving thanks to Him for them will protect one from self-admiration that affects many people who strive hard, because of their ignorance. Otherwise, if a person were to understand the reality of things, he would not develop self-admiration because of the blessing which requires him to give more thanks to Allah.

﴿وَمَا قَدَرُوا اللَّهَ حَقَّ قَدْرِهِ ۖ وَالْأَرْضُ جَمِيعًا قَبْضَتُهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ ۖ وَالسَّمَوَاتُ
مَطْوِيَّاتٌ بِيَمِينِهِ ۚ سُبْحَنَهُ ۖ وَتَعَالَى عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ﴾ (سورة الزمر: ٦٧)

39:67. They have not given due recognition to Allah. On the Day of Resurrection, the entire earth will be in His grip, and the heavens will be rolled up in His Right Hand. Glorified and exalted be Allah far above the partners they ascribe to Him!

Here Allah tells us that these polytheists have not given due recognition to their Lord, and they have not venerated Him as they should. Rather they have done that which is contrary to that, by ascribing as partners to Him those who are lacking in their attributes and deeds, for their attributes and deeds are imperfect in all aspects; they have no power to bring benefit or cause harm, they cannot give or withhold, and they have no control over anything at all.

Thus they regard these imperfect created beings as equal to the Almighty Lord by Whose dazzling might and supreme power the earth will be seized in the grasp of the Most Gracious on the Day of Resurrection, and the heavens – despite their vastness – will be rolled up in His Right Hand. The one who regards others as equal to Him is not venerating Him as He deserves, and there is no greater wrongdoing than that.

«Glorified and exalted be Allah far above the partners they ascribe to Him» that is, Allah declares Himself to be far greater and far above their ascription of partners to Him.

﴿وَنُفِخَ فِي الصُّورِ فَصَعِقَ مَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَنْ فِي الْأَرْضِ إِلَّا مَنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ ثُمَّ نُفِخَ فِيهِ أُخْرَىٰ فَإِذَا هُمْ قِيَامٌ يَنْظُرُونَ ﴿٦٨﴾ وَأَشْرَقَتِ الْأَرْضُ بِنُورِ رَبِّهَا وَوُضِعَ الْكِتَابُ وَجَاءَ بِالنَّبِيِّينَ وَالشُّهَدَاءُ وَقُضِيَ بَيْنَهُم بِالْحَقِّ وَهُمْ لَا يُظْلَمُونَ ﴿٦٩﴾ وَوُفِّيَتْ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ مَّا عَمِلَتْ وَهُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا يَفْعَلُونَ ﴿٧٠﴾﴾ (سورة الزمر: ٦٨-٧٠)

39:68. The Trumpet will be blown and all those who are in the heavens and on earth will swoon, except whomever Allah wills. Then it will be blown again, whereupon they will be standing, looking around.

- 39:69. The earth will shine with the light of its Lord, the record of deeds will be placed [in their hands], and the Prophets and the witnesses will be brought forth. Judgement will be passed between them with equity, and they will not be wronged.
- 39:70. Every soul will be paid in full for what it has done, and He knows best all that they do.

---

Having instilled fear of His might, Allah now warns them by telling them about what will happen on the Day of Resurrection, urging them (to seek the path that leads to paradise) and warning them (against the path that leads to hell).

«The Trumpet will be blown» – the Trumpet is a great horn, the size of which no one knows except its Creator and those among His creation to whom Allah has given knowledge thereof. It will be blown by Isrâfeel (﷉), one of the angels who are close to Allah, one of the bearers of the Throne of the Most Gracious.

«and all those who are in the heavens and on earth will swoon» that is, faint or die, according to different opinions. In other words, when they hear the Trumpet blast, they will all be disturbed by its loudness and intensity, and because of that to which they know it is the precursor

«except whomever Allah wills» of those whom Allah will make steadfast at the time of the Trumpet blast, so that they will not swoon, such as the martyrs – or some of them – and others. This is the first Trumpet blast, the blast that will lead to swooning and will cause alarm and fear.

«Then it will be blown again» – this will be the second Trumpet blast, which will signal the resurrection

«whereupon they will be standing, looking around» that is, they will have risen from their graves, for their resurrection and reckoning, having been recreated complete in body and soul,

«looking around» to see what Allah will do with them.

«The earth will shine with the light of its Lord». From this it is known that the existing lights will have vanished and disappeared on the Day of Resurrection. And this will indeed be the case, for Allah has told us that the sun will be rolled up, the moon will be darkened, the stars will be scattered and the people will be left in darkness. At that point the earth will be illuminated with the light of its Lord, when He manifests Himself and descends to pass judgement among them. On that day, Allah will give people extra strength and will recreate them in such a way that they will be able to withstand His light and it will not burn them. They will also be enabled to see Him, otherwise His light is immense, and if it were to be made manifest, the glory of His Countenance would burn all of His creation, as far as He can see.

«the record of deeds will be placed [in their hands]» so that what it contains of good deeds and evil deeds may be read. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

«And the record of deeds will be placed [in their hands] and you will see the evildoers filled with dread at what it contains. They will say: Woe to us! What sort of record is this, that leaves no deed, small or great, unaccounted for? They will find all they did recorded there, and your Lord will not wrong anyone.» (al-Kahf 18: 49)

And it will be said to the doer of deeds, by way of perfect justice:

«...Read your own record; sufficient is your own soul as a reckoner against you this day.» (al-Isrâ' 17: 14)

«and the Prophets and the witnesses will be brought forth» – the Prophets will be brought forth so that they may be questioned about their conveying of the message and about their nations, and they will testify against them. And the witnesses – namely the angels, people's physical faculties, and the earth – will also be brought forth and questioned.

«Judgement will be passed between them with equity» that is, perfect justice and great fairness, because the reckoning comes from One Who does not wrong anyone in the slightest, One Who encompasses all things and His Book – namely al-Lawh al-Mahfoodh – encompasses all that they did. The noble scribes, who do not disobey their Lord, will have recorded all that they did, and the fairest of witnesses will have testified to that verdict. Therefore the One Who issues that verdict is One Who knows the quality of the deeds and the extent to which they deserve reward or punishment. Thus Allah will issue a verdict of which people will approve, and they will praise Allah and acknowledge His justice. Through that verdict, they will come to know of His greatness, knowledge, wisdom and mercy that which had never crossed their minds and cannot be described. Hence Allah says: ﴿Every soul will be paid in full for what it has done, and He knows best all that they do﴾.

﴿وَسِيقَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا إِلَىٰ جَهَنَّمَ زُمَرًا ۖ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا جَاءُوهَا فَفُتِحَتْ أَبْوَابُهَا وَقَالَ لَهُمْ خَزَنَتُهَا أَلَمْ يَأْتِكُمْ رُسُلٌ مِّنكُمْ يَتْلُونَ عَلَيْكُمْ آيَاتِ رَبِّكُمْ وَيُنذِرُونَكُمْ لِقَاءَ يَوْمِكُمْ هَٰذَا قَالُوا بَلَىٰ وَلَكِنْ حَقَّتْ كَلِمَةُ الْعَذَابِ عَلَى الْكَافِرِينَ ﴿٧١﴾ قِيلَ ادْخُلُوا أَبْوَابَ جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا ۖ فَبِئْسَ مَوْىِٰى الْمُتَكَبِّرِينَ ﴿٧٢﴾ وَسِيقَ الَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا رَبَّهُمْ إِلَى الْجَنَّةِ زُمَرًا ۖ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا جَاءُوهَا وَفُتِحَتْ أَبْوَابُهَا وَقَالَ لَهُمْ خَزَنَتُهَا سَلَامٌ عَلَيْكُمْ طِبْتُمْ فَادْخُلُوهَا خَالِدِينَ ﴿٧٣﴾ وَقَالُوا الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي صَدَقَنَا وَعْدُهُ وَأَوْزَنَا الْأَرْضَ نَتَبَوَّأُ مِنَ الْجَنَّةِ حَيْثُ نَشَاءُ ۖ فَنِعْمَ أَجْرُ الْعَامِلِينَ ﴿٧٤﴾ وَتَرَى الْمَلَائِكَةَ حَافِيزِينَ مِنْ حَوْلِ الْعَرْشِ يُسَبِّحُونَ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّهِمْ وَقُضِيَ بَيْنَهُم بِالْحَقِّ وَقِيلَ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٧٥﴾﴾ (سورة الزمر: ٧١-٧٥)

39:71. The disbelievers will be driven to hell in groups until, when they reach it, its gates will be opened and its keepers will say to them: Did there not come to you Messengers from among you, reciting the revelations of your Lord to you and warning you of the meeting of this day of yours? They will say: Yes indeed, but the decree of punishment has become inevitable for the disbelievers.

- 39:72. It will be said: Enter the gates of hell, to abide therein forever. Wretched indeed is the abode of the arrogant!
- 39:73. Those who feared their Lord will be ushered to paradise in groups until, when they reach it, they will find its gates wide open, and its keepers will say to them: Peace be upon you; you have done well, so enter it, to abide herein forever.
- 39:74. They will say: Praise be to Allah Who has fulfilled His promise to us and given us this land as our own, so that we may dwell in paradise wherever we wish. How excellent a reward for those who work [and strive]!
- 39:75. And you will see the angels surrounding the Throne, glorifying and praising their Lord. Judgement will have been passed with equity among all, and it will be said: Praise be to Allah, the Lord of the worlds.

Having mentioned His verdict concerning His slaves – who will all have in common the fact that He created them, granted them provision and directed them, and they will all have in common the fact that they lived in the previous world and have been gathered together in the place of standing on the Day of Resurrection – Allah tells us here that they will be separated for the requital, just as they were separated in this world according to whether they were believers or disbelievers, righteous or immoral.

«The disbelievers will be driven to hell in groups» that is, they will be driven violently, beaten with painful whips by the harsh and callous keepers of hell, to the worst and most terrifying place of detention, namely hell in which all torments are combined and all miseries are present. All happiness will disappear from them, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿On the day when they are shoved forcibly towards the fire of hell.﴾
(at-Toor 52: 13)

– that is, they will be pushed forcefully, because of their refusal to enter it. They will be driven to it ﴿in groups﴾ that is, in separate groups, each group according to their deeds, as the people in each group will be similar in the misdeeds they did. They will curse one another and disavow one another.

﴿when they reach it﴾ that is, when they reach its courtyard
﴿its gates will be opened﴾ upon their arrival, to receive them.

﴿and its keepers will say to them﴾, congratulating them for attaining eternal misery and punishment, and rebuking them for the deeds that brought them to this terrifying place:

﴿Did there not come to you Messengers from among you﴾ that is, of your own kind, whom you knew and were aware of their honesty and sincerity, from whom you could have received the message?

﴿reciting the revelations of your Lord to you﴾ with which Allah sent them, that pointed to certain truth with the clearest of proof.

﴿and warning you of the meeting of this day of yours﴾ that is, this required you to follow them and protect yourself against the punishment of this day, by following the path of piety, but you followed a different path.

﴿They will say﴾, acknowledging their sin and that the proof of Allah was established against them:

﴿Yes indeed﴾, the Messengers of our Lord did come to us with signs and proof; they explained things to us very clearly and warned us about this day.

﴿but the decree of punishment has become inevitable for the disbelievers﴾ that is, because of their disbelief the decree of punishment has become inevitable for them, which applies to everyone who disbelieves in the signs of Allah and rejects the message brought by the Messengers. Thus they will acknowledge their sins and the establishment of proof against them.

«It will be said» to them, by way of humiliation and shame:
«Enter the gates of hell». Each group will enter from the gate that is appropriate to their misdeeds

«to abide therein forever»; they will never leave it, the punishment will never be reduced even for a short while, and they will be given no respite.

«Wretched indeed is the abode of the arrogant!» That is, wretched is the dwelling place, for hell is the dwelling place, because they were too arrogant to follow the truth. Thus Allah will requite them in a manner that befits their deed, by subjecting them to humiliation, shame and disgrace.

Then Allah speaks of the people of paradise:

«Those who feared their Lord» by affirming His oneness and striving to obey Him

«will be ushered» by way of honour and respect; they will be gathered in delegations, coming on the best mounts,

«to paradise in groups», rejoicing and cheerful, each group with other groups who are like them in righteous deeds and similar to them «until, when they reach it» that is, when they reach that vast garden with its beautiful dwellings, its fragrant breeze will reach them and its life of eternal bliss will begin.

«they will find its gates wide open» for them, by way of honour for the best of people, who will be honoured therein

«and its keepers will say to them», congratulating them and welcoming them:

«Peace be upon you» that is, you are safe from all harm and evil

«you have done well» that is, you did well by knowing Allah, loving Him and fearing Him, and you remembered Him and obeyed Him.

«so» because you have done well, «enter it, to abide herein forever» because it is the good abode, and no one is fit for it except those who are good.

This passage indicates that both hell and paradise have gates that can be opened and closed, each of them has keepers, and they are two abodes that are allocated for specific people, and no one can enter either of them except those who deserve to do so, unlike other places and dwellings.

﴿They will say﴾ when they enter it and settle there, praising their Lord for the blessings that He has bestowed upon them and for guiding them:

﴿Praise be to Allah Who has fulfilled His promise to us﴾ that is, He promised us paradise on the lips of His Messengers, if we believed and did righteous deeds, and now He has fulfilled what He promised us.

﴿and given us this land﴾ that is, the land of paradise

﴿as our own, so that we may dwell in paradise wherever we wish﴾ that is, so that we may settle therein in any place we wish, and enjoy any of its pleasures that we want; nothing we want will be withheld from us.

﴿How excellent a reward for those who work [and strive]﴾ that is, those who strive in obedience to their Lord for a short time, and attain thereby much lasting good.

This is the abode that truly deserves to be praised, in which Allah will honour the elite of His creation and which He is pleased that it should be their reward. He built it in the most sublime and beautiful manner, planted its trees with His own Hand and filled it with His mercy and honour, by means of some of which the heart of one who is grieving may be filled with joy, all feelings of misery and sadness may be removed, and perfect happiness and tranquillity may be attained.

﴿And you will see the angels﴾ on that momentous day ﴿surrounding the Throne﴾ to serve the Lord, gathered around His Throne, submitting to His majesty, acknowledging His perfection and absorbed in His beauty.

﴿glorifying and praising their Lord﴾ that is, declaring Him to be above everything that is not befitting to His majesty that the polytheists ascribe to Him.

﴿Judgement will have been passed with equity among all﴾ that is, between the first and the last of creation

﴿with equity﴾ in which there is no ambiguity and no one who is guilty could deny that.

﴿and it will be said: Praise be to Allah, the Lord of the worlds﴾.

No mention is made of who will say these words, so as to indicate that all of creation will speak words of praise to their Lord, and will affirm His wisdom in His judgement of the people of paradise and the people of hell, praising His grace and kindness, and praising His judgement and wisdom.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat az-Zumar.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

40.

Soorat Ghâfir

(Makki)

---

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿حَمْدٌ ۝ تَنْزِيلُ الْكِتَابِ مِنَ اللَّهِ الْعَزِيزِ الْعَلِيمِ ۝ غَافِرِ الذَّنْبِ وَقَابِلِ التَّوْبِ ۝ شَدِيدِ الْعِقَابِ ذِي الطَّوْلِ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ إِلَيْهِ الْمَصِيرُ﴾ (سورة غافر: ١-٣)

40:1. Hâ'. Meem.

40:2. The revelation of the Book is from Allah, the Almighty, the All-Knowing, 40:3. Forgiver of sin, Acceptor of repentance, severe in punishment, limitless in bounty. There is no god but He; unto Him is the return [of all].

---

Here Allah tells us about His holy Book: it comes from and is sent down by Allah, to Whom all devotion and worship is due, because of His perfect attributes and because nothing is like unto Him in His deeds.

﴿the Almighty﴾ Who, by His might, subjugates all creation
﴿the All-Knowing﴾ Who knows all things.

«Forgiver of sin» Who forgives the sinners
 «Acceptor of repentance» from those who repent
 «severe in punishment» to those who dare to commit sin and do not repent
 «limitless in bounty» that is, He is generous towards people and His favours reach all of them.

Having affirmed His perfection, which dictates that He is the only One Who is to be worshipped and to Whom deeds are to be devoted, Allah says here: «There is no god but He; unto Him is the return [of all]».

The reason for pointing out that the Qur'an was revealed from Allah, Who is described as possessing these attributes, is that these attributes are connected to all the ideas and meanings that are discussed in the Qur'an. The Qur'an either tells of the names, attributes and deeds of Allah, and those that are mentioned here are among His names, attributes and deeds; or it tells of past and future events, which comes under the heading of the teaching of the All-Knowing of His slaves; or it tells of His great blessings and favours, and what one should do to attain them, which is indicated by the words «limitless in bounty»;

or it tells of His severe punishment and the sins that incur it and lead to it, which is indicated by the words «severe in punishment»;

or it calls upon sinners to repent, turn to Allah and seek forgiveness, which is indicated by the words «Forgiver of sin, Acceptor of repentance, severe in punishment»;

or it tells us that Allah alone is deserving of devotion and worship, and it establishes rational and textual proof to that effect, urges people to worship Him alone, and forbids them to worship anything other than Allah, establishing rational and textual proof that it is wrong and warning against it, which is indicated by the words «There is no god but He»;

or it tells us of His judgement, the reward for those who do good, and punishment for those who commit sin, which is indicated by the words «unto Him is the return [of all]».

This summarises all the sublime ideas and concepts contained in the Qur'an.

﴿مَا يُجَدِّدُ فِي آيَاتِ اللَّهِ إِلَّا الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فَلَا يَغْزِرْكَ تَقَابُثُهُمْ فِي الْبَلَدِ ۚ
كَذَّبَتْ قَبْلَهُمْ قَوْمُ نُوحٍ وَالْأَحْزَابُ مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ وَهَمَّتْ كُلُّ أُمَّةٍ بِرَسُولِهِمْ
لِيَأْخُذُوهُ وَجَدَلُوا بِالْبَاطِلِ لِيُدْحِضُوا بِهِ الْحَقَّ فَأَخَذْتُهُمْ فَكَيْفَ كَانَ عِقَابِ ۚ
وَكَذَلِكَ حَقَّتْ كَلِمَةُ رَبِّكَ عَلَى الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَنَّهُمْ أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ ۖ﴾ (سورة غافر: ٤-٦)

- 40:4. None argue against the signs of Allah except those who disbelieve. So do not be deceived by their [uninhibited] movement throughout the land.
- 40:5. Before them the people of Nooh also rejected [their Prophet], as did the parties [who gathered against their Prophets] after them. Every nation plotted against its Messenger, to seize him, and with false arguments sought to undermine the truth. So I seized them, and how [terrible] was My punishment!
- 40:6. Thus the decree of your Lord has become inevitable against those who disbelieved, that they will be inhabitants of the fire.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that «None argue against the signs of Allah except those who disbelieve». What is meant by arguing here is arguing with the aim of refuting the signs of Allah and opposing them on the basis of falsehood. This is the attitude of the disbelievers. As for the believers, they submit to Allah (ﷻ), Who causes truth to prevail over falsehood.

No one should be deceived by the wealth and status of anyone, and think that the fact that Allah has bestowed upon him worldly gain is a sign that Allah loves him or that he is following the truth. Hence Allah says: ﴿So do not be deceived by their [uninhibited] movement throughout the land﴾ that is, their coming and going, engaging in all kinds of trade and business. Rather what one should do is to evaluate people on the basis of truth, looking at the facts and weighing up people within the framework of Islamic teaching, not weighing up the truth on the basis of what people say, as is done by people who have no knowledge and no power of rational thinking.

Then Allah warns those who argue against the signs of Allah in order to refute them, as was done by previous nations, such as the people of Nooh and 'Ad, and ﴿the parties [who gathered against their Prophets] after them﴾, who came together and united against the truth in order to refute it and to support falsehood.

In fact, the matter went so far that ﴿Every nation plotted against its Messenger, to seize him﴾ that is, to kill him, and this is the worst thing that they could ever do to the Messengers, who are the leaders of the people of good and were following pure truth concerning which there could be no doubt or confusion. They wanted to kill them, and can there be any consequences for such transgression, misguidance or wickedness except severe punishment that will have no end?

Hence Allah said concerning their punishment in this world and in the hereafter:

﴿So I seized them﴾ because of their disbelief and their gathering against their Prophets

﴿and how [terrible] was My punishment﴾ for it was the worst and most terrible of punishments; it was but a single blast, or a shower of pebbles that rained down upon them, or a command to the earth to swallow them up, or a command to the sea to drown them, whereupon they became lifeless.

«Thus the decree of your Lord has become inevitable against those who disbelieved» that is, thus the decree of misguidance became inevitable for these people, on the basis of which the decree of punishment was issued. Hence Allah says: «that they will be inhabitants of the fire».

﴿الَّذِينَ يَجُلُونَ الْعَرْشَ وَمَنْ حَوْلَهُ يُسَبِّحُونَ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّهِمْ وَيُؤْمِنُونَ بِهِ وَيَسْتَغْفِرُونَ لِلَّذِينَ
ءَامَنُوا رَبَّنَا وَسِعْتَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ رَّحْمَةً وَعِلْمًا فَاغْفِرْ لِلَّذِينَ تَابُوا وَاتَّبَعُوا سَبِيلَكَ
وَقِهِمْ عَذَابَ الْجَحِيمِ ﴿٧﴾ رَبَّنَا وَأَدْخِلْهُمْ جَنَّاتٍ عَدْنٍ الَّتِي وَعَدْتَهُمْ وَمَنْ صَلَحَ
مِنْ ءَابَائِهِمْ وَأَزْوَاجِهِمْ وَذُرِّيَّتِهِمْ إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٨﴾ وَقِهِمُ
السَّيِّئَاتِ وَمَنْ تَقِ السَّيِّئَاتِ يَوْمَئِذٍ فَقَدْ رَحِمْتَهُ وَذَلِكَ هُوَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ
﴿٩﴾﴾ (سورة غافر: ٧-٩)

- 40:7. Those [angels] who bear the Throne and those who are around it glorify and praise their Lord; they believe in Him and pray for forgiveness for those who believe, [saying]: Our Lord, You encompass all things in Your mercy and knowledge, so forgive those who repent and follow Your path, and protect them from the punishment of the blazing fire.
- 40:8. Our Lord, and admit them to gardens of perpetual abode which You have promised them, and [admit] the righteous among their forebears, their spouses and their offspring. Verily You are the Almighty, the Most Wise.
- 40:9. And protect them from the evil consequences [of their sins], for whomever You protect from evil consequences on that day, You will indeed have bestowed mercy upon him, and that will be the supreme triumph.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of His perfect kindness towards His believing slaves, and what He has ordained of means that lead to their happiness that have nothing to do with them, such as the prayers for their forgiveness by the angels who are close to Him, and the angels' supplication for their well-being in this world and the hereafter. He also tells us of the honourable status of the bearers of the Throne and those who are around it, and their sincerity towards the slaves of Allah, because they know that Allah will accept that from them. Hence He says:

«Those [angels] who bear the Throne» that is, the Throne of the Most Gracious, which is the roof of creation and the greatest, vastest and most beautiful of created things, the closest to Allah (ﷻ), which encompasses the heavens and the earth and the Kursi.<sup>68</sup> Allah (ﷻ) has appointed these angels to bear His mighty Throne, so undoubtedly they are among the biggest, greatest and strongest angels.

The fact that Allah has chosen them to bear His Throne, and He mentions them first, and has brought them close to Him indicates that they are the best types of angels (peace be upon them). Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

«...and on that day, eight will carry the Throne of your Lord above them.» (al-Hâqqah 69: 17)

«and those who are around it» of the angels who are close in status and virtue

---

<sup>68</sup> According to some scholars, the Kursi is the Footstool of the Most Gracious. However, other scholars are of the view that the Kursi is synonymous with the 'Arsh (Throne). There is also a third view – favoured by at-Ṭabari, who narrated it from Ibn 'Abbâs – which is that what is referred to by the word Kursi is the knowledge of Allah. At-Ṭabari supported this view by noting that a page on which knowledge is written is called kurrâsah and that the scholars may be referred to as karâsi (pl. of kursi), because they may be relied upon with regard to issues of knowledge. (Translator)

﴿glorify and praise their Lord﴾. This is praise for them, because of their abundant worship of Allah (ﷻ), especially glorification and praise; all other kinds of worship come under the heading of glorifying and praising Allah, because it is all a kind of declaring Allah to be far above any worship or praise being directed to anyone other than Him, and it is praise of Him. Rather praise is for Allah alone. A person's saying "Subhân Allâh wa bi hamdihi (Glory and praise be to Allah)" comes under the heading of worship.

﴿and pray for forgiveness for those who believe﴾. This is one of the many benefits and virtues of faith: the angels, who have no sin, pray for forgiveness for the believers. Simply by believing, the believer attains this great blessing.

As forgiveness has prerequisites, without which it cannot be attained, Allah (ﷻ) tells us the opening words of their prayer for forgiveness for the believers, without which it cannot be complete: ﴿Our Lord, You encompass all things in Your mercy and knowledge﴾ and Your knowledge encompasses all things, so nothing is hidden from You and nothing the weight of an atom on earth or in heaven, or anything smaller or greater than that, escapes Your knowledge. And Your mercy encompasses all things, so the upper and lower realms are filled with the mercy of Allah, which encompasses them and reaches as far as His creation went.

﴿so forgive those who repent﴾ from ascribing partners to You and from sin

﴿and follow Your path﴾ by following Your Messengers, affirming Your oneness and obeying You

﴿and protect them from the punishment of the blazing fire﴾ that is, protect them from the punishment itself and protect them from the causes that lead to the punishment.

﴿Our Lord, and admit them to gardens of perpetual abode which You have promised them﴾ on the lips of Your Messengers

﴿and [admit] the righteous﴾ who believed and did righteous deeds

«among their forebears, their spouses» – the word translated here as «spouses» includes wives, husbands, companions and friends «and their offspring».

«Verily You are the Almighty» Who subjugates all things. By Your might, You forgive their sins, relieve them of hardships and cause them to attain all that is good

«the Most Wise» Who does what is appropriate. So we do not ask You, O our Lord, for anything contrary to that which is dictated by Your wisdom; rather part of Your wisdom – as You have told us on the lips of Your Messengers, and as dictated by Your grace – is to forgive the believers.

«And protect them from the evil consequences [of their sins]» that is, and protect them from evil deeds and their consequences, because that is upsetting to the one who does it.

«for whomever You protect from evil consequences on that day» namely the Day of Resurrection

«You will indeed have bestowed mercy upon him» because Your mercy is continuously bestowed upon people, and nothing prevents it except people's sins and bad deeds. So whomever You protect from evil consequences, you will be guiding him towards good deeds and their good consequences

«and that will be the supreme triumph» and there will be no triumph like it, and people cannot compete for anything better than that.

This supplication of the angels is indicative of the perfect knowledge of their Lord, and it is an example of seeking to draw close to Allah by virtue of His beautiful names, by virtue of which people should seek to draw close to Him. The supplication is appropriate to that which they are asking of Allah. Because their supplication is for the attainment of mercy and the removal of the negative effects that result from the shortcomings of human beings, of which Allah is aware, and what resulted from these shortcomings of falling into sin, and other matters of which Allah has full knowledge, it is for this reason that they sought forgiveness by virtue of the divine attributes of mercy and knowledge.

Part of their perfect etiquette towards Allah (ﷻ) is their affirmation of His being their Lord, in both a general and specific sense. They acknowledged that they have no control whatsoever; rather their supplication to their Lord emanates from those who are inherently in need in all respects, and there is nothing whatsoever that they could boast about or be proud of before Him (as they have no power before Him). There is nothing but the grace, generosity and kindness of Allah.

Another aspect of their etiquette is that they are in complete harmony with their Lord, loving what He loves of deeds, which refers to the acts of worship that people did and in which they strove hard, and loving whom He loves of those among the believers who strive hard, whom Allah (ﷻ) loves from among His creation. Because the angels love them, they call upon Allah and seek thereby the sound well-being of the believers, because offering supplication for a person is one of the clearest proofs of one's love for him, for a person only offers supplication for those whom he loves.

﴿إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا يُنَادُونَ لِمَقْتُ اللَّهِ أَكْبَرُ مِنْ مَقْتِكُمْ أَنْفُسَكُمْ إِذْ تُدْعَوْنَ إِلَى الْإِيمَانِ فَتَكْفُرُونَ ﴿١٠﴾ قَالُوا رَبَّنَا أَمَتْنَا اثْنَيْنِ وَأَحْيَيْتَنَا اثْنَيْنِ فَاعْتَرَفْنَا بِذُنُوبِنَا فَهَلْ إِلَى خُرُوجٍ مِنْ سَبِيلٍ ﴿١١﴾ ذَلِكُمْ بِأَنَّهُ إِذَا دُعِيَ اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ كَفَرْتُمْ وَإِنْ يُشْرَكَ بِهِ تَوَمَّنُوا ۚ فَالْحُكْمُ لِلَّهِ الْعَلِيِّ الْكَبِيرِ ﴿١٢﴾﴾ (سورة

غافر: ١٠-١٢)

- 40:10. It will be proclaimed to those who disbelieved: Allah's loathing of you is greater than your loathing for your own selves, for you were called to faith but you disbelieved.

- 40:11. They will say: Our Lord, twice You have caused us to be lifeless<sup>69</sup> and twice You have brought us to life. Now we acknowledge our sins; is there any way out [of the fire]?
- 40:12. [It will be said to them:] This is because when Allah alone was invoked, you disbelieved, but when partners were ascribed to Him, you believed. Judgement belongs only to Allah, the Most High, the Most Great.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about the shame and disgrace that will befall the disbelievers, and how they will ask to go back to this world and to exit from the fire, but that will be impossible, and they will be rebuked:

﴿It will be proclaimed to those who disbelieved﴾ – they are referred to in general terms (without stating what they disbelieved in) so as to include all kinds of disbelief, such as disbelief in Allah, in His Books, in His Messengers or in the Last Day. When they enter the fire and admit that they deserve it because of what they committed of sins, then they will loathe themselves greatly for that and will be very angry with themselves. At that point they will call out, and it will be said to them:

﴿Allah's loathing of you is greater than your loathing for your own selves, for you were called to faith but you disbelieved﴾ that is, when the Messengers and their followers called you to faith and established clear proof that highlighted the truth, you disbelieved and showed no interest in faith for which Allah created you, and you turned

<sup>69</sup> The first period of lifelessness is the initial period of development in the womb, which is referred to in Soorat al-Mu'minoon:

﴿Then We made the drop of semen into a clinging clot, then We made the clinging clot into a lump of flesh, then We made the lump of flesh into bones, and clothed the bones with flesh...﴾ (al-Mu'minoon 23: 14)
– until the soul is breathed into the foetus, whereupon it becomes alive. The second period of lifelessness follows death in this world and lasts until the Day of Resurrection. (Ibn 'Ashoor; at-Tafseer al-Muyassar) away from His vast mercy, therefore He loathed you and despised you.

That (His loathing of you) ﴿is greater than your loathing for your own selves﴾ that is, this loathing from Allah towards you persisted, and divine wrath kept coming upon you, until you reached this point. So today you have earned the wrath and punishment of Allah at the time when the believers have attained the pleasure and reward of Allah.

They will wish to go back to this world, and will say: ﴿Our Lord, twice You have caused us to be lifeless﴾ referring to the first death, and the period between the two Trumpet blasts, according to one view. Or it may refer to the period of nonexistence before they were brought into being, then Allah caused them to die, after He brought them into being.

﴿and twice You have brought us to life﴾ this refers to life in this world and life in the hereafter

﴿Now we acknowledge our sins; is there any way out [of the fire]?﴾ That is, they will express regret and say that, but it will be to no avail and will not benefit them. They will be rebuked for not taking any measures that could lead to salvation, and it will be said to them:

﴿This is because when Allah alone was invoked﴾ that is, when the call was made to affirm His oneness and strive for His sake alone, and it was forbidden to ascribe partners to Him,

﴿you disbelieved﴾ in Him, your hearts shrank with aversion and you found it extremely off-putting

﴿but when partners were ascribed to Him, you believed﴾. And this is what has led you to this place and has caused you to reside in this abode: it is because you disbelieved in faith and you believed in disbelief; you were pleased with that which was evil and corrupt in the previous world and in the hereafter, and you were displeased with that which was good and sound in the previous world and in the hereafter. You gave precedence to that which leads to doom, humiliation and divine wrath, and you had no interest in that which is the means of triumph, success and salvation.

﴿...if they see the path of guidance, they will not follow it, but if they see the path of error, they will take it as their way...﴾ (al-A'raf 7: 146)

﴿Judgement belongs only to Allah, the Most High, the Most Great﴾ – He is Most High in every sense, sublime in essence, sublime in esteem, sublime in the subjugation of all others. One aspect of His being Most High in esteem is His perfect justice; He does that which is appropriate and He does not regard as equal the righteous and the evildoers.

﴿the Most Great﴾ to Whom belong pride, greatness and glory in His names, His attributes and His deeds. He is far above all defects, faults and shortcomings. As judgement belongs only to Him, and He has ruled that you are to abide in hell for ever, His verdict cannot be changed or altered.

﴿هُوَ الَّذِي يُرِيكُمْ آيَاتِهِ وَيُنَزِّلُ لَكُمْ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ رِزْقًا وَمَا يَتَذَكَّرُ إِلَّا مَنْ يُنِيبُ﴾ (١٣) ﴿فَادْعُوا اللَّهَ مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ وَلَوْ كَرِهَ الْكَافِرُونَ﴾ (١٤) ﴿رَفِيعُ الدَّرَجَاتِ ذُو الْعَرْشِ يُلْقِي الرُّوحَ مِنْ أَمْرِهِ عَلَى مَنْ يَشَاءُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ لِيُنْذِرَ يَوْمَ التَّلَاقِ﴾ (١٥) ﴿يَوْمَ هُمْ بَدْرُؤٌ لَا يُنْفَخُ عَلَى اللَّهِ مِنْهُمْ شَيْءٌ لِمَنِ الْمُلْكُ الْيَوْمَ لِلَّهِ الْوَاحِدِ الْقَهَّارِ﴾ (١٦) ﴿الْيَوْمَ تُجْزَى كُلُّ نَفْسٍ بِمَا كَسَبَتْ لَا ظُلْمَ الْيَوْمَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ سَرِيعُ الْحِسَابِ﴾ (١٧) ﴿سورة غافر:

(١٧-١٣)

40:13. It is He Who shows you His signs and sends down provision for you from heaven. But none pay heed except those who turn to Allah.

40:14. So call upon Allah with sincere devotion to Him alone, even though the disbelievers hate it.

- 40:15. [Most] Exalted in rank, Lord of the Throne, He sends down His revelation by His command to whomever among His slaves He wills, to warn [people] of the Day of Meeting,
- 40:16. the day when they will be brought forth, with nothing of them hidden from Allah. [Allah will say:] To whom does dominion belong this day? To Allah, the One, the Subjugator!
- 40:17. Today every soul will be requited according to what it earned; none will be wronged today. Verily, Allah is swift in reckoning.

Here Allah (ﷻ) mentions His greatest blessing to His slaves, which is showing them truth as distinct from falsehood, by means of what He shows his slaves of His signs in their own selves, in the universe and in the Qur'an, which are indicative of every sublime aim and which show guidance as distinct from misguidance, so that the one who ponders the signs and reflects upon them will have no doubt about the truth.

This is one of the greatest blessings that He bestows upon His slaves, for He has not left the truth ambiguous and has not left what is correct unclear; rather He has presented various kinds of evidence and proof, and has explained His signs,

﴿...and so that those who chose to perish [by choosing disbelief] might do so after seeing clear evidence, and those who chose to live [by choosing faith] might do so after seeing clear evidence...﴾

(al-Anfāl 8: 42)

The more important and significant the issue, the more evidence is available and the easier it is to understand.

Look at the issue of divine oneness. Because it is one of the most important issues – in fact it is the most important – the evidence for it, both rational and textual, is abundant and varied. Allah sets forth examples to make it clear and presents many arguments for it. Hence He mentions it here, and highlights some of the evidence for it, then He says: ﴿So call upon Allah with sincere devotion to Him alone﴾.

Having stated that He will show His slaves His signs, He now draws attention to a significant sign: ﴿and sends down provision for you from heaven﴾ that is, rain, by means of which you earn your provision, and you and your animals live. This indicates that all blessings come from Allah.

From Him come the blessings of religion, which are spiritual blessings, different religious teachings, the proof for them and what follows that of acting upon them. All worldly blessings also come from Him, such as the blessings that result from rain, which gives life to the land and people. This offers definitive evidence that He alone deserves to be worshipped and that devotion should be focused on Him alone, just as He alone is the Bestower of blessings.

﴿But none pay heed﴾ to the signs when they are reminded of them ﴿except those who turn to Allah﴾ by loving Him, fearing Him, obeying Him and beseeching Him. Such is the person who benefits from the signs, for whom the signs are a source of mercy and he increases in insight thereby.

As these signs serve as a reminder, and the reminder leads to sincere devotion to Allah, He says here: ﴿So call upon Allah with sincere devotion to Him alone﴾ – this refers to worshipping Him and asking of Him.

Sincere devotion means purifying one's intentions and making one's actions solely for the sake of Allah (ﷻ) in all acts of worship, both obligatory and recommended, and in all matters having to do with the rights of Allah and the rights of His slaves.

In other words, be sincere to Allah (ﷻ) alone in every act of worship and in every deed by which you seek to draw close to Him.

﴿even though the disbelievers hate it﴾, do not pay any attention to them and do not let that deter you from adhering to your religion; do not fear the reproach of any reproacher when you strive for the sake of Allah. For the disbelievers have the utmost hate for devotion to Allah alone, as Allah (ﷻ) tells us elsewhere:

«When Allah alone is mentioned, the hearts of those who do not believe in the hereafter shrink with aversion, but when [gods] other than Him are mentioned, they rejoice.» (az-Zumar 39: 45)

Then Allah points out some of His sublime and perfect attributes that compel one to devote worship solely to Him:

«[Most] Exalted in rank, Lord of the Throne» that is, the Most High, Most Exalted, Who rose above the Throne, which is exclusively His. His rank is so exalted that He is completely distinct above His creation; His esteem is so high, His attributes are so sublime and His essence is so exalted that no one can draw near to Him except through pure deeds that are based on sincerity, which raise a person in status and bring him nearer to Allah, and put him above others.

Then Allah mentions the blessing that He bestowed by sending His message and revelation:

«He sends down His revelation» that is to the heart and soul as the soul is to the body; just as the body without the soul has no life and cannot survive, so hearts and souls without revelation cannot be sound or prosper. Allah (ﷻ) «sends down His revelation by His command» in which there is benefit for people and it is in their best interests

«to whomever among His slaves He wills» namely the Messengers, whom Allah favoured and chose to receive His revelation and give the call to His slaves.

The benefit in sending the Messengers is to enable people to attain happiness in their religious and worldly affairs, and in the hereafter, and to protect them from misery and doom in their religious and worldly affairs, and in the hereafter. Hence Allah says:

«to warn» that is, so that those to whom the revelation is given can warn «[people] of the Day of Meeting» that is, so that they can alert people to that, and urge them to prepare for it by means of that which could save them from punishment. It is called the Day of Meeting because on that day the Creator and created beings will meet, and created beings will meet one another, and the doers of deeds will meet their deeds and the requital thereof.

«the day when they will be brought forth» that is, they will emerge from the earth and be gathered together in one plain, in which you will see no depression or elevation (cf. 20: 107), in which the caller can make them all hear and they can all be seen.

«with nothing of them hidden from Allah» – nothing of themselves, nothing of their deeds and nothing of the requital for those deeds.

«[Allah will say:] To whom does dominion belong this day?» That is, who is in control of that great day which will bring together the first and the last, the inhabitants of the heavens and the inhabitants of the earth, the day on which no one will own anything or be in control of anything, all connections between people will be severed, and there will be nothing left but deeds, righteous or evil?

Dominion belongs «To Allah, the One, the Subjugator», Who is unique in His essence, His names, His attributes and His deeds. He has no partner who shares in any of that in any way whatsoever.

«the Subjugator» of all creatures, to Whom all creatures submit, humble themselves before Him and are subjugated, especially on that day on which all faces will be humbled before the Ever-Living, the Self-Sustaining and All-Sustaining (cf. 20: 111), on which no one will speak except by His leave.

«Today every soul will be requited according to what it earned» in this world, of good or evil, little or much «none will be wronged today» by having anything added to his bad deeds or anything detracted from his good deeds.

«Verily, Allah is swift in reckoning» that is, do not think of that day as slow in coming, for it is indeed coming, and everything that is coming is close at hand. He will also be swift in carrying out the reckoning of His slaves on the Day of Resurrection, because of His all-encompassing knowledge and perfect might.

﴿وَأَنذَرَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْأَرْفَةِ إِذِ الْقُلُوبُ لَدَى الْحَنَاجِرِ كَظِيمٍ ۚ مَا لِلظَّالِمِينَ مِنْ حَمِيمٍ وَلَا شَفِيعٍ يُطَاعُ ۝ يَعْلَمُ خَائِنَةَ الْأَعْيُنِ وَمَا تُخْفِي الصُّدُورُ ۝ وَاللَّهُ يَقْضِي بِالْحَقِّ وَالَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِهِ لَا يَقْضُونَ شَيْئًا ۚ إِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْبَصِيرُ﴾
(سورة غافر: ١٨-٢٠)

- 40:18. Warn them of the imminent day, when their hearts will come up into their throats, filled with distress. The wrongdoers will have no close friend or intercessor whose word may be heeded.
- 40:19. Allah knows the stealth of the eyes and all that the hearts conceal.
- 40:20. Allah will judge with equity, whereas those on whom they call besides Him have no power to judge at all. Verily Allah is the All-Hearing, All-Seeing.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says to His Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ): ﴿Warn them of the imminent day﴾ that is, the Day of Resurrection which is imminent and has drawn nigh, for very soon its terrifying events, troubles and earthquakes will begin

﴿when their hearts will come up into their throats﴾ that is, because of terror and distress their hearts will reach their throats, and they will stare fixedly, ﴿filled with distress﴾. No one will speak except one to whom the Most Gracious gives permission, and he will speak the truth. They will be unable to express what is in their hearts of great terror and fear.

﴿The wrongdoers will have no close friend﴾ the word translated here as ﴿close friend﴾ may refer to a relative or friend

﴿or intercessor whose word may be heeded﴾ because the intercessors will not intercede for one who has wronged himself by ascribing partners to Allah. Even if they did intercede, Allah (ﷻ) would not be pleased with their intercession, so He would not accept it.

﴿Allah knows the stealth of the eyes﴾ this refers to the surreptitious glance which is not noticed by those sitting with a person, when he steals a glance at something.

﴿and all that the hearts conceal﴾ and do not disclose to others. Allah knows that which is hidden; therefore it is more appropriate that He sees and knows other, visible things.

﴿Allah will judge with equity﴾ because His word is true, His religious decree is true, His judicial decree is true, and He encompasses all things with His knowledge, and records all things. He is far above any injustice, shortcomings or faults. It is He Who issues whatever decrees He wills in the universe, for what He wills happens and what He does not will does not happen. It is He Who will judge between His slaves, both believers and disbelievers, in this world, and will decide the matter between them by causing His close friends and loved ones to prevail.

﴿whereas those on whom they call besides Him﴾ – this includes everything that is worshipped besides Allah

﴿have no power to judge at all﴾ because they are helpless and have no will or ability to do good.

﴿Verily Allah is the All-Hearing﴾ Who hears all voices, in different languages, expressing different needs

﴿All-Seeing﴾ Who sees what has happened and what will happen, what we see and what we do not see, what people know and what they do not know.

Allah says at the beginning of these two verses: ﴿Warn them of the imminent day﴾ then He describes it in a manner that dictates that we must prepare for that tremendous day, because this description speaks in ways of motivation and warning.

﴿أَوَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرُوا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَنِيبَةُ الَّذِينَ كَانُوا مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ كَانُوا هُمْ أَشَدَّ مِنْهُمْ قُوَّةً وَءَانَارًا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَأَخَذَهُمُ اللَّهُ يُذَوِّبِهِمْ وَمَا كَانَ لَهُمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ مِنْ وَاكِ ۝ ذَٰلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ كَانَتْ تَأْتِيهِمْ رُسُلُهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فكَفَرُوا فَأَخَذَهُمُ اللَّهُ إِنَّهُ قَوِيٌّ شَدِيدُ الْعِقَابِ ۝﴾ (سورة غافر: ٢١-٢٢)

40:21. Have they not travelled in the land and seen what was the fate of those who came before them? They were more powerful than them and made a more impressive mark on the land. But Allah seized them because of their sins, and they had no defender against Allah.

40:22. That was because their Messengers came to them with clear signs, but they rejected them. So Allah seized them; verily He is mighty, severe in punishment.

«Have they not travelled in the land» that is, in their thoughts and physically, travelling in order to look and learn, and reflect on the marks left by earlier peoples

«and seen what was the fate of those who came before them» of the disbelievers, for they will find that it was the worst of fates, a fate of doom, destruction, disgrace and shame.

«They were more powerful than them» in terms of numbers and equipment, and they were bigger in physical stature

«and made a more impressive mark on the land» in terms of building structures and planting. Leaving an impressive mark is indicative of the strength of those who made such marks, and it is indicative of their power.

«But Allah seized them» with His punishment

«because of their sins» when they persisted and continued therein.

«verily He is mighty, severe in punishment» (40: 22) so their strength did not avail them in the slightest before the strength of Allah; rather one of the greatest nations in terms of strength was the people of 'Ād who said:

﴿...Who is more powerful than us?...﴾ (Fuṣṣilat 41: 15)

Allah sent against them a wind that sapped their strength and destroyed them utterly.

Then Allah mentions an example of how the disbelievers treated their Messengers, namely the story of Pharaoh and his troops:

﴿وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا مُوسَىٰ بِآيَاتِنَا وَسُلْطَانٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٢٣﴾ إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ وَهَمَجَنَ وَقَدَرُونَ فَقَالُوا سَحِرٌ كَذَّابٌ ﴿٢٤﴾ فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ بِالْحَقِّ مِن عِنْدِنَا قَالُوا أَاقْتُلُوا أَبْنَاءَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا مَعَهُ، وَاسْتَحْيُوا نِسَاءَهُمْ وَمَا كَيْدُ الْكَافِرِينَ إِلَّا فِي ضَلَالٍ ﴿٢٥﴾﴾ (سورة غافر: ٢٣-٢٥)

40:23. We sent Moosâ with Our clear signs and compelling proofs

40:24. to Pharaoh, Hâmân and Qâroon, but they said: He is a magician and a liar!

40:25. But when Moosâ brought the truth to them from Us, they said: Kill the sons of those who believe with him, and let their womenfolk live. The schemes of the disbelievers are always bound to fail.

﴿We sent﴾ to people of the ilk of these disbelievers

﴿Moosâ﴾ ibn 'Imrân

﴿with Our clear signs﴾ that is, Our great signs that proved definitively the truthfulness of the message with which he was sent and the falseness of the path followed by those to whom he was sent, which was the path of polytheism and what is connected to it

﴿and compelling proofs﴾ that is, clear proofs that compel one to submit, such as the snake, the staff and other clear signs with which Allah supported Moosâ and the truth to which he called people.

Those to whom he was sent were ﴿Pharaoh﴾ and ﴿Hâmân﴾, his advisor,

﴿and Qâroon﴾, who was one of the people of Moosâ, who behaved arrogantly towards his fellow Israelites because of wealth that he possessed. All of them responded in the worst manner and ﴿said: He is a magician and a liar!﴾.

﴿But when Moosâ brought the truth to them from Us﴾ and Allah supported him with dazzling miracles that would compel one to submit completely, they did not respond as they should have. At the same time they were not content merely to ignore him and turn away, or even to denounce his message and challenge it on the basis of what they had of falsehood.

Rather their response was so bad that ﴿they said: Kill the sons of those who believe with him, and let their womenfolk live. The schemes of the disbelievers are always bound to fail﴾. Because they came up with this scheme and claimed that if they killed the sons of the Israelites, they would not become strong and they would remain slaves, subject to their control, their scheme was ﴿bound to fail﴾ as they did not achieve what they aimed for; rather they got the opposite outcome, for Allah destroyed them and wiped them out completely.

Note: Think about this point which is often repeated in the Book of Allah:

If the context is a specific story or a specific matter, and Allah wants to give a ruling concerning that specific matter that is not specific to that matter, He mentions the ruling and connects it to the general reason for that ruling, so as to make it more general in application, which includes the story mentioned in that context too, so as to ward off any mistaken notion that the ruling is limited only to that specific instance. Hence Allah does not say here “their scheme was bound to fail”; rather He says: ﴿The schemes of the disbelievers are always bound to fail﴾.

﴿وَقَالَ فِرْعَوْنُ ذَرُونِي أَقْتُلْ مُوسَى وَلْيَدْعُ رَبَّهُ إِنِّي أَخَافُ أَنْ يُبَدِّلَ دِينَكُمْ أَوْ أَنْ يُظْهِرَ فِي الْأَرْضِ الْفَسَادَ﴾ (٢٦) وَقَالَ مُوسَى إِنِّي عُذْتُ بِرَبِّي وَرَبِّكُمْ مِنْ كُلِّ مُتَكَبِّرٍ لَا يُؤْمِنُ بِيَوْمِ الْحِسَابِ (٢٧) وَقَالَ رَجُلٌ مُؤْمِنٌ مِنْ آلِ فِرْعَوْنَ يَكْتُمُ إِيمَانَهُ أَتَقْتُلُونَ رَجُلًا أَنْ يَقُولَ رَبِّيَ اللَّهُ وَقَدْ جَاءَكُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ وَإِنْ يَكُ كَذِبًا فَعَلَيْهِ كَذِبُهُ وَإِنْ يَكُ صَادِقًا يُصِيبْكُمْ بَعْضُ الَّذِي يَعِدُكُمْ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي مَنْ هُوَ مُسْرِفٌ كَذَابٌ (٢٨) يَنْقُومُ لَكُمْ أَلْمَلِكُ الْيَوْمَ ظَاهِرِينَ فِي الْأَرْضِ فَمَنْ يَنْصُرُنَا مِنْ بَأْسِ اللَّهِ إِنْ جَاءَنَا قَالَ فِرْعَوْنُ مَا أُرِيكُمْ إِلَّا مَا أَرَى وَمَا أَهْدِيكُمْ إِلَّا سَبِيلَ الرَّشَادِ﴾ (سورة غافر: ٢٦-٢٩)

- 40:26. Pharaoh said: Let me kill Moosâ, and let him call upon his Lord! For I fear that he will change your religion or cause mischief to appear in the land.
- 40:27. Moosâ said: I seek refuge with my Lord and your Lord from every arrogant person who does not believe in the Day of Reckoning.
- 40:28. A believing man from Pharaoh's family who had been concealing his faith said: Would you kill a man merely because he says: My Lord is Allah, even though he has come to you with clear signs from your Lord? If he is lying, he will suffer the consequences of his lie, but if he is telling the truth, some of that [punishment] of which he warns you will befall you. Verily Allah does not guide the lying transgressor.
- 40:29. O my people, you have dominion today and are prevailing in the land, but who will save us from the punishment of Allah, if it comes upon us? Pharaoh said: I am only telling you what I think is right, and I am only guiding you to the correct path.

«Pharaoh said» arrogantly and insolently, aiming to deceive his foolish people: «Let me kill Moosâ, and let him call upon his Lord» that is, he claimed that were it not that he did not want to upset his people, he would have killed Moosâ, and that he was not preventing him from calling upon his Lord.

Then Pharaoh stated that his motive for killing Moosâ was sincerity towards his own people, and his desire to remove evil from the land. Hence he said:

«For I fear that he will change your religion» that you are following «or cause mischief to appear in the land». This is very strange indeed, that the worst of people would give sincere advice to his people, not follow the best of people. This is a kind of deception that does not fool anyone but the type of people of whom Allah says:

«Thus he made fools of his people and they obeyed him. They were indeed a rebellious and wicked people.» (az-Zukhruf 43: 54)

«Moosâ said» when Pharaoh spoke those reprehensible words to which his arrogance led him, and he felt proud of his power and ability, Moosâ said, seeking the help of his Lord:

«I seek refuge with my Lord and your Lord» that is, I seek protection in His Lordship, by which He is in control of all things, «from every arrogant person who does not believe in the Day of Reckoning» that is, whose arrogance and lack of belief in the Day of Reckoning prompt him to commit evil and spread corruption. That includes Pharaoh and others. By His kindness, Allah (ﷻ) protected Moosâ from all arrogant people who did not believe in the Day of Reckoning, and He made available to him the means by which the evil of Pharaoh and his chiefs was warded off from him.

One of these means was this believing man who was from the family of Pharaoh, a member of the royal household, who must have had some influence, especially since he acted as if he was in agreement with them and he concealed his faith, because they were accustomed to showing respect to him in a manner that they would not do if he openly disagreed with them. Similarly, Allah protected His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ) from Quraysh by means of his paternal uncle Abu Tâlib because Abu Tâlib was held in high esteem by them and he followed the same religion as them; if he had been Muslim, he would not have been able to protect him in that manner.

That wise, prudent, guided believing man said, criticising the actions of his people and highlighting the abhorrent nature of what they had decided to do:

«Would you kill a man merely because he says: My Lord is Allah» that is, how can you regard it as permissible to kill him when all he has done is to say «My Lord is Allah»? and he did not merely say words without presenting proof? Hence he said: «even though he has come to you with clear signs from your Lord», because his proof was well known to them all, young and old alike.

In other words: such a man does not deserve to be killed. So before you do that, why do you not try to prove that what he brought of truth is wrong, and respond to his proof with proof of your own to refute it? Then after that you can see whether he deserves to be killed – after you defeat him in argument – or not. But as his argument is well-founded and his proof is very clear, then there is no way that it could be permissible to kill him.

Then he presented to them a rational argument that could convince any rational person, no matter how you look at it, and he said: «If he is lying, he will suffer the consequences of his lie, but if he is telling the truth, some of that [punishment] of which he warns you will befall you» that is, Moosâ can only be one of two things: either he is lying in his claim, or he is telling the truth. If he is lying, then he is the only one who will suffer the consequences and he is only harming himself, and you will not be harmed by his lie, because you did not accept his call or believe it. But if he is telling the truth and has come to you with clear signs, and has told you that if you do not respond, Allah will punish you in this world and in the hereafter, then some of that of which he warns you must inevitably befall you, which is punishment in this world.

Because of his mature thinking and his subtle attempts to protect Moosâ, this man came up with this response that would not cause any confusion to the people, and he presented the case of Moosâ as being one of two things, stating that in either case killing him would be foolishness and ignorance on their part.

Then he – may Allah be pleased with him and make him pleased, and may He forgive him and have mercy on him – moved on to a matter that was more sublime, and explained how close Moosâ was to the truth, as he said: «Verily Allah does not guide the lying transgressor» that is, the one who oversteps the mark by shunning the truth and turning to falsehood, who lies by blaming his transgression on Allah and saying that He told him to do it. Allah will not guide such a person to the right path, either in what he is trying to achieve, or in his argument for what he is doing, and he will not be guided to the straight path.

In other words: you have seen what Moosâ calls you to of the truth, and how Allah helped him to call people to the truth and present rational proof and divinely-granted miracles to support it. The one who is guided in this manner cannot be a transgressor or a liar. This is indicative of his knowledge, reason and knowledge of his Lord.

Then he warned and advised his people, alerted them to the punishment of the hereafter, and told them not to be deceived by what they had of power and dominion, as he said:

«O my people, you have dominion today» that is, in this world «and are prevailing in the land» over your subjects, controlling them as you wish.

But assume that you achieve what you want (of killing Moosâ), which is not going to happen, ﴿who will save us from the punishment of Allah, if it comes upon us?﴾ This is indicative of this man's smartness in debating with his people, as he described it as something that he had in common with them, by saying ﴿who will save us... if it comes upon us?﴾ This was in order to make them understand that he was as sincere towards them as he was to himself, and that he wanted for them what he wanted for himself.

﴿Pharaoh said﴾, objecting to that and trying to deceive his people lest they follow Moosâ: ﴿I am only telling you what I think is right, and I am only guiding you to the correct path﴾.

He spoke the truth when he said: ﴿I am only telling you what I think is right﴾ but what was it that he thought was right? He thought that what was right was to think of his people as foolish, and that they should follow him so that he could be their leader, even though he did not think that he was in the right. Rather he thought that Moosâ was in the right, but he denied it even though he was certain that it was the truth.

However, he was lying when he said: ﴿and I am only guiding you to the correct path﴾, because that was the opposite of the truth. If he had only instructed them to follow him in his disbelief and misguidance, his evil would have been less, but he instructed them to follow him, and claimed that by doing so they would be following the truth, and that if they actually followed the truth they would be following misguidance.

﴿وَقَالَ الَّذِي ءَامَنَ يَقُولُ إِنِّي أَخَافُ عَلَيْكُمْ مِثْلَ يَوْمِ الْأَحْزَابِ ﴿٣٠﴾ مِثْلَ دَابِ قَوْمِ نُوحٍ وَعَادٍ وَثَمُودَ وَالَّذِينَ مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ وَمَا اللَّهُ يُرِيدُ ظُلْمًا لِلْعِبَادِ ﴿٣١﴾﴾ (سورة غافر: ٣٠-٣١)

- 40:30. The man who believed said: O my people, verily I fear for you a fate like that which befell the parties [who gathered against their Prophets] –
- 40:31. like what happened to the people of Nooh, and ‘Âd and Thamood, and those who came after them. And Allah does not intend any injustice to [any of] His slaves.

﴿The man who believed said﴾, repeating his call to his people, without despairing of their ever being guided – which is the way of those who call people to Allah; they keep on calling people to their Lord and nothing deters them from that, for the arrogance of those whom they called does not deter them from persisting in calling them – so he said to them:

﴿O my people, verily I fear for you a fate like that which befell the parties [who gathered against their Prophets]﴾ namely the disbelieving nations who gathered against their Prophets and united to oppose them.

Then he mentioned those nations by name: ﴿like what happened to the people of Nooh, and ‘Âd and Thamood, and those who came after them﴾, when they disbelieved, and Allah punished them in this world, before the hereafter.

﴿And Allah does not intend any injustice to [any of] His slaves﴾ by punishing them without any sin or wrongdoing on their part.

﴿وَيَنْقُومِ إِنِّي أَخَافُ عَلَيْكُمْ يَوْمَ النَّادِ ﴿٣٢﴾ يَوْمَ تُؤْلَوْنَ مَذْزَبِينَ مَا لَكُمْ مِنْ اللَّهِ مِنْ عَاصِرٍ وَمَنْ يُضْلِلِ اللَّهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ هَادٍ ﴿٣٣﴾﴾ (سورة غافر: ٣٢-٣٣)

- 40:32. O my people, verily I fear for you the day when people will cry out to one another, 40:33. the day when you will turn to flee, having none to protect you from [the punishment of] Allah. Whomever Allah has caused to go astray, no one can guide.

Having warned them of punishment in this world, this man alerted them to punishment in the hereafter, as he said:

﴿O my people, verily I fear for you the day when people will cry out to one another﴾ that is, the Day of Resurrection, when the people of paradise will call out to the people of hell:

﴿...We have indeed found what our Lord promised us to be true. Have you found what your Lord promised to be true?... The inhabitants of hell will call out to the inhabitants of paradise, [saying]: Send down to us some of the water or other things that Allah has provided for you. They will say: Verily, Allah has forbidden them both to the disbelievers.﴾ (al-A'râf 7: 44-50)

When the people of hell call out to Mâlik:

﴿...let your Lord put an end to us! He will say: Verily, you will remain [in the same plight forever].﴾ (az-Zukhruf 43: 77)

– and when they call out to their Lord:

﴿Our Lord, deliver us from this. Then if we return [to evil], we will indeed be wrongdoers.﴾ (al-Mu'minoon 23: 107)

– He will answer them:

﴿...Away with you! Be humiliated therein and do not speak to Me.﴾ (al-Mu'minoon 23: 108)

On that day, it will be said to the polytheists:

﴿...Call on your [so-called] partners. They will call on them, but they will not respond to them...﴾ (al-Qaṣaṣ 28: 64)

He warned them of this terrifying day and expressed his worry for them, if they persisted in their ascription of partners to Allah.

Hence he said:

«the day when you will turn to flee» that is, you will be taken to the fire

«having none to protect you from [the punishment of] Allah» because you will have no power yourselves to ward off the punishment of Allah, and no one will help you against Him.

«On the day when people's inner secrets will be examined. Then man will have no power to help himself nor anyone to help him.»
(at-Tāriq 86: 9-10)

«Whomever Allah has caused to go astray, no one can guide» because guidance is in the Hand of Allah, so if He withholds guidance from His slave because he is not fit to receive it, due to his evil nature, there is no way he can be guided.

﴿وَلَقَدْ جَاءَكُمْ يُوسُفُ مِنْ قَبْلُ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَمَا زِلْتُمْ فِي شَكٍّ مِمَّا جَاءَكُمْ بِهِ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا هَلَكَ قُلْتُمْ لَن يَبْعَثَ اللَّهُ مِنْ بَعْدِهِ رَسُولًا كَذَلِكَ يُضِلُّ اللَّهُ مَن هُوَ مُسْرِفٌ مُّرْتَابٌ ﴿٣٤﴾ الَّذِينَ يُجَادِلُونَ فِي آيَاتِ اللَّهِ بِغَيْرِ سُلْطَانٍ أَتَتْهُمْ كَبْرَ مَقْتًا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ وَعِنْدَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا كَذَلِكَ يَطْبَعُ اللَّهُ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ قَلْبٍ مُّتَكَبِّرٍ جَبَّارٍ

(سورة غافر: ٣٤-٣٥) ﴿٣٥﴾

40:34. Yoosuf came to you before with clear signs, but you never ceased to doubt the message he brought you. Then when he died, you said: Allah will never send [another] Messenger after him. Thus Allah leaves to stray those who transgress and are given to much doubting,

40:35. those who argue against the signs of Allah without having any sound proof. [Their disputing] is exceedingly loathsome to Allah and to those who believe. Thus does Allah seal the heart of every proud and arrogant person.

﴿Yoosuf﴾ the son of Ya'qoob (ﷺ) ﴿came to you before﴾ the coming of Moosâ, with clear signs that proved his sincerity and truthfulness, and he enjoined you to worship your Lord alone, with no partner or associate ﴿but you never ceased to doubt the message he brought you﴾ during his lifetime.

﴿Then when he died﴾ it increased you in doubt and polytheism, and ﴿you said: Allah will never send [another] Messenger after him﴾ that is, this was your mistaken thinking, and your estimate that was not appropriate with regard to Allah (ﷻ), for He does not neglect His creation without giving them commands and prohibitions or sending His Messengers to them. Thinking that Allah would not send Messengers is misguided thinking, therefore Allah says: ﴿Thus Allah leaves to stray those who transgress and are given to much doubting﴾. The description which they gave to Moosâ, unjustly and in arrogance, actually fits them, for they are the transgressors who transgressed against the truth and turned away from it, choosing misguidance instead. They were lying when they attributed that to Allah and rejected His Messenger.

Whoever is given to transgression and lying – and is constantly like that – Allah will not guide him or enable him to do good, because he has rejected the truth after it came to him and he recognised it. Therefore his requital is that Allah will punish him by depriving him of guidance, as He says elsewhere:

﴿...So when they chose to deviate [from the truth], Allah caused their hearts to deviate [from right guidance]...﴾ (as-Saff 61: 5)

﴿We will turn their hearts and eyes away [from the truth], since they refused to believe in it the first time, and We will leave them to wander blindly in their misguidance.﴾ (al-An'âm 6: 110)

﴿...And Allah does not guide people who are given to wrongdoing.﴾ (at-Tawbah 9: 109)

Then he described the lying transgressors: «those who argue against the signs of Allah without having any sound proof» that makes truth distinct from falsehood so that it becomes as clear as day, but they argue against it even though it is so clear, in an attempt to refute it and prove it false «without having any sound proof» that is, without evidence. This is always the case with everyone who argues against the signs of Allah. It is impossible that he would argue on the basis of sound proof, because no one could prove the truth to be wrong, for there is no way that it can be refuted on the basis of textual proof or rational evidence.

Their argument that attempts to refute the truth on the basis of falsehood «is exceedingly loathsome to Allah and to those who believe». Allah despises those who do that, because their attempt to undermine the truth implies rejection of truth and belief in falsehood, and describing falsehood as true, and these are things that are exceedingly loathsome to Allah and He hates those who are like that. Similarly, His believing slaves despise that intensely, in agreement with their Lord. These are the elite of Allah's creation, and their hatred is indicative of the reprehensible and abhorrent nature of those whom they despise.

«Thus», just as He sealed the hearts of the family of Pharaoh, so too «does Allah seal the heart of every proud and arrogant person» who is proud of himself for rejecting the truth and for looking down on people, and is filled with arrogance because of his excessive wrongdoing and transgression.

﴿وَقَالَ فِرْعَوْنُ يَهْمُنُنْ أَبْنِي لِي صَرَمًا لَعَلِّي أَبْلُغُ الْأَسْبَابَ ﴿٣٦﴾ أَسْبَابَ السَّمَوَاتِ فَأَطَّلِعَ إِلَى إِلَهِ مُوسَى وَإِنِّي لَأَظُنُّهُ كَذِبًا ۚ وَكَذَلِكَ زُينَ لِفِرْعَوْنَ سُوءُ

عَمَلِهِ. وَصَدَّ عَنِ السَّبِيلِ وَمَا كَيْدُ فِرْعَوْنَ إِلَّا فِي تَبَابٍ ﴿٣٦﴾ (سورة غافر: ٣٦-٣٧)

- 40:36. Pharaoh said: O Hâmân, build me a tower, so that I may attain the means of access –
- 40:37. access to the heavens, and have a look at the God of Moosâ, for verily I think he is a liar. Thus Pharaoh's evil deeds were made fair-seeming to him and he was barred from the right path, and Pharaoh's plan ended only in loss.

﴿Pharaoh said﴾ objecting to Moosâ, and rejecting his call to acknowledge the Lord of the worlds, Who rose over His Throne and Who is above His creation:

﴿O Hâmân, build me a tower﴾ that is, a great, high structure, the purpose of which is so that I may climb up ﴿and have a look at the God of Moosâ, for verily I think he is a liar﴾ in his claim that we have a Lord and that He is above the heavens.

But Pharaoh wanted to take precautionary measures and see the matter for himself. Allah (ﷻ) says, explaining what made him say that: ﴿Thus Pharaoh's evil deeds were made fair-seeming to him﴾. His deeds were made fair seeming to him, for the Shayṭân kept calling him to do that and making it seem good, until he thought it was good, and he called people to it and argued with others as if he was in the right, when he was one of the worst spreaders of mischief.

﴿and he was barred from the right path﴾, the path of truth, because of the falsehood that had been made fair-seeming to him

﴿and Pharaoh's plan﴾ by means of which he wanted to undermine the truth and make people think that he was in the right and Moosâ was in the wrong ﴿ended only in loss﴾ that is, failure, and it only brought him doom in this world and the hereafter.

﴿ وَقَالَ الَّذِي ءَامَنَ يَقَوْمِ اتَّبِعُونِ اهْدِكُمْ سَبِيلَ الرَّشَادِ ﴿٣٨﴾ يَقَوْمِ
 إِنَّمَا هَذِهِ الدُّنْيَا مَتْنَعٌ وَإِنَّ الْآخِرَةَ هِيَ دَارُ الْقَرَارِ ﴿٣٩﴾ مَن عَمِلَ
 سَيِّئَةً فَلَا يُجْزَى إِلَّا مِثْلَهَا وَمَن عَمِلَ صَالِحًا مِّن ذَكَرٍ أَوْ أَنفٍ وَهُوَ
 مُؤْمِنٌ فَأُولَٰئِكَ يَدْخُلُونَ الْجَنَّةَ يُرْزَقُونَ فِيهَا بِغَيْرِ حِسَابٍ ﴿٤٠﴾ وَيَقَوْمِ مَا
 لِي أَدْعُوكُمْ إِلَى النَّجْوَى وَتَدْعُونَنِي إِلَى النَّارِ ﴿٤١﴾ تَدْعُونَنِي لِأَكْفُرَ بِاللَّهِ
 وَأُشْرِكَ بِهِ مَا لَيْسَ لِي بِهِ عِلْمٌ وَأَنَا أَدْعُوكُمْ إِلَى الْعَزِيزِ الْغَفَّارِ ﴿٤٢﴾ لَا جَرَمَ أَنَّمَا
 تَدْعُونَنِي إِلَيْهِ لَيْسَ لَهُ دَعْوَةٌ فِي الدُّنْيَا وَلَا فِي الْآخِرَةِ وَأَن مَّرَدَّنَا إِلَى اللَّهِ وَأَنَّ
 الْمُسْرِفِينَ هُمْ أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ ﴿٤٣﴾ فَسَتَذْكُرُونَ مَا أَقُولُ لَكُمْ وَأَفَؤُصِّ
 أَمْرِي إِلَى اللَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ بَصِيرٌ بِالْعِبَادِ ﴿٤٤﴾ ﴾ (سورة غافر: ٣٨-٤٤)

- 40:38. The man who believed said: O my people, follow me; I will guide you to the correct path.
- 40:39. O my people, the life of this world is but a brief enjoyment, whereas it is the hereafter that is the permanent abode.
- 40:40. Whoever does an evil deed will be recompensed only with the like thereof, but whoever does righteous deeds, whether male or female, and is a believer – it is they who will enter paradise, where they will be granted provision without measure.
- 40:41. O my people, how is it that I call you to salvation whilst you call me to the fire?
- 40:42. You call me to disbelieve in Allah and to ascribe partners to Him of which I have no knowledge, whilst I call you to the Almighty, the Oft-Forgiving.
- 40:43. Undoubtedly that to which you call me cannot respond to any supplication, either in this world or in the hereafter. We will all return to Allah, and it is the transgressors who will be the inhabitants of the fire.

40:44. Then you will remember what I am telling you now. I entrust my affairs to Allah; verily Allah is fully aware of His slaves.

---

﴿The man who believed said﴾, repeating his advice to his people: ﴿O my people, follow me; I will guide you to the correct path﴾ for it is not as Pharaoh is telling you; he cannot guide you except to the path of transgression and corruption.

﴿O my people, the life of this world is but a brief enjoyment﴾ that is enjoyed for a brief while, then it comes to an end and vanishes. So do not be deceived or distracted from the purpose for which you were created.

﴿whereas it is the hereafter that is the permanent abode﴾ which is the place in which to abide for ever, the realm of peace and stability. So you should give it precedence and strive for it by doing deeds because of which Allah will bless you.

﴿Whoever does an evil deed﴾ such as ascribing partners to Allah, or committing evildoing or sin

﴿will be recompensed only with the like thereof﴾ that is, he will only be requited with that which will cause him distress and grief, because the requital of sin is that which causes distress.

﴿but whoever does righteous deeds, whether male or female﴾ including deeds of the heart (beliefs and attitudes), physical deeds and words uttered

﴿and is a believer – it is they who will enter paradise, where they will be granted provision without measure﴾ that is, they will be given their reward without limit and without counting; rather Allah will give them more than their deeds deserve.

﴿O my people, how is it that I call you to salvation﴾ through what I am saying to you ﴿whilst you call me to the fire﴾ by not following the Prophet of Allah Moosâ (ﷺ).

Then he explained that by saying: ﴿You call me to disbelieve in Allah and to ascribe partners to Him of which I have no knowledge﴾ that it deserves to be worshipped instead of Allah. Speaking about Allah without knowledge is one of the gravest and most abhorrent of sins.

﴿whilst I call you to the Almighty﴾ to Whom all might belongs, and others have no control over anything at all

﴿the Oft-Forgiving﴾ Who, even if a person were to transgress beyond all bounds and have the audacity to do that which incurs His wrath, if he were then to repent and turn to Him, He would absolve them of their evil deeds and sins, and ward off that which could result of punishment in this world and the hereafter.

﴿Undoubtedly﴾ that is, certainly
 ﴿that to which you call me cannot respond to any supplication, either in this world or in the hereafter﴾ so it is not worth calling upon it or turning to it, either in this world or in the hereafter, because it is helpless and imperfect, and it has no power to benefit or harm, to cause death, give life or resurrect.

﴿We will all return to Allah﴾ (٤٤), and He will requite each person for his deeds

﴿and it is the transgressors who will be the inhabitants of the fire﴾. It is they who have transgressed against themselves and shown audacity towards their Lord by disobeying Him and disbelieving in Him, so it is they alone who will be inhabitants of the fire.

He advised them and warned them, but they did not pay heed or accept his message, so he said to them: ﴿Then you will remember what I am telling you now﴾ of this advice, and you will see the consequences of not accepting it, when the punishment befalls you and you are deprived of the generous reward.

﴿I entrust my affairs to Allah﴾ that is, I turn to Him and seek His protection, and I delegate all my affairs to Him and put my trust in Him with regard to all that I am trying to attain of good and all that I am trying to ward off of harm, that may befall me from you or anyone else.

«verily Allah is fully aware of His slaves» – He knows their condition and what they deserve. He knows my condition and my weakness, and He will protect me from you and will suffice me against your evil. He knows your condition, so you will not do anything except by His leave and by His will. If He gives you power over me, it is based on divine wisdom and is in accordance with the divine will.

﴿فَوَقَّهَ اللَّهُ سَيِّئَاتِ مَا مَكَرُوا وَحَاقَ بِآلِ فِرْعَوْنَ سُوءُ الْعَذَابِ ﴿٤٥﴾ النَّارُ يُعْرَضُونَ عَلَيْهَا غُدُوًّا وَعَشِيًّا وَيَوْمَ تَقُومُ السَّاعَةُ أَدْخِلُوا آلَ فِرْعَوْنَ أَشَدَّ الْعَذَابِ ﴿٤٦﴾﴾ (سورة غافر: ٤٥-٤٦)

- 40:45. Then Allah delivered him from the evils which they planned, and a terrible punishment overwhelmed Pharaoh's family:
- 40:46. the fire, which will be shown to them morning and afternoon. And on the day when the Hour begins, [it will be said]: Admit the family of Pharaoh to the severest punishment.

«Then Allah delivered him from the evils which they planned» that is, Allah, the Most Strong, the Most Merciful, delivered that guided, believing man from the punishment that Pharaoh and his family had planned for him, for they wanted to destroy him because he had initiated a debate with them that they hated, and he had showed them that he was in complete agreement with Moosâ (ﷺ) and called them to the same message as that to which Moosâ called them. This was something that they could not bear, because they were the ones who were in power at that time, and he had angered them and infuriated them. So they planned to harm him, but Allah protected him from their scheme and plan, and caused it to backfire on them.

«and a terrible punishment overwhelmed Pharaoh's family» as Allah (ﷻ) drowned all of them in a single calamity.

And in al-barzakh, the fire «will be shown to them morning and afternoon. And on the day when the Hour begins, [it will be said]: Admit the family of Pharaoh to the severest punishment». This is the terrible punishment which will befall those who disbelieved in the Messengers of Allah and stubbornly refused to obey His commands.

﴿وَإِذْ يَتَحَاوَرُونَ فِي النَّارِ فَيَقُولُ الضَّعِيفُ لِلَّذِينَ اسْتَكْبَرُوا إِنَّا كُنَّا لَكُمْ تَبَعًا فَهَلْ أَنْتُمْ مُغْنَوْنَ عَنَّا نَصِيبًا مِنَ النَّارِ ۖ قَالَ الَّذِينَ اسْتَكْبَرُوا إِنَّا كُلٌّ فِيهَا إِنَّكَ اللَّهُ قَدْ حَكَمَ بَيْنَ الْعِبَادِ ۖ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ فِي النَّارِ لِخَزَنَةِ جَهَنَّمَ ادْعُوا رَبَّكُمْ يُخَفِّفْ عَنَّا يَوْمًا مِنَ الْعَذَابِ ۖ قَالُوا أَوَلَمْ تَكُنْ تَأْتِيكُمْ رُسُلُكُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ ۖ قَالُوا بَلَىٰ قَالُوا فَادْعُوا وَمَا دَعَاؤُ الْكَافِرِينَ إِلَّا فِي ضَلَالٍ ۝﴾ (سورة غافر: ٤٧-٥٠)

- 40:47. When they argue with one another in the fire, then those who were weak will say to those who were arrogant: We were your followers; can you then relieve us of some portion of the fire?
- 40:48. Those who were arrogant will say: We are all [suffering] in it. Allah has already passed judgement among His slaves.
- 40:49. Those who are in the fire will say to the keepers of hell: Call upon your Lord to alleviate the punishment for us for one day.
- 40:50. They will say: Did your Messengers not come to you with clear signs? They will say: Yes. They will say: Then call upon Him yourselves! The supplication of those who disbelieve is all in vain.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the dispute between the people of hell: they will rebuke one another and seek the help of the keepers of hell, but that will be of no benefit to them.

﴿When they argue with one another in the fire﴾, the followers will argue that the leaders tempted them, but the leaders will disavow the followers.

﴿then those who were weak﴾, namely the followers, will say to the leaders ﴿who were arrogant﴾ towards the truth, and who called them to that because of which they behaved arrogantly:

﴿We were your followers﴾ for you tempted us and led us astray, and you made polytheism and evil fair-seeming to us

﴿can you then relieve us of some portion of the fire﴾ even if it is little?

﴿Those who were arrogant will say﴾, explaining that they are unable to do that and that the divine ruling will be carried out on all: ﴿We are all [suffering] in it. Allah has already passed judgement among His slaves﴾ and He has given to each his share of punishment, no more and no less. What has been decided by the Most Wise cannot be changed.

﴿Those who are in the fire﴾ namely the arrogant and weak ﴿will say to the keepers of hell: Call upon your Lord to alleviate the punishment for us for one day﴾ so that we may find some relief.

But ﴿They will say﴾ to them, rebuking them and explaining that their intercession would be of no benefit and their supplication would be of no avail:

﴿Did your Messengers not come to you with clear signs﴾ on the basis of which the truth and the straight path, and that which would bring you closer to Allah and that which would distance you from Him, became clear?

﴿They will say: Yes﴾ they did indeed come to us with clear signs, and the definitive proof of Allah was established against us, but we did wrong and we stubbornly rejected the truth after it had become clear.

«They will say» that is, the keepers of hell will say to the people of hell, refusing to offer supplication for them or to intercede for them: «Then call upon Him yourselves», but will this supplication be of any avail or not? Allah tells us: «The supplication of those who disbelieve is all in vain» that is, it is invalid and worthless, because disbelief nullifies all good deeds and prevents any response to supplication.

﴿إِنَّا لَنَنْصُرُ رُسُلَنَا وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَيَوْمَ يَقُومُ الْأَشْهَادُ ﴿٥١﴾ يَوْمَ لَا يَنْفَعُ الظَّالِمِينَ مَعَذَرُهُمْ وَلَهُمُ اللَّعْنَةُ وَلَهُمْ سُوءُ الدَّارِ ﴿٥٢﴾﴾ (سورة غافر: ٥١-٥٢)

(٥٢)

40:51. We will surely cause Our Messengers and those who believe to prevail in the life of this world and on the day when the witnesses come forward, 40:52. the day when no excuse will benefit those who did wrong; upon them will be the curse and for them will be a wretched end.

Having mentioned the punishment of the family of Pharaoh in this world, in al-barzakh and on the Day of Resurrection, and the terrible situation of the people of hell, who opposed and fought His Messengers, Allah (ﷻ) now says:

«We will surely cause Our Messengers and those who believe to prevail in the life of this world» that is, by means of evidence and proof, and victory

«and on the day when the witnesses come forward» that is, in the hereafter, by decreeing reward for them and their followers, and severe punishment for those who fought them.

«the day when no excuse will benefit those who did wrong» when they offer their excuses

﴿upon them will be the curse and for them will be a wretched end﴾ that is, a wretched abode that offers misery to its inhabitants.

﴿وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْهُدَى وَأَوْرَثْنَا بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ الْكِتَابَ ۚ هُدىً وَذِكْرَى لِّأُولِي الْأَلْبَابِ ۚ فَاصْبِرْ إِنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ وَأَسْتَغْفِرْ لِذَنْبِكَ وَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ بِالْعِشِيِّ وَالْإِبْكَرِ ۚ﴾ (سورة غافر: ٥٣-٥٥)

- 40:53. We gave Moosâ guidance and caused the Children of Israel to inherit the Book, 40:54. as guidance and as a reminder to people of understanding.
 40:55. So be patient, for verily the promise of Allah is true; seek forgiveness for your sin, and glorify and praise your Lord in the afternoon and in the morning.

Having mentioned what happened to Moosâ and Pharaoh, and the fate that befell Pharaoh and his troops, then describing the general principle that applies to Pharaoh and to all the people of hell, Allah now tells us that He gave Moosâ ﴿guidance﴾ that is, the signs and knowledge by means of which people are guided ﴿and caused the Children of Israel to inherit the Book﴾ that is, We caused it to be passed down from one generation to another. This refers to the Torah.

That Book contains guidance, which is knowledge of religious rulings and other matters. It also contains reminders of good and encouragement to do good, and it points out evil and warns against it. But this is not for everyone; rather it is only for ﴿people of understanding﴾.

﴿So be patient﴾ O Messenger, as those who came before you, the Messengers of strong resolve, were patient

«for verily the promise of Allah is true» that is, there is no doubt about it, and there is no suspicion or falseness about it, such that it would be difficult for you to be patient. Rather it is pure truth and pure guidance to which people of patience adhere steadfastly and people of insight strive hard to adhere to it.

The phrase «for verily the promise of Allah is true» is one of the means of motivating oneself to be patient in obeying Allah and in refraining from that which Allah dislikes.

«seek forgiveness for your sin» that is preventing you from attaining your salvation and bliss. Allah instructed him to be patient, because through patience one will attain what one seeks, and by praying for forgiveness one will ward off that which one does not like. And by glorifying and praising Allah, especially «in the afternoon and in the morning», which are the best of times, at which one would do regular acts of worship and remembering Allah, both obligatory and recommended, that will help one in all one's affairs.

﴿إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُجَادِلُونَ فِي آيَاتِ اللَّهِ بِغَيْرِ سُلْطَانٍ أَتَتْهُمْ إِنْ فِي صُدُورِهِمْ
إِلَّا كِبْرٌ مَا هُمْ بِبَالِغِيهِ فَاسْتَعِذْ بِاللَّهِ إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْبَصِيرُ﴾ (٥٦)

(سورة غافر: ٥٦)

40:56. Verily those who argue against the signs of Allah without having any sound proof, in their hearts there is nothing but an arrogant desire for greatness that they will never attain. So seek refuge with Allah, for verily He is the All-Hearing, All-Seeing.

Here Allah tells us that if anyone argues against His signs so as to refute them on the basis of false arguments, without proof or evidence, this stems from arrogance in their hearts towards the truth and towards the one who brought it. They want to prove that they are greater than him, by means of what they have of falsehood. This is their aim and their wish.

But they will not attain that goal. This is a clear statement that everyone who argues against the truth will be defeated, and that the fate of everyone who shows arrogance towards it is humiliation.

﴿So seek refuge with Allah﴾ that is, seek protection with Him. No mention is made of what protection is to be sought from, so as to make this idea general in application. In other words: seek refuge with Allah from arrogance which leads to looking down on the truth; seek refuge with Allah from the devils among humankind and the jinn; and seek refuge with Allah from all evils.

﴿for verily He is the All-Hearing﴾ Who hears all voices, of all kinds

﴿All-Seeing﴾ Who sees all that is to be seen, in whatever place or time it appears.

﴿لَخَلْقُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ أَكْبَرُ مِنْ خَلْقِ النَّاسِ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ﴾ (٥٧) وَمَا يَسْتَوِي الْأَعْمَى وَالْبَصِيرُ وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ وَلَا الْمُسَوِّءُ قَلِيلًا مَّا تَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٥٨﴾ إِنَّ السَّاعَةَ لَأَيُّمٌ لَّارِيبَ فِيهَا وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٥٩﴾ (سورة غافر: ٥٧-٥٩)

40:57. Indeed the creation of the heavens and the earth is a greater matter than the creation [or recreation] of humankind, but most people do not know.

40:58. The blind and the seeing are not alike, nor are those who believe and do righteous deeds, and those who do evil. Little is it that you pay heed!

---

40:59. Verily the Hour is coming; there can be no doubt about it. But most people do not believe.

---

Here Allah tells us of what is established in people's minds, which is that the creation of the heavens and the earth, despite their greatness and vastness, is greater and more significant than the creation of people, and that people, in comparison to the creation of the heavens and the earth, are as insignificant as can be. Therefore it is more appropriate that the One Who created the mighty heavenly bodies in such a precise manner should be able to recreate people after their death. This is one of the rational proofs that definitively point to the resurrection. Once the wise man looks at the heavenly bodies, he will reach a certain conclusion, beyond any doubt, that what the Messengers said about the resurrection is true.

But not everyone pays attention to that or reflects upon it. Hence Allah says: ﴿but most people do not know﴾ and therefore they do not learn from that or give any thought to it.

Then Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿The blind and the seeing are not alike, nor are those who believe and do righteous deeds, and those who do evil﴾ that is, just as the blind and the seeing are not alike, so too the one who believes in Allah and does righteous deeds, and the one who is too arrogant to worship his Lord and disobeys Him, striving in doing that which incurs His wrath, are not alike.

﴿Little is it that you pay heed﴾ – otherwise, if you thought of the differences between things and different levels of good and evil, and the difference between the righteous and the evildoers, and you had high ambitions, then you would have given precedence to that which is beneficial over that which is harmful, to guidance over misguidance, and to eternal happiness over this transient world.

﴿Verily the Hour is coming; there can be no doubt about it﴾. The Messengers, who are the most truthful of humankind, spoke of it, and the divinely-revealed Books, which are of the highest level of truth, also spoke of it. Moreover there is visible proof for it and signs thereof in the universe.

«But most people do not believe» despite these things that should lead to a perfect level of faith and submission.

﴿وَقَالَ رَبُّكُمْ ادْعُونِي أَسْتَجِبْ لَكُمْ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَسْتَكْبِرُونَ عَنْ عِبَادَتِي سَيَدْخُلُونَ جَهَنَّمَ دَاخِرِينَ﴾ (سورة غافر: ٦٠)

40:60. Your Lord says: Call upon Me; I will answer your prayer. Verily those who are too arrogant to worship Me will enter hell in humiliation.

By His kindness towards His slaves and the immense blessings He bestows upon them, Allah called them to that which is in their best interests in both spiritual and worldly terms, and He instructed them to call upon Him, meaning both the supplication of worship and the supplication of asking for what they need. He promised to respond to them, and He warned them against being too arrogant to do that.

«Verily those who are too arrogant to worship Me will enter hell in humiliation» that is, they will be humiliated and despised, suffering a combination of punishment and humiliation, as a requital for their arrogance.

﴿اللَّهُ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمُ الْآيَاتِ لِيَتَسَكَّنُوا فِيهِ وَالتَّهَارَ مُبْصِرًا إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَذُو فَضْلٍ عَلَى النَّاسِ وَلَٰكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَشْكُرُونَ﴾ (٦١) ﴿ذَٰلِكُمْ اللَّهُ رَبُّكُمْ خَلَقَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ فَآفَىٰ تُؤَفَّكَوْنَ﴾ (٦٢) ﴿كَذَٰلِكَ يُؤَفِّكُ الَّذِينَ كَانُوا

يَا أَيُّهَا اللَّهُ يَجْعَدُونَ ﴿٦١﴾ اللَّهُ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمْ الْأَرْضَ قَرَارًا وَالسَّمَاءَ بِنَاءً
وَصَوَّرَكُمْ فَأَحْسَنَ صُورَكُمْ وَرَزَقَكُمْ مِنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ ۚ ذَٰلِكُمْ اللَّهُ رَبُّكُمْ
فَتَبَارَكَ اللَّهُ رَبُّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٦٢﴾ هُوَ الْحَيُّ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ فَادْعُوهُ
مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ ۚ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٦٣﴾ (سورة غافر: ٦١-٦٥)

- 40:61. It is Allah Who has made the night for you to rest in, and the day for you to see. Verily Allah is most gracious to humankind, but most people do not give thanks.
- 40:62. Such is Allah your Lord, the Creator of all things; there is no god but He. So how could you be turned away [from the truth]?
- 40:63. Thus are turned away those who deny the signs of Allah.
- 40:64. It is Allah Who has made the earth a stable place to live in and the heavens an edifice, and He has shaped you and shaped you well, and has provided you with good things. Such is Allah, your Lord, so blessed be Allah, the Lord of the worlds.
- 40:65. He is the Ever-Living, there is no god but He. So call upon Him with sincere devotion to Him alone, [saying]: Praise be to Allah, the Lord of the worlds.

Contemplate these verses which speak of the vastness of Allah's mercy and His immense grace, and highlight the obligation to give thanks to Him; they speak of His perfect might and great dominion, and the vastness of His sovereignty. They tell us that He created all things, and remind us of the perfect nature of His being the Ever Living and of the fact that He is to be praised for all the perfect attributes that He possesses, for all His beautiful deeds, for His perfect Lordship, and for the fact that He is the only Lord. All affairs are controlled by Him in both the upper and lower realms, in the past, present and future. No one has any control of anything or any share of power. From that we learn that Allah is the only One to Whom devotion and worship are to be directed, and no one else deserves any share of worship, just as they do not deserve any share of Lordship. If one realises all of the above, his heart will be filled with knowledge of Allah, love for Him, fear of Him and hope in Him.

These two things – knowing Him and worshipping Him – are the purpose for which Allah created humankind, and they are the ultimate aim of His slaves. They are what lead to all good, success, well-being and happiness, in this world and the hereafter. They are the noblest gifts that Allah may give to His slaves and they are the noblest of all pleasures. If one misses out on these two things, he will miss out on all that is good, and everything that is bad and evil will be present with him.

We ask Allah (ﷻ) to fill our hearts with knowledge and love of Him, and to make all our actions, both inward and outward, sincerely for His sake and in accordance with His commands, for nothing we ask of Him is too much for Him, and nothing He could give could undermine what He has.

﴿It is Allah Who has made the night for you to rest in﴾ that is, He has made it for your sake; He has made it dark ﴿for you to rest﴾ in it from your activities which, if they were to be continuous, would cause you harm. So you retire to your beds, and Allah bestows upon you sleep, which gives rest to minds and bodies. Sleep is one of the human necessities that man cannot do without. Every lover finds comfort in his beloved, and people become focused, and distractions are reduced.

﴿and﴾ Allah has made ﴿the day for you to see﴾ by the light of the sun that is running its course. So you get up from your beds and go about your business, both spiritual and worldly. So people may recite dhikr or read Qur'an, or pray, or seek knowledge and study; or engage in trade, or work as builders, blacksmiths and other professions; or travel by land or sea; or go out to till the fields, or to tend to their animals.

﴿Verily Allah is most gracious to humankind﴾, as He bestows upon them these blessings and others, and He averts harm from them. This requires them to give complete thanks to Him and to remember Him, ﴿but most people do not give thanks﴾ because of their ignorance and wrongdoing.

﴿...But few of My slaves are grateful.﴾ (Saba' 34: 13)

There are few who acknowledge the blessings of their Lord, submit to Allah, love Him, and use the blessings in obedience to their Lord and in pursuit of His pleasure.

﴿Such﴾ that is, the One Who did that ﴿is Allah your Lord﴾ that is, the only divinity and the only Lord, because He is the only One Who bestows these blessings, which is part of His being their Lord, and giving thanks to Him is required because of His being divine.

﴿the Creator of all things﴾ this is affirming His Lordship.

﴿there is no god but He﴾ this is affirming that He alone is deserving of worship, with no partner or associate.

Then He clearly gives the command to worship Him alone: ﴿So how could you be turned away [from the truth]?﴾ That is, how could you be turned away from worshipping Him alone, with no partner or associate, after He has made the evidence clear, and after He has illuminated the path for you?

﴿Thus are turned away those who deny the signs of Allah﴾ that is, as a punishment for their denial of the signs of Allah and their hostility towards His Messengers, they were turned away from affirmation of His oneness and sincerity to Him alone. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Whenever a soorah is revealed, they look at one another [as if to say]: Is anyone watching? Then they turn away. Allah has turned their hearts away, for they are a people who do not understand.﴾ (at-Tawbah 9: 127)

﴿It is Allah Who has made the earth a stable place to live in﴾ that is, He has made it stable and steady, prepared in such a way that it meets your needs, so that you are able to cultivate it, grow things on it, build on it, travel and settle on it.

﴿and the heavens an edifice﴾ that is, a roof for the earth on which you dwell. Allah has instilled in it that which you benefit from of light and signs by means of which you navigate on land and sea.

﴿and He has shaped you and shaped you well﴾ for there is nothing among living beings that is better in shape and image than the sons of Adam, as Allah says elsewhere:

﴿Verily We have created man in the best of conditions.﴾ (at-Teen 95: 4)

If you want to know how precise the make-up of the human being is, and the perfect wisdom of Allah in creating him, then look at him, limb by limb and faculty by faculty: do you find that any of his limbs or faculties would be better located in a place other than where it is? Look at how people's hearts inclined towards one another: will you find that in any other species? Look at what Allah (ﷻ) has given only to humans, such as reason, faith, love and knowledge, which are the best of attitudes and are suited to the best of shapes.

﴿and has provided you with good things﴾ – this includes everything that is good, be it food, drink, spouses, appearance, clothes, voice and other good things that Allah has made available to His slaves, and has granted them the means of attaining them; and He has protected them from the vile things that are their opposites, which would cause them harm in body and soul, and would be detrimental to their religious commitment.

﴿Such﴾ that is, the One Who controls all things and bestows these blessings upon you, ﴿is Allah, your Lord﴾.

﴿so blessed be Allah, the Lord of the worlds﴾ that is, may He be glorified, Whose favours are innumerable, the One Who showers all creatures with His blessings.

«He is the Ever-Living» to Whom belongs perfect life, which implies that He has other attributes without which His being the Ever-Living cannot be complete, such as hearing, seeing, might, knowledge, speaking and other attributes of perfection and majesty.

«there is no god but He» that is, there is none deserving of worship except Him.

«So call upon Him» – this includes the supplication of worship and the supplication of asking

«with sincere devotion to Him alone» that is, seek the pleasure of Allah (ﷻ) by means of all kinds of acts of worship, supplication and good deeds, for sincerity is what is enjoined, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

«Although they were enjoined only to worship Allah with sincere devotion to Him, being true in faith to Him alone...» (al-Bayyinah 98: 5)

«Praise be to Allah, the Lord of the worlds» that is, all praise – in words, as when people mention His name, and in deeds, as when they worship Him – is due to Allah (ﷻ) alone, with no partner or associate, because of His perfect attributes and deeds, and His perfect blessings.

﴿قُلْ إِنِّي نُهَيْتُ أَنْ أَعْبُدَ الَّذِينَ تَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ لَمَّا جَاءَنِي الْبَيِّنَاتُ مِنْ رَبِّي وَأُمِرْتُ أَنْ أُسْلِمَ لِرَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٦٦﴾ هُوَ الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ نَفْسٍ ثُمَّ مِنْ نَفْسٍ ثُمَّ مِنْ عِلْقَةٍ ثُمَّ يُخْرِجُكُمْ طِفْلًا ثُمَّ لِتَبْلُغُوا أَشَدَّكُمْ ثُمَّ لِيَكَوْنُوا شُيُوخًا وَمِنْكُمْ مَنْ يُنَوِّقُ مِنْ قَبْلِ ۖ وَلِيُبْلِغُوا أَجَلَ مُسَمًّى وَلَعَلَّكُمْ تَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٦٧﴾ هُوَ الَّذِي يُحْيِي وَيُمِيتُ فَإِذَا قَضَىٰ أَمْرًا فَإِنَّمَا يَقُولُ لَهُ كُنْ فَيَكُونُ ﴿٦٨﴾﴾ (سورة غافر: ٦٦-٦٨)

40:66. Say: I am forbidden to worship those you call upon besides Allah, since there have come to me clear signs from my Lord, and I am commanded to submit to the Lord of the worlds.

- 40:67. It is He Who created you from dust, then from a drop of semen, then from a clinging clot. Then He brings you forth as infants, then [He causes you to grow] so that you may reach your age of full strength, then so that you may become old – although some of you die earlier – and so that you may reach the term appointed [for you], and so that you may understand.
- 40:68. It is He Who gives life and causes death. When He decrees a matter, He merely says to it, 'Be!' and it is.

Having mentioned the command to devote worship sincerely to Him alone, Allah now mentions the evidence and proof for that, and clearly forbids worship of anything other than Him:

﴿Say﴾ O Prophet: ﴿I am forbidden to worship those you call upon besides Allah﴾ of idols and images, and everything that is worshipped instead of Allah.

I have no doubt about the matter I am following; rather I am certain and know what I am doing. Hence he said:

﴿since there have come to me clear signs from my Lord, and I am commanded to submit to the Lord of the worlds﴾ in my heart, verbally and in my actions, for they will all submit in obedience to Him and in adherence to His commands. This is the most important commandment of all, just as the prohibition on worshipping anything other than Allah is the most important prohibition of all.

Then He confirms this affirmation of His oneness by pointing out that He is your Creator, Who created you in stages. Just as He alone created you, so you should worship Him alone:

﴿It is He Who created you from dust﴾ that was when He created your source and father, namely Adam (ﷺ)

﴿then from a drop of semen﴾ – this is the beginning of creation of all humans in their mothers' wombs. Mentioning the first stage draws attention to all stages, from the clinging clot to the lump of chewed flesh, then the bones, then the breathing-in of the soul.

﴿Then He brings you forth as infants﴾, then in like manner you move from one stage to another, as ordained by Allah, until you reach maturity in mind and body, and attain all physical strength, both visible and hidden.

﴿then [He causes you to grow] so that you may reach your age of full strength, then so that you may become old – although some of you die earlier﴾ that is, before reaching full strength

﴿and so that you may reach the term appointed [for you]﴾ that is, so that you may go through these stages that have been set out for you, and complete the lifespan ordained for you

﴿and so that you may understand﴾ your situation, and realise that the One Who causes you to go through these stages has full power, and that it is He alone Who should be worshipped, and none other, and that you are imperfect in all ways.

﴿It is He Who gives life and causes death﴾ that is, He alone has the power to give life and cause death, so no soul dies, with or without reason, except by His leave.

﴿...No man lives long or has his life cut short but it is [inscribed] in a record; verily that is easy for Allah.﴾ (Fâfir 35: 11)

﴿When He decrees a matter﴾, great or small, ﴿He merely says to it, 'Be!' and it is﴾ and it cannot be put back, repeated or resisted.

﴿أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ يَجْعَلُونَ فِي ءَابَتِ اللَّهِ أَنَّى يُصَرُّوْنَ ۖ ﴿٦٦﴾ الَّذِينَ كَذَبُوا
بِالْكِتَابِ وَيَمَّا أَرْسَلْنَا بِهِ رُسُلَنَا فَسَوْفَ يَعْلَمُونَ ۖ ﴿٦٧﴾ إِذِ الْأَغْلُلُ فِي
أَعْنَاقِهِمْ وَالسَّلَاسِلُ يُسْحَبُونَ ۖ ﴿٦٨﴾ فِي الْحَمِيمِ ثُمَّ فِي النَّارِ يُسْجَرُونَ ۖ ﴿٦٩﴾ ثُمَّ
قِيلَ لَهُمْ أَنْتُمْ مَا كُنْتُمْ تُشْرِكُونَ ۖ ﴿٧٠﴾ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ قَالُوا ضَلُّوا عَنَّا بَلْ لَمْ نَكُنْ نَدْعُوا
مِنْ قَبْلُ شَيْئًا كَذَلِكَ يَضِلُّ اللَّهُ الْكَافِرِينَ ۖ ﴿٧١﴾ ذَلِكُمْ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَفْرَحُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ

يَغْيِرِ الْحَقَّ وَيَمَّا كُنتُمْ تَمْرَحُونَ ﴿٧٥﴾ ادْخُلُوا أَبْوَابَ جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا فَبئسَ مَوْنَى
الْمُتَكَبِّرِينَ ﴿٧٦﴾ (سورة غافر: ٦٩-٧٦)

- 40:69. Do you not see those who argue against the signs of Allah? How could they be turned away [from the truth]?
- 40:70. [They are] the ones who reject the Book and the [message] with which We sent Our Messengers. But they will come to know [the consequences of their deeds]
- 40:71. when, with iron collars and chains around their necks, they are dragged
- 40:72. into the scalding water, then they will be burned in the fire.
- 40:73. Then it will be said: Where are those [false gods] whom you ascribed as partners to Allah
- 40:74. [and you worshipped them] besides Allah? They will say: They are lost from us. Indeed what we used to call upon before is nothing. Thus does Allah leave the disbelievers to stray.
- 40:75. [It will be said to them:] That is because you used to exult in falsehood on earth without justification, and you used to behave insolently.
- 40:76. Enter the gates of hell, to abide therein forever. Wretched indeed is the abode of the arrogant!

«Do you not see those who argue against the signs of Allah» which are so clear? This is an expression of astonishment at their abhorrent attitude.

«How could they be turned away [from the truth]?» That is, how could they be diverted from it, and what direction would they take after this clear explanation? Do they find any clear proof to contradict or undermine the signs of Allah? No, by Allah. Or have they found a specious argument that suits their whims and desires, and use it to support their falsehood?

What a bad deal they have chosen for themselves by disbelieving in the Book that has come to them from Allah, and in that with which Allah has sent His Messengers, the best, most truthful and most rational of humankind.

There will be no requital for such people except the blazing fire. Hence Allah warns them of its punishment, as He says:
 ﴿But they will come to know [the consequences of their deeds] when, with iron collars﴾ which will prevent them from moving
 ﴿and chains around their necks﴾ with which they are shackled to their devils
 ﴿they are dragged into the scalding water﴾ that is, water that is exceedingly hot
 ﴿then they will be burned in the fire﴾ that will be blazing with great flames, with which they will be burned.

Then they will be rebuked for their ascription of partners to Allah and their lies, and it will be said to them:
 ﴿Where are those [false gods] whom you ascribed as partners to Allah [and you worshipped them] besides Allah?﴾ Can they help you or ward off some of the punishment from you?
 ﴿They will say: They are lost from us﴾ that is, they have gone away and they are not here; even if they were here, they would not help us. Then they will deny them and say: ﴿Indeed what we used to call upon before is nothing.﴾

What appears to be the case is that what they will mean thereby is to affirm the falseness of the gods whom they used to worship, and to affirm that Allah indeed has no partner; rather they went astray and did wrong by worshipping that which is not divine.

This is indicated by the words of Allah (ﷻ): ﴿Thus does Allah leave the disbelievers to stray﴾ that is, this is the misguidance that they followed in the previous world, misguidance that is so obvious to everyone that even they themselves will acknowledge its falseness on the Day of Resurrection, and the meaning of Allah's words:

﴿...Those who call upon their [so-called] partners besides Allah follow nothing but conjecture...﴾ (Yoonus 10: 66)

– will become clear to them. This is also indicated by the verses in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿...On the Day of Resurrection they will disavow your having associated them with Allah...﴾ (Fâtir 35: 14)

– and:

﴿Who is more astray than one who calls upon, besides Allah, those who will not answer him until the Day of Resurrection...?﴾ (al-Ahqâf 46: 5)

It will be said to the people of hell: ﴿That﴾ namely the various punishments to which you are subjected ﴿is because you used to exult in falsehood on earth without justification, and you used to behave insolently﴾ that is, you used to exult in the falsehood that you were following, and in the knowledge by means of which you sought to contradict the Messengers, and you used to behave insolently and arrogantly towards the slaves of Allah, transgressing and doing wrong, in disobedience to Allah. This is like the verse at the end of this soorah in which Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿Then when their Messengers came to them with clear signs, they exulted in what they had of [worldly] knowledge﴾ (40: 83);

– and it is like what the people of Qâroon said to him:

﴿...Do not exult, for Allah does not love those who exult [in their riches].﴾ (al-Qaşaş 28: 76)

This is a blameworthy kind of joy that is deserving of punishment, unlike the praiseworthy kind of joy of which Allah says:

﴿Say: In the grace of Allah and in His mercy – in that let them rejoice...﴾ (Yoonus 10: 58)

That refers to rejoicing in beneficial knowledge and righteous deeds.

«Enter the gates of hell» – each one will enter one of the levels of hell, according to his deeds

«to abide therein forever» and never emerge from it

«Wretched indeed is the abode of the arrogant» for it is an abode in which they will be humiliated, detained and punished, with punishments varying between extreme heat and extreme cold.

﴿فَاصْبِرْ إِنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ ۖ فَكَيْمًا نُرِيدُكَ بَعْضَ الَّذِي نَعِدُهُمْ أَوْ نَتَوَفَّيَنَّكَ فَإِنَّا يَرْجِعُونَ﴾ (سورة غافر: ٧٧)

40:77. So be patient, for verily the promise of Allah is true. Whether We show you some of that [punishment] of which We have warned them, or We take your soul [in death, before that], to Us they will be brought back.

«So be patient», O Messenger, in calling your people, and in bearing what you suffer from them of harm, and seek help in being patient by means of your faith,

«for verily the promise of Allah is true»: He will grant victory to His religion, make His word supreme and grant victory to His Messengers in this world and the hereafter. Seek help in that also by expecting punishment to befall your enemies in this world and the hereafter. Hence Allah says:

«Whether We show you some of that [punishment] of which We have warned them» in this world, then that is all well and good

«or We take your soul [in death, before that]» that is, before punishing them,

«to Us they will be brought back» and We will requite them for their deeds. So:

﴿Never think that Allah is unaware of what the evildoers are doing...﴾
(Ibrâheem 14: 42)

Then Allah consoles him and encourages him to be patient by mentioning his fellow Messengers:

﴿وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا رُسُلًا مِّن قَبْلِكَ مِنْهُمْ مَّن قَصَصْنَا عَلَيْكَ وَمِنْهُمْ مَّن لَّمْ نَقْصُصْ
عَلَيْكَ ۚ وَمَا كَانَ لِرَسُولٍ أَن يَأْتِيَ بِتَايَةٍ إِلَّا بِإِذْنِ اللَّهِ ۚ فَإِذَا جَاءَ أَمْرُ اللَّهِ فُضِيَ
بِالْحَقِّ وَخَسِرَ هُنَالِكَ الْمُبْطِلُونَ﴾ (سورة غافر: ٧٨)

40:78. Indeed We sent Messengers before you [O Muhammad]; of them are some whose stories We have related to you, and of them are some whose stories We have not related to you. It was not given to any Messenger to bring a sign except by Allah's leave. But when the decree of Allah came, the matter was decided with justice, whereupon the followers of falsehood perished.

﴿Indeed We sent Messengers before you﴾ that is, We sent many Messengers to the people, to call them to Us, and they bore with patience the harm the people did to them

﴿of them are some whose stories We have related to you, and of them are some whose stories We have not related to you﴾. All the Messengers followed the commands of Allah, and not one of them had any control over anything.

Not one of them could ﴿bring a sign﴾ – either textual or rational – ﴿except by Allah's leave﴾ that is, except by His will and decree.

So to demand miracles and signs from the Messengers is wrongdoing, stubbornness and disbelief on the part of the disbelievers, after Allah supported His Messengers with signs that pointed to their truthfulness and the soundness of the message they brought.

«But when the decree of Allah came» deciding and judging between the Messengers and their enemies

«the matter» between them «was decided with justice» that came at the right time and was in accordance with what is right and correct, by saving the Messengers and their followers, and destroying the disbelievers. Hence Allah says:

«whereupon» that is, at the time of the judgement mentioned, «the followers of falsehood», to whom falsehood was second nature, «perished»; what they had attained of knowledge and achieved of deeds was false, and their aims and goals were false.

So let those who are addressed here beware of persisting in their falsehood, lest they end up losers as those people did, for they are not better than them and they have no guarantee in the scriptures that they will be saved.

﴿اللَّهُ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمُ الْأَنْعَامَ لِتَرْكَبُوا مِنْهَا وَمِنْهَا تَأْكُلُونَ ﴿٧٩﴾ وَلَكُمْ فِيهَا مَنَافِعُ وَلِتَبْلُغُوا عَلَيْهَا حَاجَةً فِي صُدُورِكُمْ وَعَلَى الْفُلْكِ تُحْمَلُونَ ﴿٨٠﴾ وَتُرِيدُكُمْ عَايَاتِهِ ۖ فَآيَ عَايَاتِ اللَّهِ تُنْكِرُونَ ﴿٨١﴾﴾ (سورة غافر: ٧٩-٨١)

40:79. It is Allah Who made the livestock animals for you, so that some of them you may ride and some of them you may eat, 40:80. and you may have other benefits from them, and so that by means of them you may fulfil your heartfelt need [to reach distant places], and on them, and on ships, you are carried.

40:81. And He shows you His signs. So which of the signs of Allah will you deny?

Here Allah reminds His slaves of what He has bestowed upon them of livestock animals, in which there are a number of blessings, including the following:

- They have the benefit of riding them and carrying their goods on them;
  - They have the benefit of eating their flesh and drinking their milk;
  - They have the benefit of keeping warm and making various items and furnishings from their wool and hair;
- and there are many other benefits in them.

﴿and so that by means of them you may fulfil your heartfelt need [to reach distant places]﴾, and you feel happy and rejoice when you reach those places and meet the people there

﴿and on them, and on ships, you are carried﴾ that is, you are carried on mounts on land, and on ships on the sea; Allah has made them to be of service to you, so that they may carry you.

﴿And He shows you His signs﴾ that are indicative of His oneness and His names and attributes. This is one of the greatest of His blessings, as He showed His slaves His signs in themselves and in the universe, and His clear blessings, and He listed those blessings for them, so that they may acknowledge Him, give thanks to Him and remember Him.

﴿So which of the signs of Allah will you deny?﴾ That is, which of His signs do you not acknowledge? For it is established in your minds that all the signs and blessings are from Him, so there is no reason to deny them or to turn away from them.

Rather this dictates, for people of mature thinking, that they should strive hard and do their utmost to obey Him, serve Him and focus completely on Him.

﴿أَفَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرُوا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِمْ كَانُوا أَكْثَرَ مِنْهُمْ وَأَشَدَّ قُوَّةً وَءَانَارًا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَمَا أَغْنَىٰ عَنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ﴾

﴿٨٢﴾ فَلَمَّا جَاءَتْهُمْ رُسُلُهُم بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ فَرِحُوا بِمَا عِنْدَهُمْ مِنَ الْعِلْمِ وَحَاقَ بِهِمْ
 مَا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِءُونَ ﴿٨٣﴾ فَلَمَّا رَأَوْا بَأْسَنَا قَالُوا آمَنَّا بِاللَّهِ وَحْدَهُ وَكَفَرْنَا
 بِمَا كُنَّا بِهِ مُشْرِكِينَ ﴿٨٤﴾ فَلَمْ يَكُ يَنْفَعُهُمْ إِيمَانُهُمْ لَمَّا رَأَوْا بَأْسَنَا سُنَّتَ اللَّهِ الَّتِي قَدْ
 خَلَتْ فِي عِبَادِهِ وَخَسِرَ هُنَالِكَ الْكَافِرُونَ ﴿٨٥﴾ (سورة غافر: ٨٢-٨٥)

- 40:82. Have they not travelled in the land and seen what was the fate of those who came before them? They were more numerous than them and more powerful, and they made a more impressive mark on the land, but all that they had acquired [of wealth and physical strength] was of no avail to them.
- 40:83. Then when their Messengers came to them with clear signs, they exulted in what they had of [worldly] knowledge, and the very thing [punishment] they used to ridicule overwhelmed them.
- 40:84. But when they saw Our punishment, they said: We believe in Allah alone, and we reject that which we used to associate with Him.
- 40:85. But their believing after they had seen Our punishment could not benefit them at all. Such has always been the way of Allah in dealing with His slaves, whereupon the disbelievers perished.

Here Allah urges those who disbelieve in their Messenger to travel through the land, in the sense of both physical travel and intellectual reflection, asking people of knowledge

﴿Have they not travelled in the land and seen﴾ in the sense of contemplating in such a way as to reach the right conclusion, not merely looking heedlessly and carelessly

﴿what was the fate of those who came before them﴾ of previous nations, such as ‘Âd, Thamood, and others, who were greater than them in strength, more wealthy and left a more impressive mark on the land, by way of fortified structures, beautiful plants and much agriculture.

﴿but all that they had acquired [of wealth and physical strength] was of no avail to them﴾ when the command of Allah came to them; their strength did not benefit them, they could not use their wealth to ransom themselves, and they could not hide in their fortifications.

Then Allah mentions their major sin:

﴿Then when their Messengers came to them with clear signs﴾ such as the divinely revealed Books, great miracles, and clear and beneficial knowledge that showed the way to guidance in truth, instead of misguidance and falsehood,

﴿they exulted in what they had of [worldly] knowledge﴾ that was contrary to the religion of the Messengers.

It is well known that their exulting in it indicated that they were very pleased with it and adhered closely to it, and that they were opposed to the truth brought by the Messengers, for they regarded their falsehood as truth. This is general in application and includes all kinds of knowledge that are used to oppose the message brought by the Messengers.

One of the branches of knowledge that most deserve to be included in this category is the field of philosophy, especially Greek philosophy, on the basis of which many verses of the Qur'an were rejected, and it undermined respect for the Qur'an in people's hearts, regarding its definitive proofs as mere verbal proofs that do not lead to certainty, and giving precedence to the views of foolish people and followers of falsehood over the proofs of the Qur'an. This is one of the worst kinds of distorting the meanings of Allah's revelations and of opposing them and contradicting them. And it is Allah Whose help we seek.

﴿and the very thing [punishment] they used to ridicule overwhelmed them﴾ that is, befell them.

﴿But when they saw Our punishment﴾ they affirmed the truth at the time when doing so would not benefit them

﴿they said: We believe in Allah alone, and we reject that which we used to associate with Him﴾ of idols and images; we disavow everything that was contrary to the Messengers in word and deed.

﴿But their believing after they had seen Our punishment could not benefit them at all﴾ in that situation.

﴿Such has always been the way of Allah in dealing with His slaves﴾, that when the punishment of Allah befalls the disbelievers, if they then believe, their faith will not count and will not save them from the punishment.

That is because it is faith that results from compulsion, because they are forced to believe, and it is faith that is based on seeing (the punishment). The only faith that is of benefit and will save a person is voluntary faith and belief in the unseen, which comes before the signs of imminent punishment appear.

﴿whereupon﴾ that is, at the time of doom and being made to taste the punishment

﴿the disbelievers perished﴾ and lost out on their religious and worldly interests, and the hereafter. It is not the matter of loss only in this realm; rather they will inevitably lose out in the hereafter, which will lead to misery and severe punishment, in which they will abide forever.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat Ghāfir.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

41. Soorat Fuṣṣilat

(Al-Mukki)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

۞ حَمْدٌ ۝ (١) تَنْزِيلٌ مِّنَ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ ۝ (٢) كِتَابٌ فُصِّلَتْ آيَاتُهُ، قُرْءَانًا عَرَبِيًّا
لِّقَوْمٍ يَعْلَمُونَ ۝ (٣) بَشِيرًا وَنَذِيرًا فَأَعْرَضَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ فَهُمْ لَا يَسْمَعُونَ ۝ (٤) وَقَالُوا
قُلُوبُنَا فِي أَكِنَّةٍ مِّمَّا نَدْعُونَكَ إِلَيْهِ وَفِي آذَانِنَا وَقْرٌ وَمِنْ بَيْنِنَا وَبَيْنِكَ حِجَابٌ
فَاعْمَلْ إِنَّا عَمِلُونَ ۝ (٥) قُلْ إِنَّمَا أَنَا بَشَرٌ مُّثَلُّكُمْ يُوحَىٰ إِلَيَّ أَنَّمَا إِلَهُ الْوَاحِدُ
فَأَسْتَقِيسُوا إِلَيْهِ وَأَسْتَغْفِرُوهُ ۖ وَوَيْلٌ لِّلْمُشْرِكِينَ ۝ (٦) الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْتُونَ الزَّكَاةَ
وَهُمْ بِالْآخِرَةِ هُمْ كَافِرُونَ ۝ (٧) إِنَّ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ لَهُمْ أَجْرٌ غَيْرُ
مَمْنُونٍ ۝ (٨) ﴿سورة فُصِّلَتْ: ٨-١﴾

41:1. Hā'. Meem.

41:2. [This is] a revelation from the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful,

41:3. a Book, the verses of which are explained in detail, an Arabic
Qur'an, for people who have knowledge,

41:4. bearing glad tidings and warning. But most of them turn away and do not listen,

- 41:5. and they say: Our hearts are covered [and sealed] against that to which you call us, in our ears there is deafness, and between us and you there is a barrier. So carry on [in your way]; we will carry on [in ours].
- 41:6. Say [O Muhammad]: I am but a human being like yourselves, [except that] it has been revealed to me that your God is but One God, so seek the path that leads straight to Him, and ask Him for forgiveness. Woe to those who ascribe partners to Allah,
- 41:7. those who do not give zakâh, and who disbelieve in the hereafter.
- 41:8. Verily those who believe and do righteous deeds will have a never-ending reward.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells His slaves that this great Book and glorious Qur'an is ﴿a revelation﴾ that comes from ﴿the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful﴾, Whose mercy encompasses all things. One of His greatest mercies is the sending down of this Book, which brought knowledge, guidance, light, healing, mercy and much good; it is among the greatest blessings that He has bestowed upon His slaves, and it is the way that leads to happiness in this world and the hereafter.

Then He praises the Book for being perfectly clear: ﴿the verses of which are explained in detail﴾ that is, every topic in it is explained by itself. This requires complete explanation, distinguishing between topics, and making facts clear and distinct.

﴿an Arabic Qur'an﴾ that is, it is in clear language, the most perfect of languages. Its verses are explained in detail, and it has been made an Arabic Qur'an, ﴿for people who have knowledge﴾ that is, so that its meanings will be clear to them, just as its words are clear, and so that it may make guidance distinct from misguidance.

As for the ignorant, whom guidance only increases in misguidance, and clarification only increases them in blindness, these words are not addressed to them.

﴿As for those who disbelieve, it is the same to them whether you warn them or do not warn them; they will not believe.﴾ (al-Baqarah 2: 6)

﴿bearing glad tidings and warning﴾ that is, the Book brings glad tidings of reward in this world and the hereafter, and it warns of punishment in this world and the hereafter, mentioning the details of both, and the reasons and steps that make the glad tidings and warning applicable. These characteristics of the Book dictate that it should be received with acceptance and submission, and it should be believed in and acted upon. But most people turn away from it in arrogance, ﴿and do not listen﴾ to it by way of accepting and responding, even though they have heard it in such a way that proof is established against them.

﴿and they﴾ namely these people who turn away from it, showing that they have not benefited from it, and closing the doors that lead to it,

﴿say: Our hearts are covered [and sealed] against that to which you call us﴾ so that we do not hear you,

﴿and between us and you there is a barrier﴾ so that we cannot see you.

What is meant is that they expressed their aversion to it in every possible way, and demonstrated their hatred of it and their contentment with what they had. Hence they said:

﴿So carry on [in your way]; we will carry on [in ours]﴾ that is, carry on as you please, in accordance with your religion, for we are very happy to carry on with our religion. This is one of the worst types of failure, as they were pleased with misguidance rather than guidance, and they preferred disbelief over faith; they sold the hereafter for this world.

﴿Say [O Muhammad]﴾ to them:

﴿I am but a human being like yourselves, [except that] it has been revealed to me﴾ that is, this is what I am and this is my role: I am a human being like you, and I have no control over anything, nor do I have what you seek to hasten; all it is, is that Allah has favoured me over you and has distinguished me by singling me out – for the revelation that He has revealed to me, and He has commanded me to follow it and call you to it.

﴿so seek the path that leads straight to Him﴾ that is, follow the path that leads to Allah, by believing in what I tell you, following the commands and heeding the prohibitions – for this is what following the path means – and then persisting in that.

The phrase ﴿that leads straight to Him﴾ is pointing out the importance of focusing on Him alone, and that the one who is striving should make reaching Allah and reaching His paradise the ultimate goal for which he is striving. Thus his efforts will be sincere, correct and beneficial, but if he fails to do that, then his efforts and deeds will be invalid.

As it is the case that even if a person is keen to follow the path that leads to Allah, he will inevitably have some shortcomings with regard to what he is instructed to do, or he will inevitably do that which he is forbidden to do, Allah instructs them to remedy that by praying for forgiveness, which implies repenting, as He says: ﴿and ask Him for forgiveness﴾. Then He warned those who fail to follow the path that leads to Him:

﴿Woe to those who ascribe partners to Allah, those who do not give zakâh﴾ that is, those who worship others besides Allah that possess no power to bring benefits or cause harm, or to cause death, give life or resurrect, and they allow themselves to become corrupted, so they do not purify themselves by affirming the oneness of their Lord and focusing their devotion on Him alone, they do not pray or give zakâh, and they show no sincerity towards the Creator by affirming His oneness and praying to Him alone, and they do not benefit others by giving zakâh or any other charity. Moreover, they ﴿disbelieve in the hereafter﴾ that is, they do not believe in the resurrection, or in paradise and hell. Therefore when fear was dispelled from their hearts, they had the audacity to do what they did of that which will harm them in the hereafter.

Having mentioned the disbelievers, Allah now mentions the believers, describing them and their reward:

﴿Verily those who believe﴾ in this Book, what it contains and what it calls to of faith, and confirm their faith with righteous deeds on the basis of sincerity and following the example of the Prophet (ﷺ), ﴿will have a never-ending reward﴾ that is, a great reward that will never cease; rather it will be ongoing at all times, constantly increasing, bringing all kinds of pleasures and desirable things.

﴿قُلْ أَنتُمْ لَكُمْ كُفْرُونَ بِالَّذِي خَلَقَ الْأَرْضَ فِي يَوْمَيْنِ وَتَجْعَلُونَ لَهُ أَندَادًا ذَلِكَ رَبُّ الْعَالَمِينَ﴾ (٩) وَجَعَلَ فِيهَا رُوسَىٰ مِنْ فَوْقِهَا وَبَرَكَ فِيهَا وَقَدَّرَ فِيهَا أَقْوَاتَهَا فِي أَرْبَعَةِ أَيَّامٍ سَوَاءً لِلنَّاسِ لَيْنًا (١٠) ثُمَّ أَسْتَوَىٰ إِلَى السَّمَاءِ وَهِيَ دُخَانٌ فَقَالَ لَهَا وَلِلْأَرْضِ أَنْتِمَا طَوْعًا أَوْ كَرْهًا قَالَتَا أَنْتِنَا طَائِعِينَ (١١) فَقَضَاهُنَّ سَبْعَ سَمَوَاتٍ فِي يَوْمَيْنِ وَأَوْحَىٰ فِي كُلِّ سَمَاءٍ أَمْرَهَا وَزَيَّنَّا السَّمَاءَ الدُّنْيَا بِمَصَابِيحَ وَحِفْظًا ذَلِكَ تَقْدِيرُ الْعَزِيزِ الْعَلِيمِ (١٢) ﴿ (سورة فصلت: ٩-١٢)

- 41:9. Say: How can you disbelieve in the One Who created the earth in two days, and set up rivals to Him? That [namely the One Who created the earth in two days] is the Lord of the worlds.<sup>70</sup>
- 41:10. He set on the earth mountains standing firm, rising above it, and measured out its sustenance in four days<sup>71</sup> for all those [of its inhabitants] who would need it.

<sup>70</sup> The fact that He is the Lord of the worlds means that He can have no rivals, partners or equals. If He is the Lord of the worlds, then He is the Lord of all that is inferior to rational beings, such as stones and wood, of which the idols are made, so how they could be rivals to Him? (Ibn 'Ashoor)

<sup>71</sup> What is meant is that the measuring out of provision took a further two days, so along with the two days mentioned in the previous verse, the total =

- 41:11. Then He turned towards the heaven when it was still [like] smoke<sup>72</sup> and said to it, and to the earth: Come into being, willingly or unwillingly! They said: We come willingly.<sup>73</sup>
- 41:12. So He completed their creation as seven heavens in two days, and decreed for each heaven its order [and system]. And We adorned the lowest heaven with lamps [stars] which also serve as a protection. That is the decree of the Almighty, All-Knowing.

Here Allah denounces and expresses amazement at the disbelief of those who disbelieve in Him, and who ascribe rivals to Him that they regard as partners to Him, and they devote to them whatever they wish of their worship, regarding them as equal to the Almighty Lord, the bountiful Sovereign, Who created the vast earth in two days, then spread it out in two days, creating in it mountains above it, to protect it from shifting and shaking and growing unstable.

Then He completed its creation and finalised its shape, bringing forth its provision and the like, ﴿in four days for all those [of its inhabitants] who would need it﴾. No one can tell you like One Who is aware of all things. This is the true story of what happened, with no additions or subtractions.

﴿Then﴾ after creating the earth, ﴿He turned towards﴾ the creation of ﴿the heaven when it was still [like] smoke and said to it, and to the earth: Come into being, willingly or unwillingly!﴾ that is, submit

---

= number of days for the creation of the earth was four. What is meant by 'day' here is a period of time, not a twenty-four hour day in the ordinary sense.

<sup>72</sup> The smoke-like substance was the origin of the heavens and the earth. (Ibn 'Āshoor) to My command, willingly or unwillingly, for it must inevitably be carried out.

<sup>73</sup> This is indicative of the speed with which they responded to the command of Allah. (Ibn 'Āshoor)

﴿They said: We come willingly﴾; we have no desire to go against Your will.

﴿So He completed their creation as seven heavens in two days﴾ – thus the creation of the heavens and the earth was completed in six days, the first of which was Sunday and the last of which was Friday, even though the might and will of Allah are such that He could have created them all in a single moment.

But in addition to being Almighty, He is also wise and kind, so in His wisdom and kindness, He ordained that they should be created within this timeframe.

It should be understood that the apparent meaning of this verse appears to contradict the verse in an-Nâzi'ât in which Allah mentions the creation of the heavens and then says:

﴿And after that He spread out the earth.﴾ (an-Nâzi'ât 79: 30)

There appears to be a contradiction, although there are no contradictions or differences in the Book of Allah.

The explanation of that was given by many of the earlier generations, which is that the creation of the earth came before the creation of the heavens, as mentioned in the verses under discussion here, and Allah spread out the earth and:

﴿Brought forth from it its water and its vegetation, and set the mountains firmly.﴾ (an-Nâzi'ât 79: 31-32)

– after creating the heavens, as it says in Soorat an-Nâzi'ât. Hence Allah said:

﴿And after that He spread out the earth, brought forth from it...﴾ (an-Nâzi'ât 79: 30-31)

– and He did not say “and the earth He created after that.”

﴿and decreed for each heaven its order [and system]﴾ that is, the order and system that was appropriate for it, as dictated by divine wisdom.

﴿And We adorned the lowest heaven with lamps [stars]﴾ this refers to the stars, the light of which people use for navigation purposes. It is an apparent adornment for the heavens, but there is also a hidden beauty in them, as they also serve as missiles to drive away the devils, lest they eavesdrop on the heavens.

﴿That﴾ namely what is mentioned here, of the earth and everything in it, and the heaven and everything in it,

﴿is the decree of the Almighty﴾ Who by His might subjugates and controls all things, and created all of creation

﴿All-Knowing﴾ Whose knowledge encompasses all created things, both unseen and seen.

The fact that the polytheists showed no sincerity to this Almighty Lord, the One, the Subduer, to Whose command all creatures submit and Whose will concerning them is always done, is something very strange indeed. The fact that they ascribed rivals to Him that they regard as equal to Him, when in fact they are lacking in their characteristics and deeds, is even stranger. There is no remedy for these people, if they persist in turning away, except punishment in this world and the hereafter. Hence Allah warned them by saying:

﴿فَإِنْ أَعْرَضُوا فَقُلْ أَنْذَرْتُكُمْ صَاعِقَةً مِثْلَ صَاعِقَةِ عَادٍ وَثَمُودَ ﴿١٣﴾ إِذْ جَاءَهُمُ الرُّسُلُ مِنْ بَنِي آدَمَ مِنْ خَلْفِهِمْ وَأَلَّا يَعْبُدُوا إِلَّا اللَّهَ قَالُوا لَوْ شَاءَ رَبُّنَا لَأَنْزَلَ مَلَائِكَةً فَإِنَّا بِمَا أُرْسِلْتُمْ بِهِ كَافِرُونَ ﴿١٤﴾﴾ (سورة فُصِّلَتْ: ١٣-١٤)

41:13. But if they turn away, then say: I warn you of a devastating punishment like the devastating punishment that befell ‘Ād and Thamood.

41:14. When their Messengers came to them, trying by all possible means [to preach to them], saying: Do not worship any but Allah, they said: If our Lord had so willed, He could have sent down angels [as messengers]. Verily we disbelieve in that with which you have been sent.

That is, if these disbelievers turn away, after the praiseworthy qualities of the Qur'an and the sublime attributes of Allah the Almighty have been made clear to them, ﴿then say: I warn you of a devastating punishment﴾ that is, a punishment that will overwhelm you and eradicate you, ﴿like the devastating punishment that befell 'Ād and Thamood﴾, the two well-known tribes. The worst of punishments overwhelmed them and encompassed them, because of their wrongdoing and disbelief.

﴿When their Messengers came to them, trying by all possible means [to preach to them]﴾ – their Messengers came one after another, all bringing the same call: ﴿Do not worship any but Allah﴾. That is, they instructed them to show devotion to Allah alone, and they forbade them to ascribe partners to Allah.

But they rejected their message and disbelieved them, and ﴿they said: If our Lord had so willed, He could have sent down angels [as messengers]﴾ that is, as for you, you are just human beings like us, ﴿Verily we disbelieve in that with which you have been sent﴾ – this specious argument is still in circulation among the disbelievers, handed down from one generation to the next. But it is one of the flimsiest of specious arguments, because it is not a condition that the messenger who is sent should be an angel; rather it is a condition that the messenger should bring proof of his truthfulness. So let them bring evidence if they can, to undermine the sincerity of the messengers on the basis of rational or textual proof. But they will never be able to find a way to do that.

﴿ فَأَمَّا عَادٌ فَاسْتَكْبَرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ بِغَيْرِ الْحَقِّ وَقَالُوا مَنْ أَشَدُّ مِنَّا قُوَّةً أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّ اللَّهَ الَّذِي خَلَقَهُمْ هُوَ أَشَدُّ مِنْهُمْ قُوَّةً وَكَانُوا بِآيَاتِنَا يَجْحَدُونَ ﴿١٥﴾ فَارْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ رِيحًا صَرْصَرًا فِي أَيَّامٍ نَحْسَابٍ لِّنَذِيقَهُمْ عَذَابَ الْخِزْيِ فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَلَعَذَابُ الْآخِرَةِ أَخْزَىٰ وَهُمْ لَا يُبْصِرُونَ ﴿١٦﴾ ﴾ (سورة فصلت: ١٥-١٦)

- 41:15. As for ‘Ād, they behaved arrogantly in the land without justification and said: Who is more powerful than us? Did they not see that Allah, Who created them, was more powerful than them? But they continued to reject Our signs.
- 41:16. So We sent against them a furious cold wind for a few inauspicious days, so that We might cause them to taste the punishment of disgrace in the life of this world. But the punishment of the hereafter will be more humiliating, and they will not be helped.

This further explains the story of these two nations, ‘Ād and Thamood.

﴿As for ‘Ād﴾, in addition to their disbelief in Allah, their denial of the signs of Allah and their rejection of His Messengers, they also behaved arrogantly in the land, subjugating the people around them, and treating them unjustly. They were proud of their strength ﴿and said: Who is more powerful than us?﴾ Allah (ﷻ) said in response, mentioning something that everyone knows:

﴿Did they not see that Allah, Who created them, was more powerful than them?﴾ If He had not created them, they would not exist.

If they had reflected properly on this matter, they would not have been deceived by their strength. So Allah afflicted them with a punishment that was appropriate to their strength by which they had been deceived.

﴿So We sent against them a furious cold wind﴾ that is, a strong wind that made an alarming sound, like loud thunder. Allah sent it against them:

﴿...for seven nights and eight days in succession, so that you would have seen the people lying lifeless as if they were the trunks of fallen palm trees.﴾ (al-Hāqqah 69: 7)

﴿for a few inauspicious days﴾ and it destroyed them and their families, so that nothing could be seen but their dwellings. Here Allah says:

﴿so that We might cause them to taste the punishment of disgrace in the life of this world﴾ that humiliated them and exposed them to shame before all people

﴿But the punishment of the hereafter will be more humiliating, and they will not be helped﴾ that is, they will not be protected against the punishment of Allah and they will not be able to protect themselves.

﴿وَأَمَّا ثَمُودُ فَهَدَيْنَاهُمْ فَاسْتَحَبُّوا الْعَمَىٰ عَلَى الْهُدَىٰ فَأَخَذَتْهُمُ صَاعِقَةُ الْعَذَابِ الْهَوْنِ بِمَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ ﴿٧﴾ وَنَجَّيْنَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَكَانُوا يَنْقُونَ ﴿٨﴾﴾ (سورة قُصَّتْ: ١٧ -

(١٨)

41:17. As for Thamood, We showed them the path of guidance, but they preferred to remain blind rather than be guided. So the devastating and humiliating punishment overtook them because of their misdeeds.

41:18. And We saved those who believed and feared Allah.

Thamood was a well-known tribe who lived in and around al-Hijr. They are the people to whom Allah sent Šāliḥ (ﷺ) to call them to affirm the oneness of their Lord and to forbid them to ascribe partners to Him. Allah gave them the she-camel as a mighty sign; she was to have her share of water and they were to have their share, each on an appointed day (cf. 26: 155); they were to drink her milk on one day and to drink from the water on one day, and they were not to spend on her, for she was to eat from the land of Allah.

Hence Allah says here: ﴿As for Thamood, We showed them the path of guidance﴾ that is, guidance in the sense of explaining (not in the sense of making them accept it and follow it). The reason why Allah specifically points out that He showed them the path of guidance, even though in the case of other doomed nations proof was established against them and guidance was shown to them, is that the sign given to Thamood was exceptionally clear and was seen by all of them, young and old, male and female. It was a clear sign, hence that miracle gave them clearer proof and guidance.

But – because of their wrongdoing and wickedness – they preferred blindness, which is disbelief and misguidance, over guidance, which is knowledge and faith. Thus the punishment overtook them, ﴿because of their misdeeds﴾; Allah did not wrong them at all.

﴿And We saved those who believed and feared Allah﴾ that is, Allah saved Ṣāliḥ and those who followed him of the believers who avoided polytheism and sin.

﴿وَيَوْمَ يُحْشَرُ أَعْدَاءُ اللَّهِ إِلَى النَّارِ فَهُمْ يُوزَعُونَ ﴿١٧﴾ حَقَّ إِذَا مَا جَاءَهُمَا شَهِدَ عَلَيْهِمْ سَمْعُهُمْ وَأَبْصَرُهُمْ وَجُلُودُهُمْ بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿١٨﴾ وَقَالُوا لِيُجْلِدُوهُمْ لِمَ شَهِدْتُمْ عَلَيْنَا قَالُوا أَنْطَقَنَا اللَّهُ الَّذِي أَنْطَقَ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ وَهُوَ خَلَقَكُمْ أَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ وَإِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿١٩﴾ وَمَا كُنْتُمْ تَسْتَوُونَ أَنْ يَشْهَدَ عَلَيْكُمْ سَمْعُكُمْ وَلَا أَبْصَرُكُمْ وَلَا جُلُودُكُمْ وَلَكِنْ ظَنَنْتُمْ أَنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَعْلَمُ كَثِيرًا مِمَّا تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢٠﴾ وَذَلِكُمْ ظَنُّكُمُ الَّذِي ظَنَنْتُمْ بِرَبِّكُمْ أَرَدْتُمْ

فَأَصْبَحْتُمْ مِنَ الْخَاسِرِينَ ﴿٢٣﴾ فَإِنْ يَصِيرُوا فَالنَّارُ مَثْوًى لَّهُمْ وَإِنْ يَسْتَعْتِبُوا فَمَا هُمْ مِنَ الْمُعْتَبِينَ ﴿٢٤﴾ (سورة فصلت: ١٩-٢٤)

- 41:19. And [remember] the day when the enemies of Allah will be gathered together for the fire, then they will be assembled [then driven],
- 41:20. until, when they come to it, their hearing, their sight and their skins will testify against them concerning their deeds.
- 41:21. They will say to their skins: Why do you testify against us? They will say: Allah has caused us to speak, Who causes everything to speak [that is able to speak]. He created you the first time, and to Him you will be brought back.
- 41:22. You did not hide yourselves from your hearing, your sight and your skins lest they testify against you. Rather you thought that Allah did not know much of what you did.
- 41:23. But that thought of yours that you thought about your Lord has led to your ruin, and now you are among the losers.
- 41:24. Even if they are patient, the fire will still be their abode, and if they seek to make amends, they will not be allowed to do so.

Here Allah tells us of the enemies who disbelieved in Him and His signs, and who rejected, opposed and fought His Messengers, and the terrible state they will be in when they are gathered together ﴿for the fire, then they will be assembled [then driven]﴾ that is, the first of them will be joined to the last of them, and they will be driven towards it violently; they will not be able to refuse and they will not be able to help themselves, nor will they be helped.

﴿until, when they come to it﴾ when they reach the fire and want to deny their misdeeds or the sins that they committed, ﴿their hearing, their sight and their skins will testify against them concerning their deeds﴾ that is, each of their faculties will testify against them, each faculty saying: I did such and such, on such and such a day.

These three faculties are singled out for mention because most sins are committed by means of them or because of them.

When their faculties testify against them, they will rebuke them and ﴿They will say to their skins﴾. This indicates that testimony will be given by each faculty, as we have mentioned.

﴿Why do you testify against us﴾ at the time when we are trying to defend you?

﴿They will say: Allah has caused us to speak, Who causes everything to speak [that is able to speak]﴾ so we are not able to refuse to give testimony, because we have been made to speak by the One Whose will cannot be resisted by anyone or anything.

﴿He created you the first time﴾ and just as He created you with your essence and your physical being, He also created your attributes, which include speech

﴿and to Him you will be brought back﴾ in the hereafter, and He will requite you for your deeds.

It may be that what is meant is mentioning the first creation as proof of the resurrection, as frequently happens in the Qur'an.

﴿You did not hide yourselves from your hearing, your sight and your skins lest they testify against you﴾ that is, you did not hide yourselves from your faculties lest they testify against you, and you did not take any precautions against that.

﴿Rather you thought﴾ when you committed sins ﴿that Allah did not know much of what you did﴾. And that is why you did what you did.

This notion became the cause of their doom and misery, hence Allah says: ﴿But that thought of yours that you thought about your Lord﴾ that is, your negative thinking when you thought something that is not appropriate to His majesty

﴿has led to your ruin﴾ and doomed you

﴿and now you are among the losers﴾ for you have lost your own souls, your families and your religious commitment, because of the deeds that resulted from your negative thinking of your Lord. This decree of punishment and doom became due on you and it has become inevitable that you will dwell in eternal punishment, which will not be alleviated even for a moment.

﴿Even if they are patient, the fire will still be their abode﴾, but no one can have patience or forbearance with regard to the fire. In any other situation, there is the possibility of bearing it with patience, but in the case of the fire, no one can bear it with patience. How can anyone bear with patience a fire of which the heat is intense, more than seventy times hotter than the fire of this world? For its scalding water is intensely hot, the stench of its pus is excessive, its cold is extremely cold, its chains and fetters are immense, its hammers are huge and its keepers are harsh, with no mercy whatsoever in their hearts. And over and above all of that there is the wrath of the Almighty, Who will say to them when they call upon Him and ask Him for help:

﴿...Away with you! Be humiliated therein and do not speak to Me.﴾
(al-Mu'minoon 23: 108)

﴿and if they seek to make amends﴾ that is, if they ask to go back to the previous world so that they may start over,
﴿they will not be allowed to do so﴾ because that time has ended; they lived long enough to have reflected and paid heed, and the warner came to them, so they were left with no excuse. Moreover, their request to make amends is not sincere;

﴿...even if they were sent back, they would surely go back to that which was forbidden to them, for they are indeed liars.﴾ (al-An'am 6: 28)

﴿وَقَضَيْنَا لَهُمْ قُرْآنًا فَزَيَّنُوا لَهُمْ مَا بَيْنَ أَيْدِيهِمْ وَمَا خَلْفَهُمْ وَحَقَّ عَلَيْهِمُ
الْقَوْلُ فِي أَمْرٍ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ مِنَ الْإِنْسِ وَالْإِنْسِ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا خَسِرِينَ﴾

(سورة فصلت: ٢٥)

41:25. We assigned to them [evil] close companions who made fair-seeming to them their conduct in this world and their denial of the hereafter, and the punishment became inevitable for them, as had happened to nations of jinn and men who came before them, for indeed they are [all] losers.

That is, We decreed for these wrongdoers who rejected the truth ﴿[evil] close companions﴾ from among the devils. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Do you not see that We have sent the devils against the disbelievers, to incite them to sin?﴾ (Maryam 19: 83)

– that is, they prompt them and urge them to commit sin, because of what they make fair-seeming to them of ﴿their conduct in this world and their denial of the hereafter﴾. They made this world attractive to them and called them to indulge in its forbidden pleasures and desires, until they were tempted, then they disobeyed Allah and followed a path that led them to fight Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ). As for the hereafter, the devils made them think that it was far off and caused them to forget it, and perhaps they made them doubt that it would ever come to pass. So fear of it departed from their hearts, and the devils led them to disbelief, innovation and sin.

The fact that Allah gave the devils power and assigned them to the disbelievers was because the latter turned away from the remembrance of Allah and His signs, and they denied the truth. This is like the passage in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Whoever turns away from the reminder of the Most Gracious [the Qur'an], We will assign to him a devil to be his constant companion. Verily, they [the devils] bar them from the [right] path, but they think that they are rightly guided.﴾ (az-Zukhruf 43: 36-37)

﴿and the punishment became inevitable for them﴾ that is, the decree was issued that they should be punished

﴿as had happened to nations of jinn and men who came before them, for indeed they are [all] losers﴾ who lost their religious commitment and the hereafter. Whoever becomes a loser will inevitably be humiliated, subjected to misery and punished.

﴿وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَا تَسْمَعُوا لِهَذَا الْقُرْآنِ وَالْعَوَّاهُ فِيهِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٢٦﴾ فَلَنَذِيقَنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا عَذَابًا شَدِيدًا وَلَنَجْزِيَنَّهُمْ أَشْوَأَ الَّذِي كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢٧﴾ ذَلِكَ جَزَاءُ أَعْدَاءِ اللَّهِ النَّارُ هُمْ فِيهَا دَارُ الْخُلْدِ جَزَاءُ إِمَّا كَانُوا بِآيَاتِنَا يَمْحَدُونَ ﴿٢٨﴾﴾ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا رَبَّنَا أَرْنَا الَّذِينَ اضْطَلَّانَا مِنَ الْجِنِّ وَالْإِنْسِ نَجْعَلُهُمَا تَحْتَ أَقْدَامِنَا لِيَكُونُوا مِنَ الْأَسْفَلِينَ ﴿٢٩﴾﴾ (سورة فصلت: ٢٦-٢٩)

- 41:26. Those who disbelieved said: Do not listen to this Qur'an; make noise when it is recited, so that you may drown it out.
- 41:27. We will surely cause those who disbelieve to taste a severe punishment, and We will surely requite them according to their bad deeds.
- 41:28. Such is the requital of the enemies of Allah: the fire, in which will be their eternal abode, as a recompense for continuing to reject Our signs.
- 41:29. Those who disbelieved will say: Our Lord, show us the two among the jinn and humankind who led us astray. We will trample them underfoot, so that they will be among the lowest.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us how the disbelievers turned away from the Qur'an and urged one another to do that:

﴿Those who disbelieved said: Do not listen to this Qur'an﴾ that is, turn away and do not listen to it, and beware of paying attention to the one who brought it; but if it so happens that you do hear it or hear the call to its rulings, then ﴿make noise when it is recited﴾ that is, speak nonsense words in which there is no benefit and which are even harmful or offensive, and do not – as far as you are able – let anyone speak about it to you or recite its words and meanings to you. That was their behaviour and words which demonstrated how they turned away from this Qur'an.

﴿so that﴾, if you do that, ﴿you may drown it out﴾. This was testimony from the enemies, for the truth becomes clearer when its enemies testify in its favour. They thought that they could not defeat the one who brought it except by turning away and urging one another to do so, and what may be understood from their words is that if they did not do that, and instead they listened to it and paid attention to it, they would not be able to gain the upper hand, because truth always has the upper hand and cannot be defeated. This is something that is known by the followers and enemies of truth alike.

Because this was wrongdoing and stubbornness on their part, and there was no hope left for them to be guided, there remained nothing but the punishment for them. Hence Allah says:

﴿We will surely cause those who disbelieve to taste a severe punishment, and We will surely requite them according to their bad deeds﴾, namely disbelief and sin. These were the worst of what they used to do, because they committed sins and other deeds, but the requital with punishment is only for evil deeds,

﴿...and your Lord will not wrong anyone.﴾ (al-Kahf 18: 49)

﴿Such is the requital of the enemies of Allah﴾ who oppose Him and fight His close friends on the basis of disbelief, rejection, argument and physical fighting

﴿the fire, in which will be their eternal abode﴾ that is, they will abide therein forever, and their punishment will not be alleviated even for a moment, nor will they be helped. That will be ﴿a recompense for continuing to reject Our signs﴾, for they were clear signs and definitive proof that should lead to certainty, so the greatest wrongdoing and stubbornness is to reject them and disbelieve in them.

«Those who disbelieved will say» that is, the followers among them will say this, based on what follows, by way of expressing resentment towards those who led them astray:

«show us the two among the jinn and humankind who led us astray» that is, the two types who led us to misguidance and punishment, namely the devils among the jinn and the devils among humankind, who called us to hell.

«We will trample them underfoot, so that they will be among the lowest» that is, among those who are disgraced and humiliated, as they led us astray and misguided us, and they were the cause of our entering hell. Thus they will demonstrate their resentment towards one another and will disavow one another.

﴿إِنَّ الَّذِينَ قَالُوا رَبُّنَا اللَّهُ ثُمَّ اسْتَقَمُوا تَتَنَزَّلُ عَلَيْهِمُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ أَلَّا تَخَافُوا وَلَا تَحْزَنُوا وَأَبْشِرُوا بِالْجَنَّةِ الَّتِي كُنتُمْ تُوعَدُونَ ﴿٣٠﴾ نَحْنُ أَوْلِيَائُكُمْ فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَفِي الْآخِرَةِ وَلَكُمْ فِيهَا مَا نَشْتَهُ أَنْفُسُكُمْ وَلَكُمْ فِيهَا مَا تَدْعُونَ ﴿٣١﴾ تَرْجَوْنَ عَفْوَ رَبِّهِمْ﴾ (سورة فُتَّت: ٣٠-٣٢)

41:30. Verily those who say: Our Lord is Allah, then remain steadfast, to them the angels will come down [at the time of death, saying]: Fear not, nor grieve; but receive the glad tidings of paradise which you were promised.

41:31. We have been your close friends in the life of this world and [will remain so] in the hereafter. There you will have all that your souls desire and there you will have all that you ask for, 41:32. a recompense from One Who is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

Here Allah (ﷻ) speaks of His close friends, and implicitly offers encouragement and urges us to follow their example:

﴿Verily those who say: Our Lord is Allah, then remain steadfast﴾ that is, they acknowledge, speak out loud and are content with Allah (ﷻ) as their Lord and submit to His command, then they remain steadfast in following the straight path in terms of knowledge and action. For them there are glad tidings in this world and in the hereafter.

﴿to them the angels will come down [at the time of death]﴾ that is, the noble angels repeatedly come down to them, giving them glad tidings at the time of death

﴿[saying]: Fear not﴾ what lies ahead of you

﴿nor grieve﴾ for what is past. So they will tell them that there is nothing to worry about in the past or in the future.

﴿but receive the glad tidings of paradise which you were promised﴾ for it is due to you and is confirmed, and the promise of Allah is bound to be fulfilled.

They will also say to them, by way of reassuring them and giving them glad tidings: ﴿We have been your close friends in the life of this world and [will remain so] in the hereafter﴾. They urge them to do good in this world, making it fair-seeming to them, and warn them against doing evil deeds, making them abhorrent in their hearts; and they pray to Allah for them, and reassure them at times of calamity and fear, especially at the time of death with its hardships, in the grave with its darkness, on the Day of Resurrection with its horrors, and on the ṣirât (bridge over hell). And in paradise they will congratulate them on having attained the honour of their Lord, and they will enter unto them from every gate (saying):

﴿Peace be upon you because you patiently persevered. How excellent is the ultimate end!﴾ (ar-Ra'd 13: 24)

They will also say to them: ﴿There﴾ in paradise ﴿you will have all that your souls desire﴾ for it has been prepared and made ready for you,

﴿and there you will have all that you ask for﴾ that is, all that you request of anything that you could want or ask for of all kinds of delights and desires, such as no eye has seen, no ear has heard, nor has it ever crossed the mind of man.

«a recompense from One Who is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful» this abundant reward and eternal bliss is a recompense and a gift «from One Who is Oft-Forgiving» and has forgiven you your sins «Most Merciful» as He has enabled you to do good deeds, then accepted them from you. So His forgiveness has removed from you what you feared, and by His mercy He has helped you to attain what you wanted.

﴿وَمَنْ أَحْسَنُ قَوْلًا مِّمَّنْ دَعَا إِلَى اللَّهِ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا وَقَالَ إِنَّنِي مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ﴾

﴿(سورة فصلت: ٣٣)﴾

41:33. Who is better in speech than one who calls people to Allah, does righteous deeds, and says: Verily I am one of those who submit to Allah [in Islam]?

This appears in the form of a question, but what is meant is confirmation that no one is better in speech – that is, in words, manners and attitude, «than one who calls people to Allah» by teaching the ignorant and exhorting those who are heedless and turn away; debating with the followers of falsehood by enjoining worship of Allah in all ways and urging people to worship Him, making that fair-seeming by all possible means; telling people to stay away from that which Allah has forbidden and making it appear abhorrent by any means that will make people refrain, especially calling people to the religion of Islam, presenting it in the best of terms, debating with its enemies in ways that are best, speaking out against its opposite, namely disbelief and polytheism, enjoining what is right and forbidding what is wrong.

Part of calling people to Allah is endearing Him to His slaves by mentioning in detail His blessings, vast generosity and perfect mercy, and mentioning His perfect and majestic attributes.

Another aspect of calling people to Allah is encouraging people to acquire knowledge and learn guidance from the Book of Allah and the Sunnah of His Messenger (ﷺ), and urging them to do that by all possible means, which includes encouraging them to attain noble characteristics, treating people kindly, responding to those who behave offensively with kindness, and enjoining upholding of ties of kinship and honouring parents.

It also includes exhorting people on special occasions, at special events and times of calamity, in a manner that is appropriate to the situation. And there are innumerable other ways of calling people to Allah, which includes calling them to all that is good and warning against all that is evil.

﴿does righteous deeds﴾ that is, in addition to calling people to Allah, he himself hastens to obey the command of Allah, by doing righteous deeds that are pleasing to his Lord

﴿and says: Verily I am one of those who submit to Allah [in Islam]﴾ that is, those who submit to His command and follow His path. Reaching a high level in this regard means reaching the level of the strong and true in faith who strive to perfect themselves and perfect others, and who are the rightful heirs of the Messengers. By the same token, among the worst of people in speech are those who call people to misguidance and follow its path.

Between these two levels, the one who attains the highest level and the one who sinks to the lowest levels, are many other levels that are known to Allah, all of which are occupied by people:

﴿For all there will be ranks according to their deeds, for your Lord is not unaware of what they do.﴾ (al-An'âm 6: 132)

﴿وَلَا تَسْتَوِ الْحَسَنَةُ وَلَا السَّيِّئَةُ ادْفَعْ بِالَّتِي هِيَ أَحْسَنُ فَإِذَا الَّذِي بَيْنَكَ وَبَيْنَهُ
عَدَاوَةٌ كَأَنَّهُ وَلِيٌّ حَمِيمٌ﴾ (٣٥) وَمَا يُلْقُهَا إِلَّا الَّذِينَ صَبَرُوا وَمَا يُلْقُهَا إِلَّا ذُو حِظٍّ
عَظِيمٍ ﴿٣٥﴾ (سورة فصلت: ٣٤-٣٥)

- 41:34. Good deeds and evil deeds are not equal. Repel evil with that which is good, whereupon he between whom and you there was ill feeling will become like a close friend.
- 41:35. But none can attain that except those who are patient, and none can attain it except one who is blessed with a great share of good and righteousness.

«Good deeds and evil deeds are not equal» that is, doing good deeds and acts of obedience for the sake of Allah is not the same as doing evil deeds and acts of disobedience that incur His wrath and do not please Him. Kindness towards people is not the same as mistreatment of them, whether in essence, description or requital.

«Is the reward of goodness anything but goodness?» (ar-Rahmân 55: 60)

Then Allah enjoins a specific type of kindness, which may have a great impact. It is being kind to one who mistreats you, as He says: «Repel evil with that which is good» that is, if anyone mistreats you in word or deed, especially one who has great rights over you, such as relatives, friends and the like, then respond with kindness towards him. If he cuts you off, then uphold ties with him. If he wrongs you, then forgive him. If he speaks ill of you, in your absence or in your presence, then do not respond in kind; rather forgive him and speak gently to him. If he forsakes you and does not speak to you, then speak nicely to him and be the first to greet him with salâm. If you respond to mistreatment with kindness, you will achieve much good.

«whereupon he between whom and you there was ill feeling will become like a close friend» that is, like one of your nearest and dearest.

«But none can attain that» that is, no one is enabled to attain this good characteristic

«except those who are patient» and make themselves bear with patience that which they dislike, and force themselves to do that which Allah loves. For people are naturally inclined to respond to mistreatment in like manner, and not to forgive it, let alone react with kindness.

But if a person makes himself be patient and obeys the command of his Lord, and is aware of the immense reward that this attitude brings, and understands that responding in kind to the one who mistreats him will not benefit him in the slightest and will only make the enmity worse, and that treating him kindly will not detract from his status, for whoever humbles himself for the sake of Allah, Allah will raise him in status, then it will become easy for him and he will do that with pleasure and find delight in it.

«and none can attain it except one who is blessed with a great share of good and righteousness» because it is one of the characteristics of the elite among humankind, by means of which a person attains high status in this world and the hereafter; it is one of the greatest of good characteristics.

﴿وَمَا يَزَعْنَكَ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ نَزَعٌ فَأَسْتَعِذْ بِاللَّهِ إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ ﴿٣٥﴾ وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ اللَّيْلُ وَالنَّهَارُ وَالشَّمْسُ وَالْقَمَرُ لَا تَسْجُدُوا لِلشَّمْسِ وَلَا لِلْقَمَرِ وَاسْجُدُوا لِلَّهِ الَّذِي خَلَقَهُنَّ إِن كُنتُمْ إِيَّاهُ تَعْبُدُونَ ﴿٣٦﴾ فَإِنْ اسْتَكْبَرُوا فَالَّذِينَ عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ يُسَبِّحُونَ لَهُ بِاللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ وَهُمْ لَا يَسْأَمُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾﴾

﴿٢٨﴾ وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ أَنْ تَرَى الْأَرْضَ خَاشِعَةً فَإِذَا أَنْزَلْنَا عَلَيْهَا الْمَاءَ اهْتَزَّتْ وَرَبَتْ إِنَّ الَّذِي أَحْيَاهَا لَمُجِي الْمَوْتِ إِنَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ﴿٢٩﴾ (سورة فصلت: ٣٦-٣٩)

- 41:36. And if a prompting from Shayṭān stirs you up, seek refuge with Allah, for verily He is the All-Hearing, the All-Knowing.
- 41:37. Among His signs are the night and the day, the sun and the moon. Do not prostrate to the sun or to the moon; rather prostrate to Allah Who created them, if it is Him you worship.
- 41:38. If they are too arrogant [to prostrate to Allah, remember that] those who are with your Lord [namely the angels] glorify Him by night and by day, and they never grow weary.
- 41:39. Among His signs is this: you see the earth barren and desolate, but when We send down rain upon it, it stirs and swells. He Who gives it life will surely give life to the dead, for verily He has power over all things.

Having mentioned how to respond to human enemies, which is by responding to maltreatment with kindness, Allah (ﷻ) now tells us how to ward off the jinn enemy, which is by seeking refuge and protection with Allah from his evil.

﴿And if a prompting from Shayṭān stirs you up﴾ that is, any time you feel any of the promptings of the Shayṭān – namely his whispers, making evil fair-seeming to you, discouraging you from doing good, tempting you to commit some sins or making you obey some of his instructions,

﴿seek refuge with Allah﴾ that is, express your need of Him and your need for Him to give you refuge and protect you from the Shayṭān, ﴿for verily He is the All-Hearing, the All-Knowing﴾ – He hears your words and your beseeching, and He knows your situation and how desperate you are for His protection.

Then Allah (ﷻ) tells us that ﴿Among His signs﴾ that point to His perfect might and indicate that His will is always done, and that highlight the vastness of His power and His mercy towards His slaves, and demonstrate that He is Allah alone, with no partner or associate, ﴿are the night and the day﴾ – the latter because of the benefit of its light, whereby people go about their business, and the former because of the benefit of its darkness, in which people rest.

﴿the sun and the moon﴾ without which people’s livelihood and physical well-being, and the well-being of their animals, cannot be sound, and by means of which people attain innumerable benefits.

﴿Do not prostrate to the sun or to the moon﴾ for they are created things, under control and subjugated

﴿rather prostrate to Allah Who created them﴾ that is, worship Him alone, for He is the Almighty Creator, and shun the worship of anything other than Him of created things, even if it is of great size and brings many benefits, for those benefits do not come from it; rather they come from its Creator (ﷻ).

﴿if it is Him you worship﴾ and devote your worship sincerely to Him alone.

﴿If they are too arrogant﴾ to worship Allah, and do not submit to Him, they will not harm Allah in the slightest, for Allah has no need of them, and He has honourable slaves who do not disobey His commands and who do as they are commanded. Hence Allah says:

﴿those who are with your Lord﴾ namely the angels who are close to Him

﴿glorify Him by night and by day, and they never grow weary﴾ that is, they never tire of worshipping Him, because of their strength and strong motive to do that.

﴿Among His signs﴾ that point to His perfect might and that He alone is the Sovereign Who is in control, and that He is One,

﴿is this: you see the earth barren and desolate﴾, with no vegetation
 ﴿but when We send down rain upon it, it stirs﴾ that is, it begins to move, as plants begin to grow

«and swells», then it brings forth beautiful plants of every kind, giving life to people and the land.

«He Who gives it life» after it was dead and lifeless
 «will surely give life to the dead» and bring them forth from their graves, on the day He resurrects them
 «for verily He has power over all things». Just as it is not beyond His power to give life to the earth after its death, it is not beyond His power to give life to the dead.

﴿إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُلْحِدُونَ فِي آيَاتِنَا لَا يَخْفَوْنَ عَلَيْنَا أَفَمَنْ يُلْقَى فِي النَّارِ خَيْرٌ أَمْ مَنْ يَأْتِيَ آمِنًا
 يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ أَعْمَلُوا مَا شِئْتُمْ إِنَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ بَصِيرٌ ﴿٤٠﴾ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِالذِّكْرِ لَمَّا
 جَاءَهُمْ وَإِنَّهُ لَكُنْتُ عَزِيزٌ ﴿٤١﴾ لَا يَأْتِيهِ الْبُطْلُ مِنْ بَيْنِ يَدَيْهِ وَلَا مِنْ خَلْفِهِ تَنْزِيلٌ مِنْ
 حَكِيمٍ حَمِيدٍ ﴿٤٢﴾﴾ (سورة فصلت: ٤٠-٤٢)

- 41:40. Those who distort the meanings of Our revelations are not hidden from Us. Is one who will be thrown into the fire better, or one who will come safe on the Day of Resurrection? Do whatever you wish, for verily He sees well all that you do.
- 41:41. Those who reject the Reminder when it comes to them [will be requited for their rejection]. Verily it is an unassailable Book.
- 41:42. No falsehood can approach it from before it or from behind it; [it is] a revelation from One Who is Most Wise, Praiseworthy.

The phrase translated here as 'distort the meanings of the revelations of Allah' means not responding to them in the proper manner in any way, either by denying them, rejecting them and disbelieving in the one who brought them, or by distorting them and twisting the meaning, and trying to give them meanings that Allah never intended.

Allah (ﷻ) warns those who distort the meanings of the revelations that they are not hidden from Him; rather He is aware of their outward actions and inner thoughts, and He will requite them for their distortion in a way that matches their deeds. Hence Allah says:

﴿Is one who will be thrown into the fire﴾, such as the one who distorts the meanings of Allah's revelations ﴿better, or one who will come safe on the Day of Resurrection?﴾ that is, he will be safe from the punishment of Allah and will deserve His reward. It is well known that the latter is better.

Having clarified the difference between truth and falsehood, the path that saves from His punishment and the path that leads to doom, Allah now says:

﴿Do whatever you wish﴾: if you wish, follow the path of guidance that leads to the pleasure of your Lord and His paradise; or if you wish, follow the path of misguidance that incurs the wrath of your Lord and leads to the abode of doom.

﴿for verily He sees well all that you do﴾ and will requite you according to your attitudes and deeds. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Say: This is the truth from your Lord. So let him who will, believe; and let him who will, disbelieve...﴾ (al-Kahf 18: 29)

Then Allah says: ﴿Those who reject the Reminder﴾ that is, those who reject the Holy Qur'an which reminds people of everything that is in their best interests, in spiritual terms and in this world and the hereafter, and raises in status those who follow it,

﴿when it comes to them﴾ as a blessing from their Lord at the hands of the best and most perfect of humankind ﴿[will be requited for their rejection]. Verily it﴾ in fact ﴿is an unassailable Book﴾ that combines all the characteristics of perfection and is protected from everyone who wants to distort it or who intends ill towards it. Hence Allah says:

﴿No falsehood can approach it from before it or from behind it﴾ that is, none of the devils among humankind or the jinn can come near it to detract from it or insert anything into it that is not part of it, or to add anything to it or subtract anything from it. It was protected as it was being revealed, and its words and meanings are protected. The One Who sent it down has guaranteed to preserve it, as He says elsewhere:

﴿Verily, it is We Who have sent down the Reminder [the Qur'an], and verily it is We Who will preserve it.﴾ (al-Hijr 15: 9)

﴿[it is] a revelation from One Who is Most Wise﴾ in what He creates and commands; He does everything in an appropriate manner ﴿Praiseworthy﴾ for what He possesses of perfect and majestic attributes, and for being just and generous. Hence His Book aims to perfect wisdom, point to that which is in people's best interests and teach them how to protect themselves from harm, for which He is to be praised.

﴿مَا يُقَالُ لَكَ إِلَّا مَا قَدْ قِيلَ لِلرُّسُلِ مِنْ قَبْلِكَ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَذُو مَغْفِرَةٍ وَذُو عِقَابٍ أَلِيمٍ﴾

(سورة فصلت: ٤٣) ﴿٤٣﴾

41:43. Nothing is said to you [O Muhammad, of offensive talk] that was not said to the Messengers before you. Verily your Lord is forgiving, but stern in retribution.

﴿Nothing is said to you [O Muhammad, of offensive talk]﴾ that is uttered by those who stubbornly reject you ﴿that was not said to the Messengers before you﴾ that is, similar words were said to them. Indeed, they may have used the same wording and phrases as all previous nations who rejected the Messengers, such as their finding it a cause of amazement when they were called to devote their worship to Allah alone, with no partner or associate, and they rejected this call in every way they could. So they said:

﴿...You are but human beings like ourselves...﴾ (Yâ Seen 36: 15)

– and they demanded signs from their Messengers that they did not have to produce, and said other such words that were expressions of disbelief. They had a similar mentality, so their words were similar.

But the Messengers bore their annoyance and rejection with patience, so be patient (O Muhammad ﷺ) as those who came before you were patient.

Then Allah calls them to repent and take measures to attain forgiveness, and warns them against persisting in misguidance:

﴿Verily your Lord is forgiving﴾ that is, His forgiveness is immense and He erases thereby all sins for anyone who gives up sin and repents ﴿but stern in retribution﴾ to those who persist in sin and are arrogant.

﴿وَلَوْ جَعَلْنَاهُ قُرْءَانًا عَجَمِيًّا لَقَالُوا لَوْلَا فُصِّلَتْ آيَاتُهُ ۖ أَغَمِّيْنَا وَعَرَبِيُّ قُلْ هُوَ لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا هُدًى وَشِفَاءٌ ۖ وَالَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ فِي آذَانِهِمْ وَقْرٌ وَهُوَ عَلَيْهِمْ عَمًى ۚ أُولَٰئِكَ يُنَادُّونَ مِنْ مَّكَانٍ بَعِيدٍ ﴿٤٤﴾﴾ (سورة فُصِّلَتْ: ٤٤)

41:44. If We had made it a Qur'an in a non-Arabic language, they would have said: Why have its verses not been made clear [in Arabic]? Why in a non-Arabic [language], when he [the Prophet] is an Arab?<sup>74</sup> Say: It is, for those who believe, guidance and healing;

<sup>74</sup> This verse is connected to v. 5, which tells us that the disbelievers declared that their hearts were covered (and sealed) against the message of the Qur'an, and that there was deafness in their ears. That argument of theirs might be acceptable if the Qur'an had been in a non-Arabic language and thus incomprehensible to them, but as it has been revealed in Arabic, they had no right to say that and their argument was invalid. (ar-Râzi) and for those who do not believe, there is deafness in their ears and they are blind to what it contains [of beauty and signs]. It is as if they are being called from a far off place.

---

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of His bounty and generosity, as He sent down His Book in Arabic, to the Arab Messenger (ﷺ), in the language of his people, so that he could make the message clear to them. This is something that requires them to pay more attention to it, accept it and submit. For if He had made it a non-Arabic Qur'an, in a language other than Arabic, the disbelievers would have objected and would have said:

﴿Why have its verses not been made clear [in Arabic]?﴾ That is, why are its verses not clarified and explained?

﴿Why in a non-Arabic [language], when he [the Prophet] is an Arab?﴾ That is, how come Muhammad (ﷺ) is an Arab, yet the book is not in Arabic? That cannot happen.

Thus Allah (ﷻ) rules out everything that may be a cause of doubt for people of falsehood concerning His Book, and ascribes to it every attribute that would dictate that they should submit, but it is the believers who are guided who will benefit from it and be honoured; for others it is the opposite.

Hence He says: ﴿Say: It is, for those who believe, guidance and healing﴾ that is, it guides them to the straight path and it teaches them beneficial knowledge, by means of which perfect guidance is attained. And it is healing for them from sickness both physical and spiritual, because it deters them from bad attitudes and evil conduct, and urges them to repent sincerely, which brings cleansing from sin and healing for their hearts.

﴿and for those who do not believe﴾ in the Qur'an
 ﴿there is deafness in their ears﴾ that is, they refuse to listen and they turn away

﴿and they are blind to what it contains [of beauty and signs]﴾ and they cannot see in it any guidance or wisdom. It only increases them in misguidance, because they are the ones who rejected the truth, so they increase in blindness and misguidance.

﴿It is as if they are being called from a far off place﴾ that is, they are called to faith, but they do not respond, like one who is called when he is in a far off place, so he cannot hear the caller or respond to him. What is meant is that those who do not believe in the Qur'an do not benefit from its guidance, see by its light or gain anything good from it, because they have closed the door to guidance by turning away and disbelieving.

﴿وَلَقَدْ ءَاتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْكِتَابَ فَاخْتَلَفَ فِيهِ ۚ وَلَوْلَا كَلِمَةٌ سَبَقَتْ مِنْ رَبِّكَ لَقُضِيَ بَيْنَهُمْ وَإِنَّهُمْ لَفِي شَكٍّ مِنْهُ مُرِيبٍ ﴿٤٥﴾ مَنْ عَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَلِنَفْسِهِ ۖ وَمَنْ أَسَاءَ فَعَلَيْهَا ۚ وَمَا رَبُّكَ بِظَلَّامٍ لِلْعَبِيدِ ﴿٤٦﴾﴾ (سورة فُصِّلَتْ: ٤٥-٤٦)

41:45. We gave Moosâ the Book, but differences arose concerning it. Were it not for a prior decree from your Lord, a decisive judgement would already have been passed between them. Verily they are in grave doubt concerning it.

41:46. Whoever does righteous deeds, it is to his own benefit and whoever does evil deeds, it is to his own detriment. And your Lord is never unjust to His slaves.

﴿We gave Moosâ the Book﴾ as We have given you the Book, and the people reacted to him as they have reacted to you. People differed in that regard: some of them believed in it, and they were guided and benefited from it; some of them disbelieved and did not benefit from it. Were it not for Allah's forbearance and prior decree to delay the punishment until the appointed time, which cannot be brought forward or put back, «a decisive judgement would already have been passed between them» as soon as the disbelievers became distinct from the believers, by destroying the disbelievers immediately, because the cause of doom had become binding.

«Verily they are in grave doubt concerning it» that is, their doubt has reached such a level of gravity that they rejected it and denied it.

«Whoever does righteous deeds» which are the deeds enjoined by Allah and His Messenger (ﷺ)

«it is to his own benefit» and he will be rewarded for it in this world and the hereafter

«and whoever does evil deeds, it is to his own detriment» and he will suffer the harm and punishment thereof in this world and the hereafter.

This encourages people to do good and refrain from evil, and tells us that those who strive will benefit from their good deeds and will be harmed by their misdeeds, but no bearer of burdens will be made to carry the burden of another. «And your Lord is never unjust to His slaves» and will never let anyone carry more than his own misdeeds.

41.

Soorat Fuṣṣilat

(continued)

﴿ إِلَيْهِ يَرُدُّ عِلْمُ السَّاعَةِ وَمَا تَخْرُجُ مِنْ ثَمَرَاتٍ مِنْ أَكْمَامِهَا وَمَا تَحْمِلُ مِنْ أُنْثَى وَلَا تَضَعُ إِلَّا بِعِلْمِهِ وَيَوْمَ يُنَادِيهِمْ أَيْنَ شُرَكَائِيَ قَالُوا أَدْنَاكَ مَا مِنَّا مِنْ شَهِيدٍ ﴾ (سورة ٤٧) وَضَلَّ عَنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يَدْعُونَ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَظَنُوا مَا لَهُمْ مِنْ مَحِيصٍ ﴿٤٨﴾ (سورة)

فُصِّلَتْ: ٤٧-٤٨

41:47. He alone has knowledge of the Hour. No fruit emerges from its sheath, nor does any female conceive or give birth, except with His knowledge. On the day when Allah will call to them, [saying]: Where are My [so-called] partners? they will say: We declare to You that none of us can bear witness to that.<sup>1</sup>

41:48. Those [false gods] whom they used to call upon before will be lost from them, and they will realise that they have no escape.

Here Allah (Subḥānahu wa Ta'ālā – Glorified and Exalted is He) tells us of the vastness of His knowledge and that He alone possesses exclusive knowledge that no one else could know:

«He alone has knowledge of the Hour» that is, all of creation – the Messengers, the angels and others – refer knowledge thereof to Allah (ﷻ), and they admit that they have no way of knowing about it.

<sup>1</sup> The meanings of the verses of the Qur'an in this book (with some minor changes to the punctuation) have been translated by the translator. (Editor)

﴿No fruit emerges from its sheath﴾ – this includes the fruits of all trees, in all lands, of all kinds. No fruit of any tree emerges but He knows about it in detail.

﴿nor does any female﴾ among the children of Adam ('alayhi as-salâm – peace be upon him) or any kind of animals ﴿conceive﴾ except with His knowledge

﴿or give birth, except with His knowledge﴾. So how can the polytheists regard as equal to Allah (ﷻ) that which has no knowledge and cannot hear or see?

﴿On the day when Allah will call to them﴾ namely the polytheists, on the Day of Resurrection, rebuking them and exposing their lies. He will say to them: ﴿Where are My [so-called] partners﴾ who you claimed were My partners, and you worshipped them, and you argued in defence of your actions and opposed the Messengers for the sake of those false gods?

﴿they will say﴾, acknowledging the falseness of their gods and the falseness of their association of them with Allah: ﴿We declare to You that none of us can bear witness to that﴾ that is, we announce to You, O our Lord, so bear witness that none of us can testify to the validity of those gods and so-called partners; now we all admit the invalidity of worshipping them, and we disavow them. Hence Allah says:

﴿Those [false gods] whom they used to call upon﴾ besides Allah ﴿before will be lost from them﴾ that is, all their beliefs and deeds that they spent their lives devoting to the worship of gods other than Allah, thinking that it would benefit them and would ward off the punishment from them, and that those false gods would intercede for them with Allah, will be lost from them. All their efforts will be in vain, and their thoughts and beliefs will be proven wrong; their so-called partners will not avail them anything.

﴿and they will realise﴾ and know for certain in that situation ﴿that they have no escape﴾ that is, they have no one to save them, no helper and no refuge.

These are the consequences for those who associate others with Allah, which Allah explains to His slaves so that they may beware of ascribing partners to Him.

﴿لَا يَسْتَمُ الْإِنْسَانُ مِنْ دُعَاءِ الْخَيْرِ وَإِنْ مَسَّهُ الشَّرُّ فَيَئُوسٌ قَنُوطٌ ۚ وَلَئِنْ أَدْقَنَهُ رَحْمَةٌ مِّنَّا مِنْ بَعْدِ ضَرْأٍ مَسَّهُ لَيَقُولَنَّ هَذَا إِلَىٰ وَمَا أَظُنُّ السَّاعَةَ قَائِمَةً وَلَئِنْ رُجِعْتُ إِلَىٰ رَبِّي إِنَّ لِي عِنْدَهُ لَلْحُسْبَىٰ ۚ فَلَنُنَبِّئَنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِمَا عَمِلُوا وَلَنُذِيقَنَّهُمْ مِّنْ عَذَابٍ غَلِيظٍ ۝٥١﴾ (سورة فُصِّلَتْ: ٤٩-٥١)

- 41:49. Man never grows weary of asking for good things, but if misfortune befalls him, he is filled with despair and becomes despondent.
- 41:50. But if We give him a taste of mercy from Us after adversity had befallen him, he will surely say: This is my due, and I do not think that the Hour will ever come; but if I am brought back to my Lord, I will have with Him the best. We will surely inform those who disbelieve about all that they did, and We will surely cause them to taste a harsh punishment.
- 41:51. When We bestow blessings upon man, he turns away and distances himself [from Us], but if misfortune befalls him, he resorts to offering a great deal of supplication.

Here Allah tells us of the nature of man and that he has no patience to deal with either times of ease or times of hardship, except those whom Allah helps to attain perfection, as He says:

﴿Man never grows weary of asking for good things﴾ that is, he never tires of calling upon Allah, asking Him for riches, wealth, children and other worldly desires, and he keeps striving for that, but he is not content with a small or great amount of that. No matter what he attains, he always wants more.

﴿but if misfortune﴾ that is, harm such as sickness, poverty or any kind of calamity ﴿befalls him, he is filled with despair and becomes despondent﴾ that is, he despairs of the mercy of Allah (ﷻ) and thinks that this calamity is the one that will destroy him, and he becomes confused because the measures he took did not lead to the results he expected.

This is the case with all people except those who are patient and do righteous deeds: if good things happen to them and blessings come to them, they give thanks to Allah, but they fear that the blessings of Allah may lead to them getting carried away in sin or that they signal a respite before punishment befalls them.

But if a calamity befalls them, affecting themselves, their wealth or their children, they show patience and hope for the grace of their Lord, and they do not despair.

Then Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿But if We give him﴾ that is, man who never grows weary of asking for good things, but if misfortune befalls him, he is filled with despair and becomes despondent, ﴿a taste of mercy from Us﴾ after that misfortune that befell him, such as if Allah heals him from his sickness, or makes him independent of means after he had been poor, he does not give thanks to Allah (ﷻ); rather he transgresses and commits sin, and says: ﴿This is my due﴾ that is, it has come to me because I am qualified for it and I deserve it, ﴿and I do not think that the Hour will ever come﴾. This is denial of the resurrection on his part, and ingratitude for the blessings and mercy of which Allah has given him a taste.

﴿but if I am brought back to my Lord, I will have with Him the best﴾ that is, assuming that the Hour does come and that I am brought back to my Lord, then I will have the best with Him; just as I had blessings in this world, I will have blessings in the hereafter.

This is the greatest audacity and speaking about Allah without knowledge. Hence Allah warns him by saying: «We will surely inform those who disbelieve about all that they did, and We will surely cause them to taste a harsh» that is, very severe «punishment».

«When We bestow blessings upon man» such as good health, provision and so on

«he turns away» from his Lord and from giving thanks to Him «and distances himself [from Us]» out of self-admiration and arrogance.

«but if misfortune befalls him» such as sickness, poverty and so on, «he resorts to offering a great deal of supplication» because he has no patience. So he does not show patience at times of hardship and he does not show gratitude at times of ease, except those whom Allah guides and blesses.

﴿قُلْ أَرَأَيْتُمْ إِنْ كَانَ مِنَ عِنْدِ اللَّهِ ثُمَّ كَفَرْتُمْ بِهِ مَنْ أَضَلُّ مِمَّنْ هُوَ فِي شِقَاقٍ بَعِيدٍ ﴿٥٢﴾ سَرَّيْهِمْ ءَايَاتِنَا فِي الْأَفَاقِ وَفِي أَنْفُسِهِمْ حَتَّىٰ يَبَيِّنَ لَهُمْ أَنَّهُ الْحَقُّ أَوَلَمْ يَكْفِ بِرَبِّكَ أَنَّهُ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ شَهِيدٌ ﴿٥٣﴾ أَلَا إِنَّهُمْ فِي مِرْيَةٍ مِّن لِّقَاءِ رَبِّهِمْ ءَلَا إِنَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ مُّحِيطٌ ﴿٥٤﴾﴾ (سورة فُصِّلَتْ: ٥٢-٥٤)

41:52. Say: What do you think, if it [the Qur'an] is really from Allah but you reject it? Who is further astray than one who goes much too far in opposition?

41:53. We will show them Our signs in the universe and in their own selves, until it becomes clear to them that it [the Qur'an] is the truth. Is it not sufficient that your Lord is Witness over all things?

41:54. Indeed they are in doubt concerning the meeting with their Lord; verily He encompasses all things.

---

﴿Say﴾ to these people who reject the Qur'an and hasten to disbelieve:

﴿What do you think, if it [the Qur'an] is really from Allah﴾, beyond any shadow of a doubt,

﴿but you reject it? Who is further astray than one who goes much too far in opposition?﴾ that is, one who is stubborn towards Allah and His Messenger (ṣalla Allāhu 'alayhi wa sallam – blessings and peace be upon him), for the truth has become clear to you, but you turned away from it, and you have chosen not truth but falsehood and ignorance. Hence you are the furthest astray of people and the worst in wrongdoing.

If you doubt the soundness of the Qur'an and what it really is, then Allah will establish proof for you and will show you His signs in the universe, such as the signs in heaven and on earth, and what Allah (ﷻ) will bring about of major events that point to the truth, for the one who has deep insight and is able to see the truth

﴿and in their own selves﴾ such as what their own bodies contain of the brilliant signs of Allah and wonders of His design and amazing might. And there are more signs in the punishments that overcome the disbelievers and the victories that are granted to the believers, ﴿until it becomes clear to them﴾ through these signs, beyond a doubt, ﴿that it [the Qur'an] is the truth﴾ and that what it contains is true.

And Allah indeed did that; He showed His slaves signs through which it became clear to them that it was the truth. But it is Allah Who guides to the path of faith whomever He will, and He causes whomever He will to fail to see the truth.

﴿Is it not sufficient that your Lord is Witness over all things?﴾ that is, is the testimony of Allah, that the Qur'an is true and that the one who brought it is truthful, not sufficient for them? For Allah has testified that the Messenger (ﷺ) was indeed sincere, and He is the most truthful of witnesses. He supported him and helped him in a manner that confirmed His verbal testimony, if anyone has any doubts about it.

«Indeed they are in doubt concerning the meeting with their Lord» that is, they are in doubt about the resurrection, for they do not believe in anything but the realm of this world. Hence they do not believe in the hereafter and they do not pay attention to it.

«verily He encompasses all things» by His knowledge, power and might.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat Fuṣṣilat.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

42.

Soorat ash-Shoorâ

(Makki)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿حَمْدٌ ۝١ عَسَقَ ۝٢﴾ كَذَلِكَ يُوحَىٰ إِلَيْكَ وَإِلَى الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِكَ اللَّهُ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ
﴿٣﴾ لَهُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَهُوَ الْعَلِيُّ الْعَظِيمُ ﴿٤﴾ تَكَادُ السَّمَوَاتُ
يَتَفَطَّرْنَ مِنْ فَوْقِهِنَّ وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ يُسَبِّحُونَ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّهِمْ وَيَسْتَغْفِرُونَ لِمَنْ فِي
الْأَرْضِ ۚ أَلَا إِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْغَفُورُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿٥﴾ وَالَّذِينَ اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ أَوْلِيَاءَ اللَّهُ
حَفِيفٌ عَلَيْهِمْ وَمَا أَنْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ بِوَكِيلٍ ﴿٦﴾ وَكَذَلِكَ أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ قُرْآنًا عَرَبِيًّا لِتُنْذِرَ
أُمَّ الْقُرَىٰ وَمَنْ حَوْلَهَا وَتُنْذِرَ يَوْمَ الْجَمْعِ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهِ ۚ فَرِيقٌ فِي الْجَنَّةِ وَفَرِيقٌ فِي السَّعِيرِ
﴿٧﴾ وَلَوْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ لَجَعَلَهُمْ أُمَّةً وَاحِدَةً وَلَكِنْ يُدْخِلُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ فِي رَحْمَتِهِ ۚ وَالظَّالِمُونَ مَا
لَهُمْ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ وَلَا نَصِيرٍ ﴿٨﴾ أَمِ اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ أَوْلِيَاءَ ۚ قَالَهُ هُوَ الْوَلِيُّ وَهُوَ يُحْيِي الْمَوْتَىٰ
وَهُوَ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ﴿٩﴾ (سورة الشورى: ١-٩)

42:1. Hâ'. Meem.

42:2. 'Ayn. Seen. Qâf.

- 42:3. Thus does Allah, the Almighty, the Most Wise, send revelation to you [O Muhammad], as He did to those who came before you.
- 42:4. To Him belongs all that is in the heavens and all that is on earth, and He is the Most High, the Most Great.
- 42:5. The heavens are almost rent asunder [because of the might and majesty of the One Who is] above them, and the angels glorify and praise their Lord, and pray for forgiveness for those who are on earth. Verily it is Allah Who is the Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.
- 42:6. As for those who take others besides Him as protectors, Allah is watching them, and you are not their keeper.
- 42:7. Likewise We have revealed to you an Arabic Qur'an, so that you may warn the Mother of Cities [Makkah] and all those around it, and warn them of the Day of Gathering, concerning which there is no doubt, when some will be in paradise and some will be in the raging fire.
- 42:8. If Allah had so willed, He would have made them a single community, but Allah admits whomever He wills to His mercy, and the wrongdoers will have neither protector nor helper.
- 42:9. How could they take others as protectors besides Him? But Allah alone is the Protector, for it is He Who brings the dead to life, and He has power over all things.

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He has revealed this mighty Qur'an to a noble Prophet (ﷺ), as He sent revelation to the Prophets and Messengers who came before him. This is highlighting His favour and blessing by sending down the Books and sending the Messengers for people of both the past and the future. Muhammad (ﷺ) is not unprecedented among the Messengers, for his path is the path of those who came before him, and his character and attitude are in harmony with those of the previous Messengers. The message he has brought is similar to that which they brought, for they are all truthful and sincere, and it is all revelation from One Who is divine, Whose attributes are divinity, great majesty and immense wisdom. Both realms, upper and lower, are His dominion, under His control and subject to His commands.

﴿and He is the Most High﴾ in His essence and status, for everything is under His control

﴿the Most Great﴾ and by His greatness,

﴿The heavens are almost rent asunder [because of the might and majesty of the One Who is] above them﴾, despite their great size

﴿and the angels﴾ that is, the noble angels who are close to Allah, who submit to His greatness, are subject to His might and are humble before His Majesty

﴿glorify and praise their Lord﴾, declaring Him to be above all shortcomings, ascribing all perfection to Him

﴿and pray for forgiveness for those who are on earth﴾ for what they do that is not befitting to the might and majesty of the Lord, even though He is ﴿the Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful﴾; were it not for His forgiveness and mercy, He would have hastened to send an eradicating punishment upon the people.

The fact that He describes Himself in these terms, after stating that He sent revelation to all the Messengers in general, and to Muhammad (ﷺ) in particular, indicates that this Holy Qur'an contains evidence, proofs and signs that point to the perfect nature of the Creator and attribute to Him these sublime names, which fill the heart with knowledge of Him, love for Him, and veneration and respect for Him, and lead one to devote all kinds of worship, both outward and inward, to Him alone.

One of the gravest kinds of wrongdoing and most abhorrent kinds of speech is ascribing rivals to Allah that have no power to benefit or harm; rather they are created beings that are in need of Allah in all their affairs. Hence Allah says in the next verse:

﴿As for those who take others besides Him as protectors﴾, directing their worship to them and obeying them as they should worship and obey Allah, they are indeed turning to falsehood, for these are not protectors in a true sense.

﴿Allah is watching them﴾ and recording their deeds, and He will requite them for all their deeds, both good and evil

﴿and you are not their keeper﴾ so you will not be asked about their deeds; rather your role is to convey the message and you have done what is required of you.

Then Allah mentions His blessings to His Messenger (ﷺ) and to humankind, as He has sent down ﴿an Arabic Qur'an﴾ with clear words and meanings

﴿so that you may warn the Mother of Cities [Makkah] and all those around it﴾ that is, the cities of the Arabs, then this warning is to go further, to all of humankind

﴿and warn﴾ people ﴿of the Day of Gathering﴾ on which Allah will gather together the first and the last; and so that you may inform them that ﴿there is no doubt﴾ concerning it, and that on that day they will be divided into two categories:

﴿some will be in paradise﴾ – they are the ones who believed in Allah and believed the Messengers

﴿and some will be in the raging fire﴾ – they are the various types of disbelievers.

However, if Allah had so willed, He could have made them ﴿a single community﴾, all following guidance, because He is Omnipotent and nothing is beyond Him. But He wanted to include in His mercy whomever He will of the elite of His creation.

As for the wrongdoers who are not fit for anything good, they are deprived of divine mercy, and they will have, besides Allah, ﴿neither protector﴾ to protect them and take care of them so that they can attain what is good ﴿nor helper﴾ to ward off from them what is bad.

Those who take others as protectors besides Him and worship them have committed the most grievous error, for it is Allah Who is the protector Whose protection a person should seek by worshipping Him, obeying Him and seeking to draw near to Him by means of whatever acts of worship of all kinds he may do. Allah protects and takes care of His slaves in general terms by means of His control and by causing to happen whatever He decrees for them. And He protects and takes care of His believing slaves in particular, by bringing them forth from darkness to light, caring for them, showing kindness to them and helping them in all their affairs.

for it is He Who brings the dead to life, and He has power over all things it is He Who has control over life and death, His will is always done and He has power over all things. So it is He alone, with no partner or associate, Who deserves to be worshipped.

﴿وَمَا أَخْلَقْتُمْ فِيهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فَحُكْمُهُ﴾ إِلَى اللَّهِ ذَلِكُمُ اللَّهُ رَبِّي عَلَيْهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ
وَالَيْهِ أُنِيبُ ﴿١٠﴾ فَأَطَرُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ جَعَلَ لَكُمْ مِنْ أَنْفُسِكُمْ أَزْوَاجًا وَمِنْ
الْأَنْعَامِ أَزْوَاجًا يَذُرُوكُمْ فِيهِ لَيْسَ كَمِثْلِهِ شَيْءٌ وَهُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْبَصِيرُ ﴿١١﴾
لَهُ مَقَالِيدُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ يَبْسُطُ الرِّزْقَ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَقْدِرُ إِنَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ
عَلِيمٌ ﴿١٢﴾ (سورة الشورى: ١٠-١٢)

42:10. Whatever the subject of your differences, it is for Allah to judge. That is Allah my Lord, in Whom I put my trust and to Whom I turn, 42:11. the Originator of the heavens and the earth. He has given you spouses of your own kind, and of livestock [He has given you] pairs [of male and female]; by this means He causes you to multiply. There is nothing like unto Him, and He is the All-Hearing, All-Seeing.

42:12. To Him belong the keys of the heavens and the earth; He grants abundant provision to whomever He wills, or gives it in scant measure. Verily He has knowledge of all things.

﴿Whatever the subject of your differences﴾ concerning fundamental or minor issues of your religion on which you do not agree, ﴿it is for Allah to judge﴾ that is, it is to be referred to His Book and to the Sunnah of His Messenger (ﷺ). Whatever ruling they give is the truth, and whatever is different from that is false.

﴿That is Allah my Lord﴾ that is, just as He is the Lord, the Creator, the Provider, the Controller, so too He is the Judge Who judges between His slaves according to His laws in all their affairs.

What this verse implies is that the agreement of the Ummah constitutes definitive proof, because Allah did not instruct us to refer to Him except concerning that in which we differ. As for that on which we are agreed, the unanimous agreement of the Ummah is sufficient proof, because the Ummah as a whole is infallible and cannot agree upon error; its consensus must be in agreement with what is in the Book of Allah and the Sunnah of His Messenger (ﷺ).

﴿in Whom I put my trust﴾ that is, in my heart I rely on Him to bring what is beneficial and ward off what is harmful, and I trust Him to help me with that

﴿and to Whom I turn﴾ that is, I turn to Him with my heart and soul, in obedience to Him and worshipping Him.

Allah often mentions these two principles (trusting Allah and turning to Him) in His Book, because with both of them together one may attain perfection that is not possible without them or without one of them, such as in the verses in which He says:

﴿You [Alone] we worship, and You [Alone] we ask for help.﴾
(al-Fātiḥah 1: 5)

– and:

﴿...So worship Him [alone] and put your trust in Him...﴾ (Hood 11: 123)

﴿the Originator of the heavens and the earth﴾ that is, the One Who created them by His might, will and wisdom.

﴿He has given you spouses of your own kind﴾ so that you may find comfort in them and they may produce offspring for you, and bring other benefits to you.

﴿and of livestock [He has given you] pairs [of male and female]﴾ that is, of all types of livestock he has given you pairs, male and female, so that they may continue and increase in numbers, bringing you many benefits. Allah has made that for your sake and as a blessing to you. Hence He says:

﴿by this means He causes you to multiply﴾ that is, He causes you and your livestock to multiply, by means of giving you spouses from among yourselves and giving you livestock in pairs.

﴿There is nothing like unto Him﴾ that is, nothing of His creation resembles Him and nothing can match Him, whether in His essence, His names, His attributes or His deeds, because all of His names are beautiful, all His attributes are attributes of perfection and might, and by means of His deeds He brought into being mighty creations, with no partner. So there is nothing like unto Him, because He is unique and He alone is perfect in all aspects.

﴿and He is the All-Hearing﴾ Who hears all voices, in all languages, expressing all kinds of needs

﴿All-Seeing﴾ Who sees the movement of a black ant in a dark night on a solid rock, and He sees nourishment flowing through the veins of tiny creatures and he sees the sap flowing in the branches of the trees.

This and similar verses offer evidence for the views of ahl as-Sunnah wal-jamâ'ah<sup>2</sup> who affirm the divine attributes and deny that His attributes in any way resemble those of created beings. It offers a refutation of those who liken the divine attributes to those of created beings, in the words «There is nothing like unto Him»; and it offers a refutation of those who deny the divine attributes (by interpreting them in a manner that differs from the apparent meaning), in the words «and He is the All-Hearing, All-Seeing».

---

<sup>2</sup> Wherever possible, Arabic terms have been translated into English. In cases where we have chosen to retain the Arabic, the transliterated word or phrase is shown in italics the first time it appears in the text. =

«To Him belong the keys of the heavens and the earth» that is, to Him belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth, and in His hand are the keys of mercy, provision and blessing, both visible and hidden. All creatures are in need of Allah and need His help to attain that which is in their best interests and ward off that which is harmful, in all situations. No one has any control over anything at all.

It is Allah (ﷻ) Who gives and withholds, causes harm and brings benefit; there is no blessing that people have but it is from Him, and no one wards off harm except Him.

«Whatever Allah opens up for people of His mercy, none can withhold it, and whatever He withholds, none can grant it thereafter...» (Fâṭir 35: 2)

Hence Allah says here: «He grants abundant provision to whomever He wills» that is, He gives a great deal of different kinds of provision, however He wills

«or gives it in scant measure» that is, He restricts provision to whomever He wills, so that it is just as much as he needs, and no more. All of that is in accordance with His knowledge and wisdom. Hence He says:

«Verily He has knowledge of all things», so He knows the situation of His slaves and gives each one what is appropriate for him, in accordance with His wisdom and as dictated by His will.

---

= The term is also defined in the glossary found at the end of this book.
(Editor)

﴿ شَرَعَ لَكُمْ مِنَ الدِّينِ مَا وَصَّى بِهِ نُوحًا وَالَّذِي أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ وَمَا وَصَّيْنَا بِهِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَمُوسَى وَعِيسَى أَنْ أَقِيمُوا الدِّينَ وَلَا تَتَفَرَّقُوا فِيهِ كَبُرَ عَلَى الْمُشْرِكِينَ مَا نَدْعُوهُمْ إِلَيْهِ اللَّهُ يَجْتَبِي إِلَيْهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَهْدِي إِلَيْهِ مَنْ يُنِيبُ ﴾ (سورة

الشورى: ١٣)

- 42:13. He has prescribed for you the same religion as that which He enjoined upon Nooh – and that which We have revealed to you [O Muhammad] – and that which We enjoined upon Ibrâheem, Moosâ and ‘Eesâ: that you should uphold the religion and not be divided therein. What you are calling the polytheists to is very hard for them. Allah brings close to Himself whomever He wills, and He guides to Himself whoever turns to Him.

This is the greatest blessing that Allah has bestowed upon His slaves, that He has prescribed for them the best and purest of religions, namely the religion of Islam, which Allah has prescribed for the chosen ones among His slaves. Indeed Allah prescribed it for the best of the best, the elite of the elite, namely the Messengers of strong resolve who are mentioned in this verse, who are the highest of humankind in status and the most perfect in all aspects. The religion which Allah has prescribed for them must be appropriate to their circumstances and compatible with their perfection. Indeed the only reason why Allah perfected them and selected them is their adherence to it. Were it not for the Islamic religion, no one would ever be elevated in honour, for it is the essence of happiness and the prerequisite for attaining perfection. Islam is what is contained in this noble Book, and it is what the Book calls to of affirming divine oneness, and righteous deeds, manners and behaviour.

Hence Allah says: ﴿that you should uphold the religion﴾ that is, He has instructed you to uphold all the teachings of the religion, both fundamental and minor. You should uphold the religion yourselves and call others to do so, and you should help one another in righteousness and piety, but do not help one another in sin and transgression.

﴿and not be divided therein﴾ that is, so that you may be in agreement with regard to the fundamental and minor issues of religion. And be careful lest some issues cause division among you and cause you to become sects and groups, opposing one another, at the time when you agree on the fundamentals of your religion.

What helps in being united and avoiding division is what the Lawgiver has prescribed of general gatherings, such as the gatherings of Hajj, Eid, Jumu'ah, the five daily prayers, assembling for jihad, and other acts of worship that cannot be done properly except by coming together and not being divided.

﴿What you are calling the polytheists to is very hard for them﴾ that is, it is extremely difficult for them, because you are calling them to show devotion to Allah alone. This is like what Allah tells us about them elsewhere:

﴿When Allah alone is mentioned, the hearts of those who do not believe in the hereafter shrink with aversion, but when [gods] other than Him are mentioned, they rejoice.﴾ (az-Zumar 39: 45)

– and He tells us that they said:

﴿What! Has he made all the gods into one God? This is indeed most strange!﴾ (Sād 38: 5)

﴿Allah brings close to Himself whomever He wills﴾ that is, He chooses from among His creation whoever He knows is fit to be chosen to convey His message or to be His close friend. One aspect of this is that He chose this Ummah and favoured it over all other nations, and He chose for it the best of religions.

﴿and He guides to Himself whoever turns to Him﴾; this is the measure that a person may take so as to attain the guidance of Allah (ﷻ), namely turning to his Lord, so that his heart becomes attached to Him and He becomes his aim and goal. For a person to strive with good intentions, seeking guidance, is one of the things that make it easy for him to attain it, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿With which Allah guides all who seek His good pleasure to ways of peace and safety...﴾ (al-Mā'idah 5: 16)

This verse, which tells us that Allah ﷻ guides to Himself whoever turns to Him, along with the verse:

﴿...and follow the way of those who turn to Me...﴾ (Luqmān 31: 15)

– and knowing the character of the Ṣaḥābah (raḍiya Allāhu 'anhum – may Allah be pleased with all of them) and how sincere they were in turning to Allah, indicates that their views constitute shar'i proof, especially the Rightly-Guided Caliphs (رضي الله عنهم).

﴿وَمَا نَفَرَقُوا إِلَّا مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا جَاءَهُمُ الْعِلْمُ بَعْيًا بَيْنَهُمْ وَلَوْلَا كَلِمَةٌ سَبَقَتْ مِنْ رَبِّكَ إِلَى أَجَلٍ مُسَمًّى لَفُضِيَ بَيْنَهُمْ وَإِنَّ الَّذِينَ أُورِثُوا الْكِتَابَ مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ لَفِي شَكٍّ مِنْهُ مُرِيبٍ ﴿١٤﴾ فَلِذَلِكَ فَادْعُ وَاسْتَقِمْ كَمَا أُمِرْتَ وَلَا تَتَّبِعْ أَهْوَاءَهُمْ وَقُلْ ءَامَنْتُ بِمَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ مِنْ كِتَابٍ وَأُمِرْتُ لِأَعْدِلَ بَيْنَكُمُ اللَّهُ رَبُّنَا وَرَبُّكُمْ لَنَا أَعْمَلْنَا وَلَكُمْ أَعْمَلْنَا كُمْ لَا حُجَّةَ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَكُمُ اللَّهُ يَجْمَعُ بَيْنَنَا وَإِلَيْهِ الْمَصِيرُ

﴿١٥﴾ (سورة الشورى: ١٤-١٥)

42:14. They [the People of the Book] did not differ except after knowledge had come to them, out of mutual envy and rivalry. Were it not for a prior decree from your Lord, [giving them respite] for an appointed term, a decisive judgement would already have been passed between them. Verily those who inherited the Book after them<sup>3</sup> are in grave doubt concerning it.

<sup>3</sup> This refers to the People of the Book at the time when this verse was revealed.

42:15. Therefore call people [to the religion that Allah prescribed], and keep to the straight path as you have been commanded, and do not follow their desires; and say: I believe in all the Books that Allah has sent down, and I have been commanded to deal justly with you [all]. Allah is our Lord and your Lord. We have our deeds and you have your deeds. Let there be no [further] argument between us and you;<sup>4</sup> Allah will bring us together, and unto Him is the return [of all].

Having commanded the Muslims to be united in their religion, and forbidden them to be divided, here Allah tells them that they should not take it for granted that they will remain united just because Allah has sent down the Book to them, for the People of the Book did not become divided until Allah sent down to them the Book which required them to be united, but they did the opposite of what their Book instructed them to do. All of that stemmed from transgression and enmity on their part, because of the mutual rivalry and envy among them. Grudges and ill feeling arose among them, which led to dissent and differences. So beware, O Muslims, lest you become like them.

﴿Were it not for a prior decree from your Lord﴾ to delay the punishment that would destroy them

﴿for an appointed term, a decisive judgement would already have been passed between them﴾. But His wisdom and forbearance dictated that the punishment should be delayed in their case.

﴿Verily those who inherited the Book after them﴾ that is, those who became their successors, the people of knowledge among them,

﴿are in grave doubt concerning it﴾ that is, they have many doubts that cause differences among them. Just as their forebears differed out of mutual envy and rivalry, their successors differed because of doubts, and all of them are partners in blameworthy differences.

<sup>4</sup> After the truth has been established, there is no room for further argument.

«Therefore call people» to the true religion and the straight path that Allah revealed in His Books and with which He sent His Messengers. Call your nation to it and urge them to follow it, and strive against those who do not accept it.

«and keep to the straight path» yourself «as you have been commanded» that is, by complying with the commands of Allah, without going to extremes or being negligent, in obedience to the commands of Allah and heeding His prohibitions, and persist in that. Thus Allah instructed him to perfect himself by adhering to the straight path, and to perfect others by calling them to that.

It is well known that a command to the Messenger (ﷺ) is a command to his Ummah, if there is nothing to indicate that it is only for him.

«and do not follow their desires» that is, the desires of those who deviate from the religion, such as the disbelievers and the hypocrites, whether that is by following them in some of their religion or by refraining from calling people to Allah or not adhering to the straight path. If you were to follow their desires after the knowledge that has come to you, then you would surely be in the wrong (2: 145). He did not say “do not follow their religion” because their original religion, that Allah had prescribed for them, was the religion of all the Messengers, but they did not follow it; rather they followed their whims and desires and they took their religion as a mockery and a mere game (7: 51).

«and say» to them, when they argue with you:
«I believe in all the Books that Allah has sent down» that is, let your argument with them be based on this great principle that highlights the noble nature of Islam, and indicates that it supersedes all other religions and that the religion that the People of the Book claim to follow is in fact part of Islam. This teaches us that if the People of the Book argue on the basis of belief in some of the Books or some of the Messengers, but not others, that is not to be accepted from them, because according to the Book to which they call people and the Messenger whom they claim to follow it is required to believe in this Qur'an and the one who brought it. Our Book and our Messenger only instruct us to believe in Moosā and 'Eesā, and in the Torah and Gospel, that it tells us about and confirms, and tells us that these books confirm its soundness.

With regard to the Torah and Gospel, and the description they give of Moosā and 'Eesā, which is not in accordance with what is mentioned in our Book, Allah did not instruct us to believe in that.

﴿and I have been commanded to deal justly with you [all]﴾ that is, when judging concerning that wherein you differ. So your enmity and resentment, O People of the Book, do not prevent me from judging between you justly. Part of being just when judging between people who hold differing views, whether they are People of the Book or otherwise, is to accept what they have of truth and reject what they have of falsehood.

﴿Allah is our Lord and your Lord﴾ that is, He is the Lord of all, and you are not closer to Him than us.

﴿We have our deeds and you have your deeds﴾, both good and evil
 ﴿Let there be no [further] argument between us and you﴾ that is, after the facts have become clear, and truth has become distinct from falsehood, and guidance from misguidance, there is no longer any room for argument, because the purpose of arguing is only to distinguish truth from falsehood, so that the person of mature thinking will be guided, and proof will be established against the misguided. This does not mean that the People of the Book are not to be engaged in argument. How could that be the case, when Allah says:

﴿Do not dispute with the People of the Book except in the most courteous manner...﴾ (al-'Ankaboot 29: 46)

Rather what is meant is what we have mentioned.

﴿Allah will bring us together, and unto Him is the return [of all]﴾ on the Day of Resurrection, when He will requite each person for his deeds, at which time it will become clear who is sincere and who is lying.

﴿وَالَّذِينَ يُحَاجُّونَ فِي اللَّهِ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا اسْتَجِيبَ لَهُمْ جُمُوعُهُمْ دَاحِضَةٌ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ وَعَلَيْهِمْ غَضَبٌ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ شَدِيدٌ﴾ (سورة الشورى: ١٦)

42:16. As for those who argue against [the religion of] Allah after it has been accepted, their argument carries no weight with their Lord; they have incurred divine wrath and theirs will be a severe punishment.

This is connected to the words (in the previous verse): ﴿Let there be no [further] argument between us and you﴾ (42: 15). Here Allah states that ﴿those who argue against [the religion of] Allah﴾ on the basis of false arguments and contradictory specious arguments

﴿after it has been accepted﴾ that is, after people of mature thinking and reason responded to the call of Allah because of what became clear to them of definitive proof and evidence. As for these people who argue against the truth after it has become clear, ﴿their argument carries no weight with their Lord﴾, because it is a rejection of the truth, and everything that is contrary to the truth is false.

﴿they have incurred divine wrath﴾ because of their sins and their turning away from and rejecting the evidence and clear signs of Allah ﴿and theirs will be a severe punishment﴾ which is the impact of divine wrath upon them. This is the punishment of everyone who argues against the truth on the basis of falsehood.

﴿ اللَّهُ الَّذِي أَنْزَلَ الْكِتَابَ بِالْحَقِّ وَالْمِيزَانَ وَمَا يُدْرِيكَ لَعَلَّ السَّاعَةَ قَرِيبٌ ﴿١٧﴾ يَسْتَعْجِلُ بِهَا الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِهَا وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا مُشْفِقُونَ مِنْهَا وَيَعْلَمُونَ أَنَّهَا الْحَقُّ أَلا إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُمارُونَ فِي السَّاعَةِ لَفِي ضَلَالٍ بَعِيدٍ ﴿١٨﴾ ﴾

(سورة الشورى: ١٧-١٨)

- 42:17. It is Allah Who has sent down the Book with the truth and justice. How could you know? The Hour may well be near at hand.
- 42:18. Those who do not believe in it seek to hasten it, whereas those who believe are apprehensive about it and know that it is the truth. Verily those who dispute concerning the Hour have indeed gone far astray.

Having stated that His proof and signs are clear, as anyone in whom there is any good responded to them, Allah now mentions the basis and foundation of that evidence; in fact all signs that Allah sent to people are based on that foundation:

﴿It is Allah Who has sent down the Book with the truth and justice﴾. The Book is this great Qur'an, which was sent down with the truth and which contains truth and certainty. All of it is clear verses and clear proof that speaks of all issues of divinity and religious beliefs. So it discusses the best of issues and presents the clearest of proof.

Then Allah (ﷻ) says, in order to alarm those deniers who seek to hasten the onset of the Hour: ﴿How could you know? The Hour may well be near at hand﴾ that is, no one knows how far off it is or when it will begin, so it may be expected at any time.

﴿Those who do not believe in it seek to hasten it﴾ out of stubborn disbelief, trying to outwit their Lord

«whereas those who believe are apprehensive about it» that is, they are afraid because of their belief in it and their knowledge of what it will involve of requital for deeds. Their fear is due to their knowledge of their Lord, for they fear that their deeds will not save them or lead them to a place of happiness. Hence Allah says:

«and» they «know that it is the truth» concerning which there is no doubt.

«Verily those who dispute concerning the Hour» that is, after doubting it they disputed with the Messengers and their followers, demanding proof of it. They have gone far astray in stubbornness and in arguing in a manner that is not even close to being right and proper; rather it is far removed from that.

Who could be further astray than one who disbelieves in the realm that is real in a true sense, namely the realm that was created to remain and exist forever? It is the realm of requital in which Allah will make manifest His justice and grace. Indeed this present realm, in comparison to it, is like a rider who rests in the shade of a tree, then moves on and leaves it behind. It is a realm to pass through, not a place in which to settle.

They believe in this transient realm because they see it and experience it, and they disbelieve in the hereafter which is mentioned in all the divinely-revealed Books, and of which the noble Messengers and their followers spoke, who are the most mature of people in thinking, the most well versed in knowledge and the smartest and brightest.

﴿اللَّهُ لَطِيفٌ بِعِبَادِهِ، يَرْزُقُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ وَهُوَ الْقَوِيُّ الْعَزِيزُ ﴿١٩﴾ مَنْ كَانَ يُرِيدُ
حَرْثَ الْآخِرَةِ نَزِدْ لَهُ فِي حَرْثِهِ، وَمَنْ كَانَ يُرِيدُ حَرْثَ الدُّنْيَا نُؤْتِهِ مِنْهَا وَمَا لَهُ فِي

الْآخِرَةِ مِنْ نَصِيبٍ ﴿٢٠﴾﴾ (سورة الشورى: ١٩-٢٠)

42:19. Allah is kind towards His slaves; He grants provision to whomever He wills, and He is the Strong, the Almighty.

42:20. Whoever seeks the harvest of the hereafter, We will increase for him his harvest; and whoever seeks the harvest of this world, We will give him thereof [what is already decreed for him], but he will have no share in the hereafter.

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of His kindness to His slaves, so that they may know Him, love Him, and seek His kindness and generosity. Another shade of meaning of the word lateef (translated here as «kind») indicates that He knows what is in their hearts and minds, which leads His slaves – especially the believers – to that which is good for them in a manner that they do not know or anticipate.

One aspect of His kindness to His believing slave is that He guides him to that which is good in ways that never cross his mind, by means of what He makes available to him of causes that lead him to that, such as creating in him the love of truth and submission to it, and His inspiring His noble angels to help the believers to be steadfast, and urge them to do good, and make truth fair-seeming in their hearts in order to motivate them to follow it.

Another aspect of His kindness is that He enjoins the believers to do communal acts of worship which strengthen their resolve and motivate them, and lead them to compete in doing good and seeking it and to follow one another's example.

A third aspect of His kindness is that He has made available to His slave every means that may form a barrier between him and sin, to the extent that if Allah (ﷻ) knows that worldly gain, wealth, leadership and other things for which people compete in this world could cause His slave to turn away from obedience to Him or make him negligent or lead him into sin, He diverts it from him and restricts his provision. Hence He says here: «He grants provision to whomever He wills» according to what is dictated by His wisdom and subtle knowledge

﴿and He is the Strong, the Almighty﴾ to Whom all power belongs, so no created being has any power or strength except through Him, to Whom all things submit.

﴿Whoever seeks the harvest of the hereafter﴾ that is, its rewards and gains, so he believes in it and strives hard for that, ﴿We will increase for him his harvest﴾ by greatly multiplying the reward for his deeds, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿But whoever seeks the hereafter and strives for it as it should be striven for, and is a [true] believer – such are the ones whose effort will be appreciated.﴾ (al-Isrâ' 17: 19)

Nevertheless, his share of worldly provision will inevitably come to him.

﴿and whoever seeks the harvest of this world﴾ in the sense that this world is his only aim, and he does not give precedence to the hereafter, as he has no hope for its reward and does not fear its punishment, ﴿We will give him thereof﴾ his share that is already decreed for him ﴿but he will have no share in the hereafter﴾ for he will be deprived of paradise and its delights, and he will deserve hell and its blazing fire.

This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Those who seek the life of this world and its splendour – We will repay them in full in this life for their deeds, and they will not be given less than they deserve. Those are the ones for whom there will be nothing in the hereafter but the fire. There all their efforts will come to nothing, and all they did will be in vain.﴾ (Hood 11: 15-16)

﴿أَمْ لَهُمْ شُرَكَاءُ شَرَعُوا لَهُمْ مِنَ الدِّينِ مَا لَمْ يَأْذَنْ بِهِ اللَّهُ وَلَوْلَا كَلِمَةُ
الْفَصْلِ لَفُضِيَ بَيْنَهُمْ وَإِنَّ الظَّالِمِينَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿١٦﴾ تَرَى الظَّالِمِينَ
مُشْفِقِينَ مِمَّا كَسَبُوا وَهُمْ وَاقِعٌ بِهِمْ وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا

الصَّلَاحَاتِ فِي رَوْضَاتِ الْجَنَّاتِ لَهُمْ مَا يَشَاءُونَ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ ذَلِكَ هُوَ
 الْفَضْلُ الْكَبِيرُ ﴿٢٢﴾ ذَلِكَ الَّذِي يُبَشِّرُ اللَّهُ عِبَادَهُ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ قُلْ لَا
 أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ أَجْرًا إِلَّا الْمَوَدَّةَ فِي الْقُرْبَىٰ وَمَن يَقْرِضْ حَسَنَةً نَّزِدْ لَهُ فِيهَا حُسْنًا إِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ
 شَكُورٌ ﴿٢٣﴾ (سورة الشورى: ٢١-٢٣)

- 42:21. Or do they have partners<sup>5</sup> who have prescribed for them a religion for which Allah has not given any authority? Had it not been for a prior decree of respite, a decisive judgement would already have been passed between them. Verily for the wrongdoers there will be a painful punishment.
- 42:22. You will see the wrongdoers filled with apprehension about what they have earned, but [the requital thereof] will inevitably befall them. But those who believe and do righteous deeds will be in the meadows of paradise. They will have all that they wish for with their Lord; that is the great bounty.
- 42:23. That is [the bounty] of which Allah gives glad tidings to His slaves who believe and do righteous deeds. Say: No recompense do I ask of you for this, except that you should be kind to me for my kinship with you. Whoever does a good deed, We will increase its merit for him. Verily Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Appreciative.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that the polytheists took their partners as allies, and they had something in common with them, namely disbelief and deeds based on disbelief. These allies were the devils among humankind, who call others to disbelief; they «prescribed for them a religion for which Allah has not given any authority», involving polytheism and innovation, forbidding that which Allah had permitted, permitting that which Allah had forbidden, and other matters as dictated by their whims and desires.

<sup>5</sup> The partners are the false gods, idols, or devils among jinn and humans who made fair-seeming to them the ascription of partners to Allah and the denial of the resurrection, and encouraged them to focus only on this world.

No doubt true religion cannot be anything but what Allah (ﷻ) has prescribed so that people may follow it and draw near to Him thereby. In principle there should be no one who prescribes anything that was not prescribed by Allah for His Messenger (ﷺ), so how about these evildoers who have in common with their forefathers their adherence to disbelief?

﴿Had it not been for a prior decree of respite﴾ that is, were it not for the appointed term set by Allah, and His decree that He would give them respite until that time, He would have passed judgement among them immediately by rewarding those who are in the right and destroying those who are in the wrong, because the justification for their destruction is present. But ahead of them lies the painful punishment in the hereafter, for these and for all other wrongdoers.

On that day, ﴿You will see the wrongdoers﴾ that is, those who wronged themselves by disbelieving and committing sins ﴿filled with apprehension﴾ that is, afraid and filled with dread ﴿about what they have earned﴾ lest they be punished for it.

When a person is afraid, that which he fears may or may not happen to him. Therefore Allah confirms here that there ﴿will inevitably befall them﴾ the punishment that they fear, because they did that which incurs the punishment, without anything to offset it, such as repentance and so on, and they have reached the point where there is no longer any respite or postponement.

﴿But those who believe﴾ with all their hearts in Allah and in His Books and His Messengers, and what they brought ﴿and do righteous deeds﴾ which includes both beliefs and physical actions, obligatory and recommended, they will be ﴿in the meadows of paradise﴾. So do not ask about the beauty of those verdant meadows and what they contain of flowing rivers, green grass, beautiful views, fruitful trees, singing birds, melodious voices, and meeting loved ones and enjoying their company to the fullest.

They are gardens that will forever increase in beauty and splendour, and their people will never tire of delighting in their pleasures.

«They will have all that they wish for» that is, in those gardens; whatever they want they will get, and whatever they ask for they will receive, such as no eye has seen, no ear has heard, nor has it ever crossed the mind of man.

«that is the great bounty». Can there be any bounty greater than attaining the pleasure of Allah (ﷻ) and the joy of being close to Him in paradise?

«That is [the bounty] of which Allah gives glad tidings to His slaves who believe and do righteous deeds» that is, these are great glad tidings, the greatest of all, given by the Most Merciful, Most Gracious, at the hands of the best of His creation, to those who believe and do righteous deeds. This is the most sublime of goals and the means that lead to that goal are the best of means.

«Say: No recompense do I ask of you for this» that is, for conveying this Qur'an to you and calling you to follow its rulings. I do not want to take your wealth or become your leader, or seek any other aims, «except that you should be kind to me for my kinship with you».

It may be that what is meant is: I am not asking you for any recompense for this except one thing, which is in your favour, and will benefit you, namely that you should love me because of the ties of kinship between us, and this is a kind of love that is extra to the love (of the Prophet (ﷺ)) that is required by faith. Loving the Messenger (ﷺ) on the basis of faith, and giving precedence to love of him over love of anyone else after Allah, is required of every Muslim. But he asked these people for something in addition to that, which was to love him on the basis of kinship, because he began his mission by calling the closest of people to him, to the extent that it was said that there was no one among the clans of Quraysh that did not have ties of kinship to the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ).

This exception indicates that he was not asking them for any recompense at all, except something that would benefit them, so it was not a recompense for him at all; rather he was rewarding them.

«Whoever does a good deed» such as prayer, fasting, Hajj or treating people kindly,

«We will increase its merit for him» that is, Allah will give him a sense of comfort and make things easy for him, and that good deed will be a cause of doing another good deed. Thus the good deeds of the believer will increase, and he will rise in status with Allah and with His creation, and will attain reward in this world and the hereafter.

«Verily Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Appreciative» – He forgives major sins, no matter how great they are, when one repents from them, and He appreciates a small good deed by giving a great reward for it. By His forgiveness He forgives sins and conceals faults, and by His appreciation He accepts good deeds and multiplies their reward greatly.

﴿أَمْ يَقُولُونَ افْتَرَىٰ عَلَى اللَّهِ كَذِبًا فَإِنْ يَشَأِ اللَّهُ يَخْتِمْ عَلَىٰ قَلْبِكَ وَيَمْحُ اللَّهُ الْبَاطِلَ وَيُخَيِّقُ الْحَقَّ يَكَلِّمُنِيهِ إِنَّهُ عَلِيمُ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ﴾ (سورة الشورى: ٢٤)

42:24. Or do they say: He has fabricated lies against Allah? But if Allah so willed, He could seal up your heart. Allah eliminates falsehood and establishes the truth by His words. Verily He knows well what is in [people's] hearts.

That is, do those who reject the Messenger (ﷺ) say, audaciously and mendaciously: «He has fabricated lies against Allah», thus making the worst of accusations against you? They accused you of fabricating lies against Allah by claiming to be a Prophet and by attributing to Allah that which He had nothing to do with, when they were well aware of your truthfulness and honesty; how can they dare to tell such blatant lies?

In fact by doing this they also transgressed against Allah, for it is an implicit criticism of Him for giving you full authority and control over this great call which – according to their claim – is the greatest mischief on earth, for Allah allowed him to proclaim this call and attribute it to Him, then He supported him with clear miracles, definitive proof, clear victories and dominance of those who opposed him. Allah (ﷻ) could have put an end to this call from the outset and wiped it out, by sealing up the heart of the Messenger (ﷺ) so that he would not be able to understand anything and no goodness would enter his heart. If He had sealed up his heart, the matter would have come to a complete halt.

This definitively points to the soundness of the message brought by the Messenger (ﷺ), and is the strongest testimony from Allah in support of what he said; there can be no testimony greater or stronger than that. Hence by His wisdom and mercy, and in accordance with the way He always deals with things, Allah erases falsehood and removes it; even if it has the upper hand sometimes, it will ultimately diminish.

﴿and establishes the truth by His words﴾ – one way that Allah uses to establish and strengthen the truth is that He allows falsehood to stand up to it, then when it stands up to the truth, truth attacks it by presenting its proofs and evidence. Thus truth will make manifest His light and guidance, because of which falsehood will diminish and be suppressed, and its falseness will become apparent to everyone, whilst the truth is manifested and is made clear for everyone.

﴿Verily He knows well what is in [people's] hearts﴾ that is, what there is in them of good and evil, and what they are concealing and not disclosing.

﴿وَهُوَ الَّذِي يَقْبَلُ التَّوْبَةَ عَنْ عِبَادِهِ وَيَعْفُو عَنِ السَّيِّئَاتِ وَيَعْلَمُ مَا تَفْعَلُونَ ﴿٢٥﴾ وَيَسْتَجِيبُ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ وَيَزِيدُهُمْ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ ؕ وَالْكَافِرُونَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ شَدِيدٌ ﴿٢٦﴾ وَلَوْ بَسَطَ اللَّهُ الرِّزْقَ لِعِبَادِهِ لَبَغَوْا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَكِنْ يُنْزِلُ بِقَدَرِ مَا يَشَاءُ إِنَّهُ بِعِبَادِهِ خَبِيرٌ بَصِيرٌ ﴿٢٧﴾ وَهُوَ الَّذِي يُنْزِلُ الْغَيْثَ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا قَنَطُوا وَيَنْشُرُ رَحْمَتَهُ ۚ وَهُوَ الْوَلِيُّ الْحَمِيدُ ﴿٢٨﴾﴾ (سورة الشورى: ٢٥-٢٨)

- 42:25. It is He Who accepts repentance from His slaves and pardons bad deeds, and He knows all that you do.
- 42:26. He responds to [the supplication of] those who believe and do righteous deeds, and gives them yet more out of His bounty. But as for the disbelievers, theirs will be a severe punishment.
- 42:27. If Allah were to grant abundant provision to [all] His slaves, they would indeed transgress all bounds [and commit much injustice] in the land; but He sends it down in due measure as He wills. Verily He is well aware of His slaves and sees them all.
- 42:28. It is He Who sends down the [much-needed] rain after they have lost all hope, and spreads His mercy far and wide. And He is the Protector, Worthy of all praise.

This highlights the perfect generosity and immense kindness of Allah (ﷻ), as He accepts the repentance of His slaves when they give up their sins, regret them and resolve not to go back to them, if they seek thereby the pleasure of their Lord. Allah accepts their repentance after their doom had become due as a result of their committing sin, and after punishments in this world were carried out as prescribed in Sharia.

﴿and pardons bad deeds﴾; He erases them and erases what they leave of shame and what they incur of punishment. The one who repents is restored to honour before Him, as if he never did those bad deeds, and He loves him and enables him to do that which brings him close to Him.

Because repentance is one of the great deeds that may be perfected because of complete sincerity and resolve, or it may be imperfect if sincerity is lacking, or it may be invalid if the aim is to attain some worldly goal, and because the place of repentance is the heart which no one knows except Allah, He concludes this verse with the words: ﴿and He knows all that you do﴾.

Allah calls all His slaves to turn to Him and repent from their shortcomings, and according to their response, people are divided into two categories:

The first category is those who respond, whom He describes in the following verse: ﴿He responds to [the supplication of] those who believe and do righteous deeds﴾ that is, they respond to their Lord and do what He calls them to do; they submit to Him and answer His call, because what they have of faith and righteous deeds motivates them to do that. Once they respond to Him, Allah responds to them and shows appreciation to them, for He is the Oft-Forgiving, Appreciative.

By His grace, He gives them more, by helping them and giving them energy to do righteous deeds, and He gives them a multiple reward, far greater than what they deserve for their good deeds, granting them reward and the great triumph.

As for those who do not respond to Allah, namely those who stubbornly disbelieve in Him and in His Messengers, ﴿theirs will be a severe punishment﴾ in this world and the hereafter.

Then Allah tells us that by His kindness to His slaves, He does not bestow on them a great deal of worldly provision that would be detrimental to their religious commitment:

﴿If Allah were to grant abundant provision to [all] His slaves, they would indeed transgress all bounds [and commit much injustice] in the land» that is, they would neglect their duties towards Allah and would focus on indulging in worldly pleasures, and abundant wealth would make them concentrate on their desires, even if that involved sin and wrongdoing.

«but He sends it down in due measure as He wills» according to what is dictated by His knowledge and wisdom.

«Verily He is well aware of His slaves and sees them all» as it says in some reports that Allah (ﷻ) says:

«Among My slaves are those whose faith cannot be sound except through wealth, and if I were to make them poor, their faith would be corrupted. And among My slaves are those whose faith cannot be sound except through poverty, and if I were to make them rich, their faith would be corrupted. And among My slaves are those whose faith cannot be sound except through good health, and if I were to make them ill, it would corrupt their faith. And among My slaves are those whose faith cannot be sound except through sickness, and if I were to give them good health, their faith would be corrupted. I control the affairs of My slaves according to My knowledge of what is in their hearts, for verily I am All-Aware, All-Seeing.» (Recorded by at-Ṭabarānī; graded weak by al-Albānī)<sup>6</sup>

«It is He Who sends down the [much-needed] rain» that is, abundant rain that is much needed by the land and the people

«after they have lost all hope» and rain had ceased for a while, so they thought that the rain would not come and they despaired and

---

<sup>6</sup> All hadiths in this text have been checked and verified by IIPH's researchers. It is rare, but it does happen that a hadith is not verifiable within the timeframe of researching and editing the book. In that case, a decision is made by the editorial board as to whether or not to include the hadith. It is IIPH's policy not to include weak hadiths or fabricated (fake) hadiths in our publications. If a weak hadith is included in any text, it is only because the author of the book discusses it as a weak hadith. (Editor) did things to try to bring it. So Allah sends down the much-needed rain and thereby «spreads His mercy far and wide», by bringing forth provision for humans and animals, so that they appreciate it greatly, and they rejoice in it and feel happy.

«And He is the Protector» Who protects and takes care of His slaves in all ways, looking after their interests both spiritual and worldly «Worthy of all praise» for His protection and control, worthy of all praise for His perfect attributes and for what He bestows on His creation of all kinds of favours.

﴿وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ خَلْقُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا مِنْ دَابَّةٍ وَهُوَ عَلَىٰ جَمْعِهِمْ إِذَا يَشَاءُ قَدِيرٌ﴾ (سورة الشورى: ٢٩)

42:29. Among His signs is the creation of the heavens and the earth, and what He has scattered throughout them of all kinds of creatures. And He has the power to gather them together whenever He wills.

That is, among the signs of His great might, and that He will bring the dead back to life «is the creation of the heavens and the earth» despite their greatness and vastness. This is indicative of His might and vast power. What is seen in both of them of precision and perfection is indicative of His wisdom, and what they contain of benefits that serve people's interests is indicative of His mercy. This demonstrates that He alone is deserving of all kinds of worship, and that the so-called divinity of all others is false.

«and what He has scattered throughout them» that is, what He has distributed throughout the heavens and the earth of all kinds of creatures which Allah has made to be of service and benefit to His slaves.

﴿And He has the power to gather them together﴾ that is, to bring all creatures back together after their death, for the standing on the Day of Resurrection

﴿whenever He wills﴾. His power and will are fit for that purpose, but to believe that this will happen is subject to whether there is a truthful divine text to this effect. It is known that the reports from the Messengers and the texts of the divine books that were revealed to them all point to the fact that this will happen.

﴿وَمَا أَصَابَكُمْ مِنْ مُصِيبَةٍ فِيمَا كَسَبَتْ أَيْدِيكُمْ وَيَعْفُوا عَنْ كَثِيرٍ ﴿٣٠﴾ وَمَا أَنْتُمْ بِمُعْجِزِينَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا لَكُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ وَلَا نَصِيرٍ ﴿٣١﴾﴾ (سورة

الشورى: ٣٠-٣١)

42:30. Whatever calamity befalls you is because of the deeds that your own hands have wrought, but He overlooks much.

42:31. You can never escape [Allah's punishment] on earth, and besides Allah you have neither protector nor helper.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that no calamity befalls people, affecting their health, property, children and what they love and is dear to them, but it is because of what their own hands have sent forth of evil deeds, but what Allah pardons is much more than that. Allah does not wrong people; rather they wrong themselves.

﴿If Allah were to take humankind to task for what they have earned, He would not leave on the face of [the earth] a single living creature...﴾ (Fāfir 35: 45)

The delay in the punishment is not due to neglect or incapability on His part.

«You can never escape [Allah's punishment] on earth» that is, you cannot escape the power that Allah has over you; rather you are helpless on earth, for you cannot resist what Allah wills concerning you

«and besides Allah you have neither protector» to protect you and bring you benefits

«nor helper» to ward off harm from you.

﴿وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ الْجَوَارِ فِي الْبَحْرِ كَالْأَعْلَامِ ﴿٣٢﴾ إِنْ يَشَأْ يُسْكِنِ الرِّيحَ فَيَظْلَلْنَ رَوَاكِدَ عَلَى ظَهْرِهِ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّكُلِّ صَبَّارٍ شَكُورٍ ﴿٣٣﴾ أَوْ يُوقِفَهُنَّ بِمَا كَسَبْنَ وَيَعْفُ عَنْ كَثِيرٍ ﴿٣٤﴾ وَيَعْلَمَ الَّذِينَ يُجَادِلُونَ فِي آيَاتِنَا مَا لَهُمْ مِنْ نَجِيصٍ ﴿٣٥﴾﴾ (سورة الشورى: ٣٢-٣٥)

42:32. Among His signs are the ships, sailing on the sea like mountains.

42:33. If He so willed, He could still the wind, so that they would remain motionless on its surface. Surely in that there are signs for every steadfastly patient and deeply thankful person.

42:34. Or He could cause them to sink on account of their [passengers'] misdeeds, but He overlooks much.

42:35. Then those who argue against Our signs will know that they have no escape.<sup>7</sup>

That is, among the signs of His mercy and care for His slaves «are the ships, sailing on the sea» this includes all kinds of ships, driven by engines or under sail, that are so big that they are «like mountains».

<sup>7</sup> That is, when they are in the middle of the sea and strong winds begin to blow from all directions – or, conversely, their ship remains motionless for lack of wind – at that point they will realise that they have no one to turn to except Allah, and no one can save them except Him, so they will turn to Him with utter sincerity. (al-Qurtubi)

Allah has made the deep sea to be of service to the ships, and He protects them from the tossing of the high waves. He causes the ships to carry you and your many belongings to distant lands and remote regions, and He has made available for the ships all the means that help them to be of service to you.

Then He highlights these means further: ﴿If He so willed, He could still the wind﴾ that Allah has made the means of moving the ships ﴿so that they﴾ namely the ships ﴿would remain motionless﴾ on the surface of the sea, not moving forwards or backwards. This also applies to ships that are driven by engines, because they are also affected by the wind.

If Allah so willed, He could cause the ships to sink, because of the deeds of their passengers; He could drown them in the sea and destroy them, but He is forbearing and overlooks much.

﴿Surely in that there are signs for every steadfastly patient and deeply thankful person﴾ that is, for the one who has great patience in putting up with what he finds burdensome or difficult, so he forces himself to bear it with patience, whether it is hardship in doing acts of obedience or in restraining himself from sin, or restraining himself from becoming discontent in the face of calamities. And he is thankful at times of ease and when blessings come, acknowledging the blessings of his Lord, humbling himself before Him and striving to please Him. Such is the one who benefits from the signs of Allah.

As for the one who does not have patience and is not grateful for the blessings of Allah, this is the one who is negligent or heedless, and he does not benefit from the signs of Allah.

Then Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿Then those who argue against Our signs﴾ and try to invalidate them by their falsehood ﴿will know that they have no escape﴾ that is, no one will save them from what will befall them of punishment.

﴿ مَا أُوتِيتُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فَمَتَّعُ الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا وَمَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ خَيْرٌ وَأَبْقَى لِلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ يَتَوَكَّلُونَ ﴾ (٣٦) وَالَّذِينَ يَحْتَسِبُونَ كَثِيرًا أَإِلَٰهًا إِلَّا نَحْمُ وَالْفَوَاحِشَ وَإِذَا مَا غَضِبُوا هُمْ يَغْفِرُونَ ﴿٣٧﴾ وَالَّذِينَ اسْتَجَابُوا لِرَبِّهِمْ وَأَقَامُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَأَمْرُهُمْ شُورَىٰ بَيْنَهُمْ وَمِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ يُنفِقُونَ ﴿٣٨﴾ وَالَّذِينَ إِذَا أَصَابَهُمُ الْبَغْيُ هُمْ يَنْتَصِرُونَ ﴿٣٩﴾ (سورة الشورى: ٣٦-٣٩)

- 42:36. Whatever you have been given is but the enjoyment of the life of this world; but that which is with Allah is better and more lasting, for those who believe and put their trust in their Lord;
- 42:37. and who avoid major sins and shameful deeds, and, when angered, are willing to forgive;
- 42:38. and who respond to their Lord and establish prayer, and conduct their affairs by mutual consultation, and spend out of what We have provided for them;
- 42:39. and, when they are wronged, stand up for themselves [and respond in kind].

This is aimed at making people lose interest in this world and have a greater interest in the hereafter, by mentioning deeds that may help one to attain that.

﴿Whatever you have been given﴾ of power, leadership, wealth, sons, good health and physical well-being ﴿is but the enjoyment of the life of this world﴾ and its imperfect and transient pleasures

﴿but that which is with Allah﴾ of great reward and eternal bliss
 ﴿is better﴾ than the pleasures of this world, and there is no comparison between them.

﴿and more lasting﴾ because it is bliss that is not imperfect or tainted with distress, and it will never depart.

Then Allah tells us for whom this reward is: it is ﴿for those who believe and put their trust in their Lord﴾ that is, they combine sound faith which is based on righteous deeds, both outward and inward, with trust in Allah, which is the means of achieving all good deeds. Any deed that is not accompanied by trust in Allah is imperfect. This trust means relying with all one's heart on Allah to bring what one loves and ward off what one dislikes, whilst having confidence in Him.

﴿and who avoid major sins and shameful deeds﴾; the difference between major sins and shameful deeds – although both are major sins – is that shameful deeds are major sins to which there is a natural inclination, such as fornication and the like, whereas major sins are not like that. This applies when they are mentioned together; when either of them is mentioned on its own, then the other is included with it.

﴿and, when angered, are willing to forgive﴾ that is, they have attained such good manners and attitudes that forbearance has become second nature to them, to the extent that if someone angers them with his words or deeds, they suppress their anger and do not act on it; rather they forgive him and do not respond to bad treatment except with kindness, forgiveness and tolerance.

This forgiveness and tolerance leads to beneficial consequences and wards off many bad things regarding themselves and others. This is like the verses in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Good deeds and evil deeds are not equal. Repel evil with that which is good, whereupon he between whom and you there was ill feeling will become like a close friend. But none can attain that except those who are patient, and none can attain it except one who is blessed with a great share of good and righteousness.﴾ (Fussilat 41: 34-35)

﴿and who respond to their Lord﴾ that is, they submit and obey Him, and answer His call, and it becomes their aim to please Him and attain nearness to Him.

Part of responding to Allah is establishing prayer and giving zakâh, therefore they are mentioned after that, by way of following the mention of something in general terms with something specific, which is indicative of its importance and virtue. Hence Allah says:

﴿and establish prayer﴾ that is, both outwardly and inwardly, both obligatory and voluntary prayers

﴿and spend out of what We have provided for them﴾ of obligatory spending such as zakâh and spending on relatives and the like, and encouraged kinds of spending such as charity to people in general.

﴿and conduct their affairs﴾ both religious and worldly
 ﴿by mutual consultation﴾ that is, no one forces his own view with regard to any matter of their common affairs. This can only be a sign of their unity, harmony, mutual love and perfect mature thinking, because if they want to do something that requires discussion and exchange of views, they get together and discuss and examine the issue. Then once it becomes clear to them what is the best option that will serve the interests of the community, they hasten to take a decision concerning that option. This has to do with matters such as decisions concerning war and jihad, and appointing people to positions as governors, judges and so on, or discussing some religious issues in general. That is because such issues are of common concern, and discussing them and exchanging views in order to reach the correct conclusion is something that is loved by Allah and is included in this verse.

﴿and, when they are wronged﴾ that is, by their enemies
 ﴿stand up for themselves [and respond in kind]﴾ because of their strength and pride; they do not react like people who have no pride and are helpless.

Here Allah describes them as having faith, putting their trust in Him, avoiding major sins and shameful deeds, by means of which minor sins are absolved, submitting perfectly to Him, responding to the call of their Lord, establishing prayer, spending on charitable causes, consulting one another regarding their affairs and standing up to their enemies. These are all attributes of perfection and the fact that they have acquired them all means that they will do other good deeds of lesser importance, and will refrain from the opposite.

﴿وَجَزَاءُ سَيِّئَةٍ سَيِّئَةٌ مِثْلُهَا فَمَنْ عَفَا وَأَصْلَحَ فَأَجْرُهُ عَلَى اللَّهِ إِنَّهُ لَا يُحِبُّ الظَّالِمِينَ ﴿٤٠﴾ وَلَمَنْ أَنْتَصَرَ بَعْدَ ظُلْمِهِ فَأُولَئِكَ مَا عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ سَبِيلٍ ﴿٤١﴾ إِنَّمَا السَّبِيلُ عَلَى الَّذِينَ يَظْلِمُونَ النَّاسَ وَيَبْغُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ بِغَيْرِ الْحَقِّ أُولَئِكَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿٤٢﴾ وَلَمَنْ صَبَرَ وَغَفَرَ إِنَّ ذَلِكَ لَمِنْ عَزْمِ الْأُمُورِ ﴿٤٣﴾﴾ (سورة الشورى: ٤٠-٤٣)

- 42:40. Harm [or offence] may be requited by the like thereof,<sup>8</sup> but whoever forgives and reconciles, his reward is with Allah; verily He does not love the wrongdoers.
- 42:41. But whoever settles the score after having been wronged, there is no reason to reproach them.
- 42:42. But there is reason to reproach [and punish] those who wrong people and spread mischief throughout the land without justification. For such there will be a painful punishment.
- 42:43. But whoever shows patience and forgives, that is indeed something that is recommended by Allah.

<sup>8</sup> The requital may be equal to the harm done by the one who committed the original offence against the one who is wronged, but must go no further than that. For example, in the case of a verbal wrong, such as saying "May Allah humiliate you", the wronged party may respond in the same terms, but is not allowed to add anything else to it.

Here Allah mentions the various levels of settling scores, of which there are three: justice, charitable forgiveness, and injustice.

Justice means requiting an offence with a similar action, no more and no less. So it is a life for a life, and any injury may be requited with a similar injury, and damage to property is to be compensated by replacing it with something similar.

Charitable forgiveness means pardoning and reconciling with the person who did wrong. Hence Allah says: ﴿but whoever forgives and reconciles, his reward is with Allah﴾ – Allah will reward him greatly and abundantly. But if the offender does not deserve to be forgiven and there is a shar‘i interest to be served by punishing him, then in that case he is not enjoined to forgive him. Stating that the reward of the one who forgives is with Allah motivates him to forgive and to treat others as he wants Allah to treat him. Just as he wants Allah to forgive him, let him forgive others, and just as he wants Allah to pardon him, let him pardon others, for the requital matches the deed.

As for injustice, it is mentioned in the words ﴿verily He does not love the wrongdoers﴾ who initiate offence against others, or retaliate with a greater offence; the additional element is wrongdoing or injustice.

﴿But whoever settles the score after having been wronged﴾ that is, he settles the score with the one who wronged him after he was wronged
 ﴿there is no reason to reproach them﴾ that is, there is no blame on them for that.

The words ﴿and, when they are wronged, stand up for themselves [and respond in kind]﴾ (42: 39) and ﴿But whoever settles the score after having been wronged﴾ indicate that it is inevitable that one will be faced with aggression and mistreatment.

As for the one who wants to wrong others and mistreat them, without having been subjected to any offence by them, such a person should not be requited only with a punishment that is commensurate with his offence; rather he should be disciplined with a punishment that will deter him from aggressive words or deeds.

﴿But there is reason to reproach [and punish]﴾ that is, there is justification for carrying out Islamically prescribed punishments in the case of ﴿those who wrong people and spread mischief throughout the land without justification﴾. This includes wrongdoing and transgression against people with regard to their blood, wealth and honour.

﴿For such there will be a painful punishment﴾ that is, one that will cause both psychological and physical pain, commensurate with their wrongdoing and aggression.

﴿But whoever shows patience﴾ in bearing what he is faced with of offence

﴿and forgives﴾ the offenders by pardoning them for what they have done,

﴿that is indeed something that is recommended by Allah﴾ that is, it is one of the things that Allah encourages and emphasises, and states that no one will be able to do it except those who are patient and are blessed with a great share of good and righteousness. It is one of the things that no one is helped to do except people with strong resolve and motivation, and people of mature thinking and deep insight.

Not settling the score or standing up for oneself in word or deed is something very difficult, and bearing offence with patience, pardoning it and forgiving it, and responding to it with kindness, are actions that are even more difficult, but that is easy for those for whom Allah makes it easy and who strive to attain such characteristics, seeking the help of Allah to achieve that. Then after that, if a person tastes the sweetness thereof and sees its positive consequences, then he will do it willingly, feel comfortable with it and delight in it.

﴿وَمَنْ يُضِلِلِ اللَّهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ مِنْ بَعْدِهِ ۖ وَتَرَى الظَّالِمِينَ لَمَّا رَأَوْا الْعَذَابَ يَقُولُونَ هَلْ إِلَىٰ مَرَدٍّ مِنْ سَبِيلٍ ۚ﴾ (٤٤) وَتَرَنَّهُمْ يُخَرِّضُونَ عَلَيْهَا خَشِيعَاتٍ مِنَ الدُّلِّ يَنْظُرُونَ مِنْ طَرْفٍ خَفِيٍّ ۚ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِنَّ الْخَسِرِينَ الَّذِينَ خَسِرُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ وَأَهْلِيَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ ۚ أَلَا إِنَّ الظَّالِمِينَ فِي عَذَابٍ مُقِيمٍ ﴿٤٥﴾ وَمَا كَانَتْ لَهُمْ مِنْ أَوْلِيَاءَ يَنْصُرُونَهُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ ۚ وَمَنْ يُضِلِلِ اللَّهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ سَبِيلٍ ﴿٤٦﴾﴾ (سورة

الشورى: ٤٤-٤٦)

- 42:44. Whomever Allah causes to go astray, he will have no protector thereafter. And you will see the wrongdoers, when they behold the punishment, saying: Is there any way to go back [and make amends]?
- 42:45. You will see them brought before it [the fire] in a state of abject humiliation, stealing furtive glances at it. Those who believed will say: Indeed the real losers are those who lose their own souls and their families on the Day of Resurrection. Verily the wrongdoers will suffer everlasting punishment.
- 42:46. They will have no protectors to save them from Allah's punishment. For those whom Allah has caused to go astray, there is no way [to guidance and salvation].

Here Allah tells us that He alone guides people or causes them to go astray, and ﴿Whomever Allah causes to go astray﴾ because of his wrongdoing ﴿he will have no protector thereafter﴾ to take care of his affairs and guide him.

﴿And you will see the wrongdoers, when they behold the punishment﴾ they will see something very terrifying, difficult and horrific, and they will express great regret and sorrow for their previous deeds.

﴿saying: Is there any way to go back [and make amends]?﴾ That is, is there any way we could go back to the previous world and do something other than what we did before? This is a request for something impossible that can never happen.

﴿You will see them brought before it [the fire] in a state of abject humiliation﴾ that is, you will see reflected in their physical posture what is in their hearts ﴿stealing furtive glances at it﴾ that is, they will look stealthily at the fire, because of its fearsome appearance.

﴿Those who believed will say﴾ when the fate of people is decided and the sincere and faithful people become distinct from others:

﴿Indeed the real losers are those who lose their own souls and their families on the Day of Resurrection﴾ when they cause themselves to miss out on the reward and incur a painful punishment, and they are separated from their families and are not reunited with them.

﴿Verily the wrongdoers﴾ who wronged themselves by disbelieving and committing sins

﴿will suffer everlasting punishment﴾ that is, they will be immersed in the midst of it and will never emerge from it; it will never be alleviated and they will lose all hope.

﴿They will have no protectors to save them from Allah's punishment﴾ as they used to hope for themselves. On the Day of Resurrection, it will become clear to them and others that the connections on which they pinned their hopes will be severed, and when the punishment of Allah comes to them it will not be warded off.

﴿For those whom Allah has caused to go astray, there is no way [to guidance and salvation]﴾. They went astray when they claimed that their so-called partners could bring them benefits or ward off harm, then it became clear to them that they were astray.

﴿اسْتَجِيبُوا لِرَبِّكُمْ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يَأْتِيَ يَوْمٌ لَا مَرَدَّ لَهُ مِنْ اللَّهِ مَا لَكُمْ مِنْ مَلْجَأٍ
يَوْمَئِذٍ وَمَا لَكُمْ مِنْ نَكِيرٍ ﴿٤٧﴾ فَإِنْ أَعْرَضُوا فَمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ عَلَيْهِمْ حَفِظًا إِنْ
عَلَيْكَ إِلَّا الْبَلَاغُ وَإِنَّا إِذَا أَذَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ مِنَّا رَحْمَةً فَحَرَبَهَا وَإِنْ نُصِيبُهُمْ سَيْئَةً
بِمَا قَدَّمَتْ أَيْدِيهِمْ فَإِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ كَفُورٌ ﴿٤٨﴾﴾ (سورة الشورى: ٤٧-٤٨)

- 42:47. Respond to your Lord, before there comes from Allah a day which no one can avert. On that day you will have no refuge and no means of denying [your sins].
- 42:48. But if they turn away, We have not sent you to be their keeper; your duty is only to convey the message. If We bestow upon a man mercy [prosperity], he rejoices in it; but when misfortune befalls them because of the deeds which their own hands have wrought, then verily man becomes ungrateful.

Here Allah (ﷻ) instructs His slaves to respond to Him by complying with His commands and heeding His prohibitions, and by hastening to do so and not procrastinating, before the Day of Resurrection comes which, when it comes, cannot be put back and it will not be possible to make up for what was missed. On that day, the individual will have no refuge to turn to, and no way to escape or flee from his Lord; rather the angels will surround all creatures from the rear and will call out: ﴿O jinn and humans, if you are able to pass beyond the confines of the heavens and the earth, then do so. But you cannot pass beyond them unless you have power.﴾ (ar-Rahmân 55: 33)

On that day, no one will be able to deny what he committed of sins; in fact even if he does deny it, his own physical faculties will testify against him.

In this and similar verses, there is a condemnation of those who hope to live long, and a command to make the most of any opportunity that comes along to do a good deed, because procrastinating leads to a great deal of trouble.

«But if they turn away» from what you have brought to them, after you have conveyed the message clearly,

«We have not sent you to be their keeper», recording their deeds and finding out about them.

«your duty is only to convey the message», and if you have done what is required of you, then your reward is due from Allah, whether they respond or turn away, and their reckoning will be with Allah, Who is recording all their deeds, great and small, visible and invisible.

Then Allah (ﷻ) mentions the condition of man, stating that if Allah gives him a taste of mercy, such as good physical health, abundant provision, high status and the like, «he rejoices in it» that is, his joy is based solely on that, and he does not look beyond it, which implies that he is quite content with it whilst turning away from the Bestower of those blessings.

«but when misfortune» such as sickness, poverty and the like «befalls them because of the deeds which their own hands have wrought, then verily man becomes ungrateful» that is, by nature he is ungrateful for previous blessings and discontent with whatever befalls him of misfortune.

﴿لِلَّهِ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ ۖ يَخْلُقُ مَا يَشَاءُ ۚ يَهَبُ لِمَن يَشَاءُ إِنثًا وَيَهَبُ لِمَن يَشَاءُ الذَّكَورَ ۖ أَوْ يُرْجِيهِمْ ذَكَرًا وَنِسَاءً ۚ وَبِجَعْلِ مَن يَشَاءُ عَظِيمًا ۚ إِنَّهُ عَلِيمٌ قَدِيرٌ﴾ (سورة الشورى: ٤٩-٥٠)

42:49. To Allah belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth.
He creates whatever He wills; He bestows female [offspring] upon whomever He wills, and bestows male [offspring] upon whomever He wills, 42:50. or He bestows both males and females; and He leaves barren whomever He wills. Verily He is All-Knowing, Omnipotent.

This verse tells us of the vastness of Allah's dominion, which is complete, for He controls His creation however He wills; His control over all things is so comprehensive that it includes the outcomes of all measures that people take. Marriage is one of the means of having children, but it is Allah (ﷻ) Who bestows whatever He wills of offspring.

There are some people to whom He gives female offspring, some to whom He gives males, and some to whom He gives both males and females. And some of them he makes barren, so that they have no offspring at all.

﴿Verily He is All-Knowing﴾ and knows all things
﴿Omnipotent﴾ that is, He has the power to do all things, and He controls all things on the basis of His knowledge and precision in creation, and by His power over His creation.

﴿ وَمَا كَانَ لِبَشَرٍ أَنْ يُكَلِّمَهُ اللَّهُ إِلَّا وَحْيًا أَوْ مِنْ وَرَآئِ حِجَابٍ أَوْ يُرْسِلَ رَسُولًا فَيُوحِيَ بِإِذْنِهِ مَا يَشَاءُ إِنَّهُ عَلَىٰ حَكِيمٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴾ (٥١) وَكَذَٰلِكَ أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ رُوحًا مِنْ أَمْرِنَا مَا كُنْتَ تَدْرِي مَا الْكِتَابُ وَلَا الْإِيمَانُ وَلَكِنْ جَعَلْنَاهُ نُورًا نَهْدِي بِهِ مَنْ نَشَاءُ مِنْ عِبَادِنَا وَإِنَّكَ لَتَهْدَىٰ إِلَىٰ صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ ﴾ (٥٢) صِرَاطِ اللَّهِ الَّذِي لَهُ مَا فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ ۗ أَلَا إِلَى اللَّهِ تَصِيرُ الْأُمُورُ ﴾ (٥٣) (سورة الشورى: ٥١-٥٣)

42:51. It is not fitting for any man that Allah should speak to him except by inspiration or from behind a veil, or by sending a Messenger to reveal, by Allah's leave, whatever Allah wills. Verily He is Most High, Most Wise.

- 42:52. Likewise We have revealed to you [O Muhammad] a life-giving message by Our command. You knew nothing of the scripture or matters of faith, but We have made it [the Qur'an] a light whereby We guide whomever We will of Our slaves. Verily you are indeed calling people to a straight path,
- 42:53. the path of Allah, to Whom belongs all that is in the heavens and all that is on earth. Verily the affairs of all will ultimately come back to Allah [for judgement].

---

When those who rejected the Messengers of Allah and disbelieved in Him said in their arrogance,

﴿...If only Allah would speak to us or some sign would come to us...﴾ (al-Baqarah 2: 118)

– Allah responded to them with this verse, stating that His speaking is only for the elite of His creation, namely the Prophets and Messengers, and the chosen ones of humankind, and that it can only occur in one of the following ways:

Either Allah (ﷻ) speaks through inspiration, which is sent directly to the heart of the Messenger, without sending an angel and without speaking directly to him; or He speaks directly, but it is ﴿from behind a veil﴾ as happened to Moosâ ibn 'Imrân, Kaleem ar-Rahmân (the one to whom the Most Gracious spoke directly); or Allah speaks through an angelic messenger, ﴿by sending a messenger﴾ such as Jibreel or another angel, ﴿to reveal, by Allah's leave﴾ that is, by the permission of his Lord, not on the basis of mere whims and desires.

﴿Verily He is Most High﴾, sublime in His essence, sublime and great in His attributes, sublime in His actions. He has subjugated all things, and all creatures have submitted to Him.

«Most Wise» for He does everything that is appropriate, and is wise in all that He creates and prescribes.

«Likewise» just as We revealed to the Messengers who came before you,

«We have revealed to you [O Muhammad] a life-giving message by Our command» namely this noble Qur'an, which He calls life-giving. The Qur'an gives life to hearts and souls, through which both worldly and spiritual interests are revived, because of what it contains of much good and abundant knowledge.

It is a pure blessing from Allah to His Messenger (ﷺ) and His believing slaves, without any effort on their part. Hence He says: «You knew nothing» before it came down to you «of the scripture or matters of faith» that is, you had no knowledge of the texts of the previous scriptures or of faith, and you had no experience in implementing divine instructions; rather you were unlettered, unable to read or write, then this Book came to you, which «We have made... a light whereby We guide whomever We will of Our slaves», by means of which they find illumination in the darkness of disbelief, innovation and whims and desires that lead to doom; by means of it they come to know reality and are guided by it to the straight path.

«Verily you are indeed calling people to a straight path» that is, you are showing it to them and explaining it, encouraging them to follow it, forbidding them to do the opposite and warning against that. Then Allah describes the straight path:

«the path of Allah, to Whom belongs all that is in the heavens and all that is on earth» that is, the path which Allah has prescribed for His slaves and has told them that it leads to Him and to His paradise.

«Verily the affairs of all will ultimately come back to Allah [for judgement]» that is, all affairs, good and bad, will return to Him and He will requite everyone according to his deeds; if they are good then the outcome will be good, and if they are evil then the outcome will be bad.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat ash-Shoorā.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

43. Soorat az-Zukhruf

(Makki)

---

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿حَمْدٌ ۝١ وَالْكِتَابِ الْمُبِينِ ۝٢﴾ إِنَّا جَعَلْنَاهُ قُرْءَانًا عَرَبِيًّا لَعَلَّكُمْ تَعْقِلُونَ
﴿٣﴾ وَإِنَّهُ فِي أُنْزَالِهِ لَكِتَابٌ لَدِينًا لَعَلِّي حَكِيمٌ ۝٤﴾ أَفَنَضْرِبُ عَنْكُمُ الذِّكْرَ
صَفْحًا أَن كُنتُمْ قَوْمًا مُّسْرِفِينَ ﴿٥﴾﴾ (سورة الزخرف: ١-٥)

43:1. Hā'. Meem.

43:2. By the clear Book,

43:3. verily, We have made it an Arabic Qur'an so that you may understand, 43:4. and verily it is in the Mother of the Book [al-Lawḥ al-Maḥfooḍh]<sup>9</sup> with Us, sublime and full of wisdom.

---

<sup>9</sup> Al-Lawḥ al-Maḥfooḍh: the Preserved Tablet, the place where the decrees of Allah are kept. All the divinely-revealed Books originated from there, hence it is called the Mother (that is, source or origin) of the Book.

43:5. Should We, then, withdraw this reminder from you altogether, because you are a people transgressing beyond all bounds?

«By the clear Book» – this is an oath by the Qur'an about the Qur'an. Allah swears by the clear Book to indicate that it clarifies everything that people need to know about matters pertaining to this world, religion and the hereafter.

«verily, We have made it an Arabic Qur'an» this is the subject of the oath: Allah has made it in the most eloquent and clearest of languages. Then He mentions the wisdom behind that, which is «so that you may understand» its words and meanings, because it is easy to understand.

«and verily it» namely this Book «is in the Mother of the Book [al-Lawḥ al-Maḥfūdh] with Us», among those on high, in the highest and best rank, «sublime and full of wisdom» that is, it is sublime and held in the highest esteem, and it is full of wisdom in what it contains of commands and prohibitions, and stories. There is no ruling in it that is contrary to wisdom, justice and equity.

Then Allah tells us that His wisdom and grace dictate that He should not leave His slaves neglected without sending a Messenger to them or sending down a Book to them, even if they are wrongdoers. Hence He says:

«Should We, then, withdraw this reminder from you altogether, because you are a people transgressing beyond all bounds?» That is, should We turn away from you and not send down the reminder to you, and withdraw it from you because you turned away and did not submit to it? Rather We send down the Book to you and explain to you everything in it. Then if you believe and are guided, it is to your own benefit, otherwise proof is established against you and you know where you stand.

﴿وَكَمْ أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ نَبِيِّ فِي الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿٦﴾ وَمَا يَأْتِيهِمْ مِنْ نَبِيٍّ إِلَّا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِئُونَ ﴿٧﴾ فَأَهْلَكْنَا أَشَدَّ مِنْهُمْ بَطْشًا وَمَضَىٰ مَثَلُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ﴿٨﴾﴾ (سورة الزُّحُف: ٦-٨)

(٨-٦)

- 43:6. How many a Prophet did We send to the earlier nations!
- 43:7. No Prophet came to them but they ridiculed him.
- 43:8. So We destroyed them, although they were stronger in power than them [Quraysh]. And the stories of the earlier nations have already been mentioned [in the Qur'an, as a lesson].

Here Allah says: this is Our way with people: We do not leave them neglected. ﴿How many a Prophet did We send to the earlier nations﴾, enjoining them to worship Allah alone, with no partner or associate, but they persisted in their disbelief.

﴿No Prophet came to them but they ridiculed him﴾ rejecting the message he brought and arrogantly turning away from the truth.

﴿So We destroyed them, although they were stronger in power than them [Quraysh]﴾ that is, they were stronger in terms of their deeds and they made a more impressive mark on the land.

﴿And the stories of the earlier nations have already been mentioned [in the Qur'an, as a lesson]﴾; We have already explained to you lessons that may be taken from that and how that may serve as a deterrent against disbelief and denial.

﴿وَلَيْنَ سَأَلْنَهُمْ مَنْ خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ لَيَقُولُنَّ خَلَقَهُنَّ الْعَزِيزُ الْعَلِيمُ ﴿١﴾ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمُ الْأَرْضَ مَهْدًا وَجَعَلَ لَكُمْ فِيهَا سُبُلًا لَعَلَّكُمْ

تَهْتَدُونَ ﴿٩﴾ وَالَّذِي نَزَّلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً يَقْدِرُ فَأَنْشَرَنَا بِهِ، بَلَدَهُ مَيِّتًا كَذَلِكَ
تُخْرَجُونَ ﴿١٠﴾ وَالَّذِي خَلَقَ الْأَزْوَاجَ كُلَّهَا وَجَعَلَ لَكُم مِّنَ الْفَلَاحِ وَالْأَنْعَامِ مَا تَرْكَبُونَ
﴿١١﴾ لِيَسْتَوُوا عَلَى ظُهُورِهِ ثُمَّ تَذْكُرُوا نِعْمَةَ رَبِّكُمْ إِذَا اسْتَوَيْتُمْ عَلَيْهِ وَتَقُولُوا سُبْحَنَ
الَّذِي سَخَّرَ لَنَا هَذَا وَمَا كُنَّا لَهُ مُقْرِنِينَ ﴿١٢﴾ وَإِنَّا إِلَىٰ رَبِّنَا لَمُنْقَلِبُونَ ﴿١٣﴾ (سورة الرَّحْف: ٩-١٤)

- 43:9. If you ask them who created the heavens and the earth, they will surely say: The Almighty, All-Knowing created them.
- 43:10. It is He Who has spread out the earth for you and has traced out paths for you therein, so that you may find your way.
- 43:11. And it is He Who sends down water from the sky in due measure, and We give life thereby to a dead land. In like manner you will be brought forth [from your graves].
- 43:12. And it is He Who created all types of things, and made for you ships and animals on which you ride,
- 43:13. so that you may settle yourselves on their backs and, when you have settled thereon, you may remember the blessings of your Lord and say: Glory be to Him Who has made this to be of service to us, for we could not have gained control over it by ourselves.
- 43:14. It is to our Lord that we will surely return.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us about the polytheists and that ﴿If you ask them who created the heavens and the earth, they will surely say﴾ that Allah alone created them, with no partner or associate, the Almighty to Whose might all creatures submit, the All-Knowing Who knows the outward and inward aspects of all things, and knows their beginning and end. If they affirm that, then how can they ascribe to Him a son, spouse or partner? How can they ascribe as partners to Him any that does not create or grant provision, that has no power to cause death or give life?

Then Allah mentions evidence which is indicative of the perfect nature of His blessings and might, by pointing out what He has created for His slaves of this earth which He spread out and made stable for them, so that they can do whatever they want on it.

﴿and has traced out paths for you therein﴾ that is, He has created routes for you through the mountain chains, so that you may reach the regions beyond the mountains

﴿so that you may find your way﴾ by travelling through those routes, and not get lost, and so that you may be guided to the right path when you contemplate that and reflect upon it.

﴿And it is He Who sends down water from the sky in due measure﴾, not too much and not too little. It is sent down as needed, not so little that there will be no benefit in it and not so much that it will cause harm to people and the land; rather He sends people what they need of it and saves the land from hardship thereby. Hence He says:

﴿and We give life thereby to a dead land﴾ that is, We revive it after its death.

﴿In like manner you will be brought forth [from your graves]﴾ that is, just as He gives life to the dead, lifeless land by means of water, He will give you life after you have completed your set time in al-barzakh, so that He may requite you for your deeds.

﴿And it is He Who created all types of things﴾ that is, all types of things that the earth produces, and of themselves (different types), and of (other) things of which they have no knowledge (cf. 36: 36), such as night and day, heat and cold, male and female, and other things.

﴿and made for you ships﴾ both sailing ships and those that are driven by mechanical means, in which you travel

﴿and animals on which you ride, so that you may settle yourselves on their backs﴾ – thus you settle on board ships and on the backs of riding animals

﴿and, when you have settled thereon, you may remember the blessings of your Lord﴾ by acknowledging the blessings of the One Who has made them to be of service to you, and praising Him for that. Hence Allah says: ﴿and say: Glory be to Him Who has made this to be of service to us, for we could not have gained control over it by ourselves﴾ that is, were it not for His making them to be of service to us, we would not have been able to gain control over it. But by His kindness and generosity, He has made it to be of service and has made its means available.

What is meant here is to highlight the fact that the Lord, Who is as described here as being the Bestower of all these favours, is the only One Who is deserving of worship, prayers and prostration.

﴿وَجَعَلُوا لَهُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ جُزْءًا إِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ لَكَفُورٌ مُبِينٌ﴾ (٥) أَمِ اتَّخَذَ مِمَّا يَخْلُقُ بَنَاتٍ وَأَصْفَنَكُمْ بِالْبَنِينَ ﴿٦﴾ وَإِذَا بُشِّرَ أَحَدُهُمْ بِمَا ضَرَبَ لِلرَّحْمَنِ مَثَلًا ظَلَّ وَجْهُهُ مُسْوَدًّا وَهُوَ كَظِيمٌ ﴿٧﴾ أَوْ مَن يَنْشَأُ فِي الْحِلْيَةِ وَهُوَ فِي الْخِصَامِ غَيْرُ مُبِينٍ ﴿٨﴾ وَجَعَلُوا الْمَلَائِكَةَ الَّذِينَ هُمْ عِبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ إِنثًا أَشْهَدُوا خَلْقَهُمْ سَتُكْتَبُ شَهَادَتُهُمْ وَيُسْتَأْذَنُ ﴿٩﴾ وَقَالُوا لَوْ شَاءَ الرَّحْمَنُ مَا عَبَدْنَاهُمْ مَا لَهُمْ بِذَلِكَ مِنْ عِلْمٍ إِنْ هُمْ إِلَّا يَخْرُصُونَ ﴿١٠﴾ أَمْ أَنَيْنَافُمْ كِتَابًا مِنْ قَبْلِهِ فَهُمْ بِهِ مُسْتَمْسِكُونَ ﴿١١﴾ بَلْ قَالُوا إِنَّا وَجَدْنَاهُ آبَاءَنَا عَلَى أُمَّةٍ وَإِنَّا عَلَى آثَرِهِمْ مُهُتَدُونَ ﴿١٢﴾ وَكَذَلِكَ مَا أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ فِي قَرْيَةٍ مِنْ نَذِيرٍ إِلَّا قَالَ مُتْرَفُوهَا إِنَّا وَجَدْنَاهُ آبَاءَنَا عَلَى أُمَّةٍ وَإِنَّا عَلَى آثَرِهِمْ مُقْتَدُونَ ﴿١٣﴾ قُلْ أُولَئِكَ حُتُّكُمْ بَأْهْدَىٰ وَمِمَّا وَجَدْتُمْ عَلَيْهِ آبَاءَكُمْ قَالُوا إِنَّا بِمَا أُرْسِلْتُمْ بِهِ كَافِرُونَ ﴿١٤﴾ فَانظُرْنَا مِنْهُمْ فَأَنْظُرْ كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الْمُكْذِبِينَ ﴿١٥﴾﴾ (سورة الزخرف: ١٥-٢٥)

43:15. Yet they ascribe to Him from among His slaves offspring! Verily man is indeed clearly ungrateful.

- 43:16. Has He taken for Himself daughters from what He has created, and favoured you with sons?
- 43:17. When news is brought to one of them of [the birth of a daughter], such as he ascribes to the Most Gracious, his face darkens and he is filled with inward rage.
- 43:18. Or [do they ascribe to Allah] those who are brought up to be adorned [and look pretty] and are not able to present a clear [and strong] argument in the event of disputation?<sup>10</sup>
- 43:19. They regard the angels, who are slaves of the Most Gracious, as female. Did they witness their creation? Their testimony will be recorded and they will be questioned [concerning it].
- 43:20. They say: If the Most Gracious had so willed, we would not have worshipped them. They have no knowledge [or proof] of that; they do nothing but conjecture.
- 43:21. Or have We given them a book before this to which they are holding fast?
- 43:22. In fact they say: We found our forefathers following a certain path, and we are following in their footsteps.
- 43:23. Likewise, We never sent any warner before you to a city but its affluent ones said: We found our forefathers following a certain path, and we are following in their footsteps.
- 43:24. [The warner] said: Even if I bring you better guidance than that which you found your forefathers following? They said: Verily we disbelieve in that with which you have been sent.
- 43:25. So We exacted retribution upon them; so see what was the fate of those who disbelieved.

---

Here Allah tells us of the abhorrent nature of the view of the polytheists who ascribed offspring to Allah (ﷻ), when He is the One,

---

<sup>10</sup> The issue here is not only that they attributed offspring to Allah, but they ascribed to Him what they regarded as inferior (daughters) whilst desiring for themselves what they regarded as superior (sons).

the Unique, the Eternal, Who has not taken any spouse or child, and nothing is like unto Him. Such ideas are false for a number of reasons, including the following:

- All creatures are His slaves, and a slave cannot be an offspring.
- The child is part of his father, but Allah (ﷻ) is distinct from His creation; He is distinct from them in His attributes and majesty, whereas the child is a part of the father. Therefore it is impossible for Allah (ﷻ) to have offspring.
- They claimed that the angels were the daughters of Allah, but it is well known that daughters are the lesser of the two categories. So how could Allah have daughters and choose for them sons and give them precedence in that regard? In that case they would be better than Allah – exalted be Allah far above such a thing.
- The category that they attributed to Allah, namely daughters, is the lesser of the two categories and the more hateful to them, to the extent that because of their hatred thereof ﴿When news is brought to one of them of [the birth of a daughter], such as he ascribes to the Most Gracious, his face darkens﴾ because of his intense hatred and anger, so how could they ascribe to Allah that which they themselves hate?
- The female is lacking in her attributes and in her speech and eloquence. Hence Allah says: ﴿Or [do they ascribe to Allah] those who are brought up to be adorned [and look pretty]﴾ that is, to beautify themselves with adornment because their beauty is lacking, so they are beautified with external elements. ﴿and are not able to present a clear [and strong] argument in the event of disputation﴾ in which a person should show his ability to present his case; in such situations the female is unable to express the idea she has in mind, so how can they attribute daughters to Allah (ﷻ)?

- They regarded the angels, who are slaves of the Most Gracious, as female, thus showing disrespect to the angels who are close to Allah, and they raised them from the status of humble slaves to the status of partners to Allah in some of His unique attributes, then they brought them down from the status of male to female. Glory be to the One Who highlights the contradictions of those who tell lies against Him and oppose His Messengers.
- Allah refuted their argument by stating that they did not witness His creation of the angels, so how can they speak of a matter of which everyone knows they have no knowledge? But they will inevitably be questioned about what they said and what was recorded against them, and they will be punished for it.

﴿They say: If the Most Gracious had so willed, we would not have worshipped them﴾ they argued for their worship of the angels by saying that it was because of the divine will; this is an argument that the polytheists always come up with, but it is a false argument in and of itself, both on a rational basis and according to the divine texts. No wise man would accept the use of the divine decree as an excuse for his actions. Even if a person uses this argument once, he will not be able to use it every time.

With regard to Islamic teachings, Allah (ﷻ) has shown that it is invalid to use the divine decree as justification, and He has not mentioned anyone using this argument except the polytheists who disbelieved in His Messengers. For Allah (ﷻ) has established proof against people, so there is no argument that anyone can use on the basis of this idea. Hence Allah (ﷻ) says here: ﴿They have no knowledge [or proof] of that; they do nothing but conjecture﴾ that is, they are basing their argument on speculation for which they have no evidence, and they are confused.

Then He says: ﴿Or have We given them a book before this to which they are holding fast﴾ and that tells them that their deeds and words are valid? That is not the case, for Allah sent Muhammad (ﷺ) to them as a warner, and no other warner came to them. In other words, there is no rationale and no textual evidence for their argument. If both are ruled out, then it can be nothing but false.

Yes, they have a very flimsy specious argument, which is that they are following their misguided forefathers, on the basis of which the disbelievers always justify their rejection of the call of the Messengers. Hence Allah says here:

﴿In fact they say: We found our forefathers following a certain path﴾ that is, religion

﴿and we are following in their footsteps﴾ that is, therefore we will not follow what Muhammad (ﷺ) brought.

﴿Likewise, We never sent any warner before you to a city but its affluent ones﴾ that is, those who were well off, the elite who were deceived by their worldly status and wealth, and were too arrogant to follow the truth

﴿said: We found our forefathers following a certain path, and we are following in their footsteps﴾ that is, these people are not coming up with anything new or unprecedented, and they are not the first ones to say such things. This argument from these misguided polytheists, that they were following their misguided forefathers, is not aimed at seeking the truth and right guidance; rather it is pure stubbornness, the aim of which is to support what they have of falsehood.

Hence every Messenger said to those who opposed him on the basis of this false specious argument: ﴿Even if I bring you better guidance than that which you found your forefathers following?﴾ That is, will you follow me for the sake of guidance?

﴿They said: Verily we disbelieve in that with which you have been sent﴾ thus it is known that they did not want to follow truth and right guidance; rather all they wanted was to follow falsehood and whims and desires.

«So We exacted retribution upon them» for their rejection of the truth and their denial thereof on the basis of this false specious argument.

«so see what was the fate of those who disbelieved» and let these people beware of persisting in their rejection, lest they meet the same fate.

﴿وَإِذْ قَالَ إِبْرَاهِيمُ لِأَبِيهِ وَقَوْمِهِ إِنَّنِي بَرَاءٌ مِمَّا تَعْبُدُونَ ﴿٢٦﴾ إِلَّا الَّذِي فَطَرَنِي فَإِنَّهُ سَيَهْدِينِ ﴿٢٧﴾ وَجَعَلَهَا كَلِمَةً بَاقِيَةً فِي عَقْبِهِ ۖ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُونَ ﴿٢٨﴾﴾
 وَءَابَاءَهُمْ حَتَّىٰ جَاءَهُمُ الْحَقُّ وَرَسُولٌ مُّبِينٌ ﴿٢٩﴾ وَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمُ الْحَقُّ قَالُوا هَذَا سِحْرٌ وَإِنَّا بِهِ كَافِرُونَ ﴿٣٠﴾ وَقَالُوا لَوْلَا نُزِّلَ هَذَا الْقُرْآنُ عَلَىٰ رَجُلٍ مِّنَ الْفَرِيقَيْنِ عَظِيمِ ﴿٣١﴾ أَهَرَّ يَقْسِمُونَ رَحْمَتَ رَبِّكَ ۚ نَحْنُ قَسَمْنَا بَيْنَهُمْ مَّعِيشَتَهُمْ فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَرَفَعْنَا بَعْضَهُمْ فَوْقَ بَعْضٍ دَرَجَاتٍ لِّيَتَّخِذَ بَعْضُهُم بَعْضًا سَخِرِيًّا ۖ وَرَحْمَتُ رَبِّكَ خَيْرٌ مِّمَّا يَجْمَعُونَ ﴿٣٢﴾﴾ (سورة الزُّخْرُف: ٢٦-٣٢)

43:26. And [remember] when Ibrâheem said to his father and his people: I disavow all that you worship, 43:27. except Him Who created me; He will surely guide me.

43:28. And he left it as a word to endure among his progeny, so that they might come back [to it].<sup>11</sup>

43:29. But I allowed these people [Quraysh] and their forefathers to enjoy the good things of life, until there came to them the truth and a Messenger making things clear.

43:30. But when the truth came to them, they said: This is magic, and we definitely reject it.

<sup>11</sup> Every time some of his progeny drifted away from it and disbelieved or ascribed partners to Allah, they were to come back to this word.

- 43:31. And they said: Why was this Qur'an not sent down to some prominent man from [either of] the two cities [Makkah or Taif]?
 43:32. Is it they who distribute the blessings of your Lord? It is We Who distribute their livelihood among them in the life of this world, and We raise some of them above others in ranks, so that they may serve one another.<sup>12</sup> And the blessings of your Lord are better than what they accumulate [of wealth].<sup>13</sup>

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the religion of Ibrâheem (عليه السلام), His close friend, which the People of the Book and the polytheists all claim to belong to and follow. Allah tells us about his religion, which he left as a legacy among his offspring:

«And [remember] when Ibrâheem said to his father and his people» who had taken gods besides Allah that they worshipped and sought to draw near to.

«I disavow all that you worship» that is, I hate it and I avoid and oppose those who do that «except Him Who created me» for I take Him as my ally and protector, and I hope that He will guide me to knowledge of the truth and enable me to act upon it, for just as He created me and cared for me by making available to me all that is good for my physical and worldly well-being, so too «He will surely guide me» to that which is good for my religious well-being and my well-being in the hereafter.

«And he left it» that is, this praiseworthy attitude, which is the most important of all and the basis of all those characteristics, namely

<sup>12</sup> People vary with regard to the means that have to do with earning a living: some may be smarter than others, or have different skills and aptitudes. This variation makes it essential for people to serve one another in order to meet the needs of all, thus bringing them together and creating harmony among them. (al-Bayḏāwī)

<sup>13</sup> They had no say in the allocation of the blessings of prophethood and revelation, just as they have no say in the allocation of provision and means of livelihood.

sincerity in worship of Allah alone and disavowing the worship of everything besides Him

﴿as a word to endure among his progeny﴾ that is, his offspring
 ﴿so that they might come back [to it]﴾ because he was well known for it, and he gave instructions to his offspring, Is-hâq and Ya‘qoob. And they themselves reminded one another of it.

Because this word remained among his descendants (namely the Arabs) until they began to live a life of affluence and transgression, Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿But I allowed these people [Quraysh] and their forefathers to enjoy the good things of life﴾ by letting them enjoy all kinds of desires, until that became their ultimate goal and aim, and love thereof kept growing stronger in their hearts, until that became second nature to them and became well-entrenched beliefs of theirs

﴿until there came to them the truth﴾ concerning which there is no doubt or confusion whatsoever

﴿and a Messenger making things clear﴾ that is, with a clear message for which he had clear evidence, by means of his character and miracles, and what he brought, by means of which he confirmed the message of the previous Messengers, and by means of the message itself that he brought.

﴿But when the truth came to them﴾ that would dictate that the one who has the least fear of Allah and the least religion should accept it and follow it,

﴿they said: This is magic, and we definitely reject it﴾. This is because of their great stubbornness and opposition, for they could not stop at merely turning away from it or merely rejecting it. They were not content until they impugned and criticised it in the worst manner, regarding it as equivalent to magic, which no one brings but the most evil of people and the worst liars and fabricators. What made them do that was their transgression, which resulted from what Allah had caused them and their forefathers to enjoy of worldly pleasures.

﴿And they said﴾, making a suggestion to Allah on the basis of their corrupt reasoning:

﴿Why was this Qur'an not sent down to some prominent man from [either of] the two cities [Makkah or Taif]?﴾ That is, someone who was prominent and respected in their view, from among the people of Makkah or of Taif, such as al-Waleed ibn al-Mugheerah and his ilk, who were held in high esteem by them.

Allah said, rejecting their suggestion: ﴿Is it they who distribute the blessings of your Lord?﴾ That is, are they the storekeepers of the mercy of Allah, and do they have control of it, so that they may give prophethood and the message to whomever they wish, and withhold it from whoever they wish?

﴿It is We Who distribute their livelihood among them in the life of this world, and We raise some of them above others in ranks, so that they may serve one another﴾ that is, in the life of this world
﴿And﴾ in fact ﴿the blessings of your Lord are better than what they accumulate [of wealth]﴾ in this world.

As worldly livelihood and provision are in the Hand of Allah (ﷻ), it is He Who distributes it among His slaves, so He gives abundant provision to whomever He will and restricts it for whomever He will, according to His wisdom. Therefore it is more appropriate that His religious blessings, the highest of which is the status of being a Prophet or Messenger, should be in the Hand of Allah, for Allah knows best where to place His message.

Thus it is known that their suggestions were flawed and invalid, and that the control of all things, both religious and worldly, is in the Hand of Allah alone. This proved to them that they were wrong in their suggestion regarding the matter (of the appointment of a Messenger), for they have no control over it at all. Rather their suggestion is wrongdoing on their part and is a rejection of the truth.

With regard to their words ﴿Why was this Qur'an not sent down to some prominent man from [either of] the two cities [Makkah or Taif]?﴾, if they understood the true quality of men and the characteristics by means of which a man may be deemed as being of high quality and having high status before Allah and before people, they would realise that Muhammad ibn 'Abdullâh ibn 'Abdul-Muṭṭalib (ﷺ) is the greatest of all men in status, the most honourable, the most perfect in reasoning, the most abundant in knowledge, the most perfect in wisdom, aim and resolve, the most perfect in character, the most merciful and compassionate, the most guided and the most righteous.

He is the pinnacle of perfection, for he acquired the best qualities of men. He was the man of the world for all ages. This was acknowledged by his friends and enemies alike, so how could the polytheists give precedence to others over him, who could not acquire even an atom's weight of his perfection or of his resolve and wisdom? For someone to take as his god, that he worships and calls upon, and seeks to draw close to, an idol or a tree or a rock, that could not cause harm or bring benefit, and could not give or withhold, and is a burden on its worshipper, needing someone to take care of it – can this be anything but the action of fools and crazy people?

How can such a person be regarded as great or prominent? How can he be given precedence over the final Messenger and the leader of the sons of Adam (ﷺ)? But those who disbelieve do not understand.

This verse highlights Allah's wisdom in giving precedence to some people over others in this world. ﴿and We raise some of them above others in ranks, so that they may serve one another﴾ with different skills and abilities.

If all people were equal in terms of wealth and did not need one another, they would not be able to meet many of their needs. This indicates that His spiritual blessings are better than worldly blessings, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿Say: In the grace of Allah and in His mercy – in that let them rejoice. That is far better than all they could accumulate.﴾ (Yoonus 10: 58)

﴿وَلَوْ لَا أَن يَكُونَ النَّاسُ أُمَّةً وَاحِدَةً لَّجَعَلْنَا لِمَن يَكْفُرُ بِالرَّحْمَنِ لِبُيُوتِهِمْ سُقْفًا
مِّن فِضَّةٍ وَمَعَارِجَ عَلَيْهَا يَظْهَرُونَ ﴿٣٣﴾ وَلِبُيُوتِهِمْ أَبْوَابًا وَسُرَرًا عَلَيْهَا يَتَكَبَّرُونَ
﴿٣٤﴾ وَزُخْرَفًا وَإِنْ كُلُّ ذَلِكَ لَمَّا مَتَّعَ الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةُ عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ
لِلْمُتَّقِينَ ﴿٣٥﴾﴾ (سورة الزخرف: ٣٣-٣٥)

- 43:33. Were it not that all humankind would follow one path [namely disbelief], We would have granted to those who disbelieve in the Most Gracious roofs of silver for their houses, and staircases [of silver] on which to climb,
- 43:34. and doors [of silver] for their houses, and couches [of silver] on which to recline,
- 43:35. and [all these things made] of gold too. But all of that is but enjoyments of the life of this world, and the hereafter with your Lord is [only] for those who fear Him.

Here Allah tells us that this world is worthless before Him, and that were it not for His kindness and mercy towards His slaves, over which nothing takes precedence, He would have granted a life of ease and luxury in this world to those who disbelieve, and He would have granted them ﴿roofs of silver for their houses, and staircases [of silver] on which to climb﴾ up to their roofs, ﴿and doors [of silver] for their houses, and couches [of silver] on which to recline﴾.

And He would have given them ﴿[all these things made] of gold too﴾.

But what prevented Him from doing that was His mercy towards His slaves, lest they hasten to disbelieve and commit many sins because of their love of worldly gain.

This indicates that He may withhold some worldly gains from His slaves, from communities or from individuals, in their best interests. This world is not worth a gnat's wing before Allah, and all the things mentioned are but enjoyments of the life of this world; they are tainted with stress, grief and sorrow and are transient. The hereafter is better before Allah for those who fear their Lord by obeying His commands and heeding His prohibitions, because its blessings are perfect and complete in all aspects, in paradise there is everything that souls could desire and could delight the eyes, and they will abide therein forever. How great is the difference between the two realms!

﴿وَمَنْ يَعْشُ عَنْ ذِكْرِ الرَّحْمَنِ نُقَيِّضْ لَهُ شَيْطَانًا فَهُوَ لَهُ قَرِينٌ﴾ ٣٦ ﴿وَلَا يَنْصُرُهُمْ﴾
 عَنِ السَّبِيلِ وَيَحْسَبُونَ أَنَّهُمْ مُّهْتَدُونَ﴾ ٣٧ ﴿حَقَّ إِذَا جَاءَنَا قَالَ يَلَيْتَ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَكَ بَعْدَ﴾
 الْمَشْرِقَيْنِ قَيْسٌ الْقَرِينُ﴾ ٣٨ ﴿وَلَنْ يَنْفَعَكُمْ الْيَوْمَ إِذْ ظَلَمْتُمْ أَنَّكُمْ فِي الْعَذَابِ﴾
 مُشْتَرِكُونَ﴾ ٣٩ ﴿ (سورة الزُّخْرُف: ٣٦-٣٩)

- 43:36. Whoever turns away from the reminder of the Most Gracious [the Qur'an], We will assign to him a devil to be his constant companion.
- 43:37. Verily they [the devils] bar them from the [right] path, but they think that they are rightly guided.
- 43:38. Then when [such a one] comes to Us, he will say [to his devil companion]: Would that there was between me and you the distance between east and west. What a wretched companion!
- 43:39. [It will be said to them:] As you have done wrong, it will not benefit you today that you are to share the punishment.

Here Allah tells us of the severe punishment for those who turn away from His reminder:

﴿Whoever turns away from the reminder of the Most Gracious﴾ namely the Holy Qur'an which is the greatest mercy that the Most Gracious has bestowed upon His slaves; whoever accepts it has accepted the best of gifts and has attained the most sublime aims and goals, but whoever turns away from it and rejects it has failed and is exposed to loss in such a way that he will never be blessed after that, and the Most Gracious will assign to him a rebellious devil to accompany him, make false promises to him, raise his hopes and incite him to commit sins.

﴿Verily they [the devils] bar them from the [right] path﴾ that is, the straight path and the true religion
 ﴿but they think that they are rightly guided﴾ because the devil makes falsehood fair-seeming to them and makes them turn away from the truth, thus combining the two matters.

If it is asked: does this person have any excuse because he thinks that he is rightly guided, although he is not? The response is: no, he and his ilk have no excuse, because the cause of their ignorance is turning away from the reminder of Allah, even though they are able to choose guidance. They showed no interest in guidance, even though they were able to do so, and they chose falsehood. So the fault is theirs and the error is theirs.

This is the condition of the one who turns away from the reminder of Allah in this world, with his devil companion; he is in a state of misguidance and error, as for him, the facts are turned upside down.

As for his situation when he comes to his Lord in the hereafter, it will be the worst of situations, and he will express regret, sorrow and grief that will not help him at all, and he will disavow his devil companion. Hence Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿Then when [such a one] comes to Us, he will say [to his devil companion]: Would that there was between me and you the distance between east and west. What a wretched companion!﴾. This is like the passage in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿On that day, the wrongdoer will bite on his hands and say: Would that I had taken a path with the Messenger. Alas for me! Would that I had not taken So-and-so as a friend! He led me astray from the Reminder [the Qur'an] after it had come to me. And Shaytân is ever treacherous to man.﴾ (al-Furqân 25: 27-29)

﴿[It will be said to them:] As you have done wrong, it will not benefit you today that you are to share the punishment﴾ that is, on the Day of Resurrection, it will not benefit you that you are to share the punishment, you and your devil companions and close friends. That is because you shared in wrongdoing, so you will share the consequences and punishment thereof.

But you will not find any consolation in the fact that others are also suffering, for when calamity strikes in this world and many suffer as a result, they find a little consolation in one another, but the calamity of the hereafter consists of all types of punishment, and there will be no relief, not even this kind of relief (namely the consolation of it being shared with others). We ask You, O our Lord, for well-being and relief, by Your mercy.

﴿أَفَأَنْتَ تُسْمِعُ الصُّمَّ أَوْ تَهْدِي الْعُمْى وَمَنْ كَانَ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُبِينٍ ﴿٤٠﴾ فَإِنَّمَا نَذْهَبَنَّ بِكَ فَإِنَّا مِنْهُمْ مُنْقِمُونَ ﴿٤١﴾ أَوْ نُرِيَنَّكَ الَّذِي وَعَدْنَاهُمْ فَإِنَّا عَلَيْهِمْ مُّقْتَدِرُونَ ﴿٤٢﴾ فَاسْتَسِيكَ بِالَّذِي أَوْحَىٰ إِلَيْكَ إِنَّا كَ عَلَىٰ صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ ﴿٤٣﴾ وَإِنَّهُ لَذِكْرٌ لَّكَ وَلِقَوْمِكَ وَسَوْفَ تُسْأَلُونَ ﴿٤٤﴾ وَسْأَلُ مَنْ أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ مِنْ رُسُلِنَا أَجَعَلْنَا مِنْ دُونِ الرَّحْمَنِ إِلَهًا يُعْبَدُونَ ﴿٤٥﴾﴾ (سورة الزخرف: ٤٠-٤٥)

43:40. Can you [O Muhammad] make the deaf to hear, or guide the blind or those who are clearly misguided?

43:41. If We take you away [in death], We will surely exact retribution upon them,

- 43:42. but if We show you that [punishment] of which We warned them, then [you will see a retribution that they could not escape]; verily We have power over them.
- 43:43. So hold fast to that which has been revealed to you. Verily you are on a straight path.
- 43:44. Verily it [the Qur'an] is an honour for you and your people, and surely you will all be questioned [concerning it].
- 43:45. Ask those of Our Messengers whom We sent before you [O Muhammad]: Did We ever appoint any gods to be worshipped besides the Most Gracious?

---

Here Allah says to His Messenger (ﷺ), consoling him for the refusal of the disbelievers to respond to him, and telling him that there is no goodness or purity in them that would cause them to follow guidance:

﴿Can you [O Muhammad] make the deaf to hear, or guide the blind or those who are clearly misguided?﴾ They are aware of being misguided and are content with it.

Just as the deaf person cannot hear sounds and the blind person cannot see, the one who is clearly misguided cannot be guided. Their natural inclinations and way of thinking became corrupted when they turned away from the reminder and acquired corrupt beliefs and evil characteristics which prevented them from being guided, and dictated that they should go further on the path of doom.

There is nothing left for such people except punishment and chastisement, either in this world or in the hereafter. Hence Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿If We take you away [in death], We will surely exact retribution upon them﴾ that is, if We take you away in death before We show you what We have promised them of punishment, then you may be certain on the basis of Our truthful promise that We will wreak vengeance upon them.

﴿but if We show you that [punishment] of which We warned them, then [you will see a retribution that they could not escape]; verily We have power over them﴾, but that depends on what divine wisdom dictates of hastening or delaying the punishment. This is your situation and the situation of these disbelievers.

﴿So hold fast to that which has been revealed to you﴾ in your deeds and by adopting the attitude that is enjoined upon you, calling others to it and striving to implement it in yourself and in others.

﴿Verily you are on a straight path﴾ that leads to Allah and to His paradise. This is something which dictates that you should adhere strongly to it and be guided by it. If you know that it is true, just and right, then you will be basing your affairs on a strong foundation at a time when others are basing their affairs on doubts, illusions, injustice and wrongdoing.

﴿Verily it [the Qur'an] is an honour for you and your people﴾ that is, it is a source of pride for you, a great virtue and an immense blessing, the value of which no one could estimate or describe. It also points out to you what is good for you in this world and the hereafter, and urges you to adhere to it, and it points out to you what is evil and warns you against it.

﴿and surely you will all be questioned [concerning it]﴾ – did you adhere to it, attain honour thereby and benefit from it, or did you fail to adhere to it, so that it became proof against you as a result of your rejecting this blessing?

﴿Ask those of Our Messengers whom We sent before you [O Muhammad]: Did We ever appoint any gods to be worshipped besides the Most Gracious﴾, such that the polytheists have any kind of argument by claiming that they are following one of the Messengers?

If you were to ask them and find out about their lives, you would not find anyone among them who called for taking any other gods besides Allah. Moreover, all of the Messengers, from the first of them to the last, called people to the worship of Allah alone, with no partner or associate. Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿Indeed, We sent to every nation a Messenger [saying]: Worship Allah [alone] and shun false gods...﴾ (an-Nahl 16: 36)

Every Messenger whom Allah sent said to his people:

﴿...worship Allah; you have no god but He...﴾ (al-Mu'minoon 23: 23)

This indicates that the polytheists have no foundation for their ascription of partners to Allah, whether on the basis of sound reasoning or any report from the Messengers.

﴿وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا مُوسَىٰ بِآيَاتِنَا إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ وَمَلَئِهِۦ فَقَالَ إِنِّي رَسُولُ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٤٦﴾ فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ بِآيَاتِنَا إِذَا هُمْ مِنْهَا يَضْحَكُونَ ﴿٤٧﴾ وَمَا نُرِيهِمْ مِنْ آيَةٍ إِلَّا هِيَ أَكْبَرُ مِنْ أُخْتِهَا وَأَخَذْنَاهُمْ بِالْعَذَابِ لَأَعْلَاهُمْ يَرْجِعُونَ ﴿٤٨﴾ وَقَالُوا يَتَأْتِيَ الْسَّاحِرُ أَدْعُ لَنَا رَبَّكَ بِمَا عَهِدَ عِنْدَكَ إِنَّا لَمُهْتَدُونَ ﴿٤٩﴾ فَلَمَّا كَشَفْنَا عَنْهُمْ الْعَذَابَ إِذَا هُمْ يَنْكُتُونَ ﴿٥٠﴾ وَنَادَىٰ فِرْعَوْنُ فِي قَوْمِهِ قَالَ يَنْفِرُوا الْيَوْمَ الْبَيْتَ إِلَىٰ مَلِكٍ مُّصْرَ وَهَٰذِهِ الْأَنْهَارُ تَجْرَىٰ مِنْ تَحْتِي ۖ أَفَلَا بُصِرُونَ ﴿٥١﴾ أَمْرًا أَنَا خَيْرٌ مِنْ هَٰذَا الَّذِي هُوَ مَهِينٌ وَلَا يَكَادُ بَيْنُ ﴿٥٢﴾ فَلَوْلَا أَلْقَىٰ عَلَيْهِ آيَاتُنَا مِنْ ذَهَبٍ أَوْ جَاءَهُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ مُقَرَّرِينَ ﴿٥٣﴾ فَاسْتَحَفَّ قَوْمَهُ، فَاطَاعُوهُ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا قَوْمًا فَاسِقِينَ ﴿٥٤﴾ فَلَمَّا ءَاسَفُونَا أُنْتَقِمْنَا مِنْهُمْ فَأَغْرَقْنَاهُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٥٥﴾ فَجَعَلْنَاهُمْ سَلَفًا وَمَثَلًا لِّلْآخِرِينَ ﴿٥٦﴾﴾ (سورة الزخرف: ٤٦-٥٦)

43:46. Indeed We sent Moosā with Our signs to Pharaoh and his chiefs, and he said: Verily I am the Messenger of the Lord of the worlds.

43:47. But when he came to them with Our signs, they ridiculed them.

- 43:48. Every sign We showed them was greater than the one that came before it, and We afflicted them with punishment<sup>14</sup> so that they might turn in repentance.
- 43:49. They said: O magician, call upon your Lord for us, on the strength of the promise He has made to you;<sup>15</sup> we will surely accept guidance.
- 43:50. But when We removed the punishment from them, they immediately broke their promise.
- 43:51. Pharaoh proclaimed to his people: O my people, does not the dominion of Egypt belong to me, and these rivers flowing at my feet? Do you not see?
- 43:52. Am I not better than this contemptible wretch who cannot even express himself clearly?<sup>16</sup>
- 43:53. Why have no armlets of gold been bestowed upon him, and why have no angels come with him to support him?
- 43:54. Thus he made fools of his people and they obeyed him. They were indeed a rebellious and wicked people.
- 43:55. When they provoked Our wrath, We exacted retribution upon them and We drowned them all.
- 43:56. Thus We made them a precedent and an example for those who would come after them.

---

Having said ﴿Ask those of Our Messengers whom We sent before you [O Muhammad]: Did We ever appoint any gods to be worshipped besides the Most Gracious?﴾ (43: 45), Allah (ﷻ) then describes the situation of Moosâ and his call, which is the most well-known of the

---

<sup>14</sup> Some of the signs came in the form of punishments (floods, locusts, lice, frogs and blood), as mentioned in al-A'râf (7: 133).

<sup>15</sup> The promise was that if they believed in Moosâ, Allah would relieve them of the punishment.

<sup>16</sup> Pharaoh referred to Moosâ in these terms because he had a speech impediment.

calls of the Messengers, because Allah (ﷻ) mentions it a great deal in His Book, and tells us his story with Pharaoh.

«Indeed We sent Moosâ with Our signs» which definitively confirmed the truth of what he brought, such as the staff, the snake, the locusts, the lice and so on

«to Pharaoh and his chiefs, and he said: Verily I am the Messenger of the Lord of the worlds». Thus he called them to acknowledge their Lord, and told them not to worship anything other than Him.

«But when he came to them with Our signs, they ridiculed them» that is, they rejected them, denied them and mocked them, wrongfully and arrogantly. That was not because of any shortcoming in the signs or any lack of clarity in them. Hence Allah says:

«Every sign We showed them was greater than the one that came before it» that is, the later sign was greater than the earlier sign «and We afflicted them with punishment» such as the locusts, lice, frogs, and blood, distinct signs, «so that they might turn in repentance», submit to Allah, and give up their polytheism and evil.

«They said», when the punishment befell them:

«O magician» meaning Moosâ (ﷺ). This was either by way of ridiculing him, or because for them addressing someone in this manner was a kind of praise, so they beseeched him by addressing him as they addressed their so-called scholars, namely the magicians. Therefore they said: «O magician, call upon your Lord for us, on the strength of the promise He has made to you» that is, by virtue of what Allah has bestowed specifically upon you and has favoured you with of favours and virtues, asking Him to relieve us of the punishment;

«we will surely accept guidance» if Allah relieves us of it.

«But when We removed the punishment from them, they immediately broke their promise» that is, they did not keep their word; rather they broke their promise and persisted in their disbelief. This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

«So We sent against them floods, locusts, lice, frogs and blood, distinct signs, but they showed arrogance and were wicked people. When the punishment befell them, they said: O Moosâ, call upon your Lord for us, on the strength of the promise He has made to you; if you remove the punishment from us, we will surely believe in you and we will let the Children of Israel go with you. But when We removed the punishment from them until an appointed term which they were bound to reach, they immediately broke their promise.» (al-A'raf 7: 133-135)

«Pharaoh proclaimed to his people», showing arrogant pride in his falsehood, having been deceived by what he had of power and dominion, and behaving in a tyrannical manner because of the wealth and troops that he had:

«O my people, does not the dominion of Egypt belong to me» that is, am I not the one who owns and controls all of that?

«and these rivers flowing at my feet» that is, the streams that were diverted from the Nile to flow among the palaces and gardens

«Do you not see» my vast dominion?

This stemmed from his great ignorance, for he took pride in something that was not connected to his attitude and character, and he did not take pride in praiseworthy characteristics or righteous deeds.

«Am I not better than this contemptible wretch» the person he referred to – may Allah curse him – as a contemptible wretch was Moosâ ibn 'Imrân, the one to whom the Most Gracious spoke directly, who was of high status before Allah. In other words he was saying: I am honourable and mighty, and he is lowly, contemptible and despised, so which of us is better?

«who», furthermore, «cannot even express himself clearly» because he is not eloquent in speech. This is not something shameful at all, because he was still able to express what was in his heart, even though speaking was difficult for him.

Then Pharaoh said: «Why have no armlets of gold been bestowed upon him» that is, why can Moosâ not be like that, adorned with jewellery and armlets?

«and why have no angels come with him to support him» and help him with his call?

«Thus he made fools of his people and they obeyed him» that is, he insulted their intelligence by giving them these flimsy arguments that could not prove anything and were not based on facts; they could not prove anything, true or false, and could not be accepted by any except those who were weak-minded.

What proof was there to indicate that Pharaoh was in the right, just because the dominion of Egypt belonged to him and its rivers flowed at his feet? What proof was there to indicate that what Moosâ brought was false? Was it the fact that he had few followers, had difficulty in speaking and Allah did not bestow armlets upon him? But Pharaoh was addressing a people who did not think rationally, so whatever he said they would accept, regardless of whether it was true or false, for «They were indeed a rebellious and wicked people». Because of their wickedness, Allah gave Pharaoh control over them and he made polytheism and evil fair-seeming to them.

«When they provoked Our wrath» that is, incurred Our anger by their deeds,

«We exacted retribution upon them and We drowned them all. Thus We made them a precedent and an example for those who would come after them» so that they might learn lessons from them and pay heed to their story.

﴿وَلَمَّا ضُرِبَ ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ مَثَلًا إِذَا قَوْمُكَ مِنْهُ يَصِدُّونَ﴾ ﴿٥٧﴾ وَقَالُوا
﴿إِن هُوَ إِلَّا جَدْلٌ﴾ ﴿٥٨﴾ بَلْ هُمْ قَوْمٌ خَصِمُونَ ﴿٥٩﴾ إِنَّ هُوَ إِلَّا

عَبْدٌ أَعْْمَنَّا عَلَيْهِ وَجَعَلْنَاهُ مَثَلًا لِّبَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ ﴿٥٨﴾ وَلَوْ نَشَاءُ لَجَعَلْنَا مِنْكُمْ مَلَائِكَةً فِي الْأَرْضِ يَخْلُقُونَ ﴿٥٩﴾ وَإِنَّهُ لَعِلْمٌ لِّلسَّاعَةِ فَلَا تَمْتَرُنَّ بِهَا وَاتَّبِعُونِ هَذَا صِرَاطٌ مُّسْتَقِيمٌ ﴿٦٠﴾ وَلَا يَصُدَّنَّكُمْ الشَّيْطَانُ إِنَّهُ لَكُمْ عَدُوٌّ مُّبِينٌ ﴿٦١﴾ وَلَمَّا جَاءَ عِيسَى بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ قَالَ قَدْ جِئْتُكُمْ بِالْحِكْمَةِ وَلِأُبَيِّنَ لَكُمْ بَعْضَ الَّذِي تَخْتَلِفُونَ فِيهِ فَأَتَقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا ﴿٦٢﴾ إِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ رَبِّي وَرَبُّكُمْ فَاعْبُدُوهُ هَذَا صِرَاطٌ مُّسْتَقِيمٌ ﴿٦٣﴾ فَاخْتَلَفَ الْأَحْزَابُ مِنْ بَيْنِهِمْ فَوَيْلٌ لِّلَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا مِنْ عَذَابٍ يَوْمَ الْيَوْمِ ﴿٦٤﴾ (سورة الزخرف: ٥٧-٦٥)

- 43:57. When the son of Maryam was mentioned as an example, your people [O Muhammad] laughed and jeered,<sup>17</sup>
- 43:58. and said: Are our gods better, or he? They only mentioned him to you for the sake of argument. Indeed they are an argumentative people.
- 43:59. He was but a slave whom We blessed, and We made him a sign for the Children of Israel.

<sup>17</sup> A polytheist called 'Abdullāh ibn az-Zab'ari asked the Prophet (ﷺ) about the verse:

﴿Verily, you [O disbelievers] and that which you worship besides Allah are fuel for hell...﴾ (al-Anbiyā' 21: 98)

– and whether it applied only to Quraysh and their gods, or to other nations too. When the Prophet (ﷺ) replied that it applied to all nations, the polytheist said: Do you not say that 'Eesā is a Prophet of Allah and you venerate him and his mother, when you know that the Christians worship them both, and the angels are also worshipped? If all of these will be in the fire, we are happy to be with them, along with our gods! The Prophet (ﷺ) remained silent and Quraysh jeered and gloated, as they thought that he had been defeated in argument. Then Allah revealed the words:

﴿But those for whom We have decreed good will surely be kept far away from it [the fire].﴾ (al-Anbiyā' 21: 101) – and these verses (43: 57-58), confirming that those who rejected the worship directed to them would never enter the fire.

- 43:60. If We so willed, We could [destroy you all] and make angels to replace you on earth.
- 43:61. Verily he ['Eesâ] will be a sign of the Hour, so have no doubt about it, and follow me; this is a straight path.
- 43:62. Do not let the Shayṭân turn you away [from the straight path]; verily he is to you an avowed enemy.
- 43:63. When 'Eesâ came with clear signs, he said: I have come to you with wisdom, and to clarify to you some of that concerning which you differ. So fear Allah, and obey me.
- 43:64. Verily Allah is my Lord and your Lord, so worship Him. This is a straight path.
- 43:65. But the sects differed among themselves [concerning 'Eesâ]. So woe to the wrongdoers from the punishment of a painful day!

«When the son of Maryam was mentioned as an example» that is, when it was said that it is forbidden to worship him, and worship of him was deemed equivalent to worshipping the idols and rivals, «your people [O Muhammad]» who disbelieved in you «laughed and jeered» as they persisted in their opposition to you, and they gloated and claimed that they had defeated you in argument.

«and said: Are our gods better, or he?» – referring to 'Eesâ, as worship of all of them was forbidden and the worship of all of them was included in the warning. Moreover, the words:

«Verily, you [O disbelievers] and that which you worship besides Allah are fuel for hell; to it you will [surely] come.» (al-Anbiyâ' 21: 98)

– were also revealed.

Their argument was as follows: it is well established and known to us and to you, O Muhammad (ﷺ), that 'Eesâ is one of the slaves of Allah who is close to Him and will have a good end, so why did you prohibit equally the worship of all of them (that is, of 'Eesâ and of the idols)? Were it not for the fact that your argument is false, you would not have fallen into this contradiction! So why did you say, ﴿Verily you [O disbelievers] and that which you worship besides Allah are fuel for hell; to it you will [surely] come﴾? (21: 98) For this wording – according to their claim – included both the idols and ‘Eesâ; is this not a contradiction, and is not a contradiction in argument an indication that it is false?

This was the best argument they could come up with, which caused them to gloat and rejoice, so they started jeering and laughing.

But in fact – praise be to Allah – it is one of the weakest and falsest of specious arguments. The fact that Allah forbade equally the worship of the Messiah and the worship of idols is because He alone is deserving of worship, and no one else deserves to be worshipped, no created being, no angel who is close to Allah, no Prophet who was sent, or any other created entity. So what is so confusing about forbidding the worship of ‘Eesâ and anyone else equally? The fact that Jesus (ﷺ) is favoured by Allah and is close to his Lord highlights the difference between him and the idols. In fact he is as Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿He was but a slave whom We blessed﴾ with prophethood, wisdom, knowledge and righteous deeds, ﴿and We made him a sign for the Children of Israel﴾ by which they would know the might of Allah (ﷻ) Who brought him into being without a father.

As for the verse:

﴿Verily, you [O disbelievers] and that which you worship besides Allah are fuel for hell; to it you will [surely] come.﴾ (al-Anbiyâ’ 21: 98)

– the response to it is as follows:

- 1- In the phrase ﴿Verily you [O disbelievers] and that which you worship besides Allah﴾, the word mâ (translated here as ﴿that which﴾) refers to that which is inanimate and has no power of rational thinking, which does not include the Messiah and others like him.

2- It is addressed to the polytheists who lived in Makkah and its environs, who only worshipped idols and images; they did not worship the Messiah.

3- After this verse, Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿But those for whom We have decreed good will surely be kept far away from it.﴾ (al-Anbiyā' 21: 101)

Undoubtedly 'Eesâ and other Prophets and close friends of Allah are included in this verse.

Then Allah says: ﴿If We so willed, We could [destroy you all] and make angels to replace you on earth﴾ that is, We could cause angels to take your place on earth, and they would remain on earth until We sent to them angels like them. As for you, O humans, you cannot bear it if angels are sent to you, so by His mercy towards you, Allah has sent to you Messengers of your own kind, so that you will be able to learn from them.

﴿Verily he ['Eesâ] will be a sign of the Hour﴾ that is, verily 'Eesâ (ﷺ) will be an indication of the approach of the Hour, and that the One Who brought him into being from a mother without a father is able to resurrect the dead from their graves; or 'Eesâ (ﷺ) will descend at the end of time and will be one of the portents of the Hour.

﴿so have no doubt about it﴾ that is, do not doubt the coming of the Hour, for doubt thereof constitutes disbelief

﴿and follow me﴾ by complying with what I enjoin upon you, and avoiding what I forbid to you

﴿this is a straight path﴾ that leads to Allah (ﷻ).

﴿Do not let the Shayṭān turn you away [from the straight path]﴾ and from what Allah enjoins upon you, for verily the Shayṭān ﴿is to you an avowed enemy﴾ who is keen to mislead you and is doing his utmost to achieve that.

﴿When 'Eesâ came with clear signs﴾ confirming his prophethood and the soundness of that which he brought to them, such as raising the dead, healing those born blind and lepers, and other signs,

﴿he said﴾ to the Children of Israel:

﴿I have come to you with wisdom﴾ namely prophethood and knowledge of what to do and how it should be done

﴿and to clarify to you some of that concerning which you differ﴾ that is, to explain to you what is correct and to give you answers, so as to dispel confusion from you.

He came to complete the law of Moosâ (ﷺ) and the rulings of the Torah, and to give some concessions to make things easier, which dictated that they should follow him and accept what he brought to them.

﴿So fear Allah, and obey me﴾ that is, worship Allah alone, with no partner or associate, obey His commands, heed His prohibitions, and believe in me and what I say, ﴿and obey me﴾.

﴿Verily Allah is my Lord and your Lord, so worship Him. This is a straight path﴾ which involves affirmation of the oneness of divine Lordship, for Allah is the Lord Who takes care of His creation by bestowing all kinds of blessings, both visible and hidden. It also affirms that worship should be devoted to Allah alone, as it enjoins worship of Him alone, with no partner or associate. Here ‘Eesâ (ﷺ) stated that he was one of the slaves of Allah, and was not as the Christians describe him, the “son of God” or the “third of three” (trinity), and he stated that the things mentioned comprise the straight path that leads to Allah and to His paradise.

When ‘Eesâ (ﷺ) came to them with this message, ﴿the sects differed among themselves﴾, each saying something false concerning him and rejecting the message he brought, except those of the believers whom Allah guided, who testified that he was a Messenger of Allah and who believed in everything that he brought, and said that he was the slave and Messenger of Allah.

﴿So woe to the wrongdoers from the punishment of a painful day!﴾ that is, how great the sorrow of the wrongdoers will be, and how great their loss, on that day!

﴿ هَلْ يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَّا السَّاعَةَ أَنْ تَأْتِيَهُمْ بَغْتَةً وَهُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ﴾ (٦٦) الْأَخِلَاءُ
يَوْمَئِذٍ بَعْضُهُمْ لِبَعْضٍ عَدُوٌّ إِلَّا الْمُتَّقِينَ ﴿٦٧﴾ يَنْعَادُونَ لِحَقِّكَ الْيَوْمَ وَلَا
أَنْتُمْ تَحْزَنُونَ ﴿٦٨﴾ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا بِآيَاتِنَا وَكَانُوا مُسْلِمِينَ ﴿٦٩﴾ ادْخُلُوا الْجَنَّةَ
أَنْتُمْ وَأَزْوَاجُكُمْ تُحْبَرُونَ ﴿٧٠﴾ يُطَافُ عَلَيْهِمْ بِصِحَافٍ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ وَأَكْوَابٍ وَفِيهَا مَا
شَتَّاهِ الْإِنْسُ وَلَكُلِّ الْأَعْيُنُ وَأَنْتُمْ فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ ﴿٧١﴾ وَتِلْكَ الْجَنَّةُ الَّتِي
أُورِثْتُمُوهَا بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٧٢﴾ لَكُمْ فِيهَا فَاكِهَةٌ كَثِيرَةٌ مِنْهَا تَأْكُلُونَ ﴿٧٣﴾

(سورة الزخرف: ٦٦-٧٣)

- 43:66. What are they waiting for, but for the Hour to come upon them suddenly when they least expect it?
- 43:67. Close friends, on that day, will be enemies to one another, except the righteous.
- 43:68. [It will be said to them:] O My slaves, you will have no fear this day, nor will you grieve,
- 43:69. [you] who believed in Our revelations and submitted [to Us, in Islam].
- 43:70. Enter the garden, you and your spouses, rejoicing.
- 43:71. Platters of gold and cups will be passed around among them; [there will be] therein all that souls may desire and all that eyes may delight in, and you will abide therein forever.
- 43:72. This is paradise, which you are made to inherit as a reward for your deeds.
- 43:73. In it there is abundant fruit for you to eat.

Here Allah says: what are the disbelievers waiting for? Are they expecting anything ﴿but for the Hour to come upon them suddenly when they least expect it?﴾ That is, when it comes, do not ask about the situation of those who disbelieved in it and ridiculed the one who brought the message about it.

«Close friends, on that day» that is, the Day of Resurrection, who had bonded on the basis of disbelief and disobedience towards Allah «will be enemies to one another» because their close friendship and love in this world were not for the sake of Allah, therefore on the Day of Resurrection their friendship will turn into enmity «except the righteous» who avoided polytheism and sins; their friendship will persist and continue, as the one for Whose sake they loved one another is eternal.

Then Allah mentions the reward of the righteous; He will call them on the Day of Resurrection with that which will bring joy to their hearts and take away all ills and evils. He will say:

«O My slaves, you will have no fear this day, nor will you grieve» that is, you will have no fear with regard to what you expect to happen in the future, and you will feel no grief for what happened in the past. Once it is established that there is no fear or distress with regard to the future or the past, then what one loves and seeks is confirmed.

«[you] who believed in Our revelations and submitted [to Us, in Islam]» that is, they are described as believing in the revelations of Allah, which includes affirming them by means of that without which they cannot be affirmed, namely knowledge of their meanings and acting upon what they say.

«and submitted [to Us, in Islam]» that is, they submitted to Allah in all their affairs, thus they combined righteous deeds both outward and inward.

«Enter the garden» which is the eternal abode «you and your spouses» who did the same as you. The word translated here as «spouses» includes all companions, namely spouses, children, friends and so on.

﴿rejoicing﴾ that is, blessed and honoured, for favours will come to you from your Lord, good things, happiness, joy and delights such as cannot be described.

﴿Platters of gold and cups will be passed around among them﴾ that is, immortal youths will go around among them, serving them food and drink in the finest vessels, namely platters of gold and cups of silver, smoother than glass.

﴿[there will be] therein﴾ that is, in paradise
 ﴿all that souls may desire and all that eyes may delight in﴾. This is a comprehensive phrase which includes all kinds of delights, joys, comfort and happiness; everything that souls may desire of food, drink, clothing and spouses; and all that eyes may delight in of beautiful scenes, abundant trees, a life of ease and luxury, and adorned buildings. All of that is available there, prepared for its people, in the most perfect manner, as Allah (ﷻ) says elsewhere:

﴿There they will have fruit and all that they ask for.﴾ (Yâ Seen 36: 57)

﴿and you will abide therein forever﴾ this is the perfection of the bliss of the people of paradise, which is eternal life therein, including the continuity and increase of its blessings, which will never cease.

﴿This is paradise﴾ that is described in the most perfect terms;
 ﴿which you are made to inherit as a reward for your deeds﴾ that is, Allah will cause you to inherit it because of your deeds. By His grace, He has made it a recompense for those deeds and has filled it with abundant mercy.

﴿In it there is abundant fruit﴾ – this is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿In them are two kinds of every fruit.﴾ (ar-Rahmân 55: 52)

﴿for you to eat﴾ that is, you may eat whatever you choose of those delicious fruits.

Having mentioned the delights of paradise, Allah follows that with mention of the punishment of hell, as He says:

﴿إِنَّ الْمُجْرِمِينَ فِي عَذَابٍ مُّهِينٍ ۖ لَا يَنْفَعُهُمْ فِيهِ مِيلُسٌ ۖ وَمَا ظَلَمْنَاهُمْ وَلَكِنْ كَانُوا هُمُ الظَّالِمِينَ ۖ﴾ ﴿٧٦﴾ ﴿وَنَادُوا بِمَلِكٍ لِّيَقْضِيَ عَلَيْهِمُ تَارِكًا قَالَ إِنَّا أَنْكُرُكُمْ كُنُوتَ﴾ ﴿٧٧﴾ ﴿لَقَدْ جِئْتَكُمْ بِالْحَقِّ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَكُمْ لِلْحَقِّ كَارِهُونَ﴾ ﴿٧٨﴾ (سورة الزُّحْرُف: ٧٤-٧٨)

- 43:74. Verily the evildoers will abide forever in the torment of hell.
- 43:75. It will not be lightened for them, and they will be plunged into utter despair therein.
- 43:76. We will not have wronged them; rather they will have wronged themselves.
- 43:77. They will call out [to the keeper of hell]: O Mâlik, let your Lord put an end to us! He will say: Verily you will remain [in the same plight forever].
- 43:78. Verily We brought you the truth, but most of you were averse to the truth.

﴿Verily the evildoers﴾ who did evil by disbelieving and rejecting the truth

﴿will abide forever in the torment of hell﴾ that is, they will be immersed in it, encompassed by the torment on all sides, and they will never emerge from it.

﴿It will not be lightened for them﴾ even for a brief moment, whether by stopping it altogether or alleviating the punishment ﴿and they will be plunged into utter despair therein﴾ that is, they will give up all hope of anything good and will have no hope of relief. They will call out to their Lord, saying:

﴿Our Lord, deliver us from this. Then if we return [to evil], we will indeed be wrongdoers. Allah will say: Away with you! Be humiliated therein and do not speak to Me.﴾ (al-Mu'minoon 23: 107-108)

This severe punishment will be because of what their hands sent forth and because they wronged themselves; Allah will not wrong them and will not punish them for no sin or misdemeanour on their part.

«They will call out» when they are in hell, hoping to get some relief: «O Mâlik, let your Lord put an end to us!» That is, let Him cause us to die so that we may find some relief, for we are in a state of extreme distress and severe punishment that we have no patience to bear. But Mâlik, the keeper of hell, will say to them, when they ask him to pray to Allah to put an end to them: «Verily you will remain [in the same plight forever]» that is, you will abide therein forever and never emerge from it. So they will not get what they seek; rather the response will be a denial of their request which will add to their distress. Then Allah will rebuke them for what they did, saying:

«Verily We brought you the truth» which required you to follow it, and if you had followed it, you would have triumphed and been blessed,

«but most of you were averse to the truth» hence you were doomed in such a way that you will never attain any bliss thereafter.

﴿أَمْ أَبْرَمُوا أَمْرًا فَإِنَّا مُبْرِمُونَ ﴿٧٩﴾ أَمْ يَحْسَبُونَ أَنَّا لَا نَسْمَعُ سِرَّهُمْ وَنَجْوَاهُمْ بَلَىٰ وَرُسُلُنَا لَدَيْهِمْ يَكْتُبُونَ ﴿٨٠﴾﴾ (سورة الزخرف: ٧٩-٨٠)

43:79. Or have they [the disbelievers] devised a plan? Verily We too have devised a plan.

43:80. Or do they think that We do not hear what they conceal [of thoughts] and what they talk about in secret? Indeed [We do], and Our messengers [angels] are with them, recording everything.

Here Allah says: or have the disbelievers who stubbornly reject the truth devised a plan? In other words have they come up with this scheme and plotted against the truth and the one who brought the truth, so as to refute it on the basis of what they present of false and misleading arguments?

«Verily We too have devised a plan» that is, We too are planning something and taking measures that are superior to their plan and will undermine their schemes and render them ineffective. This refers to what Allah has made available of measures and evidence to support the truth and defeat falsehood, as He says elsewhere:

«Nay, rather We hurl the truth against falsehood, and it crushes it...»
(al-Anbiyā' 21: 18)

«Or do they think» in their ignorance and wrongdoing
«that We do not hear what they conceal [of thoughts]» that they do not speak about; rather they conceal them in their hearts
«and what they talk about in secret» that is, their private discussions when they talk to one another in low voices, and that is why they dare to commit sins, thinking that there will be no consequences and no requital for what they concealed of it?

But Allah responded to them by saying: «Indeed [We do]» that is, We know their concealed thoughts and what they talk about in secret
«and Our messengers» namely the noble angels
«are with them, recording everything» that they do, and the record is kept to be used against them when they come on the Day of Resurrection; they will find the record of what they did present, and your Lord will not wrong anyone.

﴿قُلْ إِنْ كَانَ لِلرَّحْمَنِ وَلَدٌ فَأَنَا أَوَّلُ الْعَالَمِينَ﴾ ٨١ سُبْحَنَ رَبِّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ رَبِّ
الْعَرْشِ عَمَّا يَصِفُونَ ﴿٨٢﴾ فَذَرَهُمْ يَخُوضُوا وَيَلْعَبُوا حَتَّى يُلَاقُوا يَوْمَهُمُ الَّذِي يُوْعَدُونَ
﴿٨٣﴾ (سورة الزخرف: ٨١-٨٣)

- 43:81. Say: If the Most Gracious had a son, I would have been the first one to worship [him].
- 43:82. Glory be to the Lord of the heavens and the earth, Lord of the Throne, [and exalted be He] far above what they ascribe [to Him].
- 43:83. So leave them to indulge in their falsehood and idle worldly pursuits until they encounter that day of theirs which they are promised.

That is, say, O noble Messenger, to those who ascribe a son to Allah, when He is the One, the Unique, the Eternal, Who has not taken a spouse or a son, and there is none like unto Him:

﴿Say: If the Most Gracious had a son, I would have been the first one to worship [him]﴾ namely that son, because he would be a part of his father, and I am the first of humankind to submit to that which is beloved to Allah. But I am the first to reject this notion and the most emphatic in denying it. Thus it is known that it is false.

This is a strong argument, for those who know how the Messengers really are. When it is known that they are the most perfect of humankind, and that they are the first to accept and adhere to and perfect everything that is good, and they are the first to reject, denounce and keep away from everything that is evil, therefore if the Most Gracious had a son, and it was true, then Muhammad ibn 'Abdullâh (ﷺ), the best of the Messengers, would have been the first one to worship him and the polytheists would not have done that before him.

It may be that what the verse means is: if the Most Gracious had a son, I would be the first to worship Allah, and part of worshipping Allah is to affirm that which He affirmed, and to deny that which He denied. This is a verbal act of worship in terms of beliefs, that would mean, if it were really true, that I would be the first one to confirm it.

Thus it is known that the claim of the polytheists is false and corrupt, both in terms of rational thinking and in terms of religious texts.

«Glory be to the Lord of the heavens and the earth, Lord of the Throne, [and exalted be He] far above what they ascribe [to Him]» of having a partner, supporter, helper, child or other things that the polytheists ascribe to Him.

«So leave them to indulge in their falsehood and idle worldly pursuits» that is, let them indulge in falsehood and play with that which leads to no results, for the knowledge they acquire is harmful and not beneficial, for they are seeking kinds of knowledge that would help them to refute the truth and that which was brought by the Messengers, and their deeds are foolish play that do not lead to purification of souls or yield knowledge. Hence He warned them of some of what lies ahead of them on the Day of Resurrection, as He says: «until they encounter that day of theirs which they are promised», for they will come to know what they have gained from their efforts of eternal doom and everlasting punishment.

﴿وَهُوَ الَّذِي فِي السَّمَاءِ إِلَهٌُ وَفِي الْأَرْضِ إِلَهٌُ وَهُوَ الْحَكِيمُ الْعَلِيمُ﴾ (٨٤) وَتَبَارَكَ الَّذِي لَهٗ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا وَعِنْدَهُ عِلْمُ السَّاعَةِ وَإِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿٨٥﴾ وَلَا يَمْلِكُ الَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِهِ الشَّفَعَةَ إِلَّا مَنْ شِئَ بِالْحَقِّ وَهُمْ يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٨٦﴾ وَلَئِنْ سَأَلْتَهُمْ مَنْ خَلَقَهُمْ لَيَقُولُنَّ اللَّهُ فَأَنَّى يُؤْفَكُونَ ﴿٨٧﴾ وَقِيلَ لَهُ بَرِّبِّ إِنَّ هَؤُلَاءِ قَوْمٌ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٨٨﴾ فَأَصْفَحْ عَنْهُمْ وَقُلْ سَلِّمْ فَسَوْفَ يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٨٩﴾ (سورة الزخرف: ٨٤-٨٩)

43:84. It is He [Allah] Who is God in heaven and God on earth, and He is the Most Wise, All-Knowing.

43:85. Blessed be He to Whom belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth, and all that is between them. He alone has knowledge of the Hour, and to Him you will be brought back.

- 43:86. Those on whom they call besides Allah have no power of intercession, except those who bear witness to the truth on the basis of knowledge.
- 43:87. If you ask them who created them, they will surely say: Allah. Then how could they have gone so far astray?
- 43:88. [The Prophet] said: O my Lord, verily these are people who do not believe.
- 43:89. But bear with them and say: Peace. They will come to know [the consequences of their actions].

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us that He alone is deserving of worship in the heavens and on earth. Therefore all the inhabitants of the heavens, and the believers among the inhabitants of the earth, worship Him, venerate Him, submit to His majesty and are in need of Him, because of His perfect attributes.

﴿The seven heavens and the earth, and all those who are therein, glorify Him. There is not a thing that does not glorify Him with praise...﴾ (al-Isrâ' 17: 44)

﴿To Allah prostrate all those who are in the heavens and on earth, willingly or unwillingly...﴾ (ar-Ra'd 13: 15)

Allah (ﷻ) is the only One Who is deserving of devotion and worship, to Whom all creatures turn, willingly or unwillingly. This is like what Allah (ﷻ) says here:

﴿It is He [Allah] Who is God in heaven and God on earth﴾ that is, He is worshipped and loved in both realms; but His essence is above His Throne, distinct from His creation. He is One in His majesty, glorious in His perfection.

﴿and He is the Most Wise﴾ Who created everything on the basis of wisdom, and based His laws on wisdom. He has not created anything but for a wise reason, and He has not prescribed any law but for a wise reason. His divine will and shar'î rulings are all based on wisdom

﴿All-Knowing﴾ – He knows all things; He knows what is said privately and that which is yet more hidden (of unspoken thoughts) (20: 7); not an atom's weight escapes Him in either the upper or lower realm, and nothing smaller or greater than that.

﴿Blessed be He to Whom belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth, and all that is between them﴾ that is, exalted and glorified be He, for His blessings are abundant, His attributes are sublime, and His dominion is great. His dominion is so great that it encompasses the heavens and the earth, and all that is between them; and His knowledge is so vast that He knows all things; He even knows many unseen matters of which no one in creation is aware, no Prophet who was sent and no angel who is close to Him. Hence He says:

﴿He alone has knowledge of the Hour﴾ – no one knows when the Hour will come except He.

Part of His perfect and all-inclusive dominion is that He is in control of the affairs of this world and the hereafter, hence He says: ﴿and to Him you will be brought back﴾ that is, in the hereafter, then He will judge between you according to His just rulings.

Another aspect of His perfect dominion is that no one of His creation has any control over anything at all, and no one will come forth to intercede with Him except by His leave.

﴿Those on whom they call besides Allah have no power of intercession﴾ that is, everyone who is called upon besides Allah, whether they are Prophets or angels or anyone else, has no power to intercede, and they will not intercede except by Allah's leave, and they will not intercede except for those with whom He is pleased. Hence He says:

﴿except those who bear witness to the truth on the basis of knowledge﴾ that is, they bear witness verbally and in their hearts, knowingly. It is stipulated that the testimony should be in favour of the truth, which is testifying to the oneness of Allah and to the prophethood and message of His Messengers, and the truth of what they brought of major and minor matters of religion, basic beliefs, and laws and regulations. These are the ones who will benefit from the intercession of the intercessors, and these are the ones who will be saved from the punishment of Allah and will attain His reward.

Then Allah says: ﴿If you ask them who created them, they will surely say: Allah﴾ that is, if you ask the polytheists about the oneness of divine Lordship, and who is the Creator, they will affirm that it is Allah alone, with no partner or associate.

﴿Then how could they have gone so far astray?﴾ That is, how could they have been diverted from worship of Allah alone and focusing their devotion on Him alone? Their affirmation of the oneness of divine Lordship requires them to affirm the oneness of divinity. This is one of the greatest indications of the falseness of polytheism.

﴿[The Prophet] said: O my Lord, verily these are people who do not believe﴾ that is, the Messenger (ﷺ) said this, complaining to his Lord about the rejection of his people, expressing his sorrow thereat, and feeling sad because of their lack of faith. But Allah (ﷻ) is well aware of this situation and will deal with them by sending the punishment upon them.

But Allah (ﷻ) is forbearing and gives respite to people, delaying the punishment so that they may repent and turn back to Him. Hence He says: ﴿But bear with them and say: Peace﴾ that is, put up with their offence in word and deed, and forgive them; you should not show them anything but the attitude of peace, which is the attitude of people of intelligence and understanding towards the ignorant, as Allah (ﷻ) says of His righteous slaves:

﴿...when the ignorant address them...﴾ (al-Furqān 25: 63)

in accordance with their ignorance:

﴿...they say words of peace.﴾ (al-Furqān 25: 63)

The Prophet (ﷺ) obeyed the command of his Lord and reacted with forgiveness and patience to what his people said and did to offend him; he did not respond to it except by showing them kindness and speaking nicely to them. Blessings and peace of Allah be upon the one upon whom Allah bestowed this noble attitude, made him superior to the inhabitants of earth and heaven, and raised him to a status higher than that of the stars.

﴿They will come to know [the consequences of their actions]﴾ that is, the consequences of their sins and evil deeds.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat az-Zukhruf.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

44.

Soorat ad-Dukhân

(Makki)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿حَمْدٌ ۝١﴾ وَالْكِتَابِ الْمُبِينِ ۝٢ إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَاهُ فِي لَيْلَةِ مُبَرَّكَةٍ ۝٣ إِنَّا كُنَّا مُنذِرِينَ ۝٤ فِيهَا يُفْرَقُ كُلُّ أَمْرٍ حَكِيمٍ ۝٥ أَمْرًا مِنْ عِنْدِنَا إِنَّا كُنَّا مُرْسِلِينَ ۝٦ رَحْمَةً مِنْ رَبِّكَ ۝٧ إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ ۝٨ رَبِّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا ۝٩ إِن كُنْتُمْ مُوقِنِينَ ۝١٠ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ يُحْيِي وَيُمِيتُ رَبُّكُمْ وَرَبُّ آبَائِكُمُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ۝١١ بَلْ هُمْ فِي شَكٍّ يَلْعَبُونَ ۝١٢ فَارْتَقِبْ يَوْمَ تَأْتِي السَّمَاءُ بِدُحَانٍ مُبِينٍ ۝١٣ يَغْشَى النَّاسَ ۝١٤ هَذَا عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ۝١٥ رَبَّنَا اكْشِفْ عَنَّا الْعَذَابَ إِنَّا مُؤْمِنُونَ ۝١٦ أَنَّى لَهُمُ الذِّكْرَى وَقَدْ جَاءَهُمْ رَسُولٌ مُبِينٌ ۝١٧ ثُمَّ تَوَلَّوْا عَنْهُ وَقَالُوا مُعَلَّمٌ مَجْنُونٌ ۝١٨ إِنَّا كَاشِفُوا الْعَذَابَ قَلِيلًا ۝١٩ إِنَّكُمْ عَائِدُونَ ۝٢٠ يَوْمَ نَبْطِشُ الْبَطْشَةَ الْكُبْرَى ۝٢١ إِنَّا مُنْفِقُونَ ۝٢٢﴾

(سورة الدخان: ١-١٦) ﴿١١﴾

44:1. Hâ'. Meem.

44:2. By the clear Book,

- 44:3. verily We sent it down during a blessed night, for We were to give warning.
- 44:4. On that night, all matters are decided<sup>18</sup> on the basis of wisdom,
- 44:5. by Our command. Verily, We were to send Messengers
- 44:6. as a mercy from your Lord. Verily He is the All-Hearing, All-Knowing,
- 44:7. Lord of the heavens and the earth and all that is between them, if you would but be convinced!
- 44:8. There is no god but He – He gives life and causes death – your Lord, and the Lord of your forefathers.
- 44:9. Rather they are steeped in doubt and mockery.
- 44:10. So watch [O Muhammad] for the day when the sky will bring forth obvious smoke
- 44:11. that will envelop the people. [They will say:] This is a painful punishment!
- 44:12. Our Lord, remove the punishment from us; we will surely believe!
- 44:13. How is it that now they pay heed, when a Messenger who explained things clearly came to them before,
- 44:14. then they turned away from him and said: [He is] a madman, taught by others?
- 44:15. We will indeed remove the punishment for a little while, but you will surely go back [to disbelief].
- 44:16. On the day when We seize [them] with a mighty onslaught, We will surely exact retribution.

---

﴿By the clear Book﴾ this is an oath sworn by the Qur'an concerning the Qur'an. Allah swears by the clear Book that explains everything that needs to be explained, stating that He sent it down

---

<sup>18</sup> This refers to Laylat al-Qadr, when Allah decrees matters for His slaves regarding their provision, lifespan and so on, for the coming year.

«during a blessed night» that is, one in which there was much good and barakah (blessing), namely Laylat al-Qadr, which is better than a thousand months. Thus He sent down the best of words on the best of nights and days, to the best of people, in the language of the noble Arabs, to warn thereby people who were enveloped in ignorance and overcome with wretchedness, so that they might find enlightenment and be guided by it, and follow it, thus attaining a great deal of good in this world and in the hereafter. Hence Allah says: «for We were to give warning».

«On that night» namely the blessed night on which the Qur'an was revealed

«all matters are decided on the basis of wisdom» that is, all matters are distinguished and clarified, and every issue of the divine decree and religious decree is recorded as Allah decides.

This recording and clarification that take place on Laylat al-Qadr is one example of the writing that will take place and be clarified, and it will be identical to what is written in al-Lawḥ al-Maḥfooḍh, in which Allah has decreed the affairs of all creatures and their lifespan, provision, deeds and circumstances.

Moreover, Allah has appointed angels to write down what will happen to a person when he is in his mother's womb, then, after he comes to this world, He appoints noble scribes to write down and record his deeds, then on Laylat al-Qadr He decrees what is to happen for the coming year.

All this is part of Allah's perfect knowledge, wisdom and care for His creation.

«by Our command» that is, this wise command is something that comes from Us

«Verily, We were to send Messengers» and send down the Books, and the Messengers were to convey the commands of the Sender and tell of His decrees

﴿as a mercy from your Lord﴾ that is, the sending of the Messengers and the revelation of the Books, the best of which is the Qur'an, is a mercy from the Lord of humankind to humankind. Allah has not bestowed any greater mercy upon His slaves than guiding them by means of the Books and Messengers. All good that they attain in this world and the hereafter is as a result of that and because of it.

﴿Verily He is the All-Hearing, All-Knowing﴾ that is, He hears all voices and knows all matters, visible and hidden. He knew that people needed His Messengers and Books, so He had mercy on them and bestowed that and blessed them with it. To Him be all praise.

﴿Lord of the heavens and the earth and all that is between them﴾ that is, the Creator and Controller of all of that; He controls it as He wills.

﴿if you would but be convinced﴾ that is, and know that for certain. You should know that the Lord of all creatures is their true God, hence He says:

﴿There is no god but He﴾ that is, there is none worthy of worship except Him.

﴿He gives life and causes death﴾ that is, He alone has control over life and death, and He will gather you after your death and requite you for your deeds; if they are good then the outcome will be good, and if they are bad then the outcome will be bad.

﴿your Lord, and the Lord of your forefathers﴾ that is, Lord of the first and the last, Who cares for them and bestows blessings upon them, and protects them from harm.

Having affirmed His Lordship and divinity in such a way as to establish complete certainty and ward off doubt, Allah now tells us that those who disbelieve despite all this clear evidence ﴿are steeped in doubt and mockery﴾ that is, they are immersed in doubt and confusion, heedless about the purpose for which they were created. They have been distracted by focusing on falsehood that will only bring them harm.

«So watch [O Muhammad]» that is, expect the punishment to befall them, for it is at hand and its time has come.

«for the day when the sky will bring forth obvious smoke that will envelop the people» that is, that smoke will surround them.

«[They will say:] This is a painful punishment!»

The commentators differed as to what is meant by this smoke. It was suggested that it is the smoke that will envelop the people when the fire comes near the evildoers on the Day of Resurrection, and that here Allah is warning them of the punishment of the Day of Resurrection, and instructing His Prophet (ﷺ) to watch and wait for that day to come upon them.

This interpretation is supported by the fact that this is the way of the Qur'an in warning the disbelievers and giving them respite, alerting them to that day and its punishments, and consoling the Messenger (ﷺ) and the believers by telling them to wait and see what will happen to those who harm them. It is also supported by the fact that Allah says in this passage (44: 13): «How is it that now they pay heed, when a Messenger who explained things clearly came to them before». This will be said on the Day of Resurrection to the disbelievers, when they ask to go back to this world and they will be told that the time for going back is now over.

It was also suggested that what is meant by the smoke is what happened to the disbelievers of Quraysh when they refused to believe and were too arrogant to accept the proof. So the Prophet (ﷺ) prayed against them, saying:

«O Allah! Help me against them by afflicting them with seven years of famine similar to the seven years of Yoosuf.» (Bukhari)

Therefore Allah sent against them a great famine, until they began to eat dead animals and bones, and they began to see the area between heaven and earth as if it were smoke, but it was not smoke; that was the effect of intense starvation.

Based on this interpretation, the words «the day when the sky will bring forth obvious smoke» refer to what they thought they were seeing, and it was not real smoke.

This situation continued until they asked the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) for mercy, and requested him to call upon Allah for them and ask Him to grant them relief. So he called upon his Lord, and Allah granted them relief. According to this interpretation, in verse 15 «We will indeed remove the punishment for a little while, but you will surely go back [to disbelief]», Allah is stating that He will divert it from them, and warning them that they will go back to arrogance and disbelief. He foretold that this would happen, and it indeed happened; and He foretold that He would punish them with a mighty onslaught. The commentators said that that was the Battle of Badr. This view carries weight.

It is also possible that what is mentioned in the passage, «So watch [O Muhammad] for the day when the sky will bring forth obvious smoke that will envelop the people. [They will say:] This is a painful punishment! Our Lord, remove the punishment from us; we will surely believe! How is it that now they pay heed, when a Messenger who explained things clearly came to them before, then they turned away from him and said: [He is] a madman, taught by others?» (44: 10-14), will all happen on the Day of Resurrection, and that the words, «We will indeed remove the punishment for a little while, but you will surely go back [to disbelief]. On the day when We seize [them] with a mighty onslaught, We will surely exact retribution.» (44: 15-16) refer to what happened to Quraysh (on the day of Badr), as mentioned above.

These verses may also include both meanings, because there is nothing in the wording to rule that out; rather they are perfectly applicable to both, and this is what appears most likely to be correct in my view. And Allah knows best.

﴿وَلَقَدْ فَتَنَّا قَوْمَ فِرْعَوْنَ وَجَاءَهُمْ رَسُولٌ كَرِيمٌ ﴿١٧﴾ أَنْ أَذُوا إِلَىٰ
عِبَادِ اللَّهِ إِنَّي لَكَزُّ رَسُولٌ آمِينَ ﴿١٨﴾ وَأَنْ لَا تَعْلُوا عَلَى اللَّهِ إِنِّي آتِيكُمْ بِسُلْطَانٍ مُبِينٍ ﴿١٩﴾
وَلِيَّ عِذَّتْ بَرِّي وَرَبِّكُمْ أَنْ تَرْجُمُونِ ﴿٢٠﴾ وَإِنْ لَمْ تُؤْمِنُوا لِي فَأَعَزُّ لُونِ ﴿٢١﴾﴾ (سورة الدخان:

(٢١-١٧)

- 44:17. Indeed We tested the people of Pharaoh before them, when a noble Messenger came to them, [saying]:
44:18. Hand over to me the slaves of Allah. Verily I am a trustworthy Messenger to you.
44:19. Do not be arrogant towards Allah, for I come to you with clear authority.
44:20. Verily I seek refuge with my Lord and your Lord lest you kill me.
44:21. If you do not believe me, then let me be.

Having mentioned the rejection of those who disbelieved in the Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ), Allah (ﷻ) states that they had a precedent among the earlier disbelievers, and He mentions their story with Moosâ and how Allah punished them, in order to deter these disbelievers (Quraysh) from what they were doing:

«Indeed We tested the people of Pharaoh before them» that is, We tested them by sending to them Our Messenger Moosâ ibn 'Imrân, the noble Messenger who had a sublime character and attitude that did not exist in others.

He said to them: «Hand over to me the slaves of Allah» that is, he said to Pharaoh and his chiefs: hand over to me the slaves of Allah, meaning the Israelites. In other words: let them go and release them from torment and stop mistreating them, for they are my people and the best of nations of their time. But you have wronged them and enslaved them unjustifiably. So let them be free to worship their Lord.

«Verily I am a trustworthy Messenger to you» that is, a Messenger from the Lord of the worlds, faithful to the purpose for which He has sent me; I do not withhold anything of the message from you, and I do not add anything to it or take anything away from it, and this requires you to submit completely to Him.

«Do not be arrogant towards Allah» by refusing to worship Him or being high-handed towards the slaves of Allah
 «for I come to you with clear authority» that is, with clear evidence. This refers to what he brought of dazzling miracles and overwhelming signs. But they rejected him and were about to kill him, so he sought refuge with Allah from their evil, saying: «Verily I seek refuge with my Lord and your Lord lest you kill me» in the worst manner, which is by stoning to death.

«If you do not believe me, then let me be» that is, you have three choices: either believe in me, which is what I want for you; or if that does not happen, then let me be and do not be against me or for me, just do not harm me.

But they did not choose either of these two options; rather they continued to stubbornly oppose Allah and fight His Prophet Moosâ (ﷺ), and did not release his people, the Israelites, for him.

﴿فَدَعَا رَبَّهُ أَنَّ هَؤُلَاءِ قَوْمٌ تُجْرِمُونَ﴾ (٢٢) فَاسْرِ يَعَادِي لَيْلًا إِنَّكُمْ مُّتَّبِعُونَ ﴿٢٣﴾ وَاتْرِكِ الْبَحْرَ رَهْوًا إِنَّهُمْ جُنْدٌ مُّغْرَقُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾ كَذَرْتُمْ مَن جَنَّتْ وَعُيُونِ ﴿٢٥﴾ وَزُرُوعٍ وَمَقَامٍ كَرِيمٍ ﴿٢٦﴾ وَنَعَمَ كَانُوا فِيهَا فَكِهِينَ ﴿٢٧﴾ كَذَلِكَ وَأَوْرَثْنَاهَا قَوْمًا ءَاخَرِينَ ﴿٢٨﴾ فَمَا بَكَتْ عَلَيْهِمُ السَّمَاءُ وَالْأَرْضُ وَمَا كَانُوا مُنْظَرِينَ ﴿٢٩﴾ (سورة الدخان: ٢٢-٢٩)

44:22. Then he called upon his Lord, [saying]: Verily these are wicked people.

- 44:23. [Allah said:] Travel by night with My slaves; you will surely be pursued.
- 44:24. And leave the sea parted [behind you];<sup>19</sup> for they are an army destined to be drowned.
- 44:25. How many gardens and springs did they leave behind,
- 44:26. and cornfields and splendid mansions,
- 44:27. and a life of ease in which they had taken such delight.
- 44:28. And so it was; and We caused other people to inherit such things.
- 44:29. Neither heaven nor earth wept for them, nor were they given respite.

﴿Then he called upon his Lord, [saying]: Verily these are wicked people﴾ that is, they have committed evil deeds, which requires hastening the punishment.

Thus Moosâ (ﷺ) described their condition; this was an implicit supplication against them, by describing them as wicked, which is more eloquent than praying against them explicitly. This is like the verse which tells us that Moosâ (ﷺ) said of himself:

﴿...O my Lord, I am in need of whatever good You may bestow upon me.﴾ (al-Qaşş 28: 24)

So Allah instructed him to leave at night with His slaves, and told him that Pharaoh and his people would pursue him.

﴿And leave the sea parted [behind you]﴾ that is, leave it as it is. This refers to the time when Moosâ took the Children of Israel away by night, as Allah instructed him, then they were pursued by Pharaoh. Allah instructed Moosâ to strike the sea, so he struck it, and it turned

<sup>19</sup> After crossing the path through the parted sea, Moosâ wanted to strike it again with his staff so that the waters would close. But Allah instructed him to leave it alone so that Pharaoh and his troops would enter it, then He would cause it to close on them and drown them. (an-Nasafi) into twelve pathways, in between which the water became like huge mountains, and Moosâ and his people followed those pathways.

When they emerged from the sea, Allah instructed him to leave the sea parted – that is, to leave it as it was, so that Pharaoh and his troops could pursue them, ﴿for they are an army destined to be drowned﴾.

When all the people of Moosâ had come out of the sea, and the people of Pharaoh had entered it, Allah (ﷻ) commanded the sea to close over them, so every single one of them was drowned. They left behind all that they had enjoyed of this worldly life, and Allah caused the Children of Israel, who had been enslaved by them, to inherit it. Hence He says (44: 25-28):

﴿How many gardens and springs did they leave behind, and cornfields and splendid mansions, and a life of ease in which they had taken such delight. And so it was; and We caused other people to inherit such things﴾ namely the blessings mentioned. Elsewhere, Allah says: ﴿And so it was; and We caused the Children of Israel to inherit such things.﴾ (ash-Shu'arâ' 26: 59)

﴿Neither heaven nor earth wept for them﴾ that is, when Allah destroyed them and eradicated them, neither the heavens nor the earth wept for them. In other words, nobody grieved for them or felt sorry for their loss. Rather everyone rejoiced at their destruction, even the heavens and the earth, because they had not left behind any legacy except something shameful, which brought upon them the curse and the hatred of all the worlds.

﴿nor were they given respite﴾ that is, there was no deferral of their punishment; rather it struck them instantly.

﴿وَلَقَدْ مَجَنَّبْنَا بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ مِنَ الْعَذَابِ الْمُهِينِ ﴿٣٠﴾ مِنْ فِرْعَوْنَ إِنَّهُ كَانَ عَلِيًّا مِنَ الْمُسْرِفِينَ ﴿٣١﴾ وَلَقَدْ أَخَذْنَاهُمْ عَلَىٰ عِلْمٍ عَلَى الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٣٢﴾ وَأَلَيْنَاهُمْ مِنَ الْآيَاتِ مَا فِيهِ بَلَاءٌ مُبِينٌ ﴿٣٣﴾﴾ (سورة الدخان: ٣٠-٣٣)

- 44:30. Thus We delivered the Children of Israel from the humiliating punishment, 44:31. from Pharaoh. Indeed he was high-handed in the land and was one who transgressed all bounds.
 44:32. We chose them, knowingly, above all other nations [of that time], 44:33. and We showed them signs in which there was a clear test.

Then Allah (ﷻ) reminds the Children of Israel of His blessings, as He says:

﴿Thus We delivered the Children of Israel from the humiliating punishment﴾ that they were suffering ﴿from Pharaoh﴾ when he slaughtered their sons and let their womenfolk live.

﴿Indeed he was high-handed in the land﴾ that is, he was arrogant in the land, without justification
 ﴿and was one who transgressed all bounds﴾, audaciously overstepping and violating the limits set by Allah.

﴿We chose them﴾ that is, We selected them
 ﴿knowingly﴾ that is, We knew that they deserved that virtue
 ﴿above all other nations﴾ that is, over all other nations of their own time and those who came before them and after them, until Allah brought the Ummah of Muhammad (ﷺ), who surpassed all other nations, and Allah made them the best nation that He had brought forth for humankind, and He blessed them with virtues with which He did not bless others.

﴿and We showed them﴾ namely the Children of Israel
 ﴿signs﴾ that is, dazzling signs and clear miracles
 ﴿in which there was a clear test﴾ that is, We tested them by bestowing much good upon them and clear favours from Us to them, and proof for them of the soundness of what their Prophet Moosâ (ﷺ) brought to them.

﴿إِنَّ هَٰؤُلَاءِ لَيَقُولُونَ ۖ﴾ (٣٦) ﴿إِنْ هِيَ إِلَّا مَوْتُنَا الْأُولَىٰ وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمُنشَرِينَ ۖ﴾ (٣٧) ﴿قَاتُوا بَنِي آدَمَ إِن كُنتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ۚ﴾ (٣٨) ﴿أَهَمُّ خَيْرٌ أَمْ قَوْمُ تُبَّعَ وَالَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِمْ أَهْلَكْنَاهُمْ إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا مُجْرِمِينَ﴾ (سورة الدخان: ٣٤-٣٧)

44:34. Verily these people [Quraysh] say:

44:35. There is nothing but our first death, and we will not be resurrected.

44:36. Then bring back our forefathers, if you are telling the truth!

44:37. Are they better [in power and strength], or the people of Tubba'<sup>20</sup> and those who came before them? We destroyed them, for verily they were evildoers.

﴿Verily these people [Quraysh]﴾ that is, these disbelievers who think the resurrection is unlikely ﴿say: There is nothing but our first death, and we will not be resurrected﴾ that is, there is only the life of this world; there is no resurrection, no paradise and no hell.

Then they said, showing audacity towards their Lord and trying to outwit Him: ﴿Then bring back our forefathers, if you are telling the truth!﴾ This was one of the demands made by the extremely stubborn ignorant people. What connection is there between the truthfulness of the Messenger (ﷺ) and bringing their forefathers back to life? The signs had already established the truthfulness of what he had brought to them, and these signs were many and varied.

﴿Are they﴾ namely the people referred to here (Quraysh) ﴿better [in power and strength], or the people of Tubba' and those who came before them? We destroyed them, for verily they were evildoers﴾. They are no better than them, for they have committed the same evil deeds, so they should expect the same destruction as that which befell their fellow evildoers.

<sup>20</sup> Tubba': a hereditary title of the kings of Yemen.

﴿وَمَا خَلَقْنَا السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا لَإِغْوٍ ﴿٣٨﴾ مَا خَلَقْنَاهُمَا إِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٣٩﴾ إِنَّ يَوْمَ الْفَصْلِ مِيقَتُهُمْ أَجْمَعِينَ ﴿٤٠﴾ يَوْمَ لَا يُغْنِي مَوْلًى عَنْ مَوْلَى شَيْئًا وَلَا هُمْ يُنصَرُونَ ﴿٤١﴾ إِلَّا مَنْ رَحِمَ اللَّهُ إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ﴿٤٢﴾﴾ (سورة الدخان: ٣٨-٤٢)

- 44:38. We have not created the heavens and the earth, and all that is between them, in vain.
- 44:39. We have not created them both except for a true purpose, but most of them do not know.
- 44:40. Verily the Day of Judgement is the time appointed for all of them,
- 44:41. a day on which no friend [or relative] will avail another at all, nor will they be helped,
- 44:42. except those to whom Allah shows mercy. Verily He is the Almighty, the Most Merciful.

Here Allah tells us about the perfect nature of His might and wisdom, and that He has not created the heavens and earth in vain or for no purpose; He has only created them for a true purpose. In other words, their very creation is based on truth and contains truth, for He has created them to worship Him alone with no partner or associate, and so that He might issue commands and prohibitions to them, and reward them or punish them.

﴿but most of them do not know﴾ therefore they do not reflect upon the creation of the heavens and the earth.

﴿Verily the Day of Judgement﴾ which is the Day of Resurrection, on which Allah will judge between the first and the last, and between all those who differ ﴿is the time appointed for all of them﴾ that is, for all of creation.

Allah will gather all of them on that day, and He will bring them and their deeds and requite them for those deeds. No friend or relative will benefit from another, ﴿nor will they be helped﴾ that is, nor will they be protected from the punishment of Allah (ﷻ), because no one among creation has any control over anything whatsoever.

﴿except those to whom Allah shows mercy. Verily He is the Almighty, the Most Merciful﴾ for they are the ones who will be helped, by the mercy of Allah, which they strove to attain and worked hard in this world for that purpose.

﴿إِنَّ شَجَرَتَ الزَّقُّومِ ٤٣ طَعَامُ الْأَثِيمِ ٤٤ كَالْمُهْلِ يَغْلِي فِي الْبُطُونِ ٤٥ كَغَلْيِ الْحَمِيمِ ٤٦ خُذُوهُ فَاعْتِلُوهُ إِلَى سَوَاءِ الْجَحِيمِ ٤٧ مِنْ عَذَابِ الْحَمِيمِ ٤٨ ذُقْ إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْعَزِيزُ الْكَرِيمُ ٤٩ إِنَّ هَذَا مَا كُنْتُمْ بِهِ تَمْتَرُونَ ٥٠﴾ (سورة الدخان: ٤٣-٥٠)

44:43. Verily the tree of Zaqqoom

44:44. will be the food of the wicked.

44:45. Like dregs of oil, it will boil in their bellies,

44:46. like the boiling of scalding water.

44:47. [It will be said:] Seize him and drag him into the middle of the blazing fire, 44:48. then pour over his head the punishment of scalding water.

44:49. Taste it, O you who were mighty and honourable!

44:50. This is what you used to doubt.

Having mentioned the Day of Resurrection, and stated that He will judge between His slaves on that day, Allah now tells us that they will be divided into two groups: one group in paradise and the other in hell. The latter are the sinners who did deeds of disbelief and disobedience. «Verily» their food will be «the tree of Zaqqoom» which is the worst and most terrible of trees; its food is «Like dregs of oil» or like stinking pus, with a foul stench and taste, exceedingly hot. It will boil in their bellies «like the boiling of scalding water».

And it will be said to the one who is being punished: «Taste it» that is, taste the painful punishment, «O you who were mighty and honourable!» as you thought you were mighty and would be protected from the punishment of Allah, and you thought you were dear to Allah and no punishment would befall you. But today it will become clear to you that you are humiliated, insignificant and worthless.

«This» namely the great punishment «is what you used to doubt», but now it has become clear to you that it is certain and true.

﴿إِنَّ الْمُتَّقِينَ فِي مَقَامٍ أَمِينٍ ﴿٥١﴾ فِي جَنَّاتٍ وَعُيُونٍ ﴿٥٢﴾ يَلْبَسُونَ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا
وَأَسْتَبْرَقَ مُتَقَابِلِينَ ﴿٥٣﴾ كَذَلِكَ وَرَزَقْنَاهُمْ بِحُورٍ عِينٍ ﴿٥٤﴾ يَدْخُلُونَ فِيهَا
بِكُلِّ فَلَاحَةٍ أَمِينَةٍ ﴿٥٥﴾ لَا يَذُوقُونَ فِيهَا الْمَوْتَ إِلَّا الْمَوْتَةَ الْأُولَىٰ
وَوَقَّعَهُمْ عَذَابَ الْجَحِيمِ ﴿٥٦﴾ فَضَلَّامِينَ فِيهِ ۖ ذَٰلِكَ هُوَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ ﴿٥٧﴾ فَإِنَّمَا يَسَّرْنَاهُ بِلِسَانِكَ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَذَكَّرُونَ ﴿٥٨﴾ فَأَرْتَقِبْ إِنَّهُمْ مُّرْتَقِبُونَ ﴿٥٩﴾﴾ (سورة الدخان: ٥١-٥٩)

44:51. Verily the righteous will be in a secure place,

44:52. amidst gardens and springs,

- 44:53. wearing green garments of fine silk and heavy brocade, facing one another.
- 44:54. So it will be, and We will marry them to fair companions with big beautiful eyes.
- 44:55. There they will call for every kind of fruit, secure from all ills.
- 44:56. They will not taste death therein, except the first death, and He will protect them from the punishment of the blazing fire,
- 44:57. by the grace of your Lord. That is the supreme triumph.
- 44:58. We have made this [Qur'an] easy, in your own language, so that they may pay heed.
- 44:59. So wait; verily they too are waiting.

This is the reward of the righteous, who feared Allah and feared His wrath and punishment by refraining from sin and by doing deeds of obedience. As they are not subject to divine wrath and punishment, it is confirmed that they will attain the pleasure of Allah and the immense reward, in shady places with many trees and fruits, flowing springs, and rivers flowing at their feet in the gardens of bliss.

The gardens are described as containing all kinds of delights, perfect in all aspects and not tainted with any unpleasantness in any way whatsoever.

Their garments will be of green silk, fine silk and heavy brocade, such as they desire.

﴿facing one another﴾ in their hearts and physically, in perfect comfort, reassurance, love, good companionship and the best etiquette.

﴿So it will be﴾ that is, there will be perfect bliss and happiness.
 ﴿and We will marry them to fair companions with big beautiful eyes﴾ that is, beautiful women, whose beauty is astounding and dazzling; they will have huge and beautiful eyes.

﴿There﴾ that is, in paradise

﴿they will call for every kind of fruit﴾ both that which has a name in this world and that which has no equivalent in this world. They will call for every kind and type of fruit, which will be brought to them immediately, with no effort

﴿secure from all ills﴾ that is, they will be safe from that coming to an end, and safe from harm, safe from anything that could spoil their bliss, safe from being expelled from paradise, and safe from death. Hence Allah says:

﴿They will not taste death therein, except the first death﴾; there will be no death there at all.

Thus they will attain everything they loved and wanted.

﴿and He will protect them from the punishment of the blazing fire, by the grace of your Lord﴾ that is, attaining bliss and being protected from the punishment will happen by the grace and kindness of Allah towards them, for it is He Who enables them to do the righteous deeds by means of which they will attain goodness in the hereafter, and He will also give them more than they could deserve by virtue of their deeds.

﴿That is the supreme triumph﴾ and what triumph could be greater than attaining the pleasure of Allah and His paradise, and being safe from His punishment and wrath?

﴿We have made this [Qur'an] easy, in your own language﴾ that is, We have made it easy in your language, which is the most eloquent and most sublime of all languages, so its words and meanings have been made easy

﴿so that they may pay heed﴾ to that which will benefit them, and do it, and to that which will harm them, and refrain from it.

﴿So wait﴾ that is, wait for what your Lord has promised you of goodness and victory

﴿verily they too are waiting﴾ for what will befall them of punishment. What a great difference there is between the two kinds of waiting: the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) and his followers are waiting for goodness in this world and the hereafter, whilst their opposite numbers are waiting for evil in this world and the hereafter.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat ad-Dukhân.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

45.

Soorat al-Jâthiyah

(Makki)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿حَمْدٌ ۝١﴾ نَزِيلَ الْكِتَابِ مِنَ اللَّهِ الْعَزِيزِ الْحَكِيمِ ﴿٢﴾ إِنَّ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ لَآيَاتٍ لِّلْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿٣﴾ وَفِي خَلْقِكُمْ وَمَا يَبُتُّ مِنْ دَابَّةٍ ءَايَاتٌ لِّقَوْمٍ يُوقِنُونَ ﴿٤﴾ وَخُلِقَ اللَّيْلُ وَالنَّهَارُ وَمَا أَنزَلَ اللَّهُ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مِنْ رِزْقٍ فَأَحْيَا بِهِ الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا وَتَصْرِيفِ الرِّيحِ ءَايَاتٌ لِّقَوْمٍ يَعْقِلُونَ ﴿٥﴾ تِلْكَ ءَايَاتُ اللَّهِ نَتْلُوهَا عَلَيْكَ بِالْحَقِّ قِيَاسَ حَدِيثٍ بَعْدَ اللَّهِ وَءَايَاتِهِ ءُؤْمِنُونَ ﴿٦﴾ وَيَلْ لَّكُلِّ أَفَّاكٍ أَثِيمٍ ﴿٧﴾ يَسْمَعُ ءَايَاتُ اللَّهِ تُنَلَّى عَلَيْهِ ثُمَّ يُصِرُّ مُسْتَكْبِرًا كَأَن لَّمْ يَسْمَعْهَا فَبَشِيرُهُ عَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ ﴿٨﴾ وَإِذَا عَلِمَ مِنْ ءَايَاتِنَا شَيْئًا أَخَذَهَا هَرُورًا أُولَئِكَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مُّهِينٌ ﴿٩﴾ مِّن رَّآيِهِمْ جَهَنَّمُ وَلَا يُغْنِي عَنْهُمْ مَا كَسَبُوا شَيْئًا وَلَا مَا اتَّخَذُوا مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ أَوْلِيَاءَ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيمٌ ﴿١٠﴾ هَٰذَا هُدًى وَلِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِآيَاتِ رَبِّهِمْ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مِّن رِّجْزٍ أَلِيمٌ ﴿١١﴾ ﴿سورة الجاثية: ١-١١﴾

45:1. Hâ'. Meem.

45:2. The revelation of the Book is from Allah, the Almighty, the Most Wise.

45:3. Verily in the heavens and the earth there are indeed signs for the believers;

- 45:4. and in your own creation, and [in that of] the creatures He scatters [throughout the earth], there are signs for people who are certain in faith.
- 45:5. And the alternation of night and day, the provision [rain] which Allah sends down from the skies and gives life thereby to the earth after its death, and the changing of the winds, are signs for people of understanding.
- 45:6. These are the signs of Allah, which We recount to you in truth. Then in what message, after Allah's signs, will they believe?
- 45:7. Woe to every evil liar,
- 45:8. who hears the signs [and revelations] of Allah being recounted to him, yet he persists in his arrogance, as if he did not hear them. So give him the tidings of a painful punishment.
- 45:9. When he comes to know anything of Our signs [and revelations], he makes a mockery of them. For such there will be a humiliating punishment.
- 45:10. Ahead of them is hell; neither their gains nor those whom they take as protectors other than Allah will avail them anything, and theirs will be a grievous punishment.
- 45:11. This [Qur'an] is true guidance, and for those who deny the signs of their Lord, there will be a punishment of painful suffering.

---

Here Allah issues an implicit command to venerate the Qur'an and pay attention to it, for it is revelation from Allah, Who is the only One Who is deserving of devotion and worship, because of what He possesses of perfect attributes, for He is the only Bestower of blessings, the only One Who possesses perfect power and wisdom. Then He supports that by mention of signs in the universe and in their own selves, such as the creation of the heavens and the earth, what He has scattered in them of creatures, what He has placed in them of benefits, and what Allah sends down of water by means of which He gives life to the land and the people.

All of these are clear signs and proofs of the truthfulness of this mighty Qur'an and the soundness of what it contains of wisdom and rulings. They are also indicative of what Allah (ﷻ) possesses of perfection, and of the resurrection. Then Allah divides people into two categories, according to whether or not they benefit from His signs:

The first category learns from them, reflects upon them and benefits from them, thus rising in status. They are the ones who believe in Allah, His angels, His Books, His Messengers and the Last Day, with perfect faith that reaches the level of certainty. Thus they increase in mature thinking and knowledge.

The other category hears the signs and revelations of Allah being recounted in such a way that proof is established against them, but then they turn away from them in arrogance, as if they did not hear them, because they did not cleanse and purify their hearts; moreover, because of their arrogance towards them, they increased in transgression.

Such people, if they do come to know anything of the signs and revelations of Allah, make a mockery of them. Allah (ﷻ) warns such people of doom and says: ﴿Woe to every evil liar﴾ that is, everyone who is untruthful in his speech and sinful in his deeds.

Allah tells us that such people will have a painful punishment, and that ﴿Ahead of them is hell﴾, which is sufficient as a severe punishment, and that ﴿neither their gains﴾ in terms of wealth ﴿nor those whom they take as protectors other than Allah﴾, seeking their help, ﴿will avail them anything﴾, for they will abandon them at the time when they will need them most.

Having highlighted His Qur'anic revelations and visible signs, and stated that people fall into two categories in terms of their response to them, Allah now tells us that the Qur'an, which invites people to these sublime aims and goals, is guidance, as He says: ﴿This [Qur'an] is true guidance﴾. This is a general description of the entire Qur'an, for it guides people to knowledge of Allah by describing His sacred attributes and praiseworthy deeds; it guides them to knowledge of His Messengers, close friends and enemies, by describing their characteristics; it guides people to righteous deeds and promotes them; it describes evil deeds and forbids them; it explains the requital for deeds, describing requital both in this world and the hereafter. Those who are guided follow its guidance, and thus they will triumph and attain bliss.

﴿and for those who deny the signs of their Lord﴾, which are definitive and clear, and no one rejects them except one who has gone too far in wrongdoing and transgressed far beyond all bounds ﴿there will be a punishment of painful suffering﴾.

﴿اللَّهُ الَّذِي سَخَّرَ لَكُمُ الْبَحْرَ لِتَجْرِيَ الْفُلُكُ فِيهِ بِأَمْرِهِ وَلِيَسْتَبْغُوا مِنْ فَضْلِهِ وَلَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ ۝ وَسَخَّرَ لَكُم مَّا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ جَمِيعًا مِنْهُ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ يَتَفَكَّرُونَ﴾ (سورة الجاثية: ١٢-١٣)

45:12. It is Allah Who has made the sea to be of service to you, so that the ships may sail on it by His command, and so that you may seek His bounty and so that you may give thanks.

45:13. He has made to be of service to you all that is in the heavens and all that is on earth; all is from Him. Verily in that there are signs for people who reflect.

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of His favours and kindness towards His slaves, by making the sea to be of service to them so that ships and boats may sail on it by His command ﴿and so that you may seek His bounty﴾ by pursuing all kinds of trade and livelihood

﴿and so that you may give thanks﴾ to Allah (ﷻ), for if you give thanks to Him, He will increase His blessings and will reward you immensely for your gratitude.

﴿He has made to be of service to you all that is in the heavens and all that is on earth; all is from Him﴾ that is, by His grace and kindness. This includes the heavenly bodies and the earth, and all that Allah has placed in them, such as the sun, moon, stars and other heavenly bodies; all kinds of animals, trees and fruits; all types of metals and minerals; and other things that are prepared to serve the interests of the sons of Adam and meet their needs.

This requires them to do their utmost to give thanks for His blessings, and to think deeply and reflect upon His signs and wisdom. Hence Allah says: ﴿Verily in that there are signs for people who reflect﴾.

To sum up: the creation and control of these things, and the fact that they are made to be of service to humanity, demonstrate that Allah's will is always done and are indicative of His perfect might.

What is seen in them of the precision and beauty with which they are created and the amazing way in which they are crafted is indicative of the perfect wisdom and knowledge of Allah.

What is seen in them of their vast size and great numbers is indicative of the vastness of Allah's dominion and authority.

What is seen in them of specific functions and opposites indicates that Allah does whatever He wills.

What is seen in them of benefits that serve human interests in both spiritual and worldly terms is indicative of the vastness of Allah's mercy, and demonstrates that His grace, kindness and care are all-encompassing.

All of that points to the fact that He alone is deserving of devotion and worship, and it is not appropriate to worship, show humility towards or love anyone but Him; and that His Messengers spoke the truth in the message that they brought. This is clear rational evidence that cannot be subject to doubt.

﴿قُلْ لِلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا يَغْفِرُوا لِلَّذِينَ لَا يَرْجُونَ أَيَّامَ اللَّهِ لِيَجْزِيَ قَوْمًا بِمَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ ﴿١٤﴾ مَنْ عَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَلِنَفْسِهِ ۖ وَمَنْ أَسَاءَ فَعَلَيْهَا ثُمَّ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكُمْ تُرْجَعُونَ ﴿١٥﴾﴾

(سورة الجاثية: ١٤-١٥)

- 45:14. Tell those who believe to forgive [for their offences] those who do not fear the vengeance of Allah, for He will requite such people [in the hereafter] for their deeds.
- 45:15. Whoever does righteous deeds, it is to his own benefit and whoever does evil deeds, it is to his own detriment. Then to your Lord you will be brought back.

Here Allah (ﷻ) instructs His believing slaves to adopt a good attitude and bear with patience the offence caused by the polytheists who do not fear the vengeance of Allah and do not hope for His reward. For He will requite every people for what they have earned, but He will reward you, O believers, abundantly for your faith, tolerance and patience.

But if they persist in their disbelief, you will not suffer what they will suffer of severe punishment and disgrace. Hence Allah says: ﴿Whoever does righteous deeds, it is to his own benefit and whoever does evil deeds, it is to his own detriment. Then to your Lord you will be brought back﴾. Then He says:

﴿وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ الْكِتَابَ وَالْحُكْمَ وَالنَّبُوءَ وَرَزَقْنَهُمْ مِّنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ وَفَضَّلْنَاهُمْ عَلَى الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿١٦﴾ وَآتَيْنَاهُمْ بَيِّنَاتٍ مِّنَ الْأَمْرِ فَمَا اخْتَلَفُوا إِلَّا مِمَّا بَعْدَ مَا جَاءَهُمُ الْعِلْمُ بَغْيًا بَيْنَهُمْ ۚ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ يَقْضِي بَيْنَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ فِيمَا كَانُوا فِيهِ يَخْتَلِفُونَ ﴿١٧﴾﴾ (سورة الجاثية: ١٦-١٧)

- 45:16. We gave the Children of Israel the scripture, wisdom and prophethood; provided them with good things; and favoured them above all other nations [of that time].
- 45:17. We gave them clear directions in matters pertaining to religion, and they did not differ except after knowledge had come to them, out of mutual envy and rivalry. Verily your Lord will judge between them on the Day of Resurrection concerning that wherein they differ.

That is, We bestowed upon the Children of Israel blessings that were not granted to any other people. We gave them «the scripture», namely the Torah and Gospel, «wisdom» to judge between people «and prophethood» by which they were distinguished, for prophethood was bestowed upon the descendants of Ibrâheem, and most of them (the Prophets) were from among the Children of Israel.

«provided them with good things» of food, drink and clothing, and sending down to them the manna and quails. «and favoured them above all other nations [of that time]» that is, We favoured them over all other nations with these blessings. Our (Muslim) Ummah may be excluded from this general meaning, because they are the best community ever brought forth for (the benefit of) humankind (3: 110).

From the context we may understand that they are favoured over all other nations apart from the (Muslim) Ummah, because Allah tells us about the blessings that He bestowed upon the Children of Israel, by means of which He made them distinct from others. But all the virtues and blessings by means of which the Children of Israel surpassed other nations – namely the scripture, wisdom, prophethood and other qualities – were bestowed upon this Ummah, and many more virtues were granted to them. This law, the law of the Children of Israel, is part of these virtues, but this Book (the Qur'an) confirms the scripture that came before it and supersedes it (cf. 5: 48); and Muhammad (ﷺ) confirms all the Messengers.

﴿We gave them﴾ that is, but we gave to the Children of Israel ﴿clear directions﴾ that is, signs to distinguish truth from falsehood ﴿in matters pertaining to religion﴾.

These blessings that Allah bestowed upon the Children of Israel required them to fulfil their religious duties in the most perfect manner and to unite upon the truth that Allah had made manifest to them. But they did the opposite of that; they did the opposite of what was required and became divided at the time when they were enjoined to unite. Hence Allah says:

﴿and they did not differ except after knowledge had come to them﴾ that required them not to differ. What made them differ was resentment and wrongdoing towards one another.

﴿Verily your Lord will judge between them on the Day of Resurrection concerning that wherein they differ﴾. So He will distinguish between the follower of truth and the follower of falsehood. What made them differ was whims and desires, and the like.

﴿ثُمَّ جَعَلْنَاكَ عَلَىٰ شَرِيعَةٍ مِّنَ الْأَمْرِ فَاتَّبِعْهَا وَلَا تَتَّبِعْ أَهْوَاءَ الَّذِينَ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿١٨﴾ إِنَّهُمْ لَن يَغْتَنُوا عَنْكَ مِنَ اللَّهِ شَيْئًا وَإِنَّ الظَّالِمِينَ بَعْضُهُمْ أَوْلِيَاءُ بَعْضٍ وَاللَّهُ وَلِيُّ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴿١٩﴾﴾

(سورة الجاثية: ١٨-١٩)

- 45:18. Now We have set you [O Muhammad] on a clear path of religion; so follow it and do not follow the desires of those who have no knowledge.
- 45:19. They cannot avail you at all against Allah. Verily the wrongdoers are allies and protectors of one another, but Allah is the Protector of the righteous.

That is, We have set out for you a clear path and sent down perfect teachings that call to all that is good and forbid all that is evil

﴿so follow it﴾, for following it leads to eternal happiness, well-being and prosperity

﴿and do not follow the desires of those who have no knowledge﴾ that is, those whose desires differ from what is dictated by knowledge and are not in accordance with it. Everyone who wants and desires something that is contrary to the teachings of the Messenger (ﷺ) comes under the heading of those who have no knowledge.

﴿They cannot avail you at all against Allah﴾ that is, they cannot benefit you at all before Allah, so they cannot bring you anything good or ward off any harm from you, if you follow their desires. It is not right to go along with them and take them as allies, for you and they are not the same; rather they are allies of one another.

﴿but Allah is the Protector of the righteous﴾ – He brings them forth from the depths of darkness to the light because of their piety and acts of obedience.

﴿هَذَا بَصِيرَةٌ لِلنَّاسِ وَهُدًى وَرَحْمَةٌ لِّقَوْمٍ يُوقِنُونَ﴾ (سورة الجاثية: ٢٠)

- 45:20. This [Qur'an] contains clear proofs, and is a guidance and a mercy for people who are certain in faith.

«This [Qur'an]», the wise reminder, «contains clear proofs» that is, by means of it matters will become clear to people, so the believers will benefit from it, be guided and attain mercy «for people who are certain in faith», so they are guided by it to the straight path with regard to fundamental and minor issues of religion, and by means of it they attain goodness, happiness and bliss in this world and the hereafter, which is mercy. Thus their souls are purified, they increase in wisdom, faith and certainty thereby, and proof is established thereby against those who persist in stubbornness.

﴿أَمْ حَسِبَ الَّذِينَ اجْتَرَحُوا السَّيِّئَاتِ أَنْ نَجْعَلَهُمُ كَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ سَوَاءٌ مِّنْجَاهُمْ وَمَعَادُهُمْ سَاءَ مَا يَحْكُمُونَ﴾ (سورة الجاثية: ٢١)

45:21. Do those who commit evil deeds think that We will deal with them as We deal with those who believe and do righteous deeds, and that they will be alike in their living and their dying?<sup>21</sup> How ill they judge.

That is, do the evildoers, who commit many sins and fall short in their duties towards their Lord, think

«that We will deal with them as We deal with those who believe and do righteous deeds» by keeping their duty towards their Lord and avoiding that which incurs His wrath, so they constantly give precedence to pleasing Him over their own whims and desires. In other words, do they think that they will be «alike» in this world and the hereafter? How wrong is their way of thinking and how ill they judge, for their view is contrary to the ruling of the wise judgement of the Most Wise, the Most Just, and it is contrary to sound reasoning and sound human nature; it is the opposite of what was sent down in the Books and what the Messengers taught. Rather the definite ruling is that the believers who do righteous deeds will attain victory, prosperity, happiness and reward, in this world and the hereafter, each commensurate with his good deeds, but for the evildoers there will be wrath, humiliation, punishment and wretchedness, in this world and in the hereafter.

<sup>21</sup> Believers and disbelievers are not alike during life, when dying or after death. As Allah has made them different in this life, He will treat them differently after they die. The disbeliever dies despairing of divine mercy and not believing in the resurrection, and he will be punished as Allah promised. In contrast, the believer dies hoping for divine mercy and believing in the resurrection, and he will be rewarded as Allah promised. (Ibn 'Ashoor)

﴿وَخَلَقَ اللَّهُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ بِالْحَقِّ وَلِتُجْزَىٰ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ بِمَا كَسَبَتْ وَهُمْ لَا يُظْلَمُونَ﴾ (سورة الجاثية: ٢٢)

45:22. Allah created the heavens and the earth for a true purpose, and so that every soul may be requited according to what it earned, and they will not be wronged.

That is, Allah created the heavens and the earth on the basis of wisdom, so that He alone may be worshipped, with no partner or associate. Then after that He will requite those whom He commanded to worship Him and upon whom He bestowed blessings both visible and hidden: did they give thanks to Allah (ﷻ) and do what they were enjoined to do? Or were they ungrateful and thus deserve the requital of ingratitude?

﴿أَفَرَأَيْتَ مَنِ اتَّخَذَ إِلَٰهَهُ هَوْنَهُ وَأَصْلَهُ اللَّهُ عَلَىٰ عِلْمٍ وَحَّمَ عَلَىٰ سَمْعِهِ، وَقَلْبِهِ، وَجَعَلَ عَلَىٰ بَصَرِهِ، غَشَوَةً فَمَنْ يَهْدِيهِ مِنْ بَعْدِ اللَّهِ أَفَلَا تَذَكَّرُونَ﴾ (٢٣) وَقَالُوا مَا هِيَ إِلَّا حَيَاتُنَا الدُّنْيَا نَمُوتُ وَنَحْيَا

وَمَا يُدْلِكُهُ إِلَّا الدَّهْرُ وَمَا لَهُمْ بِذَلِكَ مِنْ عِلْمٍ إِنْ هُمْ إِلَّا يَظُنُّونَ ﴿٢٣﴾ وَإِذَا نُنزلُ عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتُنَا يَنْسَوْنَ مَا كَانَ حُجَّتَهُمْ إِلَّا أَنْ قَالُوا اتَّبَعُوا آبَاءَنَا إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿٢٤﴾ قُلِ اللَّهُ يُخَيِّمُكُمْ ثُمَّ يُمَيِّسُكُمْ لِيَوْمِ الْقِيَمَةِ لَا رَبَّ فِيهِ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ﴿٢٥﴾ (سورة الجاثية: ٢٣-٢٦)

- 45:23. Have you seen the one who takes his own whims and desires as his god, whom Allah allows to go astray knowingly, and has sealed up his hearing and his heart, and put a cover on his sight? Who can guide him after Allah [has abandoned him]? Will you not then pay heed?
- 45:24. And they say: There is nothing beyond our life in this world; we die and we live,<sup>22</sup> and nothing but the passage of time causes us to die. They have no knowledge of that; they are merely speculating.
- 45:25. When Our clear revelations are recited to them, their only argument is to say: Then bring back our forefathers, if you are telling the truth!
- 45:26. Say: It is Allah Who gives you life, then causes you to die; then He will gather you together on the Day of Resurrection, concerning which there is no doubt. But most people do not realise.

«Have you seen» the misguided man «who takes his own whims and desires as his god», so whatever he desires he pursues it, whether it is pleasing to Allah or incurs His anger «whom Allah allows to go astray knowingly» for Allah (ﷻ) knows that guidance is not appropriate for him and will not benefit him.
 «and has sealed up his hearing» so that he cannot hear that which would benefit him
 «and his heart» so that he does not understand what is good

<sup>22</sup> That is, one generation dies and is succeeded by another. (al-Kash-shâf)

﴿and put a cover on his sight﴾ that prevents him from seeing the truth. ﴿Who can guide him after Allah [has abandoned him]?﴾ In other words, no one can guide him, for Allah has closed the gates of guidance for him and has opened the gates of misguidance for him. And Allah has not wronged him; rather it is he who has wronged himself and is the cause of divine mercy being withheld from him. ﴿Will you not then pay heed﴾ to what will benefit you, so that you can seek it, and what will harm you, so that you can avoid it?

﴿And they﴾ namely those who deny the resurrection say: There is nothing beyond our life in this world; we die and we live, and nothing but the passage of time causes us to die﴾ this is nothing but the routine passage of night and day, some people die and some people live, and those who die do not return to Allah and will not be requited for their deeds.

These words of theirs stem from lack of knowledge; ﴿they are merely speculating﴾ when they deny the resurrection and reject the Messengers who speak the truth, without any evidence or proof to support them in that. Rather it is mere speculation and unlikely ideas, devoid of any reality. Hence Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿When Our clear revelations are recited to them, their only argument is to say: Then bring back our forefathers, if you are telling the truth!﴾ This is audacity towards Allah on their part, as they made this demand and claimed that the truthfulness of the Messengers of Allah depended on them bringing back their forefathers. But even if they brought them every sign, they would not believe, unless the Messengers complied with what they said. But they were lying in what they said; their only aim was to justify their rejection of the Messengers' call, not to seek evidence for the truth. Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿Say: It is Allah Who gives you life, then causes you to die; then He will gather you together on the Day of Resurrection, concerning which there is no doubt. But most people do not realise﴾ otherwise, if knowledge of the Last Day had really reached their hearts, they would strive hard for it and prepare for it.

﴿وَلِلَّهِ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَيَوْمَ تَقُومُ السَّاعَةُ يُعَذِّبُ الْمُجْرِمِينَ﴾ (٢٧) وَتَرَى كُلَّ أُمَّةٍ جَائِيَةً كُلُّ أُمَّةٍ تُدْعَى إِلَى كِتَابِهَا الْيَوْمَ تُجْزَوْنَ مَا كُنتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢٨﴾ هَذَا كِتَابُنَا يَنْطِقُ عَلَيْكُمْ بِالْحَقِّ إِنَّا كُنَّا نَسْتَنسِخُ مَا كُنتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ﴿٢٩﴾ فَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ فَيُدْخِلُهُمْ رَبُّهُمْ فِي رَحْمَتِهِ ذَلِكَ هُوَ الْفَوْزُ الْمُبِينُ ﴿٣٠﴾ وَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَفَلَمْ تَكُنْ ءَايَتِي تُلَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ فَاستَكْبَرْتُمْ وَكُنتُمْ قَوْمًا تُجْرِمِينَ ﴿٣١﴾ وَإِذَا قِيلَ إِنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ وَالسَّاعَةُ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهَا قُلْتُمْ مَا نَدْرِي مَا السَّاعَةُ إِنْ نَظُنُّ إِلَّا ظَنًّا وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمُتَّقِينَ ﴿٣٢﴾ وَبَدَأَهُم مُّسَبِّحَاتٍ مَا عَمِلُوا وَحَاقَ بِهِم مَّا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِئُونَ ﴿٣٣﴾ وَقِيلَ الْيَوْمَ نَنسِفُكُمْ كَمَا نَسِفْنَا لِقَاءَ يَوْمِكُمْ هَذَا وَمَأْوَهُمُ النَّارُ وَمَا لَكُمْ مِنْ نَّاصِرِينَ ﴿٣٤﴾ ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ أَخَذْتُمْ ءَايَاتِ اللَّهِ هُرُوفًا وَغَرَّبْتُمْ الْحَيٰوةَ الدُّنْيَا قَالِیَوْمَ لَا يُخْرِجُونَ مِنْهَا وَلَا هُمْ يُسْمَعُونَ ﴿٣٥﴾ فَلِلَّهِ الْحَمْدُ رَبِّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَرَبِّ الْأَرْضِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ﴿٣٦﴾ وَلَهُ الْكِبَرِيَّاءُ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٣٧﴾ (سورة الجاثية: ٢٧-٣٧)

- 45:27. To Allah belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth. On the day when the Hour begins, on that day the followers of falsehood will be the losers.
- 45:28. You will see every community on its knees. Every community will be called to its Book, [and it will be said:] Today you will be requited for what you used to do.
- 45:29. This Book of Ours will testify against you truthfully, for We used to put on record all that you did.
- 45:30. As for those who believed and did righteous deeds, their Lord will admit them to His mercy. That is the clearest triumph.

- 45:31. And as for those who disbelieved, [it will be said to them:] Were not My revelations recited to you? But you showed arrogance and were wicked people.
- 45:32. When it was said [to you]: Verily the promise of Allah is true and there is no doubt about the Hour, you said: We do not know what the Hour is; we think it is just a matter of conjecture, but we are not entirely certain.
- 45:33. The evil consequences of what they have done will become apparent to them, and the very thing [punishment] they used to ridicule will overwhelm them.
- 45:34. It will be said to them: Today We will forget you as you forgot that you would ever meet this day of yours. Your abode will be the fire, and you will have no helpers.
- 45:35. That is because you made a mockery of Allah's revelations, and you were deceived by the life of this world. So on that day they will not be brought forth from it [the fire], nor will they be allowed to make amends.
- 45:36. So praise be to Allah, Lord of the heavens and Lord of the earth, Lord of the worlds.
- 45:37. To Him belongs all supremacy in the heavens and on earth, and He is the Almighty, Most Wise.

---

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the vastness of His dominion, and that He alone controls it at all times, and that ﴿On the day when the Hour begins﴾ and all creatures are gathered on the Day of Resurrection, the followers of falsehood will be the losers – those who came up with false arguments in an attempt to refute the truth thereby. Their deeds are invalid, because they are based on falsehood; thus they will become invalid on the Day of Resurrection, the day on which all facts will become clear and all false arguments will avail them nothing, and they will miss out on the reward and will receive a painful punishment.

Then Allah (ﷻ) describes the intensity of the Day of Resurrection, and how terrifying it will be, so as to warn people of it and so that they may prepare for it:

﴿You will see﴾ on that day ﴿every community on its knees﴾ in fear and panic, awaiting the judgement of the Most Gracious Sovereign.

﴿Every community will be called to its Book﴾ that is, to the law of its Prophet who came to them from Allah: did they comply with it and thus attain reward and salvation? Or did they neglect it, and thus incur loss?

The nation of Moosâ will be called to the law of Moosâ, the nation of ‘Eesâ will be called likewise, and the Ummah of Muhammad (ﷺ) will be called likewise; each nation will be called to the law that it was enjoined to follow.

This is one of the possible meanings of this verse, and it is undoubtedly sound and valid in and of itself. Or it may be that what is meant by the words ﴿Every community will be called to its Book﴾ is that every community will be called to the record of its deeds and what was written down of its actions, both good and evil, and each person will be requited for what he himself has done, as Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿Whoever does righteous deeds, it is to his own benefit and whoever does evil deeds, it is to his own detriment﴾ (45: 15).

Or it may be that both meanings are intended. This is indicated by the words ﴿This Book of Ours will testify against you truthfully﴾ that is, this Book of Ours that We sent down to you will judge between you on the basis of truth, which is justice ﴿for We used to put on record all that you did﴾ – this refers to the book of deeds.

Hence Allah explains how He will deal with the two parties, as He says:

﴿As for those who believed and did righteous deeds﴾ that is, they held sound beliefs and confirmed their faith with righteous deeds, both obligatory and recommended

﴿their Lord will admit them to His mercy﴾ the location of which is paradise, with all that it contains of eternal delights and a life of ease. ﴿That is the clearest triumph﴾ that is, clear triumph, salvation, gain and success which, if a person attains it, he has attained all that is good and ward off all that is bad.

﴿And as for those who disbelieved﴾ in Allah, it will be said to them, by way of rebuke and chastisement:

﴿Were not My revelations recited to you﴾ which showed you that which was in your best interests, and forbade to you that which was harmful to you? This was a great blessing that reached you, if you had wanted to attain it, but you were too arrogant to accept it and you turned away from it and disbelieved in it. Thus you committed the greatest offence and worst crime, so today you will be requited for what you used to do.

They will also be rebuked by the words: ﴿When it was said [to you]: Verily the promise of Allah is true and there is no doubt about the Hour, you said﴾ denying it: ﴿We do not know what the Hour is; we think it is just a matter of conjecture, but we are not entirely certain﴾. This is how they were in this world and will be at the time of the resurrection: they will continue to deny it and reject the words of those who told them about it.

﴿The evil consequences of what they have done will become apparent to them﴾ that is, on the Day of Resurrection, the punishments for their deeds will become clear to them

﴿and the very thing [punishment] they used to ridicule will overwhelm them﴾ that is, befall them. In other words, the punishment that they used to ridicule and mock in this world will befall them.

﴿It will be said to them: Today We will forget you﴾ that is, We will leave you in the punishment

﴿as you forgot that you would ever meet this day of yours﴾, for the requital fits the nature of the deeds.

«Your abode will be the fire» that is, it is your destination and your fate

«and you will have no helpers» to protect you from the punishment of Allah and ward off His wrath from you.

«That» which will befall you of punishment is because «you made a mockery of Allah's revelations» even though they should have motivated you to strive hard and try your best, and you should have received them with joy.

«and you were deceived by the life of this world» with all its adornments, pleasures and desires. So you were at ease with it and strove for it, and you failed to strive for the eternal realm.

«So on that day they will not be brought forth from it [the fire], nor will they be allowed to make amends». They will not be given any respite and they will not be sent back to this world so that they can do righteous deeds.

«So praise be to Allah» as befits His majesty and immense power «Lord of the heavens and Lord of the earth, Lord of the worlds» that is, to Him be praise for His Lordship and care for all creatures, as He created them and cares for them, and bestows blessings upon them, both visible and hidden.

«To Him belongs all supremacy in the heavens and on earth» that is, to Him belong majesty, greatness and glory.

This is praising Allah for His perfect attributes, His love and honour, and supremacy that reflects greatness and majesty. Worship is based on two foundations: love of Allah and humility towards Him, both of which stem from knowledge of the praiseworthy attributes, majesty and supremacy of Allah.

«and He is the Almighty» Who subdues all things «Most Wise» Who does all that is appropriate, so whatever He prescribes is for a wise reason and in order to achieve beneficial interests, and whatever He creates is for a purpose.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat al-Jâthiyah.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

---

46.
Soorat al-Ahqâf
(Makki)

---

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿حَمْدٌ ۝١ تَزِيلُ الْكِتَابِ مِنَ اللَّهِ الْعَزِيزِ الْحَكِيمِ ۝٢ مَا خَلَقْنَا السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا إِلَّا بِالْحَقِّ وَأَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى ۚ وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا عَمَّا أُنذَرُوا مُعْرِضُونَ ۝٣﴾ (سورة الأحقاف: ١-٣)

- 46:1. Hâ'. Meem.
46:2. The revelation of the Book is from Allah, the Almighty, the Most Wise.
46:3. We have not created the heavens and the earth, and all that is between them, except for a true purpose and for an appointed term. But those who disbelieve pay no heed to the warning that is given to them.
-

This is praise and veneration from Allah (ﷻ) for His holy Book, highlighting its dignity and implicitly telling people to seek guidance by its light, focus on pondering its verses and extract its treasure.

Having referred to the revelation of His Book that contains commands and prohibitions, Allah now mentions His creation of the heavens and the earth, thus combining the creation and the command.

﴿...Verily, His is the creation and the command...﴾ (al-A'râf 7: 54)

This is like the verses in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

﴿It is Allah Who created seven heavens and of the earth the like thereof. His decree descends throughout them...﴾ (at-Talâq 65: 12)

– and:

﴿He sends down the angels with His revelation by His command to whomever among His slaves He wills, saying: Proclaim that there is no god but I, so fear Me. He created the heavens and the earth for a true purpose...﴾ (an-Nahl 16: 2-3)

It is Allah (ﷻ) Who created those who are accountable, and He created their dwellings and made to be of service to them all that is in the heavens and on earth, then He sent His Messengers to them, and sent down to them His Books. He sent His commands and prohibitions to them and told them that this realm is the realm of striving and a place for those who strive to pass through; it is not a place of settlement that people will never leave. Rather they will move on from it to the place of settlement and the eternal abode, and they will find the reward for their deeds that they did in this realm waiting for them in full in that realm.

Thus Allah establishes proof that points to that realm and gives people a taste of reward and punishment in this world, so as to motivate them to seek what they love and flee from what they fear. Therefore He says here: ﴿We have not created the heavens and the earth, and all that is between them, except for a true purpose﴾ that is, We have not created them without purpose or in vain; rather it is so that people will come to know the greatness of the Creator thereof and find evidence of His perfect attributes, and so that they may come to know that the One Who created both realms, despite their vastness, is able to recreate people after their death in order to requite them, and that their creation and life is limited ﴿for an appointed term﴾.

Having told us of that – and He is the most truthful of speakers – and thus established proof and lighted the way, Allah now tells us that despite that, some people insist on turning away from the truth and turning away from the call of the Messengers, as He says: ﴿But those who disbelieve pay no heed to the warning that is given to them﴾.

As for those who believe, when they came to know the truth, they responded to the commands of their Lord, accepted the truth and submitted with humility and veneration. Thus they attained all that is good and all that is evil was ward off from them.

﴿قُلْ أَرَأَيْتُمْ مَا تَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ إِنْ أَرُونِي مَاذَا خَلَقُوا مِنَ الْأَرْضِ أَمْ لَهُمْ شِرْكٌ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ ۚ
 أَنْتَوْنِ يَكْتَسِبُ مِنْ قَبْلِ هَذَا أَوْ أَتُتْرَكُونَ ۚ عَلِيمٌ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ﴿٤﴾ وَمَنْ
 أَضَلُّ مِمَّن يَدْعُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ مَنْ لَا يَسْتَجِيبُ لَهُ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ وَهُمْ عَنْ دُعَائِهِمْ
 غَفِلُونَ ﴿٥﴾ وَإِذَا حُشِرَ النَّاسُ كَانُوا لَهُمْ أَعْدَاءً وَكَانُوا بِعِبَادَتِهِمْ كَافِرِينَ ﴿٦﴾﴾ (سورة الأحقاف:

(٤-٦)

- 46:4. Say: Tell me about those on whom you call besides Allah. Show me what they have created on the earth. Or do they have any share in the heavens? Bring me [proof from] a Book revealed before this, or some remnant of knowledge, if you are telling the truth.
- 46:5. Who is more astray than one who calls upon, besides Allah, those who will not answer him until the Day of Resurrection, and are oblivious to his call?
- 46:6. When humankind are gathered [on the Day of Resurrection], they will become their enemies and will reject their worship of them.

«Say» to these people who associate idols and rivals in worship with Allah, which have no power to bring benefit or cause harm, or to cause death, give life or resurrect – say to them, highlighting the helplessness of their idols and pointing out that they do not deserve anything of worship: «Tell me about those on whom you call besides Allah. Show me what they have created on the earth. Or do they have any share in the heavens?».

Have they created any of the heavenly bodies or any of the creatures on earth? Have they created mountains? Have they caused rivers to flow? Have they scattered animals throughout the earth? Have they caused trees to grow? Did they help in the creation of any of these things?

They have done none of these things, by their own admission, let alone the admission of anyone else. This offers definitive rational evidence that the worship of anyone or anything other than Allah is invalid.

Moreover, there is no textual evidence: «Bring me [proof from] a Book revealed before this», namely a book that promotes the association of others with Allah, «or some remnant of knowledge» inherited from the Messengers, that enjoins that.

It is well known that they are incapable of bringing any evidence to that effect from any of the Messengers; in fact we are confident and certain that all the Messengers promoted the affirmation of the oneness of their Lord, and they forbade associating others with Him. This is the greatest knowledge that is narrated from them. Allah (ﷻ) says: «Indeed, We sent to every nation a Messenger [saying]: Worship Allah [alone] and shun false gods...» (an-Nahl 16: 36)

And every Messenger said to his people:

«...worship Allah; you have no god but He...» (al-A'raf 7: 65)

Thus it is known that the argument that the polytheists give for their association of others with Allah is not based on proof or evidence; rather they rely on false notions, ill-founded opinions and corrupt reasoning.

What indicates that their argument is invalid is studying their stories, finding out about their knowledge and deeds, and examining the situation of those who spent their lifetimes worshipping false gods: did it benefit them at all in this world or in the hereafter?

Hence Allah (ﷻ) says: ﴿Who is more astray than one who calls upon, besides Allah, those who will not answer him until the Day of Resurrection﴾ that is, for the duration of his stay on earth, and they do not benefit him even an atom's weight

﴿and are oblivious to his call﴾ for they do not hear or respond to any call. This is how they are in this world, and on the Day of Resurrection they will reject their association of them with Allah.

﴿When humankind are gathered [on the Day of Resurrection], they will become their enemies﴾ – they will curse one another and disavow one another, and they (the false gods) ﴿will reject their worship of them﴾.

﴿وَإِذَا نُنَادِيهِمْ ءَايَتُنَا بِيَنَدٍ قَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِلْحَقِّ لَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ هَذَا سِحْرٌ مُبِينٌ ۖ أَمْ يَقُولُونَ افْتَرَيْنَاهُ قُلْ إِنْ أَفْتَرَيْتُهُ فَلَا تَمْلِكُونَ لِي مِنَ اللَّهِ شَيْئًا ۖ هُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا تُفْعِلُونَ فِيهِ كَذِبٌ بِهِ ۖ شَهِيدًا بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَكُمْ ۖ وَهُوَ الْغَفُورُ الرَّحِيمُ ۝﴾ قُلْ مَا كُنْتُ بِدَعَا مَنْ الرُّسُلِ وَمَا أَدْرَى مَا يَفْعَلُ بِي وَلَا بِكُمْ إِنْ أَنِيعَ إِلَّا مَا يُوْحَىٰ إِلَيَّ وَمَا أَنَا إِلَّا نَذِيرٌ مُبِينٌ ۝﴾ قُلْ أَرَأَيْتُمْ إِنْ كَانَ مِنَ عِنْدِ اللَّهِ وَكَفَرْتُمْ بِهِ ۖ وَشَهِدَ شَاهِدٌ مِّنْ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ عَلَىٰ مِثْلِهِ فَقَامَ وَاسْتَكْبَرَ ثُمَّ إِتَىٰ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الظَّالِمِينَ ۝﴾ (سورة الأحقاف: ٧-١٠)

- 46:7. When Our clear revelations are recited to them, those who disbelieve say of the truth when it comes to them: This is obviously magic!
- 46:8. Or do they say: He has fabricated it himself? Say [O Muhammad]: If I did fabricate it, then there is nothing you can do to shield me from the punishment of Allah. He knows best what you utter against it. Sufficient is He as a witness between me and you, and He is the Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.
- 46:9. Say [O Muhammad]: I am not the first of the Messengers, and I do not know what will happen to me or to you. I only follow what is revealed to me, and I am but a clear warner.
- 46:10. Say: What do you think, if it [the Qur'an] is really from Allah but you reject it? What if a witness from among the Children of Israel has testified in its favour and has believed, whilst you remain arrogant? Verily Allah does not guide people who are given to wrongdoing.

That is, when ﴿Our clear revelations﴾ are recited to the disbelievers, in such a way that they cannot doubt them, that does not benefit them; rather proof is established against them thereby, and they say by way of fabrication, ﴿of the truth when it comes to them: This is obviously magic!﴾ That is, it is clearly and undoubtedly magic. This is a kind of turning the facts upside down, but no one can be fooled by that except those who are weak in reasoning. Otherwise the difference between the truth that was brought by the Messenger (ﷺ) and magic is greater than the distance between heaven and earth.

How can the truth – which is as sublime as the stars and whose light surpasses that of the sun, and is supported by evidence in the universe and in their own selves, and is affirmed and accepted by people of insight and mature thinking – be compared with falsehood such as magic, which only comes from misguided wrongdoers who are evil at heart and evil in their deeds, so it is appropriate for them and suits their condition?

﴿Or do they say: He has fabricated it himself﴾ that is, Muhammad (ﷺ) has fabricated this Qur'an himself, and it is not from Allah?

﴿Say [O Muhammad]﴾ to them: ﴿If I did fabricate it﴾ then Allah has power over me and He has knowledge of your plan and what you say about it, so why has He not punished me for fabricating it, as you claim?

Is there anything ﴿you can do to shield me from the punishment of Allah﴾ if it be His will to harm me or to have mercy on me?

﴿Sufficient is He as a witness between me and you﴾. If I was making it up, He would have seized me by my right hand and punished me with a punishment that would be seen by all, because this is the worst type of fabrication, if I were really attributing it falsely to Him.

Then Allah calls them to repent, despite what they have done of stubbornly rejecting the truth and disputing it: ﴿and He is the Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful﴾ that is, so repent to Him and give up what you are doing; He will forgive you your sins, have mercy on you, guide you to all that is good and reward you immensely.

﴿Say [O Muhammad]: I am not the first of the Messengers﴾ that is, I am not the first Messenger to come to you, such that you should find my mission strange and find my call odd. There have been previous Messengers and Prophets whose call was like mine, so why do you object to my message?

﴿and I do not know what will happen to me or to you﴾ that is, I am only human; I have no control over anything, for it is Allah (ﷻ) Who is in control of me and you, and He will decide between me and you. I am not bringing anything of my own accord,

﴿and I am but a clear warner﴾ if you accept my message and respond to my call, that is your good fortune in this world and the hereafter, but if you reject my message, then your reckoning will be with Allah. I have warned you and whoever is given a prior warning is left with no excuse.

«Say: What do you think, if it [the Qur'an] is really from Allah but you reject it? What if a witness from among the Children of Israel has testified in its favour and has believed, whilst you remain arrogant?» That is, tell me, if this Qur'an is from Allah and those who are guided among the People of the Book testify to its truth, for they have knowledge of the truth by which they know that it is true, so they believe in it and are guided, and thus it is proven that what the Prophets brought was all in harmony and their followers are people of dignity, whilst you, O ignorant ones, are too arrogant to follow it. Can this be anything but the greatest wrongdoing and worst disbelief? «Verily Allah does not guide people who are given to wrongdoing» – part of wrongdoing is being too arrogant to follow the truth after it comes within reach.

﴿وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَوْ كَانَ خَيْرًا مَا سَبَقُونَا إِلَيْهِ وَإِذْ لَمْ يَهْتَدُوا بِهِ سَبَقُوا لَنَا هَذَا أَفَنُفَكِّ قَدِيرٌ ۝ وَمِنْ قَبْلِهِ كَتَبَ مُوسَىٰ إِمَامًا وَرَحْمَةً ۚ وَهَذَا كِتَابٌ مُصَدِّقٌ لِّسَانِ عَرَبِيًّا يُنذِرُ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا وَيُبَشِّرُ لِّلْحَسَنِينَ ۖ﴾ (سورة

(الأحاف: ١١-١٢)

- 46:11. Those who disbelieve say of those who believe: If it [the Qur'an] were a good thing, they would not have believed in it before us. Since they have not let themselves be guided by it, they will continue to say: This is an ancient fabrication.
- 46:12. But before it came the Book of Moosâ [which was revealed as] a guide and a mercy. This Book, which is in the Arabic language, confirms it, warning those who do wrong and bringing glad tidings to those who do good.

That is, those who stubbornly disbelieved in the truth and rejected its call said: «If it [the Qur'an] were a good thing, they would not have believed in it before us» that is, the believers would not have beaten us to it; rather we would have been the first to embrace it. This is pure nonsense. What evidence is there that the sign of something being the truth is that the rejecters should attain it before the believers? Are they more pure at heart or more perfect in reasoning? Or is guidance under their control?

Rather with these words they were trying to console themselves, like one who fails to attain something so he begins to criticise it. Hence Allah says:

«Since they have not let themselves be guided by it, they will continue to say: This is an ancient fabrication» that is, this is the reason why they said that about it: because they were not guided by this Qur'an and they missed out on the greatest blessing, they criticised it by saying that it was a lie, when it is undoubtedly true and is in accordance with the previous Books, especially the most perfect and best of them after the Qur'an, namely the Torah, which Allah sent down to Moosâ as «a guide and a mercy» that is, the Children of Israel followed it and were guided by it, and thus it brought them good in this world and the hereafter.

«This Book» namely the Qur'an
 «which is in the Arabic language» so that it is easy to approach and understand «confirms it» that is, it confirms the previous Books and testifies in their favour by being in harmony with them.
 «warning those who do wrong» that is, who wrong themselves by indulging in disbelief, immorality and sin; if they persist in their wrongdoing, it warns them of a grave punishment.

But it gives glad tidings to those who do good by worshipping the Creator and being kind to others, of a great reward in this world and the hereafter. It mentions the deeds that it warns against and the deeds for which it gives glad tidings.

﴿إِنَّ الَّذِينَ قَالُوا رَبُّنَا اللَّهُ ثُمَّ اسْتَقَامُوا فَلَا خَوْفٌ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا هُمْ يَحْزَنُونَ﴾
 ﴿أُولَٰئِكَ أَصْحَابُ الْجَنَّةِ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا جَزَاءً بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ﴾ (سورة الأحقاف: ١٣-١٤)

46:13. Verily those who say: Our Lord is Allah, then remain steadfast, will have no fear, nor will they grieve.

46:14. They will be the inhabitants of paradise; they will abide therein forever, as a reward for what they used to do.

That is, those who acknowledge their Lord, testify to His oneness and are constant in their obedience to Him,

﴿then remain steadfast﴾ all their lives

﴿will have no fear﴾ of any turmoil that lies ahead of them

﴿nor will they grieve﴾ over whatever they leave behind them.

﴿They will be the inhabitants of paradise﴾ that is, they will be its people who abide therein, who will never want to leave it or desire anything else.

﴿they will abide therein forever, as a reward for what they used to do﴾ of believing in Allah, which required them to do the righteous deeds in which they remained steadfast.

﴿وَوَصَّيْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ بِوَالِدَيْهِ إِحْسَانًا حَمَلَتْهُ أُمُّهُ كُرْهًا وَوَضَعَتْهُ كُرْهًا وَحَمَلُهُ وَفَصَّلُهُ
 ثَلَاثُونَ شَهْرًا حَتَّىٰ إِذَا بَلَغَ أَشُدَّهُ وَبَلَغَ أَرْبَعِينَ سَنَةً قَالَ رَبِّ أَوْزِعْنِي أَنْ أَشْكُرَ نِعْمَتَكَ
 الَّتِي أَنْعَمْتَ عَلَيَّ وَعَلَىٰ وَالِدَيَّ وَأَنْ أَعْمَلَ صَالِحًا تَرْضَاهُ وَأَصْلِحْ لِي فِي ذُرِّيَّتِي
 إِنِّي بُنِيتُ إِلَيْكَ وَإِلَىٰ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ﴾ ﴿أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ نَقَبِلُ عَنْهُمْ أَحْسَنَ مَا عَمِلُوا
 وَنَتَجَاوَزُ عَنْ سَيِّئَاتِهِمْ فِي أَصْحَابِ الْجَنَّةِ وَعَدَ الصَّادِقُ الَّذِي كَانُوا يُوعَدُونَ﴾ (سورة الأحقاف: ١٥-١٦)

(الأحقاف: ١٥-١٦)

- 46:15. We have enjoined upon man kindness to his parents. With hardship his mother bears him and with hardship she brings him forth, and his bearing and weaning take thirty months. Then when he reaches his prime and reaches the age of forty years, he says: O my Lord, inspire me to be constantly grateful for Your blessings that You have bestowed upon me and my parents, and to do righteous deeds with which You will be pleased; and establish righteousness among my offspring for me. Verily I repent to You and verily I am one of those who submit to Allah [in Islam].
- 46:16. Such are the ones from whom We will accept their righteous deeds and overlook their bad deeds. They will be among the inhabitants of paradise – a true promise that has been given to them.

Because of His kindness towards His slaves and His appreciation towards parents, Allah (ﷻ) enjoins and instructs children to treat their parents kindly, by speaking to them gently and nicely, spending on them, and other ways of showing kindness.

Then He points out the reason for that, by mentioning what the mother has to go through of hardship because of her child, such as hardship during pregnancy, then the hardship of birth, which is very painful, then the hardship of breastfeeding and looking after the child at that time. The things mentioned do not last for a short time, one or two hours; rather they go on for a long time, «thirty months». Pregnancy lasts nine months or so, and the remainder of that time is for breastfeeding. This refers to what is usually the case.

This verse, along with the verse:

«Mothers may breastfeed their children for two whole years...»
(al-Baqarah 2: 233)

– is quoted as evidence that the minimum length of pregnancy is six months, because if the period of breastfeeding – which is two years – is subtracted from thirty months, what is left is six months for pregnancy.

«Then when he reaches his prime» that is, the pinnacle of his youth and intellect,

«and reaches the age of forty years, he says: O my Lord, inspire me» that is, guide me and help me

«to be constantly grateful for Your blessings that You have bestowed upon me and my parents» that is, spiritual blessings and worldly blessings. Gratitude means using those blessings in obedience to the One Who bestowed them and granted them, and responding to His blessings by acknowledging and admitting one's inability to give proper thanks, and striving to praise Allah for them. A blessing to the parents is a blessing to their children and descendants, because they will inevitably get some of them and some of their effects, especially the blessing of religious commitment, because the righteousness of the parents, that is based on knowledge and deeds, is one of the main reasons for the righteousness of their children.

«and to do righteous deeds with which You will be pleased» by helping me to do the type of deed that meets all the prerequisites of being sound and right, and is free of anything that may spoil it. Such is the deed that Allah is pleased with and accepts, and for which He gives reward.

«and establish righteousness among my offspring for me» – as he prayed for himself to be righteous, he also prayed for his offspring to be righteous, asking Allah to rectify their condition. He stated that the benefit of the children's righteousness comes back to their parents, because he said, «and establish righteousness among my offspring for me».

«Verily I repent to You» from sins and acts of disobedience, and I come back to obedience to You, «and verily I am one of those who submit to Allah [in Islam]».

«Such» that is, those who are described here «are the ones from whom We will accept their righteous deeds» which are acts of obedience, because they also do other kinds of deeds.
 «and overlook their bad deeds» in general terms.
 «They will be among the inhabitants of paradise» so they will attain goodness and what they seek, and evil and what they dislike will be removed from them.
 «a true promise that has been given to them» that is, this promise that We have made to them is a true promise from the One Who is truest in speech, Who does not break His promise.

﴿وَالَّذِي قَالَ لَوْلَدِيَ أَفِي لَكُمْ أَنْ أَعْدَانِي أَنْ أُخْرَجَ وَقَدْ خَلَتِ الْقُرُونُ مِنْ قَبْلِي
 وَهُمَا يَسْتَغِيثَانِ اللَّهَ وَيْلَكَ آمِنْ إِنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ فَيَقُولُ مَا هَذَا إِلَّا أَسْطِيرُ الْأَوَّلِينَ
 ١٧ أُولَئِكَ الَّذِينَ حَقَّ عَلَيْهِمُ الْقَوْلُ فِي أُمْرٍ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ مِنَ الْجِنَّ وَالْإِنْسِ إِنَّهُمْ
 كَانُوا خَاسِرِينَ ١٨ وَلِكُلِّ دَرَجَةٍ مِمَّا عَمِلُوا وَلِيُوفيَهُمْ أَعْمَلَهُمْ وَهُمْ لَا يَظْلَمُونَ ١٩﴾

(سورة الأحقاف: ١٧-١٩)

- 46:17. But some say to their parents: Fie on you both! Are you telling me that I will be brought forth [from the grave] even though many generations have passed away before me? They seek Allah's help [and say]: Woe to you! Have faith, for the promise of Allah is true. But he says: This is nothing but tales of the ancients.
- 46:18. Such are the ones for whom the punishment becomes inevitable, as happened to nations of jinn and men who came before them, for indeed they are [all] losers.
- 46:19. For all there will be ranks according to their deeds, so that [Allah] may pay them in full for their deeds, and no one will be wronged.

Having mentioned the situation of the righteous one who honours his parents, Allah (ﷻ) now tells us of the situation of the one who is disobedient to his parents, and that it is the worst of situations:

﴿But some say to their parents﴾ when they call them to believe in Allah and the Last Day, and warn them of the requital.

This is a great act of kindness and the best thing that the parents can do for their child, to call him to that which leads to eternal happiness and bliss, but he responds in the worst manner and says: ﴿Fie on you both!﴾ That is, may you perish, you and what you have brought.

Then he explains why he thinks that unlikely, rejecting this idea: ﴿Are you telling me that I will be brought forth [from the grave]﴾ on the Day of Resurrection

﴿even though many generations have passed away before me?﴾ That is, many generations have passed away who were disbelievers, following the path of disbelief, and they were the leaders for every stubborn, ignorant disbeliever?

﴿They﴾ namely his parents ﴿seek Allah's help﴾ in dealing with him, and they say to him: ﴿Woe to you! Have faith﴾ that is, they do their utmost in trying hard to guide him, to the extent that – in their keenness for him to be guided – they seek the help of Allah, like one who is drowning, asking Him in desperation, trying to convince their son and feeling sad for him, trying to explain the truth to him. Hence they say: ﴿for the promise of Allah is true﴾. Then they present whatever evidence they can to him.

But their son only increases in stubbornness, aversion, arrogance towards the truth, and speaking ill of it.

﴿But he says: This is nothing but tales of the ancients﴾ that is, it is only something that was transmitted from the books of the earlier generations; it is not from Allah, and Allah did not reveal it to His Messenger (ﷺ).

Everyone knows that Muhammad (ﷺ) was unlettered and could neither read nor write, and did not learn from anyone. So where did he learn it from? How could people produce something like this Qur'an, even if they came together to do so?

«Such are the ones» that is, the ones who are in this blameworthy state

«for whom the punishment becomes inevitable» that is, they deserved the punishment

«as happened to nations of jinn and men who came before them», who followed the path of disbelief and rejection. So these people will be included with them and will disappear in their midst.

«for indeed they are [all] losers» – loss means losing one's capital, for if a man loses his capital, it is more apt that he should lose the profits thereon. They have lost faith, and did not attain any bliss, nor were they safe from the punishment of hell.

«For all» that is, for both good people and evil people
 «there will be ranks according to their deeds» that is, for each one according to his level of good or evil. Their ranks in the hereafter will be according to their deeds. Hence Allah says: «so that [Allah] may pay them in full for their deeds, and no one will be wronged» by having anything added to their bad deeds or anything subtracted from their good deeds.

﴿وَيَوْمَ يُعْرَضُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا عَلَى النَّارِ أَذْهَبْتُمْ طَيِّبَاتِكُمْ فِي حَيَاتِكُمُ الدُّنْيَا وَاسْتَمْتَعْتُمْ بِهَا فَالْيَوْمَ تُجْزَوْنَ عَذَابَ الْهُونِ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَسْتَكْبِرُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ بِغَيْرِ الْحَقِّ وَإِذَا كُنْتُمْ فَتْسُقُونَ﴾

(سورة الأحقاف: ٢٠)

46:20. On the day when those who disbelieved are brought before the fire, [it will be said to them]: You had your share of good things in the life of the [previous] world, and you had your fill of pleasure. Today you will be recompensed with a humiliating punishment, because you behaved arrogantly on earth without justification and because you acted rebelliously.

Here Allah (ﷻ) mentions the state of the disbelievers when they are brought before the fire and rebuked and chastised. It will be said to them: «You had your share of good things in the life of the [previous] world», when you felt content with the world, were deceived by its pleasures and were pleased with its desires. Its good things distracted you from striving for your hereafter, and you enjoyed it in the manner of grazing animals. That was your share, and you have no share of the hereafter.

«Today you will be recompensed with a humiliating punishment» that is, a severe punishment that will humiliate you and expose you to shame, because you used to say of Allah that which was not true, for you used to attribute to Allah and to His decree the path of misguidance that you were following, but you were lying when you said that. «and because you acted rebelliously» and were too arrogant to obey Allah.

Thus they combined speaking words of falsehood, acting upon falsehood, telling lies against Allah by attributing their falsehood to Him, casting aspersions upon the truth and being too arrogant to follow it. So they will be given the most severe of punishments.

﴿وَأَذْكُرْ أَخَا عَادٍ إِذْ أَنْذَرَ قَوْمَهُ بِالْأَحْقَافِ وَقَدْ خَلَّتِ النَّذُرُ مِنْ بَيْنِ يَدَيْهِ وَمِنْ خَلْفِهِ ۖ أَلَّا تَعْبُدُوا إِلَّا اللَّهَ إِنِّي أَخَافُ عَلَيْكُمْ عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ عَظِيمٍ﴾ (١١) قَالُوا أَجِئْتَنَا لِنَأْفِكَا عَنْ آلِهَتِنَا فَأْتِنَا بِمَا تَعِدُنَا إِنْ كُنْتَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ﴿١٢﴾ قَالَ إِنَّمَا أَعِظُكُمْ عَنِ اللَّهِ وَأُبَلِّغُكُمْ مَا

أَرْسَلْتُ بِهِ وَلَكِنِّي أَرَىٰكُمْ قَوْمًا يَجْهَلُونَ ﴿٢١﴾ فَلَمَّا رَأَوْهُ عَارِضًا مُّسْتَقْبِلَ أَوْدِيَّتِهِمْ
 قَالُوا هَذَا عَارِضٌ مُّطْرًا بَلْ هُوَ مَا اسْتَعْجَلْتُمْ بِهِ رِيحٌ فِيهَا عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ﴿٢٢﴾ تَذَرِكُلَّ
 شَيْءٍ بِأَمْرِ رَبِّهَا فَأَصْبَحُوا لَا بَرَىٰ إِلَّا مَسْكِنُهُمْ كَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي الْقَوْمَ الْمُجْرِمِينَ ﴿٢٣﴾
 وَلَقَدْ مَكَنَّهُمْ فِيهَا إِن مَّكَنَّكُمْ فِيهِ وَجَعَلْنَا لَهُمْ سَمْعًا وَأَبْصَرًا وَأَفْئِدَةً فَمَا أَغْنَىٰ
 عَنْهُمْ سَمْعُهُمْ وَلَا أَبْصَرُهُمْ وَلَا أَفْئِدَتُهُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ إِذْ كَانُوا يَجْحَدُونَ بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ
 وَحَاقَّ بِهِمْ مَا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِئُونَ ﴿٢٤﴾ ﴿سورة الأحقاف: ٢١-٢٦﴾

- 46:21. Remember the brother of 'Âd [namely Hood], when he warned his people in [the land of] al-Ahqâf – and indeed there came warners before him and after him – [saying]: Do not worship any but Allah. Verily I fear for you the punishment of a momentous day.
- 46:22. They said: Have you come to lure us away from our gods? Bring us that with which you are threatening us, if you are telling the truth.
- 46:23. He said: Knowledge [of when it will come] is only with Allah. I only convey to you the message with which I have been sent. But I see that you are ignorant people.
- 46:24. When they saw it [the punishment] as a cloud approaching their valleys, they said: This is a cloud bringing us rain. [Hood said:] Nay; rather it is that which you sought to hasten – a wind bearing a painful punishment.
- 46:25. It will destroy everything by the command of its Lord. And they became such that there was nothing left to be seen except their [empty] dwellings. Thus We requite the evildoers.
- 46:26. We gave them power [and prosperity] to an extent to which We did not give it to you [O Quraysh], and We gave them hearing, sight and intellect. But neither their hearing nor their sight nor their intellect was of any avail to them, for they used to reject the signs of Allah. And the very thing [punishment] they used to ridicule overwhelmed them.

«Remember» that is, by way of praise
 «the brother of 'Ād [namely Hood]» (هُودٌ), who was one of the noble Messengers whom Allah (ﷻ) blessed by making them callers to His religion who guided people towards Him.

«when he warned his people» namely 'Ād «in [the land of] al-Aḥqāf» that is, in their dwellings that were known as al-aḥqāf, a word which refers to an area where there is a great deal of sand, in the land of Yemen.

«and indeed there came warners before him and after him» so he was not the first among them and was no different from them. He said to them: «Do not worship any but Allah. Verily I fear for you the punishment of a momentous day».

Thus he instructed them to worship Allah, which includes all good words and praiseworthy deeds. And he forbade them to ascribe partners to Allah or make others equal to Him. And he warned them, if they did not obey him, of the severe punishment. But this call was to no avail in their case.

«They said: Have you come to lure us away from our gods?» That is, you have no other aim, and there is no truth in what you say. You are envying us for what we have of gods and you want to turn us away from them.

«Bring us that with which you are threatening us, if you are telling the truth» – this is the utmost ignorance and stubbornness.

«He said: Knowledge [of when it will come] is only with Allah» for it is He in Whose Hand is control of all things, and it is He Who will bring you the punishment if He so wills.

«I only convey to you the message with which I have been sent» that is, my only responsibility is to convey the message clearly.

«But I see that you are ignorant people», therefore you did what you did of showing extreme audacity.

So Allah sent against them the severe punishment, namely the wind that destroyed them utterly.

Hence He says: ﴿When they saw it [the punishment] as a cloud approaching their valleys﴾ that is, it appeared like a cloud that came towards their valleys, that would provide water with which they would irrigate their land and drink from their wells and streams
 ﴿they said﴾ optimistically: ﴿This is a cloud bringing us rain﴾ that is, this cloud will give us rain.

﴿[Hood said:] Nay; rather it is that which you sought to hasten﴾ that is, this is what you have brought upon yourselves when you said: ﴿Bring us that with which you are threatening us, if you are telling the truth﴾ (46: 22).

﴿a wind bearing a painful punishment. It will destroy everything﴾ that it passes over, because of its intensity and destructive power. Allah sent it against them:

﴿...for seven nights and eight days in succession, so that you would have seen the people lying lifeless as if they were the trunks of fallen palm trees.﴾ (al-Hâqqah 69: 7)

– ﴿by the command of its Lord﴾ that is, by His leave and His will.

﴿And they became such that there was nothing left to be seen except their [empty] dwellings﴾ that is, their flocks, their wealth and they themselves were destroyed.

﴿Thus We requite the evildoers﴾ because of their sin and wrongdoing.

Although Allah (ﷻ) had bestowed great blessings upon them, they did not give thanks to Him or remember Him. Hence He says: ﴿We gave them power [and prosperity] to an extent to which We did not give it to you [O Quraysh]﴾ that is, We gave them power (and prosperity) in the land, so they were helping themselves to its good things and enjoying its pleasures. We made their lives long enough for anyone who might reflect and pay heed to do so (cf. 35: 37), and for anyone who might be guided to follow guidance. In other words,

We gave 'Ad power and prosperity more than We have given to you (O Quraysh), so do not think that what We have bestowed upon you has never been given to anyone else, or that it will protect you from the punishment of Allah at all. Rather others were given more power and prosperity than you, but their wealth, sons and troops did not avail them before Allah in the slightest.

﴿and We gave them hearing, sight and intellect﴾ that is, there was no shortcoming in their hearing, sight or intellect, such that it could be said that they neglected the truth out of ignorance and were unable to learn about it. There was nothing wrong with their reasoning, but guidance is in the Hand of Allah.

﴿But neither their hearing nor their sight nor their intellect was of any avail to them﴾ at all.

That is because they ﴿used to reject the signs of Allah﴾ that pointed to His oneness and indicated that He alone is to be worshipped.

﴿And the very thing [punishment] they used to ridicule overwhelmed them﴾ that is, there befell them the punishment that they denied would happen, and they ridiculed the Messengers who warned them of it.

﴿وَلَقَدْ أَهَلَكْنَا مَا حَوْلَكُمْ مِنَ الْقَرْيِ وَصَرَفْنَا الْآيَاتِ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُونَ ﴿٢٧﴾ فَلَوْلَا نَصْرُهُمُ الَّذِينَ اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ قُرْبَانًا آلِهَةً بَلْ صَلَّوْا عَنْهُمْ وَذَلِكَ إِفْكُهُمْ وَمَا كَانُوا يَفْقَهُونَ ﴿٢٨﴾﴾ (سورة الأحقاف: ٢٧-٢٨)

46:27. Indeed We destroyed the cities that were around you [O Quraysh], having given them a variety of signs, so that they might turn back [from their evil ways].

46:28. Why then was no help forthcoming to them from those whom they took as gods besides Allah so that they might bring them closer to Him? Nay, they were lost from them; such was the outcome of their lie and the fabrication they used to invent.

Here Allah (ﷻ) warns the polytheist Arabs and others by mentioning the destruction of the disbelieving nations who had lived around their land; in fact many of them had lived in the Arabian Peninsula itself, such as 'Âd, Thamood and others. Allah (ﷻ) sent various signs to them, of different types, ﴿so that they might turn back [from their evil ways]﴾ that is, so that they might give up their ways of disbelief and rejection.

But because they did not believe, Allah seized them with the vehement grip of One Who is Almighty, Omnipotent (cf. 54: 42), and their gods upon whom they called besides Allah did not help them in the slightest. Hence Allah says here: ﴿Why then was no help forthcoming to them from those whom they took as gods besides Allah so that they might bring them closer to Him﴾ and because they hoped that they would benefit them?

﴿Nay, they were lost from them﴾, so they did not respond to them or protect them.

﴿such was the outcome of their lie and the fabrication they used to invent﴾ by way of wishful thinking, as they claimed that they were following the truth and that their deeds would benefit them, but they came to nought.

﴿وَإِذْ صَرَفْنَا إِلَيْكَ نَفَرًا مِّنَ الْجِنِّ يَسْتَمِعُونَ الْقُرْآنَ فَلَمَّا حَضَرُوهُ قَالُوا أَنصِتُوا
فَلَمَّا قُضِيَ وَلَّوْا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِمْ مُّنْذِرِينَ ﴿١٩﴾ قَالُوا يَنْقُومُنَا إِنَّا سَمِعْنَا كِتَابًا أُنزِلَ مِن
بَعْدِ مُوسَىٰ مُصَدِّقًا لِّمَا بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ يَهْدِي إِلَى الْحَقِّ وَإِلَى طَرِيقٍ مُّسْتَقِيمٍ ﴿٢٠﴾ يَنْقُومُنَا
أَجِيبُوا دَاعِيَ اللَّهِ وَءَامِنُوا بِهِ يَغْفِرَ لَكُمْ مِّن ذُنُوبِكُمْ وَيُخْرِجَكُمْ مِّنْ عَذَابِ آلِيمٍ ﴿٢١﴾﴾

وَمَنْ لَا يُحِبَّ دَاعِيَ اللَّهِ فَلَيْسَ بِمُعْجِزٍ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَيْسَ لَهُ مِنْ دُونِهِ أَوْلِيَاءُ أُولَئِكَ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُبِينٍ ﴿٣٢﴾ (سورة الأحقاف: ٢٩-٣٢)

- 46:29. And [remember] when We sent a group of jinn to you, to listen to the Qur'an. When they were close enough to hear it, they said [to one another]: Listen attentively. And when [the recitation] was over, they went back to their people to warn them.
- 46:30. They said: O our people, verily we have heard [recitation from] a Book that has been revealed after Moosâ, confirming that which came before it, guiding to the truth and to a straight path.
- 46:31. O our people, respond to the one who is calling to Allah, and believe in him, so that Allah may forgive you some of your sins and protect you from a painful punishment.
- 46:32. And whoever does not respond to the one who is calling to Allah can never escape [Allah's punishment] on earth, and besides Him he has no protectors. Such people are clearly misguided.

Allah (ﷻ) sent His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ) to all of creation, both humans and jinn, and he had to convey to all the message of his prophethood.

As for humans, he was able to call them and warn them. As for the jinn, Allah sent them to him by His might; He sent to him ﴿a group of jinn ... to listen to the Qur'an. When they were close enough to hear it, they said [to one another]: Listen attentively﴾ that is, they urged one another to listen attentively.

﴿And when [the recitation] was over﴾ and they had understood it and it had had an impact on them,

﴿they went back to their people to warn them﴾ out of sincerity towards them and so as to establish the proof of Allah against them. Allah made them a help to His Messenger (ﷺ) in spreading His call among the jinn.

«They said: O our people, verily we have heard [recitation from] a Book that has been revealed after Moosâ» because the Book of Moosâ was the basis for the Gospel, and it was the main reference for the Children of Israel with regard to religious rulings; as for the Gospel, it complemented and completed the Book of Moosâ, and changed a few rulings.

«confirming that which came before it» namely the Book that we have mentioned confirms that which came before it

«guiding to the truth» that is, leading to what is sound and correct in terms of teachings and stories

«and to a straight path» that is, it leads to Allah and to His paradise, based on knowledge of Allah and of His religious rulings and rulings that have to do with requital in the hereafter.

Having praised the Qur'an and highlighted its sublime status, they then called their fellow jinn to believe in it, saying: «O our people, respond to the one who is calling to Allah» that is, the one who is not calling to any but his Lord. He is not calling you for some ulterior motive, or on the basis of his own whims and desires; rather he is calling you to your Lord, so that He may reward you and remove from you all evils and harms. Hence they said: «so that Allah may forgive you some of your sins and protect you from a painful punishment». For if He protects you from the painful punishment, there can be nothing after that but bliss. This is the reward of those who respond to the one who is calling to Allah.

«And whoever does not respond to the one who is calling to Allah can never escape [Allah's punishment] on earth» for Allah has power over all things, so no one can escape Him or overcome Him.

«and besides Him he has no protectors. Such people are clearly misguided» and what misguidance can be greater than that of one whom the Messengers call, and the warning reaches him on the basis of clear signs and abundant proof, but he turns away and is too arrogant to pay heed?

(سورة الأحقاف: ٣٣)

سورة الأحقاف: (٣٤-٣٥)

than an hour of a day. This [Qur'an] is sufficient reminder. Will any, then, be doomed but the rebellious and wicked people?

Here Allah (ﷻ) tells us of the terrible situation of the disbelievers when they will be brought to the fire that they disbelieved in; they will be rebuked and it will be said to them: ﴿Is this not the truth?﴾ Here it is before you; you can see it with your own eyes.

﴿They will say: Yes indeed, by our Lord﴾ – they will acknowledge their sin and their lies (namely their denial of the punishment) will become apparent.

﴿He will say: Taste then the punishment for having disbelieved﴾ that is, an eternal, everlasting punishment, as your disbelief was a constant and well-entrenched characteristic of yours.

Then Allah (ﷻ) instructs His Messenger (ﷺ) to be patient in putting up with the harm of the disbelievers who opposed him, and to keep calling them to Allah, emulating the patience of the Messengers of firm resolve and leaders of humankind, men of high ambition whose patience was immense and whose faith was perfect, for they are most deserving of being taken as examples, to follow in their footsteps and be guided by their beacon.

The Prophet (ﷺ) obeyed the command of his Lord, and was patient as no Prophet before him had ever been. His opponents united against him and all strove hard to divert him from calling people to Allah, doing their utmost to oppose him and fight him. But he persisted in obeying the command of Allah, and never wearied of striving against the enemies of Allah, bearing with patience whatever harm he faced, until Allah granted him victory in the land and caused His religion to prevail over all others, and his Ummah to prevail over all other nations. May the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him.

﴿and do not seek to hasten [the punishment] for them﴾ that is, these disbelievers who seek to hasten the punishment for themselves, for that stems from ignorance and foolishness on their part. Do not let their ignorance discourage you, and do not let what you see of them seeking to hasten the punishment lead you to pray to Allah against them to hasten it for them, for everything that is coming is imminent, and when it comes ﴿it will be as if they had not remained [in this world] for longer than an hour of a day﴾. So do not be upset by the little enjoyment that they have in this world, when they will end up facing a terrible punishment.

This mighty Qur'an, in which We have explained the message perfectly, is enough for you, and it is sufficient provision for you during your journey to the hereafter. What a good provision it is, that will help you to reach the realm of joy and protect you from the painful punishment. It is the best provision that Allah has granted to people, and the greatest blessing that He has bestowed upon them.

﴿Will any, then, be doomed﴾ to punishment ﴿but the rebellious and wicked people?﴾ That is, those in whom there is nothing good, for they refused to obey their Lord, and they did not accept the truth that the Messengers brought to them. Allah warned them and left them with no excuse, but they persisted in their rejection and disbelief. We ask Allah to protect us.

This is the end of the commentary on Soorat al-Ahqâf.

All praise and thanks are for Allah, and may the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), his family, and his Companions abundantly until the Day of Judgement.

47.

Soorat Muhammad

(Madani)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

*In the name of Allah,
the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful*

﴿الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَصَدُّوا عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ أَضَلَّ اللَّهُ أَعْمَالَهُمْ﴾ ۝ وَالَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
وَءَامَنُوا بِمَا نُزِّلَ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَهُوَ الْحَقُّ مِنْ رَبِّهِمْ كَفَّرَ عَنْهُمْ سَيِّئَاتِهِمْ وَأَصْلَحَ بَالَهُمْ ۝ ذَلِكَ
يَنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا اتَّبَعُوا الْبَاطِلَ وَأَنَّ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا اتَّبَعُوا الْحَقَّ مِنْ رَبِّهِمْ كَذَلِكَ يَضْرِبُ اللَّهُ لِلنَّاسِ
أَمْثَلَهُمْ ﴿٢﴾ ﴿سورة محمد: ١-٣﴾

- 47:1. Those who disbelieve and bar others from the path of Allah, He will cause their deeds to come to naught.
- 47:2. Those who believe and do righteous deeds, and believe in that which was sent down to Muhammad – for it is the truth from their Lord – He will absolve them of their bad deeds and rectify their condition.
- 47:3. That is because those who disbelieve follow falsehood and those who believe follow the truth from their Lord. Thus does Allah set forth for humankind their comparisons.

These verses include mention of the reward of the believers and the punishment of the sinners, the reason for that, and the call to humankind to learn lessons from that. Allah says:

﴿Those who disbelieve and bar others from the path of Allah﴾ – this refers to the leaders of disbelief and misguidance, who combine disbelief in Allah and His signs with barring themselves and others from the path of Allah, which means believing in and following that to which the Messengers called.

﴿He﴾ namely Allah ﴿will cause their deeds to come to naught﴾ that is, He will render them invalid and cause their doom because of them. This includes their efforts to oppose the truth and the close friends of Allah. Allah will cause their schemes to backfire, so they will not attain any of their goals. As for the deeds for which they hoped to be rewarded, Allah will cause them to come to naught. The reason for that is that they followed falsehood. That includes every effort that is not made for the sake of Allah, such as worshipping idols and images, and efforts that are put into supporting falsehood, because such aims are invalid, and any deeds done for their sake are also invalid.

As for ﴿Those who believe﴾ in what Allah sent down to His Messengers in general, and to Muhammad (ﷺ) in particular, ﴿and do righteous deeds﴾ by doing what is required of duties towards Allah and towards people, both obligatory and recommended, ﴿He﴾ that is, Allah ﴿will absolve them of their bad deeds﴾ both minor and major, and if their bad deeds are absolved, they will be safe from punishment in this world and the hereafter ﴿and rectify their condition﴾ that is, He will rectify their religious and worldly affairs, rectify their hearts and deeds, and rectify all their affairs. The reason for that is that they ﴿follow the truth from their Lord﴾ which is contained in this mighty Qur'an, that comes ﴿from their Lord﴾ Who has been caring for them by means of what He bestows of blessings, and managing their affairs by means of His kindness, so He cares for them by guiding them to the path of truth, which they follow, and thus their affairs are rectified.

As their goal is connected to the truth, that is attributed to Allah the Eternal, the Manifest Truth, their means of achieving that is sound and eternal, and the reward for that will be stored up for them.

﴿Thus does Allah set forth for humankind their comparisons﴾ as He explains to them who the good people and evil people are, and gives for each a description by which they may be recognised and distinguished from others,

﴿...so that those who chose to perish [by choosing disbelief] might do so after seeing clear evidence, and those who chose to live [by choosing faith] might do so after seeing clear evidence...﴾ (al-Anfāl 8: 42)

﴿فَإِذَا لَقِيتُمُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فَضَرْبَ الرِّقَابِ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا أَثْخَسْتُمُوهُمْ فَشُدُّوا الْوَتَانَ فِيمَا مَنَّا بَعْدَ وَمَا
فِدَاءٌ حَتَّىٰ تَضَعَ الْحَرْبُ أَوْزَارَهَا ذَٰلِكَ وَلَوْ يَشَاءُ اللَّهُ لَانْتَصَرَ مِنْهُمْ وَلَكِنْ لِيَبْلُوَ بَعْضَكُمْ بِبَعْضٍ
وَالَّذِينَ قُتِلُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ فَلَن يُضِلَّ أَعْمَالَهُمْ ﴿٤٦﴾ سَيَجْزِيهِمْ وَصْلِهِمُ بِالْمَنَىٰ ﴿٤٧﴾ وَيُدْخِلُهُمْ
الْجَنَّةَ عَرَفَهَا هُمْ ﴿٤٨﴾﴾ (سورة محمد: ٤-٦)

47:4. When you meet the disbelievers [in battle], strike their necks until, when you have thoroughly subdued them, then bind the captives firmly – then after that [you may release them], either as an act of grace or in return for a ransom – until the war ends. Thus [are you commanded]. If Allah had so willed, He could have exacted retribution upon them [without you fighting], but He [commands you to fight] in order to test some of you by means of others. For those who are slain in Allah's cause, He will never allow their deeds to come to naught.

47:5. He will guide them and rectify their condition,

47:6. and will admit them to paradise, which He has already made known to them.

Here Allah (ﷻ) says, guiding His slaves to that which is in their best interests and supporting them against their enemies:

﴿When you meet the disbelievers [in battle]﴾ then be steadfast in fighting them, and strike their necks, until you have thoroughly subdued them, weakened their resolve and broken their spirit. Then when you have done that and you think it is more appropriate to take prisoners than to kill, ﴿then bind the captives firmly﴾. This is a precaution lest the captives run away; if they are bound firmly, then the Muslims will be reassured that they will not flee, and will not harm them.

Once they are your prisoners, then you have the choice between doing an act of grace towards them by letting them go without payment of a ransom, or ransoming them by not releasing them until they have bought their freedom, or their companions have done so, or they are exchanged for Muslim prisoners held by the enemy.

This should continue ﴿until the war ends﴾ that is, until there is no more fighting, and you reach a peace deal or truce. For every situation there is a different attitude and different rulings. The rulings mentioned in this verse have to do with situations of war.

But sometimes there is no war, and if there is no war for some reason, then there is no fighting and no taking of prisoners.

﴿Thus [are you commanded]﴾ that is, the ruling mentioned above is for the purpose of testing the believers by means of the disbelievers, and to make fortunes and victories alternate between them.

﴿If Allah had so willed, He could have exacted retribution upon them [without you fighting]﴾, for He has power over all things and is able to never let the disbelievers be victorious over the Muslims in any place, until the Muslims completely defeat them.

﴿but He [commands you to fight] in order to test some of you by means of others﴾ so that jihad will flourish and it will become clear who is sincere and who is lying, and so that some people will believe sincerely on the basis of understanding, not on the basis of following the group that has the upper hand, for such faith is very weak and can hardly survive trials and tests.

﴿For those who are slain in Allah's cause﴾ there is a great reward, for they are the ones who fought those who they were commanded to fight, so that the word of Allah may be supreme. Allah will never let the deeds of such people go to waste. In other words, He will not let them come to naught and be invalid; rather He will accept them, cause their reward to grow, and show the outcome of their deeds in this world and the hereafter.

﴿He will guide them﴾ to follow the path that leads to paradise ﴿and rectify their condition﴾ that is, their condition, their affairs and their reward will all be complete and sound, with no stress and nothing to spoil it in any way whatsoever.

﴿and will admit them to paradise, which He has already made known to them﴾ that is, He made it known first of all to make them long for it; He described it to them and told them the deeds that lead to it, one of which is fighting in His cause, and He enabled them to do what He commanded and urged them to do. Then when they enter paradise, He will show them their dwellings and what they contain of eternal bliss and sound living.

﴿يَتَأْتِيهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا إِن تَنصُرُوا اللَّهَ يَنصُرْكُمْ وَيُثَبِّتْ أَقْدَامَكُمْ ۝ (٧) وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فَتَعْسًا لَهُمْ وَأَصَلَ أَعْمَلُهُمْ ۝ (٨) ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ كَرِهُوا مَا أُنْزِلَ اللَّهُ فَاحْبَطُوا أَعْمَلَهُمْ ۝ (٩)﴾ (سورة محمد:

- 47:7. O you who believe, if you help Allah's cause, He will help you and steady your footsteps.
- 47:8. As for those who disbelieve, how wretched they are. Allah will cause their deeds to come to naught.
- 47:9. That is because they resent that which Allah has sent down, so He will cause their deeds to come to nothing.

This is a command from Allah (ﷻ) to the believers, instructing them to support His cause by adhering to His religion, calling others to Him, striving against His enemies, seeking thereby the pleasure of Allah. If they do that, Allah will help them and steady their footsteps. In other words, He will instil in their hearts patience, reassurance and steadfastness, He will give them physical endurance and help them against their enemies.

This is a promise from One Who is generous and true in His promise, that whoever supports His cause in word and deed, his Lord will support him and grant him the means of victory, such as steadfastness and the like.

As for those who disbelieve in their Lord and support falsehood, they are in a wretched state; that is, their affairs are in decline and doomed to failure.

«Allah will cause their deeds to come to naught» that is, He will render invalid their efforts to plot against the truth, so their schemes will backfire on them, and the deeds which they claim to do for the sake of Allah will come to naught.

That misguidance and wretchedness is for those who disbelieve, because «they resent that which Allah has sent down» of the Qur'an, which Allah sent down to show people the path of righteousness and prosperity. But they did not accept it; rather they hated it and resented it, «so He will cause their deeds to come to nothing».

﴿ أَفَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرُوا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ دَمَّرَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلِلْكَافِرِينَ أَمْثَلُهَا ﴾ (١٠) ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّ اللَّهَ مَوْلَى الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا وَأَنَّ الْكَافِرِينَ لَا مَوْلَى لَهُمْ ﴿١١﴾

(سورة محمد: ١٠-١١)

- 47:10. Have they not travelled in the land and seen what was the fate of those who came before them? Allah destroyed them utterly, and a similar fate awaits those who disbelieve.
- 47:11. That is because Allah is the Protector of those who believe, whereas the disbelievers have no protector.

That is, have these people who reject the Messenger (ﷺ) not travelled and seen what was the fate of those who came before them? For they will not find that anything befell them but the worst of fates. Wherever they turn, right or left, they will find around them people who perished and were doomed and eradicated because of their rejection of the truth and their disbelief. So they became lifeless, and Allah destroyed their property and homes around them; in fact He destroyed their efforts and plots. The disbelievers in every time and place will have similar bad consequences and terrible punishments.

As for the believers, Allah (ﷻ) will save them from punishment and bestow upon them a great reward.

«That is because Allah is the Protector of those who believe», so He cares for them and shows them mercy, bringing them forth from the depths of darkness to light, rewarding them and supporting them Himself.

«whereas the disbelievers» who disbelieve in Allah (ﷻ) and deprive themselves of divine protection and mercy «have no protector» to guide them to the paths of peace or save them from the wrath and punishment of Allah. In fact their protectors are the false gods; from light they will lead them forth into the depths of darkness. They will be inhabitants of the fire; they will abide therein forever (cf. 2: 257).

﴿إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَدْخِلُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا يَتَنَبَّهُونَ وَيُكُلُونَ كَمَا تَأْكُلُ الْأَنْعَامُ وَالنَّارُ مَطْوًى لَهُمْ﴾ (سورة محمد: ١٢)

47:12. Verily Allah will admit those who believe and do righteous deeds to gardens through which rivers flow. As for those who disbelieve, they are taking their pleasure [in this world] and they eat as cattle eat; the fire will be their abode.

Having stated that He is the protector of the believers, Allah (ﷻ) now tells us what will happen to them in the hereafter, of admittance to gardens through which rivers flow, which irrigate those verdant gardens and beautiful trees that bear all kinds of delicious fruit.

Having stated that the disbelievers have no protector, Allah now tells us that they are left to their own devices, so they do not have any qualities of dignity or humanity; rather they have sunk to the level of cattle that possess no reason or virtue, and all they care about and seek is enjoyment of worldly pleasures and desires. So you see that all their thoughts and activities are focused on such matters, and do not go beyond them to that in which there could be some goodness and happiness. Hence the fire will be their abode; that is, it is prepared for them and they will never leave it, and their punishment will never be alleviated.

﴿وَكَايْنٍ مِنْ قَرْيَةٍ هِيَ أَشَدُّ قُوَّةً مِنْ قَرْيَتِكَ الَّتِي أَخْرَجْنَاكَ أَهْلَكْنَاهُمْ فَلَا نَاصِرَ لَهُمْ﴾ (سورة محمد: ١٣)

(سورة محمد: ١٣)

47:13. How many cities there were, that were more powerful than your city which has expelled you. Yet We destroyed them and there was none to help them.

That is, how many cities of the disbelievers there were that were more powerful than your city in terms of wealth, sons, helpers, buildings and technology.

﴿Yet We destroyed them﴾ when they rejected Our Messengers, and when exhortation proved to be of no avail in their case. And there was none to help them; their strength did not avail them at all against the punishment of Allah.

So how about these weak people, the people of your city, when they expelled you from your homeland, rejected you and opposed you at the time when you are the best of the Messengers, the best of the first and the last?

Are they not more deserving than others of doom and punishment, were it not for the fact that Allah sent His Messenger (ﷺ) to show mercy towards every disbeliever and not be hasty (in seeking their punishment)?

﴿أَفَمَنْ كَانَ عَلَىٰ يَتْنٍ مِّنْ رَبِّهِ كَمَنْ زُيِّنَ لَهُ سُوءُ عَمَلِهِ وَاتَّبَعُوا أَهْوَاءَهُمْ﴾ (سورة محمد: ١٤)

(١٤)

47:14. Is one who possesses clear proof from his Lord like one whose evil deeds are made fair-seeming to him or those who follow their own whims and desires?

That is, they are not equal. One who clearly understands his religion and acts upon it by learning about the truth and following it, hoping for what Allah has promised to those who follow the truth, is not like one who is spiritually blind and has rejected the truth, gone astray and followed his whims and desires, with no guidance from Allah, yet he thinks that what he is following is true. How great is the difference between the two groups, the followers of truth and the followers of misguidance!

﴿مَثَلُ الْجَنَّةِ الَّتِي وُعدَ الْمُتَّقُونَ فِيهَا أَنْهَارٌ مِنْ مَاءٍ غَيْرِ آسِنٍ وَأَنْهَارٌ مِنْ لَبَنٍ لَمْ يَتَغَيَّرَ طَعْمُهُ وَأَنْهَارٌ مِنْ خَمْرٍ لَذَّةٍ لِلشَّارِبِينَ وَأَنْهَارٌ مِنْ عَسَلٍ مُصَفًّى وَلَمْ يَكُن فِيهَا مِنْ كُلِّ الثَّمَرَاتِ وَمَغْفِرَةٌ مِّن رَّبِّهِمْ كَمَنْ هُوَ خَالِدٌ فِي النَّارِ وَسُقُوا مَاءً حَمِيمًا فَقَطَّعَ أَمْعَاءُهُمْ﴾ (سورة محمد: ١٥)

47:15. The likeness of paradise, which the righteous are promised, [is that of a garden] in which there are rivers of water forever fresh; rivers of milk of which the taste never changes; rivers of wine, delightful to those who drink it; and rivers of honey, pure and clear. There they will have all kinds of fruit and forgiveness from their Lord. Can they be like those who will abide forever in the fire and be given scalding water to drink that will tear their intestines?

That is, the likeness of paradise, which Allah has prepared for His slaves who feared His wrath and sought His pleasure, is a beautiful likeness.

﴿in which there are rivers of water forever fresh﴾ that is, it never changes, becomes stagnant, develops a foul smell, or becomes bitter or murky. Rather it is the freshest and purest of water, with the best fragrance and most delicious taste.

﴿rivers of milk of which the taste never changes﴾ by turning sour or otherwise «rivers of wine, delightful to those who drink it» that is, the one who drinks it enjoys it very much. It is not like the wine of this world that tastes bad, causes headache and makes people lose their minds.

«and rivers of honey, pure and clear», free of wax and other dirt.

«There they will have all kinds of fruit» such as dates, grapes, apples, pomegranates, citrons, figs and other fruits that have no equal in this world. They will have attained all that they wanted and that was dear to them.

«and forgiveness from their Lord» by means of which all that they fear will be kept away from them. Are they better, or those who will abide forever in the fire, with its intense heat and multiple punishments, where they will «be given scalding» that is, intensely hot «water to drink that will tear their intestines»?

Glory be to the One Who has differentiated between the two abodes, the two recompenses, the two types of people and the two types of deeds.

﴿وَمِنْهُمْ مَّن يَسْتَمِعُ إِلَيْكَ حَتَّىٰ إِذَا خَرَجُوا مِنْ عِنْدِكَ قَالُوا لِلَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ مَاذَا قَالَ آنِفًا ؕ أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ طَبَعَ اللَّهُ عَلَىٰ قُلُوبِهِمْ وَاتَّبَعُوا أَهْوَاءَهُمْ ۚ وَالَّذِينَ اهْتَدَوْا زَادَهُمْ هُدًى وَآيَاتِهِمْ نَقُولُهُمْ ۖ﴾ (سورة محمد: ١٦-١٧)

47:16. Among them are some who listen to you [O Muhammad], but when they leave your presence, they say to those who have been given knowledge: What did he say just now? These are the ones whose hearts Allah has sealed up and they follow their own whims and desires.

47:17. But as for those who follow guidance, Allah increases them in guidance and instils in them righteousness.

Here Allah tells us that among the hypocrites ﴿are some who listen to you [O Muhammad]﴾ that is, they listen to what you say, but it is not by way of accepting and following; rather they are not really paying attention. Hence Allah says: ﴿but when they leave your presence, they say to those who have been given knowledge﴾, asking about what you said and what they heard, that they had no real interest in: ﴿What did he say just now?﴾

This is a criticism of them, for if they had really been eager to attain good, they would have listened attentively and with understanding, and they would have complied with it. But their attitude is the opposite of that, hence Allah says: ﴿These are the ones whose hearts Allah has sealed up﴾ that is, He has barred to them the goodness that could have reached their hearts, because they followed their whims and desires and had no inclination except towards falsehood.

Then He describes those who follow guidance: ﴿But as for those who follow guidance﴾ by believing, submitting and seeking that which is pleasing to Allah ﴿Allah increases them in guidance﴾, in appreciation of their doing that ﴿and instils in them righteousness﴾ that is, He enables them to do good and protects them from evil. Therefore He mentions two rewards for those who are guided: beneficial knowledge and righteous deeds.

﴿فَهَلْ يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَّا السَّاعَةَ أَنْ تَأْتِيَهُمْ بَغْتَةً فَقَدْ جَاءَ أَشْرَاطُهَا فَأَنَّى لَهُمْ إِذَا جَاءَهُمْ ذِكْرُهُمْ﴾ (سورة محمد: ١٨)

47:18. What are they waiting for, but for the Hour to come upon them suddenly? Its portents have already appeared, so what good will it do them to pay heed when it has actually come upon them?

That is, are these disbelievers waiting for anything ﴿but for the Hour to come upon them suddenly﴾, without them realising?

﴿Its portents﴾ that is, its signs which indicate that it is at hand ﴿have already appeared﴾.

﴿so what good will it do them to pay heed﴾ that is, when the Hour comes and their lifespan is over, how can they pay heed to it and mend their ways? It will be too late for that; the time for paying heed will be over, and their lives will have been long enough for anyone who might reflect and pay heed to do so, as the warner did indeed come to them.

This verse urges people to be prepared before death comes suddenly, for a person's death is the beginning of the Hour for him.

﴿فَاعْلَمْ أَنَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَاسْتَغْفِرْ لِذَنبِكَ وَلِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ ۗ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ مُتَقَلَّبَكُمْ وَمَثْوَاكُمْ﴾ (سورة محمد: ١٩)

47:19. Know, then, that there is no god but Allah, and ask forgiveness for your sins and for [the sins of] believing men and women, for Allah knows your movements [during the day] and your places of rest [at night].

With regard to knowledge, it is essential to affirm it in the heart and understand properly what is required of knowledge, and the perfection thereof is to act in accordance with it.

This knowledge that Allah enjoins – namely knowledge of the oneness of Allah – is an individual obligation upon every human, and is not waived for anyone, no matter who he is. Rather each individual is obliged to know that, and the way to know that there is no god but He is by doing the following:

- 1- The first and greatest way is reflecting upon His names and attributes, and His actions that highlight His perfection, greatness and majesty. That compels one to strive one's utmost in devotion to Him and in worshipping the Lord Who possesses perfect names and attributes and to Whom belong all praise, glory, majesty and beauty.
- 2- Knowing that He is the only Creator and controller. Thus one may know that He is the only One Who is deserving of devotion.
- 3- Knowing that He alone bestows blessings both visible and hidden, spiritual and worldly. That makes one's heart be attached to Him, love Him and be devoted to Him alone, with no partner or associate.
- 4- What we see and hear of the great reward for His close friends who affirm His oneness, of divine support and blessings in this world; and the punishment for His enemies who associate others with Him. This makes one realise that He alone is deserving of all worship.
- 5- Understanding the nature of the idols and rivals that are worshipped alongside Allah and taken as gods, for they are helpless in all aspects, inherently needy and have no power to benefit or harm themselves or their worshippers, or to cause death, give life or resurrect. They do not support those who worship them, and they do not benefit them in the slightest by bringing good or warding off evil. Knowing that leads to knowing that there is no god but Allah, and that all gods besides Him are false.
- 6- The Books of Allah are all agreed on that and they all stated it.
- 7- The elite of creation, who are the most perfect of people in attitude, mature thinking, wisdom, sound judgement and knowledge – namely the Messengers, Prophets and devout scholars – have testified that Allah is one.

- 8- Allah has established proofs in the universe and in people themselves that offer the greatest proof of His oneness and point towards that fact, because of what He has instilled in them of precise creation and what they reflect of brilliant wisdom and amazing design.

These are the ways through which Allah calls people to the message of lâ ilâha illâ Allâh, which He highlights repeatedly in His Book. When a person ponders some of them, he will inevitably develop certain faith and knowledge of that. So how about if he studies all of them, and they all point to His oneness and agree on that? The proofs of divine oneness come from all directions, then faith and knowledge of that become deeply rooted in the heart, so that they are like firm mountains that cannot be shaken by doubts or illusions, and they only increase and grow the more one comes across false ideas and specious arguments. Moreover, there is the greatest evidence and the most important matter – which is pondering this mighty Qur'an and reflecting on its verses – because it is the main gateway to learning about divine oneness, and through it one may learn what it says in detail and in general terms, that one cannot learn from any other source.

﴿and ask forgiveness for your sins﴾ that is, ask Allah for forgiveness for your sins, by taking measures that lead to forgiveness, such as repentance, praying for forgiveness, doing good deeds that erase sin, refraining from sin and forgiving others for any wrongs they have done to you.

﴿and﴾ seek forgiveness also ﴿for [the sins of] believing men and women﴾ for they – because of their faith – have rights over every Muslim man and woman.

One of those rights is that they should pray for them and seek forgiveness for their sins. If it is the case that the Prophet (ﷺ) is instructed to pray for them, which means asking for their sin to be removed and for them to be protected from the punishment thereof, it is implied that he is to show sincerity towards them, love good for them as he loves it for himself, hate evil for them as he hates it for himself, enjoin them to do that which is good for them and forbid them to do that which is harmful to them, overlook their shortcomings and faults, and be keen that they should be united and in harmony, and that all grudges between them should be removed that could lead to enmity and division that would increase them in sin.

﴿for Allah knows your movements [during the day]﴾ and your comings and goings

﴿and your places of rest [at night]﴾ where you settle, for He knows all about you and your movements, and He will requite you for that in full.

﴿وَيَقُولُ الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا لَوْلَا نُزِّلَتْ سُورَةٌ فَإِذَا أُنزِلَتْ سُورَةٌ مُحْكَمَةٌ وَذُكِرَ فِيهَا الْقِتَالُ رَأَيْتَ الَّذِينَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ مَرَضٌ يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَيْكَ نَظَرَ الْمَغْشِيِّ عَلَيْهِ مِنَ الْمَوْتِ فَأُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ ۖ طَاعَةٌ وَقَوْلٌ مَّعْرُوفٌ فَإِذَا عَزَمَ الْأَمْرُ فَلَوْ صَدَقُوا اللَّهَ لَكَانَ خَيْرًا لَهُمْ ۚ فَهَلْ عَسَيْتُمْ إِنْ تَوَلَّيْتُمْ أَنْ تُفْسِدُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَتُقَطِّعُوا أَرْحَامَكُمْ ۚ أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ لَعَنَهُمُ اللَّهُ فَأَصَمَّهُمْ وَأَعَمَّى أَبْصَارَهُمْ ۚ﴾ (سورة محمد: ٢٠-٢٣)

47:20. Those who believe say: If only a soorah were to be sent down [instructing us to fight]! But when an unambiguous soorah is sent down, in which fighting is mentioned, you see those in whose hearts is a disease staring fixedly at you like one who is about to die. So woe to them!

47:21. It is more appropriate for them to show obedience and speak honourable words. Once the matter is resolved upon [and fighting becomes obligatory], then if they are true to Allah, that will be better for them.

47:22. Then is it to be expected of you, if you turn away, that you will spread mischief in the land and sever your ties of kinship?

47:23. These are the ones whom Allah has cursed, and has made them deaf and has blinded their eyes.

«Those who believe say» in haste, showing eagerness to comply with tough and difficult commands: «If only a soorah were to be sent down [instructing us to fight]!»

«But when an unambiguous soorah is sent down», compliance with which is binding, «in which fighting is mentioned», which is the most difficult thing for people, those who are weak in faith cannot comply with the command. Hence Allah says: «you see those in whose hearts is a disease staring fixedly at you like one who is about to die» because they hate it and it is so difficult for them.

This is like the verse in which Allah (ﷻ) says:

«Have you not seen those to whom it was said: Restrain your hands [from fighting], establish prayer and give zakâh? But then when fighting was ordained for them, some of them feared men as much as they feared Allah or even more...» (an-Nisâ' 4: 77)

Then Allah (ﷻ) urges them to do that which is more appropriate to their situation, as He says:

